SHELDEN IS NOMINATED.

Choice of the Republicans of This District for Congressional Honors.

STEPHENSON IS TURNED DOWN AT IRONWOOD.

The Result Was Reached on the Fifth Ballot By Osborn Swinging His Votes to the Copper Country Candidate.

THE CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS.

IRONWOOD, Mich., Aug. 28.—[Special.]—Carlos D. Shelden of Houghton, Mich., was nominated for congress this afternoon by the Republicans of the Twelfth district to succeed Samuel M. Stephenson, after an exciting contest.

The convention was called to order at 9:55 this morning by Chairman Haviland. The report of the committee on credentials was called for and Mr. Scadden of Iron county read the report, seating the original or Stephenson delegation from Delta county. Mr. Scadden moved the adoption and his motion was seconded by J. F. Hambitzer of Houghton county. Mr. Orr of Schoolcraft supported the claim of the Delta contestants, but withdrew all claims to the seats in the interest of harmony. The report was then adopted by acclamation.

Chas. Smith of the Houghton delegation presented the report of the committee on order of business and permanent organization, which made the temporary organization permanent and the order of business as follows:

Report of the committee on credentials. Report of committee on order of business. Report of committee on resolutions. Presentation of candidates on roll call of counties.

Voting for candidates by roll call of counties. Appointment of a congressional committee.

John Q. Adams of Marquette county presented the report of the committee on resolutions, endorsing the platform of the St. Louis convention and also past Republican administrations; denouncing the Chicago Democratic platform as un-American, unpatriotic and dishonest; declaring for sound money and charging the present distress to free trade, and closing with strong pledges for McKinley. Mr. Adams moved the adoption of the resolution and was seconded by Bentley of Houghton, the resolution being adopted.

CANDIDATES' NAMES PRESENTED. H. M. Oren, when Chippewa was reached in the call of the roll by counties, took the platform amidst great cheering. He said that any man after his second term must pit his record and standing and influence against those of an aspirant for his position and that after this nomination is made all will work for a common victory. He named Chas. S. Osborn as Chippewa county's choice amidst tremendous applause, the Osborn club giving the Osborn yell, college style. Mr. Oren claimed that Osborn had made an honest campaign and was a candidate through pure grit. He closed by declaring that the district wanted a rising star in congress. The great and continued cheering showed that the audience was with Osborn.

Upon the call of Houghton county C. A. Wright of Hancock named Carl D. Shelden, as one who has dwelt here fifty years and knows all the business interests and the demands of the district and has had legislative experience. Mr. Wright declared that he was not gifted in metaphor or rhetoric but would pledge Houghton county to a loyal support of the candidate who should be named by the convention. The mention of Shelden's name was cheered.

Mackinaw county seconded the nomination of Osborn.

On the call of Marquette, John Q. Adams took the platform, amid cheers. He declared that his candidate was the peer of any man in the district, and named H. Olin Young, amid loud applause.

When Menominee county was called W. H. Phillips took the platform to present Stephenson's name and was received with great cheering. He said his candidate was well known in the councils of this district, of the state and of the nation. He had lived here forty years, coming here when "fall plines" covered the earth. He reviewed his legislative and congressional record, giving the appropriations from congressional river and harbor committees for this district, declaring that they had been spread all over the Twelfth district waterways. He had voted right on pension and other bills and Mr. Phillips extended reviewed his votes in congress. Mr. Stephenson is well known to the miners of the upper peninsula and would be elected if nominated. The convention should heed the handwriting on the wall, all want honest old Uncle Sam (Cheering).

HOW THE COUNTIES VOTED. Schoolcraft seconded Osborn, the Osborn club again making its presence manifest, the Osborn yell being repeated. Delta seconded Stephenson. Niven of Gogebic seconded Osborn. Turner of Baraga seconded Shelden. Jones of Dickinson seconded Stephenson. Luce seconded Osborn. Smith of Keweenaw seconded Shelden and Garvin of Ontonagon seconded Stephenson.

The following was the first ballot given by counties: Alger, Osborn 1; Stephenson 1; Baraga, Shelden 2; Chippewa, Osborn 5; Delta, Stephenson 6; Dickinson, Stephenson 4; Gogebic, Osborn 6; Houghton, Shelden 13; Iron, Shelden 3; Keweenaw, Shelden 3; Luce, Osborn 2; Mackinaw, Osborn 2; Marquette, Young 12; Menominee, Stephenson 7; Ontonagon, Stephenson 3; Schoolcraft, Osborn 3.

Total 71, necessary to choice 36: Osborn 19, Shelden 19, Stephenson 21, Young 12.

Second ballot—Alger, Stephenson, 2;

Baraga, Shelden 2; Chippewa, Osborn 5; Delta, Stephenson 6; Dickinson, Stephenson 4; Gogebic, Osborn 6; Houghton, Shelden 13; Iron, Shelden 3; Keweenaw, Shelden 3; Luce, Osborn 2; Mackinaw, Osborn 2; Marquette, Young 12; Menominee, Stephenson 7; Ontonagon, Stephenson 3; Schoolcraft, Osborn 3. Total: Osborn 18, Shelden 19, Stephenson 22, Young 12.

The third and fourth ballots were the same as the second.

SHELDEN WINS ON THE FIFTH.

After the fourth ballot Hambitzer of Houghton moved an adjournment to 1:30; the motion was carried. During the recess the Shelden and Osborn forces caucused and when the convention reopened for the afternoon session and the fifth ballot was ordered the result showed that Shelden was nominated. Following is the fifth ballot:

Alger, Stephenson, 2; Baraga, Shelden, 2; Chippewa, Shelden, 5; Delta, Stephenson, 6; Dickinson, Stephenson, 4; Gogebic, Shelden, 6; Houghton, Shelden, 13; Iron, Shelden, 2; Keweenaw, Shelden, 3; Luce, Shelden, 2; Mackinaw, Shelden, 2; Marquette, Young, 12; Menominee, Stephenson, 7; Ontonagon, Stephenson, 3; Schoolcraft, Shelden, 3. Total: Shelden, 37; Stephenson, 22; Young, 12.

