HE SPOKE TO THOUSANDS.

Vice President Stevenson Greeted by Eager Audiences in Missouri.

HIS REMARKS RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERS.

Confined Himself to Review of Work of Congress and Beneficial Effects of Democratic Legislation.

ALL ANXIOUS TO HEAR HIM.
KABOKA, Mo., Oct. 22.—Vice President Stevenson arrived here this morning, delivered a five-minute speech and then pulled out for Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Mo., Oct. 22.—Vice-President Stevenson's train was met at the station by an audience of 2,500 people, eager for a view of the vice-president and anxious to hear his five-minute speech. His remarks were received with enthusiasm and the people were still cheering when the special train pulled out on its way to Lancaster Junction and Macon, at which latter point an elaborate address was made by the distinguished traveler. His remarks at this point were confined to a brief review of the work of congress and the necessity of this congressional district continuing to return a supporter of the administration.

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., Oct. 22.—When the vice presidential train reached this city a crowd of about thirty-five hundred people greeted the distinguished traveler. Congressman Hatch introduced Mr. Stevenson, who spoke briefly.

MACON, Mo., Oct. 22.—Over fifteen thousand people came here today to see Vice-President Stevenson and Governor Stone and to hear these and other Democratic speakers. Special trains from all directions came in heavily crowded all the morning. The vice presidential party was met at the depot by the local reception committee and an enormous crowd and was escorted to the big Sam Jones tent, where addresses were made. The vice president was introduced by Governor Stone as a "Democrat under all circumstances, whose sword is never sheathed while the enemy is in the field."

Mr. Stevenson began by saying he had read in a Republican paper a few days ago that the Democratic party was dead but, judging from the immense crowd before him, it had had a resurrection. Continuing he spoke of the beneficial effects of Democratic legislation and the good results it had brought to the consumers of salt, sugar and lumber. The speech lasted less than an hour and at times the audience was wildly enthusiastic. The special train left immediately for St. Joseph.

CHILlicothe, Mo., Oct. 22.—An audience of fully five thousand people awaited Vice President Stevenson's special train at Brookfield this afternoon. Here Mr. Stevenson made a speech of five minutes and was listened to with marked attention. At Laclede the vice president was greeted by about three thousand people. He spoke on the tariff question, showing how much benefit had already been derived from the new law. The party arrived in Chillicothe at 5 o'clock this evening and Mr. Stevenson delivered a ten minutes' speech, briefly reviewing the work of congress.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 22.—Amid the booming of cannon and cheers from 10,000 lusty-voiced Missourians the vice presidential train pulled into the Union depot this evening. The platforms and railway yards adjacent were black with people. As the train steamed into the depot the Fourth Regiment, M. N. G., with fixed bayonets, cleared the avenue through which the vice president and his escort passed to their carriages. Four full bands dis-coursed stirring music as the party left the train. The procession, formed with the Jefferson club, 400 strong, at the head and preceded by a band and the Flambeau club, marched to the New Crawford Opera House, where the speaking took place.

The large theatre was crowded two hours previous to the arrival of the vice president and it was almost impossible for the party to get into the house. Judge O. M. Spencer assumed the chair and four hundred prominent Democrats occupied the stage. In presented Mr. Stevenson to the audience Judge Spencer in a graceful manner regretted the fact that ten thousand eager Americans were outside the doors, who could not gain entrance and for whom overflowing meetings were then being held. It is estimated that twenty thousand strangers were in the city.

Mr. Stevenson opened his address with a characteristic story illustrating the supposed death and resurrection of the Democratic party. He showed how the party had stood pledged to tariff reform and how it had carried out its promises. He congratulated the country on the renewed evidences of prosperity and predicted that the coming year would show a most remarkable revival in all classes of industry. He was frequently interrupted by applause. Hon. Fred W. Lehman followed in a short address, after which the vice presidential party left for Joplin, Mo., over the Burlington road.

HAMILTON, Mo., Oct. 22.—When the vice president's train reached here 8,000 people cheered Mr. Stevenson as he stepped from the platform. He spoke three minutes and as the train pulled out was roundly cheered. The next stop was at Cameron and the vice president was given a royal reception. Ten thousand people were at the depot.
When Mr. Stevenson appeared on the platform and was introduced by Congressman Dockery he thanked the assemblage for outpouring and briefly referred to national affairs. Just before the train left a delegation of ladies sent a magnificent floral design. At all stations great crowds of people gathered who cheered as the train sped by.

BRECKINRIDGE NOT DEAD YET.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.—At Winchester today Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge spoke to several thousand people. The colonel spoke in favor of the Democratic nominees for district and county offices.

HURON, S. D., Senator Kyle spoke to a large audience here this afternoon.
Much of his talk was given in proving himself right in voting for free wool, which he predicted would soon be higher in price.

MCKINLEY'S BUSY DAY.

