NEGROES CALLED TO ARMS.

Chicago Colored Citizens Asked to Avenge Killing of Spring Valley Miners.

REQUESTED TO MARCH ON ITALIANS AT ONCE.

MUST BE OWN DEFENDERS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Some of the colored residents of Chicago have been wrought up into a dangerous condition by the report of the outrages committed against their brothers at Spring Valley. Some of the more radical foreigners there Tuesday night. Late tonight a call to arms was issued and circulated in colored communities. The call, which is addressed to the colored people of Chicago, says in part: "There will be a meeting at 500 State street tomorrow morning and we want all able bodied men to come. The time has come for us to raise our arms in the defense of our race. They are killing our people all over the country. Every day we read of the lynching, murdering and outraging of our people. "We must remember that this is our country and unless we fight for our rights the foreigners will run us out. We want all able bodied colored men to respond to this call, as we must have their aid at Spring Valley Tuesday evening or foreigners will slaughter the helpless women and children who are left." A mass meeting was held earlier in the night at which speeches were made by Mrs. Ida E. Wells-Barnett and others. A telegram was sent Governor Altgeld asking him to see that the colored miners are protected. It was also decided to hold another meeting Wednesday night and if by that time no action has been taken by the governor arrangements will be made to send nurses and other assistance to Spring Valley.

QUIET AT SPRING VALLEY.

Mines Are Idle and Negroes Driven Out Have Not Yet Returned.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 5.—Everything was quiet in the city today and the negroes driven out yesterday show no signs of returning. It is reported that General Manager Dalzell has sent word to the negroes to come back and he would guarantee them protection. There is hardly any likelihood they will return. Most of them are at Seatonville. The miners here are all idle. The miners met this morning and voted unanimously not to return to work until the negroes moved their furniture out of town.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 5.—The situation was very quiet in this city tonight. This afternoon a few negro women were allowed to pack up their goods and depart from the "location." The one hundred negroes run out of this city are all at Seatonville. Many of them slept in the woods last night. The mayor contemplated putting on deputies tonight, but the situation is so calm that in all likelihood this will not be necessary. A meeting of miners and citizens will be held at the public square tomorrow.

The man named Role who was nearly murdered and robbed by colored men Saturday night, the incident that provoked yesterday's affair, is still alive but he cannot live long and received the last sacraments from a priest this afternoon.

A dynamite bomb was found near Manager Dalzell's residence this morning. It was picked up by a boy. The police had a chemist examine it, who found that fifty-five parts were nitroglycerine. There is no clue as to who put it there.

BEGGED LIVES IN VAIN.

More Particulars Concerning Massacre of Christians at Ku Cheng.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The correspondent of The Times at Shanghai says that the missionaries killed at Ku Cheng were murdered by an organized band of eighty robbers. The correspondent says: The ladies begged for their lives, promising to yield their property and valuables, but the leaders of the band shouted out orders to kill them outright. The corrected list of the victims is as follows: REV. MR. AND MRS. STEWART, MISS NELLIE SAUNDERS, MISS LENA IRISH, burned in head, MISS STETTIE NEWCOMB, speared and thrown down precipice, MISS MARSHALL, throat cut, MISS GORDON, speared in head, MISS TOPY SAUNDERS, speared in brain, MASTER HERBERT STEWART, skull fractured and brained, LENA STEWART, died from shock.

At the Chinese legation here it is stated that no information has been received regarding the massacre of missionaries near Ku Cheng beyond the meagre information that five persons had been killed or wounded at Wha Sang.

ARE ENTITLED TO GOLD!

Topeka Pensioners Asked Not to Accept Bank Notes.

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 5.—This was pension day. Checks for several hundred thousand dollars were paid to pensioners. The following circular was distributed to the old soldiers who visited the pension office: "Comrades, Halt! You are entitled to gold in payment for your checks. Demand it. Do not accept depreciated currency." The pensioners are paid in checks, which are cashed by banks here. It is claimed the circular was prepared by bimetallists who want to show that there is not enough gold in the banks to pay the pensioners alone, aside from the demands of the other business of the country. It is also suggested that it may have been part of the Sovereign boycott of national bank notes.

Over five hundred pension checks were paid by the Bank of Topeka today, but only two asked for gold. President Mulvane said: "We generally pay most of the pensioners in gold, as it is more convenient, but this circular which was distributed among the pensioners is diabolical. We do not charge veterans anything for collecting their money and it really costs us about $25 every three months to handle the pension business. The government does not keep any money deposited with us, so you can see how foolish it is that a circular should be sent out telling them to demand gold."

BAD CINCINNATI FIRE.

Five Men Severely Burned and Much Property Destroyed.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 5.—Two steamers—the Big Sandy and the Carrollton—two wharf boats and the public landing burned this afternoon. Loss, $100,000. During the fire on the wharf reports were circulated that several lives had been lost, but river men tonight say that all are accounted for and no lives were lost. Fireman Jennett was overcome by heat and is unconscious at the hospital. He may die. William R. Shaw, superintendent of the wharf, died. Jack Crowley and Will Kirby were badly burned and the fireman of the Big Sandy was also badly burned.

VALUABLE STOCK BURNED.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 5.—The stock barn on R. T. McDonald's noted Riverside farm, worth $12,000, burned tonight. Also the ten thousand-dollar California stallion Truman with a mile record of 2:12 and other fast stock valued at $10,000.

PERSHED IN THE FLAMES.

BRELSAU, Aug. 5.—A residence on the Clenkrug estate burned today and four women and a child were burned to death. Four other persons are suffering from terrible injuries received during the conflagration.

HIS DEATH WAS SUDDEN.

George Vrooman Stricken With Heart Failure While Swimming.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—George Vrooman, junior member of the paint manufacturing firm of Bradley & Vrooman, died in the swimming tank of the Chicago Athletic club this afternoon. Vrooman had been swimming in the tank for several minutes and was just clambering out when he gasped, reeled and fell back into the water. A number of gentlemen who were close at hand quickly pulled him out, but he was unconscious and a physician sent for. The doctor worked over Vrooman for fully half an hour without getting any sign of life from him, and finally gave up the task. He said that when he first saw the patient he knew there was only a very faint chance for his recovery. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. Vrooman was wealthy and one of the best known men in his line of business in the west.

