CLOTURE RULE DEFEATED.

Democratic Caucus Decides Against Adopting That Rule in the Senate.

THEIR FEAR FOR THE FUTURE WON THE DAY.

With the Defeat of Cloture All Hope of Passing Further Tariff Bills Is Abandoned

IT WOULD SOON HAMPER THEM.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Today's Democratic caucus directed the "steering committee" to prepare the order of business which would present for the consideration of the senate the following subjects for legislation: The bankruptcy bill, for the construction of the Nicaragua canal, the currency bills for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico, a bill involving the interests of Indian Territory, for the consideration of a joint resolution of the house of representatives on the election of United States senators by the people and such other measures, including the appropriation bill, as the "steering committee" may deem important. Also that in their report to the caucus the "steering committee" shall provide the order in which the above subjects of legislation shall be considered.

The caucus was in session from 2 o'clock until 4:30 p. m. and almost the entire time was devoted to a discussion of the proposition of Senator Daniels instructing the committee on rules to bring in an amendment for cloture and the speeches at times were very spirited. Senators Vest, Vilas, Berry and George made speeches favoring the proposition while Senators Gorman, Morgan, Palmer, Harris, Pugh and others opposed it with warmth. The speeches were in the same vein as those which were made in the senate except that the speakers discussed party questions with more freedom, pointing out the fact on the one side that the Democrats would soon be in the minority in the senate and probably in need of the protection which the present rules would afford, while on the other side advocates of cloture urged the importance of supplementary tariff bills and admitted very frankly there was no possibility of such action without a rule for the limitation of debate.

Opponents of the change evidently had the best of the argument from the beginning. Senator Palmer, who heretofore had been an advocate of cloture, indicated a change of position and made a vigorous protest against the adoption of the resolution. He said the Democrats would lose their majority in the senate within a few weeks and said "it would be the acme of foolishness to tie their hands at such a critical time. The protest against the proposed change was so general that when the vote was taken no one considered it necessary to ask for the ayes and nays.

When the cloture provision was defeated the friends of the tariff bills gave up the fight, considering it unnecessary to make any attempt to revive their consideration in view of the opposition of the Republicans and because of the fact that any determined opposition under the rules would insure their defeat. The order for the preparation of the currency bill by the finance committee was carried with instructions to take the recommendation of the president and secretary of the treasury into consideration. The senators who are favorable to silver who were present at the caucus say it is also understood a feasible proposition for the utilization of silver is to be included in any emergency scheme presented to or by the committee. No meeting of the "steering committee" has yet been called.

POOLING BILL DISCUSSED.

Objections Presented to Granting Pooling Powers to Railroads.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Consideration of the railroad pooling bill was resumed in the house this morning. Cooper (Dem. Fla.), a member of the commerce committee, declared that while he doubted the advisability of granting pooling powers to railroads he was willing to agree that if such pooling should be allowed it should be under the direction and control of a responsible commission. He offered a substitute to meet his objections to the bill. Cooper quoted from a speech made by Colonel Wm. B. Morrison of the interstate commerce commission in which the latter opposed the pooling feature of the bill unless the commission were allowed to have absolute control of the conditions of pooling. Henderson (Rep. Ia.) asked if the fact that small shippers under the pooling system would be able to get the advantages of the low rates now given to big shippers would not justify the passage of a law legalizing pooling. Cooper replied that was the only consideration which could induce him to vote to authorize pooling but he would not do so unless safeguards and restrictions not contained in this bill were provided to prevent the abuse of this proposed enlargement of the chartered powers of railroads. After some further debate the house adjourned without action on the bill.

The appropriation committee received this afternoon from the treasury the estimates required to carry the income tax provision of the tariff bill into effect for the remainder of the present fiscal year, beginning January 1, 1895. The estimates aggregate $245,095 and will be incorporated in an urgent deficiency bill which will be immediately passed. The bill will probably precipitate the first general political skirmish of the session.

The committee has completed the bill making appropriations for the payment of pensions during the fiscal year 1895-6. It carries appropriations for $141,381,570 as against the estimates for $141,581,570 and an appropriation for the current year of $151,581,570. The only reduction from the estimates is $200,000 on account of the fees for examining surgeons.

Secretary Lamont sent to the house a report of the commission of three engineers, appointed to examine the harbors of Superior and Duluth and the entrances thereto, with a view to ascertaining the cost of deepening them and their entrances to the uniform depth of twenty feet. The commission presents estimates amounting to $3,130,893 for the execution of the work mentioned and say the estimates can undoubtedly be greatly lessened if the appropriation for a twenty foot project be a continuous one so the contracts for the whole work can be made at once.

A meeting of the banking and currency committee was held called for tomorrow to begin the consideration of Carlisle's plan. It is expected that after the hearing of the secretary Monday a bill will be drawn in accordance with his views. Many of the house leaders declare the financial measure is likely to pass the house notwithstanding the brevity of the session but it is feared it would not get through the senate.

Representative Bryan (Dem. Neb.) today introduced in the house a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution making the president ineligible to a second term.

STOLEN IN A CROWD.

Indiana School Teacher Loses All Her Money in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 6.—Miss Josephine Brand of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was robbed of $1,500 in cash in the streets of Cincinnati just about dark tonight. Miss Brand is a teacher at Lawrenceburg, Ind., and had accumulated quite a sum which she deposited with the Central Trust & Safe Deposit company of this city. Desiring to have the money invested she drew it from the Safe Deposit company late this afternoon and put it in a black satin hand satchel with a leather bottom and went to catch the train. In the throng some one seized the satchel, jerked it off her arm, pushed her violently forward and escaped in the crowd and darkness without leaving a clue behind. The police have absolutely nothing to work upon. Miss Brand diverted attention by screaming and fainting. She was carried to the nearest drug store and late tonight sent to Lawrenceburg in a state of nervous prostration. She never once saw the thief and can give no description whatever upon which the police may work.

DEMAND EQUAL RIGHTS.

Negroes Want to Gain Admission Into Labor Organizations.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—A vigorous effort will be made by the leading colored men at the labor conference to be held in Denver next week to have the word "white" stricken from the constitution of the labor organization. Today's issue of The Christian Recorder, the organ of the African Methodist church, contains an open letter to John Burns, who came to this country from England for the purpose of attending the conference, asking him to espouse the cause of the colored men in the fight for equal rights. The letter says in part:

"In the name of the rights of labor we ask you to make some notes for your countrymen at home concerning more than eight million workmen in this country who suffer the greatest injustice at the hands of organized labor in the United States. In the name of these colored workmen we urge you to report upon the conditions which exist in this country and to recommend that there be no co-operation for the part of the British Trades union until the American Trades unions shall give all workmen in this broad land equality of opportunity."

