BRITISH IN KROONSTAD

Lord Roberts Enters the Town Entirely Without Opposition.

BOERS LEAVE HURRIEDLY.

Elaborate Defenses Abandoned and Efforts Confined to Getting Away Guns and Stores.

CAPITAL IS MOVED AGAIN.

London, Sunday, May 13.—The fall of Kroonstad was announced late Saturday evening to the war office by the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Kroonstad, Saturday afternoon:

"I entered Kroonstad at 1:30 without opposition today, when the union jack was hoisted amidst cheers from the few British residents. President Steyn fled last evening after vainly endeavoring to persuade the burghers to continue opposing us. The Transvaalers said they would no longer fight on Orange Free State soil and made off for the Vaal river. Free Staters accused the Transvaalers of having made use of them and then deserting. Many of the Free Staters have gone to their homes.

"The procession entering the town was headed by my body guard, all of whom were colonels, and after my staff and foreign officers came the North Somerset Imperial yeomanry, followed by Police-Carew's division, consisting of the Guards and the Eighteenth brigade navals, the Eighty-third, Eighty-fourth and Eighty-fifth batteries, two five-inch guns manned by the Royal artillery company, and the Twelfth engineers. The rest of the force encamped around the town.

"Before leaving Kroonstad, President Steyn issued a proclamation making Lindley the seat of government of the Free State.

"Generals Botha and Dewet accompanied the Transvaalers."

DETAILS OF THE ADVANCE.

It was officially announced in the morning that Lord Roberts had marched twenty miles Friday and was then within fourteen miles of Kroonstad. He was then at Geneva Siding and six miles from Boschrand. The Boers were holding entrenched positions, with part of the British troops in touch with them. The capture of nearly 100 prisoners during the past two days was reported.

Then, in a dispatch dated Boschrand, Saturday, 9:30 a. m., Lord Roberts reported: "I am eight miles from Kroonstad. The enemy evacuated the first line of entrenchments during the night. We are now reconcentrating towards Kroonstad. General French's cavalry seized the drift over the Vaal river at 4:30 last evening, just in time to prevent passage being opposed by the enemy." The next telegram from Lord Roberts—the one first given above—told of his entry into Kroonstad.

During the advance from Geneva Siding, General French's cavalry leading, some of the Transvaalers approached a kraal, where a force of Boers were concealed. A white flag was flying from the kraal. While the troopers were unsaddling their horses a deadly fire was poured in upon them from the window of the farm-house, killing several and wounding many. A score of them were also captured, most of whom had been wounded.

BURGHERS LOSING SPIRIT.

SAID AT KROONSTAD BACKBONE OF RESISTANCE IS BROKEN.

Kroonstad, Orange Free State, Sunday, May 13.—The arrival of Lord Roberts was hailed with enthusiasm by all the British inhabitants and three hundred Free Staters anxious to surrender. The Irish brigade with the federals yesterday burned a goods shed. According to the townspeople many of them were drunk.

The Boers are now trekking to the Vaal river, where they are entrenching. General French, who is encamped northeast of town, despatched a force to cut the line. The project succeeded late at night, but unfortunately after the departure of the last train.

Although the troops had marched sixteen miles, they were in excellent form on entering town. Many arrests have been made, chiefly of those who have maligned the British. It was found that many persons had been deported from Ladybrand for ultra sympathy with the British.

ALLIES' QUARREL ACUTE.

President Steyn has gone to Lindley, the new seat of the Free State government, while many of the burghers are trekking homeward. The opposition in the Free State is practically over. All prisoners in the hands of the British agree that the quarrel between the Free Staters and Transvaalers is so acute that the latter have decided to leave their allies, whom they accuse of cowardice.

Most of the Transvaal prisoners think that if they are defeated at the Vaal river the Boers will retreat to Pretoria, but there appears to be growing distrust in the Transvaal government; in a

HEAVY FIGHTING IN NATAL.

SUCH THE RUMOR AT DURBAN—RED CROSS TRAIN HAS LEFT FOR THE FRONT.

London, Monday, May 14.—The correspondent of The Standard at Durban says:

"There are persistent rumors of heavy fighting in Natal. The Red Cross train left last night for the north."

word, the backbone of Boer resistance seems to have been broken. The burghers are fighting without their previous stubbornness. They are ready to retreat on the slightest pretext. The prisoners, even the Transvaalers, appear glad to have been captured. They are sick of a war which can have only one end. Several have exclaimed, "We have lost our liberty, but why should we lose our lives?"

COUNTRY EASY OF DEFENSE.

The correspondent of The Times at Kroonstad says:

"It is reported that President Kruger intends moving to Lydenburg as soon as he is joined by President Steyn, who left yesterday with General Botha.

"The country between Boschrand and Kroonstad might have been effectually held if the spirit had been willing. The Boer guns and stores were all removed."

FOREIGNERS MUST FIGHT.

The correspondent of The Times at Lourenco Marques says:

"It is rumored that the Transvaal road, in secret session, has resolved to order all residents, irrespective of nationality, to assist in fighting in accordance with the terms of the amended military laws."

FIERCE STORM AT ST. PAUL.

Three Persons Are Killed, Two Others Badly Injured and Much Havoc Done by Wind Throughout the City.

St. Paul, May 13.—Three persons were killed and two seriously wounded during a severe storm here shortly after eight this evening. The dead:

- FANNIE MULLEN, killed in St. Luke's church.
- JOHN M. LAND, killed on the Stillwater road; struck by lightning.
- PATRICK SEXTON.

The injured—Mary Sexton, aged eight; Patrick Sexton, Jr., ten years.

The wind blew down innumerable telephone and trolley wire poles, wrecked sidewalks and damaged buildings in various parts of the city.

Patrick Sexton, a wholesale cigar dealer, was driving home from Como Park when a sidewalk overturned into his carriage, killing him instantly. The day was extremely hot.

RATHBONE'S HEAD TO GO.

DIRECTOR OF THE POSTS HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FRAUDS IN CUBA JUST DISCOVERED.

Washington, Monday, May 14.—The Post this morning says:

"An order will be issued today relieving from duty E. G. Rathbone, director general of posts in Cuba, under whose administration the frauds recently disclosed have occurred. He is held responsible for extravagance in the department and for loose business methods in the conduct of the postal affairs of the islands, resulting in the embezzlement of funds estimated at $100,000."

PROSPEROUS CHICAGO MAN KILLS HIMSELF—DESPONDENCY

Chicago, May 13.—After writing a note of farewell to his former sweetheart, Harry S. Barrett, a prosperous business man heir to an estate worth $25,000, took carbolic acid today and died. Despondency was the cause.

