PHILIPPINES' FUTURE IN M'KINLEY'S HANDS.

President Firm on the Right of This Government to Settle the Fate of the Islands.

SPAIN CONQUERED AND HER SOVEREIGNTY ALREADY FORFEITED.

NEGOTIATION OF THE TREATY IS TO PROCEED ON THIS BASIS.

Destiny of the Group Is Not Determined Beyond. It Is Believed, the Retention by America of the Whole of Luzon.

PEACE COMMISSIONERS SAIL SATURDAY.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Three members of the peace commission—Secretary Day, Senator Davis and Whiteford Reid—were in conference two hours today, and Senators Frye and Gray are expected to join their associates in a meeting tomorrow. The president will give a dinner tomorrow night, at which the commissioners will be the principal guests. The commissioners will leave Friday for New York, where they take the Campania Saturday.

POLICY IS AGREED UPON.

Leading members of the commission today stated that all reports relative to the instructions to the commissioners or the attitude of the United States were purely conjectural. In official quarters much satisfaction is expressed over the reports from Madrid that the lower house of parliament had passed the government's bill accepting the terms of the protocol.

There is little doubt that a general line of policy was agreed upon between the president and cabinet yesterday, and there is good reason for believing that the assertion that the decision was definitely in favor of not permitting Spain under any conditions to retain sovereignty in any part of the Philippine islands is based on a misconception.

SPAIN HAS NO SAY.

It is not doubted that the commission will start the negotiations at Paris with the assertion that we have conquered Spain in the Philippines and Spanish sovereignty is already forfeited there. This will not, however, necessarily signify that it is the purpose of the administration to retain possession of the entire group of islands or permanently deprive Spain of all her possessions in the Pacific. It is not believed the administration has gone beyond the determination to retain the whole of the island of Luzon, but it is understood to be the intention of the president to establish at the outset the right of the government to determine the fate of the islands and make the conditions under which government will be established there.

DUTY OF THE CORTES DONE.

SAGASTA SUSPENDS THE SPECIAL PARLIAMENTARY SESSION.

Madrid, Sept. 14.—Premier Sagasta today obtained the queen regent's signature to a decree proroguing the cortes, and with it ended a stormy session of the senate.

General Primo de Rivera demanded an inquiry into his administration of the Philippine islands, and said the attacks of Count d'Almenas were only "fit for the mouth of a miserable slanderer." The count was endeavoring to reply when the premier read the decree proroguing the cortes. Count d'Almenas and General Rivera then separately approached the president in a hostile manner; a duel is expected. Premier Sagasta afterwards read the decree in the chamber of deputies.

FEAR MONEY INDEMNITY.

It is expected now the Spanish peace commissioners will be appointed without delay. A painful impression is caused by a statement made by El Pais, saying the United States intends to demand twenty million dollars indemnity in behalf of American citizens who suffered through the rebellion in Cuba. The Spanish peace commissioners will strongly oppose this, it is claimed, but fears prevail that the United States will become pitiless and press its advantage to the utmost.

The queen regent signed the protocol bill this evening. The government had intended the cortes to sit until the indemnity bill for the suspension of the constitutional guarantees had been passed, but the threatened agitation on the part of Weyler and others, together with evidence of divisions in both the Liberal and Conservative parties, convinced Premier Sagasta of the advisability of closing down debates which would have hindered the free progress of the peace negotiations. The cortes will be next convoked to ratify the final treaty of peace.

EASY IN PORTO RICO.

A SATISFACTORY REPLY FROM THE SPANISH COMMISSIONERS.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Sept. 14.—The United States-Porto Rican evacuation commission met this morning. The reply of the Spanish commissioners setting forth their position, in accordance with instructions from Madrid, was received last night. It is satisfactory to our commissioners, who hope the main details of the evacuation will be arranged in a few days.

SPANISH VESSELS GONE.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Word reached the navy department today from Admiral Schley that all the Spanish war vessels in Porto Rico had left that country. Their departure is simply in accordance with the plan of the evacuation of the island by the Spanish forces as provided for in the protocol of peace.

MORE SOLDIERS SENT OVER.

New York, Sept. 14.—The transport Obdam sailed tonight for Ponce, Porto Rico. She had on board the First battalion of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania regiment, seventy regular passengers, sixteen postal clerks and a crew of seventy-five. Her cargo consists in the main of commissary supplies for the regiments now in Porto Rico.

AMERICAN ORDER OBEYED.

PHILIPPINE INSURGENTS EVACUATE SUBURBS OF MANILA.

Manila, Sept. 14.—The insurgents evacuated the suburbs of Manila today. They did so in a grand march, shouting "Viva Americanos" and "Viva Filipino Libre."

PERFECT HARMONY.

London, Sept. 15.—The Manila correspondent of The Times cables: "Fully fifteen thousand insurgent troops evacuated the suburbs today. The Americans gave a parade and granted full military honors. Perfect harmony prevailed and the natives were evidently delighted at the opportunity for a public display of the efficiency of their troops in drill. The firmness and tact of General Otis have produced an excellent result."

ANOTHER WAR!

ITALY SEVERS HER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE SOUTH AMERICAN REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA.

Rome, Sept. 14.—Italy, it is announced, declares her diplomatic relations with the republic of Colombia ended, Colombia refusing to recognize the British minister as the Italian representative during the latter's absence. The trouble arises from the non-payment of the Curturi award.

TURKEY DECLINES!

BLAMES BRITISH FOR CRETAN RIOTS AND REFUSES TO WITHDRAW MUSSULMAN TROOPS.

Constantinople, Sept. 14.—Turkey has sent a circular to the powers, alleging that the British provoked the disorders at Candia. The Porte announces its refusal to withdraw the Turkish troops from Crete.

MORE TIME REFUSED.

Canea, Sept. 14.—The admirals of the international fleet at Canea have rejected the request of the Turkish authorities for the extension of the date in which to comply with the ultimatum presented by the British military government of Crete, demanding that within forty-eight hours he should deliver up the ring-leaders of the recent outbreak and massacre, surrender the forts and ramparts commanding the town and disarm the Mussulman troops.

It is reported that Mr. Riddle, secretary of the American legation at Constantinople, is coming here in connection with the American demand for compensation for the destruction of American property in Armenia.

PORTE MUST PAY!

M'KINLEY DETERMINED TO COLLECT AMERICA'S BILL EVEN IF FORCE IS NECESSARY.

Washington, Sept. 14.—It has been decided by the administration to enforce the payment of the claims of Americans for property destroyed in Armenia against the Turkish government.

The sultan recently sent an official communication advising the United States that his government did not feel that it was responsible for the destruction of the property in question, and consequently would decline to compensate the Americans for its loss. The administration has determined the claims must be paid, and that if necessary force will be employed to compel compliance with the demands. In reply to the sultan's recent note, the American representative at Constantinople has, under instructions, given notice that the repudiation of the claims is declined, and that it is the intention to enforce their payment if the matter comes to that stage.

TREAT OF WARSHIPS.

Minister Angel, who was sent to Constantinople at the beginning of the McKinley administration, was specially entrusted with the collection of these claims. He had several conferences with the ministers of the sultan, but without success. Finally he declared that unless the Turkish government agreed to pay the claims at once he would order warships into the Bosphorus. He was upheld in this course by the administration and a naval demonstration was being planned for the benefit of the sultan when the war with Spain made it necessary to withdraw all the warships from Europe for the protection of the American coast.

The proposed demonstration, however, had the desired effect, as the sultan pledged himself to pay the claims. After the outbreak of war with Spain he reconsidered his determination and stated that under no circumstances could his government be held responsible for the damages resulting from the Armenian troubles.

WHEN PEACE IS DECLARED.

It is not deemed probable that the administration will resort to force to secure the payment of the claims until after the settlement of the war with Spain, but immediately upon the signing of a treaty of peace the matter will be taken up and pushed to a conclusion.

Minister Angel, who resigned his post in order to return to the presidency of the University of Michigan, has been succeeded by Oscar Straus of New York.

HOAR PROBABLY WILL DECLINE.

BELIEVED HE HAS BEEN OFFERED THE LONDON MISSION.

Washington, Sept. 14.—It is understood that the president has invited Senator Hoar to accept the London mission to succeed Colonel Hay. While a definite response has not been received, it is gathered that the senator will probably decline.

SHAFTER'S STORY OF THE CAMPAIGN.

How the American Commander Sums Up the Battles and Surrender of Santiago.

HAS THE HIGHEST PRAISE FOR HIS OFFICERS AND MEN.

DWELLS UPON THE NATURAL OBSTACLES ENCOUNTERED.

Army Was Particularly Hampered by Lack of Docking Facilities and by Bad Roads in Transporting Supplies to the Firing Line.

GREAT VICTORY DESCRIBED IN DETAIL.

Washington, Sept. 14.—General Shafter's report on the campaign of Santiago has been made public. He briefly recounts the organization of the expedition and embarkation, and then devotes the main body of the report to the active operations about Santiago. The report gives in detail the troops assembled at Tampa.

DELAYED IN STARTING.

After reciting the delay at Tampa, due to inadequate facilities, General Shafter says that on June 7 he received orders to sail without delay, but not with less than ten thousand men. More delay, however, was occasioned by the navy department reporting a Spanish war vessel sighted in St. Nicholas channel. The expedition sailed June 14, with 815 officers and 16,072 men. The general briefly covers the trip and landing; and the first meeting with Garcia, who offered the services of his troops.

After conferring with Admiral Sampson and General Garcia, a plan of campaign was outlined by General Shafter. The disembarkation was to commence on the 22nd, at Daiquiri, with feints by the Cubans on Cabañas and by the navy at various shore points, to mislead the enemy as to the place of landing. General Shafter says: "These movements committed me to approaching Santiago from the east over a narrow road, at first in some places not better than a trail, running from Daiquiri through Siboney and Sevilla, and making the attack from that quarter."

ROUGH RIDERS IN BATTLE.