The Governor Kept on the Jump in West Virginia.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Governor McKinley's day began at 6 o'clock this morning when he went on the platform of the car at Mount Sterling, Ky., in response to the cheers from people assembled to greet him. He made speeches at Ashland and Cattlesburg and spent the rest of the morning here in public reception. Several thousand people listened to Governor McKinley as he spoke this afternoon from a platform erected on a large lot. Both railroads and boats on the Ohio river brought in excursionists, who formed as responsive an audience as the governor has yet addressed. No special reference was made to Congressman Wilson contrary to general expectation, although the tariff law, of which he is the author, was vigorously assailed.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 22.—After his afternoon speech Governor McKinley and party were taken to Charleston. The party was met at the depot by a band and escorted to the hotel amid great enthusiasm. This evening a meeting was held in the large opera house, which was packed with 3,000 enthusiasts. Hundreds were unable to get admission. Every hit made by the governor provoked applause and cheers. He was followed by ex-Secretary
S. B. Elkins.

CONDITION ABOUT THE SAME

Practically Nothing New in Regard to Czar's Impending Death.

RUMORED CZAROWITZ REFUSES TO SUCCEED HIM.

Czar Orders His Immediate Marriage to Princess Alix in Order to Compel Him to Ascend Throne.

LATEST NEWS FROM RUSSIA.
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—A bulletin issued tonight by the physicians in attendance on the czar says. His majesty has slept five hours intermittently. He arose this morning as usual. His appetite has lessened some and his strength is not increased. Princess Alix arrived at Livadia to night. The czarina accompanied her to the chapel of the castle, where both prayed earnestly that the life of the czar be spared. The czarina looked careworn but she walked without assistance.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Today produced practically nothing in regard to the condition of the czar. In all continental capitals and in London there have been streams of callers at the Russian embassies. To these, however, little information was vouchsafed and that little consisted of forebodings. Prayers and masses were incessantly offered throughout the day from St. Petersburg to Vladivostok and from Rome to Buenos Ayres. The wild rumors reported yesterday from St. Petersburg were repeated today in still wider forms. From Moscow comes a report that there are people there who insist that the czarowitz refused to ascend the throne and the czar in order to compel him to do so ordered his immediate marriage to Princess Alix. Moscowites fear that should these rumors prove true they will have to face the gravest peril possible. While the people crowd the churches to pray for the czar the rumor has bred grief fever for petitions.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—The Tageblatt says it has the best authority for the statement that despite denials the czarowitz refuses to succeed to the throne. It also published a telegram from Livadia asserting that the betrothal of the czarowitz and Princess Alix will formally occur tomorrow and the marriage will be celebrated Wednesday. The North German Gazette says: A semi-official dispatch received this morning says the condition of the czar leaves everything to be desired. According to human foresight the hope of cure is excluded. Nevertheless, the press has been over-hasty in treating the czar as a dead man. We have good reason to state that the catastrophe may not be expected in the immediate future.

REED AT CHICAGO.

Delivers Speech at Annual Banquet of Prominent Republican Club.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Thomas B. Reed was tonight the honored guest at the annual banquet of the Hamilton club, one of the leading Republican organizations of Chicago. The banquet was attended by the majority of the more prominent Republicans of the city, many guests from other places also being present. It was fully 11 o'clock when President Dixon of the club introduced the speaker of the evening, whose address was to be on the subject,
"Alexander Hamilton."

Reed delivered a glowing eulogium on the man whom he styled "the father of the American system of protection" and declared that the prosperity of the Republic was due to the fidelity with which the people of the country followed the principles laid down by Hamilton and that the late financial troubles had arisen because the nation turned its back for a time upon the rules which Hamilton evolved for the commercial prosperity of this country.

The speaker closed with an earnest appeal to his hearers to work for two things—honest election and good government of the chief cities of the country. Reed's speech, which was frequently interrupted with applause, was followed by an address by A. B. Cummings of Iowa and talks by a number of local speakers.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

That Is the Condition of Affairs in the Indian Territory.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Indian office today received advices by telegraph from the Indian Territory giving a brief account of the lawless condition of affairs in that section and asking that some action be taken by the United States authorities which will restore order and protect the citizens in their rights. It is stated that armed bandits are in practical control of the territory and the Indian police are powerless to protect the people and prevent robbery. As a result a reign of terror exists and the people of the territory are at the mercy of these gangs. Secretary Smith was furnished the dispatches by the Indian office. It has been suggested that in the present emergency the territory could be placed under martial law and troops directed to clear the territory of the gangs which now infest it. Secretary Smith has not yet been able to give the dispatches attention.

Beyond comparison Dr. Price's Baking Powder is the favorite.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE.
Cyclone Causes Loss of Life and Property in Kansas.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 22.—Reports are just coming in telling of the ravages of a tornado of no small proportion which struck Genda Springs late Saturday night. Much damage was done to farm houses and crops.
Two people were injured. The property loss will aggregate nearly $100,000.
At Salt City, near Genda Springs, some damage was done but no one injured.
At Winfield, where the storm broke up, six small houses were blown down and several business houses unroofed.

PROCEEDINGS SECRET.

