SUBSTITUTE IS OFFERED.

Congressman Springer Presents a New Currency Bill to the House.

CARLISLE GIVES HIS CONSENT TO THE NEW BILL.

Substitute is Substantially a New Measure Although Some Features of the Original Remain.

MANY CHANGES ARE MADE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—After conferences between the Democratic members of the house committee on banking and currency and with the approval of the secretary of the treasury Springer today introduced a substitute for the Carlisle currency bill. It is substantially a new measure although some times the original measure is retained in the new bill. The bill is arranged so as to show the new features in parenthesis. The first section is as follows: "That (so much of) all acts and parts of acts as require or authorize the deposit of United States bonds to secure circulating notes issued by national banking associations be repealed (as to associations taking out circulation under this act) and such notes shall not contain the statement that they are so secured. Section 2 is changed so banks cannot only deposit legal tenders to secure circulation but also currency certificates issued under section 5,193, revised statutes of the United States."

In section 3 provision is made for keeping up a safety fund and in addition to the terms of the original bill it provides that the collection of said tax of one-fourth of one per cent. for each half year shall be resumed and continued until the said fund is restored to an amount equal to 5 per cent on the total circulation outstanding. All circulating notes of failed national banks not redeemed on presentation to the treasurer of the United States, shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from date of suspension of the bank until thirty days after public notice has been given that there are funds on hand for their redemption and such notes shall constitute a first lien on all moneys thereafter received into the safety fund.

Section 7 is entirely new and is as follows: "That every national banking association heretofore organized and having bonds on deposit to secure circulation may withdraw such bonds upon the deposit of lawful money of the United States now provided by law and heretofore such association may take out circulation under this act and be entitled to all rights, privileges and immunities herein conferred."

Section 10, providing for state banks, is the same as in the original bill, except in the restrictions on state banks that the new provision states that the state funds maintained by them may include "currency certificates under the issue of section 5193 of the revised statutes."

An entire new provision is added to the state banks as follows: "Whenever the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of currency shall be satisfied that any banking corporation duly organized under the laws of any state and which transacts no other than a banking business as provided in this section, has been incorporated under the laws of the state in which it is located, which laws do not require that the stockholders shall be individually liable for the redemption of its circulating notes to the full extent of their ownership of stock and such laws require that the circulating notes thereof shall constitute a first lien upon all assets of the bank and also such laws as require such banks to keep on deposit at all times with an official of the state authorized by law to receive and hold the same a guarantee fund as required in the fourth paragraph of this section, they shall issue to said bank a certificate to that effect, thereupon the said bank may issue its notes as provided in this act and thereafter the tax of 10 per cent. heretofore imposed by law upon circulation of notes of state banks, shall not be assessed or collected upon the notes of such banks unless it appears that the said bank has issued circulating notes in excess of 75 per cent. of its paid up and unimpaired capital or that its capital is impaired and remains so for thirty days, or that the bank has not kept on deposit with a state official authorized by law to receive and hold the same a guarantee fund as required in the fourth paragraph of this section, or that said bank has not promptly redeemed its notes in lawful money at par on demand at its principal office or at one or more of its branch offices, if it has branch offices; and no person or corporation other than the bank issuing such notes in violation of the provisions of this act shall be liable to a tax of 10 per cent. upon the circulating notes of state banks as now provided by law."

"Section 11.—(That any banking association organized under the laws of any state may deposit with the treasurer of the United States legal tender notes and receive certificates therefor in the manner provided in section 5193 of the revised statutes of the United States and) the secretary of the treasury may, under proper regulations to be established by him, permit such banks to procure and use in the preparation of their notes the distinctive paper used in the printing of United States securities; but no state bank shall print or engrave its notes in similitude of the United States certificate or national bank notes."

Sections 3, 4, 6, and 9 are practically the same as in the original bill.

TO PASSIFY GERMANY.

Bill Presented to Repeal Differential Duty on Sugar.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Chairman Wilson of the ways and means committee today introduced in the house a bill repealing the portion of the new tariff act which imposes a differential duty of one-tenth of one per cent per pound on sugars imported from a country paying a bounty on sugar exported.

In the house a joint resolution for a recess from tomorrow till Jan. 3 was adopted. Then the house went into committee of the whole on the currency bill. Johnson (Ind.) said he understood a substitute for the pending bill was to be offered and thought it should be submitted without delay. Springer said it was the purpose some time during the afternoon to submit a substitute.

The bill of Lynch (Dem. Wis.) was then passed by unanimous consent for the relief of homesteaders whose property was devastated by forest fires last year.

The special order for a night session was vacated and the house adjourned.

A general omnibus bill for the relief of various states, territories and cities of the country as a final discharge of existing claims against the government was introduced in the house today by Stone (Ky.) (by request). In discharge of claims the secretary may, if he deems expedient, deliver to claimants non-interest bearing certificates of indebtedness of denominations of not less than $50, which are to be redeemed in five equal annual installments.

WILL INVESTIGATE ANYHOW.