Of the early operations, and the skirmish in which the Rough Riders participated, the report says: "Young's brigade passed beyond Lawton on the night of the 23d-24th, thus taking the advance. On the morning of the latter date the van became engaged with a Spanish force entrenched in a strong position at La Guasima. Young's force consisted of 964 officers and men. The enemy made an obstinate resistance, but were driven from the field with considerable loss. This engagement gave us a well watered country farther to the front on which to encamp the troops.

"It was not until nearly two weeks after the army had landed that it was possible to place on shore three days' supplies in excess of those required for daily consumption.

EARLY ATTACK IMPERATIVE.

"On June 30 I reconnoitered the country about Santiago and made a plan of attack. Lawton's division, assisted by Capron's light battery, was ordered to move out during the afternoon toward El Caney to begin an attack there early the next morning. After carrying El Caney, Lawton was to move by the Caneay road toward Santiago and take a position on the right of the line. Wheeler's division of dismounted cavalry and Kent's division of infantry was directed on the Santiago road, the head of the column resting near El Pozo, toward which heights Grimes' battery moved the afternoon of the 30th with orders to take a position there early the next morning. The attack at San Juan hill was to be delayed until Lawton's guns were heard at El Caney and his infantry fire showed he had become well engaged.

"These preparations were far from what I desired them, but we were in a sickly climate; the supplies had to be brought by a narrow wagon road; the fear was entertained that a storm might drive the vessels containing the stores to sea, and it was reported that Pando, with eight thousand reinforcements for the enemy, was enroute from Manzanillo. Under these conditions, I determined to give battle without delay.

ASSULT CARRIES EL CANEY.

"Early on the morning of July 1 Lawton was in position around El Caney; Chaffee's brigade, on the right, was across the Guantanamo road; Milley's brigade was in the center, and Ludlow's on the left. The artillery opened on the town (El Caney) at 6:15 a. m. The battle here soon became general, and it was hotly contested. The enemy's position was naturally strong and was rendered more so by blockhouses and stone fort entrenchments. The opposition by the enemy was greater than anticipated, and prevented Lawton from joining the right of the main line during the day. The battle continued during most of the day, and until the place was carried by assault at 4:30 p. m.

"After the battle at El Caney was well opened, I directed Grimes' battery to open fire from the heights of El Pozo on San Juan blockhouse. The fire was effective, and the enemy could be seen running away from the vicinity of the blockhouse. The artillery fire from El Pozo was returned by the enemy's artillery. They evidently had the range of this hill, as their first shells killed and wounded several men. As the Spaniards used smokeless powder it was difficult to locate the position of their posts, while the smoke caused by our black powder plainly indicated the position of our battery.

HEMMING IN THE CITY.

"At this time the cavalry division under Sumner was to cross the San Juan river and deploy to the right on the Santiago side, while Kent's division was to follow closely in the rear and deploy to

"How Do I Look?"
How frequently a woman asks this question! How much thought and study she devotes to it! It is natural. A woman hates to think that she is growing day by day less charming and attractive and youthful to her husband's eyes than in the days of courtship.

A woman may always retain her charms and the vivacity and freshness of youth if she will take the proper care of her health. A tremendous percentage of ill-health in women is due to weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing remedy for all disorders of this nature. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, stops debilitating drains and soothes and tones the nerves. It preserves in a woman all the charm of healthy youth. Thousands of women have testified to its marvellous merits.

"Favorite Prescription" is sold by all respectable dealers in medicines. Deal only where you are honestly treated. Any store-keeper who tries to give you a substitute for what you demand is not treating you honestly and you should take your trade elsewhere.

THE SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Republican senatorial convention for this district, which was held in this city yesterday, was quite a harmonious affair, in that respect being in strong contrast with the congressional district convention which took place last week at Ishpeming.

Senator Maitland was nominated for a second term by a practically unanimous vote, all the delegates, save two who refused to vote, supporting the motion that he be made the nominee of the convention. Prior to the assembling of the convention there was some talk of a contest for the nomination between the senator and Mr. Frank Scadden of Crystal Falls, but Mr. Scadden concluded to withdraw as a candidate before the time for making nominations arrived, doing this in Mr. Maitland's favor, which left a clear field for the latter.

Much stress was laid on the fact that Mr. Maitland was entitled to a second term, in deference to what had become an established custom of the party, by one of the speakers who seconded his nomination, and an allusion was made in the connection to the similar claim on the party in the congressional district of the sitting congressman, Mr. Sheldon. The applause which greeted the point made in the congressman's favor left little doubt that the sympathies of the delegates making up the convention were strongly with Mr. Sheldon, and that they disapprove of the effort put forth by Mr. Stephenson and his supporters to cut our present member off with a single term as representative of the district in congress.

The convention decided at the outset to allow the delegates whose seats were uncontested, these being the delegates from the counties of Alger, Iron and Dickinson, to effect the temporary organization, and that neither of the contesting delegations from this county should be permitted to take part in the proceedings until the contest between them was acted on by the delegates whose right to seats in the convention was undisputed. The majority report of the committee on credentials recommended that the delegation to the convention chosen by what has come to be known as the Sheldon county convention be seated, and this report was adopted without a dissenting vote, though one member of the committee on credentials brought in a minority report recommending that the delegates from Alger, Iron and Dickinson counties be seated, but making no recommendation as to the contesting Marquette county delegations. This report received no attention whatever.

The action of the convention on the report of the committee on credentials was a telling victory for the Sheldon men, as it is a recognition of the regularity of the county convention at Negaunee organized by them, and consequently, a repudiation by a Republican party convention of the convention presided over by Mr. Young. The action was all the more significant, too, in that it was taken by the delegates from the three counties in the senate district outside of Marquette county, from which there were no contests brought to the convention, the committee on credentials being made up from delegates from these counties. It may, therefore, justly be presumed to have been in accordance with the facts bearing on the claims of the contesting delegations from this county in the senatorial convention brought to the attention of the committee, and to have been fairly and impartially taken.

The convention was a very creditable one in make up and in the business-like manner in which it disposed of the work before it. The nomination of Mr. Maitland was really a foregone conclusion. It appears to give very general satisfaction to the Republicans of this city, and he will undoubtedly receive a hearty support from the voters of the party throughout the district.

ARMY DISCIPLINE.

It is given out that Governor Pingree is surprised and displeased because the bulk of the men of the Thirty-fifth regiment of volunteers, who have as yet seen no service, are clamoring to be mustered out, the prospect of being sent to Porto Rico or the Philippines being distasteful to them.

We don't see how the governor can be either surprised at or provoked with the men for indicating their desires. When the colonel of the Thirty-second regiment rebuked the men of his regiment for signing petitions asking that the regiment be mustered out of service, Governor Pingree called him down promptly and energetically for having thus interfered with the right of the men to petition for anything they wanted, reminding him that this a right guaranteed to every American citizen by the constitution.

The men of the Thirty-fifth are only doing now what the governor a short time ago insisted that the men of the Thirty-second had a right to do—a right that must not, and should not, be "abridged." Why should the governor make fish of the one and fesh of the other?

We had supposed that American citizens, like citizens of all other countries, contracted certain obligations when they entered the military service, and that the paramount duty with them then became obedience to authority. An army without discipline is not an army at all, but a mob, and mobs are of little use in war. It will not be questioned that discipline cannot be maintained in a military force if the men are allowed the right of appeal, by petition or otherwise, against the orders of their superiors officers, or regulations that these may see fit to adopt, in the expectation that their appeal will receive attention, and possibly favorable consideration, from the civil authorities. When the governor gave his official sanction to the movement instituted by the men of the Thirty-second to obtain their discharge from the service, therefore, he did much to promote a similar movement in the Thirty-fifth, and has no reason to feel disturbed or displeased by the legitimate and natural fruit of his own unwise interference in the case of the regiment commanded by Colonel McGurrian.

The governor has been a soldier himself, and must know that when the authority of a commanding officer is in any manner discredited it leads to insubordination in the ranks and the impairment of that discipline without which a military force loses its usefulness. He also knows that when a man enters the military service he relinquishes certain of his rights and privileges as a citizen and takes on himself new duties and obligations. He should have known that when he interfered in the case of the Thirty-second regiment he was sowing the seeds of general insubordination in the volunteer regiments of the state, and that trouble would come of it. That is, he might have known all this if he had but stopped to think about what he was doing. But the weakness of Governor Pingree is that he doesn't always stop to think before he acts.

GEN. LEE AS AN EXAMPLE.

The remarkable success of General Fitzhugh Lee in keeping his camp of 30,000 men at Jacksonville so free from disease is attracting a good deal of attention. His latest report shows that 97 per cent. of the men are fit for and performing full duty. In the camps of the best well-trained European armies 95 per cent. of men fit for duty is regarded as a good showing.

The fact that General Lee can preserve such a high standard of health among his men would seem to furnish at least indirect evidence that the war department is not entirely to blame for the distressing prevalence of sickness and high death rate in many of the camps. General Lee is operating under the orders of the war department, the same as the other commanders. His success shows it is possible for a commander to take good care of his men under the existing regulations and authorities. If he could so successfully look after the welfare of his men, why could not other camp commanders?

It may be that the site of General Lee's camp is exceptionally salubrious. But we may rest assured that, with his energy, if he had been located in an unhealthy swamp, he would very soon have moved his men out of it and seized upon healthful ground for a camp. Where the lives of men are at stake, the right kind of a commander will not stand upon technicalities, but will take the proper action to save them. A competent officer will not permit his men to suffer if he has at his command the physical force to secure for them what is needed for their well-being. He will not allow a commissary or medical officer to impose upon them. If the commander of an army understands his business, and is animated by a determination to keep his men in perfect condition, he will inspire the officers under him with the same spirit and red-tape will not be allowed to stand in their way.

It would perhaps be unjust to accuse all the officers of other camps where disease has run riot of incompetency or indolence. General Lee's burden of proof is upon the commanders of the sickly camps to show that they are not to blame. We do not see how they can saddle all the blame upon the war department, when General Lee has shown that there is a way to keep military camps in a healthful condition and to supply the soldiers with such food, clothing, shelter and attendance as is necessary. We all know that our government is rich in resources, and that it has purchased or can purchase everything needed to keep the army in a condition of comfort and efficiency. If these things are not received by the army there is a fault in the distribution, and the officers in immediate command of the men should know where the fault lies, and how to remedy it.