Levi P. Morton Contract Labor Case
Being Tried at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The examination in the case of John James Howard, Levi P. Morton's employe, who was ordered sent back to England, where Mr. Morton is alleged to have engaged him as a coachman, was continued today. The proceedings were secret.
The case will be further considered tomorrow and the testimony sent Secretary Carlisle together with the recommendation of the commissioner of immigration. The decision will rest entirely with the secretary of the treasury.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22.—A hundred and fifty thousand Iron Workers of America sent delegates to the conference which began here today. The sole purpose of the gathering of the delegates, as said by one of them, is to bring the iron workers closer together.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCTOBER 23.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

It is one thing to get the delegates but it is quite another thing to get the voters. Certain machine politicians will understand this better about Nov. 7 than they do now.

ALL is not lovely along the shores of Portage Lake in the ranks of the editorial fraternity. Some day the rival Hancock sheets will learn that the public is not interested in their private bickerings and personal strife for the illusive dollar.

"WHEN the cat's away the mice will play." THE MINING JOURNAL fraternally advises Editor George Newett of the esteemed Iron Ore to come home and look after things before Assistant Editor George Tucker shoves his foot into his mouth any farther.

OUR musical friends from Sault Ste. Marie made us a brief but very pleasant visit and rendered Gilbert & Sullivan's prettiest operetta very fetchingly. Marquette was glad to see them, regrets that they could not stay longer and hopes they will find occasion to repeat the excursion.

DAVID B. HILL still yearns and yearns in vain for an endorsement, a condemnation, or any sort of an expression regarding his candidacy from Grover Cleveland. To a man up a tree Mr. Cleveland's policy of silence and masterly inactivity seems more damaging to Hill than anything he could possibly say.

"OH, for a lodge in some vast wilderness," where the yawn of the political barn-stormer and the howl of the partisan hewgagger is never heard; where the office-seeking whangdoodle is silent and the voice of the tom-tom is low; where booms are not inflated, where the hustler for pap ceases from troubling and the schemer for votes is at rest!

THE game of partisan politics is not worth the candle. It is because it has learned this great truth that this paper now excites the wrath of the politicians. Meanwhile THE MINING JOURNAL continues to furnish the news of the world to its numerous appreciative readers, to express its candid opinion on public issues and to rejoice in the blessings of independence and sanity.

WHILE perusing the political nightmares of its esteemed partisan contemporaries THE MINING JOURNAL's soul is filled with a great calm. In about three weeks the contemporaries in question will have recovered from their present political debauch and having taken a bath and a shave and put on clean linen will look back and wonder how they ever made such blankety-blank fools of themselves.

THE TOMB OF LINCOLN.

For some reason the American people, while ready enough to erect suitable monuments to their great men, even though those memorials be often of very mediocre artistic merit, are very prone to forget the care of a great man's tomb after it is once built. Washington and Lincoln stand side by side as the greatest leaders of the American people and though Lincoln had not opportunity to be great in so many directions as Washington, yet his memory dearer to the nation because he was a more typical American. But his tomb at Springfield, Ill., is a sordid ruin which an avaricious custodian guards like the bouncer of a dime museum. The Chicago Herald of yesterday points out their plain duty to the people of Illinois in these words:

Great indignation has been expressed by Americans when traveling in foreign countries when charged a fee by a hereditary landlord for access to a beautiful ruin.

The state of Illinois puts all such landlords to shame. It permits an irresponsible person to charge a fee for visiting a squalid and disgraceful ruin. In that ruin lie the remains of one who is held dear by a nation and who perished the victim of an assassin while servant of the nation. Let us, as a state, wipe out the dishonor upon ourselves at Springfield this winter.

The Lincoln tomb and monument place must become state property. For its care and custody an adequate appropriation must be made. A non-partisan board of trustees should be appointed to watch over it. No fee outrage will be tolerated after this duty of reparation and restoration is done.

The proportional power of Chicago at Springfield imposes upon its delegation there a special obligation in this matter. We cannot afford to taunt New York with its neglect of Grant while we continue to tolerate neglect of the tomb and monument of Abraham Lincoln. The state which gathered his ashes to her heart is a shabby and degenerate custodian of a martyr's dust.

THE DUTY OF VOTERS.

In the pending contest at the polls it is the duty of every voter to cast his ballot for the best and most competent candidates on the state and county tickets, regardless of politics. The tariff, the currency, the land question and other national issues now before the people for decision do not affect the state or county contests in the least.

Nothing whatever as to the tariff is decided or expressed by voting for Mr. Rich in preference to Mr. Fisher, or vice versa. It is time that the people ceased being fooled by professional politicians in these matters. There are certain state issues before the people, relating chiefly to methods of taxation. Upon these the voters should express such opinion as they have formed. But a vote for Mr. Rich will not keep the tariff up nor will a vote for Mr. Fisher put it down. The same reasoning applies still more strongly to the county offices. There is no issue whatever involved in the county contest except to get the most competent men to fill the several offices.

With the congressional election the case is different. A vote for Mr. Culver will rightly be construed as a vote against the former and present policy regarding public lands in this peninsula. A vote for Mr. Stephenson is, by implication at least, an endorsement of that policy. The voters know the facts; they can take their choice between the two men and the ideas they represent.

The professional politicians are trying to lay much stress upon the importance of voting the straight ticket for members of the legislature because senators are to be chosen this year. While that is a rather important matter it by no means equals in interest to the average man the work of the legislature as it may affect local affairs. Hence the duty of voters is to forget about the straight ticket and vote for the ablest and cleanest men, who will see that the interests of their own communities are properly safeguarded in the legislature against unjust attack.

