VICTORIA'S DEATH BUT A QUESTION OF HOURS.
Slight Rally Yesterday Is Followed by a Change for the Worse This Morning.
HER MAJESTY ONLY KEPT ALIVE BY STIMULANTS.
Realized by the Physicians and Royal Family as Well That There Is Absolutely No Hope and the Inevitable Is Near at Hand.

NEWS FROM THE BEDSIDE EXCEEDINGLY GRAVE.
London, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—8:30 a. m.—An official bulletin issued at Osborne house says:
At 8 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning the queen showed signs of diminishing strength, and her condition has again assumed a more serious aspect.
London, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—8:30 a. m.—The Cowes correspondent of The Daily Express learns unofficially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.
EARLIER CONDITION FAVORABLE.
Cowes, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—12:30 a. m.—The following is the full text of the midnight bulletin posted at Osborne house: "There is no material change in the queen's condition. The slight improvement of the morning has been maintained throughout the day. Food has been taken fairly well and some tranquil sleep secured."
Cowes, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—5 a. m.—Up to this hour no further bulletin has been issued. The Associated Press is informed that the queen's condition has undergone no change. The queen is now expected to live until Thursday morning unless unexpected complications occur.

QUEEN'S DOCTORS ASTONISHED.
RALLY OF THE PATIENT YESTERDAY TOTALLY UNEXPECTED.
Cowes, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—1 a. m.—Another day in the Victorian era, now so rapidly drawing to a close, passed without any great change in the condition of Queen Victoria. The slight improvement so frequently mentioned in the official bulletins merely indicates a postponement of the inevitable. The end may be a matter of days, or only hours; but the members of the royal family who are now dragging out a weary visit at Osborne house know that the death of her majesty is merely a question of a short time.
The most noticeable feature of yesterday was the satisfactory portion the queen spent in consciousness, which she regained early in the afternoon and still retained at 10 o'clock p. m. At that hour she had not seen Emperor William, the local rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. The royalty at Osborne house thus had a chance to recuperate from the terrible ordeal undergone during the early hours Monday.
CALLED FOUR TIMES.
The correspondent of the Associated Press is informed that the members of the royal family were called to the room adjoining the queen's bedchamber no less than four times yesterday morning and kept in momentary expectation of being summoned to witness the end. Her majesty's physicians then had only a vestige of hope that they would be able to keep the queen's feeble life in existence until the Prince of Wales returned from London with the kaiser.
To secure this result they resorted to the frequent use of brandy and champagne. These stimulants were used to an extent which only the greatest emergency justified, and worked their process; and when the Prince of Wales and Emperor William entered the castle grounds at 11:30 a. m. they found the queen a trifle better than had been expected.
The desperate remedies employed yesterday (Monday) morning to enable her majesty to live until her eldest son's arrival will not be used again to the same extent, for the doctors are fearful the remedy might be almost worse than the disease. They trust to prolong her life by a moderate application of stimulants, combined with as much nourishment as can be assimilated.
NO FALSE HOPES HELD OUT.
The queen's rally has astonished no one more than her physicians; and when at four yesterday afternoon they heard her ask for chicken broth, their amazement was great. Privately, however, they build no false hopes upon these fading signs of what has been one of the strongest constitutions with which woman was ever endowed.
Despite the favorable afternoon, the doctors dreaded greatly the period between six and midnight. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the memory of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

The news of death when it occurs is likely to be publicly announced in London before it is announced here, as according to present arrangements the first telegram is to be sent to the lord mayor of London. There is an enormous telegraphic staff in Cowes, and additional facilities were installed yesterday at Osborne.
VILLAGERS BEWAILING.
Already the villagers are bewailing the fate that is likely to befall Cowes, for it is known the Prince of Wales probably will never make Osborne house his place of residence. There is an entire absence of local excitement. The town has settled down in patience and sadness to await the inevitable.
Never has Emperor William arrived in England with so little ceremony. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given, the people contenting themselves with baring their heads. After lunch at the castle the Prince of Wales, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught strolled around the grounds and visited the local sailors' house.
CABINET HOLDS SESSION.
PROCEDURE TO BE TAKEN ON QUEEN'S DEATH MAPPED OUT.
London, Jan. 21.—The inner circle of the cabinet has been in session this afternoon in connection with the official procedure in the event of her majesty's death.
London, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—A special train is held in readiness to convey the members of the cabinet to Osborne at any moment. Thus far it has not been required. Up to 3 o'clock a. m. no further bulletins had been received in London since the one issued at midnight.
Emperor William is spending the night at Osborne, where the accommodations are so severely taxed that the Battenberg children slept Monday night at Lord Gort's residence, east of the Cowes castle, and the royal yachts at Cowes are being fitted up for the accommodation of visitors.
Biarritz, France, Jan. 21.—Princess Frederica of Hanover has left for Osborne.

VERDI IS CRITICALLY ILL.
FAMOUS ITALIAN COMPOSER PROBABLY ON HIS DEATHBED.
Milan, Tuesday, Jan. 22.—Various accounts are given of the illness from which Signor Giuseppe Verdi, the celebrated Italian composer, is suffering. A bulletin issued at nine last evening says: "The acute troubles in the lobes of the brain have deadened sensibility and his condition is serious."
Signor Verdi was taken ill shortly after his return from a drive and was found in his room unconscious.

SCHOOLS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION IS ESTABLISHED.
Manila, Jan. 21.—An act establishing a department of public instruction was unanimously passed by the Philippine commission today after a debate between Commissioner Moss and Judge Taft over that section permitting religious instruction in school houses.
MR. LEA'E IS AGREEABLE.
HIS WIFE, THE KANSAS LECTURER, SUES FOR A DIVORCE.
Wichita, Kas., Jan. 21.—Mary E. Lease today filed a suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the district court of Sedgewick county. The petition charges the defendant with being guilty of gross neglect of duty, in this that the defendant has failed in his neglect for more than twelve years past to support the plaintiff and her family. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease signifying his intention of not contesting.

MINERS PUT TO ROUT.
KENTUCKY DIGGERS MARCH ON A NON-UNION COLLIERY, BUT ARE DISPERSED BY SHERIFF'S POSSE, LOSING TWO DEAD.
Earlington, Ky., Jan. 21.—Union miners, 150 strong, today started on a march from Boxtown to the Carbonate mines, in Hopkins county, to stop the non-union men at work there. On the way the sheriff's posse attempted to stop them and were answered by a shot. A fusillade followed, the miners retreating. One of their number—Bill Cook—was killed and another—John Taylor—died from his wounds in a few hours.

ENGLISH SLEUTHS BLUNDERED.
STEAMER MICHIGAN CREW CERTAIN THE MYSTERIOUS PASSENGER WAS KIDNAPER CROWE
Boston, Jan. 21.—When the steamer Michigan, which arrived today from Liverpool, last sailed from this port, Dec. 22, she carried a suspiciously acting stranger, who, although well dressed, shipped at the last moment as a cattle tender under the name of Robert Lambert. The police were notified that this man, who looked like Pat Crowe of Omaha, was on the steamer, but too late to intercept him. A cablegram was sent to Liverpool and word came back the officers found no one who answered Crowe's description. The officers and crew of the steamer were today shown Crowe's photograph and many of them are certain the man Lambert was Crowe. The bunk mate of Lambert is certain the latter and Crowe are identical. Lambert acted queerly toward the end of the trip, slipping away the good clothes he wore on coming aboard. He told the deck officer at Liverpool he wished to get ashore quietly, as he was afraid his friends would see him. He seemed to have plenty of money and in his conversation told much about the West.

DIE IN A HOTEL FIRE.
THREE MEN PERISH AT KEWANEE, ILLS.—TWO INJURED.
Kewanee, Ills., Jan. 21.—Fire today destroyed the Commercial House and caused the death of three men. The dead:
C. C. COTTON, Terre Haute, advance theatrical agent.
ELMER PETERSON, Galesburg, brick mason.
JAMES FISCHER, Walnut, Ills., auctioneer.
Injured—John C. Gruber, Fort Wayne; Martin Jacobs, Chicago.
An explosion in the kitchen sent flames into every corner of the house and cut off escape by means of stairs. The frantic guests rushed to the windows and some hurled themselves to the ground without waiting for assistance by the firemen, while others had to be carried out, fainting and panic-stricken. The twenty guests who escaped lost all baggage and clothing.
FIRE LOSS AT HENRY $100,000.
Peoria, Ills., Jan. 21.—Nine buildings were destroyed by fire at Henry, thirty miles from here, this morning. The loss is $100,000; insurance, $50,000.
COSTLY MILWAUKEE BLAZE
Milwaukee, Jan. 21.—Fire tonight in the Eagle Horseshoe works caused a loss estimated at $150,000.

