Spanish Commissioners Sent to Negotiate for Release of Imprisoned Countrymen Bring Back News of the Insurgent Leader's Pacific Views.

READY TO TREAT WITH AMERICANS.

Manila, Feb. 27.—6:15 p. m.—Two Spanish commissioners—Senors Rosatio and Abogatio—who were permitted to pass through the American lines to confer with Aguinaldo with reference to the Spanish prisoners at Malolos, returned through our lines this morning. The commissioners said that Aguinaldo and Sanduiko were both at Malolos and were inclined to pacific overtures, that while the Filipinos were not yet prepared to surrender the Spanish prisoners, they will gladly release two Americans, who had been held six weeks, on the payment of $30, the value of the food and clothing furnished them.

Shortly afterward the rebels sent out a flag of truce, borne by Commandant Sinfonso de La Cruz, and several hundred of the enemy left the Philippine lines, crying "No quise," "Mas combate" and "Americanos mucho bueno." The commandant said that fifty eight thousand of his men had had enough and were anxious to surrender. Among the enemy in the jungle many women and children were visible. One woman laid down her rifle and attempted to cross with the parleyers, but she was sent back. After the party returned to the American lines the enemy on the right fired a volley, the bullets dropping at their feet.

SHARPSHOOTERS IGNORED.

Manila, Feb. 27.—8 a. m.—Except occasional volleys and some individual firing by the rebels from the jungle near Calocan, along the river and in the vicinity of San Pedro Macati, all was quiet along the entire line last night. The Americans no longer pay much attention to the sharpshooters.

BLAME THE AMERICANS.

INSURGENTS' VERSION OF THE OUTBREAK IN MANILA.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The Filipino junta today received the insurgents' version of the recent outbreak in Manila. The statement says the trouble started in the Chinese quarters during the New Year's festivities, and that during indiscriminate street shooting, started by the harsh Americans, 500 natives were wounded. The bodies of 320 Filipino men and 425 women and children, it is said, were recovered in the streets, while the bodies of 140 Americans already have been collected. It is claimed, further, that the American killed and wounded number 400.

SPANISH REPORT UNTRUE.

AMERICAN AUTHORITIES AT MANILA IN COMPLETE CONTROL AND NO FOREIGN GUARDS ARE NEEDED—NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Washington, Feb. 27.—There is nothing in the situation at Manila to cause alarm for the safety of the American troops, in the opinion of well-informed administration officials. Since General Otis cabled Saturday evening to this effect there has come no word from him tending to qualify the statement in any sense. Admiral Dewey has not been heard from further, according to Secretary Long, and from this absence of positive news the officials draw the conclusion that nothing has happened to warrant apprehension.

Respecting the reported landing of foreign marines at Manila, not a word of confirmation has been received at either the war or navy department. A press dispatch received several days ago mentioned the landing of a few British blue jackets each evening to wet down the British consulate, a measure of protection from fire during the intensely dry season in the Philippines, and it is probable that this is the foundation for the Madrid story of a general landing.

ONTO THE SPANISH GAME.

Some notice is beginning to be taken here of the markedly hostile reports being cabled to Madrid by Colonel Rios, ranking Spanish officer at Manila. If he persists in this course he may be called to account by General Otis, who probably does not understand what he is doing.

TECHNICALLY, COLONEL RIOS IS A PRISONER OF WAR AND HIS ACTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO THE COMPLETE CONTROL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICERS AT MANILA.

His reports, it is said in official circles here, have been uniformly misstatements of facts or gross distortions of them, with the plain purpose of giving a false impression of the American position in the Philippines, perhaps with the deliberate purpose to justify some of the powers in recognizing the belligerency of the insurgents. The rebels are believed to be suffering from lack of war supplies, and such recognition at the hands of even one of the nations whose possessions border on the China sea would be of the greatest assistance to their cause.

DEATHS FROM SMALL-POX.

General Otis reports twelve deaths at Manila the past week from disease, etc., of which six were from small-pox and five from wounds.

SENATE VOTES FOR AN INQUIRY INTO CONDUCT OF THE WAR.

Madrid, Feb. 27.—The senate today by a vote of 130 to 7 approved the motion of Marshall Martinez de Campos, signed by all the Spanish generals in the senate, demanding a parliamentary inquiry into the conduct of the recent war. The government supported the motion and Count D'Almenas, who has latterly been vigorously attacking the generals, strange to relate strongly opposed it.

PLAN AN ARMED INVASION.

150 FILIBUSTERS LEAVE ST. LOUIS FOR CENTRAL AMERICA AND WILL BE FOLLOWED BY OTHERS.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—The first detachment of a filibustering expedition organized here for the invasion of Central America left Kansas City tonight. The soldiers of fortune number 150 and expect to be joined by other detachments from St. Louis, Chicago and other cities. Reports as to their destination are conflicting, both Guatemala and Honduras being mentioned, but men who are leaders in the adventure have secretly intimated to friends that Nicaragua is the goal.

REVOLUTION AT END.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 27.—The government troops under General Rouling from Greytown have attacked and captured the insurgent stronghold, General Reyes, the insurgent leader, has fled for protection to the British consulate at Bluefields. He will surrender without further resistance, thus closing the revolution.

HEIR TO A MILLION ACCUSED OF MURDER.

Coroner's Inquest into the Death of Mrs. Adams in New York Fixes the Guilt.

MELINEUX WHO SENT THE POISON THROUGH THE MAILS.

SCHEMED TO KILL HARRY CORNISH BECAUSE OF HATE.

Prisoner Also Is Alleged to Have Made Away With H. C. Barnett in the Same Manner, the Motive in This Case Being Jealousy.

MYSTERY AT LAST IS CLEARED.

New York, Feb. 27.—Robert Burnham Molineux, son of General Leslie Molineux of Brooklyn, was arrested tonight, charged with murdering Mrs. Katherine J. Adams of this city Dec. 23, 1898. He was locked up in the Tombs prison. The arrest followed the verdict of the coroner's jury charging him with the crime. While the inquest was into the death of Mrs. Adams, it also went into the circumstances of the death of Henry C. Barnett of the Knickerbocker Athletic club, who was poisoned by a powder received through the mails, as was Mrs. Adams. The cases are so closely connected that they can scarcely be considered separately.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY.

The proceedings of the final day of the inquest were sensational in the highest degree. The case had dragged along monotonously, the witnesses being examined for the sole purpose, as it seemed, of contradicting Harry Cornish's testimony in minor details or of eliciting a suggestion as to some motive that might have led Cornish to commit the crime. The newspapers from the beginning had stuck to Molineux as the person most to be suspected, but the prosecuting officials apparently never harbored any such thought. The examiner was kind and gentle when Molineux was on the stand, and gruff and severe when dealing with Cornish.

The curtain rose on the last act of the melodrama this afternoon. A shopkeeper who rented private letter boxes swore positively that Molineux was his patron, using the name "H. C. Barnett." It was proved long ago that bottles of medicine had been sent to that letter box. Then a number of hand-writing experts were called, and one after another declared that the hand that wrote the address on the poison package and forged the names of Harry Cornish and H. C. Barnett to letters sent to the drug firms ordering the poisons and medicines was the hand of Roland B. Molineux. The experts were absolutely certain in their identification of the penmanship, and would make no qualification of their statements.

MOTIVE FOR THE DEED.

District Attorney Gardiner summed up the case, directly accusing Molineux and characterizing him as "a degenerate." He declared Molineux's motive was jealousy of Barnett because of his attentions to the prisoner's wife, and he hated Cornish owing to a bitter personal quarrel. The jury brought in a verdict at 8:43 p. m., charging Molineux with the murder, as follows: "We find that the said Katherine J. Adams came to her death on Dec. 23, 1898, in 66 West Eighty-sixth street, by poison, mercuric cyanide, administered by Harry S. Cornish, to whom the said poison had been sent in a bottle of bromo-seltzer by Roland B. Molineux." The coroner immediately issued a warrant for the arrest of Molineux, and the latter was at once arraigned before him. Through his attorney, he demanded an immediate hearing, but Assistant District Attorney Osborn objected. The hearing was set for Wednesday morning and Molineux was committed to the Tombs without bail.

A SOCIETY SWELL.

