WILL TOUR NEW YORK.

Bryan Will Visit the Principal Cities in the Great Empire State.

CANDIDATE AND WIFE TAKE A "QUIET DRIVE."

Superintendent of Morton's Dairy Farm Shows Them Through—Republican Speaker Welcomes Them to Rhinebeck—Bands and Bunting.

HOW THE BRYANS REST.

UPPER RED HOOK, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Presidential Candidate Bryan has decided to make a thorough canvass of New York state. He will speak in nearly every important city, starting at Albany next Tuesday and ending at Buffalo.

UPPER RED HOOK, N. Y., Aug. 19.—This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bryan started out with their host and the usual train of newspaper men for a "quiet drive." It ended, as usual, in a brass band hurrah time at Rhinebeck. After leaving Red Hook the party drove by the beautiful river residences of the Astors, Chandlers and other wealthy people until they reached the home of Governor Levi P. Morton at "Ellerslie."

The superintendent of the place had received a telephone message from Governor Morton's private secretary that Bryan was noted in the newspapers to pass "Ellerslie" and if he came to show him every attention possible. The party was conducted through the immense stock farm and dairy and the system of sterilizing milk displayed. The residence was then inspected and the party took carriages and went down to Jacob A. Ruppert's summer place. Returning a stop was made at an open air church picnic.

At Rhinebeck Hall a hundred people were in waiting when the party alighted. Hotel "Rhinebeck," presided over by a Republican, was decorated with bunting, and as the party dined the crowd grew larger. It was decided to give a welcome to the candidate, and George L. Esselstyn, a Republican, was selected to welcome Bryan in a purely social way to the village. There were cheers when the silver candidate came to the front of the balcony to speak. He was frequently interrupted with applause, his speech being practically an appeal for thoughtful consideration and free use of the ballot according to conscience. At the conclusion of the affair the party went back to the Perrines home.

NARROW GAUGERS LEAD.

Have 9 Out of 12 Delegates in Their Convention.

DECATUR, Ill., Aug. 19.—The state organization of the national party was formed here today by twenty-one who met as delegates. I. W. Wells of Chicago, provisional chairman, called the meeting to order. Wells read the call for harmony with the National party and was in favor of naming state and national tickets and opposed to fusion. The provisional chairman then named as temporary chairman Isaac Higgs of Chicago; Dan R. Sheen of Peoria nominated M. H. Kane of Danville. The vote stood twelve for Higgs and nine for Kane. This vote and the subsequent remarks were taken as an indication that the narrow gauge prohibitionists have shown up here with the old fight and that the narrow gaugers have nine of the delegates. It is feared they may make an effort to prevent nominations. Various committees were then named and the temporary organization made permanent. The convention will be in session tomorrow.

CLOSED THE BANK.

Monetary Institution in Kansas Could Not Make Collections.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19.—The Argentine bank, the pioneer institution of Argentine, Kan., was closed today by Deputy State Bank Examiner Waterman. The bank, he says, has some bad loans and could not make sufficient collections to tide it over. Liabilities are placed at $190,000, of which $122,000 is due depositors. Its assets are principally in loans and discounts, which its officers claim are secured by gilt-edged paper, but which they cannot realize on at present.

Casher Taylor says a meeting of the stockholders has been called and an effort will be made to reorganize. He is sure they will be successful and the concern would pay out in full. Waterman, however, is not so confident, and he said he was afraid the bank would never be able to pay out. The depositors are business men, laboring men and farmers. Closing the bank created much excitement. Workmen left their work in the smelter and the Santa Fe railway yards and gathered around the bank, hoping it might open.

WALL STREET IS AGITATED.

Reported Imports of Gold Excite the Brokers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Wall street was agitated today by news of actual preparations for the early importation of two millions in gold, and by the statements that this action would overshadow the inflow of the yellow metal on an extensive scale, estimates ranging from fifteen to twenty-five millions.

It became known that certain bank presidents, including J. Edward Simmons of the Fourth National, and F. D. Tappen of the Gallatin National, had been in conference regarding measures of providing for gold imports; but no definite information is obtained as to developments referred to were followed by a further sharp break in sterling exchange to a basis of 485 for demand bills, and a similar reduction in posted quotations.

It is said the engagement of the gold referred to is independent of any combination but further individual imports are expected. The growing expectation is that early imports of gold had been previously reported. The rapid break in exchange, extending 2 1/2 cents since the close of the previous week, is almost entirely due to the operations of the so called exchange syndicate. Uptown importers being unable, owing to the continued tightness of time money, to secure discounts are unable to buy exchange, and this fact accounts for the limited demand. This condition enables the exchange syndicate to depress exchange to a point that renders it practicable to import gold. Large amounts of sterling loans also have been made and in addition there are increased offerings of grain and cotton futures, chiefly the latter.

JAUNDICED DEMOCRAT CALL.

State Convention of Gold Democrats in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The sub-committee of the Democratic party reform organization met this afternoon and issued a call for a state convention to be held in Syracuse Aug. 31, to choose delegates to the convention of the National Democratic party at Indianapolis, and nominate or provide for the nomination of presidential electors, governor and other state officers, to be chosen next election.

The call then continues: "In this great crisis of our country and our party, we earnestly ask the co-operation of all Democrats in New York who reject the Chicago platform and nominee, and who believe that labor should be paid in honest dollars, and that debts, public and private, should not be repudiated, but should be scrupulously paid; of all Democrats who would defeat the attack no sacriliciously made in the name of Democracy upon industry and thrift, and would protect from that attack the savings bank depositors, the pensioners of war, beneficiaries of life insurance, and all Democrats who have been and are loyal to the principles and policy to which the Democratic party has steadfastly adhered during more than a century."

HOW NICE OF HIM.

Reed Comes in from His Country Seat to Be Serenaded.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 19.—The Lincoln club held a flag raising tonight and serenaded Thomas B. Reed, who came in from his summer residence at Grand Beach, for the purpose. Reed said in part: "I don't ask you for my part for any larger majority than usual. I always feel sufficiently honored by any majority you give me, but on the issues before the country you must speak and speak loud. We are not fighting a losing battle. There is something in genuine bimetalism but nothing in the thing now proposed for the comfort, peace and prosperity of the country. If ever a country demanded good workers it demands them now. You will give us a good rousing Maine majority." Reed was cheered loudly after he finished speaking.

FREE SILVER IN IOWA.

National Committeeman Walsh Says It Is Prospering.

DES MOINES, Aug. 19.—A conference of Democratic leaders was held in this city today to talk over the situation in Iowa and map out the work of the campaign. It was attended by Charlie Walsh, secretary of the national committee, General Weaver, Gato Sells, C. S. Ranck, of Iowa City, the entire state central committee, all the state candidates and most of the electors. Walsh after the meeting expressed himself as much gratified with the situation. The reports all show great gains for the cause of free silver. Tonight the state central committee met and turned over the books of last year, and the work of the members was portioned out.

THURSTON ACKNOWLEDGES.

Satisfied With Bryan's Denial of His Late Silly Charge.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, tonight handed to the Associated Press the following card over his signature, with the request that it be disseminated:

On July 11, the Chicago Chronicle charged W. J. Bryan with being a salaried employe of the silver bonanza interests. On July 31, at Madison, Wis., I read the editorial of the Chronicle and insisted that Bryan owed it as a duty to the American people to answer the charge. His explicit denial appears in the press of this morning. I stated in Nebraska that Bryan's denial would be accepted by me, and I would so notify the country, which I take this immediate and public manner of doing. (Signed) JOHN M. THURSTON.

ITS BUSINESS PICKED UP.

Gain of $1,947,530 in Illinois Central Receipts for '95-96.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The gross receipts from the traffic of the Illinois Central for twelve months ending June 30 were $21,004,524, an increase of $1,947,530 over the preceding fiscal year. The excess of receipts over operation expenses and taxes for the twelve months was $6,702,076, an increase of $914,512. The gross receipts from traffic in the month of July were $1,615,829, an increase of $107,173 over the same month last year. The semi-annual dividend of 3 1/2 per cent. in cash has been declared payable Sept. 1.

