DR. OLIVER HOLMES DEAD.
Noted Author Passes Silently Over the Dark River of Death.

A LONG NOBLE LIFE AND CAREER ENDED.
Ex-Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania Also Now Numbered Among Our Honored Dead.

MORE NOTABLES PASS AWAY.
BEVERLY, Mass., Oct. 7.—Oliver Wendell Holmes died at his residence at Beverly farm this afternoon. His death occurred at 12:15 p. m. today from a complication of diseases. Dr. Holmes had been in feeble health for a long time. The last hours were passed quietly with the family by his bedside.

Oliver Wendell Holmes was born at Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 27, 1809. He graduated from Harvard college in 1829 and began the study of law, which he soon abandoned for that of medicine. After taking a degree on medicine he spent some time in hospitals in Paris and other European countries. In 1838 he was elected professor of anatomy and physiology in Dartmouth college and in 1847 was appointed to a similar professorship in the medical school of Harvard University, from which he retired in 1882.

But it was chiefly as a writer that he was known. As early as 1831 his contributions appeared in various periodicals and his reputation as a poet was established by the delivery of a metrical essay entitled "Poetry," which was followed by others in rapid succession. As a writer of songs and poems for festive occasions, he long occupied first place. He contributed largely to current medical literature as well as to literary journals and reviews and for a long time held a warm place in the hearts of the people as a lecturer. In later years he had been spent in quiet retirement at Beverly Fall farm, broken occasionally by lectures to Harvard students.

ANDREW G. CURTIN DEAD.
Prominent War-Time Governor of Pennsylvania Passes Away.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 7.—Ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin, aged eighty, died at 5 o'clock this morning. Old age combined with nervous trouble was the cause of death.

Ex-Governor Curtin early entered politics as a Whig, laboring for Harrison's election in 1840 and making a successful canvass of the state for Clay in 1844. While superintendent of the common schools he did much toward reforming and perfecting the school system of the state. In his annual report in 1855 he recommended to the legislature the establishment of normal schools and the suggestion was adopted. In 1860 Curtin was the Republican candidate for governor. The Democrats, though divided in national politics, were united in Pennsylvania, but Curtin was elected by a majority of 32,000. He advocated forcible suppression, and was one of the war governors who was most earnest in support of the national government.

He responded promptly to the first call for troops and when General Patterson, who was in command in Pennsylvania, asked for 25,000 more troops they were immediately furnished. Governor Curtin, entering in the efforts for the comfort of the soldiers, organized a system for the care and instruction of the children of those slain in battle, making them wards of the state. He thus became known in the ranks as the "soldiers' friend." He was re-elected governor and in 1869 was appointed minister to Russia by President Grant. He returned home in 1872, supported Greely for the presidency and subsequently joined the Democratic party, by which he was elected to congress for three successive terms. In recent years he lived a retired life in Bellefonte, where he was a conspicuous figure.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 7.—Governor Pattison issued a proclamation tonight expressing profound sorrow at the death of ex-Governor Curtin. He invoked for the bereaved the sympathy of the people of Pennsylvania and ordered all flags on public buildings to be displayed at half mast and the several departments of the state government be closed on the day of the funeral, which takes place next Wednesday afternoon. Governor Pattison and staff, Major Snowden and the commanders of the three brigades of the National Guard, together with the members of their respective staffs, will attend the funeral.
BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 7.—It has been decided at the urgent request of Governor Pattison to bury ex-Governor Curtin with military escort. Ex-Governor Beaver has charge of the arrangements of the funeral, which will be under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic.

PROF. SWING AT REST.
Services Held Where He Had Preached for Many Years.
CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The funeral services of the late Professor David Swing were held this afternoon in Central Music Hall, where he had preached for so many years. The services were attended by about three thousand people and fully as many more were unable to obtain admission.

BRITISH FINANCIER ARRESTED.
The Manager of an English Syndicate Comes to Grief.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Hubert E. Allen, a financier of Brighton, England, and manager of the Land & Property Investment syndicate of America with offices in Cannon street, London, was arrested and arraigned this morning in the Tombs police court. The arrest was made on a telegram from Chief of Police Johnson of Des Moines, Ia., charging Allen with obtaining $1,500 from Dr. B. Lyons of Des Moines on false pretenses. The company of which the defendant is manager was organized for the purpose of interesting English capitalists in American farm loans. Allen, who came here from Omaha two weeks ago, was about to sail for England. He characterized his arrest as an attempt to settle a civil matter by criminal proceedings. The amount he is charged with stealing was, he alleges, given him for preliminary expenses. No claim has been made on him by Lyons and his arrest was the first intimation he had of the latter's dissatisfaction. He will have a further examination tomorrow.

TALKED ON THE A. P. A.
Dr. McGlynn Speaks Before Many People in Rhode Island.

