$60 WHEEL,
The "VESPERS"
FOR $49.

The cheaper wheels for common, everyday use are just as good as the $100 ones. They are built on the same models—the Tubing is the best that can be bought, the Chains are the same, the Bearings are just as good as those in the High-Grade Wheels. The only difference is that the High-Grade Wheels have a few special features which do not add to the merits of the wheel as far as the service is concerned and are more finely finished—that is, more time and money is spent in putting the finishing touches on them. My price for a strictly High-Grade Wheel, as good as the best—the "Ohio"—$100 grade for $75.

F. HEPPNER,

Benjamin J. Franklin Is Named to Succeed Him as Governor of Arizona.

THE RESULT OF A BITTER FAC-TIONAL FIGHT.

News of the Change Received With Much Satisfaction at the Territory's Capital but Serious Trouble Likely Today.

NOMINATION SENT TO SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president today sent to the senate the following nomination: Benjamin J. Franklin of Arizona to be governor of Arizona. The term of Governor Hughes, the present executive of Arizona, would not have expired until April 1, 1897. The appointment of Franklin is no doubt the result of a bitter factional fight. Charges and counter-charges have been made. Whether the nomination is due to the resignation of Governor Hughes or to his removal cannot be learned tonight.

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 30.—News of the selection of B. J. Franklin to be governor of Arizona was received here with the greatest enthusiasm. There is likely to be serious trouble at the governor's office tomorrow. Secretary of State Bruce has received a telegram from Washington advising him of Hughes' removal. Upon the strength of this he proposes tomorrow to occupy the executive office, relying on the tenure of office act. Mr. Hughes will refuse to surrender possession until his successor is confirmed by the senate.

ASSAULTED GOV. HUGHES.

Correspondent of a Denver Paper in Jail at Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 30.—Governor Hughes was assaulted on the street today by P. J. Clark, a correspondent at Phoenix for the Denver times. Clark struck the governor in the face, the blow breaking the governor's spectacles and causing several face wounds of small importance. Clark is now in the city prison awaiting trial. He was formerly agent here for The Rocky Mountain News and was dismissed by the paper, so Clark asserts, at the governor's instigation for sending telegrams reflecting upon the executive.

RANK OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL.

Why Secretary of War Lamont Disapproved of the Bill Reviving It.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The letter of Secretary Lamont to General Hawley, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs, disapproving the bill to revive the rank of lieutenant general of the army was made public today. The bill was known as intending to confer the rank on General Miles, now commanding the army, though his name was not mentioned in the correspondence.

The secretary, after acknowledging the receipt of the bill, says that "in no instance has an officer attained this rank until he has successfully commanded a whole or separate army in battle and active campaign. The grade has been revived always with the object of conferring a complimentary rank upon generals who had rendered eminent and distinguished services, or those most distinguished for courage, skill and ability in war. Five besides Washington were thus honored, of whom four had received the thanks of congress by name for most distinguished military service, while the fifth had commanded a separate army during the late war, had attained the highest rank in the regular grade thirty years before his promotion, had held chief command of the whole regular army for seven years and had successfully discharged the most delicate and responsible civil duties."

Secretary Lamont refers to the reorganization of 1866, fixing the strength of the army at sixty regiments, and to the fact that four years later this force was reduced to forty regiments, and says: "At the time of the enactment of this statute forbidding further promotion to lieutenant general there still remained in active duty several officers who had successfully commanded a whole army, separate armies or army corps during the Civil war, and as such had rendered most distinguished service, but the power to reward by further promotion such men as Halleck, Meade, Hancock and others was deliberately taken away when it was enacted, in 1890, during the administration of President Grant, that the offices then held by Sherman and Sheridan when next vacant should not be filled."

"The present major-generals of our army had attained brilliant reputations for gallantry while commanding subdivisions of the army corps during the late conflict and had added to their laurels since by the efficient performance of arduous service upon Indian frontiers; but it is no reflection upon these excellent officers to say the services they have thus far rendered are not of that exalted character that hitherto has been regarded as prerequisite to the advancement now proposed."

Noting that the grade of lieutenant general had not been regarded as a permanent office necessary to army organization and had been conferred only upon a few of those officers who rendered marked services in the war; that the complimentary rank, when bestowed, has often been withheld until long after a demonstration of this superior ability, and has only been voted as a reward to great military genius and most conspicuous leadership, the conclusion is reached that, whatever the merits and promise of any officers of our peace establishment who as yet have had no opportunity to demonstrate this genius and capacity as commanders of large armies by the measure heretofore required, the existing conditions do not demand its revival at this time.

FOR THE STONE MURDER.

Ex-Convict Strong Is Arrested and Taken to Akron, O.

AKRON, O., March 30.—Anson B. Strong was arrested this afternoon at Ravenna, charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin N. Stone at Tallmadge Saturday night. The evidence on which the charge is based is largely circumstantial. Thirteen years ago Strong was sent to the penitentiary for horse-stealing, his conviction being secured by the testimony of Stone. Several years later, after his release from prison, he was arrested again for the same crime and again convicted on Stone's testimony. He gained his liberty the second time three weeks ago, and was at once suspected of the murder of Stone and wife.

When taken into custody today Strong said he was at the home of his sister at Ravenna all Saturday night and he had gone to church Sunday. A search of his sister's house, however, resulted in the discovery of a suit of clothes and an overcoat which had been placed by the stove today. There were no blood stains on the clothing, but Strong's sister said she washed the garments this morning. In one of Strong's pockets was found a railroad ticket from Ravenna to Kent, the latter place being within two miles of the scene of the tragedy. The ticket was purchased last Saturday.