RELIC OF TWEED RULE.

Bogus Bonds Against New York City Have Been Issued.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—M. J. O'Rourke, clerk in the comptroller's office during the Tweed regime, has laid before the citizens' committee documents and papers purporting to show that twenty-five years ago $15,000,000 worth of city bonds were duplicated and that the fact had been systematically covered up in the comptroller's office ever since. Members of the committee to whom the documents have been made have filed a petition in court calling for a summary investigation of the charges. The petition is directed against Richard A. Storrs, deputy comptroller, because he has been in the comptroller's office ever since the time the alleged duplication took place.

BANK TELLER IN JAIL.

Arrested on Charge of Embezzling Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—John E. Tait, until a few weeks ago paying teller of the Chemical National bank, was arrested tonight at his home on a United States grand jury indictment, charging him with embezzling $15,000 of the bank's funds. He was taken before United States Commissioner Shields, who set his bail at $10,000 and his examination for tomorrow. Tait was unable to give bail owing to the absence of his attorney and was taken to the Ludlow street jail for the night.

ON A JUNKETING TRIP.

Wisconsin Editors and Friends Partake of Texas Hospitality.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 9.—Wisconsin editors, accompanied by their wives and daughters, arrived in this city this morning from Galveston. They were met by a committee of citizens and representatives of the local press and shown around the city. Alamo and the old Mexican missions attracted much attention. The trip to Mexico has been abandoned. They leave here tonight for home.

TOOK THE SAFE WITH THEM.

Passenger Train Held Up and Looted and Messenger's Safe Taken.

ARE SAID TO HAVE SECURED ABOUT $100,000.

Few Details of the Robbery Are Known as the Railway Officials Refuse to Talk

WAS DONE UP IN SHORT ORDER.

FORT WAYNE, Tex., Dec. 6.—The eastbound Texas & Pacific passenger train was held up at a trestle seven miles west of here at 5:50 p. m. today. Several shots were fired from the front end of the train and the passengers were warned to keep their heads in the window. The train was detained ten or fifteen minutes, during which time those who caught a glimpse of the proceedings on the other side of the trestle saw three masked men with guns leveled marching the engineer and trainmen in and out of the baggage car. When they finished their work the robbers made the engineer back the train over the trestle and while it was crossing they disappeared in the thick forest. The passengers were kept so close while the train was being robbed that they did not know much about what was going on and the railroad men and express officials will not make any statements.

In one respect the robbery was remarkable and sets a precedent. The iron safe of the messenger was thrown from the car and carried off. The robbery is one of the most daring on record. It was learned from authoritative sources that upwards of $100,000 was secured.

The train stopped at a water tank. One man boarded it and covered the engineer and firemen while the other two looted the express. The division superintendent, J. B. Paul, was on the train. It arrived here only fifteen minutes late. J. M. Berry of Dallas was a passenger on the train.

"There is not much of a story to tell," he said. "The whole procedure did not occupy twelve minutes. A quarter of a mile east of Brookbrook three masked men held up the train. I don't know how they did it. The first thing I knew the engineer threw the air brakes. After the train stopped I heard a shot and about five minutes later I heard another shot. I heard that the robbers broke into the express car but nothing could be learned from the officials as to the extent of the robbery." The express messenger got off at Fort Worth and he would give no information. The robbery was so quietly conducted the passengers were not badly awed.

WANTED TO MAKE SURE OF IT.

Three Ways of Committing Suicide Combined in One.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Goodman Barnett, for thirty years a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, committed suicide tonight. He secured a small amount of cyanide of potassium, a revolver and a box of cartridges. Then going to the river front he took a position as close to the edge of the dock as possible and swallowed the poison, after which he shot himself through the head. His evident idea was to fall into the river and drown if the poison and revolver failed to do their work. His body fell over on the dock, however, and when the watchman reached him life was extinct. Recent deaths in the family and business reverses was the cause of the suicide.

HAVE PREPARED THE WAY.

United States Ministers Assist in Negotiations for Peace.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Tsung Li Yamen has decided to send a special ambassador to Tokio, fully authorized to negotiate a treaty of peace. This is the result of an intimation from United States Minister Denby that he and the United States minister to Japan had prepared the way for direct communication between China and Japan, though the nature of the preliminary negotiations were kept secret.

CHURCHES WITH FREE LUNCH.

Original Plan to Start an Opposition to the Saloons.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Prominent lady members of several Chicago churches have organized an anti-Woman's Christian Temperance union movement and started a crusade against the saloons that is unique. The new organization proposes to place free lunch counters in the churches to offset the seductive influence of the saloon free lunch.

Miss Stevenson Worse.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 6.—This was a rather unfavorable day for Miss Stevenson and tonight it was thought she had lost a little of the ground gained during the past ten days.

Called to Succeed Professor Swing.

In traveling through India large bonfires are frequently to be seen in secluded spots on the outskirts of cities, surrounded by apparently merry-making circles of natives.

The November production of the reporting mines of the county was as follows: Atlantic, 245 tons, 100 pounds; Quincy, 926 tons, 1,475 pounds; Wolvline, 32 tons, 760 pounds; Franklin, 181 tons, 1,045 pounds.

About a dozen men are now employed about the Peninsula mine. The work of unwatering the mine to the fourth level, from whence the crosscut reaches to the Calumet & Hecla lode, is proceeding slowly but as fast as circumstances allow.

The ladies auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give a library social at the parlors this evening. An enjoyable time is promised all who attend.

JAPANESE PAGODAS.

Earthquake-Proof and Therefore Able to stand the severest shocks.

The absence of buildings of any size and antiquity in Japan is ascribed to the destruction of them by the frequent earthquakes which occur.

There are many pagodas which are seven or eight hundred years old and as solid as when first built.

The pagoda is practically a framework of heavy timbers which start from a wide base, and is in itself a substantial structure.

Inside the framework and suspended from the apex is a long, heavy balk of timber two feet thick or more.