PROHIBITION PARK, R. I., Oct. 7.—Rev. Dr. McGlynn spoke before 35,000 people in the Auditorium here today. His subject was "The A. P. A., Its Causes and Cure." Dr. McGlynn said that he believed Catholics themselves were in a degree responsible for the existence of the American Protective association, pointing to the tendency of many Catholic priests to discuss some public questions with religious prejudices as one of the causes. He denounced the association by declaring it founded on unpatriotic and dishonorable principles and called on all Catholics to pay no attention to the movement. When Dr. McGlynn concluded his address Alfred N. Martin, who announced himself as the national deputy of the American Protective league, ascended the platform and said excitedly: "Dr. McGlynn is all wrong. The principles and teaching of the Catholic church are diametrically opposed to every American industry." The speaker got no further for his voice was drowned by hisses. Dr. McGlynn again took the platform and rebuked the Catholics for hissing, saying it was just such incidents as this which intensified the feeling aroused by the A. P. A.

WAS IT DOUBLE MURDER?
Husband and Wife Found With Bullet Holes in Their Bodies.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 7.—A mysterious murder and suicide, or what the authorities say may prove to be a double murder, occurred in this city this morning. John Tierney was found with a bullet hole in his right temple. His wife was lying near him with a bullet hole in her left breast, while a pistol lay a few feet away. The affair occurred in a cafe owned by Mrs. Tierney. Tierney married Mrs. McGuire, a widow with one son, Thomas, five weeks ago. Thomas was very angry at the marriage. Mrs. Tierney owned the cafe which, previous to her marriage, was believed would go to Thomas when she died. That was not likely, however, as she married Tierney. An aged uncle, Robert Flynn, and two others, who were in the house at the time the shooting occurred, say they did not hear any pistol shots. Young Tierney gives it as his opinion that his mother was murdered by her husband, who then, he asserts, committed suicide.

REPORTS ARE UNTRUE.
Outside Men Are Not Needed in the Northern Woods.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 7.—George W. Stevens, manager of the Cranberry Lumber company, as well as other leading lumbermen, states that advertisements sent out by the local employment agents of Duluth and Superior calling for men to work in the woods of north-west Wisconsin and northern Minnesota are most misleading. The highest wage paid is $2 a month for skilled men, and as soon as the mills close 2,000 men for whom the loggers are waiting will go into the woods. There are too many men coming into Duluth and Superior now in answer to the advertisements and misleading reports. Lumbermen join in the request that men keep away.

IN MEMORY OF PARNELL.

DUBLIN, Oct. 7.—The procession today in commemoration of the death of Charles Stewart Parnell was the largest on record. In line were political societies from all parts of the country. Timothy Harrington, who organized the procession, many other Parnellite members of the house of commons, the lord mayor of Dublin and the mayor of Cork took part in the parade. After marching through the principal streets the route was taken to the cemetery, where the paraders deposited hundreds of beautiful wreaths on Parnell's grave. The feature of the day was the loud wailing of women who wore ivy leaves on their breasts or in their hair.

SMALL-POX AMONG INDIANS.
The Dreaded Disease Breaks Out on Oneida Reservation.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 7.—Small-pox has made its appearance at the Oneida Indian reservation. The matter has been kept very quiet by the authorities, which is peculiar inasmuch as an Indian fair next week would have brought many strangers and people from Green Bay and the surrounding country to the Oneida settlement. Dr. Brett of this city was called out there Thursday and notified Dr. Wingate of Milwaukee. He was instructed to proceed and take all precautionary measures. A young Indian was found suffering with varioloid and will recover, but Dr. Brett found that many people had been exposed. They have been quarantined.

ORDER GENERALLY OBEYED.

READING, Oct. 7.—The order of the state supreme court transferring the Dubs Evangelical churches into the hands of the Bowman-Esher people was generally obeyed today throughout the East Pennsylvania conference and Bowman-Esher adherents worshipped in a large number of edifices. Up to two years ago when the split took place they have been debarred from about half the total number of these. It is expected other churches will be transferred during the week.

WILSON RETURNS HOME.

SPOKE EXACTLY AS HE WOULD HAVE AT HOME.

Believes Reduced Tariff Will Make United States Great Competitor in World's Market.

BEGINS HIS CANVASS AT ONCE.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—A Baltimore Sun correspondent boarded the New York as she came up from quarantine and carried Congressman Wilson the first home news he had received for some time. His attention was called to the speech of Governor McKinley, commenting on his London speech at the Chamber of Commerce dinner. He read this attentively and remarked:
"The best answer to all this is the speech I delivered and which McKinley is criticizing. If McKinley is rightly reported he simply garbled my speech. I knew that whatever I might say would be garbled and falsely presented to the American people by the protectionist speakers and papers and so I did what I seldom do, dictated and gave to the press a full and accurate copy of my remarks in advance. My speech was reported fairly well in the London Times and called for a long editorial in that paper, from which McKinley and his followers may take all the comfort they can draw."
"I mean now, that it has been so garbled, to publish my speech in full and spread it over my district. It is just what I had been saying and shall continue to say to my own people. The dinner tendered me was, I felt, too great an honor to my country and myself to decline, coming from the great commercial chamber of the world, and I accepted feeling that I could not show my appreciation of it better than speaking as an American citizen and exactly as I speak here at home. In this I was not deceived; my speech was received in the spirit in which it was made and, while many disagreed with me, I found more than one long-headed Englishman who agreed that our reduced tariff would make us a great competitor in the world's markets and eventually regain for us our share of the carrying trade of the world."
"What do you think of the result in Georgia and the gain of the Populists?" asked the reporter.
"Well, as I have only just heard of it," replied Mr. Wilson, "I cannot give any opinion at the present time. I am going right home and will begin my canvass at once. That will be a test of my health being improved, as I am going to work very hard."

