HIS RENOMINATION SURE.

Altgeld to Again Be the Standard Bearer of the Illinois Democrats.

NEARLY ALL THE DELEGATES INSTRUCTED FOR HIM.

He Has Announced He Would Not Accept the Honor, but the Party Leaders Declare They Will Force Him to Make Race.

A SITUATION MOST UNIQUE.

PEORIA, June 22.—Never before in the history of Illinois politics has there been a political convention as unique as that to be convened tomorrow promises to be. It will be called to order without a single candidate for the nomination for governor. Of course, everybody says Altgeld will be nominated. According to Hinrichsen, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, 90 per cent. of the delegates are instructed for him and the others are solid for him. On the other hand, Governor Altgeld says he is not a candidate. Several months ago he even went so far as to say he would not accept the nomination. But when the attention of Democratic leaders is called to this fact they laugh you to scorn and declare they will force him to accept.

"I have been in politics all my life and have in politics all my life you might say," remarked Chairman Hinrichsen, "and never before have I known of so remarkable a situation. I have talked with prominent Democrats from every precinct in the state and with the exception of a handful of gold standard men all are for Altgeld, and Altgeld only. Even gold standard men admit freely he is the only man we have who will have any chance to carry the state."

James F. O'Donnell, editor of the Bloomington Bulletin; W. H. Clendenin, editor of the Springfield Register, and scores of other prominent Democrats were quite as emphatic in their opinions as was Hinrichsen for Altgeld. The governor himself dismisses all comers by refusing point blank to commit himself. In conversation Mr. Altgeld's whole thought and talk has been regarding the national convention to be held at Chicago.

THE DUTY OF SILVER DEMOCRATS.

"It is a duty the free silver Democrats owe to the so-called common people of this nation," he said, "to carry their point as to the financial plank. If the gold men control they will do so by the use of arguments that have a ring to them and click as they pass from hand to hand and pocket." "In all his conversations with the hundreds of men who came to see him the governor showed he was terrible in earnest. His whole soul seemed to be bent upon the platform of the national convention at Chicago and to the securing of the right sort of delegates from a free silver point of view to represent Illinois at that convention. He and all his lieutenants insist the money question must be made the issue.

"It is the real issue," he said to some of the delegates, "and upon that the fight must be made. We must put up a presidential candidate diametrically opposite to the interests represented by the men who nominated Major McKinley." "There is but little talk as to who will fill the minor places on the state ticket. Chairman Hinrichsen, speaking of the talk that Senator Teiler might be named at Chicago, said that while the free silver Democrats all had the highest regard for him not one in a hundred felt it would be wise to nominate him for president. They want a life long Democrat. Governor Altgeld and all the free silver members of the state central committee are opposed to instructing the delegates-at-large to the national convention to support any presidential candidate. They fear it will hamper them in their efforts to have a free silver plank adopted. They are also urging the adoption of a plank in which are the words, 'Free silver at the ratio of 16 of silver to 1 of gold' in the state platform."

BOIES BOOMERS ON DECK.

A delegations of free silver Democrats from Iowa arrived today. Among those who came are Chas. Walsh, Otumwa, secretary of the Democratic state central committee; Judge A. Van Wageningen, Sioux City; Judge Davis and S. A. Brewster, Creston. They are urging instructions for Boies.

PEORIA, Ill., June 22.—If the leaders of the silver movement in the party are to be believed Governor Altgeld will be renominated tomorrow, and notwithstanding the desire on his part to retire from politics he will be compelled to make the race. The ticket to be named tomorrow, according to best informed tonight, will be:

Governor, John P. Altgeld; Secretary of state, T. J. Medill, Rock Island; treasurer, Wm. P. Prickett, Taylorville; attorney general, George S. Trude, Chicago; or Fred P. Morris; auditor, W. H. Brinton, Tuscola. Delegates-at-large: Governor Altgeld, Judge S. P. McConnell, W. H. Hinrichsen, ex-Congressman Fithian, or G. B. Parsons. As to the platform, those who have had a hand in preparing it say it will be diametrically opposite on the money question to that adopted at St. Louis.

BIG MAJORITY FOR SILVER.

Hoosier Democrats Are Gathering for Their State Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—The Democrats of Indiana are gathering in great numbers for the state convention, which will be held Wednesday. Free silver will carry the convention and the platform will be very strong, favoring the free, unlimited, immediate and independent coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The free silver delegates number fifteen hundred out of 1,747 delegates. The prospects are that B. F. Shively of South Bend will be nominated for governor. The delegates to Chicago will be sold for Matthews and free silver. The delegates-at-large will be Senators Turpie and Voorhees, Judge McCabe and G. V. Mensies.

A 16 TO 1 DELEGATION.

Ohio Democrats Certain to Send One to the Chicago Convention.

COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—The Democratic state convention will be held Wednesday. Dan McConville, formerly an auditor of the treasury, and Allan W. Thurman are leaders of the free silverites. They claim there are 526 delegates who are pledged to vote for a free silver plank and eighty-two pledged to a gold standard, while sixty-five are doubtful. The majority of the free silver men is so great that the convention will probably adopt the unit rule. The delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention will be pronounced free silver men. It is conceded John R. McLean, Cincinnati; Allan W. Thurman and J. W. Bookwalter will be three of the delegates-at-large.

IT WILL DECLARE FOR GOLD.

Wisconsin's Democratic Convention by a Majority of Two to One.

MILWAUKEE, June 22.—The chances are tonight that the Democratic state convention tomorrow will adopt a gold platform by a majority of two to one, although there are many delegates who favor silence on the subject and still more who want a silver plank. Few of the delegates are yet here. General Edward S. Bragg and Senator Vilas will be two of the delegates-at-large. Some of the delegates will doubtless be for silver, but under the unit rule they will be smothered. T. F. Frawley of Eau Claire has been selected for chairman. He will make a strong administration and gold speech.

RUSSELL IS NOT IN IT.

The ex-Governor Urges the Nomination of Wm. C. Whitney.

BOSTON, June 22.—Ex-Governor Wm. Russell has issued a statement of his position in relation to the Democratic presidential nomination. In it he positively states his name will not be presented to the Chicago convention; that he will go to Chicago not as a delegate but as a citizen interested in the declaration of his party for a gold standard; and furthermore he urges all his friends and supporters to do their utmost to secure the selection of William C. Whitney as the presidential nominee.

QUIT THE NARROW GAUGE.

Arkansas Cold Water Men Join the New Prohibition National Party.

LITTLE ROCK, June 22.—The Prohibitionists of Arkansas have severed their connection with the "narrow gauge" Prohibitionists and joined the "broad gauge" national party. An address signed by the state chairman advises the Prohibitionists to support the new party.

HIS VICTIMS ARE MANY.

A Clever Swindler Is Finally Run Down by Government Officials.

KANSAS CITY, June 22.—The Journal tomorrow will announce the arrest at Neosho, Mo., by Deputy United States Marshal Peterson of a swindler who had eluded the agents of the treasury department for three years. The chief operator, who has been known as J. R. Bell, alias James F. Swartz, is in jail at Springfield. Along with him are M. A. Maginis and Thomas Robbins, here before respected citizens of Neosho, who are said to have been his dupes. Bell claimed to be a secret agent of President Cleveland's administration and carried an alleged commission bearing the signature of W. Q. Gresham, secretary of state. The pretended mission of the swindler was to distribute campaign funds for the national administration, and he claimed to be able to give out to the favored ones greenbacks that had been presented to the government for redemption and cancelled. He claimed that instead of destroying the bills the administration had stored them in the treasury vaults to be distributed by him for campaign purposes.

From each of his dupes the swindler exacted an initiation fee of $250 and each member was to be given $4,000 annually to distribute. Notwithstanding the scheme was clearly fraudulent, the authorities have evidence the swindle was extensively worked in Texas, Kansas, central Missouri and Tennessee.

FOOT-PADS COME TO GRIEF.

Chicago Man Lays for Them and Fills Them Full of Lead.

