SLEIGHS.

I have just received one full car load of light and heavy teaming Common Sense Sleighs. All orders can now be promptly filled with one of the best sleighs ever offered to the public; so don't spend your money on the old stiff-jointed, snow-plow, horse-killing sleighs, but buy the cheapest and the best—the loose-jointed Common Sense Sleigh. I also have on hand a few first-class small bodied Portland and square box cutters for sale cheap for cash. T. MORGAN, Agent, Marquette, Mich. 607-1.

ANY parties needing Birch, Maple, Elm or Hemlock Lumber or Timber will save money by sending in their orders soon—as I only contract for such logs as are needed to fill orders. EDWARD FRASER, 607-3-w

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY TO OBTAIN THE NICEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—The public of Marquette is respectfully invited to call and see the exhibition of Portrait work at the Post-office. The work is executed by E. Ernesti, artist, of Chicago. Pictures painted and enlarged from Photographs, Tintypes, or any other kind of picture, to any size, in India Ink and Water Colors, at very reasonable rates, satisfaction guaranteed. Mr. Ernesti's work is well known in this northern country, especially on the line of the C. & N. W. R. R., and he intends to make prices very moderate in order to introduce his work in this city. Those who would like to have the artist call at their houses may leave orders with the news stand at the P. O. Respectfully, E. ERNESTI, Artist, 1w

THE ice on the Cinder pond was frozen sufficiently strong on Thursday to permit the small boy and his little sister to indulge in a skate.

MR. S. CLARK, one of Fond du Lac's oldest citizens, states: "I have used St. Jacobs Oil and am well satisfied that it is a splendid article to relieve pain, and that very quickly.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth."

THE German Aid society gave a pleasant social hop in Mather's hall last Wednesday evening, although the attendance, probably owing to the inclemency of the weather, was not large. The dancers were furnished with supper by the ladies of the Catholic church, who had prepared a spread in the lower hall.

CITY AND COUNTY.

MASTER Mechanic Williams has returned from his eastern trip.

A NEW clothing and gents furnishing store has been opened in the Dwyer block on Superior street.

NAVIGATION on Lake Superior may be said to be at an end for this season. The ore shipments close with this week.

NOTHING so much gives out town the appearance of winter as the clouds of steam which lift from off the lake these bright mornings.

MR. AND MRS. P. C. LALIBERTY have the sympathy of the community in the loss by death of their infant child. Born on Monday—died on Tuesday.

WEDDINGS have been quite numerous among the young people of the city of late. The French Americans are the class most severely afflicted with the mania.

THE Thanksgiving services at the Methodist and Episcopal churches are said to have been well attended, and the sermons preached both interesting and able.

MARQUETTE is growing both in numbers and influence. With the 15,000 inhabitants she is to have in the next five years what a tremendous influence she will wield in county politics!

THE holiday season which is just approaching is bringing to light many new and handsome novelties in the stores about town, and there will be no necessity for our people to go outside for what they want.

AUDITOR E. W. ALLEN and freight and passenger Frank Milligan, of the D. M. & M. railroad, left on a business trip to Detroit yesterday. They will return by way of St. Ignace and over their new line.

THE roads hereabouts were never in better condition to receive their covering of snow at the beginning of winter. Being hard and well leveled, good sleighing may be counted on when the snow gains sufficient depth.

THE supper and social given by the ladies of St. Peter's Catholic congregation in Mather's hall last Wednesday evening proved quite successful financially. Those who attended also testify to having a good time.

MR. FRANK S. MUELLER, 925 W. Franklin street, cited to a Journal reporter the case of Mr. Henry Rhenick, who for four years suffered with rheumatism, which was cured by the use of two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil.—Evanville (Ind.) Journal.

PRESTON'S billiard hall and oyster restaurant is coming to the front as the popular evening resort of the city. As the place is run on temperance principles its tendency is not so demoralizing to youth, and that young men preferring patronizing this place to the saloons is also in good taste.

CERTAIN government employes stationed here are getting impatient in anticipation of an increase to their meagre salaries. We hope they will not be disappointed. There is glory in working for the government even on a small salary, but a heap more satisfaction when well paid.

NEW STORE.—Lessor & Wiswotzky are the names of a couple of gentlemen who are about to open a new store in the newly painted block on Superior St. They will open a stock of dry goods and fancy goods in the store three doors west of the corner. See their advertisement in to-day's paper.

MR. J. J. GRAFTON, for some time past secretary to general manager Schoch, of the M. H. & O. railroad, has tendered his resignation, which was accepted. Mr. Grafton is an experienced railroad man, genial and pleasant in his intercourse with men, and we regret that he should deem it advisable to leave the city.

THE oyster banquet given by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. last Friday evening proved to be a success to the amount of forty-seven dollars, which will be put into the treasury fund of the society, there to rest until an opportunity offers to squander it in an attempt to improve the moral sentiment of the community. The ladies are under obligations to friends who so generously aided them by donations of oysters, cake, coffee and butter crackers.

THE fair for the benefit of the French Catholic church will commence in Mather's hall next Monday evening and continue throughout this week. The ladies will spare no effort to make the fair a success, and assure their friends that for a small amount of money they will be given an evening of sport. The young ladies will all be there in their best Sunday clothes, their countenances wreathed in smiles, and supplied with arguments unanswerable to convince you of your duty to purchase "a chance."

A LODGE of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will be organized at Marquette next week by district deputy grand master J. J. Grafton. The names of the charter members are as follows: M. H. Maynard, A. S. Parks, S. W. Goodale, C. D. Blanchard, C. M. Wheeler, H. E. Warner, C. M. Gooding, E. O. Stafford, E. B. Strong, L. S. Glaser, E. W. Allen, W. H. Williams, F. Ferris, O. D. Jones, S. B. Florber, J. H. Fry, R. R. Elliott, A. Thurlby, C. H. Cadv, C. G. Gay, C. W. Joslin, H. W. Coburn, F. J. Donahue, J. S. Burrows, R. M. McCauley, C. G. Huntley, John W. Gribble, and some others. The order is very popular in the lower peninsula and has a membership of about 6,000. The above list of names was up inside of three days.

CINDERS.

Bank your cellar and keep your money in an oyster can.

Gladstone says he "can discern signs of improvement in Ireland." Sharp old chap, ain't he!

The failure to hit him of those who have been practicing on Gulleau is not surprising. He is an amazingly small man.

What a burlesque on justice! 't would be if Bill Jones had succeeded in giving himself the avenger of Garfield's assassination!

It doesn't take much intellect to call hard names. Nor much courage, when the person assailed is a hundred miles away.

Nearly all the concerns engaged in making "butterine" have gone up. The butterine wouldn't go down, hence their disastrous collapse.

Americans have cause to blush for the wretched marksmanship displayed by the fellows who have gone gunning for Gulleau since he slew Garfield. Such poor shooting is a reproach to the nation.

Gov. Smith, of Wisconsin, admits that the vote cast for him in that state was going to be so large he would probably have ordered out the militia.

Walter Powell, a member of the British parliament has made a number of successful balloon ascensions recently.—Bz. He may find himself making an aerial voyage without his balloon one of these days, if the Fenians can manage to get in their infernal machine work on the parliament house.

A writer in one of our periodicals tells its readers that he finds life comfortably on $10 a week. All very fine, but Cinders will tell you that the writer of that wonderful dissertation on the "importance of cigars and cigars" spends more than that amount weekly on cigars and brandy smashes. It's an easy thing enough to demonstrate that cheap fame may be supported when it isn't your own family.

