CANTON STREETS CROWDED.

Forty Carloads of Enthusiastic Pilgrims Bring Words of Cheer to the Nominee.

CAME FROM PENNSYLVANIA, INDIANA AND OHIO.

Conspicuous in the Day's Features is a Great Parade. Headed by Woman's Republican Club of Jefferson, Pa.

MANY CALLERS ON MCKINLEY.
CANTON, O., Oct. 8.—The streets have been crowded all day. Forty carloads of cheering, flag waving, uniformed and merrily musical visitors crowded about the McKinley home. Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana sent delegations. Pittsburg Italian Republicans waved Old Glory by hundreds as they marched from the depot. Indiana shortly afterward tried to outdo them, in music and cheers and fine drills by uniformed clubs. By middle of afternoon, Market street, leading to the McKinley house, was filled with marchers. Thousands going cheered those departing as they passed. Of the fine paraders, the Cleveland First Voters, who came last, kept the crowds on the sidewalks cheering as enthusiastically as did the woman marchers (from Jefferson county, Pa.), who had a continual ovation from the depot to the McKinley home.

When Mr. McKinley returned from a drive to his registering place this morning he found Lieutenant Governor Halle of Massachusetts among the callers. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster and daughter of Iowa came shortly afterwards and took lunch at the McKinley home. The Republican clubs of Jefferson county, Pa., were joined en route by detachments from Clarion, Clearfield and Armstrong counties, and by the time all were aboard fifteen coaches were filled and the train run in two sections. A conspicuous feature of the delegations was the Woman's Republican club, marching at their head. To their greeting Major McKinley responded in part:

"THE NATION'S FUTURE IS SAFE. I congratulate you upon the bright outlook for the return of that business confidence which will give this country increased industrial activity and greater prosperity. I have no sympathy with the sentiment sometimes expressed by good people of doubt about the future of the United States; nobody should be troubled about that. The United States, with its wealth and resources and skill, energy and enterprise cannot go long checked in its onward march. There are some citizens in all states who seem to be seriously concerned, but I for one, do not share in their apprehensions. The great body of the people is safe; they are steady, and they are not moved by wild impulses. The dismal forebodings of what might happen will not be realized.

"Demagogues there are in the country who attempt to inculcate doctrines of distrust and dismay among the unemployed, and in the great part the men who are inculcating those doctrines are men who advocated the policy that first created idleness in the United States. Extremists there are who talk glibly about a war of classes against the masses, heedless of the effects of the logical outcome of their false and pernicious and their degrading and dangerous doctrines. Foolish men there are who innocently disseminate every sort and variety of misinformation and thus do the bidding of the better posted, but more designing, men whose dupes they are.

"Still there need be no alarm; there need be no excitement; there need be no abuse or exaggeration, for all these false doctrines and unworthy influences will not again prevail with the free, independent and intelligent citizens of the United States. The great majority of our people are religiously devoted to law and order and public peace and public tranquility. They are in favor of respecting the right of property, the right of contract, the inviolability of public faith and the sacredness of our courts of justice. They are flocking to the standard, with an earnestness and unanimity creditable to our patriotism and a splendid testimonial to the strength and glory of our free institutions."

ADVICE TO FIRST VOTERS.
To the First Voters' club from Cleveland, which came in twelve coaches, Mr. McKinley, in response to their greeting, said:

"You have come to your majority at a time when the people are engaged in a great national contest which will settle some of the most important questions which have ever confronted us, and settle them for long years to come. You are given a ballot at the time when its use for good or evil to the country was never greater. You assume this responsibility at a period fraught with as grave problems as were ever presented to the American people except in time of war. It is of little moment, young gentlemen, that the Union was saved by the dread ordeal of war if it cannot be continued in peace, with honor.

and leaving us upon a silver basis alone. Free silver would depreciate investments; shake public confidence; destroy values; cheat labor; impair the savings of the poor and produce a commercial revolution the like of which this country has never known.

A CASE OF KLEPTOMANIA.

Prominent Americans Arrested in London on Charges of Stealing.
LONDON, Oct. 8.—The United States embassy here, upon instructions from Secretary Olney, has asked that the British home office intervene in the case of Walter Michael Castle, of Castle Bros., the well-known shipping merchants of San Francisco, and his wife and son, the latter ten years of age, who were arrested Tuesday last at the Hotel Cecil on a charge of stealing several sable and chinchilla skins from London furriers, worth in the neighborhood of $100. The affair is causing the greatest interest at the embassy and among American merchants in London. In addition to many messages of sympathy and offers of assistance, a number of personal visits have been paid the United States embassy and consulate in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Castle, among the callers being Lord Rothschild. Friends of the prisoners say that at the worst it is a case of kleptomania, and it is reported a specialist will examine Mrs. Castle immediately. It is believed Mr. and Mrs. Castle will be released on bail tomorrow.

CZAR VISITS VERSAILLES.

Immense Crowds Along the Route Cheer the Russian Ruler.
PARIS, Oct. 8.—President Faure arrived at the Russian embassy this morning in an open carriage, drawn by four superb Percherons ridden by postillions. The czar and czarina, who had been awaiting his arrival, immediately entered the vehicle and drove off for Versailles, escorted by a strong detachment of cuirassiers. Previous to the departure of their majesties a big bouquet, sent by the municipal council of Paris, was placed in their carriage. There was cheering from the great crowds which lined the road and the imperial visitors bowed repeatedly to the people on both sides of the avenues.

The imperial party arrived at Versailles at 4:30 p. m. amid usual scenes of enthusiasm. Their majesties made a tour of the gardens and park and then entered the court of honor, where a magnificent tent had been erected. The party was conducted up the queen's staircase, at the top of which they were met by Mme. and Mile. Faure, whom their majesties graciously greeted. The visitors then proceeded to inspect Marie Antoinette's and other small rooms. Just before dusk the grounds were brilliantly illuminated. In the evening the czar was entertained at a banquet.

Grover Goes A-fishing.

EAST GREENWICH, CONN., Oct. 8.—E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Oneida left harbor shortly after midnight last night and it was given out the yacht was bound for Jersey City. On board were President Cleveland and Secretary Thurber and Mr. Benedict. This morning, however, it was learned the yacht did not proceed to New York, and that the party was on a fishing trip for the day. According to the program as learned at the Benedict residence, the Oneida will reach New York sometime tomorrow evening and the president will leave Jersey City for Washington at midnight.

Great Fire in Ecuador.

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 8.—There has been a great fire at Guayaquil, Ecuador, believed to be of incendiary origin. Several arrests have been made. Many people lost their lives during the conflagration. The losses are estimated at fifty-five million dollars.

Johnson Breaks a Record.
CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—John S. Johnson broke the world's record for two miles, paced, flying start, at the New Garfield Park track this afternoon. He made the ride in 3:38 3-5, breaking the record, previously held by Berio, 3:43 1-5, made at Louisville Nov. 18, 1895.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

EAGLE LAKE, IND., Oct. 8.—The committee of the Presbyterian general assembly held a session at the Winona assembly grounds today and decided that the next place of meeting for the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States be at the Winona grounds in May, 1897.

GOV. ATKINSON RE-ELECTED.

The Democrats Carry Georgia by an Increased Majority Over Vote of 1892.

TICKET WINS BY NEARLY FORTY THOUSAND.

Have Legislature Almost Solid, Insuring Crisp's Practically Unanimous Election to the Senate—Populists Cry Fraud.

