If you will visit every store like ours in this town (or county), and compare their goods with ours, and their prices with our prices, you would quickly see how you might actually start a snug little bank account with the money you can save at our prices.

YOUR INCOME.

It isn't what you receive—but what you spend that makes you prosperous or otherwise. Saving a dollar on this, half a dollar on that and a "quarter" on something else by trading at our store, in a little while spells prosperity. Even on smaller charges the saving of a dime or a nickel here and there amounts to a great deal in the aggregate. Yet our goods are just the same as if the extra dollar was added to the price. All that's kept, or should be, in an A. No. 1 grocery store you'll find at

BEDLAM AGAIN BREAKS OUT

Riot in the Austrian Parliament Resumes With Increased Turbulence.

FREE-FOR-ALL SCRIMMAGES AND INSULTING EPITHETS.

Speakers Are Howled Down and Several Deputies Are Suspended and Forcibly Ejected by the Police—Session Adjourns Amid Great Disorder.

SCENES AKIN TO A MAD-HOUSE.

Vienna, Nov. 26.—The disorder in the lower house of the reichsrath was so pronounced this morning that a strong detachment of police had to be called in to preserve order. It was an indescribable tumult, with fistuffs frequent and free. The Social Democrats took possession of the tribune and the president was compelled to flee. Finally the session was suspended, the police filled the lobby, the gates were closed and the building strongly guarded.

When the unterhaus reassembled this afternoon, after the forced adjournment of this morning, the re-appearance of President Abrahamovics was greeted by a storm of abuse. He repeatedly tried to address the Leftists, but his voice was inaudible amid the uproar. The only articulate sounds distinguishable being cries from the Leftists of "Out with the police."

In the midst of the uproar, Dr. Abrahamovics twice called Dr. Wolff, who was blowing a whistle, to order. As this had no effect upon the turbulent German Nationalist leader, the president suspended him for three sittings. As soon as the Leftists realized what had occurred they burst into unbridled fury, shrieking insults at President Abrahamovics. Herr Daszynski, a Socialist deputy, yelled: "You ought to be in jail." Other infuriated deputies shouted all kinds of invectives.

The president was apparently unmoved, but when he recognized it was useless to make a further attempt to transact business he suspended the sitting, amid vociferous voices of "Shame!" from the Leftists and applause from the Rightists. Then, by order of President Abrahamovics, an officer and four policemen removed Dr. Wolff from the house by force.

When the president again re-entered the house he was once more greeted with a shower of opprobrious epithets, including cries of "Criminal," "Traitor." After withstanding the storm for a period the president instructed the police to withdraw, declaring, amid the tremendous uproar: "I entrust myself to your care; do as you please, but remember this is no personal question. The honor of your chair is at stake."

The president called upon Count Stuergh to speak, but the tumult continued and the president suspended Herr Daszynski, the deputy who had shouted that the president should be in jail, as stated above, for three sittings. When Herr Daszynski refused to leave the house the president summoned the police and the turbulent deputy was ejected from the building. Subsequently the president suspended eleven other deputies.

The scenes throughout the sitting afterwards were as disorderly as those in the earlier parts of the day and the house finally adjourned till tomorrow.

Large crowds gathered tonight about the university building and parliament house, owing to an announcement the students intended to make a demonstration. This, however, was prevented by the police, who promptly dispersed the gatherings. More than forty arrests were made. There was no violent resistance. Thus far order has been preserved.

Later tonight the aspect of the streets became threatening. It is estimated a crowd of ten thousand, including a large number of students, assembled and threatened the government with a revolution and Count Baden, the premier, with the guillotine. An attempt was made to attack the premier's house. The police repeatedly charged the crowd, but refrained from using arms. The students resisted with sticks, and a number on both sides were injured. Order was finally restored. Today's edition of most evening newspapers was confiscated and the police freely arrested persons offering the papers in the streets.

A serious riot is reported at Graz, capital of the duchy of Styria. It appears that students and a large body of workmen attacked three newspaper offices, doing some damage. Twenty ringleaders were arrested.

Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) was among those expelled from the gallery of the unterhaus today.

The opposition leaders held a meeting this evening and decided, it is said, to impeach the ministry.

HANNA'S SEAT SAFE.

Fusion Republicans Will Vote for the Caucus Nominee.

Cincinnati, Nov. 26.—At the recent election the fusion ticket, which carried this county contained nine Democratic and five Republican members of the legislature. There has been some doubt as to how the Republican fusionists would vote on joint ballot for United States senator. At a meeting of these fusionists today they decided to vote for the Republican caucus nominee, which will make the legislature stand eighty Republicans to sixty-five Democrats on joint ballot for senator.

LESS BRUTALITY IN FOOTBALL.

Western College Representatives Decide to Amend the Athletic Rules.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Representatives of a number of the leading Western colleges met here today, and it was decided to amend the athletic rules in several particulars. The meeting today was preliminary in its nature, but there is no doubt that the changes suggested will be carried out, viz: A four-year limit for college athletes; preparatory students to be barred from college athletics; games with outside colleges to be regarded as "practice games"; "summer baseball nines" to be discouraged, and the further elimination of rough football.

The colleges which are party to the agreement are: Northwestern University, Purdue University, University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota and University of Wisconsin. It was decided that no student can play on a college football team until he has attended college at least one year.

The most important action taken was the adoption of a resolution calling for less brutality in football. A committee of three is to be appointed, and this committee will change the rules as they think best and report the changes to the members of the conference. The committee is to make its report before January, 1898. A. A. Stagg, physical director of the University of Chicago, who was chairman of this meeting, will be one of the committee, but the other two are not yet appointed.

GREAT COAL STRIKE ENDS.

Miners in the Northern Illinois District Win the Victory.

Thousands Go Back to Work at an Advance of 20 Cents a Ton Over the Scale Offered by the Operators.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The coal mining strike in the Northern Illinois district ended today. Twelve thousand miners have gone back to work in the Coal City, Bradwood, Carbon Hill, Spring Valley, Lodi, Seatonville, LaSalle and Olesby fields. A thousand men remain out at Streator. The only point where the miners and operators are not agreed, but a settlement there is expected within a week.

The victory is with the miners although they have not won all they asked. Their chief demand was for a "mine run" price, that is, a rate per ton as the coal comes from the mine, un-screened. This has been conceded in some places. Where the rate remains fixed on the price per net ton of screened coal a substantial advance has been won. The increase in wages all through the district amounts approximately to 20 cents per ton over the schedule made last May.

The strike has been on since July 4. It started as part of the general strike ordered by the United Mine Workers of America. The Pennsylvania and Ohio miners settled their differences early in September, and in Indiana work was resumed in time. Thirty thousand miners of Illinois, however, refused to ratify the terms of the agreement made at Columbus and continued the strike.

JAR FELT FOR TEN MILES.

Indiana Town Narrowly Escapes Demolition by a Nitro-Glycerine Explosion.

Chesterfield, Ind., Nov. 26.—An explosion of nitro-glycerine occurred half a mile west of the city last night. Sixty tons of the stuff had been hauled there for the purpose of shooting a gas well today. The explosive was placed in a large zinc tub located at the end of a steam exhaust pipe for the purpose of thawing out the mixture. It is the theory the tub became overheated, causing an explosion with disastrous results. Drillers Nancy and McGuire, standing within thirty feet of the scene of the accident, were hurled twenty feet by the force of the explosion, but with the exception of a few bruises escaped unhurt. The escape was miraculous. Persons a mile away were lifted from their feet by the concussion, and the jar was felt for ten miles. Fire followed the explosion, but the flames were quickly extinguished. There was not a house in town but what was moved from its foundation.

COFFEE WAR STILL ON.

Sales Enormous and Prices Lower Than Since Before the Rebellion.

New York, Nov. 26.—As a result of the war now being waged between the Arbuckle Coffee company and the Woolson Spice company, which last week was erroneously rumored to have been settled by the sugar trust captivating to the Arbuckles, the sales of coffee during the week now ending have been far in excess of any similar period the past year. Coffee brokers declared today their sales have been doubled. The Woolson Spice company, which is controlled by the Havemeyers, or sugar trust, is selling Rio No. 7 at a pound. Not to be outdone the Arbuckles have made a reduction in their prices. Coffee is now cheaper than it has been since before the war, say old dealers, and if the fight lasts there is no telling at what price it will go. Another reason for the low price is to be found in the enormous quantity of green coffee now here.

A FIEND INCARNATE.

Horrible Death of a Woman at the Hands of Her Husband.

Erie, Pa., Nov. 26.—The wife of Antonio Milano died today a most horrible death. Thanksgiving Day Antonio became drunk and went to the cellar to get more liquor. He fell and his wife came to his assistance with a lamp, but he threw a hammer at her head, missing the mark. Then he came up stairs with a can of oil and tar, which he threw in his wife's face. In an instant the mixture caught fire from the lamp and she was enveloped in flames. Help arrived in time to prevent her burning up where she stood. The woman was laid on a bed, and when the officers arrived they found Antonio standing over her plucking the cooked flesh from her breast and arms in fiendish glee and cursing like a demon. When arrested he had to be subjected to rough treatment before he could be taken to the police station.

Two Skaters Frown.

Duluth, Nov. 26.—Miss Louise La Salle and Miss Jennie Sheres, two girls, each aged about seventeen, were drowned in the St. Louis river tonight near New Duluth while skating.

BRITISH AND FRENCH AT IT

Troops of the Two Powers Finally Clash in West African Territory.

FIERCE CONFLICT REPORTED IN THE LAGOS HINTERLAND.

English Forces Said to Have Been Defeated and the Town of NIKKI, Capital of the Kingdom of Burgu, Captured by the Enemy.

BOTH WANT TO GRAB SAME REGION.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—The Frankfort Zeitung's Rome correspondent says: A sanguinary conflict has occurred between French and British troops at Nikki, in the Lagos Hinterland.

London, Nov. 26.—It is rumored at the colonial office there has been a collision between the British and French forces at Nikki, which is said to have been captured by the French.

