WILL EMPLOY SEVERAL HUNDRED MEN CONTRACTOR JOHNSON, WHO IS TO BUILD THE NEW COPPER RANGE EXTENSION, ALREADY PUTTING IN HIS CAMPS.

C. J. Johnson of Houghton, who has the contract for the building of the extension from the main line of the Copper Range railroad to Redridge, the site of the Baltic, Champion and Trimountain mills, yesterday sent out two camping outfits and 100 men to the scene of operations.

Mr. Johnson is getting material ready for the preliminary work on the extension as fast as possible.

When asked yesterday if any outside labor would be employed, he informed The Mining Journal that he would get all the local help first and then if more men were needed would look elsewhere.

The latter party will comprise the third camp, while the first two camps will be made up of fifty men.

The line is to be built from the junction of the Painesdale branch and the main line of the Copper Range. About thirteen miles of track in all will be put down.

CHURCH DEBT IS LIFTED.

HOUGHTON METHODISTS WILL HOLD A "FREEDOM JUBILEE" TONIGHT, THANKS TO THE EFFORTS OF THE REV. MR. MOON.

This evening the "Freedom Jubilee service" of the Grace Methodist church, Houghton, will be held at that edifice.

The total cost of the church at the time it was built was $18,000. It was constructed when the prices of material were at the lowest notch and if the same edifice were to be built today it could not be done for less than $25,000.

Before the church was erected subscriptions for part payment on it were promised, but some of these were never paid.

George Gallup, an Escanaba attorney, will arrive in Houghton today for the purpose of assisting Louis N. LeGrise, attorney for Dennis St. John, the former clerk in the Miller store.

Houghton, who was arrested for complicity in the fire conspiracy, in taking the necessary steps to secure the release of St. John from the county jail on bonds.

The bail was recently reduced from $5,000 to $2,000. St. John will undoubtedly be released soon, probably today—as Escanaba business men have been secured to sign the bonds for the required amount of bail money.

ABRAHAM'S HEARING TODAY. Samuel Abraham, the clothing merchant of South Lake Linden who was arrested a short time ago by Sheriff Wills and Frank Mayotte for receiving stolen goods taken from Miller's store, will appear for his preliminary hearing in Justice Finn's court at Hancock this morning.

FIREMEN SECURE SPECIAL TRAIN. LARGE ATTENDANCE FROM COPPER RANGE TOWNS EXPECTED AT HOUGHTON MASQUERADE.

The arrangement committee having in charge the annual ball of the Continental Fire company of Houghton has arranged that a special train be run over the Copper Range railroad from the various stations along the line to Houghton on the night of the party next Monday.

The train will arrive in Houghton early in order to accommodate all those from the Copper Range towns who desire to attend the masquerade, and the firemen expect a large attendance from that section, it being due to this anticipation that the special train was asked for and secured.

Preparations for the function are progressing well. A stage for the accommodation of spectators and to serve as a stand for the Houghton Concert band, which will furnish the music, will be built at the rear portion of the Armory hall.

WIRES KEPT HOT.

SPECULATION IN COPPERS AT HIGH HEAT IN COPPERDOM.

Although the bull movement in "coppers" that started last week seemed to have received a set-back yesterday, the "copper boom" is on in copperdom good and hard.

The scene in the office itself was an animated one. All eyes were on the board. Quotations came in slow, and the reason for it was not apparent until the following message flashed over the wire.

"Reports delayed on account of wires overloaded with orders from the Lake (signed) Paine." The crowd stayed, however, and the number did not diminish, as the places of those who left were eagerly taken by men waiting their chance to get a peep at the quotations.

As the figures were chalked down they immediately became subjects of discussion.

In the inner office Manager Tom Dee and his assistants hustled. They were kept busy with orders, and Houghton did its share to keep the wires hot. In comparison, but few of those holding stocks "unloaded," the majority believing that, although some of the prices did weaken, the boom so long delayed has but started.

Favorite stocks yesterday were Mohawk, Wolverine, Franklin, Wyandot, Rhode Island, Copper Range and Trimountain.

Interest in "coppers" prevails in nearly every home in Houghton and other copperdom towns. Not only are the men, young and old, interested, but likewise the ladies. Although the latter cannot be present at the brokerage offices to watch the quotations, many of them would like to be, and they console themselves with reports brought to them by the men of the house or over the 'phone—for it is a well known fact that the ladies of copperdom also "dabble" in stocks.

SOUTH RANGE MINES. GOOD CROP OF RUMORS CONCERNING THEM AT BOSTON.

The following extracts from the Boston press regarding the South range properties, although contradictory, will be of interest to copper country people:

It is reported now that a consolidation of all the South range mines will follow the absorption by the Standard Oil people of the Copper Range and Baltic. Gossip includes in the talk of consolidation Copper Range, Baltic, Trimountain and a number of contiguous properties.