ASSAULTS THE OFFICER.
Mrs. Nation turned and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with both hands and wringing them viciously.
Tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful antagonist. A policeman came to his rescue and, aided by bystanders, they picked up the woman bodily, placed her in a cab and landed her in jail.
Late tonight Mrs. Wilhoit and Mrs. Evans were arrested and locked up, but Mrs. Muntz could not be found.
SOUTHALL GOES FREE.
SENTENCE OF MINNESOTA MAN WHO DEPRECATED GOVERNMENT OUT OF $750,000 IS COMMUTED—WIFE IS SICK.
St. Paul, Jan. 21.—Jas. H. Southall, who was convicted a couple of years ago of fraudulent dealings in government time checks, by which he secured nearly three quarters of a million dollars, today had his sentence commuted by the state board of pardons on account of the critical condition of his wife's health. The application for a pardon was denied by the board on Thursday, and the effect of the disappointment upon his wife's health was such that her reason was despaired of. Since then the board has had Mrs. Southall examined by experts and has rescinded its action then taken. Southall was paroled and returned home tonight.
DELAWARE DEADLOCK CONTINUES.
REPUBLICAN MAJORITY STILL AT ODDS OVER THE SENATORSHIP.
Dover, Del., Jan. 21.—The sixth joint ballot in the deadlock for two United States senators was taken at noon. There was no material change in the situation.
GROCERS IN CONVENTION.

MRS. NATION AT IT AGAIN.
Two More Wichita Saloons Are Wrecked by the Temperance Leader.
ATTEMPT FAILS AT THIRD.
Proprietor Threatens to Shoot and the Crusaders Pass On—Are Arrested. Released and Jailed Again.

SLAPS THE SHERIFF'S FACE
Wichita, Kas., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Carrie Nation returned to Wichita today, after her recent incarceration under small-pox quarantine, and proceeded to wreck two saloons, pieces of which are being sold tonight for souvenirs. Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Wilhoit and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization.
ARMED WITH HATCHETS.
With hatchets concealed under their cloaks the women entered the saloon of James Burns, and when they had finished their operations every pane of glass and slot machine in the place was ruined. All the show cases, as well as the plate glass windows and doors, were broken into smithereens.
The women next ran to John Gerrig's saloon and had smashed the front of the building, including the plate glass windows, when the proprietor appeared with a revolver and placed it at Mrs. Nation's head, threatening to blow out her brains if she did not desist.
The leader of the crusade yielded before the pointed revolver and, with her companions, repaired to the Carey Hotel bar, where she made her first attack on the saloons at Wichita three weeks ago. There three policemen met her and, after a personal engagement, took all the crusaders to the city prison, followed by an immense crowd.
MORE OF IT DUE TODAY.
Chief of Police Cudomb discharged the prisoners after they promised not to wreck any more saloons before noon tomorrow. After leaving the city building Mrs. Nation addressed the crowd surrounding the city building, saying she expected to begin the saloon wrecking again at noon tomorrow, when her truce with the chief of police expires.
The women then secured a wagon and rode through the streets singing hymns. They halted in front of the wrecked saloons and held prayer meetings.
Later—Mrs. Nation caused another sensation tonight by slapping Sheriff Simmons on the face, taking hold of his ears and giving him a rough handling generally.
Mrs. Nation was at the Union station, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled her sleeve, saying, "You are my prisoner, madam."

TONTINE COMPANY IN COURT.

LAKE LINDEN MAN BRINGS SUIT FOR THE RECOVERY OF $120 DUE ON HIS CONTRACT.

An interesting and somewhat unique civil case was tried in Justice Oliver's court, Hancock, yesterday morning.

The plan of a tontine concern is generally understood by the public. The person who enters into a so-called contract with the company agrees to pay $5 a month for a period of sixteen months and at the end of that time the money is paid back with its additional sum amounting to an interest of 50 per cent. on the amount paid in.

There are many Portage Lake people who have contracts with the Detroit Tontine company. The concern has its friends and likewise its enemies.

There was a fire in the kitchen of the Hotel North-western, Hancock, by a blaze in the kitchen of that popular hostelry about 10 o'clock Sunday night.

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of the Hotel Northwestern, Hancock, by a blaze in the kitchen of that popular hostelry about 10 o'clock Sunday night.

The German Aid society of Houghton will give its annual ball and party at Hartman's Hall, Houghton, next Saturday night.

Rev. Father Francis Clement Kelley, a chaplain with the boys of the Thirty-fifth Michigan Volunteer regiment in the late war, will lecture at the Houghton Armory Opera House tonight.

C. F. WRIGHT GOES TO MARQUETTE.

HOUGHTON STATION AGENT TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE QUEEN CITY DEPOT VICE J. H. O'MEARA, PROMOTED TO PAYMASTER.

C. F. Wright, who has served the South Shore road in the capacity of station agent at the Houghton depot for the past three years, was yesterday appointed to take charge of the ticket agency of the road at Marquette.

Mr. Wright will leave today to take hold of his new work, and as soon as he finds comfortable quarters and is located will remove his family to Marquette.

H. W. Hart, who has been employed by the South Shore road as relief agent for the past two years, has been chosen as the successor of Mr. Wright and will take hold of the Houghton station work today.

CHANGE OF VENUE ASKED.

CALUMET MURDER CASE MAY BE TRIED IN ANOTHER CIRCUIT—COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The circuit court convened for the January term yesterday, Judge Street presiding. The day was devoted to arranging the docket and hearing motions.

The attorneys of Hadley Sumner of Calumet, charged with murder in the second degree, asked for a change of venue, and the judge took the matter under advisement.

The general opinion is that the St. John (Miller store fire conspiracy) case will not be tried at this session.

FIRE IN HOTEL RANGE TOO HOT.

LITTLE BLAZE AT NORTHWESTERN CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of the Hotel Northwestern, Hancock, by a blaze in the kitchen of that popular hostelry about 10 o'clock Sunday night.

The blaze was discovered by Mr. Goerling, who luckily happened in the kitchen at the right time.

The fire was quickly put out by the one who saw it first, it created a little excitement at the time.

THOMSON VS. THOMPSON.

EXCELLENT SKATING RACE ARRANGED FOR THIS EVENING.

The Palace ice rink, Hancock, in its addition to hockey matches as attractions, is following in the steps of its "rival" and is arranging skating races.

It may be said of Thorvald Thomson that he is a skater of marked ability, having defeated many of the best skaters in this country and in Norway.

Last year he entered the national races at Chicago, and was the victor of the handsomely offered prize of $1000.

Good music will be in attendance tonight. SHORT DISTANCES BARRED.

Asmond Bryce of Houghton yesterday informed The Mining Journal representative that he had declined to accept the offer of Pattison, the West Superior, now a student at the College of Mines, for a half-mile race.

Mr. Bryce is after a Calumet skater by the name of Preidstein for a mile race. The latter is well-known in this section as a speedy man on the ice and has taken part in many skating races.

HOCKEY THURSDAY NIGHT.

MATCH BETWEEN THE PORTAGE LAKE AND DOLLAR BAY TEAMS IS UNEXPECTEDLY ARRANGED.

The Dollar Bay hockey seven yesterday consented to meet the Portage Lake team on Thursday night of this week to play off the tie game, and for the supremacy of hockey in copperdom and the championship of the county.

The match was arranged because of a pleasant surprise to the hockey enthusiasts at Portage Lake, as it was the opinion up to Sunday night that the Dollar Bay seven did not want to have the game arranged for such a near date.

The Portage Lake hockey team is anxious to meet a game with a hockey seven at Marquette. It is understood by the members of the Portage Lake seven that Marquette has a hockey team, but that it is unwilling to meet an "adult" aggregation.

LOSES ANOTHER VALUABLE HORSE.

RUNAWAY AT HANCOCK COSTS LIVERYMAN COUGHLIN $175—2 BIG WINDOWS ALSO BROKEN.