Strong was brought here this evening and placed in jail. News of the arrest spread and a big crowd assembled. There was no disorder, but the mayor decided to prevent an outbreak by ordering Battery A. light artillery, to assemble at their armory and await developments.

SCHAEFER WINS WITH EASE.

Opening Game of the Billiard Tournament for a Prize of $5,000.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Prominent billiard players from all over the country gathered at the Madison Square Garden concert hall today to witness the opening of the tournament in which Frank Ives and Jake Schaefer and Albert Garnier are to contest for a purse of $5,000 offered by Maurice Daly. The championship game for the past five years has been between Ives and Ives became so strong at this style Daly decided to equalize matters this year by making the game eighteenth ball line. This being a new style the experts contesting are all placed on the same level. This is the first of a series of tournaments which will be played here and in Boston and Chicago. The first game between Schaefer and Garnier resulted: Schaefer, 600. High run, 76. Average, 20. Garnier, 197. High run, 35. Average, 5 23-29.

HAS CROSSED THE DARK RIVER.

Infant Child of the Booth-Tuckers Dies at London.

NEW YORK, March 30.—At the Salvation Army headquarters today a telegram was received from London announcing the death of the infant child of the Booth-Tuckers. The child, which was but six weeks old, was taken ill after the embarkation of its parents on board the steamer St. Louis at Southampton, and a telegram to that effect caused the father to return to London. Mrs. Booth-Tucker, however, was too ill to be taken off the steamer and came on to America. Commissioner Booth-Tucker, believing the child out of danger, sailed on the Majestic last week.

Immediately after the receipt of the news of this child's death there came to the Salvation Army headquarters word that the daughter of Mrs. Booth-Hellberg, in charge of the Indian province, had died Sunday.

FOX RIVER WATER POWER.

Combine to Control It Is Organized by the Mill Men.

OSHKOSH, Wis., March 30.—The organization of the Neenah & Menasha Water Power company, the great combine that is to control the water power all along the Fox river, has been completed. The capital stock is half a million. The company takes title to all the water power and will lease and regulate it. The formation of the company will have an important bearing on the pending purchase of the Neenah dam by the United States government. As this is now accomplished the supposition is that negotiations for the purchase of the dam will be resumed.

OLIVER PIKE OF SEATTLE.

Body of the Man Found in the Box at Chicago Is Identified.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Almost conclusive proof has been adduced that the body of the man found in the box recently bought for unclaimed freight by Austin speculators is that of Oliver Pike of Seattle, Wash., and the murder mystery is in a fair way of becoming solved. Two persons who had known the man intimately since childhood and were almost constantly with him up to his departure from Washington have identified the remains, and after a most exhaustive scrutiny pronounce it the body of their friend and relative.

THE REBELLION IS STILL ON.

Peace Commission Holds Unsatisfactory Conference With the Leonists.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 30.—The peace commission has returned from an unsuccessful conference with the insurgent Leonists. The latter refused to accept the terms, and demanded the government of Nicaragua be turned over to them. All hope of peace is gone, and the war will be continued. There is great bitterness on both sides.

IRON AND STEEL COMBINE.

America's Greatest Industry Now in the Absolute Control of a Few Men.

THREE HUNDRED MILLIONS BACK OF THE DEAL.

Plans Mapped Out at New York Recently Are Perfected at Pittsburgh and Birmingham—Prices Already Advanced.

THE BIG STEEL POOL A GO.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The iron and steel industry, the first in point of importance in America, is now in the absolute control of a few men who are banded together by the strongest bonds of common interest and who have, at a conservative estimate, not less than three hundred million dollars at their disposal. The details of the transaction by which this important commercial combination was effected were mapped out in New York last week and the final move made in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Birmingham, Ala., today.

The men in this immense combination are in a position now to say how much iron ore shall be converted into iron and steel and at what price it shall be sold. The steel rail pool fixed the price at $28 a ton on steel rails at Pittsburgh, and all other mills sold at the same price, with the freight from Pittsburgh added. This meant that the Illinois Steel company could sell at $29 and the Colorado Fuel & Iron company at $33. The mill that could name the lowest freight rate took all the intermediate sales.

Now the pool makes the price $20 per ton on steel billets at Pittsburgh, which is $3 over its former prices. All western sales agents, nearly all of whom have headquarters in Chicago, have been notified of the advance and also have been notified to guarantee no sales for later than April delivery.

W. R. Steinhilber, first vice president of the Illinois Steel company, said he knew nothing of the reported steel trust said to have been recently formed in Pittsburgh. He also denied the Illinois Steel company was a party to it, as reported.

WAY UP IN THE MILLIONS.

Cost of Canal Connecting Lake Superior and the Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The secretary of war today sent to the house a report of the survey for a canal connecting Lake Superior with the Mississippi river. The cost of such canal, the report says, will range from $7,000,000 to $30,000,000, according to the different routes and sizes proposed. The route costing less is decided to be the most feasible. It was found advisable to survey two routes—via Allouez bay and the Brule and St. Croix rivers, and via the St. Louis, East Savanna and Prairie rivers and Sandy lake. Major Sears is of the opinion that the cost of such waterway having a minimum depth of seven feet from Lake Superior to the Mississippi below St. Paul, via the St. Louis river, Sandy lake and the Upper Mississippi river will cost at least $19,000,000 for barges; and for steamboats, if practicable at all, $30,000,000. Assuming the total cost to be immediately available, the report says it would take four years to complete the first named route and ten years the other. The route via Allouez bay is thought to be the most feasible.