LYNCHING FOLLOWS MURDER.

Augusta, Ga., May 13.—Alec Whitney, a prominent young man, was shot and killed on a street car tonight by Gus Wilson, colored, in a dispute over a seat. Wilson was arrested and started for Atlanta for safe-keeping. When the train reached Grovetown a crowd which had collected on telephone advice from Augusta took the negro from the train and, it is believed, lynched him.

HOUSE'S WORK NEARLY FINISHED.

WILL BE READY ABOUT JUNE 1 FOR ADJOURNMENT—FORECAST OF THIS WEEK'S BUSINESS

Washington, May 13.—The house this week will send to the senate the last of the general supply bills—the general deficiency and military academy appropriation bills—and be ready for adjournment as soon as the senate adjusts the differences between the two houses upon those passed or pending in conference. The house leaders say they will be ready for the sine die adjournment on June 1, but allowing for delays it is not probable both houses will be ready to quit before the 10th. Saturday, under special order, will be given up to the ceremonies attending the acceptance of the statue of General Grant presented by the Grand Army.

BOYS CAUSE COSTLY FIRE.

DAMAGE OF $200,000 DONE YESTERDAY AT CAMDEN, N. J.

Camden, N. J., May 13.—A fire today which broke out in the Farmers' market house, Fifth and Federal streets, completely destroyed that building, ten stores and about fifty small dwellings, causing an estimated loss of $200,000 and rendering homeless 250 persons. These tonight are quartered in the Armory and are being fed at the expense of the city. Boys, either accidentally or purposely, set fire to a pile of tarred timber stored in the market house.

CROLERA'S FEARFUL RAVAGES.

IMPOSSIBLE TO COLLECT ALL THE DEAD AT SOME OF THE INDIAN FAMINE CAMPS.

London, Monday, May 14.—The Bombay correspondent of The Times says:

"Cholera continues to rage in the famine camps. There have been four hundred deaths in three days at Mandvi and so numerous are the cases at Gocia it is impossible to collect the bodies. These lie for days in the sun. The people have fled and cannot be induced to return. A similar state of things prevails at Broach."

LYNCHING AWAITS THEM.

KANSAS POSSES SCOURING THE WOODS FOR TWO BANK ROBBERS WHO KILLED OFFICER.

Emporia, Kas., May 13.—Hundreds of men are scouring the Neosho valley tonight for two alleged bank robbers—James Murphy and E. S. Estell—who late last night killed Deputy Marshal Edward Roberts. On May 9 Murphy and Estell, it is said, robbed a bank at Marysville, and since then a posse of deputies has pursued the robbers over 150 miles. About midnight last night the robbers were run onto accidentally in the dark by Roberts and a companion, who had become separated from the pursuing party. Before they recognized the robbers one of the latter emptied both barrels of a shotgun into Roberts, killing him instantly. The robbers again fled. This evening they had been traced to within three miles of Emporia. A lynching surely will follow their capture.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Washington, May 13.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Partly cloudy; continued warm Monday and Tuesday; probably showers; fresh south to southwest winds.

Sydney, N. S. W., May 13.—The number of cases of bubonic plague officially reported to date is 216. Of these seventy-three have proved fatal.

CHICAGO STEAL UNEARTHED

Two Water Office Clerks Arrested and Confess to Defrauding the City Out of a Sum Believed to Aggregate Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Chicago, May 13.—Clarence M. Wolfe and Geo. W. Piggott, employes of the water office in the city hall, are under arrest charged with participating in a conspiracy, which, it is said, has been going on for over five years, whereby the city has been defrauded out of a sum estimated to aggregate $200,000. The men arrested have confessed their guilt. It is alleged that Wolfe and Piggott changed the figures on water meter dials for a consideration from property owners. More arrests are probable.

SEE THE END OF THE WAR

English Correspondents in the Field Report Boers Demoralized.

PREDICT EARLY BREAK.

Military Critics in London Are Chary, However, and Point to the Experiences of the Past.

NO NEWS OF FIGHTING.

London, Monday, May 14.—"The war is practically over," says The Daily Chronicle's Kroonstad correspondent, and in less definite terms this view is to be gathered from all the correspondents. They picture the Boers as utterly demoralized and disheartened by Lord Roberts' unexpectedly rapid advance and by his facile turning of the carefully prepared positions of the Boers.

QUIT ELABORATE DEFENSES.

There is practically no fighting and there are no further details to be given respecting the occupation of Kroonstad. The correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: "The union jack was hoisted in the market place by Mrs. Lockhead, the American wife of a Scotchman. Most of the horses of the Boers are in wretched condition, but President Kruger declares he will continue the war."

"It appears that the Boers at Kroonstad had been reinforced by three thousand men last Friday and that altogether ten thousand, with twenty guns, trekked from Kroonstad on the approach of Lord Roberts. The Boers made an ineffectual stand at Boschrand and had elaborate entrenchments in front of Kroonstad which offered great facilities for a rear-guard action. Their only anxiety, however, appears to have been to get away safely with all their guns and convoys, which again they successfully accomplished. The few stores they were unable to carry away they burned. President Steyn is represented as having been frantic with rage and having kicked and cuffed some of the burghers after vainly imploring them to continue to fight."

KANDAHAR MARCH RIVALLED.

Lord Roberts, after a march which is regarded as worthy of being ranked with his famous march to Kandahar, has thus completed another stage of his campaign and, although successful and without the mistakes and misfortunes that characterized the earlier stages of the war, leaves the British forces quite intact, not having lost a gun and having lost but very few men.

Experience has taught the critics to be chary about accepting the reports of Boer demoralization. The Times says: "The signs point to a military breakdown on the part of the Boers, but, after the experience of the past, we cannot accept the reports of demoralization without reserve. The game of war must be strictly played out to the end."

BRABANT MAKING PROGRESS.

Lindley, the new Free State capital, is forty-five miles southeast of Kroonstad, half way to Bethlehem, and was probably selected as a convenient resource for the commandos now retiring before Generals Brabant and Rundle in the Thabanchu district. General Brabant has occupied Hoepelok, half way on the road from Thabanchu to Ladybrand.

There is not a word of news from the far western side. Nothing is known, therefore, of the progress of the Mafeking relief column.

SALISBURY'S STARTLING SPEECH.

FRANKNESS OF THE PREMIER STILL AMAZING ENGLAND.

London, May 13.—Although Lord Salisbury addressed the members of the Primrose League on Wednesday, the tenor of his meaning has not yet filtered into British minds.