In the hurried organization of a volunteer force it is to be expected that a good many incompetent officers will creep in; but what we cannot understand is that at certain of the camps where sickness and suffering have been most prevalent the chief officers have been men of long experience in the regular army. What have such men to say, what can they say, in explanation of the bad condition of their camps?

One of the delegates chosen from the Fourth ward of this city as a delegate to the Republican city convention of Aug. 30, which in turn elected the delegation which represented the city of Marquette in the Republican county convention held August 31 at Negaunee, was a young man residing in that ward named Jas. A. Russell, a Republican who has always been in affiliation with that party. The report has obtained currency in the district that this delegate to the Republican city convention here and the editor of The Mining Journal are one and the same person, and that the latter participated in a Republican caucus and convention in order to aid Mr. Sheldon. The report does both the editor of The Mining Journal and Mr. Sheldon an injustice, and is corrected to set both right with the people of the district. The editor of this paper is going to vote for Mr. Sheldon, and possibly some other candidates on the Republican ticket, next November, but he is not an avowed Republican, and until he is he will not be found taking part as a voter in Republican caucuses or conventions. If he should ever conclude to enter the Republican party it will not be through a rear entrance or a side window, but through the big front door—that, too, without asking anybody's permission. This is a mighty free country if a person only knows his rights and has the courage to assert them.

"A Democrat" writes The Mining Journal from Hancock taking issue with it on its expressed opinion that even with Sheldon and Stephenson running as Republican candidates for congress there will be little or no chance for the election of a Democrat, because that party has no candidate who can hold its full vote who is willing to take the nomination. "A Democrat" names a gentleman of Hancock for whom The Mining Journal entertains a warm regard as a candidate who would poll the full vote of the party if he should receive the Democratic nomination. This paper is willing to concede that its Democratic friend at Hancock may be right in his belief, but adheres to its already expressed conviction that Carlos D. Sheldon will be re-elected to congress from this district in November next, and will risk the cigars, or "something equally as good," with the Hancock gentleman on the proposition that Representative Sheldon will be chosen to succeed himself.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.—A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradual growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at the Stafford Drug company.

SOLDIER HERO LAID AT REST. LONGEST CORTEGE EVER SEEN AT CALUMET ESCORTS THE BODY OF PRIVATE MESSNER TO THE GRAVE—SIXTEEN OF THIS COMPANY HAVE PERISHED.

During the past few months Calumet has been forcefully reminded of the grim visages of war on many occasions, but it was not until Tuesday that its people, who have done everything in their power for their company, have had opportunity to pay a parting tribute to one of its departed heroes, although the number called to their final reward is now no less than sixteen.

In many respects the funeral of Private Martin Messner was one long to be remembered. It was marked by the greatest solemnity throughout, and added to this was the fact that not one member of the noble company of which he was a member was physically able to march in the funeral procession.

OLD GLORY AROUND COFFIN. The funeral took place from the home of a brother of the deceased, at Tamara, and it was shortly after 2 o'clock before the pall-bearers conveyed the casket to the attendant hearse and the procession got under way.

CHURCH WAS PACKED. The procession was the largest seen at Calumet for a long time, there being fully one hundred and fifty rigs in line, and it was fully half an hour in passing up Fifth street to the Congregational church, where services were conducted by Rev. H. Hesse, pastor of the Lutheran faith.

BODY LAID IN STATE. During the day all that was mortal of Private Frank Ott laid in state at the Armory, and the body was viewed by hundreds, this being the only opportunity to pay a parting tribute, as a telegram was received from his father in Minnesota, asking that the body be sent home at once and arrangements with that end in view were promptly entered into by the citizens' committee appointed to look after such contingencies.

CAPT. MILLAR VERY LOW. The condition of Captain George Millar of Company F was reported as being quite serious yesterday morning. Three members of Company F who attended the funeral of Private Messner at Calumet Tuesday were taken with chills shortly after the ceremonies were over and were unable to return home until yesterday morning.

BACK FROM THE KLONDIKE. Will Marston of Calumet returned Tuesday from the Alaskan gold fields. He had more experience than usually befalls the gold seeker, but comes back without any of the precious metal. He has got enough of the Klondike.

WELCOME, LITTLE STRANGER. The wind of the past few days has formed a sand bar against the schooner Womna at the canal, which will add largely to the work of pulling the boat from the beach.

HAVE FAITH IN UNITED STATES.

Leaders of the Cuban Republic Issue a Manifesto to Their People.

ARE CONFIDENT OF ULTIMATE ABSOLUTE INDEPENDENCE.

THINK AMERICA WILL NOT OPPOSE THE OBJECT STRIVED FOR.

Call an Assembly to Determine the Government Until Such Time as the Permanent Form of Rule Can Be Decided.

WISE COUNSEL FOR INSURGENTS.

Santiago Sept. 14.—The council of the so-called provisional government of the republic of Cuba, represented by President Maso, Vice President Capote and three members of the cabinet, met at Santa Cruz on Sept. 1 and formulated a manifesto to the Cuban people, with an order to the military commanders of the Cuban army, both of which have been promulgated.

FOUGHT FOR LIBERTY.

The manifesto, which is an elaborate document, touches on the history of the movement for Cuban independence and the principles upon which the Cuban people have fought for their liberty. After speaking of the help given them by the United States, and extending gratitude to that nation for interfering in their behalf, the manifesto proceeds, in part, as follows:

"Through the principal objects of the revolution have been obtained, that is, the destruction of Spanish dominion, the work of this council is not yet at an end, for a Cuban republic, the ideal for which we have fought, has not yet been constituted. Now that hostilities have ceased and Spain has renounced her sovereignty, it is the duty of this council to set before the Cuban people the feelings and purposes of the men who made the revolution.

DUTIES TOWARD AMERICA.

"As we begin now our national life, we more than any other people, must be jealous of our national honor. It is, therefore, the duty of this council to explain to the people of Cuba what, in its opinion, are our duties toward the United States and toward ourselves, and what are the rules that ought to direct our conduct.

"When after a long struggle, the United States congress recognized the right of the people of Cuba to be free and independent and ordered the Spanish forces to withdraw from the island, no Cuban government was recognized; but the one we had constituted, though not recognized, was not opposed and has not been opposed. No steps have been taken to dislodge it from the place where it has exercised its function, nor has it been considered an illegitimate authority which events have dissolved or destroyed for the good of the people of Cuba.

UNITED STATES' POLICY JUST.

"It could not be otherwise. The United States could not interfere in our struggle for the sake of what our enemies might consider a political faction. The American government, for the benefit of the whole people of Cuba, part of whom, being under Spanish rule, was not free to express purpose or preference. The intention of the United States was that, as soon as the obstacle—Spanish rule—had been removed, the whole Cuban people should choose the government that would shape the destinies of the island.

"The people of the United States have all along appreciated the fact that a majority of the people of Cuba is in agreement with our principles; for the motto of the United States government has been the same as our own—absolute independence for Cuba. Under these conditions the Americans could not take a hostile attitude toward us or consider our authority illegitimate and harmful to the welfare of the Cuban people.

CALL AN ASSEMBLY.

"These considerations have convinced us that we should not dissolve and the powers we have received from an assembly elected by the people under arms should not vanish. On the contrary, we feel that we should remain as a nucleus and guide for those who have vested such power in us. We have, therefore, decided to call together another assembly, which will determine our future course."

In conclusion, the manifesto gives a number of reasons why the proposed assembly should be convened, and some government or other chosen, "not with the character of the government as yet, but as an official representation of those Cubans who fought against Spain and those who, in the cities under Spanish control and in foreign countries, have helped and supported them."

MICHIGAN SOLDIER DIES.

PRIVATE LOVEJOY OF IRON MOUNTAIN AT SANTIAGO.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The following is General Lawton's health report for today at Santiago:

Total sick	811
Total fever	539
New cases	90
Returned to duty	32

Deaths—
Jacob Starke, civilian, cook, Second Massachusetts; typhoid fever.
Private George B. Lovejoy, Company E, Thirty-fourth Michigan; pernicious malarial fever and acute diarrhoea.

BOUND FOR CAMP MEADE.

THIRTY-FIFTH MICHIGAN REGIMENT LEAVES ISLAND LAKE.

Detroit, Sept. 14.—Michigan's "crack" regiment of volunteers—the Thirty-fifth infantry—left the Island Lake state camp this evening for Camp Meade, Pa.

BRINGS MICHIGAN SICK.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 14.—The Michigan hospital train will leave for the north tonight, taking ninety sick soldiers from Camp Logan.

DESERTING CAMP WIKOFF.

Camp Wikoff, Sept. 14.—The present indications are that before the end of another week Camp Wikoff will be practically abandoned. Four infantry regiments left today—the Fourth for Fort Sheridan, the Thirtieth for various barracks in New York state, the Seventeenth for Columbus and the Twenty-first for Plattsburg. The last of Roosevelt's Rough Riders left for New York tonight. The Twelfth infantry starts for Jefferson Barracks, Mo., tomorrow. Orders were also received for the removal of all the artillery here.

NOTED AT CHICKAMAUGA.

Chickamauga, Ga., Sept. 14.—General Breckinridge and staff left the city tonight for Knoxville. Before leaving the general turned over the business of his headquarters to General Boynton, who at once assumed command at this point. There are now stored at this camp over $2,000,000 worth of quartermaster and commissary supplies and $500,000 of medical supplies. The Sixth regiment of United States Volunteers were today established as guards for the government property.

The Fiftieth Iowa passed through the city tonight over the Cincinnati Southern, going to Des Moines. There were three sections of the train. The regiment carried fifty sick, and even the well men did not appear to be in very robust condition.

M. FAURE NOT OPPOSED.

INDICATIONS FAVORABLE FOR DREYFUS CASE REVISION.