LANDED ITS CARGO IN CUBA.

Story of the Captain of the Steamship Commodore Is Discredited.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The treasury department has evidence tending to show that the steamship Commodore, which recently cleared from Port Charleston, S. C., with arms and ammunition, did not lose her cargo in a storm at sea, as reported by her captain, but landed it on the coast of Cuba. In case this is proven to be true, it is said at the department the vessel is liable to forfeiture to the government for violation of the navigation laws relating to clearance papers.

STEAMER BERMUDE SAFE.

PUERTO CORTEZ, Honduras March 30.—The steamer Bermuda, from New York, which it is alleged, landed arms, ammunition and a filibustering expedition on the coast of Cuba, has arrived here.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The above cable from Puerto Cortez thus sets at rest the many contradictory reports circulating regarding the whereabouts of the steamship, whose mission was looking upon us as of a great deal of importance to insurgents in Cuba.

CRISIS NEAR AT HAND.

Affairs in Cuba Approaching Climax—Opposing Forces Well Equipped.

HAVANA, March 30.—There are twenty-five thousand insurgents and forty-five thousand Spanish troops in the provinces of Havana and Pinar del Rio. Both are well equipped. The activity of the officials bears out the idea the crisis is near at hand.

The authorities of the war office are investigating and gathering all facts in the case of Walter Grant Dygert, the American who has been imprisoned for working with the insurgents and whose case has been subjected to representations by this government. The authorities are striving to clear the matter up in order to determine whether to indict Dygert or not.

MADRID, March 30.—El Imparcial (newspaper) in a violent attack on Senator Sherman calls him a former slave trader anxious to see the rebellion in Cuba succeed so slavery could be re-established.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S wealth serves as the subject of bitter attacks on the part of western and southern Populists, who, in order to give point to their remarks, declare him worth $5,000,000. As a matter of fact the senator is worth about $500,000, which he has accumulated by economy and prudent investments in real estate.—Menominee Herald.

Sherman entered public life a poor man and has occupied a seat in the senate of the United States most of the time since at a salary of $5,000 a year, or hardly enough to live on even modestly at Washington—and the senator hasn't lived at all obscurely at Washington. It must have been his real estate investments that enabled him to lay by half a million dollars during his career as a public man—a tidy little fortune, by the way. What a real estate operator he would have made had he confined his attention exclusively to that branch of business! The country lost a great real estate plunger to gain but an indifferent statesman when it insisted on having Sherman devote his talents and energy to its service.

The Iron Port of Escanaba explains that it opposed the present Republican candidate for mayor of that city a year ago because he was not then the candidate of its party, and is supporting him this year because he is, and it seems to think that kind of partisanship creditable. But if the Port's opposition to Mayor Gallup had availed to defeat him last spring the paper would have been instrumental in depriving the city, in the interim, of his services as mayor, in which capacity he has proved a valuable official for the interests of Escanaba. It would have been the blind belief that it was thereby serving its party well. It is such stupid, indiscriminating partisanship as this that has killed the influence of the mere party organs by leeching the people to place no confidence in them. The Port does not belong to its party in the sense of being in affiliation with it for proper purposes, so much as in that of being owned by it for any and all purposes. And it is opposed to the nomination of Mr. Pingree for governor of the state now for the same reasons that induced it to oppose Mr. Gallup for mayor of Escanaba a year ago; namely, he is not the choice of the machine.

CLARKSON, who has Allison's presidential boom in charge, declares that "McKinley's boom is on the wane" and that from this time on his strength will decrease while that of Reed and Allison will grow. Among the things that have contributed to this result, cited by Mr. Clarkson, is "the invasion of states having candidates of their own for the presidency by the McKinley people; the invasion of Illinois as against Cullom and the organization of the state with money; the invasion and capture of Minnesota for McKinley as against Senator Davis and the invasion of Nebraska as against Manderson." It will be noted that Clarkson insinuates the same charge against the McKinley managers as Chandler put in words, that they have been making an aggressive "boodle" campaign. He asserts that the victories won by them in the states which had candidates of their own for the presidency will prove costly to McKinley in the nominating convention. But he may be talking for effect. It is plain enough that the McKinley men intend to win on the first ballot if they can, knowing that if they do not they are not likely to win at all, and that being the case they cannot afford to be fastidious in their methods of securing delegates.

ANOTHER bond sale is imminent. A New York paper quotes a large gold exporter as predicting that the outflow of gold will soon set in again and that the exportation will be heavy and long continued. This will again bring down the gold reserve and compel the government to resort to the old expedient for bringing it up—selling bonds. There is only one way to prevent this while the system of currency framed by Senator Sherman and several other of our bungling financiers is continued in operation, and that is by having the government take advantage of its option under the law and redeem its paper notes in silver. But to do that would unquestionably place the country on a silver basis, with silver discriminated by the discrimination against it, and could not fail to work a disturbance of values appalling to contemplate. We cannot afford to get on a silver basis until we accord full recognition to silver as a coinage metal. So we are between the Scylla of bankruptcy through adherence to the present system and the Charybdis of a currency depreciated and debased to an extent that would make it infinitely harmful to our prosperity unless we act with judgment and decision in taking the true way out. That way is to declare unqualifiedly for the restoration of silver to its former status as a money metal, regardless of what other nations may do. Other nations are not in the same dilemma that we are and can afford to wait. We cannot.

In Defense of the Gold Standard.

