FOR EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

Senator Platt Introduces a Resolution Which Is Referred to Appropriations Committee.

MAY 2D THE DATE MENTIONED IN THE MEASURE.

Proposed Change from Fee to Salary System Occasions Much Debate and Is Vigorously Opposed by Hoar and Others.

YESTERDAY'S SENATE DOINGS.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Both the floor and the galleries of the senate were well high deserted today owing to the promise that the Cuban debate would give way to routine business. Sherman presented a favorable report on the resolution authorizing ex-President Harrison to accept the decorations conferred on him by Brazil and Spain while president. It went over on an objection to immediate action by Allen (Neb.).

Gallagher (Rep. N. H.) proposed an amendment to the Constitution, to be known as Article XVI, providing that congress nor any state shall pass a law respecting the establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or the use for the credit of the United States or any state of any money raised by taxation for founding, maintaining or aiding a religious denomination, society, institution or undertaking wholly or partly under sectarian or ecclesiastical control.

Platt (Rep. Conn.) offered a resolution authorizing the president of the senate and the speaker of the house to adjourn the respective houses of congress on the second day of May at 3 o'clock. It was referred to the appropriations committee, as any determination as to adjournment must depend upon the condition of appropriation bills.

The legislative appropriation bill was then taken up. The question of reforming the feesystem for United States district attorneys and marshals occasioned much debate. Hoar opposed the change from fees to salaries by means of an appropriation bill, as it was a large subject and needing separate treatment. Allen (Pop. Neb.) attacked the high salaries proposed and the manner in which these salaries were being put through the senate. He declared that offices of district attorneys were given frequently in payment of political debts, and instead of requiring a high degree of legal talent the places sometimes went to "shysters" who could not earn a living outside of office.

George (Dem. Miss.) attacked the entire policy of giving high salaries, and showed that governors and attorney generals of states received less by half than the bill proposed allowing federal district attorneys.

Allen also criticized the provision allowing the attorney general to designate the number of deputy marshals. He spoke against "the horde of office holders." Under Buchanan the government had spent $50,000,000 annually and now it is five hundred million dollars. In that time the population had doubled, but the expenses had increased ten-fold. Officers were thrusting their hands into the treasury and by hook and by crook—mainly by crook—seeking to increase their salaries. The purpose of this provision was to add to the offices controlled by an executive officer.

Hoar responded warmly. The senate could not waste its time investigating into detail the number of deputy marshals in each of the seventy-seven districts in the United States. If it did it would become a laughing stock. If the government could not trust the attorney general with this duty then the American government had better shut up shop and apply to some Populist club to carry on its affairs.

After an extended debate the salaries for district attorneys and marshals were agreed to as reported with a few minor changes. The legislative appropriation bill had not been completed when, at 5:30, the senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Consideration of the Naval Appropriation Bill Is Commenced.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—There was a dash of excitement in the opening proceedings of the house today. Bartlett (Dem. N. Y.) rose to a question of privilege to deny the statement he had furnished the campaign circular used by Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) a few days ago in his attack upon Gibson (Rep. Tenn.). He denounced the charge as a libel and a lie.

Boutelle was on his feet as soon as Bartlett sat down. He said that in the debate on the Confederate disability bill Wheeler (Ala.), in reading from the Congressional Record, had altered the same to read "many Democrats voted for the bill to retire General Grant," instead of "all Democrats," as the official notes reported him as saying. Boutelle declared that fifty-eight of those voting against the retiring bill were ex-Confederates.

Wheeler wanted to review the history of the Grant bill, which was not permitted. He contented himself by saying he thought a gentleman in revising his remarks had the right to make the statement conform to the truth. The house then went into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill.

In reply to a question Boutelle explained that about nine million dollars were carried by the bill for an increase in the navy already authorized and $3,250,000 for work on the four new battleships and fifteen torpedo boats authorized in the bill. He assumed by making certain calculations that the cost of the four new battleships authorized by the bill would be about $14,000,000, and the increase in the navy authorized by the bill would cost for completion $35,000,000, of which but $3,250,000 were carried by the bill. The grand total carried by the bill was $31,611,034, $2,488,438 more than the current bill.

Cummings (Dem. N. Y.), a member of the committee, gave the bill hearty endorsement, stating in his opinion it was the most reasonable bill ever reported from the naval committee. Our naval establishment, he thought, should keep pace with the progress of the world. It was our duty to maintain the ratio of increase with the warships of England. The best defense was means of offense. General debate was then closed and the bill was read for amendment under the five minute rule.

Cannon (Rep. Ill.) antagonized the provision for the erection of residences on the grounds of the naval observatory. Those buildings, he said, were occupied by favorite naval officers who were nominally in charge of astronomical observations but who practically knew no more about astronomy than the average member of congress (laughter).

Boutelle protested indignantly against Cannon's interference with the work of the naval committee and paid a high tribute to the attainments of naval officers. In the American navy, he said, there had been some of the brightest minds in the scientific world.

Robinson (Rep. Pa.), who was educated at Annapolis and served eleven years as an officer of the navy, defended the attainment of naval officers and poked fun at Cannon in a good-humored way. Soon after Cannon came here from his prairie home in Illinois for service, said Robinson, he embarked on a steamer on the Potomac river. While pacing the deck he started in amazement from the open hatch, exclaiming: "My God, she is hollow."

Wheeler (Dem., Ala.) again recurred to the controversy he had with Boutelle at the opening of the day's session. He explained from the record that while he had not been accurate in stating that all Democrats voted for the bill to retire General Grant, seventy-seven had so voted. This drew another statement from Boutelle. He had the record and showed that seventy-nine Democrats had voted in favor of the bill, of whom fifty-eight had served in the Confederate army.

SENATOR CUBAN RESOLUTIONS.

Strong Probability They Will Be Accepted by the House Conference.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The conferees of the two houses of congress on the Cuban resolutions held another meeting today, but again adjourned without reaching a conclusion. They, however, went far enough to justify the belief that another session, which is to be held tomorrow, will be sufficient to conclude the conference. The indications favor a recession of the house from its position and the acceptance of the resolutions as they passed the senate. The difficulties of getting any legislation which is opposed as the Cuban resolutions are through the senate under its present rules are well understood by the conferees and the conviction is gradually forming itself upon them that the safest course is to pursue a course which will not require any further action by the senate.

