PINGREE'S MISSION
THREE BIG SCHEMES, SAYS COL. SUTTON, TOOK HIM ABROAD.
WERE TO BENEFIT MICHIGAN.
OVERWORK ON THEM HASTENED THE DEATH AT LONDON.
Reclamation of the Pine Forests, the Rotation of Crops and the Establishing of Boer Colonies the Plans of the ex-Governor.

Detroit, June 19.—In an interview with New York this afternoon with a staff correspondent of the Detroit Journal, Colonel Eli R. Sutton of this city, who was a traveling companion of ex-Governor Pingree during the trip through South Africa and Europe, said: "Hazen S. Pingree went to South Africa and Europe largely for the purpose of putting into practical effect three gigantic schemes for the benefit of the people of Michigan. "The first was the reclamation of the immense pine forests by the planting of trees. He went to the Bavarian 'Black Forest' to expand this idea and was overworked so much he hastened his death. "The second scheme was the rotation of crops in Michigan. In pursuit of this scheme, he went to Egypt, where such a system is enforced by the government. "The third was the transportation of every patriotic Boer and family who desired to come to the United States. He gained the approval of British officials on the subject and had an appointment to consult Kruger about it which was only prevented by the governor's illness. It was the idea to interest Michigan capitalists in the plan and provide lands for the Boers among the railroad systems."

Detroit, June 19.—All the flags in the city are floating at half-mast today out of respect to the memory of ex-Governor Pingree. Expressions of deep and sincere regret are heard on every hand and the papers are filled with eulogies of the dead ex-governor from friends and former political foes alike. The city is more deeply moved by Pingree's death than by the loss of any public man in many decades.

Lansing, Mich., June 19.—Governor Bliss this afternoon issued an official proclamation eulogizing former Governor Pingree as a soldier, business man, mayor and governor, whose career had been characterized by rugged honesty that won for him the confidence of the people. The flag on all state buildings were ordered at half-mast until after the funeral, and the capitol to be appropriately draped.

Chicago, June 19.—The French ambassador, M. Jules Cambon, who has been in Chicago for a week or more, leaves tomorrow on a trip to Sault Ste. Marie.
Education That Will Stop Wars.
"I do not believe the man who tells me that trade relations and business exigency will prevent future wars among the civilized nations. It is intellect that will stop them, and intellect alone. Education makes for peace more than all the business of the world."
Ambassador Cambon made this statement tonight at a luncheon given in his honor at the Chicago club, at which he listened to an eulogistic toast praising him for his services in conducting the negotiations that led up to the treaty which ended the Spanish-American war.

Springfield, Ill., June 19.—In the case of the Murray-Nelson company, appellant, against Joseph Leiter, appellee, the judgment of the appellate court is affirmed by the supreme court in a decision rendered tonight. It was a case in which the superior court refused to issue a writ of attachment against Leiter at the instance of the Murray-Nelson company, who charged he had, within the past two years, fraudulently conveyed and assigned property to avoid the payment of debts. The trouble grew out of the great wheat deal in which Leiter went bankrupt in June, 1898. The supreme court holds that Leiter had a legal right to make the transfer of the property.

Albany, N. Y., June 19.—Charles T. McFarlane of Ypsilanti, Mich., was today appointed principal of the State Normal school at Brockport.

DEMAND ON DENMARK.
Sharp Note Sent by the United States Says a Copenhagen Report.
London, Thursday, June 19.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Copenhagen says: "The United States has sent another note to Denmark in the matter of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the effect that if Denmark is not willing to sell the islands the United States must demand that Denmark fortify and gararrison the islands of St. Thomas and St. John, which would command the Nicaraguan canal. The situation is regarded as serious here, as Denmark cannot dream of undertaking the erection of fortifications, and the maintenance of garrisons which would cost several millions."

UNCLE SAM TO OWN ALL.
Railroad Kings Going to Sell Out for Ten Billion Dollars.
Denver, June 19.—The Times today says that a gigantic scheme is under way for the transfer of the railroads of the United States to the government. A Western financier whose name is withheld asserts that the report of pending government ownership is based on facts. He declares that within a few years the Rockefeller, Harriman, Vanderbilt, Gould and Morgan interests will turn over to the government every line of railroad in the country, the government to pay a total value of ten billions. A string of banks will be controlled by the same interests to finance the deal.

SHAFTER DENIES IT. DOUBLE LYNCHING.
LOUISIANA MOB AVENGES THE FOSTER MURDER.
BRAVE SHERIFF IS 'OVERPOWERED'
"PROPHET" SMITH ONE OF THE NEGROES TO HANG.
Dies Praying After Protesting Innocence, as Does His Fellow Victim, of Any Complicity in the Killing of the Young Planter.

Washington, June 19.—The war department today made public two telegrams, dated yesterday, relating to the alleged arm and clothing frauds at San Francisco. The first message was from Adjutant General Corbin to General Shafter asking for information on the subject, stating "it is desirable from every point of view that detailed facts of any importance be given to the department before being exploited in the newspapers." General Shafter's reply is as follows: "Have refrained from making a report regarding the clothing seized by Colonel Maus because the quantity was very small and it all appeared to have come from the same man, a junk dealer who did business around the Presidio. The clothing had evidently been sold to a peddler by soldiers and recruits, and the junk man and his son have been arrested by the federal authorities and their case is being considered by the federal grand jury today. There is no shortage in any of the departments here. "This seized clothing undoubtedly represents an accumulation of articles which had been sold from time to time during the past year or two by five thousands of soldiers who have passed through San Francisco. I do not regard the matter as any important, though it has been widely exploited by the sensational newspapers. However, the seizure of these articles and the arrests made will have the effect, I think, of discouraging the purchase or sale of soldiers' wearing apparel in this vicinity hereafter."