TALKED ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons' sermon at the Cathedral today was addressed particularly to women and in it the cardinal took occasion to express his views on woman suffrage. He said in part: "Today we honor the queen of saints, the Virgin Mary. I think any dispassionate student of history will acknowledge that woman is indebted to the example of Mary for her elevated position, both in social and domestic life. The church declared that woman is a peer and equal to man. Almighty God, in the distribution of gifts, makes no distinction on account of race, previous condition or sex. The proper sphere of woman is in home and the more influence she gains in public life the more she loses in private life. While men are the sovereigns of the country, their wives command them and therefore exert a controlling power. Above all things, take care of your homes."
LOWERED THE RECORD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—George W. Wolfe of Chicago arrived today and dismounted in front of the city hall having wheeled all the way from Chicago and breaking the road record between that city and New York by one hour and thirteen minutes. His time was six days, nine hours and thirty minutes. Allowing for the difference in time the bicyclist really only occupied six days, eight hours and thirty minutes. During that time he had only eleven and one-half hours sleep.

FEMALE SCULLERS RACE.
Over Twenty Thousand People Witness Bather Tame Sport.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—Over twenty thousand people were at Forest Park today to see the exhibition sculling match between Miss Lilly Ashley of Hartford, Conn., and Miss Mosenheim of St. Louis. The race was on the park lake over a straight-away course, exactly a quarter of a mile in length. Miss Mosenheim was an easy winner in 1 min. 43 sec. Next Sunday the two scullers will race on the Mississippi for the female championship of the United States.

STARTING IN EARLY.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 7.—Reports from various parts of eastern South Dakota and the western part of Minnesota are to the effect that a severe snow storm prevailed today accompanied by high winds and heavy rain. The snow fall at Huron, S. D., was heavy and lasted three hours, while to the west and north of the city it was even more severe.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCTOBER 8.

WE LEARN from the Menominee Leader that Phil J. McKenna is the choice of the Democratic committee in that senate district for state senator, the nomination for which was given to L. M. Packard, but was declined by him. If Phil takes the field against his "pet aversion," Dick Mason, the contest between them will be a lurid one.

In order that there shall be no uncertainty about it THE MINING JOURNAL wishes to announce now that its candidate for postmaster at Negaunee—provided Mr. Stephenson is elected congressman from this district this year and the Republicans get their president two years later—is the Hon. C. G. Griffey, editor of The Iron Herald. If the Republicans carry the state this year (of which there is hardly a doubt) THE MINING JOURNAL also wants to see Griffey's paper have the tax list for the next two years, and cheerfully waives its own claims to that plum in its behalf. THE MINING JOURNAL is bound to have harmony in the party, even if it doesn't "lay up a cent"—besides the hired man is worthy of his pay.

The Democrats of the Houghton senate district have nominated Mr. D. J. Norton of Ewen for state senator. Mr. Norton is no doubt the strongest man they could have put in the field, but as the district is Republican by a stiff majority and as the Republicans have a candidate who will poll his full party vote, Mr. Sheldon, it occurs to THE MINING JOURNAL that the Democratic nominee has a large contract on his hands if he expects to carry it. All the greater will be his glory, however, if he succeeds. The Populists also have a candidate up for the senatorship, Mr. Hagen of Lake Linden, who made the run on that ticket two years ago and was distanced in the race. Politicians who are familiar with the sentiment in the district, predict that Hagen's vote will be less this year than it was in 1892, the strength of the Populist party having diminished rather than increased in Houghton county, which was its stronghold in the last election.

MR. STEPHENSON'S home organ, the Menominee Herald, charges THE MINING JOURNAL with unfairness toward that gentleman in what it has to say about him in connection with his candidacy in this campaign. How fair has Mr. Stephenson been toward THE MINING JOURNAL in statements concerning it that he has spread broadcast throughout the district? Prior to his nomination he caused to be circulated a letter addressed to leading members of his party in every county of the district in which he charged that the paper was party to a conspiracy to down him for the nomination in behalf of a candidate who owned a controlling interest in it, when he knew, or might easily have ascertained the fact to be, that the gentleman in question does not own a share of stock in the company that publishes it. If THE MINING JOURNAL were to treat Mr. Stephenson as unfairly as he did the paper in the circular letter alluded to his organ at Menominee would have cause to call it down. As matters stand it has none whatever.

TIM TARSNEY'S BOMB.

The Detroit Evening News of Saturday explodes the biggest sensation of the campaign up to date in the form of a letter from Tim Tarsney, declining to go on the stump in the present canvass on behalf of the Democratic ticket on the ground that the Democratic nominee for governor, Hon. S. O. Fisher, is a sympathizer with the A. P. A., and on a certain occasion loaned a white horse that he owned to one of the marshals who rode at the head of an Orange procession in Bay City. Tarsney's awful charge against Mr. Fisher is reinforced by the resignations of a couple of members of the Democratic state central committee, who base their declination to serve on the committee on the same grounds. One of these is Casterlin and the other the notorious "Sam" Robertson, both of whom have been sadly disgruntled because they did not have as much to say in shaping things political under the administration as they thought they were warranted in demanding.