Certainly you weren't an editor then, you old fossil. Nor were you before, nor are you now. The whole trouble with you is that you are a failure in remaining in the profession without possessing a single qualification for the duties devolving upon members of it. You're an exaggerated instance on trucks instead of an editor, you ancient sardine, and if it were not for your cheek and brass you'd starve to death in a profession that has reason to blush for your connection with it.

There is no chance for splinters in Massachusetts. There aren't men enough to go round, by a large majority, and the supreme court of that state has just decided against admitting women to practice in the legal profession. To us one by one the avenues to usefulness and independence are closed against women in the states where they are admitted. In that respect, Mass. refuses her a chance to make her way onward and upward unaided and alone. Come west, girls, come west, get away from this infernal state, and go with the country. The law is a poor profession for a girl, and Massachusetts isn't a state fit for an unprotected woman to live in anyhow.

Strangers visiting the mining towns always here are usually surprised to find that the former being half an hour ahead of the latter. Consequently when residents are asked to give the time, they are accustomed to give which is desired, "mining time or railroad time." With which explanatory prelude Cinders proposes to wait patiently until a halfpenny young man employed as clerk in a store in one of the towns alluded to. He was attending a "social," and "social" is a right name for the indulgence he was permitted to spend the balance of the evening in peace.

MR. C. A. DUNBAR, a representative of the Detroit Post and Tribune now in the city, is highly pleased with the upper peninsula and thinks of taking permanent residence among us in the interest of his paper. Although through his work here for the season, Mr. Dunbar proposes to wait patiently among us until he can return home to Detroit over the D. M. & M. railroad, which he undoubtedly might do—if the walking is good between the present eastern and western termini—early in the week.

OUR townsman, Thos. Morgan, is in receipt of a heavy consignment of goods and fancy goods in the store, manufactured by the Sweet brothers, at Fond du Lac, Wis., and which have obtained such a high degree of popularity with our lumbermen and teamsters. He is now prepared to fill orders without delay for what is conceded to be "the boss sleigh," and at very low figures. Read his advertisement in another column, and drop in on Tom if you need a vehicle on runners.

THE young people of the Baptist church have just inaugurated a series of socials for the winter, and will hold their first meeting at the residence of Mr. S. N. Bronson, on High street, next Friday evening. The object of these socials will be to develop social culture, and reading, music and social intercourse will be the features of the evening. A special feature at the coming gathering will be the first issue of a paper to be published every two weeks by members of the social society, and to be read at the meetings.

DUMPED.—While the boy in charge of the American Express company's delivering wagon was driving over the trestle of the Grace furnace from the fish shanties last Tuesday morning, his wagon being loaded with boxed fish, the horse slipped back on the ice, and the wagon, which was near the edge of the trestle, went over the side, pulling the horse after. As it was but some five feet to the ground below the result was not serious, the wagon simply standing on end, and thus preventing the horse from going completely over. Gentlemen standing near hastened to the rescue, and after cutting the horse free from the wagon got him on his feet again. The horse was but slightly injured, and the wagon escaped without other damage than broken timbers. The boy is on deck without a scratch.

A SNEAK-THIEF entered the dwelling of C. Herlick on Washington street Tuesday evening about nine o'clock, evidently with the intention of possessing himself of such articles of value as he might be able to pick up. All the family save a daughter were absent at the time, of which circumstance the intruder was, presumably, aware. He had reached the head of the stairway on his tour of discovery when the girl surprised him by suddenly appearing from one of the upper rooms, and the scamp took flight without waiting to make a haul—or even an apology. He deserves to be whipped at the cart's tail for his want of politeness, though the young lady says she will forgive his rudeness if he will refrain from repeating his visit.

THE Lakeside Knitting works are enjoying well earned prosperity. The proprietors, Messrs. W. C. Brown & Co., have always a large number of orders ahead, and are working the factory to its utmost capacity. They are turning out a superior quality of woolen hosiery which meets with ready sale among the merchants of the upper peninsula.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The November term of the circuit court commenced on Friday, Judge William D. Williams presiding. The criminal calendar was taken up and the first case called was that of the People vs. Dennis O'Brien, which was pending at the hour of going to press. The batch of criminals awaiting trial in the county jail is unusually large, and it has been decided to wind up the term with their hearing, carrying the civil business over to the next term, when the new judge, Hon. Claudius B. Grant, of Houghton, will preside.

GENERAL MANAGER SCHOCH and Mrs. Schoch left on Tuesday's train for New York and Boston. They will remain east but a short time, when they will go to California and the Pacific coast for the winter, it being their present intention not to return home until the middle of April. Marquette people, and in fact the people "all along the line," wish them a pleasant season, and will be gratified when they return. During the absence of Mr. Schoch, the management of the M. H. & O. railroad will be in the hands of Mr. Jno. Hornby, who has been appointed acting superintendent, and whose better as a railroad manager does not exist.

THE change of time, or winter arrangement, on the M. H. & O. railroad goes into effect to-morrow. The passenger trains will leave and arrive at Marquette as follows: Michigan game passenger leaves at 8:20 A. M.; train for Negaunee and Ishpeming making connections with C. & N. W. train at Negaunee, leaves at 11:50 A. M. daily; Mail for L'Anse leaves at 1:30 P. M., and the Republic passenger leaves at 3:50 P. M. Returning, Republic passenger arrives at 10 A. M., L'Anse mail, 12:50 P. M.; Ishpeming and Negaunee passenger, connecting with C. & N. W. Ry., at 3 P. M. daily; Michigan game passenger at 5 P. M.

THANKSGIVING EVE brought us the first genuine winter snow-storm, which came from the old reliable north-west, and was ushered in and attended by a strong wind that whirled the falling flakes with mad joy and piled them when tired of the sport in fantastic heaps. The snow-fall was not heavy—perhaps three inches of the frozen deposit being the outside figure—but it was a thoroughbred "blizzard" while it lasted, and gave folks to understand that winter is here at last, and to stay. The wind died away at midnight, the cold moderating quite perceptibly as the violence of the gale subsided, and Thanksgiving day was fine and pleasant enough to make the most insensate heart glow with an emotion of gratitude to the "Lord of all."

COMING.—Clement Bros. concert company has posters up about the city announcing an entertainment for Thursday evening in Mather's hall. If we remember correctly this company succeeded in pleasing the audience when it last visited Marquette, the only fault found being in the programme and not with the performers. The company has been reorganized, and from the comments of the press appear to be giving much better entertainments than in former years. That the company is engaged much of its time through the medium of a lecture bureau, would seem sufficient evidence to dispel any fears that they are just as to its being "snide." With a good reputation already established in Marquette, and flattering notices from the press, it is safe to assure the company a good audience on their appearance here. Marquette is not considered a first-class show town; but we have always noticed that a first-class show goes away well satisfied.

ATTENTION cannot be too frequently called to the large and varied stock of common and fine decorated crockery and holiday notions now being displayed at the store of Stafford Bros. The store is literally jammed full of new goods, and the store rooms are filled to the ceiling with goods yet unpacked which will take their place in the store as soon as room can be made. There is not a store in the upper peninsula with such an array of useful and ornamental goods for the holiday trade, and from the immense patronage the boys are receiving it would appear that the people fully appreciate their endeavors. Everybody should visit the store, whether they wish to purchase goods or not—it will not bite. We do not refer to this store in the style of a "puff," but simply as an acknowledgment of appreciation of the efforts of the boys to run a truly metropolitan establishment in this city—something that has never been so fully realized in any branch of trade.