FUSION FORCES ARE DOWNED.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 9.—Advices received by The Journal up to midnight from combined official and unofficial sources fix the total Democratic majority at 36,000. The legislature is almost solidly Democratic, insuring practically the unanimous election of ex-Speaker Crisp to the senate to succeed Senator Gordon.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 8.—Official returns from McDuffie county, the home of Tom Watson, show the Populists carried it by 504 majority. Wright, Populist candidate for governor, carries his home county, Floyd—a former Democratic stronghold—by 200 majority. The slowness with which the official returns are received is causing much complaint, and the Populists are charging frauds in the southern counties, where the negro vote is the strongest. The following is from Chairman Clay of the Democratic executive committee:

"Georgia has gone Democratic by 40,000 majority. Governor Atkinson is re-elected by at least that majority over the combined opposition. The rest of the state ticket is elected by 45,000 majority. The general assembly is composed of 175 members of the house and 44 senators. The Populists elected 23 members of the house and 4 senators; Republicans, 2 representatives and 1 senator; Democrats, 39 senators and 151 representatives. Georgia will give Bryan and Sewall a majority over the combined opposition and will elect all the Democratic nominees for congress."

JONES IS WELL PLEASED.

In response to an inquiry from The Journal, Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today wired the following from Chicago: "The Georgia election means a solid south, as well as a solid west, for Bryan in November. Considering the fact that the Georgia Democracy had arrayed against it the united strength of the administration, Republicans, Populists and Prohibitionists, a majority of 20,000 would have been regarded as a good victory. It appears from the returns as far as received that we have double that, having made gains in nearly every county. I consider the result as assuring Bryan a majority of not less than sixty to seventy thousand in November. I am more than confident that Bryan will not only carry every southern state but also every state west of the Mississippi river, as well as a large majority of the central western states, insuring him an overwhelming majority in the electoral college."

POPULISTS CLAIM FRAUDS.

Populist State Chairman Cunningham today sent the Associated Press a statement that the Democrats had perpetrated enormous frauds in registration and otherwise; that in some instances 20 to 30 per cent of the Populists were disfranchised by bogus or "doctored" registration lists. Notwithstanding this, he claims that on a fair count of the votes cast Wright will be elected governor.

RATTLING TEN-ROUND BOUT.

Young Corbett Gets the Decision Over Tracey of Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—George Green (young Corbett) of San Francisco and Tom Tracey of Australia met in a ten-round contest tonight before the Occidental club. Green was given the decision. It was the best fight seen in San Francisco in a long time. Green assumed the aggressive at the call of time and made the pace in nearly every round.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—Johnny Lavack of Cleveland and Australian Billy Murphy fought twenty rounds to a draw here tonight. Murphy broke his hand in the sixteenth round, and Lavack's jaw was broken in the fourteenth.

STORM-TOSSED ON LAKE ERIE.

Steamer Sanalac and Crew Believed to Have Been Lost.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 8.—The lumber barge Onocota, Captain Choan, was rescued from a most perilous position near Erie today by a tug. The Onocota left Buffalo light in tow of the steamer Sanalac, Captain Hanna. They were frightfully tossed for forty-eight hours. Wednesday afternoon Captain Hanna let go the Onocota's line and informed Captain Choan the Sanalac was sinking. As the air was full of snow and rain the steamer was soon lost to view. No tidings have been learned as to her whereabouts, and it is feared Captain Hanna and crew of eleven men have been lost.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCT. 9.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

THERE has been a marked advance in the price of coal. The same telegraph columns that announce the fact also chronicle the efforts of the Ohio coal operators to compel a cut of ten per cent. in the wages of the coal miners.

THE voice of the "roorback" is heard in the land. As the voice of the turtle dove heard in the land is the herald of spring so the advent of the roorback heralds the close of the campaign. The roorback is not so pretty a bird as the turtle but nevertheless it is welcome, for now we know that all will soon be over.

THE final battles of this campaign will be fought in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. These four states, with their seventy-five electoral votes, will decide the contest and the tremendous effort that will be exerted to carry them is conclusive that neither party is sure of any of them. Their votes are not all needed for either side, but the situation is so nicely poised that it is necessary for the campaigners to lay hold of every vote they can.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL MITCHELL displayed good generalship in yesterday's convention by his conduct of the fight for Frank A. Bell for prosecuting attorney. During the protracted struggle there was more than one occasion when Bell's cake appeared to be dough, but the Negaunee delegation, aided by a few townships loyal to their nearest neighbor, held the key to the situation and Captain Mitchell knew it. With firmness and tact he held his forces together. On his right was the big delegation from Ishpeming, and on his left an almost equally large delegation from Marquette. If he could only tire the big fellows out he would win the fight. And so it proved.

THE Detroit press represents an unfavorable prospect for Portage Entry sandstone in the matter of the new Wayne county building. The supervisors of Wayne county have not yet acted on the bids, but the difference in cost of the building, figured on specifications of Portage Entry stone, and the cost on specifications for other stone is considerable and will be made much of by those members of the county board who are hostile to the Portage Entry stone. It was never contended that the redstone would be cheaper or as cheap as any other stone. It has been maintained that it is much more beautiful, fully as durable and really more fire-proof than any other stone embodied in the specifications. That the difference in cost should not exceed $90,000 on a half-million dollar building is not remarkable at all.

WHILE the czar remains in France every stranger will be looked upon and treated as an anarchist until he proves himself to be harmless. The French police have evidently taken a cue from some American politicians. A few days ago a studious professor of language was taken into custody near Paris because he was going about among the peasants, shaking hands with them and interesting himself in their affairs. Surely none but an anarchist would do such things and there was nothing for the professor to do but accompany the gendarme to the magistrate. There he was able to prove his calling and that he was simply studying the dialect of the people. The professor should have staid at home and had the peasants brought to him at somebody else's expense. Instead of being called an anarchist he would then have been hailed as "the advance agent of prosperity."

"GO! AND HE GOETH." Much speculation is rife as to the significance of the enforced retirement of Bishop Keane from the rectorship of the great Catholic university at Washington. This was an institution which Bishop Keane founded but eight years ago and which he was just bringing to the point where its future greatness could be regarded as secured. It would naturally be assumed that he would be permitted to reap the full reward of his toil. But without warning came the mandate to vacate. There was not a word of protest, not a syllable of complaint, but with the bearing of a man who had just received a supreme boon Bishop Keane relinquished to others the privilege of enjoying the fruits of his labor. Whatever the removal may signify as to the policy of the pontiff with reference to the attitude of the church in America toward liberalism it is certainly significant of the fact that the church is now as ever a magnificent disciplinarian.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month. So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for lung trouble. Trial bottles free at E. Farahan's Drug Store.

The Last Resort. She—Alfred, there is nothing in the house to eat. He—Oh, well, let us have a bread pudding.—Detroit Free Press.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

—Dr. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, is regaining his health by riding a bicycle.

—Gen. Booth has pressed living pictures into the service of the Salvation Army at the great exhibition in London.

—At the Central Presbyterian church, Atlanta, Ga., recently, Rev. G. B. Strickler delivered his farewell sermon to the congregation he has served for the last 13 years.

—"Our friends will kindly not trespass," is the unusual form in which the Mattituck, L. I., school authorities have put the notice to the public at the entrance to their unfenced schoolhouse grounds.

—Commander Ballington Booth recently stated that the Volunteers of America have 106 organized posts and 300 commanding officers, while the Volunteers' Gazette, the organ of the force, has a circulation of 15,000 copies.

—A gift of $1,000 has lately gone from Miss Caroline W. Bruce, of New York, to the director of the Lick observatory. This sum and a recent gift from W. W. Low, of New York, will be devoted to the purchase of needed apparatus, and will make possible the continuance of certain important work.