The house members of the conference are loath to give up their resolutions but it is understood they will do so if it is made necessary to secure a concurrence of the two bodies. In case the senate resolutions are accepted by the conference the question will again be thrown into the house, and several members are preparing speeches in anticipation of the opportunity. Cuba's most ardent partisans on the foreign affairs committee think a matter of words is of much smaller importance than that congress should present a solid front to other nations in the matter.

SENATOR PLATT EXPLAINS.

Why He Introduced His Early Adjournment Resolution.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—When asked today for his reasons for the introduction of his resolution for the adjournment of congress on May 2, Senator Platt replied he had put in the resolution because he believed congress would complete all the business that it will be able to do by that time.

"It is perfectly clear," he said, "that there will be no important legislation during the session except that embraced in the appropriation bills, and there is no reason why those bills should not be disposed of in the six weeks allowed by the resolution. This being the case we should begin to look to adjournment. I see no reason for remaining here merely for the purpose of introducing and talking upon agitating resolutions, and am persuaded the country would under the circumstances be better satisfied to have us at home than to have us here."

The senator added that a large majority of the senators favored early adjournment and that most of those with whom he had talked thought it could be accomplished by the middle of May.

INES UP FOR M'KINLEY.

South Dakota's Republican Convention Endorses the Ohioan's Presidential Candidacy.

FINANCIAL PLANK OF 1892 RE-AFFIRMED.

Senator Pettigrew Is Chosen as a Delegate but Is Compelled to Announce He Will Vote and Work for "Sound Money."

AN EXCITING CONTEST ENDED.

HURON, S. D., March 25.—The Republicans of South Dakota today held one of the most exciting conventions in the history of the state. For weeks the contest had been waged all over the state and the convention today was the simple recording of the result. Senator Pettigrew came home from Washington for the announced purpose of securing his own election as a delegate to the St. Louis convention, announcing himself for Allison and as being anxious to get on the resolutions committee at the national convention that he might help to secure a free silver plank in the platform. On this announcement of his policy and purpose he began to work and the issue was clearly drawn all over the state. The result is a great defeat to the senator, for not only was he compelled to announce he would vote for McKinley and "sound money," but the other delegates formally decided he should not be allowed a place on any of the committees at the national convention. All the delegates were strongly instructed for McKinley.

The Republican state convention today declared for McKinley for president and reaffirmed the financial plank of the Minneapolis platform of 1892. The convention was called to order at noon by Chairman Johnson. L. K. Koerms of Spink county was chosen temporary chairman, the various committees were appointed and a recess taken until 5 o'clock. When the convention reassembled William Gardner of Rapid City was elected permanent chairman and C. T. Bates of Sioux Falls and P. C. Murphy of Brookings were chosen as secretaries. The resolutions adopted declared for protective tariff; reaffirmed the Minneapolis financial plank until the St. Louis convention adopts a later statement, and instructed the delegates to St. Louis to use every means to secure the nomination of McKinley.

The election of delegates by judicial districts resulted as follows: L. B. French, Yankton; B. F. Pettigrew, Minnehaha; C. G. Sherwood, Clark; D. A. Mixer, Davison; David Williams, Day; H. G. Meacham, Potter; W. V. Lucas, Fall River and W. E. Smead, Lawrence. Previous to choosing the delegates a resolution was adopted requiring all nominees to go upon the floor and declare for McKinley and "sound money," and not to vote, to vote, but to work to accomplish this end. This was to force an expression from Senator Pettigrew.

The senator stood in the center of the convention, and when called upon to state his position he declared that he would bow to the will of the majority; that while he had followed a course which the future seemed to justify, he was willing now to go to St. Louis and comply with the wishes of the state convention by voting for McKinley and "sound money." Directly after the adjournment of the convention the seven other delegates held a caucus, at which they resolved they would not permit Senator Pettigrew to go as chairman, neither would they permit him to be upon any committee at the national convention.

NORTH DAKOTA FOR M'KINLEY.

DEVIL'S LAKE, N. D., March 24.—Senator Hansbrough, upon being asked today for his opinion concerning the political situation in North Dakota, in view of the withdrawal of Senator Davis, said: "The sentiment in this state is decidedly in favor of McKinley. Allison has many friends, but the convention will be for McKinley. The friends of Davis regret the action of his own state but admire him for his dignified words in his telegram of withdrawal. The contest in this state is now between Judge Lamore and Colonel Robinson on the one hand and my friends on the other."

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

CHARLESTON, W. V., March 25.—The state league of Republican clubs met here today. Eight hundred delegates were present. The meeting was enthusiastic and McKinley's name was greeted with cheers whenever mentioned. Governor Bradley of Kentucky made the principal address, talking on the Monroe doctrine, the tariff and the financial condition of the country.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 25.—The Republican convention of the Nineteenth congressional district met here today to elect delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. Resolutions were adopted endorsing Quay for president and instructing the delegates to vote for him as long as his name was before the convention.

EXETER SPRINGS, Mo., March 25.—The Sixth congressional district Republican convention today elected delegates to the St. Louis convention instructed to vote for McKinley as long as the voting continues.

COPPERDOM FALLS IN LINE.

Club Is Organized to Boom Piegree's Gubernatorial Candidacy. The Piegree gubernatorial boom in the copper country was initiated Tuesday night by the organization of a club pursuant to a call issued some days ago.

The meeting was held at Pfeiffer's hall. About sixty voters were present. A peculiar feature of the gathering was the non-appearance of the committee to whom had been intrusted the drafting of a series of resolutions, and a constitution under which the club was to be organized.

Dr. Lane's address was roundly applauded, and at its close formal organization was at once entered into by the election of a set of officers. William Miller, Houghton county's ex-treasurer, was unanimously elected president and Stuart Goodell, secretary.

HE OBJECTED. A Wedding That Was Interrupted by a Fighter. "I attended a mountain wedding in McDowell county, W. Va., said a well-known post office inspector to a Star writer.

"Everything went along smoothly at first, the cabin was brilliantly lighted with candles and one of the best fiddlers in the county was present to furnish music for the dance to follow the wedding ceremony.