Motive Power From Sunbeams.

Prof. George M. Minchin, the English astronomer, recently made the announcement that by the use of photo-electric cells, consisting of two metals immersed in a liquid hydrocarbon, affixed to a telescope in the place of the eyepiece, he had obtained a measurable electromotive force by exposure to sunlight alone. The light of Venus gave a force of about one-tenth volt, and that of Sirius one-fiftieth volt. The purpose of the experiment was mainly to ascertain with greater certainty, by a most delicate test, the relative brightness of stars.—Philadelphia Record.

MARVELOUS RESULTS.

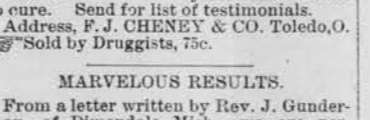

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Bives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Farnham's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

I Was Weak,

Tired and nervous, my food did not digest easily. In fact I was in poor health generally. I had to sleep propped up in bed to breathe easily at night. I had the grip and afterwards a severe cough. I found relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken seven bottles and can eat what I please, sleep soundly and feel rested unless I overwork. I feel as young as I did at 18 when I use judgment in my daily exercise. I cannot begin to express my thanks sufficient for such a great soothing, health restoring medicine.

HANCOCK. Attorney Sherwood of Marquette, acting for the Tax-Payers' association, was in town yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Sherwood states that the mission of the association is not quite generally understood, as by many it is supposed to be simply an association of heavy land owners banded together to fight the payment of their taxes.

Several small bush fires have been noticed burning in various directions from town. It is hardly probable, however, that they can develop into anything serious before the coming of winter.

With 5,000 men employed in and about the mines of Calumet and Osceola townships it would seem that almost that many votes should be polled.

The exacting tests applied to Dr. Price's Baking Powder at the World's Exposition and the California Midwinter Fair gave it the highest honors at both.

Will Know Better Hereafter. It was Mr. Tankersley's first nomination for office, and he was unfamiliar with some of the time-honored customs and traditions that pertained to the position he occupied before the community.

Hence it was that when he had invited all the loungers in the saloon, numbering a dozen or so, to take a drink at his expense he carelessly handed a ten-dollar bill over the bar.

"Thank you, Mr. Tankersley," said the bartender, dropping the greenback into the till, placing his elbows on the counter and regarding the luckless candidate with amiable condescension.

LARGE SUMS LOST ANNUALLY.

The Bank of England Makes a Big Profit on Spoiled Money.

Bank notes of the value of thousands of pounds are annually lost or destroyed by accident. In the forty years between 1792 and 1832 there were outstanding notes of the Bank of England, presumed to have been either lost or destroyed, amounting to £1,330,000 odd, every shilling of which was clear profit to the bank.

In many instances, however, it is possible to recover the amount of the note from the bank in full. Notice has to be given to the bank of the note supposed to be lost or stolen, together with a small fee and a full narrative as to how the loss occurred. The note is then "stopped"—that is, if the document should be presented for payment the person "stopping" the note is informed when and to whom it is paid.

If presented (after having been "stopped") and by any suspicious looking person (and not through a banker) one of the detectives always in attendance at the bank would be called to question the person as to how and when the note came into his or her possession.

It is quite a mistaken idea that "stopping" of a bank note has the effect supposed by very many people. It simply means that the Bank of England carefully keeps a lookout for the note which has been "stopped," and though it cannot refuse to pay such note immediately upon its being presented, a notification would at once be made to the person who stopped it, and the bank would give all the assistance in its power to enable the loser to recover the amount.

In the case of a bank note having been, say, burnt by mistake, if the number is known and notice sent to the Bank of England it will pay the amount, after an interval of five years from the date of lodging notice of destruction, should no one have presented the note for payment in the meantime.

The bank in such cases also insists on a guarantee being given by a banker or two householders that it shall be refused to pay such note immediately upon its being presented, a notification would at once be made to the person who stopped it, and the bank would give all the assistance in its power to enable the loser to recover the amount.

The average everyday housekeeper is apt to hoard her clothes and shut them up, as she does her piano and best furniture in her parlor, away from moths and dust, bringing them out only on grand occasions.

It is not at all an unusual circumstance for a mutilated note to be presented for payment, burnt, perhaps, half through, with marks of burning on the fringes. Nor is the damage always accidental. The men who indulge in the luxury of lighting their pipes with a bank note are not always, as some may think, millionaires or recognized lunatics of society.

The spoilt notes are more often than not presented by workmen or laborers, who confess, without hesitation, that they have intentionally lighted their pipes with them from mere braggadocio.—N. Y. Advertiser.

AN EXCESS OF CLOTHES.

Too Many Garments Become a Source of Annoyance.

The tired housemother, looking over her clothes closets in the fall, is apt to find them cumbered up with a large amount of old material. The majority of people in well-to-do circumstances have a great many more clothes than they actually need, though their wardrobes may be very unsatisfactory in quality.

Translation of Some of the Terms Used in the Highlands of Scotland.