Molineux is a member of the New York Athletic club, and was, until his quarrel with Harry Cornish, a prominent member of the Knickerbocker Athletic club, from which he resigned because of that quarrel. Molineux's father is a millionaire. The prisoner has gone in good society, being of excellent address and manners and the prospective heir to a great fortune. His counsel is Bartow S. Weeks, of the New York Athletic club and a personal enemy of Harry Cornish.

SAID TO HAVE KILLED HUBBY.

Nellisville, Wis., Feb. 27.—Mrs. Nella Eggett was arrested at Eaton today, charged with murdering her husband, John Eggett, by giving him poison. It is said Eggett was the woman's third husband, and all of them are dead.

CZAR NOT SERIOUSLY ILL.

DENIAL OF THE DISQUIETING RUMORS FROM ST. PETERSBURG.

London, Feb. 28.—The Standard's correspondent at Darmstadt, W. Germany, says: "I am assured that the rumors that Emperor Nicholas is so ill as to be unable to attend to the affairs of state are without foundation. The chief reason why he does not attend personally to state affairs is his anxiety regarding the approaching illness of the czarina. It is quite possible the disquieting reports emanate from highly placed persons in St. Petersburg, whose plans would be upset by the birth of an heir."

STILL ON THE BITCH.

JUDGE DALLENBAUGH HOLDS COURT DESPITE DISBARMENT.

Cleveland, Feb. 27.—Judge F. E. Dalenbaugh sat on the bench in common with court today and heard a divorce case notwithstanding his disbarment. It is probable an injunction will be brought against him.

A HELPLESS CHILD. A weak and puny child is almost as much abandoned to its fate as if it were left alone on a chimney-top. It is isolated from the healthy enjoyments of its little fellow-beings. It cannot partake either of their play or their sturdy work and progress in the world; its whole life is embittered by incapacity and weakness.

Any woman who expects to become a mother ought to know what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do both for her own health and safety during her time of trial and also to insure her in bequeathing a fair measure of health and strength to the prospective little one.

"Some months before my baby came I found myself in rapidly failing health," writes Mrs. W. J. Kicker, of Hill Dale Farm (Enosburg Center), Enosburg, Vt., in a grateful letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered dreadfully from bloating and urinary difficulty. I was growing perceptibly weaker every day and suffered much sharp pain at times. I felt that something must be done. I sought your advice and received a prompt reply. I followed your directions and took twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. I began to improve immediately, my health became excellent, and I could do all my own work (we live on a good sized farm). I walked and rode all I could, and enjoyed it. I had a short, easy confinement, and have a healthy baby boy."

There never has been a remedy in the history of medicine that has done what this marvelous "Favorite Prescription" has accomplished for weak, ailing women. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you a substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL, A Morning Paper Published by the Mining Journal Co. (Limited.)

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL MATTER.

The house committee on education, to which the bill to provide for the establishment and maintenance of a state Normal school in the upper peninsula has been referred, has consented to grant a further hearing to the representatives of points in the peninsula which desire to secure the institution, on the question of its location, and will hold a session for that purpose Thursday, March 2nd. This has been decided on because of the frantic protest made by a few people up here against the selection of Marquette as the place where the school should be established, this city having been decided on by the caucus of upper peninsula members of the legislature to whom the matter of settling the question of location of the school was left by common consent. The loudest howl came from Escanaba, the mayor of that city having exhorted himself to stir up other places to cooperate with the Escanaba "kickers" in bombarding the legislature with protests against having the action of the caucus stand.

While the re-opening of the question of location is an injustice to this city, which fairly won in the contest for the school before the tribunal to which the matter was left without objection from any of the places competing for the institution, our people are in no doubt of the ultimate result, for they feel that the committee on education will be persuaded to affirm the action of the caucus of upper peninsula members by the very same considerations which led the caucus to take that action.

The central position of this city with reference to the whole peninsula, and especially the heavily populated counties; its many advantages in the way of a fine public library, perfect water system, street railway, fine public halls, churches, schools, healthfulness, equable temperature in summer and winter, no less than its freedom from disreputable places of any kind and uniformly good government, all point it out as the place above all others where the proposed educational institution will have a congenial home, as well as environments which will conduce to its success in the work it is designed to accomplish.

The argument on which the objectors to having the Normal school located here base their protest is that Marquette already has one state institution and should not be given a second. The assumption underlying this is that the state establishes its institutions primarily to help out towns and cities which need to have their growth stimulated, and only incidentally to serve the public purposes to which they are devoted. But as a matter of fact the state provides these institutions as part of its duty to all its people, and not to gratify the pride or promote the welfare of any one of its individual communities. The proposed Normal school is to be provided and maintained by the state for the benefit of the whole upper peninsula, and it was because it was desired to have it located where it would best serve all the people of this part of the state that the plan of leaving it to our representatives in the legislature to determine where it should go was adopted, it being taken for granted that the men sent to the legislature by the people of the peninsula to act for them in all matters of legislation could be safely relied on to do this impartially and intelligently.

We believe they disposed of the question of locating the school with perfect fairness to all the places which had sites to offer for it, and acted with commendable wisdom, and feel sure that their decision will not be reversed by the committee on education to satisfy the ambition of Escanaba, or the spleen of a few unhappy individuals elsewhere who cherish an insane prejudice against Marquette because she possesses some natural advantages that she has made and is continuing to make good use of.

Senator Hanna's shipping revival bill is an eminently practical measure. It provides government aid, graduated according to the value of the ship, for American vessels engaged in the foreign trade. The aid is necessary to induce American capital to venture into owning ships in the foreign trade, where they are obliged to meet the competition of a European merchant shipping that is annually subsidized and bountied, in various ways, to an amount exceeding twenty millions of dollars. The Hanna shipping bill recognizes, as our war with Spain has emphasized, that a merchant shipping and merchant seamen are essential to national defense. Thus valuable, and impossible unless encouraged by the government, the government should pay for their assistance to the nation.

The flurry in the copper market during the past few days has led some to believe that the "beginning of the end" has come in the copper boom. It is likely that there will be more cautious buying from this time forward, but on the other hand there will be steadier holding and less of what is known as "scalping the market." In all its essential features, the copper situation remains unchanged. The demand for the metal shows no indications of abatement, despite the advance in price, and there is no accumulation of stocks of copper to operate as a damper on the values of shares in producing mines. As to the new companies which have stocks on the market, it may be said that they have yet to prove their value, and their stocks will rise and fall as the public is given to believe from work under way on them that they are likely to turn out winners or otherwise. Many of the new properties are almost certain to become valuable mines, and the present value of shares in these is but a fraction of what it will be in a few months hence, unless a slump in the metal market that there is no reason to look for takes place in the meantime. There is a substantial basis to the so-called "boom" in copper, a fact that is sufficiently shown by the vast amount of money now going into the development of new properties and the character of the men who are putting in the bulk of it for business acumen and sagacity in making investments.

In seeking a remedy to counteract the evil of trusts, attention is being earnestly directed to co-operative and profit-sharing societies. England and France have scores of these societies, which do millions of dollars' worth of business annually. The profits all go to the co-operators. Gigantic combinations of capital cannot hurt them. There are a goodly number of such societies, though only partially developed, in this country. The New York Staats-Zeitung and the Century Co. are profit-sharing concerns that are well known; so is the Broadway Central hotel. The largest soap concern in the world, located near Cincinnati, is another, and now the well known book house of A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago, will be incorporated as a co-operative stock company, with a capitalization of $500,000 or more. General McClurg will be the president and the same officers and heads of departments who controlled the old organization will manage the new. The 250 employees of the company will be allowed to subscribe for the stock, and the intention is to keep all the shares in the hands of the present management and employees. The experiment will be watched with interest.

The Manistique Pioneer-Tribune is apprehensive that the ill-advised endeavor to re-open the question of location in the upper peninsula Normal school matter will merely result in defeat of the bill providing for establishment of the school. We quote what it says on the subject:

A deal of "kicking" is being developed throughout the upper peninsula because Marquette was chosen as the site for the proposed Normal school. The Escanaba Journal takes Representative McCallum to task for entering into an agreement to abide by the decision of the majority of the legislators in the matter. We will offer the prediction that the upper peninsula Normal school project will die a violent death at this session on account of the lack of unanimity and the tendency of the people to ignore the pact made at the time a site was chosen. Marquette won out fairly and that should settle the discussion.