CHICAGO, June 22.—John Clark, a saloon keeper, took a hand tonight in the attempt to rid the city of the foot-pads and robbers which infest it. Clark's method was simple and effective. He filled the robbers full of lead, and then called the police to carry away the dead and wounded. This morning William Maroney and James Bartley entered Clark's saloon and brutally beat William Harris, the bartender, and attempted to rob the place. When Clark heard of it he went out and bought two big revolvers and waited for the men. They returned and again assaulted the bartender. Clark heard the noise and came to the rescue with his guns. He killed Maroney and shot Bartley through the legs and body, inflicting fatal wounds.

BARBARIITIES IN CUBA.

A Letter from Gen. Lee Confirming Reports of Spanish Inhumanity.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Post tomorrow will say: An interesting letter was received today by a relative from General Lee. It was written on the 12th and deals fully with Cuban affairs. The Spanish authorities, the general says, have treated him with great courtesy, and General Weyler had granted every request thus far preferred, even allowing him to visit the prisons where the captured Americans are confined. As to the insurgents, they practically have control of the island. Their emissaries come in and go out of the towns and cities as they will, and he believes the entire native population is in sympathy with them. As to the inhumanity of the Spanish commanders, General Lee expresses himself in the plainest terms. He says: "From every quarter there is the same testimony concerning the barbarities of Spanish officers. Violations of women, the plunder of inoffensive citizens, murder and every form of rapine is the unvarying story of prisoners and natives of the island." General Lee doubts if peace could be made now short of the basis of absolute independence and freedom from Spanish control.

HAVANA, June 22.—General Lee, when asked regarding the published allegations that he had sent reports to President Cleveland on the Cuban situation, denied absolutely he had sent any report on the subject.

GAVE HIS LIFE FOR CUBA.

General Wilson, the American, Killed in Battle With Spaniards.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 22.—Advices from Cuba report the death of General W. Wilson, leader of the American expedition which landed Dec. 8 in order to assist the insurgents. General Wilson is said to have been killed in a battle near Guanatanamo.

DECISIVE ACTION DEMANDED.

Arrest of British Guiana Official by Venezuelans Excites the Colony.

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, June 22.—Captain Harrison, the official who was in charge of the laborers who were opening the road from Barima to the Cuyini river within the Schomburgk line when they were stopped by a force of armed Venezuelans, June 15, has been arrested by Venezuelans under fresh orders from Caracas and carried to the Venezuelan station opposite Uruan, the Venezuelans claiming the right to arrest foreigners on the left bank of the Cuyini. The arrest of Harrison has aroused the colony of British Guiana and the population demands that Great Britain take immediate and decisive action in the case.

LONDON, June 22.—The Graphic, commenting upon the advice from Georgetown as to the arrest by the Venezuelan authorities of Harrison, the British official in charge of the road laborers, says: "It seems that Venezuela is desirous of settling with us direct by the ordeal of battle. The duty of the British government is clear. Reparation must be immediately demanded and enforced."

REVOLUTION THE OUTCOME.

Frightful Conditions in Italy—Heavy Taxes and Starvation.

LONDON, June 22.—A letter from an Englishman who has long been a resident of Italy is published in Truth, and gives a serious picture of the situation of affairs in that country. He says that a revolution is only a question of time, that the taxes are 60 per cent. on all incomes, and that the starving state of the peasantry and the lower classes generally equals that of the French before the revolution. In Sardinia mothers are feeding their children on grass and weeds by the roadside, and in all parts there are deaths from starvation. The women straw-workers of Tuscan are in open revolt, and everywhere the men and women are reduced to skeletons and are to be seen carrying their last rags to be sold for taxes. In Lombardy and other northern districts where the people live on insufficient Indian corn, the writer also says that horrible disease, pellagra, is increasing, and more than one hundred thousand persons are affected, of which about three thousand die yearly. A good part of the victims die insane.

FRIGHTFUL MORTALITY.

Thirty Thousand Deaths by Recent Tidal Wave in Japan.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The following cablegram was today received from the secretary of the legation at Tokio, concerning the recent Japanese earthquake and tidal wave: "The deaths caused by the tidal wave are estimated at over thirty thousand in the reports up to date. There was no mortality among Americans."

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

INDIRECTLY, but from a good authority, THE MINING JOURNAL obtains the information that the Republican congressional convention will not take place on the 5th of July, the congressional committee having decided to postpone issuance of the call until a later date is agreed on. It is now more than probable that the scheme for an early convention will be abandoned and that the rule hitherto observed in the district will be adhered to, in which case the convention will not take place till after the state ticket has been made up.

It is on account of the demands on him of his business interests that Governor Upham of Wisconsin has decided not to seek a second term in the executive chair. That is the way he explains it. But the fact is, he was afraid of Frank A. Flower, who had given notice that he was going to defeat him for a second term, and get back from Washington a few days ago to conduct the fight against Upham in person. When the governor heard that he knew there was no hope for him and promptly notified his friends that he wouldn't seek a re-nomination. Mr. Flower has not yet indicated which of the aspirants who have entered the race since Upham pulled out will receive his support, so there remains some doubt for the present as to who the next governor of Wisconsin will be.

THE auditor general has just announced his selections of papers which will publish the tax lists in the several counties this year, and it is noticeable that the biggest list of the lot, that for Wayne county, goes to the Detroit Tribune, which has practically booted the presidential ticket of the Republican party. Down at Escanaba the Iron Port gets the Delta county list, which will doubtless anchor the paper there for at least another year, in spite of the great desire of its neighbor, 'The Journal,' to have it better itself by moving to Marquette. At Iron Mountain the three-week-old Press takes the Dickinson county list away from the long-established Range-Tribune, and The Progress at Hancock gets the Houghton county list, instead of that old and reliable party organ, the Portage Lake Mining Gazette.

DUN'S REVIEW of the 20th has this report on the iron and steel market:

The waiting in iron and steel brings a slightly lower average of prices, the lowest since April 1, and only 1.5 per cent. above the lowest of the year, though the combinations make no change in quotations. Beams are quoted delivered instead of at mill, but numerous contracts are kept back; consumption of wire nails at current prices has so declined that American wire rods are offered at competing prices in England; scarcely anything is done in iron bars because steel bars at 1.1c take the business; and the billet pool is still undersold about $1 by middlemen, while many works are putting up steel plants of their own. Plates are weak and sheets, and orders for rails, though numerous, are not large. Southern No. 1 is offered $1 below Pennsylvania pig, and Grey Forge is 10 cents lower at Pittsburg. Since coke was advanced to $2 per ton the ovens at work have decreased 33 per cent., and the weekly output 60,493 tons, or 35 per cent.

CONGRESSMAN TOWNE of the Sixth Minnesota district has created a big political sensation in his district by announcing that he will not abide by the action of the St. Louis convention, consequently cannot take the Republican nomination for a second term in congress. He will seek a re-election as the candidate of the silver party in his district, and the Republicans will put up a candidate whose views on the currency question will be in accord with the attitude taken by the party in the St. Louis platform declaration on the monetary issue. Mr. Towne was entirely certain of a renomination as the Republican candidate had he not taken this step, but he is not any longer in accord with the party on what he conceives to be the most important question now before the people, and was honest enough not to become its candidate when he could not accept its platform.

THE Cleveland Iron Trade Review alludes to a singular outcome of the St. Louis convention in this paragraph from an article considering its work:

There has been no expectation among informed men that the St. Louis convention would make anything but a "sound money" declaration. But the view of the St. Louis convention about the coming campaign is evidently not that entertained by the rank and file of its party, as it has been expressed in the conventions of the past four months. It is strange enough that the logic of the events of the past three years should have made a champion of protection the irresistible candidate of the Republican party for the presidency, and yet that the events of a single week should have made the paramount issue of his campaign entirely different from that for which he so singularly stands. If there was magic in "McKinley and protection" in state and district conventions, the inquiry is natural, how has it been lost in the shuffling of a national convention? It is a question that must be sent to the politicians for an answer. True it is that, despite the selection of McKinley as the standard-bearer of his party and the advantage the party manifestly has in the campaign of this year, the predominant issue bids fair to be the financial one, instead of that with which the party's candidate for president is so intimately associated in the popular mind. The vital issue is the one that survives in politics, and the currency issue is the really vital one in this country at present.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON is severe in denunciation of the present system of national currency and finance. In a paper contributed to the Ladies' Home Journal for August he says, referring to the methods employed to maintain the gold reserve, that "the present situation would be absurd if it were not so serious." The ex-president clearly demonstrates that successful financing by the government's executive officials is extremely difficult by the methods now in vogue. On this point he says: "If fifty dollars would suffice to hold $50,000,000 in the treasury the secretary could not expend that small sum. He must stand by until the gold is gone, and then sell bonds to get it back. The result is that the banks and the brokers are often able to make play of the treasury. A financial institution whose board transacts its business in public is at a disadvantage."