Everybody knows that the word mac (pronounced in Gaelic mach) means son, so that for example, MacDonald literally means the son of Donald. But it is not generally known that when a woman is spoken of, the Highlanders substitute for mac the feminine nich, which means daughter; that the vocative of mac is vich (we spell phonetically), which always replaces mac when a person is addressed; and that the nominative plural is miech (sons), or clann (children). Sir Walter Scott's ignorance of Gaelic frequently led him into error upon these points, both in his poetry and in his novels.

The meaning of the Gaelic word clann (as just stated) is children, and the obedience which clansmen owed to their chief was considered by them rather as the affectionate obedience due by children to a father than as that due by subjects to a ruler. They believed themselves to be all blood relations descended from a common ancestor, of whom their chief was the living representative. The clansman who hesitated to save his chief's life at the expense of his own was regarded as a coward who fled from his father's side in the hour of peril. On the other hand, the chief was expected at all times to acknowledge the meanness of his clan as his relation, and to shake hands with him wherever they might happen to meet. Subordinate to the chief, and generally related to him, were the chieftains and tacksmen.—Spectator.

THE CHANGE OF PASTORS.

Rev. Keul Leaves Next Thursday for His New Pastorate at St. Ignace.

GOOD RACES ANTICIPATED AT UNION PARK.

New Division of Uniform Rank, K. of P., to Be Instituted—Dates for Republican Campaign Speakers.

WILL GO TO ST. IGNACE.

The news of Rev. Father Keul's change from pastor of St. Johns church in this city to St. Ignace (not Menominee) was just made known to the people of Ishpeming by THE MINING JOURNAL of yesterday morning. The reporter called on Father Keul yesterday and found him busy packing his books, etc., preparatory to his removal. When asked about his change, as he had not made the fact known on Sunday at the masses, Father Keul remarked, "That's true, I didn't mention it, but I will leave here on Thursday next at noon."

Rev. Keul speaks highly of Father Langan, the coming pastor. His well-known ability and high order of merit have already introduced him here and the people of Ishpeming are delighted to get such an eloquent divine.

Bishop Vertin was up from Marquette and paid Father Keul a visit on Saturday.

Will Begin Tracking Today.

The local as well as other horsemen of the county who have agreed to enter their flyers for the proposed trotting races to be held on next Friday afternoon at the Union Park, will begin tracking their horses today. Jess Ford, the well-known jockey of Marquette, will have charge of a Queen City trotter and Stewart Curry and Frazer, also of Marquette, will have their nags on hand. If the weather is favorable and assisted by about fifteen members of the Ishpeming and Marquette Uniform divisions, the new regimental flag will be taken part in the 2:45 race. The owners of the nags which will trot in this race are anxious to see which is the better stepper and principally on this account a good match is anticipated.

New Division of Uniform Rank

Colonel E. G. St. Clair of the Fifth regiment of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias of Michigan, will institute a new division of the Uniform Rank at Menominee on Thursday of this week. He will be accompanied and assisted by about fifteen members of the Ishpeming and Marquette Uniform divisions. The new regimental flag will be taken part in the 2:45 race. The owners of the nags which will trot in this race are anxious to see which is the better stepper and principally on this account a good match is anticipated.

Coming Rallies.

J. H. D. Stevens of Ironwood left here yesterday morning for the copper country, where he will deliver political speeches in the interest of the Republican party. C. R. Chisholm of Chicago will make a tour of the Gogebic range within the next week or ten days. He will address the Scandinavian voters of that section in the Swedish tongue and will also talk a little in English.

Hon. J. C. Burrows, who is booked for a speech here tomorrow evening, will quite likely be prevailed on by the local Republicans to deliver an address at the opera house in the afternoon, as there are quite a number of men working on the night shift this week who are desirous of hearing him. Mr. Burrows will be greeted by a full house in the evening.

Will Leave Thursday.

Alderman H. B. Pauli, who recently resigned his position as auditor of the Cleveland Iron Mining company in this city will leave for Duluth, where he enters the employ of the Lake Superior Consolidated company as chief clerk, on Thursday night. Mrs. Pauli who has been at Calumet visiting friends since Saturday last will return on Thursday and will depart with her husband that night. Their household effects have all been packed and will be shipped to Duluth on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Pauli will board until such time as they can procure a suitable house and get their furniture arranged.

The scientists who have withdrawn their endorsement of the powder branded "absolutely pure," because its formula is changed, unite in commending Dr. Price's Baking Powder as the most wholesome and efficient leavening agent now before the public.

He Likes Chicago.

John W. Jochim returned from a brief visit to Chicago on Sunday. While in that city he called on E. E. Osborn, our late townsman, who is now in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company. He says Mr. Osborn likes Chicago very much. He is kept very busy in his capacity as attorney for the company and has very little leisure time. Mr. Osborn is residing at Englewood, one of the handsome little suburban towns, a few miles out from Chicago.

Kept for Four Centuries.