It is the general opinion that absorption of all the more promising of this group or mines will be the natural sequence of Standard Oil plans at this section of the Lake. None of the parties interested in the proposed deal will talk of their plans one way or the other.

The return of President Fay, of the Trimountain, who is now hurrying back from the Lake, is expected to be followed by interesting developments.—Financial News, Friday.

While it is doubtful if there has been an improvement of this extent in the intrinsic value of the mines [Copper Range, Trimountain and Baltic] during this period, it should be remembered that the prices in December did not truly reflect the wonderful copper showing which existed in these new properties at that time.

The shares are closely held and buying orders in any considerable amount quickly advance the price. The Lake was not a conspicuous buyer of these stocks yesterday on the advance, the orders emanating almost entirely from Boston sources.

Chas. Head & Co. was a large buyer. In some quarters it is thought that the Arcadian people are seeking a mine, and that negotiations are on looking to the acquisition by Arcadian interests of the Baltic and Copper Range properties, possibly the Trimountain.

The Arcadian mill needs a mine more than the Baltic mine needs a mill, as Baltic now has a three-stamp mill in progress of construction.

Captain Parnall of the Bigelow properties recently made an examination and report of the Champion mine. His findings are known to a few people, and there is reason to believe that much of the recent advance in these stocks is due to the showing which his report sets forth.

James Dee and J. H. Seager, the latter a director in the Copper Range company, are now in Boston, and they ascribe the advance in these stocks solely to the merit and they have no knowledge of any desire to seek control on the part of Standard Oil or any other interests.

Mr. Dee, who accompanied Mr. Parnall when the latter made his investigations in the Champion mine, says that without question Captain Parnall is the best judge of copper rock at Lake Superior, and that he is willing to abide by the flattering statements contained in the report.

President Paine of the Copper Range company says: "I believe all these stocks are going higher, especially Copper Range. It should be remembered that we now have four shafts sinking on the Champion mine, and we have room for five more 1,000 feet apart, all in copper bearing rock."

As regards the rumored control of Baltic and Copper Range by Standard Oil people, Mr. John Stanton says: "It is news to me; were such negotiations being conducted, I should know of it."—News Bureau, Friday.

An official of the Copper Range company, when questioned as to the statement that John Stanton had denied knowledge of the reported deal between the Standard Oil interests and Copper Range and Baltic managements, said: "Mr. Stanton says he should know if there is such a deal on. He does not say, however, that he ought to know, or would know, if such was the case. As far as I am concerned, I can say nothing."—New England Star, Saturday.

CLAPK'S A-O'-HER MINE. MONTANA SENATOR THINKS HE HAS GOOD THING AT HELENA.

A Butte (Mont.) dispatch says: One of the largest deals ever made in the recently discovered copper district, just west of Helena's city limits, was effected Friday, when C. W. Clark, son of W. A. Clark, and presumably acting as agent, made a cash payment of $5,000 for a bond of $40,000 on the Huffaker property, which has been developed to a depth of 100 feet and which, from the grass roots down, excels the showing made when Butte began to assume proportions as a copper camp.

Mr. Clark announces that he will develop the property thoroughly, and is firm in the belief that a great body of ore exists. The latest assay made shows 50 per cent copper, with some gold and silver. The vein has been traced for four miles around Mount Helena, and some of the heaviest operators in the state are making large investments.

COPPER GOSSIP. There will be no session of the Boston stock exchange today—Lincoln's birthday.

The Arnold mine is reported to be practically closed down, that the mill is running day shift only, and some miners and wood choppers have been laid off.

"New York reports forty-five minutes behind on copper business to Boston," read a telegram received by Paine, Webber & Co.'s branch offices yesterday.

Tomceush has started a crosscut in search for the new "West" lode (recently cut at the Rhode Island) after falling to find anything of value on the Osceola and Calumet lodes.

The extraordinary legal complications in which the mining companies of the Butte district in Montana are involved are shown by the fact that the calendar of the district court for the February term alone had on it no less than twenty-three separate suits, notified either for trial or for motions or demurrers. Nearly all of these suits are of importance, affecting valuable mines, and every large company in the district is more or less affected by them.

Evidently the law is a profitable pursuit in Butte.—Engineering & Mining Journal.

Ja. R. Dee, who is now in Boston, wired yesterday that "there will be a big advance in Adventure this week." In Friday's issue of the Boston Financial News, Mr. Dee was quoted as follows: "The people at the Lake believe thoroughly in the future of the coppers, and particularly in the future of the South Range group—the Champion, Baltic, Trimountain and Winona. These several properties have already proven their merits, and from the Champion to the Winona I am sure that they are to figure prominently among the producing properties at the Lake."

