CITY AND COUNTY.

James E. Dalliba and wife were passengers south on Sunday's train. They will be absent another week.

THE Champion street of to-day is a most decided improvement on the sandy thoroughfare of a month ago. Look at it.

A FEW days of pleasant weather is all that can safely be counted on in which to change your residence—if you contemplate the change.

THE city marshal is moving into the new residence on Spring street, which has just been fitted up in a most comfortable manner for him.

THE new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church arrived in the city on the City of Cleveland and will preach his initiatory sermon to-morrow. Owing to the absence from the city of the pastors of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches, there wll be no services in those churches to-morrow. BOOK agents are not so numerous just now. Wonder if the business is not becoming unprofitable in this vicinity. It would seem about time.

THE zinc cornice for the new central hose house arrived during the week and the work of completing that struc-ture will now be pushed forward vigorously. DR. TAFT returned from Escanaba early in the week, whither he had been on business connected with the marine medical service of which he is an assistant surgeon.

tubers closely before purchasing. The potatoes are fair to look upon, in the main, but inwardly they are blacker than a stove pipe. In lower Michigan the same crop has been ruined by the drought

THE interior of the post-office has been newly painted, and now presents a very creditable appearance. How long the boys and loafers who congregate there will allow it to stay so remains to be seen. The delivery boxes have been grained in oak and newly numbered in red. The work was done by Ross & Grove.

Dr. Bliss spends his time now in preparing statements instead of bulletins. But it continues to be apparent that he can't bring himself to tell the truth.

Barnum's fat woman is dead. Her adipus was landable, but medical skill was impotent to save her. The side show will be draped in mourning and full of emptiness for the balance of the season.

Cinders wouldn't have Mr. Arthur do violence to the genial habits strengthened by the custom of his former life, but trusts that the president will refrain from filling the White House cellars with Irish whiskey.

A Marquette dealer who has been told there is a "new liquor law" now operative in this state would like to know if it applies to a stock of "old bourbon?" Cinders doesn't practice at the bar sufficiently now-a-days to dare hazard an opinion.

A gushing correspondent writes to one of the papers in advocacy of a testimonial fund for queen V etoria. in recognition of her kindly act in sending a funeral wreath to deck the casket containing the remains of president Garfield. Gracious hevings, what next!

An exchange heads a marriage notice published in its columns, "Johnson-Wild!" Johnson may be wild now, but he'll be tame enough when his wife disciplines him a few times with the rolling pin. Uxorcise of that sort invariably tones down a man's spirits.

An effort to have the Milwaukee exposition thrown open on Sundays as well as week days is strongly denounced by the Christian Statesman, which declares that "the devil has enough places open on Sunday without giving him the exposition." Does the Statesman intend this as a fling at the churches?

What perplexed the Menominee Herald in deciding whether the lynching affair there was much of an outrage or not, was the fact that it didn't happen down south. If it had taken place in a southern state the Herald would have promptly emptied the visis of its wrath on the brutal mob that perpetrated the shocking atrocity.

The saw mill of Ransom, Burtis & Marsh, which has been in continuous buzz, day and night, since early spring, will not close down for the season till late in November, until which time both the day and night gangs will be employed.

**Cinders overheard Bluffem telling one of his stories, illustrating his prowess, to a crowd the other day. Now, Bluffem has the soul of a Mars, but his physique is not calculated to inspire one with wonder and awe. When he had concluded, a listener remarked: "It's lineky you're not any bigger, Bluffem, or you'd be a terror to the foe." Bluffem bent a terrible look on the speaker and said, in a menseing tone, "I'm not as large as Samson, sir, but I've met lots of big men in my day who had occasion to regret that they ran across me!" "Ah, indeed!" the other went on; "borrowed money of 'em, eh!" Bluffem's only reply to this was a look of withering scorn, and the party broke up in time to prevent the colloquy from leading to unpleasant consequences.

$27 One of the city teachers makes it a practice to occasionally drill her pupils to exercise their thinking powers promptly by putting questions to the whole school and reward-Pacific. Mr. Houk has his eye on the Cozzens hotel, and should he succeed in the arrangements now pending, that hostelry will be opened to the pubic before many weeks.

The first snow fall of the season occurred on Sunday night, the 9th inst. Enough of the beautiful lay on the sidewalk through the early part of the following day to induce the small boy to bring forth the sled. The house tops were well covered and the city presented a frigid appearance.

OUR friend T. Morgan, Esq., of this city, agent for the Common Sense sleigh, is now building quite a large store room capable of holding one hundred sets of sleighs. He makes Marquette head-quarters for the upper peninsula for this superior make of sleighs.

MACKINAC drunks still continue to agitate that portion of the city where From the price demanded for all those articles of diet necessary to keep folks from starving, it is quite evident the poor man can easily waste his earnings in riotous living the coming winter.

In the life the laborer may be better now than in former years, yet the practice of these bums will go on undisturbed, for there is no remedy shout of a night policeman who will attend to his duty, and the council doesn't seem to think such a man necessary.

> BAILEY BROS. have a new steam coffee and peanut roaster that is an improvement on anything of the kind ever before in use in this city. The roaster, which occupies but little space in the front part of the store, is run by in the front part of the store, is run by a model engine whose power is obtained from steam which is generated in a speedy and unique manner by a lamp under the boiler. The apparatus also manufactures gas with which to heat the oven. With their new roaster the Bailey Bros. will keep constantly on hand fresh roasted peanuts and coffee. The new machine should be seen, as it is a model of mechanical ingenuity and beauty. They roast twice each day.

That he is now suffering shame and disgrace is the result of his own doings. There is yet opportunity for reform, and the MINING JOURNAL, with hosts of other friends, would do anything to aid him in that much needed work.

MARSHAL FRENCH arrested a plug hatted lightning calculator last Tuesday afternoon while in the act of selling his text book, without having paid the city license. The man, hat and all, was conducted to the police court, where his honor, after hearing the complaint, found it eminently proper to fine him five dollars and costs. Mr. Calculator paid the fine in anything but a good natured way, and left town the same evening with the impression on his mind that Marquette officials do not represent the sentiment of the city they serve—but they do all the same. Let all book or other peddlers take warning. afternoon while in the act of selling take warning.

FRED. FREI, who keeps a saloon at the corner of Washington and Third streets, was brought before his honor, judge O'Keeffe, last Tuesday after-noon, on complaint of marshal French, who charged him with having kept his saloon open last Saturday night after eleven o'clock-the hour when the law honor fined him $15 and costs, or $18.50 in all, in default of which he was to serve twenty days in the county jail. Frei paid his fine and departed in peace-so far as the court was concerned, although it is said he did not take kindly to the punishment.