Jewett Will Pay No Attention to Turkish Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The latest advices from United States Minister Terrell at Constantinople to the state department indicate that the porte is still firm in his opposition to the inquiry proposed to be made into the Armenian outrages by United States Consul Jewett under the conditions prescribed by the president. It is probable the United States minister will persist in his efforts to induce the porte to accede to his request and if it should be finally refused Jewett will still undertake the inquiry with which he is charged and the Turkish government will be held responsible for his safety. For the state department cannot concede the right of any foreign nation to prevent its officers from collecting information for its own use and guidance.

CONSENT TO REDUCTION.

Wages of Homestead Steel Workers Will Be Reduced.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 21.—The announcement is made to the workmen of the Homestead Steel works today that the scale for 1895 would be ready for inspection on Dec. 21. The new scale shows a slight average reduction in wages, but to offset this cut the company agrees to reduce rents and the cost of fuel in proportion. The wages of laborers are not to be reduced. The scale for the Edgar Thompson works will show reductions similar to those at Homestead. The men as a whole will doubtless sign the new scale without trouble.

STILL BAGGING MALLARDS.

President and Party Indulge in Early Morning's Enamements.

GEORGETOWN, S. C., Dec. 21.—Sounds of rapid firing heavy duck guns, heard by early risers this morning gave evidence of the fact that the president and party were again enjoying another day-break engagement with mallards and canvas backs in the marshes. The light house tender Wisteria today dropped down to South Island. The presidential party will shoot again over the ponds of General F. P. Alexander tomorrow, leaving in time to reach Georgetown by 2 p. m., the time set for the reception to be tendered the president.

CRITICIZES THE OFFICERS.

Minnesota's Land Fraud Investigating Committee Makes Its Report.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 20.—The special committee appointed by the last legislature to investigate the alleged land frauds in the sale of pine lands in this state made a formal report to the governor today. The report states that there has been a saving of $37,000 to the state by successful suits instituted by the committee in cases where frauds were perpetrated, gives lists of suits pending for an aggregate amount of $150,000, and most severely criticizes State Auditor Bierman and Land Clerk Matt Clark for their administration of affairs.

NOW COMES TO TERMS.

Spanish Government Recognizes the Demands of United States.

MADRID, Dec. 21.—A bill was introduced in the chamber of deputies today to suppress export and industrial taxes on sugar and molasses in Cuba. Senor Abarauza, minister for the colonies, declared that the government is prepared to agree to the remitting of fines imposed in Cuba on American shipping.

In woman's empire Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is always sure to rule.

HAS BECOME PARALYZED.

Lord Randolph Churchill Is Reported to Be Seriously Ill.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A morning paper says it is reported that Lord Randolph Churchill is paralyzed on one side and that he has lost the faculty of recognizing people. His mother and sister have gone to Marseilles to meet him.

Debs Will Appeal.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—It was decided late today by the attorneys for Debs and the other officials of the American Railway union to make an appeal from the decision of Judge Woods. The case will be carried to the United States supreme court.

Irwin Finds Bail.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 21.—George M. Irwin, the discretionary pool operator, was released from jail late this evening on $20,000 bail. The first day of the January term at Philadelphia was set for the hearing of the appeal from the decision of the court here.

BANK VAULT BLOWN OPEN.

Bold Bank Robbers Make a Successful Midnight Raid on an Illinois Bank.

EXPLOSION MUTILATED MANY OF THE BILLS.

The Burglars Failed to Secure but a Very Small Share of the Institution's Wealth.

THEY USED TOO MUCH POWDER.

CHAMPAIGN, Ills., Dec. 20.—Early this morning the safe in the State bank at Mansfield was blown open by burglars. The amount taken is supposed to amount to several thousand dollars. It is believed it was done by Chicago crooks.

The force of the explosion almost wrecked the vault and destroyed nearly all the money in the safe so the robbers got only $300 belonging to the postmaster, which was not in the safe, and several thousand dollars of the bank's money. About a thousand dollars in bills was so mutilated the safe blowers left it behind. It was blown into such small pieces but little of it can be redeemed.

The work is believed to have been done by four Chicago men who got off of a south-bound Wabash train at Mansfield last night and the conductor furnished the authorities with a good description of them. The clock in the bank stopped at 1:40 a. m., indicating the time of the explosion but no one in the village heard it and the robbery was not discovered until daylight.

Bogus Yankton School Bonds Bring Nearly a Million Dollars.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The first meeting of the creditors of J. T. M. Pierce & Co., was held today and proofs furnished on the sale of bogus Yankton, Da., school bonds. In Belfast it appears $150,000 of these bonds were placed, $125,000 were disposed of in Manchester, in Huddersfield, Glasgow and Bedford respectively $100,000 of alleged securities were sold and in London bonds were placed to the amount of $250,000. The creditors proved debts against the firm amounting to $800,000.

REMOVED FROM OFFICE.

Motion for New Trial in Iowa Boozing Case Refused.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Dec. 21.—County Supervisor Walter Strange, around whom is the fight of the citizens' committee against boozing, was sentenced for eight months, was removed from office today, Judge Vanvagnen refusing a motion for a new trial. Notice of appeal to the supreme court was at once filed. The defense was granted ten days to file a bill of exceptions but judgment on the verdict was entered immediately.