TRIED TO KILL DURANT.

Blanche Lamont's Murderer Assaulted While Leaving Court Room.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—The first attempt to do violence to Durant, on trial for the murder of Blanche Lamont in the Emanuel church, since his incarceration was made today as the defendant was leaving the court room. The prisoner was in the custody of the chief jailer, when a wild looking young man rushed from the crowd towards Durant with the evident intention of assaulting him. The jailer threw him off before he could reach Durant and the assailant then tried to draw a pistol. He was seized by two deputy sheriffs before he could aim the weapon. It is believed the fellow is insane.

The seventh juror to try Durant was secured today.

BANDIT YEAGER DYING.

His Capture Cost Government Twelve Lives and $50,000.

SOUTH END, Ok., Aug. 5.—Zep Wyatt, alias Dick Yeager, the notorious bandit, is still alive but fast sinking. When told this afternoon he could not live he made a partial statement, admitting his identity and requested his father to be sent for. His father, William Wyatt, lives near Guthrie and is known as "Six Shooter Bill." More than five hundred people visited the jail today to see Wyatt. Many of them positively identified him. The United States deputy marshal stated this afternoon that the pursuit and capture of Zep Wyatt had cost the government some ten or twelve brave officers and private citizens and not less than $50,000.

BOMB FOR ROOSEVELT.

Infernal Machine Sent to New York's Police Commissioner.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—What is believed to be an infernal machine was discovered in the postoffice addressed to Theodore Roosevelt. An investigation disclosed a large cartridge with a fuse attached. It was taken to police headquarters, where an examination induced the belief that it was only intended to scare the police commissioner and not likely to do any harm as constructed.

COAL HANDLERS ON STRIKE.

Dock Men at West Superior Want Raise of Ten Cents an Hour.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 5.—The coal handlers here went out on a strike this afternoon for a raise of ten cents an hour. The coal companies will unload coal at Duluth, unless the men there go out. The hour men employed at the eastern flour sheds made a demand Saturday for twenty-five cents an hour instead of twenty. It was granted today. About three hundred men are employed at the sheds.

TRAIL OF HUMAN BLOOD.

What Detectives Found in Their Search of Holmes' Castle Yesterday.

MORE STARTLING EVIDENCE AGAINST ARCH-PIEND.

Articles of Clothing Also Brought to Light and Trunks of Minnie Williams Found.

CHICAGO END LOOMING UP.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Human blood was found today in the Holmes castle, bespattered from one room to another. Science aided Detectives Fitzpatrick and Norton where other agencies had failed and uncovered more startling evidence against Holmes and Pat Quinlan than has yet been found in the castle. The detectives and a medical expert found in the "castle" a trail of blood leading from the doorway of the dining room of Mrs. Julia L. Conner to the sink in the same room, from there into a dark chamber where she and Pearl formerly slept, then to an inside door opening into the bath room where the secret trap door was, on the baseboard of that room above the trap door, down the secret staircase which led to the false elevator shaft and thence into the basement. A human blood clot, blood mixed with human hair, was also found.

In the debris in the dark chamber where the mother and children slept were found some child's underwear stained with blood; a pair of brown diagonal trousers stained at the bottom with blood; a pocket of a woman's dress, blood-soaked; a handkerchief which had been used to wipe up blood, and various cloths and parts of underclothing spotted with blood. These articles were examined with a microscope at the time of their discovery and a test was made then and there of the blood stains. A rope was found in a dark chamber and in its knots blood was discovered.

In Pat Quinlan's private rooms were found two trunks of the theatrical type. One had been purchased in Denver. On both trunks were the initials "M. R. W." These initials were painted over and are those of Minnie R. Williams. Quinlan had stated, after being taken into custody, that the trunks belonged to him. The detectives have now the truth—both trunks belonged to Minnie Williams.

Quinlan will be confronted with this evidence. He will also be faced with books found in his possession and which belonged to Minnie Williams. Among them are magazines bearing a date as late as April, 1894, demonstrating that Minnie Williams was alive at that time. The fact that one of her trunks was bought in Denver is explained by the information, already secured by Chief Badenoch, that after she entered the employ of Holmes and finally left Chicago she entered the theatrical business at Denver.

Chief Badenoch has also secured, in addition to the above evidence, which the detectives brought him tonight, positive proof that Benjamin F. Pitzel was at Dwight as a patient when Emily Cigrand was there as a stenographer. He went under the name of Robert E. Phelps and under the name of Phelps he met Emily Cigrand and wooed her. The girl did not leave Dwight of her own free will, but was discharged for inability to properly perform her duties. As soon as she left Dwight she came to Chicago and entered the employ of Holmes. There she again met Pitzel under the name of Phelps.

The chief believes the evidence collected today the most important of any, save the partial confession of Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan, that he has yet secured. The inference drawn by the officers from the trail of blood which was discovered, is that the blood, being human, came from some person killed in the dark chamber, dragged from there to the trap door and thence down the secret doorway to the basement beneath. A chemical analysis of the blood will immediately follow. The bloody doors were taken off, also the baseboard and portions of the flooring in the dark chamber and on the secret staircase.

NO LIVES WERE LOST.

But Contradictory Reports as to Damage at Beaver Island Come In.

PEPOSKEY, Mich., Aug. 5.—Captain Vanderhoff of the steamer Thomas F. Ryan has returned from Beaver Island. He denies that any great damage was done, as given out in the early reports. On the other hand equally reliable vesselmen who have landed at Cheboygan relate that Gillett is certainly destroyed and St. James, although saved as yet, is still threatened by the swamp fires which are liable to overcome the vigilance of the islanders. No lives were lost. A heavy rain is falling tonight.

VICTORY FOR THE UNION.

Only Few Contractors Resisting Striking Tailors' Demand.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The garment workers' strike is practically a victory for the union, although Secretary Witowsky, who made the formal surrender in the name of the Contractors' association, was not able to deliver all of the goods and a few employers are still resisting the workers' demands. Forty agreements were filed today. This makes a total of 400 contractors, representing 12,000 strikers, in New York and vicinity who have accepted the terms of the workmen.

Affairs at Jackson's Hole.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 5.—Adjutant General Stitzer tonight reports that everything is quiet at Jackson's Hole and says he believes the Indian police will be able to take the Indians back to their reservation.