Paris, Sept. 14.—A semi-official note, issued this evening, says:

"All statements in newspapers regarding the alleged intervention of the president of the republic in the Dreyfus affair are incorrect."

It is now taken for granted that General Zurlinden, minister for war, will resign Saturday, all the efforts of his colleagues to persuade him to accept a revision having failed. When his successor is appointed, he will find the court of cassation already set in motion for revision.

SENATOR KYLE STRICKEN.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATESMAN SUFFERS A PARALYTIC STROKE.

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—Senator Kyle of South Dakota was stricken with paralysis at the Forest City Hotel today. It was understood the stroke was slight, but the physicians said this afternoon that, although the senator was not in dangerous condition at present, he had suffered a serious stroke.

Late tonight, Senator Kyle is reported to be improving, with every chance for full recovery.

ENDS HIS OWN LIFE.

Danville, Ills., Sept. 14.—John N. Seearce, a prominent citizen and member of the school board, committed suicide by shooting tonight. His only son was found dead in a bath tub two weeks ago, which, it is thought, unbalanced the old man's mind and caused him to take his life.

BODY SENT TO AUSTRIA.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14.—The casket containing the remains of the late Empress Elizabeth of Austria, borne on a four horse car and followed by two other cars almost buried in floral offerings, was conveyed to the railroad station this morning and started for Vienna.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The following is the weather forecast for tomorrow for Upper Michigan: Rain; warmer; fresh southerly winds.

ACCIDENTLY KILLED.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Wm. N. Hood, proprietor of The Democrat, and a prominent politician, was killed while trying to board a train today.

SHAFTER'S STORY OF THE CAMPAIGN.

the left. The troops moved forward in compliance with orders, but the road was so narrow as to render it impracticable to retain a column of four formation at all points, while the undergrowth on either side was so dense as to preclude the possibility of deploying skirmishers. It naturally resulted that the progress was slow. The long range rifles of the enemy killed and wounded a number of our men while marching along this road.

"Generals Kent and Sumner were ordered to push forward with all possible haste and place their troops in position to engage the enemy. Kent forced the head of his column alongside the cavalry column, so far as the narrow trail permitted, and thus hurried the arrival at the San Juan and the formation beyond that stream.

"General Wheeler, who had been ill, came forward during the morning and later returned to duty, and rendered most gallant and efficient service during the remainder of the day.

MOVE ON SAN JUAN HILL.

"After crossing the stream the cavalry moved to the right. In meantime, Kent's division had moved rapidly to the front, and, crossing the creek, formed for attack in front on San Juan hill. During this formation the Second brigade suffered severely, and its gallant commander, Colonel Wikoff, was killed.

"While the formation just described was taking place, Kent took measures to hurry toward the rear of the brigade. The Tenth and Second infantry were ordered to follow Wikoff's brigade, while the Twenty-first was sent on the right hand road to support the First brigade, under Hawkins, which had crossed the stream and formed on the right of the division. The Second and Tenth moved forward on the left of the division and passed over the green knoll, driving the enemy back toward the trenches.

"After completing the formation under a destructive fire and advancing a short distance both divisions found in their front a wide bottom in which was placed barbed wire entanglements; beyond was a high hill, along the crest of which the enemy were strongly posted. The gallant men pushed on to drive the enemy from his chosen position, both divisions losing heavily.

HEAT KNOCKS OUT SHAFTER.

"Great credit is due to Brigadier General H. S. Hawkins, but in this fierce encounter words fail to do justice to the gallant regimental commanders and the heroic men. I am greatly indebted to General Wheeler, who returned from the sick list to duty during the afternoon.

My own health was impaired by over-exertion in the sun and intense heat of the day before, which prevented me from participating as actively in the battle as I desired; but from a high hill near my headquarters I had a general view of the battlefield, extending from El Caney on the right to the left of our lines on San Juan hill."

General Shafter follows in detail the movements of the troops and the entrenching done during the night. He says: "General Duffield, with the Thirty-third Michigan, attacked Agudores, but was unable to accomplish more than detain the Spaniards in that vicinity.

"On the night of July 1, I ordered Duffield, at Siboney, to send forward the Thirty-fourth Michigan and the Ninth Massachusetts, both of which had just arrived from the United States. These regiments reached the front the next morning.

ASSULT BY THE ENEMY.

"All day, on the 2d, the battle waged, but such of our troops as were in position at daylight held their ground. Lawton gained a strong commanding position on the right. About 10 p. m. the enemy made a vigorous assault to break through my lines, but was repulsed at all points.

"On the morning of the 3d the battle was renewed, but the enemy seemed to have expended his energy in the assault of the previous night; the firing along the lines was desultory until stopped by my sending the following letter within the Spanish lines." Here General Shafter gives the dispatches passing between him and General Toral, already published, and proceeds:

"I was of the opinion the Spaniards would surrender if given a little time. I determined to offer to return all the wounded Spanish officers at El Caney who were willing to give their paroles not to serve against the United States until regularly exchanged. This offer was made and accepted. The cessation of firing about noon on the 3d practically terminated the battle of Santiago; all that occurred after this may properly be treated under the head of siege, which followed.

FORCES WERE ABOUT EQUAL.

"After deducting the detachments retained at Siboney since the beginning of the siege secure from attack, the organizations held to protect our flanks and others acting as escorts, the guards to the light batteries, the members of the hospital corps, orderlies, etc., it is doubtful if we had more than twelve thousand men on the firing line on July 1, when the battle was the fiercest and when the important and strong positions of El Caney and San Juan were captured.

"A few Cubans assisted in the attack at El Caney and fought valiantly, but their numbers were too small to materially change the strength. The enemy confronted us with numbers about equal to our own; they fought obstinately in strongly entrenched positions. The results obtained clearly indicate the intrepid gallantry of the company officers and men, and the benefits derived from the careful training of our men in recent years in rifle practice and other battle exercises.

GARCIA'S MISSION FAILED.

"Our losses in these battles were 22 officers and 208 men killed; 81 officers and 1,203 men wounded; missing, 79. The missing, with a few exceptions, reported later.

General Shafter says the arrival of General Escario at Santiago was not anticipated. He says: "Garcia, with between four thousand and five thousand Cubans, was entrusted with the duty of watching for and intercepting the reinforcements expected. This he failed to do. Escario passed into the city on my extreme right, near the bay."

After speaking of Admiral Cervera's sortie and the destruction of his fleet, General Shafter says he again called on the Spanish commander to surrender. He says: "On the same date I informed Admiral Sampson that if he would force his way into the harbor the city would surrender without further sacrifice of life. Commodore Watson replied that Admiral Sampson was temporarily absent, but in his (Watson's) opinion the navy should not enter the harbor. The strength of the enemy's position was such that I did not wish to assault it."

"It was avoided, and an examination of the enemy's works after the surrender fully justified the wisdom of the course adopted. The entrenchments could only have been carried with very great loss of life."

SICKNESS SPREAD RAPIDLY.

General Shafter gives the various dispatches towards securing surrender, and tells of re-opening the engagement on the 10th, when the truce ended. On the 11th the city's surrender was again demanded.

"By this date," the general continues, "the sickness in the army was increasing rapidly. The weakness of the troops was becoming so apparent that I was anxious to bring the siege to an end; but, in common with most of the officers of the army, I did not think an assault would be justifiable, especially as the enemy seemed acting in good faith in the preliminary propositions for surrender."

"On July 12 I informed the Spanish commander that General Miles had just arrived in my camp, and requested him to grant us a personal interview the following day. He replied that he would be pleased to meet us. The interview took place on the 13th. I informed him that surrender only could be considered."

NATURAL OBSTACLES.

"Before closing this report, I wish to dwell upon the natural obstacles I had to encounter, which no foresight could have overcome or obviated. At Daiquiri, the landing of the troops and stores was made at a wooden wharf, which the Spaniards had tried to burn, but unsuccessfully. The animals were pushed into the water and guided to a sandy beach about two hundred yards in extent. At Siboney, the landing was made on the beach and at a small wharf erected by the engineers. I had neither the time nor men to spare to construct permanent wharves.

"In spite of the fact that I had nearly a thousand men continually at work on the roads, they at times were impassable for wagons. The San Juan and Agudores rivers would often suddenly rise, so as to prevent the passage of wagons, and then the eight pack trains with the command had to be depended upon for the feeding of my army, as well as twenty thousand refugees who could not be left to starve. Often for days nothing could be moved except on pack trains."

YELLOW FEVER APPEARS.

"After the great physical strain and exposure of July 1 and 2 fevers began to rapidly advance throughout the command. July 4 yellow fever appeared at Siboney.

"The supply of quartermaster and commissary stores during the campaign was abundant, and, notwithstanding the difficulties in landing and transporting rations, the troops on the firing lines were at all times supplied with its coarser components, namely, bread, meat, sugar and coffee.

"In reference to the sick and wounded, they received every attention possible. The medical officers without exception worked night and day to alleviate the suffering, which was no greater than invariably accompanies a campaign. It would have been better if we had more ambulances.

"The discipline of the command was superb. I wish to invite attention to the fact that not an officer was brought to trial by court-martial, and, as far as I know, no enlisted man."

RECOMMENDS PROMOTION.

"In conclusion, I desire to express to the members of my staff my thanks for their efficient performances of all the duties required of them, and their good judgment and bravery displayed on all occasions.

General Shafter recommends for promotion the following officers: Lieutenant Colonel E. J. McClaran, Lieutenant Colonel George McDerby, Lieutenant Colonel J. D. Miley, Major R. H. Noble, Lieutenant Colonel J. A. J. Astor, Lieutenant Colonel B. F. Pope, Major S. W. Groesbeck, Lieutenant Colonel Chas. F. Humphrey, Colonel John F. Weston, Major C. G. Starr, Major Leon Roudies, Captain E. H. Gallagher, Captain Brice, Captain E. H. Plummer, Captain J. C. Gilmore, Jr., and Captain W. H. McKittick.