There was great excitement and prolonged cheering, the delegates standing on their seats and cheering for ten minutes, with the great audience joining in. Adams of Marquette and Phillips of Menominee demanded recognition. Adams got the floor and moved to make Shelden's nomination unanimous. This was carried with cheers for Shelden and the Republican party. The Iron county delegates moved the chair name a committee of three to escort Shelden to the platform. Fuller of Delta amended to escort all candidates to the platform, and the amendment was carried. The chair named Phillips of Menominee, Oren of Chippewa and Hoar of Houghton.

Wright of Houghton moved that the chair name a congressional committee of five. Carried. The chair named G. A. Newett of Marquette, Chas. S. Osborn of Chippewa, W. H. Phillips of Menominee, R. M. Hoar of Houghton and Wm. Trebilcock of Gogebic.

RECEIVED WITH GREAT CHEERING.

Shelden, Osborn and Young appeared in the hall and all were received with great cheering. They had just taken the platform when Stephenson came in at the committee and took the platform, amidst cheering. Mr. Shelden was introduced to the convention, which cheered him wildly for ten minutes. He said that it was the happiest moment of his life; the honor had not been anticipated, for he had never felt sanguine; he had conducted a gentlemanly campaign and would have had no apologies or explanations to make if he had been defeated for the nomination. He hoped not to disappoint the district and thanked the delegates for the great honor conferred upon him.

Chas. S. Osborn was introduced and was received with great applause. He tendered a compliment to the ladies present and said the Republican party and the country were all right, each with the other; he pledged the loyalty of himself and his friends to the Republican cause. It was a time for principles, not men; patriotic sentiments and Republican principles, for patriotism greater than politics. He scored the Democratic party and platform and closed with some beautiful lines from Lowell. There was cheering for several minutes after he closed, the crowd yelling "What's the matter with Osborn?" and everybody howling "He's all right!"

Young challenged Shelden to roll up a great Republican majority in Houghton county when Marquette will proceed to give the convention's choice an even greater majority. He closed with thanks to his supporters.

STEPHENSON LOOKED WEARY.

Stephenson was then introduced, and looked weary. He was received with applause, everybody cheering. He said: "I feel as happy as ever, so will my wife," and thanked the friends who stood by him; those who promised to aid and did not; he also thanked (sarcastically) "I shall do all in my power to help elect Shelden, also McKinley," said the Menominee man. "In congress I done all I could for the district and hope my successor will do as well. One advantage will be my getting away from 'leg pullers.' I hope my successor won't have as many churches to build as I had." While he was speaking voices called "louder," but he said he was hoarse. There were cheers as he sat down.

A vote of thanks was moved for the chairman and secretary. Chairman Haviland made a good farewell and semi-political address, and the great convention adjourned at 3:30 p. m. sine die. The general public here views the nomination with much favor. Stephenson is wearing a Shelden badge and the nomination is regarded as the most harmonious under the circumstances that could have been made.

INSANE MOTHER'S CRIME.

Mrs. C. W. Green of Kansas City Kills Her Four Children and Self.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 28.—Neighbors who broke into the home of C. W. Green, traveling passenger agent of the Big Four railway, this morning found his three children, two boys and a girl, ranging in age from thirteen to four years, lying dead in bed. They had been shot while asleep. In another part of the house Mrs. Green lay dead on the floor. It is supposed that while temporarily insane the mother killed the children and then herself.

DEATH HELD THE REINS.

Well-Known Horseman Suddenly Expires at the Green Bay Races.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Aug. 28.—John Holmes, a well-known horseman of the western circuit, drove Pewabic under the wire a dead man at the trotting meeting today. In the 3:15 trot Holmes held Pewabic first to within 100 feet of the finish. Then his head fell forward, the lines slackened and when the horse stopped, after passing the judges' stand, Holmes was dead.

Fires Break Out Again Near the Village But Are Finally Fought Back—Town of Rockland Threatened With Destruction.

THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

ONTONAGON, Mich., Aug. 28.—A fierce wind has sprung up and the surrounding country is again in flames. Over two hundred men have been sent out to fight the fire and save the remaining houses about the village from destruction.

THE FIRE IS DRIVEN BACK.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 28.—Dispatches received from Ontonagon tonight say the fires which broke out this afternoon were fanned by high winds and threatened to destroy the temporary buildings and tents, as well as the few structures that escaped the conflagration of Tuesday, but that several hundred men finally fought them back.

The situation outside of the destitution and suffering is described as serious. In digging in the ruins of burned saloons large quantities of liquor were found and scores of men became intoxicated. Today this element ruled affairs with a high hand, putting the lives and property of other citizens in jeopardy. The hoodlum element interfered with the distribution of relief and the relief committee has determined to call on the governor for troops to do guard duty.

FIRES THREATEN ROCKLAND.

At midnight a telegram was received saying that Rockland, a village south of Ontonagon, from which the relief work at the burned town has been directed, was threatened with destruction by forest fires. A large force of men is fighting it. The remains of Mrs. Pirks were removed from the ruins last evening. It is not believed more than three or four perished in the fire.

The bank at Ontonagon opened for business this morning. The records were found in perfect order, and the bank's loss by interruption of business was more than by the fire.

FOREST FIRES ARE GENERAL.

ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 28.—Forest fires have broken out in this vicinity. Reports at various points indicate the fires are growing more serious; it is feared the havoc of two years ago will be repeated. August Linquist, section foreman at Moqua, was badly burned about the face and head and it was only by strenuous efforts that his wife and two children were gotten aboard a train. His home and everything in sight was burned. The sky tonight is lighted by fires; timber in all directions seems to be ablaze. At Benoit, on the Omaha road, the Benoit Lumber company lost its mill and entire stock of lumber. Mayor Bard sent out a large force of men tonight to check the fires that are crowding close to the city limits. The fires are now extending in the direction of West Superior.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Gold Coming Over but the Stoppage of Works Continues.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—R. G. Dun says this week: Clearing house certificates have not been issued, but instead gold is coming this way, about ten millions being already on the way. Higher lending rates bring it, notwithstanding the foreign events which disturb the London markets, and the growing confidence in the monetary future of the country helps.

The liabilities in the failures for the three weeks ending Aug. 20 were $20,032,000, against $6,519,000 last year and $8,215,000 in 1894.

The stoppage of works continues, including, among other iron concerns, the Illinois steel plant at Hammond, Ind., and the Lakeside mill works there. The disruption of the tin plate association results from the inability of many concerns to go on paying the wages demanded, and will presumably be followed by a stoppage of others. Iron works are getting a very light new business, many contracts having been deferred "until after election," and there is so little doing that quotations are almost nominal.

Speculation in products caused an advance of 1.63 cents in wheat, but by Thursday it has been lost, only to rise again and close at nearly the top. Heavy western receipts continue. Corn declined Thursday to 26.25 here and 20.37 at Chicago, which is close to the lowest ever known. Crop advices continue most favorable.

The failures in the United States for the week numbered 285, against 186 for the same week last year.

THE BANK CLEARINGS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A statement compiled by Bradstreet's shows the total bank clearings of the principal cities of the United States for the week were $748,084,748, an increase of 15.6 per cent as compared with the corresponding week of last year.

KNIGHTS LEAVE FOR HOME.

Pythian Encampment at Cleveland Is Practically at End.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 28.—The nineteenth biennial encampment of Knights of Pythias is about over. Many knights have left for their homes and the remainder will have departed by Monday, the intervening time being devoted to pleasure. The supreme lodge, which remains in session, held an executive session today. The business transacted was not made public.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE MADE.

Supt. Cameron Censured for His Course During Fire at Ontonagon.

Captain George Miller of Company F, Fifth regiment, received a telegram yesterday morning from Assistant Adjutant General Cook of Lansing, requesting that he hold his company in readiness, subject to the order of Sheriff Corbett of Ontonagon. Information from Ontonagon is to the effect that threats have been freely made there against the life of Superintendent Cameron of the Diamond Match company, who is said to have refused to allow his men to fight the fire before it reached the lumber piles and kept them at work until the fire alarm was turned in.

OUTLOOK FOR FUTURE VERY BLUE.

Tom Coughlin returned from Ontonagon with his two children Thursday night. Mr. Coughlin states that sufficient groceries and provisions had been received Thursday to care for the temporary wants of the sufferers. The C. M. & St. P. road offers free transportation to the victims of the fire to any point on its line, but as most of the residents are property holders and are in hopes of seeing the mill rebuilt they are loth to leave. The county treasurer's vault was destroyed, while the vaults of the county clerk and register of deeds are intact, thus saving the county records. Mr. Coughlin says the people are mostly in need of clothing, bedding and lumber with which to build temporary houses, as tents would be practically useless to protect women and children from the bleak winds of Lake Superior. Nothing is known as to the future of the Diamond Match company at Ontonagon, though it is generally supposed the company will rebuild a small mill. Mr. Coughlin says the outlook for Ontonagon's future is very poor, as the village township and county have a bonded indebtedness of $150,000. The heaviest individual losers were Jim Corrigan, John Hawley, James Messer, B. F. Parker, Tom Carmichael, Frank Nevells, William Hurd and Charles S. Kelton.

GENEROUS DONATIONS FOR SUFFERERS.

Including the donation of $250 by the National bank, over $1,000 were collected in Houghton for the Ontonagon fire sufferers within three hours from the time of the receipt of a telegram requesting aid.

In response to a call, a large number of Calumet's representative business men met at the school hall Thursday evening to devise means for aiding the Ontonagon sufferers. Soliciting committees were appointed to canvass the villages of Calumet and Laurium.

At Lake Linden the committees have been very successful. Village President Heidcamp reports that $300 were sent to Ontonagon Thursday, while the total collections from Lake Linden will foot up about $500.

A number of Calumet's Jewish ladies took prompt action in aiding the Ontonagon sufferers by sending a shipment of provisions to that place Thursday.

Ed Emmons of Houghton, who came from Ontonagon yesterday, says the body of Mrs. Pirk was found on the sidewalk near the Bigelow House Thursday afternoon.

SEVERE ELECTRICAL STORM.

Finnish Church at Hancock Struck and John Rupp Killed.

The most severe electrical storm ever witnessed in the copper country struck Houghton county yesterday afternoon. Lightning struck the steeple of the Finnish church at Hancock and passed through the church, killing John Rupp, a Finnish school teacher, who happened to be inside.

Progress in the Clayton Case.

Interest in the Clayton murder trial continues unabated, the court room being comfortably filled at each session. Mr. Hanchette, for the defendant, is fighting every inch of ground. Dr. J. E. Scallon's testimony Thursday afternoon was similar to that given by Dr. Wheeler, and the medical evidence so far goes to establish that the child came to its death by slow starvation. The evidence of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pfeiffer tended to show that the child had been maltreated and had not received sufficient nourishment for a child of that age for some time previous to its death. The Misses Driscoll's testimony went to show that while boarding at the Butterfield the treatment of the child by the Claytons was similar to that received while boarding at Pfeiffer's. John Strobel's testimony was to the effect that the child was confined to the house and not allowed to play with other children. The case will hardly get to the jury before Monday afternoon or Tuesday.

Does a Big Business.

The new addition to the Tamarack Co-operative company's store is about completed. As now arranged the main floor of the store will be 70 by 100 feet, divided into three departments. The east side will contain dry goods and the west side groceries, while the middle department will be reserved for clothing and boots and shoes. The business done by this company is enormous, and is increasing each succeeding year. W. J. Light, under whose able management its affairs are conducted, returned Wednesday from an extended business trip.