The remarkable utterances of the premier on that occasion continue to form almost the sole topic of conversation, though editorial writers quickly gave up the attempt to analyze for the benefit of the public the numerous features of the speech and were well nigh staggered into silence by its baffling unexpectedness and the multiplicity of the issues it contained. It was delivered when the nation expected just the opposite kind of remarks.

GETTING TO THINK HE'S DAFT.

To inspire his countrymen to awake to the dangers greatly menacing their great empire and its interests at a time when they had not got over their jubilation at Lord Roberts' successes was violating the first principles of politics, especially considering the approach of the elections, and some of Lord Salisbury's own supporters believe he was almost off his head when he spoke.

Not content with this, he pulled down every pretty fabric that had been built around the queen's visit to Ireland, calmly comparing the present efforts to obtain home rule to Boer conspiracy and hostility, and this after the queen

Now that General Roberts has got fairly under way for Pretoria, the Boer forces are getting out of his path with great alacrity. They are not going to get caught as Cronje and his army were if "trekking" in time and expedition will prevent. Those Boers may be a trifle slow to catch on, but when they learn anything they learn it thoroughly.

The Minneapolis Tribune regards it as somewhat noteworthy that the men who got to the front most prominently in the Spanish and Philippine wars were not graduates of West Point, and among these it enumerates General Shafter. But did Shafter get to the front "prominently"? He would have been prominent enough if he had got there, for he weighs over 300 pounds, but the record is that he was several miles in the rear when the fighting was going on at Santiago.

A farmer in Kalamazoo county fell from a heavy roller that he was steering over a lumpy field one day last week and got an awful squeezing when it passed over him. When he got on his feet after the experience he spat out a copper cent that he had swallowed when a child some fifty years ago. The incident serves to show how difficult it is to squeeze a cent out of the average lower peninsula granger, and why it is that this class of Michigan's citizens want the mines up here to pay the bulk of the state taxes.

SALISBURY'S WANT OF TACT. The leading British papers are severe in their comments on the speech delivered by Lord Salisbury at the Primrose League meeting last week, in which he definitely served notice on the Irish Nationalists that their demand for home rule for Ireland would never be granted, at the same time vaguely hinting at dangers by which England is menaced that her people should take decisive steps to guard against.

Following the visit of the queen to Ireland and her cordial reception by the Irish people, the premier's break is regarded as having been particularly ill-timed and unfortunate, as it justifies the attitude of the Nationalists toward the British government, and confirms their prediction that just and considerate treatment of Ireland cannot be expected from it. It discredits the well-meant effort of the queen to make use of the present feeling of gratitude of the British people for the service rendered by Irish troops in South Africa to bring about a better understanding between the Irish and English, and will undo all the good in that direction that was accomplished by her visit to Ireland. It is another illustration of the stupid incapacity which English statesmen have ever displayed in dealing with the Irish question—a question which, by the way, they have created but seem utterly unable to cope with.

The London Chronicle makes no attempt to conceal its disgust with the want of tact shown by Salisbury in his remarks regarding home rule for Ireland. "For some occult reason," it observes, "Lord Salisbury seldom opens his mouth in public without letting fall some inapt and factious words. He emphasized his ability in this direction by his comparison of the Transvaal with the Irish Nationalists. He said that Great Britain had learned something from the war, but there is one lesson apparently which the ministers have failed to take to heart, namely, the need of a little discretion."

The Daily Mail is equally unsparring in its comments on the speech, and expresses deep regret that the prime minister should have chosen such a time for utterance of the harsh remarks he indulged in. That paper declares that it "finds in his speech no recognition of the new situation which has been created and no sense of the importance of seizing the golden moment which was reached by the heroism of the Irish soldiers and the statesmanlike initiative of the queen. In speaking as he did, Lord Salisbury failed to rightly voice British sentiment, for from John o' Groats to Lands End, the British are one people in their admiration of and gratitude to their cousins across the western channel."

The Daily Mail joins in the chorus of disapproval of the premier's blundering utterances, charging him with having been guilty of "one of those indiscretions which, as Lord Beaconsfield said, may be apologized for but can never be explained." That is the worst feature of his asininity in going out of his way to take up a question which there was no special reason for touching on at all, and then committing the unpardonable blunder of discussing it with such deplorably bad judgment. The Irish query, "Do they mean it?" heard when the Irish flag and national emblem were specially honored on St. Patrick's day by order of the queen, has been answered by Salisbury, and the interpretation the Irish people will place on his speech can be readily inferred.

But the premier was frank, if not politic, and if he outlined what his government's policy toward Ireland is to be in the future it may be just as well for both England and Ireland that it should be plainly announced and fully understood.

LENDING GOLD TO EUROPE. The Boston Transcript takes a philosophical, and indisputably the true, view of the movement of gold from this country to Europe which so alarms some people, who seem to regard it as a precursor of hard times. Noting the shipments for the week and discussing their significance, that paper says of the present very moderate out-flow of the precious metal:

In connection with gold shipments it is interesting to note that the United States is becoming more and more a creditor nation. We are aware that the theory of the greater ease of our funds market is opposed in some directions, but the more the current gold movement is studied the more apparent is this simple explanation. Of course proper allowance always must be made for the large sums expended abroad by American travellers, also for remittances on account of interest and dividends on American securities held in Europe, and our people will spend more than ever this summer by reason of the Paris Exposition, as well as the two years of great prosperity through which we have passed. Now, if Europe had been selling our securities to any extent, in addition to the summer travel as especially stimulated this year, we could understand why, temporarily at least, the influence of our large foreign trade balances might be offset and gold might be drawn abroad.

But Europe has been a buyer of our securities instead of a seller, and seems to have been borrowing the money of us with which to pay for them. Manifestly there must be a heavy balance owed to the United States even after deducting most liberally for the summer travel as a partial offset. What more natural explanation of the gold outflow than the great ease of our own money market, the great supply of gold in the treasury and the banks, the influence of the operation in the market and the continued easy money, the subsidence of stock market speculation as reducing demand for money in New York, while the supply is increasing heavily by reason of the seasonal return flow of funds from the interior, all of which contrast with the high money rates at London, Paris and Berlin?