TIDAL WAVE WITH IT.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Sept. 14.—According to the latest reports from St. Lucia, the storm which broke upon the island Sunday night developed almost unprecedented violence, and was accompanied by a tidal wave. Numerous landslides were caused and many houses, bridges and cocoa estates were destroyed. At least twelve lives were lost.

Guadeloupe, a French island in the Leeward group, experienced heavy weather. Nineteen deaths are reported and there were destructive landslides.

A boat from the island of St. Vincent, a hundred miles west of Barbadoes, arrived today at the island of Grenada and reports that St. Vincent experienced the most destructive cyclone ever known there. Kingston, the capital of St. Vincent, was totally destroyed.

BODIES BURIED IN TRENCHES.

It is estimated there were a hundred lives lost in that island, and twenty thousand people are homeless. The bodies of the dead are being buried in trenches. Thousands are starving or being fed at public expense. The amount of property destroyed at St. Vincent cannot yet be estimated. The demolished buildings include churches, stores and almost all estate buildings.

Three large ships are ashore on the Windward coast, and many smaller vessels are stranded.

GOLD DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN RESIGNS—CHARGES MADE.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—W. D. Bynum, chairman of the National Democratic party, tendered his resignation to the executive committee today, and George Foster Peabody of New York was elected as his successor. The resignation was a great surprise to the leaders of the Gold Democratic party. C. Vey Holman of Maine declared after the meeting that he proposed to have Mr. Bynum investigated. Holman claims that Bynum called the meeting of today with an intent to force him to leave Maine, where the election was held on Monday, the morning of election day, and he charges the ex-chairman with conspiracy. A committee, of which Peabody was made chairman, was appointed to prepare an address to the people. A resolution which was adopted by the meeting stopping the salaries of all the officers is said to be the real cause of Chairman Bynum's resignation.

ADMINISTRATION ROASTED.

UTAH DEMOCRATS FIND FAULT WITH CONDUCT OF THE WAR.

Salt Lake, Sept. 14.—The Democratic state convention met here today and nominated R. N. Haskin of Salt Lake for supreme judge and B. H. Roberts for congress. The platform reaffirms the Chicago platform and holds the use of both gold and silver as money essential to the welfare and happiness of mankind.

Regarding the war with Spain, the platform says it was necessary and inevitable, and arranges the Republican administration for "its hesitation and weakness in trying to avoid the responsibility growing out of the most important crisis," and says "it was at length compelled through the patriotic efforts of the Democratic members of congress and the array of public sentiment, to declare a declaration of war."

It charges the Republican administration, through political corruption and incompetency, with having provided our sailors and soldiers insufficiently with necessities needful for health and comfort, and concludes:

"The people of United States will hold to right account the persons who may be found responsible for this condition, which discloses that they were worse enemies to the country than those against whom our brave soldiers and seamen were ready to go forth and do battle." The platform is silent as to territorial expansion.

PROHIBITION ALMOST WINS!

DEMOCRATS CARRY SOUTH CAROLINA BY SLIM MARGIN.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 14.—Returns from the second state primary, held yesterday, are incomplete, but indicate that the race for governor is very close.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 15.—Out of a total vote of 60,870, reported at 1 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, Governor Ellerbe has a lead of 1,986 on his Prohibition opponent. The missing vote will hardly reduce this majority. It has been the closest race for many years for any officers in this state.

NAMED FOR CONGRESS.

The combined silver forces of the Eighth Michigan district last night at Saginaw re-nominated Ferdinand Brucker for congress. Other congressional nominations made yesterday were:

Iowa—First district, D. J. McBlaine, Democrat; Fourth, Dr. T. C. Chase, Democrat; Tenth, Edward Anderson, Democrat.

Wisconsin—Third district, T. L. Cleary, Democrat.

TELLER WING WINS.

Denver, Sept. 14.—Secretary of State Whipple today decided the contest between the two factions of the Silver Republican party in this state for possession of the name and emblem of the party in favor of the Teller wing.

SPEEDY HORSES MAKE RECORDS.

FAST TIME AT YESTERDAY'S GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14.—At the grand circuit races this afternoon Bingen trotted three miles in 2:08½, 2:10½ and 2:08½. These were the three fastest heats made by a trotting stallion this year, and the third mile equals the best mile made by a trotter of either sex since the season of 1897 closed. In his match race against Chehalis, which he won, Joe Patchen paced a mile in 2:01½, driven by his owner, C. W. Marks of Chicago. This was the fastest mile made in competition this season. Results:

2:11 trotting, purse $2,000 (six starters)—Bingen won; Aldid, second; The Abbott, third. Best time, 2:08½.

2:19 pace, $2,000 (seven starters)—Lady-of-the-Manor won; Chimes, second; Fleet, third. Best time, 2:04.

Match race, pacing, $2,500—Joe Patchen won; Chehalis, second. Best time, 2:01½.

CHARLEY TOWNE IN THE CHAIR. THIRD DAY OF THE OMAHA MONETARY CONFERENCE.

Omaha, Sept. 14.-At today's session of the monetary conference, Chairman Towne of Minnesota, of the Silver Republican national committee, presided.

The principal speakers this afternoon were George Fred Williams of Boston and Congressman C. N. Fowler of New Jersey. Williams spoke for silver and Fowler for the gold standard.

Professor Willis said that wealth dominated the institutions of learning, and cited the case of Professor Andrews of Brown university, to show that college professors dare not teach views contrary to the interests of the rich.

Green of Hartford, Conn., on "Social Features of Dividends; Surrender Value."

At the afternoon session John R. Insurance company of New York, spoke on industrial life insurance in the United States and other countries.

The selection of officers and the next part of meeting comes up Friday. Detroit seems in the lead for the next convention.

TO GIVE WHEN BROKE.

Hard Luck Story of a Man Who Breakfasted at Expense of Fruit Vendor.

He wore fairly good clothes, but apparently had found himself in hard luck, and was telling how he had raised a breakfast.

"It was a snap," he said, "and has only barred me out on Grand River avenue, and I don't care about going up that way any more, anyway. You see, I got up without a cent in my clothes, and no breakfast. It was pretty early Sunday morning, and as I came down the avenue, more out of freshness than anything else, I stopped in front of a dago's fruit stand and priced a fine lot of peaches."

"Five cents a quart," the dago said. "Hum!" said I. "Are they clingstones or Crawford's?" apparently being desirous of buying only the best. It stalled him. He knew nothing about varieties or which were the best. He looked up puzzled, and the flash of an idea came across his face. He put both of his hands out in front.

"Eata," he said. "Eata." "I eata," picking out one of the finest in the lot. I ate it with the air of a connoisseur, rather doubtful about its quality, the dago watching me all the while, anxiously.

"Humph!" I said, looking around the stand as though not satisfied with the result. "What kind of pears are those; Bartlett's?"

"The dago looked at me again closely, and then again hospitably urged me to 'Eata.'"

"I eata." 'Twas a nice pear. I have rarely eaten better. My stomach was already feeling easier. I was just about ready to make a wry face, shaking my head disgustedly, and move off, when I caught sight of some nice grapes, which in the hurried intensity of my thinking I had not noticed. I sort of mollified my look of disgust and looked toward the grapes.

"Malagas," I asked. "The dago began to look at me suspiciously, but my respectable appearance and innocent look of good intent, caused him once more to fall into my net. But his 'Eata' this time was less impulsive and gladsome. However, it was uttered, and I fell heir to a good bunch of fine grapes. These I ate slowly, and threw the stem on the walk.

"Umph! very fair," I said. I will send a boy around and get some of those, and I strolled off. Say, you ought to have seen that dago's face. He scowled at me; I caught a reflection of him by looking sideways into the windows as I walked on; and then he muttered under his black, cropped mustache, looked at his fruit stand, and started toward me with a smothered call, evidently going to make me pay for it, but bethought himself, just in time, of the possibility of the sale of grapes promised him, and contented himself with shaking his fist in pantomime after me, and returned to re-arrange his wares. I walked down the street easier in stomach, but somewhat weakened in my conscience. Say, I wouldn't pass that dago again for half a dollar.

The only change in lake carrying charges during last week was an advance of 5 cents in the ore rate from the head of Lake Superior, which was made Friday. Ore boats have been scarce at Duluth and Ashland for the past week, as quite a few of the regular Lake Superior traders were placed for grain. The advanced rate did not bring much tonnage on the market, as, all told, not more than a dozen vessels were chartered since the rate was marked up. The Duluth-Ashland rate is firm at 55 cents, and vesselmen are having no trouble getting all of the Escanaba cargoes wanted at 45 cents. There seems to be a fair supply of Marquette tonnage on the market and no change is noted in that rate. Some owners are hopeful of getting another advance in the rate from the head of the lake this week. They say that boats for early loading have nearly all been placed, and that if there is any improvement in the grain trade shippers will have to pay better rates to get tonnage.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Chicago, Sept. 14.-Wheat today started easy, followed by a stronger tone, but the full advance was not held. The lower start was due to easy cables and large Northwestern receipts. The early offerings were well taken, however, and the market soon developed considerable strength. Higher prices in the Northwest and bullish advices from that section regarding the position of cash wheat and strength at St. Louis and New York, all tended to help the market.

Corn was dull early, but livened up considerably toward the close. The feeling was weak, but the undertone early was rather steady. The trade was largely local. The Iowa state report was bearish, making the yield 185,000,000 bushels. The country offerings were light, and the cash demand was unsatisfactory.

Trading in oats was fairly active and higher, mainly on covering by shorts. There were no new or striking features to attract attention.

The leading grain futures ranged as follows:

WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Sept. 14.-The unsettled tone of the speculative mind over the money market outlook was relieved today by the announcement of further gold imports. Actual engagements were announced of $1,600,000 and rumors were rife of very heavy additional sums to come this week. A very active buying movement developed, which was in large part from professional traders who had gone short of the market on the conviction that the money rates would hold firm for a time and that call money would be subject to occasional furries from the calling of loans that would shake out a large liquidation of stocks. The railroads rallied early in the day, but were weakened by the decline in specialties. They offered resistance to the decline, however, and advanced easily and quickly through the list after mid-day. The grangers and Pacific were conspicuous in the railroad list.