"The bride was escorted to the altar by the groom, and the minister came to the point where he invited anyone who had anything to say why the couple should not enter the bonds of matrimony to speak or thereafter hold his peace, when a rough-looking mountaineer arose and said:

"Anything ter say, parson? Well, I reckon I hev. I hev allus intended ter marry that gal myself an' t'her feller knowed it, so he jess kep' outer my way. I sent 'im word to prepare for a lickin' an' he lef' the country, but kep' a-writin' ter the gal. Now, I'm here ter make my word good an' fore this hyar event goes any farther the taller-faced coward has me ter fight."

"In vain the preacher tried to restore order. A ring was soon squared in the center of the room and the men went at it. In about ten minutes the groom announced that he had enough and the victor, taking the arm of the blushing bride, deliberately changed the groom's name in the marriage license to his own, while the vanquished lover made his escape.

Everybody appeared to be satisfied and the marriage took place as though nothing had occurred to mar the solemnity of the occasion."—Washington Star.

A Future Convenience. Diggins had been working hard for a long time with a refractory heating apparatus. He came out of the basement with blue fingers and a red nose, and an expression of repressed emotion on his face.

"Maria," he said, "there's one comfort about it."

"What is it?"

"We needn't worry about ice next summer. I think I have struck a plan that's entirely reliable. If we want to get anything good and cold we'll take it down and put it into that heating apparatus. Only we must be careful not to leave it too long, or it'll freeze."

M'KINLEY DOOMED IN TEXAS

Supporters Overlooked Opportunity When They Had a Chance of Sweeping Convention.

REGRET NOW OF OVERESTIMATING THEIR STRENGTH

And Refusing Fusion With the Reed Men—Allison and Reed Forces Combine and Fix Things Up to Suit Themselves.

TWO DAYS AND NOTHING DONE.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 25.—The state Republican convention did practically nothing in the matter of selecting delegates to the St. Louis convention at the session today. It was 1 o'clock before the convention was called to order. This delay was the result of Coney, the Allison temporary chairman, dickered with the Reed men about his committee. The Reed forces demanded of Coney full representation on the committee for their support in electing him temporary chairman. They have every one of the committees as a result and the chairman of each is a red hot Reed man. As soon as the committees were announced the convention adjourned until 6 p. m.

Early this morning the McKinley men announced that practically they had given up the fight and only wanted a representation on the St. Louis delegation. The confession was too open, however, for the Reed and Allison men and they kept close watch on them all day.

At 7 o'clock tonight the convention had not been called to order, awaiting the report of the committee on credentials. This committee, of which a strong Reed man is chairman, has been in session since noon and will probably not conclude its labors before daylight tomorrow. In the meantime, the convention adjourned tonight at 8 o'clock until tomorrow morning to await their report. This committee is with great persistency and constant regularity counting McKinley men out and Reed or Allison men in.

The convention has now been called to order two days and has yet done nothing. Planning has been steadily going on in the convention, however, and the matter has now reached that point where the McKinley men are in the position where they will not only lose the state but may possibly not even be honored with a position on an instructed delegation.

The McKinleyites continue to keep a bold front and say they will have a representative delegation, but this is not generally believed. They are regretting deeply now that it is too late that they overestimated their strength last Monday and refused fusion with the Reed men, at the time, when by giving only one delegate out of the four they would have swept the convention and would have sent an instructed delegation to St. Louis for McKinley. They overlooked their opportunity, however, and now the Allison-Reed men in combination are triumphant.

The McKinley men, many of whom are white men, are thoroughly worn out and are leaving for home tonight, saying they see no reason for staying here. Coney has corralled his following and they announce they will remain here for a month longer if he wants them to. Tomorrow will settle the matter, and it is safe to predict an instructed Reed delegation, with one Allison man on it and three Reed men.

MAY BOLT THE CONVENTION.

AUSTIN, March 25.—Late tonight the McKinley faction held a secret caucus. It is learned they have agreed to bolt the convention tomorrow if their leaders deem it advisable. All indications point to a stormy session tomorrow.

TO FIGHT THE PATRIOTS.

Battalion of Cuban Merchants Is Formed—Insurgent Defeat.

HAVANA, March 25.—General Abumada today reviewed the Urbano battalion, consisting of 2,000 merchants who volunteered for military duty. The colored in command of the battalion is the so-called Cuban railroad king, Argenteo. The volunteers marched past the palace and were loudly cheered by the crowd assembled. General Weyler, who was on the balcony of the palace, was also enthusiastically greeted.

In a skirmish between insurgents and a regiment of troops in the Santa Clara district, Lino Vial, an insurgent leader, was killed. The troops captured possession of his body, as well as those of many more of the enemy's killed.

The San Juan battalion while on a reconnaissance expedition in the province of Santa Clara was attacked by insurgents under Fonseca. The insurgents were eventually dispersed with great loss. The troops lost fifteen killed and thirty-two wounded.

The Alamanca battalion was attacked at Jaguez Cito by 1,000 insurgents under Pedro Garcia. After two hours fighting the insurgents were charged by 250 Spanish cavalrymen, who dislodged the enemy. The latter retired with numerous loss. The troops had seven men wounded.

SPANISH NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

MADRID, March 25.—The majority of the newspapers here print pessimistic comments upon the Cuban discussion at Washington and point to the fact that the three senators upon the joint committee have distinguished themselves by showing ill-will for Spain. The newspapers claim that this is not a reassuring symptom and urge the government to prepare for every eventuality. They declare that while the vote on belligerent rights has not been finally carried, the conflict continues. The press also refers to the fact that the Spanish squadron remains in Spanish waters ready to depart at any moment. The official press, however, takes a more optimistic view of the situation.

CAPITAL STOCK, $10,000,000.

Manufacturers of Electric Heating Apparatus Form a Combine.

BOSTON, March 25.—The American Electric Heating corporation, which includes all companies of importance engaged in the manufacture of electric heating apparatus, has been formed with headquarters in this city. The new corporation is controlled by a syndicate of Boston, New York and western capitalists. The chief object of the formation of the syndicate is to secure a more rapid development of the electric heating process by the concentration of patents and capital than has been possible while they have been widely scattered. To do this the company will have a capital stock of $10,000,000. An immense fund will be set aside to be used in buying up for the companies comprising the corporation all patents, processes and designs throughout the country that are believed to be of value.

A $4,000,000 Deal.

CLOQUET, Minn., March 25.—The C. N. Nelson Lumber company has sold its interests here and in the adjoining county for four million dollars, the buyers being the Frederick Weyerhaeuser interests. The sale includes saw mills, with a capacity of 125,000,000 feet annually; vast tracts of timber; iron mines and a railroad. The new company will be an active bidder for the eastern cargo lumber trade via Duluth.

the board and present their political views. Unusual precautions are being taken to insure secrecy.