At this writing, Friday morning, there are no less than three steam barges and four or five schooners waiting to be, and being, loaded, and the sailors are much concerned lest they may be obliged to abandon their vessels and go home by rail. Loading ore this week has been attended with many difficulties, owing to the weather, and unless the same moderates somewhat it is not altogether unlikely that some of the boats will have to postpone their down trips till spring. The soft ore is frozen solid in the pockets, and has to be thoroughly steamed in order to be pushed through. The hard ore from the Champion and Republic mines, being wet and mixed with snow when loaded on the cars, is also frozen hard, so that it is almost impossible to get it into the pockets. On Wednesday twenty-seven miners from the Champion and eighteen from the Republic were sent here to assist in unloading ore cars, and with drills and picks they labored hard all day, yet accomplishing little. The winter set in about one week too early for ore shippers.

THERE is wafted on the breeze of uncertainty the rumor that Ross & Grove have secured the warehouse on the merchandise pier for the purposes of a skating rink. This glad (if true) intelligence was given us just at the hour of going to press—too late to see the gentlemen for a confirmation. Throw up your hats, ye untutored savages that hold forth on the street corner in the frigid night time; clap your hands, ye would-be society ornaments who let your chances of a winter fire-side like snow-flakes pass you by; shout hallelujah, ye maidens of delicate frame, for here's opportunity for exhilaration; cry aloud and give thanks, all ye maidens and hand maidens, ye lads and cranky bachelors, for the time, peradventure, draweth nigh when you can all stand—or fall—on a common level.

THE last store in the row of buildings on Superior street until recently belonging to the Hurley estate, which for so long a time had been vacant, and were fast nearing dissolution, has been rented to an Ishpeming firm which has fitted it up and will to-day open up a stock of clothing, gents' furnishing goods and boots and shoes. The owners of the property, Messrs. Dwyer and Ward, deserve much credit for the improvements put upon this row of buildings, thus adding to the number of desirable store rooms in the city. There are people on Superior street who have long been looking forward to the time when their street will be the principal business thoroughfare of the city. The street is broad and beautiful and if more of the property holders thereon would labor for its improvement, the contracting parties being both of whose wishes should not be realized. That part of the city south of Superior street is growing rapidly, and that this street will eventually become the leading retail business center there is no reason to doubt—if property owners will but follow the example of Dwyer and Ward.

THERE was an interesting wedding at the police court last Monday evening, the contracting parties being both residents of Chocoyla township, the groom being one John Henry Johnson, and the bride a French girl named Rosa Dionne. The young couple came before his honor but little after seven o'clock and requested him to pronounce the words that would make them one. His honor smiled a welcome, and after making the preliminary enquiries, in a solemn voice said, "I now pronounce you man and wife; whom the police court hath joined together, let not the circuit court separate." The judge then stepped from behind the bar and planted a judicial "smack" on the broad side of the newly made wife's left ear, and requested the husband to follow his example, but the young man said that he had lots of time to attend to that kind of business when he got home, and respectfully declined. The witnesses of the union, Martin Ford and John F. Carey, hereupon stepped forward to claim compensation for their services by kissing the bride, but she wouldn't have it that way, and the young men had to retire in mortification without the coveted and customary salute.

THE case of the People vs. Dennis O'Brien, on trial at the circuit court yesterday and to-day, is of more than ordinary interest from the fact that the defendant, who is one of those loud-mouthed brigands who imagine themselves to be the victims of a despotic social system, is appearing both in the role of prisoner at the bar, and of counsel in his own case. O'Brien is charged with instigating a riot last summer for the purpose of hanging a walking boss named Moran, employed on the Crystal Falls extension of the C. & N. W. Ry. The facts, as nearly as we can recall them, are about these: Moran was appointed walking boss to displace a man who was objectionable to the company, but who was eminent and acceptable to some of the workmen, among those being O'Brien. On the arrival of Moran to take charge of the work, the disaffected workmen, under leadership of O'Brien, refused to work or struck—new men being employed to fill their places. The strikers repaired to Florence, in Wisconsin, where, after a drunken spree, and a bloody hanging, they armed themselves to the teeth and went back to where Moran was at work with the avowed object of hanging him. Moran and his men met them in battle array and opened upon the enemy with pistols. Two of the shots from Moran's pistol hit general O'Brien, and he was carried to Florence, slightly disabled, but still in the ring. On the fall of their leader the mob took to the woods in all directions, and here ended the first chapter. Upon partial recovery from his wounds O'Brien was enticed to cross the river into Michigan, when he fell into the hands of the law, and was taken to Negaunee for examination, and bound over to the circuit court. O'Brien has been in the grasp of the law many times—enough to give him some experience in criminal jurisprudence. It is said that he is conducting his own case in a very clever manner, and that his chances for acquittal are about as numerous as though he had employed the twelve leading attorneys of the Marquette bar. His line of defense seems to be based on the ground that the threatening language, if used, was not uttered in Michigan, and that the court has no jurisdiction in the matter. It is a fact easily proved, however, that O'Brien did breathe out threatnings and slaughter, and was on his way to the field of conflict when he was suddenly met with a resistance as effective as it was unlooked for.

or ten per cent, will be added as a penalty. In the matter of water consumption the law is on the side of the dealer, and those who use the beverage in moderation or to excess are alike in the power of the corporation which supplies them. With the consumers of whiskey and the milder alcoholic beverages this is not true to such an alarming extent, the laws being more equitably adjusted, with the balance of power in the hands of the drinkers. Now, what we propose, is a reform. We believe that if water were adopted as the national drink, a great change in the matter of legislation might be secured, and such a change as would result to the benefit of the consumer. With 85,000 square miles of excessively damp water in sight, it seems queer that a corporation can come out twice a year and demand that the people pay for it on a certain day, or be taxed ten per cent, a month additional; but such is the case. The water rates are not high, but high or low they must be paid. If everyone who complains about the price of his water could be induced to make his neighbor or friend substitute water for his whiskey, the number of water consumers would be greatly increased and the rates decreased proportionately. Fellow-citizens, here is a chance for a grand missionary work at home, and one that will, with every cent of the water system, work a decrease to your water rates. Water or whisky must prevail, and if it must be water, let there be a more general indulgence, thus securing to all a cheap and wholesome natural drink.

IN the advertising columns of this paper will be found the cards of two of Detroit's leading business houses. We refer to the cards of Allan Sheldon & Co., wholesale dry goods, and the merchant tailoring establishment of Jennings & Hager. The first mentioned house is situated on Jefferson avenue, and occupies two-thirds of the Chandler block—six stories high, and in width, the space of four stories—altogether the largest dry goods house in the state of Michigan. This firm will in future be regularly represented throughout this country, and with the cheaper rates of freight which will be afforded our merchants by the D. M. & M. railroad, it is safe to say that the house will receive its full share of the orders. This firm is among the oldest and most reliable, as well as most accommodating business houses of the state, and is fully determined to please its Lake Superior customers, and by so doing will not fail to secure a large increase to their upper peninsular trade.