CHAIRMAN BUTLER EXPLAINS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The Populist and Silver party national executive committees today arranged to open their headquarters in Wormley's Hotel, adjoining those of the Democratic congressional committee and branch headquarters of the national Democratic committee. This will place all the silver headquarters under one roof and enable the respective managers to work in harmony.

The plan of organization and other details about the campaign will be made public tomorrow.

Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democrat congressional committee, speaking about the lack of funds tonight did not hesitate to say that the sources of revenue in past campaigns, principally in New York city, had not and would not respond and that the committee would have to depend on small contributions from the people.

Chairman Butler of the Populist committee was asked the following question tonight: "In view of your statement yesterday to the effect that the Populist candidates are Bryan and Watson and will be until the close of the campaign, and will be earnestly supported to the end without discrimination for or against either, what will be the position of your committee with reference to those states where Democrats and Populists fused by the latter taking the state ticket and the former all the electoral ticket?"

"We have no official information," he replied, "that this has been done in any state, but if it has been done or is contemplated the national committee will not approve it. The executive committee will see that the action of our national convention is maintained in every state, but if there should arise disaffection or disloyalty to either of our candidates in any state then we are sure there are true Populists in such state who will support the whole ticket and such alone will be recognized by our national committee."

"Does this mean that you will insist upon a straight-out Bryan and Watson ticket in every state?"

"No, but it means wherever Populists and Democrats join forces on the electoral ticket that there must be due and proper recognition of each party's candidate by a just and equitable division of electors supporting the candidates of the respective parties."

Butler was asked what effect this announcement would have upon fusion in Kansas where the Populists took the state ticket and the Democrats the electoral ticket, but he declined to go into special details.

WANTS ARGENTINE BONDS.

American Syndicate's Proposal to the South American Republic.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Reports have reached here from Buenos Ayres to the effect that an American syndicate has offered the Argentine Republic a hundred and fifty millions in silver in exchange for a hundred millions in bonds payable in gold at 4 per cent. interest with 1/2 per cent. added as a sinking fund.

The offer of the Americans is said to be part of the general plan by which Argentina is seeking to go from paper to a specie basis. The plan contemplates that each new silver dollar shall take up two paper dollars. It is said the market value of Argentine 4 per cent. gold bonds is such that the transaction would prove a profitable one for the Americans, while its incidental effect would be to dispose of a considerable supply of surplus silver in the United States.

GUEST OF THE NATION.

Cleveland Says Li Hung Chang Shall Be So Considered.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Cleveland has officially indicated that Earl Li Hung Chang will be the guest of the nation during his forthcoming visit to this country, and General Rugles, stationed at Governor's Island, has been designated to take charge of the details for the reception. Thus far it is settled only that the president's reception to Li will occur at New York and not in Washington. As a result there is some doubt whether the Chinese ambassador will visit Washington at all, as the main purpose of his coming here was to pay his respects to the president.

WHY LAWRY QUILTS.

Committeeman Wasn't in Accord With the Chicago Platform.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—Dwight W. Lawry, member of the Democratic state committee from this city, has sent Chairman Gorman his resignation. He says in part: "The Chicago platform proposes repudiation, and appeals to sectional prejudices and passions to effect a revolution, and promises immunity to violence and riot."

"TEMPORARILY DEMORALIZED."

"The conditions for business in this country are eminently all right, but the people are temporarily demoralized," observes the Chicago Journal.

But the conditions are not materially different from what they have been for several years past, and during these years there has been industrial prostration that could not be charged to the demoralizing effect on our trade and industries of the political agitation and uncertainty ordinarily attendant on a presidential election.

The trouble began early in 1892, culminated in 1893, and has since continued, with but a brief interval of reaction last year, when for a few months there was return of moderate prosperity in all lines of business, which approached the dimensions of a boom in the metal trades.

It follows, therefore, that the pronounced depression in business now prevailing cannot be wholly attributed to the demoralizing influence of the presidential campaign at present in progress. There is behind it a more potent promoting cause, and until that is removed there will be no return of steady prosperity.

What is that cause? The gold standard people say it is the apprehension of what will happen if the champions of silver coinage obtain control of the government and are thus put in a position to dictate the nation's monetary policy. But there was no such fear when the financial stringency first began to affect business early in 1892, for the silver movement was then confined to a small section of the country, nor could it be then foreseen that it would gain the strength it has since developed.

It must be something else. It is something else. It is something that worked injury to the interests of all the people long before the campaign now in progress was opened, long before the silver coinage issue obtained the prominence as a political proposition that it now holds. The people are finding out for themselves what it is, and in their own good time they find the remedy for it, no matter how much the politicians may exert themselves to bewilder and mislead them, and in spite of the power of gold and the eloquence of its paid speakers and the influence of its subsidized press.

THE "CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION."

The "campaign of education" has come to stay. It is reported from the headquarters of both the great parties that the demand for printed matter bearing on the financial problem is so great that it is impossible to meet it, though the quantity sent out is far in excess of what was distributed in any previous presidential election. The people are reading the arguments on both sides of the great question with avidity, and it may be safely assumed that the interest which they take in informing themselves upon it will be attended by much more intelligent and independent voting than was ever before done in a national election.

This is an encouraging indication. Our government rests on the virtue and intelligence of the masses, and if they are trying to ascertain for themselves how they should vote on the great questions submitted to them for final determination in the election it is because they want to act wisely and honestly.

When this becomes a government by a class, or classes, it will cease to be "a government of the people, by the people and for the people." It will then be conducted to promote the advantage of the class which is permitted to dominate, and the interests and welfare of the masses will be given scant consideration.

It is well, therefore, that the people are manifesting so deep an interest in the campaign and are so eager to inform themselves upon the great issues which it presents. The education they are now receiving will not end with the closing of the polls on election day in November next. While they continue to make the problems and processes of government a study it is certain that no question of public policy will be permanently settled until it is settled right, and whatever the result of the present contest it will not be an enduring one unless it is in accordance with the eternal principles of truth and justice.

HOW IT WORKS.

If in our commercial transactions with foreign nations the gold standard operates to the advantage of the latter, it manifestly works to our disadvantage. This ought to be plain enough for the most obtuse to understand. If in a trade between two parties one obtains an undue advantage it must be at the expense of the other party to the deal. What we need to know, then, in order to be able to judge wisely as to what our monetary policy should be, is how we are affected by the gold standard in our dealings with other commercial nations, for we are a large supplier of their wants. On this point the MINING JOURNAL begs to quote a noted English authority, Sir William Harcourt, who, in a speech delivered some time since against bimetalism in the English house of commons, said:

There has been something said about England as the creditor country, and nobody who heard it will have forgotten that remarkable speech which was made by Mr. Gladstone in this house when he last spoke upon this subject, when he held up to the scorn of mankind the proposal that the great creditor country should go, hat in hand, to beg the world to pay ten shillings in the pound. (Laughter.) This is practically the result that the bimetallic system would bring about. ("Hear! Hear!") Of course it is said we receive more for our money. The fact is, we are not paid in gold, as everybody knows, but in commodities. These are the commodities upon which our people live, and therefore we are to round the world and beg them in return for the gold we have lent them to send fewer commodities. Is it possible to conceive idiocy going further than that? (Laughter and "Hear! Hear!") We, who have lent £100,000,000, perhaps £1,000,000,000, to foreign nations, are to beg them to give us less in exchange for that money than they do at present. ("Hear! Hear!") It is hardly possible to state a case of that kind and imagine any person would adopt it. I know they say that under the bimetallic system silver will really be exactly worth as much as gold. If you believe that, will you show the sincerity of your belief by giving an option to the creditor as well as the debtor? ("Hear! Hear!")