In all other counties the them the hall would have been packed. yet the board prefer to "sponge," Mr. Tupper occupied but little over rather than bear any of the expense. half an hour in the presentation of his theme, but the audience appeared so much interested that the time seemed even shorter. Lectures such as this one will be appreciated in Marquette and should the ladies succeed in procuring the services of several gentlemen of erudition, and offer the people a course of them, the funds for their library will be forthcoming. HENRY E. HALL, late of Fond du Lac, arrived here Saturday to assume charge of the office and business of the American Express company at this point, and entered on his duties Monday The writer welcomes an old friend to Marquette in Mr. Hall, who for years filled a responsible position in the company's employ at Fond du Lac before being assigned to this office. He is a capable, genial gentleman, and socially and as a business man, an acquisition to ourcity, as our people will discover when they come to know him. It pleases us to learn that his healthwhich has been poorly of late-is improving, and we sincerely hope that the invigorating air of this region will woo back his old-time vigor, and decide him to abide with us permanently.

POLICE COURT.-John and Francis Walsh, brothers, were arrested on Sun-day afternoon on Lake street while engaged in the affectionate exercise of pounding each other with clubs. Both were drunk and each had sustained severe bodily bruises at the hands of the other. The Walshes are Mackinac navvies, and, as they came to the city with a supply of whisky purchased outside, using the city simply as a place in which to indulge their depraved appe-tites and have a good old time, and, lacking funds to pay their fines, judge O'Keeffe sentenced them to the county jail for twenty days each, as county prisoners. Frank Metzell, Andrew Brown and William Griffeth, drunk and disorderly persons, were fined three, two, and six dollars respectively. And thus it is that the city is constantly accumulating wealth-in its mind.

CIRCUIT COURT JURORS.-The following is the list of petit jurors sum-moned to serve at the November term of the circuit court, which will begin on the fifteenth day of that month: Michael Ralph, John McCabe, Neil McGinnis, William Gowling, Marquette McGinnis, William Gowling, Marquette city; John Wahlman, Robt. COMPLAINT has been entered against Jane Bayfield—better known as "Lame Jane"—for keeping a disorderly house, and she is now in jail waiting her trial, which has been fixed for Monday. This decrepit and disgusting old blister keeps a house in the south-western outskirts of the city, where she has for company two or three other old hags of like disgusting appearance, and as her den has for some time past been a source of much annoyance to the dwellers in that part of the city, they may congratulate themselves on its speedy downfall. There are other equally bad dens in town that the authorities are and we believe they will appreciate the great trouble and expense we have incurred to give them the full proceedings. That the report is correct in every particular there can be no room for doubt, as we employed the services of a competent stenographer to make it. In justice to the board, it is perhaps best to state that the county bears none of the expense We submit that this thing should not of small lads were to be seen in one corner of the vard engaged in throwing small stones at a large rock, and nothing was thought of the affair; but had it been known that on the rock lay a blasting cap, filled with fuiminate of mercury, it is quite probable that onlookers would have interfered. It seems that one of the lads had in his company at this place and the onion. little thing, but knowing that it con- term. The following is the opinion in tained something of an explosive na- full: ture, put it on a rock, and, with his companions, commenced tossing stones at it. One of the rocks hit the cap, but it did not explode, so the little fellow, whose name is Bennie Butler, picked it up, and with the crowd of his companions went to the water-closet, where he commenced picking out the charge with a knife or some other instrument. While doing this the cap exploded with terrific force, blowing off three of young Butler's fingers, and a piece of the shell plowing into the cheek, and another piece into the neck, of young Jimmie Clulo. Other pieces scratched young fine clulo. Other pieces scratched young derivatives at the view which we are compelled to take, the dispute becomes immaterial. The court charges the jury in substance and effect, that if they found the facts to be as testified to by the defendant's winesses the plaintiff could not recover, and the instructions given as to the right of the company to a clear track, and the boy being a trespasser, that it could only be held itable in case there was gross and wanton negligence on its part, such negligence as would indicate an indifference to the safety of the boy, was undoubtedly correct. The important question in the case, as submitted, is whether the court should not recover. ture, put it on a rock, and, with his other piece into the neck, of young Jim-mie Clulo. Other pieces scratched young Mike Shea and another boy, but their injuries were of little consequence. The boys were taken to their homes, where they were attended by physicians. Of course, the loss of young Butler's fingers will not ruin his life prospects, but the stumps will constantly remind him of the danger of playing with little earthquakes. Young Clulo's injuries, though serious, are not going to deprive him of life, but they will leave marks of remembrance. A piece of the shell nearly an inch long was taken from his cheek, and at the time our reporter visited him another piece was in his neck, which has since been taken out. Had the neck wound been a sixteenth of an inch deeper, Jimmie Clulo would be in paradise to-day instead of at his home on Superior street, with bread and milk poultices plastered to his hide to draw out the laudable pus. These blasting caps are the most powerful of explosives, and should not be toyed with to any alarming extent by little boys, or, indeed, any persons whose business does not impose the necessity of handling them.

MAIMED FOR LIFE.—Young Don Barney, who lives with his parents in the First ward, met with an accident on thus ending the war and making the solutivest correctly the event was considered a justifiable t share of the misery of this world, and if you don't believe us, ask your pastor; ton, where he was a member of the Capuchin order. He was aged about this. He asked to inspect the gun and while thus employed a red-headed woodpecker, on the still hunt for worms, flew past him and lodged in the lower branches of a deceased tree some dis-tance up the embankment. Whether it was to save the lives of the harmless tree worms, or to get the scalp of the wood-pecker to adorn his belt, that caused Don to run after, is not stated, but that he ran, and that the trigger caught in a bush, causing the gun to discharge, and its contents to enter his members ought to spend more time in prayer meeting, and are glad that the new pastor's views accord with ours. If there is anything in this world that church members need more than another, it's prayer—and in a meeting devoted exclusively to this exercise they can get it. We hope they will heed the advice of their pastor.

