A Three Days Session Will be Held in Ishpeming This Week.

The annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union for the Twelfth district, which comprises the entire upper peninsula, will be held in Ishpeming on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 28, 29 and 30. The day sessions will be held in Calvary church. The place where the evening meetings will be held has not yet been decided on, but the Division street Methodist church will probably be secured for the evening sessions.

It is expected that there will be at east seventy-five delegates present at the convention. Every branch of the Division street all to himself yesterday union in the district will be represented. Among the delegates will be several good speakers who will discourse on the temperance cause. The local members of the union have begun making preparations for the convention. They will endeavor to provide entertainment for the delegates at private homes.

He Sits a Worthy Example for His Aristocratic Subordinates.

There is probably no class of people in the world so stiff-necked in their own etiquette as the officers of the crack regiments in St. Petersburg. Since Nicholas II. became tsar he has endeavored to discredit the notion that an army officer should not ride in a street car. In St. Petersburg the army officer has long considered himself too superfor to the common civilian to share with him this "vulgar" mode of converance.

A few weeks ago one of the few untitled officers in the Russian capital ventured to ride in a street car to his barracks. It was a presumptuous and a courageous act, for he had to alight before the fashionable cavalryman's club of the city. But it proved an uncomfortable act, for his fellow-officers declared that he had disgraced his uniform, and refused to listen to his quota-Hampton & Co. tions of the tsar's remarks on the subject.

Why is it that on crepid at 45, and another hale and hearty at 80? The accident of birth has something to do with it. Some men are born stronger than others, but frequently the strong man becomes weak and the weak man strong. It depends on the care he takes of himself. When the man who runs an engine hears an unusual sound about it, he stops immediately and looks it up. If he finds a little looseness, or a little crack, it is remedied immediately. If it isn't, there some unseen enemy? Is it possible that we are passing through a vale, not of tears, perhaps, but one of moral paraly-sis, where even the playful skipping of young lambs is distasteful to the senses? it lays hild out in bed. If he keeps on working with a damaged body, he will soon wear it out. The strain on his nerves will tell on his constitution. He will not be hearty when he is old. The chances are he never will be old at all. Dr. Pierce's Gold-en Medical Discovery restores health. It is not only a cure for disease, it is a pre-ventive. house. The committee had the biggest task on its hands than any salary committee has had in Marquette county.

This was nothing less than going mittee in its session yesterday was practically decisive. Owing to the persistent and insistent demands of the taxpayers of the county the board will doubtless feel obliged to do the cutting recommended.

known till the report is read in open session Monday, but committee members admit that they have recommended cuts.

One of the members was asked if the cuts would be all the people would like.

"They will be all the candidates will like," was his reply.

Pupils in Politics.

High school pupils are taking an interest in politics. Yesterday afternoon Stafford Drug Co. there were two clubs organized among will meet in open debate some afternoon of next week. Girls are taken into the club on an equal suffrage right. The membership of the two is quite evenly divided.

The Republican club is officered by President, John Egan; vice president, Arthur Hallam; secretary, Sadie Pen-dill; treasurer, Ruth Reed.

At the Theater.

"In Old Kentucky" is one of the most truly American plays that has ever been written. It is a deliniation of life and character foreign in upper peninsula models, but it is true to the soil from which it springs. This is proven by the popularity it enjoys among the Kentuckians themselves. And they surely would not patronize a performance which caricatured them.

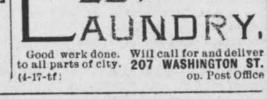

The piece as presented at the opera house last evening by Jacob Litt's capable company is a delightful example of the new melodrama. It is not A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free one of the kind where the villian always from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant, pursues her. But it is a story of hu-