This country has, probably, no greater orator than Bourke Cockran, and his speech in Madison Square garden, New York, Tuesday night in answer to Bryan was a superb effort. It was listened to by as great a gathering as was that which assembled to hear Bryan, for the capacity of the garden was fully taken up on both occasions, but there was a vast difference in the two audiences. The beauty and fashion and wealth of the great metropolis which turned out to hear Cockran was conspicuously absent when Bryan spoke. There was no array of the millionaire bankers and old-time leaders of the Democracy of New York on the platform when he spoke, to indicate by their presence that he was with him in the great struggle on which he has entered as the champion of silver coinage. He spoke as a common man to common people; Cockran spoke as the advocate of accumulated wealth, of the large property-holding class, to an assemblage made up largely of that class. He spoke eloquently, adroitly, and with all the simulated fervor of the advocate who is so much an actor that he can make the cause for which he pleads his own for the time being, identifying himself with it with the theatrical aptitude which every great speaker must possess to be capable of high oratorical effort. His speech was a great one, assuredly, but we doubt if it will have anything like the effect expected from it, for the very character of the gathering that heard it and the prominence given the attendance of the money kings of New York and their agents will tell against it with the common people, and their votes are the ones that carry elections in this country.

A MILWAUKEE paper mentions that "Colonel Gabe Bouch of Oshkosh" is being strongly pushed for the Democratic nomination for governor in Wisconsin, and that the Populists and silverites will probably unite on him. It would be worth several times the price of admission to hear Gabe Bouch swear when he sees that corruption of his name in print.

D. D. AITKEN, congressman from the Sixth district, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, has published a letter denying the report that he is looking for a re-nomination for congress. He says that it is well known that he is in favor of free silver and therefore does not wish to put himself in the inconsistent position of being against his party's platform. In state affairs the same reasons would not apply as in national, and he felt then free to ask of his party a nomination for a state office.—Calumet News.

There is a very palpable difference between the two offices, and the consideration that makes it improper for Mr. Aitken to stand for a re-election to congress on the St. Louis platform would not render it improper for him to have accepted the Republican nomination for governor. Mr. Pingree is known to be a silver man, but his duties as governor will not require him to do anything officially which will be in violation of his convictions on that question, whereas if he were to be elected a member of congress he might have to either vote against his honest belief or in opposition to the platform declaration of his party on the financial issue. It is very greatly to the credit of Mr. Aitken that he declines to be a candidate for congress since he cannot accept as sound the declared doctrine of his party on the money question. There are few of our public men as scrupulous as he has shown himself in the matter.

FUR AND FEATHER. The otter is the favorite animal pet among the Chinese. The titanoosaur, an extinct animal which formerly lived in the bad lands, was 65 feet in length and stood about 35 feet in height. The pratincoles in confinement in the Zoological gardens, London, are announced as once more nesting, and the female, which is now sitting two eggs, is assisted by the male, who feeds her from time to time in her task of incubation. The Hampshire (England) county council has issued an order forbidding the taking or destroying the eggs of the following birds: Common buzzards, honey buzzards, kingfishers, Montagu's harriers, nightingales, owls and woodpeckers. A hen hawk which seized upon a hen of the Grist breed of game chickens in the yard of William McDowell of Arredondo, Fla., was fought by the hen and two other hens which joined in the battle, and they kept up the fight until the hawk was killed.

THE SOUTHERN CONTINENTS. Chill has just had the first presidential election in its history without a row. In Central South America eggs, coconuts and chocolate peas as currency of the realm. A farmer in the little settlement of Hay, New South Wales, with the aid of his three sons, poisoned 16,000 rabbits in one night. Coal is dearer in South Africa than in any other part of the world. It is cheaper in China. Indian elephants cannot live in Central Africa, the home of a larger and more hardy species.

Condensed Testimony. Chas. E. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it ever since he found it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trials Bottles at E. Farnham's Drug Store.

NEW ROUTE TO EUROPE. Proposed Construction of a Waterway Through Hudson Bay. It Would Lessen the Distance from St. Paul to Liverpool 870 Miles and Be of Immense Advantage to the Shipping Interests.

The distance of the great wheat fields of the northwest from the Atlantic seaboard, and the consequent expense of putting the agricultural products of that great prairie country on the European market, has long seemed to be an unsurmountable difficulty. While navigation is open on the great lakes the cost of transportation is greatly lessened, but even with the advantage of this inland waterway the outlay of shipping a bushel of wheat to Liverpool has been, during the past few years, equal to the price paid for a bushel at points in Dakota and Manitoba, which means that for every bushel of wheat that the farmer puts on the European market he must have the value of another bushel to get it there.

The cause of this is that, whether by lake or rail, the wheat has to be carried from the west to this city, a distance in some cases of 11,000 miles. These freight rates, which are not by any means high for the distance, make the difference between profit and loss to the farmer.

This evil is to be overcome by what is called the new idea. It is not new, by any means, for it has been used by the Hudson Bay company for over 200 years; it was the route that the early settlers on the Red river of the north took when they started the Red River colony in 1812, and as it has been, and is still, to a certain extent, used to this day, it is evidently not impracticable. For four months of winter ice prevents navigation, but it freezes up later in the fall and thaws earlier in the spring than Lake Superior.

The route itself is from Port Nelson to the mouth of the Nelson river, through the Hudson straits, via Cape Farewell to the north coast of Ireland, and thence to Liverpool or Glasgow; and Port Nelson is to be connected with the wheat fields and cattle ranges by means of railway from Winnipeg, Man., which is less than 400 miles from the bay.

It may be asked: "Why was this not all thought of before?" The answer is simple. Until the year 1870 the whole of what is now the Canadian province of Manitoba and British northwest territories was controlled by the Hudson Bay company, and as their sole object was to supply the world with fur, it was distinctly to their interest to exaggerate the dangers of the waters of the bay, and in fact do anything that would retard immigration to their reserves.

But now things have changed. The Hudson Bay company's rights were purchased by the dominion government in 1870 for about $25,000,000 worth of land, and in 1880, ten years later, a charter was granted to the Nelson River company, who are now building a railway which will, in the course of a few years, bring Winnipeg within 36 hours' railway journey to the sea. By this route St. Paul and Minneapolis would be only 750 miles from the ocean. What does this mean? A saving of nearly 750 miles as compared with the distance to New York. This applies equally, of course, to points west, and even more to points north and northwest of the twin cities. Further, the distance from Port Nelson to Liverpool is 2,926 miles, while it is 3,040 from New York to the same place, showing a difference in favor of the bay route of 114 miles. So that the difference of the two routes from St. Paul to Liverpool, via New York, and via the Hudson bay, shows the latter to be shorter by nearly 870 miles.

This great northern waterway is not, however, without some drawbacks; for instance, during four months it cannot be used, but owing to the fact that the bay does not freeze until October the western farmer, with his early harvest, could get most of his grain off his hands and shipped before that time, and such of his produce as he could not get in elevators at Port Nelson until spring, when he would catch the inevitable rise in the market in Europe in May.

Grain is by no means the only commodity to be considered. Think of the cattle during the long summer shipping season. Freed from the long trans-continental railway haul, they would arrive in Europe in much better condition than nowadays.

Then there are hay, timber, logs, wool and a hundred and one things that would be a profit to the westerner with cheap freight to Europe, which are now a glut on the market. Even horses might be raised at a profit.—N. Y. Telegram.

Safe Advice. "Apropos of lightning rods," said the oldest man of the company, "I remember along in the sixties when the lightning-rod fever raged that a good woman in our town built a nice house, but refused to have a lightning rod put on because she thought she should trust in Providence. She was very much afraid of the electric fluid, and her life was pestered by rod agents, but she held out against them until the second year, which was unusually stormy, and then she laid the whole matter before her minister. He was a little weazened up man with a squeaky voice and he heard her story of fear of the danger on one side and her belief that she should trust Providence on the other and gave a careful estimate of both. Then he gave her a very polite bit of advice. He told her to go home and have a lightning rod put on her house and then trust in Providence. This she immediately acted upon and the good woman never knew that the rod agent had forestalled her and offered a liberal commission to the pastor for his assistance in settling her mind."—Detroit Free Press.