While the pupils of the Fisher street school were enjoying their afternoon recess last Thesday a number of the boy got off when ordered, and the engineer, and the engineer, and the engineer and the engineer and the engineer and the engineer. The testimony of the fireman differed very much from the statement of the boy, and was to the effect that the boy got off when ordered, and then were enjoying their afternoon recess last Tuesday, a number of small lads were to be seen ing, but the decision of the court is seems that one of the lads had in his company at this place, and the opinion, possession one of these caps, and not by judge Marston, in which all judges comprehending the awful power of the concurred, was filed at the present

"Taking the testimony of the boy, and accepting it as true in every respect, (and there is no evidence in the case more favorable to the plaintiff) and it fails to show, or t nd to show, that the engineer knew, or had reason to know that he was there at all, and consequently there could have been no negligence on his part in starting the engine. Neither does the boy's evidence tend to show that the fireman knew, or had reason to suppose, that he had failen down, or was in any danger of being run over or injured, and certainly there is nothing in the whole case tending to show that any of defendant's servants were wanton or wiful in their conduct, or indicating a degree of indifference on their part as to the safety of the boy. Even should it be conceded that negligence on the part of the fireman would render the company liable, yet the evidence does not fairly tend to show that he had any reason to believe that the boy would not have ample time to clear the track, or that it was at all necessary for him to call the attention of the engineer to the fact that the boy would have been injured had he not in some unaccountable way failen down, but there was nothing in his age, appearance, or knowledge of trains, or in the height of the step upon which he was standing from the track, to indicate or lead any person to suppose that he would fail. Falling under such circumstances would be an exception and not the rule, and cannot, therefore, be made the foundation for a liability against the company without proof of actual knowledge, which is wholly lacking in the present case. The evidence is clear that the locomotive was in all other respects properly manged and under complete control of the engineer at the time of the accident, so that no charge of carelessness can arise thereon.

"We need not therefore dispose of this case on any mere question of pleading, or because of any variance between the allegations in the declaration and the proofs, or whether the negligence

SWEET'S PATENT

Common Sense Sleigh.

The Strongest, Most Durable,

MOST PERFECT SLEIGH, IN USE.

I RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of Lumbermen to this cut, showing Sweet's Logging and Supply Sleighs. We are now making eight different sizes, suitable for all kinds of work, both double and single, and of any width of track desired. It is a well-known fact that these sleighs will draw larger loads, with more ease of draft, than any other sleigh produced. They are built loose jointed, so that each runner will act independent of each other, and will not tip over in bad places, as the common stiff-jointed sleigh is sure to do. They also have a Patent Shoe. Concave Heel, so as to prevent the sleigh from slewing or sliding sideways, so that the sleigh is bound to keep the track, which is a large item to every man that drives a team. I keep on hand all sizes of Logging, Light and Heavy Teaming and Delivery Sleighs, all warranted to give perfect satisfaction. Parties will please send their orders in in time for the coming winter, and not wait until the rush comes. All orders promptly attended to. SOLD CHEAP FOR CASH.

Patered at the Post Office at Marquette,

THE open hematite mines have been greatly impeded in their operations by the late heavy and continuous rains, which will have the effect of shortening somewhat their product for the

THE Los Angelos, (Cal.) Commercial announces the discovery at Pomona, near that city, of an immense deposit of tin ore, which shows a value of $89,70 per ton, according to assays made. The deposit had been passed over by previous prospectors in the belief that it was merely common rock, discolored

WORK in No. 2 pit of of the Jackson mine-which has lain idle for several years-was resumed last week by the Cliffs company, under the Pioneer Iron company's old lease, but a heavy fail of rock, which occurred last Sunday morning, will probably prevent any minin being done in the pit this season. It is estimated that not less than 4,000 tons of rock went down, burying a new Knowles pump, which had just been put in, and throwing the boiler out of position. A force is at work getting out the rock and repairing the damage.

THERE is a prospect that the Saginaw syndicate of land-grabbers will not be permitted to peacefully digest and assimilate all the richness shoveled into its capacious maw by the last legislature. A number of the parties who consider themselves aggrieved by the action of the legislature in the matter have organized to test in the courts the title of the grabbers to the grant, for which purpose Hon. Dan H. Ball, of this city, has been retained as counsel, and suit will be at once commenced. A review of the matter in the courts is, therefore, certain. The step taken is but initiatory to a determined struggle on the part of those whose rights were ignored by the state legislature to assert them through the action of the courts and of congress. The end is afar off yet.

RECENT developments on the Penokee Iron Range, in Wisconsin, promise so well for the ore production of that range that the Central railroad company is now surveying a branch line thence from Penokee station, and will begin its construction at an early day. A vein of hematite ore found on 33 46-2 proves to be of the purest Bessemer grade, showing but a faint trace of phosphorous, and being wholly free from sulphur, according to an analysis lately made at Milwaukee. Other deposits of equally good ore have been found in the same vicinity. The Wisconsin Central company is causing extensive explorations to be made, under direction of Prof. Ludloff, for the purpose of definitely establishing the value and extent of the ore known to exist on the Penokee Bange. His work o far has been attended with most satisfactory results.

BEFBATEDLY, of late, certain metropolitan papers have published predic- opening of navigation to Wednesday. tions that coal was going to rule exceptionally high in price the coming winter, but the MINING JOURNAL has not yet seen any adequate cause assigned for the advance prophesied. Nor do we believe it will take place. How much the prediction is based on the honest convictions of the papers making it, and how much paid for by dealers, to quicken transactions in that article of fuel, we are not prepared to say. But the production of anthracite in Pennsylvania for the eight months ending Aug. 31st, nltimo, was 17,778, 144 gross tons, an increase of 3,928,712 gross tons, (or 28 per cent.), over that of a corresponding period the previous year. Other coal districts show an equally large increase. These facts hardly justify the fears of our big contemporaries, though they go some way toward explaining why heavy operators should feel anxious to "work off" their stock as rapidly as may be.

Thanks to its prosecuting attorney, Mr. Flannigan, Menominee county has already done something to wipe out the disgrace brought upon its name and fame by the brutal mob that lynched the McDonald brothers week before last at the county seat. By Mr. Flannigan's direction, an inquest was held on the bodies, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict that the Mo-Donalds met death at the hands of five men, whose names were given.