It is announced that New York banks and trust companies have outstanding fully $40,000,000 in loans on sterling bills of exchange, which simply means that that amount of money has been advanced for the purpose of deferring payment of balances owed by Europe to the United States. Some day the enormous trade balance owed to this country must be settled, but meanwhile, owing to the strong financial conditions here, we can accommodate Europe by lending it money, and with rates higher abroad than at home, it is profitable for us in view of the decline of speculative activity at home and the pause in general buoyancy in anticipation of the elections canvass. The fact is that we have changed our attitude in late years; instead of resorting to bond issues and to other abnormal means to get gold, we are able to assist Europe, which occupies the position of debtor, while the United States holds the decidedly more advantageous position of creditor. It is estimated that we are selling to the world some $400,000,000 worth of manufactured goods in the year, and if it should happen that we need gold again, there will be no difficulty in getting it normally, but it is an interesting query as to how Europe would endure such a drain as we had to submit to in past years.

The money markets of the world get closer and closer and a period of stringency at one centre calls for relief from the more fortunate. And in 1900 it is the United States that can relieve Europe, while we continue to sell to it more and more of the products of our industry.

Whether the Pittsburgh steel market is quoted in papers of this class or not does not make any difference. When buyers come to Pittsburgh, as they will have to do, they will soon learn they have been misled. They will pay the price the makers ask. Jobbers may effect a slight monetary change in conditions by such tactics, but as soon as orders pour in, prices will go up again. It is because jobbers worked the one manufacturer against the other for years that consolidations and combinations were given such impetus. Had this not been so, hundreds of independent concerns would have been operating today that have sought refuge from misrepresentation in consolidation. Pooling and selling arrangements are the outcome of avaricious jobbers and untruthful buyers who allege they can buy cheaper from Jones than from Smith, whereas the quotations of Jones may have been much higher.

It used to be that brokers could work the market down by individual efforts. They would see-saw manufacturers and force down the price; the workers did not benefit, neither did the manufacturers. But things are changing. It requires the concentrated efforts of the whole horde, and being unable to effect their purpose they take a number of financial journals into their confidence and secure their aid to shake the manufacturers' faith in conditions. The manufacturers' sole protection lies in monopoly, a monopoly that will crush untruthful middlemen or that can force conditions on them and their lies will be of no avail.

It is not so many years ago since jobbers almost ruined the plate glass manufacturers of the country. Consolidation resulted and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company pursued the wise course of refusing to sell to jobbers. The concern does its own jobbing and dividends are resulting that were never paid previously. The Bessemer Association has adopted similar tactics. Unless you are a consumer you cannot buy Bessemer pig iron from the Association. The method is proving a wise one, for, whereas almost all other branches of steel and iron have quivered under the assault, Bessemer pig iron is as firm as it was six months ago. Makers of foundry irons leading financial journals in New York, always upheld for its probity because it could not afford to be otherwise than honest, has, through its New York representatives, refused to accept Pittsburgh quotations on iron and steel, alleging as a reason that the figures represented the manufacturers' side of the market and they could get figures elsewhere, from the jobbers, for instance, which suited them better.

If the manufacturers do not make the selling price, who does? They are sure to be honest in their quotations as jobbers, and he it said to the credit of Pittsburgh brokers that they have never been known to give incorrect incorrect quotations to influence the market. We are sorry we cannot pay the same tribute to some eastern speculators.

The clique that is attempting to discredit Pittsburgh iron and steel manufacturers cannot hope to gain any advantage, as the steel makers are too firmly entrenched to be controlled by Wall street. When the thousands of rumors that have filtered through the financial sources of New York have been taken into consideration and the whole are sifted down, how many have transpired as predicted?

It is not long since H. C. Frick was buying the Maryland Steel Company; that Mr. Frick was to become the manager of the American Steel & Wire Company; that Andrew Carnegie had bought John Gates' interests; that the Carnegie company was to absorb Cramps' shipbuilding concerns; that Cramps were to absorb Carnegies; that steel was to drop $20 a ton; that the market was to go to "smithereens"; and columns upon columns of rot. Not one syllable ever came true. It was passed around to make a flurry, to create an unstable market, so that some gambler could fleece another gambler. Touts talked upon a business of which they had no more idea than they had of Heaven, but the worst feature of it all was when the financial press of New York lent itself to such disgraceful proceedings.

Whether the Pittsburgh steel market is quoted in papers of this class or not does not make any difference. When buyers come to Pittsburgh, as they will have to do, they will soon learn they have been misled. They will pay the price the makers ask. Jobbers may effect a slight monetary change in conditions by such tactics, but as soon as orders pour in, prices will go up again. It is because jobbers worked the one manufacturer against the other for years that consolidations and combinations were given such impetus. Had this not been so, hundreds of independent concerns would have been operating today that have sought refuge from misrepresentation in consolidation. Pooling and selling arrangements are the outcome of avaricious jobbers and untruthful buyers who allege they can buy cheaper from Jones than from Smith, whereas the quotations of Jones may have been much higher.

It used to be that brokers could work the market down by individual efforts. They would see-saw manufacturers and force down the price; the workers did not benefit, neither did the manufacturers. But things are changing. It requires the concentrated efforts of the whole horde, and being unable to effect their purpose they take a number of financial journals into their confidence and secure their aid to shake the manufacturers' faith in conditions. The manufacturers' sole protection lies in monopoly, a monopoly that will crush untruthful middlemen or that can force conditions on them and their lies will be of no avail.

At times my heart would almost stop beating; at other times it would palpitate and throb so that I could hear it beat against my breast.

Nobody was injured. The tug lies about a thousand feet above the Poe lock, nearly stern on to the north pier but not blocking the canal, as boats can pass her easily.

A SIGN OF SPRING. M. I. A. Begins to Think About Season's Work.

Among the many signs of spring is the renewed activity in numerous towns of the women's organizations for the beautifying of their respective towns. Whether these be civic, federations, village improvement associations or by whatever name known they meet with the hearty approval and co-operation of all citizens and municipal officials.

Can as much be said for our own M. I. A.? Why cannot we have a strong organization this year and by beginning now accomplish something that will be a permanent benefit to our own city?

The ladies of Wausau, Wis., have recently organized an association similar to ours and are working for the beautifying of their town and hoping to make it an attractive convention town. The V. I. A. of a Pennsylvania town during the winter has started successfully and expects to maintain a public library and now that spring is here it has as its work on the streets where they will work all summer, paid by the V. I. A. They are familiarly known as "White Wings" from the suits they wear. • They do not interfere but aid the street commissioner and his men in their task of keeping the streets clean and in good order. No one would question the statement that Marquette streets and public places furnish ample opportunity for the street cleaning department and the M. I. A. to work in harmony and both be kept busy.