The activity in the steel and iron market is a natural result of increased consumption, says the New York Mail and Express. One form that this demand has taken is for the manufacture of steel cars, which are needed by the railroads in anticipation of the great movement of freight in the spring and fall. The fact that orders for $10,000,000 worth of these cars have been booked and that the steel that enters into their construction will cost during this year about $5,000,000 is an impressive evidence of the tremendous volume of traffic that agriculture and manufacture will supply to the common carriers.

The Manistique Democrat has this comment on the effort being made by a few malcontents to have the decision in favor of Marquette as a location for the upper peninsula Normal school negated:

There is disappointment in many quarters over the location of the Normal school at Marquette, and protests will be sent to Lansing from Iron Mountain, Escanaba, Ishpeming and other points. The opinion prevails that there's "a nigger in the woodpile." In this affair, but these protests will amount to naught. Marquette is undoubtedly the most suitable place on the peninsula for the school, and there it will stay.

The king of Samoa draws $125 a year wages and house rent free, and then calmly sits down and allows the foreign consuls to run the government for him. Considering everything, Malietoa Tanu'u wages are not to be sneezed at. Clothing, coal and gas bills are unknown, and as for pig leaves, all he has to do is to pick them up in the front yard.

A report comes from Albany that Governor Roosevelt of New York will be a candidate for the presidency against McKinley in 1900 and will have the backing of Platt for the nomination. There was a candidate against McKinley in 1896 who had the backing of Platt, as well as of Quay, but he didn't get the nomination. Teddy may get fooled badly if he relies much on the support of Platt and his machine in any effort he may make to repeat Cleveland's great feat of vaulting into the presidency from the chair of governor of the Empire state.

PROFIT BY LOSS.

It is a fact that to many no doubt must be very curious, that the Bank of England has always had a pretty steady source of profit in the loss and destruction of its bank notes. What it has gained in late years in this way we are unable to say, but during a period of forty years preceding 1833, the bank has made a clear profit of £1,330,000 from outstanding paper never likely to be presented for payment. When the destruction of the irrevocable loss of a note can be proved, as in the event of a fire or a wreck it can, the bank, of course, will always pay the money it represents, and even when there is doubt about it, the cash is paid on security being given for indemnifying the bank should the note ever be presented. The £600,000 worth of paper—or £20,000, as it appears to have been reduced to—taken from Parr's bank will, therefore, not represent a loss unless the crisp little billets have some day to be duly honored at the Bank of England counter. In that case the cash paid in exchange for them will have to come out of the coffers of the plundered bank.

Many years ago a bank director lost a note for £30,000. But being a man of credit and as there was no doubt about the loss of the bill, he gave the usual indemnity and got the money. Many years after, when the man had long been dead, the paper was presented. It was payable on demand and had come from abroad in the ordinary way of business and the sum it represented had to be handed over, and as the indemnity that had been given was repudiated by the heirs of the man who had given it, and for some reason could not be enforced, the bank on that occasion had to put £30,000 on the debit side of the account. For once in a way they paid double honor to a bit of their own paper. There is another story of a sum of £20,000 which the bank in its early days for a short time refused to hand over in exchange for its own notes. They were presented by a Jew, whose assertion that he had bought them was not disputed, and whose personal integrity was above suspicion. They had, however, undoubtedly been stolen, and on that ground the bank refused to pay the money. The Jew went out into the city and began to spread it abroad that the bank was shaky and couldn't cash its notes, and as he backed his assertion by displaying his indisputable paper, the assertion would in all probability soon have caused a run on the bank, and very soon after a messenger came to say that the notes would be cashed if he would present them again.—London News.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

NICKNAMES AMONG THE ROUGH RIDERS.

The men speedily gave one another nicknames, largely conferred in a spirit of derision, their basia lying in contrast. A brave but fastidious member of a well known eastern club, who was serving in the ranks, was christened "Tough Ike," and his bunkie, the man who shared his shelter tent, who was a decidedly rough cow puncher, gradually acquired the name of "The Dude." One unlucky and simple-minded cow puncher, who had never been east of the great plains in his life, unwarily boasted that he had an aunt in New York, and ever afterward went by the name of "Metropolitan Bill."

A huge red-headed Irishman was named "Sheeny Solomon." A young Jew who developed into one of the best fighters in the regiment accepted, with entire equanimity, the name of "Pork Chop." We had quite a number of professional gamblers, who, I am bound to say, usually made good soldiers. One, who was almost abnormally quiet and gentle, was called "Hell Roarer," while another, who in point of language and deportment, was his exact antithesis, was christened "Prayerful James."—Roosevelt in Scribner's.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE would quickly leave you, if you use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for sick and nervous headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by the Stafford Drug Co.

A COMMON DANGER.—If you have ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way to consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Sold by The Stafford Drug Co. Prices 25c. and 50c. per bottle.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, cough, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you. Stafford Drug Co.

Lizzie V. Donahue. Dr. Coderre's Red Pills Made Her Feel Like a New Woman.

It is a terrible experience to feel that day by day you are growing weaker. It is disheartening to look in the mirror and see the color leaving the face—see wrinkles under the eyes—to see the flesh shriveling up on the bones. But that is what a woman experiences when she has female weakness. Leucorrhoea saps away the vitality. Falling of the womb spreads aches and pains everywhere. Nervousness and sleeplessness add agony to existence. Dyspepsia and indigestion complete the work of destruction. All women ought to know that their suffering can be stopped with Dr. Coderre's Red Pills for Pale and Weak Women. This isn't a new remedy. It has been put to the test in thousands of cases. It has never failed and it never will if taken faithfully and according to directions. It makes the sick feel like new women. It is the most remarkable medicine ever made. Read what Miss Lizzie V. Donahue, a young lady of 67 Pleasant St., Lowell, Mass., says: "For a long time I was in failing health. There was a growing lack of vitality. Each day I grew weaker and weaker. My face was colorless, and my aching head and back rendered life a constant torture. At last I was compelled to go to bed and summon a physician, but there was something about my case that baffled his skill. Finally I was persuaded to take Dr. Coderre's Red Pills, and the result has surpassed all my expectations. I am today feeling like a new woman. You have my consent to publish this testimony."

All women suffering from any female trouble can consult our specialists free by mail. Write us your name and address on a postal card for a free copy of our valuable doctor book, entitled "Pale and Weak Women." Worth much; cost nothing.

Dr. Coderre's Red Pills are widely imitated. Beware of all red pills sold by the dozen, the hundred or at 25c. a box. They are worthless imitations. Get the genuine at all honest druggists. They have them—always 50 Red Pills in a box for 50c., or 6 boxes for $2.50. Or you can send the price in stamps, or by registered letter, money order or express note to us. We mail them all over the world; no duty to pay.

Dr. Coderre's Red Pills, a box, last longer than liquid medicines costing $1. They are easier to take, more convenient to carry, and they cure. Address all letters to: WEBB FRASCO-AMERICAN CHEMICAL CO., Medical Department, Montreal, Canada.

MINERS CONDEMN THE BILL. REALIZE THE BAKER TAXATION SCHEME WOULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT THEIR WAGES—MISCELLANEOUS COPPER NEWS.

The author of the Baker mining tax bill continues to come in for curses copious and deep in this part of the country. This is especially true on the part of the miners themselves, who have been quick to perceive that, as copper is an international product and its price is regulated by the world's demand, this tax of a cent a pound cannot come out of the selling price, therefore must come out of the labor employed in producing the copper.

WINONA WORKING EIGHTY MEN. Superintendent F. W. Denton of the Winona, who came in from the mine Sunday evening, reports that the work of timbering B shaft, which has been cut down from the surface to the bottom, a depth of eighty-two feet, has been completed and that preparations are now being made to resume sinking. The first shaft, 900 feet distant, is now down 197 feet and drifting is now in progress from the bottom.