Blaine is an astute judge of what portion of his epistolary correspondence it conduces to his interest to have made public, and what part suppressed. His capture of the Mulligan letters in days agone establishes the correctness of one part of this proposition, and his action in now giving out the letter addressed by him to president Garfield last winter, accepting the cabinet place tendered him by the late chief magistrate, is equally motive in the latter move is in evidence to show the warm friendship that existed between himself and the late president, with a view to securing for its clever author a reversionary interest in the affection felt by the American people for Garfield's name, inspired by his services while living, and his tragic death. The senate met Monday, and organized by electing senator Bayard president, protem., the vote standing 34 to 32, senator Davis not voting. Further than this, no important business was New York senators were sworn in, also senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, Burnside's successor. The president was then duly notified that the senate was ready to receive and act upon any business he desired to lay before it. The session opens without any stormy dications, and promises to be short and uneventful. The republicans tried to frighten their opponents into giving up the presidency of the senate, but the bourbons wouldn't let go. Subsequently the republicans nominated senator Davis for the position to which Bayard was elected by the democrats. Davis' vote renders the parties a tie, if cast with the democrats. If he votes with the republicans, therefore, or refrains from voting, the latter can elect him presiding officer of the senate. It is believed, however, that he will not consent to disturb the present order of things at this session, though he has given no intimation as to what course he will pursue.

It now transpires that the dynamite infernal machine plot, whose discovery so disturbed the peace of the British empire some weeks ago, was simply a diabolical scheme concocted by a party of Fenians to get money out of that government. The game was pretty well worked, and the government came down handsomely to the fellow who "gave the conspiracy away" -as per agreement of the conspirators. It may be added that this is the only instance on record in which a Fenian plot against England has been successful, and this was so because the plotters played on British fear instead of aiming merely to excite it.

In a speech delivered at Dunget eighteen. Being a landlord himthe excessive rental placed on land not ing presence-already perceptibleonly in Ireland, but in England and Scotland as well. The maintenance of their power to wring from the tenant the richest fruit of his labor is what the landlords are banded together to fight for to the death, and the only wonder is that one of that class can be found honest enough to make the admission credited to Parnell.

Great engineering enterprises have become in our day so much an ordinary thing as to no longer attract the wondering attention they once excited. Thus, for a year work has been under way on what will be one of the great tunnels of Europe, without enough mention being made of it to familiarize the public with the fact. It is the Arlberg tunnel, between Austria and Western Europe, under the Arlberg. the length of which will be 61 miles. Its construction was begun in November of last year, at both ends, and four years will be required for its comple-

All talk of restoring the system of protective duties has been abandoned in England. Premier Gladstone declares that to abrogate the right of trial by jury would not be more impossible. That the movement in favor of protection has been so quickly dropped establishes what the whole world be lieved before-that it was meant solely for effect on other nations, in the hope that it might frighten them into adopting a modification of protective systems which operate strongly against British interests.

Formerly the belief prevailed that cotton raising could not be successfully carried on in the south if slave abor were abolished. That falacy has been effectually exploded by the stern logic of events. The war put an end to slave labor, but it hasn't crippled the production of cotton. This year's crop is the largest ever produced, and the south is entering on a period of development and prosperity such as was never known in that section when the curse of slave labor rested on its industries

Illinois has heretofore been chief v noted for its production of corn, pork and politicians, but to these may now conclusive as to the other. The increase in the output shows how rapidly her coal fields are being made to contribute to the national wealth, it being 6,000,000 gross tons for the year ending June 1st, 1881, against 3,868,162 for the previous year.

The ticket is considered a strong one, though doubtless the support it will receive from the constituencies in the party represented by vention will not be especially hearty. It is about an even thing between the two parties as to "harmony" in their ranks this fall, and the one that achieves the victory will show itself most capable of withstanding the weakening effect of an internal dis-

Another year will see the Southern Pacific railroad completed. Its construction is now being pushed from both ends at the rate of from two to three miles per day. When its line is finished this road proposes to carry immigrants from New Orleans to the Pacific coast at a tariff of ten dollars per head. It will also exert a powerful influence in modifying freight rates, that will inure to the benefit of the public east and west.

A line of pipe nine inches in diameter is being laid between East Tawas and Oscoda, in this state, to convey brine from the salt wells at the former place to evaporating houses at the latter, the distance being twelve miles. The object of this is to secure the advantage of cheaper fuel for reducing the brine, Oscoda being a lumbering point where slab-wood can be had in abundance at slight cost.

Tuesday's election in Ohiobrought out a light vote, and resulted in the success of the republican ticket by a reduced majority. The vote polled falls fully one hundred thousand short of that cast in the election one year ago. The legislature will be close, with a republican majority, probably, though the democrats do not yet con cedeits loss.

Five steamers will be required to ship submarine cable from London to the South American states for use in laying lines, to be constructed under charters from these states varying from five to fifty years. They will carry out sufficient cable for lines aggregating over 3,000 miles in length, all to be completed by next summer.

The Chicago Times has banished cuts and heavy black type from its advertising pages, vastly to the betterment of the paper in typographical appearance. The Times, as this inexorable rule relating to its advertisements evinces, is a remarkably independent sheet in more ways than one.

The Globe is a bright, attractive sheet,

Tuesday. It seems almost like wasting ink and paper to add that the state went republican. Even the grasshopper hosts would fail to carry that state against the republican party.

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 10, 1881. Chairman-What will you do with the report of that committee, gentlemen? There is one claim here that is referred to the full board. Supervisor Harvey-I think the committee's report ought to be adopted before any claim is read to the full board.

Chairman-I have always advocated the same thing, but, heretofore, those things have always been settled before the report was adopted. Supervisor Harvey -It flooks to me as if the committee's report ought to be adopted first. Chairman-I hold that the point of order taken by the gentleman is correct. I have always held that theory but, heretofore, it has always been settled the other way. I am ready to entertain a motion to adopt that report.

Supervisor Cummings -II move the report be adopted and orders drawn on the treasurer for the amounts allowed. The clerk called the roll and the motion was unanimously adopted. Chairman-Now what will you do with the individual claim of Joseph Vivian-watching an insane person? It would be well for the chairman of this committee to state the reasons why this was referred to the full board. Supervisor Harvey Will the chairman read the bill. I don't remember exactly what it is. We can't carry all those things in our head. The chairman read the bill:

Supervisor Harvey-We refused that bill on the ground we thought Mr. Passoe would be here to explain it. We could not find any record of any insane person.

Chairman-The notary public whose name is attached to this bill saw me to-day before I was leaving the mine and wanted to tell me about some bill that has been presented here-some claim - probably this is the bill that he referred to, and he told me that he had explained the matter to Mr. Mass, if I mistake not.

Supervisor Maas-That is not the bill. I have that bill in my pocket. Chairman-This bill was here the last meeting, wasn't it? Supervisor Harvey-Yes. I didn't see any authority to credit the bill and on account of Mr. Pascoe we did not want to reject it.

Chairman-It says such services were performed at the request of the supervisor of Champion township and C. Freund, medical doctor. Now he is acting as county physician in that township.