Have Crossed the Dark River.

Arvid Johnson of Osceola, aged nineteen years, died Wednesday. Mr. Johnson's death was to some extent attributable to the Osceola mine fire, he having been in the mine at the time and after being nearly suffocated with smoke was taken to surface. His health had been very poor since that time. Funeral services were held yesterday.

Mrs. Daniel Crowley, a pioneer resident of the Quincy mine location, died

Thursday afternoon at the age of sixty-five years. Funeral services will be held this morning from St. Patrick's church, Hancock.

Information has been received of the death Wednesday of Harold, the eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wright, at their summer residence, Manhancock cottage, near St. Clair.

Mrs. John Tikka of Swedetown, who was scalded by falling down stairs with a boiler of hot water, died Thursday morning.

Miner Injured.

John Hutzman, an Austrian miner, while working in the twenty-first level of No. 2 shaft, Tamarack mine, was struck on the head by falling rock about 3 p. m. Thursday afternoon. He was at once taken to surface and removed to the Tamarack mine hospital, where his injury, consisting of a severe scalp wound, was dressed by Dr. Rodi. Hutzman's injury, while painful, is not serious, and he will be out in a few weeks.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES.

John B. Werten of Calumet went to Chicago Thursday.

The tug Valerie has been chartered for an excursion tomorrow to Ontonagon.

"Peck's Bad Boy" played to a small audience at St. Patrick's Hall, Hancock, Thursday evening.

Redpath and Beveridge have been taken to the Bessemer jail by Sheriff Corbett of Ontonagon.

For the excursion of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to Marquette last Sunday there were 1,192 tickets sold.

Arrangements are being made towards placing two additional boilers in the boiler house of No. 2 shaft, Tamarack.

The Ishpeming baseball team will make its initial bow before a Houghton audience this afternoon at the Mining School park.

The public schools of Calumet will open Monday next. About seventy-five teachers have been engaged for the ensuing term.

Tony Harris of Lake Linden is training with M. J. Dwyer of Hancock for his wrestling match with Rowett at Ishpeming, Sept. 5.

Exports of copper from New York Monday aggregated 855 tons. The exports of copper from New York and Baltimore for the week ending Aug. 23, as per custom house returns, amounted to 2,067 gross tons. The total since Aug. 1 is 7,183 tons.

The members of St. Ignatius' church of Houghton will give their last picnic of the season at Lake Linden next Tuesday, Sept. 1. Croze's pleasure barge has been engaged and the best of music will be in attendance. Every one is invited and a jolly good time is assured.

BIGGEST OF ALL WEDDINGS.

Twenty Thousand Couples Joined in Wedding at One Time.

The largest and most remarkable wedding since the world began took place at Susa. When the great Alexander had conquered Persia, wishing to unite victors and vanquished by the strongest ties possible, he decreed a wedding festival. Now, guess how many people he ordered to be married. You could never do it. Well, Alexander himself was to marry Statira, the daughter of Darius; 100 of his chief officers were to be united to ladies from the noblest Persian and Median families, and 10,000 of his Greek soldiers were to marry 10,000 women—20,202 people married at once.

I don't see how they managed to get up a feast for so many, but they did, and for a vast multitude of guests besides. They had the most splendid arrangements. On a plain near the city a vast pavilion was erected on pillars 60 feet high. It was hung and spread with the richest tissues, while the gold and precious stones which ornamented it would have made your eyes blink. Adjoining this building were 100 gorgeous chambers for the hundred bridegrooms, while for the remaining 10,000 an outer court was inclosed and hung with costly tapestry, and tables were spread out side for the multitude. A separate seat was assigned each pair, and all were arranged in a semi-circle on either hand of the royal throne. Each bridegroom had received a golden vessel for his habitation, and when the last of these had been announced by trumpets to the multitude without, the brides entered the banquet hall and took their places. And now don't you think each bridegroom stood up separately and bowed? "With this ring I now thee wed" and so on. No, the ceremony was very simple; the king gave his hand to Statira and kissed her as his wife, and the other bridegrooms followed his example.

LI HUNG CHANG IS HERE.

The Distinguished Celestial Arrives at New York on the Steamship St. Louis.

GROVER WAS NOT THERE TO GREET HIM.

Is Officially Met by General Ruger and Welcomed to the United States—Banquet in His Honor This Evening.

THE GUEST OF THE NATION.

New York, Aug. 28.—The steamship St. Louis, from Southampton, bearing the Chinese statesman, Li Hung Chang, arrived this afternoon. The steamer was met down the bay by a fleet of American warships and given a salute. General Ruger boarded the steamer and in the name of President Cleveland welcomed the famous Chinaman to the United States.

When the St. Louis arrived at the pier the party took carriages and, preceded and followed by detachments of federal cavalry as a guard of honor, proceeded through a densely packed line of humanity to the Waldorf Hotel. Hardly had Li Hung Chang been settled in his quarters when an attaché of the Russian legation called to arrange a conference between the viceroy and the Russian minister. He was successful, and it is believed the conference will be held tomorrow.

Later, a party of Chinese merchants called and were received. Tonight Hon. Geo. F. Edmunds, who was once minister to China, called to pay his respects. Li dined this evening on food prepared by his own cooks and retired at his usual hour—9:30.

PAID A VISIT TO CANTON.

Republican League Committee Members Call on McKinley. CANTON, O., Aug. 28.—Members of the National Republican league committee from Milwaukee called on Major McKinley this afternoon. John Goodnow of Minneapolis spoke for President Woodmanzee, of the league, who could not be here. In response, Mr. McKinley said, in part: Gentlemen, you never had a worthier cause to strive for than you have this year. The financial honor of the country and the prosperity of all its people are enough to inspire every American heart to the best possible effort. I have seen somewhere the American policy of finance, and they are insisting we shall adopt the financial policy of China and Mexico.