This hangs from one end, and to the other end are bolted, at each of the four sides, four more heavy timbers, and if the pagoda be very lofty still more timbers are added on to these.

The whole forms an enormous pendulum which reaches to within six inches of the ground.

When the shock of an earthquake rocks the pagoda the pendulum swings in unison and keeps the center of gravity always at the base of the framework.

Consequently, the equilibrium of the pagoda is never disturbed, and this is the explanation of the great age of many of them.

Hitherto the long sticks of timber in the center of the pagoda have been supposed to be for the purpose of supporting the framework.

It was not until the recent earthquake brought them into prominence that their purpose became generally known among Europeans.

WITHDRAWALS WERE HEAVY

Million and a Half in Gold Withdrawn from New York Sub-treasury Yesterday.

FURTHER DECREASE EXPECTED BY THE OFFICIALS.

Congress Will Take Steps to Relieve the Homesteaders Who Suffered by Forest Fires.

A GREAT DEMAND FOR GOLD.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The cash balance in the treasury today was $154,527,085, of which $109,569,123 was gold. This is a loss in gold since yesterday's report of $1,581,897. Treasury officials offer no explanation of this decrease but the information comes from New York that during the last three days the sub-treasury has several times been obliged to meet demands for gold in exchange for legal tenders but as far as known here none of the gold withdrawn yet has been exported. The present high rate of sterling exchange (488) make it probable, however, that before the close of the present week considerable amounts will be withdrawn for export to France where the demand just now is greater than in England. Treasury officials decline to discuss the probability of extensive withdrawals but it is believed they feel apprehensive of still further losses.

WILL AID HOMESTEADERS.

The destructive forest fires in northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan in the summer and autumn of 1893, resulting in the death of many persons and the destruction of property and timber, was recalled today by the introduction in the house of a relief bill by Representative Lynch of Wisconsin. Persons actually occupying homesteads in the states above mentioned at the time of the fires who were obliged to leave are granted two years time to make final proof. Persons who lost property and heirs of all actual occupants of homesteads at the time of the fires and who lost their lives in such fires may, by proving actual occupancy, make final proof of the same as if the claimants were alive. In the case of a homesteader who has not lived long enough on his claim to commute his legal rights may, when the wood destroyed does not exceed 75,000 feet of merchantable green timber, file an estimate with proofs as to the quantity destroyed and may, under certain conditions, receive license to cut the burned timber on any homestead.

CRUELTY TO INDIANS.

Senator Pettigrew made a strong plea before the senate committee on Indian affairs today for an investigation of the action of the interior department in its removal of the Lower Brule Indians of South Dakota from their reservation. He charged the department with having arrested and taken 100 of these Indians from their home to the agency last winter and confining them in tents on the open prairie, as a result of which treatment, he says, twenty-six of the hundred died. It is now proposed to subject the entire tribe membership to this same treatment and the senator thinks the department should be stopped from this proceeding. He told the committee that no more cruel thing was ever done. The committee has not yet taken action upon the senator's request.

WILL INCORPORATE LABOR UNIONS.

Representative McGinn, chairman of the labor committee, and Erdman, who are interested in the passage of the labor arbitration bill, were in consultation for several hours today with Labor Commissioner Wright considering the advisability of incorporating in the bill certain resolutions made by the commission that investigate the labor troubles growing out of the Pullman strike. The conference was not conclusive and further meetings will be held. The principal amendment suggested by Wright refer to the incorporation of labor unions, thus increasing their importance and responsibility. All the members of the committee favor this and it will be incorporated in the bill.

ROW IN THE REICHSTAG.

Socialist Members Refused to Cheer for the Emperor. BERLIN, Dec. 6.—At the opening of the session of the Reichstag today President Lovetsov called for cheers for the emperor today. The Socialists remained seated, declining to join in the cheers and an angry, excited scene ensued. Singer attempted to justify the Socialists attitude and made a bitter personal attack on the emperor which provoked a storm of indignant protests. Singer was repeatedly interrupted but was understood to say: "We will never be compelled to cheer for one who recently compelled recruits to take oath that should such circumstances arise that they be ordered against the will of the people to shoot their own brothers, fathers and mothers they would obey; for one who is now introducing an anti-revolutionary bill which is directed against us. To cheer him would be irreconcilable with our honor and dignity."

FATHER DUCHEY SPEAKS AGAIN

He Still Persists in Attending Lexow Committee Investigations. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The controversy between Archbishop Corrigan and Rev. Father Ducey has reached a stage where another statement is deemed expedient by the latter. Notwithstanding the archbishop's injunction Father Ducey continues to be a conspicuous figure at the Lexow investigation. This evening he said: "His excellency the archbishop of New York is greatly to be pitied for of course he is followed by men who claim to be his friends and defenders. It said I think that the archbishop, who has the greatest opportunity for good, in my judgment, of any ecclesiastic in the world, should need defenders. He would not need them did he act independently, fairly and openly. Archbishop Corrigan has placed himself in a position of persistent persecution of me for the past ten years. Why his grace should have been so misguided I cannot fathom. The Lexow committee is seeking to know something of the character of Rosa Bells' and successor, Evelyn Bells', house on Thirty-Sixth street. Inspector Williams and Captain Westervelt might give some information as to that house to the senate committee."

THEATRE MANAGER TESTIFIES.

Police Were Paid Before the Show Could Go On.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Before the Lexow committee Sanger, the manager of the Madison Square Garden, testified that the night of the Corbett-Mitchell exhibition Corbett's manager drew $200 from the box office to pay the police to allow the show to go on. He understood the money was for Captain Schmittberger. Brady was called and denied the story but said he drew 70 per cent. of that amount and gave it to Ben Sherwood, the stage manager, to defray expenses. After some sharp cross-examination Brady admitted that Sanger's statement was substantially true. He gave the stage manager fifty dollars but did not know what he did with it. Later, however, Brady denied he ever personally paid money for police protection. He said Wrestler Muldoon agreed to see that the police would not interfere with the match for 25 per cent. of the gate receipts.

The subject of the French ball was next taken up. The officers denied having paid for police protection. Some of the former officers of the ball and some of the attaches and employes told a different story, however.

