WILL AID INVESTIGATION.

United States Representative Joins Commission to Investigate Armenian Outrages.

TRUSTED AGENTS CONFIRM THE REPORTED SLAUGHTER.

President Decides to Send Representative Only After Urgent Appeals from Foreign Powers.

MUST MAKE SEPARATE REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The announcement, exclusively made by the Associated Press in a cable dispatch from Constantinople that President Cleveland had reconsidered his original intention and decided to send an American delegate with the Turkish commission to investigate the Armenian outrages, was shown Secretary Gresham today. Until recently the department has been much in the dark officially as to the Armenian troubles but at last information was received that warranted action and this has been taken as announced.

The course pursued by the United States was marked by great prudence and a desire to refrain as far as the dictates of humanity would permit from any entanglement in European politics. So when Turkey requested United States Minister Terrell to name a member of the commission of inquiry the request, for political reasons, was declined. Up to this time the government was in doubt as to the reality of the outrages. But at this juncture came reports from trusted agents discrediting the official reports of the Turkish government and affording reason for the belief that the Armenians had been terribly outraged. Then Great Britain appealed to the United States, in the interest of justice and to ensure that the report would be above suspicion and beyond contravention by the Turks, to appoint a member of the commission of inquiry.

This appeal turned the tide and induced the president to reconsider his first decision. But to avoid any appearance of entanglement with the other powers, which might result in the end in making the United States an active party to the controversy with which we had nothing to do, he decided that the American representative should, while accompanying the commission, act with absolute independence, should hear and see what he could in Armenia and, instead of joining in the conclusions of the commission, should make a separate report to the state department.

Probably because of his nearness to the scene of trouble and also his antecedents Milo A. Jewett, United States consul at Rivas, has been elected to act as the representative in making the investigation.

Professor W. T. Wenzell, the well known chemist of San Francisco, writes: "I consider Dr. Price's Baking Powder to be pure and wholesome and in every way a superior article."

THE TURKISH DEFENSE

Armenians Charged With Attempting to Cause a Revolution.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 7.—The Porte in support of its reply to the statements of Armenians places great reliance upon an article written by Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, LL. D., formerly president of Robert college here, a distinguished Armenian scholar, who is thoroughly familiar with the situation. In the course of an article which was published a year ago, he says:

"A very intelligent Armenian gentleman, who is an eloquent defender of revolution, assured me they have the strongest hopes of preparing the way for Russian entrance to Asia minor to take possession. In answer to a question of how, he replied:

"Huntschagist bands are organized all over the empire and will watch their opportunity to kill the Turks and Kurds, set fire to their villages and then escape into the mountains. The enraged Moslems will rise and fall on the Armenians and slaughter them with such barbarities that Russia will enter in the name of humanity and Christian civilization and take possession." When I denounced the scheme as atrocious and infamous he candidly replied:

"It appears so to you no doubt but we Armenians are determined to be free. Europe listened to Bulgarian horrors and made Bulgaria free. She will listen to our cry when it goes up in shrieks and the blood of millions of women and children. I urged in vain that this scheme will make the very name of Armenia hateful to civilized people. He replied:

"We are desperate and shall do it. I had conversations with others who avowed the same thing but no one acknowledges he is a member of the party. I have made the mildest possible disclosures of only a few of the abominations of this Huntschagist revolutionary party. It is of Russian origin and Russian gold and craft govern it."

DR. HAMLIN'S REPLY. LEXINGTON, Mass., Dec. 7.—Dr. Cyrus Hamlin of this town, whose article in The Congregationalist on Armenian troubles a year ago were translated by the Turkish government and sent out to European powers as a defense for the recent atrocities committed upon Armenians by Moslems, was seen to-night by an Associated Press reporter. Dr. Hamlin said:

"The Turkish government is wholly inexcusable for the recent atrocities. It shows it knows the weakness of its position by its frantic efforts to hide the truth from Europe. I am profoundly disappointed at the folly and wickedness of the Turkish government and its action in using what I had written for a purpose for which it was never intended and exactly opposed to my views. That is evident to the people who read the whole article. You may depend upon it the Turkish government has not produced it in full. I am still opposed to a revolutionary movement because it is silly and foolish and the Turkish government can never exculpate itself from the atrocities by a reference to any proposed revolution by Armenians."

DISCUSSED THE MESSAGE.

Currency Reform One of the Leading Topics in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The house went into committee of the whole on the president's message. Grow spoke, outlining a plan of banking which he thought was better than the president's line. The committee on public lands called up the bill to protect forest reservations, which was finally laid aside for the railroad pooling bill.

The Carlisle plan of currency reform is naturally attracting great attention in and out of congress. While the plan is favorably commented on by many prominent members of both houses there are others whose opinions are of value who argue that the plan proposed by Eckels has superior merit and, when thoroughly understood, will meet with general approval.

Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional campaign committee, says the report sent out from Washington stating that the committee was sending circulars to intending Republican contestants in the next house telling them their names would be considered only on their merits is a fake, pure and simple. "The campaign committee has nothing to do with contests," said Babcock. "They are matters to be dealt with by the next house."

The long delayed Chinese treaty has at last arrived in Washington. Late this afternoon Secretary Gresham and Yang Yu, the Chinese minister, exchanged final ratifications and nothing now remains to be done but promulgate the treaty and it is expected the proclamation will follow in a day or two.

LIVELY SCRAP IN PROSPECT.

Utah Citizens Will Force Utes Back Across Colorado Line.

GRAND JUNCTION, Col., Dec. 7.—Dispatches received here today announce that eleven boxes of arms and ammunition were received at Thompsons, Utah, sixty miles west of here, shipped by Governor West of Utah. Settlers are arriving and propose to move against the Indians in San Juan county and drive them back over the Colorado line.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The secretary of the interior has directed Agent Day of the southern Ute agency in Colorado to proceed to that section of Utah invaded by the Colorado Utes and endeavor to persuade them to return to their reservation. Several hundred dissatisfied Indians are now in Utah and an effort to induce them to go back to their Colorado home is expected to prove a difficult matter.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 7.—There is a feeling at the military headquarters of this city that if the governor of Utah intends to arm the settlers and cowboys in southeastern Utah and drive out the Utes who are pasturing their ponies and cattle in San Juan county there will be a first class rumpus.

HAVE COME TO BLOWS.

