SENATOR THURSTON HEDGES

Says He Never Accused Bryan of Being Paid by Silver Mine Owners.

LAYS THE BLAME ON THE CHICAGO CHRONICLE EDITOR.

His Much-Quoted Speech Was Sandwiched With Chronicle Editorials—Read Them Without Comment—"Bryan Should Explain."

HE READ ANOTHER'S CHARGES.

OMAHA, Aug. 16.—Senator Thurston in a letter to Senator Stewart of Nevada, replying to a note from the latter in reference to Thurston's speech at Madison, Wis., in which Thurston is quoted as making the charge that Bryan is under pay of the silver miners, says: "I did not make any charge against Bryan of any kind whatever; I did nothing except read portions of an editorial published in the Chicago Chronicle of July 11, which said in substance, that among many lecturers carried on the pay rolls of the big bonanzas for a number of years is William J. Bryan of Nebraska, paid agent and spokesman of the free silver combine, and not since his retirement from congress has he had any other visible means of support."

Thurston continues: "I did not directly, or indirectly even, express an opinion as to the truth or falsity of the charge thus clearly, explicitly, unequivocally, editorially set forth by a great Democratic newspaper. I did say and still say that a man posing as an advocate of the downtrodden masses of his countrymen, holding a crown of thorns in one hand and as a bugaboo, a cross of gold in the other, owes it as a duty to every man, woman and child of this country, to say whether the charge thus publicly and deliberately made is false or true. One word from Bryan the 13th of last July would have set the public right; one word from him any day since would accomplish the same.

The charge was reproduced in many of the leading journals in the country and the only reference ever made to it by Bryan's own paper was that of July 15, which said: "Bryan did not drop out of congress; he stepped out, but he had been employed by 'The World Herald and it is generally conceded he fully earned his salary."

Thurston quotes editorials from a number of newspapers which make similar charges and continues: "I would be the last man in the world to assail the character of Bryan. It is not just to the American people that charges of this kind should go unanswered. He is the man, and the only man, who can make a definite and conclusive reply. I sincerely trust you will immediately transfer to the Chicago Chronicle the opportunity to substantiate that editorial."

"The charge was reproduced in many of the leading journals in the country and the only reference ever made to it by Bryan's own paper was that of July 15, which said: "Bryan did not drop out of congress; he stepped out, but he had been employed by 'The World Herald and it is generally conceded he fully earned his salary."

SPAIN TO SEEK REDRESS.

Damages for Filibusters to Be Claimed—The Geneva Award Cited.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The Spanish government is preparing a bill of damages, to be presented to the United States, on account of the numerous expeditions alleged to have gone from our shores to the relief of Cuban insurgents. In support of the claim for reparation Spain intends to invoke the precedent established against Great Britain in the celebrated Alabama claims awards, made by the Geneva arbitration tribunal. The principles indicated and enforced by the United States against Great Britain as those which should have governed her conduct would seem, the report says, to be clearly applicable to the obligations of United States towards Spain in the recent instance. Reviewing the Geneva award, the report says that it is clear that United States complained mainly about the fitting out and shipping from England of vessels and supplies. The report of the attorney of the Spanish government says that the powers invested in the president of the United States have not been effectively used for preventing the carrying on of military expeditions forbidden by the statutes.

ADAMS EXPRESS STRIKE.

Six Hundred Employees Quit Their Jobs on Saturday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Employees of Adams Express company in this city and Jersey City, to the number of 600, went on a strike today. They allege that since President Wier took charge of the company's affairs in the east, wages have been reduced about one-third; and that many of the old and efficient servants of the company have been discharged for trivial reasons. At the offices of the company here and in Jersey City, it was reported that business was being transacted with but little delay; that porters have been sent on from Philadelphia and other points, and that there will be little difficulty in filling the places of the strikers.

IN THEIR NIGHTCLOTHES.

Inmates of a Rockford, Ill., Block Barely Escape the Flames.

ROCKFORD, Aug. 16.—The Woodruff block burned here this morning; loss, $100,000. L. K. Goldman, who conducted a department store, is the principal loser, $35,000. Many families living in the second story of the block lost everything they had, escaping with their lives in their nightclothes.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Aug. 16.—The chemical laboratory building of the University of Illinois was almost destroyed by fire this morning, the result of a stroke of lightning. The walls remain standing but the contents of the building are damaged badly. The damage to the building is $20,000, and to the contents about $50,000.