NEWS FROM COPPERDOM.

How Joseph Gregory on His Death Bed Made Several People's Burdens Lighter.

WROTE "RECEIVED PAYMENT" ON MORTGAGES HELD BY HIM.

Marie Edwards at Armory, Houghton, Tonight—Grasshoppers Becoming Numerous—Mining Notes.

All communications intended for this department should be addressed to Horace J. Stevens, Houghton, Mich. Telephone connection.

LAKE LINDEN.

While on his death bed Joseph Gregory was visited by a number of people who were indebted to him and from whom his manager, Mr. Brule, had taken mortgages to secure loans or material during Mr. Gregory's absence in California. They were afraid that his death would mean trouble for them because of the mortgages on their property, and in every instance Mr. Gregory wrote his name and "received payment in full" on the documents in question. The working people of Houghton county have lost one of the best and truest friends whom they have ever had or can ever hope to have.

Houghton and Hancock have both had such great success in inducing Ringling's circus to leave the other town and show on their grounds that Lake Linden will offer a site as a compromise. It is feared that there will be bloodshed on Portage lake next Tuesday, when it is finally determined just where the tents will be pitched. The people there are carrying brickbats and there are all indications of an internecine war which will require a whole posse of disinterested citizens from elsewhere in the county to quell.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the South Lake Linden Congregational church will give a moonlight excursion to Chassell this evening. The fare will be twenty-five cents and a pleasant time is looked for.

HOUGHTON.

Little Marie Edwards, the seven-year-old child who died a short time ago so thoroughly pleased and surprised the people of Hancock and Calumet, will appear at the Armory this evening in a concert at which she will be assisted by the best amateur talent of the city.

T. W. Davison of Bay City and W. J. Tenney of Roscommon have contracted to cut and bank 35,000,000 feet of pine in this county for J. T. Hurst of Wrentham. The logs will be driven down the Ontonagon river to Kenton, where they will be saved at the mill of the Sparrow-Kroll Lumber company. It will take two years to finish the job.

The fair held for the benefit of St. Ignace's church cleared about $500. The dress sword was won by Captain George Millar of the Houghton Light Infantry and the bicycle went to Miss Lena Hanke.

The circus bills at Hancock call for Ringling's show at Hancock, while in Houghton part of the bills read Hancock and part Houghton. Verily this circus is all things to all men.

Mrs. E. G. Emmons returned Sunday evening on the Valerie from Ontonagon, where she had been for six weeks visiting her parents.

A teachers' examination for all grades of certificates will be held on Thursday and Friday of next week at the Rock school building.

T. L. Chadbourne will plot some ground near the Keeweenaw club house. The addition will contain some twenty lots.

Fred Trathen of Negaunee is here filling orders for his celebrated washing compound.

CALUMET.

Farmers complain that the grasshoppers are steadily growing worse. The wet weather of the spring kept them back and fortunately much of the crops have been gathered, but the hoppers are growing bigger, thicker and hungrier every day and are doing considerable damage by eating the fences, according to the entirely trustworthy information from the rural districts which has been conveyed to THE MINING JOURNAL.

The annual session of the Norwegian-Danish supreme temple of the Templars of Temperance of North America is now in progress at Norwegian Hall and will conclude its business tomorrow. A number of delegates from all parts of the United States are in attendance.

Mr. J. C. Light is now installed in his new building and the "bank of Laurium" is an established fact.

Mr. A. H. Hadley is rapidly recovering from his sickness.

DOLLAR BAY.

A highly successful operation for hernia was performed on William Hoffenbacher on Saturday by Drs. Scallon and Gasser of Hancock, Rod of Calumet, Fletcher of Lake Linden, Fischer of South Lake Linden and Abrams of Dollar Bay.

Music is furnished at the Casino on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week. The resort is proving very popular and is doing a large business.

MINING NEWS.

The recent developments at No. 3 shaft, North Tamarack, have been of the most surprising nature and thoroughly satisfactory to the management of the mine. The showing of copper on the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh levels is magnificent, and has never been exceeded at any point in either the Calumet & Hecla or the older shafts of the Tamarack. It is not expected that the present exceptional richness of the openings in No. 3 will be long maintained, as that would give a richer mine than had ever before been opened, but it may be taken as a conclusive demonstration of the permanency of the copper-bearing lode and an indication that the C. & H. conglomerate retains all its leading characteristics at the deepest point yet cut. The improvement in No. 3 also establishes the value of the great stretch of ground intervening between No. 2 and No. 3 shafts and of the upper levels at

No. 3. In No. 4 little development work has been done, and will not be attempted until such time as the drift connecting it with No. 3 has been completed. This drift is necessary for tramping rock until such time as a full equipment of hoisting machinery has been placed at No. 4, and also for the safety of the miners. With the fine showing in No. 3 the Tamarack product should show a sensible gain from now on although the increase will be gradual from month to month.

Developments at No. 6 shaft, Osceola, continue of the most encouraging nature. The copper was found not only much closer to surface but much richer than had been looked for. The satisfactory opening of No. 6 Osceola is a favorable indication for the properties further south, in which direction the trend of developments undoubtedly lies.

YOUNG MEN IN THE SENATE.

More Numerous Now Than in the Days of Zach Chandler.

At the time Zach Chandler was first a member of the senate he was one of the youngest members of that body. Besides having a youthful appearance, all the other men seemed quite old to him. On the last day of the first term of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, Chandler and he sat in the barber shop and chatted about events of the session, and finally Chandler began talking about his earlier career, says the Washington Star.

"When I went to Detroit," he said, "there were not more than fifty houses in the place. Now it has become one of the leading cities in the west. Michigan was a territory, and we had some pretty hard times there, but I stuck to it, and have been rather successful. Why," he added, rather proudly, "I was elected to the senate when I was forty-four years old."

"That's nothing," answered Senator Mitchell, laconically.

"Nothing?" exclaimed Chandler. "Well, I consider it a great deal to have been elected to the United States senate at forty-four."

"Well," replied Mitchell, quietly, "I have served six years in the senate and am not forty-four yet."

"I give it up," responded Chandler. "You have the best of me. The further west we go the more push we have."