Mexican Troops and Guatemalan Guerrillas Have Two Skirmishes.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 7.—It is officially reported that fighting has actually taken place on the Guatemalan border. It is to the effect that a force of 400 mounted Guatemalan guerrillas had two skirmishes with a battalion of Mexican troops on Mexican soil. The first assault was harmless but in the second two Mexican soldiers were killed. The Guatemalans retreated hastily but are reported to be still hovering in the vicinity. It is reported that a Mexican colonel a member of General Lullane's staff, was assassinated by Guatemalans. If these reports are officially confirmed it is highly probable Mexico will demand satisfactory reparation.

GAMBLERS ARE INDICTED.

A Great Wave of Reform Strikes Christian County, Ills.

PANA, Ills., Dec. 7.—The Christian county grand jury indicted seventeen prominent citizens of Pana for gambling and suddenly adjourned just as similar cases were to be brought to its attention from Taylorville and Morrisonville. There was also a sensational case from Pana about to be sprung when the body adjourned after being in session but a few days. Pana gamblers will pay a fine of $20 each. The civil federation is forming and other reforms will be agitated.

FOUND IN A PACKING CASE.

Dead Body of a Chicago Janitor Boxed and Shoved Under a Sidewalk.

HIS SUPPOSED MURDERERS ARE HELD BY POLICE.

Deed Was Done With an Axe and the Body of the Victim Horribly Mutilated.

WAS MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The dead body of A. D. Barnes, janitor of the Hiawatha building on Twenty-fifth street, was found this morning jammed into a packing case which had been thrust into a hole beneath the sidewalk on South Park avenue. The body, which was naked with the exception of a pair of socks, bore over a score of ugly wounds half of them sufficient to have caused death. The wounds were evidently inflicted with both the cutting edge and blunt side of axe and covered the body from the right temple to the knees. Two men are in custody charged with the crime and Inspector Hunt is confident he has the men who murdered Barnes. The men are Edward Jordan, assistant janitor of the building, and Lewis Jersey, who hung around the building.

The crime was unquestionably committed in the basement of the apartment house as the police discovered the clothing worn by Barnes when last seen alive and the blood smeared axe with which the deed was done. In addition blood was found in several places in the basement and signs of a struggle were plainly visible. No other motive than robbery is ascribed for the crime for Barnes, as far as known, had no enemies, but a watch and $30 in money, which he had upon his person when last seen, are missing. The police are also looking for Annie Mahaney, a girl with whom he was at times very intimate.

After killing Barnes in the basement the murderers endeavored to shove the body into a packing case three and one-half feet long, two feet wide and ten inches deep, in order to force the body in the legs were bent under the trunk and the right leg was broken above the knee in order to expedite the packing operation. The left hip was slashed and pounded with the axe in addition to other wounds there was a hole in the left temple dealt with awful force and which must have killed the recipient instantly. There was a wicked cut across the back of the head and half a dozen smaller wounds around the base of his skull and the upper portion of his neck. In his chest were several gash cuts and other deep gashes in the abdomen and on the thighs. The backbone was cut through in two places and the left jaw and cheek bones battered into splinters.

The evidence against Jordan is chiefly of his own admission. He called at the morgue to see if he could identify the body thinking, he said, it might be Barnes whom he had not seen since Tuesday. He at once identified the body as that of Barnes. It was conclusively proven he had been with Barnes later than Tuesday, they having been seen together Wednesday afternoon. He was several times in the basement of the building since Wednesday night, when the murder was probably committed and made no report of the blood stains which are now plainly visible to the casual observer. These things decided the police to take him into custody although he and Jersey deny having any knowledge of the crime.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Late tonight the police arrested Mrs. A. R. Winslow of 3744 Rhodes avenue, accused by her own confession and handwriting as having been on such terms of intimacy with the murdered man as to have aroused the jealousy of her husband. Officers are looking for Winslow who may possibly be concerned in the case. Annie Mahaney, who was wanted as a witness, was also arrested.

EDICT NOT YET GIVEN

Catholics May Soon Become Members of Secret Societies.

St. Paul, Dec. 7.—The fact has just been published in the arch diocese of St. Paul that Catholics may join any secret society except the Masonic order. This has been known for some time but was not generally known. Judge Kelly of the district court has just joined the Knights of Pythias although he is one of the most prominent laymen in America. Late this evening Archbishop Ireland in an interview with an Associated Press representative said: "The question of whether Catholics should belong to secret societies such as the Sons of Temperance, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias or not is now being considered by the authorities at Rome and a decision will be given soon. In the meantime Catholics will do well not to seek membership in these societies."

No one knows just how good Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is until they try it and compare the splendid work it does with that of other kinds.

HUNTING THE BANDITS.

Sheriff's Posse in Pursuit of Train Robbers.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 7.—A sheriff's posse is still in pursuit of the men who robbed the Pacific express last night. The officials of the express company say it is impossible to know what amount of money was secured as all the way bills were taken. They are inclined to think it is not over $5,000 if that amount was stolen.

It has been learned that the robbers who held up a train last night, got $31,000 in gold certificates going from San Francisco to Washington to pay for bonds.

IMPROVING THE QUINCY.

Substantial Improvements Have Been Made to the Quincy Mine and Shops.

THE MAENNERCHOR CONCERT A GRAND SUCCESS.

Red Jacket Authorities Believe They Can Manage the City Without Outside Assistance

[All communications intended for this department should be addressed to Horace J. Stevens, Houghton, Mich. Telephone connection.]

HANCOCK. The new machinery at No. 3 shaft house is being set up and from the magnitude of the parts proves a big undertaking. A thirty-three foot addition to the machine shop, built this summer, has been filled with new and powerful machinery and improvements are being made in all directions. In the place of the built up shaft house at the great Calumet & Hecla and the wonderful operations at the Tamarack many people have lost sight of the Quincy, which would be a giant anywhere but within sight of the Calumet & Hecla. That investors are beginning to learn that the Quincy is a big and profitable property is shown by the advance in the price of shares. It is probable that Quincy will soon be selling at over $100 per share, and in the light of its dividends and the magnificent and well developed property which the company owns its stock could be selling at $100 to a party with the shares of the Calumet & Hecla or Tamarack.

A bill will be drafted and submitted to the next legislature to take the various plots of West Hancock into the village limits. The people living there have no objections and the measure will doubtless pass without opposition unless an effort should be made to stall a bill from the jealously guarded preserves of some of the mining companies in which case there would be war.