GREEN BAY BLAZE.—The planing mill, dry sheds and lumber of the Green Bay Planing Mill company burned this afternoon. Loss, $60,000; insurance, $13,000.

RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH.—Single Taxers in Delaware Have Begun a Suit. WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 16.—The single taxers have commenced proceedings in the United States court in this city, whereby they hope to have the men imprisoned at Dover liberated. The present case is a test and should it be successful similar action will be taken in the case of the single taxers in the Dover jail. Walter H. Hayes of this city and J. H. Balsom of Washington, counsel for the Delaware Single Tax association, made application in the local federal tribunal yesterday and were granted a writ of habeas corpus in the cases of Arthur H. Stephenson and James J. Haggerty, two of the Dover prisoners. The hearing was set for today. Edward Ridgely and Beniah Watson will probably represent the town council of Dover at the hearing. This step is not what was at first proposed and other action may yet be taken. It was the original intention of the single taxers to bring suit for damages against the Dover town authorities, and while they still have that object in view, their future course may be determined by the action of the court in the present case. Ever since Chancellor Nicholson at Dover refused the plea of the prisoners for release on bail they have been suffering terribly in the overcrowded jail because of the intense heat; and their counsel have been preparing to take the case into the federal courts. The grounds on which the federal judge will be asked to act in the present case will be that the single taxers have been imprisoned for exercising the right of free speech—a right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States.

CAN THEY OUT WAGES?—Telegraphers Will Test Union Pacific Receivers' Rights. OMAHA, Aug. 16.—The Railway Telegraphers have filed a case in the federal court here to test the right of the receivers of the Union Pacific railway to reduce the fixed scale of wages of its employees.

Suit was brought to compel the receivers to restore the wages to the fixed schedule in effect in 1894 when Judge Caldwell ordered no cut in wages to be made except upon order of the court. The plaintiffs specify where the order was violated, and further charge that the officials of the company discriminate against old and faithful employees of the order in favor of young and inexperienced men who are not.

WINDY CITY WILL BE PRINCIPAL DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS.—WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Sen. Jones late this afternoon made the following statement: "The headquarters of the Democratic national committee will be established at Chicago, with a branch at Washington. Part of the campaign committee has been appointed. Among others are D. G. Campau, of Michigan and Thomas Gahan, of Illinois. The executive committee will be appointed later. Senator Gorman has declined a position on the campaign committee, because of the selection of Chicago. He said that he could not very well go so far from his own state. He will, as a member of the national committee, engage actively in the campaign in his own and neighboring states."

WESTERN HORSE WINS.—Great Futurity Stakes Fall to Marcus Daly's Ogdon. NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The great futurity stakes at Coney Island Jockey club is over, and the west added another laurel to her wreath. Marcus Daly's Ogdon, a clear outsider, took the lead from the start and at no time was in great danger of losing it, although closely followed throughout the race. Ornament, the favorite, got second place at the start and made a gallant effort to get ahead of his plucky little neighbor from the west without avail, she retaining her place, however, to the finish. The events were witnessed by a large crowd. The day was perfect, and track good.

KILLED ONE MAN.—Another Injured in a Milwaukee Freight Wreck. MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.—A North-western freight train was wrecked on the lake front today. Joseph Turney was crushed to death. Thomas Holland of Willow Springs, Ill., was also injured.

BIG MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE.—SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The Farmer's Loan & Trust company of New York, has filed a suit in the United States circuit court for foreclosure of a mortgage executed in their favor in '89 by the Oregon Improvement company. The litigation arises over a mortgage of $12,000,000 issued in '80 given the Farmer's Loan & Trust company as a guarantee for the redemption of its bonds for a like amount endorsed by the company.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.—CINCINNATI, Aug. 16.—In a collision on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern at Torch Hill, three persons were killed.

MCKINLEY WASN'T THERE.

Inappropriate for the Champion of Protection to Attend Ohio Ratification Meeting.