Brigadier General Thomas Lincoln Casey (retired), for many years chief of engineers, U. S. A., died here today. The deceased was better known through the fact the Washington monument was completed by him. He was taken sick at 11 o'clock at the new library building, where he was superintending the work, and removed to his home. It was thought he was not seriously ill but he grew worse and in the afternoon suddenly expired.

TO REGULATE EGYPT'S AFFAIRS.

Turkey Asks for the Intervention of France, Russia and Germany.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 25.—As a result of an extraordinary cabinet council lasting throughout Saturday the Turkish government has issued an appeal to France and Russia, asking them to intervene with the object of regulating the affairs of Egypt. Germany is also requested to exercise its good offices. In well-informed circles it is declared the action of the porte is due to the councils of France and Russia, who suggested the present as an opportune moment for Turkey to raise the question of her suzerainty over Egypt being practically usurped by Great Britain.

TO ARRANGE FOR CONVENTION.

The Prohibition Party's Executive Committee Meets at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, March 25.—The executive committee of the national prohibition party met here today to arrange the details for the national convention, which meets in this city in May to name presidential candidates. Among those present was Chairman Samuel Dickie of Michigan. It was decided to distribute three general admission tickets to each delegate and allow the local committee 500. The chairman stated that satisfactory arrangements had been made for the transportation of delegates by the different railroad companies.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

It Is Practically Decided to Hold It at St. Louis.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Miss Frances E. Willard authorizes the statement that the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union for 1896 will be held at St. Louis, almost without doubt. The matter was discussed at a conference today in the rooms of the association at the Temple, while each of the other cities had claims which the managers recognized the sentiment in favor of St. Louis was practically unanimous. The convention will be held in September or October.

TO GIVE A LEAP YEAR PARTY.

How a Murderer's Sisters Propose Raising Money for a New Trial.

CLEVELAND, March 25.—The eight sisters and sister-in-law of Bushron Kelch, the wife murderer, who is under sentence of death, have issued invitations for a leap year party to be given April 28. Their object is to raise money with which to fight for a new trial for Kelch. The murderer was taken to the penitentiary at Columbus this morning.

Wedded at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, March 25.—The families owning the two largest breweries in Milwaukee were united in marriage ties, when Miss Ida Uihlein became the wife of Frederick Pabst, Jr. The ceremony took place at the Hotel Pfister this evening. The bride is a daughter of August Uihlein, the principal owner of the Schlitz brewery, and the groom is a son of Captain Frederick Pabst and a member of the Pabst Brewing company. The presents are valued at hundreds of thousands. The guests were many and the decorations of the hotel magnificent.

Big Iron Company Falls.

ST. LOUIS, March 25.—This afternoon the Pullis Brothers Iron company made an assignment to Henry Boemler, as trustee for the creditors. Shortly before the assignment was made a deed of trust was filed on all the property belonging to the firm. The total amount of the liabilities are said to be in the neighborhood of $500,000; the assets are given as half a million. Lack of business and poor collections caused the failure.

Violinist Remedy Ill.

DAVENPORT, Ia., March 25.—Edward Remenyi, the celebrated violinist, is seriously ill here at the home of a friend. His condition was critical Monday but is now gradually improving. All engagements have been cancelled. Heart trouble and dropsy brought on by overwork are the cause of his collapse.

metropolitan proportions. The council sustained the veto.

All Arab princes of the order are cordially welcome. Prince Pedro, of Coburg, the grandson of the late Emperor Dom Pedro, of Brazil, is now hopelessly insane. About three years ago he was suddenly attacked with insanity, and could be removed from the Coburg palace to a private insane asylum only with the help of the local fire brigade. He now imagines that he succeeded his grandfather to the Brazilian throne, and treats his attendants accordingly. The unfortunate prince is about 30 years old. Parnell's creditors get all of the $20,000 left in property in New York and there is nothing for his mother and widow. It was thought that Parnell had left considerable property above his obligations. He had left personal property in England and in this country and some real estate in Ireland. It was soon found, however, that his liabilities in Great Britain were more than the entire estate and would eat up all his property over there as well as here, if that was in this country could be got at. Battling Minks. Two men were fishing on the banks of a New York lake when they came upon two full-grown minks in combat. The usually sly animals were so busy that they paid no attention to the approach of the fishermen. The minks seemed to be sparring for a throat-hold, and the way they dodged and scratched was highly interesting. Finally one caught the other by the back, and they rolled from the bank into the water, where they continued to fight energetically. Both minks squealed almost continuously as they snapped and scratched at each other, and three times they fell into the water and crawled out again. But at the fourth dip one sneaked away under water, and the victor began to strut along the bank as if much pleased with himself. Then he suddenly caught sight of the human spectators, and fled into the bushes. Simon S. Hartman, of Tunnelton, West Va. has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than any thing else has ever done for me." For sale by The H. H. Stafford Co.

DUKES ANNOY THE PRINCE. Wales Is Often Reprimanded by English Noblemen Who Fear Him Not. Between the prince of Wales and those of his mother's subjects who are of dual rank there is but little love lost, and it is strange that not one of them can be said to possess his friendship or good will to any marked degree. This is the fault of the dukes themselves rather than that of the prince, for the majority of them appear to have considered that the loftiness of their rank gave them the right to address remonstrances to the heir apparent on the subject of what they were pleased to regard as his shortcomings, chief among them in this respect being their graces of Portland, Argyll, Richmond, Cumberland, Buccleuch and Northumberland, while he has had sensational quarrels with the late dukes of Marlborough, Rutland, Sutherland, Newcastle and Hamilton. The duke of Richmond, on the occasion of one of the prince's visits to Goodwood, called his future king to account in the presence of all the guests and in the most unvarnished language for having organized games of hazard, especially baccarat, in spite of his promise not to do so while under the duke's roof. The fat young duke of Portland remonstrated with the prince, who is nearly 20 years his senior, about his intimacy with Lady Brooke, now countess of Warwick, and even went so far as to publicly decline to receive her as a guest at Welbeck abbey when the prince had requested her to form one of his party while staying there. The duke and the duchess of Buccleuch have privately and publicly condemned the prince for the excessive favor which he showed to Americans and for his action in opening the doors of London society in the most indiscriminate manner to all sorts of persons who have no claim or right to the honor. But the duke who went the furthest in manifesting his disapproval of the prince is the old duke of Northumberland. His grace, who enjoys the well-deserved reputation of being the most ill-tempered and cranky nobleman in the United Kingdom, and who is a puritan of the old rigid type, actually went to the length of reproaching the sovereign with the conduct of her eldest son, and for many years deemed it to be his particular mission, to go about in society warning people against the prince, whom he denounced as "a son of perdition, a lost soul and as an absolutely undesirable for the young." The prince naturally was greatly annoyed, and he, too, complained to the queen, who in the most sensible manner soothed his anger by pointing out that she herself had been a sufferer through the old peer, since he had assailed her with reproaches in connection with the excessive grief which she manifested at the loss of her husband. The duke, who is a member of that queer sect known as Irvingites, regarded this as wicked in the extreme, and did not hesitate to tell her majesty so.—N. Y. World.