A ski (pronounced "she") club has been organized here this week with a dozen members. W. Nikkala is president and Gus Strohlberg secretary and treasurer. The sport is a fascinating one, being more exciting than tobogganing or skating. An expert can cover many miles with ease and expedition on the queer looking foot gear. Any one who has the sand to keep on trying can master the skis and those who learn will never regret it.

A letter to the secretary of the Young Men's Christian association states that one of the members of the "Old Homestead Quartette" is sick and that it breaks up the organization for the present. They will substitute in place of them a ladies quartette called the Arion quartette. They have been before the public of Chicago and surrounding cities for a number of seasons. The Arion Ladies Quartette will appear at St. Patrick's hall, Saturday night Dec. 15th. This will constitute the second number of these concerts.

The regular young men's rally for tomorrow afternoon will be addressed by Capt. S. B. Harris. Mrs. A. Overfield will sing a solo. The meeting lasts but one hour, from 4 to 5 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian association hall. Men and boys are specially invited to be present at this meeting.

The Quincy fire company has decided to follow the habit of firemen elsewhere and will launch forth with an annual ball the first number of which will be given at St. Patrick's hall on Monday evening, Dec. 31. The Quincy Excelsior band will furnish the music and a cordial invitation is extended to friends from the valleys as well as the hills to be present and enjoy the festive occasion.

Rev. J. Edward Reilly will deliver his celebrated lecture on Mexico at St. George's hall, Quincy, two weeks hence, the A. O. U. W. lodge on the hill having engaged him for that evening.

Houghton. The concert and ball of the Maennerchor at the Armory last night was fully up to the standard of expectations. There was a large attendance of people from both of the Portage Lake towns and occasional visitors were noted from other parts of the county. The musical part of the entertainment was excellent and the dance was very enjoyable.

The supper served by the Ladies of the Maccabees won much praise and from the manner in which it disappeared was undoubtedly satisfactory.

William Culliford of the Douglass House is suffering from a sprain, which necessitates his using considerable care in locomotion.

H. C. Coddington of Baraga visited friends here this week, accompanied by Mrs. Coddington.

George Maguire, clerk of the Douglass House, has returned from a visit to his home in Marquette.

The regular monthly meeting of E. R. Stiles post, Grand Army of the Republic, will take place at the hall this evening and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. All members are earnestly requested to be present if possible, as business of importance is to be transacted.

John F. Dillon now occupies the house he recently built in East Houghton, in company with his wife, nee Miss Hona Norton of Ewen, formerly of L'Anse.

The regular winter pathway across the lake to Hodge's foundry has been laid out and those who stroll through the avenue of evergreen bushes need not fear of losing their way in the roughest storm or darkest weather.

J. Parke Channing, formerly a mining engineer on the Gogebic and Marquette iron ranges, but now located in New York as a consulting engineer and mining expert, was in town Thursday for a few hours.

CALUMET. In a communication relative to village affairs President Henry J. Vivian of Red Jacket asserts that "I am of the opinion that the common council of this municipality can manage its affairs without the class of proffered assistance which we are at present overburdened." President Vivian voices the sentiments of the village authorities and of a great many of the residents. The village officers are getting a heap of amateur assistance these days and in consequence Red Jacket and Calumet are obtaining reputations as sink-holes of iniquity, when as a matter of fact they are more free from vice than the average Michigan or western town of 30,000 people.

The stockholders meeting of the Merchants & Miners' National bank of Calumet will be held at 10 o'clock next Tuesday forenoon. The old board and officers will probably be reelected.

A mass meeting of all who are interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. is called for Sunday at the Armory. The musical service and address by Herbert M. Clarke will be the principal features of interest of the meeting.

Rev. Joel Martin, general missionary, will occupy the pulpit of the Calumet Congregational church tomorrow.

The Temple of Honor will give a social at the hall on Scott street at Red Jacket this evening. A delegation from Columbia Temple of Hancock is expected to be present.

An auxiliary branch of the Y. M. C. A. is to be organized among the young ladies who are anxious to participate in the benefits of the gymnasium and one or two evenings per week will be set apart for the exercises of the ladies.

Klomestz Bros., of the Chicago fruit store, will open a cigar manufactory over their store about Dec. 15. Calumet is well supplied with cigar factories but there always seems room for one more.

Mrs. A. Krellwitz and daughter of Houghton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schwartz of Calumet village.

W., in a body, Mr. Ubinger being a member of that order at the time of his death.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, Rev. Poligass of Champan officiating. It was a young man of exemplary habits and his untimely death is regretted by all.

WIFE FOR A QUARTER.

A Remarkable Matrimonial Transaction Made in Wayne County.

The transfer of his wife by "Kike" Culliford to Ambrose Dratt at Butler Center, a few days ago for the princely sum of twenty-five cents turns out to be one of the most noteworthy commercial transactions that the township has ever witnessed, says the Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat and Chronicle. The fact that the wife was an interested observer of the transaction and by no means the least willing party thereto, adds interest if not a moral flavor to the affair. The Cullifords are young people, aged respectively twenty-five and twenty-three. Mrs. Culliford, as it turns out, had been married once before her promise to love, cherish and obey Culliford was made. The name of the first husband was David Lobel, from whom she considered herself legally separated, when a year ago she was married to Culliford. Lobel was imprisoned for petit larceny, and his conviction, she thought, was sufficient separation. Early in the spring they moved to Butler and Culliford worked by the day among the farmers to support his young wife.

Early in August Culliford came home unexpectedly and found Dratt and his wife under circumstances which made him suspicious.

"Is that what you have been coming to my house for every night for a week, bringing your old fiddle?" he demanded of Dratt. Then followed a war of words and Dratt left the house, to be followed by Mrs. Culliford a little later. The separation lasted several weeks and then friends succeeded in getting the couple together again. Then came the season for drying apples and Mrs. Culliford expressed a desire to earn some money. She went to work in the evaporators at Loren Gould's. Culliford heard rumors that caused him to make a trip to the evaporator's. His wife was not in the factory. Inquiry revealed the fact that she was in the house with "Ammy" Dratt. To the house he went. There he found Dratt and his wife. Had Culliford been made of different stuff there might have been a bloody time.

But Culliford had his own way of dealing with the situation. Motioning Dratt into an adjoining room, the wife following, he turned on his heels and said:

"Do you want this woman more than I do?"

"Yes," replied the ready Dratt.