But whatever the motive that has actuated the "kickers" their desertion at this time cannot fail to injuriously affect the already slim chances of the Democrats in the pending election in this state. Tarsney is utterly rabid on the A. P. A. question; and has done much to put the element for which he assumes to speak in a wrong light before the non-Catholic people of the state. These do not, as a rule, sympathize with the bigots who are banded in the A. P. A. order, but they have just as little sympathy with or use for the bigots on the other side, and are utterly sick of the everlasting row that the implacables on both sides are kicking over an issue that has no place in politics and should not be brought to the front in a political campaign.

ORE SHIPMENTS AND PIG IRON PRICES.

We quote from the Cleveland Iron Trade Review of the 4th as to shipments of iron ore and recent sales of pig iron:

The firm lake freights of September did not prevent the bringing down of a large amount of ore—a fair share of it on wild charters—from Lake Superior ports. 800 canal returns show that shipments from Duluth, Two Harbors, Ashland and Marquette in September were 928,954 gross tons, making a total for those ports to Oct. 1 of 4,685,109 gross tons. Up to Aug. 18 Escanaba shipments were 918,592 tons. Estimating the Escanaba shipments since Aug. 18 and the Gladstone shipments, which began in the latter part of August, at 300,000 tons, would make the total from all ports to Oct. 1, 5,903,701 gross tons. It need not be expected that shipments from this time out will be on any scale approaching that of September. Gogebic range shippers are already getting toward the end. But it will require a much more conservative policy than Mesaba shippers have shown of late to hold the total down to the 6,500,000-ton mark.

A 3,000-ton sale of Bessemer iron at $10.35, Valley furnace, or $11 Pittsburg, was made the past week, and the transaction is probably a fair gauge of the market on that metal. It is agreed that there is no great amount of spot Bessemer offering and it would not be easy to go into the market and pick up 10,000 tons for immediate delivery. The operations of some furnaces, owing largely to trouble with coke, did not result in as large an output of standard Bessemer as was to be expected in the first half of September, but this difficulty is now largely corrected. Inquiries for Bessemer are comparatively few, the large consumers being still supplied on old contracts. Foundry irons are weaker and yet in a few cases furnaces usually making for the foundry trade are on Bessemer, and others are sold for several months ahead. Lake Superior charcoal iron has touched the lowest point yet, a round lot selling at $12.50 Buffalo. Yet a 600-ton sale for car-wheel purposes is reported at a price considerably higher, indeed much higher than the market has been for months.

Always a Chance.

"You are almost a man. You ought not to go about asking people for help when you are able to earn a living by working for it. Can't you find a job of any kind?"

"Yes'm, I was offered a job the other day, but I didn't think the pay was big enough. All they would give me was four dollars a week."

"You could have got four dollars a week?"

"Yes'm."

An Incident of Travel.

Fair Traveler—What does this mean? The expressman says he can't find my trunk. Here's the check for it.

Baggage Man—The trouble is, ma'am, that you changed too often. The check and part of the handle has arrived, but the other pieces haven't.

Perhaps She Overdid It.

Mr. Uptown—Your wife's vacation don't seem to have done her any good. Perhaps she didn't take enough exercise.

Mr. Westside—Oh, yes, she did. She sat on the piazza and talked continuously for four hours every day on a stretch.—Texas Sittings.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. TWO LIVES SAVED.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Farnham's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

After Scarlet fever

My little son Lemuel, was left with a gathering in his head and a large swelling on one side of his neck, which caused his head to be drawn over to one side and his shoulder. This continued for some time, and all we could do and all the doctor's medicine we could give him, were of no use. But we began to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking only one bottle he was perfectly cured, and has been in good health ever since. My faith in Hood's

Lemuel Atkins, Jr. Hood's Sarsaparilla is so strong that I recommend it to every one I can. It is our every day medicine. LEMUEL W. ATKINS, Warwarsing, N. Y. N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other. Hood's Pills give universal satisfaction. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The truly pious editor of The Progress, with customary luxury, puts in the plea that he isn't bold enough to be called elder. Out of consideration for this touching display of modest piety THE MINING JOURNAL will defer to the wishes of the gentleman and compromise on the appellation of deacon. It's so rarely that good people get into editorial harness that their worth should be recognized when they appear.

A meeting of parties interested will be held this evening at Dunstan & Hanchette's law office to organize a whist club.

Patrick and James Mulvey have gone to Ireland. They will spend several months on the "ould dard."

The seven saloon keepers arrested on complaint of Mrs. Axel Ruskstrom for selling the liquor which filed her husband on the verge of destroying his neighbor's property, were released Friday.

GALUMET.