THE firm of Jennings & Hager is already well known here. In Detroit this house is regarded as the leader of fashion in its department of trade, its customers being wholly confined to the class who have taste in dress. This reputation it has also already secured on Lake Superior, although its representative has made but three visits to this region. Either Mr. Jennings or Mr. Hager, both of whom are experienced and artistic cutters, will hereafter make regular visits to the upper peninsula, where they are sure of receiving a cordial welcome from the good support from those of our citizens who like not only to dress well, but to have their garments fit.

Y. M. C. A.—Obedient to the call of interested parties, some twenty-five or more persons assembled in the basement of the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening for the purpose of instituting a local organization of the Young Men's Christian Association. Rev. Mr. Banks called the meeting to order and announced the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," which was sung by the assemblage, after which a selection of scripture was read and prayer offered by Rev. John Russell. Another hymn, "Come, thou fount of every blessing," was then sung, after which the business of the evening was opened by the election of Mr. Frank Milligan as temporary president, and Mr. Jno. H. Fry, as temporary secretary. At the request of Rev. Mr. Banks the president stated the object and aims of the association, by reading at length from a pamphlet issued by the National society. It may be briefly described as a non-sectarian association of young men, organized for the special purpose of uniting them in christian work—an association separate from, yet auxiliary to, the churches, and whose meetings and work are to be so arranged as not to conflict with the churches. Any man of good and regular standing in any evangelical church may become an active member, entitled to vote and hold office, but the society will likewise have an associate membership, to which young men of good moral character outside of the churches will be admitted. Mr. Milligan then read a preamble, designed for the signatures of all persons interested in the local organization, and invited those present to come forward and sign, all of whom responded. On motion of Mr. J. J. Jones, a committee of five was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the association, and also to nominate and elect officers. The committee, as appointed, consists of Hon. Fred. O. Clark, S. N. Bronson, Jno. H. Fry, R. R. Elliott, and H. H. Stafford. It was also announced that the ladies of the W. C. T. U. had tendered the association use of their rooms for the present. A committee on devotional exercises, consisting of Mr. Geo. L. Burris, R. B. Elliott, Gad Smith and Edward O. Stafford, was also appointed. This committee will provide for the devotional work of the association, until such time as the permanent organization is effected, and have designated Monday evening next, in the rooms of the W. C. T. U., as the time and place of holding the first meeting for worship. Mrs. Jno. H. Fry will lead in the exercises on that occasion. The meeting then adjourned to reassemble at the call of the secretary, after singing "Rock of Ages," and the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Kerr B. Tupper. The society is now well started, although the something over twenty signatures already obtained do not represent more than one-third of the young men who will gladly engage in the work. The association has a grand object in view and should have the hearty support of all good people.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

EVERY harness-maker leaves traces of his work behind. "SLANG is the destroyer of American conversation." "WHAT every one says must be true."

AGENTS can now grasp a fortune. Outfit worth $20, sent free. For full particulars, address E. G. Rice and Co., 10 Barclay St., N. Y.

A MILLER in Peru, Ind., fell asleep in his mill and bent forward till his hair got caught in some machinery and was jerked out; and of course, it awakened him, and his first bewildered exclamation was: "Durn it! wife, what's the matter now?"

SETTING UP NIGHTS.—Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Center, N. Y., writes she had been troubled with asthma for four years. Had to sit up night after night with it, and was ultimately cured by two bottles of Thomas' Electric Oil.

A NURSE was telling about a man who had become so terribly worn out by disipation that he could not keep any food on his stomach, when one of her listeners asked: "What does he live on then?" "On his relations," answered the nurse.

POPULARITY.—Thomas' Electric Oil has obtained great popularity, form its intrinsic value as a reliable medicine, in curing hoarseness, and all the irritations of the throat, diseases of the chest, etc. For these it is an incomparable pulmonary.

BROWN was abusing Smith violently on the sidewalk one night. Jones, who heard it from an upper window, yelled to Smith, "Knock him down!" The next day Jones and Smith met. "Why didn't you knock that man down?" asked Smith. "I wanted to, but he holered the same thing if I had been up there."

OUR GEORGIANS INDEPENDENCE.—What can be more glorious than to be independent of suffering, caused by dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick head-ach, or other diseases emanating from the stomach. This can be easily attained by a timely use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

"GIVE examples," said an old back number of the Board of Examiners, addressing the ensign, "of different degrees and velocities of motion." "Well," the ensign said, "the swiftest motion is that of light, and the slowest by several orders of degrees is that of death. They sent him back two years. That, young man, the examiners told him, 'gives you an idea of retrogressive motion.'"

DAUGHTER (home from school)—"Now, papa, are you satisfied?" Just look at my testimonial Political economy, satisfactory: fine arts and music, very good; logic, excellent. Father—"Very much so, my dear, especially as regards your future. If your husband should understand anything of house-keeping, cooking, and the constant use of a sewing machine, perhaps your married life will indeed be happy."

A LEAP INTO POPULAR FAVOR.—It is not always that the world acknowledges that is right and best; but Burdock Blood Bitters, by universal acquiescence, have been awarded the premium for cleansing the blood, curing indigestion, and toning up weak nerves. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

A GILDED YOUTH, who had met with misfortunes, entered a fourth-class restaurant. He there encountered a waiter who he had formerly seen in the luxurious establishments which he himself had frequented. "What," said the waiter, "do you dine here, sir?" "Well," returned the other, glomily, "you wait here, don't you?" "It is true, sir," replied the waiter with conscious dignity; "but I do not eat here."

KIDNEY COMPLAINT CURED.—Dr. Turner, Rochester, N. Y., writes: "I have been for over a year subject to serious disorder of the kidneys, and often unable to attend to business; I procured your Burdock Blood Bitters and was relieved before half a bottle was used; I intend to continue, as I feel confident that they will entirely cure me. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents."

FITZNOODLE was out again worrying the life out of his ducks with his gun. He blazed away at some ducks, and an unseen man on the other side of the pond rose up threateningly, with a long and angry cry: "Did you shoot at me?" "Did any of the shot hit you?" inquired Fitznoodle. "Yes, they did," said the man, rubbing his legs. "Then you may be certain that I did not shoot at you; I never hit anything I shoot at."

So great is the faith reposed in Ayer's Pills by those who have given them a trial, that the consumption of them almost passes belief, far exceeding any preceding remedy. They cleanse the blood, improve the appetite, promote digestion, restore healthy action, and regulate every function. They are a goodly and safe, gentle in their operation, yet thorough, searching and powerful in subduing disease.

A SCHOLAR in one of the Binghamton public schools who had "been over the map of Asia," was reviewed by his teacher with the following results: "Teacher—'What is geography?' Scholar—'A big book.' Teacher—'What is the earth composed of?' Scholar—'Mud.' Teacher—'No, it is land and water.' Scholar—'Well, that makes mud, don't it?' Teacher—'That is the shape of the earth?' Scholar—'Flat.' Teacher—'You know better; if I should dig a hole through the earth, where would I come out?' Scholar—'Out of the hole.'"

MR. SAMUEL MCKENZIE, Cumberland, Md., writes: "I am 88 years of age. About four years ago I began to go into decline. I suffered from dyspepsia, stone in the bladder, weak lungs, and general nervous debility. Nothing relieved me until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. This remedy has made me again robust and strong, and I feel all the fire and activity of youth once more in my veins."