The closing quotations of bonds and leading stocks were as follows:

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

A. T. VAN ALSTYN'S OPERA BLOCK DRY GOODS HOUSE, Marquette, Michigan.

The dry goods store of the present day is as different from the dry goods store of former days, as the styles of dress of today and that of twenty-five years ago; or at least, the modern "up-to-date" store is.

Marquette City excels in many ways all her rival cities. It is a well-known fact, and admitted by all, that Marquette homes, her buildings, streets, and drives, her well kept lawns, and beautiful surroundings, are the envy of every person of taste and culture. Her churches and schools, libraries and public buildings, are superior to those of any city on the lake or in the Upper Peninsula.

It is equally admitted by all that at the present time there is not an "up-to-date" modern dry goods store either in Marquette or within a radius of one hundred (100) miles. It is admitted by everyone that one of the most needful enterprises, to place Marquette in her proper place as the leading center of trade in the north, is just such a store. Recognizing this fact, and being urged by many who have the material interest of the city and its growth at heart, the undersigned has arranged to open, on or about Oct. 1st, in the Opera House Block on Washington St., a dry goods house in which the people of Marquette may well take pride.

Occupying a space of 75 feet frontage, with a suite of rooms on the second floor for a first-class dress-making department, the store building is now being re-modelled and modernized, and when completed it will be the most convenient and the handsomest dry goods store north of Chicago. The fixtures are of oak and glass, of the latest style and pattern, and will equal those to be found in the best stores in our large cities.

The Cloak and Suit department will be eighty feet long, with splendid light, and room to show the elegant styles and qualities of the finest line ever shown in any city outside of our great cities.

Our dress goods and silk departments will surpass anything ever attempted in Marquette.

You will also find the most complete departments of Linens, Hosiery, Underwear, Gloves, Blankets, Woolens, Muslin Underwear, Carpets, and staple goods.

We shall sell goods on their merits; good goods at fair prices. We do not expect to sell goods at less than cost. Nor do we expect to sell them at cost. But we do expect to sell all our goods at as low a price as you can procure them for in Chicago or any other market.

We shall be glad at all times to refund money where customers are not fully satisfied. We shall take pleasure in showing you our goods whether you buy or do not buy. We are coming to Marquette to serve her people in the best way we know how. You can always rely on courteous attention from our sales-people.

We shall always sell our goods strictly for cash, and at as small a margin as we can and show a living profit. The credit system is worse for the customer than for the merchant. It is so easy for one to go to a store and buy goods and have them charged, and then when the first of the month comes a customer is invariably surprised at the large amount of their month's bill, and many find it hard to meet these bills promptly, often times buying more than they would were they to pay for the goods when purchased.

Merchants doing a credit business always lose a large number of their accounts, the customers who pay their bills having to pay for those who do not pay; and no merchant can sell his goods at as close a margin, and trust them out on his books, and pay bookkeepers and collectors and postage, as the merchant who sells for cash.

We expect to merit your patronage because we will give you the best value for your money, and the best styles any market will afford. We shall be under-sellers because we shall be under-buyers. The undersigned spent 12 years in the retail dry goods business, previous to 13 years connection with one of the largest wholesale houses in America. We do not think that we are conceited when we say that our experience in the wholesale and retail dry goods business will enable us to sell our goods at a uniform lower price than any other house in the Upper Peninsula.

Our relations with the producers and manufacturers of merchandise will be such that we will be in a position at all times to take advantage of the great sales in New York City and Chicago, and of many of the mills.

We shall take every discount on our purchases that cash will secure. We shall also maintain a mail order department, and also give prompt attention to outside orders by phone. Send us for samples of any kind of goods you may want and your orders for same will be attended to at once, and if goods are not satisfactory, return them to us, and we will cheerfully refund you the money.

In remitting money to us, send by P. O. order, Express order, or Draft. To our out-of-town trade, parties living in nearby towns, on purchases of $10, and upwards, we will deduct the amount of your carfare from the amount of your purchase, so it won't cost you any more to come to Marquette and trade than it will to trade in your own town.

We solicit an inspection of our store and goods. We want the ladies to feel at home at our establishment; and free to come in and look at our goods, no matter if they do not wish to make a purchase. We have provided our salesroom with ladies' Toilet and Dressing Rooms, which we trust our customers will feel free to visit at any time.

DRESS-MAKING DEPARTMENT: One feature of our store which we trust will meet with the approval of the Ladies of Marquette is our Dress-making Parlors, under the management of Mrs. Hall, a lady thoroughly qualified to do the finest kind of work, from a plain tailor-made gown to creations of art which can scarcely be surpassed by Parisian artists. Mrs. Hall is now in the east and will return in time for our Grand Fall Opening, when she will be pleased to meet the Ladies of Marquette and vicinity. Satisfaction guaranteed to everyone patronizing this department. We will furnish you with material, linings, and making, at as moderate prices as good work will permit. Do not fail to visit this department.

Every dollar's worth of our stock will be entirely new. Not one dollar's worth of old goods in the store.

Remember our store is for everybody. All will find a cordial welcome, and we shall try to keep goods to suit all customers.

Come and see us, and then tell your friends about us. Watch the papers for date of our opening.

Wait for your fall purchases until you see our stock. You will be able to buy new goods for less money than many old ones are being sold for.

The undersigned has been coming to Marquette several times a year for the past 12 years, and knows many of the citizens. We would like to know you all. Come and introduce yourself, and believe us Yours to Serve

A. T. VAN ALSTYN.

MAY IT PROVE TRUE!

REPORT THAT MINING WORK IS ABOUT TO BE RESUMED AT THE IMPERIAL.

It is rumored at Michigamme that mining operations are soon to be resumed at the Imperial mine, formerly the Wetmore, about three-quarters of a mile northwest of that town. While no positive information to that effect has been given out at Michigamme, the people up there have every reason to believe that the report is true.

Mr. Scadden, a well known mining man of Crystal Falls, was at Michigamme a few days ago and the object of his mission was to engage a man to look over the property. He stated that half a dozen men would be put to work very soon removing the water from the workings. He left the impression that if the ore proved up well mining operations would be started soon after the workings are cleared of the water.

The Imperial has been idle now about seven years and the machinery and other equipments about the property are not in the best of condition after such a period of disuse. It will take a little while to get the machinery in shape to do the pumping. While the water is coming out of the mine other preparatory work can be done if the parties interested can see their way clear to expend money in that manner.

Just before the final close-down of the mine something like one hundred and fifty men were employed there. The mine had been idle some time and was started up on a second trial, running about six months, when orders for a second suspension were received.

At the time of the shut down it is said the workings were looking good, and it was not on account of the quality of the ore, or pinching out of the deposit, that work was stopped. It was simply because the market was dull and the selling price of ore too low to warrant continuing production at that time.

Mr. Scadden did not say much about the mine while at Michigamme, so that it is not known who are going to put money into it with a view to ascertaining what is there. Advice from there yesterday were to the effect that it is understood up there that men will be put to work early next week getting things in readiness to begin pumping.

HAVE AGREED TO RACE.

WILLIAMS AND KENNAUGH SAID TO BE MATCHED FOR A MEET AT AN EARLY DATE.

Ed Murray yesterday told the reporter that Irwin Williams and James Kennaugh had practically agreed to come together in a bicycle race for $100 a side. The money to be put up by the friends of the riders. Articles of agreement, he said, were to be drawn up last night and the forfeit money of $20 each would be placed in the hands of A. B. Miner, cashier of the First National bank, some time today. It is understood that the race will be mile heats, best two in three. The date for the meeting has not yet been determined but in case arrangements are satisfactorily adjusted today it is likely the riders will come together a week from next Saturday at the Union park course. It is believed that Williams will be in trim to race by that time, though he has not yet fully recovered from the injuries he received in the fall on the board track the night he was having a go with Ed. Honkala.

CHURCH FAIR NEXT WEEK.

The ladies of St. Joseph's church congregation have been working diligently during the past three or four weeks in the interest of the fair to be held next week in the A. O. U. W. hall, Anderson block.

Many tickets have been sold on the lotteries to take place during the week. There are four hundred articles to be raffled off, so there will be that number of winning tickets. Included in the things to be disposed of are a number of valuable pieces of household furniture, etc.

There will also be spirited contests for which votes will be taken up every evening. The result of most of these will be reached the last night, though a few of the contests will be brought to a close earlier in the week. One contest that is already attracting considerable attention is between the little daughters of J. J. Voelker and O. G. Giffey Gunville. The prize offered is a mammoth doll, valued at about $25.

There is every indication that the fair will be a big financial success, as the ladies have met with better encouragement than they anticipated when they started out.

LETTER BOXES NOT REQUIRED.

During the past few days a couple of strangers have been here putting letter boxes in the homes of many of the people. It is said that they create the impression that the government postoffice officials require the use of the boxes, but Postmaster Fairbairn desires The Mining Journal to state that this is not so. The people of this city do not have to put up the boxes offered by these fellows, or in fact any boxes at all.

The box is a worthless one, being made of tin. It is not large enough to hold a paper and it is impossible to get a large sized envelope into it. Those fellows do not sell the boxes outright. They simply lease them to the resident for a term of five years and the price charged for rental is five cents per year, collected in advance. In other words they get twenty-five cents for the box, which costs them perhaps five cents. Once they get out of here they will not come back again, as there will not be one of the boxes left five years from now.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

"The Heart of Chicago," a powerful melodrama, all the scenes of which are laid in Chicago, will be the attraction at the opera house here tonight. It is said to contain a strong plot and to be well put together. Scenically "The Heart of Chicago" is said to be very strong. WILL SOON BE FINISHED.

It is expected that the extension of the Marquette County Telephone company's system will be completed to Republic within the next week, or ten days at the latest. About a dozen men are engaged in extending the poles and wires. Nearly all the poles have been raised as far as the village, and the entire work is going along at a rapid rate.