ENTERTAINED THE CHILDREN.

Bachelors of the Onigaming Club Give Their Little Friends a Day of Pleasure. About 500 people attended the "children's day" party given by the bachelors at the club house of the Onigaming Yacht club Tuesday afternoon and evening. Arriving at the grounds the children were lined up and each was presented with a box of candy and peanuts. At 5 o'clock the tables were set for a sumptuous repast. In the evening the club house was illuminated with Japanese lanterns, as were also the grounds and Hennes' pleasure barge Pilgrim, which lay at the dock. The entire fleet of the club was anchored in the harbor and beautifully decorated with their colors flying, the whole presenting a most beautiful and attractive spectacle. The Houghton band rendered music for dancing on the barge Pilgrim while an orchestra performed like service in the club house. A pleasing feature of the evening was the whistling and vocal solos of L. W. Hoffman, a traveling salesman from Green Bay. His efforts delighted the children, by whom they were thoroughly enjoyed. The evening's entertainment concluded with a grand display of fireworks, after which the party returned on the barge Pilgrim. All were pleased with their day's outing and all were loud in the praises of the bachelors' members of the Onigaming Yacht club.

AN IMPERTINENT THIEF.

Arrested for Offensive Conduct, He Is Found to Have Stolen Silverware in His Pockets. Tuesday evening a strange man dropped into Gutch's saloon at Hancock, where he tried to help himself behind the bar. After being ordered out he went to the Northwestern Hotel, where he made himself offensive to the guests. The proprietor notified Marshal Malherbe, who advised the fellow to leave town. He replied that he was a good, law-abiding citizen and could not be arrested or compelled to leave without cause. Later the marshal arrested him at the request of a lady who alleged that he used improper language while she was passing him. After he was taken to the lock-up he was searched by the officer, and to his surprise he found the fellow's pockets filled with silverware. The spoons were marked "R" and it took but a short time to learn that they had been stolen from the residence of Edward Ryan. The prisoner was taken before Justice Finn yesterday morning. He pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny and was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail, in default of paying a fine of $20. He gave his name and address as John P. Smith, Columbus, O.

Going to Ishpeming. The Sons of St. George annual reunion at Ishpeming will be largely attended by copper country people. Joseph Hoskins and Isaac Burgan left for there yesterday as representatives of Lincoln lodge No. 3 of Lake Linden. The Calumet and Houghton lodges will probably leave Saturday. P. H. Harris and Henry Jacques of Lake Linden will enter the road and mile bicycle races, and Tony Harris, who recently returned from Ashland, will be in the wrestling contest.

Talked on the Money Question. The address delivered by Chadbourne at the Red Jacket Opera House Tuesday evening under auspices of the Monetary club of Calumet was listened to by a crowded house. The speaker was introduced by the club's president, Mr. W. A. McDonald. Mr. Chadbourne spoke for nearly two hours on the history of currency legislation, and in advocacy of the gold standard. His address received the closest attention throughout and at its conclusion he was tendered a vote of thanks.

Probably True. The report that the Calumet & Hecla is curtailing its output is probably true. Considering the condition of copper it would seem a wise move. The situation is so uncertain that opinions regarding the future are valueless. Based on all standards heretofore, nearly all mining stocks are selling below their intrinsic value and yet the market for mining shares is extremely dull.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Globe Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Knill, 75 Selby Avenue, St. Paul, Minn. For sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

SATURDAY EXCURSIONS TO LAKE MICHIGAN.

Commencing Saturday, June 30, the D. S. S. & A. Ry. will sell excursion tickets to Lake Michigan and return at the low fares enumerated below. Tickets will be on sale for the train leaving Marquette 9:10 a. m., Negaunee 9:50 a. m., Ishpeming 10:00 a. m. Passengers will be left at the boat landing about one mile east of Michigan station, where the steamer "Lake Michigan" and "Picnic Barge" will take excursionists for a trip on the lake, giving them an opportunity of spending the day on the water and the beautiful islands of Lake Michigan, returning in time to connect at the boat landing with the train leaving Michigan 4:35 p. m., arriving at Ishpeming 5:35 p. m., Negaunee 6:05 p. m. and Marquette 6:35 p. m. The excursion rate includes the boat ride. Marquette to Lake Michigan and return, $1.00. Negaunee to Lake Michigan and return, seventy-five cents. Ishpeming to Lake Michigan and return, seventy-five cents. This arrangement will be continued during the summer season as long as the patronage will warrant the special service that it entails.

It is more than likely that the Democrats and Populists will fuse in the coming county election, and by placing thoroughly competent men in nomination they hope to secure a portion of the plums.

David Kingston's raft of lumber from Ashland, while en route to Lake Linden, for the Calumet & Hecla, was taken into Ontonagon Tuesday for shelter. The raft is expected to arrive early today. The value of the lumber is $23,000.

E. G. Riewe, general agent of the Blatz Brewing company for Houghton, Keweenaw and Baraga counties, reports an unusually nice business. Especially is this so in regard to the company's celebrated Wiener beer in bottles. Mr. Riewe says it is keeping him busy to supply the trade with this popular brand of beer.

W. H. Holman, Calumet's hustling insurance agent, has moved into his new and pleasant quarters in the Holman building. Mr. Holman has recently added to his list of companies the Cooper Insurance company, Dayton, O.; Citizens' Insurance company, St. Louis, Mo.; and the United States Casualty company, New York City.

The Young People's society of the Red Jacket Congregation church will give a moonlight excursion on Torch Lake tomorrow evening. The barge Pilgrim has been engaged and the Red Jacket band will be in attendance. A special musical program has been arranged to be given on the barge. It will consist of solos, duets, etc.

In the case of The People vs. Mike Spehar, tried Tuesday afternoon by a jury before Justice Fisher, Calumet, for using profane and immoral language in violation of the village ordinance, the jury was out but a short time when they brought in a verdict of not guilty. The prisoner was defended by W. J. McDonald while attorney Kerr appeared in behalf of the people.

Joe Hamel and his teamster, of Hancock, were arrested Tuesday night by Marshal Malherbe for hauling powder through the streets of Hancock, in violation of city ordinance No. 42. Hamel appeared before Justice Finn yesterday morning, when the case was adjourned for a week. In the meantime Mr. Hamel will attempt to make some arrangement with the council so that he will be permitted to haul the powder. It is not likely this permission will be granted him.

Twenty-four years ago electricity as a mechanical power was unknown. Now $900,000,000 is invested in various kinds of electrical machinery.

The bicycle fever is responsible for the great increase in the price of raw rubber. It is estimated that 1,500,000 pounds more has been used during the last year than ever before; this will be doubled next year. The price is raised to 82 cents from 61 cents.

Electric heat, it is said, has been applied with success to the thawing out of frozen water pipes in England, a doubled wire being run into the pipe until it meets the obstruction, and then the current is turned on, and as the current passes it becomes hot and melts the ice.

One of the numerous rainmakers has a scheme to dispel the London fog and several capitalists are said to be willing to advance the money. His plan is to establish stations outside of London and as the fog rolls in from the sea bombard it, changing it to rain.

At the present time there are owned and controlled by the railroads and private car companies of America nearly 1,250,000 freight cars, or, in other words, enough cars to make two continuous trains reaching from Boston to San Francisco, with an engine for every 45 cars.

THE ORDER OF "MULES."

Peculiar Anti-Crime Organization of Kentucky and West Virginia.

It Has Become a Terror to Murderers and Cattle Thieves and Evil-Doers of Every Description—Its Origin and Conduct.