Des Moines, Ia., June 19.—Governor Shaw received a letter this afternoon from Senator Allison in reply to a telegram sent last Saturday suggesting the name of the senator for the presidency. The letter is a purely personal one, the governor states, and he does not desire to make the entire contents public at the present time. The governor admitted the senator stated in the letter that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for the presidency, but assured Governor Shaw he was in favor of his being a candidate and believed the state ought to go to the governor to support him and send a delegation to the national convention to that end. He further stated he believed the delegation could be easily secured.

SCORED BY COURT.
MINING INVESTMENT COMPANY IS CALLED A GLARING SWINDLE.
PRISON TERMS MERITED BY OFFICERS
HIGHWAY ROBBERY COMMONPLACE TO THE FRAUDS PRACTICED.
Appointment of a Receiver for the Bogus Concern by Judge Pond of Minneapolis Characterized by a Scathing Denunciation.
Minneapolis, June 19.—Judge Pond, of the Hennepin court, today appointed Albert H. Hall receiver for the insolvent American Mining Investment company. In his memorandum the judge says: "The information charges the company with gross misuse and abuse of its franchises and with glaring misrepresentation, deceit and fraud; in effect, with a course of business conduct so steeped in iniquity and sin as to stagger human belief."
A Rotten and Corrupt Concern.
"In the face of these charges, the corporation does no more than to formally file a general denial and hasten to avoid an investigation by admitting the facts are sufficient to warrant the court in granting the relief prayed for. That such an apparently rotten and corrupt concern should exist, and for a time thrive in this community, is a sad commentary upon the intelligence of its patrons and in the morals of a people permitting it."
"It is difficult to find language in which to properly characterize the acts of the officials of the company, but it is not too much to say that highway robbery and burglary become common place as compared with the enormity of such studied fraud and devilry as appear to have been practiced."
Should Don the Stripes.
"If the managers, Charles R. Tuttle and L. Hancock, are guilty of these offenses, as they appear to be, they should be apprehended and sent to prison for a term which would teach them and other like evil-doers that justice is still alive and cannot thus be trifled with."
RIOT AT PRO-BOER LALLY.
Jingoes Take Possession of a Peace Party Meeting in London.
London, June 19.—Thousands of people began collecting outside Queen's Hall two hours before the advertised time of a pro-Boer meeting to be held there tonight. When the doors were finally opened the pressure of the surging mob was so great that many people fainted. In spite of the vigilance of the promoters of the meeting, many jingoes gained entrance. Much looting, mingled with cheers, greeted the delegates upon their arrival and during the evening the delivery of the speeches was attended with some difficulty between the immense crowd outside the hall and the police, and the latter had the greatest difficulty in handling the assemblage.

Shreveport, June 19.—Frank, better known as "Prophet" Smith and F. D. McLand, held at Benton for complicity in the murder of John Gray Foster, the prominent young planter, killed last week, were taken out by a mob tonight, strung up to a tree and left dangling side by side. The lynching occurred on the Arkansas road a mile and a half from jail.
Both negroes made statements before their death, denying they had anything to do with the killing. Smith, who was at the head of the "Church of God" movement in that section, was blamed as being responsible for the sentiment against the whites which led to the death of Foster, and he died praying. As Smith was being led from jail prior to his execution he was heard to say, "Lord, you promised to be with me now."
There were about two hundred armed men in the mob and they overpowered the sheriff and jailer, taking the keys away from them. The lynchers claimed the execution of these negroes was necessary to the preservation of the white men in this locality.

North Carolina Preacher Strung Up.
Lagrange, N. C., June 19.—D. B. Jones, a negro preacher, who it is alleged, attempted to assault Mrs. Noah Davis, was taken from the guard house here late last night and lynched.

New York, June 19.—Among the discharges in bankruptcy in the United States court today was William J. Coffin, broker, formerly a member of the firm of Coffin & Stanton, with liabilities of $4,150,000 and assets of $25 cash. Among the unsecured creditors was the city of Ironwood, Mich., for $150,000 for bonds purchased.

FATAL ST. LOUIS FIRE.
Explosion This Morning Shatters Buildings for Blocks Around.
St. Louis, Thursday, June 20.—The J. J. Sikes Saddlery company's plant was destroyed by fire early this morning. The company's private watchman is supposed to have been killed in the accompanying explosion, which shattered buildings for blocks around.
KILLED BY A STREET CAR.
Traction Magnate Dies Under the Wheels at Dallas, Tex.
Dallas, Tex., June 19.—Garret Van Ginkel, until recently principal owner of the Consolidated car system here, was struck and killed tonight by a car. He had owned and operated lines in Illinois and Iowa and came here from Des Moines.

MICHIGAN BANKER CONVICTED.
Frederick Neilson of Pentwater Found Guilty of Embezzlement.
Muskegon, Mich., June 19.—The jury in the case of Frederick Neilson, the banker of Pentwater, charged with embezzlement, tonight returned a verdict of guilty. The charge was made by J. E. Peterson, who induced Neilson to send to Denmark for $12,000 which Peterson had there and entrusted the money to Neilson. Neilson failed to make an accounting of the money.

TO STOP BIG LAND STEAL.
Ex-Congressman Springer, for the Indians, Petitions McKinley.
Washington, June 19.—Former Congressman Springer, counsel for the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indians in the suit to enjoin the secretary of the interior from opening up to settlement reservations in Oklahoma, today filed with the president a memorial praying that he exercise his discretion under the law and withhold the issuance of his proclamation for six months, after the final allotments to the Indians are made, and thus give congress an opportunity to repeal the present law.

MARQUETTE, MICH., JUNE 20.

The Death Angel has removed the "specter". Some people are breathing easier. More's the pity.

The railroad machinists in the lower part of the state, who have been out of the shops for the past two weeks or more, are rapidly returning to work, having reached a satisfactory adjustment with their employers.

More retaliatory tariffs have been fixed on American imports by Russia, this entirely apart from the action taken in connection with the Russian sugar. The news of the imposition of the new tariffs has created much uneasiness at Washington, where there is a fear that the war may be carried to lengths disastrous to the Russian trade of this country, which is adversely affected by the discrimination to date.