Senator Mitchell is still a young-looking man, yet there is only one man in the senate who was a senator when he was first sworn in who has served continuously. That is Senator Morrill, of Vermont, Sherman, of Ohio, and Stewart, of Nevada, were members of the senate at the time Senator Mitchell was elected, but both have been out, Senator Sherman as secretary of the treasury for four years, and Senator Stewart six years, while another man represented Nevada. Senator Mitchell's first term began in 1878. After serving six years he was defeated, a democratic legislature having been chosen. Six years later he was again elected, and has since been re-elected.

How the Bees Work.

In America it has been observed that bees often bore tubular corollas in order to get at the nectar of flowers, instead of entering by the mouth, as humbees do in Europe. In essays on the cross-fertilization of flowers this supposed anomaly has been the subject of much comment. It now appears that the humbees of Europe and America have identical habits in regard to the manner in which the visits to flowers are made, and that it is the class of insects known as the carpenter bee, or the borer, which works in the outside manner indicated.

BEFORE SUPREME COURT.

Nebraska's Highest Tribunal Will Now Decide the Omaha Police Muddle.

MOOTED QUESTION TRANSFERRED TO IT YESTERDAY.

Will settle Constitutional of New Law—All Quiet at Omaha—Special Policemen Laid Off.

HOT LEGAL FIGHT BOOKED.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 5.—Papers were filed in the supreme court today directly on the relation of Mayor Bemis, member of the present board of fire and police commissioners and ex-officio chairman, as plaintiff in the proceedings, in the nature of a quo-warranto to test the authority under which the A. P. A. commission is assumed to have been appointed. This will force a decision from the highest tribunal of the state.

AFFAIRS AT OMAHA.

A. P. A. Commissioners File Answers to Regular Board's Petition.

OMAHA, Aug. 5.—The answers of the A. P. A. police commissioners to the petition of the regular fire and police commissioners was filed in court today. The hearing comes up in the morning and will be in the nature of a test of the constitutionality of the new law under which the A. P. A. is acting. Not a ripple of excitement was noticed in the city today, so far as the police squabble is concerned. The only subject now agitating the members of the police force is, What about the payment of salaries? All the salaries for last month are tied up.

The seventy-five special policemen appointed by Mayor Bemis have been discharged until further notice is given but "further notice" was interpreted to mean, "Report for duty Tuesday morning." One of the specials said he had instructions to report tomorrow subject to the directions of Chief White. Whether the chief of police anticipates trouble or whether it is the intention of the board to use the official axe upon the heads of seventeen policemen who are suspected of having a sympathetic feeling for the A. P. A. board is unknown.

WILL WORK AS ONE.

Baldwin and Westinghouse Companies Have Consolidated.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—The Baldwin Locomotive works and the Westinghouse Electric company formed a combination today for the development of apparatus for the operation of steam railroads by electricity. The name of the new company has not been determined and the officials of the Baldwin company decline to state whether or not it will be made a stock company, though by the agreement the two companies will hereafter be as one and both plants will be retained as they are at present, extensions being made as business warrants. There will be a division of work, the Baldwin company taking up such as is suitable for its facilities; electrical work will be done by the Westinghouse company.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 5.—W. D. Updegraff, private secretary to George Westinghouse, said the combination is to develop the possibilities of the Tesla motor as applied to the railway service. It is intended to make it possible to ride from New York to Pittsburgh in three hours. With the Tesla motor power it is intended to draw a car at the rate of 150 miles an hour or more. The only thing now is to get cars and car wheels that will stand the strain of traveling at that rate of speed.

DEFENDER AGAIN THE VICTOR.

Keel Boat Once More Demonstrates Superiority Over Center-Boarders.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 5.—The Defender and Vigilant sailed over a thirty-five and one-quarter mile course today from Cottage City, Mass., to this port. The sea was rough and the wind from ten to fifteen miles an hour. For twenty miles, down to the Vineyard sound lightship, it was dead beat to the windward and the Defender beat the Vigilant by five minutes and forty-six seconds. On the stretch thence to Newport the Defender gained enough to make her elapsed time from start to finish nine minutes and nine seconds better than the Vigilant's. The Jubilee also started and the Vigilant beat her ten minutes and forty-nine seconds. The Emerald was the first schooner in and the Constellation second.

PAPER TRUST IS A GO.

Intended to Have Monopoly of Business and Prices Will Go Up.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—S. T. Ward, the local agent for a number of out-of-town paper mills, said today that the newspaper trust is an assured thing. The trust, he said, would have a capital stock of $35,000,000 and it is intended to have a monopoly of the industry. He said a slightly increased price will also be demanded. "The price of newspaper has already largely advanced," said he, "but this is due to the scarcity of water, as all the large newspaper manufacturing mills are run by water power." Fifty-four mills are expected to enter the combine and have a total capacity of 3,020,000 pounds of newspaper per day.

BIG PURSE HUNG UP.

Match Probable Between Robert J. Gentry and Patchen. RED OAK, Ia., Aug. 5.—Messages were sent from here by Secretary Clark to J. C. Hamlin of Buffalo, owner of Robert J. Gentry; John G. Taylor, Buffalo, owner of Joe Patchen, and to M. E. McHenry of Freeport, Ills., driver of John R. Gentry, the answers to which are awaited with great interest. If they are favorable the offer ought to result in one of the greatest contests in the history of the turf and the crowd will doubtless be limited only by the capacity of the grounds. The dispatches were as follows: "Will give a purse of $5,000 for a race between Robert J. Gentry and Joe Patchen at Paulous Park Thursday, Aug. 15, American rules to govern. Money divided 60, 25 and 15 per cent."

KILLED FATHER AND SON.

The Horrible Crime of a Patent Fence Dealer at a Kentucky Town.

SON COULD NOT STAND SEEING FATHER ABUSED.

He Remonstrated but It Cost Him His Life—Father Fell Mortally Shot Beside Dead Boy.

UNCALLED-FOR BLOODSHED.

VERSALLIES, Ky., Aug. 5.—This afternoon N. W. Lane, a patent fence dealer of Lexington, Ky., shot and killed James Rodenbaugh and mortally wounded H. C. Rodenbaugh, the father of James, at the Hotel Woodford. This morning Lane arrived from Lexington quite drunk and applied at the Hotel Woodford, of which H. C. Rodenbaugh is the proprietor, for a room in which to sleep off his drunk. He was given a good front room. Shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon Lane came down and, addressing H. C. Rodenbaugh, said: "The room you gave me is not fit for a hog."