After the extension is finished there will be considerable work still to do putting in 'phones and building the lines at all the towns west of Ishpeming. The management rather expects to get in quite a number of instruments in each place, and also to get up all the poles needed, before the winter months an effort will be made to considerably increase the list of subscribers in the three places. There are a number who will take the 'phones just as soon as the system is completed all the way through and the workmen have time to put them in.

"IRON" MONEY COUNTERFEITERS.

REMINISCENCES OF THE WORK THEY DID MAKING AND PUTTING IN CIRCULATION BOGUS CURRENCY.

The article in the Ishpeming department of yesterday's Mining Journal relative to the driving out of the "Iron" money by a government official some twenty-four years ago brought to the minds of a number of the older residents of Negaunee the circumstances leading to the arrest of the man who was caught counterfeiting the bills.

There were several implicated in the deal, but only one arrest was made. Dr. Crucial was the man brought into court. According to the stories recounted yesterday, there was a warm time in Negaunee over the affair.

Crucial and a partner named Swain practiced medicine here for some time before the counterfeiting was discovered. They were the men who established the Negaunee hospital in the building at the corner of Iron street and Pioneer avenue, until recently occupied by John Mitchell, the grocer. The hospital business was a failure and it was after this that the counterfeiting was begun. Dr. Swain was not charged with complicity in the "money making" was continued for over a month, during which time thousands of dollars of the bogus stuff were sent out. Dr. Crucial and some of his more intimate friends very suddenly became very "flush," and this was what first led to the suspicion against them.

The Jackson Iron company's money was the only currency counterfeited. The bills were signed by Captain Merry, who was then at the head of the corporation, and it is said that Crucial forged his signature so nicely that even the captain could not detect the fraud. The captain had accepted some of the bills himself, taking it for granted that they were genuine.

In some respects the counterfeiting was very cleverly done, but Crucial and his associates left some very large loop holes for the detectives to get a hold on them. The bogus bills were first discovered by the numbers being duplicated. The numbers on the original and those of the counterfeiters were not exactly alike and the counterfeit bill was a trifle smaller than the original. The type used in printing the numbers on the counterfeiters was purchased from Editor C. G. Griffey of the Iron Herald. In talking of the matter yesterday, Mr. Griffey said that the numbering on the bogus bills had more to do with giving the counterfeiters away than anything else. During the month they worked they made good use of their time.

One fellow who had procured a bunch of the counterfeit bills went over to Ishpeming and got rid of them at a discount, getting in exchange several hundred dollars of good money.

At the time the discovery was made the bills were being got out in a building which stood on the lot now occupied by the Miller block on Iron street. Dr. Crucial and his assistants had rooms up there. When the detectives went through their quarters in search of bogus money and the counterfeiting outfit they found nothing. Later they picked up a satchel full of money in the rear of the lot, immediately under one of the windows, where it had been thrown out from the second story.

A number of the old-timers who were in business here when the "Iron" money was wiped out got caught for large sums. Mayor Kirkwood was one of the victims. He had a nice bank account of the corporation money, but he got but very little out of it. He remembers all about the counterfeiting business and laughed heartily yesterday as he related some of the more amusing incidents growing out of the affair.

ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT.

The City band, under the leadership of Professor John Blackwell, will give its twelfth annual entertainment at McDonald's Opera House on Thanksgiving night. During the past eleven years the boys have given musical and literary entertainments, but this year they propose to try something new. A minstrel performance will be given. The best male talent in the city will be secured and it is expected that a very creditable performance will be the result of their efforts. A committee composed of A. Willman, Thomas Trathen and Harry Trembly, has been named to make all arrangements for the performance. All of these have had considerable experience in the minstrel business and they know pretty well what is required to get up an interesting program. The latest books on minstrelsy have been sent for and it is the intention of the boys who are to take part to begin work without delay.

BOY LOSES A FINGER.

Bert McCall, a lad about twelve years of age, had the little finger blown off his left hand Tuesday. He was in luck that he did not lose the entire hand. The boy and some companions were out near Teal Lake playing soldier. They procured a gas pipe and rigged it up as a cannon. They got powder and were setting it off. At first they put in small charges and the fun went along all right. Finally they wanted to see what effect a larger charge would have on the pipe. About a handful of the powder was dropped into it and set off. McCall had his hand near the pipe when it exploded, some of the pieces striking him. The finger was taken off near the knuckle.

WILL GIVE A SOCIAL.

The Olive Branch of Negaunee, which is a charitable organization, will give a social next Saturday evening in the Sundberg block on West Iron street. Supper will be served between 5 and 8 o'clock and during the latter part of the evening there will be ice cream, etc., at the disposal of those who wish refreshments. The price of the supper will be 25 cents and ice cream and cake will be 15 cents. The ladies extend an invitation to all their friends to come out.

GOT A GOOD JOB.

Sam Hoar got home yesterday from a business trip to Cleveland and Chicago. While away he got a position as superintendent of a mine at Mayfield, Wis., and will leave for there very soon to take the job.

Form present indications there will be nothing more done at the Lucy mine this fall. Mr. Hoar was not successful in placing the ore, there being no particular demand for it at present.

A GREAT ENGLISH STATESMAN'S SECRET.

The secret of a celebrated English statesman's long life was his systematic way of eating. Every bite of food was chewed thirty times before swallowing. The result was he naturally enjoyed good food. Most men and women bolt their food, and eat things which were never intended to be eaten. They become constipated, have a bad complexion, lose flesh, are irritable and nervous, and the first thing they know they are "played out." It is gratifying to know that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cures stomach troubles. It is a purely vegetable medicine that has stood the test of many years. It cures cases which seem to be hopeless. Sufferers from any disorder of stomach, liver or bowels should try it.

Mrs. James Johnson and three children got home yesterday morning from Menasha, Wis., where they spent the past few weeks with relatives. Mrs. Frank Schaub, Mrs. Johnson's mother, came up with them and will visit here a few weeks.

A special meeting of the city council was held Tuesday evening for the purpose of canvassing the vote in the special election held Monday. Mayor Kirkwood presided and all but three of the aldermen were present, the absentees being Matthews, Neeley and Connors.

The next meeting of the Grand Orient here is to be a bumper. Those who were out Tuesday evening had such a good time that they concluded to give a banquet at the next meeting, which will be held within two or three weeks. There were seven candidates put through Tuesday night. A dozen or so are expected for the next meeting.

IRON AND STEEL DEVELOPMENT.

Some of the British technical papers are calling attention to the fact that there is nothing in the recent history of progress that is more remarkable than the development that has taken place in the iron and steel making resources of the United States. The capacity of the blast furnaces of the country is now equal to the production of nearly 20,000,000 tons of pig iron annually. The whole output of the world did not equal this twenty years ago, while the steel-making plants by the Bessemer and open-hearth processes are equal to producing over 15,000,000 tons of steel annually, or three times as much as the whole production of steel in the world less than twenty years ago. The present capacity of the British Bessemer plants does not exceed 2,500,000 tons of ingots per year, and the open-hearth capacity is about 4,000,000 tons. By this it is seen that Great Britain's steel making capacity is about one-half that of the United States.

With the coming of peace American iron and steel production will be pushed more vigorously than ever. This branch, which is so dependent on general commercial conditions, was greatly retarded by the war, and an improvement will be at once felt in the mills. With more extensive foreign markets after the war, especially those of Cuba and Porto Rico, the American producer will have an enlarged outlet for his goods, such as he badly needs. The necessity for a better foreign demand is nowhere greater than in the iron and steel industry, for it has grown so rapidly of late as to have outstripped the confines of domestic markets. The time seems ripe to develop new fields, especially as our prices are down to a basis where we can compete in price with the best foreign makers. It is not surprising, therefore, that one of our British exchanges should ask the question, "when is this state of things likely to end?" We believe it will not end until America sets the pace in the iron markets of the world.—American Manufacturer.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Henry Larson of Green Bay called on his local trade yesterday.

Otto Eger got home yesterday morning from a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. P. M. Tallion has returned from Duluth, where she spent two or three weeks with friends.

Mrs. Dana Monroe and her children, of Philadelphia, spent yesterday in the city visiting Mrs. R. P. Bronson.

At the annual meeting of the Union French society of Michigan at Iron Mountain last week Ferdinand LaBrecche of this city was chosen first vice president.

F. Braastad & Co. have moved their wood yard from near the old Brown warehouse, between Second and Third streets, to a point opposite the gas house, near the New York mine.

J. F. Mack, Sr., of Marquette did business in the city yesterday. He is devoting the greater part of his time these days to looking after operations at the Barasa mine, where ore was recently encountered.

John C. Anderson of Little Lake has begun the sale of wood to families in Ishpeming. He has taken many orders the past week or so and if he continues to work up business as he has started he will surely work up quite a trade here.

The local coal dealers are taking orders for fall delivery and a number have already had their bins filled for the winter. Very little of the winter stock has yet been received by the dealers, the orders thus far being filled from coal held over since last winter.

Nels Mowick got home Tuesday evening from Chicago, where he purchased a new line of goods. Miss Grant takes charge of his millinery department this season. She is a fine milliner, and being well known here will doubtless draw trade to Mr. Mowick's store.

The employees of the Salisbury mine were paid yesterday. The Lake Superior Iron company's men will get their checks today; the men at the Cliffs shafts will be made happy tomorrow by getting their wages for the past month, and the Cleveland Lake and Lake Angeline men will receive their money Saturday, this ending the pay days for the month at the mines here.

On the conclusion of the meeting of the Knights of Pythias society Tuesday evening all present repaired to Prince's restaurant, where a banquet was served in honor of Deputy Grand Chancellor Loomis of Grand Rapids, who was here giving the local members instruction in the secret work of the society. Mr. Prince did himself proud and the members of the society complimented him on the spread.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

MATLAND RENOMINATED.

Republicans Put Up Negaunee Man for a Second Term in the State Senate.

UNCONTESTED DELEGATES SEAT SHELLENITES IN CONVENTION.