"Well, what will you give for her?" Dratt paused for a moment, then he said, firmly, but slowly: "Twenty-five cents."

"She's yours," said Culliford. "Fork over."

The quarter changed hands. The woman spoke for the first time. "Well, I don't care," said she "between sobs. 'If you did buy me, you have got to support me.'"

"I will," said Dratt, and that closed the transaction. The transfer of property took place that afternoon, Dratt calling for his purchase with his horse and buggy.

MORMONS AS THEY ARE. They Are Passing Through a Transition State, According to Mrs. Merriam.

In her new book, "My Summer in a Mormon Village," Miss Florence A. Merriam finds that the Mormons are passing through a transition stage in the practice of polygamy; while theoretically the practice has been abolished by many of the older polygamists, the law is openly disregarded, says the Boston Advertiser. In the village where she spent her summer there were about thirty polygamists, and the different effects of the law were well illustrated. "One woman of strong character was supporting herself against the wishes of her husband because she was a second wife and would not break the law by living with him; on the other hand, one of the Mormon elders has obeyed the law by going to Canada with his young second wife, leaving the old mother of his children behind—these being different forms of conscientiousness."

"Another prominent member of the Church of the Saints, who had six living wives, came under government notice and had to flee to the mountains, where he was hunted by the officers for two years. When he was found, however, a number of wealthy Gentile business connections petitioned for his pardon, stipulating that he should take his oath to abide by the law. Whereupon, bring down his sworn, he returned to his six wives, no further questions being asked. One of the village government officials had two wives, but, although the Salt Lake Tribune reported the case, nothing was done about it."

Miss Merriam believes that legislation alone will never completely crush out polygamy. It was established by a subtle appeal to what is worst in man and best in woman, "and as long as the woman believes that it is right the laws can never crush it out." The remedy lies in an education, the broadest and best, an education which will develop reasoning power, which will enable her to read the lessons of the historical growth of the religious systems of the world, and which will convince her of the futility of turning to the past for the ethical ideals of the future.

A Curious Record. One of the most curious statistical records that has been compiled this century is that by Dr. Salzmann, of Essling, Wurtemberg, on the average duration of life among physicians. He found, in going over the ancient records of the kingdom, that in the sixteenth century the average duration of life among that class was but 35.5 years—in the seventeenth century 45.8—in the eighteenth, 49.8 and in the present time they reach the favorable average of 56.7. It appears from the foot notes to the above that this very great increase in longevity is due to the disappearance of the "black pest," the introduction of vaccination and great diminution in the number of typhus epidemics, three classes of disease which formerly decimated the medical practitioners.

NO CHANGE PERCEPTIBLE.

Meeting of Congress and Its Proposed Plans Have Little Effect on Business.

THE PRICE OF FARM PRODUCTS REMAINS UNCHANGED.

Iron Industry Reviving at Chicago but Over Production Oppresses Market at Other Points.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—It is difficult to detect any change in the current business. The prospects after Jan. 1, however, are quite generally considered more hopeful.

On the whole agricultural products are scarcely stronger. The receipts of wheat are larger than a year ago and exports are smaller but foreign accounts are helped by an advance of 1 1/2 cents.

The iron industry seems to have distinctly brighter prospects at Chicago but Bessemer iron sold at $1.25 at Pittsburgh and steel rails are reduced to $22 there and wire rods and nails are weaker.

Woolen manufacturers, judging from the sales at the three chief markets since Sept. 1, have been doing 3 per cent. more business than last year but 31 per cent. less than in 1892, and the average prices are the lowest ever known.

THE TREASURY BALANCE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The cash balance in the treasury today was $156,415,387; net gold, $110,007,592. The increase in gold is due to the deposit of $1,500,000 in the sub-treasury at San Francisco on account of bond purchases.

BANK CLEARANCES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—A statement compiled by Bradstreet shows that the total bank clearances of the principal cities in the United States for the past week were $1,163,308,848, an increase of 5 per cent. compared with the corresponding week of last year.

Garb of Drunken Rowdies Attack United States Marshal.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Dec. 7.—Two killed, one maimed for life and two badly wounded is the result of a pitched battle fought between Alva and Eagle and which was started by a number of drunken rowdies. While coming home the rowdies met Sam Crocker, deputy marshal, and three rangers enroute to Alva.

but that the western roads will charge full local rates on this class of freight from above western territory to Chicago and the eastern roads will have to charge their full local rates from Chicago east.

DRAWN INTO THE TROUBLE.

IS THIRSTING FOR GORE.

If His Enemy Will Not Fight He Will Kill Him.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—E. E. Hume, husband of Charlotte B. Herens, the leading lady in Robert Mantell's company, was in Cincinnati all week looking for Robert Mantell. Hume sent a challenge to Mantell but could get no one as second on account of the severe Ohio laws so he tried to get Mantell on to Kentucky soil where seconds in a fight are not held to such strict accountability. Tonight Hume sent a letter to Mantell asking the latter to meet him in Covington at 11:30. Mantell ignored the request. At the office of the Enquirer tonight Hume declared his intention of killing Mantell at sight.

KNEEBS DEEPER IN TROUBLE.

Trotter Bethel Is Not to Be Found in America.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The board of appeals of the American Trotting association, which has been in session the last three days, completed its work today and adjourned. A decision was handed down declaring the mare at Wakefield, Neb., said by R. T. Kneebles and his representatives to be the bay mare Bethel, is not Bethel. Kneebles is now in prison in Germany charged with using Bethel as a "ringer." As a defense he asserted that Bethel was in this country. The board has now upset his claim by its decision.

TORTURED BY CHEROKEES.

Indians Dance Around Their Helpless White Victim and Mangle His Body.

SELLING CHEROKEE LAND WAS HIS ONLY CRIME.

For That He Was Condemned to Death but Indians Decided to First Torture Him.

NOW IN PRISON AND IN IRONS.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Dec. 7.—A story of atrocity smacking of the usages of a barbarian country comes from Davids, a small town in the interior of the Indian territory. Colonel A. J. Blackwell was arrested for selling land and, according to Cherokee laws, was sentenced to death for high treason. Since then he has not been allowed even communication with the outside world and was fed upon bread and water.

On Monday, the story goes, Blackwell, after being stripped of his clothes, was brought before Oaha and asked to confess. Blackwell answered he had no confession to make and asked to be released. Instead he was carried to a place of torture adjoining the prison where he was subjected to treatment which was horrible in the extreme.