WILL PUT UP $200,000.

Pool Behind the Moores Comes to the Relief of Their Brokers. CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Members of the pool behind the Moores are willing to contribute $200,000 to the relief fund for the brokers who executed orders for the Moores just prior to closing the local exchange. This will furnish sufficient cash to margin Diamond Match stock down to 200 and New York Biscuit down to 90.

FOUR ROUNDS SETTLED IT.

Choynski Knocks Out Joe McAuliff at San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—The Occidental Athletic club gave a series of fights tonight in its new pavilion. The place was filled with 5,000 persons. The chief event was an eight-round go-between Joe Choynski and Joe McAuliff, the first man defeated by Peter Jackson when the latter came to this country six years ago. McAuliff has been on the retired list for two years. He began training for his present contest at 26 pounds, entering the ring tonight at about 235. His antagonist, with an advantage of three inches in reach, Choynski looked the picture of health. He entered the ring at about 170 pounds.

MANY ARMENIANS KILLED.

Attack on the Ottoman Bank Disasters to the Revolutionists. CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—When the Armenians seized the Ottoman bank Wednesday last, Edgar Vincent and some of the other directors escaped to the roof, and when the troops arrived later and fired at hazard at everybody appearing at the windows several clerks who were trying to escape were killed. While this fighting was proceeding hundreds of Musselmans armed with cudgels overran the quarter and killed or assaulted all the Armenians they met. Shops in Galata were plundered and a panic spread over the whole city. It appears that while the Ottoman bank was attacked circulars were delivered at the different embassies, signed by the Armenian revolutionary committee, declaring they intended to seize the bank and hold it for two days, during which they wanted the powers to actively intervene in the settlement of the Armenian question.

TALKED TO THE FARMERS.

Bryan Addresses Large Audiences at Several Northern New York Towns.

HIS VOICE BECOMING WEAK AND UNMANAGEABLE.

At Knowlesville Twenty-Five Thousand People Heard His Speech and at Niagara Falls He Was Tended a Big Reception. LOCKPORT, N. Y., Aug. 28.—This was the day of the farmer in William J. Bryan's campaigning tour, and it was the most interesting one since he came into the "enemy's country." Out at Knowlesville, forty miles east of Niagara Falls, he addressed at least twenty-five thousand. The occasion was a farmers' picnic and annual barbecue. He took an electric car at Buffalo at 8 o'clock for Niagara Falls, stopping only at Tonawanda for a short speech. Two hours were spent at the Falls, after which the journey to Knowlesville began. Along the route stops were made at Suspension Bridge, Lockport and Medina but Mr. Bryan did not speak long at any place. His voice is getting unmanageable. "My head is willing, but my throat is weak," he explained to the people.

After his speech at Knowlesville it seemed for a time that the candidate might be slaughtered, for men who wanted to shake hands nearly pulled him from his carriage, exhausting him so he was obliged to rest, while his wife figured alone in the reception which followed. In closing his speech here, Mr. Bryan said: I believe the gold standard has made more misery for the human race than all the wars, pestilences and famines. I shall cry out against this conspiracy as long as God gives me a voice to speak. At 7 o'clock Mr. Bryan boarded a train for Niagara Falls, where he spoke to a mammoth audience in the evening from the balcony of the Cataract House. After the speech Mr. and Mrs. Bryan received citizens in the parlors of the hotel.

KICKED AND JUMPED UPON.

Congressman Dinsmore of Arkansas Mobbed at a Political Meeting. FORT SMITH, Ark., Aug. 28.—Congressman Hugh A. Dinsmore, of the Fifth Arkansas district, and ex-United States minister to Corea, was mobbed at a political meeting at Englatine, Van Buren county, Wednesday and sustained injuries which will confine him to his bed for several days. Mr. Dinsmore had finished his speech and taken his seat, and Scanlan, a local Populist candidate, was addressing the crowd. In the course of his speech he called Dinsmore a liar, whereupon the congressman struck Scanlan's face. Immediately four of Scanlan's friends attacked Dinsmore and knocked him to the ground. While down he was kicked and jumped upon with heavy boots.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Wheat was fairly active within a 1/4c range, closing 1/4c higher from the top. The advance was due to higher cables. The better tone in New York stocks and the continued importation of gold. Corn was firm, within a 1/4c range, closing at the top and 1/4c higher than yesterday. The advance was in sympathy with wheat. Oats were stronger, within a 1/4c range, closing at the top and 1/4c higher than yesterday. There was also a better tone with other grains.

STEEL MEN FORM A POOL.

Open Hearth Manufacturers Raise Prices $2 Per Ton at Pittsburgh. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—The Post tomorrow will say: The meeting of the billet pool at Cresson today was largely attended by the principal manufacturers of the country and was very harmonious, the business being completed within half an hour. As a result of the meeting manufacturers of open hearth steel formed a pool within the billet pool, to be conducted in the same manner as the Bessemer pool. A price, $22.25, delivered at Pittsburgh, was established, which is $3 per ton higher than the Bessemer price. The firms manufacturing open hearth steel are among the largest in the country, and they are obliged to take this action in order to preserve the Bessemer association.

FAVOR THE BADGER MAN.

Kansas Gold Democrats Advocate the Nomination of Gen. Bragg. TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 28.—Eugene Hagan, state chairman of the gold standard Democrats, says that so far as he has inquired, the Kansas delegation to the Indianapolis convention is disposed to advocate the nomination of General Bragg of Wisconsin for president and Buckner of Kentucky for vice president. He does not think Broadhead of Missouri, who has been endorsed by the Missouri gold standard Democrats, would accept.

SENDS CHALLENGE TO HARRISON.

Senator Tillman Wants to Meet the ex-President in Joint Debate. WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Senator Tillman has telegraphed a challenge to ex-President Harrison to meet him in joint debate before a northern audience, preferably at Indianapolis.