—The following persons have been appointed on the committee to superintend the building of the new Anglo-American church in Carlsbad: Her Royal Highness Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, the lord bishop of Norwich, Sir Edward and Lady Cavendish, Sir Edward and Lady Thornton, Countess Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. James Roosevelt, New York.

—Mrs. Elizabeth H. Colt, who in 1809 erected as a memorial for her deceased husband the Church of the Good Shepherd in Hartford, Conn., at a cost of $200,000, has recently erected a handsome parish house in connection with that church as a memorial for her son, Caldwell Hart Colt, who died in 1894. No expense has been spared to make the building beautiful as well as complete in all its details.

THE WORLD'S AGE.

Figures Mounting Up as the Work of Excavation Goes Forward.

According to Scriptural chronology, the world is about 5900 years old, the theory most generally accepted being that the creation occurred 4004 years before the beginning of the Christian era. Prof. S. A. Binion, of the University of Pennsylvania, who has been conducting excavations in the ruins of the east, has recently made discoveries which seem to prove a high state of civilization 7,000 years before the birth of Christ.

Large numbers of stone tablets have been found in Nipur, the buried city of the Euphrates, which carry back human written history nearly 3,000 years further than any records heretofore known. Prof. S. A. Binion, an eminent archaeologist and Egyptologist, a member of the Biblical-Archaeological society of London, says: "Not a doubt has been expressed as to the correctness of the dates of the tablets taken from the prehistoric Nipur and which have just been deciphered. Assyrian chronology up to the time of Sargon is not so much beset with obstacles as the Egyptian. Their scribes put down the dates, counting the years from the accession of the various rulers. The day of the month and the year are invariably given on these tablets, and as their months are lunar, bearing the same names and exactly corresponding to the present Jewish calendar, it is within easy reach of the chronologist." Nipur is upon the very spot where the Garden of Eden is thought to have been situated and a few miles from the Tower of Babel.

The ruins from which the tablets were excavated are under more than 30 feet of earth, upon the top of which were ruins of the ancient city of Nipur regarded by archaeologists as one of the oldest known.

Both of these cities, one under the other, had the same name, although they were separated by more than 5,000 years of time. Prof. Binion is of the opinion in his interesting review of archaeological discoveries printed in the New York Journal, that the first city of Nipur, the prehistoric city, was wiped out by the deluge described in the Bible. The excavations were begun in 1888, and through the munificence of friends of the University of Pennsylvania have been continued up to the present time. The explorers have been richly rewarded for their labors, although the result apparently upsets the reckonings of Biblical scholars.—Baltimore Sun.

The People of Seville. The people were as gay as the town; too gay, too commercial, too modern, M. Maurice Barres thought Seville, Spain, but, fortunately, I was quite prosaic enough to delight at the time in its constant movement and noise and life. The Sierras during the day was the center of their gaiety—Seville's Corso or Broadway or Piccadilly. It was here the hottest hours were spent. Under its awnings it was like a pleasant court; for, though peasants might pass with their donkeys, no cart or carriage could ever drive through. In the clubs on each side, their facade nothing but one open window, rows of chairs were always turned toward the street, and always held an audience as entertaining as it was willing to be entertained. The same people who in the evening filled the Plaza Nueva, there to listen to the music, sauntered in and out of the shops, where you could by the latest French novel or the photograph of the favorite matador. But of this multitude of loungers, none seemed to have anything to do except to become violently interested in the minute J. tried to sketch.—Elizabeth R. Pennell, in Century.

HUMOROUS.

—He (at parting)—"Oh, Edith! You have broken my—" She (interrupting)—"Not your heart, surely!" He (sighing)—"No; my whole pocketful of cigars."—Somerville Journal.

—Author—"Mary, I've made a mistake in my calling; I'm not an author, but a born chemist." Author's Wife—"What makes you think that, Horace?" Author—"Well, every book I write becomes a drug on the market."—Boston Globe.

—"Young Mr. Spoonamore has a very resonant voice, Agnes," remarked her mother. "I could hear him distinctly when he was in the parlor last night." "Yes," replied Miss Agnes, with a little sigh. "His voice had a decided ring—but it was only in his voice."—Chicago Tribune.

At the Indian Camp.—Summer Reporter (to aboriginal basketmaker)—"And your ancestors once roamed these woods, and the white man was their prey?" Aboriginal Basketmaker—"And so he is now; only we prefer to have his money instead of his scalp."—Boston Transcript.

—"What's your name?" said the new school-teacher, addressing the first boy on the bench. "Jule Simpson," replied the lad. "Not Jule—Julius," said the teacher. And addressing the next one "What is your name?" "Billous Simpson, I guess." And the new teacher had to rap for order.—Harper's Round Table.

—She Had Her Choice.—"And so she married a man named Smith." That shows she was pretty hard up. "On the contrary, she says she had her choice of names." "Had her choice of names and chose Smith?" "That's what she said." "Oh, well. I suppose she means her choice of his and hers, and she naturally chose his."—Chicago Post.

—Unappreciated Recitations.—A gentleman was assisting at a fair last winter by reciting now and again during the evening. He had recited once or twice, and the people were sitting about chaffing, when he heard one of the managers go up to the chairman and whisper: "Hadn't Mr. — better give us another recitation now?" "No, not yet; let them enjoy themselves a bit longer."—Tid-Bis.

—Couldn't Fool the Father.—"Wise Old Man—"What made that young man stay so late?" asked the father. "We got to talking about the coinage question," said the fair daughter, "and did not notice the flight of time." "I don't think that story will go," said the old man. "People who discuss the coinage question make a lot more noise than you two did."—Indianapolis Journal.

MEN WHO BUY NOT.

The Reason Newsdealers Use Rubber Bands on Magazines for Sale.

The man who gets up early in the morning so he can have a look at his neighbor's paper before the faithful owner has a chance to take it from his doorstep does not stand very high in the estimation of the newsdealer. This is because he spoils trade.

There is another man, however, who is even more cordially detested by the vendor of periodicals. He is the fellow who never buys anything, but has the habit of dipping into the weekly papers and magazines. The keeper of a newsstand makes a tempting display of his stock, for he knows that a strong picture or even a pretty cover often brings him a stray customer, but he expects the mere looker-on to be content with this much, and he is likely to frown upon the man who resorts to all kinds of schemes in order to get a peep at the inside pages.

The stands in the ferry houses and railway stations suffer the most from these penurious cranks, for there is nothing else to attract their attention while they are waiting for a boat or a train. They run through the leaves of the latest books and magazines, and have been known to draw the tacks out of papers nailed up against the stand, so that they could see what was on the other side of the sheet. But it is not what they could see and read for nothing that worries the newsdealer. He would be willing to put up with that if it did not injure his stock. Indeed, he would much rather have a man take up a magazine bodily and carefully examine every page than to have him grab it by one corner and bend all the leaves in a surreptitious attempt to see the pictures. He would also rather have you ask him to hand you a periodical than to have you shove his stock all out of line while trying to see half the page that is hidden by a pile of other papers.

So great has this nuisance become that the newsdealers have had to adopt schemes for their own protection. The most successful, so far as preventing the leaves from being turned, consists of placing a rubber band around the top and bottom of the magazine and placing it on the top of each pile.—N. Y. Journal.

HOUSEKEEPING WORK.

It May Be Rendered Easy by Proper Provisions.

Whether or not housekeeping is hard work depends a great deal on how it is done. It certainly is not play; indeed, there is nothing in the world in the way of duties that most of the intelligent people who live in it are willing to call other than hard work if they are obliged to busy themselves at it day after day, week after week and year after year.

It is not always that housekeeping is such hard work, even under unfavorable circumstances; it is monotonous.