Ten bucks danced around the victim and each, wielding a steel made for the purpose, jabbed the naked flesh of Blackwell. Their terrible cries of "Ki-yi!" and the torture was kept up till Blackwell, bleeding and faint from a dozen punctures in the flesh, sank to the ground. In this condition he was finally taken to his former cell and still remains in irons, hand and foot notwithstanding the ferret appeals of his relatives and friends.

SHRILLER THAN A FOGHORN.

How the Twisting of a Pig's Tail Saved a Coasting Schooner from Disaster.

A coasting schooner was becalmed in a fog off Cutler somewhere, says the San Francisco Argonaut. It was a genuine Bay of Fundy fog, of the same variety that the man inadvertently nailed an extra course on to while shingling his house. You couldn't see the end of the bowsprit from the foremast, and a man up aloft might have been ten miles from earth for all that he could see.

RUINS OF JAMESTOWN.

Jamestown was the first capital of the Virginia colony, and two hundred and fifty years ago the palatial mansion of the royal governors here overlooked the river. Few vestiges of its past splendor remain, says the Washington Star, one of which is the brick tower which formed the entrance to the church built on the site of the one in which Pocahontas was baptized.

During the lapse of centuries the river has encroached upon its banks, and it is thought that the sites of many houses have been gradually washed away. This theory seems correct, for at low tide traces of brick foundations may be seen near the shores, as, for instance, the remains of the massive brick walls of an old powder magazine.

SHORTHAND IN OLD TIMES.

The Greeks, the Romans and the English of Queen Bess' Time Had It.

The art of "brachygraphie," or shorthand, as we call it now, is by no means a modern invention, says the New York Post. Even the Greeks and Romans had their system of abbreviating language, using it to take down public speeches.

An Important Amendment. A certain Russian princess lost her husband a few years ago, at which she was inconsolable and raised a fine mausoleum in his memory with this inscription: "My grief is so great that I cannot bear it."

Why Was It

that Ayer's Sarsaparilla, out of the great number of similar preparations manufactured throughout the world, was the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, Chicago? And why was it that, in spite of the united efforts of the manufacturers of other preparations, the decision of the World's Fair Directors was not reversed?

BECAUSE

According to RULE 15—"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition," and, therefore—

Because Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, and not a secret preparation.

Because its proprietors had nothing to conceal when questioned as to the formula from which it is compounded.

Because it is all that it is claimed to be—A Compound Concentrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, and in every sense, worthy the indorsement of this most important committee, called together for passing upon the manufactured products of the entire world.

THE GREATEST MODERN PHYSICIAN.

To Whom Thousands of Men and Women and Children Everywhere Owe Their Life and Happiness Today.

His Reputation Has Made Dartmouth College Famous in Every Town and Village in the Country---Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., Who First Gave to His Profession Paine's Celery Compound, the Wonderful Remedy That Makes People Well.

PROF. EDWARD E. PHELPS, M. D., LL. D.

"Excepting its handful of magnificent statesmen and its military heroes," says the most recent writer upon America, "the people owe more to Dartmouth's physician-teacher than to any one man.

"In every walk of life, among the highest officeholders at Washington, in the homes of the best people in the large cities, among the every-day folks of the country, families in comfortable circumstances, families that live from hand to mouth and could not, if they wished, afford the services of any but an ordinary physician—everywhere I have met people to whom Paine's celery compound has been a blessing."

The story of the life-work of this giant among men has been often told and is familiar to most readers. The likeness above is probably the best portrait of him yet printed.

It was the world-famed discovery of Prof. Phelps of an infallible cure for those fearful ills that result from an impaired nervous system and impure blood which has endeared the great doctor to the world, and made his life an era in the practice of medicine.

Prof. Phelps was born in Connecticut and graduated from the military school at Norwich, Vt. He studied medicine with Prof. Nathan Smith of New Haven, Conn., and graduated in medicine at Yale.

His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence among his professional brethren. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont university. Next he was appointed lecturer on materia medica and medical botany in Dartmouth college. The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Prof. Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

In view of the overwhelming testimony to the value of Paine's celery compound that has recently appeared from men of national reputation, the picture of Prof. Phelps is particularly interesting.

New York's state treasurer, Hon. Addison B. Colvin. Ex-Minister to Austria, John M. Francis. Miss Jenness Miller. President Cook of the national teachers' association.

Hon. David P. Toomey, the publisher of Donohoe's Magazine, editor of the Gen. John A. Halderman of New York city. Hon. John G. Carlisle's private secretary. The popular and talented actress, Marie Tempest; the poet author, Albert H. Hardy; the mayor of Montreal, brava Iva Lewis and a host more of prominent men and women are among the thousands of grateful people who have recently sent to the proprietors of this wonderful remedy their expressions of its unequalled value—men and women who can well afford, and do command the highest medical advice in the country.

And then also from "the plain people" there came thousands of honest, straightforward, heartfelt letters, telling how Paine's celery compound has made them well.

Their testimony simply goes to show what New England's vigorous essayist has so aptly said, that Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine: it is not a sarsaparilla; it is not an ordinary nerve—it is far beyond them all as the diamond is superior to cheap glass.

It makes people well. It is the one true specific recognized and prescribed today by eminent practitioners for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. Prof. Phelps gave to his profession a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For all such complaints Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

It is as harmless as it is good, and it was the universal advice of the medical profession that the compound be placed where the general public could secure it, and thousands of people have every year proven the wisdom of this good advice.

Only a truly great and effective remedy could continue, as Paine's celery compound has done, to hold its high place in the estimation of the ablest physicians and of the thousands of busy men and women who only means of judging is from the actual results in their own homes or among their friends. No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because none ever accomplished so much.

Today Paine's celery compound stands without an equal for feeding exhausted nerves and building up the strength of the body. It cures radically and permanently. The nervous prostration and general debility from which thousands of women suffer so long that it finally gets to be a second nature with them—all this suffering and dependency can be very soon removed by properly feeding the nerves and replacing the unhealthy blood by a fresher, more highly vitalized fluid. A healthy increase in appetite and a corresponding gain in weight and good spirits follow the use of Paine's celery compound.

Paine's celery compound is the most remarkable medical achievement of this last half of the nineteenth century.

YOUNG CULPRITS CAUGHT.

The Police of Ishpeming Make a Haul of Five Young Store Thieves.