LAKE PEOPLE ARE WONDERING OVER THE MONOTONOUS DELAY IN THE ISSUANCE OF THE CERTIFICATES OF THE MICHIGAN AND THE MASS. WHICH HAS RESULTED IN TIEING UP THE FUNDS OF INVESTORS FOR SO LONG AND GIVING THE BOSTON BROKERAGE FIRMS CONCERNED THE FACE USE OF THEM FOR JUST THAT LENGTH OF TIME.

TECUMSEH FILES NEW ARTICLES. The Tecumseh has filed its amended articles of incorporation with County Clerk L. H. Richardson, increasing its capital stock from $1,000,000 in 40,000 shares of $25 each to $2,500,000 in 100,000 shares of the same par value.

FEELING AT HOUGHTON NO CHANGE SHOULD BE MADE IN THE VILLAGE OFFICIALS. The feeling is quite general in Houghton that, owing to the important financial problems which are to be met with owing to the sudden growth of Houghton during the coming year in population and business, the present city officers should be re-elected at the charter election March 12.

QUEER COPPER DISCOVERY. A dispatch from Colorado Springs to the Chicago Tribune gives an account of a queer find of copper in Utah in the following terms: "An avalanche on the Lasal mountain, near Park City, Utah, recently uncovered a ten-foot copper vein assaying 20 per cent copper and containing an eight-inch streak of glance assaying 70 per cent metallic copper."

GROUND FOR MUCH LITIGATION. A prominent title lawyer said to the Mining Journal yesterday: "There are a number of questions affecting titles to some of the older properties on the South range, which, if brought into court and determined pushed, might result in almost endless litigation. Take, for example, the rights of a corporation which has ceased to exist through limitation. Three years after the date of the expiration of its charter it loses the right to sue. Now if it loses the right to affirmative action, does it longer possess an entity capable of being sued; does it not lose the negative also? Suppose Brown or Jones turns up with a tax title for the property of such a corporation. Whom is he to sue? The stockholders? Who are the stockholders? The federal and New York courts have held that the possession of stock in a corporation constitutes the holder a stockholder whether it has been transferred or not on the books, then how can you tell who the stockholders are?"

WARM PUGILISTIC "MILL." [Communicated.] HEADING—A SPARRING MATCH AT WEST HANCOCK FRIDAY NIGHT BETWEEN THE TALL PINE OF WEST HANCOCK AND AN UNKNOWN FROM HOUGHTON IN WHICH THE UNKNOWN IS KNOCKED OUT IN 3 ROUNDS. An interesting sparring match came off Friday night which was one of the best which has come off in some time. There were about 100 of Houghton and Hancock sports there and all went away well satisfied. The bout was between the Tall Pine of West Hancock who is only nineteen years old and a little over 6 ft tall and an unknown from Houghton about 5 ft 7 in tall and weight about 170 pounds. The Houghton man was at least 20 pounds heavier and had made a crack he could sparr anything his weight not professionals.

start but suddenly his aim was poor and the tall pine didn't do a thing. The second round the unknown seemed to get the best of the Hancock man he got him in the corner and gave it to him right and left they then clinched and the Tall pine made a dive for his face and landed him one on the jaw time was called.

Round Three—The referee said boys—come on—mix it up a little—The Houghton man made a rush at the Pine and he dogged between his legs and got up and went right at him landing him an uppercut in the jaw and two in the wind and put the unknown out of the sparring business. The Houghton man thought he had a sinch. It being only the second time the tall pine was in the ring but he surprised him. It is thought a match will be made and will come off about March 17 or 18th.

PICKED UP IN JUSTICE COURT. Bartholi Poggio, of the Arcadian, was brought before Justice Brand at Houghton yesterday, charged with assault and battery by Oswald Casagrande, another child of sunny Italy. Sheriff Lean went out to the Arcadian Sunday night on a summons from Casagrande and found that the latter had been evicted from his boarding house by the hilarious Poggio, who thereupon had amused himself by shooting holes into the atmosphere or in some other unknown direction with a revolver. Casagrande was not sure that the shots had been fired at him personally, and as he obtained his effects with the sheriff's aid he withdrew the complaint yesterday and Poggio paid the costs and the two went on their way rejoicing.

At Calumet Justice Legendre received an official call from Anton Johnson, who pleaded guilty to the charge of using indecent, immoral and obscene language on the streets of Red Jacket and contributed thereto to the tune of $10 and costs, while John Carlson, a saloon keeper, charged with making his house the resort of immoral women, which soft impeachment he owned was correct, was asked to contribute in like manner $50 and costs, $5 extra, which request he promptly heeded.

Justice Finn of Hancock had one solitary simple drunk brought before him yesterday as a result of too much hilarity on Sunday, and with due formality taxed him $3 and costs for his infraction of the ordinances of the village of Hancock and his offense against the peace and dignity of the people of Michigan.

LAST OF THE FAMILY. The death of Rt. Rev. John Vertin, bishop of the Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette diocese, which occurred at Marquette Sunday evening, removes the last of the original Vertin family so long noted in the copper country and only one nephew of the deceased prelate now stands between the family name and extinction. Yet all of these deaths have come within a few years, the bishop's parents living until a ripe old age and being followed to the tomb in quick succession by their sons, Joseph and George, and their daughter, Mrs. Bosch of Lake Linden, leaving the bishop, the only one of them all to use the spelling "Vertin," as the sole survivor. The dead bishop commenced his career as a priest in charge of St. Ignace's parish, Houghton, and apart from his family connections, is still well remembered at Houghton on that account.

TOO MANY NAMESAKES. George Wallace, of the Lake Superior Powder company, Marquette, is figuring just now on asking the legislature to change his name to William McKinley Wallace or any other old thing. Saturday he was called to the telephone at the Douglass House twice within fifteen minutes, the first time by a man who wanted to sell him a load of hay and the second time by a party who wanted to buy a team of horses from him, while yesterday he received a letter under Uncle Sam's official envelope addressed to "George Wallace, Houghton, Mich." from the Rock Island arsenal enclosing vouchers to be filled out for two days' carpenter work performed by the said George Wallace last July for the Thirty-fourth regiment, Michigan Volunteers. In the first instance he was taken for M. Wallace, the wellknown Houghton Jernymail, but he pleads ignorance as to his identity in the second case, as he is positive that he was not in the carpenter business for the Thirty-fourth Michigan or any other body of troops last year.

Dixon, who has the dredging contract on the Portage river section of the Portage Lake Ship Canal and whose tugs and dredges are now in winter quarters at Houghton, will be the general manager of the new company.

THE TWO STICKNEYS.

A Cycling Story.

The arrival of the post at Sunset Cottage, Astegan, was always an event of thrilling interest to the handful of boarders established at that pleasant American summer resort.

The largest share of the letters was delivered to Miss Trafford, whose pretty face was wreathed in smiles at this delightful interruption to a game of bezique she was good naturedly playing with old Mrs. Taylor.

"By the way, she said her husband was on a bicycle tour through New Hampshire. If he comes to Astegan you will find him a charming companion for your rides.

Miss Trafford's perusal of her letter was here interrupted by an exclamation of horror from the group at the window, and she rushed forward to catch a view of the spectacle which had called it forth.

A young man was riding swiftly by on his wheel when Miss Trafford's big dog, Rover, made a rush directly in front of it, and man, machine and dog rolled on the ground together.

The young man sprang to his feet, unhurt, save for a cut on his hand, which had struck against a sharp stone. Assistance was rendered him by Mrs. Lane, the landlady, and the newcomer was soon engaged in friendly conversation with the little group of spectators, who were much excited by the incident.

Miss Trafford sent Rover away in disgrace, and expressed her regrets to his wounded victim. The young man replied courteously, and gazed at Rover's mistress with interest.

He said it was his intention to stop in Astegan, and he was then on his way to the hotel, but if Mrs. Lane could find a place for him—and here he looked at her with a persuasive smile.

Good Mrs. Lane answered that she had just one vacant room, which she would have put in readiness for him at once, and she bustled away to give the necessary orders.

Miss Trafford was conscious of a pleasurable sensation as this arrangement was made. There was the usual dearth of men at Sunset Cottage, the sum total numbering two, one of whom was dull and slow and the other an engaging man.

The newcomer seemed promising in every way, and he had a wheel, which added to his attractions. Miss Trafford was a devotee of the bicycle, and had longed for some congenial spirit to accompany her on her rides.