GENTLEMAN meets a friend and takes him home to dinner. Arrived at the house he leaves him in the sitting-room to announce the fact to his wife. The friend, hearing directly a clamor of tongues in the adjoining room, decimates the key-hole with his ear. Shriek Voice—'Always the way—bringing people home without a minute's warning. Him, too! Why couldn't you leave him to fatten on his usual free-lunch route. Hoarse Voice—'Sh! Shriek Voice—'I won't sh! Hoarse Voice—'Tell you you will. Oh, if he was in the room outside, wouldn't I just give you—'. The friend, shouting through the key-hole—'I ain't there any longer; give it to her.'"

A LEADING PROFESSOR SPEAKING OF SENSIBLE PEOPLE.—Dr. B., the prominent Eastern medical lecturer, says: "Every day sensible people come to me complaining of their health being broken down. The answers to my inquiries always are—'What I surmise—nature's laws have been totally disregarded; consequently the blood, the stream of life, becomes contaminated—and as a result of this blood poisoning, I find dyspepsia and disordered functions of the heart, lungs, liver, and kidneys, accompanied by headache, nervous debility, and other impaired organic portions, often verging on paralysis. In order to keep the digestive organs in proper health and strength, I and my friends in the profession have recommended Brown's Iron Bitters—they act so mildly and smoothly, never leaving any unpleasant after-effects, strengthening the organs of digestion, and permanently removing every symptom of ill health, languor, and debility. No remedy in the east gives so good satisfaction as Brown's Iron Bitters, and all druggists can procure it for you. Don't be persuaded to use a substitute. The remedy contains no alcohol and is the only preparation of Iron that does not blacken the teeth.—Sun."

The Mining Journal.

ISHPEMING, NOVEMBER 26, 1881.

If a circus were to come along now, there wouldn't be any kicking among the mine owners. After the tremendous production of the season the loss of a day's work would not be of great damage to them.

The leading papers of a southern Michigan city are making a "big howl" over the fact that their city is overrun with gamblers. The fact is that the gamblers who infest these southern cities are of the blackleg stripe—men who make the "game" a profession, and who, consequently, attract attention, but up here they are a class of men who operate in legitimate business during the day and attend to "suckers" by gas light. We haven't many of them, and even the few we have would be appalled were they classed as gamblers; yet they are tending in that direction; and the date of their ruin is not far in the future, for even now many of them spend more time in efforts to get "employment" for the evening than they do in looking after their legitimate business affairs.

THANKSGIVING was celebrated in the usual way at Ishpeming. All work was suspended at the mines, the business houses were mostly all closed, everybody who could made a holiday of it, and there are few tables that were not laden with plenty of good things to eat. There were divine services at the churches, where many gathered to give thanks in a devout form. Others remained at home and ate, and yawned behind warm stoves after gorging themselves. Those who were not afraid to brave the cold winds drove out in the storm for an early sleigh ride, the sleighing being excellent. Still another class of the genus homo, known as the awfully wicked, spent the day playing billiards, seven-up and whiskey poker, smoking cigars and guzzling Tom and Jerry. The streets, on account of the blustering weather, were almost deserted, and a Sabbath quiet reigned throughout the city.

LECTURE.—The subject of George W. Pepper's lecture at Austin's hall next Wednesday evening will be "The Ireland of to-day." The Ireland of to-day is a fruitful field from which to gather topics for a lecture. As nothing is known as to the views the lecturer will present regarding the dissensions in that country, it is safe to presume that he will, being a Protestant clergyman, attack the religion of Ireland, and insist that the devotion of its people thereto is one, if not the main cause, of its poverty. At any rate the Irish troubles are a topic on which people differ materially, and it is not reasonable to suppose—if the lecture is worth the price of admission—that the speaker's views will accord with those of every individual in his audience. At any rate, "the Ireland of to-day" is a subject in which the people are, or ought to be, interested, and any lecture on the difficulties there existing, or the observations of any candid man, as to the causes which lead to these troubles, should be heard. The MINING JOURNAL trusts that the Rev. gentleman, who is said to be a finished orator and candid thinker, will be greeted with a full house. The price of admission is fifty cents, and reserved seats may be had at Tillson's.

Ask any druggist that has ever sold White Wine of Tar Syrup, and he will tell you it is the best remedy for the Lungs there is in use. Price 50cts. Sold by J. Crowley.

When you get ready to go to Europe or to send for your families or friends, please go to "The Old Rock Store" and buy your tickets from I. N. Oie. He is agent for some of the best steamboat and railroad companies in the world.

PROBATE ORDER.—State of Michigan, County of Marquette, ss: At a session of the probate court for the county of Marquette, held at the probate office, in the city of Marquette, on Tuesday, the first day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one. Present, Hon. Edward S. Hardy, Judge of probate. In the matter of the estate of Joseph W. Edwards, deceased. Amos R. Harlow, administrator, with the will annexed, of said estate, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to render his final account as such administrator. Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the twenty-eighth day of November, 1881, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the probate office, in the city of Marquette, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed; and it is further ordered that said administrator give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said account and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MINING JOURNAL, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Marquette, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

a failure, had better not undertake to swallow Peru at one gulp, and no one can tell what will happen next. There are parties in this country who would like to see a war of any sort break out just now. They think they see their way clear to fat contracts for furnishing supplies.

to that sort of religious work is not conducive to permanent results, or beneficial to the cause of true religion. The bishop may be right, but Moody's mouthings and Sankey's psalms have a fascination for the rude mob that will enable them to "hold the fort" despite the skeptical prelate's fulminations. They may not do much good, but are they doing any harm? We fear the bishop of Manchester is actuated by an extremely unchristian jealousy of our saintly countrymen.

NEWS SUMMARY.

The Ohio state idiot asylum, three miles west of Columbus, burned down the morning of the 18th. The main building was entirely destroyed. There were 635 pupils in the building at the time, but all were safely removed, though the spread of the flames was very rapid. But little of what it contained, of furniture or personal effects, was saved. The loss is estimated at fully $250,000, on which there was no insurance.

The president of Mexico is seriously ill. Col. L. V. B. Howell, a mining operator from San Francisco, shot himself in New York the other day. He had been trying his hand on the Gotham board, and with such ill-luck that he killed himself in disgust.

The Sturgeon Bay canal was formally inspected by representatives of the state of Wisconsin Tuesday, preliminary to its acceptance by the state, and the final transfer to the company of lands granted in aid of its construction. The inspectors found the work done to their satisfaction.

The steam large Middlesex was burned to the water's edge Thursday night of last week at the Pequaming saw mill. The fire originated in the cabin and spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the vessel. In order to save the lumber piles in her immediate vicinity it was found necessary to cut the burning barge loose, and allow her to go adrift. She brought up on the shore near by, where the flames finished the work of reducing her to a wreck. The Middlesex was a brand new craft, and was built last summer by Detroit patriots at a cost of $65,000. We learn that she was uninsured.

Chicago's total contribution to the relief fund for the Michigan sufferers amounts to $48,000 in cash, and goods valued at $8,000. A freight train composed of a locomotive and twenty-five cars went through the Kankakee bridge, near Wilmington, Ill., Saturday morning last. The loss will foot up $75,000. All the train hands saved themselves by jumping.

NEGAUNEE.

JNO. MCKENNA, of Quinnesec, came up to return thanks on Thursday.

MR. JOSEPH KIRKPATRICK lies dangerously ill at his home in Cascade.

THE new time table on the M., H. & O. railroad goes into effect to-morrow.

SOME few of the young people went to Republic to indulge in the Thanksgiving dance.

NEGAUNEE needs a wood yard, and the man who supplies the want may increase in worldly wealth.