Up-to-date housekeeping need not be very hard work if one is well and arranges matters with any system. In the first place, the house must be properly built. The dining-room and kitchen must not be far removed from each other, and pantries, closets and store rooms are to be as near at hand as possible. There must be a laundry, with hot and cold water and arrangements for boiling clothes and heating irons. If this is provided, the kitchen floor should be covered with a matting.

If carpets are considered necessary to the comfort of the household, they may be arranged rug fashion, with a border of inlaid wood, or if the floors are not good, of fine matting. This makes sweeping comparatively easy, as a brush clears the margins, and the carpet-sweeper puts the middle of the room in proper condition. The stairs should have plates in the corners, so that there is no tedious and troublesome digging out of acute angles. There should be screens to keep out flies in the summer, and weather-strips to keep out the dust all the year around. A furnace with the most improved dust-flues is a necessity, and the kitchen range must have a good draft, and be of an up-to-date pattern. The rooms should not be overloaded with bric-a-brac and furniture, but may be tastefully and daintily furnished without entailing upon the housewife the never-ending care of a lot of cumbersome fixings that are better out of sight than in.

A liberal supply of kitchen utensils should be provided, and there should be a sufficient closet space, so that when one is required, a dozen need not be displaced in order to get at it.

Closets and pantries should have snugly-fitted doors, with weather-strips to keep out the dust. The housekeeper who has never tried weather-strips on her pantry doors has little idea of their advantage. As for the daily food, if people are content to live simply, and this is very much better than elaborateness and too much attention to what one eats, the meals may be prepared without great labor. In the morning, vegetables may be made ready for the dinner, and much of the details of the meals of the day attended to. Some housekeepers think it next door to a disgrace to put away the dishes from one day's meal and wash with those of the next morning, but with this method has points of grace, as can be attested by some who have tried it.

The food should be put away, and the dishes gathered and carefully placed, in snug shape, in a large dishpan. Over these place a thick cloth, to keep them from getting too dry. The table may remain spread from meal to meal, if the dining-room is used for no other purpose.

By looking ahead a little, and working with brains as well as hands, the duties of the household are, to a great extent, simplified, systematized and reduced to easy and manageable proportions.—N. Y. Ledger.

UNCLE EPH AND THE CYCLIST.

Not Hard for One Used to "Toting Earrels o' Sugar."

An athletic old colored man, who in his youth was employed in a sugar refinery in New Orleans, is now a helper in a bicycle store uptown.

When he is not otherwise employed it is his duty to give beginners their first lessons. The school of instruction is in the street, and almost every evening Uncle Eph may be seen steadying the wheel for some uncertain novice. The work is not easy, and only a very powerful fellow could stand it so well as the aged but well preserved darky does.

The other day there came a new pupil to the bicycle store. It was a lady past 40, still quite fair but undeniably fat. She stated her case very diffidently; said she thought she was past the bicycle riding age, and that she feared she would never succeed in mastering the wheel, but the family doctor had prescribed a bicycle. So there she was, ask him to hand you a periodical than to have you shove his stock all out of line while trying to see half the page that is hidden by a pile of other papers.

So great has this nuisance become that the newsdealers have had to adopt schemes for their own protection. The most successful, so far as preventing the leaves from being turned, consists of placing a rubber band around the top and bottom of the magazine and placing it on the top of each pile.—N. Y. Put half a pint of milk and same of boiling water over the fire. When hot add one cupful of corn meal. Stir and cook ten minutes. Add two teaspoonfuls of butter and a teaspoonful of salt and set aside to cool. When cold add two eggs beaten separately, first the yolks, then the whites. Bake in gem pans in a moderate oven 20 minutes and serve warm. A teaspoonful of baking powder should also be used. These are very nice made either of white or yellow meal.—Ladies' World.

No Room for Doubt. "Jobson, I do believe that if you were given your choice between me and your pipe, you would hesitate."

"That's where you make a mistake, Mrs. Jobson. A pipe soothes and comforts a man in his old age."—N. Y. Herald.

OF A POLITICAL NATURE.

Impossible for Bryan to Speak in This County - Dunstan's Itinerary. County Chairman T. D. Ryan is in receipt of a communication from Hon. Daniel J. Campau, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, in which he states that much as he would like to, he finds it impossible to arrange for Mr. Bryan to visit Houghton county, as it would necessitate the changing of his dates for all of lower Michigan.

Felix Dumonthier's Funeral. The funeral of the late Felix Dumonthier was held yesterday morning, and it was largely attended by friends of the deceased. Services were conducted by the local lodge of the K. O. T. M., both at the house and at the cemetery.

Concerning Copper. Responsible parties are bidding 10% for 250,000 pounds of lake copper for future delivery, but the sellers' views are now above these figures, and the market has a firm appearance.

Entertainment Tonight. The following program will be rendered at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, Hancock, tonight: Piano solo, Miss Irene M. Stringer.

Boiling River. It is sure enough. It is as large as the Mississippi, indeed it is quite small, but a mighty interesting stream for all that. It issues from the sides of a mountain in a thousand tiny rills, more or less, and of almost as many colors.

How It Happened. "Too bad about Shelby, wasn't it?" "What's the matter with him?" "He had a terrible shock day before yesterday, and may not recover. Hadn't you heard about it?"

AN EXECUTION IN PERSIA. Burying Men Alive in Wet Plaster of Paris. A hideous form of execution, which has not been practiced for 20 years, was revived the other day to strike terror into the hearts of the people.

They were taken into a high-walled garden, a guard being placed at the entrance, and in a short time the first to be executed was brought out. Round his neck was a steel collar with a chain, which his guard held tightly in his hand.

When the gatch became solid and tightened on the poor prisoners, the yells were frightful to listen to, and as they were carried over the walled garden those watching their turn realized that the death to which they were doomed, so far from being the painless one they had hoped for, was instead of a terrible nature.

But you ask, where is it? Where can I see it? It is in Yellowstone Park at Mammoth Hot Springs. It is one of the lesser, mind you the lesser - wonders of this land of wonders. Go there and see it by all means but first send to Chas. S. BRYAN TALKS IN IOWA.

Silver Candidate Is Received With Much Enthusiasm in the Hawkeye State.

MAKES HIS PRINCIPAL SPEECH AT BURLINGTON.

He Also Addresses Crowds at Cedar Rapids and Cities Enroute and Winds Up the Day at Marshalltown.

CHEERS GREET THE NOMINEE.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. 8.—W. J. Bryan arrived here early this morning. He breakfasted with Congressman Seelye and later led a procession of silver clubs to Crapo Park, where he delivered an address to an audience which filled the great Coliseum and which cheered him enthusiastically. In part, he said: "Our platform has driven from us some who have acted with us in the past. We cannot help it. We might have retained their co-operation had we been willing to pay the price they asked. We might have been able to keep those men with us had we been willing that the Democratic party should be made an instrument of plutocracy to overthrow a government like ours. Some left us because they were more attached to the great corporate interests of this country than they were to the welfare of the people. In their place we expect to find men who are willing to act with us at this time in order to make this government worthy of the love of those who live beneath our flag.

"And I come today to submit for your consideration some reasons why Republicans should join with us upon the platform we have adopted. The Populists have already joined with us. I will say joined with us; they may say that we joined with them, but I care not how you express it, so long as we are together now. There is this difference between the Republicans who come to us and the Democrats who go from us. The Democrats who go from us must repudiate the history of the Democratic party and abandon that which has been Democratic from the time when Jefferson organized the Democratic party. The Republicans who come to us have simply to stand by that which the Republican party used to advocate, and which in this campaign it abandoned."