AN AWFUL BAD CASE.

Lawyer at One Stage Thought it Would Be His Last.

Passed Many Sleepless Nights on Account of It—How He Won a Signal Victory.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 27.—Lawyer A. B. Bunting has won a most notable victory.

"I was troubled for three years with weakness of the bladder and kidneys," says the lawyer, "and I could not get any relief before I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I could not sleep well and would have to urinate several times at night. I give the credit all to Dodd's Kidney Pills. I can highly recommend them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills strike at the cause of the trouble and remove it for all time, banishing torture and making life sweet again.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by druggists at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

not keep me at such a distance. Take pity upon me, I beg of you, and promise to be my friend, at least."

Miss Trafford's face had been a study while Stickney spoke. When he had finished, she rose and said, coldly: "Please let the conversation cease. I am sorry for you, but I do not think you have chosen wisely in making me your confidant.

Which of the two was most surprised and dismayed it would be hard to say. His speech had filled her with amazement and horror.

The revelation of his sentiments came upon her like a thunderbolt. She understood now why he had never liked his wife. It was a miserable business from first to last, and she wished she had never met him.

Henceforth there were no more duets or bicycle rides, to Stickney's dismay, and Miss Trafford could not deny to herself how much duller Astegan seemed in consequence. It was the fifth day after the conversation recorded, and Stickney sat gloomily on the veranda, wondering whether it would not be wiser to give up, beaten, than to fight it out, when he heard Miss Trafford utter a cry of delight.

"Have you come into possession of a fortune?" he inquired.

"Listen to this," she replied. "It rather concerns you: Mr. Robert Stickney met with a serious accident while coasting down Briar Hill yesterday. He broke his left arm and fractured his ankle. Fortunately, his wife, whom he was on his way to join in the adjacent town, where she had been visiting her uncle, the Hon. David Leeds, was able to reach him within an hour of the time of the accident."

"Poor old Bob!" exclaimed Stickney. "This will spoil all his summer, and Nell's too. Then he added, as a sudden thought occurred to him, "what was there in this melancholy item that caused you to look so hilarious?"

Miss Trafford blushed and gave him an appealing look.

"Why—why—are you not Mrs. Stickney's husband?" she faltered.

"No, indeed, and never was. Why, did you think—I believe I am beginning to see light! Didn't Miss Westall know that Helen jilted me for my cousin, Bob Stickney, who had more money than I? Do you wonder that I objected to your desire that I should continue loyal to Mrs. Stickney? And is it possible you thought I was a married man? How could you? But now you will treat me rather differently, I hope."

"It will make a difference," asserted Miss Trafford, demurely.—West Lothian Chronicle.

A GREAT COMPANY.

The Annual statement of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York City showing the business transacted by that company for the year ending 1919, shows an amazing growth.

The Mutual Life, after placing $23,058,640 to the credit of the reserve fund in accordance with the requirements of the New York Insurance department, has a remaining surplus of $44,458,684.

LAUREL AT ONE STAGE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE HIS LAST.

Passed Many Sleepless Nights on Account of It—How He Won a Signal Victory.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 27.—Lawyer A. B. Bunting has won a most notable victory.

"I was troubled for three years with weakness of the bladder and kidneys," says the lawyer, "and I could not get any relief before I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I could not sleep well and would have to urinate several times at night. I give the credit all to Dodd's Kidney Pills. I can highly recommend them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills strike at the cause of the trouble and remove it for all time, banishing torture and making life sweet again.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by druggists at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

not keep me at such a distance. Take pity upon me, I beg of you, and promise to be my friend, at least."

Miss Trafford's face had been a study while Stickney spoke. When he had finished, she rose and said, coldly: "Please let the conversation cease. I am sorry for you, but I do not think you have chosen wisely in making me your confidant.

Which of the two was most surprised and dismayed it would be hard to say. His speech had filled her with amazement and horror.

The revelation of his sentiments came upon her like a thunderbolt. She understood now why he had never liked his wife. It was a miserable business from first to last, and she wished she had never met him.

Henceforth there were no more duets or bicycle rides, to Stickney's dismay, and Miss Trafford could not deny to herself how much duller Astegan seemed in consequence. It was the fifth day after the conversation recorded, and Stickney sat gloomily on the veranda, wondering whether it would not be wiser to give up, beaten, than to fight it out, when he heard Miss Trafford utter a cry of delight.

"Have you come into possession of a fortune?" he inquired.

"Listen to this," she replied. "It rather concerns you: Mr. Robert Stickney met with a serious accident while coasting down Briar Hill yesterday. He broke his left arm and fractured his ankle. Fortunately, his wife, whom he was on his way to join in the adjacent town, where she had been visiting her uncle, the Hon. David Leeds, was able to reach him within an hour of the time of the accident."

"Poor old Bob!" exclaimed Stickney. "This will spoil all his summer, and Nell's too. Then he added, as a sudden thought occurred to him, "what was there in this melancholy item that caused you to look so hilarious?"

Miss Trafford blushed and gave him an appealing look.

"Why—why—are you not Mrs. Stickney's husband?" she faltered.

"No, indeed, and never was. Why, did you think—I believe I am beginning to see light! Didn't Miss Westall know that Helen jilted me for my cousin, Bob Stickney, who had more money than I? Do you wonder that I objected to your desire that I should continue loyal to Mrs. Stickney? And is it possible you thought I was a married man? How could you? But now you will treat me rather differently, I hope."

"It will make a difference," asserted Miss Trafford, demurely.—West Lothian Chronicle.

MET IN CONVENTION.
ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LADIES' AUXILIARY OF THE A. O. H. WAS HELD SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Delegates from the various auxiliaries of the A. O. H. in this county assembled in this city Saturday afternoon for the regular yearly convention. The auxiliaries are established in the three cities of the county and delegates from each organization were present. The following representatives were in attendance: Misses Mary O'Neil, Nora Fleming, Kate Glenny and Mrs. B. F. Ring, Marquette; Misses Nellie McAuliffe, Nellie Manning, Mary Sullivan, Margaret Nolan and Mrs. Mary Foley, Negaunee; Misses Nora P. Kennedy, Margaret Mollo, Mary Kennedy and Mrs. Joanna Dennison of this city. Miss Anna Lacey, the county president of the societies, presided over the convention. The committees and officers presented their several reports to the convention for approval. Without an exception they were accepted. The county organization was shown to be in very good condition financially and otherwise. During the past year there has been a noticeable increase in the membership of the organizations and the work will be enthusiastically pushed in the future. The afternoon was devoted to consideration of routine business. Negaunee was designated as the place where the next convention will be held. It will convene there the coming April. The visiting delegates were entertained, after the business of the meeting had been disposed of, by the ladies of the local organization. The larger number of the visitors left for home on the evening trains.

RICHEST BEGGAR ON EARTH.
The richest beggar in the world lives in Russia. He was born without feet or arms, and his physical defects have brought him great sympathy and much cash. Sympathy would be better bestowed if it were given to the army of industrious men in this country who overwork themselves and break down their health. These men lose their appetites, and their stomachs "go back on them." Their nerves are shattered and they cannot sleep. The quickest way for these men to recover their health is to take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is intended particularly for those who suffer from any of the complaints mentioned. This remedy is so well known that it is recognized as one of the world's standard medicines.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.
H. F. Nickerson of Houghton was here yesterday.
R. G. Quinn of Negaunee was about the city yesterday.
L. W. Atkins & Co. announce that this is the last day of their quarter-off sale.
This is the last day of the quarter-off sale at L. W. Atkins & Co.'s big sale.

EGGS STILL SCARCE.
Yesterday's shipments did little to relieve the stringency in the egg market here. In all seven cases were received from the commission dealers. Two merchants got three cases apiece while the third had to be content with one. The eggs are retailing at thirty cents a dozen now, which is the wholesale price. There is apparently no way of overcoming the scarcity and the merchants will have to get along as well as they can until spring eggs are received from the southern states.