At Lincoln and Atlanta.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—As a result of the determination among the Populist leaders to notify Bryan and Watson of their nomination by the Populists a formal letter of notification is now being prepared. The notifications will probably occur at Lincoln and Atlanta, but the details are subject to the wishes of the members of the committee on notification. Sioux City Bank Goes Under. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 28.—The Sioux National bank did not open its doors this morning. The suspension was owing to heavy withdrawals. The resources and liabilities are given as $953,300. The bank's capital stock is $300,000. The failure created no excitement and there were no runs on other banks. Forecast of the Weather. WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—10 p. m.—The weather bureau reports the following as its forecast for the next twenty-four hours: For upper Michigan: Partly cloudy; probably local showers; warmer; fresh to brisk southwesterly winds.

SAVED FROM CHOLERA INFANTUM.

the vital importance of keeping baby abundantly nourished in hot weather, force the child to take more food than can assimilate, or food that is ill adapted to hot weather feeding. High temperature, with such improper feeding, brings cholera infantum, diarrhea and convulsions. Mothers who feed their children on lactated food will have the comforting feeling of having done every thing possible for insuring baby's health, growth and lasting happiness. Lactated food is the happy achievement of a long desired substitute for mother's milk. It is known to invariably make firm flesh, a clear skin, bright eyes, and to strengthen the child's body so that diarrhea, cholera infantum and exhausting summer sickness do not gain a footing. Lactated food babies are rosy specimens of genuine fun-loving, noisy children, that develop strong physiques, with large bones and muscles. The only assured safety for pale, weak, sickly babies in summer is for mothers to stick close to a diet of pure lactated food. The danger of overloading the tiny stomach, and the consequent diarrhea—nature's way of dealing with indigestion—is thus avoided. Lactated food is the one perfect substitute for healthy mother's milk. Specialists in children's disorders prescribe it, intelligent parents everywhere recommend it, and babies living on it show how perfectly it is adapted to infant summer feeding, by their healthy condition, their plump, happy faces and their bright eyes. Mrs. H. A. Vreeland, of Windsor, Conn., has the same reason to bless lactated food that thousands of other mothers have. She writes to the proprietors of lactated food: "I send you herewith picture of my baby, Vira Roberta Vreeland, who has been raised on your lactated food. It was recommended by the doctor and druggists, and it saved her life. She was very sick with cholera infantum, and this was the only nourishment she took. When eight months old she weighed 30 1/2 pounds. I can gladly recommend lactated food to any mother."

Inmate of Beveridge's Notorious Marquette Ranch Tells Hard Things About Him.

MAG FLAHERTY KNEW TOO MUCH TO SUIT.

Supposed to Have Killed Several Men. Championship Baseball Game Set for Sunday-United States Court Site Tuesday.

BAD FOR THE PRISONERS.

The net of evidence seems to be tightening around the two men whom it is now believed were the real slayers of Mollie Beveridge, and not John McDonald, who served for the crime in Marquette prison until saved from further confinement by executive clemency.

Late issues of the Marquette papers contain a new chapter in the infamous career of Beveridge. The events there described happened while the notorious "ranchman" was running the Bay Shore house near that city. The story is contained in a deposition obtained at Crystal Falls by Sheriff Corbett of Ontonagon from a former inmate of the house named Min Rupe, also known as Minnie Campbell. She lived at the Bay Shore house in 1891, while Beveridge was the proprietor. Maggie Flaherty, the woman who was present at the killing of Mollie Beveridge and was also shot in the melee, was an inmate of the Bay Shore house at that time.

BEVERIDGE'S BAD RECORD.

The witness states that during that time she had often heard the Flaherty woman chide Beveridge in regard to the killing of Mollie; that often when the Flaherty woman would become intoxicated and Beveridge would threaten to throw her out doors, she would confront him with the defiance, "You dare not throw me out. If I want to talk I could send you over the road for you know that you, and not John McDonald, killed Mollie." The witness also overheard private confessions between Beveridge and Redpath in which the statement was made that "Old Mag" (the Flaherty woman) must be put out of the way, because, as Beveridge put it, "She knows too much for us." The Campbell woman has also heard Beveridge say to Maggie, who was shot in the leg at the time Mollie was killed, "I'm sorry you was not shot in the head instead of the leg; then you would not be so mean."

LABOR AND MEDICINE.

A. R. U. Organizer Ames made an address in behalf of railroad labor at the Indian medicine show last evening. Ames said he was here to form a union, but that he couldn't very well organize it there and before he finished his speech invited all who might desire to join to follow some of their friends whom they knew were union men and they would all meet together in some quiet place.

MIDLAKE AND HARBOR GOSSIP.

The R. E. Schuck is at Pickands' coal dock ready to discharge a cargo of coal. The China was in last night on her way up with the usual good passenger list.

Official notice has been received at the customs office that Aug. 25 three of the spar buoys in the St. Lawrence will be changed to gas buoys. The changes are as follows: Bay State Shoal buoy No. 5; Empire Shoal buoy No. 6; Chapman Shoal buoy No. 14.

The steel schooner James Nasmyth was launched at Wheeler's yard, Bay City, Thursday afternoon. The Nasmyth is the first of the three Rockefellers built by the yard, and is perfectly equipped for building there in a short time by the steamer which is rapidly nearing completion.

A telegram from Captain Somerville of the schooner P. S. Marsh, lost of Lake Superior, says that the Marsh did not founder, but dragged ashore, and is reported a total loss. The underwriters, who have $9,000 on the boat, do not see it that way, although Captain Somerville telegraphed he is saving what he can.

Captain Daniel and George McLeod, for the underwriters, and W. C. Richardson and Robert Kerr, for the owners, have held a survey on the steamer William Chisholm. The Chisholm has been docked. The temporary patch has not all been taken off, but she is pretty badly damaged and fifty-two bottom plates will have to come off. Captain George McLeod said it will take two weeks to repair her.