SENATOR SHERMAN DELIVERED MASTERFUL CAMPAIGN EFFORT

Senator Foraker Speaks of the "New Question"—Democrats Had Completely Used Up the Tariff Issue—Understood Now.

BIG REPUBLICAN GATHERING.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 16.—Although shorn of one of its principal features by the decision of Major McKinley that it would be inappropriate for himself to take part, the ratification today of the Republican ticket and opening of the Ohio campaign was a stupendous affair. It was under the auspices of the state executive committee and the Ohio League of Republican clubs; and the cooperation of railroads in granting a cent-a-mile rate, resulted in an immense influx of organized clubs and adherents to the party from all over the state. The features of the day were a parade and a mass meeting, under a mammoth tent on the spacious grounds of the Kelly residence on East Broad street. Senator Sherman presided and Senator Foraker and General Stewart L. Woodford of New York were among the speakers. At tonight's meeting Lieutenant Governor Jones presided, and the speakers of the afternoon, together with R. N. Nevin, Republican nominee for congress in the Third district, were here again. Senator Sherman delivered what will undoubtedly be conceded to be one of the best speeches of the campaign.

He was frequently interrupted with applause. When Governor Husbull next introduced Senator-elect Foraker, there was deafening applause. The audience was expectant and Foraker was alive to the situation. He said that he had prepared a speech for the press in advance, in compliance with an urgent request, but he would speak as the impulse of the moment prompted him. And it was a remarkable speech. He said the immense audience at his will. Foraker said: "We have a new question this year. The Democracy started the new issue. Why is it they made a new issue? They had run completely out of an old one. They were whipped to a standstill before they started on the tariff, because unlike 1892, we now, all of us, understand the tariff question."

TAKING SOLID COMFORT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Beat Over Sunday at Irvinston. IRVINGTON, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The Bryan party spent the day quietly, attending church in the morning, and in the afternoon visiting the club of Irving and Sleepy Hollow. The party leaves for Red Hook in the morning. Asked tonight whether Altgeld would take an active part in the campaign Bryan said: "The executive or campaign committee has decided that, not the opposition press."

The present arrangements for Bryan's western trip are that he will go to Cleveland, to Lincoln, and then through Missouri and the south.

KILLED FIFTEEN PEOPLE.

Alabama Backwoods Struck by a Terrible Cyclone. SELMA, Ala., Aug. 16.—News from Augustine, fourteen miles from a telegraph station, is that a terrible and destructive cyclone swept that place Thursday, leveling everything in its path. Twelve negroes and three white people, were killed by their houses falling; ten other persons were injured. The cyclone was followed by a heavy rain. The creeks rose and swept away the crops, causing heavy losses to the planters.

KILLED A BALLOONIST.

Dies in the Presence of His Wife and Child. QUINCY, Ill., Aug. 16.—Frank Jacobs, an aeronaut, was killed today in the presence of his wife and young child. While having a balloon race the balloon burst when 300 feet from the ground. The parachute failed to open, and he was driven into the ground, breaking almost every bone in his body.

MAC WON'T STUMP.

Republican Candidate Will Let Others Talk for Him. CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 16.—McKinley and Hanna conferred today over the campaign. The latter said he was very much pleased with the progress of affairs; the situation in the west was improving daily, adding: "McKinley will not take the stump this campaign, as has been rumored."

ORDERED TO STRIKE.

One Thousand New York Painters Will Walk Out Today. NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—A general strike of the painters has been ordered to take place tomorrow, which includes sympathy strikes in other trades, in shops where contractors are paying wages less than the union scale. Nearly one thousand will strike.

Levy Made on a Hotel Dinner.

NEWARK, O., Aug. 16.—Twenty-five guests waited half an hour longer than usual for their dinner at one of Newark's hotels today. As dinner was called a constable entered the dining room and attached the meal on a judgment for a few dollars in favor of a servant girl. A friend of the boniface supplied the money and the guests were then fed.

MARQUETTE, MICH., AUG. 17.

JOHN SHERMAN delivered a powerful speech at Columbus, O., Saturday in defense of Grover Cleveland's financial policy.

The gold standard Democrats of this state will put up a state ticket and will meet in convention at Lansing for that purpose on the 26th.