Houghton, March 30, 1896. EDITOR MINING JOURNAL.—In former letters published in your paper I have insisted, perhaps with tiresome iteration, that a law permitting the free coinage by this government on private account of fifty-cent unlimited legal tender silver dollars would be as dishonest and disastrous as would be the like coinage of legal tender gold dollars containing but one-half the gold contained in the present gold dollars.

That the two laws would be, in point of dishonesty, exactly the same, is not only true, but in fact is a matter of course; since the effect of either law would be to enable, in effect to compel, the repudiation to the extent of fifty cents in the dollar of all debts contracted before the passage of the law, both public and private.

That in the case of silver this would not be true provided the effect and result of the law permitting its free coinage was intended to be, as it would necessarily be, to tender as one hundred cents in discharge of obligations public and private.

Gold would entirely disappear from circulation and use in this country, and we should come down to the silver basis by virtue of the free coinage law.

But there is more than one road to the repudiation, and a free coinage law is no necessary part of the descent. Repudiation may be reached by a still shorter road. If the secretary of the treasury could and should conclude to pay out gold in discharge of the paper obligations of the government, which are payable in silver or in gold at its option, and should insist on that option, and pay and continue to pay such obligations in silver, refusing to pay gold, we should then straightway be upon a silver basis and there we would remain.

The silver dollars would then be worth their market value only, fifty cents, and could and would have to be tendered in discharge of indebtedness incurred in one hundred cent dollars.

At present the treasury is redeeming the paper obligations of the government in gold in obedience to the law of the land expressed in the words contained in the silver purchasing act of 1890, "it being the established policy of the United States to maintain in gold two metals (silver and gold) on a parity with each other upon the present legal ratio, or such ratio as may be provided by law." This is part and parcel of that act, which without this clause would then have put us upon a silver basis.

That declaration and the power given to the treasury by the act of 1875 to issue and sell bonds of the United States to bring about and maintain specie payments are all the provisions of law standing between us and a silver basis at this time, and for many years past. In view of this provision of the law, that part of Judge Hubbell's "kindergarten lecture" setting forth that (except in the case of gold certificates) "the treasurer of the United States has the unquestioned right to pay any obligation of the government either in gold or silver at his option," would seem to be open to serious challenge, and indeed to be obviously incorrect.

He has the option, when, and only when, to exercise it in favor of silver would not defeat "the established policy of the United States to maintain the two metals on a parity with each other upon the present legal ratio, or such ratio as may be provided by law."

To exercise that option by paying in silver, at the present time, the coin obligations of the government would so completely defeat that policy as to destroy the parity between a gold dollar worth one hundred cents and a silver dollar worth fifty.

The parity, or equality, of the gold and silver dollar is maintained because, and solely because, the treasury redeems the government paper in gold; and that is why, and the sole reason why, we are now on a gold basis. Let that practice cease and we are straightway upon a silver basis.

It is therefore needless to say that I do not agree, and I hope it will not be found rash to say that most people will not agree, with the great interpreter of sentiment of the "kindergarten" lecture, viz: "And that use of gold by the government in discharge of its obligations has been purely voluntary, and principally because it's 'English you know.'"

The government of the United States obeys the laws of the United States in paying its obligations, as well as in all other matters, and has no dispensing power over the laws.

And what shall we say to the intimation that the government obeys its own laws, discharges its own obligations in honest money, does not repudiate its debts, and does maintain its honor and the honor of all of us unblemished principally because "it's English you know?"

Only that if it be so, we are fortunate in choosing a good example. Is it American to repudiate, and English to be honest?

Can one occupant of the treasury keep us upon a gold basis, the next degree to the silver basis, and the next following reverse the policy of his predecessor? No, perilous as the situation now is, it is not so bad as that.

A secretary who should refuse to pay gold because to pay it is so English you know or for any other reason equally valid and rational, or more so, would be acting in violation of law, and be subject to the fate of other law breakers.

THE MISTAKE OF THE GOLD BASIS.

The counsel of older women is of incalculable value. A mistaken idea of modesty prevents many girls from learning the things that they ought to know before they assume the duties of matrimony and maternity. Women generally take these most important steps in their lives, they are not to be deterred by what they mean, or what responsibilities and trials they bring. The highest and best thing that any woman can do is to bear and rear that any woman can do is to bear and rear healthy, intelligent children. The accomplishment of this end depends almost exclusively upon her health and particularly upon the health and strength of the organs of the child distinctly feminine. The state of the child, both intellectual and physical, depends on the mother. If she doesn't care enough for her own comfort and happiness to take the proper care of herself, she certainly ought to do it for the sake of her children. To a very large extent, the destinies of a man is decided in the months before his birth. During that time it is determined whether or not he is to be of robust health and strong intellect. During that time, his mind and body are started on the path that they will follow through life. Circumstances may influence him, but he cannot get away from the effects of pre-natal influences. One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of prospective mothers for the time of trial and danger that comes when a child is born. The "Preparation" is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child. Every woman should know these things before she really needs to know them. There are many things in Dr. Pierce's "Common Sense Medical Adviser" that every woman ought to know. This celebrated work has reached a sale of 600,000 copies at $1.50 each. The expense of production having thus been covered, 500,000 copies are now being given away. A copy will be sent to any address on receipt of twenty-one (21) one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only.

Republican Nominees at Franklin.