CORBETT WILL BE THERE

Repeal of Jacksonville Ordinance Will Not Stop Fight.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 6.—James J. Corbett, when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Jacksonville, Fla., stating that the city council had repealed the ordinance permitting glove contests, said it would not have any effect on his coming fight with Fitzsimmons. "The Duval Athletic club," said he, "has deposited $5,000 as a guarantee of good faith and as the members of the club are business men they no doubt know what they are doing when they put up their money. I do not anticipate any interference on the part of the authorities and, as far as I am concerned, I desire to state that I will be in Jacksonville on the day set for the fight."

ARRESTED FOR THIRD TIME

Dr. Flower and Henry Mosher Taken to Peoria.

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 6.—Richard C. Flower and Henry C. Mosher were arraigned in open court here tonight on two indictments charging them with conspiracy and confidence game. They were arrested in Chicago today by Deputy Sheriff Dubois who brought them here on the first train. Bond was fixed in the sum of $10,000 in each count, an aggregate of $20,000, and the defendants entered their recognizance with Alderman James R. Mann and Thomas Sprague of Chicago as sureties. They left tonight for Chicago to stand trial there tomorrow.

Suicided by Hanging.

JANESVILLE, Wis., Dec. 6.—Mrs. O. D. Lincoln, wife of a prominent local merchant, hung herself while suffering from melancholia today.

Detroit Millionaire Dead.

DETROIT, Dec. 6.—Captain John Pringleton, the millionaire vessel owner, died here today.

Cattle, Hogs and Sheep.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Prices at the stock yards ranged as follows:

CATTLE—Receipts, 14,000; calves, 400. There was a fair demand for all grades of cattle and all grades were fairly firm. Christmas steers weighing from 1,400 to 1,800 pounds were quoted at $6.25@6.60. Today's sales were largely at $7.75@8.00 for steers and $1.85@2.75 for cows, heifers and bulls. Scallowag cows sold as low as $1.25@1.50. The calf market was lightly supplied and strong.

HOGS—Receipts, 50,000. On account of the large supply on hand, 75,000, the market was weak and 5c lower. There was one sale at $5.70 and a few at $4.60@4.65, but the prices, ranging downward from $4.50, took the great bulk. Choice hogs sold at $4.35 and best medium weights were not wanted at over $4.55.

SHEEP—Receipts, 15,000. Good demand and prices ranged stronger all around. All were sold. The market closed firm at $1.50@3.50 for poor to choice sheep and $2.50@4.25 for poor to choice lambs.

METAL PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Pig iron dull; Scotch, $19.00@20.00; American, $19.00@20.00. Copper, firm; brokers' price, 9.37 1/2; exchange for spot, 9.50c asked.

COPPER STOCKS

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—The closing prices of copper mining stocks were as follows:

WELCOMED THE FOUNDER.

General Booth Warmly Welcomed by the Salvation Hosts of Illinois.

STATE OFFICIALS GREET THE GREAT GENERAL.

Immense Mass Meeting Held in Representative Hall at Springfield to Do Him Homage.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 6.—General Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, arrived here today. He was met at the depot by thousands of people and officers from twenty different cities throughout Illinois and adjacent states. An address of welcome was made by Mayor Kramer and a response by General Booth. This afternoon an audience of 2,500 filled the representative hall. Rev. F. W. Randel, president of the ministerial association, welcomed and introduced the general. "Practical Christianity" was the subject of the general's speech. The progress and rise of the army was dealt with. The manner of the work was explained and its future intentions mapped out.

The evening exercises opened with a grand parade from the army barracks through the principal streets and was participated in by 500 soldiers, a corps of colors and officers from Jacksonville, Peoria, Canton, Mason City, Belvedere, Bloomington, Litchfield, Lincoln, Pana, Pekin and other cities. Two thousand people were present in representatives hall when Governor Altgeld introduced General Booth and welcomed him to Illinois. The governor endorsed the principles of the Salvation Army and wished them well. Ex-Governor Oglesby, Presiding Elder McElroy and others occupied the platform. General Booth spoke for two hours explaining his "colonization scheme" and hoped to locate one on a grand scale in the United States. It was stated that there are five thousand cords, twelve thousand officers and two million members of the Army now in good standing located in forty different countries of the world. The general and staff left at 11 o'clock for Kansas City and the west.

PLAYING GREAT BILLIARDS.

Ives Beats Schaefer Again in the Billiard Tournament.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Tonight for the fourth time Ives overwhelmed Schaefer, running 600 points while his opponent gathered up 388. Total score of Ives is 2,400; Schaefer, 1,431. Ives broke the balk line record of 331 points twice tonight. When the game closed last night he had an unfinished run of 281 and resuming tonight he added 53, making a total of 334. Later in the game he made a run of 359, breaking the record a second time.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—At the end of the fourth night's play Fourniel leads Gallagher by seven points, the total score standing: Fourniel, 650; Gallagher, 643.

ARE SUPPLIED WITH ARMS.

Utah Citizens Will Defend Themselves from the Indians. SALT LAKE, Utah, Dec. 6.—Colonel E. W. Tatlock of the militia left today for San Juan county with 100 carbines and 1,000 rounds of ammunition, which will be furnished to citizens who are threatened by an invasion of Ute Indians from Colorado.

Forecast of the Weather.

BEGGAR AND SUPERSTITION.

Headlights Profit by the Belief That Giving Brings Good Luck.

Begging is a regular trade in many parts of the world. Some who practice it may almost be said to make it an art, or a profession. A good mendicant, like a good salesman, studies his customers, discovers their weak points, if he can, and trades upon them. A French writer, who has given much attention to the subject, describes at length the methods by which such people—who get their living by pauperizing—play upon the superstitions of their victims. There is a common notion that giving alms brings good fortune. "Go to the sorbonne," says our French author, "on the days of examination for the bachelor's degree. See the collegians, each with his dictionary under his arm, on his way to make the famous Latin version, on the success of which all his future depends. A cloud of beggars settles down upon them. 'A son, monsieur, a morsel of bread. It will bring you happiness.' 'The candidate hurries on. 'You will be blackballed, monsieur,' the beggar continues. 'The sinister prediction always takes effect; the collegian pulls out his purse, and the beggar turns away chuckling.' The same thing is seen at the Hotel de Ville on the days of examination for a certificate of ability for teaching; and when there are no examinations going on, there may be races; and thither go the beggars; for gamblers and sporting men are famous for their superstitions."

The Jeweler's Care.