Later—The colonial office this afternoon received a cable from Lagos that there was rumor current among the natives of a collision between four hundred British and French troops.

The trouble is about thirty years standing. There have been various agreements fixing the British and French frontier in West Africa, but none have effected final settlement. Of late both countries have been hurrying troops to the disputed territory and a conflict was anticipated, owing to the failure of the boundary commissioners of Great Britain and France to agree among themselves as to the frontier lines. Since then both parties have turned their attention to getting treaty concessions from native chiefs.

The French have been aiming at the establishment of a great African empire, and dispatched expeditions to the Hinterland of Lagos and Carnotville to establish headquarters. The British Niger company, however, getting wind of the French plans dispatched Captain (now Major) Lugard to Nikki, capital of Burgu, for the purpose of negotiating a treaty with the native ruler, and the English officer was fortunate enough to reach there and make the treaty before the French officer arrived at Nikki.

The French, however, seemed to have chosen to disregard this fact and dispatched armed expeditions, not only to Nikki, but to Broussa; which all along has been acknowledged to be within the sphere of British influence. To settle these and other questions in dispute the commission representing Great Britain and France is now tardily beginning to deliberate in Paris.

Paris, Nov. 26.—The minister for the colonies has received no information of a collision between British and French troops at Nikki.

GERMANY'S HEAVY DEMANDS.

What China Is Requested to Do to Atone for the Missionary Troubles.

London, Nov. 26.—Specialists from Shanghai state: The German minister to China has presented to the Chinese government the demands of Germany growing out of the recent destruction of German mission property and the murder of two German missionaries. The demands include the arrest and execution of the murderers, the punishment of the officials implicated, the reconstruction of the mission buildings, the payment of an indemnity of six hundred thousand taels (about $400,000) to the relatives of the victims and a heavy indemnity to cover the expenses of the German naval expedition and maintenance of the German force at Kiao Chau bay.

China replied that Kiao Chau bay must be evacuated before the demands can be discussed. The minister refused to consent to this and a deadlock has resulted.

It is reported that Chang Koa Yan, the Chinese general who surrendered the fortifications of Kiao Chau bay to the Germans, has been condemned to death. The viceroys of Canton, Foo Choo and Nan King are trying to put the coast defenses in repair to prevent further seizures of Chinese territory.

STRIKES DURING A SNOWSTORM.

Steamer Gogebic, Worth $70,000, Is Wrecked on North Manitow Island.

Glen Haven, Mich., Nov. 26.—This afternoon a yawl containing the mate and a portion of the crew of the steamer Gogebic arrived here. The men related a story of the stranding of their steamer on North Manitow Island last night during a snowstorm, and the mate was sent with messages to the vessel owners and underwriters asking for assistance.

The Gogebic was empty and bound from Chicago for a port on Lake Erie. During a dense snowstorm she struck on the island just where the steamer Alva grounded a few years ago. She was on a rocky bottom and pounding heavily, so the captain scuttled her. Her situation was so dangerous that the mate and some of the crew volunteered to go for help, and they reached this port after a perilous trip in their little boat.

The wrecker Favorite has been dispatched from Cheboygan, but unless fine weather sets in it is thought she will be too late to render much aid. The Gogebic is valued at $70,000.

AN IMMENSE CONSOLIDATION.

Makers of Wire Nails and Rods Will Pool Their Interests.

Cleveland, Nov. 26.—Information from reliable sources in Cleveland is to the effect that at a protracted meeting in New York city during the week, which was attended by nearly all the big producers of wire nails and rods in the country, an agreement to consolidate was virtually reached, only one concern remaining to be induced to go in. The combination will be the most immense ever attempted and will affect the entire iron trade. In order to avoid the fate of the old wire nail pool rods mills will be included, as well as a number of steel producing concerns.

ABOUT THE STATE.

All of the employees of the Grand Trunk and Chicago & Trunk Systems have been notified not to get in debt, as hereafter garnishee proceedings began against any one of them will mean the loss of his position.

Nearly the whole of the potato crop of Antrim county has been sold by the growers, and has either been shipped out or stored by the dealers who have bought and been unable to secure cars sufficient to handle all of the tubers.

Two Frankfort men, while hunting in Gilmore township this week, found a full outfit of counterfeiters' tools, together with some bogus coin, secreted in a hollow log in the woods. The outfit is thought to belong to the band of which a portion was arrested at Cadillac last summer.

A second best sugar factory is talked of at Bay City. Eddy Bros., the wealthy owners of several large lake craft, are at the bottom of the enterprise. One of the brothers recently visited the factory in Rome, N. Y., and became convinced that it is an industry that would prove a satisfactory investment.

A two-year-old son of John Bohr, of Westphalia, Ionia county, was standing near a corn sheller in operation, when a kernel of corn flew from the machine into his open mouth. It lodged in his windpipe, and the X-rays will be used in an endeavor to locate it, as the child cannot live unless the obstruction is removed soon.

Mrs. Ida Ridgley, of Bridgman, Berrien county, was given a divorce Tuesday from her husband, whom she married when she was fifteen years old, on account of non-support. Half an hour later she was again a wife, the man this time being Joseph Wilkinson. The grass-widow-bridal is now only seventeen years old.

The supreme court has declined to grant a rehearing in the celebrated case of Smith vs. the Lake Shore railway company to compel the defendant company to place 1,000-mile family tickets on sale, in accordance with the law of 1893. The court recently decided this case against the railroad company, and it will now be appealed to the United States supreme court.

Joseph Pigott, en route from Winnipeg, Manitoba, to Liverpool, England, became insane on a Michigan Central train at Kalamazoo Tuesday and jumped off the train, declaring that the trainmen were going to cut him into mince meat. He had tickets to Liverpool and plenty of money. Pigott is now in custody at Kalamazoo, awaiting orders from his attorneys at Winnipeg.

There are at least two men in Michigan who will never put themselves out to do any tramp a kindness. One is Charles Long, of Bay City, and the other is E. B. Lusk, of Marengo, Calhoun county. The former lost $6 in cash and a quantity of clothing, and the latter all the family silver, which the tramps to whom they had given a night's lodging carried off when they departed in the morning.

There are now fifteen cases of typhoid fever in Kalamazoo which are said to be traceable to the unwholesome milk supplied his patrons by one milkman. He has been stopped from peddling his milk here, but buys milk and sells it. Health Officer Rockwell says that milk from his cans, which are washed in the water at his place, is just as bad as his milk. Steps are to be taken at once to appoint a milk inspector.

While Daniel Cope, a Fruitport farmer, was driving across a railroad crossing at Muskegon Heights Tuesday morning he was struck by a northbound Chicago & West Michigan passenger train and was hurled through the air a distance of thirty feet, striking on his left side and sustaining several serious injuries, from which it is doubtful he will recover, as he is a man eighty years of age. The wagon was completely demolished by the shock and the driver was so badly mangled that it was found necessary to shoot it at once.

The war between the board of public works and the common council at Niles still goes merrily on. It will be remembered that the council legislated the old board out of office some time ago because it refused to act in accordance with the wishes of the council. The mayor then appointed a new board, but none of the appointees would accept, on account of a doubt of the legality of the discharge of the old board. The mayor has now appointed three men, and if they refuse will keep on making appointments until some three can be found to accept or until the positions have been tendered to every man in the city.

Sam Lawrence of Middleville has in his valuable collection of Indian relics the pipe of peace made and owned by Sitting Bull. He obtained it from Dr. Andrus of Wayland, to whom it was sent from the Little Big Horn sixty days after Custer's fight. The pipe is two and one-half feet long, the stem being of ash wood for about eight inches with rattlesnake hide, buffalo hair and duck feathers. The hide is dyed various bright colors, the Indians being adepts in this art. The owl is of red-stone, eight inches long, four and a half inches high and weighs fourteen ounces. It has the Sioux mark—one nick—and has been pronounced by a connoisseur to be genuine and worth $368.

THE ORE SITUATION.

The Iron Trade Review has this concerning the ore market and factors affecting it in its number for this week: The announcement of a 10 per cent advance in wages, effective Jan. 1, has been made by a number of important mining companies on the Menominee range, and thus one factor in the situation for 1898 is practically determined, as the advance will without doubt be general. The only other development of the week in iron ore is renewed reports of efforts by the Carnegie-Oliver ore interest to acquire control of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. It may be said on authority that no such effort is being made and no negotiations looking to that end are in progress. More than usual attention may have been directed to Cleveland-Cliffs stock by the currency of such reports in one form and another in the past two months, so that more of it is changing hands than in ordinary circumstances. The advance in the price is what might be expected from the prospect of dividend-paying which has come from the general improvement in the iron trade. Some stock has brought $42, in the past week, whereas $27 was paid three and four months ago. It may be considered that the stock now more nearly approaches its proper value, with the disappearance of the conditions in the iron trade that especially depressed all prices.

NOT IN THE CONSTITUTION. The farmers of the lower part of the state have their clubs out for lawmakers from this peninsula who insist on five dollars a day for their services. At a meeting of one whose proceedings are reported in the Michigan Farmer a discussion of the unfairness of having the dollars from the U. P. districts paid five dollars a day during the session while granger legislators get only three was the subject of heated discussion, the sense of the gathering finding expression after the debate in this resolution, which was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted: "Resolved, That we as a club suggest that the people of the state of Michigan should require the revision of the state constitution, so that members of our state legislature from the upper Peninsula receive the same pay per day as those from the lower."

It may be, as was alleged during the discussion mentioned, that the services of the upper peninsula members are not worth any more than those of their lower peninsula colleagues, but if so it will not require a revision of the constitution to remedy the injustice complained of. The legislature can do that by simply refraining from authorizing paying the members from this part of the state more than is allowed those from lower Michigan districts. The constitution of the state does not make the discrimination, each legislature doing this in turn since the precedent was established.