Supervisor Stevens-It is a very easy matter to get the signature of one of the two physicians or the supervisor. Chairman-What is your pleasure with that claim, gentlemen? Supervisor Sidgwick-It is a question in my mind whether the supervisor has any authority to authorize any bill of that kind, and as to Dr. Freund, I don't know as we can recognize him in the matter at all.

Supervisor Stevens-We thought to refer the bill to the county superintendent of the Chairman-That would be probably the best place to refer it. Supervisor Harvey-Does any person know that he is a county charge? Chairman-There is one thing I do know, if the state tax? the gentlemen will allow me to say a word or | Clerk-No, sir; the state tax was not includcours out of common, they run to the super visor first for advice on the matter. Now, this man is insane and probably very troublesome, and had to be confined. Now, they go to the supervisor and he sees at once it is highly fit that man should be looked after and sells them to go and do it, and this board refuses to pay the claim-what is going to be done?

Supervisor Sedgwick -I move the bill be ordered payed after the supervisor of Champion township has certified to it. The clerk called the roll and the motion was

this current year? County Treasurer-No, sir; none but what will be required during this month and next. Supervisor Harvey-Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of the report. Carried.

Clerk-Lwould like to call the attention of the board to the large amount of taxes that are charged back to this county each year. Fully one-half of the amount charged back this year are taxes that have been paid to the different township treasurers, who neglected to mark them "paid" on their tax rolls.

Chairman-I would like, if the board has no objection, to have the county treasurer make Chairman-Gentlemen, that is the report of any statement that he thinks proper for the inthe sheriff. What is your pleasure with that formation of this board, in regard to the manner in which those taxes are charged back, and why they were paid to the township treasurers Mr. Chairman, I move the report be accepted and he did not get any credit for it here; why it is not obliterated, if you will. After they The chairman read the following report of are paid once they should never be charged > Supervisor Harvey-I move the county treasurer have the opportunity to explain the matter. Carried.

County Treasurer—When the returns are Township contingent tax... 1,000 00 Township highway tax.... 1,000 00 Township highway tax.... 1,000 00 School district No. 1 tax... 4,300 00 be, the township treasurer returns his tax roll on which he collects the tax, with a statement of lands that are delinquent for taxe. Of course, I don't know anything about whether the taxes have been paid or not, as they appear on the tax roll or as they appear on the return. It is afterwards discovered, after these lands have been returned to Lansing, (which is done within thirty days after I receive them), that certain descriptions have been paid for that current year's tax. Sometimes it is not discovered for two years afterwards. That is owing to the failure of the township treasurer or the city treasurer, as the case may be, to mark on his tax roll "paid" opposite that description. Of course, I know nothing about it until I see the receipt, and I suppose the auditor general gets his information from the original receipt being filed with him. For that reason it is struck off the sales list and charged back to the township. About a week or ten days before the annual meeting of the board two statements are sent here- of taxes rejected for the current year, and taxes charged back for any previous year - and a communication comes with them requesting me to place the matter before the county board. I hand the statements to the clerk, with the commu-

ers? Supervisor Stevens-If they will send back a receipt that he has given he ought to be per- Fractional school district sonally liable for it County Treasurer-It is certainly a personal natter-not a township matter at all. Supervisor Harvey-How does the auditor general get hold of the roll to know that it has been paid to the Township Treasurer?

County Treasurer- The only way I can account for it is the fact that the original receipt quently the case. If I send a statement to him that certain lands have been paid the Township Treasurer he will take my statement for it, but if an individual, who has paid taxes, makes that statement, he has to file the original receipt with him and it is kept there on file-he never gets it back again. Of course I have no means of knowing what taxes have been paid and what have not been paid, except as they have been returned or as the tax roll shows. If the Township Treasurer, through negligence or through accident, fails to mark a certain description as paid, it is returned here, of course "not paid." and it would not be discovered until after a man finds his taxes are delinquent. He then sends his receipt to the auditor general and they strike it off and charge it back to the county, and the county to the township. Of course the auditor general looks to the county. and the county looks to the township. The township can look to the treasurer if they can find him. In most of these instances, however, I think almost all of the instances as regards Ely township, they are during the time that Mr. Duff was treasurer. Chairman-We will pass on to the next order of business-committee on equalization, Have they any report to make?

Supervisor Stevens-The report is on the Chairman—This is precisely the same as was passed on at the last meeting?

Supervisor Stevens-Yes, sir.

Accompanying are all the bills paid by this board during the year, which you will find to be full and complete vouchers for its entire expenditure. Yours respectfully,

H. E. WARNER,
Secretary board supervisors of the poor.

Chairman—Gentlemen, what is your pleasure with that report? The clerk tellisime it is eustomary to refer this to the committee on county officers' accounts. If there is no objection it will be se referred. We are now under the head of reports of county officer's; are there any reports to bring in?

Prosecuting Attorney—Nothing on my part. Chairman—If there are no other reports we will pass on to the next order of business. There are some committees, who most likely will want a little time to get together and consult, and it will be well to make a motion to take a recess for a certain length of time.

That the cierk of this board be, and he hereby is, directed to apportion the state and county tax to be raised for 1881, to the various cities and townships on the basis of the equalisation adopted by the board, and that the taxes rejected by the auditor general be charged back to the cities and townships from which they were returned delinquent, and that he several supervisors and assessors be, and they are hereby, directed to reassess on corrected descriptions, when practicable, all taxes which have been rejected and charged back on account of imperfection.

Chairman-Well, I should like, Mr. Stevens, to entertain the other motion first. We have got past this rule. We are now properly under the head of unfinished business.

Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, I will make the motion in this shape: that the board suspend the regular order of business, and proceed to the election of a superintendent of the poor in the second district. Carried.

Supervisor Stevens-Now, Mr. Chairman, I move we proceed to an informal ballot for superintendent of poor to fill a vacancy. Prosceuting Attorney-The gentleman says 'to fill a vacancy;" there is no vacancy. It is the regular election for a member of the board of superintendents of poor for the term of Chairman-I think all the members of the board understand that. Supervisor Sedgwick-Can this board take an informal ballot? This board is in the regular order of business, and everything they do is formal, not informal. Supervisor Stevens-Well, formal then-anything to satisfy the crowd. I will move we proceed to a formal ballot, and withdraw the Supervisor Stevens was appointed teller, and a formal ballot taken, which resulted as follows: Fourteen ballots cast, of which Edward C. Anthony received thirteen and John O'Leary one. Edward C. Anthony was declared elected. Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, I would like to hear from our representative who went to the state board of equalization at Lansing. I would like to hear his report, if he has one. Chairman-That would come under the head of unfinished business.