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

A special meeting of the common council of the city of Marquette was held in the council chamber on Wednesday, the 17th day of June, A. D., 1896, Mayor Jacobs presiding.

There were present Aldermen Brown, Blanchard, Bertrand, Clark, Desjardins, Jacobs, Krieg, Robertson, Sherman, Stafford, Tobin, Vandenberg and Ward. The recorder read the call filed with him for said special meeting, the same being for the following purposes, to wit: Confirmation of appointments to office. Adoption of ordinances. Ordering of street improvements and sewers. Remitting of interest upon uncollected special assessment rolls for improvements not yet commenced. Appropriations of money for public purposes. Allowance of claims. Arrangements for the celebration of the 4th of July and the granting of special permits therefor.

The recorder presented an affidavit showing due service of notice of said meeting on all of the aldermen of the city, which was filed.

Moved by Alderman Robertson, supported and carried unanimously, that the rules be suspended for the purpose of the introduction and passage of an ordinance hereafter mentioned, whereupon. On motion of Alderman Robertson, an ordinance remitting interest upon assessments on the special assessment roll prepared for grading, curbing and macadamizing of Bluff street from the west line of Park avenue to the east line of Lincoln avenue, was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Aldermen Brown, Blanchard, Bertrand, Clark, Desjardins, Jacobs, Krieg, Robertson, Sherman, Stafford, Tobin, Vandenberg and Ward. Nays—none.

An invitation from the citizens' committee to the mayor and common council, to participate in the Fourth of July celebration, accepted with thanks. The bond of City Engineer and Street Commissioner McIntosh; sureties, Hampton Gregory and Charles C. Van Iderstine, presented.

Moved and carried that said bond be accepted when proper correction is made. The mayor stated that Mr. Hazel J. Payne had stated to him that he could not possibly accept the position as a member of the light and power commission. The mayor thereupon appointed James E. Sherman as a member of the light and power commission, which was, on motion, confirmed by the council.

The citizens' committee for the Fourth of July celebration presented a communication stating it had been unable to collect more than a thousand dollars, and considering that amount inadequate, and feeling it would not materially increase said amount, requested the council to appropriate something to make up deficiency, when it was Moved by Alderman Desjardins, supported and carried by the following vote, that three hundred dollars be allowed by the council to make said deficiency:

Ayes—Aldermen Brown, Desjardins, Jacobs, Krieg, Robertson, Stafford, Vandenberg and Ward.

Nays—Aldermen Blanchard, Bertrand, Clark, Sherman and Tobin.

On motion of Alderman Sherman the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the city treasurer be and is hereby authorized to pay to the trustees of school district No. 1, on presentation of the proper orders, the full amount of the balance due to the school fund for taxes of 1895, without deducting from said fund the amount of said taxes which may be delinquent, and that he be authorized to treat the amount to be raised for school purposes in the year 1896 in the same manner.

Ayes—Aldermen Brown, Blanchard, Bertrand, Clark, Desjardins, Jacobs, Krieg, Robertson, Sherman, Stafford, Tobin, Vandenberg and Ward.

Nays—none.

On motion of Alderman Desjardins the following resolution was then adopted: Resolved, That there be appropriated out of the general fund the sum of three hundred dollars to aid in defraying the expenses of the celebration of Independence

Day, and that an order for that sum be drawn in favor of E. C. Wilkinson.

Ayes—Aldermen Brown, Blanchard, Bertrand, Clark, Desjardins, Jacobs, Krieg, Robertson, Stafford, Vandenberg and Ward.

Nays—Alderman Sherman and Tobin.

Moved by Alderman Desjardins, supported and carried, that the mayor be and is hereby authorized by common council to give permission to the citizens' committee for the use of the streets on the 4th of July during the hours required for the exercises of the day.

Mr. Bertrand of the committee on pounds was granted permission to make the following report: MARQUETTE, June 8, 1896. To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council: Your committee to whom was referred the bill of Richard G. Holmes would respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration and find that Mr. Holmes had no authority to build a pound; but he pleads ignorance of the requirements of the law and built the pound in good faith, since the city needs a pound in that district. Therefore your committee would recommend that the bill be allowed.

ELECTING A POPE.

Three Methods of Choosing the Supreme Pontiff. Election by Inspiration, by Compromise and by Ballot—The Methods of Preparing, Casting and Reading the Ballots.

Having come to order at the request of the dean, if the formality of recognizing the cardinals be dispensed with—and in so small a body it is hardly necessary, because no impostor could hope successfully to palm himself off as cardinal—the first business is to choose three scrutators, one from each order, to count the ballots, and three inferri, who collect the votes of the sick. The canons define three kinds of election: by inspiration, by compromise and by ballot. Election by inspiration takes place when "all the cardinals, as if by inspiration of the Holy Ghost, proclaim one candidate as pontiff unanimously and viva voce." A single dissenting voice vitiates this method, which, we may remark, has perhaps never been carried out in literal conformity to rule, although several popes, after more or less wire-pulling, have been chosen by acclamation.

Election by compromise has sometimes been resorted to, after a long deadlock, by the appointment of a committee consisting of representatives of the various rival factions. The conclave merely ratifies the candidate nominated by the committee. But election by ballot is the ordinary method. The ballots, when open, are about four inches long and three broad. In the first or upper section the cardinal writes his name; in the middle, the name of the candidate whom he proposes; in the lower section, some motto from the Scriptures. When he folds the sheet his name, being inside, is covered by the lower section, and only the candidate's name or the seal comes uppermost. To guard against the ballot's opening he seals it with a seal he has chosen, but it must not be one which the scrutators might recognize. Going to the central table he deposits the ballot in the chalice, repeating at the same time this formula: "Testor Christum dominum qui me iudicaturus est, me eligere cum secundum Deum iudico elegi debere et quod idem in accessu preestabo."

When everyone has voted, and the inferri have brought the ballots of the sick members, the first scrutator takes each ballot from the chalice, and opening it (but only so far as to read the motto) hands it to the second, who, having entered the vote opposite the candidate's name on the list, passes it to the third, who reads it aloud. During this process the other cardinals keep the tally on the duplicate lists which each of them has before him. At the conclusion all the ballots are taken to the stove and burned, the smoke from the chimney being a signal which multitudes outside the palace await. According to common belief, when no smoke appears at the usual time it is a sign that the pope has been elected.

There being no election, the cardinals now return to their quarters for dinner, after which, at three o'clock or a little later, they reassemble for another ballot. This differs from the morning one in that the cardinals, instead of voting for their favorite candidates, vote for their second choice. The process is called "acceding," and seems devised for breaking a deadlock. Each must vote for some one who has received support at the morning trial; but if none of these suits him, being prohibited from again casting for his favorite, he may simply vote for "nobody." Thus it might happen that the pope chosen in the accessus, or acceding, was a candidate whom very few or none of the cardinals would select on their first choice.

As a matter of fact, however, not many popes have owed their election to the accessus, in which the cardinals generally throw random votes for candidates who have little chance of success.—William R. Thayer, in Century.

SIX MILLION LOBSTERS.

The United States Fish Commission expects to Hatch That Many This Summer. The experts of the United States fish commission are getting ready the lobster hatchery at Wood's Hill for the season's work that is about to begin. They expect to produce at least 6,000,000 young lobsters this summer. The eggs will be obtained from roe-bearing females brought in by fishermen, and the hatching will be done by the simple process of placing the eggs in glass jars, through which a stream of water is running all the time.