The carat is a standard used by the jeweler to express both weight and fineness. When it is used as a weight it is equal to four grains, or the one hundred and twentieth part of an ounce troy. In determining the fineness of precious metals, twenty-four carats is considered the highest standard of purity. According to this standard an eighteen-carat gold ring contains three parts of gold and one of some base metal.

A MOUNTAIN EXPLODED.

The Noise Heard 1,000 Miles Away—Three Villages and 300 People Killed.

Previous to July 15, 1888, Mount Bandal, a time-cleft peak, four thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine feet in height, was the most conspicuous object in the mountain range lying from one hundred to one hundred and fifty miles north of Tokio, the chief city of Japan. On the day mentioned it was literally "rent in twain" by the expansive power of steam which had generated within it. From the earliest times of which there is any record streams of cold water had been plunging under the peak on one side, and escaping in the shape of steam and boiling hot water on the other. That the "escape valve" was not sufficient to let off all the steam generated in the passage of the water through the red-hot interior of the peak is evident, because of the fact that when the pressure became too great the sides of the mountain yielded, just as a boiler would have done under like circumstances, an immense explosion was the result.

The explosion is said to have been heard a distance of more than one thousand miles, and to have caused absolute darkness in the vicinity of the exploded peak upward of three hours, during which time perfect torrents of hot water and mud were poured down from the immense heights to which they had been hurled by the force of the "pent up vapors" which caused the disaster. The debris which fell after the explosion covered an area of forty-four thousand acres to a depth varying from ten to one hundred feet on an average, and in one place, where a beautiful valley had existed but a few hours before, rocks and mud were piled up to the height of nine hundred feet. Three villages were engulfed in the ruins, and at least five hundred inhabitants killed by falling debris or drowned and cooked in the torrents of boiling mud, which flowed down a valley to a distance of nine miles. These facts were gleaned from a report made by a visiting committee appointed by the university of Tokio.

FOR READING THE BIBLE.

Peasants in Russia Are Often Arrested and Fined.

An illustration of what is meant by religious toleration in Russia is afforded by a case which recently came up on an appeal before the Saransk district court. It seems, says the Chicago Tribune, that an officer of the rural gendarmerie had observed that several peasants were in the habit of meeting in a cottage where they read the Evangelists, prayed and sang hymns. Suspecting these persons to be Stundists the officer surprised and arrested them. Before the local magistrate the accused declared that they were faithful orthodox believers, but that as the Scriptures were never read or expounded to them by the priests they claimed the right to do so for themselves. The court held that the case came within the proscriptive meaning of the governor's rescript with regard to the Stundists, and each of the prisoners was fined fifty rubles, or in default condemned to suffer ten weeks imprisonment. The victims carried their case before the central court at Rissan, and their counsel, after reaffirming that their clients were good orthodox subjects, and admitting that an apostate from the state religion was liable to a criminal prosecution and to penal banishment, based his defense upon certain articles of the code, which distinctly concedes to every Russian such religious toleration as the prisoners claimed in their private religious exercises. The provincial court appeared to be unable or unwilling to determine the line which divides illegal sectarianism from the rights of the orthodox citizen to read the Scriptures on his own behalf, and the case has been remitted to the senate.

GUARD AND CONDUCTOR.

The Difference Between the Bosses of English and American Railroad Trains.

The guard is found on the station platforms, where he looks at your ticket, opens and closes the door of the compartment, will try to see you well placed according to your class, then hops into his van and goes with the train on your journey. He is by no means the important person that the conductor is in the United States, says Col. H. G. Prout in Scribner's Magazine, for he has no opportunity to sit with the passengers, to talk politics, or horses, or railroads. He never rises to the rank of captain, as all conductors do in our southern states. He may become a Knight Templar for all I know, but I never saw him with his waistcoat ablaze with the symbols of that order which so often decorate our own conductors. Doubtless in private life he is a man of influence in his neighborhood, but on duty he is a quiet servant, and his relations with the public are purely those of business.

He is a tidy man in blue cloth uniform with white metal buttons, and often wears a broad patent-leather strap over one shoulder with white buckle and ornaments. He sometimes carries a small bag, presumably for such papers as he needs to have, and is provided with a green flag to wave to the engine-man as a signal to start the train. Altogether he is a simple, efficient and civil official, and just here is a striking contrast between the men of the two countries. On the English railroads one never sees the conductor or ticket-seller who scorns you if you ask a question, and gives the minimum of information with the maximum of brusqueness, and one never sees the usher who stands in the gateway and bellows in inarticulate pride, then turns a quid in his cheek, and squirts tobacco juice into a corner.

Leisurely Sea Serpents.

Two sea serpents, one of them about one hundred and eighty feet long, lay off the fishing village of Hammerfest, Norway, for a whole day in July last, in order to give the simple-minded and truthful inhabitants time to get up a plain and unexaggerated account of them. It is coming along authenticated by the officers of a British man-of-war.

BONDS OF SIX NEW SALOON MEN APPROVED.

Social at Convent Hall a Gratifying Success—Picture Dealer in Trouble—A Lucky Lad.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, Mayor Johnston presiding. A full board of aldermen, with the exception of Dawson, Clancy and Gaboury, was present.

The minutes of the preceding regular and a special meeting were read and approved.

A petition from Mrs. Thomas Ford asking for exemption from payment of taxes was read and was referred to the committee on finance.

A petition from E. C. Anthony of Neegaunee, asking that the tenant in one of his houses in this city who has been unable to pay rent for some time, be exempted from payment of water tax, was read. It was referred to the committee on water works.

A petition signed by seventeen persons residing on North Pine street, protesting against being called on to pay sewer taxes until the catch basins on that street are put in serviceable condition, was presented. It was referred to the sewerage committee and board of public works.

A petition from the police officers asking for a raise in their pay was read. Referred to the committee on salaries.

A petition from Mrs. McLaughlin, asking for exemption from payment of water taxes, was read. Referred to the water works committee.

Alderman Olson, from the committee on claims and accounts, presented a number of bills against the city and recommended that the same be paid. Recommendation concurred in.

The bond of Marshal Carlson, with A. E. Johnson and John Jones as sureties, was read and was referred to the committee on bonds and sureties.