Supervisor Stevens-I asked for the privilege of making two motions; this will be the second one. Chairman-Gentlemen, we will pass on to the head of unfinished business.

Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, we are under suspended rules. Under those rules my motion was calling for a report of the gentleman who went to Lansing.

Chairman--For some reason unknown to me Mr. Maynard neglected to come here and make a verbal report, and he did not want this report to go on record. With these remarks, I will read the report:

To the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marqueite: GENTLEMEN-At your request I attended the meeting of the state board of equalization, held at Lansing, on the 15th of August. About sixty of the counties of the state were represented, and the errand and purpose of peet represented the state were represented. purpose of each representative was to get the valuation of his county reduced, or at least to valuation of his county reduced, or at least to keep it from being increased. Every representative declared that the appraisments in his county were made at the true cash value of the property, and some contended and attempted to show that valuations were really above a true value. Upon this subject I endeavored to be silent, but, when questioned, I was unable to declare that such was the fact in this county. I did, however, try to show to the board. ty. I did, however, try to show to the board that our valuation was too high, and that in-justice had been done to us, heretofore, in this regard.

I think I succeeded reasonably well.

The result shows that, while our valuation was increased 25 per cent, the valuation of the state, at large, was increased 23.6 per cent.; and this, although we report an increase in acreage of over 400.000 acres.

I remember that in 1876 I was a member of the board of supervisors of this county, that when this subject was then discussed in the board, in view of the then approaching session of this state board, I urged upon the assessors to observe the law in relation to the appraisement of property at its true cash value as an evidence of our good faith. That advice was not followed then, and, if I am correctly informed, has not been observed since.

I am certain that this disregard of law operates to our prejudice before the state board, and, whether it be true or not, as alleged, that the law is observed in other counties. I that the law is observed in other counties, I take the liberty again to urge upon the members of this board, who act as assessing officers, that they hereafter make their valuations in accordance with law, and I am satisfied that the result will be much more satisfactory and ereditable.

In the discharge of this mission I was absent from my office five days. I herewith send my bill, including expenses, $150.00, which I ask you to allow. Very respectfully, M. H. MAYNARD. Marquette, Sept. 14, 1881. Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, I move that that communication, just read, be laid on the table. Carried.

Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, I move we proceed to the regular order of business.

The chairman of the building committee was then heard in relation to improvements on court house and sheriff's house. Supervisor Stevens-Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the cost of that work. Supervisor Sedgwick-We let the contract to heat the court house, jail and sheriff's house for twenty-four hundred dollars. That includes also some repairs in the court roomventilation, etc. We would like authority given to the county treasurer to pay the bills, as per contract, when they come due. Supervisor Stevens-I would ask, Mr. Chairman, if the gentlemen are not overstepping their authority. There was a certain amount of money voted for the court house repairsenlargement, etc. Haven't they overstepped their authority in going ahead and authorizing twenty-four hundred dollars additional expense in a heating apparatus? Supervisor Sedgwick-No, sir; that is sepa rate altogether. Chairman-Those members who signed this saper form a majority of the board. Supervisor Stevens-There is nothing binding about that. If the whole county sign it, it is no authority whatever. If every inhabitant in the county signed it it would give them no authority whatever. I think, by the time you get through with this court house you will have about ten thousand dollars in it. I objected to it from the start, and I propose to keep on objecting to it. That petition does not give them the authority by a long shot. I admit, if the full board signed it, and I signed it, that would not make it a law. The supervisors cannot instruct one cent of expenditures until they are in session

Supervisor Sedgwick-The board are now in Chairman-The board were in session. Supervisor Stevens-At the time of that ignature?

Chairman-Yes, sir. Supervisor Stevens-Well is there anything Chairman-No.

Supervisor Sedgwick-We are "authorized and instructed" by a majority of the members of the board. Supervisor Stevens-There is nothing on the record to show that. Supervisor Sedgwick -I move, Mr. Chairman that the building committee be authorized and instructed to purchase and have put in the necessary apparatus for heating the court house, jail and sheriff's house. Carried On motion of supervisor Sedgwick the board adjourned sine die.

> THE ever-crowded state of the public schools is somewhat relieved by the efforts of the ladies of the Norwegian Lutheran congregation, who started a private school some time since, which is being held in one of the rooms of the church building. There are 50 scholars in daily attendance at this school, which makes just that many less at the Union school house. The efforts of the ladies of the church ought to be appreciated by the school board.

This is rather late in the season for circus in Ishpeming, yet there was one here the other day in a Main street clothing establishment, and those who witnessed it say it was first class, especially the skipping and jumping part of the programme. The attendance was not very large, but had the matter been advertised a little beforehand, an immense audience would have been present to witness the performance. Next time Conrad does any high kicking he ought to give his friends a chance to ee the fun.

THE WATER WORKS .- At a special session of the common council, held Monday evening, the water works committee made a report of their investigations and estimates. Upon the calling to order of the board, Mr. C. H. Hall, chairman of the committee, arose and read the figures from three estimates made, which sum up in round numbers, separately, as follows:

1st estimate, all wood pipe, $40,000; 2nd estimate, all iron pipe, $72,000; 3rd estimate, half wood and half iron ipe, $56,000; 4th estimate, all wood $44,000.

After reading over all the figures of the estimates and discussing the relative merits of each kind of pipe, the council decided upon accepting the third estimate, which provides for the laying of iron pipe in the low part of the town and wood pipe on high ground, which, all things considered, is the best plan. It was thereupon ascertained that the city is not authorized to borrow more than $30,000 at one time for the purpose of building water works, when a proposition was made and carried that such a sum should be voted on by the people. An election was called, which is to take place the latter part of the present month, when the taxpayers will be given an opportunity to further the building of suitable water works. The three members of the committee, Messrs. Hall, Nelson and Bacon, were appointed water works commissioners by the board, and sworn into office as such at once. Now that the matter has got thus far at last, no taxpayer ought to Nelson House the other night. They hesitate to vote for an improvement so much needed as water works. FCR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for prez. serving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

-The emigration from Germany to America continues. The Bramen Lloyd's company fate that during the present year 100,000 em-Breants have been despatched.

-Advices from Copenhagen state that the news received from the Dutch polar expedition on board the schooner Wilhelm Barents is very unfavorable. Owing to the continuous ine-barrier, which extends nearly to Norway, Spitzbergen could not be reached, nor yet even the Bear Islands, and after one more attempt to force through northward the expedition will return home, as the captain is convinced that this year Novaya Semlja is completely inclosed to a barrier of ice.