Daniel Coughlin of Hancock, the popular liveryman, had the misfortune to lose one of his best driving horses by death, resulting from an accident in a runaway about half past nine o'clock Sunday night.

The young man, intending to enjoy the evening, which was ideal for driving, drove from the stable to their homes on the hill to prepare for the ride. On the way back to town the horse took the route by way of Reservation street, which led down the hill to Quincy or the main thoroughfare of the village.

The horse was frightened by the mishap and started on a mad dash down Quincy street west and toward the livery stable. At Tezucou street the horse turned from the road to the sidewalk and headed for the barn.

The horse was valued by Mr. Coughlin at $150. The young man, who had had about the affair, are in no way to blame for the accident, as they were unaccustomed to driving where there are street car tracks.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

STOCKS ARE CHEAP.

The Brokers Think the Reaction is Now Over.

The copper market continues dull but it is generally believed that the reaction is about over and that a turn will come very soon. Paine, Webber & Co. said:

"The Quincy dividend was rather a disappointment and, with the weakness in Amalgamated in the early part of the day, it caused some selling of the copper on the close. The market had a strong rally and we believe stocks have had all the reaction they are going to get. Amalgamated, Butte, Bolido, Triniton and Copper Range are big purchases around present figures."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission company:

"Coppers were dull and somewhat lower again, due to a severe drive against Amalgamated. This stock broke sharply but rallied well. It looks as if this was a drive to dislodge all weak holders before a boom starts. Some one is doing his best to keep the copper down. They are not ready for a boom yet and they will not tell when they are. However, stocks are cheap now and may be cheaper but we would rather buy than sell, especially on all reactions."

"The world's shipments brought higher cables this morning. These in turn were responsible for a higher opening but the market soon offered down. The trade ruled quiet most of the day with nothing of a sensational nature. The advance was entirely in order and in fact was expected, nevertheless a considerable short interest stood out against it. This export business is the best bull argument we have. The outlook tonight is favorable for another advance although it will probably meet with heavy short selling."

POOR LITTLE BOLIVIA.

CHILI EAGER TO ENTER INTO A HEARTLESS ARRANGEMENT TO SEIZE AND PARTITION IT UP.

WONDER AT WASHINGTON HOW SHE WILL PART BECAUSE OF CHILI'S PARTITION PLAN.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The South American diplomats here are anxiously awaiting information as to how the Chilean proposal to partition Bolivia has been received by the cabinet of Brazil, Argentina and Paraguay, although it is generally expected the overtures will meet with scant reception as in Peru. Bolivia is a weak nation, and could not singly resist an attack by the troops of any one of the nations named, hence, much less the united force of several governments.

The proposition to partition Bolivia is not the first move Chili has made to estrange Peru and Bolivia. During the war with Chili an envoy was sent to the Bolivian camp to induce President Lanza to abandon his Peruvian ally, but the attempt was unsuccessful.

It is believed here that Chili's proposal to partition Bolivia is due to her desire to end the alliance existing between Peru and Bolivia, and to secure possession of the provinces of Tarma and Areca.

Cable dispatches from Valpa raised yesterday announced that the Billings chamber had rejected the Billings arbitration protocol providing for arbitration of the Tacna-Arica dispute. This protocol was signed in 1893, and immediately ratified by Peru, but the status quo being favorable to Chili, her congress delayed action upon it until a few days ago.

In 1898 Chili feared, it is said, that Peru might join the Argentine Republic when that country and Chili were engaged over their boundary dispute and when a war between them appeared to be imminent.

By accepting the Billings-Latorre protocol Chili appeared Peru, and as since then she has submitted her dispute with Argentina to the arbitration of Queen Victoria, she is now, it is charged, able to leave the question where it stood prior to the signing of the proposal.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.

A steamship has sailed from Norfolk with 600 tons of American coal, consigned to the Russian government at Port Arthur, China, full of the way around the globe. It is said that this is the first installment of a purchase of 1,000,000 tons, and, if so, it emphasizes the dependence of European nations upon this country for fuel. Incidentally, it furnishes a strong argument against Senator Hawley's plea that we are in possible danger of attack from a foreign enemy, as taken in connection with the orders recently received from other nations, it shows that, in such a case, the attacking nation would have to procure their sinews of war from us. But there is another consideration. China is known to contain vast beds of excellent coal easily worked and readily transported to the seaboard. If fuel is growing so scarce in Europe as the springing up of this sudden demand on the United States would imply, these coal beds furnish a great inducement for the enterprising world powers to take possession of that country.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

RUSSIAN DUPLICITY.

Experience of a Detroit Naval Architect with the Czar's Government.

Plans for the Lake Balkal Ice Crusher Prepared by Him Confiscated and Compensation Denied Him.

An interesting story regarding the experience of Frank E. Kirby, naval architect of Detroit, with the Russian government some time previous to the beginning of work on the famous Russian ice crusher Ermack, was published recently in the Detroit Free Press. The Free Press says:

"The Russian government had heard much of the success of the Ste. Marie, in service at the Straits of MacGinaw, and invited Frank E. Kirby, its designer, to make a bid on a craft of similar style, but much larger and more powerful. The first intention was to make her of wood, but investigation showed there was no suitable oak to be obtained within thousands of miles of the Lake Balkal port where she was to be put together, so steel was substituted. Mr. Kirby figured that many parts of the craft could be constructed at the Detroit plant and shipped to the Lake Balkal port, and the bulkier parts built in Russia and shipped there, the lake being inland. Having completed the plans, on which he put many months of his hard labor, Mr. Kirby shipped them over with his bid, it being the usual custom to accompany all bids to the city of Detroit, Mich. Kirby, finally Mr. Kirby was sent for, and went to St. Petersburg. In the presence of the Russian officials he encountered a representative of the great Armstrong ship building concern of England, perhaps the largest in the world, with a book of contracts as large as that of the city of Detroit. It became evident that all the astute Russians had been scheming for from the beginning was possession of the plans, for they began to hedge the contract about with provisions which made it practically prohibitive to the Detroit company. They demanded, among other things, that the American concern give bond of a Russian company or bank for the entire and faithful performance of its part of the contract, and that the boat must be completed on a certain date or the company pay an exorbitant penalty. This simply meant that the Detroit Dry Dock Co. would have to ship over a sum of money equal to the greater part of the price of the boat, and deposit it in a Russian bank as collateral for the bond. This exaction and the rigid nature of the Russian demands and penalties completely paralyzed Kirby, and he refused absolutely to have anything more to do with it. This was exactly what the Russians and the Armstrong representative wanted. The big English concern had done a lot of work, giving Russian security, for that government immediately annulled the contract and the terms and secured the contract, using the American's plans. The Russian government has for some years been successfully operating the big ice crusher Ermack on the Baltic sea, but she was built on the general principle of the Kirby design. Work on the Lake Balkal craft was begun first, owing to the lack of water connection with salt water, the work was so delayed that the Ermack, begun much later, was finished and in operation some time before her.

"Kirby has often been associated in magazine and newspaper articles in this country the name of the Russian admiral Makaroff, who is generally credited with being her designer and creator, with no thought of credit for the wonderful device to another.

"Kirby was sent here by the Russian government to negotiate the negotiations, which were started through a sketch of the St. Ignace drawn by a Detroit graphic artist, came to Detroit and had long talks with Mr. Kirby and General Manager of the Detroit Dry Dock Co., which built both the Ste. Marie and the Straits of Mackinaw and closely investigated the workings of the ice crushers and was particularly impressed with the bow screw and the style of the hulls. It was his favorable opinion of the plan that induced his government to decide to build. The fact that Kirby's plans were used in proof that the attempts of foreign designers to make suitable plans, on Makaroff's description, failed.

"A friend of Mr. Kirby's who tells this story, says he saw Mr. Kirby just after he arrived back. The latter stated that life was made a burden for him all the time he was in Russia. The authorities took possession of all his mail and opened and read every letter before allowing them to be sent. He was under as strict espionage as though he had been passing the border line of the country on his return home, he was so delighted at getting out of the place that he threw up his hat and yelled with joy. He was worth $15,000 to $20,000 from the standpoint of the ship building expert, but to the Russian government they were worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. Yet the dishonest emissaries of the czar never offered him one cent for them; they simply confiscated them, for Mr. Kirby contends that, although according to American law they were his property, there was little use in sending in a bill, as the payment would be refused, and a suit in a Russian court by an American against the Russian government could have but one result, the confiscation of the ship.