The following clipping, which was taken from the New York Commercial Advertiser of February 25th, shows what the situation is in Ohio, and incidentally, how the market is controlled by the men who have effected corners on the supply:
"H. D. Miller, of Philo, Muskingum county, O., came to Pittsburgh quietly last week and bought up all the eggs in the market. He paid 21 cents and 22 cents per dozen, and had accomplished the whole task before the commission merchants became suspicious. Now eggs are up to 35 cents per dozen. Mr. Miller said: 'I have 30,000 dozen—1,000 cases—and eggs have gone up to 35 cents. They will be up to 40 cents. I'll make about $5,000 out of the deal. Only five cases of eggs were received in this city today. Eggs will sell at a nickel apiece at Easter.'
Some of the local dealers have endeavored to obtain supplies large enough to satisfy the demands of their customers but they find it impossible to buy except in lots of a few cases at a time.

EXPLORING TO THE SOUTHEAST.
The Pittsburgh & Lake Angeline Iron company has a force of men at work exploring its lands to the southeast of the city in the vicinity of Iron Mountain lake. In former times explorations have been conducted on these lands without result, but in this instance it is hoped that the operations will be attended with more success. A small body of Bessemer ore has been found there and this will be followed in the hope that it will lead to something better. Ore deposits are known to exist in that vicinity and the Cliffs company has tested them from time to time by crosscutting.
It is believed that ore will be found somewhere in the neighborhood of Iron Mountain lake. The lakes in that vicinity are all in iron-bearing formations, and as the ore is of sedimentary origin it would not be surprising if it were located somewhere near the depression which holds the water of the lake. It is among the possibilities that the deposit extends beneath the body of the lake, as in the case of the Lake Angeline mine. There are several places in the vicinity of the city that have been partially explored at different times in past years, and it is anticipated that during the coming summer months there will be a considerable amount of this work carried on within the limits of some of the ore-bearing tracts in this neighborhood. The year will see more exploratory work done in Marquette county than has been carried on in any of the past ten years.

A SHAKY MARKET.
Yesterday was undeniably a poor day for copper stocks. Quotations were low all along the list, with the exception of the Standard Oil stocks, all of which made moderate gains. In addition to the low quotations there were other things which made the investors here feel pretty blue. A rumor was circulated here Sunday that the Boston firm of Turner Bros. had failed and it became so widely current yesterday that it was necessary to deny it from the Boston office of the firm. This was done by a telegram in the afternoon but not before the local office had been seriously inconvenienced by the report. The story was a vile slander and harmed the firm to quite an extent. It probably had something to do with the depressed market.

SLOT MACHINES ORDERED OUT.
It has transpired that last week the mayor ordered the city marshal to see that all the nickel-in-the-slot machines that had been operating here the last few months were boxed up and shipped from the city. The marshal has notified the men who have been running the machines and at present there are none to be found in the city. The step is positive and final, and henceforth slot machines will be absolutely prohibited here. Before the mayor took this step an agreement had been made by the owners of the machines to shut them up voluntarily and for a time they were not in use. One local dealer did not hold to the agreement and in a short time the evil was as bad as ever.

When the mayor found that his quiet hint as to the advisability of removing the machines before it was made compulsory was disregarded he gave the order which has resulted in driving them out of the city. There has been a good deal of discussion over the policy that should be pursued in the matter, but the mayor's decisive action ends it. Ishpeming is now in line with all the well regulated communities which have placed the ban on slot machines. They were not held in high favor here and their removal is generally approved of.

WORK STARTED AT QUEEN MINES.

ORDERS TO TAKE ON MORE MEN RECEIVED, BUT THEY DID NOT COME FROM THE CARNEGIE COMPANY.

The work of preparing the Queen mines for an immediate resumption of active operations was begun yesterday morning. Orders directing this to be done were received here Saturday from Corriagan, McKenney & Co. of Cleveland.

This announcement has been anxiously awaited for the last few weeks, but it falls to clear up the question of ownership of the property.

It is possible that the work now in progress may have been started by the old company at the request of the Carnegie people, and that as soon as the mines are ready for active operation that corporation will assume control.

It is definitely settled now that the mines will be worked quite extensively the coming summer, as the preparatory work is proceeding on a larger scale than is usual at this stage of the winter.

A PERNICIOUS PRACTICE.

Many are complaining of the practice that prevails here in disposing of the snow that gathers on the street car tracks. It is customary to throw the snow off the tracks to either side of the road and the streets are in some places practically impassable as a result.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman."

INEXPLICABLY SHOCKED.

THE LATE BISHOP VERTIN IS DEEPLY MOURNED AMONG HIS OLD PARISHIONERS HERE.

For ten years Bishop Vertin, who died Sunday night at Marquette, was in charge of the Catholic church at this place. He was a consistent laborer in the interests of his trust and congregation, and was much beloved by his parishioners.

He was consecrated as bishop by Archbishop Heiss, who was assisted by several bishops and many priests of the diocese. The day was one of the most notable in the annals of the Catholic church on the peninsula.

During the long period of his pastorate of the church here he made many notable improvements. Under his direction the church, the corner stone of which had been laid in 1868, was completed and made ready for occupancy.

The news of his death spread rapidly through the city Sunday evening. Words of regret and esteem were heard on all sides, as the bishop had many friends and admirers here.

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS.

fell in that banner snow field of the state of Michigan, and the gale gave the storm there more of a blizzard character than anywhere else in copperdom. It was still rampant there yesterday afternoon, although elsewhere the day was bright and sunny, although intensely cold.

Judge Feore of Baraga, while a Portage Lake visitor yesterday, made the proud boast that Baraga township had not a dollar of indebtedness in the world, the last school bond having been paid last week.

Professor Lane, assistant state geologist, left yesterday for Chicago to look after some maps which the geological survey is getting out. Before his return he will visit Lansing and stir up the legislature about the publication of the geological report.

The four-year-old daughter of Frank Kostka, the Houghton tailor, was buried yesterday, her death having resulted Sunday from spinal meningitis, superinduced by grip. The little one's mother is in a precarious condition, also, and grave fears are felt for her recovery.

UPPER PENINSULA.

Munising has a Business Men's association.

Mrs. Deborah Hursley, aged eighty-nine, and a pioneer of the Soo, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Biting, on Kimball street.

Nearly $10,000 was put in copper stocks by a number of Sooiters early last week, the major portion of the sum being invested in the Victoria mine, which is considered to be one of the best of the cheap stocks on the market.

On the first of March Chief Engineer R. C. Young of the Munising Railway will be promoted to the position of superintendent of that road.

The Swift Packing company will not erect a cold storage building in Escanaba, the reason being that the city council refused to grant the C. & N. W. Railway company the right to run a spur across Thomas street, where the company wished to erect its building.

As soon as the reorganization bill now before the legislature at Lansing is passed, Menominee will organize a military company. Senator Baker is on the committee on military affairs and has promised that Menominee should have the chance for the first enlistment.

The loss of potatoes by freezing will be very large in Menominee county. Many of the farmers have lost all they had. Similar reports are received from other parts of Michigan and Wisconsin, and it is predicted that potatoes will reach the highest price they have brought in years the coming summer.

Hugh Ryan, the well known contractor who built the Canadian Soo ship canal, died Feb. 13 at his home at Toronto, Ont., at the age of sixty-seven, in addition to building hundreds of miles of railways throughout Canada, he also did much work of this kind in Michigan, Illinois, Kentucky and Maine.

Miss Elizabeth Kelly, one of the teachers in the Menominee public schools, made application for forty acres of land near Amberg under the homestead act. Miss Booth, another teacher, contemplates taking out a homestead. It is said that a Wausaukee teacher sold a homestead last week which she secured some time ago for $900.

James Devine, an old resident and much respected citizen of Newberry was caught in a pulley while trying to put on a belt and was whirled around several times, breaking one arm and both legs, one in two places, and tearing his ribs from his back. He lived three hours, being unconscious all the time. He leaves a widow and grownup family.

Dog killers have made their appearance in the vicinity of Cedar River, and several farmers have lost some valuable dogs of late. Julius Brown is one of those who are complaining about the crusade, and he promises to repay the dog killer in his own coin as soon as he can be discovered, and the rest of the farmers are only too anxious to aid him.

The eleventh judicial district will elect a circuit judge this spring, to succeed Judge Jos. H. Steere of the Soo, whose term of office expires this year. Judge Steere is held in such high esteem throughout the district that there is no doubt but what he will succeed himself for another term. It is unlikely that the Democrats will nominate a candidate to run against him.