REUNION OF PILGRIM FATHERS.

Forefathers Day the Cause of Celebration in Boston.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—The united order of Pilgrim Fathers celebrated forefathers day tonight in Music hall, which was crowded, among those present being representatives of the order from many sections of New England. Lieutenant Governor Wolcott and Massachusetts Insurance Commissioner, Major George S. Merrill, were the principal speakers.

WAS A FALSE ALARM.

Rumored Uprising of Pine Ridge Indians Proved Untrue.

OMAHA, Dec. 21.—Reports of the threatened uprising at Pine Ridge are unfounded. The fact that the Indians on the reservation have abandoned their farms in large numbers, together with the approaching banking next Friday of Two Sticks, the Sioux Chief, for the murder of three cowboys, disturbed many settlers with the fear that they contemplated war.

A stately leader in the procession of American food products is Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

MISSOURI ON A RAMPAGE.

Rise in the River Caused by Heavy Snow Storms.

SIoux CITY, Dec. 21.—A sudden rise in the Missouri here today of nearly six feet carried out the pontoon bridge. Four men were on the draw when it went out and excitement ran high until they were taken off with a skiff. A terrific snow storm farther north caused the tremendous rise.

Resignation Not Accepted.

DENVER, Dec. 21.—The Denver Times says tonight: "Word was received informally in the city this morning from Washington that the resignation of Bishop Matz, which was forwarded to Rome a month or so ago, has not been and will not be accepted by the pope."

Murderer Executed.

KALISPELL, Mont., Dec. 20.—The execution of Calvin J. Christie, alias Charles Black, alias Charles Adams, for the murder of Mrs. Sunnugham last April, took place at the jail yard this morning. His neck was broken and death was instantaneous.

Forecast of the Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—9 p. m.—The weather bureau reports the following as the forecast for the next twenty-four hours: For upper Michigan: Fair; colder; north wind.

Tuition free. For Catalogues apply to the Director, Houghton, Mich.

PRIZES ON PATENTS. How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune. We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C. which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors. Not so Hard as it Seems. The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being difficult; this delusion the Company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the inventor. The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention, through us, and whether he secures the prize or not, the inventor will have a valuable patent. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, JOHN WEDDERBURN, Gen'l Manager, 618 F St. N. W., Washington, D. C. P. S. The responsibility of his company may be judged from the fact that its stock is held by about seventeen hundred of the leading newspapers of the United States.

SHOWS DECIDED INCREASE, Statement Is Given Showing the Commerce Through Portage Lake Ship Canal. CHANNEL BEING USED BY MUCH LARGER VESSELS.

Notorious Will Kibbee at His Old Tricks in Detroit but Makes His Escape. [All communications intended for this department should be addressed to Horace J. Stevens, Houghton, Mich. Telephone connection.] HOUGHTON.

Comparative statement of commerce through Portage Lake ship canals, Michigan, for the seasons of 1893 and 1894:

To show that the canals are being used by the largest class of vessels the four largest of 1893 are given in comparison with the four largest of 1894, as follows:

Names.	N. Tonnage.	Names.	N. Tonnage.
W. J. Wade	1,302	Nor. Star	1,885
Portage	1,451	German	1,872
Montana	1,381	Star	1,812

The above table does not include trucks which do an extensive business in towing rafts, vessels and scows loaded with wood, hay, etc. The foregoing table giving the business of the Portage Lake ship canals for the season of navigation of 1894 is furnished THE MINING JOURNAL through the courtesy of Superintendent Marr, who is the efficient representative of the government at this point. The figures speak for themselves, and the great increase in coal receipts and general traffic is most gratifying. The much greater size of vessels using the canals is shown by the table giving the four largest vessels passing through in '93 and this year. With a sixteen foot channel the great through traffic of Lake Superior will pass through Portage Lake, and the consequent lowering of rates through increase of capacity in vessels unloading and loading here will be of great value to the county industries, to say nothing of the very considerable volume of transient, tourist and chandlery trade brought here by the canal.