The Republican caucus in Franklin township held Friday evening resulted in the following nominations: Supervisor, Z. W. Wright; clerk, Charles Kendall; treasurer, W. P. Seagar; highway commissioner, Andrew Johnson; overseer of highways, George Townsend; school inspector, Thomas Hagu; justice of the peace, Richard Cocking; member of board of review, August Mitte; constables, N. Martell, John Paiglate, L. Omans, William Gately.

It Proved a Fiasco.

The "citizens caucus" called at Hancock for Friday night to protest against the "ring rule" of both the old parties proved a fiasco. Quite a crowd gathered in response to the call but everyone shirked the responsibility for it and no one seemed to know its mission.

In a Worthy Cause.

William Kerridge and W. H. Mason of Hancock are the movers in a subscription list which is now being circulated among the citizens to assist the widow of Samuel Broad, the miner who was killed at the North Quincy some days ago.

CALUMET NEWS NOTES.

The caucus held at the school hall Friday night for the nomination of township officers was one of the most exciting and probably of the longest duration of any ever held in this township.

The committee appointed at the mass meeting to visit the officials of the Milwaukee road arrived home from their mission on Chicago Saturday afternoon.

Postmaster Grierson has had his hands full for the last few days looking over the papers of the thirty-two applicants who passed the civil service examination for letter carriers.

HILL TALKS POSTPONEMENT BUT IT'S NO GO.

A Test Vote May Be Taken Today and a Revival of the Financial Discussion the Result—The Doings in the House.

A VERY ANIMATED DEBATE.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The senate is to have a revival of the financial and bond discussion as a result of an animated debate shortly before the session closed today.

Among the bills passed today were those appropriating two million dollars for a public building at Indianapolis and the settling of long pending accounts between the United States and Arkansas.

DOINGS IN THE HOUSE.

The senate resolution authorizing expedition Harrison to accept certain medals presented to him by the governments of Brazil and Spain was adopted by the house today.

The public service, in his opinion would not be provided for for two years for less than a billion dollars; now, however, the government was borrowing money to pay current expenses.

The bill was then read for amendment under the five-minute rule. After adopting eight amendments to increase salaries of light-house superintendents from $1,600 to $1,800 the house adjourned.

REPUBLICAN SUB-COMMITTEE ARRANGES DETAILS FOR THEIR DISTRIBUTION.

EVERHARDT THE VICTOR IN THE FIFTEENTH.

Both Men Were Scientific but Leeds Seemed to Have Much the Better of It for the First Nine Rounds.

THE CONTEST A FIERCE ONE.

MARSHFIELD, L. I., March 30.—Jack Everhardt and Horace Leeds, light-weights, met tonight at the Empire Athletic club. They were scheduled for a twenty-five round contest.

The contest was a fierce one. Both men were very scientific, but Leeds seemed to have the best of the fight the first nine rounds, using both hands to good advantage.

THE BATH.

It Was Once Used in Italy for Capital Punishment. The punishment of the bagno (bath), one of the most cleverly cruel inflictions ever devised by an official of the torture chamber, was administered in Italy, probably in Venice, where the water of the lagoons played so prominent a part in its penal system.

The prisoner was placed in a vat, the sides of which were slightly in excess of the average height of a man. In order to hold in check the rising tide of a supply of water, which ran into the vat in a constant stream, the criminal was furnished with a scoop with which to bale out the water as fast as it came in.

The respite from death by immersion thus obtained was more or less prolonged, according to the powers of endurance possessed by the victim. But, imagine the moral torture, the exhausting and even hideously grotesque efforts, the incessant and pitiless toll by night and day, to stave off the dread moment fast approaching, when, overcome by sleep and fatigue, he was unable to struggle any longer against his fate!

Struck Like a Mule. A celebrated river steambot man, died in Paducah, Ky., recently. He was of immense strength and size, and such were his methods of dealing with roustabouts in the palmy days of river traffic that the Tennessee legislature is said to have enacted a special statute forbidding "Old Hoss" to strike a roustabout with his fist.

COLORADO'S GOLD BOOM. Bottom Likely to Fall Out of an Inflated and Glutted Market. Business of Issuing and Selling Stocks Carried to an Extreme That Ultimately Must End in Disaster-The East the Principal Investors.

The consolidation of mining boards in Denver and at other points in the speculative belt shows plainly that the stock business is overdone, and that the backbones of the boom has been broken, says the correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer. Companies are being organized so rapidly that the papers have quit printing the incorporations. More than half of these companies are of the wildcat variety-capital, $1,000,000, paid in three dollars. However, the state treasury is benefited about $40,000 a month in the matter of fees. Perhaps, in the majority of cases, the state will be the only gainer. If the printing presses and lithographing establishments would stop for awhile the market might recover. But speculators see how others have worked stocks from $5 per 1,000 shares to $15 or $20, and they organize companies and start in to manipulate. Two or three brokers, familiar with laundry work, run up the shares gradually, unloading upon the public. If the prospect claim develops into a mine of great value the fact, in many instances, is concealed until they buy in the stock. After having unloaded the million shares they organize another company and do the same thing. The result is, there are too many brokers and too many mining companies. A company organized for less than $1,000,000 would be looked upon as a very small affair. There are others that are organized only on paper, and a very poor quality of paper at that. These are merely swindling schemes, are not incorporated, and the so-called mines have no existence, only in name. The sharpers have shares of stock printed in bale, and sell them to visitors on the streets, in the hotel lobbies and on the curb in front of the exchanges. These fraudulent drummers even have drummers to meet the incoming trains to take first whack at the eastern visitor, like the doctors at Hot Springs, Ark. There is very little Colorado stock sold in the far west, as these states each are attempting to get up a boom of their own since Colorado has succeeded so well. Consequently Colorado can look only to the east for an "outlet" or safety valve. A comparison of prices shows that the Chicago Mining road does even better than the Denver boards, where the stocks are known, and in some cases, the stock is sold there at double the Denver quotations. But Chicago never was very particular in matters of this kind. Several of her brokers wrote on "Send us your stocks, no matter whether there is a mine back of it or not." And no doubt they were accommodated. About the advent of spring there must be a general wait.