It was reported some months ago that Bourke Cochran was going to remain in Great Britain and become a subject of Queen Victoria, but he is back to take a hand in the campaign as an advocate of continuance by this country of a financial policy which conduces to British interests.

A MCKINLEY AND HOBART club was organized at Manistique with a good membership one night last week.

THERE were none of the "prominent" Democrats of New York who made their reputations and fortunes robbing the people of that city in attendance at the Madison Square Garden meeting to hear Bryan, but there was crowd enough present to fill the place to overflowing.

THE condition of the ore market is concisely told in this paragraph relating to it, taken from the Cleveland Iron Trade Review of the 13th:

The embargo laid on ore buying by the existing situation in furnace districts could scarcely be more complete. Now and then the possibility of a break in ore prices is broached in newspaper gossip, but so far as Bessemer ores are concerned there is no expectation, even among buyers, that existing conditions will have any such outcome.

WE beg to remind the editor of The Iron Ore that the Republicans of Michigan "pleased" THE MINING JOURNAL very greatly when they nominated Hazen S. Pingree as their candidate for governor.

Two West Point cadets who were recently tried by court martial for "hazing" were found guilty and received their dismissal by an order of the secretary of war read at dress parade last Friday evening.

and probably in all other educational institutions of the country. It was as follows: The offense of maltreating and abusing new cadets by upper classmen is so mean and cowardly and so opposed to every trait that should characterize a gentleman and a true soldier that a severe sentence should not be necessary to its prevention.

I am determined in all cases of this description, when the proof is clear, to refuse relief to those cadets who in violation of a wholesome regulation of the military academy indulge in the brutal and cowardly treatment of beginners commonly called "hazing."

REDUCTION IN IRON OUTPUT. The American Manufacturer of the 14th has this concerning the drop in iron production during the past three months:

For the past three months there has been a decrease in iron production, but our blast furnace reports show that the latest drop was the largest one. At the opening of August there were 169 furnaces in blast, with a weekly capacity of 179,186 tons.

Comparing the situation today with that of a year ago we find there are thirty-four less furnaces in blast, but the weekly capacity has increased 2,981 tons. It was just at this time last year that the big increase in production began.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION CALL.

- Notice is hereby given that there will be a Democratic county convention held at the Breitung House, in the city of Negaunee, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon on Friday, Aug. 21st, 1896, for the purpose of electing twelve delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held at Bay City, Michigan, Aug. 25th, 1896, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

A LITTLE HEATHEN. BY MONTGOMERY M. FOLSON. Jack was a heathen. Oh, the little imp, how tough he was! I was a model boy.

During the night he woke me up telling me he was so hot and that he ached all over. I told him to go to sleep and not turn over and kick so much.

I grumbled a good deal, and went and told grandma that Jack was too lazy to get up. She went to see about him and she said he had a fever.

I watched him anxiously and when he took grandma aside and talked long to her I just caught the word "pneumonia."

I went into the room where the sick boy lay, and I saw that there was a change. His face was pale and his eyes sunken, and his breath came in gasps.

He had cut it most in two, when there was a crash. "Splash!" The spray flew upward in a shower and blinded my eyes, and when I opened them—Jack was gone!

PROSPEROUS BRITISH MINERS. HOTELS.

Weekly Pay Days Have Brought Thrift and Good Living to Them. Robert Watchorn, immigrant inspector at Ellis Island, New York, in conferences with the local immigrant inspector, Richard Horan, and several others interested in labor matters lately said: "I made a careful tour of the British Islands last winter, he said, in speaking of the condition of the miners of Pennsylvania, 'and I must reluctantly confess that the conditions which surround the British miners are better by almost 100 per cent. than those which surround their fellows in Pennsylvania. I found from careful inquiry that the average earnings of British miners are six shillings nine pence a day—about $1.62 of our money. Besides, the miners go to the pit at six o'clock a. m. and are always to be found at home not later than two p. m. Some study of the conditions and earnings of the Pennsylvania miners reveals that their average earnings throughout the year, including the anthracite and bituminous fields, do not exceed 90 cents a day, and they uniformly work nine and ten hours a day."