The ease with which prices have responded to buying is a salient feature of the movement in the coppers. Transactions in Baltic, for instance, ran only slightly over 5,000 shares on Thursday, yet this was sufficient to cause a 5-point advance in price. Transactions in Copper Range were slightly less than the Baltic total, yet an advance of over 2 per cent resulted. The ease with which copper quotations are lifted on a comparatively small volume of orders is one of the points made by the Boston traders. In Wall street it sometimes requires transactions of 50,000 shares and upward to cause a movement of 2 per cent.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure could be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. COPPERDOM BREVITIES. The copper country branch office of The Mining Journal is located in Room 3, second floor of the Postoffice building, Houghton. All having business with the paper are cordially invited to call. Telephone No. 376.

A regular monthly meeting of the board of supervisors is to be held at the court house this evening. A meeting of the Houghton lodge, F. & A. M., No. 218, for work in the third degree was held last evening. Installation of officers of Assumption court, W. C. O. F., Houghton, was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hennes last evening. After bucking the ice for eight hours, the steamer Bon Ami managed to reach her dock at Duluth Saturday night and tied up for the winter. She broke the head-of-the-lake record for continuous operation. The seven-months-old child of Frank Fleury, of the Baltic mine, died from convulsions Saturday. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, with burial in the Houghton cemetery. The Republicans of the township of Hancock held their caucus at the village hall last evening and thirteen delegates to the county convention to be convened at Hancock at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon were elected. Upper Peninsula News.

The Lake Superior & Escanaba railroad does not stand very high as a line for the accommodation of passenger traffic.

In an ecclesiastical court held Friday in Norway, presided over by Monsiegnor Langner, vicar general of the Marquette diocese, Ellen Hogan, the sister of charity who was arrested and jailed at Iron Mountain three weeks ago on a charge of insanity, preferred by Gertrude Carrigan, mother superior of Emergency hospital, and who was declared sane by Probate Judge Bergeron, faced her accusers, and peeped them with allegations of severe indignities and "ill-treatment" upon her while performing her duties as a novice in the hospital.

The vicar general sustained the decision of the probate court as to the woman's sanity, and carried his report to Bishop Ellis, whose decision will be made in a few days, he being the final arbitrator.

A large number of witnesses were examined and the opinion of Catholics as well as the general public, is that the mother superior will be deposed from the management of the hospital.

A surprise was sprung in circuit court at Menominee last week when D. H. Ball of Marquette made a motion for a new trial in the case of C. B. Knowlton vs. Peter Sibener and David Barclay, the two latter being sureties on one of the late Joseph Fleischman's notes in favor of the plaintiff.

At the first trial it was alleged that Barclay's signature was a forgery. Now it is claimed that it is genuine. It is further alleged that Mr. Sibener was released as a surety when Mr. Knowlton was given two insurance policies for $5,000 each, by Mr. Fleischman. Two weeks before the latter's suicide Fleischman obtained these policies from Knowlton on the representation that he needed them in compiling a summary of his encumbrances. They were never returned and the surety was now under advisement. If it is not granted, it is supposed, the case will be taken to the supreme court.

STOOD IT WELL

But There Was Heavy Realizing in Coppers Yesterday.

There was genuine interest, approaching excitement, among the habitués of the brokers' offices here yesterday. Saturday's "wild" market in coppers was responsible for great curiosity concerning the developments of the first day of the new week. As was foreseen, the realizing was very heavy, but, all things considered, the shares which had been prominent in the latest boom stood the pounding very well and the close showed them firm and strong.

The fact that today will be a holiday in Lincoln's honor contributed to hasten a falling off of several of the stocks from the notably high points at which they opened. The feeling among the Marquette speculators is good. They are of the opinion that the realizing will strengthen the market greatly and they look for very substantial rises on the present movement. There will be much interest in the trend of Wednesday's developments. Yesterday's business with the Marquette brokers was the heaviest experienced in many months. It was currently reported that a prominent office handled close onto 200 deals, a fair proportion of which were purchases. Faine, Webber & Co. said:

"The market took the heavy realizing today very well and the tone at the close was firm. Both the selling and the buying were better distributed. The reaction and realizing have put the market in a stronger position and we do not think the high prices of the movement have been reached. One leading broker who has been bearish on the coppers all along is today advising their purchase. President Fay is quoted as saying he has not sold a share of his Trimountain and, also, as estimating that the rock now being taken out of Centennial Kearsarge shaft will run one per cent mineral."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission Co.:

"Coppers were again active today but they weakened somewhat on account of the weakness in smelters, as the smelter crowd has been an influential factor in pulling the market recently. There was general profit taking and, as we advised early in the day, it was the proper thing to do. We think that coppers will sell some lower before another boom starts but that higher prices are to be expected later on."