WOMEN CATTLE-RAISERS. School-Teachers in No Man's Land Have Formed a Corporation. Robert Smartwood, a wealthy cattleman who arrived at Topeka, Kan., the other night from Beaver City, No Man's Land, bordering Oklahoma on the west, confirms the brief press dispatch announcing the incorporation of a company by seven young women school-teachers for the purpose of raising and grazing cattle in that country. No Man's Land, once the refuge of criminals in the southwest because none of the surrounding state or territorial courts had jurisdiction over it, has been changed into a rich agricultural and stock country. This information is due largely to 40 resolute women who are now in charge of the 38 public schools of Beaver county. Seven of these young women teachers met in Beaver City recently and organized the Panhandle Cattle company, the intention being to invest their surplus earnings from teaching in the cattle business. Capt. Smartwood says that the 40 young women in that territory will join in this enterprise. He says that 30 of them have taken claims of 100 acres each on the Beaver river and will till the soil in summer and teach in winter. The women receive $30 a month for teaching a six months' term. The 40 teachers will earn $7,200 a year. One-half of this amount is to be annually invested in cattle for the range, which is the finest on the continent. The women engineering this scheme have pledged each other not to marry within five years.

GORGEOUS TRAPPINGS. Costly Harness Being Executed for the Czar in Paris. Preparations for the czar's coronation have already begun. A contemporary describes the magnificent harness now being executed in Paris for the 158 horses destined to wear huge white ostrich plumes on their foreheads. It is all made of red morocco, embroidered in white, the stirrups of chased and gilt bronze, and the reins of red silk, ornamented with gold. Gold plaques and the imperial arms worked in gold, with a profusion of gold lace, embellish the saddle-cloth and breast straps. Even the whips are of red morocco, mounted in gold skins of red morocco have been employed in this gorgeous harness, which is the finest ever made since the coronation of Napoleon I, which was executed by the same firm of saddlers.

CHANGING THE SEATS. New High School Building Will be Furnished During Vacation.

The public school authorities here are taking advantage of the vacation this week and have put several men at work transferring the seats, desks, etc., from the old high school to the new building.

University is still ill and will not be here to deliver the dedicatory address at the high school next Tuesday evening.

The school board has purchased the gymnasium equipment of the Young Men's Christian Association of Marquette. The outfit arrived yesterday and it will be put in position at the new school without delay.

BUILDING DAMS.

Several Being Put in on Dead River This Spring.

The Dead River Mill company has finished logging operations for this season in the woods north of Ishpeming. About 21,000,000 feet of logs have been cut this winter.

Drew Out a Big Crowd. The announcement that the Division street Methodist church choir would sing old country hymns at the services Sunday evening was the means of bringing out an unusually large attendance.

Inquest Today. The inquest in the case of Andrew Maki, who died Sunday afternoon in the city jail, will be held this morning, commencing at 9 o'clock.

A Sunrise Meeting. The Young People's Christian Endeavor societies of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches, also the Epworth League of the Division street Methodist church, will unite in holding a sunrise meeting at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Supper Friday Evening. The ladies of the Ishpeming branch of the Salvation Army will serve a supper next Friday evening at the barracks on Cleveland avenue.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

George Haslam got home from Green Bay yesterday.

W. J. Bell, the dentist, got home Sunday evening from Ypsilanti, where he was called last week by the death of his sister.

A rehearsal for the "Old Folks" concert will take place this evening at the opera house. All are requested to be on hand at 8 o'clock sharp.

The Marquette County Telephone company has 218 'phones in use in Ishpeming. Four or five more will be put in during the next week or ten days.

O. R. Hardy returned yesterday from a couple of days' visit to friends at Menominee. Mrs. Hardy, who accompanied her husband to Menominee, will remain there a week or more.

Gil Hodgkins has finished logging operations at Sand River, fifteen miles beyond Marquette, also near Dead River, north of Ishpeming.

The remains of the late Dr. L. W. Webster will not be brought to Ishpeming for interment, as his relatives here at first supposed. Word was received yesterday that they would be taken to his home in Canada.

Miss Kingman, who will have charge of Mrs. J. Lallerstadt's millinery parlors in the Jones block, arrived in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Lallerstadt's new goods are now ready for inspection. Announcement of the spring opening will be made in a few days.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

African Tree Crabs.

In Africa there exists a tree-crab which has a trick of crawling up a coconut tree, biting off half a dozen branches and then creeping down again backwards. The theory is that the crabs are shattered by the fall, and the crab thus enjoys a hearty meal.

Anyone desiring to rent five nice rooms can procure them by calling at F. W. Reed & Co.'s Ishpeming office.

HAMPTON & CO.

Wish to call the attention of the public to their stock of dry hardwood, which cannot be beat. Also their stock of hard and soft coal, which is dry, clean, and of the best quality.

National Economy.

There's room for a little more of it. Too many women are wasting time and strength over a wash-board; rubbing their clothes to pieces; wasting their money. You'd be astonished if you could figure up the actual money saving in a year by the use of Pearline. Millions of women are using it now, but just suppose that all women were equally careful and thrifty, and that every one used Pearline. It's too much to hope for—but the whole country would be the richer for it.