The number of boats going out of service is not large considering the conditions. The tying up of the Joliet and Griffin is certain to be followed by others. Captain Mack's boats have a little contract ore, but far from enough to last throughout the season. The Cuddy-Mullen company is out of the market for wild coal tonnage, and M. A. Bradley is trying to forget that he is interested in the lake marine. The prospect of retiring a great part of the ore carrying fleet this week till business improves appears to be good. The worst of it is that nobody knows or dares to predict the date of the revival. Not a few vessel owners say they do not look for any revival this season.

CITY BREVITIES.

While a car was being run out on the elevated cable tramway connected with Pickands' new coal dock yesterday the trestle work took an unexpected sag, and new braces had to be put under.

School opens this year a week from Monday, which is the seventh of September. Miss Chandler will be in her office Thursday morning at nine to accommodate those who have examinations to take before school begins. She wants all such to come ready to work.

Collector M. C. Scully and family arrived in the Sault yesterday morning on the steamer Wade on their way to Cleveland. Mr. Scully wires here that the custom office and its contents are a total loss. Nothing was saved. Deputy Tim Healy will come to Marquette temporarily.

Jim Kandleman, a Chocolate farmer, said to have been under the influence of too much budget, let his team get away from him yesterday. It dashed down Washington street, and just in front of the city hall collided with Marshal Emmons' horse and buggy which was tied there. It tipped the buggy partially over and the horse broke loose and ran for home, and the shock of the collision threw Kandleman from his rig into the street. The farmer was not seriously hurt.

Sunday dinners at The New Clifton are fifty cents each. Dinner is called at 1 p. m. (8-29-14)

Returns Thanks for Aid. MARQUETTE, Mich., Aug. 28, 1896. To THE MINING JOURNAL.—Being denied by the fiery ordeal through which I have just passed, the use of the columns of my own paper, the Ontonagon Miner, I ask of you a space in THE MINING JOURNAL for these few lines. I have been deeply touched since my arrival in Marquette, with a part of my family, with the sincere expressions of sorrow for not only our personal loss, but that of neighbors in afflicted Ontonagon, among whom I have lived for thirty-seven years. The noble, generous and spontaneous liberality of the people of Marquette in sending forward money and supplies to relieve their present wants and suffering will be appreciated by us, and never forgotten. All honor to your noble citizens, all honor to Peter White, who not only sent his check for a liberal amount, but also sent $25 as a special contribution for the relief of Mrs. Paul, the widow of James K. Paul the original Jim Paul and founder of the town of Ontonagon. Mrs. Paul was burned out of her little cozy home and is left without shelter, food or clothing at the age of eighty years. On behalf of the people of Ontonagon I here return our sincere sympathy to the people of the other cities of the upper peninsula and adjoining states for their prompt sympathy and aid in our sore distress. On behalf of myself, my invalid wife and my family, I return my sincere thanks for the sympathy expressed by our many kind friends and from the bottom of a sorrowful heart I say, God bless you. ALFRED MEADS.

When your stomach begins to trouble you, it needs help. The help it needs, is to digest your food, and until it gets it, you won't have any peace. Stomach trouble is very distressing, very obstinate, very dangerous. Many of the most dangerous diseases begin with simple indigestion. The reason is that indigestion (not-digestion, not-nourishment) weakens the system and allows disease germs to attack it. The antidote is Shaker Digestive Cordial, strength-giving, nourishing, curative. It cures indigestion and renews strength and health. It does this by strengthening the stomach, by helping it to digest your food. It nourishes you. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made of pure and ripe, is perfectly harmless and will certainly cure all genuine stomach trouble. Sold by druggists; price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

Giving Away Under the Northwestern Tracks at Palmer. The Chicago & Northwestern Railway company is still having difficulty keeping its tracks in condition near the Volunteer mine, Cascade range, on account of the ground giving way under them.

It is now feared that all the dirt dumped into the hole will soon drop still further into the mine, as the foundation does not appear to be very solid. The tracks leading to the mine are so located that they cannot be moved to either side of the opening.

PARKER ON THE UPRISING.

Richard A. Parker, who was a mining engineer in Africa under John Hays Hammond at the time of the famous Uitlander uprising last winter in the Transvaal, gave a recital of his experiences during that exciting period in Morgan Memorial chapel last night for the benefit of the Ontonagon fire sufferers.

Mr. Parker passed lightly over the trip to the gold fields, on which journey he said information was quite general. The voyage from London is broken by but one stop, the Madeira Islands. From thence the steamer proceeds direct to the cape.

The first sight of Cape Town, he says, is intensely interesting and beautiful, and on nearer acquaintance a thing of especial delight are its fine roads. He thinks it a shame that the council of Marquette should throw away the amount of money it does and get no better roads in return. As an example of large outlay and poor results he cited Presque Isle drive. Considerable applause was elicited by his remarks, although the subject of road-making wasn't in the direct line of his discourse.

COUNTRY AND PEOPLE.

Cape Town was settled in 1800 and was used as a basis for English aggressions. The great majority of its white population is of English stock, but the people are different from the insular English. They are "Colonials," and terming themselves thus consider the title an honorable appellation.

From the cape to Johannesburg, the metropolis of the gold field, there is a narrow-gauge railway. Ordinarily but one passenger train is run each day over this line, but on steamer days there are two bound for the interior. One of these is an express train, considered there the height of luxury in railway travel, but to one used to American trains it is anything but luxury. To say the least the dining and sleeping arrangements are peculiar, and both are uncomfortable. By the express train Johannesburg is forty-eight hours away.

This city has a population of 90,000, of whom 80,000 are English or Americans. It is situated on a plain, and its buildings are chiefly of corrugated iron. The first impression, the speaker remarked, was not exactly homelike.

ABOUT THE MINES.

The Rand, as the mining district in which the city is located is called, is a small territory indeed, being twenty-five miles long and not more than half a mile wide. Shafts are practically continuous along its entire distance. The rock from which the gold is taken is a conglomerate, somewhat similar to the copper conglomerate found in the Peninsula.