"The magnificent Balkal ice crusher, the achievements of which are being written and talked about all over the civilized world, is the product of a barefaced robbery of the brain work of one defenseless Detroit man by the powerful Russian government."

$1,000 Per Annum AND How to Earn It.

We believe that 1,000 shares of stock in this company, which will cost now $100.00 cash—or $125.00 on time ($3.00 per month), will earn $1,000.00 per annum, —provided we can start three hydraulics to work this next season on our placer claims in the GOLD MINE - OF TURNAGAIN ARM - in Southern Alaska.

Let us show you how we base our predictions—and whether we are conservative enough.

When our inspector, Mr. Michaels, was prospecting on our property last year he made one test on one of our claims on Winner Creek, which as he says in his report "greatly surprised me, but did not seem to be anything unusual to the men at work. They were used to such 'surprises!' (See page 37 of our book "Findings from Alaska"—sent free on request.) We will quote him:

"I had a line of sluice boxes thoroughly cleaned and set, then I selected four 'men to shovel gravel into these boxes, and at the end of three days made a clean-up which was a great surprise to me, but did not seem to be anything unusual to the miners working there."

"The result of three-days' run was 35 oz. 14 grains of gold, equal to a little 'over $590.00 in money!'"

It is indeed surprising! And very encouraging to those who hold shares of stock! Now it is just a simple problem in arithmetic, to figure that if 4 men could recover $590.00 in three days—3 hydraulics which will do the work of 1,500 men daily—would recover a sum almost fabulous in that length of time.

You must always remember that these claims are thought to be the richest ever discovered on this continent. And the day will surely come when instead of our saying help us get our gold out—you will say where can I buy some of that stock. It will be worth dollars then where it is worth cents today.

It's a gold mine—or rather 24 gold mines under one head-placer gold mines, remember. And it has been possible for us to find out what their possibilities were, before we started out to offer stock. (See Inspector Michael's report in our book "Findings from Alaska," sent free.)

Gold has a ready sale anywhere on this earth—it isn't like real estate, that fluctuates; or like some commodity that must be hawked around in the open market, to compete with some other like commodity which has perhaps been raised or made cheaper than yours, and therefore may be offered at a less price.

It's gold, and gold rules the world! and has a fixed value anywhere in the world. There have been cases without number where a lot of unscrupulous "promoters" have come out and offered shares of stock in "a gold mine," altho' perhaps up until then they hadn't "discovered" the mine.

And a credulous public bought shares—not knowing or caring where the property was, or who its promoters were. It was cheap gambling.

And when enough shares had been unloaded to feather the nests of these gentlemen of fertile imagination—they would "fold up their tents like the Arab, and silently steal away" and begin a new steal, in another locality with a new game.

Such transactions brought legitimate mining investments into disrepute—but they can't kill such investments.

Here are the names and occupations of the men who are fathering this company. They are men of sterling integrity in the communities where they reside—

THE OFFICERS OF THIS COMPANY ARE:
JOSEPH MICHAELS, President. DR. S. M. MOULTON, Treasurer. LEE S. OVITT, Secretary.
Bonded Trustees: LEE S. OVITT, Milwaukee; S. M. MOULTON, Minneapolis.

DIRECTORS:
S. M. MOULTON, Eye and Ear Specialist, Minneapolis.
MERRITT D. HOFF, Formerly of the Northern Pacific Ry., Chicago, Ill.
JOS. MICHAELS, Pres. New England Bottling Co., Minneapolis.
HENRY VOEGELL, of Voegell Bros. Drug Co., Minneapolis.
JAMES C. POND, Gen. Pass. Agent Wis. Cent. Ry., Milwaukee, Wis.
LEE S. OVITT, last ten years Vice-Pres. and Gen. Manager Siturian Spring Co., Waukesha, Wis.

These men have invested their money in these 24 claims—480 acres of gold-bearing ground in the Turnagain Arm district of Southern Alaska. The properties are paid for and the titles to them are perfect.

They are all hard-headed, conservative business men—not promoters, and none of them has any greater interest in these mines than their shares of stock give them—they are looking for dividends just the same as any shareholder—and if you will talk with any of them you'll find that they expect to get dividends too, and good fat ones; none of them draw salaries—they have businesses of their own.

We have bought and paid for, from the stock sales so far, one Giant Hydraulic, supplied with duplicate parts, so in case of breakdown we can make immediate repairs. We have secured a sawmill with a Pelton water-wheel, a pack train for transporting our machinery from the Arm to the mines, and have money laid aside to pay the freight from the states to the mines.

We are an independent basis. We can go to work now and pay dividends next season with this one plant, but we can pay three times as much with 3 plants.

WE WANT TWO MORE HYDRAULICS.
Mr. Hoff is now making arrangements to proceed to the property with the first boat from Seattle in March, and will remain all the season.

Parties who bought at our price have more than doubled their money, and those that buy now will do the same by February 1. There is no guess-work about this time. Here, then, is an opportunity for investment that can be taken advantage of by the men of small means.

In every move that we have made we have treated the public whom we were trying to interest in our property, frankly and sincerely. We have never concealed anything, having nothing to conceal.

But we want to hurry the good work along, of stock selling, for the reasons given—preferring rather to get a perfect equipment this coming season than to wait for another year.

The shares of stock are now 100 cash, 12 1/2 on time, and about the middle of January will be advanced to 200. Our present assets admitting of the advance.

Why don't you investigate this proposition? You can't lose anything. On the contrary, we believe you will insure yourself a competency for life—for we will be nearly half a century getting out all the gold that we believe to be there.

Why don't you look this up right away? That won't cost you a cent; or not over two cents if you can't come to our offices. Never before in your life did such a "golden opportunity" knock at your door. Will you embrace it, or let it go by? If you can't come in, send for our 64 page book, with map of our property. It's the most interesting story ever told, and best of all, it's a true story. Send for it today.

Teeth Would Last 100 Years

If kept clean—that is, surgically clean; so clean that no tooth decay or any germ can find lodgment. There are plenty of dentifrices that will polish enough—or too roughly, but few that cleanse thoroughly.

cleanses, whitens and polishes the teeth and is a most effective germicide. Does all that any other tooth preparation does, and it has the extra advantage of being that few have. Perfectly harmless, delightful to use.

AT THE LAKE SUPERIOR.

SOME NECESSARY IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE AT THE "OLD RELIABLE."

The Oliver Iron company is installing electric bells in the rooms of the Lake Superior mine office, also in the laboratory on the opposite side of the tracks. The need for the bells has been apparent for a long time, and they will surely be a great convenience to the office men. Each employee will be given a number and the rooms will be similarly designated.

The Oliver company is making some changes at the machine shop. The boiler which has been used to furnish power for the engine in the building has been removed and steam is now obtained from No. 1 engine house. The boiler has been transferred to section 21 mine, where it will be installed. The space formerly occupied by the boiler can be utilized to advantage, as the boys at the machine shop are crowded for room.

New sills are being placed under the frame portion of the main barn. The foundation has been in bad condition for a long time and the improvement was quite necessary. This portion of the barn is one of the company's oldest buildings.

The carpenter shop has been elevated about three feet and a complete new stone foundation placed under it. The stone has also been adjusted and raised. This work was finished recently. The shop is now in much better shape than formerly, as the machines now rest on solid foundations.

ANNUAL REPORT.

HEALTH OFFICER W. S. PICOTTE HAS PREPARED A VERY THOROUGH ONE.

Dr. Picotte, Ishpeming's health officer, has completed his first report. It covers the past year from May 1 until Dec. 31, inclusive, and is a very complete paper in every respect. Though there have been many cases of contagious diseases in the city during that period, deaths from the same have not been excessive.

There have been 177 cases of contagious diseases in all, which may be classified as follows: Small pox, 12; scarlet fever, 62; typhoid fever, 65; measles, 7; whooping cough, 5; cerebro-spinal meningitis, 3; diphtheria, 7; consumption, 2; erysipelas, 2. Deaths from these have been as follows: Scarlet fever, 4; typhoid fever, 10; cerebro-spinal meningitis, 3; diphtheria, 2; consumption, 1.

