CLARK MINE LIKELY TO RESUME. FRENCH OWNERS THINKING OF AGAIN WORKING THIS OLD KEVEENAW COPPER PROPERTY—ITS HISTORY IN BRIEF.

A well defined rumor in mining circles has it that operations are again to be resumed at the old Clark mine in Keweenaw county. The property was recently visited by two French gentlemen interested who made the trip from Paris largely for this purpose.

The history of the property is of decided interest. It was located in 1854 by Professor Regault, who afterward returned to Paris and recommended it to the parties there who made the purchase. July 1, 1857, it was deeded to Ernst Theroule & Co. by Alonzo Simon Maurice, and work was commenced in 1859.

The territory comprises the original Clark, Montreal and Bell locations. The veins were opened with adits and three shafts sunk. These were provided with engines for hoisting and pumping, and a stamp mill was erected and placed in operation in the fall of 1874.

There are a number of veins crossing the property, which extends north and south of the greenstone and is thus crossed by the ashbed and amygdaloid formations. One of the shafts had been sunk 300 feet and explorations made north and south of the greenstone. Some masses were found of five-ton weight, but there was too much dead work to be profitable.

A feature of much interest in the property is the rich beds of manganese, from which about 1,200 tons of fine grade peroxide of manganese were taken out during six months in 1881 from an open cut seventy-five feet deep.

Work on the Isle Royale stamp mill has been delayed largely by this reason, and the company has now concluded that it is far better to wait until the manufacturers are looking for business, instead of being swamped with it, as at present.

Mr. Lynch, representing the Ingersoll-Sargeant Drill company of Chicago, stated yesterday that his firm was employing fully 1,000 men and its plant was being operated day and night with a full force.

Work on the foundation for the new pumping station at the Huron dam has been commenced by the Isle Royale company. Foundations for the company's thirty new dwellings have been completed.

RINGLING DAY TOMORROW.

The Visit of the World's Greatest Shows Rapidly Approaching.

Ringling day is almost here. The coming of Ringling Brothers' famous big circus tomorrow, Saturday, Aug. 5, is the one subject of conversation. Expectation has been aroused as never before. The public confidently looks forward to seeing a great show, and it will not be disappointed. The parade which inaugurates circus day would be sufficient to stamp the show as the monarch of all tent amusements. This stupendous display engages the services of over a thousand men, women and children, and fully five hundred thoroughbred horses. There are over a hundred magnificent carriages and gold illuminated cages, dums and tableau floats. Each of the thirty great sections in which the parade is divided would be a lavish display for any other circus. The procession will leave the show grounds at 10 o'clock, and the route will be the usual one over the principal downtown streets. Do not miss it. It will be the spectacle of a life time. The magnitude of the parade will prepare the public in some measure for the wonders of the exhibition. And it is indeed a wonderful exhibition. Imagine a vast hippodrome pavilion, with seats for 18,000 persons. Fill this great amphitheatre with rings and stages, and a bewildering maze of aerial apparatus. Surround the rings with a great fourth-mile raring track, and fill rings and stages, track and mid-air with an endless array of acrobats and acrobats, riders and racers, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the others in grace, dexterity and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a noble introduction to a noble show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants, embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscidians; an international horse exhibit, introducing beautifully-effective high class menage riding by Mme. Adn Castello and Miss Alice Jackson; a complete company of aerial artists headed by the great Fishers; the world's greatest possible acrobats, the incomparable Da Comas; a score of famous bareback riders, including Michael and John Rooney, Edward Shipp, Julia Lowande, Elena Ryland, Olga Reed and Albert Crandall, whose sensational act of equestrianism is performed upon the back of a mule; and scores of others equally famous. The menagerie is the finest collection of rare wild animals to be found within the boundaries of civilization, and the show in its entirety is a revelation of what managerial ability, progressive originality and unlimited capital can do in creating a great public amusement. Reserved numbered seats and admissions show day without any advance in price at Pencil's Pharmacy.