Unquestionably the most unique order in the United States is the "Mules," a secret organization of farmers in this county and the several adjoining counties of this state and West Virginia. Organized just after the close of the war, and on somewhat the same plan as the regulators of the far west, or perhaps more after the fashion of the rangers of the Texas plains, the order has constantly grown in favor until now the membership is estimated to reach well on toward 3,000.

Following the close of the war there was for a number of years in the immediate neighborhood an alarming run of lawlessness. The principal occupation of a great majority of the back county communities appeared to be horse stealing and general thievery. Something had to be done to stop it, as the authorities were wholly unable to cope with the offenders. In this extremity the resourceful mind of one of the best known physicians in the county evolved the idea of an organization for the mutual protection of the farmers. The result was soon felt in the presence of the Mutual Protective society, of which only the most responsible farmers and citizens, regardless of occupation, were eligible to membership.

The first proclamation of the new order was a candid statement of its purposes and conditions, and a warning tersely worded for the benefit of all transgressors of the laws of the county and state. A promise of the early breaking up of the several bands of horse thieves then operating in this and the Big Sandy country was also made. This latter provision was the source of considerable sarcasm on the part of the gangs named, who resorted to the white cap manner of placarding their answers of defiance. When the first raid was made on the farmers' stock it was of a more general character than had ever before been attempted, presumably to show the small esteem in which the officers, and the lodge as well, were held.

The members of the order turned out en masse and speedily ran down several of the gang and so closely chased the leaders that they were compelled to flee to the mountains. Convictions soon followed, and the order became recognized as an important factor in the county government. Similar experiences followed, and the membership of the order increased at a rapid rate. New lodges spring up in adjoining counties, and each community had a branch, with its organization and a code of signals sufficient to enable the warning of the entire membership to the field in the shortest possible order. Whenever a case of horse stealing was reported the order would turn out 300 or 500 strong and scour the whole region until the animals were recovered or the thief captured.

Other and similar offenses were given attention equally substantial. Under these conditions the gangs soon became scattered, their work most hazardous and the morals in general of the county as good as could be asked. Throughout the past 20 years the unceasing watchfulness and energy of the order have maintained the same effect in the mountainous country. Only recently the "Mules" turned out nearly 800 strong in Lawrence county to investigate the supposed murder of an Arab peddler from Cincinnati. They soon resolved the case into one of pure spite-work, in which the victim was an innocent sheep, and the object the desire to cast a suspicion upon one of the natives as would cause him to leave the country. A warning was left publicly posted for the benefit of the conspirators. Down in Greenup they are still working on the mysterious case of the murder of one of their members whose body was found nearly two years ago in a creek with a rope around his neck and unmistakable evidence of violence. They will never leave the trail until something tangible is developed. Here in this county but a few months ago the order sent a representative almost to the Atlantic coast to bring back a man wanted for breaking the law. The man was produced for trial at the time originally appointed. Over in Wayne county, W. Va., two convictions were made at a recent term of court as a result of the order's work.

While the work of the order has been most acceptable, and most of the members are sincere in their intentions at their joining, it has also been made the tool of politics to some extent. Numerous men have become members simply to wield a little political influence over the order, to their personal benefit, or in the interest of their friends. Still, it is steadily growing, and surprisingly so in the towns along the river, where their hold formerly was very insignificant. The peculiar designation, "Mules," comes through the adoption some years ago of the outline of an attenuated mule as the emblem of the order.

Once a year the "Mules" hold a meeting of their grand lodge, and this will be held this year at Greenup, early in the coming month. Last year the meeting was held at Lockwoods, in Lawrence county, and it was estimated that 10,000 people were present during the two days' session. The order is yearly adopting more revised rules, and it will probably eventually emerge into a full-fledged secret society of the old-fashioned order. Though they still turn out en masse and ride over the county in the fashion generally accredited the moonshiners of the south, they are unalterably opposed to violence in any fashion and strictly adhere to the enforcement of the law along the ordinary lines.—Ashland (Ky.) Cor. Louisville Courier-Journal.

SECTION OF LEGAL EDUCATION.

SARATOGA, Aug. 19.—The American Bar association met this afternoon as a section for legal education. The chairman of the section, Chancellor E. McLain, of the state university of Iowa delivered a lengthy address on "The Law Curriculum, subjects to be included and the order of presentation."

With every prepossession in favor of college training, McLain could not close his eyes to the fact that in many students it fosters quickness rather than thoughtfulness and that the final result depended still to a greater or lesser extent on the individual capacity of the student. He contended law instruction when given as part of a college course was of little advantage, if it was not positive detriment to proper study and comprehension of law as law. He thought some old-fashioned lawyers' books remained the best text books for students on their particular subjects. The rock upon which the whole fabric of law as a harmonious structure was in danger of going to pieces was a lack of real knowledge on the part of practitioners in regard to the practical subject of pleading, evidence and practice. A paper by Professor Charles M. Campbell of the University of Colorado was read by Professor Russell of New York, as Campbell was unable to be present. Professor Blewitt Lee, of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ills., read a lengthy paper on "Teaching Practice in Law Schools." Following the reading of papers a discussion ensued of the subjects presented. In the evening all proceeded to the residence of Judge George S. Batchelor where a reception was given in honor of Lord Russell.

WINDOW GLASS POOL.

Monopolistic Scheme Which Is Easy to See Through.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Representatives of the Pittsburgh Window Glass company and the Indis combine met today for the purpose of establishing central branches to control the output of the country. To accomplish this it will be necessary not only for Pittsburgh and the western combines to unite, but the eastern association as well as independent manufacturers must be brought into line. To this end the meeting today appointed a committee to draft a plan of procedure which would be satisfactory to all concerned. When this committee completes its work another meeting will be called. The combine, if successfully carried through, will be almost identical with the plate glass bill, nail and other pools.

NOT MR. WEYLER.

Captain General Won't Take the Field Against Maceo.

HAVANA, Aug. 19.—[Copyrighted by Associated Press.]—The general situation in Cuba is about the same as it has been for months past. Each side seems confident of tiring out the other, and little or no progress is being made by either the insurgents or government forces. The threats of Captain General Weyler to take the field in person against Antonio Maceo have turned out to be nothing more than rumors. Maceo practically holds Pinar del Rio, while Maximo Gomez appears to be doing as he pleases in the eastern part of the island.

LEIPZIG, Aug. 19.—The Neusten Nachrichten publishes an article today insisting that Chancellor Hohenlohe has actually resigned. It asserts, however, the emperor made an earnest plea asking the chancellor to remain in office until after the czar's visit.

NANSEN MAY TRY AGAIN.

Will Make a Dash for the Pole in Sledges.

CHRISTIANA, Aug. 19.—The Aften Posten today announces that Nansen will not again attempt to reach the North pole in a ship built upon the lines of the Fram. Nansen, however, says he will perhaps conduct a sledging party which will attempt to make a dash from Franz Josef Land, north in the direction of the pole. In the light of his recent discoveries and observations in the Arctic circle, Nansen is of the opinion that it would not be difficult, certainly not impossible, to reach the North pole in this fashion.

Corn was dull within a 1/2c range, closing at top 1/2c higher than yesterday. The advance was due to sympathy with wheat and unfavorable weather crop bulletins from southwest. Oats were fairly active within a 1/2c range, closing at top 1/2c higher than yesterday. Firmness with other grains, buying by elevators, and crop damage reports from Iowa.

A Word of Advice. To the Populists of the Twelfth Congressional District. In consequence of frequent inquiries (some by letter) concerning the course to be followed by the Populists of the twelfth congressional district, I would say that I am unable to predict with any certainty the policy that may govern them during the present canvass; and as I lay no claim to the right of bossism I cannot dictate to my fellow Populists the lines they should follow. In the opinion of several level-headed Populists, it is imperatively necessary that we should preserve our organization in good working order, as the greater, and by far the better, portion of our platform has not been appropriated by our friends and allies, the New Democracy. At best, the Chicago platform, even with the sturdy and eloquent Bryan for its champion, if successful, can only for a time relieve the people, give them a breathing spell as it were; but the battle will never be won until the people achieve direct legislation. Then each voter will, indeed, be a sovereign.