Alderman Sterling, from the committee on bonds, reported favorably on the liquor bonds of Martin Peterson, principal, with Gust Olson and John Dahlstrom, as sureties; John McLean, principal, with J. J. Leffler and August Hoch as sureties; A. R. Foss, principal, with August Thoney and C. P. Sodergren as sureties; Joseph E. Dunscah, principal, with Thomas Hickey and August Thoney as sureties; Hans Anderson, principal, with James Blackney and August Thoney as sureties; and Miklow and Waiko, principals, with J. J. Voelker and P. H. Donahoe as sureties. On motion the report was adopted.

Alderman Lindberg, from the committee on water works, reported favorably on the petitions of G. Holmgren and Mrs. James Howes. The report was adopted.

Alderman Losselyong, from the committee on police, asked for and was granted further time in which to report on bills from C. Kennedy and ex-Marshall Peterson.

The report of the pound master was presented and was accepted on recommendation of Alderman Losselyong.

A bill from C. Kennedy, presented too late for investigation by the police committee, was laid over until the next meeting.

Mayor Johnson stated that henceforth he desired officials in all departments of the city to consult the purchasing committee when desiring to buy anything; that a protest had been made by citizens on the ground that material which could be furnished at home was being bought from outside concerns; that hereafter the purchasing committee shall advertise for bids when material of any kind is to be supplied so that local dealers may be given a chance to furnish the same.

The council then adjourned.

The First Ward Social.

Those who attended the social given at the convent hall by the ladies and gentlemen connected with St. John's church residing in the First ward Wednesday evening were delighted with the entertainment furnished. There are only fifteen families belonging to St. John's church in the ward and the entire task of preparing for the social devolved on these. They were equal to the demand on them, however, as a more successful social has been held in Ishpeming for some time.

Considerable time was devoted to decoration of the hall, which presented a most beautiful appearance. In the background at the rear of the stage, directly in front of the audience, was a large portrait of George Washington. This was draped with the stars and stripes, the national colors covering the entire wall around the portrait. The gallery banister was also handsomely decorated and in the center of this was a large portrait of Abraham Lincoln. The side walls, ceiling and the doors and windows were also tastefully ornamented with handsome banners, large Chinese parasols, lace curtains and various other articles. The decorations were very unique.

After all had assembled and spent an hour or so in social intercourse the next part of the program was opened with a selection, "Life on the Mississippi," rendered by the Twin City orchestra. The selection was greatly enjoyed and the orchestra was recalled and responded with the "American Derby." Miss Minnie Sullivan then sang the "Tide Comes In," which was also recalled. She responded with "The Farewell," a very pretty song, which she sang in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Sullivan was accompanied by Miss Annie Traver. Miss Nellie Gaffney gave a recitation, "The Slave of Domingo," which was listened to with mixed attention. Being recalled, Miss Gaffney gave a parody, "So Was I," which brought down the house. Mrs. A. G. Schumacher, who is a violinist of more than ordinary ability, played a very pretty solo. She was also recalled and responded pleasantly. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss

IN SLAVERY DAYS.

Pleasant Recollections of Old Maum Jincy Ann.

The Aged Negress Tells of the Good Times Before the War and Explains Her Condition as a Free Woman.

Maum Jincy Ann is tall and slim. Her tallness is chiefly noticeable in her length of arm, while her slimmness is most conspicuous in those portions of the female form usually full and rounded. Her feet have an uncomfortable way of seeming to hit each other when she walks. Maum Jincy Ann is fond of talking about herself. One morning while chipping out the cotton in the newly-cleared patch near her cabin door, middle Georgia, she delivered herself to me in this fashion, writes a correspondent of the Philadelphia Times: "Yes, I was born in Georgia. Cindy and Nerva dey an't no true maff sisters to me, kase Cindy, she born when my mammie had she happy up here on de True Blue plantation; den Nerva she cum long, arter de colonel done fotch my mammie back into Souf Carolina. You see! My daddie he done b'long cross de Georgie line, and he livin' dar right now if he ain't done dead, please God! My old mistis yere on de ole state road she tek a 'tack [became attached] to me when I was a leetle gal an' tek me away from my mammie and I always staid right by her—a fannin' of her, when she'd tek her rest in de hot afternoon, a gittin' her a cool drink an' sich like. She never could eat nuthin' 'tall lest I stan' right behind her chair; an' she larn me to piece de quilt patch! Looka here! but dat was a stirrin' 'oman! an' she larn dem gals to work, too; she not like some ob de udder bucka.

"When dem two girls o' hern gwine marry, I 'low dey had as much as twenty quilt apiece, an' some on 'em real fine, same like bought quilt right de sto'. I tell you dem was no half-out people; dey know what was what! When I wuz done growed I tok de keys, same like mistis, when she's go off to try an' three days' meetin'. An' de crowd o' people what would set round dat big table Sundays an' big meetin' days! Look here! Sometimes mos' de whole settlement would come home long o' my mistis, kase der knowed she had sech a good hand wid ebery ting. She and Miss Shooler, dey could mek de best bread on dat road up an' down, an' when dere was compny I tell you dere was movin' round an' fixin' things ebery which-a-way, sho's as you born.

We was feed in slave times better dan any ob de colored people 'bout here. Dey say de folls on de nex' place to us yere be sent to der peach tree for der breakfast, but dat man what owned dem people was one ob dese reg'lar old moussers (misers). He didn't 'leve in spendin' no money 'tall, and when de Yankee come he put all de money underneth de ole woman 'cause she was sick der save it ebery bit.

"In de Christmas times we all had 'nuff, an' more dan 'nuff to eat an' 'trow 'way. We war all 'lowed to raise our own turkeys an' tings, an' een de hog-killin' time what a fine 'to do' we had wid de cracklins an' de chittlins an' all de trimmings! I tell you dem was fine times. An' we raise dem big calash gourd an' sto' 'way de sausage jist as sweet, wid de lard a-coolin' on de top. Young mauser he always use to come to my house to eat de 'possum serve up wid de sweet tater all round. 'n-swimmin' in de gravy so rich like; 'nuff to make your mouf water right now. Den 't'er all was done he use to drap a quarter een my han' an' say: 'Tank you, ma'ner,' so perlite an' gentleman like. De slave time was good 'nuff for me; but now I hab for jump in de cotton patch an' hoe an' chop from 'o' day till de sun clean gone down; and de flour bread cum scarce an' high, an' my leg ache till I fair fit to fall down, jes' a-stirrin' an' a-stirrin' till I 'bout to git de spring halt. "Well, de sun mus' be mos' git to twelve. Time to knock off and fix de stirabout for dem chillun's dinner."