Marquette people should hearken to everything which Mrs. McCrea has to say to them relative landscape improvement. She is here at the instance of a couple of the municipal boards, for which she will do some work, and, incidentally, will prod the city's civic pride. She is an acknowledged authority on her art and her counsel and advice should be heeded.

Reports are that Great Britain has notified the powers that she cannot consent to China increasing the duty on opium or rice. If they are true they mean further complications in Chinese affairs. However, they will not be of a serious nature, as it is probable that Great Britain's demand is merely perfunctory, in answer to the importunities of India exporters who are disturbed at the prospect of seeing a "good thing" slip from their grasp.

There is no doubt that if Odell continues to grow in the favorable opinion of the public, and that he will be the next president, it is fashionable to think that when Senator Platt makes a political prediction he is doing it for the sole purpose of aiding some of Senator Platt's plans.

Odell, on the other hand, went into office as a hide-bound partisan, of whom little independent consideration of public affairs was expected. Whether for the sake of accumulating presidential honors, or because he has a change of heart and came to take a broader view of things, it is certain that he has been the governor of the whole people. Odell has not been bossed by the bosses, and he has saved the people of New York much legislation that was bad in intent and would have been costly in effect had it become law.

It may be that Mr. Platt likes the Odell stripe of man no better than we; but it is within the possibilities that he sees that he cannot be headed off except by an even more faithful servant of the people than Odell has been. In the end, however, the last question will be one of availability and the necessity of carrying New York.

Michigan has lost one of her famous sons; a unique career has been closed and a salutary influence removed from public life and politics. Ex-Governor Hazen S. Pingree's death is being deplored throughout the state. It is but a few days since the first hints of his serious condition were received, now he is no more. Two weeks ago none of his friends, nor any member of his family circle, were apprehensive of his continued good health, but his affection was insidiously ripening and, when it was brought under treatment, it was so far advanced that the greatest medical skill of the English capitol was unavailing to control it.

Pingree and "Pingreeism" were unique in the history of Michigan. Both were distasteful to many Republican leaders and politicians, but there is ample evidence to show that they were acceptable to the mass of the people. Pingree just missed being a permanent as well as a tremendous factor in state, maybe national, politics. At the time of his death he was out of public life, with every prospect of a continued retirement, although his name was again being mentioned in connection with the Detroit mayoralty, this as a result of the "ripper" legislation sought and obtained by the men and interests with whom he had waged a bitter war during the years of his public life.

Had Pingree possessed more repose, and dignity and had his methods smacked less of the demagogue; had he said less and kept out of the newspapers more, pursuing a quiet way to his end; had he avoided useless, and worse than fruitless, hostilities, he would probably have succeeded in building up a following, or a personal machine, which would have made him invincible in the state and which might easily have lifted him into national prominence. Nor is there anything in his history to show that such a condition would have been inimical to the best interests of the state.

As public men go, Pingree was honest, fearless and, politically, comparatively virtuous. He recognized the people as the mainspring of all political power and was willing, may even anxious, to follow their dictates, desiring always to see an untrammelled expression of their will and "sweating blood" when he observed such expressions selfishly disregarded, or overlooked, by the machine elements which have aimed such a firm hold on state government.

It is not likely that Pingree obtained much satisfaction or pleasure from his political career. Observing the ratio of effort to accomplishment, it can hardly be called a success. As mayor of Detroit he secured many municipal reforms and gave promise of being the man for a sphere of greater usefulness, which he hardly fulfilled when he became governor. His long fight for a law securing the taxation of railroad and other corporate property on an ad valorem basis instead of specifically, which resulted in the passage of a measure along these lines by the last legislature, is a matter of recent history. He was unable to bring it to a successful conclusion in his own term of office, but its final success may be attributed directly to the influence of his persistent advocacy of the measure, which served effectually to keep it before the people and Republican state conventions. This was Pingree's great work as governor of Michigan.

He was constantly harassed throughout his public career by powerful political factions and at no time had he the O. K. of either of the state's senators, without which probably no other man in the commonwealth could have survived in a position of power and influence so long. But Pingree was wise in his generation. He builded upon the people, whose O. K. overrides that of any small coterie of leaders, whatever their influence may be in the higher councils of the party. Pingree, through the major portion of his career, might justly have been termed the people's idol. A glance over his political record shows that this is no exaggeration. His vagaries during the latter portion of his last term as governor probably alienated much of his popular support, but it is generally conceded that, had he again come before the public as the sponsor for some needed reform or as the front of some salutary public movement, he would again have drawn about him all his former following.

Pingree was not infallible. He made mistakes, far too many of them, but they, like the man, were honest. He blustered and boasted, but even in doing so he demonstrated his frankness and sincerity. It is easy to understand why Pingree was popular with the people and why there is an almost universal feeling of loss at his death. He was of the people and for the people. Like Jackson and Lincoln, he trusted to their wisdom and honesty, and, in all essential things, they trusted him.

Champion. MONEY CAME EASY.

A Large Sum Has Been Raised for a Celebration Here on the Fourth.

For the past week or more nearly everyone in Champion has been discussing the celebration planned for the Fourth. The proposition to have a blow-out that will surpass anything of the kind ever given in the village was suggested by some of the men at the mine. Soon a movement to raise funds was started and in consequence the subscription paper now bears the name of every working man and boy in the village. All the business men also contributed. Superintendent Walter Fitch of the Champion Iron company fell in line and his donation was most liberal. Nearly all the money is now in the hands of Treasurer Thomas Carmichael. He advised the reporter this week that he had nearly $700 and that he expected more between now and the Fourth.

This amount is about twice as much as has ever been heretofore expended on a celebration. It is intended that every dollar shall be spent in prizes, etc. The events will be of general interest and the purses will be sufficiently large to attract the best men of the county to compete. The Cornish wrestling tournament will be the principal feature. The prizes will aggregate $165, the best prize to be $75. No wrestler, not even Rowett, will be barred. The contest will be open for everyone and the more the amount in the prize funds the more the celebration will like it. There are a number of fine writers in Champion, so that the local people expect to see some of the prizes remain at home, although there will be no fault-finding if wrestlers from outside carry them away.