The young lobsters must have just the right kind of food, or else they will die. As a diet for them, nothing has been found equal to the small animals caught by dragging a tow-net of gauze from a boat along the surface water of the sea. The surface water of the ocean swarms with life, including vast numbers of crustaceans and tiny mollusks. It is, in fact, a broth. Most of the animals are composed almost wholly of water, having scarcely more than one per cent. of animal tissue. A single small netful collected in the Baltic was counted and found to contain 80,000 crustaceans and 70,000 other animals.

If one dips up a small dish of seawater and places in it some bits of seaweed, scraped from an old pile or an old float, it will be found to contain a wonderful variety of organisms. On these organisms these crustaceans of the surface seawater feed. The crustaceans in turn furnish a regular diet to small fishes, which are fed on by big fishes. Thus the struggle for existence in the ocean goes on, and even more than on land the fate of living things in general is to eat each other and be eaten by one another.—N. Y. Journal.

APPLAUSE WAS THE ORDER.

Graduating Exercises of St. Patrick's School Drew a Big Audience.

The closing exercises of St. Patrick's school, Hancock, were held Sunday at St. Patrick's Hall. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. The program consisted of twenty-two numbers, made up of drills, recitations, parodies, calisthenics, vocal and instrumental music, etc. The flag drill by a class of small boys was admirably executed and brought out enthusiastic applause. The dialogue, "The Baseball Enthusiast," caught the boys of the audience, as did also the dialogue, "Vacation by the Larger Scholars," and "Stream of Time," showed that declamation is no small feature in the training at St. Patrick's school. The dumb bell calisthenics were something new to the audience but very pleasing to the boys receiving just applause for their good work. The "Reapers' drill," by young girls of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades, brought out hearty applause and it was well deserved.

The operette "Rose of Savoy" was unquestionably the feature of the evening. Although difficult, St. Patrick's school did it full justice. The girls of the high school took part, the prima donna being Miss Laurentia Jacques. Her vocal ability is so well known that comment is unnecessary. Suffice it to say she sang in her usual pleasing manner. The Misses Gertrude Shea and Mary O'Neil, who took prominent parts, also acquitted themselves very creditably. Miss Shea has a remarkably sweet soprano voice, and she is already in the front rank of the county's vocalists. Miss O'Neil has a very pleasing and clear voice, which she uses to excellent advantage.

The chorus by little girls, "What Do You Want for Me, Papa," was received with applause, and little Olive Carrol's song, "The Prettiest Little Song of All," had to be repeated. All the instrumental selections were also encored, reflecting great credit upon both instructors and pupils.

He Got Off Luckily.

August Allen, a tailor living in Hancock, met with what might have been a fatal accident Sunday morning, and all through his own carelessness. The Mineral Range railroad ran a train of five empty coaches to Red Jacket Sunday morning, with which to bring the German Aid society to Houghton. When about four hundred feet north of the Hancock depot Allen observed the empty train passing and attempted to board it. He caught hold of the coach rail with one hand, hanging on to his valise with the other. The brakeman had warned him not to get on, but Allen paid no heed to the order. Allen was dragged about twenty feet when he struck a trestle. Here he fell a distance of about ten feet. The train was immediately stopped and the injured man removed to his home. Dr. J. E. Scallon was summoned and found his left leg had been fractured. Allen will be laid up a month or more.

Annual Reunion Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the St. Jean Baptiste societies of Houghton county will hold their annual reunion at Hancock. In the morning the societies will attend high mass in a body at St. Joseph's church. At noon the parade will form, marching through the principal streets, thence to the grove, where dinner will be served. Here addresses will be made by the Hon. Daniel Bergerin of Chicago, Peter Primeau of Marquette, Dr. J. E. Scallon and others. A pleasing musical program has been arranged for the afternoon. In the evening a concert will be given at St. Patrick's Hall.

And Sam Ought to Know.

What Portage lake needs is a dry dock. The matter is being seriously discussed of late, and it will be no surprise to hear of some definite results in the near future. Hon. S. M. Stephenson, speaking on this subject when here recently, said, among other things, "You have a nice country here but need more industrial enterprises, and now that the river and harbor bill is passed, and the deep water way project is among the possibilities, there will be a larger traffic on Portage lake than ever before and a dry dock will soon be in the nature of a necessity."

Elected Officers.

At a meeting of Foster encampment, I. O. O. F., of Hancock, held Friday evening, the following officers were chosen: Chief patriarch, Wm. H. McGann; high priest, John Brewer; senior warden, B. Snyder; junior warden, James Cliff; scribe, Wm. V. Barkell; treasurer, Adolph Ruhl; representative to grand lodge, to be held at Allegan, Mich., in October, Wm. H. McGann.

Houghton Takes a Game.

The Houghton ball team went to Ontonagon on Sunday and mopped the earth with the club of that place. The score being 23 to 9. Healy and Haas were in the points for Houghton. The Marquette team will make its first appearance here this season at the Houghton park on Saturday and Sunday next. Two exciting games may be looked for.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

The M. E. church Sunday school of Calumet will give its annual picnic to the canal on Saturday, the 27th inst. The Fifth Regiment band will furnish music.

The picnic given at Haas' grove Sunday by the German Aid society was a most pleasing success, both socially and financially. About $500 was added to the treasury of this organization as a result of the picnic.

John McCarthy of Hurontown, who for some time past has shown symptoms of mental derangement, was taken in charge Saturday by Deputy Sheriff McNamara. McCarthy is nearly sixty years of age and unmarried. He is reported to be worth $15,000.

The dock at the foot of Ravine street, Hancock, has of late been a rendezvous for tramps and vagabonds. They have named their resort the "Riverside club-house." Marshal Malherbe made them an informal call Sunday evening and corralled three of the dozen who had retired for the night. The police are on the lookout for the others.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Scallon of Hancock entertained friends yesterday with a trip to the canal on the pleasure tug Annie R. Hennes. The party was given in honor of the doctor's brother, Attorney William Scallon of Butte, Mont. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Finnegan, the Misses Nellie and Maggie Finnegan and Joseph Kaspers.

BUFFALOES FIGHT.

In Spite of the Keepers' Efforts a Fine Bull is Killed.

The National zoological park in the suburbs of Washington has lost one of its valuable herd of six buffaloes, the animal having been killed in a desperate fight with one of its companions the other day. The zoo's herd of buffalo is one of the finest in the country, and great regret is felt at the killing of one of them, as it will be hard to replace it. The buffalo that was killed was one of the largest and oldest in the herd, and for a long time was the tyrant and monarch of all the others at the zoo. A year or two ago he had a very desperate fight with a younger bull, and since that time he has been kept away from the rest of the herd and confined in a pen in which there was also a young bull, who apparently was entirely peaceful. One day the old fellow was himself teased by the young bull and poking at him as they walked around the pen. The young bull did not like this and began to show fight.

A dozen times the beasts rushed at each other and came together with shocks that startled the other animals and brought to the inclosure all of the keepers, who endeavored to separate them, but without success. The fence around the inclosure was completely ruined, although the boards kept together sufficiently to prevent the animals from escaping. The buffaloes fought until both of them were so nearly exhausted that they could hardly stand. Then the old one was driven away, where the surgeon in charge of the zoo and his assistants labored to save his life. The last blow that he had received from the young buffalo, however, had done its work, and the animal lived but a little time after the fight was over. The post-mortem showed that he was frightfully gored and nearly all the bones of his body broken. It is a matter of surprise to the surgeons that he stood up and fought as long as he did. The young buffalo was not seriously injured.

Around the World in Thirty Days.

In connection with the new train de luxe between Ostend and St. Petersburg, the Independence Belge points out that with the completion of the Trans-Siberian railway in 1900 the tour of the world in 30 days will become an accomplished fact. The time of the transit from London to St. Petersburg will be 48 hours, the journey to Port Arthur being performed in 250 hours. From here the steamers of the Russo-American company, now in course of formation, will convey the travelers to San Francisco in seven days, hence ten days will suffice for the return to London. The entire fare is calculated to cost $250 to $400.—N. Y. Sun.

TOLD BY THE TEETH.

Character Revealed by the Formation of the Ivories.

Large Teeth Indicate a Broad Temperament and Small Ones Show a Mentality of the Minute Order—An Interesting Study.