Time Has Come To cleanse your blood and prepare for the warm season that is near at hand. A wise person will always prefer an ounce of prevention to a pound of cure. This prevention of diseases, which are likely to appear in those whose stomach, bowels and liver are not in good condition, is best secured by taking those preparations which will correct that condition and assure a healthy action of those organs during the summer months. Chief among the agents used to secure that end is Sarsaparilla, and chief among the Sarsaparilla Compounds is our own, "The Best Sarsaparilla Compound," which we manufacture ourselves and the purity and efficacy of which we can absolutely guarantee. "The Best Sarsaparilla" accompanied by "The Best Liver Pill" is undoubtedly the most reliable preparation extant and will give the best satisfaction. T. THE "OLD FOLKS" CONCERT.

It Will Be an Unique and Very Enjoyable Affair.
 The ladies of the Presbyterian church society who are in charge of the arrangements for the "Old Folks" concert to be given at the opera house Thursday evening, April 9, are sparing no pains to make it one of the finest entertainments ever given here. Sixty persons, including all the best vocalists in the city, will take part. Many pleasing features will be introduced. The old-time costumes, which the participants will wear that evening, will be well worth seeing. The ladies in charge of the affair inform THE MINING JOURNAL that great pains have been taken in the preparation of the costumes. "Our costumes," said one of the ladies yesterday, "are simply immense. They will certainly create considerable amusement. They are really a great feature and I know those who attend our concert will be delighted with them, to say nothing of the fine program to be rendered."
 Rehearsals are being held two or three times a week under the direction of Mrs. George Voelker. One or more stage rehearsals will be held next week.

The ladies have disposed of quite a number of tickets for the concert, but those who have not yet procured tickets can find them on sale at Tilson's, Harwood's and Sinclair's drug stores, also at Swift's hardware store. The price of tickets, good for a seat in any part of the hall, is fifty cents. The chart of the opera house will be placed at Tilson's today, so that all who desire choice seats can secure them without extra charge.

SLEIGHING KNOCKED OUT.

High Wind and the Warm Weather Spoiled it in Ishpeming.
 The high wind which prevailed Tuesday and the subsequent soft spell, continuing until last night, when a cold wave happened along, did the business for the sleighing in and about Ishpeming. The streets and the roads leading to the mining locations were bare in many places yesterday, while on Monday there was fairly good sleighing in all parts of the city. The wind had a most disastrous effect on the snow drifts and ice heaps. The snow and ice on some of the roads outside the city proper were so badly cut up that it was difficult to drive either a sleigh or wagon over them.

There being a cold wave reported for today, Manager Lynch of the Bancroft rink decided to open the rink the remaining three evenings of this week. Tonight ladies will be admitted free of charge.

Pictures for the Schools.

A number of fine pictures have recently been received from one source or another for the Ishpeming public schools. Among these are a fine collection of portraits of Washington, Lincoln and other noted men. While the school board has contributed something for the purchase of the pictures a comparatively small amount has been expended by it in that way. Several of the pictures have been donated by citizens here while quite a number have been purchased out of a fund raised by the children attending the schools. The value of pictures in the schools is recognized by the various authorities in nearly every city in the United States. In Milwaukee $5,000 was recently contributed by the school board for the purchase of appropriate pictures for the schools there. The collection at the new high school here will be a fine one.

A Good Crowd Out.

Hon. J. J. Ingalls of Kansas was greeted by a very large audience at the Swedish Lutheran church, Tuesday evening, when he spoke on "Citizenship" under auspices of the Ishpeming Teachers' association. His lecture here was the same as the one given the previous evening at Marquette, a synopsis of which was published in THE MINING JOURNAL. Mr. Ingalls has been suffering for some time past from a very severe cold and yesterday he was feeling so poorly that he spent the day at the Nelson House under treatment of a local physician. He left on the evening train, however, for Iron Mountain, where he was billed for a lecture last evening.

Successful Services.

The forty hours devotional exercises which have been in progress at St. John's church the past two days will come to a close this morning at 8:30 o'clock. Seven priests from neighboring places have assisted Rev. Father Lanzan, the local pastor, in conducting the services. Rev. Father Manning of Gladstone preached a very interesting sermon at the services Tuesday evening and Rev. Father Gears of Republic preached last evening. The exercises have been very successful in every way.

Called to Ann Arbor.

W. J. Bell, the dentist, left yesterday for Ann Arbor in response to a telegram announcing the death of his sister, who died at a hospital there where she had been for some time under treatment for consumption. The deceased was twenty-four years of age and unmarried. The remains will be taken to Ypsilanti for interment. Mr. Bell will be absent from the city about a week.

Logs from Clowery.

The South Shore Railway company has taken a contract to haul 500,000 feet of logs from Clowery to the Fraser mill at Marquette. Shipment of the logs will begin as soon as the snow is off the Dexter branch, where the loading will be done. The branch has not been open this winter, consequently there is considerable snow and ice above the rails.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

J. E. Whalen of Sault Ste. Marie spent yesterday in Ishpeming.
 James Elliott of Lake Linden did business in the Hematite city yesterday.
 C. E. McCrone, C. S. Pollack and W. S. Hill were up from Marquette yesterday.
 O. B. Fuller and F. A. Eastwood of Escanaba paid Ishpeming a visit yesterday.
 Miss Grace Johnson of Ewen, formerly of Ishpeming, spent yesterday with friends here.
 John Kroghdahl has given up his job in the post office here. John B. Pearce has taken his place.