Will Kibbee has been heard from again. THE MINING JOURNAL printed a communication from a Detroit box manufacturer some two weeks ago in which the antecedents and character of that wily young man were inquired into rather anxiously. It seems that young man, after doing ex-postmaster Hance, Don. M. Dickinson, Thos. W. Palmer, Wm. Livingston, Jr., and other prominent residents out of five to ten dollars each, was compelled to tackle the common herd. This he did to such advantage that there were many sufferers, and on comparing notes a complaint was made to the police. A detail of detectives was sent to the house at 84 Adams avenue west where he had been hiding for some time past, shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Kibbee had just retired to his room, but when the detectives reached his abiding place he wasn't there. A convenient rear window had allowed him to escape, for the tenth time, the police. The policeman or detective who will catch and keep caught this young man is still to be heard from. Kibbee had been flying high in Detroit. He told the people boarding at the house where he stopped that his father was the editor of THE MINING JOURNAL, and that he himself was the editorial writer who handled all the abstract financial topics on the Detroit News. He it was who wrote those ringing articles on the silver question. Such was his plausibility that his fellow boarders believed him. The News contained an account of some of his crooked actions Tuesday evening, and the paper was at the house when he returned to supper, and he calmly read the article and after finishing it swore that some day—second night he was masquerading under his name, and that he would see that the rascal was apprehended and put behind the bars, where he would cease to impugn gentlemen's characters. Then he went upstairs, and when the detectives came they found no Kibbee. He had even taken his clothing and the rest of his personal effects. A letter from his mother was found in a dresser, which he had evidently overlooked in his haste to escape. The letter is published, because it shows plainly that the young man is not aided or abetted in any manner by his father, and that the letters of introduction presented by young Kibbee are evidently clever forgeries.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Sept. 26, 1894. MY DEAR WILLIE—I thought I would write to you to let you know that I am well, and hope to find you the same. We have very rainy weather in Houghton. I just got signed from Marquette Tuesday evening, from grandma's, she is very low, indeed. I am certain she will last no longer than a week. The lady that owns the house that grandma lives in now, well, she set it on fire to get the insurance. Well, all the rooms burned down, but one room that grandma laid sick in. While I was in Marquette a letter came to me from the Peninsula bank, saying that you presented a letter from your pa, for $2.50. He wants your father to pay it immediately. What ever you do we are sure to hear it again. Your father is crazy mad. Your father said he would write to him right away and tell him that he never told you to go to the bank. How many times must I tell you to do straight. The chance if before Thursday, because the names are not all alike, on one it is Skiber, the other Kibson. So Mr. Dubie said he cannot cash the order. The rule is that the names must be all alike. So next time please be careful. I am very glad you had the pleasure of meeting your cousin. The first thing you do, you go and pay that banker, for gracious sake do not have anything more in THE MINING JOURNAL. We are disgraced enough now, without having any more. Pa is getting letters all the time, where you are cheating all of his friends. It is a shame it will ruin pa's name. Your pa said that he don't believe that you are working for the Evening News. I wish that you would make it plain that you are. Now, don't for God's sake let me see anything in any live paper, and don't go and forge your father's name any more. Let me know all about this. Your mother, Mrs. REBECCA KIBBEE.

Answer soon. Good bye. The people of the house where Kibbee boarded are short considerable jewelry, and the police are short their man. At his business the young man has few equals and no superiors.

F. A. Douglass will be the agent of the Western Express company in Houghton.

The pupils of the Sunday school of Grace Methodist church sang appropriate Christmas exercises last evening.

The public schools were closed for the term with literary and musical exercises in the various rooms, yesterday.

Messrs. Croze & Pryor, after two attempts at building an ice rink, have abandoned the project to turn the thing into a natatorium for the winter. That seems the only sort of an aquatic enterprise that is in keeping with the weather.

Exercises appropriate to the close of the term and the Christmas festival were held yesterday at the public schools.

Rev. J. Edward Reilly will deliver his lecture on Mexico at St. George's Hall, Quincy, this evening.

Christmas services for the Sunday school of the Congregational church will be held tomorrow evening.

Christmas services will be held at 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday at the Peawick Methodist church.

Christmas tree exercises were held at the Quincy and Peawick schools yesterday.

The Quincy mine pays its men today for November work. Pay day is a week later than was expected but there will probably be more money for Christmas than had the pay been earlier.

Invitations have been issued to the friends of the Salvation Army—and they are passed through the times when their enemies were numerous and friends few—to attend the formal dedication of the handsome new barracks which have just been completed on Seventh street. The dedication ceremonies will begin at 10:30 o'clock Sunday forenoon, and there is no question but that there will be as many people present as can crowd into the building—and the auditorium is one of magnificent size. Delegations of large size will be present from Portage Lake and elsewhere, and a very interesting time is anticipated by all concerned.

George Washington lodge No. 1 Junior Order Sons of St. George will give an entertainment at the opera house this evening. A long and interesting program has been prepared, in which music, recitations and various other exercises will take place. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend.

Flowers have been gathered from a number of open air gardens during the month, and if the present weather continues much longer the buds will begin to appear on the trees. Old residents can remember but one season like it, which was just twenty years ago.

Christmas services will be held at Odd Fellows hall at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

John Kehoe has returned from Bedford in the morning, and an exciting and altogether pleasant experience, in which he was accompanied by a Detroit man with the Granger racing law which the hoosiers recently enacted. He managed to get clear without penalty, but at the end of considerable litigation.

Two liquor dealers at Renova have recently paid their licenses. They did so after being arrested by Sheriff Dunn, and found it cheaper to take out licenses than to pay the prospective fines.

The following program will be rendered at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon. Men and boys cordially invited:

- Christmas Carol..... Mixed Chorus.
- Reading..... T. Willis, Jr.
- Solo..... H. T. Lewis.
- Address, ten minutes..... H. T. Lewis.
- Solo..... J. A. Bevier.
- Address, ten minutes..... J. A. Bevier.
- Christmas Carol..... Mixed Chorus.