A number of the young men are up early every morning training for the athletic events. Some of them will be in the pink of condition by the Fourth, so that the sprinters from outside will not have everything their own way. The prizes have not yet been decided, but the amount in the disposal of the committee will admit of most liberal offerings.

All contests will take place in the Beacon grove, one of the most attractive natural parks in the Northern country. Refreshments of various kinds will be obtainable on the grounds. Meals will be served at the Champion Iron company's big boarding house, also at the hotel, both near by, at a nominal figure. One of the pleasant features of the celebration will be the presence of the famous city band of Ishpeming. There is no question as to the quality of good judges of music that the Ishpeming band is a warm rival to the Calumet & Hecla organization, so that Champion people, as well as all who visit the town that day, will be given a treat in the concert the band will render at the grove. This band will rest the committee in the neighborhood of $100, but money counts no figure this time. What everyone wants is the best and nothing will be left undone to make the celebration the finest that has ever taken place in the village.

The arrangement committee is composed of Captain Charles Chapman, Dan Toms, George Huber, Jr., Ed. Paul, D. E. Peacock, Nester Hannala, Ambrose Nord, Charles Horgren and Antoine Rivard.

AT THE NEW DISCOVERY. Champion's Latest Mining Prospect is Looking Splendid.

The deposit of rich ore being uncovered near the Chicago & Northwest iron depot continues to show up well and from present indications the Champion Iron company will be amply rewarded for its enterprise in opening a mine there.

The reporter visited the prospect Tuesday. The working force has been increased to twenty men, who are employed stripping the vein. The ore has been uncovered a distance of about 150 feet in length by from five to ten feet in width. Toward the east the ore takes a slight upward turn, outcropping within a few feet of surface in places, but in the opposite direction it is dipping downward. In the most westerly point the depth stripped from the surface is about ten feet.

Samples of the ore recently tested show the percentage of iron to be about the same as it was in the first samples taken from the vein.

The location of the proposed shaft has not yet been determined. Considerable more stripping will be done before it is started. The erection of a temporary blacksmith shop will soon be one of the necessities at the new mine. The workmen dull their picks very rapidly as there is a great deal of rock mixed with the sand.

WELL ATTENDED. The entertainment given at the town hall last Saturday evening by grade pupils of the Champion school, under direction of the Misses Polly and Mercier, brought out a large attendance.

The program was of unusual merit and the ladies in charge deserve much credit for their work. The teachers were obliged to rush their preparations as the time was limited, owing to the late start made. Something like $35 was netted, which was more than expected on account of the small admission price charged.

Another large audience was present Wednesday evening when the commencement exercises took place at the town hall. The program was given by pupils of the high school, including the two graduates, Elizabeth Gill and Bessie Treval, both girls received many nice presents, including flowers, from their friends.

MIDSUMMER OUTINGS. Next Monday will be a holiday for most of the working men of the county, so that not a few will take advantage of the reduced rates of fare offered by the South Shore road and go away from home for a few hours. A number here are planning on taking in the Woodmen's picnic at Republic; others will go to the Frenchmen's celebration at Iron Mountain and some will visit the larger towns in the other end of the county. Nearly all the members of the French society will go to Iron Mountain, though up to this time no train arrangements have been completed. An effort was made to charter a special on the Northwestern line to run to Ishpeming to join the excursionists there, but without success. Champion people will now likely go over the St. Paul line from here, through a special train will be necessary to take the crowd to Republic, where the regular will be met.

At Republic extensive preparations are being made by the Woodmen for the entertainment of all who will attend their picnic. Champion parties can leave here after 10 o'clock on the St. Paul mixed train or at 11:20 on the Northwestern, arriving at the grounds in time for dinner. The Michigan band and orchestra will be present during the entire day and evening.

WILL WED SATURDAY. On Saturday evening of this week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Horgren, their daughter Edla will be united in marriage to Walter Mikkelson. The ceremony will take place at 7:30 and will be performed by the pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of Champion. As many of the friends of the contracting parties as the house will accommodate have been invited to witness the marriage. Following the ceremony the young couple will be tendered a reception. The bride and groom will start housekeeping soon after their marriage, taking rooms in the building owned by the Swedish society.

Tom Kelly has returned from Butte, Mont., where he spent the past five or six years. After enjoying a good rest here he will likely return, although there is a possibility of his remaining permanently.

Superintendent D. K. Dinton has resigned his position in the Champion schools. He has been here for the past two years. He gives up the place to take a position nearer his old home. Some of the teachers have also resigned, so that there will be at least three or four new instructors the coming year.

Mrs. R. K. Thomas, who is confined to a Chicago hospital, underwent a very difficult surgical operation one day last week. Fifty-three hours after the operation Mr. Thomas wrote to friends here stating that his wife was very weak, but that the physicians advised him that she was getting along as well as could be expected. He said the operation was successful, which is news their many friends in this section will be glad to hear.

Champion people who spent last Sunday on the shore of Lake Michigan report a most pleasant outing. They made the trip on the Petrol. Many such picnics have been planned for the Sundays and holidays of the summer. Lake Michigan is becoming noted as a pleasure resort, for Champion and Michiganans are flocking there. Last Sunday a number took some fine trout from the lake. Superintendent Walter Fitch is figuring quite prominently in the work of stocking the lake with pickerel and bass. JURY GETS A TIP.

MOTIVE OF THE KELLER SHOOTING SHOWN IN COURT.

DEFENSE DRAWS OUT THE STORY.

PROMPT ANSWERS DEFEAT THE STATE'S OBJECTIONS.

Defendant Barker Claimed to Be Temporarily Insane Because of Brooding Over Wife's Confession When He Shot Preacher.