CAKE, PIE AND VALENTINES.

They Can Be Bought at Morgan Chapel This Afternoon.

The Young Women's guild extends a cordial invitation to all to attend a sale at the Morgan Memorial chapel this afternoon, from 2 until 5:30 o'clock. While there is no apparent connection between pies and valentines, the members of the guild will have a ample supply of both for sale at reasonable prices. For those who have outgrown valentines and for those who cherish no longings for pie, other attractions, in the way of cookery, will be provided. Tea will be served during the afternoon at the usual price, 10 cents a cup. There will also be a candy table.

Wherever the American flag is raised in token of sovereignty, it stands for liberty, independence and equality. What our flag is to the nation, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is to the individual, inasmuch as it not only gives you freedom from your ailments, but protects your system in such a manner that they cannot return. When your stomach gets out of order, causing you to belch, eructate, or when you are so nervous that you toss about all night, unable to sleep, you should certainly try it, because it will strengthen your stomach, steady your nerves, and induce sound healthy sleep, and for indigestion, constipation and biliousness, there is nothing to equal it. Rheumatism is also counteracted by its direct action on the kidneys.

AMERICAN CONSUL AT EDINBURGH WRITES OF GREAT DECLINE IN THE IRON TRADE.

Washington, Feb. 11.—United States Consul Fleming at Edinburgh, Scotland, has sent a lengthy report to the state department upon the alarming decline of Great Britain's metal industries during the last six months. In the discussion of the subject by the press, Consul Fleming says, in part: "Since Jan. 1, 1900, the metal trades in this country have experienced a remarkable decline. To describe the difference in the condition of these trades at the beginning and at the end of last year would be to contrast enormous activity and partial stagnation. The decline was not a feature of the entire year—indeed, prices reached the highest point in April—but chiefly of the last six months. The reaction being specially marked in December. The course of prices is instructive, although it does not tell the whole story. Middleborough foundry pig iron fell from $15.54 per ton on Dec. 14, 1899, to $13.62 on Dec. 12, 1900; Scotch warrants per ton here at $17.76 to $18.54; South Staffordshire marked bars from $48.67 to $42.58; steel rails from $33.23 to $30.45; steel angles from $37.72 to $35.28; steel ship plates from $38.93 to $32.86; tin plates per box from $3.59 to $3.16. Since the middle of December there has been a further depression of prices all around on light orders, although stocks are low in most lines. On Jan. 4, Scotch warrants were $13.50.

"American and German competition became sharply manifest early last summer, but it was not until the war here at reduced prices upon the market with crushing effect. What made the difficulty worse for British producers was that Germany, having bought largely from America in the spring and summer, became alarmed and resold here at reduced figures, and also placed finished iron and steel on this market in competition with American manufacturers. The result now seen is a collapse of the metal trades in Scotland and the north of England. In the Motherwell district, the dullness was felt severely in November, when there was a reduction of five per cent in iron workers' wages and hundreds of men were suspended. Some manufacturers in the Barrow and Middlesborough districts, and also in Sheffield and Manchester, are reporting a similar depression. In the north of England and in Scotland about one-third of the furnaces have already been damped down. Two important firms in the iron trade at Birmingham have failed.

"By not a few observers the outlook is regarded as gloomy. In view of the depression in the metal industries, both the daily press and the trade papers are taking stock of existing conditions, trying to make clear the causes and the extent of present troubles, and seeking to discover a point out what must be done to bring about a change for the better. It is interesting to see that the press in general blames manufacturers for not adopting labor-saving machinery in all branches of production where it can be introduced, and blames workmen for saving devices.

"A 'Travelled Scot' has contributed to the Edinburgh Evening News an article in which he makes it appear that there is only one solution of the grave problem before certain branches of manufacture in this country, and that is, removal. He says: 'Will British manufacturers continue long to handicap their business with the freight, insurance and transfer charges on their raw material, when they can economize by moving their field of operations to their sources of supply? The question of labor is comparatively a small matter, for it is well known that the tendency of labor is to move to where raw material and facilities for its exploitation exist. It appears reasonable to think that the British manufacturer in his competition with his American brethren, there is yet another reason why the Americans are at present ahead of us. There are throughout the country so many institutions founded by 'emigrants of industry' for the advancement of technology that almost every workman can find close at hand some such place where he receives all necessary aid for his advancement in the technical knowledge required for his special work. The liberality of rich American citizens in the foundation and endowment of such institutions is a potent factor in the educational development of the nation, and even the most progressive of European countries cannot show such rich provision for the advancement of learning, especially in its application to the industrial arts.'