To give his audience an idea of the extensiveness of mining operations in the Rand, he told of one mine that was treating 600 tons of rock a day and running thirty-two dollars of gold to the ton. The mine with which he was connected was milling 600 tons a day, and the company was building a mill that would treat fifteen hundred tons. The total production of the Rand amounts to forty-one or two million dollars annually.

CAUSE OF THE UPRISING.

The uprising, he says, was due to the many iniquitous dealings that the Transvaal government forces on the Uitlander. The subjects of the little republic are Boers, ignorant, low, thickheaded and vicious. Its leaders are of the same stock, only their evil qualities are sharpened by a foreign education. They are corrupt and avaricious, and their desire is to run affairs so as to win the approbation of their superiors in Holland. The patriotism of a Boer, Mr. Parker declared, is a thing of the past. The people in Pretoria were nothing but tools which the Boer officials used for the extraction of money by the Uitlanders.

The uprising was based upon many injustices. The city of Johannesburg had not the right to bond itself to make municipal improvements, although these were imperatively demanded by the health of the city. The Uitlanders paid the taxes and the Dutch ran the place. A concessionaire had the right to provide the city with water. Another, again a Boer, had a concession to sell dynamite to the mines. They paid just three times what it cost imported from Holland laid down in Johannesburg.

When the feeling against these injustices crystallized there was formed what was known as the national reform committee. The response of the Boer legislature to a petition gotten up by this committee and signed by practically every Uitlander in the city asking certain reforms, was, "If you want your rights come and take them." When this slap in the face was received the committee proceeded to active hostilities. According to Mr. Parker it was not the intention of the Uitlanders to overthrow the government, but to overthrow the officials, at the head of whom was President Kruger.

With this introduction Mr. Parker passed on to tell of the preparation that were made to this end, how forces were gathered at three different points, one of these the famous Jamieson raiders. When the country was thus surrounded a delegation called upon Kruger and demanded the rights they had been told to come and take. The Boer president was paralyzed. He asked for a week's armistice. He was given forty-eight hours. Messages were sent to Jamieson, who was then advancing, to turn back, that the Uitlanders would accomplish their ends, but Jamieson pushed forward, and Kruger rushed out forces, and when the two troops met Jamieson surrendered tamely.

WHY JAMIESON RAIDED.

The reason of Jamieson's advance contrary to orders is thus explained by Mr. Parker. At a meeting of the national reform committee John Hays Hammond had made a speech advocating the reforms and forcing the retirement of the officials, but insisting on the preservation of the republic. Jamieson crossed the border as he did because he thought the Uitlanders would get their rights without English aid and England lose a chance to regain political control of the country, whereas had the rights been gained by English arms England would have again become the ruler of the Transvaal, as she was before Gladstone secured its independence.

Mr. Parker's personal share in the rebellion was a story of no little interest. It was he who received and distributed the guns that were under the five cars of coke, of which there was so much said in the papers during the uprising. Immediately after the failure of the Uitlanders to secure the government of the country, with others was placed on the witness stand at Pretoria, but the Boers succeeded in drawing no information from him they desired. He was then left in peace for two months. Finally the Boers began to get a better idea of the part he had played in the uprising and he received a typewritten note one day with the information that the country was getting too hot for him, and the best thing he could do was to get out. He did not regard the advice of this note however.

But about a week later while he was dining one evening at the house of a friend, a fellow engineer drove up in hot haste and calling him out informed him that the Boers were on his trail, and that unless he caught the first train leaving in an hour, he would probably be arrested and put under heavy bail to appear as a witness. To avoid this he left just as he was for the cape to join Hammond. Arrived there the latter told him he was in as much danger as in the Transvaal, and for him to leave on the first steamer for London and there await his arrival. After reaching the English metropolis arrangements were made by which Mr. Parker was given employment with the same company in the states, which he declares is much more to his taste than being a Uitlander.

Loved His Dog.

Captain Johnson of the steamer Edwards has a dog that he thinks almost as much of as if it were a child. The Edwards and the Golden Age were in Thursday loading with ore. While the boats were at the dock the dog went ashore. Apparently he was not missed and when the cargo was on the crafts started out. They had got off about even with the breakwater when the Edwards began blowing furiously for a tug. People all along the water front thought something was the matter with the boat. As the engineer of the tug had just gone to supper there was some delay before she could put out. He hurried back to the dock, and the tug steamer out to the big carrier. Nothing was broken on the Edwards, but the dog was missing, and the captain vowed he wouldn't leave port without him. So the tug was sent back and a search instituted for the animal. After some delay he was found at the end of one of the docks looking anxiously out to sea as if he feared the boat had gone and left him behind. Doggy was taken down to the tug and carried out to his master the captain, who promptly put out in the lake as soon as he was on board.

Court Sits Tuesday.

Tuesday the United States circuit court room will ring again with the familiar cry of the bailiff as he announces that that "honorable court of the seventh district is now in session." This familiar cadence will mark the opening of the September term. Judge Severens will be on the bench, and the rest of the officials will be the same as at the last term with the exception of the clerk. Charles Fitch will probably come in place of Mr. McQueen. There is not so much to occupy the court this term as there was the adjourned May term, although the number of cases on the civil docket is greater. There are seventeen cases on the docket, which is now in press, but twelve of them are ejection proceedings brought by the Keewenaw association against homesteaders who are alleged squatters on its land. The points in these cases are identical, and the entire dozen will probably be decided with one trial.

No grand jury has been summoned for this term, and consequently there will be no indictments.

More Relief Raised.

Friday from all sources the fund being raised for the Ontonagon fire sufferers amounted to nearly $900. The greatest contribution was the result of the Parker lecture, $80. The First National bank contributed $50 and nearly as much more was raised in smaller sums by the efforts of the subscription solicitors.