New York, June 19.—The case of Thomas G. Barker, on trial at Jersey City for shooting Rev. John Keller, went to the jury tomorrow. The defense had practically finished when the court rose this evening.

Barker said he met Keller and Keller spoke to him. This was in direct contradiction of Keller's testimony. Barker said he responded to Keller's greeting by calling Keller a villain, charging him with outraging Mrs. Barker; then, he said, he began firing. Keller when on the stand swore that not a word was spoken, and that he saw no one. The purpose of Barker's testimony was to show that after having brooded for a period over what his wife had told him, he was in a morbid state of mind, and when he came face to face with the minister he was carried away by his feeling and began firing; it was a sudden, violent temporary insanity, lasting but a moment but long enough to cover the period of the shooting. When the court rose the defense was bringing testimony to support its side with expert medical testimony.

Mrs. Barker calmly answered the questions of her husband's lawyers, and by the time she was put under cross-examination appeared to be under perfect self-control. Keller betrayed not the slightest emotion.

IN KEEPING OF THE COURT.

Fate of Molinoux Not to Be Determined for Some Months.

Buffalo, June 19.—The fate of Roland B. Molinoux, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams at New York in December, 1898, is in the keeping of the seven judges of the court of appeals who for three days past have been listening to arguments for and against a new trial. The appeal was finally submitted this afternoon, and the decision will not be announced until some months hence, when the court sits at Albany for the fall term.

The crowd which sought admission to the court room this morning was larger and more determined than ever, and the bailiffs had to resort to force to restrain them. The principal speaker was former United States Senator David B. Hill, for the people, who spoke for three hours and fifteen minutes. John G. Milburn, attorney for Molinoux, was then heard for twenty minutes in a concise reply.

Senator Hill declared that the question of guilt was the main issue in the case, warned the court not to heed a plea that dealt in technicalities and urged that the objections to the acts and rulings had not substantially affected the rights of the accused. If courts were to be thus swayed from the pathway of duty, he suggested that the murders might organize a trust and all enjoy freedom. Snapping up, Senator Hill reviewed the correspondence with the patent medicine dealers and proclaimed Molinoux as the author of the letters, the enemy of Harry Cornish and Henry C. Barnett, the compounder of the rare cyanide of mercury used in both crimes and the man who mailed the fatal poison that killed Mrs. Adams.

CONSTABLE HELD FOR MURDER.

Officer Who Killed the Gambler at Springfield May Pay Penalty.

Springfield, Ill., June 19.—The coroner's jury in the case of Frank Hoffenberg, the Jacksonville gambler who was shot and killed by Constable Wm. H. Brown during a raid last night on Chester M. Lane's gambling house, today heard the testimony of the other gamblers, all the constables being under arrest as accessories to the killing, and tonight returned a verdict recommending that Brown be held to the grand jury for murder without bail. Mayor Phillips today had the chief of police order all the gambling houses to close, which order was complied with. The dead gambler leaves a wife and two children.

YACHT MAKES SIXTEEN KNOTS.

Lawson's Boat Proves It is a Dangerous Rival for Constitution.

Boston, June 19.—After having had eleven feet out from the total length of the mast and topmast, 300 square feet covered in the total area of the lower sails, and the sternpost rudder substituted for the balance rudder, Independence went out yesterday and made a showing which stamps the yacht a dangerous rival for Constitution.

On a reach of about six miles Independence went better than fifteen knots in a breeze blowing about seventeen knots. With sheets well off it was timed from Boston lightship to Thieves' Ledge whistling buoy, a distance of three and one-fourth knots, which was covered in twelve minutes. This would make the speed about sixteen knots, showing that no misstatement was made by those who held the log. The best record that Constitution has made to date was 14.2 knots, which record was set on a reach of a log and—then the boat broke down.

The steering gear of the sternpost rudder, which is a bevel arrangement similar to that on Columbia, was found to be too tight, and the screw gear that was last used on the balance rudder will be substituted.

Captain Huff was delighted with the performance, and has the air of supreme confidence in the ability of Independence to trim the Constitution.

CHINA AROUSED BY THE WAR.

Russian Statesman Sounds a Note of Warning to the Powers.

London, June 19.—"China will be a mighty world power within a generation and the powers have themselves to thank for the prospect," said Jean de Bloch, actual counselor of state of Russia and member of the comite de savants of the ministry of finance, to the correspondent tonight. M. de Bloch has come to London to lecture on the lessons of the Boer war and their application to European conditions. He continued: "The allied invasion of the Chinese empire has accomplished but one tangible and abiding thing. It has federated that great and patriotic people as indivisibly as Bismarck united the states of the German empire. It has awakened in them a sentiment of aggressive nationalism that bodes ill for the civilizations that have held them in contempt."

"Perhaps the new China will never menace the political peace of the world, but it will certainly revolutionize international commercial conditions. I expect to see the day when the Chinese traders drive out of the Oriental markets all the nations now assuming exorbitant prices for their goods. There have been retaken who can tell where the ambitions awakened in the empire will stop?"

"China has simply been rudely aroused from centuries of slumber. When her eyes are opened her potentialities, the powers must run the day they sound the alarm."

DEFENSE HAS A SURPRISE.

Will Prove That Jessie Morrison Killed in Self-Defense, It Is Said.

El Dorado, Kas., June 19.—After only two days of testimony-taking, the state in the case of Jessie Morrison, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Olin Castle, rested this afternoon. The defense will, it is said, spring a surprise on the introduction of new evidence in the form of a self-defense. The evidence today consisted of the death-bed statement of Mrs. Castle, in which she accused Miss Morrison of calling upon her unbidden, beginning a quarrel and then slaying her with a razor, and the introduction of witnesses who described the scene at the Castle house on the morning of the fight.

FROM BOSTON TO NEW YORK.

Peter McNally Will Attempt to Swim It in Thirty Days.

Boston, June 19.—On Sunday, June 30, Peter S. McNally of this city, clad in a pair of small swimming trunks, will dive off the end of Charlestown bridge into Boston harbor and start to swim to the Battery in New York. Weather permitting, he will make Nantasket beach, about seventeen miles, the first day.