Have you ever thought that you may tell a person's character long after his death, when his body has decayed and there is nothing left but a few bones? Probably you have not, but it is quite possible, for character may be judged by the teeth.

In one important respect, character reading by means of the teeth is more reliable than that by means of the hands, lips, nose, eyes, feet or other parts of the body, valuable as they may seem in some particulars. It has been said that a man's mode of inner life, the working of his conscience, will leave some visible trace, some material influence on his general appearance, thus, in a measure, thwarting the original design of nature. For example, by properly schooling the mind from a joyous to a serious temper, a nose with an inclination to pugness may be made to take a decided downward turn; a mouth may be made to droop at the corners, wrinkles may be induced at the corners of the eyes, the contour and lines of the hands may change and the feet may take on a different expression.

But the teeth are exceptional. No habit of thought will have any influence whatever in their shape and character. As far as concerns them Mrs. Nature has laid her plans with a determination that they shall not be modified.

Phrenologists have not agreed upon any stated set of rules for judging a person's character from an inspection of his teeth. The best that they pretend to do is to arrive at a general estimate. This is not as satisfactory from the point of view of completeness and minuteness as the methods of reading character by means of other parts of the body; but it has its advantages in its increased reliability. By a careful examination of the teeth it may be definitely announced whether or not a person is a coward or high-spirited, weak or strong-minded, slovenly or punctilious. This determination will reveal the character as it was at birth—the native character. There are thousands of cases where individuals have "lived down nature," so to speak, and have evolved an artificial character of one sort from a natural character of the opposite sort. This, provided the change has been from a poorer to a better character, is highly commendable, and is a strong argument against the doctrine that has recently been promulgated, to the effect that most criminals should be excused because they were born with criminal instincts, and couldn't help it.

And yet, after all, when you are dealing with a man you will be better satisfied to know his real, than his artificial character, and so you may know it only by an examination of his teeth. This examination will usually have to be conducted covertly, as it is not likely that the general run of persons whom you meet will lend themselves to a minute investigation of their dental arrangement.

You may start out with the general broad statement that small teeth mean smallness, and big teeth mean bigness. It makes not much difference to what qualities you apply these terms. A man with small, short teeth can hardly be concerned in anything big—be it charity, or crime, nobleness or deviltry. His temperament is of the minute order; his compass is limited. If engaged in business, he will work on a basis of hundreds, when a man with large teeth would be dealing with thousands. If he engages in crime, he would be far more apt to steal coppers from a new-boy than to explode a bank safe.

On the other hand, a man with large teeth is a man who goes into things on a big scale. His mind, like the law, does not care for trifles, "non minima curat." If he is charitable, he is generous to a fault, and will be dividing his last penny with a needy friend, while the small-toothed man would hedge on his charitable instincts as soon as he saw that they were beginning to cause him the slightest inconvenience. The man with the big teeth, if a criminal, would revel in holding up trains and in robbing them single-handed—in picking the pockets of the chief of police, and in administering knock-out drops to the commissioners. Bigness is his watchword.

But it is possible to read by means of the teeth finer shades of character than merely those of bigness and littleness. We may also note insipidity, courage, heedlessness, ferocity, ideality and other qualities. If you will examine the accompanying sketches you will observe many types that are no doubt familiar. You will find it of interest to compare some of these teeth with those of animals, and to speculate as to whether a similarity in this respect means a similarity of character. Canine and feline teeth are remarkable for their pointiness, being larger at the base than at the tip. This characteristic may be observed in some human teeth, and there are those who say that it denotes the possession of canine or feline instincts.

Teeth which are separated by a gap denote, usually, a heedless, thoughtless, or even slovenly character. On the other hand, teeth which are close together denote alertness of the mind. Whether this alertness is directed toward great or small things depends upon the size of the teeth. When the teeth slant in one direction, as is rarely the case, they indicate insipidity.

Firmness, courage and great executive ability are indicated by teeth which are of large size, set evenly in the gums, and possibly slightly protruding. Small teeth which point inward denote opposite qualities.—N. Y. World.

Washington is noted for the beauty of the trees which line her sidewalks, and the reason lies in the fact that for many years past she has made the care of them a municipal duty.

Overfrequent washing of the face should be avoided. Some physicians insist that the face should be washed but once a day, and then in tepid water.

Complexion Hint. Avoid rich and greasy foods. Though it is practically useless to tell a woman to abjure sweets, it may be suggested that they are complexion destroyers, and that the fewer one eats the fairer one's skin is likely to be.

Improvements at Hamill's. Improvements are the order of the day at H. C. Hamill's, and now that they are finished he has one of the handsomest little jewelry stores in Marquette. To begin with the store has been repapered and redecorated, the work being done with most excellent taste. This furnishes a suitable setting for two handsome wall cases, made of quarter sawed oak and finished in antique style. The wall cases are handsome pieces of furniture, elegant design and delicately carved. Each is furnished with a single, large, plate glass sliding door, while connecting the two is a handsome bevel plate mirror. To match these are two new show cases setting on tables with handsomely carved piano legs. These elegant fittings are for the display of a new line of presentation goods, the equal of which, in point of beauty and selection, it will be hard to beat anywhere. Special taste has been exerted in selecting articles suitable for wedding and commencement presents. There is also a full line of Shriner's emblem pins and charms, and a complete assortment of leather goods, such as purses and cardcases.

Why They Weep. That sprightly society paper of New York, Town Topics, has this mention of the approaching marriage of Mr. Samuel R. Kaufman of this city and Miss Libby of Chicago in its number for last week:

The announcement last week of the engagement of Miss Una Libby to Mr. Samuel R. Kaufman of Marquette, Mich., threw I don't know how many bright young Chicago men into mourning. Miss Libby is an exceptionally pretty girl, besides being the prospective heiress to a share of the Libby millions, and how her adoring army of local swains can have contrived to let so rare a prize be carried off by an outsider is more than I can discover. That beauty runs in the Libby family is proven by the charms of Miss Libby's older sister, Mrs. Brandt Walker, who has enjoyed a long reign as a belle among the youthful matrons of the South Side. The lucky suitor has announced that he will take his bride to Marquette to live.

Struck a Neighbor's Child. Hereafter when Mrs. Maggie Steinsick feels a desire to mete out corporal punishment she will see to it that the child she corrects is one of her own. She and a woman named Mrs. Mary Mankovsky and Joe Labissionere's family all live down in the same neighborhood in South Marquette. Part of them live in the same house. Joe got out warrants charging each of the women with slapping his little girl Clara for some trivial offense. Mrs. Steinsick admitted having hit the child once and the admission cost her $1. There was a lack of evidence in the case against the Mankovsky woman and she was accordingly discharged.

MIDLAKE AND HARBOR GOSSIP. Vessel Inspectors York and Gooding made a flying trip to Ontonagon Saturday, inspecting two vessels and returning Monday. The liners are taking constantly increasing passenger lists out of Marquette every week as the season advances. A large number went to Chicago on the City of Duluth yesterday.

Saturday the Senator, the biggest steamer ever built in the state was launched at the Wyandotte yards in Detroit. The Senator will have cost when completed $260,000. She was built to the order of the Wolverine Steamship company, composed of John B. Roby, president and general manager, James McMillan, C. L. Freer, F. J. Hostler, M. W. Humphrey, the estate of the late Captain Peck, A. McVittie and others. She will be sailed by Captain E. B. McQueen.

The date selected is Saturday, Aug. 1. J. E. Murray, contracting agent of Hall & McFlynn's circus, is in town arranging for a performance to be given here July 4. B. O. Pearl and wife left Sunday for a month's vacation trip during which they will visit New York, Cleveland and Chicago. Conductor Pat Connelly was called to Sault Ste. While on the High school excursion Friday, Frank Busch, one of the graduates fell and broke his hand while climbing the rocks. There will be a short business meeting of the Lake Superior Mission band of the Presbyterian church at 7:30 this evening at the home of Mrs. Spencer. The eighth grade commencement exercises will be held at the Ely school Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. An admission of ten cents will be charged to defray expenses. The east bound train on the South Shore which has been leaving here at 3:45 every morning, is now made to leave at the more seasonable hour of 4:30 by a change in the time table. F. H. W. Bailey left late last night for Ashland, where he will visit with his niece, Miss Daisy Bailey. Miss Bailey has visited in Marquette and will be remembered by many of the young people. The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be held at 341 West Bluff street this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The recent state convention will be briefly reviewed. Strangers and visitors will be cordially welcome. Judge Clifton yesterday appointed the widow administrator of the estate of Theophile Ross. She is required to give a $400 bond. Eliza, widow, was appointed administrator of the estate of Peter Cardew, of Ishpeming, and directed to give a bond of $500. At a special meeting of the Clerks' union held Sunday night it was decided that until after the Fourth the members would help the merchants by working as late at night as their services should be required, in the expectation that after the cessation all the storekeepers would be willing to close their places promptly at 8.