In the above mentioned Pennsylvania town some of the ladies are raising a fund for the erection and furnishing of a hospital. The children have become interested in this scheme by being asked to contribute, if not more than one brick each; $20,000 has thus far been pledged, to say nothing of bricks. The Junior V. I. A. paints with pride to a public drinking fountain erected by that society.

A question that is being discussed in some places and has already been tried in others, is the raising of pigs and poultry at the county poor farm. If this can be done successfully in other towns why not in Marquette? One man who speaks from personal knowledge of the poultry business says:

"I think the supervisors could do no better thing, both for the inmates and the county, than to establish a poultry yard on the county farm. It would afford light, congenial work for the old men and women in the home and could be made a source of profit to the county. A good plant ready for 400 hens can be built and put in working order for $500. I am sure each hen can be made to return a net profit of $1. This would give $400 annual profit from the poultry yard. I should employ a well versed practical poultryman for a few months only. He could instruct the inmates

CONVINCING PROOF.

The Average Marquette Citizen Must Accept the Following Proof. The great Sir Isaac Newton, one of the most profound reasoners the world ever produced, once cut a large hole in a board fence to allow a favorite cat access to two gardens, and cut a smaller hole to allow her kitten to follow her. The weakness manifested in Sir Isaac's action was due to want of thought. Any reader who mentally debates the proof offered here about Doan's Kidney Pills and arrives at any other conclusion than that stated in this citizen's statement, is short of reasoning powers as the philosopher when he turned carpenter.

Mr. John Brennan, of 230 McLeod Ave., employed in the grocery department of the Ironwood Store Co., says: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as a thoroughly reliable remedy in all cases of aches and pains through the loins and kidneys. It is also a fine tonic, strengthening and regulating the general system. I was bothered on and off for a long time with spells of dull heavy aching through the small of my back just over the kidneys, and at times felt all run down. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got them at a drug store, and used them. They thoroughly and effectually relieved me of all the trouble, and since using the remedy I have felt splendid, in fact, never felt better."

Just such emphatic endorsement can be had right in Marquette. Drop into the Stafford Drug Co. and ask what their customers report.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

In all the little arts that go to bringing success and then his services could be dispensed with."

Knowing what has been and is being accomplished in other towns by organizations similar to our M. I. A. let us start with renewed vigor and see if we, too, cannot accomplish something and work in harmony.

Last summer as a part of their work the ladies of the M. I. A. undertook to raise money towards the erection of a public drinking fountain and during the winter several successful parties were given in aid of this fund. It has since transpired that some of those active in the raising of funds towards the fountain are antagonistic, for some unexplained reason, to the M. I. A. How can we hope to be successful in any undertaking when such a state of affairs exists?

The M. I. A. says we want a fountain and we as a society are willing to withdraw our name and give what we have raised for this purpose but let us have peace and let us also have the fountain. When we really have the good of our city at heart and overlook what we consider personal slights, then and not until then, can we hope to make a success of any undertaking.

SYMPATHIZER. AN EPIDEMIC OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. Clifford, proprietor, Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

SHUT UP TIGHT.

Saloons Closed After 12 Saturday Night and All Day Sunday. Yesterday was one of the driest days that Marquette has seen for some time. Saturday a quiet yet went out that it would be wise on the part of the saloonkeepers to come a little nearer obeying the law and a good many took this as an absolute order to shut up tight after legal hours. The result was a general closing Saturday night and Sunday. In a number of places it was impossible to get a drink at all yesterday, but there were others which did not observe the injunction so strictly.

MODERN ROOM DECORATION.

H. L. Cooper, who has recently returned to Marquette, is engaged in the business of interior decoration of the most modern description. The latest and most approved style of decorating rooms is with woven fabric for the walls and the same for ceilings, with free hand raised work put on for ceilings and frieze. In this work Mr. Cooper is an artist of a high order, his free hand work being excellent examples of scroll work and coloring. The fabric for the walls he uses are burlaps, buckram and other varieties, in many shades. For each piece of decoration he makes a special design so that no room or house he decorates has any duplicate. His samples of work and material are very tempting to the owner of a fine house. But with such fine work as he does, and such material as he uses, the improvements he can make in a modern residence is worth all it costs, though a luxury. He is at present engaged decorating some rooms in Neegaunee. He will do work in the iron and copper country during the season. Parties wishing their houses decorated in strictly modern style will profit by asking Mr. Cooper to call.

Springer, of 1125 Howar St., Philadelphia, when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. QUAY'S CORRUPT PARTY.

In Bedford county, Pennsylvania, Republican practices have become so dishonest and corrupting, under the rule of Quay and his machine, that the republicans have adopted and put in force some new rules for preventing the debauchment of primaries. The inspectors at the primaries are instructed "to permit no person to vote who has solicited, directly or indirectly, by himself or through another person, payment or promise of payment, office, appointment, emolument or thing of value, for his vote, support or influence." We do not know how this rule is to be enforced—that is, how the inspectors are to discover the facts. Perhaps it is by putting the voter under oath, for we find in the paper, where the new rules are given in part, that each candidate is required to take, subscribe to and file with the county chairman, not less than twenty days before the primaries, an oath that he has not used or attempted to use, and will not use or attempt to use, any money or like means to buy, hire or induce any person to vote for, support or refrain from voting for him for nomination, or to remain away from the primary election, and that he has not procured any one to bribe any voter or candidate. It is said that all over the state petty workers have been held up with promises of census enumerators, and this has been done in many instances after all the appointments had been made, the lists being withheld from the public so that fraud could be worked. The frauds that have been so common have been committed in defiance of a law making it a crime to promise any office in order to influence a citizen's vote at a primary; but this has had no preventive effect on the machine.—Boston Herald.

F. BRAASTAD, THE PRESIDENT.
AMERICAN-SCANDINAVIAN RE-PUBLICAN LEAGUE FOR THE UPPER PENINSULA ORGANIZED
HERE SATURDAY.

An American Scandinavian Republican league, organized as follows, was organized at a meeting held in the Swedish Home Hall Saturday afternoon: President, F. Braastad of Ishpeming; secretary, Dr. C. F. Larson of Crystal Falls; treasurer, Nels Christtopherson of Menominee; sergeants-at-arms, Louis Johnson of Escanaba and John Farm of Ishpeming; vice presidents, L. F. Johnson of Iron county,
John E. Jones of Menominee; John W.
Joachim of Marquette; Arthur Udden-berg of Dickinson, O. V. Linden of Delta, Andrew P. Eckstrom of Schoolcraft and Conrad Carlson of Gogebic.