"Whatever the British manufacturer may think about the various difficulties which expert economic writers find confronting him at this time, I am of the opinion that the fuel question disturbs him more than anything else. He may not give due weight to the technical advice and notes of warning which come from his able instructors in the public press, but he cannot shut his eyes to the meaning of $3.50 coal. For a year or more the item of fuel has been a heavy burden to iron and steel makers and to all other manufacturers. They might suffer their recent and present embarrassments with equanimity, if the future offered a better prospect. Coal has fallen somewhat and may fall somewhat more. But with it being heavy burden to them, it takes it is the gravest question before the majority of British manufacturers. All coal deposits in Great Britain are known, and there are few fields that have not been worked for a long period. Prominent mining engineers predict that the workable seams of coal in Scotland will virtually be exhausted in twenty-five years and that the best of the coal in several English counties will not last longer than 1920. For ten or fifteen years, production has been increasing at a rapid rate. In 1900 the output in Great Britain was considerably more than 200,000,000 tons, of which nearly one-fourth was exported.

"The high prices of coal that have prevailed during the past eighteen months have served to attract earnest attention to the fuel question which has long been discussed by mining engineers. An indication that the subject has at last excited lively concern outside of the circle of mining experts is found in the action recently taken by the council of the south of Scotland chamber of commerce. At the half-yearly meeting of the council, in Galashiels, Dec. 24, among the resolutions to be submitted by members of the chamber for discussion at the annual meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in London, in March next, was the following: 'Resolved, That as the future of Great Britain lies in the power of its manufacture, it is expedient that the question of coal supply should be considered and a decision arrived at.' In the remarks which were offered before the vote of approval the opinion was expressed that this country was making a great mistake in exporting so much coal."

This property consists of 200 by 200 feet, or 200 acres, of gold land. The mine has been worked. The feature of this mine is the Veneta Vein, 30 to 40 feet in width, and is certainly one of the strongest veins in this famous district. At a distance of 800 feet the TUNNEL will intersect the Veneta Vein at a depth of about 650 feet, and will also intersect several other veins. The TUNNEL will cut the Big Horn Mountain 2,100 feet deep, and will give this Company 2,000,000 tons of ore, worth over $10 per ton.

The new railroad, now practically completed from Colorado Springs, called the Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek road, passes within 100 feet of this tunnel.

Adding this property to the Colorado Springs Tunnel Company. In this property, as a depth of 400 feet, the Veneta Vein was cut. At this point the vein was fully 30 feet in width and its value from $20 to $100 per ton.

ISHPEMING PEOPLE FEEL NO REGRET OVER THE DEATH OF REV. T. CORY-THOMAS.

Residents of this city have been watching the course of the suit which T. Cory-Thomas, formerly rector of Grace Episcopal church, brought against Rev. Bernard Spink in London. Cory charged the Rev. Spink with libel and the case has occupied the Kings Bench division of the high court of justice for some days last week. When the telegraphic dispatch in The Mining Journal was read in this city Saturday no one evinced surprise. In fact all felt that he had got his just deserts. Thomas as claimed $25,000 for defamation of character but the court evidently did not think his reputation had any such value as he placed upon it. It was conclusively proved that Mr. Spink had not gone beyond the truth in his charges, and the jury gave a verdict in his favor without hesitating to deliberate. Saturday's Chicago Record prints an interview which its special correspondent had with Cory and which is given in full here:

"I am not discouraged. My conscience is clear. I have my health to begin life anew. Since I worked myself through college as a poor boy, fought my way through the university, got my degree in Milwaukee and was ordained, I never knew what it meant to be discouraged.

"In my church at Grand Crossing, Chicago, for which I worked for years, burned down the day after I opened it, I did not lose heart. I began again, as I have to begin again now. I succeeded then, as I am going to succeed now.

"In the diocese of Marquette, Mich., where I was elected pastor of the diocese and even mentioned for the bishopric, I never knew the meaning of the word discouraged. Among the souvenirs of the last parish I had in America, and one that I prize the most, is a letter from A. W. Myers, one of my vestrymen, in which he wrote to me: 'This is what he wrote to me. During his rectorship of Grace church, Ishpeeming, the Rev. Cory-Thomas has shown himself to be an earnest, faithful and progressive parish priest. In more than forty years of constant attendance upon his church, I have never known his superior. We have never had a more judicious or intelligent administrator.

"I don't want to say anything about my case except this: As an American, it is surprising to me to learn that a British jury will condemn a man on unsupported evidence. Two English spinners, who, as my counsel said, set their cap at the curate, brought these infamous charges against me only after I was married.

"The Rev. Cory-Thomas was rector of St. George's church, at Grand Crossing, Chicago, in 1892-93. The World's Fair, it was a temporary church, largely patronized by English visitors, through whose generosity it was able to complete a new building, which was opened about the end of September, 1893. The day after the opening, however, the church was burned down. It was largely due to the efforts of Thomas' English friends that funds were raised for rebuilding.