WILL NOT LAST LONG. The opportunity that is now being offered to our readers to procure a set of the American Encyclopaedic Dictionary will be of short duration. It will not take long to place 100 sets of this great work among such a literary class of people as we have in Marquette. An opportunity of this kind does not happen more than once in a life-time, so all who are forming fine libraries should take advantage of it before it is too late. Do not fail to call at The Dispatch headquarters, 128 Washington street, and examine the work or give your order to our representative when he calls. (6-23-17)

Our friends say their children have kept strong and well all winter by taking Scott's Emulsion. Many children do not assimilate enough fat with their food, hence they need this easy fat food, and thrive on it. It is for all children that are not absolutely strong. The combination of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites as prepared in Scott's Emulsion is marvelous in its power to arrest wasting. The 50 cent size is especially useful as a trial size for babies and children. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York. For sale at 50 cts. and $1.00 by all druggists.

Ishpeming and Vicinity.

A PASTORS' ASSOCIATION.

One to Embrace Ministers of Ishpeming and Negaunee Organized.

A number of the preachers of Ishpeming and Negaunee assembled yesterday morning in the parlors of Calvary Baptist church and organized a Pastors' association, with Rev. S. F. Anderson of Ishpeming for president and Rev. G. B. Wilder of the National for secretary and treasurer. The main object of the association is to promote interest in religious work among its members, as well as those who hold membership in the different church societies. Meetings will be held for this purpose regularly. Preachers in both cities who were not present at the meeting yesterday will be invited to sign the membership roll at a near date.

A committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws was appointed. The committee will submit its report to the association at a meeting to be held a week from next Monday at the Presbyterian church, Negaunee. Each pastor will be expected at this meeting to give an outline of the sermon he preached to his congregation the previous day. This custom will be continued and many new ideas will doubtless be brought out by so doing.

HALL AND MACFLINN.

The New United States Show Coming Tuesday June 30.

The big attraction with new and original features managed by the peers of all amusement caterers. Hall and MacFlinn, comes Tuesday June 30, afternoon and night. Colonel Hall in organizing this exhibition for the present season has been prompted by a desire to present to the public patronage a show which would have both the characteristics of novelty and intrinsic excellence. There has been too great a similarity in exhibitions under canvass, and amusement patrons have been called upon to pay for much that they had seen before. They do not call this the Greatest Show on Earth. It is simply a big, fine, first-class novelty exhibition. Their ring performance is unsurpassed in this country in point of novelty, morality, refinement and artistic merit. An enjoyable, clean, genteel, richly-dressed, aristocratic, elevated and finished entertainment; full of new novel foreign features never before seen in this country. In fact a sumptuous amusement festival, crisp, chaste and sparkling. Lady ticket seller and in fact ladies to look after the wants of their sex visiting the performance. A grand free balloon ascension and parachute leap by Prof. C. Baldwin from the show ground. Popular prices for three big shows combined.

The Milwaukee Daily Record of Tuesday, May 26, 1896 says: "The Milwaukee strike and boycott does not affect the patronage of the Hall & MacFlinn dog and pony show and congress of trained animals. Thousands of people are turned away every night. Next Sunday at National park there will be a great balloon ascension and parachute leap." Colonel Hall is present at every performance to see that patrons receive the best of care and get their money's worth.

This large aggregation of performing ponies, dogs, bears, deer, monkeys and birds execute the most astonishing feats. Here we find the one example in the world of an entire company of animals whose natures are antagonistic performing individually a number of parts which subsequently fit in and form a perfect and complete whole. Many animals of different kind are each doing some difficult trick at the same moment.

Getting Ready for the Picnic.

Several members of L'Union Canadienne Francaise have been busy the past few days getting everything in readiness at the Lake Superior grove for the picnic to be held tomorrow. Temporary tables, refreshment stands, etc., have been put up and a dancing platform is now being erected. This will be forty-two feet square and will accommodate about eight quadrille sets at one time.

The visiting societies will all arrive here not later than 10:30 o'clock. The line of march will be formed as soon after that as possible and the parade will start before 11 o'clock. Some of the visiting societies will be accompanied by brass bands.

At the conclusion of the parade speeches will be delivered at the picnic grounds by prominent members of the order. Dinner will be served on the grounds between 12 and 2 o'clock. The lady relatives and friends of the local members will have direct charge of this part of the program.

Will Wed Today.

Stephen Collins and Miss Esther Cleary, both well known young people of Ishpeming, will be united in marriage this morning at 8 o'clock at St. John's church, Rev. Father Langan, the pastor, officiating. The bride will be attended by Miss Mamie Morrow, and Joseph Kennedy will be the best man. The young couple will spend the day at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Dennis Cleary, on South Lake street, and late in the afternoon a dinner will be served in their honor. A number of friends of the contracting parties have been invited to be present in the evening, when there will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. Collins will start housekeeping at once.

For Oakland County Sufferers.

Mayor Andrews is in receipt of a letter from Governor Rich asking him to see what can be done here for the aid of the suffering people of Oakland county, whose homes were recently destroyed by the cyclone which did so much damage in that section. The sufferers are badly in need of furniture, crockery, lumber to build homes and money to buy various articles which are not usually furnished by public donations. The mayor says he will give the matter his personal attention immediately after the Fourth. He would take it up now were it not for a large amount of other work he has on hand.

Fine Song Service.

The song service rendered Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church by the regular choir, assisted by a double quartet, was of unusual interest and the different anthems sung were highly appreciated by the large audience present. Following was the program:

Unfold, Ye Portals.....Gounod
Te Deum.....Gounod
Sometimes I Catch Sweet Glimpses.....Gounod
Qui Tollis.....Farmer
Solo—Sun of My Soul.....Crozier
Angels Roll the Rock Away.....Havens

MAIL THIEVES.

Tricks of Bascoals Who Rifle Uncle Sam's Letter Boxes.

Much Money is Annually Pilfered from Envelopes by Expert Operators—Schemes by Which They are Caught.

One of the few cases of recent occurrence where money has been stolen in the New York postoffice happened in March, 1895, when a clerk named Lagan was detected in secreting letters.

It was his duty to distribute the letters into boxes, and as he did this rapidly he managed to throw about one out of five into his vest, which was really a large pouch open at the top. Lagan was sentenced to three years in prison.

In the fall of 1891 a gang of expert thieves was found to be plundering mail boxes all over the country. In each city they would proceed in the same manner, their first care being to get possession of the padlock attached to a mail box, which they could easily do by sawing through the staple.

Having procured this lock, it was child's play for them to make a key which would fit it, and this key would open any mail box in the city.

Having provided themselves with the key, the rest was plain sailing. Every evening one of the thieves, disguised in the regulation uniform, would make his round from box to box in the most open way, being practically free from interference or suspicion, since not even the policeman in any neighborhood or residents there would have any idea that he was not a postman, perhaps a new one, and he would be left free to go ahead with his depredations.

The stolen mail thus obtained would be brought to the rooms occupied by the thieves and there carefully examined. Every letter would be opened, either by steaming the envelope or with a pen-knife, and if found to contain nothing valuable would be resealed and mailed again, so as to lessen the chances of suspicion. Of course, money and all articles of value were retained, and a great quantity of checks were obtained in this way, the latter being in many instances "raised" or "altered" so that the conspirators were able to realize large sums on them.

The originator of this ingenious scheme of robbery was Prentiss Tiller, who is now "serving time" in the Jackson penitentiary, while his accomplices were sentenced to from 10 to 15 years.