He kept up a loud and abusive language. Finally Mr. Rodenbaugh said: "The room was very nice until after you had been in it." This enraged Lane and made him more violent. Just then James Rodenbaugh, aged twenty-two, son of the proprietor and a cripple, came in with a revolver in hand and, addressing Lane, said: "Get out of here; you shall not abuse my father in that way."

Instantly Lane drew a revolver and fired, sending a ball through the young man's neck, cutting the jugular vein. As James Rodenbaugh fell he fired at Lane. His aim was unsteady and the ball barely grazed Lane's breast, blowing along the side. More furious than ever Lane rushed up to the old man and at close range sent a bullet through his mouth into the base of the brain and still another into his spine as he fell by the dead body of his younger son.

Lane was immediately jailed. H. C. Rodenbaugh was a soldier in the Federal army.

MESSENERS OF THE SKY.

About the Remarkable Kites Made by the Japanese and Chinese. In the making of kites shape is no consideration. A square, circle, man, star, fish, dragon, horse or shield will fly equally well, but they must be equally proportioned. In Japan one sees a whole menagerie at once in the air—horses, cows, monkeys, bats, fishes, crows and snakes, as well as dragons, babies which cry, boys with their arms and legs spread out, hunters and soldiers. "Fighting kites" are seen everywhere in both China and Japan. The armed kite is usually made about two and a half feet high and covered with cambric or silk. The tail may be made of strips of bright-colored cloth about one inch wide, securely tied in the middle to a strong twine. The destructive part of this kite lies in the tail, to which are attached sharp pieces of broken glass called knives. Fasten three of these knives together with wax, so that each shall point in a different direction, bind on three slips of thin wood lengthwise to hold the wick and glass firmly, and cover with cloth or kid. A much simpler weapon is made by dipping the ten feet of string next to the kite in glue and then rolling it in powdered glass until thickly coated with a glistening armor of sharp points. The object with both is, of course, to cut your opponent's string. The skillful maneuvering which this requires is very good practice in training one to act quickly. It is considered dishonorable to cut an unarmed kite.

Blacksmith's Faces. Is the blacksmith's trademark a scowl? A writer on "Trades and Faces," in Blackwood's Magazine finds the following to say about him: In most blacksmiths the constant exercise of the corrugator supercilii muscles causes a permanent frown, and gives the face a somewhat hard expression; but whether there is any inward and spiritual state corresponding with this outward and visible sign I am not quite sure. Whether their characters in any way correspond with their acquired expressions I did not discover; there was a grave courtesy in their demeanor while in hospital which was singularly dignified and pleasing, although always slightly suggestive of the politeness of foes during an armistice.

An Urgent Landlady.

An aged lady complained to a London magistrate that because she was a little behind with her rent her landlady followed her to church and asked for it there. The landlady came into the pew alongside her, and when she was joining in the responses was constantly whispering to her about the rent. When it came to the response: "Incline our hearts," the landlady would add: "To pay our rent." The magistrate said it was very annoying, but there was nothing illegal in it.

WHAT A GOOD KNIFE COSTS. More Men Spend 33 For a Pocketknife Than Less.

"More men pay three dollars and upward for a pocketknife than less. That may not be the experience of all cutlery dealers, but that's the kind of trade we cater to," said a knife expert from behind the counter of a store on one of the most frequented downtown streets to a New York Press man. "Spaniards spend the most money for knives," he continued. "Spaniards who come here are very fastidious in the matter of cutlery, anyway. Where an American family in the same circumstances will be content with ordinary plated table ware, costing four or four and a half dollars per dozen, a Spaniard will have nothing but the finest steel with ivory handles at eighteen dollars and over. The average business man spends usually about three dollars for a four-bladed knife. If he loses a knife often, as many men do, he comes down to two dollars, then to one dollar. Most expensive knives are bought for presents. Four dollars buys an excellent gift. Last season many knives were given for prizes at church parties. Such knives were usually fancy ones with half a dozen blades or attachments. That big seven-inch knife there is a hunter's knife. It costs four dollars.

"A man who buys that will take it to the Adirondacks and when he leaves there present it to his guide. We have one customer who buys three of those knives every year. He gives them to his guides, he says. We sell nearly one hundred and fifty of them every year. This heavy one here with a big steel hook is a horseman's knife. It costs three dollars. The hook is used for digging out a stone from the horse's hoof. It has, as you see, other attachments, such as a coricrow, screwdriver, nut cracker, awl, gimlet and a score of things for other useful or useless purposes, according to the point of view. We sell many of them—probably more than any other kind. Sailors usually buy pretty good knives. They and Italians go in for big, sharp knives that should be handy in case of defense. Pretty nearly every trade has a peculiar knife. That's one reason why a well-equipped cutlery shop makes such a formidable display. Knives cost all the way from fifty cents to twenty-five dollars. We don't sell many at the latter price. I sold one last week for fifteen dollars. It was given to some judge who is to be displaced by Mayor Strong, I believe."

WIZARDS OF THE AIR.

The Great Da Comas, now With Ringling Bros.' Big Circus.