A CAT THAT GOES FISHING. It Rather Likes the Water and Enjoys Its Sport Immensely. Cats, as a rule, don't like water, but an Italian fisherman of San Francisco has a large Maltese cat named Joe that loves water as much as other cats love a rug in front of a grate fire.

While the boat is on the way to the fishing ground Joe lies still, and doesn't mind how wet he gets or how much the little craft pitches about. When the seine, with its load of wriggling fish, is hauled in Joe's fun commences. He is most anxious to get hold of the largest, and will often jump into the net before it is landed. When a big rock cod is thrown on the deck the cat is in its glory. He will run around and attempt to shake it as he would a mouse. The fish spreads out its fins and opens its mouth, and Joe gives it a twist by the tail that causes it to turn a dozen somersaults.

The cat gets wet and covered with scales, and possibly gets pricked several times with the spines of the fish, but seems to thoroughly enjoy the sport. The cat seems to have no other idea in playing with the fish except sport; for it never attempts to eat the largest ones, but lives entirely on the small fish that are used for bait.

Picture Agent Arrested.

A Mr. Glick, who has been canvassing this city and Neegaunee for the past few weeks in the interest of a Chicago Portrait company, was arrested on complaint of Phillip Buntman, proprietor of the Celebrated Portrait company of Ishpeming Wednesday. It is alleged that Glick has been going from house to house denouncing Buntman as a fraud and also condemning the work turned out by the artist in his employ. At nearly every house that Buntman or his agents called soliciting orders they were greeted with the story which had been told by Glick. Glick appeared before Justice Donahoe Thursday and gave bonds to appear for a hearing on the 17th inst.

A Boy in Luck.

Henry Navins, the little son of Mrs. Navins of South Pine street, held the key which opened the box containing the $10 in cash at the Kirkwood pharmacy. The lad had five keys which he obtained on the purchase of some books. John Carney, who held the largest number of keys, got the box of perfume.

LIGHTS FOR THE SCHOOLS

At the regular monthly meeting of the school board Wednesday evening it was decided to provide the schools of the city with appliances for lighting.

Owing to the additional work introduced recently at the schools it is necessary that the teachers put in a little more time than formerly after the pupils are dismissed, hence the necessity for providing light.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jennie Jewett. The holiday vacation this year will be from the Friday before Christmas until the Wednesday following New Year's.

At the regular meeting of Negaunee tent No. 751, Knights of the Maccabees, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Past commander, George Sarasin; commander, William Verran, Sr.; lieutenant commander, Charles Thoren, Jr.; record and finance keeper, Thomas H. COURTESIES OF ARMY LIFE.

How Newly Acquired Rank Was Used to Avenge a Petty Insult. Notwithstanding the fact that the officers of the American army are the very pink of courtesy, they sometimes, in post and garrison life, have very unpleasant social experiences.

An officer in a garrison is assigned quarters, not according to the necessities of his family, but in accordance with his rank. It therefore comes about quite frequently, when a new officer is sent to a post, that there are many changes of quarters so as to make room for him.

At the regular meeting of Negaunee tent No. 751, Knights of the Maccabees, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Past commander, George Sarasin; commander, William Verran, Sr.; lieutenant commander, Charles Thoren, Jr.; record and finance keeper, Thomas H. Harris, Jr.; chaplain, Charles Jennings; physician, J. H. Hudson, sergeant, Henry Anderson; master-at-arms, F. V. Koob; first master of guard, O. M. Coldron; second master of guard, Joseph Barabe, Jr.; sentinel, Ed. L. Bowden; picket, Andrew Krooks.

MIXED RELATIONS.

A Prince Who is Cousin to Himself, His Father and His Mother.

Among the hardest things which the infant Prince Edward, of the royal house of England, the little son of the Duke of York and heir expectant to the throne, will have to straighten out when he is older is his relationship to his own father and mother. It constitutes a problem such as is seldom found outside of princely houses.

John Wesley was once asked by a lady: "Suppose you knew that you were to die at twelve o'clock to-morrow night, how would you spend the intervening time?" "How, madam?" he replied: "Why, just as I intend to spend it now. I should preach this night at Gloucester, and again at five to-morrow morning. After that I should ride to Tewkesbury, preach in the afternoon and meet the societies in the evening. I should then repair to Friend Martin's house, who expects to entertain me, converse and pray with the family as usual, retire to my bed at ten o'clock, commend myself to my Heavenly Father, lie down to rest, and wake up in glory."

It was the feeling which enabled the American, Gen. Stonewall Jackson, to die as he did. When told he had only two hours to live, he answered: "Very good; it is all right. Order A. P. Hill to prepare for action. Pass the infantry to the front rapidly. Tell Maj. Hawley—Presently a smile of ineffable sweetness spread itself over his face, and he said, quietly and with an expression of relief: "Let us cross over the river and rest under the shade of the trees."

HOW A MAN GOES TO SLEEP.

Slumber Begins at the Feet and the Senses Become Dormant One After Another.

"Order is heaven's first law," and the old truth is manifested even in the process of going to sleep. When a man drops off to sleep, says the New York World, his body does not do so all at once, so to speak. Some sense become dormant before others and always in the same order.

Nocturnal creatures assume night activity for some other reason than that they cannot see by day, or that they see better by night. The bat sees admirably in the brightest sunlight, as anyone knows who has ever teased one by poking a stick at it. It will open its mouth and make an angry grab at the stick, when it is not near it by several inches. Prof. Bolles says it is the same with owls. They see perfectly in bright sunlight and better at night than most creatures.

THE TERROR OF DEATH.

It Is Not Present with Everyone Who Dies.

Testimony Which Goes to Prove That Many View with Unconscious the Approach of Dissolution—Dying Words of Noted Men.

Many people, through fear of death, are all their lives subject to bondage, writes Rev. E. J. Hardy in the Sunday Magazine. The questions: How shall we die? When shall we die? and where shall we die? are continually worrying them. Indeed, there have been several suicides caused by this haunting terror of death.

When Louis XIV. lay dying: "Why weep you?" he asked those who surrounded his deathbed. "Did you think I should live forever?" Then, after a pause: "I thought dying had been harder." Dr. Hunter was another who was agreeably surprised by his experience of dying. His last words were: "If I had strength to hold a pen I would write down how easy and pleasant a thing it is to die."