Much credit is due the health officer and the hospital staff of physicians for the manner in which the late epidemic of small pox was met, as well as the other epidemics which have been prevalent. It will be noticed that Ishpeming had only twelve cases of small pox, while Negaunee had nearly twenty-five and Marquette over fifty. This is due to the fact that the physicians of the city reported all cases immediately to the health officer, who worked together for one end, namely to prevent the spread of the disease. At present the city is in a very healthy condition, though there is a tendency toward scarlet fever, there being at this time about twelve cases. There is also a case of typhoid fever. Dr. Picotte will send this report to the secretary of the state board of health, as he is required to do by law.

ISHPEMING PEOPLE TO WED.

Edward J. Blackwell will marry the eldest daughter of Captain Wm. Officer at Coulterville, Cal. tomorrow. The contracting parties are well known in and about Ishpeming, they having lived here for many years. Captain Officer was captain of the Nelson mine some years ago and has many friends hereabouts. Mr. Blackwell was a soldier in the late war. He enlisted in San Francisco in Company K, Twenty-third regiment, and served in the Philippines. Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell will spend their honeymoon in Los Angeles and San Francisco, after which they will reside in Coulterville, where Mr. Blackwell is employed as a mining engineer.

SHIPPING PULP WOOD.

Gil Hodgkins has a large force of men at work getting out pulp wood north of the city. He is shipping it to Kimberly & Clark of Niagara, Mich., who have extensive paper mills there. Mr. Hodgkins has a force of men loading at the Barnum siding and large shipments go forward every week. He has about fifty men in the woods this winter and is working eighteen teams on his pulp wood and logging contracts.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

THE LADIES OF THE COUNTRY CLUB TO GIVE A PARTY THIS EVENING.

What promises to be one of the most enjoyable parties ever given in Ishpeming will be held in Anderson's hall tonight. It is given by the Country club for the benefit of that organization. Elaborate preparations have been made for this event, and the minutest details have been looked after, so that all who attend are sure of a very pleasant evening. A large attendance is assured, there having been about three hundred invitations sent out, many from out of town being invited. The ladies have worked early and late to make this an occasion long to be remembered, and from present indications their efforts will be crowned with success.

During the first part of the evening a library party will be held, each of the ladies representing the title of some well known book, and the gentlemen are expected to guess the titles from the gowns worn by the ladies. After the guessing is over dancing will begin, and there will be numerous old-fashioned and square dances for those who do not waltz and two-step. Trombley's full orchestra will be in attendance from eight until one. Refreshments will be served during the evening. There will also be card tables in an adjoining room for those who do not care to dance. A charge of 50 cents for each person will be made and those who are fortunate enough to have received invitations will do well to accept them.

AMERICA'S GREAT CANNON.

Our new twelve-inch gun will produce a muzzle velocity of 3,000 feet per second, and the experts say, would lift a 12,000 ton battle-ship four feet out of the water. It is not only superior to anything made abroad, but is more effective than the thirteen-inch gun now on American battleships. We also have the best remedy in the world for stomach disorders, namely Hogstetter's Stomach Bitters. It will cure anyone suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, belching, biliousness, insomnia, nervousness, malaria, fever and ague, or any form of stomach trouble. It is impossible to be strong with weak digestion. Strengthen the digestive organs, and you strengthen the entire body. See that our private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

J. Lovell of Menominee was in town yesterday.
Jake Lavigne was down from Champion yesterday.
William Peters was a Michigamme visitor Sunday.
L. Clark of Marquette was in Ishpeming yesterday.
Herman Jaedecke is calling on his trade in the copper country.
Presiding Elder Tompson will preach at the Methodist church this evening.
L. R. Harris, general manager of the L. S. & I. railway, was in town Sunday.

Among the Philadelphia men in town yesterday were Chas. H. Jones and W. E. Morehouse.

Fred M. Marks, assistant bookkeeper at the Ishpeming Beef house, is down with the grip.

Euno Sorse will take the place made vacant by the promotion of John Welsh at the Peninsula bank.

William Penglass was up the road last week. He reports the sewing machine trade very brisk.

The special services which have been held the past week at the M. E. church will be continued this week.

Mary Donahue, who attends the Northern Normal school, spent Sunday with her parents in this city.

Mrs. Thomas Walters and Mrs. Krogman left for Chicago Sunday evening, for a few days' visit with friends.

A. J. Weatherwax of Marquette was in the city yesterday in the interests of the International Correspondence schools.

Trombley's orchestra has been engaged to play for the A. O. U. W. dance which will be held in Champion next Friday night.

Dr. Ed Hansen, who has been sojourning in Florida for the past month, is expected back this week. He will reopen his old office in the Voelker block.

Miss Eleanor Power is spending a month with her parents at the Johnston house. Miss Power was attending ing Visitation academy at Evanston, Ill., but scarlet fever broke out, necessitating the quarantining of the institution.

An application for a marriage license was issued by Recorder Delbridge yesterday to Gust Ruona and Susa Pybar. The contracting parties live at the National location, where they will be married next Saturday evening by Rev. K. L. Tolonen.

A party of Urban House men planned to spend Saturday night at the Michigan gold mine. The labyrinth of wood roads was too much for them, however, and they missed the way. They report that the night air which circulates in that vicinity is, to say the least, bracing, and they should know, as they were out until 3 a. m.

The inquest on the death of Matt Meehab, which was continued from Friday, was adjourned until tomorrow morning. Nothing new was brought out at yesterday afternoon's session, although a number of witnesses were examined. Attorney Healey of Chicago was present in the interests of the family, he doing most of the questioning.

Ishpeming is unusually quiet just at present. Pay day generally makes things move a little swifter but this is an exception. For the first time in years the three companies paid their men on the same day, but doubtless Saturday's night's storm had a great deal to do with keeping them from getting out to put the money in general circulation.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they look when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. The Stafford Drug Co.

The order was countermanded, however, when the flames were gotten under control.

One of the four burglars in jail at Cassopolis for having broken into and robbed Harrington's store there, has been identified by the chief of police of Battle Creek as Frank Stutterer, a young thug of that city. Stutterer is twenty-one years old. He has been under arrest several times for petty misdemeanors and was an all-round tough. The three other burglars under arrest were identified as three tramps who stopped in the city tramp room, in Battle Creek two nights, January 10 and 11, and who gave the names as James Kennedy, William Barry and William Black.

There is a queer mixup in connection with the property of the Branch County Agricultural Society. Some years ago the buildings and grounds were quite heavily mortgaged and soon afterward the society ceased to hold fairs, as they failed to pay expenses. Now it develops that by the terms of the original deed the real estate was to revert to the county in case fairs ever ceased to be held, and the mortgagee wants to know where he is at. The matter was submitted to the meeting of the county board of supervisors last week, but they decline to tackle the problem. The indications are that the grounds will lie idle a long time, the same as during the past two or three years. There are thirty acres of beautiful land, well inside the city limits, and provided with excellent buildings. There is talk of resuscitating the agricultural society.

"Don't Speak to me."

All manner of extravagant expressions are possible when a woman's nerves are overwrought.

The spasm at the top of the wind pipe or bronchial tubes, "ball rising in the throat," violent beating of the heart, laughing and crying by turns, muscular spasms (throwing the arms about), frightened by the most insignificant occurrences—are all symptoms of a hysterical condition and serious derangement of the female organs.

Any female complaint may produce hysterics, which must be regarded as a symptom only. The cause, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms.

Mrs. Lewis Says: "I Feel Like a New Person, Physically and Mentally."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For years I had ovarian trouble and suffered everything from nervousness, severe headache, and pain in back and abdomen. I had consulted different physicians, but decided to try your medicine, and I soon found it was giving me much relief. I continued its use and now am feeling like a new person, physically and mentally, and am glad to add one more testimonial to the value of your remedy. —Mrs. M. H. LEWIS, 2108 Valentine Ave., Tremont, New York, N. Y.

Writing to Mrs. Pinkham is the quickest and surest way to get the right advice about all female troubles. Her address is Lynn, Mass. She advises women free. Following is an instance:

Mrs. Haven's First Letter to Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I would like your advice in regard to my troubles. I suffer every month at time of menstruation, and flow so much and for so long that I become very weak, also get very dizzy. I am troubled with a discharge before and after menses, have pains in ovaries so bad some times that I can hardly get around, have sore feeling in lower part of bowels, pain in back, bearing-down feeling, a desire to pass urine frequently, with pains in passing it; have leucorrhoea, headache, fainting spells, and sometimes have hysteria. My blood is not in good condition. Hoping to hear from you. I am," Mrs. EMMA HAVEN, 2508 South Ave., Council Bluffs, Iowa. (June 3, 1899.)