"At this juncture an individual in the crowd roared out, 'Hurrah for McKinley.' This outburst was greeted by applause and hisses. Mr. Bryan begged the crowd to refrain from any manifestations of displeasure, and continued: "My friend has declared his preference for Major McKinley. I want to ask him which McKinley he is for, the McKinley of 1890 or the McKinley of 1896. Let me read you what Mr. McKinley said in 1890, when he was advocating the Sherman law, which added to the volume of the nation's money. He said in that speech, 'but all agree that we must have a larger volume of money, and that the added volume shall be silver, or its equivalent based on silver.' At that time we were putting into circulation about twenty-four million dollars a year under the Bland act, and Mr. McKinley advocated the Sherman act on the ground it would increase the amount of money to be put in circulation among the people. Let me read you what he said then: "So, Mr. Speaker, this bill is just to the silver producers of the United States, for it does what the present law, as demonstrated by every administration for the ten years, has not done. It takes every dollar of silver production that is purchased in the United States and places it at the disposal of the people as money. "And again he said: "I will not vote against this bill and thus deprive my people and my country of thirty millions annually of additional circulating medium. "In 1890 Mr. McKinley declared that, in the interests of his country, in the interest of labor, in the interest of producers, in the interest of the industries of the country, he would vote to add to the increase of twenty-four million dollars an additional increase of thirty millions. That was McKinley in 1890. Let me read you McKinley in 1896: "It is not more that we want; what we want is to put all the money we have already at work. "In 1890, when he advocated more money, we had already added twenty-four million dollars to the circulation each year. This year we have no such provision. We have repealed the Sherman law and the Bland act. And yet we have decreased the money in circulation in the last two years by one hundred and fifty millions, and yet when money is decreasing, instead of increasing, the same McKinley who wanted more money in 1890 tells you now that it is not more money we need, but to put the money we already have at work. Which does my friend favor? The McKinley of 1890 who wanted more money or the McKinley of 1896? "My friends, we can support our cause by appealing to Republican testimony. We can support every contention we make by quoting Republican authorities, and therefore the Republicans who come to us in this campaign do not change their convictions."

After his Coliseum speech Mr. Bryan spoke twice from a carriage. CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 8.—Cedar Rapids was reached shortly after 4 o'clock and the local committee escorted Mr. Bryan to the baseball park near the outskirts of the city, where he addressed a great audience. His speech was received with enthusiasm. He discussed the money question at length, and in conclusion said: "If anybody is afraid this land is going to be used for a dumping ground (referring to silver) let me remove that fear. I have about five acres of ground near Lincoln, Neb., and I have made a calculation and I find there is room on that five acres for all the silver in the world. I am going to offer it as a dumping ground if they want to bring their silver over and dump it there. I have tried to use it to raise corn on, and if I cannot make more money by using it for a dumping ground than I have made raising corn on it, I am going to try to give it away."

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Oct. 8.—The special train on the Chicago & North-western to which Bryan's car was attached at Cedar Rapids arrived here at 7:30, making an average of fifty-two miles per hour, including two stops of ten minutes each, one of the stops being the Bryan party has made since it started. The candidate made two speeches here, the first in a large tent and the second in Olden Theater. Big crowds greeted him at both meetings and the enthusiasm was the most marked of the day. It was 10 o'clock when Mr. Bryan concluded his last address, and he was then conducted to his car, where he soon afterward retired for the night. Shortly after the party left for Sioux City.

An Anti-Silver Ticket. HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 8.—The Democratic gold standard state convention held here this morning. It adopted a platform opposed to free coinage, nominated presidential electors, endorsed the caucus nominations for congressmen and nominated a full state ticket, headed by J. A. Sperry for governor.

SWEEP BY A FIBRE GALE.

Great Storm Raging Along the English, Irish and Welsh Coasts.

NUMBER OF CASUALTIES ALREADY REPORTED.

Unknown Schooner Goes Down Off Holyhead and Crew Is Lost—Lightships Blown Out to Sea—Floods in Wales.

GALE DOES GREAT DAMAGE. LONDON, Oct. 8.—The storm has caused considerable damage at all points along the English, Irish and Welsh coasts. A number of casualties have already been reported and numerous vessels have been sighted flying signals of distress. At Infracomb, Devonshire, the sea washed away 100 feet of the wall fronting Infracomb Hotel; the lower part of the town is flooded, a number of houses being swamped. At Porthcawl the sea is sixty feet high and has been crashing over the breakwater. Floods are also reported in various parts of Wales. The tracks of the Rhonda & Swansea Bay railroad are at many points under 100 feet of water or have been washed away.

FIVE SAILORS ARE DROWNED. QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 8.—The gale which began Monday continues today with increased fury. All the buoys in the harbor have been shifted from their positions. The Daunt's Rock lightship, having on board a crew of eight men, has broken adrift and is believed to have foundered, while the Roches Point lightship is not visible today. The majestic, which left Liverpool yesterday for New York, arrived here this afternoon. She encountered terrific weather. The Belgian steamer Pennard, which sailed from Liverpool yesterday for Philadelphia, via this port, has failed to show up here.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 8.—An unknown schooner has been lost off Holyhead. Her crew of five men were drowned.

SEAS QUIETING DOWN. LONDON, Oct. 8.—The gale is now moderating, but from all parts of the United Kingdom immense damage is reported. The south of Ireland particularly suffered badly, the town hall at Queenstown being severely damaged. The low parts of Cork are inundated. A large ship has been wrecked at Milford Haven, in Wales, and all on board perished. Numerous small wrecks are also reported, by which the aggregate loss of life is considerable.

CHICAGO MARKETS. CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Wheat was in fair trade within a 2c. range, closing 1/2c below the highest and 1c higher than yesterday. The market was weak for a time on the continued few northwestern movement and lower cables; it rallied on strong cash wheat at Minneapolis, better cables later, a good output of flour, buying for account of California parties, a fair export demand at New York and bullish reports there on the situation in India, together with the statement a cargo had been sold there for Calcutta; it eased off toward the close on realizing sales in view of the coming holiday.

Corn was in fair trade within a 1/2c. range, closing 1/2c. from the top and 1/2c. higher than yesterday. The advance was due to fears of an advance in western freight rates, better cables and higher wheat.

Oats were moderately active within a 1/2c. range, closing 1/2c. from the top and 1/2c. higher than yesterday. The prices were controlled by wheat and corn.

Table with 4 columns: Commodity, Opened, High, Low, Closed. Rows include Wheat, Corn, and various grades of flour.

CASH QUOTATIONS. Flour, quiet, unchanged. Wheat, higher; No. 2 spring, 97 1/2c; No. 2 red, 79 1/2c. Corn, higher; 2 1/2c; No. 2 white, 16 1/2c. Butter, firm; creameries, 12 1/2c; dairies, 9 1/2c. Eggs, firm; fresh, 15c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Stocks today moved irregularly, both in point of activity and prices. The volume of business was fairly extensive, but the periods of animation were followed by intervals of intense dullness. Sugar declined 1/2c, the stock touching 106 1/2, the lowest point reached in many months. The general list also suffered from a lack of interest, and fell clearly on rumors that arrangements were making for the import of a round amount of gold substantial rallies occurred. The dividend consolidation, the advances from the low level extended to 2 1/2 in Manhattan and Tobacco. In the movement Sugar recovered practically all the early decline, but eventually eased off a point from the highest of the day. The market closed strong and the final prices recorded fractional net gains generally.

COPPER STOCKS. BOSTON, Oct. 8.—The following were the closing prices of copper mining stocks: Allouez, 50; Atlantic, 17 1/2; Boston & Montana, 85 25; Calumet & Hecla, 315 00; Centennial, 2 00; Franklin, 10 00; Kearsarge, 24 50; Orocopia, 110 00; Quincy, 110 00; Tamarack, 83 00; Wolverine, 7 00.