The remarkable progress which all classes of circus entertainment has made in the past decade is notably illustrated by the starting performance in mid-air given by the Da Comas, who are among the many distinctive features of Ringling Bros.' World's Greatest Shows this season. This remarkable family of gymnasts comprises one gentleman and two ladies, and their act is not only unique, but also far superior to anything of the kind ever before seen in this country. They actually fly through space, tugging single and double somersaults in mid-air, and never failing to catch each other at the critical moment of descent. The fame of these remarkable performers is such that they never fail to receive an ovation, and the enthusiasm of their welcome is intensified by the almost incredible skill of their performance. The Da Comas, however, are only one feature among the many aerial novelties which Ringling Bros. present to their patrons this year. The performance of Maynard and La Motte upon the aerial bars is a novelty and worthy of being classed among the best of high-class aerial acts. It is new, unique and thoroughly in keeping with the progress made in this class of entertainment. The performance given upon the lofty trapeze by Art and Millie Adair is a remarkable combination of picturesque mid-air posing and finished execution. A score of other notable aerial performers add to the completeness of this department of the great show. There is not a cheap or mediocre act among them. What is particularly noticeable in the performances given by Ringling Bros.' great circus, is the universal care given to the costume. Many of the costumes worn by the performers are worth hundreds of dollars, and the shining silks, glistening satins and wealth of ornamentation, contribute to make a picture absolutely brilliant in its brilliancy. Patrons of Ringling Bros.' shows are assured of seeing a complete performance night or day, without abridgement. They will also see the finest menagerie in the world, the best triple ring show, the handsomest stock, and the most exciting hippodrome races ever given under a canvas, and at the same time they will be afforded the opportunity of seeing a complete charge of hearing Liberator's famous band of sixty soloists, the most complete musical organization in the United States. The date in this city is Monday, Aug. 12. (8-5-7d)

THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM

Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and to gain in wholesome flesh up to the healthy standard. Every one should have a certain surplus of flesh to meet the nerves to sleep with, grip, malaria and fever. Thin blooded people are always getting sick, and none of the organs of the body can get along without the food they require for work, which is pure blood. To gain and to keep strength and flesh is the secret of health, usefulness and happiness. With new blood power to refresh nerves a confident feeling of returning health comes also. Nervous manifestations, such as sleeplessness, nervous debility and nervous prostration are in nine cases out of ten the cry of the starved nerves for food. If you feed the nerves on pure rich blood the nervous symptoms will cease. It is bad practice to put the nerves to sleep with so-called celery mixtures, coca compounds or malt extracts; what is needed is a blood maker. The Discovery is composed of vegetable ingredients which have an especial effect upon the stomach, liver, and blood making glands. For the cure of dyspepsia, indigestion, liver complaint, weakness, neuralgia, or puny, pale people, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cannot be equaled. Thousands have testified to its merits.

A Bold Young Thief. An unknown boy, apparently about twelve years of age, sneaked into Tonella & Johnson's furniture store on Third street just before 6 o'clock last evening and grabbed the loose change in the cash drawer. Mr. Johnson saw him run out and started in pursuit but unfortunately did not call out until he reached Washington street. Had he raised a yell sooner the young thief might have been caught, as Officer Dube was just across the way on his way to the City Hall. When the officer did learn of the matter the boy was turning into the Jackson cut. Finding the officer gazing on him the boy dropped the stolen cash and dodging out through the Manhard-Lofting company's yard managed to get away. He dropped $4.25, which is believed to be all he took. The audacity of the attempt in one so young was the most remarkable phase of the affair.

Were Treated Finely. The Marquette baseball team wish through THE MINING JOURNAL to express their thanks for the courteous treatment received at Baraga, which was in such agreeable contrast to the way they were abused at Escanaba. This paper having made some jesting allusions to Baraga as the sawdust town the players there sent yesterday to the baseball editor a large box of desiccated wood. It was good clean pine sawdust and has been devoted with thanks to the comfort and convenience of the office eat.

All the members of the band are miners and it is understood that they came chiefly to show their appreciation of the recent advance in wages at the Republic mine, of which N. M. Kaufman is one of the directors.

MARVELOUS RESULTS. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at E. Farnham's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Cheap Gas in Birmingham. The city of Birmingham, England, supplies pure coal gas to its citizens at 54 cents a thousand. The municipality bought out two private gas companies at a price which makes an annual cost to the city of $207,000. This amount has been paid for seventeen years, and the people of Birmingham have reaped a net profit on the investment during that time of $3,570,000.

CHEESE-BOX MAKING.

Vast Numbers Turned Out Yearly by Expensive Machinery.

Competition Among Manufacturers Has Created a Great Industry-How the Boxes Are Put Together.

An idea of the magnitude of the cheese industry in this country is given by the fact that the boxes in which the cheese is shipped represent a cost of nearly half a million dollars annually. It is not many years, says the New York Sun, since cheese was shipped in any kind of barrel or box which would hold from one to half a dozen good-sized forms, packed in straw to keep them from being bruised or broken in the handling. It was only factory-made cheese that received such protection, while dairy cheese was sent to market destitute of any covering other than its own roughly banded rind, which in most cases proved invulnerable. Competition among manufacturers has changed all this, and at present the manufacture of boxes gives employment to a large number of hands and necessitates the use of powerful and expensive machinery.

It was customary in the early days of the business to saw the hoops, as the large body of the box is called, out of the log in planks about one-fifth of an inch in thickness. The waste of material was a most serious objection to this plan, fully fifty per cent. of the timber going in sawdust. The invention of the rotary cutting machine has prevented this waste and at the same time produced a better hoop than the sawed article. The chief timber used in making cheese-box hoops is the common swamp elm. No other timber seems to possess the same qualities of lightness, toughness and elasticity, so requisite for cheese boxes, as this once-despised product of American forests. The logs, after being cut in the proper lengths, generally five feet for an ordinary cheese box of fifteen and a half or sixteen inches diameter, are thrown into long vats filled with water, where they are boiled from fifteen to twenty hours. The time required to soften the timber, or cook it, as the operation is called, varies according to the size of the timber and the season. Large logs require to be cooked longer than small ones, particularly when the logs are frozen. It is not uncommon to find the center of a log still frozen after fifteen hours of boiling. Experience is the best guide in this part of the business, and to know when the timber is thoroughly cooked and not overdone is one of the things acquired only by constant observation. When sufficiently boiled the logs are lifted in iron grapples from the vats and laid on skids, where the bark is removed. Then a log is lifted by a crane and swung into place in the machine, where it is held in a horizontal position by chucks or dogs that center it at each end.

In this position the log revolves like a roll of paper in a printing press. The knife which does the cutting is very heavy and is bolted to a heavy head called a carriage, which is fed forward by screws toward the revolving log. In the most approved machines the knife has an end or oscillating as well as a forward motion. This reduces the strain on the machine and permits the cutting of soft, unsound and shaly-hearted logs. As the knife comes in contact with the timber the inequalities of the log are first shorn off, and gradually the log becomes perfectly round and yields an unbroken sheet of lumber, like the unwinding of a roll of cloth. This sheet of wood is broken off in convenient lengths, which are passed under dividing knives that cut them into uniform widths, corresponding with the required depth of the box.