Now then, dust the rear portion of your pants with coal ashes--it will keep you from sliding when you slip.

AMONG the Thanksgiving arrivals, by train, was Jno. A. Kruse, Esq., Joseph Winter and Wm. S. Calhoun, Jr.

AN aged German named Henry Keckelson died at the Washnuth hotel last Sunday morning, and was buried Monday.

MRS. E. S. GREEN and daughter, Miss Minnie, left on Thursday's train for Clifton Springs, N. Y., where they will spend the winter.

AN eminent citizen says that the great disadvantage of traveling in the south is the lack of good whiskey--and he ought to know.

RUNNERS have taken the place of rumbly wheels, and the noise of the sleigh bells, both musical and hideous, is heard in the land.

THE city treasurer has filed an additional bond for $10,000, with Henry M. Atkinson, Benj. Neeley and Nicholas Laughlin as sureties.

BLESSED, indeed, are the poor--whose neighbors do not take their wood piles in whenever night spreads her sable mantle o'er the earth.

THE employes of the Rolling Mill mine received their wages at the Breitung house last Wednesday, at the hands of Mr. Beecher.

THE two daughters of Antoine Barabe, Jennie and Clinda, are severely ill with fever, and fears are entertained that they cannot recover.

THE merchants of the city have an idea that the American Express company should have a delivery wagon in connection with the office here, and in that the merchants are not much off.

MRS. JOHN FLORY, for the past twenty-seven years a resident of Negaunee, died of consumption, on Tuesday, aged 62 years. The funeral, held on Thursday, was largely attended by many of the pioneers of the city.

SEVERAL relics of the thanksgiving blow-out in the shape of chronic drunks were to be seen upon the streets Friday morning. It's queer--the ideas some people have of returning thanks to the governor for giving them a holiday.

CLEMENT BROS. concert company is billed for an entertainment in Winter's hall to-night. The company is one of the best that ever visits this country and we have no doubt will be greeted with the large audience its reputation deserves.

THERE was a big French blow out, wedding, street parade, and dance on Thanksgiving. The united ones are Peter Tritoe and Louise Delouey. After such a day how sad it must be to get down to actual realities--labor and pea soup.

SOME one has the idea that cheap John (whoever he may be) is nothing but a tramp auctioneer, entitled to pay a license to the city. John says he is not that kind of a jewsharp. Nevertheless he has been hauled before the justice on that demand.

THE turkey shoot held on the ice of Teal Lake last Thursday was well attended, several sportsmen contending for the best score. We were not able to get the score of each man, but it will suffice to say that Dan McDonald took the prize. He murdered two fat gobblers at 300 yards.

THERE are two bad holes in the sidewalk in rear of the old national bank building, on Iron street. Some one will get into them one of these days, and then jump upon the city for damages to the amount of bark peeled from his "shins." The cheapest way would be to mend the walk.

MR. FRANK D. MEAD took his final departure on Tuesday's train. After visiting a short time among friends and relatives at Ann Arbor, Mr. Mead will return to either Menominee or Delta county, and engage in the practice of law--a profession in which, with his talents and peculiar fitness, he is destined to take front rank.

THE governor's Sunday was quite generally indulged in by our people last Thursday. The interpretations of the people as to how to observe the day were many and varied, yet all tried to get as much enjoyment out of it as they could. Union thanksgiving services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church in the morning, when an able sermon was delivered by Rev. H. E. Davis, of the Presbyterian church. The audience was quite large. Business places were quite generally closed, only the saloons being kept open. Most every man, woman and child got on the outside of all the dinner they could carry and retired early to sleep off the effects of the debauch. Some few aided the unfortunate poor, but the many went on regardless of their existence.

TAPLEY'S minstrel troupe, after a successful evening at Marquette, returned here last Friday evening to "blow in" their receipts. In the pursuit of their drunk they ran into some Negaunee youths who were too many for them, as was instanced by several blackened eyes and flattened countenances on the street the next morning. It is safe to say that this aggregation of eye-sores will give Negaunee a wide margin in future. They are the most abandoned crowd of chronic that ever visited the city, and we are not sorry they received the pummeling their acts deserved.

IN an advertisement in another column of this paper it will be seen that the present proprietor of the Breitung house, Mr. J. A. Case, offers his lease of the property, together with the furniture and all the necessary equipments of a first class house, for sale. The Breitung is one of the best hotel properties in the mining region of Lake Superior; the building and furniture is new, and the right kind of a man will have no difficulty in holding the already large business of the house, besides adding much more. Any one wishing to engage in this business would do well to correspond with Mr. Case.

THE great 50c Cough cure, White Wine of Tar Syrup, is very pleasant to take, and two or three doses will often cure a cough of weeks standing. Price 50c. Sold by J. Crowley.

Hotel-Business for Sale.

The undersigned offers his three, with the privilege of five, years lease of the Breitung house, Negaunee, together with furniture and all hotel utensils, in first-class shape, on reasonable terms for cash. The Breitung is one of the finest and best planned of Lake Superior hotels, and since its opening, one year ago, has enjoyed a good paying business. Negaunee is in the center of the Marquette Iron Region; a city of 4,000 people; has but one good hotel; and is a popular resort for the traveling public. Correspondence, with a view to the above mentioned purchase, should be addressed to J. A. CASE, Proprietor Breitung House, Negaunee, Mich.

(First publication August 27, 1881.) MORTGAGE SALE. Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date the twenty-first day of February, A. D. 1876, by which the power of sale thereof contained became operative, made and executed by Ann Kieley to Angeline Noble, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Marquette county, state of Michigan, in Liber "7" of Mortgages, at pages 147 and 148, on the twenty-third day of February, A. D. 1876, and which mortgage was subsequently assigned by said Angeline Noble to John P. Douseman by an assignment bearing date the seventeenth day of November, A. D. 1877, made and executed by said Angeline Noble, and which assignment is recorded in the office of the register of deeds of said Marquette county on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1877, in Liber "8" of Mortgages, at page 365, on which said mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of five hundred and twenty-six dollars and an attorney fee of fifty dollars provided for in said mortgage to be paid in cash of this proceeding, and no proceedings either at law or in equity having been taken to foreclose said mortgage or to recover the money secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and the statute in such case made and provided, on Monday, the 29th day of December, A. D. 1881, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the front door of the court house in the city of Marquette, Marquette county, Michigan, that being the place for holding the circuit court of said county, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, with interest, taxes, and legal costs and expenses of such sale and said attorney fee, which said premises are described as follows, to-wit: The east half and the south-west quarter (1/4) of lot No. one hundred and fifty-five (155), in the village of Michigamme, Marquette county, Michigan, according to the Michigamme Company's plat of said village on record in the office of the register of deeds of said county. Dated August 24, 1881. JOHN P. DOUSEMAN, Assignee of mortgagee. G. W. HAYDEN, Atty' for Assignee.