MUCH OF THE STOLEN PROPERTY HAS BEEN RECOVERED.

Are Members of Gang That Has Been Looting Business Places for Some Time Past.

AN ARREST OF LOCAL TALENT.

The thieves who have burglarized several business houses in Ishpeming during the past year are now behind the bars in the city jail, some of them having been arrested Thursday afternoon and evening. Five of the iron cells are occupied at present and it is quite likely that others will be in use before tonight as the officers are after others who are suspected of having been implicated in some of the robberies. Those in custody are Ole and Anton Everson, Hjalmer Jeannquist, Andrew Husby and Norman McWilliams. None of these are under eighteen years of age and a couple of them are over twenty.

Although these robberies have been going on for some time the officers were not successful in finding a clue to the guilty parties until a few days ago when one of the boys called at Lindholm's second hand store on Second street and tried to sell a new revolver to the boy clerking there. While he was showing the revolver to the clerk a customer entered, when the lad quickly grabbed the weapon and put it in his pocket. He then left the store. When Mr. Lindholm came in the clerk told him about the boy being there trying to dispose of the revolver. The proprietor at once suspected that the weapon was one of those stolen from Eggen or two of the men who had informed Mr. Eggen of his suspicion. The latter informed Marshal Carlson of the affair and he, with Officers Nolan and Downing, at once began work on the case.

They kept the matter to themselves and made it their business to keep an eye on those whom they suspected of being members of the band whenever they saw them around town. On Wednesday night, Marshal Peterson's place was entered, the front door being opened with a key in the usual way. About $2 in change which remained in the till over night, several boxes of cigars and a few bottles of liquors were stolen. Thursday morning the officers were notified of the theft. The marshal and deputy marshal spent the day on the back streets. During the afternoon they spotted some of the boys going through an alley smoking cigars. One or two of them were slightly intoxicated. The officers then felt satisfied that they were on the right track so they decided to search the Everson boy's home, as they suspected that if they were the thieves some of the stolen articles would be found there. Outside the door they found an empty cartridge box which had been in Eggen's stock before the robbery, and inside they found revolvers, cartridges, razors and other articles which had never been used. These were found in bureau drawers and other places about the house. They then returned to town and arrested Anton Everson and young Jeannquist. After these were placed behind the bars they confessed their guilt and told the officers that a portion of their stolen treasure was concealed in the loft of Everson's barn.

Marshal Carlson started out to get the articles in the barn while Nolan and Downing went after Ole Everson, who was supposed to be the most likely and the leader of the gang, Husby and McWilliams. Meantime Everson had been informed of his brother's arrest and he knew the officers were after him, so he at once left town, starting off in the direction of Negaunee. Nolan knew that the lad was pretty sharp and was on the lookout for him, so he disguised himself in a friend's clothes and started across the hills toward Union Park. He soon got sight of Everson climbing up a hill making for the woods. The lad saw Nolan but took him for a peddler, so he did not make any attempt to get away when the officer approached him. Ole was brought back to town and placed in jail.

Shortly after supper Downing bobbed up with Husby and McWilliams, they having been found at their homes after returning from work. It is not certain as yet that Husby and McWilliams were implicated in the thefts but they have been intimate friends of the other lads and have bought and traded guns, etc., with them. When seen yesterday they declared that they were innocent so far as being mixed up in the robberies were concerned but they admitted that they were in possession of some of the stolen articles. One of the boys is wearing a suit of underwear which was stolen from one of the local dry goods stores a few months ago.

Marshal Carlson stated yesterday that he expected to make another haul of stolen articles today as one of the boys had promised to tell him where they were secreted. Several of the articles in possession of the marshal were identified by the owners yesterday. The boys will be given a hearing as soon as Prosecuting Attorney Young can find time to conduct it, he being busy at the circuit court these days. Yesterday the boys were having a hilarious time in the jail. They could talk to each other as the cells they occupy are all located in one room.

A Fine Concert The entertainment given at the Division street Methodist church by the May Leggett Concert company Wednesday evening was one of the best of its kind ever given in Ishpeming. The church was packed to the doors, several being compelled to stand after a number of extra chairs had been filled. Two of the company, John W. Dodge, the tenor singer, and A. E. Abey, the cello player, did not appear they having recently gone with another company. Their places were filled, however, by Miss Blanche Deering, pianist, and Dr. E. B. Spalding, baritone. The selections by Miss Girardeau were well chosen and she was recalled repeatedly. She is by far the finest locationist that ever appeared in Ishpeming. She is very graceful and her voice is musical and clear.

Dr. Spalding has a good voice and his solos were pleasing and were highly appreciated. Miss Deering is a splendid accompanist and her selections were also very good.

The company gave such universal satisfaction that the Teachers association will endeavor to secure them for another engagement some time during the winter.

Series of Sermons

Tomorrow evening Rev. J. H. Green, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church begins another series of sermons which will be largely directed toward helping young men, yet all are cordially invited to hear them. The first will be "The Prodigal's Elder Brother, or The American Fault Finder"; the second, "David, an Honest Confessor of His Many Faults, yet a Man who Never Denied His God"; third, "Paul the Fearless One, yet Never Ashamed of the Convictions"; fourth, "Thomas the Doubter, but Still the Safest Man of all the Twelve Disciples"; fifth, "Moses, the Man of Destiny, or What He Was by Choice"; sixth, "Solomon, the Wise Man, or a Type of the Higher Criticism." Mr. Green will preach tomorrow morning from the theme, "Christ the Tree of Life, or Twelve Manners of Trust."

A. O. U. W. Officers.

At the regular meeting of Ishpeming lodge No. 113, A. O. U. W., held Thursday evening officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Master workman, Thomas M. Tremberth; foreman, John D. West; overseer, Dennis Maloney; recorder, John S. Mennie; financier, J. Leonard Johnson; receiver, John B. Tibor; guide, Thomas Tart; representative to the grand lodge, Ed Johnson; alternate, John B. Tibor. Deputy Grand Master Workman Hollings was present and gave the members a very interesting talk. Messrs. Hollings and Tremberth sang duets, which were greatly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the meeting an oyster supper was served. The attendance was unusually large.