If the boxes are to be made up once the hoops are bent around iron cylinders to give them the form of the box, after which the bottom is pressed in and nailed in place. Comparatively few boxes are put together in the larger mills. In most cases the product is dried and shipped to the cheese manufacturing centers, where the boxes are completed. The boxes in the finished state are too bulky for economical handling.

The remnants which are not wide enough for hoops are used for the cover band and for the narrow band that goes around the bottom of the box. The boxes vary in size both as regards depth and diameter. The most common size will hold a cheese of from sixty to sixty-five pounds. Such a box is ten inches deep and fifteen and one-half inches in diameter. This is the size of cheese most in demand for export. The size for home consumption is as a rule much smaller and requires a box from five to six inches deep, but of the same diameter as the other. Various kinds of timber are used to form the heads of the box, but elm is the accepted material for the hoops. Owing to peculiarities of the soil, the timber in some localities is inclined to be shaly, the checks or shakes running around the log and following the grain of the timber. Such timber was useless when the hoops were sawed, but in the rotary process much of it can be turned to good account. The bulk of the elm timber used in this business is brought in from Canada.

The western peninsula of Ontario lying north of Lake Erie contained one of the largest tracts of elm timber on the continent. It has been greatly depleted in recent years. The logs are taken out in winter when the swamps are frozen and are skidded near the railways or on the lake shore. The bulk of them are taken to the mills by water in tow of powerful steam tugs.

DECORATING THE TOWN.
Every member of the Ishpeming fire department who was not at work yesterday was busily engaged preparing the decorations for the fire engine houses, the street arches and halls where the dances are to be held during the firemen's tournament. The decorations will be very pretty when completed. The arch on Main street opposite the A. O. U. W. hall is quite attractively decked out. In addition to the evergreens, banners, etc., on the arch, over one hundred incandescent electric lights of various colors will be displayed on it. A number of banners for different parts of the city, as well as several electric and gas mottoes, will be completed and hung up today. The A. O. U. W. hall, which will be the firemen's headquarters during the tournament, is also very tastefully decorated. Nearly all the business men are doing more or less decorating. Some very pretty work is being done and no doubt by tonight the city will present a very gay appearance. The decorations will be the finest ever seen here.
The members of the executive committee of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association will all be here today. The committee is made up of Henry Routhier of Ishpeming, president; A. J. Scott of Hancock, first vice president; Wm. Bower of Crystal Falls, second vice president; L. P. Crary of Marquette, treasurer, and T. J. Flynn of Negaunee, secretary. The committee will meet this evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of selecting judges for the various contests and the transaction of such other business as may be presented. It is expected that each team entered for the contests will have a representative at the meeting so that they may draw lots for positions.
The ladies of St. John's congregation who are in charge of the fair at the opera house desire it understood that they will furnish lunch and meals at all hours during the day or evening, and also that they will provide supper for those attending the dances Thursday evening. A good spread will be prepared and only twenty-five cents a plate will be charged.
The display of prizes for the contests in Anderson & Co.'s store window attracted considerable attention yesterday. It is very neatly arranged and the prizes can be seen to very good advantage.
The reserved seats for the play "Man and Master" by the members of the Catholic Dramatic club at the Convent hall tomorrow evening are selling very rapidly and a large attendance is already assured.

INSULTS IN MEXICO.
A Town Where Deadly Ants Terrify the People.
In Guerrero the tarantula is sometimes found there as big as a man's two fists. Scorpions are of all sizes, but the one which does the most harm by its bite is a smallish gray creature. The larger ones bite so hard that the blood flows freely, and the infected poison flows off. There is a little snake called the coralillo, which is particularly fond of getting indoors and nesting in one's boots. Its bite is fatal. Boots should always be inspected for coralillos before they are put on—in Guerrero. If a scorpion creeps on the face or hands, the person so visited should carefully refrain from making any movement; he should allow the horrible insect to crawl just where it will. If it is not disturbed, in all likelihood it will do no harm; if it is attacked it is quite sure to sting.
The worst terror to the people of Guerrero, says the Boston Herald, is neither snakes nor scorpions, but the red ants. These insects bite the people like in terror from their houses. They leave nothing behind if they can help it. An Indian woman rushed out of her cabin with her children on the coming of the ants being announced. In her terror she left her baby behind the house swinging in a hammock. It was hoped that it would escape, but when the ants had departed the mother found that the insects had crept down the cords of the hammock, and had left of the unfortunate child nothing but its bones. On some of the Guerrero sugar estates great, lazy-looking snakes are kept in the storerooms to keep rats and mice away from the sugar loaves. These snakes are repulsive in appearance, but harmless to human beings. Not all the places in Mexico, however, which have an agreeable climate are cursed with insects and reptilian pests. Such places as Cuernavaca, in the state of Morelos, are too high above the hot plains to suffer from venomous insects, and yet so much below the cold tableland that the climate is a perpetual summer. Cuernavaca unites many of the advantages of the temperate zone with all that is delightful and alluring in the tropics.

CUMBERLAND TALK.
Old Expressions in Use Among the Natives.
"Whims" is the local name in Cumberland for furs, and appears to be the Gaelic word quins, sharp points.
"Heaf" is a very peculiar word, (derived from the Old Norse haef, a chair), and is applied to the part of a fellside common allotted to a particular flock of sheep. The Gentleman's Magazine. Each flock keeps to its own "heaf." Some very quaint expressions are "bride-loaf," a wedding cake; "seeing-glass," a mirror; "blout-hat," a woman's sunbonnet; "ridding-out keam," a hair comb; "fireworks," a magic-lantern display; "mole-man," a mole-catcher; "leg-weary," tired; "leg up," to trip up; "sneak up," to wind (literally to latch up) a clock.
The verbs "feel" in the sense of to smell, and "lame," in the sense of to injure any part of the body, are peculiar. We may add "pipe-stoppie," the stem of a tobacco pipe; "buttock," a footstool; "thinker folk," the gypsies; "last dress," a shroud, which children are taught to work at school, and afterwards to present to their grandparents and other aged relatives—a kindly act, but one which betrays that lack of humor and sense of the ludicrous which is characteristic of northern folk. A Cumbrian who goes to have his photograph taken announces that he has come to be "struck."