"The better conditions of the British miner he owes largely to himself. He has so strenuously insisted on having reforms that his plea has been heard in parliament. Stringent laws have been passed for his protection, and successes in one thing have led to the advocacy of other reforms. In this movement all the British unionists have worked together with rare fidelity and success. One of the most important reforms ever achieved, in my opinion, was the passage of the act requiring that every employer be paid not less often than once a week. When this was first advocated the same arguments were advanced by the employers that we have had in the Pennsylvania legislature when we attempted to get the semi-monthly compulsory pay day act. It was asserted that the frequency of pay days would multiply drunkenness and debauchery, and the families of workmen would get less of the earnings than ever with all the train of evils which the idea suggests. The facts most completely refute these dreadful predictions. Since getting their pay weekly, thrift and economy have been most noticeable among the British working classes."

Their social and moral conditions have improved, according to the testimony of competent observers, and the late report of the home secretary, Sir Michael Hicks Beach, shows that the deposits in the postal savings banks of Great Britain are more than £72,000,000, equal to £10 per capita for every male inhabitant above 21 years of age. As the amount which any one person may deposit is limited to £20, it is clear that this immense amount of money is the accretion of the working and small shop-keeping classes. Besides this, the workmen's unions have assets aggregating over £14,000,000. Much of this has been acquired by the cooperative system, which prevails in Britain extensively among the working classes, and which has been a rare success as compared with similar attempts in this country."

The better conditions of the British workmen, I think, are due to the efforts to better their condition, and to increase their earnings through and by means of the collective powers exercised by the labor unions. They have been more successful because the people are largely of the same nationality, at least have the same, or nearly the same, social and other customs, language, etc. They have also the advantage of the experience and educational effect of centuries of effort to shake abuses and to improve their condition.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

WANTED INSTRUCTION. Had Fed the Parrot, But She Was Hungry Again. We are all more or less familiar with that exasperating class of individuals who seem to feel that the simple common sense of the world is centered in themselves, and that the rest of us are in need of guidance and direction in the simplest duties of life.

Mr. B— was a young man of this class. He was always painfully profuse in details regarding anything he wished done. He had a parrot, of which he was excessively fond, and when he was about to go abroad for a few months, leaving his bird behind him, he bored and exasperated his family and friends with senseless details regarding the care of the parrot, and his last words, screamed from the deck of the steamer that bore him away, were: "Hi, Jim!"

What? shouted the brother on the pier. "Look out for my parrot!" came faintly over the water. As if this was not enough, he had no sooner reached Liverpool than he sent the following cablegram to his brother, who had assumed charge of the parrot: "Be sure and feed my parrot." On receipt of this the infuriated brother cabled back at his brother's expense: "I have fed her, but she is hungry again. What shall I do next?"—Harper's Magazine.

CLOSING PREPARATIONS.

Everything Being Got in Readiness for the Sons of St. George Celebration. The committees in charge of the celebration to be held here next Saturday under auspices of the Sons of St. George society propose to have everything in readiness for the event as early in the week as possible. A force of carpenters began work Saturday on a large arch extending across Main street opposite the Anderson block. This will be handsomely decorated with flags, bunting, evergreens, etc., and will be illuminated with one hundred or more colored incandescent electric lights. This arch alone will cost between $150 and $200. The sign writers of Ishpeming will be busy the greater part of the week preparing the many banners which will be displayed about the city. A number of mottoes, to be illuminated with gas lights, are also being prepared. These will be in place by Thursday evening. The business men have been requested to begin decorating early, as the grand lodge officers will arrive Thursday and a number of the visitors will get here Friday evening. The seats surrounding the wrestling ring are all in place. Over 2,000 persons can be accommodated on them and all will have a good view. There will be two entrances to the ring—one on Division street and the other on the alley back of The Iron Ore office. An admission fee will be charged. The committee on sports reports that Harris, the fast bicycle rider from the copper country, will be here to contest for the medals offered in the bicycle races. Some sprinters, pole vaulters and jumpers from up the line have entered for the athletic contests. It is thought that Frank James, the Hancock sprinter, will be here to go in the 100-yard dash. Harry Johnson, Ishpeming's crack runner, would like to go against James that day, as he knows he can make a better run than he did at the Soo during the firemen's tournament.

WENT OFF THE RAILS.