Governor Pingree denies that he has secured control of a lake of asphaltum in Venezuela and is about to set up in business as asphalt monopolist. But we fail to see what there would be wrong about it if he had made the deal with the Venezuelans which the newspaper reports credit him with having negotiated while he was down there recently. The governor has as much right to obtain control of the asphalt business as Carnegie has of the steel business, or John D. Rockefeller of the oil trade, or the sugar trust people of the sugar business. There might be a certain inconsistency in having a reformer seek to add to his wealth by creating a monopoly akin to the ones he has been denouncing, but that would not be any more inconsistent than many other things the governor has done. Besides, people don't insist consistency or any other virtue in a man who succeeds. The thing is to get there, and the people who get fooled can be relied on to find excuses that will be used for the man who accomplishes that.

It may be a very paternalistic but it is none the less a very wholesome step which the heads of departments at Washington have taken in notifying employees that they must keep their store and other bills paid or else run the risk of being dropped from the government pay rolls. The government is not merely enforcing a good example in the private dealings of its employees, but is acting for its own protection; for persons who are lax or dishonest with reference to their current obligations would be apt finally to prove untrustworthy in their place of employment.

Truly we are a great people for doing things on a grand scale. Placing a statue of President McKinley constructed of gold in the Paris exposition may be a costly way of notifying the world that we have given our adhesion to the gold standard, but it cannot be denied that it will be effective for that purpose. To give the proceeding full significance the gold for the statue should be obtained in Europe by a sale there of American securities.

The irrepresible Kaiser William bobs up again in the Dreyfus affair, this time as one who knew all about it, and knew that the accused captain was not the guilty man. He is said to have assured the French government in his word of honor as a gentleman that Dreyfus was not a spy for Germany. Considering his love for dramatic effect, it is wonderful that the kaiser did not go to Paris to testify before the court-martial.

It has not yet been ascertained how the Ohio legislature stands on the question of football. The interest felt in Mark Hanna's senatorial prospects is to blame for, but hardly excuses, this oversight. Senators come and senators go, but football goes on forever.

The consensus of opinion in the state is that Governor Pingree would be guilty of an unpardonable blunder if he were to call such an ordinary old thing as the legislature of Michigan together in extra-ordinary session.

FROM FOOT TO KNEE.

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure. "For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Some one sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." Mrs. ANNA E. EAKEN, Whittlesey, Ohio.

AN UNEXPLODED SHELL.

Dr. Teague showed us the other day the fuse of an unexploded 500-pounder Parrot shell which was discovered under a pew in St. Michael's church, in Charleston, when the church was overhauled after the earthquake. We were especially interested in this bit of past history, as the shell was taken from beneath the pew which was owned by Mrs. Arthur Ford's father. She and her family little realized when they sat placidly for so many years after the war under Mr. Keith's good ministrations that they were in such imminent and immediate danger of fire and brimstone. This was the only shell that struck St. Michael's church during the two years' bombardment. It entered on the southeast corner of the church and lodged under the floor of the northwest side on Broad street. When the church was got ready for service after the war the floor was simply replaced and this uncanny visitor left, its presence unsuspected by the congregation.—Aitken (S. C.) Recorder.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe winter, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place, and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by The Stafford Drug company.

DULUTH MANUFACTURERS AND JOBBERS.

DULUTH is located at the head of the Great Lakes, and is the natural receiving and distributing point for supplies coming from the east for a vast area, comprising several of the richest states and territories of the Great Northwest.

It is also the natural shipping point for the products of these states and territories. It is, for these reasons, a natural manufacturing and jobbing, as well as shipping center; and this fact explains the creation there of a great manufacturing and jobbing interest while the city is yet in its infancy, in spite of the discrimination against it in favor of St. Paul and Minneapolis of the old railway systems.

Its growth within recent years has been marvelous, and has been almost entirely due to the advantages its position gives it as a commercial and manufacturing center, though these have as yet been only partially developed and utilized.

Truly artistic was the performance given Thursday night at the Armory, Houghton, when "A Gilded Fool" was presented before a splendid and enthusiastic audience comprising a great number of the representative people of the twin cities.

The honors of the evening undoubtedly belong to Ben T. Barry, who assumed the title role of Chauncey Short, and to say the least he captivated the audience in no exaggeration.

The piece was under the direction of Mrs. Youngs, late of the Margaret Mather and Louise Morrison companies. Mrs. Youngs is a comedienne, but in this play supported Mr. Barry in a juvenile part.

NO BLUFF BY SPAIN.

All Doubts of the Sincerity of the Offer of Reforms Are Removed.

ROYAL DECREE IS PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE.

Home-Rule Government Given the Antilles Somewhat on the Lines of That of Canada—Last American in Prison in Cuba Released.

RESTS WITH THE INSURGENTS NOW. Madrid, Nov. 27.—The Official Gazette publishes this (Saturday) morning royal decree granting autonomy to Cuba and Porto Rico, thus removing the anxiety that had begun to be expressed on all sides as a result of the government's reticence and unexplained delay.

Article one explains the principles of the future government of the two islands. Article two declares that the government of each island be composed of an insular parliament, divided into two chambers, while a governor general, representing the home government, shall exercise in its name supreme authority.

Article three declares that the making of laws and colonial affairs rests with the insular chambers and governor general.

Article four directs the insular representations to be composed of two corporations with equal powers, a chamber of representatives and a council of administration.

Article five provides that the council of administration shall consist of thirty-five members, of whom eighteen shall be elected and seventeen nominated by the home government.

NO AMERICAN PRIORS LEFT. Spanish Authorities in Cuba Release the Last Batch of Them.

Havana, Nov. 26.—The Spanish authorities today released from prison Thomas J. Jordan, a prisoner captured, according to the allegations, after the landing of an expedition by the American steamer Three Friends, and Manuel Hernandez, who is said to have been a member of another filibustering expedition. Both men were under sentence of death. The government has also released from prison Juan Arias, Augustin Cossio, Emilio Betancourt and Rosendo Betancourt. No American citizens are now confined in prison in the island of Cuba.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 26.—General J. A. Gonzales Lanuza, the famous Cuban criminal lawyer, who has been confined in the penal colony prison in North Africa for over a year, has been released. Lanuza was convicted of treason against the Spanish government in Havana.

OLD MAID HOLDS THE FORT. A Kentuckian Seeks to Evict His Sister to Make Room for His Bride.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 26.—Henry Green has brought suit against his sister, Annie Green, to clear his title to property on the Fountain Ferry road, and to recover possession of the two front rooms, which she alleges has been occupied by her. He charges that "the defendant, who is unmarried and a spinster, near forty-eight years old, of violent temper and disposition has without right" claimed an interest in the cottage and refused to vacate the two front rooms. The plaintiff states that he has recently married and that although he wishes to take possession of the house she abuses him and his wife in such a manner that he cannot do so until she is evicted.

NASTY GOTHAM MAN. Dropped Bats Down Wife's Neck and Now She Wants a Divorce.

New York, Nov. 26.—Dropping live coconuts down the back of his wife's neck, exploding giant firecrackers in her boudoir at 5 o'clock in the morning and tickling the soles of her feet when she tried to sleep are a few of the delicate attentions Herman Ridder, printer is alleged to have bestowed upon his spouse, who is now seeking a divorce from him. He used to live at 157 West Sixty-fifth street; where he is at present his wife does not know. The insects worried Mrs. Ridder into a state of chronic insomnia and came near hurrying her into a premature grave, she declares.

Killed Himself to Escape Capture. London, Nov. 26.—A special cablegram to The Times from Cape Town describes a bold attempt to rob the Standard bank at Claremont, a suburb of Cape Town. A masked man entered the counting room of the bank, locked the door and by some unknown means broke the neck of the cashier, though no mark of violence could be found on the body. When the manager of the bank appeared the robber shot and wounded him slightly. The police then rushed in and the robber, seeing all chance of escape was gone, shot himself dead.

MRS. NACK MAY NOT TESTIFY. Prosecutor Youngs Thinks Murder by Thora Already Proved Progress of the Trial.

New York, Nov. 26.—In the trial of Martin Thorn, for the murder of William Gulidensuppe, today Barber Kechn, whose examination was not concluded Wednesday, admitted that the stiletto he showed Thorn had a poisoned point.

Carl Merich, who keeps a barber shop, testified Thorn had told him about living with Mrs. Nack and having a row with Gulidensuppe. He sent Thorn for a bottle of "shampoo mixture" June 23. Thorn had told the police he was in this barber's place June 25, the day of the murder, and the witness said he received a letter from Thorn asking him to say he sent for the shampoo mixture on the 25th.

The principal witness this afternoon was John Gotha, a barber, to whom Thorn is alleged to have made a confession. His story agreed substantially with the account printed at the time and corroborated that told by Mrs. Nack.

The prosecution rested without putting Mrs. Nack on the stand. The defense was not prepared to go on with the examination of witnesses and court adjourned until Monday.

It was generally expected that Mrs. Nack would be put on the stand to reiterate her confession, and the lawyers who have been assigned to look after Thorn's interests thought she would repeat her statement of two weeks ago. Late this afternoon, however, District Attorney Youngs said he was not prepared to say whether Mrs. Nack, who had made such a famous scene in the first trial by confessing, would be produced or not. The case, as far as the district attorney's opinion went, was fully proved without the woman's testimony. Latter on, however, one of Mr. Youngs' advisers said that in case the defense put Martin Thorn on the stand, the prosecution would certainly produce Mrs. Nack in rebuttal.

THREE TIE FOR FIRST PLACE. Close Contest Between Wing Shot Champions at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—The twenty-five live bird shoot under auspices of the St. Louis Trap Shooters' league was completed today. Jack Fanning, San Francisco; Charlie Budd, Des Moines, and W. S. Sargent, Joliet, Mo., were tied for first money, each scoring twenty-five straight. The big end of the purse was divided among the first three. In the shoot-off for the diamond trophy Fanning won, scoring fourteen out of fifteen. Sargent fell down on the seventh bird, while Budd dropped out on the twelfth. Twenty-three experts shot in this event. Fred Gilbert and Henry McMurchy divided second money in the twenty-five bird event, each scoring twenty-four. Frank Faurote, the crack Texas amateur, was troubled with a sore arm since the tournament commenced. In view of this handicap his average work in the traget events, finishing second to the first man, Rollo Helkes of Dayton, O., is exceedingly creditable.