A cyclist collided with Chas. Klein's pop wagon last week to his damage. The collision was duly chronicled, but for reasons best known to himself, the intelligent compositor transformed the vehicle into a "hog" wagon. The fault was clearly with the compositor. It always is. He is paid to set type and accept the responsibility for all errors. Mr. Klein, however, having never been engaged in the slaughtering or rendering business, desires the aspersion removed from the fair fame of his ginger ale works. Inasmuch as Mr. Klein, to the best of the knowledge and belief of THE MINING JOURNAL, has never even so much as sold a link of wienerwurst or a pickled pig's foot, an apology is certainly due both him and his wagon, and the same is hereby tendered. It's a pop wagon—nothing more nor less.

MAKING INDIA INK.

Materials Used By the Chinese in Its Com-

After many unsuccessful efforts to worm the secret of the manufacture of India ink out of Chinese science is finally to have the last say upon this product of the celestial empire.

Gunpowder, porcelain, crackle-china, green indigo, and, in fact, all the very ancient Chinese products have been unveiled to us by science only; and it is science again that is to teach us how the Chinese manufacture their celebrated ink. The following is fair resume of the interesting researches, crowned with success, that Mr. Dagron has made upon this subject.

It has always been thought up to the present that the Chinese manufacture their ink by grinding a special lampblack, unknown to Europeans, with a suitable mucilage discovered by them, and that the paste obtained is allowed to dry slowly like their porcelain. The light that has just been thrown upon this subject is due to the progress that has been made in micrographic studies in recent years. In fact, upon submitting a very dilute solution of the most celebrated India ink to an examination by a very powerful microscope, it has been discovered that the particles of carbon forming the basis of the ink are of a uniform diameter. Upon repeating such examination with inferior or counterfeit India inks, it is observed that the particles of carbon are of very variable and sometimes even disproportionate diameters.

Upon submitting to such control all the numerous varieties of lampblacks, it is found that none possesses this regularity of the atoms. The blacks that most closely approach it are those that have been comminuted during the manufacture and the lightest portions selected. Nevertheless, the diameters of these are still more irregular than in India ink.

This first point established, a second remained to be fixed. Is the mucilage employed by the Chinese simple or compound? Thanks to the principle established by Mr. C. Kœcklin, and mentioned by Mr. Schutzenberger in his Traite des Matieres Colorantes, we know that two mucilages of opposite nature reciprocally thin one another upon being mixed, and in proceeding elimination, after analysis we find that the compound mucilage employed by the Chinese unites in itself about the extreme thinness of the Kœcklin principle.

An India ink having been prepared according to these data, in a state of solution, and left at rest for one or more months and then decanted, it was observed that the particles of carbon more closely resembled those of the genuine India ink. Upon afterwards allowing this liquid ink to concentrate and evaporate in a vacuum, there is finally obtained a plastic substance which, when dried, has all the characters of the best India ink. It was of interest, from a theoretical standpoint, to ascertain this latter fact; but, in ordinary practice, it seems to be much simpler and more rational to leave the ink in a liquid state than to form it into a stick, that it would be necessary later on to redissolve with some trouble.

This liquid ink has the same properties as the best quality of India ink in sticks, and serves for the same purposes, such as making drawings and washes.—Le Genie Civil.

FIGURES OF INTEREST.

OVER $100,000 IN CASH IN THE TREASURY.

County Board Meets Today to Consider Treasury Details and Arrange the Tax Levy.

HOUGHTON.

When the cry of distress went up last winter from Gogebic and while the other counties of the peninsula were having all they could do to attend to their own poor, Houghton county raised almost eight thousand dollars for the sufferers at Ironwood and Bessemer and now, when half the counties of the state are ruefully facing empty treasuries or decreasing wages as a means for bidding over the time intervening before taxes come in, Houghton county has over a hundred thousand dollars in cash in the strong box, with assets, in the shape of lands, worth many times more.

The annual meeting of the county board will take place today. It will be an important session and, though apparently dealing with tiresome details, its action is of great moment to every resident of the county. On the care with which its deliberations are conducted and recorded depends the validity of the tax levy, as the Tax Payers' association at Marquette examines every levy in the upper peninsula very carefully and has expert lawyers to punch holes in the official proceedings wherever such a thing is possible.

From an advance copy of the annual report of County Treasurer Miller, which will be presented at today's meeting, THE MINING JOURNAL has been enabled to glean some figures of very considerable interest. The treasurer's report estimates that $85,046.86 will be required to be raised for county purposes by direct tax for the ensuing fiscal year, divided as follows among the various funds: Salaries, $16,370; poor, $35,000; overdraft on poor funds for fiscal year just ended, $276.86; maintenance of insane at Northern Michigan asylum, $3,500; general fund, $30,000. The amount recommended for the poor fund is $5,000 larger than last year and $10,000 larger than two years ago. Taking into consideration the considerable increase of population—10,000 in the past four years—the increase is scarcely above normal and shows that little destitution exists within the limits of the county. The state tax to be paid by the county this year will be $59,792.42, as against $68,355.68 last year.

The county had on hand in its treasury on Sept. 30 the tidy sum of $107,516.77. The amount would be at least $10,000 larger but for the great expense unexpectedly caused by the trial of the men who robbed the Mineral Range train of $75,000 last year. The liquor licenses paid into the county strong box the neat little sum of $72,636.30 for the last fiscal year.