The shortest sailing distance between Boston and New York is 282.3 nautical miles or about 350 land miles. McNally estimates that he will actually cover some 400 miles, and he hopes to make the entire distance in thirty days.

This swim, if successful, will be by all odds the most remarkable feat of its kind ever performed. There have been many swimming contests requiring fine endurance, but nothing like a thirty days' trip was ever attempted by anyone.

McNally is the most remarkable swimmer in New England, if not in the country. He has made many long distance trips in the open sea, and many seasons has spent from three to thirty hours in the water every day for weeks at a time.

His most notable performance was his attempt to swim from England to France in 1897. Leaving Dover at 11:20 a. m. on July 24, he swam to within three miles of Cape Grisnez, being forcibly taken from the water at that point at 2:30 a. m., when his trainers concluded that the attempt was hopeless, owing to an adverse tide. He had been in the water fifteen hours and ten minutes, and had actually swum from twenty-five to thirty-eight miles, considerably more than the distance across the channel.

He was told afterward by a French fisherman that at one time he was so cold in the French coast he could have put his feet down and washed ashore.

Some of his other notable swims were these: July, 1884, Bath to Popham beach, Me., 16 nautical miles, 3 hours 12 minutes; August, 1885, Crescent beach to Nahant, Mass., seven miles across the tide in cold and rough water, 2 hours 52 minutes; June, 1886, Caswell's wharf, Charleston, to Cottage Farms and back, 12 miles, 6 hours 57 minutes; July, 1886, Meridian street bridge, Chelsea, to the end of Ocean Pier, South Boston, across Boston harbor, eight miles, 3 hours 14 minutes; August, 1888, Caswell's wharf to Medford and return, 14 miles, 7 hours 12 minutes; July, 1896, Haverhill to the mouth of the Merrimack River, 15 miles, 6 hours; August, 1896, Newport, R. I., to Narragansett Pier, 12 miles, 4 hours 57 minutes.

The last named swim had never been made by any other man before McNally tried it. He was warned not to attempt the journey as being almost certain death, but he did, and made a record that stands to this day. He has several times swum the piece of water between Deer Island in Boston harbor and the mainland, known as Shirley Gut. This water is so fierce that it is commonly said to be impossible for a man to cross from shore to shore and emerge alive.

But more important than McNally's swimming records is his record as a lifesaver. In 1886, for an investigated record of forty-seven rescues from drowning, he was awarded a silver medal by the Massachusetts Humane society. In 1891 the Massachusetts Humane society awarded him another token of appreciation, an enormous gold medal.

NEW THIRD PARTY COMES INTO BEING AT KANSAS CITY.

BRYAN PLANKS IN PLATFORM.

DEMAND FOR PUBLIC OWNERSHIP A LEADING FEATURE.

Pingree Plan of Taxing Corporate Property Also Favored by the Conference of "Reformers" Who Launch the Movement.

Atlanta, June 19.—The Constitution tonight, in response to a telegram of inquiry, received a dispatch from William J. Bryan denying that he is affiliated with the third party movement.

Kansas City, June 19.—The allied third party movement, which its promoters hope will result before 1904 in a national organization strong enough to name a presidential candidate, was launched here this afternoon. It was the outcome of a conference of reformers, single taxers and Bryan Democrats, and its principles are said to have been adopted with a view to fitting the views of Wm. J. Bryan.

The conference was called by Lee Merriweather of St. Louis, who, with other St. Louis leaders in the Public Ownership party, came here yesterday after a visit to Bryan at Lincoln, where the intentions of the delegation had been laid before the Nebraska statesman. Bryan, it was stated, expressed sympathy with the movement, if he has not gone as far as to support it.

Several Parties Represented.

The conference represented Populists of all persuasions, public ownership advocates, free silver Republicans, Socialists, single taxers and Bryan Democrats. It was stated it was proposed to form a third party in Missouri which finally would be taken up by the dissatisfied elements in the old parties in other states. The committee on organization appointed, which represented each element present, today submitted the following resolutions as the new party's principles, and they were adopted:

Public ownership of all public utilities, as railroads, telegraphs, etc. While waiting for the legislation necessary to secure public ownership, the right of control of freight and passenger rates and severe penalties for rebate and other discriminations by the railroads.

Taxation of railroads and other public utility corporations in the same proportion as the value of farm and other property.

Direct legislation by initiative and referendum to the end the people may initiate good legislation and veto bad.

Tax on Incomes Wanted.

Graduated income tax to the end that wealth, which has received governmental protection, will bear its just share of the cost of government.

That whatever is used as money be full legal tender, issued by the general government in sufficient volume for business purposes, and that the volume be fixed in proportion to population.

Home rule for cities.

Abolition of the present system of using the police as a standing army to carry primary elections in the interest of dishonest politicians representing the still more dishonest special privilege corporations.

Elections of United States senators by popular vote.

Resolutions also were adopted eulogizing the primary elections in the interest of Michigan.

This afternoon the committee organized by electing J. H. Cook, fusion Populist, as chairman; J. H. Hillis, middle-of-the-road Populist, vice president, and S. S. Kowalski, Public Ownership secretary. The committee decided to call a state convention for some time next fall.

May Help the Republicans.

Mr. Merriweather this afternoon, at the conclusion of the conference, was asked: "Will not your movement only result in turning the state over to the Republicans?"

"I do not know, but I would a little portion of the Republicans with them the organization of Democrats. As Mr. Bryan said to me Monday, I like an enemy under his own colors better than one who steals my colors."

CZAR FREES CONVICTED STUDENTS.

In Honor of His New Daughter He Commutes Their Sentences.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—The czar today signified the birth of his daughter by issuing an ukase commuting the punishment of the riotous students. There is general disappointment at the fact that another daughter, instead of a son, has been added to the czar's family. Many private and other calculations have been upset. Politicians anticipated amnesties, decorations, reforms and society fetes and the tax-payers were looking forward to the remission of important state taxes.