PERISHED IN MISERY. Wealthy Hermit Found Dead in a Lonely Cabin in Nebraska.

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 26.—C. Campbell Smith, an aged recluse, was tonight found dead in his house, where he lived alone. The condition of the body indicated that he had been dead about two weeks. Rats had mutilated the remains. Smith was well-to-do, but eccentric and miserly. In his trunk were found demand certificates of deposit on local banks, city warrants and deeds to farm and city property aggregating many thousands of dollars. He was a lawyer and highly educated. His relatives, if he had any, live in Ohio or Illinois.

NERVY SUICIDE. Wisconsin Man Deliberately Lays Down in Front of a Train.

Fosteria, O., Nov. 26.—John Pipp of Ripp Lake, Wis., enroute for his former home in Germany, got off a Baltimore & Ohio train here this morning, wandered around the railroad yards a couple of hours and then deliberately laid down on the tracks in front of an approaching Nickel Plate passenger train and was killed. In his pockets were found a gold watch, $46 in money and tickets from Ripp Lake to Germany.

PROTEST FROM THE IRISH. Sons of Erin Will Fight the Proposed Arbitration Treaty.

New York, Nov. 26.—A petition to the senators of the United States was issued today from the headquarters of the Irish National alliance against the adoption of the proposed general treaty of arbitration with England. The petition will be circulated by the various councils of the alliance throughout this country, the Ancient Order of Hibernians and other Irish-American societies.

No Law Against Polygamy. Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 26.—It has developed that the Alabama law does not prohibit polygamy, and the same is true of most of the other states. No married man can marry again, but a man carry several wives simultaneously.

To Own Its Water Works. Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 26.—The proposition to raise $700,000 to construct civic water works, submitted to the voters, has been carried by a majority of over a thousand.

EXPORTS BIGGEST KNOWN

$225,000,000 Represents the Excess Over Imports in the Last Four Months.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF CEREALS, COTTON AND MACHINERY.

General Trade Shows No Improvement This Week—Iron Industry Not So Favorable. With Lower Prices, and Over-Production is Feared.

AS NOTED BY DUN AND BRADSTREET. New York, Nov. 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Trade Review for this week will tomorrow say:

"The heavy exports of wheat, with a renewed advance in the price, is the most interesting and most important feature of the week's events. Since August, when the extent of the foreign deficiency became realized, the exports have been larger than in the corresponding weeks of any previous year. Cotton exports, also, have become very heavy, and the outgo of corn falls but little below last year's unprecedented record, while in the exports of manufacturing products, especially machinery, all records for the season have been surpassed.

"While the aggregate for November last year was over $109,000,000, the shipments from New York so far the present month have been in a slightly smaller ratio, with a fair prospect that the increase in cotton and other products from other ports may make up the deficiency. Meanwhile, imports are running behind last year's, at New York nearly $2,000,000 this month, so that another excess of exports over imports, amounting to about $60,000,000 for the month, is probable. And this would make an excess of about $225,000,000 in four months.

"After a slight decline last Saturday, wheat has risen to 1.00% for Nov. 1917, with No. 2 red and other grades selling many cents higher. Yet Western receipts are of enormous magnitude, in the last four weeks 27,072,000 bushels against 9,215,000 for the same four weeks of last year, while Atlantic exports (four included) were for the same weeks 13,440,000 bushels against 7,738,000 last year.

"Cotton declines to 5.81 cents, the lowest point for many years, with scarcely any indications of a speculative effort. Print cloths and some other staples are at the lowest quotations ever known. The demand for goods from the South is larger since the removal of the embargoes, and recent reductions in prices have stimulated larger transactions by dealers; but the stocks held by millers are still heavy. With 1,961,000 pieces of print cloths on hand, against 2,312,000 a year ago and only 206,000 pieces a year ago, the output of 2,000,000 beyond consumption last year has been a heavy load ever since.

"The iron industry shows no decrease in the production or consumption of pig, but with much reduced orders for products an excess of production is expected; and Bessemer furns a shade, to $10.15, and grey force, to $19.25, at Pittsburg, though the Chicago and Eastern markets show no change. Billets are also weaker. The expectation of lower prices tends to produce them at a time when new business is naturally small, and the mills are working mostly on old orders, with buyers impatient for deliveries. Other large orders are held back in plates by the inability of the works to deliver in the time desired. In bars, agricultural and railway manufacturing causes a heavy demand at Chicago, iron being preferred to steel, and thin sheets are also in better demand; but bars are a shade lower at Pittsburg.

"Wool manufacturers are still consuming heavily in the execution of past orders and many agents have sold so far ahead that they seek no further business, while others are beginning to question whether the demand for next season will suffice if the prices are made to correspond with the present quotations of wool. No change has occurred in cotton manufacture, and the markets for its products are still irregular. "Failures in the United States for the week were 236 against 309 in the same week of last year."

Bradstreet's Business Resuming. New York, Nov. 26.—Summing up the business situation, Bradstreet's says:

"Withstand the appearance of a demand for holiday specialties at some points in the South, at Chicago and St. Louis, and in the regions tributary thereto, general trade throughout the country has shown no general improvement this week. The most favorable reports are from the territory west of the Mississippi river and north of Missouri and Kansas, where colder weather has stimulated the demand at the interior and country merchants have been buying with comparative freedom.

"The Eastern cotton goods industry continues depressed. Consumers evidently do not intend to buy extensively until they believe the prices of raw cotton are ready to advance. Competition from Southern mills, and more particularly over-production by the manufacturer who produces a single staple, underlies the existing large stocks and heaviness of prices. Converters and manufacturers of common yarns are situated relatively more favorably.

"Other lines reporting seasonable distribution are manufacturers of woollens clothing and shoes and jobbers in fancy groceries. Iron and steel has not been in as active demand as expected and are lower, notwithstanding that the purveyors and mills are generally supplied with orders sufficient to carry them well into next year. A favorable feature is found in an advance in the wages of operatives in various industrial lines.

"The aggregate exports of wheat (four included) from both coasts of the United States this week were 5,465,000 bushels, against 3,753,000 bushels the corresponding week of last year. Corn exports this week were 2,869,000 bushels against 2,920,000 bushels last year. "The total bank clearings at the principal cities of the United States for the week were $1,058,482,288, an increase of 12% compared with the corresponding week of last year."

RAID ON SLOT MACHINES. Omaha Police Confiscate Several Thousand Without Discrimination.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 26.—The nickel in the slot machine as a gambling device was licensed three months ago. Within thirty days 2,000 of various kinds were in operation in which chance was the only element. In addition there were, perhaps, 1,000 commercial machines, such as telephones, stamps, chewing gum, candy, etc. Gambling became so active that the whole business became a nuisance and on Monday the chief of police was ordered to take every slot machine in the city of whatever nature to the station if the proprietors did not stop business.

Now what row is on, provoked by the owners of legitimate machines, in which chance is not an element. No discretion was used. Even the slot machines were dismantled. The slot machines which give forth small quantities of chewing gum or chocolate in return for pennies were also ordered taken down and members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, which organization has been calculating on putting in a number of cherry phosphate automatic drinking fountains during the exposition, received very little encouragement when they called at the city clerk's office to find out whether or not they were prospective gamblers.

The federal government has semi-officially recognized a slot machine, one which gives five cents worth of stamps upon the depositing in it of five cents, and a number of years ago allowed the operation of one of the first slot machines invented, one which gave four cents in stamps a sheet of paper and an envelope for a nickel. But they, too, were taken to the city hall with their treasure of stamps.

VAN DERBILTS PLAN A MONOPOLY. Cornelius Heads a Syndicate Which Proposes to Corner Soft Coal.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 26.—It has just leaked out here that the Vanderbilt interests propose to secure control of the soft coal markets, both East and West. The plans include the building of about 150 miles of railroad, the development of 500,000 acres of coal land recently purchased and the opening of a direct freight system from New York to Milwaukee and other great lake ports.

In the early part of September a syndicate, including Cornelius Vanderbilt, H. McK. Twombly and W. Seaward Webb, through John T. McGraw of Grafton, W. Va., bought for $520,000 300,000 acres of coal land in eastern West Virginia, and from other owners secured 200,000 adjoining acres. With this coal and a fully equipped freight line, such as is provided for by the Vanderbilt line, the Vanderbilts expect to sell coal at figures that will secure them a practical monopoly of soft grades.

WILLETT NOT A DEFAULTER. Default Crawford County, Ind., Banks Will Pay Dollar for Dollar.

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—Willet, the fugitive cashier of the three defunct banks in Crawford county, has returned to his home and the assignee, after examining the assets of the banks at Marengo, English and Leavenworth, reports sufficient funds to meet all claims. In addition, Attorney Hatfield of Warrick county, representing Willett's wealthy grandmother, has offered to advance $50,000 if necessary to set Willett on his feet, it being demonstrated that he was honest in his dealings and that he was simply stumped because of unusual drafts by merchants, trustees and bank correspondents. The report of the assignee has satisfied the people and Willett will be welcomed with open arms.

Idle Car Works to Resume. St. Louis, Nov. 26.—The Madison Car company, whose plant is at Madison, Ill., has been absorbed by the Missouri Car & Foundry company. The transfer papers will be signed tomorrow and the works, which have been idle a year, will be reopened as soon as possible and operated as part of the Missouri Car & Foundry company. The Madison Car company's plant is one of the finest in the country and the company owning it was capitalized at a million dollars.

Cheap Fares for the Holidays. ### GREENBACKS WILL NOT GO.

Proposition to Retire the Legal Tenders Would Fail in Congress.

STRONG OPPOSITION TO THE PLAN, ESPECIALLY IN THE WEST.