As it is almost impossible to take postoffice thieves in the act of robbing the mails, the inspectors have to rely upon ruses in discovering the guilty clerk or employe. One of the most common and successful devices is that of the test letter, a trap in which many light-fingered employes have been taken.

After weeks, sometimes months, of surveillance, the question of guilt is narrowed down to two or three men, upon whom the decoy letter or package is then tried.

For instance, if the complaints have been in regard to small pieces of jewelry, such as are often sent through the mail, the test letter will contain a scarf-pin or a pair of sleeve buttons, inclosed in such a way that they can be plainly felt by anyone handling the letter.

And if money has been stolen, then the letter is prepared with bank notes wrapped in thin paper, so that they can be readily seen on holding the letter up to the light. Whatever is inclosed in the letter is marked in such a way that it may be easily identified afterward.

Thus prepared, the test letter is mailed in the district from which came the letter in regard to which complaint has been made. The letter is posted by one of the inspectors, who, unknown to the postman, stands near by and watches until the letter is gathered up.

Returning to the office, the inspector notes whether the letter is in the mail pouch which is to carry it to its destination. If it is not there the field of suspicion is narrowed down to the postman who carried it from the box to the office and to the clerks who handled it while being stamped and put in the mail pouch.

If the letter is found in the pouch, then it is checked at every subsequent point where it is liable to be handled, the checking being done by the inspector in charge, who in no instance interferes until the usual opportunity for theft has been accorded.

As soon as the inspector who is on the trail of a test letter finds that it has disappeared, and concludes from his check system that it must have been abstracted by one of two or three men, he immediately orders those men to be taken to a private room and searched—searched thoroughly, so that if the tell-tale bill or object is on their person it must be discovered.

There are many complaints of money lost in the mails, which upon investigation prove to have their source in the dishonesty of employes. Porters, office boys, petty clerks, all have opportunities to take what they know are valuable letters, and often avail themselves of them.

For instance, only a short time ago many complaints were received from the Presbyterian missions, which were losing money at an extraordinary rate. The culprit proved to be their office boy, a lad of 16, with a salary of four dollars a week. He confessed his fault, and said that he had spent the money in taking his girl to the theater; that they went two or three times a week, and that he liked to give her small presents.

There are many similar cases, and a remarkable feature of them is that often the people who have made the complaint refuse to press it when they know it concerns one of their employes, and sometimes they do not even discharge the offender.—Boston Globe.

Railroads in India.

A good deal of public interest attaches to the Ahmedabad-Parant railway line from the fact of its being the first railway constructed by private enterprise in India with rupee capital.

IN THE VATICAN.

The Appearance of the Aged Pope While Conducting Mass.

For most of the crowd in the famous chapel the center of interest was, no doubt, the person of Leo XIII., who made his entry with all the pomp and display of traditional usage, borne aloft, the great fans on either side, preceded by dignitaries of the papal household, and attended by members of the noble and Swiss guards—an imposing spectacle, of which it is hard to believe that the Galilean fisherman had prescience.

Although the features of his holiness and those of Mr. Gladstone have little resemblance, the illustrious veterans are like each other in two respects. Both are pallid, and in both the eyes are especially keen and brilliant.

Save for the life that shone in his eyes and the movement of his hand in blessing, Leo XIII.'s bearers might have seemed to carry a dead pope. But there could be no mistaking the vitality of glances that obviously took in the whole scene, and it was easy to assume, every person present. The mass proceeded in the usual way, the voice of the aged pontiff, though feeble, being distinctly heard, and the papal choir, grouped in front of a huge missal, doing their part with the earnestness and feeling I have remarked upon as conspicuous in the Roman church.

With regard to the quality of the choir it may be said that musical ears, accustomed to the accurate intonation of English cathedral singers, could not approve without reserve. To put the matter plainly, the choir was sometimes distinctly out of tune, and the criticisms leveled against their music in past years are still, to some extent, applicable.

I am told, however, that the papal singers appear at their best in the holy week music of Bai and Allegri, particularly the "Miserere" of the master list named, for the special effects of which they continue famous. Accepting the statement, it is needless to say how much I regret that actual experience of its truth was quite out of the question.

But while the intonation of the choir in singing the mass might have been improved, some of the work was exceedingly fine. The leading soprano—possibly he of the Giulia chapel—the principal tenor and the first bass displayed exceptional powers, and, as it may be assumed that the traditional rendering of the old church composers was strictly observed, the performance generally had the highest interest for every musical visitor.

At the close of the mass the pontifical procession retraced its steps and the congregation was free to depart. There was an unseemly scramble for overcoats on the way out.—Rome Cor. London Telegraph.

Floor Had Been Polished. "Jane." It was the voice of Mr. Billtonger, and in his accents were both pain and anger.

"Jane, it is three weeks since we moved. Haven't you swept the floors yet? I've stepped on another tack."

From her post of vantage at the head of the stairs Mrs. Billtonger looked down in undisturbed calm.

"The hall floor has just been polished," she said. "Don't step on it with that tack in your foot or you will scratch it."

Two days later it cost Mr. Billtonger $27 for repairing the damage he did to his hall floor on that awful night.—Chicago Tribune.

The Ideal Panacea. James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

They Feel Grateful. City Recorder James Johnson is in receipt of the following letter from Timothy Nester, president of the village of Munising, which fully explains itself:

"DEAR SIR—Your favor of the 15th inst. came while I was away, I having been absent in the east nearly three weeks, and I did not know until I returned, that your hose and cart had not been sent home. Mr. James Maloney, late marshal of Marquette, has the charge of the same and has taken good care of it. It will be shipped Monday. The hose is rolled up on the reel and is in good shape. I desire to express my extreme thanks to the people of Negaunee through you for the kindness extended to us, and while I hope it will never be your luck to have to call on any neighboring city to assist you in suppressing fire, we may still be able in other ways to express our estimation of your people's kindness when we were in danger, and we hope before long to have closer relations with you."

Will Attend the Reunion. The members of the Chevalier de Lafayette society of Negaunee will attend the reunion of the French societies of the county at Ishpeming tomorrow. They will go over on the street car line, leaving here about 9:30 o'clock. It is expected that the turnout will be large, as five societies from neighboring places will be present.

Two or three of these will be accompanied by brass bands. The parade will take place between 10:30 and 11:30, after which all will repair to the Lake Superior grove, where the remainder of the day will be spent.

A Series of Lectures. Colonel Long and Sobieski will give a series of gospel temperance lectures in Negaunee this week. They will be at the Methodist church tonight and tomorrow night and at the Presbyterian church the remaining three evenings of the week. They are both said to be very fine talkers and those who attend will be well pleased to assist you in suppressing fire, we may still be able in other ways to express our estimation of your people's kindness when we were in danger, and we hope before long to have closer relations with you."

To the Democratic Convention. J. D. Campbell, local agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, yesterday received instructions to sell round trip tickets to the Democratic national convention, which will be held in Chicago July 7, for $10.37—one fare. At this low rate of fare a reasonably large number from this section will doubtless visit Chicago about that time. The tickets will be good from the 4th to the 12th inclusive.

WONDERFUL are the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and yet they are simple and natural. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes PURE BLOOD.

The Fact that Doctors frequently advise change of air and climate to those suffering from catarrh is proof that catarrh is a local and climatic disease, and not a constitutional affection. Therefore, unless you can afford to leave home and business, you can find the remedy in Ely's Cream Balm. Applied directly to the seat of the disease, it effects instant relief and a satisfactory cure after short continuance. No mercury nor injurious drug is contained in the Balm. 50 cents. If it required an annual outlay of $100.00 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of the remedy will cure any ordinary case. To the Democratic Convention. J. D. Campbell, local agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, yesterday received instructions to sell round trip tickets to the Democratic national convention, which will be held in Chicago July 7, for $10.37—one fare. At this low rate of fare a reasonably large number from this section will doubtless visit Chicago about that time. The tickets will be good from the 4th to the 12th inclusive.

WONDERFUL are the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and yet they are simple and natural. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes PURE BLOOD.