It would seem to be the part of wisdom, for the Populists to enter the service of our new-found friends in good faith, willing to render honest service, but not as camp followers, or bummers, in the rear. We can only afford to enter as equals, in joint command of the forces, (with them, but not of them), fighting for the same cause, in the same field, but under foreign banners. If we would make ourselves respected and powerful we must preserve our organization, so that we may safely lie down with the New Democracy without repeating the modern version of the "Story of the Lion and the Lamb."

Two correspondents insist that I shall run for office. To set the matter at rest, I say, positively, I will not run for office, nor serve, if elected. Very respectfully, EDWIN D. COX, Chairman 12th Congressional District.

COLORADO HOTEL ETIQUETTE. "Gents" Are Prohibited from Doing Many Things. A gentleman of Carrollton who has lately returned from the west has brought with him a copy of some rules, he found posted in a hotel dining-room. The hotel was the "Rustlers' Rest" at Little Creek, Col. The "Rules for the Guidance of Guests" follow:

"All gents with shooting irons or other weapons must check them before entering the dining-room. Waiters are too scarce to be killed. "Gents are requested not to attract waiters' attention by throwing things at them. This is no deaf-mute asylum. "Seven kinds of pie are given with every dinner. "Tablecloths are changed every Sunday. "Our food is all of the best quality. Our milk is pure, eggs new-laid and the butter speaks for itself. "Guests tipping waiters must pay funeral expenses in case one should die from heart disease. "No more than six eggs will be given each at a sitting. Any guest found trying to work off his shells on a neighbor will be fired from the table. "Biscuits found riveted together can be opened with a chisel supplied by a waiter. The use of dynamite is strictly forbidden. "Disputes over articles of food must be settled outside. "Don't hassle the waiters, because the guests who can't throw the rope will be at a disadvantage. "Gents can take off their coats if they want, but must keep on their vests."

A party of popular ladies drove to the forest one day last week to dine under the balmy shade. One of the ladies had a pan of beautiful biscuits, which were being spread with factory butter, when one of the ladies discovered that the butter was spoiling the biscuit. The ladies looked at each other in amazement for a moment, when suddenly one of the other ladies, hearing the conversation, came to their rescue with a cup of Vandenberg's fresh creamery, which was pronounced by all as being far superior to all other. The result is that Mr. Vandenberg has an order from every lady in the party for Friday delivery. All persons who bring a standing order should lose no time in doing so, or they will be too late. THE RECORD OF THE PAST IS THE BEST GUARANTEE FOR THE FUTURE.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES. 120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

DURING the past Thirty-six years the EQUITABLE SOCIETY has accumulated, in the transaction of its business, Total Assets of over $201,000,000.

out of which it now holds, for the benefit of its Policy-holders, Total Surplus Funds, or Profits, amounting to over $40,000,000, which exceeds the sum of the Surplus Funds which have been accumulated, and are now held, by any other Life Assurance Company by over $13,000,000.

DURING the past Ten years the EQUITABLE SOCIETY has made Total Surplus earnings of over $46,000,000, which have been larger than those of any other company, and has, after paying dividends to Policy-holders, accumulated during the same period a Total Surplus for its Policy-holders amounting to over $27,000,000, which exceeds the Surplus accumulated by any other Life Assurance Company in the same time by over $6,000,000.

IT would be wise for a person intending to assure his life to study the record of the Assurance Company proposed to him, and learn the facts upon which the promises of future Dividends and Profits are based. In other words, let him ascertain for himself the results that have been secured by the Company suggested, in the accumulation of surplus during its history as well as its average profits in recent years.

IN entering into a contract which may not terminate for thirty or forty years, it will repay the assurer to give the subject the careful investigation that would be devoted by him to any other affair of like magnitude and importance. Due inquiry having been made, let the best Company in which to assure be selected—one whose past record and present financial condition justify the belief that in the future it will afford both the greatest security and the largest profit of any.

THE business of the Society is conducted on the purely mutual plan; all surplus belongs to the Policy-holders. PERSONS considering the assurance of their lives will find it to their advantage to send for a Prospectus, which contains a full description of the various kinds of policies issued by the Society.

MINING INSTITUTE MEETING.

The Opening Session Tuesday Evening was Deeply Interesting

Instructive Papers on Mining Methods Read and Discussed.

The business session of the Lake Superior Mining Institute, held Tuesday evening at the Ishpeming Opera House, was quite interesting, especially to those engaged in operating iron mines in this region. The meeting was called to order by Per Larson of the Menominee range. After reading a telegram from John Duncan of Calumet, president of the institute, advising the members of his inability to be present at the opening meeting, and expressing regret on account of account of his enforced absence, Mr. Larson briefly stated the object of the meeting.

E. F. Bradt, engineer with the Pittsburgh & Lake Angeline company, was introduced. He read a paper treating on the electrical haulage system at the Lake Angeline mine. The total cost of installing the plant was given, and with all other facts of interest were embodied in his paper.

James Jopling, engineer with the Cleveland-Cliffs company, read a similar paper, giving information concerning the electrical haulage plant at the Cleveland Lake mine. Mr. Jopling went further into detail than Mr. Bradt with reference to the cost of handling the ore in tramping it from the stopes to the skips at the bottom of the shaft. The exact cost of tramping ore at the Cleveland is less than five cents per ton. This does not include interest charge on the investment, repairs, or anything of that description. The cost per ton for tramping the ore by the electrical haulage system at the Lake Angeline during the past year was less than ten cents per ton. Included in this is the charge on account of the installation of the plant in one level of the upper mine, also numerous other expenses which were not on Mr. Jopling's list. With these expenses out there would be but little difference in tramping at both of these mines.

In comparing the cost of tramping the ore by the haulage system and by hand W. J. Olcott, of the Consolidated mines, explained that at the Tilden mine the cost of tramping ore by hand was about 7 1/2 cents per ton. This was for last month, when the men doing the work earned $1.92 per day. The discussion on the different methods employed in tramping the ore was quite spirited and exceedingly interesting. While none of the other gentlemen present presented any figures at their mines it was evident that in no case could the work be done at less cost than by the haulage system, especially when it is considered that the average haul at the Lake Angeline and Cleveland mines is over five hundred feet.

Following the discussion on the tramping system C. T. Mixer, of this city, read a very complete and interesting paper on the methods adopted by the different companies in Ishpeming and Negaunee for procuring and analyzing samples of ore. Mr. Mixer's paper contained a great deal of information which the mining men, and especially the chemists, of other ranges greatly appreciated. There was no discussion of the paper.

On motion, the chair appointed T. F. Cole and Walter Fitch a committee on auditing and Messrs. James Jopling, Olcott, Beal, Vandye and Pope a committee on nominating.

The meeting closed after the secretary had read a letter from Mr. Jopling of the Cleveland and John Birkinbine, one of the noted mining authorities of this country. The latter expressed his regret at not being able to attend the meeting and alluded to what a pleasure it would be for him to meet the mining men of the different ranges of the Lake Superior district.

A partial list of those present, (including all who registered their names with the secretary before leaving the hall), is as follows: Per Larson, W. G. Mather, E. F. Bradt, C. E. Hendricks, B. E. LaLonde, C. T. Mixer, W. H. Anderson, W. Fitch, T. F. Cole, D. T. Morgan, F. J. Baker, F. W. Nelson, Austin Farrell, J. M. Vickers, F. E. Vickers, Mark Elliott, W. H. Johnston, J. C. W. Chipman, E. V. Palmer, A. O. Jopling, August Beerling, A. E. Buzo, J. F. Armstrong, W. J. Olcott, Graham Pope, W. H. Nelson, Thomas Buzo, H. W. Fesing, James Chancy, J. H. Malloy, A. J. Yungbluth, J. H. Karkeek, Charles W. Hughes, J. H. Quinn, James Ames, Charles T. Fairbairn, Neil A. Gilechrist, James H. Rougb, L. B. Miller, A. J. Findley, J. C. Kirkpatrick, S. B. Pitkin, W. S. Bayley, B. W. Wright and George D. Swift. A number of the visitors were among those who did not register.