Mrs. Haven's Second Letter.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for what your medicine has done for me. I suffered for four years with womb trouble. Every month I flowed very badly. I got so bad that I could hardly do my work. Was obliged to sit or lie down most of the time. I doctored for a long time, but obtained no relief. I began using your remedies—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier, Sanative Wash and Liver Pills—and now feel like a new woman." —Mrs. EMMA HAVEN, 2508 South Ave., Council Bluffs, Iowa. (Feb. 1, 1900.)

$5000 REWARD. Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have, from time to time, questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, of New York, $5,000 which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonial is not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission.—LYDIA E. THEY ARE GOOD PEOPLE.

MINNEAPOLIS CONCERN WITH WHICH J. D. CLARK IS TO CAST HIS LOT IS A STRONG ONE.

It has been known for some time that J. D. Clark, head bookkeeper for Winter & Sues, had resigned his position with that firm to accept one with a Minneapolis house, but the exact nature of the business which he will engage in there has not been well understood. Mr. Clark, who has been with Winter & Sues since 1881, never having worked for any other concern since coming to Negaunee, and it is with great regret that the firm has accepted his resignation. He has a written contract with the Minneapolis firm for three years' work at a salary of $1,000 per year, and he feels that he would be foolish not to take the chance this opens to him. He enters the employ of the American Mining Investment company as assistant to the general manager, C. R. Tuttle, and will have charge of all the correspondence of the company. His former employer has been Mr. Clark's assistant for the past eight years, will be promoted, and it is an advance for him that is well deserved. Leon O'Connor, of Sault Ste. Marie, will fill Mr. Clark's shoes.

On Sunday the Sunday School of the Presbyterian church presented Mr. Clark with a beautiful picture, handsomely framed, in token of the esteem in which they held him.

A few words about the company with which Mr. Clark will become affiliated may not be amiss. An idea of the business transacted by the company may be gained from the name, The American Mining Investment company. It is engaged in promoting and developing mining properties in the far west and placing their shares on the market.

The offices of the company are located in the Andrus building, Minneapolis, where are also situated the general offices of all the companies which the parent concern has launched. The officers are W. S. Brill, St. Paul, president; F. D. Cooper, St. Paul, vice president; L. A. Hancock, Minneapolis, treasurer and trustee; C. R. Tuttle, Minneapolis, secretary and general manager; Rev. J. D. Stockhill, auditor; W. R. Smith, superintendent. W. S. Brill, C. R. Tuttle, and L. A. Hancock are the directors, and all the officials of the company are solid business men of the northwest.

During the past year the company has organized three mining and land companies in Washington and Wyoming, all of which are in active operation, one of them having paid five dividends from the sale of lots in the town site The Kettle-Curlew mining company was the first launched, and the Kettle-Curlew mines in Drummer's mountain, the Violet mines, and the Anchor group near Curlew, Washington. This is the company that has paid the dividends. The officers are those of the parent company, as are those of the other concerns of the A. M. I. company has formed. The Boundary Camp Mining and Milling company, situated in Washington and British Columbia, was the next organized. This company owns the Surprise, Ore Grande and Artie group of mines, and saw and lumbering near Curlew, Washington. It also has a smelter in process of erection and is constructing a railroad which will connect its two locations. The Queen Bee Mining company was the last organized, but development work has proceeded rapidly, and it is in nearly as good shape as the other two. This company is the owner of the town site of Jelm in Wyoming and extensive gold and copper properties in and about Jelm City. The American Mining Investment company is selling large blocks of stock in the minor companies in such a manner that the purchaser is assured that his money will go where it is intended to be placed, there being a trustee whose business it is to see that the money is not misappropriated. Mr. Clark is to be congratulated upon having secured this position, as it is an advancement which he richly merits.

TEACHERS' DIRECTORY FINISHED.

SUPERINTENDENT DAVIS HAS ISSUED A VERY NEAT AND HANDY WORK OF REFERENCE.

Commissioner of Schools Davis will have his teachers' directory ready for distribution the last of the week. It is a very complete pamphlet of thirty-four pages, and besides the information which he is required to furnish he has added some valuable data regarding national, state and county officers. A better idea of the nature of this publication may be gained by quoting from Mr. Davis' introductory: "The commissioner of schools is required by law to have printed each year for distribution to the township schools, and the legally-qualified teachers of the county. This has been added certain educational statistics and other data of value to school officers, teachers and pupils.

During the past year much has been done to raise the standard of the rural schools of Marquette county. Every school is now carefully supervised. Pupils of all grades are examined at the close of each term upon the questions submitted by the commissioner. The teacher's daily programs, corrected and approved, with a record of the work done by each pupil, is also on file in the township schools. Pupils held in two sections at Ishpeming and at Marquette on the first Saturday of each month have greatly aided in unifying the work of the various schools. The teachers' reading circle includes in its membership nearly all the teachers of the township schools, and the results are shown in improved school work.

The Northern Normal school at Marquette has already exerted a marked influence upon the schools of this county. Nearly all those desiring to be employed as teachers now expect to receive special training for their work. Such arrangements also have been made as will enable those actively engaged in teaching to attend the summer term of this school. The best way to improve the schools of any county is to raise the standard for teaching, and the time is not far distant when the school officers will look with favor only upon the applications of professionally trained teachers. If the teachers of rural schools are as efficient, as well paid, and as well provided with the means of doing good work, the progress of the pupils under their care will be rapid as a matter of fact. "The schools." The first seven pages of the pamphlet are devoted to a list of educational officers, institutions, and societies, with their addresses. The next twenty-two pages are taken up with the teachers' directory proper, beginning with Ishpeming city and continuing through the various townships in the county. Here the teacher's full name is given, the subject taught, where prepared and when graduated, what grade is held, and when it expires. The remainder is occupied with a list of federal, state and county officers, with their addresses, and with school supply houses, the leading educational journals, and information regarding teachers' examinations and certificates. The book is well bound and makes an exceedingly valuable work of reference for school officers and teachers, to whom it will be sent.

WORK RESUMED AT THE NEGAUNEE.

The men who were laid off during the flood at Negaunee, Mich., returned to work yesterday morning. The baler which has been engaged in reducing the water since Tuesday was running in the cage way, so that though the water did not at any time reach the level on which work was being carried on, the men could not be lowered and no hoisting could be done. Sunday afternoon the baler was removed and hoisting resumed. There is still considerable water in the lower levels but the pumps are steadily reducing this and it is the expectation that the lower pumps will be reached the last of the week and short work made of the water then left.

Upper Peninsula News.

Escanaba is now grappling with its first visitation of the small pox. Up to last week it was fortunate in keeping free from the dread disease. The only sufferer at present is Mrs. Joseph Wicker. Many persons were exposed by her before a quarantine was established. How she managed to contract the disease is a mystery.

Menominee parties who have organized the Sans Souci club have purchased the hunting lodge and cabin on Tamarack lake, in the eastern part of Gogebic county near Marquette, of N. A. Phillips, of Chicago, general baggage agent of the Northwestern road. There are several cabins on the land, and the new club will improve the property.

On account of the frozen condition of the ground there was a shut down Friday for the season at the Trader's mine near Iron Mountain, and Superintendent Frank Coventry left that evening for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will remain for some time. Operations will be vigorously resumed at the Trader's just as early in the spring as the weather will permit.

The board of education at Ontonagon, having learned that the contractors cannot legally prevent them from occupying the new school building, has decided to open school some day this week when it will be ready for occupancy. In case the contract when the job is completed they can get redress in the courts but they cannot now forcibly take possession of the building.

A road has just been completed between Munising and Marquette and Limestone townships. It is an improvement for which the residents in the district traversed have been asking for years and they are greatly pleased that the highway is now available. Some additional work will be required, when the snow disappears, to put the road in good shape for the summer but it can now be used very satisfactorily.

The robbers who held up the proprietor of a meat market at Ironwood last Thursday night have been captured at Sidnaw. They gave their names as Richard Manning and Roscoe D. Campbell and claimed to be from Marquette, but it has since been discovered that they came from Detroit. Part of the money, $127, was found on them, also safe drills, dynamite, nitro-glycerine, fuse, a whole kit of burglar's tools and two 44 caliber revolvers.