C. E. Handricks got home yesterday morning from Ironwood. He enjoyed his trip to the Gogebic range very much, as that was his first visit to that section.

A special meeting of the city council will be held this evening for the consideration of the annual reports of the city recorder and financial committee.

Bring your last season's hat or bonnet to Grabowsky's and have it fixed over for Easter or early spring wear. The spring opening there will take place later.

Ladies who are in need of sewing machines will do well to look over the bargains offered by John J. B. Orr, in this issue of THE MINING JOURNAL. His prices for high grade machines are very low.

Miss Carrie Sweet has returned from her tour of inspection, bringing with her the latest novelties in millinery. She will be pleased to have the ladies call on her to look over the new styles at Grabowsky's.

A number of men who have been working in the woods all winter have arrived in Ishpeming the past two or three days. Some of them have finished up for the season while others will return with the advent of cold weather.

M. W. Barringer will depart for Saginaw within the next few days. After remaining there a few weeks he will go to Atlanta, Ga., where he will take charge of the Grand Union Tea company's store of that place.

The meeting of the workmen of Ishpeming, held Tuesday evening at the Mine Workers' union hall, at which E. J. Carey of Negaunee was the principal speaker, was very largely attended—in fact the hall was crowded. Mr. Carey's remarks were very favorably received.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

—Countess Tolstoi is an enthusiast on the moral destiny of the stage, and recently sent a complete set of her husband's books to the actress who took the leading part in his play, "The Power of Darkness."

—A movement has been started in Cincinnati to erect a monument to the memory of Gen. Zebulon Pike, the discoverer of Pike's Peak, who was killed during the war of 1812, while leading an attack on the British troops at Toronto, at that time known as York. Gen. Pike was buried at Sackett's Harbor.

—When a friend once met Sydney Smith at Brighton, where he had gone to reduce himself by the use of certain baths, he was struck with the decrease of Smith's size, and said: "You are certainly thinner than when I saw you last." "Yes," replied the witty divine, "I have been here only ten days, but they have scraped enough off me already to make a curate."

—A few years ago, Sousa's entire income was the $1,200 a year he received as manager of the United States Marine band. Last year his royalties on his marches amounted to $25,000. Mr. Sousa is a native of Washington, where he has lived most of his life, and he is 40 years of age. His father was a musician before him, and his first appearance in public as a performer was made when he was ten years old.

PRETTY CHIP CARVING.

Fascinating Fancy Work for the Ladies.

Sharp Tool and a Piece of Soft White Wood the Only Material Needed—The Carver Can Chip in the Drawing-Room, So Clean Is the Work.

The maiden of this end of the century has added a new accomplishment to her repertoire of arts and sciences.

It is chip-carving, the most delightful and "ladylike" work imaginable; a veritable fancy work, which one can take up as easily as a bit of knitting or embroidery. It has the advantage of wood carving, which requires such a vast paraphernalia before one can begin operations, and is so noisy in the doing that one's companions must be long suffering—or deaf. English girls are devoted to chip carving, but the art originated in Germany. In the neighborhood of the Black Forest one can pick up delightful specimens of the work. Table tops, book-racks, picture frames, footstools, in fact, anything fashioned of wood is eligible for carving. White wood is the best for the purpose, and afterward it can be stained in any color—a black walnut tone brings out the carving to perfection, or white enamel paint is pretty.

A novice might begin with a book-rack, one of the miniature kind which holds half a dozen or so volumes and stands on the library table. This, made of white wood, can be bought for exactly 90 cents. The two ends are all that require carving.

The pattern, which is usually one of geometrical design for chip carving, is drawn or traced with lead pencil. Then, with tool in hand, one sits down at one's ease in the corner of the drawing-room, for the litter of chips is nothing to speak of and can easily be kept in the lap.

Only one tool is required for the work an amateur will do. It is a "straight" tool, and costs about 25 cents. It can be purchased at any hardware-shop, and must be fitted with a wooden handle and extremely sharp. Indeed, it is the sharp tool which makes the successful carver.

The design is left in relief and the superfluous wood carved away. If by chance a bit of the design is chipped off it can be glued on and will never show. However, the carver after some practice is not apt to make mistakes of this sort.

As the design develops under one's hand the work becomes quite as fascinating as embroidery of the most seductive description. It is rapid work, too, and two evenings ought to suffice to carve at least one end of the book-rack. When the other end is finished the whole should be colored. A bottle of black walnut stain will be the next investment, and two coats are usually required. Then, behold! Your book-rack finished and a thing of beauty, ready to present to a friend or to appropriate to one's own use.

It must be born in mind that geometrical designs are the best for chip carving. They are very easily transferred to the surface of the wood by means of tracing paper.—Chicago News.

AN ANCIENT LOVER.

West Courting When He Was 123 and Got the Mitten.

Two remarkable cases of longevity were recalled recently by a conversation between several gentlemen in this city. They were discussing the death of Rev. George McCall, the veteran Baptist preacher, when it was authentically stated that Mr. McCall's grandfather lived to the ripe old age of 127 years. He was a bachelor at 100 and took a notion to get married. He carried out this idea and was married. Three sons were born to him, and he lived to see the oldest son old enough to vote.

This was considered remarkable, but a gentleman in the crowd, whose character and standing religiously and socially are above reproach, told an authentic account of the life of his great-uncle, who was one of Georgia's pioneer citizens. This old gentleman lived to be 130 years old. He lived in a log cabin in the northern end of which was cut a square hole. The old man turned the head of his bed to that hole, and slept that way in the warmest and coldest of weather. His wife died when he was about 90 years old, and for many years he lived as a widower. At the age of 115 he cut an entirely new set of teeth, and at the age of 123 one morning he saddled his own horse, sprang into the saddle, and rode 30 miles to address a widow and ask her to be his wife. He evidently was rejected, for he rode back that day and lived seven years longer.—Shelbyville Gazette.

Esquimaux Astronomy.