The barge Mautenee has arrived at Buffalo in tow of the steamer City of New York. She was badly used up in the recent gale on the upper lakes. She is in a leaking condition, but steam pumps keep her free. A survey will be held on the lumber cargo. The vessel lost between 200,000 and 300,000 feet of her deck load.

FATAL FAMILY QUARREL.

Chicago Physician Murders His Wife and Cold Blooded Suicides.

Dr. Carl F. Nitz, a German physician of Chicago, murdered his wife and then killed himself, Wednesday afternoon. The couple had lived unhappily for some time because of her constant efforts to obtain possession of his property. This provoked frequent quarrels between them. Wednesday during one of their rows Nitz stabbed his wife in the abdomen with a surgical instrument. The wound was not immediately fatal and the doctor, sitting down by her side, stabbed her again, this time in a manner which insured her death. He then, as is proved by notes that were found after his death, sat at the woman's side watching her slowly die, and now and then to note the effect of another wound he would jab his knife into her again. He carefully noted all the symptoms of the woman's approaching demise and at one time left the house and the dying woman while he procured an oyster stew at a neighboring restaurant and bought the revolver with which he shot himself. For over four hours, as shown by the notes, he sat by the woman watching her die. Late in the afternoon when the police had been notified of the murder, Nitz hid himself in the basement of the house and when he found there was no chance of his escape he shot himself through the head. During the time his wife was dying the old father of the doctor, who is deaf, sat in an adjoining room, ignorant of what was going on within a few feet of him. Nitz was fifty-four years of age and a man of considerable property.

RESIGNS AS LIBERAL LEADER.

Earl Rosebery, late premier of the Liberal government in succession to Gladstone, has written to Thomas Ellis, M. P. and first Liberal whip, saying he has resigned the leadership of the party. In his letter, Lord Rosebery says: "I find myself in apparent difference with a considerable mass of Liberals on the eastern question, and there is the same conflict of opinion with Mr. Gladstone, who must necessarily always exercise matchless authority in the party, while scarcely from any quarter do I receive explicit support." Lord Rosebery expressed himself on Sept. 18 with reference to the public agitation in England for intervention in Turkey by Great Britain, by saying: "For England to interfere in Turkey without the consent of the powers would involve a European war." In contrast to this view of Lord Rosebery is the attitude assumed by Mr. Gladstone in his speech at Liverpool September 24.

BANDITS ON BICYCLES.

Two masked and bicycle mounted robbers swept into the little town of Sherbourne, Minn., Wednesday, dashed into the bank, murdered the cashier and a bystander, their killing being purely wanton, and securing a thousand dollars from the cash tray, mounted their wheels and escaped before the eyes of the startled villagers. Posses were formed and started in pursuit of the men.

NOT ALL HE HAD TO DO.

After He Had Aimed the Camera and Focused the Button the Trouble Began. "All you have to do," said Mr. Trapp, as he showed his wife the camera he had purchased, "is to press this little knob and there you have a picture."

"Do you mean to say that my likeness is in that box?" "Yes, indeed," he answered, proudly. "How nice! Let's take it right out and look at it."

"No. You mustn't do that." And he entered into an elaborate but unappreciated explanation of the effects of sunlight on the sensitive film. She was very eager to see the portrait, and he promised to develop the contents of the camera that night and print the picture the next day.

"Where did you get that?" he asked, in surprise. "I was anxious to see what was in the camera," she replied, "so I took it over to my brother, who is an expert in such things, and got him to make the pictures for me."

Young in the Race.

Charles Young, Ishpeeming's clever young wheelman, who recently went to Watertown, Wis., to work in a hotel, was a participant in the great relay race from Minneapolis, Minn., to Milwaukee, Wis., which came to a close Tuesday afternoon.

At 7 o'clock this morning Charles Young, the Watertown rider, was at his post, and Roth and Harbach were waiting at Oconomowoc. At 8 o'clock a telephone message was received saying that the message was still at Waterloo and at that hour a couple of Watertown riders started after it.

Young was one of three riders on the whole course who made better than schedule time. In a letter to THE MINING JOURNAL reporter Charles says he covered a greater distance than he was credited with in the Wisconsin report.

Sir William Martin Conway, who, it is reported in the above dispatch, has succeeded in crossing the icy wastes of Spitzbergen, set out on his daring journey from London early in June. His purpose was to explore the interior of the islands. He sailed from Tromsø, in Sweden, in company with his nephew, Mr. Trevor Battye, and four other persons.

Women are being taught by bitter experience that many physicians cannot successfully handle their peculiar ailments known as female diseases.

When the woman of to-day experiences such symptoms as backache, nervousness, lassitude, whites, irregular or painful menstruation, bearing-down sensation, palpitation, "all gone" feeling and blues, she at once takes Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, feeling sure of obtaining immediate relief.

Indeed, so many women are now appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, that a score of lady secretaries are kept constantly at work answering the great volume of correspondence which comes in every day.

Mistress and Maid both have their part in the great savings that come from Pearline. Suppose you're the mistress. There's the economy of it—the saving of time, etc., and the actual money that's saved by doing away with that steady wear and tear on everything washed. Suppose you're the maid. There's the saving of labor; the absence of rubbing; the hardest part of the house-work made easier and pleasanter.

But suppose you are mistress and maid, both in one, doing your own work. Then there is certainly twice as much reason why you should do every bit of your washing and cleaning with Pearline.

In and About Negaunee.

'Twas a Good Meeting.

James A. Prout, the Federation of Labor orator, who is spending a few days in Marquette county, addressed a large gathering at Winters' hall Wednesday evening. Considering that an unusually large number of voters attended the Republican caucuses and convention the attendance was a great deal larger than expected. Mr. Prout spoke in favor of the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. He explained very clearly the advantages of free silver and he advised the laboring men present to vote for Bryan and Sewall. At times the audience was very enthusiastic and the speaker was quite frequently interrupted with applause. Mr. Prout said he would be pleased to meet speakers on the opposite side in a joint debate on the monetary question. He will be on hand to hold up his end any time such a meeting can be arranged. He will speak tomorrow evening at Ishpeming. He will be joined there by Mr. Witt, of Ohio, who is quite prominent in labor circles. The latter is said to be a very good speaker.

An Institute Attraction.

One of the good things in store for the teachers who attend the county institute here next week is a lecture by Prof. W. N. Ferris, principal of the Ferris Industrial school at Big Rapids, Mich.

Professor Ferris has a repertoire of lectures and it is not known what his topic will be but the following from the Greenville Daily Call is ample assurance that it will be well worth hearing:

Last night's lecture is one of the best of its kind. It is by Dr. Witt's "Sunshine." We wish it might have a universal hearing, for it would go a long way in helping to solve the problem of "Making the World Better." The lecture was by no means stupid or prosy, but popular, pleasing and witty. It presented a most exalted theme in a simple, yet wonderfully effective way. We vote a return engagement for Professor Ferris. There was a large and enthusiastic audience present.

A Happy Surprise.

About fifty members of the Swedish Lutheran church congregation gave William F. Anderson a very happy social surprise at his home Tuesday evening. The occasion was the anniversary of Mr. Anderson's birth. The surprise was quite complete. Mr. Anderson had not even thought of his birthday and was quietly seated by his fireside when the crowd marched in on him. After all had assembled one of the gentlemen addressed Mr. Anderson and concluded by presenting him with a handsome silver pitcher. Later in the evening a lunch, which the visitors brought with them, was served. The meeting was one which Mr. Anderson says he will never forget.