A. Dudley, the Menominee cycle manufacturer, will next week put a chainless bicycle on the market that he claims will be superior to any made. He says there is almost no friction in the gear and that it is bound to be the wheel of the season. The Dudley factory is very busy now and about a hundred '99 wheels will be finished by the 1st of March.

Sam Marks, clothing and dry goods man of Munising, has purchased the lot on the corner of Elm avenue and Superior street and will erect thereon a fine brownstone block 25x100 feet, two stories high, with a basement the full size of the building. The block will cost something like $8,000 and will be fitted up with all modern conveniences. Mr. Marks will occupy the first two floors and the third floor will be for rent.

Chas. A. Nelson of Gladstone has been granted a patent on a sewing awl. The stem of this awl consists of two parts, one fixed and the other movable upon it. An eye in the movable part of the stem is covered by working a catch on the handle of the awl. This enables the manipulator to slip in a thread easily after the point has been passed through leather, and, after closing the eye again, to draw the thread through the hole as the awl is withdrawn.

Schoolcraft county is in a fair way to secure a generous slice of Delta county, and now several of the influential citizens of Newton township, Mackinac county, are expressing themselves as being desirous of annexation also. Newton township is the most desirable township in Mackinac county but it is so far removed from the county seat, St. Ignace, that persons having any business there lose much time and are placed to great expense in reaching it. Manistiquie is easily accessible.

Some months ago Rev. D. McDonald, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Iron River, presented to the trustees of his church a claim for money due him for back salary, and for loans he had made for the construction of a parsonage. The matter came under the supervision of the Lake Superior Presbytery, and it was contended that the claim was unjust, and it was not paid.

At the next session of the Ontario legislature application will be made by the Sault Ste. Marie & Hudson Bay Railway company for an act extending the time for commencement and completion of the company's undertakings; empowering the company to open and operate a stage and wagon road from a point on the Canadian Pacific railway at or near Missinabi station to navigable waters on Moose river; changing the name of the company, and enabling it to amalgamate with or make traffic and other agreements with other companies, having powers to operate railways, or navigation connections, with, or beyond Hudson bay. The Soo and Hudson Bay railway project is a feasible one and it is only a question of time when it will be built.

The Perley Lowe company of Menominee has already disposed of two-thirds of the season's cut of the H. Witbeck mill to eastern parties. The prices obtained were higher on all grades than last year. The Perley Lowe company last week concluded a deal with an eastern company for the sale of fifteen million feet. All conditions now point to one of the most prosperous years ever known in the lumber business on the Menominee. The lumber manufacturers are feeling pretty good over the upward tendency of prices in lumber. Hardwood, especially, is going up, sales in million feet lots being made lately, for elm for $16. There are a number of lumber buyers there included Fuller of Meyer Bros., I. K. Baker and others, but they are only picking up small lots, thinking the price too high.

J. M. Martin is keeping the old L. W. & V. S. mill running, and has about 2,500,000 feet of hardwood to saw. The mill is cutting about 75,000 per day.

The outlook for the Delta County Agricultural society is not particularly bright. There will be few horses in Escanaba. A. W. owned by The Green, will go to Appleton or Fond du Lac, as will also Alice Bertha owned by Mort Hitchcock, while the probabilities are that Tip L., owned by A. P. Lind, will go outside for the seasons' campaign. This will leave only Mr. Perron's J. Doll and Mr. McKee's Felice K. M. Perron's Mike, and A. J. Valentine's Robert C. There are several good horses owned at Gladstone, but they are used as drivers and it is not likely that they will be tracked in Escanaba.

Phil Baillet at Ford River has a sprightly pacer and he might be induced to enter the cinder arena, but even so it would be necessary to get outside horses. In order to do this larger purses would have to be hung up, and the receipts will not warrant this. The society has run behind each year from its inception, and consequently it is not in a position to "stake itself" to any very great extent. The Oconto Enterprise tells this "interesting if true" story about one Dr. D. Simpson of Sidnaw and his surprising discovery of a copper mine near Ewen: "He says that he got lost in the woods while following a wounded deer, and accidentally ran across what he supposed was a bear's den. He saw it at a considerable distance before reaching it and decided to approach it cautiously. When within twenty feet of the object he discovered that instead of a bear's den it was a spring. A drink of water at that time was about as acceptable as a bear's hide, so he concluded to sample the water, but when within about ten feet of the spring he began sinking into the earth. He had considerable difficulty in extricating himself and in his efforts to do so dislodged what he supposed was a piece of rock. He clung to it and discovered that it was mineral. His first impression was that it was iron, but he afterwards learned that it was copper. When he reached Ewen he immediately secured an option on the land. He says there is a large quantity of copper there and has been offered $2,000 for his option."

At this early date many Menominee river commission men and mill owners are chartering lumber barges for the opening of navigation. P. M. Shaw, Jr., & Co., have chartered several boats and J. S. Corman and others are negotiating. The vessel owners and managers are demanding an increase in freight rates and lumber companies are compelled to accept to their claims. The rate for the opening of the season will be $1.25 to Chicago and $1.75 to Buffalo and Tonawanda. These are considered good freight rates. The steamer Francis Hinton, Capt. Wm. Evans, has been chartered to carry lumber between Menominee and Chicago all next season. The steambarge John Otis, Marshall F. Butters, Hickox, Mary Mills, Albert Soper, Pewaukee, the Chicago fleet; John Schroeder, Hilton, O. E. Parks, and others of the Milwaukee fleet will make regular trips to Menominee. The Otis, Capt. Jas. Sanford, will probably carry the lumber purchased by the Paepcke-Leight Co., Chicago, of the K. C. Co., which amounts to thirteen million feet. The Hickox, Capt. Wm. Ingalls, owned by the Forster Lumber Co., and others will carry the lumber sawed for the Forster Lumber Co., at the M. A. Burns mill to Milwaukee. The steambarge John Schroeder and Hilton owned by the Schroeder Lumber Co., Milwaukee, will carry the lumber manufactured by the Scottfield-Arnold Co., to Milwaukee. The Buffalo fleet will include the steambarge Tempest, Baldwin, E. A. Shores, Curtis, Pawnee, Fletcher, Shrigley and tows and many others.

MAKE VIGOROUS DENIAL.

Turner & Bro. Will Prosecute if They Can Find Author of the False Report.

THIS HOUSE REMAINS IN A PERFECTLY SOLVENT CONDITION.

Some Stocks Continued Dropping but the Market as a Whole Showed More Strength Yesterday—battles at the Close.

ARE AFTER THE ORIGINAL LIAR.

The sensation among the speculators was the false rumor which was put in circulation Sunday night that the firm of A. B. Turner & Bro. had gone under. This firm was the first of the Boston houses to open a branch here, and by its fair and liberal dealings with its customers speedily built up a large patronage. None of those conversant with the situation placed any credence in the report at all, or had any doubts of the solvency of the firm, but there were those who were needlessly alarmed by the rumor. No news was received from Boston Sunday night, but Monday the following very vigorous telegram of denial confirmed the opinions of those who had faith in the firm's integrity and solvency, and furnished the others with a complete reassurance:

"Boston, Mass., Feb. 27.—Find out where your rumors come from in regard to our credit and we will make them prove their assertion or go to jail. We have our own way of doing business and we will carry stocks on margin or not as we please. Your rumors are absolutely false. If any of your people want to transfer accounts let them do so at once. They are perfectly safe, however, where they are now if parties keep their margins good. Potter leaves for Marquette tonight. Post this telegram in your office."

Those best posted on the condition of the copper market are unanimous in the opinion that A. B. Turner & Co. in refusing to handle margin business have done not only the best thing for their own safety but for the protection of their patrons as well and the events of the past week has caused this firm to lose none of the confidence which these people had placed in it.

F. C. Potter, the resident manager, has been in Boston for a couple of weeks, but as seen by the above telegram he is now on his way back. Mr. Potter himself sent the following telegram, which arrived early yesterday forenoon:

"Have been delayed here helping on Mass certificates. Will probably leave tonight or tomorrow morning. We think your customers will find our idea on this market correct. We like commissions as well as anybody but do not think it safe to buy stocks on margin for customers at these prices, and don't believe them a purchase. We may be wrong but time will tell. When in our opinion the market is again safe we will gladly resume margin business."