The convention was called to order about 2 o'clock. Among the delegates were William Nelson, James Jamerson, Nels P. Flodin, John Carlson and Gustav A. Larson of Marquette; John E.
Jones and Albert Nelson of Menominee; A. Uddenberg and H. T. Miller of Iron Mountain, N. F. Johnson of Crystal Falls, Nels Johnson of Manistique, O. V. Linden of Escanaba, William F.
Anderson of Negaunee and many other outside Scandinavians who, with the Ishpeming delegation, made a total of about forty delegates present.

John Carlson of Marquette was elected temporary chairman and Conrad Larson of Bessemer temporary secretary. Committees on constitution and by-laws, permanent organization and resolutions were appointed, after which an adjournment of half an hour was taken.

On reassembling, the report of the committee on permanent organization was heard. It suggested a list of officers for the proposed league and also presented the names of suitable candidates. In this last action a number of delegates protested that the members of the committee had exceeded the powers granted it. There was a lengthy discussion on this point and finally the report was rejected.

The committee on constitution presented a complete constitution modelled after that governing a similar league in Illinois. It was approved by the convention. It provides that the name of the proposed organization shall be the American-Scandinavian Republican league; that all male citizens of twenty-one years and over of Scandinavian descent shall be eligible to membership; that clubs shall be formed in each county, each of these to be entitled to one delegate in the annual convention for each twenty-five members.

In case there is no county organization clubs may send delegates direct to the annual meeting. Where there are no clubs any number of Scandinavian residents may procure representation in the deliberations of the league by petition. In every case delegations to the annual meeting, which will be held the second Saturday in each May, must be chosen in the March preceding. Escanaba will get the next annual session.

The constitution provides that in addition to the usual officers there shall be a vice-president from each county who shall direct all work on behalf of the major organization, and shall be a member of the executive board composed of all its officials. The executive committee must meet sixty days before the fall elections, and thirty days before the annual convention of the league. Five members shall constitute a quorum.

The vice presidents named above were selected by the delegations from the seven counties represented at Saturday's meeting. Subsequently President Braastad was empowered to make appointments in other counties as he sees fit. Following the election, the temporary officers made way for the permanent, when the committee on resolutions offered the following report to the convention, which was adopted without dissent.

"Feeling the time and occasion appropriate, we, as representatives of a large element of the Republican party in this upper peninsula, its loyal adherents of Scandinavian birth or parentage, take this method of expressing our continued confidence in that party to pilot
the ship of state in continued prosperity and safety, and to subservise the best interests of all our people; and we pledge our firm and active support to each and every measure championed by our present Republican administration, and especially endorse its success in frankly declaring and enacting into the law of the land that self-evident, commercial and economical policy, and embodiment of truth, namely, that only one standard can control the value of a nation's currency, and that standard should be the recognized, commercial standard of the world, gold.

"We emphatically endorse and pledge
our renewed support to William Mc-

all our Scandinavian countrymen here, and throughout this fair state, to join

all that which has so well been accomplished during these last three years, and to re-open an era like the preceding years of Democratic failure, doubt,
ruin and general disaster."

In the evening the delegates from the outside cities and prominent Ishpeming Scandinavians attended a banquet at the Swedish Home Hall. It was a very pleasant function. The spread was sumptuous and music and speeches enlivened the evening's entertainment.

DEATH CAME TO HIM SUDDENLY

PETER JACKSON PASSED AWAY WHILE SEATED IN A SALOON SATURDAY EVENING.

Peter Jackson, a stranger who arrived in Ishpeming Saturday morning, died suddenly that evening about 6 o'clock in James Billings' saloon, at the corner of Cleveland avenue and First street.

He was about 40 years of age. During the morning he visited some of the nines in search of a chum, whom he learned before coming here was working on a steam shovel. They met just before dinner, Jackson inducing his friend to quit with a view to both going to Marquette to seek employment on the railroad.

They spent the afternoon at Billings'
place, though neither drank much.
Shortly before 5 o'clock, when the train was about due to leave, the men prepared to go. Jackson felt sick and his chum went along with the understanding that he would ask for jobs for both as switchmen, that being the work they had followed for some years past.

Just before Jackson died he made two or three trips out the back door, but returning quickly. He complained to the men in the place that he was feeling very ill, and within a short time he was dead, expiring while seated at a table.

On the afternoon following the death of the man, the bartender and others told that he had been drugged and robbed of about $100 before he left Duluth the previous day. He also told them that he was married and that his home was near Traverse City, in the lower peninsula. Speaking of his family, he said he had married a widow with fourteen children and that the oldest of the latter was about fifteen years his senior. His age was about thirty years.

Just after the man died Officer Prinn was called in. The body was immediately taken to the morgue in the city building and the coroner was notified.
An inquest will be conducted today and a post-mortem examination will probably be held, as some of the men who were in the saloon seem to think that Jackson took something he carried in his pocket when he went into the yard
at the rear of the building.

The officers found some papers in Jackson's pockets, but there was nothing among them to indicate where he made his home. He carried four or five copies of recommendations from railroad officials he had worked under in the lower peninsula. These papers will assist the authorities in ascertaining where his family resides.

HEARING POSTPONED.

The hearing of Andrew Juntila and John Flor, charged with illegally killing a deer out of season, was postponed Saturday morning to Tuesday, May 22, at the request of the defendants, who desired to procure an attorney to presenter their case. It is possible that it will be held at an earlier date if Prosecuting Attorney Potter is able to spare time from his duties in connection with the term of circuit court opening today.

Floor and Juntila have retained H. O.
Young and it is understood that they will plead not guilty of illegal hunting.
Saturday, through an interpreter, they confessed to having venison in their possession, as charged by the witnesses against them, but they claimed to have found the carcass from which it was taken in the woods near the Escanaba river. They gave bonds for their appearance at the date set for the hearing.

TRAMMERS, ON A STRIKE.

Sixty trammers at the Winthrop mill went out work Friday and remained out all Saturday, the men from two shifts being concerned in the strike.
Some work was done about the open pits, but hoisting was at a standstill.
The men made no demand for higher wages, but it is presumed that they are dissatisfied with the present scale.
They have been earning from $2 to $2.50 a day. It is not expected that the trouble will become serious, and it is thought that hoisting will be resumed
today.

BIG CLASS OF CANDIDATES.

The Hematite camp of Modern Woodmen will receive a class of between thirty and forty candidates this evening at a notable meeting. A large attendance of members is expected. The degree team recently organized in the camp, which has been drilling carefully the past several weeks, will appear in the first public floor work yet done.

quite a hit at the banquet tendered the delegates at the meeting held for the organization of an American-Scandinavian league Saturday, will sing at an entertainment to be given here on the evening of May 17, a Norwegian holiday. Mr. Malmo hails from Menominee.