"But, dear," persisted the little neighbor, "when you told me how he said 'What a resemblance, you said you wondered if it could be--you know who you said, dear. And now you can ask him, dear; can't she, Mr. Painterman?'"

And the artist, returning the widow's icy gaze with interest, replied: "Your mother does not need to ask." And then, suddenly, he stepped forward, the anger gone from his sad, wrinkled, old face...

"I suppose so," indifferently responded the artist, going on with his painting. "I don't remember him." And the little neighbor's blue eyes opened widely. It seemed so strange that every one should know of mamma's treasure...

"Yes, he remarked, absently, 'perhaps you do; though you were a mere babe.'" One other day, one warm uncomfortable day in August, Mrs. Brent, who lived in the very uppermost flat, and who was the mother of three little girls herself, came down to the door of the widow's rooms and asked for the company of the widow's little daughter...

obedience. And, furthermore, the little child felt she would deserve the misery of seeing her mother's grief, for time and again had mamma warned her to leave the velvet box alone.

"The studio door was unlocked, but the artist was absent when his little neighbor entered. He had gone after some color that he had suddenly needed, no doubt; the child often found the studio empty, so it did not surprise her in the least...

"Favor!" she cried, nearly gladly. "Favor--me favor?" "Yes, her father, older, sadder than the father in the velvet box, but still the father of the artist's little neighbor. But how had he come on the artist's canvas when the child had left him broken in the velvet box?"

"Mamma won't cry now," she cooed. "Me broke the yuther you, but this you won't break, me knows you won't. Me's favor, me's darling favor!" And the artist, being a man used to the ways of the world, understood. Softly he stepped out into the hall; quietly he closed the door behind him; and whatever hopes this second meeting with the love of his youth had awakened, alas! lay dead on the inner side of the studio door.

Just then the mother of his little neighbor entered the hall below. How well she knew that footsteps! Should he tell her? He must tell her, but how? Oh, how? Perhaps the artist had hoped to be as a father to the little neighbor, but she did not need him now. No one needed him now.

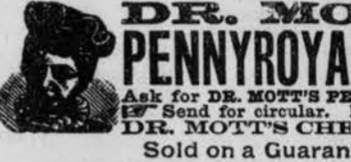

"Certainly," was the frigid reply. The mother of the little neighbor presented the familiar use of her Christian name. Not since the days of her girlhood had she heard it from the artist's lips, and she intended by her manner to discourage this, his first advance toward the old relations...

Council Authorizes Purchasing Committee to Act and Prospects for Better Streets Are Good.

MUCH BUSINESS WAS DONE.

The council last night took some decisive action on the subject of better streets. A petition with nearly three hundred signatures, including nearly all of the heavy taxpayers of the city, asked for immediate action.

Aldermen Blanchard, Brown, Hooley and Shea were absent and President Sherman was in the chair. After the recorder had ground through the minutes of four preceding meetings a communication from the park commission was presented, setting forth that they did not think it necessary at present to appoint any park policeman, that they had appointed none and that the council had omitted to authorize them to appoint any.

The Sons of St. George asked permission to erect certain arches and other decorations in the streets for their reunion here on August 17 and also to be permitted to use West Washington street for bicycle racing for three hours on the afternoon of that day.

A petition signed by D. H. Ball and 27 others for the general improvement of the streets was presented and referred to the street committee. Later the council took steps to provide the street committee and street commissioner with the necessary appliances to carry out the duties of their office.

The finance committee reported that J. M. Wilkinson, banker, had made the best offer for the custody of public money and a resolution was passed accepting his bid for the remainder of the fiscal year and directing the city attorney to draw the necessary contracts and bonds.

Alderman Pendill reported that no better bid than that of the Lake Shore Iron works had been received on a rock crusher but as it had been proposed to dispense with certain screens and elevators he did not feel prepared to report fully at present.

The committee of arrangements for the Sons of St. George celebration announced that owing to the complications that may arise regarding the status of amateurs who may enter the races here on Aug. 17 they will offer medals of the value of the cash prizes offered wherever such course may be desired or may be expedient under the rules of the League of American Wheelmen.

pay roll, $392.65 for lighting streets and public buildings, $310.33 for lumber and $73.25 for storm houses and rent at City Hall. No other item exceeded $40.

Alderman Tobin from the street committee presented for approval profiles of Hendrie street and Bleimhuber avenue, from Champion to Altamont, and of Altamont, from Jackson to Bleimhuber avenue, with the necessary resolutions authorizing the controller to establish assessment districts and secure estimates for the grading of those streets.

In Honor of Pythian Visitors. A reception and ball will be tendered the visiting Knights of Pythias from Chicago at the Hotel Superior on Wednesday night by the knights of Marquette. Members of the Uniformed Rank will appear in uniform. Music will be furnished by the hotel orchestra.

Owing to a variety of causes the attendance of Knights of Pythias on the excursion to this city under the auspices of St. Bernard division of Chicago was much less than anticipated. The chief cause was a sudden change in the date of the Illinois state encampment from the latter part of August to next week.

Among the visitors were the following officers and members of St. Bernard division, ladies and others: Captain John Ruane, Lieutenant E. J. Hillinger, Treasurer E. E. Evans, Recorder Walter McDonnell, Sergeants G. F. Amos and Bart Gubbins, Guide H. J. Way, M. C. McDonald, J. P. Way, J. A. McCartney and Dr. Ecklund; Messengers McCartney, McDonald, Evans and Gubbins; Messes Lena Hill and Grace Franklin; Guy C. Cassius M. and Harold A. McDonald.

Posters are out announcing the rendering at the opera house on Friday evening, Aug. 16, of the operetta "Red Riding Hood," with elaborate costumes, May-pole and fancy dances, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, by the Tuxedo Dramatic club, under the auspices of the executive committee of the St. Jean Baptiste society for the benefit of the Pere Marquette state fund.

The committee of arrangements for the Sons of St. George celebration announced that owing to the complications that may arise regarding the status of amateurs who may enter the races here on Aug. 17 they will offer medals of the value of the cash prizes offered wherever such course may be desired or may be expedient under the rules of the League of American Wheelmen.