Out of $161,000 raised for state and county tax last year Calumet township paid in round numbers $4,000; Osceola, $25,000; Quincy, $15,000, leaving $36,000 for the other nine townships to raise. The fines collected and turned into the county treasury for the year ending Sept. 30 amounted to $2,803.50.

Many years ago when a road was built into the upper peninsula and payment for the work was given in wild land at a few cents an acre, Houghton county as a corporate body built several sections of the road which extended from Green Bay north to Lake Superior and took payment in lands, then more closely resembled those of the genuine India ink. Upon afterward allowing this liquid ink to concentrate and evaporate in a vacuum, there is finally obtained a plastic substance which, when dried, has all the characters of the best India ink. It was of interest, from a theoretical standpoint, to ascertain this latter fact; but, in ordinary practice, it seems to be much simpler and more rational to leave the ink in a liquid state than to form it into a stick, that it would be necessary later on to redissolve with some trouble.

AN ABORIGINAL'S LAMENT.

O, Great Master, the pale face comes and the red man is driven from the face of the earth! The land that was ours is gone from us and the rocks are our bed and the leaves our cover.

We sigh in vain for yesterday, we have no hope, no comfort for tomorrow. All our greatness is gone and the red man's days are but few.

I return to the land of my fathers. I gaze on the placid river. O, that I might die and sleep here where the great Wauhonsie breathed the air, beneath the same trees which have sheltered him.

O, where are the friends of my father? Where is the war chief, Wauhonsie?

Here I stand where my tribe once roamed, but no vestige of the powerful Pottawatomies remain. The lake and the river on which my canoe was wont to glide knows not the dip of the red skin's paddle. Where once I moored my canoe to the shore now the great steamer is at anchor and the dip of my paddle is heard no more forever.

Here the Kickapoos caught the great fish which weighed nigh to the half hundred and now the pale face gathers in the half pound infant of the deep and calls it game. Alas, O, my Master, I sigh for those golden days but they are no more.

No more does the flint tipped arrow fell the deer and the woodland resounds no more with his bounding footsteps. Upon the brink of the flowing river comes the gentle bovine in his stead. The majesty of nature is dwarfed and humbled in the march of the white man, and on his trail is naught but nature's ruin.

I gaze on the camp of the white man and hear him call it Chicago. O, Naudnee-bo-zho forgive the cruel white man for destroying the peace of the great Shaubunoo.

Here I seek in vain for the wigwam of my sire and find in its place the schoolhouse of the white man.

Here I turn to the spot where the great chief held his councils and where the pipe of peace was smoked by the great warriors and find a temple of the city. The brick walls rise on the spot where the deerskin was spread and the great trees have been taken away. The memories of the red man have been buried beneath the white man's ax and trowel.

Here where the great Wauhonsie held council with the peace chief; here where the Mascoutins and the Winnebagoes assembled in opposition to the great Black Hawk, now the pale faced chief, the mayor, gathers his peace warriors about him, and resolves to despoil the land of the red man.

Why do we suffer ourselves to be banished from the land the Great Master gave us? Is it for the treachery of Naudngee or the murders of Red Bird?

Where the trail ran to the great lake on which my fathers floated their canoes and shot the wild fowl; the lake which we knew as the "Big Foot," now runs the iron rail and the pale faces which inhabit the groves of my ancestors go thither but they call it the lake of Geneva. O, memories of Kishkaukon, wherefore are the idols of my sires so shattered? All about me is desolation and I turn from the scene which I sought, to return to the land of the setting sun, driven thence by the remorseless usurpers. The pale face has no love for our memories and our traditions he regardeth not.

O, sad is the heart of the red man! Where I wooed my squaw I now behold the home of the law chief who knows not the word of justice. On the same swamp where my pappoose paddled is now the high temple and the homes of the pale faces.

Memories of the chase are swept from my mind as I behold the works of the despoiler and the dealings of the despot.

Where the war dance made the air ring I now hear the brass band playing "McGinty" and the tolling of the bells in the towers tell of the departure of the red man, who worshipped the Great Master in the quiet groves where the sky and the trees were not shut out.

To the red man nature was the highest art, and as I sat in my canoe with Okemos and my little pappoose, floating between the green banks, over the silvery waves, I saw the Great Master in everything. There was no black smoke, no walls and fences to mar the beautiful land which the Great Master gave to the red man.

O, gone are the days of my youth and the memories of my sires, and the beauties of our bountiful land are forever buried under the spade and the plow, the hammer and the wheel.

I wrap my blanket about me and go my way. My fathers and myself are forgotten and the land of our liberty shall know of us never again.—Arkansas Traveler.

Indians Tracking.

It was a most strange and interesting experience to see the Indian read all the signs of the different animals in the grass or among the woods with the same ease as we read an open book. The least disarrangement in the grass or sticks, however small, was enough. Glancing casually at it in passing, he would say, "Bear, a week old." "Yesterday." "Deer, this morning." "Very old." "Caribou, last month," and so on. It was wonderful to behold this instinct in a man. I had for a long time been following this trail of the moose, which I thought was a fresh trail, when I got sick of it, and began to cross examine Mr. Big Partridge as to how far off our quarry was likely to be. Big Partridge then showed that he was sick of the imaginary moose hunt himself, and owned up. "Old trail, all moose nipoh"—that is, dead. He had only been leading me about in this way to amuse me, knowing it useless the whole time! He exacted two dollars and a half for that day's sport.—Blackwood's Magazine.