"An incident in connection with the raising of these funds is somewhat interesting. During Cory-Thomas' rectorship, the World's Fair friends were the commissioner-general from India, R. Blechenden, whose turbaned servants had been conspicuous figures in the Indian pavilion through the fair. Procuring a Hindoo Thomas drew from one of these newspaper men and introduced him to his congregation at an evening entertainment as Prince Rajah Maroojah.

"He further announced that the prince, as a great favor, had consented to write his autograph for such members of the congregation as were willing to pay half a dollar for such a treasure. To those who desired a personal introduction to the oriental potentate the charge would be $1. The result was a collection of about $750, in exchange for which nearly every member of the congregation obtained a rude scrawl on a piece of brown paper and the privilege of shaking hands with the Chicago reporter in mufti."

Cory-Thomas had a somewhat checkered career in Ishpeeming. Soon after he arrived here he became the most popular society man in the city, but this easy state of affairs did not last long, as his parishioners and the townsmen in general were not blind to his deceit for long. Cory was a little too swift. He attended too many parties of every description and there were too many girls who became infatuated with him to make things exactly pleasant. Though he had two children they were never seen in this vicinity, being presumably too much in the way to suit his purposes. He left here in 1897 and went directly to London, where he has been ever since, except for visits to the principal cities of the old world. The Grace church was his last parish and it is the general opinion that it will continue to be the last. There was much amusement when he was a candidate for mayor of the city, and though he wrote fervid articles to the press and did a deal of talking, he was never very close to the goal. It seemed to be the universal verdict that he was as poor a politician as he was a priest and that the sooner he departed for new fields the better it would be for all concerned. But he isn't departed yet, and he will bob up again serenely with a fresh adventure in some new field of pastoral labor. While the world is so full of credulous people men of his stamp will never want for "another chance."

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.

MRS. SAMUEL PARKS SUCCEUMED TO HEARTY TROUBLE AT HER HOME ON CANDA STREET YESTERDAY MORNING.

The community was shocked yesterday on learning of the death of Jane, wife of Samuel Parks, of this city. Mrs. Parks has had chronic heart trouble for many years but was always in fairly good health. About a week ago both she and her husband were taken with the grip. This disease was the direct cause of her death, which occurred just before noon yesterday.

Mrs. Parks was seventy-three years of age and would be cheerful almost to the end. She leaves, besides her husband, a son, Charles, who is a machinist at the Lake Angelina mine, and a foster daughter, Mrs. John Shand. Both are residents of this city. There are also six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks have been residents of Ishpeeming for the last twenty-five years and they have been in the country for nearly fifty. They were married in England fifty-two years ago and came to this country shortly after the Crimean war. Mr. Parks will be buried on the nineteenth of next month, and is far from strong. Mrs. Parks was beloved by all who knew her. She was kind hearted in the extreme and she leaves a host of sorrowing friends. The home of the family on Canda street was the pride of her life and she never tired of working around the garden. She was a Nottingham lace-maker before her marriage and was very fond of telling her intimate friends anecdotes of the old times and experiences. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is probable that she will be buried in the Presbyterian church of which she was a life-long member.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but the woman who is attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at the Stafford Drug company.

There were about a dozen skiers at the "Brass Wire" Sunday afternoon practicing for the tournament. A number of boys had not been on skis for eight years and they found it somewhat hard to get into the old familiar swing at first. They are of the opinion that somebody will have to hustle if they are to be beaten.

There was a little laugh going the rounds yesterday over the trouble three of our most substantial citizens had Sunday with a hacking broncho. They started early in the morning for a rabbit hunt north of the city. When within a mile of the camp the broncho, which had been a little fractious during the trip, began to buck in real earnest, and he finally succeeded in breaking the neck yoke, thus letting down the pole. As the rig was descending a rising hill at the time it kept right on riding over and breaking the pole and causing a scramble among the occupants. The rest of the trip was made on foot and the sportsmen did not wait to repair the damages, starting off after rabbits. When they returned every one was in first-class shape and now they are complimenting the driver on his ingenuity in doing something with nothing, for there was no wire or rope nearer than the city, and that was many miles away.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they seek when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. The Stafford Drug Co.

A young woman of Leonidas named Nellie Sturgis dashed carbolic acid in the face of a dished man of that place one day last week, the acid burning his face severely and injuring his eyesight so that it is feared he will lose it. No cause is given for her action and she has not yet been arrested for the assault.

John Becker, a convict from Quincy serving time in the state prison at Jackson, died there Friday night before his pardon could reach him. The document was being signed by the warden in Lansing, when he received a telephone message from Warden Chamberlain stating that the poor fellow was beyond the need of earthly pardon.