Mr. B. H. Hocking, the optician, will be in Hancock for a few days, and as heretofore will be at G. Kohrer's jewelry store. (12-20-94)

COSSACK SOLDIERS. Their Tactics in the Movement of Land Forces. While I was in Warsaw in 1891 the Don Cossacks were making some interesting experiments that promise to have direct bearing upon the next campaign. I was not permitted to be present, but heard about them. One idea was to improvise a boat, using Cossack lances for ribs, and canvas for the skin; lances were also made to do service as oars by a blade lashed on to the end. In order to test the power of these boats an attempt was made to cross the Vistula near the fortress of Ivan-Gorod in Poland, about sixty mile south of Warsaw, one of the most dangerous crossing-points on the river, where the stream is rather strong, and there are several whirlpools. The first boat was launched within forty-five minutes, and quickly loaded with the saddles, guns and accoutrements of twenty men, and was rowed by six Cossacks. In spite of this load the boat had one clear foot between the gunwale and the water. Within a half-hour the load was deposited on the other side. The distance which they had to traverse, involving the avoidance of a lengthy sand bank, was about a mile. Within one hour from the time of embarkation the two squadrons of Cossacks taking part in this evolution were all safe and sound on the other side, in the saddle, and ready to fight. Everything transported in the boats was found to be entirely dry when unloaded, and my informant expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the result of this experiment. Another experiment made at the Russian maneuvers referred to above was in regard to the picketing of horses by means of burying in the ground, about ten inches deep, a piece of wood about ten inches long and two inches wide. To this piece of wood was bound a thong projecting above the surface of the ground, to which the lariet of the horse was made fast. By this means the horse was effectively secured, and as it was practiced over and over again during the maneuvers, it may be considered that the Cossacks have adopted it for the present. Another curious experiment was made at these maneuvers, namely, the using of lances as handles for scythes, in order to enable the Cossacks to harvest hay on the march without the necessity of carrying more than necessary. The result of the experiment was declared to be satisfactory, and henceforward we may consider the lance of the Cossack as intended not merely for piercing the bodies of runaway Jews and smugglers, but for propelling six-oared punts, and providing scythe-handles, by means of which fodder for the horses is secured in camp.—Poultney Bigelow, in Harper's Magazine.

MADE FULL CONFESSION.

Captain Schmittberger Again Brought Up Before the Lexow Investigating Committee.

SAID HE WAS READY TO TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH.

He Tells a Long Story of Bribe Taking and Implicates Several Police Commissioners.

PROMOTIONS OFFER PURCHASED.

New York, Dec. 21.—Before the Lexow committee today Captain Schmittberger created a sensation by saying that he had come to tell the whole truth. He said ward politics exerted an influence in securing promotions of policemen. Politicians exercised an influence through police commissioners and sergeants who feared removal. He had heard of cases where policemen had paid sergeants to be assigned to easy places. He said Charles Grant, Commissioner McLevee secretary, and a man named Meyer, a tailor on Broadway, were go-betweens in securing appointments.

After recess Captain Schmittberger admitted that owing to political influence many of his subordinates were able to defy him, they belonging to the Tammany club of which Commissioner Sheehan was president. Witness was a member of the club as were several other captains. There was a tacit understanding for the protection of fast houses and law-breakers. He said no pretense was made of observing the excise law at the dives in his precinct, which were frequented by all the criminals of New York. The witness stated that Commissioner Voorhis appointed him captain and he did not pay a cent. At the time Schmittberger was captain of the steamboat squad, Warden Vail told him his men had to give up half their salaries.

"I told him I did not want to keep up the practice and he told me I was a fool; that the men would just as soon give it up as not and I might as well get it. I agreed to this and Vail was my collector for about two months and then Gannon was appointed, who collected about $100 per month."

While Schmittberger was in charge of the thirty-seventh street station there were about ten police shops in the precinct from which $25 each was collected and the Bohemian Liquor Dealers' association paid about $80 per month. The witness stated that he was called on by Inspector Williams to divide the collection and that he paid him $50 per month. The witness was thrown into great confusion by this. Schmittberger was next transferred to the Twenty-seventh precinct where the collections from police shops amounted to about $600 and there was $200 per month collected from each of three pool rooms. Gannon, the collector, got 20 per cent and Inspector Williams $200 per month. Goff asked:

"In view of the facts you know it was the inspector's duty to prefer charges against you?"

"Certainly."

"And you paid him money to keep him from preferring such charges?"

"Certainly."

"And were any charges ever made against you by him?"

"Never." Schmittberger said he was transferred from one precinct for interfering with the liquor dealers. Commissioner Martin proposed his transfer to the police board. At the Leonard street station, where he was next placed, $200 each was collected from two pool rooms, $50 per month of which he paid to Inspector McAvoy at the Forty-seventh street station. Schmittberger collected between $500 and $600 per month from police shops and disorderly houses. While there Commissioner Martin told him not to interfere with the houses in Forty-sixth street.

"Did he mention any other houses?"