Probable Fate of Other Contemplated Currency Schemes—No Invasion of Oklahoma Indian Lands to Be Tolerated—Secy. Gage's Ruling.

GOSSIP AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL. Washington, Nov. 26.—The Chicago Tribune's correspondent here telegraphs his paper:

"During the last month senators and members of the house have dropped in to Washington for a day or two at a time, and in each case have called at the White House to express their views. Although these callers represent only a fraction of congress, they come from such widely separated sections that their opinion is a pretty fair reflex of public sentiment. From what they say it is now clearly evident that a proposition to retire the greenbacks will not secure a majority in the house. Among Eastern representatives there is considerable sentiment in this direction, but the Western Republicans are almost solidly against it.

Among the Western men there are two distinct classes to be observed. The larger proportion are opposed to the retirement of the greenbacks on general principles. They take the ground that if the government has difficulty in redeeming its paper in times of panic, the associated banks would be much less able to do the same thing. The other element is willing to consider the proposed banking currency on its merits, but say that the greenback currency has been too long established, is too firmly fixed in the affections of the people, and has, on the whole, performed its work too well to be displaced, except on the demand of the people, clearly expressed. These two elements among Republicans, joined with silver Democrats, will certainly vote against the retirement of the greenbacks, and will have a majority in the house.

A proposition to issue short time low rate certificates of indebtedness to provide for deficiencies in revenue, coupled with a provision for the segregation of greenbacks exchanged for gold, would probably pass the house, and might even get through the senate.

A separate proposition to permit national banks to issue notes up to the par value of the bonds deposited, with a reduction of the tax on one-eighth or one-fourth of 1 per cent, coupled with the reduction of the minimum capital to $25,000, would probably pass the house, and might pass the senate.

Bonds payable specifically in gold, to protect the gold reserve, or to refund the present bonded debt at lower rates of interest, might pass the house by a narrow majority, but certainly would not pass the senate.

A bill to retire the greenbacks and substitute national bank currency would be beaten in both houses unless the sentiment is materially changed. A bill to retire the national bank currency and substitute greenbacks would receive the votes of a respectable minority in the house, and would stand a show of passing the senate.

All of these predictions have been made in the hearing of President McKinley within the last few weeks, and all of them are in line with the views of congress, as known by close observation here. Many of the Western congressmen take even stronger ground. They say that the agitation for the retirement of the greenbacks has had the effect of strengthening the hands of the fiatists, who are beginning to play on the sentimental regard of the people for the money which carried on the war by representing that the banks are endeavoring to secure absolute control of the currency, so that they can have the people at their mercy by fixing the rates of interest and manipulating the currency to make money dearer. Silly as the story seems, these congressmen say it is spreading so rapidly that a vote to retire the greenbacks would seriously endanger their seats.

BOOMERS TO BE SQUELCHED. Any Invasion of the Wichita Reservation Will Be Speedily Put Down.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Secretary Bliss has taken prompt action to avert a possible invasion of the Wichita reservation in Oklahoma by whites with an idea of forcing upon congress the opening of the country to white settlement. Reports have reached the department that certain persons are declaring their intention to organize a large party in Kansas or elsewhere to invade the Wichita lands with the object as stated. Instructions have been wired all agents and inspectors in that section to make inquiries and ascertain as far as possible the truth of the rumors and report the result here. The agents are called upon to exercise great vigilance to prevent any such invasion, and in case of necessity, where the Indian police force is inadequate, military assistance will be promptly furnished. This action is more a precautionary measure than in anticipation of real danger.

ment employe who takes forty-four drinks of whisky within forty-eight hours cannot, in the nature of things, be an efficient servant and that he should be summarily removed.

As a result of this decision Daniel Hawthorne, a Tammany Democrat and late deputy collector of customs at the port of New York, has become a private citizen. The Republican collector recently employed detectives to shadow his Democratic subordinates. The man who "kept tab" on Hawthorne reported that the latter took forty-four drinks of whisky in forty-eight hours. The detective having made affidavit to the fact, the document was forwarded to Secretary Gage, who promptly issued an order for Hawthorne's removal.

It is not likely that Mr. Hawthorne will take his case before the civil service commission unless he can show that the detective who watched him took as many drinks as he did in the same period of time. In that case the commission might insist that the detective's story should be corroborated by other witnesses.

JUMPED THE DOLLAR BURDLE. December Wheat Finishes at New York Three-Eighths Ahead of the Mark.

New York, Nov. 26.—After several weeks of unsatisfactory markets "dollar wheat," in the speculative acceptance of the term was realized on "change today." December option early attained that figure and soon passed it, reaching $1.00% in the afternoon, which also was the final price. A bad squeeze of the shorts was chiefly responsible for the local strength, although higher cables had much to do with the early advancing tendency of the local markets. December wheat ranged from 98 3/4c to $1.00%.

Big Advance at Chicago, too. Chicago, Nov. 26.—The market wheat was today very nervous and unsettled, with a 1 1/2% advance in the latter part of the day, closing 1/2% below the top and 1 1/2% higher than yesterday, the latter December. The strength came chiefly from Liverpool, which was decidedly higher. The prospective cold wave, following rain, was another strengthening feature. Shorts were considerably disturbed, while offerings were not very free and the advance was rapid. Local out-inspection was rather liberal and exports free. Liverpool receipts the past three days were more moderate and largely American.

Corn was in moderate trade, within 1/4% range, closing a shade under the highest and 1/2% higher than Wednesday. The promise of bad weather, tending to cut off receipts, was a factor in the firmness, also the strength of wheat. Oats were in fair trade, within 1/2% range, closing at medium figures and a shade lower to 1/2% higher than Wednesday.

The leading grain futures ranged as follows:

	Opened	High	Lowest	Settled
Wheat: May	91 1/4	91 3/4	91 1/4	91 3/4
Corn: May	60 1/2	60 3/4	60 1/2	60 3/4

Eighty Millions of Deposits.

New York National Bank Holds the Record in That Line. New York, Nov. 26.—In one of the most unpretentious looking banking-houses in Wall street there has been within the last few months a growth of business so extraordinary that it has aroused the liveliest interest on the part of the down-town bankers and of financiers generally. It is that of the National City bank, which in May last absorbed the Third National bank, and now has about $80,000,000 of net deposits. On Monday, Nov. 22, the gross deposits of this bank amounted to $111,000,000 in round numbers and the bank's credit balance at the New York clearing house was $8,537,811. The unusual volume of last Monday's business is shown by the fact that the National City bank had on that day sent to the clearing house checks on other banks aggregating $30,517,475, and the amount of the checks sent to the clearing house by other banks for collection from the National City bank was $22,279,563. This day's transactions included the check for about $12,650,000 which formed part of the payment to the government for the Union Pacific railroad. These figures are surprisingly large even for Wall street to contemplate. An aggregation of net deposits amounting to $80,000,000 in a single bank is extremely uncommon. Such a sum of deposits in a bank of discount is unprecedented in this country. This great accumulation of business by one bank has caused a flutter in down-town banking circles. Naturally, some of the banks feel its effects in a diminution of their own business. Rumors of prospective consolidations of comparatively weak banks have been many of late, and the figures of the officially published bank statements begin to tell significant tales. James Stillman is president and A. Barton Hepburn, who was at the head of the absorbed Third National, is one of the vice presidents of the National City bank. Although the bulk of the deposits in this bank is so great, the number of depositors is not uncommonly large, being less than 3,000. The list of depositors, however, includes the Standard Oil company, two or three big trust companies, a great life insurance company and some rich railroad corporations. Conservative bankers in this city are viewing with deep interest the remarkable concentration of capital in the National City bank, and several predict that such an abnormal development in one quarter will disturb the conditions governing the business of other New York banks.

A Curious Town.

The most curious town in England is Northwich. There is not a straight street, nor, in fact, a straight house, in the place; every part of it has the appearance of having recently suffered from the visitations of an earthquake. Northwich, as every one knows, is the center of the salt industry. On nearly all sides of the town are big salt works, with their engines pumping hundreds of thousands of gallons of brine every week. At a depth of some 200 or 300 feet are immense subterranean lakes of brine, and as the contents of these are pumped and pumped away, the upper crust of earth is correspondingly weakened, and the result is an occasional subsidence. These subsidences have a "pulling effect on the nearest buildings, which are drawn all ways, giving the town an upside down appearance.—London Sun.

Came in Like a Lamb.

How the winter of 1897-8 will go out time must show, but that it came to us in a sweetly lamb-like fashion is indisputable. Until Thanksgiving day there had not been snow enough on the ground in this city at any time during the fall to bring out even a dog-sleigh, not to speak of more pretentious vehicles on runners. On Thanksgiving morning cyclists were still using the streets, but well along toward noon a fine snow began to descend gently, as though it desired to obtain a foothold for the coming legions of King Winter without attracting observation. Soon the flakes grew in size and came down more quickly, and by night there was a depth of several inches of snow on the streets, and the first sleighs of the season came forth in token of Marquette's surrender to the icy monarch of the frozen north. But let it go on record that on the morning of Thanksgiving day the wheelsmen still held possession of the streets of the city, and "scorched" along their several ways rejoicing. It has been a wonderfully pleasant fall. September was an unusually warm month and remarkably free from storms. October was mild and pleasant, though there was a great deal of cloudy weather, and November has been phenomenally fine to date. It is worthy of note that there has not been a single heavy storm in this region during the fall months, and as a result there have been no serious marine disasters on Lake Superior to give a somber closing to the season of navigation. There is now snow to the depth of about eight inches on the ground, and it is probably here to abide with us for awhile, but a leading merchant of the city was yesterday offering to wager that it would all disappear within a week. An old chap from the country who sets up as a weather prophet on the strength of a venerable coonskin cap that he wears and his capacity for "chawin'" plug tobacco of the rankest flavor was in town in the morning and imparted the information (under the mellowing influence of a couple of swiggers of liquified rye) that the beavers haven't put up their storm windows and doors or laid in their supply of coal, and that this is a sure sign that real cold weather isn't coming our way for a moon or two yet. He says the pigs are abnormally thin this season, also—another sure sign that the cold will not be so severe as to drive them to the extremity of living on their fat. Notwithstanding all of which, it will be well for people here to consider it settled that winter is with us for keeps till some time next May. The beaver was formerly a thrifty animal and got ready for winter when he should, but associating too much with white men has robbed him of many of his primitive virtues and now he is just as apt to loaf around when he should be preparing for the cold season as are many of the people who make a living by trapping him and other fur-bearing "critters" and who pretend to know ever so much about the weather.