According to the estimate of several physicians, there are five hundred cases of colds and lagrippe in Menominee. It prevails among the young and old, but those of mature years are suffering most. As yet no case has proven fatal. The symptoms of disease have cut great inroads into the attendance at the city schools. The physicians attribute this general epidemic to the effects of sudden changes in the weather. There are six hundred cases reported in Marquette, two hundred and fifty in Iron Mountain, one hundred and thirty in Escanaba and fifty in Quinnesec.

John Zabrath, a young man from a lumber camp near Sagola in Dickinson county, created general consternation at Green Bay last week by bringing a well developed case of small pox to that city. He was sick when he arrived there and was at once apprehended and taken to the pest house which is situated in a closely settled locality. The people living in the vicinity are very indignant because he has been quarantined so near their homes. It was necessary to keep two policemen on constant duty while the building was being prepared for pest house use and now there are threats to fire it.

Captain James Hewlett, who resides at 229 North Georgia street, in Escanaba, has five nephews in the British army. They are Sergeants Samuel and George Hewlett and Corporal William Hewlett, in the Somerset Regiment at the front in South Africa; Private Fred Hewlett in India, with the First Dorset Regiment and Maurice Hewlett, now in the coast guard service at Ballydoyle, Banty, Cork, Ireland. The aged parents of these six brothers are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hewlett, who reside on South street, Crewekerne, Somersetshire, England. Recently the attention of Queen Victoria was called to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett had five sons in her service and in recognition of the fact she commanded Sir Fleetwood Edwards to forward a £3 note to the aged couple together with a letter of appreciation of the family record.

A serious accident on the Northwestern road north of Iron Mountain near the St. Paul crossing was narrowly averted Friday night and the close call will doubtless result in the loss of a valuable horse. The animal was being driven by Fred Carney of Marinette when, while crossing the bridge, one of the crossing the horse slipped and fell. The occupants of the sleigh had just alighted to help the struggling animal to its feet when the roar of an approaching passenger train was heard. They managed to detach the sleigh and get it away from the track but before they could assist the horse the train was upon it. The locomotive caught it up and threw it to one side of the track. The engineer did everything in his power to avert the accident but the distance was too short and the animal was severely hurt. Had the train been running at full speed the accident might have been very serious as the men might have been caught by the train.

Eminent Physicians Pronounced It Consumption.

Dr. C. D. Warner, Coldwater, Mich. Dear Sir:—I have received great benefit from your White Wine of Tar Syrup. I had a cough and the doctors gave up all hopes of my recovery and pronounced it consumption; I thought that it was death for me. I tried everything that we could hear of. Finally one of my friends prevailed upon me to use your White Wine of Tar Syrup. I took one and one-half bottles and am cured entirely. Such medicine I can recommend to those who are afflicted as I was.

ARRIVE THIS AFTERNOON.

Joint Committee for Prison Investigation Will Begin Work Tomorrow Morning.

MEMBERS OF BOARD OF CONTROL WILL HEAR ALL TESTIMONY.

There is Great Interest in the Result All Through the Upper Peninsula, Where the Scandal Has Been Generally Discussed.

OUTCOME A MATTER OF CONJECTURE.

The joint legislative committee, made up of five members of the state senate and house of representatives, which has been charged with the task of investigating the Marquette branch of state prison will arrive here this afternoon.

Wednesday morning it will hold its first session at the court house. The members of the board of prison control, F. O. Clark of Marquette, M. H. Moriarty of Crystal Falls and John Henes of Menominee, will be present to attend all the sittings although they will not participate formally in the deliberations of the joint committee.

All testimony will be taken by a stenographer and there will be at least two copies, one for the senate and one for the upper peninsula.

The members of the board of control will thus come into the possession of much evidence bearing on Warden Freeman's conduct. Their task of probing the charges will be greatly lightened and it is possible that the special legislative committee will cover the ground so thoroughly that they will not care to pursue the inquiry any further.

On the other hand they may see fit to take depositions not considered by the senators and representatives. This will all depend on the developments at the hearing.

It is understood that the investigation is to be searching and it is likely that a large number of witnesses will be called. Whoever is summoned must attend as the joint committee is competent to enforce all its subpoenas. It is improbable that there will be any hesitancy on the part of Marquette people to assist the investigators to the extent of their power.

There will be widespread interest in the result all through the upper peninsula and, in a lesser degree, in the lower part of the state. The discussion which has been going on since ex-Governor Pingree formally preferred his charges the first of this month has been general and critical.

ON THE SENSATIONAL ORDER.

Several developments of the so-called scandal have been on the sensational order. When Warden Freeman was first advised of Pingree's charges he expressed complete surprise at the manner in which they had been preferred but intimated that, for a number of months, and for reasons which he chose to reserve from the public, he had been anticipating some manifestation of hostility against him.

The day on which Pingree's exaugural was read to the two houses of the state legislature was notable in Marquette for Freeman's removal of his deputy, Eugene Mosher. It being apparent to all that it was made in consequence of the shakeup in prison matters.

But a few days elapsed when M. H. Moriarty of Crystal Falls became authority for the statement that Pingree's procedure against the warden was but a manifestation of spite work and pique engendered by the fact that Freeman had been instrumental in detecting crooked work on the part of members of the state board of pardons and other members of the ex-Governor's official family.

This brought out a reply from Charles G. Turner of Traverse City, the member of the board of pardons whose integrity was questioned, which went into the alleged crookedness in careful detail, setting forth facts showing that there was some reasonableness in the suspicion of the members of the board of control but that, nevertheless, it was groundless. This statement covered the ground very thoroughly and was calculated to satisfy every one that Warden Freeman, while his conduct in laying the suspicion and correspondence before his superiors was commendable, had really discovered nothing out of the way.

The general public is of the opinion that two big mistakes have been made by principals in the prison scandal. They attribute them to Warden Freeman and to Mr. Moriarty of the board of prison control. They insist that the former officer put his foot in it when he summarily disposed of Deputy Eugene Mosher and that Mr. Moriarty struck a wrong note when he expressed his confidence in Warden Freeman's management and his doubt of the motive of Pingree's charges through the columns of his newspaper, a few days after the exaugural was read.

In the one case there is a well defined belief that Mr. Freeman erred in judgment when he allowed himself to become possessed of the opinion that Mosher had governed his conduct by a desire to undermine him at the Marquette prison. It is a fact that Mosher was summoned before Pingree and was compelled to answer a series of questions but his friends point out that he had no choice or discretion in the matter and they are vehement in protesting against his being compelled to do so in an entirely honorable manner.

It is an indisputable fact that, in letting out his deputy, Warden Freeman took upon his own shoulders the entire responsibility for the prison management, a responsibility which Mosher had had been compelled to share had he been retained. It is equally a fact that Mosher is now in a position where he must seek a vindication for himself and this can only be obtained by proving that Freeman's suspicions were unjust. The ex-deputy will be before the investigating committee next week and it is known anything which will damage the case of his erstwhile superior it is hardly likely that he will retain it.

OUTCOME IN DOUBT.

No one in Marquette feels qualified to predict the outcome of the investigation with any degree of certainty. The prison scandal has been a prolific subject of conversation here during the past two weeks and so many stories of different colors and stripes have been in circulation that most people have lost all track of the truth. One tale has Warden Freeman a paragon, another an unfit man for the office. One relates that his conviviality has always been restrained with reasonable bounds, another that he has behaved in an indecorous manner. It is certain that many of the charges against the warden are merely twaddle and that he has given the prison an efficient and economical administration. What degree of truth lies in Pingree's numerous allegations remains to be determined. It is likely that Freeman's complete vindication would be heartily welcomed by the greater number of Marquette people. It is unfortunate for him that he has alienated the sympathy of Deputy Mosher and his numerous friends.

Warden Freeman will have excellent counsel at the investigation which will present a different case from the possible manner. He is said to have, and doubtless has, a very strong case.

"A LADY OF QUALITY."

This Fine Play Will Be Here January 23.