"Yes, 234 West Forty-first street. I sent one of my men there to investigate and afterwards some one made complaint to Commissioner Martin. He sent for me and said I would have to send the same man back to apologize."

"Did you do it?"

"I had to. Next day my man went and apologized." Schmittberger said he once received a letter of introduction from Sheehan introducing a man named Prior and telling him to do what Prior asked. Prior wanted to rent a gambling house, but Schmittberger refused to allow him until he had seen Inspector Hyman and that official told the captain to do as the man asked. While in that precinct

SLIGHT INCREASE IN TRADE.

Orders for Manufactured Goods Are Increasing Although Holiday Trade Is Small.

GOLD EXPORT AND BANKING BILL CHECK TRADE.

Prices of Agricultural Products Are Still Lagging but Copper Has Strengthened Considerably.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

New York, Dec. 21.—But for the large exports of gold and uncertainty about financial legislation indications would be more encouraging. Some increase is seen in the orders given for manufacturing works. The holiday trade was rather poor at most points, partly owing to the mild weather. There is distinctly more confidence about the future demand for industrial products though prices are not better. Domestic exports increase a little though exportable staples are not better in price. Money continues to accumulate here and there is no enlargement in legitimate demand for commercial loans.

Prices of agricultural products do not improve. Wheat is unchanged for the week although western receipts have fallen to 3,504,925 bushels, against 2,944,810 last year and Atlantic exports to 926,945 against 744,547 last year. The visible supply still grows and is now about 28,173,000 bushels. Corn fell four cents for the week though western receipts are only 1,527,636 bushels against 2,582,264 last year and Atlantic exports are more than a third smaller. Cotton declined a sixteenth.

Large orders for manufactured products appeared and yet the general tendency of prices was downward.

Steel billets sell at $15 at Pittsburgh and Bessemer pig at $9.50 at valley mills.

Copper was strengthened by customers' demand and the output in November, 12,644 tons domestic and 6,954 foreign, was the smallest since February.

Failures for the past week were 249 in the United States against 244 last year, and 36 in Canada against 37 last year.

RESERVE STILL SINKING.

But Little of Gold Withdrawn Intended for Export.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Advices from New York state that $1,400,000 in gold was withdrawn today from the treasury, which leaves the true amount of gold reserve at $88,900,310. Since Dec. 1 the withdrawals have amounted to $28,576,255, of which, so far as known, less than $7,000,000 was intended for export. The cash balance in the treasury today is $154,387,363.

The secretary of the interior today issued a requisition on the secretary of the treasury for $10,700,000 to be used in quarterly payments of pensions. Chicago receives $2,800,000; Des Moines, $2,100,000; Milwaukee, $1,800,000.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

—Neither official dignity nor a tropical sun is allowed to stand in the way of an Englishman's love for cricket. At a recent match at Poona, India, two gentlemen—general played on the same side. The general—general of Bombay, Lord Wetherby, scored sixteen while the other—general of Madras, Lord Harris, whose fame as a cricketer has been world-wide since his Oxford days, scored ninety-two.

—The number of deaths caused by wild animals is increasing greatly in India, snake bites heading the list last year with 21,000 victims. Of 2,800 persons who were killed by animals, tigers killed nearly 1,600; leopards, 321; wolves, 175; bears, 131; and elephants, 54. Ninety thousand head of cattle were destroyed, an increase of 9,000 over the year before. On the other hand, 15,000 wild beasts were killed, including nearly 1,300 tigers and over 4,000 leopards, besides almost 130,000 deerly animals.

—A German named Berg has just accomplished the feat of playing the piano for thirty consecutive hours at the London Royal aquarium. He played entirely from memory from a repertoire of four hundred pieces, starting at a sprightly pace by rattling off Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the Toreador's song, a Liszt rhapsody, and two concert hall melodies inside of a quarter of an hour. He sustained his strength by using one hand for his sandwich and tea or coffee, while continuing to play with the other.

—Aschylus' trilogy, consisting of the Agamemnon, the Choephoroi, and the Eumenides, is to be given in some London theater next May. Prof. Willers Stanford, who wrote the music for "The Eumenides" when it was performed at Cambridge, has undertaken to compose the music for the other two plays. The work will be carried out with archeological accuracy, and the proceeds will go to the British school at Athens. Subscriptions to a guarantee fund to insure the success of the undertaking are now called for.

The Pope's Tomb.

The pope, although he is stated to be in very good health, is reported to have given orders for the preparation of his own tomb. The celebrated sculptor, Signor Macchignani, has received the commission to set about the work. The monument, which is to be of white Carrara marble, is to be a sarcophagus, in which will repose a lion with its fore paws resting on the papal tiara. To the right there will be a statue of faith with a torch in one hand and the Scriptures in the other, and to the left a figure of truth, the hand laid on the coat-of-arms of the Pazzi family. The only inscription on the tomb will be "Hic Leo XIII. P. M. p. v. i. s. t. a. t. u. s. e. s. t." By his will the pope directs that his remains be buried in the Basilica of St. John Lateran—St. James' Gazette.