The Fact that Doctors frequently advise change of air and climate to those suffering from catarrh is proof that catarrh is a local and climatic disease, and not a constitutional affection. Therefore, unless you can afford to leave home and business, you can find the remedy in Ely's Cream Balm. Applied directly to the seat of the disease, it effects instant relief and a satisfactory cure after short continuance. No mercury nor injurious drug is contained in the Balm. 50 cents. All druggists.

If it required an annual outlay of $100.00 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of the remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

RESORTERS ARE COMING.

The resort season at Marquette may be considered fairly opened today with the arrival of the Manitou and its party of excursionists on their way around the lakes. The boat gets in here at 5 this morning, and those of the tourists who are early risers will have a chance to inspect the town before the 9:30 train carries them to Negaunee and Ishpeming to inspect the great iron mines. General Passenger Agent Hibbard has received notice that there will be about sixty out of the passenger list who will wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to make this trip. They will spend all the forenoon among the mines and return to the city on the train which gets here at 1:30, and the boat is announced to leave as soon after as the excursionists can get on board. On its return trip the Manitou will touch at Marquette Friday afternoon.

Several of the clerks of the Hotel Superior came up on the boat as far as St. Ignace and came from there to Marquette by rail, arriving here on the late afternoon train, so as to be in readiness for any excursionists off the boat who may choose to patronize the hotel. The doors of the big summer hostelry were thrown open yesterday, and it was prepared to take care of any guests who might come, though on the main floor it was still in the throes of house-cleaning. The street cars had not yet begun to run to the house, but Manager Evans expected the company to start the summer service today, or at latest tomorrow. The Shirners will open the festivities of the season at the house with a big ball and reception Wednesday night. Visiting knights will be present from all over the jurisdiction, and it is anticipated that 200 couples will enjoy the hospitalities of the occasion.

Manager Evans was asked what he thought was the outlook for tourist business at Marquette this year. "I think there will be a big run of tourist travel this season," he said. "There is going to be a hot summer down below, and even more people than usual will go out of the cities for a vacation."

"You expect to fill the house clear up?" "No, I can't say that I do, but then I'd rather not have it just as full as it can be packed. With a moderate crowd we can give the guests much better attention, establish a much better reputation for the house and still do a profitable business. If Hotel Superior can be built up into a big success it will result in bringing a big resort business to the town, and do more toward building it up than any other institution that could be established here."

J. W. Spear had this to say of the season:

"If there is a hot summer it ought to draw a good many people to Marquette. They will come both by boat and train. Those who want to get here in a hurry will come by rail, and those who have more leisure are apt to come by boat for the pleasure of the excursion."

George Hibbard, passenger agent of the D. S. S. & A., says that the road is going to do its very best to bring the resorters here.

"We aim," he said, "to cooperate with the Hotel Superior and with all the hotels, and will endeavor, as we did last year by offering low rates, to draw the crowd down from Mackinac. I think the season will open earlier than usual this year. Generally there is not much resort travel till after the Fourth of July, but at the island, where the season is just the same as here, I heard of a party of thirty and over who went in there last week. That would seem to indicate that the travel is going to set in earlier than usual."

Vessel Record Broken.

Yesterday's arrivals at the port of Marquette were greater than ever before in the history of the customs office, where, as everybody knows, accurate record is kept of all shipping movements.

Between the hours of 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. twenty-two boats arrived. This number does not take into consideration the liners, or boats plying inside of the customs district. The bulk of the boats are ore carriers, two or three have coal, and two are lumber vessels. The aggregate tonnage is set at double that ever in the harbor at one time before.

Boats were loading at all the ore docks last night, a big freighter with two lying at the dock waiting for their turns, and at the lumber dock a barge was taking on a load for Cleveland. All in all the harbor presented an appearance of most unusual stir and activity. Eighteen vessels took on their loads during the day and cleared. Some of the boats that were here are among the largest and finest carriers making the port.

Many Decisions Affirmed.

At the land office yesterday a batch of decisions were received from Secretary Whitney of the department of the Interior, and from State Land Commissioner Lamoreaux. All of them affirmed decisions made by the register and receiver of the Marquette department. The one decided by Secretary Smith is the most important.

Secretary Smith has reversed the decision of Commissioner Lamoreaux in rejecting the selection by the state of Michigan of 5,014 acres of land in the Marquette district as indemnity for swamp lands lost by reason of prior lo-ocations. The commissioner held that the state could only select such lands as are subject to private entry at $1.25 per acre, and that there are no longer any lands of that character in the state. The secretary holds that the commissioner stretched a point in reaching his conclusion, and that, although the law reads as stated by him, still, in view of the fact that the legislation was remedial, the state's application should have been allowed. He therefore directs that patent issue to the state for the lands in controversy.

The case was originally decided by the local officials in favor of the state. It was then appealed to Commissioner Lamoreaux, and his decision was in turn appealed from and reversed.

By secretary Whitney's rulings the Marquette land office now has nothing to do with the lands. They have been turned over to the state commissioner and he will sell them according to their appraisal value.

Decisions were granted by default in the following contested land cases which were appealed to the state commissioner: Richard Hazard vs. Thomas B. Dunkin, 160 acres in Chippewa county, register and receiver's verdict affirmed and land awarded to plaintiff. John R. Cunningham vs. William McIntyre, 160 acres, decision affirmed and land awarded to plaintiff. Herman W. Hodge vs. Alfred Tomlin, 160 acres in Chippewa county, decision affirmed and land awarded to plaintiff. George Thebaud vs. Edwin N. Muckey, 160 acres in Ontonagon county, decision affirmed and land awarded to plaintiff.

Alleged Murderers Examined. Last Tuesday at Ontonagon the preliminary hearing was held in the case of Duncan Beveridge and James Redpath, the little doubted murderers of Mollie Beveridge, for whose death the innocent John McDonald received a life sentence, and served six years until the confession of Maggie Redpath secured his pardon. Beveridge, Redpath and Maggie Redpath, now Mrs. Peterson, faced each other in Justice Mooney's little court room where was reopened a case that has already become noted as one of the most remarkable in the history of the state. Mrs. Peterson, the chief witness against the men, occupied the stand continuously from Tuesday forenoon till the next afternoon. The prosecution being fearful that harm may come to her, or that she may be approached and silenced, has provided a detective who is her constant companion, and the pair are followed about by a special policeman.

Prosecuting Attorney W. R. Adams assisted by Assistant Attorney General H. E. Chase, propounded the questions to the witness on the direct examination, and she told her story of the shooting on the night of Nov. 11th or morning of the 12th, substantially as it was given to the board of pardons. The cross examination by attorneys H. E. Crocker of Duluth, and C. E. McIntosh of Marquette, was a severe one lasting a day and a half.

Some of her utterances were sensational, but her testimony was not broken down in any way. Hugh McQuarrie, of Matchwood, was put on the stand, but nothing was gotten out of him that he had not testified to on previous occasions. At the conclusion of the examination the prosecution asked a continuance for two weeks, in order to give Prosecuting Attorney Adams more time to look up the case, and to give both sides time to locate their witnesses. The justice accordingly adjourned the case till June 30.

Beveridge and Redpath take their predicament coolly despite the serious charge against them, and the former is solaced by his wife who came down with him from Duluth and has been with him since his arrest. A Marquette gentleman who returned from Ontonagon yesterday says that a change of venue will probably be taken to Houghton.

The Wonderful Tesla. Professor W. B. Stickney, of Ann Arbor, spoke at the Presbyterian church last evening to sparsely filled pews on the subject, "Nicola Tesla, and Recent Marvelous Discoveries in Electricity and Ether."

Considering the size of the audience it is not much of a compliment to say that the lecturer deserved a better house. It would be a poor lecturer who didn't. There ought to be enough people in Marquette who are interested in electric to have filled the church to overflowing, for the professor's lecture was certainly very interesting and very instructive. He is an ardent admirer and champion of the wonderful Serbian whose inventions he expects soon to revolutionize the mechanical powers of the earth, and it is easy to see, though he avoids saying so, that he regards him as very much Mr. Edison's superior. Professor Stickney told of Tesla's wonderful experiments and discoveries, and gave something of his life and struggles. The address was at the same time educational and entertaining.