-Two men under arrest for a store robbery were taken from the jail at Sorocco, New Mexico, and lynched last week.

-Cox, Stephens, and Delaney, the trio of train robbers who went through a passenger train on the Iron Mountain road in Arkansas Sept. 22nd, pleaded guilty to that charge in the Momestead court on the 7th inst., and they were sentenced to seventy years each in the penitentiary. The sentence is oumulative, fourteen years being the limit for robbery in that state. They have been placed in the peni tentiary already, where they have a reasonshly protracted stay to look forward to.

-They seem to have quite a population of hard loitizens down in Arkansas. The four men who captured the robbers that raided the Iron Mountain train in September last found $3,000 of the money taken in that exploit on the persons of their prisoners. This they di-12ded up, one of the party making some objection. The robbers would have been released but for the large rewards offered. In consideration of their silence about the divide, a solemn pledge was made them that no effort would be spared to release them from the pen-Mentiary. The captor who favored returning the money to the railroad company escaped two attempts at assassination and revealed the Cacts to the authorities.

-A brace of murderers confined in jail at Gryaso, Mo., tunneled their way out the other eight and are now at large.

-Mrs. Thomas C. Upham, of New York, widow of the late professor Upham of Bowdoin college, has caused the arrest of Rev. J. A. Lansing, an ex-preacher of the M. E. church, and Miss Mary Ward, daughter of a prominent physician at Newark, N. J., whom she charges with having combined to swindle her out of board. The Miner takes ground that the $14.000 in bank stock.

-Quincy, Ili., was the scene of a savage shooting affray between John McDade, an exmarshal of the city, and Tom Jackson, a wellknown rough and gambler, Saturday last. Prior to the meeting Saturday the parties had some trouble. McDade vowed to take Jackson's life and armed himself with a shotgun for the purpose. He waited for his man in a dairway near Young Broz 'paper house, and opened fire on Jackson when he came in sight. Bay to the Michigan line at Quinnesee; the giving him both barrels, one shot taking effect in his thigh and the other in his neck. Though | Quinnesec, to the terminus of the Marquette, badly injured the latter managed to return the Houghton and Ontonagon road at the Repubing a builet through McDade's body. McDade the terminus of the Republic Branch road to a has since died, and there is but slight hope of Jackson's recovery.

-Ninety-nine years confinement in the Texas penitentiary is the sentence imposed on Ham White, the noted highwayman. He's a "lifer" to all intents and purposes.

-The late rains in the territory drained by the Upper Mississippi and its tributaries have chused an unprecedented flood in that river. At Dubuque the water is up to the curbstone on the levee, and damage has already resulted from the inundation.

-Thousands of persons visit the tomb of president Garfield daily, and special trains are run on the lines centering in Cleveland for their ac-

-Passengers who arrived at El Paso over the Southern Pacific railroad on the 5th reported abouts. having witnessed a fight between Indians and whites at Wilcox, Arizona, on their passage. The Indians seemed to have taken the inhabi-Lants of the place by suprise, and the latter were retreating before the savages, fighting as they fell back. The bodies of five line repair-Crs who had been slain by the Indians were seen near the track. In one encounter a party of sol tiers routed a band of Indians, killing two of their number, but no decisive advantage has as yet been gained over them.

-A shocking murder was committed by two coundrels named Edward Sanders and Phil. Rogers, at Lancaster, Pa., on the night of the Sh. They criminally assaulted a widow lady, Mrs. Mary Seymour, in the presence of her three children, beating her terribly because she attempted to resist. The woman finally croke away and fied to a neighbor's for protection, but died half an hour after reaching the bouse interrible agony. The murderers are under arrest.

-An earthquake shock was felt in New Hampshire last week. Its course was from cast to west, and it produced a rumbling sound Smilar to that caused by the passage of a beavy train of cars, also causing buildings to chrate perceptibly.

-New York city has subscribed over $90,000 for the Michigan relief fund. Her noble gencrosity shames the niggard spirit evinced by Chloago in raising aid for this charity.

-A fireat Pulaski, N. Y., last week, entirely destroyed the business part of the town. Property to the amount of $200,000 was burned. -Work on the Panama canal has been suspended, in consequence of sickness among the taborers brought over by De Lesseps. The dinate disagrees with Europeans. It is predicted that the canal will have to be construct-61 by native labor if at all-which latter is un-Mkely. -Contracts for eighty-seven locomotives have been concluded by the Northern Pacific as iroad company, and negotiations are in progress for an equipment of freight and passenger cars for the road. The locomotives are all to be delivered next season. -Tae immense eigar factory of Carl Up-mann in New York, in which 200 men and girls were employed, was burned down Tuesday. By good management all the employes were rescued from the building, though it was wrapped in flame two minutes after the alarm was given. The fire destroyed $100,000 worth grudge against "our member." And the worst of it-for Hubbell-is that most of the people hereaway and hereabouts are getting to be of the same mind. He'll hear from his onstituents one of these days in a way he'll "Marshes, swamps, and rivers all full," announces the Port. And these only? Three young men who were employed on the bridge in process of construction over the Escanaba attempted to run down the river last week on a raft they put together for that purpose. The raft went to pieces in going over Chandler's Falls. B. Young, one of their number, was drowned, Harry Prendergrast, a second, managed to cling to a log and got ashere about two miles below, chilled and bruised, but safe, and Grant, the third, got on some drift wood in the stream at a place so difficult of access that he was only rescued the next day, and at considerable risk to the party that succored him. It was a foolbardy undertaking, as the result shows plainly enough-

"Sling shooting" is interdicted by order of the board of trustees - that is, for boys. Their sirce may shoot a sling just the same as ever, if prepared to subsidize the bar-tender with the indispensible dime.

The News mentions that John O'Callaghan, of Norway, has, with other parties, secured a fine strip of pine land at Felch Mountain, and will soon have a sawmill running at that point. The enterprise is timely, and John is precisely the man to render it a success.

Bartley Breen, one of the pioneer iron oper bout to realize a handsome return for his labors for the past two years on the iron mile, which has lately been called the Garfield. The prospects of the mine are excellent, and we should not be surprised if it would take a front rank as one of the foremost mines on the ONTONAGON. - The Miner has a lengthy chapter on the claims presented by the lobbyists who did the railroad company's work last winter, and which were paid by the county, in accordance of with a recent ruling of the county board exceeded its authority in appropriating county funds for such a purpose, in which it is eminently correct. Also that a tax levy in which such appropriation is incorporated is illegal, in which it is again correct. But what are the Ontonagon people going to do about it? Steel rails for the new railroad are arriving.