The Bridge Burned.

The bridge on the team road crossing the stream of the Escanaba river leading to the Swaney location was destroyed by fire one day this week. This practically shut off teams from going between the station and the location. The bridge is now being rebuilt so that the residents of Swaney will not be put in any great inconvenience by the mishap. The fire did not do any damage at the location but for a time it seemed as though the blaze would reach the houses.

LOCAL LAOONICS.

An adjourned regular meeting of the city council will be held this evening. W. A. Ross, of Marquette, spent Wednesday night and yesterday morning in the city.

Miss Otilia Lonstorf returned to Milwaukee yesterday, after visiting three months here with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Suess.

The Republican club's headquarters in the Sundberg block are now supplied with literature of various kinds. Many of the members spend their evenings there. Franc Da Cameo, a slack wire performer and club swinger, who joined the Wizard Oil Comedy company here Wednesday, is one of the cleverest ever seen in this city. The company closes its engagement here tomorrow evening. They will spend next week at Muskegon.

Joseph Verran, of London, England, who was here visiting his brother, William, sailed for New York yesterday. Since leaving here he visited Washington, Philadelphia and New York. He was so favorably impressed with this country that he says he will come over again in two years from now.

The Negaunee & Ishpeming Street Railway company is giving its motormen and conductors a ten days' layoff as a reward for the faithful work they have done during the summer. Motorman Williams and Conductor Duffey are the first to take a vacation. The boys are getting full time while their vacation lasts.

WOMEN WHO MADDEN MEN.

Do It Innocently, Because They Do Not Know How to Be Wives.

Women may be charming, wholly devoted to their homes and their husbands, and yet be so tactless, thoughtless and aggravating as to drive husbands to the extreme of misery. "Any observant bachelor could recall the number of instances of women who, from mere want of tact and intelligence, are almost driving their husbands mad by getting on their nerves. They forget that busy men require absolute brain rest, change of scene, change of subject. They forget that however worrying the little affairs of a household may be, the anxieties of a great business upon which the whole family's present and future depends are far greater. A friend of mine, who is now nearly a millionaire, told me in confidence that while he was sitting one night over his smoking-room fire wondering whether he could next day possibly survive a terrible crisis which was hanging over his head and might lead to a disastrous bankruptcy, with debts to the extent of $200,000 or so, his wife came whining into the room to say that the butcher must be paid next day—and the amount of the butcher's bill was under $50!

"It is on such occasions that a man wants a helpful wife—one who will tell him about or read aloud the last good novel, who will say: 'Come, let us go to the theater to-night; you need change of scene,' and above all, one who knows just when her husband requires nothing more than to be left alone. It is women who get on their husband's nerves that drive them to take bachelor holidays when they ought to be getting more enjoyment from the wife's companionship.

"Of course there are men who are always out of sorts, spoiled dyspeptic bears with sore heads, who require strong minds to manage them, but there are very many others who only want judicious, sympathetic treatment to be the best husbands in the world. Avoid being silly, avoid saying silly things or trying to make conversation, or commenting on some remark your husband has made. Read and think in order to cultivate intelligence and resourcefulness, with the object in view of being his counselor and his friend, and above all, his 'chum'—that word means much."—London Woman.

Consumption Caused by Indigestion.

Every medical man knows that indigestion and improper nutrition open wide the gates for the entrance of consumption, while, on the other hand, good digestion and nutrition enable even those subject to tuberculosis to live until some other cause brings about their death. This diseased condition of the digestive organs, which gives foothold to the destroyer, does not come in a short time, but often dates back to childhood.—Chicago Chronicle

NO MORE TIGHT GLOVES.

Because They Give the Hand an Ugly Shape in Time.

The latest article of wear dear to the feminine heart that the health advocates have set the seal of their displeasure on is the tight-fitting glove.

This will be distressing news to many women who would willingly deprive themselves of expensive lingerie in order to wear gloves that make more outward show. Women pride themselves on exhibiting a neatly-gloved hand almost as much as encasing their feet in shoes which are ruinous to the natural shape of the feet.

They are perhaps unaware that women of the stage who pride themselves on the appearance of their hands when ungloved, as well as when encased in costly gloves, do not approve pinching them with tight gloves. Bernhardt and Terry, who are famous for the beauty of their hands and arms, wear long, loose-wristed gloves. Miss Terry has a large hand, but it is proportioned to her figure, and she does not squeeze either into tight compresses.

Next to wearing tight shoes and tight corsets, the habit of squeezing the hands into tight gloves is perhaps the most foolish of feminine weaknesses. And yet interviews with prominent glove dealers all prove that about two-thirds of their customers will insist upon purchasing gloves from one-half to one full size too small for their hands, and resent any remarks that the clerks may make that would suggest the abandonment of this hobby. "Why, we are even forced to suggest smaller sizes, and make delicate remarks about their tiny hands, in order oftentimes to secure their favors," one prominent dealer stated smilingly.

The wearers of tight gloves are not always ignorant people by any means, but they are invariably of a vain and shallow type, who have no regard for artistic beauty and who are martyrs when it comes to physical suffering. For there is certainly nothing much more uncomfortable in the way of dress than tight, squeezing, ill-fitting gloves, with buttons straining to their utmost tension and with the palm fairly bulging out in a mass of almost purple flesh, which has been forced into this unnatural position.

"Women with very long fingers nearly always buy short-fingered gloves," the glove seller stated, "and then, when the sharp-pointed nails have cut through the ends of the fingers, they bring them back with all manner of complaints and there is absolutely nothing to be said if we wish to retain their custom. A very fine quality of kid is always more flexible than a cheap quality; consequently a lady who wears a No. 6 in a one dollar glove can frequently wear a five and three-quarters in a $2.50 quality, just as one can wear two or more sizes of shoes in different makes and have each fit satisfactorily. It is mostly large, fleshy women who persist in wearing tight gloves. They have had small hands originally, before they gained their superabundance of adipose, and because they wore No. 6 gloves at 18 they insist upon wearing them at 40; and, although the terrible pressure on the flesh and blood vessels makes the hands clumsy and benumbed, they will not relinquish this bit of feminine vanity."

It is a well-known fact that women who possess the whitest and most beautiful hands always wear loose gloves. To keep the skin soft and pliable the blood must have perfectly free circulation, and this cannot be when the wrist is encircled with a merciless band of kid and when thumb and fingers are cramped into unnatural positions.—Washington Star.

HOT FIGHT FOR OFFICE.

Twenty-four Ballots Needed to Secure a Nominee for Prosecuting Attorney.

OTHER CANDIDATES GET THEIR PLACES WITH EASE.

All Nationalities Given a Show on the Ticket—Several Places Awarded by Acclamation—Marquette Man Is Clerk.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY SLATE.

Probate Judge—Hon. Peter Pascoe, Republican.
 Sheriff—John Carlson, Ishpeming.
 Treasurer—Adam Kangas, Ishpeming.
 Register of deeds—Joseph H. Primeau, Negaunee.
 Clerk—W. A. Ross, Marquette.
 Prosecuting attorney—F. A. Bell, Negaunee.
 Circuit court commissioners—George P. Brown, Marquette, W. T. Potter, Ishpeming.
 Coroners—L. F. Cray, Marquette, William Frin, Ishpeming.
 Surveyor—George P. Cummings.
 Representatives—Western district: William Peters, Negaunee, Eastern district: S. M. Billings, Marquette.

By far the most exciting convention ever held in the history of Marquette county politics was that held in the city yesterday by the Republicans for the purpose of putting in nomination their county slate.