A man said to Socrates: "The Athenians have condemned you to death." "And nature," he replied, "has condemned them." By the ancient Greeks death was considered simply as a destroyer. To them it was the last and most bitter of foes. Achilles in Hades says to Odysseus: "Nay, speak not comfortably to me of death. Rather would I live upon the earth the hireling of another, than bear away over all the dead that it is so, as a general rule, far more by reason of anxiety and remorse than from physical causes."

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with several pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called Kidney Cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. FORMALLY INSTALLED.

Rev. D. B. Spencer Regularly Inducted as Pastor of Presbyterian Church.

SERVICES CONDUCTED BY VISITING CLERGYMEN.

More Teachers Are Badly Needed by the Sewing School—Circuit Court Took a Rest.

NEW MINISTER IN CHARGE

Rev. David Brainerd Spencer was last evening formally installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city as successor to Rev. James B. Bonar, whose age and infirmities compelled him to retire some months ago, greatly to the regret of the congregation. The service was in accordance with the usual formula of this church and was simple and impressive. Rev. J. M. Rogers of Manistique, moderator of the Lake Superior presbytery, presided and propounded the constitutional questions to pastor and people. An eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. George C. Lamb of Menominee, a practical and common-sense charge to the people was given by Rev. Daniel Stalker of Calumet and Rev. J. A. Green of Negaunee gave an earnest and impressive charge to the people. The choir sang appropriate anthems and the attendance on the service was large. Rev. F. L. Forbes of Negaunee made the prayer, which contained some touching and beautiful allusions to the venerable Dr. Bonar.

Mr. Lamb in opening his discourse said that he should depart from the usual custom of preaching a doctrinal sermon on such occasions and took as his text the sentence in John, vi, 45: "Never man spake like this man." The sermon set forth the method and manner of Christ's preaching as the best and only successful way of winning souls. When the officers of the Jewish high court who had been sent to arrest Jesus returned without him they gave as their reason the words quoted. This testimony to the preaching of Christ was the highest possible, for it came from his enemies.

It was said that the great mass of people were losing interest in the church. Why was this and what was the remedy? There were two methods of preaching in vogue, both bad. One appealed to the intellect only. The other appealed to the love of amusement and to curiosity. It was not the business of the church of God to supply intellectual culture nor amusement, but to furnish spiritual food to hungry souls. The speaker then attacked the methods of the "sensational" preacher at some length and said that the church should never and could never compete with the lecture room or the concert hall.

The method of Christ was plain and simple and his words could be understood of all men. The great need of the world today was for earnest men and women to preach the same simple truths. Christ taught with modesty and without pride in his own wisdom. He taught with entire boldness and integrity, fearing not to speak the truth in opposition to popular delusions and restrained not by fear of men in high places. He taught with patience and tenderness and by example, for his whole life was a comment on his preaching.

Moderator Rogers then read the formal questions and received the affirmative answers from pastor and people required by the law of the church. Rev. Daniel Stalker of Calumet gave the charge to the people, expounding for that purpose the well-known passage in Paul's epistle to the Thessalonians. He also reminded the people that they had called Mr. Spencer to be their pastor, not his wife, and should beware of making unreasonable demands upon that lady.

Rev. J. A. Green delivered the charge to the pastor, repeating the exhortation of Paul to Timothy and dwelling with much fervor upon the ideas there expressed.

During the services Mr. Spencer occupied a seat in one of the front pews and only ascended the platform to pronounce the benediction.

Officers of Presque Isle Lodge.
Presque Isle lodge, No. 130, Knights of Pythias, elected the following officers last evening for the ensuing term: Chancellor commander, Trowbridge Johns; vice chancellor, William A. Ross; prelate, George W. Freeman; master of work, Franklin E. Bay; keeper of records and seals, Frank Ric; master of finance, Stanley A. Burt; master of exchequer, E. E. McIntosh; master-at-arms, Arthur C. Fishop; representative to grand lodge, John H. O'Meara; alternate, F. E. Bay; trustees, O. D. Jones, R. R. Todd and J. H. O'Meara.

Took a Vacation.

There was no session of the circuit court yesterday, the attorneys having for various reasons agreed to continue all cases set for trial that day. As a result Judge Stone spent the day in his room working over some knotty cases instead of listening to the arguments of counsel. The call for today is No. 16, the assumpt case of McNeil & Higgins company against W. E. Perry and Ira A. Clark of Negaunee, No. 15, Plazime Vault against D. S. & A. Ry company, is set for Saturday and is also in assumpt. The call for Monday is Nos. 13, 17, 21 and 31 and for Tuesday is Nos. 34 and 47.

More Teachers Needed

The directors of the sewing school are confident that there will be a large increase in the number of teachers next Saturday. Having already incurred as much expense as they feel justified in doing in order to provide an unobjectionable room and attractive work they ask the housekeepers of the city if any of them have small, light tables, not "too bright nor good," which they are willing to lend till May. If one of the directors is notified during Friday the tables will be called for between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday morning. It would also be a great convenience if the directors knew definitely the number of teachers they might count on. Fourteen pupils had to be turned away last Saturday from lack of teachers. The sewing school is doing an excellent work and deserves the interest and attention of all the ladies of Marquette.

Grafton Lodge Officers.

Grafton Lodge, No. 111, A. O. U. W., last night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Master workman, Frank A. Wentworth; foreman, Jules Bertrand; overseer, Richard J. Sparling; recorder, George W. Rule; financier, A. E. Peterson; receiver, Charles A. Eggers; guide, Nathan Quarters; inside watchman, James Miller; outside watchman, Carl N. Tonella; trustee, E. R. French; representative to grand lodge, Thomas Dwyer; alternate representative, Charles M. Gooding.

Brink on Your Designs.

The contractors for the City Hall furniture desire to carve in the central panel of the mayor's desk in the council chamber some appropriate emblematic or historical design and ask for suggestions from the people of the city. Alderman Hallstrom would be glad to receive sketches or suggestions for an appropriate design for this work. The design should not be complicated and of a character suitable to wood carving.

Short Horse Soon Curried.

The common council held a very brief session last evening to canvass the vote cast at the special election for alderman held in the Seventh ward Tuesday. As all the votes cast were for Leslie H. Stafford the job was a very short one and Mr. Stafford was declared duly elected to represent the ward for the next fixed term.