Steps are being taken to consolidate in one company and under one management the Wisconsin and Michigan, whose line is from Green Republic branch road from the state line at proadside with a shot from his revolver, send- lic mine, and the Iron River company, from point of intersection of the Ontonagon and Brule River railroad, and the Ontonagon and Brule River company. The new company wil be known as the Wisconsin and Michigan railroad company.

SAULT STE. MARIE.-The News mentions that Messrs, Spalding, Harris and Colwell, of that place, went up to Hay lake last week to sow 'wild rice." Hope there wasn't any wild oats mixed with it. The wild rice was obtained last fall for the purpose of testing if it would growin this latitude, but too late to make a thorough experiment. It makes excellent feeding ground for wild fowl wherever it grows, and it is for the benefit of these and their hunters that the attempt is made to introduce it in the swamps and marshes there-

The garrison has received its supply of hird coal for the winter, and can therefore bid haughty defiance to the forces of Ven. Jack Frost.

A number of families who propose to make their future homes in Chippews county were brought up by the Ontario on her last trip. The Chippewa house has been closed for the ceason, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith have gone to t pir home in Cleveland to hibernate.

Capt. Jos. Pauli, of the Franklin mine, raised from 30 acres of land this year 800 bushels of oats, 175 of potatoes, 500 of turnips, and 75 tons of straw. It was a first crop, and the enptain is greatly pleased with the virgin fruits of his soil and labor.

The Quincy Mining company are getting ready the timbers for a new tailings wash house, to be located between the lake and railroad track.

The Lake View house will soon be opened by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smart, who are furnishing it in first class style. The Journal is assured that the new house, in its appointments and management, will be a credit to the place, and an accommodation to the traveling public that will deserve a liberal reward in patronage.

MENOMINES.—Sam Stephenson, the Herald says, has been sick for some days. It's safe to add that all Menominee is taking medicine. The Herald thinks it could be happier with a nail factory in town. It suggests that the point is a favorable one for such an enterprise. Perhaps, but our advice to Menominee is tostick to sawdust while the pine and present prices of lumber hold out. Jack Farrier has sold out his business at Mc nominee, and will prospect for prosperity up the range. Jack ought to strike it somwhere. He's a clever fellow, if his bair is red. Childs & Sawyer have bought him out, and will continue the business at Meneminee. The Herald predicts that the log out of the coming season will exceed 300,000,000 feet. A number of camps have been put fin already, and logging operations will soon be resumed

The new hotel is climbing upwards, and will soon present an inviting appearance to travelers. The iron columns to support the front are in place, and the roof is ready for its covering of tar and gravel. It will be a fine

L'ANSB.-Three inches of snow fell at the Summit Monday. L'Ause lies 1,200 feet lower, and got off with a lighter deposit.

The prospects of Taylor mine are brighter than ever. The shipments of ore from this mine continue to be quite heavy.

It is a shame that L'Anse has done nothin yet in response to the appeal for aid of the Michigan sufferers. The fault lies not with the mass of our people, who are willing and ready to do their share, but with those who should set the good work in motion. We doubt if there is another place of equal size in ard this season, and by the board accepted and paid for, is now impassable for either teams or foot passengers is the severest censure on the board's action in the matter. It s needless for your correspondent to say anything further. The road, in its present state, speaks more forcibly in condemnation of the board's conduct than pen can be made

The board of supervisors met and adjourn ed without doing anything to provide Baraga county with a court house. The board is much addicted to the practice of economy, but doesn't seem to understand that a certain kind of economy is the worst kind of extravagance.

That part of the Huron Bay state road lying in this township is said to be in a horrible state. There is money enough in the highway fund to place and keep that piece of road in good repair. Why does not the highway commissioner apply it to the purpose for which it is intended? Does he seek to involve the town in litigation growing out of damage sustained by people in consequence of its condition?

The M., H. & O. railroad company's surveying party are pushing right along through the wilderness, locating and cutting out the line for the extension of that road to Ontonagon. Signal officer Bray had the storm signal flying all this week, and the stormy weather didn't disappoint us this time. We've had a whole week of it.

Mr. Hayden, principa of our schools, is nearly convalescent, and will resume his duties next Monday. D. J. Norton, Esq., has gone to Milwaukee to get in his winter stock of goods. The M. H. & O. company's section foreman here, Patrick Culleney, resigned his position recently, but general manager Schoch induced him to withdraw his resignation and he will re main with us for the winter at least. R. R. Williams is about to organize a new company to develop and work the property on section 16, about half a mile south of here, near the railroad track. The property belongs to Mr. Farnsworth, of Rhode Island, who opened it up this summer, finding a fine quarry of blue and green slate.

AYER's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism, which often becomes impaired during the winter, by lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet.

A PARALYZING REPLY .- It is an old but true story, says the Virginia Chronicle, and conveys a great moral lesson. Some years ago H. D. Green, well known in these parts, was acting as superintendent of one of the river mills-a very onerous and overworked position, by the way-and, as his stock operations required a daily visit to this city, he so far forgot himself as to accept an annual pass from Grand Pasha H. H. STAFFORD, Yerlington, of our local line of rail. Just why the courtesies of the road should be extended to mill superintendents is one of those things no fellow out of the railroad ring can find out. for it would seem sound policy on the part of Vizier Sharon or Caliph Mills to keep their mill men at their posts and entirely clear of the dizzy fascinations of brokers' bulletins and two-bit saloons. But the railroad rulers thought differently, and their willing quartzite subjects crooked the pregnant hinges of the knee and salaamed cheerfully on each closing day of the year that the coveted piece of paste-board might be theirs. Mr. Green was no exception, and when the last day of grace was at hand he enclosed the well worn pass to the railroad chief with a polite note reciting his faithful use of the privileges during the year and closing with this well-turned gem of expression: "It's use has been a source of great pleasure, and I assure you that scarcely a day passed without seeing me on some one of the trains of your valuable road. Please renew the pass for ensuing year, and also embrace our servant girl and oblige." An answer was promptly returned by the mogul of the fat freight line in ques-tion as follows; "In reply to your judge of probate. In the matter of the esmogul of the fa-t freight line in quesfavor of even date, with inclosure as stated, I take pleasure in handing you herewith an annual pass for yourself and wife, good during current year, as requested. Owing to the stringent rules adopted by our management for rules adopted by our management for the coming year I am compelled to decline your request to embrace the servant-girl, and would suggest that you attend to that yourself."