James Darggett, the murderer who was pardoned by Governor Pingree, denies a story that he has been circulating to the effect that he paid $500 to secure his pardon. He says he paid his lawyer a fee of $250. "Several of the fellows," continued Darggett, "paid much more for their pardons than it cost me. Charley Wright paid $3,000; Henry Stewart, $1,000, and Stevens $450.

Railroad Commissioner Osborn reports that the Michigan earnings of railroad companies for 1900 were the largest in the history of the state. The aggregate Michigan earnings for the year were $39,176,928.78. This was an increase of $4,202,469.16, or 12.04 per cent over the earnings of 1899. The earnings for December, 1900, were $3,276,129.65, an increase of $48,940.73 over December, 1899.

James Burns, the St. Peters, Mont., ranchman, who mysteriously disappeared from Detroit after visiting his sister there on Nov. 13, has been located by Detroit detectives. He was found at Hot Springs, Ark., where he had gone for treatment for an abscess on his right knee as the result of a sprain he suffered in Chicago, but he failed to inform his relatives of his whereabouts.

Michigan life and fire insurance companies do not pay any tax on their Michigan premiums, as foreign companies are required to do, simply paying the ordinary tax on whatever taxable property they own in the state. It is announced that bills will be introduced in the legislature this week to require these companies to pay the same specific tax as is levied against foreign companies. This is 2 per cent for life, and 3 per cent for fire companies.

The board of control of the Jackson prison will endeavor to increase the price of contract prison labor. Their contract with C. W. Hills for the labor of thirty convicts at 50 cents each per day was recently renewed at 60 cents per day. Two other contracts disposing of the labor of 250 men expire before July, 1901. Proposals have been submitted to these contractors with the price fixed at 60 cents instead of 50 cents, but as yet the offers have not been accepted.

Fifty sportsmen of Kalamazoo held a mass meeting there Friday night and declared themselves strongly opposed to the proposed amendments in the fish and game laws. They approve the present deer hunter's law with a few exceptions. They favor having the number of deer killed by any one person limited to three and allowing non-resident hunters who pay a license of $25 to come to the state to hunt be allowed the privilege of shipping their deer home. The sportsmen voted to send a representative to Lansing to fight the proposed change. Speeches were made in which the Michigan Game and Fish Protective association, which is largely responsible for the proposed changes in the law, was scored in strongest language.

"Oh! Dear I'm so Tired."

The ordinary every-day life of most of our women is a ceaseless treadmill of work. How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system all unstrung!

One day she is wretched and utterly miserable; in a day or two she is better and laughs at her fears, thinking there is nothing much the matter after all; but before night the deadly backache reappears, the limbs tremble, the lips twitch—it seems as though all the imps of Satan were clutching her vitals; she goes to pieces and is flat on her back.

No woman ought to arrive at this terrible state of misery, because these symptoms are a sure forerunner of womb troubles. She must remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is almost an infallible cure for all female ills, such as irregularity of periods, which cause weak stomach, sick headache, etc., displacements and inflammation of the womb, or any of the multitudes of illnesses which beset the female organism.

Mrs. Gooden wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letter tells the result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe that your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb, and inflammation of the ovaries. I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then, after nearly two months, the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and medicines alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine. I have gained twelve pounds during the last two months and am better in every way. Thanking you for your kind advice and attention, I remain, Yours gratefully, "MRS. E. J. GOODEN, Ackley, Iowa."

PLAYED THEM RIGHT. NEGAUNEE MERCHANT GAVE AID TO THE HALL GIRL OF ISHPeming. ONLY TO FIND THAT THEY WERE FLEECE.

Saturday morning brought the famous Hall girl to town. She hailed from Ishpeming and is noted for her ability to beg and tell stories which are somewhat untrue. She dropped into a store on Iron street soon after her arrival and commenced to tell the proprietor a pitiful tale of woe. He is a kind hearted man and he listened to the Hall's live on Bank street across from the I. E. Swift company's store in Ishpeming. Hall works in the woods for Gil Hodgkins and is rarely at home. Mrs. Hall is most of the time with her father-in-law, who is an old man. There are five children, the eldest, who visited Negaunee, being about twelve.

She told the first business man she struck that on the previous (Friday) had a quarrel and that her father had had a quarrel and that her father had left for points up north while her mother had gone off in the early morning without bidding her children good bye. Before leaving however she did not forget to lock the door. The grandfather had incidentally taken French leave and there was nothing in the house to eat.