Peril in Absence of Direct Heir.

The birth of a fourth daughter to the czar and zarina has a deep significance that can hardly fail to have a direct bearing upon the political history of Russia in the near future. There is no direct male heir to the throne. While the government of Russia is an absolute hereditary monarchy, and while the will of the czar is supposed to be law, he cannot transfer his throne to his daughter. The law of the succession to the throne was fixed by the decree of the Emperor Paul in 1797, and this decree, under Russian system, is so inextorable that nothing but a civil war can change it.

If the present czar should die without a son his successor, no other deaths intervening, would be his only living brother, the Grand Duke Michael, who is now twenty-three years old.

It has been frequently been asserted in dispatches from European capitals during the last year that the czar would abdicate his throne if the child just born should prove to be a daughter. His health is bad and his mental depression is so marked as to be recognized in every court in Europe.

Dowager the Power Behind Throne.

Whether the czar abdicates or not, his position is hardly an enviable one. There are no political parties in Russia, but the government is controlled by two rival groups, the one headed by the dowager empress and may be called the reactionary party. The other might be designated as the progressive party, and at its head is the czar.

The dowager empress, through her adherents in the Russian cabinet, has been able to thwart the will of the czar in many of his most cherished projects. Her power is largely explained by the fact that her chief adherent is M. Pobedonostoff, procurator general of the holy synod. Next to him is General Kroupatkin, minister of war. The late Count Mouraviev, minister of foreign affairs, was attached to her party, as was M. Bogolepoff, the recently assassinated minister of public instruction. Thus the reactionary party included the heads of the church, the schools, and the army and was all powerful.

The czar, balked at almost every turn by the opposition in his own family and cabinet, occupies a situation almost intolerable, because he is the last of his house, as far as direct succession is concerned. And if he does abdicate, his lack of a son will be the controlling motive.

MORE FREE SEEDS.

Allotment to Congressmen Is Increased—To Get Trees Also.

Washington, June 19.—Congressmen who have experienced great difficulty on account of the small number of seeds allotted to them will probably be glad to know their allowance this year will be practically double that received previously. In addition to doubling the allotment of seeds, each congressman will have fifty trees at his disposal. They will be of different varieties, selected particularly with a view to suiting the climate in which they will be grown. Many of these will be nut trees, such as pecans and other varieties which will grow in this country. Secretary Wilson determined to distribute trees with a hope of implanting a love of trees in the breasts of the people and inciting them to follow the example set by the department as well as to have a permanent showing for the money expended. In addition to the trees distributed, 38,000,000 packages of seeds will be distributed. Each congressman will have at his disposal 14,000 packages of vegetable seeds, 400 of flowers, 110 of tobacco, 40 of cotton, 30 of lawn grass, 25 of sugar beets, 50 of forage crops, 220 bulbs, 150 strawberries, and 40 of grapes. The strawberries will be of new and rare varieties and the grapes are yet to be selected.

MORMONS LOOK TO MEXICO.

Homes for 1,000 Families Sought in the Yaqui Indian Country.

Mexico City, June 19.—A Mormon agent, James M. Cannon, is here for the purpose of securing from the government a concession for settling 1,000 Mormon families in Sonora, on the lands from which Yaqui Indians have been driven. Mr. Cannon says: "I believe that if suitable tracts of land are placed at our disposal in the Yaqui country we will do much in this country in the interest of peace, for the Mormon church has faced the Indian problem almost since its organization. We require no rifles in our management of the red brother, and are always instilling it into his mind that we are his friends and not his foes. If the concession is obtained a commissioner will be sent at once into the Yaqui territory by the Mormon church for the purpose of ascertaining the attitude of the Indians, and if peaceful, a contract will be made and lands purchased from the Yaquis."

Illinois Man Is Sentenced to Three Years for Abduction.

Binghamton, N. Y., June 19.—Fred T. Graves of Elgin, Ill., has been sentenced to three years in Auburn prison for failing in love and eloping with his granddaughter. Graves, who is an expert watchmaker, came to this section three years ago, and a short time after married his boarding-house mistress. Later he fell in love with his granddaughter, Deliah May Vanderboe, and the couple eloped. They were pursued and overtaken by the irate wife and grandmother, who caused Graves' arrest on a charge of abduction, the girl being scarcely sixteen. Mrs. Graves is now suing for a divorce. The granddaughter declares that on the expiration of Graves' sentence she will marry him.

TRADERS IN STOCKS PUZZLED.

Doubt Follows the Recent Reports of Deals and Some Prices Suffer.

New York, June 19.—The decreased activity in today's stock market reflected the doubt and hesitation in the speculative mind. The many and varied fluctuations seemed to represent, as much as anything, efforts by professional traders to discover the actual condition of the market by a testing process. There was evidently a considerable amount of speculative liquidation, but professional bears also had their share in the weakness of the market, as was quite conclusively shown by a substantial rally late in the day when they began to look for stocks to cover short contracts and found a limited supply.

It will be seen that a large proportion of the trading was congested in a few stocks, which also showed the wildest price fluctuations. St. Paul was conspicuous in this class, and apprehension that much of the recent rumors regarding the development in the stock market were purely conjectural and had much to do not only with its movement but with the generally unsettled tone of the trading. The extreme decline in St. Paul in the afternoon reached 2 1/2 points below last night, while Union Pacific moved in sympathy. The violent slump in Colorado Fuel of 7 points and a sympathetic reaction in Tennessee Coal were due to the doubt cast upon the recent reports that the company would be absorbed by the United States Steel corporation. A number of industrials, including American Tobacco, gave evidence of strength without explanation. Closing prices, as reported by Paine, Webber & Co., were:

These are busy days for Michigan farmers who are raising sugar beets. The warm weather of the past few days has started the beets growing in fine shape and the work of weeding has to be hustled as much as possible.