A curious story, illustrative of the preservative properties of carbolic acid gas, or "chokedamp," comes from China. In the province of Anhui a party of miners opened an ancient shaft, where, according to the official records, a terrible catastrophe had occurred four hundred years ago. When the miners entered they came upon the bodies of one hundred and seventy miners, who had perished in the mine, lying where they had been overtaken by the deadly gas four centuries back. The corpses to the eye were as though of yesterday, quite fresh-looking and not decayed in any way. The faces were like those of men who had just died. On an attempt being made to move them outside for burial, they one and all crumbled away, leaving nothing but a pile of dust and the remnants of the stronger parts of their clothing. The miners, terrified, fled from the spot, and though there were valuable deposits of coal in the shaft, nothing would induce the superstitious men to return to their work.

WASTE OF FOOD BY AMERICANS.

People from Europe Astonished by Our Careless Table Methods.

An English health journal expresses great surprise at the quantity of food eaten by American against English laborers. It is very curious to see how different foods preponderate in different industries. The textile worker in Europe will have 95 pounds of meat per annum for every 100 units of consumption, or, say, a quarter of a pound of meat a day, while steel workers indulge in 114 pounds for every 100 units. On the other hand, the weaver consumes more flour than the steel worker—275 pounds per 100 units instead of 208 pounds. He also takes about 71 pounds of sugar more; per 100 units, and a dozen more eggs; of butter, lard and tea both take about the same, though both in tea and coffee the weaver a little exceeds the other. That is, in the calling which demands the greater muscular exertion, a greater amount of nitrogenous food is required.

On the European continent the consumption of meat by workers is much less than in Britain. Even in the iron industry the German is little more extravagant than the English weaver, while the Frenchman consumes only 67 1/2 pounds and the Belgian 55 1/2 pounds. On the other hand, the latter consumes more flour and eggs, more than twice as much of each. Their consumption of coffee, too, is large—14 pounds and 10 pounds respectively, to the Englishman's 3 1/2 pounds; but it must also be taken in the reckoning that tea does not appear in their accounts. But all these figures pale before the statistics of food consumption in America.

The Illinois iron worker manages to consume 393 pounds of meat per 100 units, and though this is excessive, 206 1/2 pounds are put down as the average of Pennsylvania, 197 1/2 pounds for Ohio, 187 1/2 pounds for West Virginia and 155 pounds for Tennessee. The average consumption of flour for the states is about 250 pounds, but voracious Illinois again comes to the fore with 366 pounds, and sugar, butter and eggs are everywhere more lavishly used than in Europe. Here, as in Europe, iron and steel industries are found to be more self-indulgent than any other trades, but the expenditure here is far above that of even the most extravagant workers of Europe. Much of the food accounted for in these figures is actually consumed, but a large margin must be allowed for what is wantonly destroyed, and when the history of the waste of food products in the United States comes to be written it will contain some startling and not altogether pleasant reading.

INSURANCE IN GERMANY.

Obligatory Funds Established to Keep Workingmen from Poverty.

All kinds of legislation looking to improving the condition of the workingman fill the statute books of the states and the German empire. There are obligatory pension and insurance funds established to keep him from poverty and the poorhouse. The statistics of the imperial insurance office show that insurance legislation, if not all that it ought to be, or that its friends would wish, is nevertheless a great source of satisfaction to legislators, whose highest aim is to give labor no good reason to complain of the government. During the past year 278,777 persons were insured in the accident branch, and 239,650 in the invalid and old-age branch, i. e., were participants in the benefits. Thus, within ten years after their establishment, these funds are furnishing means of decent existence to over 500,000 persons—1 per cent. of the population—when incapacitated from work either by injury or old age. Of course, were these funds not in existence, many of those enumerated would get support from the communal poor funds, but it would not be given and received as a right, but as a charity, and while many could not be helped, each amount would have been the merest pittance. The great advantage of the state insurance is that it is given and received as a right—no shame being attached to its acceptance. The communes have gained, the burden once borne by them being now borne by the manufacturers.—Consular Report.

NOT SOLD THERE. But the Thirsty Traveler Got the Butter-milk Just the Same.

The blessing of liberality and brevity are apt to be overrated, so also are the joys accruing to the man of temperance in places.

"Any place where I can get a cup of coffee?" he asked the baggage man.

"In parched despair the traveler sat down. By and by the baggage man put forth his head. "Like buttermilk?" he said.

"O!" sighed the man with a grasp of hope. "Do they sell it here?"

"Naw," said the tantalizing individual, promptly drawing back his head again.

"You asked for lemonade and for coffee," was the reply. "You asked if buttermilk was sold here, and I said 'naw' to the lot. But you can have all the buttermilk you want for the asking. See?" - N. Y. Herald.

One Man's Experience That Almost Led to Suicide.

Hard luck stories, as a rule, are more or less prosy, but a friend tells just one more that seems worth printing.

The gentleman in question has been a grass widow for over a year, his wife having been sojourning in the West Virginia mountains in search of health.

EXPENSIVE SPORT.

The Cost of Hunting to Hounds in Merry England.

A few years ago the usual estimate for maintaining a thoroughly first-class pack was $3,500 for every day hunted; then it went up to $3,000, and now it will average very close to $3,000, making an entire cost of $10,500 for one week's chase of the little red animal, while in the "shires" it will fall but very little short of $15,000, if, indeed, it will not in some instances run higher.