This is the story she related here: On waking Saturday morning, Miss Hall found that she and the other children were hungry. She boarded a car but, she not having any small change, the conductor put her hand compelling her to make the rest of the journey on foot. She interviewed all the boarding house keepers in the city and finally got trace of her mother, some one telling her that she had gone to Marquette. This caused the tears to flow. The merchant to whom she applied applied fixed her up in good style with bread and fruit and numerous other things, put her aboard a car and paid her fare.

Later he telephoned The Mining Journal reporter and asked him to look into the matter. The police took the case and they found the father is not supposed to be at home and was not, on the night in question, also that the grandfather was there all the time and furthermore, that the pantry was not so bare as pictured. The benevolent merchant when told the true state of affairs, said that anyone who could tell such a straight story and withstand so much questioning deserved all they got. The Hall girl is very well known in Ishpeming.

THE LAST RITES. The funeral of William H. Stevens was well attended Sunday afternoon. The day was all that could be desired and hundreds of friends assisted at the ceremonies. The Mitchell M. E. church was full to overflowing, many being unable to gain admittance. The decorations were both numerous and beautiful, many pieces from out of town friends being on the pier. The Rev. Isaac Wilcox conducted the services. Blackwell's band attended in a body without the instruments. Mr. Stevens leaves a host of friends in this city and the surrounding country who mourn his loss greatly. He was an exceeding kind father bringing up besides his own children, of which there were two, three of Mrs. Stevens her first husband. His tastes were musical and he was a most prominent as well as the best players in the band.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED. Mr. J. E. Lily, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at The Stafford Drug Co.; every bottle guaranteed.

W. L. Yancy, Paducah, Ky., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney disease and three of the best physicians in southern Kentucky treated me without success. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure. The first bottle gave immediate relief and three bottles cured me permanently. I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy." The People's Drug Store.

Finally one of my friends prevailed upon me to use your White Wine of Tar Syrup. I took one and one-half bottles and am cured entirely. Such medicine can recommend to those who are afflicted as I was. Very respectfully yours, JOSEPH E. UNDERHILL, Doland, South Dakota. The Stafford Drug Store.

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS. (Additional.)

HAS PAID EVERY CLAIM. MINNEAPOLIS TONTINE BEARS A GOOD REPUTATION IN THE COPPER MINING DISTRICT.

The Tontine Savings association of Minneapolis has a large number of contract holders in the copper country and as far as is known has fulfilled every agreement made in its contracts. The proceedings against the Detroit company, however, have been the cause of making the patrons of the Minneapolis company feel nervous and the concern's business in copperhold has consequently decreased in the way of securing additional contracts. Holders since the tontine troubles were started at Hancock. According to all accounts, however, those holding contracts with the Minneapolis concern should not feel worried, as the company apparently conducts business in a straightforward way and has never failed to pay up when a contract is due. It is to be regretted that the Minneapolis company's business has suffered in the copper country owing to the tontine troubles, but of course it was a natural consequence. It is true that Attorney General Owen has carefully explained from the Minneapolis company regarding the manner in which it fulfills its pledges in Michigan, but the officers of the Minneapolis concern are anxious that the matter be settled as soon as is possible for the company's own interests. They will carefully explain their methods of doing business and will produce figures and other proof that every agreement has been fulfilled. When that is done the attorney general will not doubt be satisfied that the company is an honest one in its dealings and will allow it to continue doing business in this state.

HOUGHTONITES BRING SUIT. Ever since the tontine troubles began in Hancock, the proceedings in that village have been closely watched by holders of tontine policies in other villages of the county. Hancock, by its various tontine suits in the courts from time to time, has not only gained a reputation in the county for getting after the Detroit "get-rich-quick" concern, but has also attracted the notice of the state at large. All of the suits in Houghton county against the New Jersey Tontine company, which recently dissolved the Detroit concern, had up to Saturday been instituted by Hancock people with the exception of David Leonard of Lake Linden but whose case was tried in the court of Justice Oliver at Hancock. The number of people in Hancock holding contracts with tontine companies is much larger than that in any other village in the county, though many Houghton people have tontine contracts, some of which have matured and are not as yet paid. In cases of unpaid matured contracts, however, all of them are now held with the New Jersey concern, but formerly with the Detroit company. The Houghton unfortunate holders of these policies have of late been casting their eyes in the direction of Hancock to see the outcome of the various tontine suits in the courts. Every case against the New Jersey concern has thus far been settled in favor of the complainant and the full amount of the judgment asked for secured. On Saturday the ball was started rolling in Houghton and was occasioned by the institution of three suits against the tontine company of New Jersey. Justice Brand will have charge of the cases. The three complainants whose contracts have matured, but which have not been paid are Henry Wilkinson, W. A. Dodge and Herman Ostromund. The cases will be tried this week and a settlement will probably be reached.

GAGNE ABANDONS HIS SUIT.