Send it Back. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearline. IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back.

QUEEN MINE RESUMES.
Orders to That Effect Received by Manager Cole Saturday.
The officials of the Queen Mining company at Chicago on Saturday instructed T. E. Cole, general manager of the mines here, to resume operations tomorrow, April 1. The royalty on the ore produced has been adjusted to the satisfaction of the company, so that work will quite likely be continued for the remainder of this year. A few men were put at work yesterday preparing for an active start tomorrow. A number of men called at the mine office and applied for work yesterday. Many more will doubtless be around today, when it becomes generally known that work there has been resumed.

PLATT MINE CLOSED.
Ore Deposit Said to be About Mined Out.
The Platt mine, Cascade range, has closed down. It is said that the ore deposit is about worked out. The mine would have ceased work six or eight weeks ago but that a small deposit of ore was encountered in the bottom of the mine. This has since been removed. The company's safe and office furniture will be transferred to Hibbing, Mesabara range, where a mine is now being opened up under the same management. The machinery will not be removed for the present. Only a small number of men have been thrown out of work by the suspension of operations at the Platt.

Caucuses Tonight.
The ward caucuses of both parties—the Labor and Citizens—will be held this evening for the nomination of a supervisor and alderman in each ward. The caucuses will be held at 7 o'clock sharp and the conventions will be called to order at 8 o'clock. The Citizens' convention will be held at the city building and the Labor party's convention will take place at the hall of the Mine Workers' Union. A large turnout of voters is expected at the caucuses, as considerable interest is manifested in the selection of candidates for the several offices on both tickets.

Millinery Opening.
M. C. Quinn announces his spring millinery opening for tomorrow, Thursday and Friday. Miss McCarthy, who is in charge of the millinery department, has prepared a nice line of pattern hats and bonnets, which will surely please the ladies. All the latest novelties in the millinery line will be shown. Mr. Quinn has a very select stock this season and is better prepared than ever to supply the trade. The ladies of Negaunee and vicinity are invited to call during the opening and inspect the goods.

To the Grand Opera.
It is quite possible that ten or more Negaunee people will take in the grand opera by Mademoiselle Calve and Melba and their company at Chicago the latter part of this week. An effort is now being made to organize a party of not less than ten to take the trip. In case the ladies who are endeavoring to procure that number are successful they will leave here on Thursday evening, returning Sunday or Monday. A reduced rate of fare will be asked for either from the Chicago & Northwestern or St. Paul line.

Ready for Shipment.
All the tools and equipment which the Upper Peninsula Brewing company will transfer from the local brewery to its new plant at Duluth are now ready for shipment and they will be forwarded from here within the next few days. The manufacture of malt at the brewery here ceased Saturday.

Condensed Testimony.
Chas. H. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew a doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trial Bottles at E. Farnham's Drug Store.

Ostrich Beats a Bicycle.
The Cape Times says that a peculiar experience befell a local cyclist, Donald Menzies, recently. He was riding along the main road from Cape Town to Somerset West Strand, when an ostrich, attracted apparently by what was in its eyes a novel vehicle, commenced to waltz around the bicycle. After a few preliminary antics the bird took it into its head to pace Mr. Menzies, and so long as it abstained from using its wings the cyclist and the ostrich ran a dead heat. However, after covering about half a mile in this way the ostrich utilized its stumpy wings as sails and spurred away at record-breaking pace, leaving the cyclist far behind. After that the bird troubled Mr. Menzies no more.

COUGHS and COLDS.
ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a cure for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quickly abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50 cts. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. Sold by Druggists.

BOARDING HOUSE DESTROYED

Stewart's Place at the Powder Mill
Burned to the Ground Yesterday Morning.

BUT LITTLE OF THE FURNITURE SAVED FROM THE FIRE.

Lambert, the Saloon-keeper. Arrested for Violating the Liquor Law—Other Convictions Yesterday—Joshua Simpkins at the Opera House

POWDER MILL FIRE YESTERDAY.

The boarding house at the powder mill owned by the Lake Superior Powder company and managed by John Stewart, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, the greater part of the furniture also being a total loss. Mrs. Stewart was the first to discover the fire. She happened to go out of doors, and looking up, saw that the whole roof was ablaze. The building was as dry as a campaign speech and burned quickly, so quickly in fact that it was impossible to save much of the furnishings. What was saved was handled so roughly that it was rendered virtually worthless. The loss on the furniture, which belonged to Mr. Stewart, is partially covered by insurance.

There were fourteen boarders at the house who are thus thrown out of bed and board in a place where it is difficult to secure these accommodations, there being no other boarding house of any size near the mill. It is expected that another building will be put up as this will be necessary in order to provide for the crew working at the mill.

Rhea.

The appearance of Mademoiselle Rhea at the opera house next Monday evening will be the society and theatrical event of this season. The Saginaw Corrier Herald devotes three columns to a description of a great reception given to Rhea by the literary clubs of that city last Friday afternoon. We clip the following from that paper: "Mlle Rhea addressed the Woman's Clubs of Saginaw at the Hotel Vincent yesterday afternoon, her subject being 'Napoleon.' The handsome apartments were decorated with a great number of palms and blooming potted plants, Easter lilies, azalias, etc. The cut flowers were especially beautiful. The Art Club of the West Side, gave a very large sized Ozerin, basket of violets, yellow tulips and Narcissus. There was a very large number of pink roses, called Catherine Meeet, given by three other clubs.