And all this is a tribute to fashion! The sportsmen of the old regime were not so fastidious as to pink and tops, nor required such a retinue of servants.

Hunting was the sole incentive, and they had fully as much sport and killed just about as many foxes, even if their hunts were not turned out in such elaborate fashion.

Nowadays, however, the master who neglects to put the hunt article in the best style fails in office quite as much as if he missed giving good sport.

The huntsman must all be turned out in pink and leathers, and the huntsman and first whip have two good horses a day; and it takes money, and plenty of it, to support a hunt on this scale.

Then there is the servant who goes afoot to dig out the fox when he has gone to earth, and the eight to ten dollars to the gate keepers for each find on their respective beats.

Besides which horses and hounds have frequently to be conveyed by train to distant meets, while there are few hunts that are not obliged to hire coverts to save them from falling into the hands of shooting tenants, to say nothing of the care and expense of keeping them up once they are rented.

It is not very difficult to see where $10,000 to $15,000 per week goes when it is remembered that the basis of all this sport and fashion is the kennels and stables, with their 50 to 60 couple of hounds and 30 to 40 head of horses, that must be fed and receive the very best of care from the most capable and trustworthy attendants. - Casper W. Whitney, in Harper's Magazine.

VOYAGE OF THE "PINAFORE."

That Gallant Craft Makes Safe Passage from Soo to Marquette.

HUNDREDS WELCOME HER INTO PORT.

Melodious Antics of Her Crew Delight the Assembled People at the Opera House.

VERY SUCCESSFUL TRIP.

"Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore" safely accomplished yesterday her passage from Sault Ste. Marie to Marquette and was moored on the opera house stage. Several hundred people crowded the theatre to inspect the vessel and to greet her melodious crew. The loves of Ralph and Josephine were told and Little Buttercup unfolded her tale of baby farming and made everybody happy.

The rendering of "Pinafore" by the Soo amateurs, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gruendler was far above the level of the average amateur performance and much better than many professional companies have given. The stage business, the movement and action, in which amateurs are commonly weak, was notably and surprisingly good. It is evident that Mrs. Gruendler is a stage manager of no mean ability and her work does her great credit. The choruses were excellently given with good voice and time and showed conscientious work on the part of the singers and careful training on the part of Mr. Gruendler, the musical director.

Mr. Mangelsdorf as Sir Joseph Porter was simply immense. He easily carried his part and as those performances were his first appearance on the stage he evidently has great natural ability. Mr. C. C. Williams as Dick Deadeye was also extremely good. His make-up and acting showed careful study and the idea which constantly put him beside the golden-haired midshipmite was one of great humor and well executed. The work of both gentlemen would have done credit to professionals and no higher praise can be given an amateur.

Mr. James Seymour made a handsome and gallant Captain Corcoran and his good voice was heard to advantage. His duet with Little Buttercup was one of the most fetching things in the piece. Mr. Fleming's action of Ralph Rackstraw was good and his voice is sympathetic and pleasing though rather light for the part. Mr. William Hallam as Bill Bobstay sang well but could have put a little more snap into his only solo member ("He is an Englishman") with advantage. The male chorus was well drilled but although all did well Mr. Roy Mead deserves especial mention.

Mrs. Ryan's Josephine was well conceived and well sung. She has a rich and clear voice which was nearly always equal to her music and her acting was good. Her work in the trio with Captain Corcoran and Sir Joseph may be selected for particular mention though all was good. She looks the part well. In Hebe Mrs. Conley was a part which her air of severity suited well and she sang her music acceptably. The ladies of the chorus were well costumed and sang and acted with precision and good effect.

The part of Little Buttercup offers room for a greater variety of talent than any other in the piece and was most cleverly filled by Mrs. Gruendler. She was the life of the piece, as in fact the text makes her. Mrs. Gruendler is a professional singer of experience and hence her work must be judged in a somewhat different plane than the others. She is a very competent comedy singer and her voice is much above the average of those who essay such roles. From her first appearance until the curtain fell she kept things moving whenever she was on the stage. The only criticism to be made of her work is that she "rags" it a thought too much. The excess is not great but it appeared two or three times.

Little Mabel Fuller made an angelic midshipmite and danced very prettily. Dick Deadeye's by-play with her was very taking and amusing.

As a whole the performance was a great success and the large audience enjoyed it immensely. The Marquette ideal orchestra furnished very satisfactory accompaniment. This was an addition to the performances at Sault Ste. Marie, which were given with piano only.

About eighty people, members of the company and their friends, came up from the Soo on the afternoon train in a special car provided by General Manager Fitch. There were also quite a number of visitors from up the road but Marquette supplied the great bulk of the audience. A large number of ladies were in evening dress and if all ladies could only realize how much more charming they look without hats they would never wear them to the theatre again.

After the performance Landlord Lewis served a bountiful lunch at the Hotel Marquette. Then the floor was cleared for dancing and the visitors and a number of Marquette friends tripped away to the strains of the ideal orchestra until time to take the train home this morning.

Marquette hopes again to hear the talented amateurs of Sault Ste. Marie on some future musical or dramatic occasion. These social visits between cities are always pleasing and none has been more so than this.