The New Railroad Experiences Its First Misadventure. The first mishap on the Lake Superior & Ishpeming railway occurred Saturday afternoon in the Ishpeming yards. Three of the new ore cars left the track near the telegraph station, where a "Y" and some switches are being in, and were piled in a heap. The contractor who is putting in the "Y" had dumped some sand along the track, causing the cars to leave the rails. The engine remained on the track, as it was at the opposite end of the train. All the ore thus far shipped over the new line has gone out during the night on account of the gravel trains being on the road during the day. On Friday night four full trains were sent to Marquette from the Cleveland and Lake Angeline mines. Day trains will be put on this week, as the ballasting is now nearly all finished. The old tracks in the Cleveland-Cliffs company's yards are being overhauled. New ties are being put down in places and all the tracks are being ballasted. These tracks have not been used much for the past three or four years, so that they are in poor shape. A number of the rails spread during the three days the tracks were used last week so that the repairs now being made are absolutely necessary.

Given a Guarantee.

The manager of the Ishpeming Opera House is in receipt of the following letter from M. E. Rice, manager of the Francis Jones company, which will be here this evening: DEAR SIR—You may say to your patrons that we will give them the best performance, and more laughs for the money, than any show you have had in your house this season. We not only guarantee our performance to be the best in every respect, but we will refund the money to all persons who will come to us and say that they were not pleased with the show. Return dates are asked by managers every where we play.

A Sad Death.

Howard, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Heard, who reside on Fifth street, met with a sad death Friday evening. He was playing near a pile of logs in the alley at the rear of his home, when in some way a large piece of the timber rolled down from the top of the pile and struck him in the head. The child lived but a few minutes. The accident was particularly sad as the parents of the child saw him receive the death blow. The boy was a bright little fellow and his relatives are greatly grieved over his death.

Had a Pleasant Trip.

Fred J. Eggan and August Emborg got home Saturday from Ironwood, where they attended the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Scandinavian society of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. They had a very pleasant visit and met a number of former residents of Ishpeming at different places on the Gogebic range.

The Discoverer Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callouette, Druggist, Beaver-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at E. Farnham's Drug store.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Miss Mary Cronin is visiting friends at Duluth. The employees of the Lake Superior Iron company will be paid today. Professor Hardy and wife got home Saturday from Escanaba, where they spent the week. Hon. John Jones and wife got home Saturday night from a visit to the lower peninsula. A number of families took advantage of the fine weather yesterday and spent a few hours in the woods. A merry-go-round will be set up today on the vacant lot immediately west of the Ishpeming steam laundry. Cashier Chipman of the Lake Superior Iron company spent Sunday at Marquette, the guest of his friend Dr. Boyce. John Northmore came up from Chicago Friday evening and spent the night with Ishpeming friends, returning home Saturday. F. C. Haefler, the photographer, who was in business here a few years ago, has sold out his place at Milwaukee and is now in business at Manitowish. "In Old Madrid" is a guaranteed attraction. Lovers of good, clean comedy, nice music and good acting should not miss it tonight at the opera house. Mesdames Gmeminer and Zech and Julius Yeager of Toledo, O., are in the city visiting Jacob Locher and family. They will remain here two or three weeks. Will Schaeffer, who has been working at Munising for some time past, spent Sunday with his folks here. He will return to the new town today. He is doing carpenter work there. Members of the local branch of the Mine Workers' union attended the funeral of the late John Meanno and John Kumpo Saturday afternoon. The Lake Superior band led the procession. Miss Larue Outwaite entertained a number of her young friends at the Nelson House Friday evening. The party was given in honor of Miss Fay Nelson of Ironwood, who is visiting Miss Outwaite. The Oregon Indian Medicine company, which has been at Negaunee the past two weeks, will pitch its tent on the Cleveland-Cliffs company's land on North Third street tomorrow. It will remain there two weeks. H. F. Hildenbrand, who has been head clerk at the Hotel Marquette for some time past, is in the city. He has given up his job at Marquette and expects to leave this evening for his home in Chicago. He does not expect to return to this section. A number of Ishpeming people took advantage of the low rate of fare to Michigan Saturday and spent the day there. They went up on the morning train and returned at 6 o'clock in the evening. A trip on the lake was one of the most pleasant features of the excursion. A number of Ishpeming people took in the excursion to Munising and Pictured Rocks Saturday. Three women and two men who arrived at the depot a minute or two after the train pulled out were greatly disappointed. They had their tickets bought and counted on having a pleasant trip. Warden J. R. Van Evera of the Marquette branch prison and J. E. Belbrough of Dubuque, Ia., spent Saturday in Ishpeming. Mr. Belbrough is a prominent business man of Dubuque and he is out on a vacation. This was his first visit to Ishpeming, so he was very much interested in the mines, and took great delight in looking over the workings on surface.