Hearts are light and eyes shine bright where Dr. Price's Baking Powder is used.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Mamie Carso's hearing has been set for next Wednesday morning. W. E. Tyler, of the Milwaukee & St. Paul route, was in the city yesterday. John Branden and wife of Duluth, former residents of Ishpeming, are in the city visiting friends. Ed La Londe contemplates engaging in the lunch and confectionery business in the near future. He will occupy his own building at the corner of Division and Pine streets. Herman Jaedecke, Ishpeming's hustling cigar manufacturer, has been at Ontonagon and other places up the line during the week. Mr. Jaedecke's popular brands of cigars are in big demand.

At the regular meeting of Ishpeming lodge No. 314, F. & A. M., held Thursday evening officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: E. F. Bradt, W. M.; C. T. Fairbairn, S. W.; A. C. Parks, J. W.; R. Maxwell, treasurer; C. R. Ely, secretary; R. T. Smith, S. D.; W. S. Durand, J. D.; T. Geary, Tyler; Rev. J. T. Joslin, chaplain; William Keskeys and James James, stewards.

Memorial services in the name of the late Orion E. Downing will be held at the Division street Methodist church tomorrow morning, beginning at the usual hour. The services will not be denominational and all who attend will be made welcome. Mayor Johnston and other leading citizens will be present and will speak of Mr. Downing. Special music has been provided for the occasion.

Dr. Winslow Anderson, of the University of California, reports: "I pronounce Dr. Price's Baking Powder as perfect as it is possible for any powder to be made."

LONG-DISTANCE TALKING.

How It Is Practiced by Mountain Guides in Albania.

The people of Albania are said to practice long-distance talking without the help of the electric current. In their mountainous country they pass along the word from summit to summit by the unaided strength of their lungs. Regular relays are said to be established for receiving and dispatching news. This is patterned after the use of couriers in more level countries. The author of "The Cruise of the R. Y. S. Era" speaks of this habit of the Albanians as a national peculiarity.

They cannot say their say when they are near each other, but must always wait till they get to the top of two hills to begin to talk. You march along after your Albanian guide and meet another; they may perhaps kiss, clasp hands, mutter a few words and pass on, or not mutter, they pass without the slightest notice. On you go and forget that you met anybody, when suddenly, on arriving at the top of a hill, your guide turns round and sings out: "O Georgio, Georgio-o-o!" or whatever his name may be, spinning out the last syllable to great length. The echo has hardly died away before you hear the answer. Talk has begun, and you had better sit down, unless you do not mind proceeding alone, for more they will not until their say is over, and you may have to exercise your patience for half an hour.

There is no question that this long-talking propensity is a great bore, not only for the loss of time it occasions, but because the noise is enough to disturb every head of game in the country.

A Startling Admission.

In New York City, for five consecutive years, the proportion of Deaths from Consumption has been three in every Twenty Persons.

Epidemics of Cholera, Yellow Fever and other diseases of similar character, so terrible in their results, occasion wide spread alarm and receive the most careful consideration for their prevention and cure, while consumption receives scarcely a thought, yet the number of their victims sinks into insignificance when compared with those of consumption. Comparatively few people know what to do for their loved ones when they see them gradually lose strength, lose color, manifest feeble vitality and emaciation, or develop a cough, with difficult breathing, or hemorrhage. Cold liver oil was for a long time given in all such cases, but the poor success attending its use coupled with its nauseating taste has led many practitioners, as well as the public at large, to place their main reliance in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It deserves early attention and will prove effectual not in every case but in a large percentage of cases, and we believe that fully 95 per cent. of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the early stages of the disease, be cured with the "Discovery." Dr. Pierce does not ask people to believe until they have investigated for themselves. A pamphlet has been published having the names, addresses and photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies which will be mailed free to those sending for it with their name and address upon a postal card, or you can have a medical treatise, in book form of 100 pages, mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experiences.

High - Priced Offices Bought by Them Are Afterwards Paid for by the Merchant and Farmer Through Exorbitant Taxation.

A residence of eight years in Corea, says a Seoul correspondent in the New York Sun, has given me the opportunity of studying the character and disposition of this and neighboring peoples which comparatively few strangers have had.

The question arises, from whom does this money come? It comes out of the farmer and the merchant, and, as between these two, the farmer pays practically the whole.

Americans say that this is an exaggerated statement, but a knowledge of the workings of things here would show that my language is conservative.

But there are limits to the patience even of a Corean. When they are driven to the wall they will turn and show their teeth.

An instance of this came under my observation once. I was taking a little pleasure trip in the saddle to the northern metropolis, Ping Yang.

FOR CURRENCY REFORM.

Judge Stone Discusses Two Proposed Plans Before Marquette Club.

POSSIBLE CHANGE IN ST. PAUL'S TERMINUS

That Road Not Likely to Throw Away Business by Cutting Off Its Through Service.

AN INTERESTING SUBJECT.

The house night of the Marquette club was well attended, probably a majority of members being present to hear Judge Stone's presentation of two plans of currency reform now prominently before the public—one known as the "Baltimore" plan and the other that advocated by Secretary Carlisle and endorsed by President Cleveland in his recent message. Judge Stone did not advocate or oppose either plan but confined himself to a clear presentation of the features of each, with some considerations on the defects of our present currency system and the proper functions of banks.

The "Baltimore" plan is so called because it was presented to the recent meeting of the National association of Bankers by the clearing house committee of that city. It proposes that the requirements of a deposit of bonds to secure circulation be abolished; that national banks be allowed to issue circulating notes to the extent of 50 per cent of their unimpaired capital, with permission to issue in emergencies up to 75 per cent, but this under a heavy tax; that the United States guarantee the redemption of the notes of all failed banks and for that purpose collect by taxation upon the bank circulation a guarantee fund of 5 per cent. of such circulation; that the United States continue to have, as now, a prior lien upon the assets of every bank to secure its notes, and that the present system of inspection be continued or made even more rigid. In support of this plan it is pointed out that it works successfully in Canada and was successful in several states; that in thirty-one years the total loss to the United States in redeeming the notes of failed banks, had there been no bond security, would have been only $1,139,000; that a tax of three-hundredths of 1 per cent on the circulation of the national banks would have covered this loss, and therefore that a guarantee fund of 5 per cent. is ample.

Secretary Carlisle's plan was set forth with some fullness in these columns recently and need not be rehearsed now. Judge Stone's general remarks on currency and banks are of interest and follow:

"It has always been claimed by the advocates of the national bank system that it is that part of our financial machinery by which the volume of paper currency may increase or diminish in obedience to the laws of trade; that if the volume becomes excessive their notes are returned to the banks and retired, to be issued again when increasing business requires them.