Charles Renstrom is reconsidering
his determination to seek wealth at Cape Nome. He has much profitable work in eight and it is quite likely that he will remain here and continue in the building business. John Westgren, ex-mayor of the city, and a party of other Ishpeming men, expect to leave tomorrow for Seattle, whence they will sail north.

The twenty-third round fight between Corbett and Jeffries excited much interest down town Friday night. Bulletins recording its progress were received at a number of resorts. A party of gentlemen got returns over Arthur Jones & Co.'s private wire through the courtesy of Operator W. A. McConnell. This service was very satisfactory. Ishpeming sympathy was mostly with Corbett.

SUNDAY WAS A SCORCHER.

Temperature as High as Is Often Reached in the Height of the Summer.

UNIVERSAL EMPLOYMENT WAS TRYING TO KEEP COOL.

Humidity of the Atmosphere Made the Heat Almost Unbearable—Visitors to Presque Isle Filled Street Car Coiffers With Nickels.

SNOW SHOVEL A SAD REMINDER.

Marquette sweltered yesterday in the hottest day of the season so far. The mercury was decidedly agile this time of the year and mounted to a mark which it seldom goes above, even in August and September. Last year had no more days as hot as yesterday than could be counted on the fingers on one hand.

There was no respite from yesterday's heat. It was hot early in the morning. It was hot all day and clear up into the night. To make matters worse it was not a clean cut heat, but a heavy, soggy heat. The day was close and intensely disagreeable. It was the kind of a day to make a man go out in the back shed and take a long look at the discarded snow shovel.

FIGURES FOR IT.

The protected thermometer in the weather bureau tower registered 92.3 degrees, but sixty feet below down on the street where the people were and where the conditions were not so favorable to keeping cool, the mercury climbed up to ninety-five, and a few industrious thermometers reported it even hotter than that. The highest temperature was recorded about 2 p. m., although it was not markedly cooler at any other time during the day.

Everybody and his wife made it their main business yesterday to keep cool; and do the best they could they found it a hard job. People who like to indulge in a cooling beer thought the fates were decidedly against them when they went out with their little tin rails and failed to get into their customary bar rooms. The trouble was that a tip had gone out that the saloons had better close and a large part of the saloon men considered it a good thing to act upon.

GUZZLED COLD SODA.

This state of affairs made a boom in business for the sellers of soft drinks. The druggists who had their soda fountains in running order drove a thriving trade, and during the afternoon and evening people stood around the fountains two and three deep waiting for a chance to purchase ice cream and the gaseous liquid which goes with it to make up the combination soda.

Another institution which profited by the unreasonable weather was the street car company. Presque Isle had its regular summer Sunday crowd. There have not been so many people out to the island before this season. They began going in the morning, they literally jammed the cars in the afternoon, and in the evening they were still traveling in large numbers. It was undoubtedly one of the biggest May day's business the company ever did. In spite of the large traffic the service was very satisfactory. One of the big Chicago cars, repainted and re-equipped, came out for the first time yesterday.

TOOK TO THE WOODS.

A large contingent of Marquette's sportsmen took to the woods and spent the day in the cooling exercise of wading through trout streams. Yesterday's delegation was by far the largest which has gone out yet this season. The owners of such launches as are in commission got out on the lake, but while the water was cool, the sun beat down on their unprotected heads with even more fury than it did upon shore. If the hot weather keeps up and it is correspondingly hot down below, which will mean about 110 degrees, the entire town will derive a financial benefit, for the summer resorters will come that much earlier than usual and leave a bigger proportion of his yearly income here. Of course most of it will be left with hotel and boarding house keepers, but with the hungry hordes to feed it will soon find its way to people in all lines of trade and walks of life.

NEARLY BUSTED.

Black Comes Near Taking Laurels of the Presque Isle.

Saturday the Presque Isle came near losing her laurels as the record holder for the longest haul of lumber in the world. The boat which came so near putting her in the second place is the Clarence A. Black. The boat loaded at the No. 4 dock in the lower harbor Saturday and cleared for Conneaut with 5,883 tons. This is close to the largest amount ever carried by the Presque Isle. The boat is so large that she went aground betting up to the dock, the low stage of the water and the width of the channel both, probably, having something to do with it.

The tug Sheldon of Houghton was in here Saturday and was inspected by Vessel Inspectors York and Goodinz. Powell & Mitchell's tug Ward has gone to Michipicoten again.

The Calumet which was purchased this spring by the Green Dredge company and which was overhauled here, cleared yesterday for Toledo, where she will be employed by the concern this season.

The steamer Root of Duluth came in here last evening to coal up.

There were no line boats in port either Saturday or Sunday and none are expected before tomorrow.

ENROUTE FOR THE WEST.

Six Companies of Infantry Passed Through Here Yesterday.

Six companies of troops belonging to the Seventh United States Infantry, five of them stationed at Fort Wayne, Detroit, and one company at Fort Brady, Sault Ste. Marie, passed through here yesterday enroute for Vancouver barracks in the northwest part of the state of Washington. They have been in this state two years but are now moving to make room for a similar number of companies from the Fourteenth Infantry, which has spent the last two years fighting in the Philippines. The soldiers went through here in three sections. Those from Fort Wayne passed through about 11:30. The last contingent was accompanied by the baggage train of eight cars and carrying 170,000 pounds of baggage and equipment.

PICTURE AND SKETCH.

Milwaukee Paper Produces J. M. Egan's Likeness and Tells His History.

Saturday's issue of The Milwaukee Journal contains a picture, recognizable because labeled, and what purports to be a history of the rise in the railroad business of John M. Egan, formerly general manager of the L. S. & I. with headquarters at Marquette. The subject has local interest in Milwaukee on account of Mr. Egan's railroad career in that state. The sketch is made to hinge upon his recent election to the presidency of the Central of Georgia railroad, of which mention was made in The Mining Journal some time ago. The article gives what appears to be a fairly complete outline of Mr. Egan's early railroad career, but it leaves a blank of seven or eight years between the time he left the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City and went to the Central of Georgia. It contains no mention at all of his connection with the Lake Superior & Ishpeming road. If the rest of the article is no more accurate than this section it is not very valuable as a contribution to current history.

Puddin' HEAD WILSON.

Mertopolitan Success Billed for Presentation Saturday Night.