"OWNEY" ON HIS TRAVELS. The Famous Albany Post Office Dog and His Voyage to China. On August 19, 1895, Owney was photographed, walked up the gang plank of the good ship Victoria of the N. P. S. S. company, and was welcomed by Capt. Pantou, whose guest he was to be. Owney had his credentials in a traveling bag, and he carried also his blanket, brush and comb, his medal harness for full dress, and letters of introduction to the postal authorities of the world. As the steamer backed out from the dock, hundreds of people waved their hands, and wished Owney a safe and prosperous voyage; and so the trip began. Owney was soon the pet of the crew, and after an uneventful voyage he arrived at Yokohama on October 3. Here his baggage was examined, with no little curiosity, by the officials, as no dog had before entered Japan who owned so many decorations that he was obliged to carry them in a bag. It was concluded that Owney must be either a dog of very high rank, or the property of a distinguished person; and an account of him was promptly forwarded for the information of his imperial majesty, the mikado. A few days later an official waited upon Owney, and presented him with a passport bearing the seal of the mikado. It was addressed to the American dog-traveler, and in very flowery language extended to him the freedom of the interior country. There were some stipulations which, in all probability, Owney would have agreed to had he made the trip. Some were as follows: "The bearer is expressly cautioned to observe in every particular the directions of the Japanese characters on the back of the passport, an English translation of which is given herewith; and he is expected and required to conduct himself in an orderly and conciliatory manner towards the Japanese authorities and people." The passport also forbade him to "attend a fire on horseback," warned him not to write "on temples, shrines, or walls," and politely requested him not to "drive too fast on narrow roads."

There was no time for side trips, and after meeting many officials, Owney sailed from Yokohama, arriving at Kobi on October 9, where he received medals and a new passport from the emperor. He was at Maji, October 19, Shanghai, October 26, and Foo Chow, October 31, where also he received more medals and was the subject of an ovation. His fame had preceded him, and at the latter port he received an invitation to visit the United States steamer Detroit, which was lying in the harbor. One day the marine at the gangway of this fine man-of-war was astonished to see a be-medaled shaggy dog come up the ladder, wagging his tail and showing all the delight that a patriotic American should at the sight in foreign lands of the stars and stripes. The marine almost laughed as Owney stepped aboard and ran up to the officer of the deck as though he had known him all his life.—Charles Frederick Holder, in St. Nicholas.

MARRIAGE OF MARSHAL NEY.

An Account of the Event from an Aunt of the Bride. Hortense contributed to the marriage of Egle with Gen. Ney. Egle hesitated some time before giving her consent to this union, solely from the fear of being the companion of a warrior who would be so often exposed. Still, his great bravery and the frank and open character which had distinguished him had inspired her with great esteem. The demand for her hand had been made, and Egle had asked her father for eight days to consider it. He had consented, and was in doubt as to the determination of his daughter when a very natural incident decided the question. A guest who was dining with M. Augie spoke of the high promise of Ney and referred to one engagement where this brave general had seven horses killed under him. "What did you say, sir?" said Egle, with vivacity. "He had 13." M. Augie asked his daughter if this exclamation was a consent. She blushed and said nothing. The same evening he asked her if he could inform Mme. Bonaparte, who had been charged with the demand by the general, of her consent; she did not object, and their marriage was soon concluded. The marriage took place at the Chateau de Grignon. Only a few were invited. Hortense, then married to Louis Bonaparte, was the only lady present outside of the family. (Of two witnesses for Egle—two particular friends of her father—alas! one... voted for the death of the brave marshal.) The band of one of the regiments of the general was placed for a week at the Chateau de Grignon; the park was illuminated; all the inhabitants of the neighboring hamlet were admitted to enjoy the fete, which continued for two days. The general adored his pretty companion, and joy gave him a radiant air; but how much we were touched when, upon the day the nuptial benediction was given in the chapel of the chateau, we saw him leading an old shepherd and his wife whom he had discovered on the farm of the chateau, and who at that time, according to Catholic usage, had to celebrate by a second marriage the 50th year of their union! He had had each completely dressed in the fashion of their province.—Mme. Campan, in Century.