About 2:45 o'clock the parlors and hall were filled to the uttermost with members of the study clubs of Saginaw, when, with a ripple of applause, Rhea came into the room. She was gowned in a black brocade satin skirt with a pink satin bodice covered with black chiffon, the only trimming or ornaments being exquisite French bows of pink ribbon near the collar. Her gloves were white suede, meeting the sleeves at the elbow. She charmed the audience by the manner with which she received their reception." Then follows her introduction by one of the leading ladies of Saginaw and the entire brilliant lecture as delivered by Mlle. Rhea is given in its entirety.

It will be a treat indeed for the citizens of this city to have an opportunity of seeing this charming French woman and her entire New York company in the great Napoleonic drama entitled: "Josephine, Empress of the French." By special request Rhea has consented to recite between the second and third acts the great French "Maselisse."

The Sheriff's Latest Guests.

Richard Lambert, the Washington street saloon-keeper, was arrested yesterday by Marshal Maloney and taken before Justice Cray charged with violation of the liquor law. He waived examination and was held for trial in the circuit court in the sum of $300 bail. He was unable to furnish it, consequently he is in Sheriff Broad's care. The charge against the prisoner is a serious one, as the prosecution will attempt to show that he kept his bar open after hours and sold liquor to minors, young girls among others. The two girls now in jail for safe-keeping were found in Lambert's place and his arrest was in part caused by their statement. More developments may be expected.

Joseph Briar was also gathered in yesterday on complaint of his wife who charged him with assault and battery. The couple have not been living together very happily for some time, yesterday's arrest being the culmination of several quarrels. Briar was fined $20 and costs, or in default thereof committed for thirty days in the county jail. He chose the latter course. Other victims yesterday of the iron hand of the law were: Albert Hunt and Ernest Barman, sentenced for ten days for disorderly conduct, and Thomas Bilbo who got ten days for drunkenness.

Joshua Simpkins Tonight.

"Joshua Simpkins," a strong rural comedy drama, will be seen at Marquette Opera House this evening. "Joshua Simpkins" was one of the big hits last season, and so far this season, is said to be playing to enormous business. While it is billed as a comedy there are several startling scenes and situations in it, and wonderful realism is shown in the great saw mill scene in the third act. The excellent music of the orchestra carried by the company perfects several musical specialties that are introduced during the action of the play by different members of the company.

'Nother Month to Wait.

Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau, has issued instructions that the display of wind signals begin at Marquette and other Lake Superior stations May 1. The signals will be in use on the other lakes April 10, they having navigation about twenty days earlier than Lake Superior. The latest bulletin of the weather bureau states that there was at the time (Feb. 21) about twenty-five inches of ice at the Soo, predicting that navigation will open there April 25 and here May 1. The same authority gives Duluth navigation ten days earlier than Marquette, in other words to open April 20. This does not mean that Marquette harbor opens later than Duluth harbor, as such a statement would bear the stamp of error on its face, but is due to the bureau's rule of considering the first vessel arrival or departure as the opening of navigation and the first clearances from Duluth will be by boats which have been lying there during the winter, while Marquette will have to wait until a steamer arrives up from the Soo.

To the Public.

The Clerks' association has issued the following circular: "To the Public:—We take this opportunity of thanking the people of this city for the almost unanimous support given us in our endeavor to secure the uniform closing hour of 8 p. m., except Saturdays, by the stores of this city. We are pleased to state that the majority of our merchants are heartily in favor of this system which affords their customers ample time to do their trading and at the same time affords themselves and their help a little breathing spell. But, we are also sorry to state that a few—fortunately very few—of our merchants attempt to prolong the closing hour, thereby attempting to force other stores to do likewise. Now, if the majority of our merchants admit that 8 p. m. is late enough for us to work why should these few think otherwise? Is it because they are the friends of the wage-earner? Are they not openly working against the very object that all wage-earners are striving for, that is shorter hours? We feel confident that the sense of justice which prevails in this community will be aroused in our behalf and that public sentiment will condemn those who refuse us justice. Thanking you all for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same"

The Easter Monday Ball.

After Mayor Pingree gets through talking at the rink Saturday night, the place will be taken possession of by the decoration committee of the S. M. Steven's lodge of B. of L. F. to be put in proper condition for their fifth annual ball which will be held Easter Monday. The several committees of the lodge have been very busy since the invitations were issued, arranging for the event. People from the up the road towns will have the same opportunity of attending as those here at home, special free trains for the benefit of ticket holders being arranged for. The ball will be a suitable opening of the dancing season. That it will be a successful affair goes without saying.

Deluge in the Basement.

The snow melting the past few days has created a number of small brooks, one of which has found an outlet in the basement of the city hall. There are now three inches of water in the ash-pit in front of the furnace, making the janitor's work very disagreeable for the time being. He has tried every plan possible to keep it out but without success—the ground in the rear of the building, being low, is sought by the water. There is still a large bank of snow about thirty feet from the basement door, and at this Janitor Smith gazes sadly from day to day as he knows it will find its way to his ash-pit.

Actors to Have a Rest.

The Joshua Simpkins troupe, which will play at Marquette Opera House tonight, will remain in the city nearly a week, not leaving until next Monday morning. It has been decided not to play during the last four days of Holy Week because of the natural dislike of the company to do so and further because it is thought that the people would not patronize a theater at that time.

Needham Bros.' laundry is now in the Y. M. C. A. block on West Main street, having been removed from the Fraternity block. All wishing laundry work should call at the new location. (3-31-14)