John, ex-president of DePauw university, which is to be given in the Methodist church on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 2. This great lecture, which has attracted world-wide attention and which has brought forth multiplied thousands of columns of favorable criticism in the daily press, is in the nature of a reply to the teachings of agnosticism in general and to the essays and lectures of Colonel Ingersoll in particular. Dr. John is everywhere recognized as a man of magnificent brain power, a careful and profound thinker, and an eloquent and most entertaining speaker. It is hoped the people of Marquette will avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing a most interesting theme discussed by one of our greatest platform orators.

PUMPING STARTED AT LAST.

The Task of Unwatering the Cliffs Shafts Mine Successfully Inaugurated.

The big plunger pump at the Cliffs Shafts mine has been started and is now in successful operation. A man was sent into the shaft yesterday afternoon to take a measurement of the distance the water was lowered during the first twenty-four hours and the report he made was most encouraging. He had found that the water had been lowered sixty-five feet. The management did not think that so much of the water could be taken out during the first day, as it was feared the machinery would not work as smoothly as it did before the mine closed down, but the plant is working better than ever did before. The rods of the big pump do not make the racket they did previously and there is very little noise of any kind caused by operation of the plant.

There is a difference of opinion as to the time it will take to get the water out of the mine. Some of the workmen are of the belief that the water will be all lifted out within sixty days, while others think it will take nearer ninety days to accomplish the task.

The ballers have not yet been started. These are at the top of the shafts, however, and will be put to work within the next few days, as soon as the shaft houses are got in shape for them.

Will Hold the Bazaar Again Today.

The bazaar held Thursday afternoon and evening under auspices of the Salvation Army will be continued this afternoon and evening. There was a big crowd out and quite a number of the fancy and useful articles which the ladies had on sale were disposed of, but some of the best things in the collection remain unsold. Many of the articles displayed on the band stand, and which attracted so much attention, still remain and will be let go tonight at any price they will bring. All who attend the bazaar this evening will be made welcome.

The officers of the army desire through The Mining Journal to express their appreciation of the patronage accorded them on Thursday and they hope to see many of their friends out again today.

The supper and concert given Thursday night at the Salisbury Methodist church was such a complete success that there will be another supper and entertainment there this evening. The ladies will remain to serve supper at 4 o'clock and will continue until all are provided for. There will be a magic lantern exhibit in connection with the concert. The pictures to be shown are said to be quite attractive and all who attend the entertainment are promised a good time.

The new church building at the Salisbury will be used for the regular services tomorrow morning and evening. It has been impossible to use the building while it was being moved and repaired. All the work has been finished and the structure is now very comfortable in every respect.

The entertainment given Thursday evening at the Division street Methodist church was largely attended and all present were thoroughly pleased with the program rendered. Although a very small admission was charged quite a sum was realized for the society.

Dr. Bell to Leave Here.

W. J. Bell, the dentist in the McKey block, will leave Ishpeeming the first of the coming year for Los Angeles, Cal., where he makes his home permanently. He has disposed of his business here to Dr. Drake, who conducts a similar business at Negaunee, and the transfer will take place Jan. 1.

Dr. Bell has had a desire to locate in California for some time past. When he went out there a few months ago the principal object of his visit was to look over the field with a view to locating at some town in that state. He is to take an interest in the well-established business of Dr. Dorrance, who is considered one of the best dentists in this country. When Dr. Bell was learning the profession at the Michigan university Dr. Dorrance was an instructor in the dental department. His brother is now the professor there. Dr. Dorrance at present enjoys a larger practice than any dentist in California, so that Dr. Bell considers himself in great luck in getting in with so clever a man.

Dr. Bell has been in Ishpeeming but three years. During that time he has had a good practice and has won the confidence of the people as a business and professional man.

"The Passion Slave" Drew Well.

The opera house was packed to the doors Thursday night when the Catholic Dramatic club rendered "The Passion Slave" for the benefit of St. John's church. All the extra chairs put in were filled and some had to stand up during the entire evening.

The play was about the heaviest the club has ever presented, but in spite of this all the parts were well taken. There is plenty of good comedy in the piece and this was brought out in a way that kept the assemblage in good humor. Miss Minnie Collins, R. D. Kyle and Joseph Labreche made a decided hit in their comedy work, all being well adapted for their parts. A larger sum was realized for the church than on any play previously given by the club. It is likely that the drama will be rendered again after the holidays.

Out at "Camp Nine."

The ladies and gentlemen who spent last week out at "Camp Nine" have returned from there and others have since gone out to remain a few days. On Thanksgiving George B. Sedgwick, George A. Newett and D. P. Householder went out and yesterday C. T. Fairbairn, C. T. Kruse, A. K. Sedgwick and Dr. Andrus left for there to remain until next week.

An Extensive Rooster.

The fair held Thursday afternoon and evening at the A. O. U. W. hall under auspices of the Finnish Lutheran church society was a monster success financially. The gross receipts of the day were $265. Nearly all of this was clear money for the society, as everything disposed of was donated by the members of the congregation and their friends. During the latter part of the evening there was quite a lively time between two factions who were trying to outbid each other. Some of the articles put up were sold for ten times what they are worth. For instance, a rooster that had been given to the society was sold for $25. The man who held out said they were bound to get the rooster if they had to pay $50 for it. They would not satisfy the opposing faction to give up.

Death of a Bright Girl.

Nellie Eddy, aged fourteen and a half years, daughter of Mrs. John Eddy of North Third street, passing away Thursday evening after being ill only five days. Pneumonia was the cause of demise. The death of this bright young lady is a severe shock to her mother and sisters, as she was the pet of the family. She was one of the smartest girls of her age attending the Ishpeeming schools, and always having been a favorite among her school mates she will be greatly missed by them. The girl was not only exceptionally bright but she was of such a loving nature that all who knew her held her in high esteem. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon with religious services at the house, Rev. C. W. Clemon, pastor of the Division street Methodist church, will conduct the services.

Laboratory to Close.

Mixer & DuBois announce that their general laboratory in Ishpeeming will probably close for the season the last of this month. Mr. Mixer is not certain he will spend the winter here, as he has business in the west that will require at least a portion of his time.

At the Evidence.

There is always something new in courts of justice. If there are no new crimes there are new ways of escaping punishment. One of the latest of such novelties finds a record in the San Francisco Post.

A Chinese fisherman was on trial at Sausalito on a charge of catching striped bass that weighed less than two pounds. The constable who had made the arrest testified to catching the Chinese with the fish in his possession.

"Where are the fish?" asked the attorney for the defendant.

"Why, they wouldn't keep," answered the officer.

"What did you do with them?"

"Ch, I disposed of them."

"What did you do with them?"

"Well, I knew they wouldn't keep, so I—I—disposed of them."

"But what did you do with them?"

"My wife cooked them."

"And you ate them?"

"Yes."

"Your honor, I ask that this case be dismissed."

"Charge dismissed and defendant discharged," ruled the justice of the peace, "on the ground that the arresting officer ate the evidence."—Youth's Companion.

Save The Baby.

THE BEST ENDOWMENT FOR YOUR CHILD IS HEALTH.

How it May be Obtained—Proper Methods to Overcome Effects of Children's Disorders.

When a mother's love is so strong that she cannot deny her child sweets and foods which are harmful, her love has run away with her sense. Unfortunately this is common. Many mothers do not realize the injury they may thus do their child's health. Some of the effects of faulty rearing is presented in the following cases of children who have been restored to health in a remarkable manner. The cases may be verified by any mother who wishes to write to the Parents.

The experience of the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. James McKinney, of Hillsdale, Kan., was recently published in the Times, of Paola, as follows:

"The first perceptible result of her extreme nervousness was a halting step in her right limb," said the mother, "and a physician was called to attend her. No apparent change coming, another doctor was called. She grew worse, until she lost the use of her right arm, which hung listless and apparently lifeless by her side.

"It was at this time we lost faith in the doctors, and decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. McKinney procured a box at Grimes' drug store in Paola, and we began giving Mary a half pill at a time, and gradually increasing to one pill, and before we had used one box we could see they were doing her good. This was one year ago. She had been suffering at that time for four years, under the doctors, and we were so encouraged over the good effects of the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that we continued to use them, and the child has been able to attend school ever since, gradually getting in better health all the time.

"Our local physician now tells us that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are as good a thing as we could use."

The next case was that of Miss Cora Watrous, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. L. C. Watrous, a locomotive fireman, of 61 Clarion Street, Bradford, Penna. She was seized with a nervous disorder which threatened to end her life. The account of this was first published in the Era, of Bradford, Pa.

The first symptom of the ailment was a loss of appetite. For some time Miss Watrous had no desire to eat and complained of a feeling of extreme lassitude. This was followed by severe pains in the head. For three weeks the young lady was nearly crazed with a terrible headache and nothing could be procured to give her relief.

that she owes her life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The St. Paul correspondent for the New Era, of Greensburg, Ind., recently had an item regarding the case of Mabel Stevens, who had recovered from a serious illness of rheumatism and nervous trouble, and was able to be out for the first time in three months. Her recovery was considered such a surprise to the neighbors that it created considerable gossip.

A message was sent to Mr. Stevens, asking him to write up a full history of the case, and the following letter was received from Mrs. Stevens:

"ST. PAUL, IND., Jan. 20, 1897. Editors New Era, Greensburg, Ind.

"DEAR SIR: Your letter received and I am glad to have the opportunity to tell you about the sickness and recovery of Mabel.