write suggest the idea that they ought to be given a further share in the state's beneficence and sent to one of the several institutions which are prepared for such people. The latest freak letter received by the local land office is one of this kind. It runs: "Trout Creek, August 2, 1899. "U. S. L. O., Marquette, Mich. "Recorder and Receiver. Gentlemen—I am informed that you have notice that I will be contested in my prove, should I prove upon S 1/2 of S 1/2 Sec. 21, 47-31. My plans to colonize, start, educational industrial center, so far defeated, I am disorganized. My neighbors also conspire to get my homestead away, 99 per cent, said to have sworn false to secure Homestead. During the mob courts contest, the commencement of this conspiracy, the contradicting testimony forced cross questioning, established as the verdict was that I served my time according to law. Do examine said testimony, notice the Perjury and advise my son J. P. S. Owosso mich what to do. Hon. Col. C. H. Osborn, classmate, relative, friend, introduced me to you relatives and predecessors as "Preacher; honest; will be taken advantage of; take care of him. "Hanby wrote a letter to my son, mobs frequently gather, to drive your father out as an impostor. Mrs. H. warned, have arms, my husband talking with Ira Lee has warned your son that your life is in danger. My son ordered me home as my life was in danger. I replied send me arms, your father is no coward. Dead you can take me home never defeated. "I have written to the U. S. Detective Department to come and investigate this lawlessness. Again door, floor, window, stove pipe, chimney torn down is taken out of my house. I am informed on or about the premises of Ira Lee. I have seen in his possession clock, bedding, tools of mine. He said I was a thief, scatters such reports. His father came to take care of him proved Lee was an assumed name. His manner marks him as a runaway from Justice. Therefore for my protection do report this to your detectives. "Your Predecessors have protected me thus far. Law should and will protect me. As Justice demands C. H. O asked to do I plead with you to protect my family against this lawlessness that has and does yet endanger my life and property. This dare not be neglected. "Hoping and praying you will do your duty I remain your humble servant co-worker "J. S. colonization apostle."

LOCATING HERE PERMANENTLY.

J. Hammel & Co., the horse dealers of Appleton, Wis., who have done a very extensive business here for some time past, have made a three-year lease with Fay & Bricker for a section of their stable, with the intention of locating here permanently. The firm is well and reliably known all through this section for the fair and liberal treatment they extend all who trade with them. At present they have a carload of very fine heavy draft horses on sale. They are continually getting in stock, both draft and carriage horses, so that any person wishing something special in that line may easily make arrangements right at their barn in Marquette. AUGUST FLOWER.—"It is a surprising fact," says Professor Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." SAMPLE BOTTLES FREE at Stafford's drug store. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

GRAIN-O BRINGS RELIEF to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, affects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

ISHPEMING MAN GETS CONTRACT. E. E. GRIP & CO. PRESENTED THE LOWEST ESTIMATE AND WERE AWARDED THE WORK.

The building committee of the M. E. church has inspected the bids for the construction of the society's new church edifice and has awarded the contract to E. E. Grip & Co. of Ishpeming. Two bids were received, one from a local contractor, but as Grip's was by far the lowest he got the contract. He was expected here yesterday to sign the contract and to provide bondsmen.

Grip & Co. undertake to erect the church and finish it for $6,000. They will be allowed four months in which to complete the building. This means that the congregation will be well settled in their new home by the end of December. Work on the structure will be started immediately. The masons will be at once set at work on the foundation, which will be put in with all possible speed.

MAY BAR BIG MEN.

The Sons of St. George are considering the advisability of barring the big men from the wrestling tournament which will be an important part of their program of sports during their coming reunion here. The question came up at a meeting Wednesday night. Its settlement was deferred until the next meeting, in order to ascertain to some degree the sentiment of the general public. The committee does not wish to take a step which would diminish interest in the wrestling but some of its members think the sport would be better if the heavy weight men, particularly Carl Beck, were barred. There would be more entries if this should be done, and the wrestlers would put up better sport if each thought he had a fair chance for first honors.

MAY BE NEAR BY.