An inveterate foe of indigestion is Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Cured His Toothache.

"I read in THE MINING JOURNAL recently about diseases that were cured by laughter," said Recorder Meads. "That reminds me of an instance some twenty years since, whereby I was suddenly relieved of the toothache by a hearty burst of laughter. In connection with the mercantile business I was also dealing in furs and having heard of a lot at Republic, thought I would go up and secure them if possible. On my way back, as some of my teeth were aching badly, I concluded to stop off at Negaunee and have Dr. Jones extract the troublesome ones, as Dr. Grinnell, the only resident dentist here then, was sick and out of town.

"There was a little snow on the ground—the first fall—just enough for snow-balling, and as the train reached Humboldt and the two or three persons alighted the station hands began pelting those in the baggage car with snow-balls and the latter would gather up the snow and return the fire. In the meantime the train started and just as the car I was in passed the door of the depot a certain young doctor who was living in the vicinity stood in the doorway thoroughly enjoying the fun and was laughing very heartily. Suddenly a well directed throw from the baggage car sent a snow-ball in the broad, open mouth of the doctor. The instant change of expression from great laughter to such a woebegone look, as though a thunderbolt had dropped from the skies and into his mouth, was too ridiculous for anything. Such a roar as went up from those who witnessed it is seldom heard. It naturally touched my risibles as strongly as the rest and the result was that although but a moment before my teeth were aching terribly, the pain ceased as if by magic, and they did not trouble me again for nearly two years."

To Be Voted On.

It is a fact generally known that at the regular fall election this year the voters will be called upon to ballot on two amendments to the constitution of the state of Michigan, resolutions to that effect having passed the state legislature. The first is an amendment to section 1 of article 7 and is as follows:

SECTION 1. In all elections, every male inhabitant of this state, being a citizen of the United States, every male inhabitant residing in this state on the twenty-fourth day of June eighteen hundred ninety-five, every male inhabitant residing in the state on the first day of January eighteen hundred ninety-five, every male inhabitant of foreign birth who, having resided in this state two years and six months prior to the eighth day of November eighteen hundred ninety-four, and having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States two years and six months prior to said last named day, and every civilized male inhabitant of Indian descent, a native of the United States, and not a member of any tribe, shall be an elector and entitled to vote; but no one shall be an elector or entitled to vote at any election unless he shall be above the age of twenty-one years and has resided in this state six months and in the township or ward in which he offers to vote, twenty days next preceding such election. Provided, That in time of war, insurrection or rebellion no qualified elector in the actual military service of the United States, or of this state, or in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from the township, ward or state in which he resides, and the legislature shall have the power, and shall provide the manner in which, and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the canvass and return of their votes to the township or ward election district in which they respectively reside or otherwise.

The second is an amendment to section 3, article 7 of the constitution and reads:

SECTION 5. No elector shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his being employed in the service of the United States, or of this state; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this state, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any seminary of learning; nor while kept at any almshouse or other asylum at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison; except that honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have served in the military or naval forces of the United States, or of this state, and who reside in Soldiers' homes established by the State, may acquire a residence where such home is located.

He Got a Shot.

A good story is being told by the many friends of Charles Johnson of Rock River that does not go far toward building up his reputation as a sportsman. If all accounts are true one of Charles' herd of swine strayed into the woods last week and was lost. Last Saturday Johnson took his rifle and after telling his friends that he never went hunting without getting a shot started with the determination of bringing home some venison. As he wandered along through the forest aisles meditating on the whinniness of the swine, he suddenly became conscious of a faint rustling in the underbrush and, drawing his trusty gun to his shoulder, took careful aim at the shadowy form of his supposed deer and blazed away. The squealing that proceeded from that heap of underbrush immediately told all the inhabitants within a radius of five miles what it was that he shot. Charlie is now trying to explain away the circumstantial evidence but doubting ones have only to look at the sides of pork hanging in his smoke-house and be convinced of the truthfulness of this narrative.

Bersie's Comedians.

This company will appear at the opera house Thursday evening and reserved seats will go on sale at Bigelow's this morning. The company is receiving very complimentary press notices throughout the state and is playing to packed houses. Will H. Bruno, the favorite German dialect comedian, is being starred this season in the musical farce "They're After Me," supported by the best of farce comedy talent. Latest music and refined fun are features of the performance, and the best performance of the kind this season is assured.

Excursion to Duluth.

The last excursion of the season over the South Shore road will be from the iron country to Duluth and Superior on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 26 and 27. Tickets will be on sale at all stations on the 26th and 27th only and will be good for return passage until Wednesday, Oct. 31. Patronize home industry and enterprise and buy your storm sash from The Bice Manufacturing company, Marquette, and thus save five times their cost in fuel. Saying nothing about the comfort they afford and the sickness they save from the cold and chilly winds during our long winter months.

The more you say the less people remember. We wish to talk about perfumes. The difference in perfumes is hard for some people to understand. It is not always the strongest odors that are the most expensive. The nearer a perfumer gets to the flower the more successful are the odors. Our perfumes are selected with great care. They have trueness, delicacy and a permanency that is highly appreciated by our best customers. It will please us if you will examine them, at