The principal, indeed the only fight made in the convention, was that for the nomination of prosecuting attorney. This was a hard and magnificently fought contest between B. O. Pearl of Marquette, F. A. Bell of Negaunee and W. T. Potter of Ishpeming. It was only after more than three hours of hard battle, and on the twenty-fourth ballot, that victory finally lighted on the banner of the Negaunee aspirant. The balance of the offices were filled much as the political prophets had predicted and the scramble for these was practically over twelve hours before the convention went in session. Primeau's nomination to the office of register of deeds was the only thing in the nature of a surprise that the convention produced. Barabe being counted out as sheriff he was put in as a concession to the French vote.

An hour before it was time for the convention to take up its work the delegates began to congregate at the city hall, where the gathering was held. They roamed about in the corridors or stood in knots caucusing and putting the finishing touches to little deals. Some of them caucused as delegations. The Marquette city delegation was one of these.

Shortly after the up the road delegations arrived all went up stairs to the assembly room and took their places. The gallery and unoccupied part of the main floor were already well filled with spectators who, as later events showed, were on hand to witness the nomination of the ticket through the county clerk. When W. A. Ross had been put up for this position at least half of them left the room.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Gad Smith, chairman of the county committee, by virtue of his position, called the convention to order. Mr. Smith's appearance on the stage was the signal for a rather noisy demand for a speech from his admirers. He bowed his acknowledgments, declined to talk and proceeded to read the call. After this he received the nomination of Walter Fitch of Champion as temporary chairman, and when Mr. Fitch was chosen to officiate resigned the platform to him. M. E. Asire was selected as temporary secretary. Upon motion a committee of three was appointed on credentials, and after a few moments wrangle, another committee, also of three, was named on order of business and permanent organization. A recess of ten minutes was taken while the committees adjourned to ante rooms and performed their tasks. When the credentials committee brought in its report it named the following as entitled to sit as delegates.

Marquette—E. W. Vandenberg, B. I. Waldo, J. E. Sherman, J. F. Niedhart, W. A. Ross, John Berg, Walter T. Ward, M. E. Asire, George D. Fisher, F. O. Clark, D. W. Powell, W. A. Jellison, W. J. O'Meara, John Reardon, L. H. Stafford, W. A. Brown.

Negaunee—John Beaton, Samuel S. Mitchell, Napoleon Chibotti, H. A. Bice, Thomas H. Harris, Charles Sundberg, Thomas W. Wells, Captain S. Mitchell, August Lewcumb, J. H. Primeau.

Ishpeming—Thomas Walters, W. H. Hood, Frederick Brastrand, Robert Maxwell, William Frin, George Haslam, Charles Holmgren, Andrew J. Yungbluth, H. O. Young, Charles T. Fairbairn, Frank E. Haines, August Bjorling, Charles Kruse, John Farn, George B. Sedwick, W. H. Johnston, Charles Bengstrom, Nels Majhannu, Joseph Richards, John Peters.

Republic—D. T. Morgan, Erick Erickson, F. W. Pascoe.
 Tilden—John Trebilcock, John O. Flack.
 Humboldt—Joseph Tregoming.
 Marquette—F. W. Boesler.
 Negaunee—F. W. Read.
 Ishpeming—Joseph Charles.
 Ely—Phillip P. Chase.
 Champion—Walter Fitch.
 Michigamme—James Carmichael.
 Richmond—Mark Elliot.
 Sands—B. J. Goodman.
 Forsythe—Otto Schedt.
 Turin—James Findley.
 Skandia—Charles Wilson.
 Chocoiay—M. Hennessy.
 West Branch—C. C. June.

The committee on organization and order of business recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent and that the offices be filled in the order set out in the call, beginning with probate judge. Both reports passed without dissent.

SNAP FOR PASCOE.

The program was no sooner fixed and the officers sworn in till H. O. Young was on his feet and in a few sentences eulogistic of the man placed the name of Hon. Peter Pascoe before the convention. There was no opposition to Mr. Pascoe, but instead brief seconding speeches were made by members of the Marquette and Negaunee delegations. It was so plainly the sentiment of the convention to put Mr.

Pascoe in nomination that it was moved by an Ishpeming delegate to name him unanimously by acclamation. This was done.

In the first informal ballot for sheriff five names showed up. Three of them were nominated from the floor and the other two made their appearance on the slips. The ballot showed the votes of the sixty-five delegates divided as follows: Carlson, 52; Adams, 5; Barabe, 1; G. B. Mitchell, 1; W. A. Ross, 1. Carlson's lead was so pronounced that on motion he was declared unanimously elected.

Two ballots were necessary to award the treasury plum. There were four candidates. Their names, with their votes on the successive ballots, follow: Wright, 24-5; Sincoc, 21-21; Kangas, 16-38; Roberts, 4-0. The second ballot, which showed Kangas an easy victor, was declared formal. His nomination was, of course, a concession to the Finnish element.

All opposition to W. A. Ross for county clerk had been defeated outside the convention by days of hard campaigning. When it came to the actual demand on the convention he stood alone before the house for its suffrages. Mr. Ross was nominated by F. O. Clark, and received seconds from the Ishpeming and Negaunee delegations. It was absurd to think of opposing a trio like this, and on motion Ross was nominated by acclamation.

There was a contest for register of deeds and it took two ballots to decide it. Primeau showed the most strength from the start, and on the second was given forty-eight votes while his two principal opponents, Walter A. Maas and George McDonald, had respectively eighteen and three.

HERE BEGINS THE FIGHT.

The balcony crowd were poor prophets, for the most of them got up at this stage of the proceedings and fled out, thinking that the nominations for the lesser offices would be less interesting. This was where they missed it. The prosecuting attorneyship fight was on.

The contesting nominees in this were B. O. Pearl, F. A. Bell and W. T. Potter. It was a beautiful fight. Pearl started seven votes in the lead, and at one time lacked only two of the number necessary to elect. The apportionment of the votes among the three changed almost constantly. Nearly every ballot showed a different set of figures.

It was 4 o'clock when the name of B. O. Pearl, the first to be nominated, was presented to the council, and it was a quarter past seven, when Potter's dropping out and throwing his strength to the Negaunee candidate, gave Mr. Bell the votes necessary to elect him.

Time after time the tellers passed about to collect the voting slips. Pearl led invariably until the last ballot while Bell and Potter's vote slid up and down the scale, as supporters of one or the other weakened and went to the opposition. Several times during the voting there was a misvote, less or more ballots being cast than there were delegates to the convention. On one of these Mr. Pearl received thirty-three votes, but there were seventy-four cast, and the election of course was illegal. On the regular ballots he ran as high as thirty-one.

At occasional intervals during the voting there were motions for recesses and adjournments. Ishpeming, with Negaunee and a few supporting townships voted solidly against these till nearly 7 o'clock. Then a motion was put by an Ishpeming delegate that the convention take a recess of ten minutes. A Marquette delegate amended the motion to one hour, but the amendment was lost by a small majority, as part of the Negaunee delegation voted with the Marquettes.

The ten minutes breathing spell so secured was put to good use by the up the road people. Ishpeming and Negaunee caucused, and the upshot of it was that Potter was withdrawn and the Ishpeming strength thrown solidly for Bell when the twenty-fourth ballot was taken. In exchange for the remote possibility he had of being nominated prosecuting attorney Mr. Potter was given the circuit court commissionership in his part of the county. The vote on the last ballot, which was the first one after the recess, was Bell thirty-eight, Pearl twenty-seven. Mr. Bell was then accorded the courtesy of a unanimous vote.

The balance of the nominations were made with little trouble and no excitement, and are as given in the foregoing list.