Not Fried. Puckley—Have a deviled crab? Simmons—Not a Christianized oyster-tender is good enough for me.—Judge.

—A frying pan with legs about six inches long is among the curios recovered at Herculaneum. It belonged to Docilia, who had scratched her name on the handle.

"TRUST THOSE WHO HAVE TRIED." Catarth named hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Apt. 7, East Monmouth, Ill.

—Used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and have received great benefit. I believe it a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Fraser, Rochester, N. Y.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

CURE FOR HEADACHE.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded headache, sick headache, yields to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Farnham's Drug Store.

CITY CONTROLLER'S OFFICE.

MARQUETTE, MICH., Dec. 21, 1894.

Sealed proposals for furnishing curtains for windows in the City Hall, excepting windows in tower, and putting same in place, and for forty (40) dozen common chairs for Assembly Hall, will be received by me up to Saturday, Dec. 23, 1894, at 12 o'clock noon.

The bids for window shades and chairs must be separate, with the understanding that the Committee having the purchase in charge, may award contracts for each to lowest bidder.

All bids must be accompanied by samples of material to be used for shades and by a sample or drawing of chairs to be furnished. Window shades are to be of heavy material and best material and of a shade of brown to harmonize with exterior of building.

The building committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

BECAUSE AIR GREW FOUL

Work is Temporarily Suspended in Part of Lake Superior's Sec. 16 Mine.

OTHER NOTES ABOUT THAT COMPANY'S OPERATIONS.

Music by the Band Christmas Eve. Ishpeming Gardens Yielding Christmas Flowers.

AT THE LAKE SUPERIOR. At the old shaft of the Lake Superior Iron company's Section 16 mine work was temporarily suspended on Thursday, and about twenty men were laid off. It is found impossible to continue work in that part of the mine owing to the bad air. During the soft weather the air is not so good as when it is freezing. The company is putting in an apparatus to take the foul air out of the shaft but it is not yet ready for use. Until it is in working condition that portion of the mine will remain idle.

It is quite possible that the company will soon suspend operations at the Hematite mine, as the east end, to which operations are confined at present, is about worked out. About one hundred men are employed there. In case the Hematite workings are abandoned a portion of the force, which is made up of some of the oldest hands in the company's employ, will be given places at some of the other mines. A number of them will doubtless be transferred to Section 16. Superintendent Johnston says the company has not yet fully decided to close down the Hematite workings, but is quite likely to come to that determination in a few days. There is good ore in the western end of the mine but that portion of it is in such condition that only a small force could be worked there. Considerable dead work would be necessary and under present conditions the company does not feel disposed to resume work there at present.

The company is preparing to begin exploring for ore with a diamond drill in the bed of Lake Angeline. The hole will be put down north of the scow on which the Cleveland Iron Mining company's plant is located. The steam for operating its drill will be obtained from the boiler on the scow. The foundation of the drill shaft will be built of heavy timbers, to give it a solid bottom. It is thought that the drill will strike ore, as the hole will be bored in a place not hitherto reached from the underground workings of the Hematite mine. Mr. Senek, who has charge of the drill work, expects to get started drilling there within a week or ten days.

Band Concert.

The Excelsior band will give a concert at the Nelson House parlors Christmas eve when this list of pieces will be played: Imogen, Alto solo; Elixir of Love, Selection; Pride of Scotland, Selection; Flower Girl, Waltz; March; John of Arc, Fantasia; Maritana, Selection; Bush Roses, Polka; Christmas Anthem, March.

Pantries and Dates.

Charles O. Anderson, who resides on Euclid street, went into his garden yesterday and picked a bouquet of pansies and daisies which had peeped above the snow within the past few days. Dr. W. E. Pike also gathered flowers from his garden yesterday. He had little trouble in finding a plate of pansies.

Ran Down a Deer.

While hunting in the woods near Greenwood Wednesday Mr. Goethe, who resides at the Winthrop Junction, ran upon a seven-year old buck. His dog started after the deer and drove it out of the woods. The animal got on the South Shore track and ran as far as Little Frenchtown, north of Section 16 mine, where it tried to cross the swamp and got stuck in the mire. Mr. Goethe and his dog were not far behind the deer as they were on their way home when the animal left the woods. Several of the men at the location built a plank walk into the swamp and put a rope around the deer's horns and pulled it out of the mire. The animal is now at Mr. Goethe's place.

Public Installation.

The local lodge of the Knights of the Golden Eagle will hold a public installation of their newly elected officers at the Red Men's hall on the evening of Jan. 8. There will be interesting exercises, and light refreshments will be served during the evening.

Mrs. C. F. Bradt and her sister, Miss Harbert, left yesterday for Benton Harbor to spend a month or more visiting their mother.

Rev. J. T. Joslin, pastor of the Methodist church, will preach a Christmas sermon at the regular services tomorrow morning.

The employees of the South Shore company will be paid today. The Northwestern men received their money yesterday.

Leverett Ropes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ropes of this city, was married to a young lady in Macon county, North Carolina, recently.