"A Lady of Quality" will be one of the best attractions that has been seen in Marquette for many months. The story is laid in the time of "Good Queen Anne" and deals with the complex life of Florinda Wildaire, who for ten years of her youth, with her father's consent, abandons her maiden name and assumes "breaches." Soon after the resumption of womanly attire and manners she falls before the insinuating graces of the dashing rake, Sir John Oxtou. He jilts her for the prospective hand of a wealthy heiress, and when he returns to her crushed in spirit by the announcement that she had heard of his disloyalty and is to become the wife of the elderly and wealthy earl of Dunstonwood, who dies within a year. The duke of Osmonds, who met Florinda in her supposedly wild days at a hunt and conceived a not unreciprocated love for her, appears after his two years of patient waiting to seek her hand. Sir John Oxtou, who had been jilted by his prospective heiress, angered at seeing her relations with him, demands that she return to her country home, and while telling her sister, who had discovered the secret of Oxtou's death, the details of the fatal meeting the earl of Osmonds appears. She then tells him all, and is happily united to the man whom she had loved since a child.

SHORTHAND INSTITUTE.

It is not very generally known that in the Savings Bank building in this city is gathered, every afternoon and evening, a little school of thirteen young men and women who are fitting themselves for office work as stenographers and typewriters. This school opened Dec. 1, and already some of the pupils have obtained positions in prominent offices and are receiving salaries. Mrs. Lowell, who is teaching and drilling these young people, is a teacher of experience and has a record for success. Many of her students are in active practice in this state and in Indiana. One, a young lady, has lately come to Marquette to fill the position of stenographer in the office of Auditor Delf. The Mining Journal understands that the cost of instruction is moderate, and these young people who are nearly ready to graduate are to be congratulated in having this opportunity to learn the art of shorthand without going away from home.

SUPPER AT THE CHAPEL.

The members of the Young Woman's guild will give one of their good suppers at the Morfan Memorial chapel, Wednesday evening of this week. Their last supper was only too successful. Many of her students are in active practice in this state and in Indiana. One, a young lady, has lately come to Marquette to fill the position of stenographer in the office of Auditor Delf. The Mining Journal understands that the cost of instruction is moderate, and these young people who are nearly ready to graduate are to be congratulated in having this opportunity to learn the art of shorthand without going away from home.

chicken pie, or something equally good, will be equal to the demand. All are cordially invited to attend. The price will be twenty-five cents.

BISHOP MRAK.

Tribute To His Memory in The Michigan Catholic.

The following tribute to the memory of the late Ignatius Mrak, superior of the diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette who died in Marquette early this month, is from The Michigan Catholic, published at Detroit:

"It is like going back into the early history of the missions of Michigan to mention the name of Ignatius Mrak, yet he died only last month and but as yesterday were his bones laid away in the crypt of the cathedral at Marquette beside those of Frederick Baraga and John Vertin, the one his predecessor, the other his successor in the episcopal office. To few does it come as a part of and witness the passing of four episcopates in an American diocese. Yet Ignatius Mrak witnessed these, and his own was one of them. This grand old saint of the upper peninsula, now dead, was a man of so much humility that upon his decease the newspapers of the diocese that sought to honor him could not find satisfactory material for a sketch of his life. He had literally effaced himself.

"The venerable bishop who, at more than ninety years of age, passed to his reward in Marquette, was one of the class of missionaries whom we may only hold in veneration second to the original missionary priests who brought the cross into our wilderness. Indeed we are not quite sure that there was any great physical difference between the Lake Superior country of 1840, and the country of the first knew it, and that of a century and a half before, when it was the scene of the labors of Allouez and Dablon, and, mayhap, of Marquette. He was an humble priest in Austria when the call came for the foreign missions among the Indians. Frederick Baraga had been an administrator among them for some years, when he sought assistance in the old country. One that came to him was destined to be his successor, and to see, in his own turn, two of his own successors anointed for the sacred duties of the episcopate. He was a man of much learning and great humility. During over a quarter of a century he labored among the Indians of our upper peninsula before he was called upon to take up the burdens of the episcopate. He carried them for a decade, resigning his see two and twenty years ago, when he had almost reached the scriptural age of man, and returned to his Indians to spread the Gospel among them. His fervor may be estimated from the circumstance that when he went to Cincinnati to be consecrated, he had not wherewith to purchase his episcopal vestments, and that he was obliged to borrow the vestments of his brethren. He was Michigan's representative at the Vatican council. He died as he lived, poor for the Lord's sake, with no fortune because he had forsaken all for his Master.

"The life of Bishop Mrak, prolonged through an unusual span of years of a marked commentary upon the success of the Church in getting men to do its work under the most unfavorable circumstances. Sixty years ago this young Austrian priest, we may imagine was happily settled in his native village. He had before him the prospects of serving his Master among the people who respected his office and his dignity, who had been Christians for centuries, through their forefathers, and among whom he might have grown old gracefully and dying when his appointed time came, become a happy memory among those who succeeded him. Instead he went out into a new world, more difficult than Asia is today, among a barbaric people, to whose tongue he was a stranger and against whose method of living his finer sensibilities must have revolted. He had at once to conquer himself, a multitude of strange tongues, and the power of paganism. How well he succeeded is told in the growth of the diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette, in the hundreds of Christian Indians and their descendants that have peopled the upper peninsula during the last half century, and in the generous expression of sorrow at his death that proceeded from the entire section in which his life work had been done. He was about the last link connecting the church of Frederick Baraga with the church of today in upper Michigan. But he was a strong link, that showed no weakness until death parted it. The church has had greater men than Ignatius Mrak to serve it if greatness be measured by polish, the splendor of palaces and the opportunity to display his learning. But if the measure of greatness be patient sacrifice and humble labor, the entire effacement of one's self for the sake of Christ, laborious study to achieve the gift of tongues through which to spread the Gospel, and simple, unaffected piety, then indeed, was the bishop who has just been laid away with his predecessor and his successor a magnificent figure. Michigan owes much to his labors. The church has profited immensely by them, and, in prayerfulness we say it, we hope he has himself. "May he sleep the sleep of the just."

H. C. Kreig and Ed Daly. The Royal Neighbors served luncheon on the conclusion of the card playing.

The directors of the Marquette and Presque Isle Street Railway company have just chosen the following officers for the ensuing year: President, F. O. Clark; vice president, J. E. Sherman; secretary and treasurer, M. E. Asire; general manager, M. E. Asire; acting superintendent, Gus Melin. The company will at once repair the short bridge over Dead River proper as the Gospel truth and many words of sincere regret were heard at the passing of the famous sovereign. A couple of flags were promptly put at half-mast. It was late in the afternoon before it became generally known that the queen still survived and was yet struggling with her illness. "The false rumor emanated from the brokers' offices."

Beginning this afternoon the Washington street car will be put in operation for an indefinite period. The tracks will be cleared of snow this morning. On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights the last car will leave Front street for the terminal at 11 o'clock. On Wednesday and Saturday nights it will leave at 11 o'clock and on Sunday nights at 9 o'clock. On Wednesday and Saturday nights it will connect with the loop car. This arrangement is for the accommodation of patrons of the curling and skating rink and will be greatly appreciated by them.

Truman H. Rice, special agent for the Northwestern National Insurance company of Milwaukee, has just settled the loss of George W. Shaw on his stock of merchandise, burned Jan. 14. He has been paid in full without any dispute or fault-finding. Mr. Shaw is greatly pleased with his treatment by this company and he expresses sympathy for the efforts of his company to secure a prompt and early settlement of his loss. Mr. Rice arrived in Marquette soon after the fire was reported at the Milwaukee office and, when the loss was adjusted, handed over a draft for the full amount of the policy. The drafts due from other companies are expected this week.

The electric stove will not be placed in the mouth of the intake at the water works again this winter as it is believed that the use of the by-pass will be sufficient to insure the city a steady water supply during the remainder of the cold weather. The result of Sunday's test of this device has removed a great weight of anxiety from the shoulders of the members of the board of fire and water commissioners. They have been anticipating the cold weather with anything but pleasure as they have feared continual trouble on account of the obstruction of the intake of water in the mains. The water begins to lower in the well the pumps will be stopped at once, the gates of the by-pass adjusted so that the water in the mains can flow back into the intake and ice and dirt flushed out without difficulty. Nominally there is eighty-five pounds of pressure in the mains right after a shutdown of the pumps, a pressure sufficient to wash out any body of ice. The intake was cleared Saturday with but thirty-five pounds pressure.