Mr. Mather entertained a number of his most intimate friends among the mining men present. His cottage in the Cleveland grove was beautifully illuminated with special electric lights put in for the occasion. The visitors spent yesterday looking over the mines at Champion, Republic and Negaunee. Last night they were at Marquette. After visiting the furnace at Gladstone and the ore docks at Ishpeming, where a number will remain until tomorrow.

MARSHAL WESTGREN EXPLAINS.
He Had Nothing to Do With Stopping Work on Arches.

Marshal Westgren desires THE MINING JOURNAL to state that he had nothing whatever to do with stopping the carpenters from building the arches for the Sons of St. George celebration to be held here Saturday. It appears from what Mr. Westgren says that he did not carry out the instructions of Mayor Andrews in directing the carpenters to build more arches without first consulting the mayor. While he was under instructions to do this, he had not done so, but intended to speak to the men when they came out Monday morning. On Sunday evening Mr. Westgren spoke to Captain Trebilcock about the affair, telling him what the mayor had said. It was on the strength of the conversation, the marshal says, that Mr. Trebilcock himself had the work stopped. Had the carpenters resumed work Monday morning Mr. Westgren says he would not have stopped them, but would simply have told them to see Mayor Andrews before, starting to build the arch.

Mr. Westgren feels that he has been done an injustice in crediting him with having taken such a prominent part in the affair. In giving the part he took in the case THE MINING JOURNAL only gave the facts as the reporter understood them. In explaining his position in the matter Mayor Andrews did not state that the marshal had not carried out his instructions, consequently the reporter assumed that he had done so, as nothing was said to the contrary. It was not explained, either, that Mr. Trebilcock had ordered the work stopped on the strength of what Marshal Westgren had told him.

Despite the fact that this little misunderstanding came up regarding the arches the work is now being pushed with all possible speed and those who visit the city Saturday will see some of the finest arches that have ever been erected in the upper peninsula.

REUNION BEGINS TODAY.

Immense Attendance Expected on Saturday, the Closing Day.

The eighth annual reunion of the Sons of St. George lodge of Michigan, to be held in Ishpeming today, tomorrow and Saturday, will begin this morning at 10 o'clock, when the grand lodge will convene at the Red Men's hall. The grand lodge officers and a number of the delegates arrived in the city yesterday and more will reach here on the early trains this morning in order to be present at the opening session. There will be sufficient business presented to keep the officers and delegates busy until tomorrow evening. At the conclusion of the grand lodge session the visitors will be tendered a banquet at the Nelson House. This will take place at 8 o'clock.

Major General John Walker and General Grant B. Jeffreys of the Uniformed Sir Knights of the Sons, with the former's wife, two daughters and a son, will arrive here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. They will be entertained by the local lodges while in the city. Messrs. Walker and Jeffreys will both address the members at the sessions to be held here during the next two days.

It is reported from the copper country that from 1,500 to 1,800 persons, including the lodge members, will be down from there on Saturday. About 500 from the Gogebic range are expected, and the Menominee range will also be represented by fully that number. The different towns in Marquette county will also send large delegations. Those who attend the celebration Saturday will certainly not be disappointed, as the program arranged for the day is complete in every way.

The committee in charge of the decorations have asked THE MINING JOURNAL to request all the business men of the city to begin decorating their places today. Some have already started the work, but the committee is anxious that the decorations should be in place by the evening, as a number of the visitors will arrive here tomorrow.

Baseball Sunday.

The Ishpeming baseball team has been reorganized, and arrangements for a game with the Houghton nine next Sunday afternoon at the Union Park grounds were perfected yesterday. The local nine will be made up of the following well-known players: John Goodman, catcher; Tom Lynn, pitcher; Ed Carney, first base; Charles Coveau, second base; Mike Curley, third base; Patrick Sliney, short stop; Andrew Larson, left field; Thomas, center field; and John Reed, right field. The game will be started at 3 o'clock and the admission will be twenty-five cents.

Odd Fellows Picnic.

Odd Fellows lodges of Ishpeming, Michigan and Champion will unite in a picnic at the latter place on the 29th inst. The local society will be accompanied by a brass band. Final arrangements for the outing will be made at the regular meeting of the lodge tomorrow evening.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, but this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. A curious Effect.
"Yes, gentlemen," said an old sexton in a large party, "they exhumed a body the other day. It was that of a boy who died nearly half a century ago. He died from the effects of swallowing a sovereign."

"Ah, and what did you find?"
"Well, we came to the skeleton, of course, but the most curious thing was—"

"Somebody had stolen the sovereign, I suppose," said one.
"Turned into gold ore again, perhaps?" ventured another.

"No, gentlemen," said the old man. "We found just three pounds eight shillings, principal and interest for 25 years."—Spare Moments.

Boiling River

It is sure enough. It is not as large as the Mississippi, indeed it is quite small, but a mighty interesting stream for all that. It issues from the sides of a mountain in a thousand tiny rills, more or less, and of almost as many colors. These gather themselves into pools and lakelets on the mountain's side, covering an area of about 200 acres. Overflowing their boundaries they slowly trickle down the sides of the mountain forming small cliffs, the most wonderful in the world. From a distance one can hardly believe what the eyesight reveals—white, black, orange, lemon, terra cotta, green, blue, red, pink, separate and in manifold combinations stand out before him. It is a hill of painted cliffs on the sides of the mountain that rises high above. And the odd part of it is that each of these exquisite colors represents a different temperature. Does that startle your credulity? Even so it is true.

When through with this beautiful painting process, these waters again come together and then, as if full of mischief, like a pack of small boys trying to play hide and seek, dive down and remain under the ground for a space of two miles and then flow out from the mouth of a canyon into one of the clearest, most beautiful, green streams imaginable. Where these waters emerge from the mountain into the little lakes they are hot, boiling hot. During their dark underground journey they fall several hundred feet and also many degrees in hotness, so that when they again see daylight they are much cooler. This then is Boiling river, an underground mountain stream of hot water.

But you ask, where is it? Where can I see it? It is in Yellowstone Park at Mammoth Hot Springs. It is one of the lesser, mind you the lesser—wonders of this land of wonders. Go there and see it by all means but first send to Chas. S. Fee, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railroad, St. Paul, Minn., six cents for Wonderland '96, that tells all about this renowned region. (7-24)

The Fountain of Perpetual Youth. He died searching for it. The fountain was looking for an impossibility, unnatural and chimerical. The nearest thing to the fountain of perpetual youth is a fountain of perfect health.

Health keeps people young. Sickness makes them old. Health means first of all, strength and regularity in the digestive functions. Put indigestible matter into the stomach, and it is likely to find lodgment in the bowels. It will stop their action. Poisonous refuse matter, which should have been thrown off, is retained in the body, and as it cannot go any place else, more or less of it gets into the blood.

That constipation. It is such a wonderful simple thing that people do not regard it seriously. They let it run on, let it grow worse, become chronic, and show itself all over the body in fifty ways before they consider it important. Constipation causes nine-tenths of all human ailments. Its first symptoms do not seem very serious, but even they are very disagreeable. A few of them are sour stomach, flatulence, heartburn, distress after eating, foul breath, coated tongue, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sick and bilious headaches, general lassitude and debility. When any of these symptoms show themselves, you should immediately take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, according to directions. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, made on purpose to cure constipation. They do this perfectly and quickly, and they are the only preparation in the world that will do it. There are plenty of medicines that will give relief as long as you keep on taking them, but you can't stop. They don't cure; they give merely temporary relief. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets give immediate relief and produce a permanent cure.