Boiling River

It is sure enough. It is not as large as the Mississippi, indeed it is quite small, but a mighty interesting stream for all that. It issues from the sides of a mountain in a thousand tiny rills, more or less, and of almost as many colors. These gather themselves into pools and lakelets on the mountain's side, covering an area of about 200 acres. Overflowing their boundaries they slowly trickle down the sides of the mountain forming small cliffs, the most wonderful in the world. From a distance one can hardly believe what the eyesight reveals—white, black, orange, lemon, terra cotta, green, blue, red, pink, purple and in manifold combinations stand out before him. It is a hill of painted cliffs on the sides of the mountain that rises high above. And the odd part of it is that each of these exquisite colors represents a different temperature. Does that startle your credulity? Even so it is true. When through with this beautiful painting process, these waters again come together and then, as if full of mischief like a pack of small boys trying to play hide and seek, dive down and remain under the ground for a space of two miles and then flow out from the mouth of a conyonta as one of the clearest, most beautiful, green streams imaginable. Where these waters emerge from the mountain into the little lakes they are hot, boiling hot. During their dark underground journey they fall several hundred feet and also many degrees in heat, so that when they again see daylight they are much cooler. This then is boiling river, an underground mountain stream of hot water. But you ask, where is it? Where can I see it? It is in Yellowstone Park at Mammoth Hot Springs. It is one of the lesser, mind you the lesser—wonders of this land of wonders. Go there and see it by all means but first send to Chas. S. Fee, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railroad, St. Paul, Minn., six cents for Wonderland '96, that tells all about this renowned region. (7-24)

HIVE'S FOURTH BIRTHDAY.

Ladies of Superior Hive, L. O. T. M., Entertain Their Friends With a Picnic.

BIG EXCURSION TO MUNISING AND PICTURED ROCKS.

Trouble With Their Trains—Marquette Girls in a Wreck—Deaths and Funerals—Francis Jones in "Old Madrid."

ITS ANNIVERSARY DAY. Saturday marked the fourth annual milestone in the life of Superior Hive L. O. T. M.

To celebrate this day fittingly the ladies held a picnic on Presque Isle and gave an entertainment at Fraternity Hall in the evening.

In addition to its own members Superior Hive had invited the Busy Queen Hive, which has its hall on Washington street, and the hive at Ishpeming.

For today the Modern Woodmen and its sister branch, the Royal Neighbors, have planned a picnic at Presque Isle. They are to go out at two in the afternoon.

SALVATION ARMY EXCURSION. There was a large and merry crowd of Salvation officers and soldiers who went on an excursion to Munising and the Pictured Rocks Saturday last.

The day was perfect and there was no wind at all until the boat was just coming around the breakwater on her return trip.

After leaving here the boat steered directly for the rocks, and after affording the excursionists a good view of this wonderful work of nature, returned to Munising, arriving at the new town at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Francis Jones and his little company have a comedy that is filled to the brim with life and merriment.

The author has put into the mouths of each one of these characters merry jests enough to furnish wit for two average comedy dramas.

There are three points in the production that no one fails to note, the clever lines, the pretty stage pictures, and the music.

In "Old Madrid" everybody is after the "almighty dollar" or its Spanish equivalent.

Francis Jones is in nominal possession of the star part, but the honor belongs to Gerald Griffin, the father in the case, and no amount of effort by the young man, or suppression by the rest of the troupe, will alter the situation.

Both Went Down. The Chisholm and the Oceanica lie on the bottom of the channel at Grose Pointe.

The passengers and crews of both vessels escaped in the small boats, and the passengers of the Chisholm were rowed to Detroit arriving there about two in the morning.

saved anything but the clothes he wore.

Mortuary. The funeral of Mrs. Nicholas Henne, which was held here Saturday, was largely attended.