The polar inhabitants of the northern regions visited by Lieut. Peary have definite but limited ideas of astronomy. In writing of them Peary says that they recognize the "Great Dipper" as a herd of reindeer; the three triangular stars of Cassiopea are the three stones supporting a celestial stone lamp; the Pleiades are teams of dogs in pursuit of a bear; the three glittering brilliants in the belt of Orion are the steps, cut by some celestial Esquimaux in the steep snow-bank, to enable him to climb to the top. Gemini are two stones in the entrance to an igloo; Arcturus and Aldebaran are personifications, and the moon and sun are a maiden and her pursuing lover. These Esquimaux estimate time by the movements of the stars as well as by the position of the sun, and yet, less observant than were the Arab shepherds, they have not noticed that one star is the center about which all the others move, nor have they set apart the planets, which to them are simply large stars. Whether this is due to the fact that the movements of stars can be observed during only about three months in the year, it is impossible to say.—Youth's Companion.

A STARVED MIND. Why a Girl Shook Her Head When Dickens Was Mentioned. It is a fact that the children who have had in abundance the old nursery tales, who have worn out numerous copies of Mother Goose, to whom Christmas and birthdays mean new books, of rhyme and story, being led thence by gradual steps to the uplands of history, poetry and romance, seldom go down before the malignancy of the "blood and thunder" so freely offered them. It is the starved childhood that seizes and feeds upon these.

Thin baby. To be thin, for a baby, is to be deprived of its natural ease; to suffer and not be able to feel it; to wear a sad pinched face; to live on the edge of sickness; to grow imperfectly; and to lose the power of resisting disease. When a baby is thin it needs more fat than it gets from its food; it is starved, fat-starved. Scott's Emulsion is the easiest fat it can have; the fat it needs.

Thin baby. To be thin, for a baby, is to be deprived of its natural ease; to suffer and not be able to feel it; to wear a sad pinched face; to live on the edge of sickness; to grow imperfectly; and to lose the power of resisting disease. When a baby is thin it needs more fat than it gets from its food; it is starved, fat-starved. Scott's Emulsion is the easiest fat it can have; the fat it needs.

John D. Cypr proposes making some needed improvements about his business block, corner of Iron and Cypr streets.

Mrs. Thomas Trathen will leave today for Grove City, Penn., on a visit to her parents. She will be absent about two months.

John D. Atkinson did not leave for his home at Harbor Springs Tuesday, as he had intended. He took his departure yesterday, however.

John Sheehy, who has been at Virginia, Messabrange, for some time past, is expected here today or tomorrow on a week's visit to his parents.

Ex-Mayor E. C. Anthony will leave Sunday for Saginaw, where he will attend the state encampment of the Grand Army, which will be held there next Tuesday and Wednesday.

C. E. Morgan, representing Jennings & Smith, a well-known extract and baking powder firm of Grand Rapids, is making his initial trip through this section.

WOMAN'S WILL. It is Absolutely Insurmountable in This Case. Miss Lawrence, besides being, perhaps, the most prominent character in the play, was also the stage-manager, and it was she who regulated the salaries of the actors.

Mr. Addison, one of the actors, had long contended that his salary was not one-half what it ought to be, and Miss Lawrence declared as firmly that the salary would remain unchanged.

Finally, Addison worked out a subplot in the play. In one act he, the noble hero, carried Miss Lawrence from a top story to the ground, down a ladder. One night when this scene came on he stepped upon the top round of the ladder, as usual, holding in his arms his fair burden. But instead of coming down quickly, as a vigorous, invincible hero should, he stopped.

"Now, raise my salary," he whispered in her ear. "Raise my salary, or I drop you." Here was a crisis. Two things were in danger—the success of the scene, and the actress's bones.

"Raise my salary, or I drop you!" The house was waiting. Miss Lawrence closed her eyes.

"Never," she said, and he mildly carried her down the ladder in safety.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHUMS NO LONGER.

Friendly Amelities Cut in Twain by Army Regulations. The old saying that truth is stranger than fiction is most truly exemplified and the inexorable army regulations most perfectly illustrated by the odd case of two young men now wearing the blue at Fort Thomas.

The army regulations provide that any young man under 28 years of age, who has served for two years in the ranks, and who passes the prescribed moral, mental and physical examinations, shall be commissioned a second lieutenant. Last September there were at Fort Thomas two young men who had enlisted for the purpose of obtaining this coveted position.

From one envelope was drawn a commission as second lieutenant, and from the other a notice that the candidate had been found physically disqualified by being under weight, and, therefore, could not be commissioned. Picture the happiness and disappointment of these two young men. They knew from that moment that a wide breach was between them, and that their companionship for two years was at an end.

Artists in Cookery. Attractive Dishes Displayed at a Recent Philadelphia Exhibition. Expert chefs develop a skill and taste in preparing fancy dishes that fairly entitle them to be ranked among artists.

One of the most gorgeous pieces was "Le Buffet Moderne." From base to top the structure was ten feet high, tapering all the way. The several stories were supported by columns and arches, and the material of manufacture was mainly mutton fat mixed with stearine, gleaming like white marble.

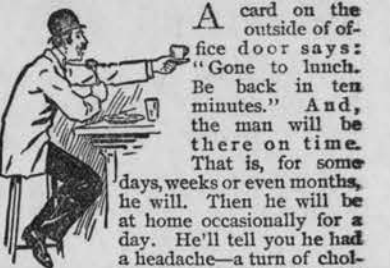

Then there was a great beehive, or "Ruche d'Abelle," made entirely of macaroni and spaghetti; big sticks for the walls, fine yellow strands for the thatched roof, while in the decorative design around the base there were 7,000 tiny pieces of macaroni of varied shades in a sort of mosaic work.

A card on the outside of office door says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And, the man will be there on time. That is, for some days, weeks or even months, he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met. The "Pellets" may not hurry as much as the man does, but they will do the work for which they are intended—safely, promptly—effectually.

CITY CONVENTION TONIGHT.

No Probability of a Contest for Any of the Nominations Appears on Surface.

PRESENT OFFICERS LIKELY TO BE GIVEN ANOTHER TERM.

County Teachers Examination the Balance of the Week—Musical Association Concert Tonight—McDonald's Pardon Arrives.

THE CAUCUSES AND CONVENTION

The Citizens' caucuses and city convention will take place this evening, when candidates for ward and city officers to be voted for in the coming charter election will be placed in nomination. Ordinarily there is not a little excitement attending on the primary meetings where the choice of candidates for these positions is made, but this year there has been hardly any stir, and the probability is that the caucuses will be unusually quiet affairs, and that the convention will not be marked by any heated contests.