MINING INSTITUTE HERE.

Members Hold an Evening Session at Hotel Superior and Elect Officers.

COME TO TOWN OVER THE NEW RAILROAD.

Preparing for the Delegates—Miss Wood Leaves Town—New Bell for St. Paul's—Dies from Exposure in the Woods.

THEY COME TO MARQUETTE.

The evening of the second day's session of the Lake Superior Mining Institute was passed in Marquette. The institute is out on its fourth annual outing, and for the first time since its organization is visiting mines in this section of the peninsula.

The outing is a three day one, Thursday finishing it up. The point of disbanding is Ishpeming, but some of the members of the party left last night, and others will leave here this morning, and at points between here and Gladstone, which is the last place on the itinerary. The furnaces are the point of interest to be visited there. At Escanaba the party will be given an opportunity to inspect the No. 1 dock.

Wednesday's program was followed almost to the letter, the only deviation being that it was necessary on account of the lateness of the hour to forego the visit to the Jackson mine, Champion, Republic and Buffalo mines were visited.

The party arrived in Marquette about four in the afternoon over the new railroad, cars to transport them being secured from the Northwestern. On the way here the train was stopped on Dead River bridge, and all were given an opportunity to get out and examine the structure. On arrival they were taken to inspect the new dock, and were duly impressed and greatly pleased with what they saw. When the inspection was over the party went by street car to Hotel Superior, which was their headquarters while here, and in which they held their meeting in the evening.

Each day the number in the party has varied slightly, but yesterday there were upwards of sixty enjoying the tour. The membership of the institute, however, reaches 250.

According to the original program the night session was to have been held in the assembly room of the city hall, but after tramping around among the mines all day the members of the party were so thoroughly tired out that they decided to forego the pleasure of examining the city building, and hold their meeting in the hotel dining room which was cleared for their use after the supper hour.

As the party breaks up today, Wednesday evening's meeting was the last one to be held on the tour. In addition to the members of the institute there were a number of well known Marquette gentlemen present.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year. It resulted as follows: President, William G. Mather. Vice presidents, George H. Abel and John S. Armstrong.

Managers, Graham Polk, William Kelly and C. H. Munger. Treasurer, George D. Swift. Secretary, F. W. Denton.

The last two officers were re-elected to their positions. The principal literary feature of the evening's program was a paper on "Hoisting," by T. F. Cole, of Negaunee. This was followed by a spirited discussion.

There was an address by the incoming president, after which Peter White told some of his inimitable Lake Superior stories. William Kelly made a neat address, thanking the secretary for his hard and conscientious work during the year, and Mr. Heebner took occasion to thank the society on behalf of the guests.

At the conclusion of the meeting Hiram A. Burt interested the institute members with an exhibition of the original solar compass and other geological surveys.

The party leaves Marquette this morning at 8 o'clock on its special.

Tandem to the Rescue.

The tandem is constantly being put into use in new fields. Yesterday it figured with success as a runaway chaser.

A Negaunee party had come up to attend one of the picnics in a double rig, attached to which was a team of powerful bays. In the afternoon when they got ready to start for home the driver unbitched them and was just going to step into the buggy. Something frightened the horses and they jumped. He was thrown down, but hung on to the lines and was dragged some distance. The horses started at a furious pace toward the mill. Arthur Youngs and John Ellison, who were out with a tandem gave chase on the wheel, and caught up after an exciting run. Youngs jumped off the bicycle, caught hold of the buggy and climbed in over the hind end, and succeeded in stopping the team just as they were about to plunge in the pond.

New Bell Is Here.

The new bell for St. Paul's cathedral has arrived and is in the warehouse on Spear's dock. The bell is a large one, made by the Menely Bell company of West Troy, N. Y., and is to take the place of the one which was cracked. It has an inscription, "In Memory of Mary White Jopling, by her Father and Mother."

Frenchmen Preparing.

Marquette's popularity as a convention city will be again attested when the national convention of the French Canadian societies meets here in the first week in September.

The Marquette society has but just joined the national association, yet notwithstanding this fact Marquette was selected for the place for the next convention. Most of the societies in the association are located in the peninsula, and the Queen City is the most centrally situated and the easiest to get at of any. It is an ideal convention city and has hotel and other accommodations surpassing many cities four times its size.

Time between sessions never need pass idly for delegates or visitors, there are so many sights especially entertaining to visitors from inland points. Marquette has a magnificent harbor with five ore docks, among which is the re-largest and finest in the world. Another marine work which is the only one of its kind in the world is the cement crowned breakwater. In addition to these and a hundred other things of possibly lesser interest is beautiful Presque Isle. Townspeople go to view it again and again, and every stranger who sees it is enchanted with its loveliness.

The committee of arrangements which has been lately appointed is hard at work on it program and other things and will have everything ready for the entertainment of the delegates when they arrive. There will be a meeting of the committee tonight, at which other committees will be appointed.

Pleasing Feature.

An important feature of the Maccabee entertainment last Saturday evening, which was worthy of special comment was the reception given Mrs. E. N. Law of Baraga. Mrs. Law is a lady Maccabee of Grand River, Detroit, and was given a special invitation by Superior Mine No. 217 to attend their anniversary gathering at Fraternity Hall in the evening. Mrs. Law gave a very pleasing address, which was responded to by Sir Knight Commander John A. Clark (Superior tent), and also by Sir Knight Cosford and others, who extended a most cordial welcome to their distinguished guest, making her realize that she was among brothers and sisters who esteemed her for her true worth. The Maccabee law in regard to eligibility to membership gave her an opportunity to introduce the temperance feature in her talk.

Trunks Still in Hoop.

There has been no settlement yet between Professor Salisbury and the orchestra he lately directed. The professor still has his debts and the orchestra still has his trunks, at least John Adolf, to whom the rest signed off, has an attachment on two of them. If no compromise is effected in the meantime there will be a trial next Tuesday.

There were originally three trunks attached, but one of them which turned out to be the prima donna's personal property has been released, and she departed yesterday afternoon on the 5:30 train for Louisville. Overtures have been made between the contesting parties looking toward a compromise, and it is not likely the case will be further aired by a trial in court.

Dragged the Bay.

Who is the railroad man who is missing? This is the question that the police and the life savers would like to have answered.

Yesterday a report was spread that a man had fallen in the slip between Spear's coal dock and the No. 3 ore dock. The life savers were called out and dragged the bottom thoroughly, but could not find a trace of the corpse.

The missing man is supposed to be a railroad man, a brakeman, but so far none of the men who run on the line have been reported missing, and diligent inquiry has failed to develop the fact that any of them are missing. The report is beginning to be looked upon as a canard.

It Was Funny.

People passing on Front street the other evening had the opportunity to witness a laughable incident.

For some time the Clerks' union and a local dry goods store have been at war over the matter of 8 o'clock closing. A favorite method of the clerks to make the store close promptly has been to stand around the door in considerable numbers, to observe if anyone was in the store after the doors were closed.

This the proprietor considered obnoxious. The other evening while a group of clerks were watching the show windows intently a sash was raised on the floor above and someone doused them with a pail of water. This broke up the vigil.

Died from Exposure.

Clarence York, known to every man running on the line of the South Shore as "Yank," died in Thomaston yesterday morning. "Yank" went out in the woods three days ago and got lost, and while wandering in the forest was taken with cramps. A searching party which was sent out to look for him found him and brought him to town, but he died a short time after being brought in.

New Bell Is Here.

The new bell for St. Paul's cathedral has arrived and is in the warehouse on Spear's dock. The bell is a large one, made by the Menely Bell company of West Troy, N. Y., and is to take the place of the one which was cracked. It has an inscription, "In Memory of Mary White Jopling, by her Father and Mother."