"A. B. TURNER, F. C. POTTER."

Taken all around the stocks were better yesterday than they have been since the break came, and there was a decidedly stronger feeling at the close. There were several considerable advances counting from Saturday's close, and others showed more strength on the market yesterday as the day progressed than they did in the earlier hours.

Arctian made a strong advance. From a close of 76 Saturday and an opening of 77 yesterday it closed at 83. Boston & Montana opened three points above Saturday's close of 362 and closed the day yesterday two points higher than the opening. Butte & Boston opened at 92, five points above Saturday's close, and went to 93½, touching 94 as high. Calumet & Hecla made a slight gain. It opened at 785 and closed two points and a half higher. From a close Saturday of 62 Isle Royal closed at 65½. The list of those which made fractional gains includes Centennial, Rhode Island, Winona, Algonz, and others.

Adventure opened at 17, half a point lower than the Saturday close, and dropped at one period of the day to 15½, but rallied just at the close to 17. Baltic dropped from 32 to 31; Franklin lost a point closing at 25. Old Dominion, which closed Saturday at 40½, opened at 39, but climbed up and closed half a point better. Osceola dropped back from 97½ to 95½. Mohawk lost two points and closed at 30. Tamarack dropped back five to 230. Wolverine sagged back from 47½ to 46. Quincy lost five and closed at 175.

This is a considerably better showing than was made on the board Saturday, and while no marked advances are anticipated today there is a much better feeling manifest among the speculating public.

A private telegram received yesterday from Boston says: "Noon Miners' sold at 46; Copper Range at 53; Mass at 16; Victoria at 10½; Wyandotte 10½; Michigan, 18. Lawson is trying to scare but Boston doesn't heed him."

ROWETT ONCE AGAIN.

Ironwood Wrestler Wants O'Neil to Notice His Acceptance.

Having received no acknowledgement of his reply to Jack O'Neil's challenge, which has been running in this paper the past couple weeks, John Rowett sends this letter to the sporting editor of The Mining Journal, now making his offer to wrestle the Montana champion slightly more liberal than the original one.

"Ironwood, Mich., Feb. 25, 1919. "Sporting Editor The Mining Journal—I see that O'Neil's challenge is still in your paper. I wrote you a letter over a week ago accepting that challenge. I will wrestle O'Neil any way he wishes at any time he prefers for $100 or more a side."

"Yours Sincerely,
"JOHN ROWETT."

WITH THE LIARS.

Annie Thomas, Formerly Long's Leading Lady, Is With John Drew.

Probably most theater-goers will remember Miss Annie Thomas, who appeared here with the Frank E. Long company in its two previous engagements. Miss Thomas, who was then leading lady, attracted the attention of all by her wonderfully clever and capable acting. She is not with the company this year, but her abilities have been recognized in the metropolitan field and she is at present playing with John Drew in "The Liars."

Another Long actor who is not with the company this time is Joe Willard, who gave himself note all through this section by his elopement with Miss Belle Aitken, niece of ex-Congressman Sam Stephenson of Menominee. Mr. Willard quit the company just before its Marquette engagement and will go on the road at the head of his own company. The most eminently fitting title of the production is "Kidnapped." It is said that he will appear here later in the season.

STANDING ROOM ONLY.

Frank E. Long Makes a Successful Entry on His Week's Engagement.

It is seldom a repertoire troupe appears to such an audience as greeted Frank E. Long and his big company when they appeared last evening at the opera house in "Old Missouri," the opening bill of the week's engagement. Every seat in the house was taken. People sat in the aisles of the balcony and stood at the back of the parquette.

This play is one of the strongest which has been put upon the stage in late years, and the presentation receives at the hands of Mr. Long and his company would satisfy playgoers at a much increased scale of prices. It was a strong opener and the company made a good impression in it, and if the succeeding nights' performances are of equal merit the patrons of the opera house will have more than received the worth of their money.

Frank Long is the most capable actor who ever came to this city at the head of a repertoire company, and a thing which gives promise of a successful engagement from the playgoers' standpoint is that he is much better supported than when he was here last time. Cara Moreland, his leading lady, in the part of Kate, the college bred daughter from the homespun home, acted the role with an apparently excellent understanding of its requirements. Joe Murphy, in the comedian part of Steve, soon made himself a favorite with the audience and received encouraging applause through the entire piece. This he shared with Miss Madge Tucker, who played Liz. Their singing in the second act took the house well enough to elicit two encores.

The biograph pictures are a strong specialty feature of the show. These are quite the best that have been here for a long time, and when the patriotic pictures were thrown on the screen the house shrieked with enthusiasm. The company will appear tonight in a comedy drama known as "Lost and Won."

WILL BE BURIED FRIDAY.

Bishop Vertin Will Be Laid to Rest in Vault in St. Peter's Cathedral.

REMAINS WILL LIE BESIDE THOSE OF BISHOP BARAGA.

Archbishop Katzer of Milwaukee is Expected to Officiate—Body Will Lie in State from Wednesday Evening Till Friday.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE.

Bishop Vertin will be laid to rest Friday morning in the vault of St. Peter's cathedral beside the remains of the venerated Bishop Baraga, the first bishop of the diocese.

It is now planned that the body of his grace shall lie in state in the cathedral from Wednesday evening till the hour of interment. This fulfills the rules of the church, which provide that a bishop shall lie in state in his own cathedral for three days previous to burial, and will give an opportunity for the thousands of Catholic communicants in Marquette and other points in the diocese to view the remains. The interment will occur at 10:30 a. m.

Archbishop Katzer of Milwaukee, who presides over the archdiocese in which this diocese is located, is expected to be here and officiate on the sad occasion. The bishops of Green Bay and LaCrosse, whose charges are in the same archdiocese as this one, have been given particular invitation, as have also the bishops of Milwaukee, Detroit, Grand Rapids and St. Cloud, Minn., and the vicars general of St. Paul and Duluth. In a more general way notice has been given to all the archbishops and bishops of the United States, but those which may be reasonably expected to attend are included in the list of the specially invited.

Notices were sent out yesterday to all the priests of this diocese officially informing them of the demise of the bishop, giving them notice of the time of the interment and extending an invitation to them to assist in the services for the dead.

The mission, which began Sunday, will continue the time set for it, and be interrupted only during the funeral services Friday. Fathers Von der Erden and Corbray are in charge of this mission. It is considered fitting that the mission work should go on in spite of the bishop's death, as it was he who brought the missionary fathers here and instituted the work. This, it is believed, would be in accordance with his wishes. The first shock caused by the announcement of his grace's death is past, but there remains, particularly among the communicants of his church, the same feeling of sadness and loss as that which swept over them when the cathedral bells tolled out the news Sunday evening. The report of the bishop's demise has already gone unofficially to every part of the diocese, and the news of his death has been furnished through the Associated Press and other agencies to papers all over the country. Milwaukee papers contain quite extended accounts of his death, as it was in that city that the bishop completed his studies after coming to this country and before his ordination to the priesthood.

SHERIFF ADJOURNED IT.

Circuit Court Will Not Convene Till Next Monday Morning.

As yesterday was the regular day for opening the February term of the circuit court, Sheriff Carlson made his appearance in the court room, announced the opening of court and then adjourned it for one week. The adjournment was practically in effect already, as the attorneys and jurors had been instructed not to appear till March 6, the change of date having been made for the accommodation of tax title business in Iron county.

The calendar which the court will take up next Monday contains only four criminal cases. Only one of them is a serious charge, that one, assault with intent to kill. There are eleven issues of fact which will be tried by jury. One of these is the $10,000 suit of Frank Dollar against the city of Marquette for alleged injuries sustained from a defective sidewalk. The townships, Lahpeming and Ely, also have suits against them. Eleven issues of law are booked for trial by court. The most important of these is the attorney general on the relation of James Pendill against the L. S. & I. railroad. It is the same old suit which has been in the courts before in a different form and seeks to compel the line to run summer and winter and do a general freight and passenger business. It is said that it will not come to trial at this term. The docket is completed with nine chancery cases, mostly foreclosures.