The attraction at the opera house on Saturday will be the beautiful play of "Puddin' Head Wilson." The play is reasonable and natural. It touches without apparent effort upon the sympathies and describes people so naturally as to approach the subtlety of art which conceals art. While "Puddin' Head Wilson" is chiefly comedy, yet it is intensely dramatic at times, but even then it is free from tragic ranting and the pathetic scenes are most naturally touching. Those people who decry the stage as demoralizing should see this wonderful play which is a sermon in itself, and one which inspires the most phlegmatic spectator with a more active interest in the good and dislike of the bad.

ANOTHER TEST FOR IT.

One Team Pulled Chemical Engine Up Front Street Hill Saturday.

A test of the light running abilities of the new chemical fire engine was made Saturday. Ever since it was bought and delivered here there has been a good deal of discussion about its practicability here on account of its weight and the numerous steep hills. President Palmer of the water board, who was its purchaser, contends that it can be used and that one team can handle it. The majority of the firemen do not believe it can be successfully used with less than three horses to pull it.

As the team which now draws the hose wagon is considered a little light for the heavier chemical, one of Fay & Bricker's coal teams was hitched onto it Saturday. This team handled it little if any better than the hose wagon horses. It took the engine up Front street hill at a gait which was scarcely more than a walk. Whether one team or three horses are used some means will have to be devised of getting the chemical around faster that it has been moved any time yet. The theory is that it should get to the fire first, but it looks as if with a single team to pull it either the hose wagon or the hook and ladder truck would distance it on a run to the outlying districts.

MURRAY AND MACK.

These Perennial Irish Fun-Makers Here Thursday Night.

Murray and Mack, the "famous original Irish comedians" who, for many years have been the recognized leaders in their style of entertainment, will present their perennial success "Pinnigan's Ball" at the opera house Thursday, May 17. It is quite safe to say that few, if any, shows have ever been produced in America that have stood the test of time so well. It has been several years since this eccentric and funny play was first presented by these comedians, yet it is claimed, the present season shows the largest receipts in its history, which proves conclusively that the public, at least a big percentage of it, likes the stage fun served to it in plain undiluted doses, in large chunks without capsus.

New lines, new business, new situations are constantly introduced which keep the action of the piece incessantly bristling into new fun and always up to the hour with new ideas.

Tickets for Murray and Mack will be on sale at Bigelow's tomorrow.

PREDICTED AGAIN.

W. A. Paine Thinks the Rise Will Come Some Time This Week.

The will of the wisp rise in coppers is predicted again and this time W. A. Paine is its prophet. Mr. Paine does not promise any great things, but he thinks there will be a rise and that it ought to come this week.

Saturday copper stocks were very dull, due to the light trading which always comes at the end of the week, and to the continual hammering at them which has been going on for the past year and a half. Only three stocks fluctuated a point or better and those dropped. Anaconda fell off 1/4 to 42 1/2; Boston & Montana and Butte & Bstn each went off four, the former to 286 and the latter to 60. There were several fractional recessions.

W. A. Paine said in his Saturday letter to the local branch of Paine, Webber & Co.:

"New York opened weak; coppers dull at about last night's close. Few stocks are pressing for sale, showing either that people have paid for them and laid them away, or else have them so heavily margined that they feel perfectly safe to hold on. Now that the bears have been in control so long, it would seem that a substantial rally was about due and I am under the impression that we shall see better markets next week. About 11 o'clock New York showed more strength and prices had quite a little rally. Coppers, however, were weak; Butte sold off to 60."

Hayden, Stone & Co. fear that the labor troubles in the copper country may have an adverse influence on the market. They say:

"Coppers underwent some realizing today and prices suffered. The strike at the Quincy mine is taken as an unfavorable factor and people fear it may spread to other districts. We can see nothing in sight to warrant any improvement in coppers."

Wheat dropped Saturday but rallied sharply after its break and finally closed at the finishing point of Friday night. A. R. Jones & Co. said in their letter to Fred Jones:

"News, statistics, bull factors of every sort in fact everything, was lost in the shuffle again today when another drive at prices was made. The morning's markets looked favorable to recovery, the market opening steady around last night's figures. In wheat the cables showed only 1/4 cent loss, but a little more than this, but there was an uneasy undertone to all the grains that soon developed into the same kind of a selling panic as was started yesterday. Outside trade was in evidence chiefly by selling orders. On the whole, however, wheat was a firm market, as short sellers discovered when it rallied sharply to a close at last night's prices. It looked proper last night to expect a rally today instead of a further break, but it looks still better tonight. Such breaks are this are followed invariably by a quick recovery."

It was not necessary during the past forty-eight hours to investigate the thermometer to realize that the "Shirt Waist" would demand its place as part of every lady's attire. It will not be difficult to satisfy the fancy of every lady in Marquette if she will only investigate the showing of "shirt waists" we are making this week---1,500 feet of floor space devoted to shirt waists exclusively. The celebrated "Knickerbocker" Waists, which are made so well, that fit so perfectly and are shown in hundreds of styles not found elsewhere, make this department of unusual interest to those in search of something pretty and stylish to wear. Added to this item of value is our superior value in Black and Navy Cheviot Dress Skirts at $7.50 each. These two articles, costing less than $10.00, will complete an elegant summer costume.

On Saturday we received three shipments of Ladies' tailor-made suits, not one of which remained unsold by evening. That our tailor-made suits are being appreciated is shown by the sale of a garment to each of three of the leading dress makers for their own use. Our assortment of suits and jackets is still larger than any previous season, and the "tailor-made suit" is necessary to complete every lady's wardrobe. Scarcely any two suits are alike, yet we have hundreds to select from. Our silk Etons and Balleros are very nobby and make the "swellest" summer garment or wrap shown this season.

The season to buy Carpets is now at its height. Notwithstanding that we sold $6,000 worth of Carpets and Draperies during our fire sale---closing out all we had in stock---we purchased while in the east the largest and best selected assortment of Carpets we have ever shown. You will not find our styles and patterns shown by any other house in Northern Michigan, our quality in Ingrain Carpets is superior to almost any other make, our three-plys are gems of art and coloring, our Velvets, Body Brussels and Axminsters surpass in quality and pattern anything you will find. Our offering this morning of a High Rock Tapestry Brussel at 50c per yard is the lowest price ever made. Lowell Wilton Rugs, 9x12, at $35.00 is as low as they have ever been sold in any State Street house. We also show John and James Dobson's New Body Brussel Rugs, 9x12 ft., at $25.00.

Our Lace Curtain department is filled with new designs and the prices are right. We make window shades to order, any size and color. Estimates cheerfully given.