"The bank is the chief instrument of modern exchange. It is as necessary to trade as the railroad is to transportation. It brings the borrower and the lender together and renders available for the uses of industry the loanable capital of the community.

"The demand seems to be for an elastic currency and it is claimed that a currency to be elastic must be issued against credit; that banks must thus have power to create a medium of exchange or currency, and that in no other way can they meet the wants of commerce. It is claimed by the advocates of this new plan that there is a want of elasticity in our present currency system; that in the panic of last year the government and the banks were powerless to afford relief and that the currency was unresponsive to the wants of trade; that a system which compels a bank to buy bonds for deposit in order to take out a circulation of 75 per cent of the amount expended to buy the securities aggravated instead of relieved the money stringency.

There was some interesting discussion of Judge Stone's paper by those present and the evening was concluded with a substantial luncheon.

Held a Short Session.

The circuit court disposed of one case yesterday, the action in assumption brought by the McNeil & Higgins company against Perry & Clark of Negaunee. It seems that the plaintiff had a claim of about $150 against the former firm of Perry & Brand and alleged that Perry & Clark, as successors, had assumed liability for Perry & Brand's debts. The defendants denied assuming any such liability. In the judgment of the jury the plaintiff failed to make out its case and a verdict was returned for the defendants. J. M. Edgerton appeared for the plaintiff and McClear & Bell for the defendants.

The call for today is No. 15, Plazine Nault vs. D. S. & A. P.'s company, assumpsit; Hayden Young for plaintiff and A. E. Miller for defendant.

In golden autumn or icy winter Dr. Price's Baking Powder is equally effective.

A Sparrow Convention.

There was a convention of English sparrows on the telegraph wires just back of Pickands' coal office about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When first noticed there were about fifty sparrows perched close along the wires but delegation after delegation arrived until nearly two hundred could be counted, all sitting inside of a space of twenty feet along the six or eight wires that lead from the Western Union office. While the gathering was not unusually noisy it was evident from the twittering that matters of importance to the commonwealth of the sparrows was under discussion. The presiding officer sat on the head of a telegraph pole and from the way that emissaries went back and forth from one part of the assembly to another it was evident that the leaders of the various factions were endeavoring to get together. The convention lasted for over an hour. During the latter part of this time some few birds left, just as men leave a convention to catch a train. Finally the end of business was reached and the delegates rose in a body and flew down where a grain car had stood to "have something." It was noticed that harmony seemed to mark the close of the proceedings and if the decision reached or ticket nominated left any "sore heads" they did not manifest themselves.

May Change Terminus.

According to a story in the Menominee Daily Herald of yesterday the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road is likely in the near future to make that city the terminus of its northern division instead of Champion. It is intimated that trains will be run through solid from Chicago to Menominee and that travelers going farther north will have to change cars at Ellis Junction. One of the reasons for the change is said to be the increased freight traffic into Menominee by the lake and rail route in connection with the Ann Arbor line. Menominee hopes to get a new depot and larger roundhouse out of the change.

The St. Paul line now gets a very nice passenger business out of the northern part of the peninsula, especially from the copper country and this county, and it is hardly probable that it will throw this traffic into the hands of the Northwestern by compelling the passengers to change cars twice, at Champion and at Ellis Junction. But as most of the travel from this section is of the sleeping car class it may easily recur to the old arrangement and run through sleepers both to Champion and to Menominee. The sleeper which formerly ran between the latter place and Milwaukee has since the cross-out to Sidway been taken up to Channing and through to Ontonagon if there were five or more passengers for that place. If the St. Paul wishes to have any chance at first class travel from this section it will have to continue to furnish through service from Champion at least.

First of the Series.

The first of this year's series of Masonic dancing receptions was given last evening. With the best dancing floor in the city, good music by Hughes' orchestra and just enough people present to fill the room comfortably without crowding, the event was a decided success. There were about sixty couples in attendance and a toothsome lunch was served in the banquet room between 11 and 12 o'clock. The dance broke up about 2 a. m. and all present declared that Marquette lodge's series of 1894-5 had started off most pleasantly. The committee in charge this year consists of Messrs. F. H. Gooding, A. E. Delf, F. G. Truscott, W. W. Osburn and Arthur Mitchell and there is no doubt that under their capable management the parties will equal this year the very pleasant affairs of former seasons.

Sunday Services.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning Mr. Spencer will give a familiar talk on his idea of a minister. At the evening service instead of a sermon there will be a series of five-minute talks by prominent people on the topic "Reasons Why Christianity Commends Itself to Me."

Rev. W. E. Feeman will hold services at the usual hours tomorrow at the Baptist church.

At St. Paul's church Rev. George Gibson of Iron Mountain will officiate at tomorrow's services as follows: Early communion at 8 a. m.; sermon and communion at 10:30; Sunday school at 12 m.; evensong and sermon, 7:30 p. m.

At St. Margaret's Chapel there will be Sunday school at 3 p. m. and evensong with sermon at 4 p. m.

Smiles abound wherever Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is used.

Iron Cross Officers.

Iron Cross lodge, No. 106, Knights of Pythias, elected officers last night as follows: Chancellor commander, Webster Dock; vice chancellor, Neil Ferguson; prelate, A. J. Otterson; master of work, Richard J. Sparling; keeper of records and seal, Charles T. Giehl; master of finance, Newman A. Metz; master of exchequer, Solomon E. McKinney; master-at-arms, Edward B. Powell; trustee, L. G. Hallstrom; representative to grand lodge, Charles M. Gooding; alternate, Thomas Dwyer; installing officer, Joseph C. Cosford.

For the Holidays.

The South Shore railway will put on sale Dec. 23 to Jan. 1 tickets to all points on its own lines and to all principal points in lower Michigan at one and one-third fare for the round trip. These tickets will be good to return until Jan 3 inclusive and thus afford opportunity for Christmas and New Year visits at low rates. Particulars may be obtained of all agents.

A "TRUST" WHICH IS POPULAR. There is a great deal of indignation felt against trusts the Sugar Trust, the Standard Oil Trust, the Welsh Tin Plate Trust, the English Salt Trust and other combinations of the kind, are vigorously denounced, and it is a subject of controversy whether there are more trusts in England than America, and whether protection or free trade fosters them. But there is one form of trust against which no one has anything to say. That is the trust the public reposes in Hood's Sarsaparilla.