In some of the wards—notably in the First, where there are three candidates for the aldermanic seat to be filled this year and two for the supervisorship—there will be a contest over the ward nominations, but there will be no strife over the selection of delegates to the convention, where the candidates for city officers will be placed in nomination. There appears to be little, if any, opposition to the re-nomination of Mayor Jacobs, who a year ago had to make a stiff fight for the nomination, and also in the election that followed, to secure the honor of serving as chief executive of the city. If any opposition to him, or any of the other officials now serving, exists it will have to develop during the day, for up to this date THE MINING JOURNAL has been unable to discover an organized movement to bring out candidates against either the mayor or any of his associates in the municipal government.

It is pretty generally conceded that Mr. Jacobs has made a good mayor, and he has given much time and thought to advancing municipal interests during his term as mayor. The prevailing sentiment is that he has done well enough to be fairly entitled to another term in the office if he is willing to serve, and he has informed his friends that if they want him to hold the office for another year he is at their service. The new work under way at the city's lighting plant is not yet completed, and he is desirous of seeing it through, and on this account alone it will be well to continue him in the mayoralty. THE MINING JOURNAL is not accustomed to offering suggestions to the voters in municipal elections, taking it for granted that they know what is best for their own interests, but it will say that it regards the prospect of a quiet election with satisfaction, believing that it will be best for the city, and that the present administration has met the expectations of the people sufficiently to entitle it to continuance until the important work inaugurated under it shall be completed.

Another Pingree Club.

The Pingree sentiment in Marquette has grown so strong, and so many voters have joined or professed their intention of doing so, that another club has been organized in order that the first may not become too large and unwieldy. There will be no rivalry between the clubs, both working harmoniously to the same end. The first meeting of the second organization, which is styled the Pingree Workers club, was held yesterday afternoon at the armory of the Marquette Rifles in the Opera House block, and the following officers were elected: President, B. O. Peas; secretary, W. J. Ellison; treasurer, James Young; vice presidents by wards—First, George Wagner; Second, William A. French; Third, Louis G. Kaufman; Fourth, M. T. L'Huilier; Fifth, William A. Ross; Sixth, Charles Giel; Seventh, Isaac Joslin; Eighth, W. A. Brown. The constitution, by-laws and declaration of principles of the Pingree Gubernatorial club were adopted. The next meeting will be held Friday evening at the armory.

Free After Six Years.

John McDonald's pardon, signed by Governor Rich, arrives in yesterday afternoon's mail, and about 4 o'clock he was set at liberty. He spent the rest of the day at the knitting company's store where he will go to work in a few days. Of course, McDonald feels happy on account of the sudden turn in his affairs, but it is probable that he does not feel any happier than his many loyal friends who worked so faithfully in his behalf. He has occasion to feel particularly grateful to Mr. Hill and Mr. Dolf, the two who did more probably than any to free him, though a number of others contributed considerably to the result. The warden says that McDonald had always been an ideal prisoner, though, being a life convict, he could not hope to be benefited by good conduct.

Its Last Meeting.

The county board held its final meeting of the year yesterday morning. The principal business was to pass a number of bills which had previously been before the auditing committee. A resolution of thanks was voted to the chairman for the courteous manner in which he had presided over the board during the past year. A resolution was passed authorizing the prosecuting attorney to employ such assistance as he may need in the case of the People vs. Wendell, which was taken to Menominee on a change of venue. The board then adjourned sine die.

Teachers' Examination Today.

A county teachers' examination will be held at the court house, beginning this morning and continuing the balance of the week. The examination will be in charge of F. D. Davis of Negaunee, G. B. Montgomery of Chamption and A. E. Sterne of Michigamme. Arithmetic and penmanship will be taken up this morning. It is expected there will be a large attendance. A number of teachers from Negaunee, Ishpeming and other points arrived last night for the purpose of taking the examination.

Concert Tonight.

The Musical association concert for which rehearsals have been going on for several weeks will be given at the opera house tonight under the direction of Prof. Otto Muhlbaur. The program, published in THE MINING JOURNAL yesterday, is well gotten up, containing a great deal of popular music, and as there is conceded to be considerable talent in the association, a delightful entertainment will be assured. In the past few days tickets have been going rapidly and enough have been sold to guarantee a good house.

CITIZENS' CONVENTION.

A Citizen's convention will be held at the Assembly hall of the city building on Washington street on Thursday evening, March 28, 1896, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for city offices, to-wit: A mayor; a city recorder; a city treasurer; two justices of the peace, one for four years and one for three years; two constables, each for a term of one year.

Ward caucuses for the selection of delegates to the city convention and nominating candidates for ward offices will be held in the several wards on the same evening at 7 o'clock, as follows:

- First ward—Five delegates, southwest corner of Champion and Genesee streets.
- Second ward—Four delegates, L. P. Crary's office, in the Adams block on Front street.
- Third ward—Five delegates, Hodgkins' livery barn.
- Fourth ward—Four delegates, court room in city hall.
- Fifth ward—Five delegates, 416 West Washington street.
- Sixth ward—Four delegates, 230 West Ohio street.
- Seventh ward—Four delegates, John Q. Lewis' store, Third street.
- Eighth ward—Two delegates, building northwest corner of Park and High streets.

Candidates for the several wards will be nominated as follows: One supervisor in each ward; one alderman in each ward for the full term of two years; one alderman in the Second ward to fill the unexpired term of Michael Carney; one alderman in the Eighth ward to fill the unexpired term of George W. Hoag.

By order of city committee,
EDWARD EMIL HOMBER, Chairman.

Marquette, March 18, 1896.

Merit Wins.

The invention of Alabastine marked a new era in wall coatings, and from the standpoint of the building owner was a most important discovery. It has practically driven all kalsomines from the market; and from a small beginning has branched out into every country of the civilized world. The name "kalsomine" has become so offensive to property owners that manufacturers of cheap kalsomines are now calling them by some other name, and attempting to sell on the Alabastine company's reputation. Through extensive advertising and personal use, the merits of Alabastine are so thoroughly known that the people insist on getting these goods and will take no chance of spoiling their walls for the possible saving of at the most but a few cents. Thus it is again demonstrated that merit wins, and that manufacturers of first-class articles will be supported by the people.

All last winter Mr. Geo. A. Mills, of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since. For sale by The H. H. Stafford Co."