"Two years ago this winter Mabel began complaining of pains in her lower limbs. She was going to school, and had to walk about a mile each day, in all kinds of weather. She was thirteen years old and doing so well in her studies that I disliked to take her from school, but had to do it.

"For several months she was confined to the house. Her legs and arms were drawn up and her appearance was pitiful. Several doctors attended her, but none of them benefited her. They advised us to take her to the springs, and we took her to the Martinsville, Ind. springs, and she became suddenly weaker and we had to bring her home.

"She lingered along and last winter was afflicted with a nervous trouble like the St. Vitus' dance. We thought she would die, and the physicians gave her up. When she was at her worse a neighbor came with a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and wanted us to try them, as her daughter had used them for nervousness with such good results that she thought they might help Mabel.

"We tried them. The first box helped her some, and after she had taken three boxes she was able to get up in bed. When she had finished a half dozen boxes she was able to be out doors. She has taken about nine boxes altogether now, and she is as well as ever, and going to school every day. Her cure was undoubtedly due to these pills.

(Signed) MRS. AMANDA STEVENS." An interesting letter to the Reform Press, of Centreville, Texas.

CENTREVILLE, LEON CO., TEXAS, September 23rd, 1896.

"My little girl, six years of age, has always been pale, and health delicate, until the early spring of this year, when her color became paler, her health worse, stomach hard, and somewhat swollen, sleep restless and disturbed, often fretting and crying in sleep. We treated her for worms and various supposed disorders with different medicines, but nothing we tried did her any permanent good.

"Finally, reading of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the wonderful results effected by them, I determined to try them. I procured some of the pills from J. C. Steel, the druggist, and gave them according to directions, and before half the pills were taken, we noted a decided change for the better in our girl, and when all of them were used up, she was well and hearty. It is now four months since we discontinued the use of the pills, and she has remained in perfect health. We have every reason to feel thankful that we tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and can safely recommend them to all.

(Signed) H. H. SWINDLER, Editor Reform Press."

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of September, 1896.

S. S. COX, Justice of the Peace, and Es-Officio Notary Public.

All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They are sold in boxes (never in loose form, by the dozen or hundred) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or directly by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Nearly Crazed with Headache.

Finally, after trying numerous remedies, a physician was called. He said the trouble was caused by impoverished blood, but after several weeks of his treatment the young lady's condition had not improved. It was at this time that Mr. Watrous heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. He found that the pills were highly recommended for nervous disorders and concluded to give them a trial. A box of the pills was purchased and before they had all been taken there was a marked improvement in the girl's condition. After a half dozen boxes had been used, the young lady's appetite had returned, the pain in her head had ceased and she was stronger than at any time previous to her illness. She is now in better physical condition than she has been for years and declares

In and About Negaunee

PRESENTED WITH A CANE.

Admin. French Friends Give Peter Trudell a Token of Their Regard.

Peter Trudell was about the happiest man in Negaunee yesterday. As he was seated by his friends very pleasantly spending the evening with his family Thursday he was suddenly startled by the arrival of something like fifty or more of his most intimate French friends. Not knowing what was about to happen, Mr. Trudell opened the door and invited all inside. After the assurance was seated Peter Trudell, expressing the appreciation of all who called for the many good turns he had done the local French society. The surprise was not planned by the society but all in the party were members of the organization and all had contributed to the purchase of a handsome gold-headed cane, appropriately inscribed, which the speaker happily presented to the old gentleman. Mr. Trudell was one of the men who helped to organize the society fourteen years ago and he has since been very active in managing its affairs. The organization is now one of the strongest financially, as well as numerically, in Negaunee, and its success has been largely due to Mr. Trudell.

Peter was very much surprised but he managed after a short time to pull himself together and respond to the presentation speech. He said that he was proud of the gift and he would use it at every opportunity. Mr. Trudell brought the cane down town yesterday to show it to some of his more intimate friends who were not present when it was given him.

Before the gathering dispersed there were speeches by Messrs. Godfrey Trotoch and L. E. Chausse. There was also singing by different members of the party.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED.

Infant Son of Wm. Roberts Meets a Shocking Fate.

The baby son of William Roberts of Park avenue, died Thursday evening, its death being caused by burns received the previous evening.

The mother of the child had occasion to call at one of her neighbors for a few minutes. The baby was seated in a high chair near the stove. During the woman's absence either the child's clothing or some clothes that were near the stove took fire. There were two other children in the house but neither was old enough to give the alarm or know that anything unusual was going on. Presently Mrs. Roberts returned, to find the baby enveloped in flames. The house was full of smoke so that she could hardly see.

After a desperate effort the frightened mother succeeded in extinguishing the flames but the baby was too badly burned to recover. Dr. Sheldon was in the neighborhood and was in attendance within a few minutes. Everything possible was done to save the little one's life but it was evident from the first that his injuries must prove fatal.

The mother has taken the awful death of her babe to much to heart that her friends have had no little difficulty taking care of her since the tragic event took place.

LOCAL LACONICS.

George Houle spent Thanksgiving in Chicago. He will be back today or tomorrow.

Mrs. Joseph Winter has gone to Chicago on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Cummings.

The florists of this city enjoyed a big patronage Thanksgiving. They did much better than they expected.

The city snow plow was brought out to open up the walks in the principal part of town yesterday morning.

Mrs. J. B. Orr and children will leave within the next few days for Houghton, where Mr. Orr has secured a permanent position.

Rev. Father Langner got home yesterday morning from Buffalo, where he went to perform the marriage ceremony for a couple of friends.

T. F. Cole left last night for Ironwood. He expects to close up his business with the Queen Mining company of this city at a near date and will then devote his entire time to the duties of his new position on the Gogebie range.

Al. Maitland and his sister Kate, Sammy Mitchell, H. B. Krogman, J. M. Perkins of Negaunee, and Carl Cooper of Palmer, attended a party given Thursday evening at Marquette by some of the young ladies of that city.

Ore is still being shipped from several of the larger mines in this city. The snow storm did not interrupt the work of loading the cars to any extent. Next week will probably wind up the greater part of the shipments from the local mines.

The Band Concert a Success

Standing room was not available at the concert given Thursday night at McDonald's Opera House under auspices of the City band. All the reserved seats, as well as many of those in the rear of the hall, were taken before the doors opened, so that those who did not show up until 8 o'clock or after had to stand during the entire evening.

The program was pleasing, every number being well rendered. The farce by members of the Dramatic club made a very happy ending for the entertainment. A great many present remained to take in the dance, which continued until an early hour in the morning. A number from Marquette and Ishpeming were present.

The band made more money on this concert than on any of the many previously given by the organization.

Got Two Fine Deer.

Charles Taylor, Jr., and Emerson McNeil of this city, got back Thursday from the woods near Sands where they spent a week or so hunting. Each had a fine buck and the boys were proud of them. They were quite well satisfied with their luck.

"For five weeks I lived on cold water, so to speak," writes a man who suffered terribly from indigestion.

He could hardly keep anything on his stomach. What stayed, wasn't properly digested and gave him terribly pains. This is not an uncommon case. Dyspeptics don't get enough nourishment. They are generally thin and weak.

They may eat enough, but they don't digest enough. Much of what they eat turns into poison. If this keeps on there's no telling what disease they may get next.

That's why it is best to take Shaker Digestive Cordial, as soon as symptoms of indigestion appear.

It cures all the evils of indigestion, and prevents the evils which indigestion causes.

Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

A WINTER NIGHT.

Pile on the logs! the bright flames start
And up the roaring chimney race;
How grateful should we be, sweetheart,
For just this little fireplace!

I said today that I was poor,
And poor in some things I may be,
But here's a shelter—who needs more?
And your bright eyes to shine for me!

Draw near, and sum our blessings,
Sweet;
While we are housed and clothed and fed
The bleak winds hound from street to street
Souls that share not life's daily bread.

While we, safe harbored from the storm,
Have all our happy hearts desire,
There's many a weak and wounded form
Bends o'er a hearth without a fire.

Thank God for home! and if a knock
Sound at the door this icy night,
O let us hasten to unlock
And bring a brother to the light!

It was for this God's gifts were lent—
To light the way for those that roam;
It was for this the Christ was sent—
To shelter those that had no home!

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

Indications That It Will be a Lively One, with Several Ambitious Politicians in It.

The Detroit Free Press of Wednesday contained this concerning the scramble for the seat in the United States senate now held by Burrows:

According to a well-posted Pingree politician from a city in the central portion of the state, there will be plenty of candidates for the United States senatorship now held by Julius Caesar Burrows, and he figures it out that if Burrows wants another term he must all very close to the wind, indeed, as his course is full of all kinds of breakers.

"According to the way that Burrows is playing," said this man, "he seems to depend almost entirely for his success upon the help of Senator McMillan, but McMillan's forces may be weakened this coming campaign by the fact that John T. Rich is likely to be in the field for the senatorship, even if he does live in Detroit. If Rich forms a combination with Albert Pack, as certain flirtations over the collectorship of customs in Detroit seem to indicate, Rich will have one of the strongest combinations in the state. Then ex-Senator Patton, of Grand Rapids, is by no means out of the race, and is likely to take from Burrows some of the strength from the western part of the state.

"You can put it down as a fact that Sam Stephenson of Menominee, and General Alger are in a combination for senatorships. That Stephenson is looking around is shown by the fact that he has sent agents around to various places, feeling the pulse of the politicians so as to get the lay of the land. And Burrows is afraid of him. You can see that by the way the collectorship of customs at Marquette went. Early last summer it was considered that John Jones of Ishpeming had a cinch on the collectorship as Burrows wanted to give him the place for what Jones had done for him when Burrows was elected to the senate three years ago. But Stephenson jumped in and made Burrows appoint John Quincy Adams of Negaunee, a Stephenson man, to whom Burrows was under obligations.