SPORTS AT UNION PARK.

The first two games of baseball in the tournament played at Union Park Saturday were well contested and interesting exhibitions. At a late hour Friday it was learned that the Hancock team could not attend, consequently the Ontonagon team was secured in its place.

The first game was between the Rivals of Marquette and the Baraga team. The Rivals were short two of their best players, while Price, their third baseman, had a lame hand and could not play in his position.

John Semer of Escanaba did business in Ishpeming Saturday. R. T. Looney of Hancock was in the city Saturday visiting friends.

William Sedgwick is building a new and substantial sidewalk adjoining his residence property on Pine street. William Coach came down from Baraga Saturday and took in the ball games at the park that afternoon and yesterday.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martin Holland was held from St. John's church Saturday morning and was largely attended. The interment took place in the Ishpeming cemetery.

John Carpenter, brother of the late Annie Carpenter, who died a week ago last Saturday, arrived here from Silver City, Ida., Friday evening.

Have gone into the coal and wood business. Hard coal delivered at per ton. Wood of all kinds will be furnished as cheaply as can be obtained from any firm in Marquette county.

ETHICS OF COOKING EGGS.

How They May Please Alike Eye, Palate and Digestion.

It is said that it takes a woman of intelligence to trim a kerosene lamp; it certainly takes such a woman to these? The chafing dish is affording relief from such ills, fortunately, but to those who have not yet adopted this emancipator, it is worth while to study the ethics of egg cookery.

Poached is one of the most delicate and digestible ways to cook an egg. The slightly-salted water should be at the boiling point, but not bubbling.

ISHMEMING IN BRIEF. J. L. Bradford returned from Chicago Saturday morning. John Semer of Escanaba did business in Ishpeming Saturday.

Quite a number of strangers were here yesterday, several of them being from the copper country. T. J. Dundon has removed his office from the McKey block to the second floor of the Anderson block.

GOOD CONDITION SHOWN.

EXPENSES HAVE BEEN MATERIALLY REDUCED.

WORKSHOPS DOING WELL.

The improvement in condition of things at the branch prison since the new board of control took hold, the reduction of expenses and the increase of receipts is well shown by the report of the board of control for the biennial period ending June 30 last, which has just been submitted to Governor Rich. At the close of the fiscal year 1893 there were 122 convicts in the prison and at the close of the fiscal year 1894 there were 126. Since that date the number has increased somewhat and there are now about 130. At a recent meeting of the joint prison boards the overcrowded condition of the Jackson prison was thoroughly considered and in view of this situation a resolution was passed requesting the governor to ask all the judges of circuits in the upper portion of the lower peninsula to hereafter sentence persons convicted in their courts of state prison offenses, to the Marquette prison. Governor Rich has made this request and an increase in the population of the upper peninsula prison is expected and in fact has already begun, two convicts being received from lower Michigan last week.

In view of this increase the board asks for an appropriation for furniture for the 155 cells in the east cell block, which have never been fitted up for accommodation. The large number of prisoners will also call for an increase in the force of keepers, which is also asked for. At present some of the keepers are obliged, because of lack of accommodations, to reside three miles from the prison. The board believes these men should be nearer by at all hours, and in order that they may be, recommends the construction near the prison of three cottages at a cost of $1,000 each. These can be rented to keepers at from $180 to $200 per annum, and thus prove a good investment for the state. A system of cell bells and telephones as a means of communication within the walls is also recommended as an imperative need. The plans of Warden Van Evert and of the board regarding these cottages were fully described in these columns some months ago and it is hoped that the legislature will take favorable action on the subject.

Up to Feb. 15 last the knitting factory was operated at a loss to the state. Since then, under a contract with the Lake Superior Knitting company, which furnishes all material, while the state does the work, the net profits have been $1,500. The broom factory shows a profit of $1,800 for the fiscal year 1894.

About fifty men are now employed in the knitting shop. The state furnishes plant, power and labor and the lessees furnish all material and pay fixed prices per dozen for the labor used in the production. The Lake Superior Knitting company's lease is about to expire and the lessees ask a renewal of five years on similar terms. Practically all of this product is sold outside of Michigan.

A lease of the broom shop under similar terms is under consideration and will doubtless be made. The lessees agree to employ thirty men steadily, to furnish all materials and to pay the state for the labor.

The cost of maintenance per capita per year was $254 in 1883 and $198 in 1894. It is estimated that the average number of inmates in 1895 and 1896 will be 302, and the cost of their maintenance about $150 per capita per annum. The legislature is asked to appropriate $45,345 for each of these years. These figures show a substantial reduction in the cost of the prison to the taxpayers. It is probably too much to expect that any penal institution will be entirely self-supporting. In fact if the convicts pay for their own keep such institutions are considered to be doing pretty well. Such was the case with the branch prison last month, when the receipts exceeded the expenditures by $200.