(First publication November 12, 1881.) EXECUTION SALE. State of Michigan, County of Marquette, ss: Whereas, by virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the circuit court for the county of Houghton, in said state, and to me directed and delivered, upon a judgment of record in said court, wherein Richard Chynoweth is plaintiff and Luke Welch is defendant, I did on the 3rd day of June last levy upon all the right, title and interest of Luke Welch, the defendant named therein, in and to the following described lands in the county of Marquette aforesaid, to-wit: The south-west quarter and the north-west quarter of the south-east quarter of section thirty-six (36), in township forty-three (43), north of range thirty-four (34), west; the south-west quarter of the south-west quarter of the south-east quarter of the north-west quarter, the east half of the north-east quarter, the west half of the south-east quarter, the north-east quarter of the north-west quarter, and the north-west quarter of the north-east quarter of section one (1), the south-west quarter of the south-east quarter of section two (2), the north-west quarter of the north-east quarter of section twenty-one (21), in township forty-three (43), north of range thirty-two (32), west. Notice is hereby given that I will sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said execution and legal costs and expenses, at public auction to the highest bidder at the front door of the court house in the city of Marquette, in said county of Marquette, on the 28th day of December, 1881, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day. Dated November 7th, 1881. JOHN JEFFREY, Sheriff. T. L. CHADBOURNE, Plaintiff's Attorney.

hop biters THE PUREST AND BEST. Medicine ever made. THEY ARE COMPOUNDED FROM Hops, Buchu, Mandrags and Dandelion. "The Old-est, Best, Most Renowned, and Valuable Medicines in the World, and in addition contain all the best and most effective curative properties of all other biters, being the greatest Liver-Regulator, BLOOD PURIFIER, and life and health restoring agent on earth." They Give New Life and Vigor to the Aged and Infirm.

Cathartic Pills. Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases, caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system. As a Dinner Pill they have no equal. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

FUN WITH THE BOYS.

ESCANABA. The Port captures the removal of the "stake" buoy on the eleven-foot shoal in the harbor at that place, which it characterizes as a piece of "twenty dollar economy" that endangered a million dollars' worth of shipping for the balance of the season.

Joe Monahan has taken possession of the Ludington house, and will run it on high moral principles hereafter, if he doesn't lay up a cent. Good for Joe.

One Ole Gunterson took 9,000 pounds of fish from three nets Wednesday of last week. He must be a son of a Gunter catch fish. Hope he won't grow too proud over the net profits of his scaly vocation.

We have been saying "good-by" all the week to our lower lake friends, as they completed their cargoes and departed, none of them expecting to return before spring. They have made, on the whole, a good season of it, and go away happy.

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, of Milwaukee, which pulled out of Escanaba when times were tough, has put in an agent to work that field up again. The company wants to gather in some of the superfluous wealth floating about the place for the benefit of the "poor widows and orphans" in the sad by and bye. It's an awfully benevolent corporation.

The Port has heard about that wrangle between the Port Huron and Detroit relief committees, and thinks the squabble very disagreeable. We concur. Too many politicians managing this relief business is what's the matter. A politician will drag anything in the dirt if you'll give him the chance.

Win. Martins, of Ford River, has commenced the erection, at the corner of Ludington and Campbell streets, of a large boarding house. When completed, which will be by or before the first of May next, the house will be capable of accommodating one hundred boarders, and will be occupied by Mr. Martins himself, or his son-in-law, and "run for keeps." There will be no saloon or bar connected with the house.

St. Ignace. From the republican of the 12th we glean particulars of a storm from the east that did some damage at that point. During the afternoon the wind rose to a gale, and in the night the water was driven into the harbor with such force that three buildings along the shore were washed away. In one of these was the office of the new paper—the Independent—the proprietors of which lost some of their stock and material, and were necessarily seriously embarrassed in getting out the second number of their paper. No lives were lost, though it was a "wild night" for St. Ignace. Several skiffs were wrecked, and a boom full of logs belonging to the Mackinac Lumber Co. was broken and the logs driven ashore.

We are in receipt of the new St. Ignace paper, the Independent, whose initial number makes a creditable appearance. The publishers say they intend to run an "independent" sheet, but also promise that they will make it conform to public sentiment in all things as soon as they ascertain what that sentiment is! This is something new in independence. We shall watch the course of the new luminary with interest.

About the ore docks of the D. M. & M. company of that place the Republican says: One reporter, Friday afternoon, interviewed Joseph Gay, agent for the firm of McDonald & Hendle, ore dock contractors, relative to the work, and learned: Preparations are about completed for the beginning of the work; the steam driver will fall upon the first pile this (Friday) afternoon. The contract for the piles has been let to a responsible party, who is now delivering them by the car-load daily. Some 10,000 lineal feet of piles will be required for the dock. The lumber, over 22,000 feet, has also been contracted for. Some 75 tons of iron for the dock have already arrived and the blacksmith shop is up and will soon be equipped with an engine to furnish power for drilling and making bolts and nuts. The firm's work begins at a point five or ten feet from the track, and follows a curved line over the ex-Marley homestead to the water, crossing the state road 50 feet south of Lenton & Harold's thoroughfare being nearly 35 feet in height. The conformation of the lake bottom for from 100 to 120 feet out is of rock, and necessarily eribs will have to be sunk for foundations that distance out, to be succeeded by pile foundations. As soon as enough timber is received the contractors will put on a heavy force of carpenters and rush the work through by the first of May. They have a large force of men in their employ on the Northern Pacific and on the Marquette end of this road, who will be brought here when wanted.

Florence.—The furnace made its first cast the first part of last week, and the News notes that the "pig" turned out "looks well." A fire of ironed ore was started in the Florence market building the other day, but its timely discovery prevented serious consequences.

The officers of the new Florence Mining Company, are as follows: Directors, Albert Conroy, J. H. Van Dyke, J. J. Hagerman, John Stambaugh and Robert Mcurdy; president, J. J. Hagerman; vice president, J. H. Van Dyke; secretary and treasurer, G. D. Van Dyke.

C. D. Casad & Co.'s machine shop at Quinnesec was burned down a week ago last Sunday, a loss which will be felt all along the range as well as by the proprietors of the concern.

A very picturesque Indian appeared in town one bright day this week. He was tattooed on the upper story and freckled on the lower, and told our reporter confidentially that he belonged to the section of the great aborigines, known as the Pottawatamies. He was a grand, fine appearing specimen, and had a thrilling history, before he filled himself so full of water as to be unintelligible. Instead of a tomahawk, and the traditional quiver, filled with flint headed arrows, he carried one of the latest improved Whitney rifles and a belt of breach loading cartridges. He was merely one of Fenimore Cooper's heroes modernized.

Sault Ste. Marie.—From the News of the 12th we learn of the arrest of Wm. A. Bond, of that place, charged with smuggling, by deputy U. S. marshal Lessard. The goods were found secreted in his barn, and consisted of blankets, liquors, etc. Bond was examined on the charge before U. S. commissioner Colwell, who bound him over for trial in the U. S. district court at Marquette in the sum of $200, H. L. Newton going his security.

One of Williams and Upham's dump scows was sunk while at work tending the dredge lately, and will winter at the bottom of the river.

Mail now reaches the "800" by the overland route.

A Dr. Gable whose true name is ascertained to be Sutherland, has been sailing under false colors, and with a false consent, in the placid waters of the "800" until recently, but the boys got "onto" his racket and he had to skip. It transpires that the pseudo doctor is a very bad egg, and the News "exposes" his antecedents heartlessly in the last issue.

The dredging on the south side of the lock entrance has been completed, and another crib was successfully sunk in place this week. A large force of workmen are engaged upon the construction of the remaining portion, and it is hoped that they can be got to place before winter sets in.

ONTONAGON.—The miner has an account of the outrage perpetrated on that office the other night, coupled with a promise to the perpetrators that they'll get hurt if they "do so again."