Charles Moore has gone to Milwaukee and Chicago on his holiday vacation. His place on the road has been taken by W. J. Drake.

Mr. Nelson of Chicago is in the city visiting his brother, Manager Nelson of the Excelsior furnace. Mr. Nelson had not seen his brother in several years.

Will Cahill and wife of Belle Plain, Ia., who came here to attend the funeral of the late Frank Cahill, will not return home until after the holidays.

William Peters and wife will be up from Lansing to spend the holidays with Ishpeming friends. Mrs. Peters is expected today and Billy will be here Monday.

An interesting program for the prayer service at the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning has been arranged. The service will begin at half-past 10 o'clock a. m.

Dr. Jarvis has purchased the dwelling on Fourth street formerly owned by William Johnson, late of this city, but now of Ewen. The property is very desirable in every respect.

George Jones, local agent of the American Express company, has made arrangements to deliver Christmas packages to its patrons here tomorrow. His object in doing this is to give as prompt services as possible, as Monday will be an unusually busy day.

Matt Ussula fell from a ladder at the Sawmill pit of the Cleveland mine Wednesday night and sustained injuries which will keep him from work for a few weeks. Two of his ribs were fractured and one of his hands was quite badly cut. He fell twenty-five feet.

The Western Express company has not yet decided on a location for its office in Ishpeming. The manager of the company was here Wednesday, and although he looked over several places he did not announce his choice. It is possible that the office will be established in the depot, although a room in some of the business blocks may be selected.

A BAD HABIT.

Screens That Conceal Too Much That Ought to Be Thrown Away.

Perfect housekeeping is a glittering product of the imagination. If it ever did exist it has long since been hidden behind screens. The time-worn question: "What is home without a mother-in-law?" must give place to "What is home without a screen?" A writer in a recent exchange article solemnly propounds this question, and as solemnly answers: "Nothing!" She then launches forth on an eulogy of this useful and virtuous article, and advises all housekeepers to have at least one in every room, set crosswise across a corner or an alcove to hide misrepresentable things. This, the writer asserts, especially for the noble army of martyrs who are trying to keep house in one room, is a convenience that amounts to a necessity.

To give advice at all is bad enough; to give bad advice is adding insult to injury. And this advice was bad without having even the virtue of novelty.

What dweller in rooms does not know those screens and curtains and cupboard doors with their heaps of boots and dust-pans and mending and liniment bottles and, as the apostle says: "Many other things whereof I have not time to speak?" It is useless for the much-advised one to bridle and say: "I hope I am equal to keeping good order." If she has any such hope better dismiss it at once as vain. She may start out bravely with shelves in her cupboard or partitions behind her screens, or nothing at all behind her screen which is intended purely for ornament. If she be an unusually orderly soul she may even maintain this state of affairs for a month, but a month is the outside limit. Then she is busy or pressed for space, or a sudden visitor arrives on the scene, and she hurriedly huddles a lot of things behind the screen, there to remain and accumulate until the occasional "clean up," which recalls those infrequent whirlwinds of order to which Aunt Chloe in "Uncle Tom" gave that name.

"Don't get into the hole habit!" somebody warned me when I first went to housekeeping in rooms, and I didn't know what she meant," said a woman the other day. "I know now, however, after four years of it. When we moved into our last place I refused to drive a nail into the door or to permit a screen on the premises, rejoiced openly that the window sills were too narrow to hold anything, and solemnly prohibited the heaping of heaps on the table, writing-desk or machine top. Now? Oh, just look around you—screens and curtains and all sorts of things piled in all sorts of ways behind them."

Of course one must have a place to put things. But as for places to "stick" things into, behind and under, they are fatal, for no woman on earth has the time, the patience, and the strength of mind to resist making "glory holes" of them. And therefore I say unto you: Avoid screens. Screens mean accumulation of odds and ends, and, especially in limited quarters, who accumulates is lost.—Chicago Times.

Besides handling the best quality of coal and wood in the city Hampton & Co. carry in stock hay, grain and flour. Wood contractors will save money by consulting them before buying elsewhere. Give them a call and be convinced.

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND

The bad habits and early vices of young men and their disastrous consequences. Young men and old men, those who suffer from nervous debility and exhaustion, the wasting away of the vital strength and power from hidden drains or intemperate habits can readily find relief for body and mind by writing the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They employ a full staff of physicians and Specialists, who treat at a distance by correspondence or at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, all this class of diseases. Those who suffer from low spirits, irritable temper, a "broken-down" nervous system, and such distressing symptoms as headache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest and indigestion, sexual excesses or abuses, all the result of exhausting diseases or drains upon the system,—will find a permanent cure after taking the special prescriptions sent them from the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. This association of medical men have prepared a book written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents (in stamps for postage) mail, sealed in plain envelope, a copy of this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

The Key to the Situation

If you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse, renovate and regulate the entire system. One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative, three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless; these tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce.

A Handsome Portrait

Of your Wife, Mother, Father or any other relative would make an excellent Christmas Present.

We can supply you and it won't cost you much either. Come in this week and look over our new line of frames.