Many people here are of the opinion that Patana who absconded from the city Monday, after having systematically robbed Harris & Matthews for eleven months, is in hiding somewhere in this vicinity. Nothing definite is known of him. He has not been seen, as far as the members of the firm and the officers know, since he left Mr. Harris on the delivery wagon Monday morning and failed to return. Mr. Harris does not believe that Patana had any great sum of money. Harris received all the collections that were made Monday morning and he thinks Patana got rid of

HOW TO PREVENT STREET CAR STRIKES.

In the recent conflict in Cleveland between a street railway company and its men the outside public soon lost sight of the benefits of the original controversy because of the violent demonstrations growing out of it. After order has been restored, however, the public is likely to ask why it was necessary to have such disturbance of traffic. As a public-service corporation, doing business under authority of a municipal grant, it is the duty of a street railway company so to manage its affairs as to afford the traveling public uninterrupted service. So strong is the feeling in this direction that after the troubles growing out of the recent street railway strike in Brooklyn the suggestion was made that the legislature pass a law compelling corporations operating under franchises to submit disputes with their employees to arbitration. In both the Brooklyn and the Cleveland strikes the men were anxious to arbitrate, but the companies would not consent to do so.

Undoubtedly, as a moral proposition, the companies ought to have consented to arbitration and thus have saved the public from the inconvenience caused by their stubbornness. But the effort to provide by law for a system of compulsory arbitration, even in a limited way, is of doubtful wisdom. Besides, such a plan is almost certain to run counter to constitutional provisions. In cities like New York, where franchises have been granted for long periods of years, there may be no other method of relief. But in most western cities it is not necessary to resort to such radical tactics to accomplish the purpose. In Chicago and most other cities the street railway franchises expire within a comparatively short time, and then the opportunity will be afforded of incorporating into the new grants provisions that will prevent street railway strikes in the future. When granting a franchise it would be entirely proper for the city to exact from the company, as a condition of the grant, a pledge to submit all differences with employees to arbitration.—Chicago Record.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED HER LITTLE DAUGHTER'S LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by The Stafford Drug Company.

HOW TO PREVENT STREET CAR STRIKES.

In the recent conflict in Cleveland between a street railway company and its men the outside public soon lost sight of the benefits of the original controversy because of the violent demonstrations growing out of it. After order has been restored, however, the public is likely to ask why it was necessary to have such disturbance of traffic. As a public-service corporation, doing business under authority of a municipal grant, it is the duty of a street railway company so to manage its affairs as to afford the traveling public uninterrupted service. So strong is the feeling in this direction that after the troubles growing out of the recent street railway strike in Brooklyn the suggestion was made that the legislature pass a law compelling corporations operating under franchises to submit disputes with their employees to arbitration. In both the Brooklyn and the Cleveland strikes the men were anxious to arbitrate, but the companies would not consent to do so.

Undoubtedly, as a moral proposition, the companies ought to have consented to arbitration and thus have saved the public from the inconvenience caused by their stubbornness. But the effort to provide by law for a system of compulsory arbitration, even in a limited way, is of doubtful wisdom. Besides, such a plan is almost certain to run counter to constitutional provisions. In cities like New York, where franchises have been granted for long periods of years, there may be no other method of relief. But in most western cities it is not necessary to resort to such radical tactics to accomplish the purpose. In Chicago and most other cities the street railway franchises expire within a comparatively short time, and then the opportunity will be afforded of incorporating into the new grants provisions that will prevent street railway strikes in the future. When granting a franchise it would be entirely proper for the city to exact from the company, as a condition of the grant, a pledge to submit all differences with employees to arbitration.—Chicago Record.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by The Stafford Drug Company.

FREE OF CHARGE.—Any adult suffering from a cold settled on the breast, bronchitis, throat or lung troubles of any nature, who will call at Stafford's drug store will be presented with a sample bottle of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP, FREE OF CHARGE. Only one bottle given to one person, and none to children without order from parents. No throat or lung remedy ever had such a sale as BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP in all parts of the civilized world. Twenty years ago millions of bottles were given away, and your druggists will tell you its success was marvellous. It is really the only throat and lung remedy generally endorsed by physicians. One 75 cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by all druggists in this city.