We have this week been visited by a very intelligent Swede, who has been looking over our resources with a view of inducing a colony of his countrymen to come over and settle on some of the lands in Ontonagon county. He claims he can bring over from Sweden from two to four hundred intelligent farmers, if they can only be assured of land on which to make their homes. Here then is a chance for some of the large property holders to bestip themselves and secure a good class of settlers on their lands, which will help to make the adjoining land of some value.

HERE AND THERE.—The Cheboygan Democrat gives details of what has been done in that town during the year in the way of building and improvements, which we condense: One hundred and twenty dwellings have been constructed, ranging in cost from $3,000 down to $225; six brick stores, ranging in cost from $2,300 to $8,000 have been put up; ten frame store buildings and offices, costing from $900 to $1,200, besides a large amount of repairing and improvements, the whole value of which will reach nearly $300,000. The town will soon be provided with a water works system, at a cost of $25,000. The showing is a good one for Cheboygan. The same paper records an attempt to break jail at that place Monday morning of last week which was frustrated by the sheriff's vigilance; an attempt at suicide by Henry Crumps, a young married man twenty-two years of age, who shot himself in the breast with a revolver, inflicting a probably fatal wound; an assault by some parties unknown on John Blackwell, who was knocked down and robbed, losing $48 and getting a broken leg, and considerable other news of less general interest. The Democrat is a right smart newspaper, it may not be amiss to add right here.

The Calumet News states that the village of Red Jacket supports thirty-seven saloons. It must support them generously too, for they pay over $6,000 in licenses for the privilege of doing business. Great snakes! What a population of saloonmates that place must have!

The Duluth Tribune of the 18th gives particulars of the destruction of the Clark house at that place last week by fire. The hotel was a total loss. Considerable of the furniture and effects were saved, but in a damaged condition. The value of the property destroyed is estimated at $50,000, on which there was $23,000 insurance. This deprives Duluth of the only good hotel in the place, and is a serious loss to the town, temporarily, though it will doubtless be replaced by a fine building next spring. The house was the property of A. F. Clark, of Philadelphia, and was rented by him to Mr. Cullyford, who was in possession at the time of its cremation.

M. & M. company of that place the Republican says: One reporter, Friday afternoon, interviewed Joseph Gay, agent for the firm of McDonald & Hendle, ore dock contractors, relative to the work, and learned: Preparations are about completed for the beginning of the work; the steam driver will fall upon the first pile this (Friday) afternoon. The contract for the piles has been let to a responsible party, who is now delivering them by the car-load daily. Some 10,000 lineal feet of piles will be required for the dock. The lumber, over 22,000 feet, has also been contracted for. Some 75 tons of iron for the dock have already arrived and the blacksmith shop is up and will soon be equipped with an engine to furnish power for drilling and making bolts and nuts. The firm's work begins at a point five or ten feet from the track, and follows a curved line over the ex-Marley homestead to the water, crossing the state road 50 feet south of Lenton & Harold's thoroughfare being nearly 35 feet in height. The conformation of the lake bottom for from 100 to 120 feet out is of rock, and necessarily eribs will have to be sunk for foundations that distance out, to be succeeded by pile foundations. As soon as enough timber is received the contractors will put on a heavy force of carpenters and rush the work through by the first of May. They have a large force of men in their employ on the Northern Pacific and on the Marquette end of this road, who will be brought here when wanted.

Florence.—The furnace made its first cast the first part of last week, and the News notes that the "pig" turned out "looks well." A fire of ironed ore was started in the Florence market building the other day, but its timely discovery prevented serious consequences.

The officers of the new Florence Mining Company, are as follows: Directors, Albert Conroy, J. H. Van Dyke, J. J. Hagerman, John Stambaugh and Robert Mcurdy; president, J. J. Hagerman; vice president, J. H. Van Dyke; secretary and treasurer, G. D. Van Dyke.

C. D. Casad & Co.'s machine shop at Quinnesec was burned down a week ago last Sunday, a loss which will be felt all along the range as well as by the proprietors of the concern.

A very picturesque Indian appeared in town one bright day this week. He was tattooed on the upper story and freckled on the lower, and told our reporter confidentially that he belonged to the section of the great aborigines, known as the Pottawatamies. He was a grand, fine appearing specimen, and had a thrilling history, before he filled himself so full of water as to be unintelligible. Instead of a tomahawk, and the traditional quiver, filled with flint headed arrows, he carried one of the latest improved Whitney rifles and a belt of breach loading cartridges. He was merely one of Fenimore Cooper's heroes modernized.

Sault Ste. Marie.—From the News of the 12th we learn of the arrest of Wm. A. Bond, of that place, charged with smuggling, by deputy U. S. marshal Lessard. The goods were found secreted in his barn, and consisted of blankets, liquors, etc. Bond was examined on the charge before U. S. commissioner Colwell, who bound him over for trial in the U. S. district court at Marquette in the sum of $200, H. L. Newton going his security.

One of Williams and Upham's dump scows was sunk while at work tending the dredge lately, and will winter at the bottom of the river.

Mail now reaches the "800" by the overland route.

A Dr. Gable whose true name is ascertained to be Sutherland, has been sailing under false colors, and with a false consent, in the placid waters of the "800" until recently, but the boys got "onto" his racket and he had to skip. It transpires that the pseudo doctor is a very bad egg, and the News "exposes" his antecedents heartlessly in the last issue.

The dredging on the south side of the lock entrance has been completed, and another crib was successfully sunk in place this week. A large force of workmen are engaged upon the construction of the remaining portion, and it is hoped that they can be got to place before winter sets in.

ONTONAGON.—The miner has an account of the outrage perpetrated on that office the other night, coupled with a promise to the perpetrators that they'll get hurt if they "do so again."

The Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon R. R. company's surveyors have crossed the L'Anse state road between the big branch of the Sturgeon and the half-way house, and are making good progress toward Ontonagon, their terminus.

This week will see the O. & B. line extended to Rockland, and work begun on the big bridges. When once past these, the Miner says, track-laying will progress rapidly, as the road runs through a comparatively level country along on the south of the range.

Look This Girl Over!

Examine her carefully, and if you like her she is yours. Her disposition is amiable, she doesn't swear nor chew gum. She doesn't wear out many Clothes, is not hard on Shoes, doesn't like Ice Cream, relishes a plain substantial diet—ham and eggs, potatoes, cabbage, turnips and water are her favorite fare. We have consulted her father, (she has no mother—no mother-in-law. D'ye see!)

SWEETS' PATENT Common Sense Sleigh.

THE STRONGEST, MOST DURABLE, AND MOST PERFECT SLEIGH IN USE. I RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of Lumbermen to this cut, showing Sweet's Logging and Supply Sleighs. We are now making eight different sizes, suitable for all kinds of work, both double and single, and of any width of track desired. It is a well-known fact that these sleighs will draw larger loads, with more ease of draft, than any other sleigh produced. They are built loose jointed, so that each runner will act independent of each other, and will not tip over in bad places, as the common stiff-jointed sleigh is sure to do. They also have a Patent Shoe, Concave Heel, so as to prevent the sleigh from slewing or sliding sideways, so that the sleigh is bound to keep the track, which is a large item to every man that drives a team. I keep on hand all sizes of Logging, Light and Heavy Teaming and Delivery Sleighs, all warranted to give perfect satisfaction. Parties will please send their orders in time for the coming winter, and not wait until the rush comes. All orders promptly attended to. SOLD CHEAP FOR CASH.