"Stephenson may be jollying Burrows and promising him support for the senatorship in return for appointments, but it is possible that Stephenson is playing both ends. He is just as likely to let these fellows go on figuring, and when it comes to the time when members of the legislature are to be nominated by the Republicans his barrel will be found doing business for Stephenson and may bring about a repetition of the Palmer-Perry deal. However, if Stephenson sticks to Burrows, he would be a strong card for the Kalamazoo man.

"How do I figure it out that Alger is interested in the senatorship? There was a straw right in Detroit just before the recent Republican nomination for the mayoralty. You remember that when there was so much talk about nominating Coots it was given out that certain rich anti-Pingree men had offered Coots all the money he wanted to make the run. One of those men was close to General Alger, and he offered Coots $2,500 for his campaign. The way that offer came about was this: A certain politician went to the Alger man and told him that General Alger, if he had senatorial aspirations, must look out for Wayne county; that if the Republicans lost the city election they were likely to lose the Wayne members of the legislature next year, which would hurt the Alger-Stephenson combination. He was told that Coots was the strongest man the Republicans could nominate, and that if Alger had any interest in keeping the city Republican, it would be well to give Coots some encouragement. Within two days Mr. Coots had assurance of support and financial aid.

"Thus you can see things are forming for a general break among the anti-Pingree peacemakers over the senatorship, the indications pointing to an alliance between Burrows and McMillan on one side, which also shows that McMillan wants another term, and with Alger and Stephenson, on another, and Rich, Patton and Pack as still other possibilities. In this position all that Pingree has to do is to keep his nose out of the senatorial fight and make his fight next to two issues—lower rates for railroad mileage and higher railroad taxation. If he can get men elected to the next legislature pledged to these issues, of course he will have some influence on the senatorship. It is possible that all the anti-Pingree workers will turn in and make common cause of downing the governor, without reference to the senatorship, but if they do that it would not help the party in the state, and the Democrats would be in fine fettle."

WORTH ITS THOUSANDS.

Fishing Industry Brings in Large Sum of Money Into Marquette Every Year.

OVER 300 TONS WERE CAUGHT BY QUELN CITY BOATS.

New Law for the Protection of Whitefish Cut Season Short Two Months - Theora Made the Largest Catch in Many Years.

FISHER BOATS ARE A BUSY FLEET.

The industries in Marquette that are worth $25,000 a year to the city are not numerous. Probable few people imagine the fishing industry here is of such proportions, but it is, and until the new law went into effect cutting down the length of the season it was worth more than that.

This year the fishermen have been able to work but little over six months. They started in about the middle of the first of November, when they were obliged to remove their nets on account of the new closed season for whitefish, which was provided for by the last legislature, with the intention that it would protect the fish in the spawning season and tend to increase the quantity in the lake. This may be its effect, but the local fishermen profess to be sceptical of its ability to do this, and claim that the law was passed in the interests of the big packers so they could work off their cheap Canadian fish to good advantage.

In spite of the fact that the courts have upheld the new law the fishermen are in hopes it will in some way be broken. News of the decision supporting the law was received here by wire within a very short time after it had been handed down. Had the judge given a contrary opinion the people of Marquette would have had occasion to be surprised at the speed with which the fishermen would once more have got their nets in the lake.

As the law has been supported the time when the industry can be in operation is cut short the months of November and December. This affects the size of the season's catch and correspondingly affects the cash value.

In spite of the fact that two months are lost the results of the fishing season is not short of 300 tons for Marquette boats. This amount includes the catch of both tugs and the six or seven sailing boats that work out of here.

The great bulk of the fish caught are trout, though included in the catch are tons and tons of whitefish.

The products of Lake Superior, both whitefish and trout, enjoy a reputation that is second to none. The result is that there is a live demand for them in the metropolitan markets. In round figures the cash returns from the 300 tons of fish caught and shipped from here this season amounted to $25,000.

Most of this money, after it came here as an exchange for the fish, stayed in Marquette. A large part of it was paid out in wages, then there are numerous other channels for its expenditure, but the great bulk of the money stays here and goes into circulation among the people.

As far as it went the season was a fairly good one. There were a number of excellent catches, and Captain Parker's boat, the Theora, made one record breaker, when it brought in nearly six tons as the result of a single day's work. The boat was commanded by Captain Charles Purdy of Ontonagon.

The sail boats have all quit business for the season, but neither of the tugs have gone into winter quarters yet. The Ethel J., owned by the Lake Superior Fish Co., is below having a rebuild, but it is expected she will be back before the end of navigation and ready to tie up for the winter at the home dock.

Still They Come

Deer carcasses are coming into the city on nearly every train.

John Wells brought in a fine large buck from Deerton yesterday. This is the third that John has shot and brought in from that section.

Mr. Bushnell is back from Matchwood, and brought back with him a doe.

Deemer and Young left on the 1:30 train yesterday, going to Joe Smith's camp at Deerton. It is reported that when Joe goes down to shoot he will have hard work to find any deer, but he has sworn to shoot and bring in the largest deer of the season, even though the other fellows keep "raising the limit" on him right along. It is to be hoped that there will be no more logs in the way this time.

"This snow is just what we need for deer hunting," is the remark made by most all the hunters. The trailing of deer this season so far had been very difficult owing to the lack of snow and the noise that was made in walking over dried leaves, etc., but this snow storm came just in time and many hunters are taking to the woods, hoping to bring back some venison.

Narrowly Escaped Scalding

Miss Isabelle Monteth had a narrow escape from a severe scalding yesterday at the depot restaurant. She had occasion to pass the stove on which the coffee was boiling when her dress caught in the handle of the large coffee pot, causing it to slip off the stove, just missing her by a few inches.

Mr. Joseph Zryd met with a very painful accident Thanksgiving eve. While stepping down from the porch at his home he slipped and fell on his right arm, spraining and otherwise bruising it badly.

Too Much "Say-Room"

This story was obtained from the un-falling fountain of Peter White's pioneer reminiscences.

In the by-gone days when Marquette was the only ore shipping port on Lake Superior there lived here a thrifty boss of a gang of ore trimmers who for the purposes of this narrative will be christened Mike Cashel. At the close of a season, which had been a very prosperous one for Mike, a vessel dropped into port whose captain explained after he had landed that he didn't call here to take on or discharge anything, that he was going to Houghton to lay up his boat there for the winter and wanted a pilot to take him through, as he had never made the run himself. Mike had gone down to the dock when the boat came in from force of habit, and pricked up his ears when he heard the captain state what he wanted.

"If it's pilot yez want I'm yer mon," said Mike, nothing abashed by the fact that the only wheel he had ever manipulated was the one attached to the wheelbarrow he used in getting ore in to the hold of a vessel, docks with ore pockets and chutes being unknown in those days.

"Are you a pilot and do you know the route to Houghton?" enquired the captain, looking Mike over with a skeptical eye.

"Am I a pilot? Eyah, that I am, an' so was me father before me, an' I know the way to Houghton as well as I do the road to me own dure."

"Well, if you can take the boat through to Houghton I will pay you three dollars a day for the trip and your expenses back, as I am going to lay up there for the winter."

The terms were satisfactory to Mike and the bargain was closed at once. The captain and Mike got aboard the vessel, and the captain took the boat out of the harbor. Then, when her course was set for the open lake, he surrendered the wheel to Mike, watching him the while in a way betokening suspicion of his skill. Pretty soon the vessel approached the rock standing out from Presque Isle, and Mike's manner denoted that he hadn't quite decided whether to run her inside the rock, between which and the shore of Presque the regular channel lay, to take her outside or to run her smack on the rock.

"Which side of that rock do you intend going?" enquired the captain.

"That's what I'm considerin', replied Mike; "I bees forgettin which side I took the lasht toime, but I think I'll take the outside—there's more say-room."

That decided the captain. He took the wheel from Mike and ran the boat back to the dock, where Mike was ignominiously hustled ashore. A pilot who didn't require so much "say-room" was soon secured and the vessel resumed her trip to Houghton, where she arrived in due time. It would have been "over-due time" if she ever got there at all, if Mike had held his job.

Babe Fatally Burned.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jenseng of Harlow's Farm was burned Wednesday so severely that it died within thirty-six hours after the accident. The little mite was lying in her crib close to the stove. She had been placed there but a few moments before the accident occurred by her mother, who went out of the house to get some wood for the fire. While outside for this purpose she heard the baby cry and, rushing in, saw a sight that almost paralyzed her with horror. Her child was wrapped in a sheet of flame, and crying piteously. The frantic mother rushed forward and, taking the child up in her arms, she extinguished the flames, but found that her baby had been severely burned.

A spark flying from the stove, which set the child's clothing on fire, caused the accident. The lower part of the child's body was burned to such a fearful extent that it was impossible to save its life. The body will be buried tomorrow. The child was but five months old.

Under New Management.

The New Clifton House has formally passed out of the hands of W. H. Volk and into the control of George S. Power, who has been clerk of the house for some time. Mr. Power has been in the house long enough to see its good points. He understands the business of running a first-class hotel and will show up the New Clifton to its best advantage. He has secured the services of a new chef, as a starter. Mr. Power is a wide awake young man who knows what he is after. He has one of the best, cleanest and most neatly furnished hotels in the whole upper country, and he is well known and well-liked by the traveling public. The New Clifton, under his management, will receive a fresh impetus and start out on a new era of prosperity. Mr. Volk, the retiring proprietor, has gone to Montana to accept a lucrative position with a mining company. Mrs. Volk is still in the city.

Presbyterian Church Fair.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have been preparing a great many fancy and useful articles, which they will offer for sale at the church parlors Thursday and Friday of next week. All who are expecting to make Christmas presents will find here a great variety from which to choose and articles to please everybody. In connection with the fair there will be an art gallery, in which will be exhibited fifty pictures, reproductions of well-known American artists.

Has Faith in Munising.

Judge Brown left the city yesterday for a short trip to Munising. He has great faith in that town. He smilingly said to a reporter of The Mining Journal: "It is now said that Munising is forty miles from Marquette, but it will be soon said that Marquette is forty miles from Munising." Well, we'll wait and see!