Frank Scadden Withdraws from the Race—Contesting Delegation from Dickinson County Falls to Put in an Appearance.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

Alexander Matland of Negaunee was nominated for state senator from the Thirty-first district by a Republican senatorial convention here yesterday afternoon.

When it came to naming the candidate it was found that Mr. Matland was without opposition. Frank Scadden of Crystal Falls was in the field for the place, but withdrew before the balloting.

The convention was called to meet in the assembly room of the city hall yesterday afternoon at 1:15, but it was a quarter of an hour later before all the delegates were present and Chairman C. T. Fairbairn of Ishpeming mounted the platform to call the convention to order.

Every county in the district, Alger, Dickinson, Iron and Marquette, had its full quota of delegates present, and Marquette was represented by two delegations, elected respectively by the Sheldon and Stephenson factions at the recent county convention.

The first piece of business that the convention transacted took cognizance of this fact. L. B. Sutton of Iron Mountain moved that none but uncontested delegates should have a voice in forming the temporary organization.

Chairman Fairbairn put Mr. Sutton's motion, ruling at the same time that only uncontested delegates were eligible to vote on it. The vote was taken and both the Marquette county delegations were disbarred from a voice in the temporary organization.

The county convention of Dickinson also furnished two sets of delegates for the senatorial convention, but as only the Sheldon delegates put in an appearance that county was practically uncontested.

The uncontested delegates proceeded to organize by electing L. B. Sutton of Iron Mountain temporary chairman and M. H. Moriarity of Crystal Falls for secretary.

Robert Faucett, A. D. McIntyre and Thomas Conlin were appointed a committee of three on credentials. They took the credentials of all the delegations, including the two rival ones from Marquette county, and retired to a committee room. There they remained for over an hour, almost all the time being spent in taking evidence on the Marquette county contest.

The chairman of the two delegations were called in, and the committee men disputed among themselves. At length they found they would be unable to agree on one report, so presented two, representing the majority and minority.

The majority report, which was signed by Faucett and McIntyre, seats the uncontested delegates from Alger, Dickinson and Iron, and seated with them the Marquette Sheldon delegates nominated in the county convention.

Mr. Conlin in the minority report recommended that only the delegates from the uncontested counties be given seats in the convention and that both Marquette county delegations be thrown out. Balloting showed him to be very much in the minority, as there was no opposition at all to the majority report.

The seating of the Sheldon delegation in Marquette county is a distinct victory for the Sheldon forces in the district. The convention which sat yesterday is the first Republican convention to sit since the congressional convention. It recognized the Marquette county convention Sheldon delegates as the regular delegates, and so the validity of the Sheldon county convention, then the exclusive right of the Sheldon congressional delegates to vote in the congressional convention, which, with the vote of the uncontested delegates supporting Sheldon in that convention, would have placed him in nomination in spite of every vote the Stephenson forces could muster.

The recognition of the Sheldon delegates in yesterday's convention is particularly pointed to as a Sheldon endorsement, as it was by the vote of delegates from entirely disinterested counties. This recognition will undoubtedly serve as a precedent in the state convention.

After the delegates had been seated the convention organized permanently, with the same officers who had presided over it when in the temporary stage.

A twenty-minute adjournment was taken at this point. As soon as the convention was called to order again, M. H. Moriarity got up and nominated Alexander Matland for senator. He said he placed Mr. Matland in nomination in behalf of the delegates from Iron county and at the request of Mr. Scadden, who withdrew from the field in Mr. Matland's favor.

George Hayden of this county made a speech seconding the nomination and calling on the ground of party courtesy that his candidate was entitled to a second term.

The convention was taken by surprise at this juncture when Benjamin C. Neely of Negaunee arose and made an attack on Mr. Matland as a vote getter and on his record in the senate. He charged him, among other things, with being one of the sixteen senators and three representatives to block almost every piece of meritorious legislation that came up during the last term.

No notice was taken by the convention of Mr. Neely's attack, and no one followed him either to second or oppose what he had said. The convention proceeded straight to business, and at the call of Chairman Sutton the respective county chairmen polled their delegations. Alger voted 3, Dickinson 6 and Iron 3 for Matland. Marquette polled thirteen for the candidate, two delegates not voting. This gave Matland a vote of 25 out of a possible 27 and placed him in nomination on the first ballot.

The convention passed a resolution introduced by Thomas Conlin that the senator-elect be instructed to use every honorable means to have a state normal school established in the upper peninsula. On cries of "Matland! Matland!"

Speech!" the candidate came forward and spoke perhaps two minutes.

Mr. Matland said that his career in the senate had been in accordance with the wishes of his constituents as he understood them. He concluded with the statement that he would not only work for the best interests of the people of the state of Michigan, but also, particularly, in the interests of this section of the state.

The following senatorial committee was named for the next two years: Walter Fitch, Marquette, chairman; M. H. Moriarity, Iron, secretary; John Jones, Robert Faucett, A. D. McIntyre.

The convention passed resolutions endorsing the administration of McKinley and particularly the conduct of the war, also endorsing the conduct of state affairs under the present Republican administration.

Carl Peterson Writes He Will Be Given a Thirty-Day Furlough.

Carl Peterson, who is in St. Catherine's hospital in Brooklyn, has written as follows to his mother, Mrs. A. Peterson of this city:

"Brooklyn, Sept. 11, 1898. "Dear Mother—This is Sunday and I am still in St. Catherine's hospital. I am sorry today for the first time. I would have been up yesterday and written, but for a pain in my stomach.

"I promised to write as soon as I got to the states again, but when they landed me at Montauk Point, L. I. I could not walk, and after I had been in the hospital a couple of days I tried to write but could not hold a pencil.

"I was there for a little over a week, and then they sent me by boat over to Brooklyn into St. Catherine's hospital, where I am picking up the best of care.

"I am getting up in fine style, but I am sorry I could not have come home with the company. I think I will be able to leave here by next Wednesday or Thursday for home.

"I will have to go over to the New York army building and get my furlough. I will get a furlough for thirty days only, but then I am glad to get that.

"The doctors at the hospital won't give me my discharge till I am perfectly well, so probably it will be later than Wednesday or Thursday before I can leave. But I'll brace up just as fast as I can."

But Circuit Court Jury Reduces the Bill of William Colenso.

The circuit court spent a portion of its time yesterday in hearing a suit brought by E. S. Newman against William Colenso. Both parties are from Ishpeming, and the thing at issue was a board bill.

The case was tried in a justice court originally, and Newman was given a judgment for $26.82. He appealed. In the circuit court yesterday the jury awarded him the lesser judgment of $19.78.

In the case of Elias Mackl versus Frank Salmi, the court rendered a judgment of restitution. The amount is $20 and the costs $35.60. The case was appealed by the defendant from the decision of the circuit court commissioner.

Neil McKenzie was sent up yesterday from Judge Cray's court for stealing a watch and some leather from a shoemaker's shop on Fourth street.

McKenzie was given thirty days. He had pawned the watch in a Washington street saloon and got forty cents in drinks on it.

One day last week the Dutchman gave the eccentric an upper cut which "knocked him out," and delayed the play several minutes, and still the audience did not seem to trouble. A prize fighter who was in the audience, and who, it is claimed has stood before Fitzsimmons, was heard to remark that it was the best imitation he ever saw.

MARRIED AT ST. PAUL'S.

Wedding of Miss Sara Call to George E. Potts Consummated Last Evening.

CEREMONY PERFORMED BY THE BISHOP AND ARCHDEACON.

Church Decorations Both Beautiful and Unusual in Design—Wedding Followed by a Reception at the Call Residence.

GLAD WEDDING BELLS RING OUT.

St. Paul's cathedral held a fashionable audience last evening to witness the marriage of Miss Sara White Call to George Eustis Potts.

The church was not only beautifully decorated, but the scheme of decoration was also new, showing the taste and skill of Miss Cecil Grylls.

A drape of running green stuff hung from the arch before the altar, and just back was a large canopy of green. The altar itself was thickly set with candles and presented a beautiful and churchly sight.

Down the main aisle, through which the bridal procession passed, pillars were erected at regular intervals. These were wound with ground pine and smilax, and connecting them across the top was a light string of running vines. The windows on the sides of the church were banked with green stuffs and white flowers.

A pretty effect was secured by hanging electric lights back of the stained glass windows in the chancel, thus bringing out distinctly the figures in the glass.

When the bridal party reached the church the main aisle was barred off with white ribbons. The pipe organ sounded forth the inspiring strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the doors from the vestry were thrown open, and the bridal procession moved slowly down toward the front of the church.

First were the six ushers, Messrs. James and A. O. Jopling, Frank and Phillip Spear, Henry Reynolds and Russell Forsyth, the last of Pittsburg.

They were followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Jean Call, Abby Longyear, Alice Reynolds, Minna Crowell of Washington, D. C., Mary Leet Williams and Miss Willa Forsyth, both of Pittsburg. All were gowned in pink organdie trimmed with white lace, with pink sashes and small veils of white tulle. Each carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Last came the bride leaning on the arm of her father. Miss Call was dressed in a gown of white satin, with a long veil. Her bouquet was of white roses.

At the chancel rail the bridal party was met by the groom and his best man, his brother, Hugh E. Potts, of Pennsylvania.

The betrothal part of the ceremony was celebrated by the Venerable Archdeacon Robinson at the chancel rail, then bride and groom passed to the altar rail, where Bishop G. Mott Williams consummated the marriage.

The bridal party and invited guests to the number of about a hundred went from the church to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Call, where bride and groom held a reception till time for them to leave to catch the 10:50 train for Duluth.

The house was prettily but simply decorated. It was done mostly in green and white, though the decorations in the supper room were in pink and white. Candles stood upon the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Potts did not make their exact destination known to their friends, but their tour is to be through the east and last about a month.

Following are the guests who were present from abroad: George Potts, Sr., Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Harris, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Potts, Pittsburg; Russell Forsyth, Pittsburg; Mrs. Kane, Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Brown, Pittsburg; Miss Minna Cromwell, Washington, D. C.; Miss Mary Leet Williams, Pittsburg; Miss Willa Forsyth, Pittsburg.