The board makes a strong plea for the enactment of an indeterminate sentence law, and as the previous law on this subject has been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, recommends the submission and ratification of a constitutional amendment which shall render the enactment of a valid law on this subject possible.

The board of control consists of R. M. Hoar of Houghton, John Hines of Menominee and J. M. Wilkinson of this city. The board was in session Friday and Saturday and the foregoing facts are condensed from the biennial report and gathered from the members. The Marquette prison is certainly a well-managed institution, and great credit is due to Warden Van Evert and the present efficient board of control.

Ladies' Benevolent Society.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent society was held in the Baptist church parlors Saturday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. L. C. Palmer; treasurer, Miss Julia Fowle; secretary, Mrs. Francis Westlake. Directors were also chosen and the usual committees appointed. The most important enterprise of the society is the sewing school and this will be reopened for the winter on the first Saturday in November. The sewing school has grown from year to year and the ladies hope some day to see it develop into a regularly organized and endowed manual training school for girls. The school this winter will be in charge of the following directors: Mrs. G. J. Northrop, Mrs. A. B. Eldredge, Mrs. F. W. Read, Miss Pickands and Mrs. Flora K. Bennett.

The society has as yet no quarters for the sewing school. Last year the Y. M. C. A. building was occupied but that has now been leased by the Marquette Athletic club. The latter organization has offered the society half of the second floor two days in the week but judging by last year's experience this will not be near room enough.

The MINING JOURNAL would suggest that the owners of some of the large buildings in town whose upper floors are unoccupied would do a most praiseworthy action by giving the ladies the use of sufficient room. The members of the society give freely of their time and money but with all the calls upon them it is easily seen that they cannot afford to pay rent.

In former years they had the use of an unoccupied school house. Last year they obtained the use of the Y. M. C. A. building on favorable terms and kept its reading room open when the association was unable to do so. Before the end of the year the school had grown so large that they were crowded for room and this year the same conditions will undoubtedly prevail.

Here is a point for the owners of buildings at present unoccupied to consider when the committee of the society calls upon them, as it will in the near future.

Played in Hard Luck

The baseball tournament at Union Union Park drew quite a number of the local fans to Ishpeming both Saturday and Sunday. About two hundred took advantage of the low rate yesterday to attend but returned in the evening like a procession of mourners. Their favorites had lost both games to clubs from up the road. In Saturday's game they were two good players short and another star, Tom Price, played with such a sore hand that he could hardly hold the ball. Still the game was a very close one, standing 5 to 6 at the close, and in all probability they would have won had they played with their usual team. Yesterday the fates were against them also. Their young pitcher had pitched the game the day before but pluckily took the box again and put up a nice game but the boys were unable to win and gracefully took a rear seat in the tournament. But then it was a bad week for baseball champions, anyhow, as one of them remarked, as the Baltimore also lost to New York.

Yesterday afternoon the League Juniors came down from Negaunee and agitated the sand dune near the hospital with the Marquette Ideals. The Negaunee boys play good ball and they came down here with the determination of showing the Ideals a thing or two about playing ball and they did it too. The game stood 14 to 9 in favor of the visitors. Rechal and Miller conspired the battery for the Juniors while Downs, Maney and Derra played the same positions for the Ideals. Nine of the visitors struck out while eighteen of the home team fanned the empty air.

Millinery Feeds Flames.

Fire broke out about 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the brick veneered building at 139-141 Superior street, apparently originating from a defective flue in the rear of 139. The department responded promptly and soon drowned out the flames, having a difficult task on account of the character of the building. The building belonged to Louis Pendill and was occupied by Mrs. Reichman as a millinery store and dwelling at 139 and by N. Milligan as a restaurant and dwelling at 141. Mrs. Reichman saved a part of her stock and will reopen the fore part of this week in the store room formerly occupied by Goff, the jeweler. Mrs. Reichman's loss is estimated by her at $2,000, and Milligan gives his at $800. The loss on the building is estimated at $1,000. Neither of the tenants had any insurance, nor can it be learned that there is any on the building.

Voice Culture Class.

Miss Cramer, who is about to start a class in voice culture in this city, teaches a method based upon the principles of the old Italian school, which insures absence of fatigue in singing and the preservation and development of the voice. She has had the advantage of two year's training under Professor Pease of Detroit, a most successful pupil of Professor Hoag of Munich, Germany; also six months under Mr. Jay Taylor, a few years pupil of the celebrated Signor de Bialp and for seven years leading tenor in the Carleton Opera company. Among her other teachers might be mentioned Professor Spinner of Boston and Professor Colegrove of Philadelphia. For two years she made use of her training as solo contralto in the First Baptist church in Ann Arbor and for three years filled the same position in the Methodist church of that city. She has taken a prominent part on the concert stage of Detroit, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and neighboring towns, and is in every way well qualified to carry out successfully the work she has undertaken in this city.

CHILDREN'S CHORUS.

The term will be ten weeks, two lessons per week, for which a small tuition will be charged to cover cost of music, etc. Miss Davis will receive applications from parents wishing their children to join the chorus at her studio in the Ely school building, Bluff street, Tuesday afternoon, from 4 to 6.