The University of Michigan furnishes another university president. Dr. James E. Manchester, who has been professor of mathematics in Vincennes, Ind., university since 1899, has been made president of that institution.

A balloonist who recently made an ascension and parachute drop at Muskegon thinks the people of that city are a coldblooded lot because just as he started on his upward trip the band struck up "Don't Care If You Never Come Back."

If the rules of the organization are lived up to the Bachelors' club, of Benton Harbor, will shortly be richer by $1,000. One member has deserted by taking to himself a wife, and another one is about to do so, and under the laws of the club each is bound to pay a fine of $500.

The Wayne county society of Modern Woodmen will hold its annual reunion and picnic at Tashmo park on Aug. 3. Special trains will carry the members to Detroit, where the steamer Tashmo has been chartered to convey the crowd to the park. It is expected that at least 400 members and their families will participate in the affair.

The following Michigan clerks in the interior department at Washington had their salaries advanced last week: H. B. Simmons, from $1,400 to $1,600; Miss Alice E. Lecker, from $900 to $1,000; Miss Nellie L. Moore, from $720 to $800; Alanson T. Kinney, of Michigan, special examiner in the pension office, at $1,300, has resigned.

F. M. Van Horn, of Benton Harbor, who was only last year commissioned secretary of the state barbers' board by Gov. Phinney, has decided to make the state compel him to vacate the office, in which he has one more year to serve under the former bill. He refuses to leave the secretaryship until the new bill was passed and a new man appointed. Van Horn is a Democrat.

One of the most important conventions of the year will be the international meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will be held in Detroit from July 24 to 28. There are about 15,000 members of the brotherhood in the United States and Canada, and it is fully expected by the Detroit officers that at least 2,000 will attend the Detroit meeting.

Considerable interest has been awakened at Reed City by the announcement that an oil prospector who has been in the vicinity for the past two years is now ready for business. Some of the leading capitalists and business men are taking stock in his enterprise. It is claimed that his find of oil has been equal to that of any other oil well in the world.

It is not so very many years since Indians camped on the ground where Ann Arbor is located. One of their favorite places about the year 1830 and later was the northeast corner of First and West Washington streets, where the old church used by R. S. Paul as a storage warehouse, now stands. He used it as a work camp for days at a time and trade deerkins and maple sugar or other articles.

Grand Haven will have a special election on June 29 for the purpose of voting on the proposition of raising $30,000 for the erection of a school building to replace the structure burned last winter. The new building will cost $35,000, but the board of education has a large sum available from the insurance on the burned structure. The new building will be modern in every way and will be supplied with a 10,000 book library and a large gymnasium.

Last week the Pokagon Butter & Creamery company, composed of farmers in the vicinity of Pokagon, sold its building and land in the village for $223. This is the closing up of a venture which cost those who entered it, first and last, about $5,000. In one year the creamery, in its palmy days, ran behind over $700. And yet creameries can be made to pay, for there are many of them right here in Michigan today which are earning good dividends for their stockholders.

The Soronian society of Olivet college has been planning for a society hall for several years. This year they have been more persistent than ever and at last have enough pledged to mean that a hall will be built. Already over $2,500 has been raised and this week they expect to break ground for the building on the lot just west of the chapel, which the trustees have donated to their use. The building will be frame and nicely adapted for the use of the young ladies.

Representatives of the Kilby Manufacturing company have been in Mt. Clemens the last few days figuring on the plant of the Macomb Sugar company, and it is expected that contracts will be let for the entire work within a couple of weeks. The buildings will be completed before cold weather. The company has not fully determined the matter of site, but the choice lies between two locations, the selection depending somewhat upon settlement of certain questions of transportation.

E. W. Conover, a freshman medical student from Terre Haute, Ind., in the U. of M. is under arrest. Ann Arbor, charged with many petty thefts about the Campus and from students. Among the plunder found in his room were a punching bag from the gymnasium, slippers from the Chinese collection in the museum, a clock, a microscope and a rare old glass tube marked "Paris, 1809," from the Stearns musical collection. He may be prosecuted.

The 28th semi-annual furniture exhibition will open in Grand Rapids June 20, or about two weeks earlier than usual. Hitherto the furniture sales have opened on the first days of January and July, but the manufacturers made a contract five months ago to try the experiment of earlier opening dates, and success of this plan will be watched with interest. It is a strong argument, among the 400 outside manufacturers, who exhibit at Grand Rapids that the experiment will be short-lived.

Things are at last coming Frankfort's way, and the residents are congratulating themselves. Every mill in town is running full blast; nearly every hotel and boarding house in the city is building an addition; take care of its business, and the city is a hive of activity.

Christopher Columbus was in police court in the normal college at Ypsilanti, Mich. He was not there as a visitor or a guest of Judge Wagner. Neither was he the shade of the departed renowned individual, to whom the credit has been given for discovering Port Huron and the adjoining territory. Christopher Columbus was plain drunk. Judge Wagner asked him when he was arraigned if he was not ashamed to disgrace the name of so illustrious a namesake. Columbus replied sheepishly: "I suppose so."

Professor Benjamin L. D'Ooge, teacher in the state normal college at Ypsilanti, who has been studying in Europe during the past year, sent a cablegram this week to friends at Ann Arbor announcing that the famous Bonn university at Bonn, Germany, had just conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. This is the first time that he has been deemed an unusual honor from the fact that the university of Bonn has long required an exceptional scholarship for the bestowal of its honors. Professor D'Ooge is a brother of Professor Martin L. D'Ooge of the University of Michigan.

The residence of Mrs. Ruth Neil, an eccentric old lady aged sixty-eight, living in the city of Detroit, was partially burned Monday and she was suffocated. She was in bed. Her nose and part of her feet were burned, but that part of the body protected by bed clothing was not touched. Neighbors discovered the fire and extinguished it. She had a single child, a son, who was kept a fire constantly burning in the stove so that she could have hot water. It is surmised that a spark set fire to the bed, which was nearby. She had secreted money in various places and $157.20 was found.

Tekonsha people are still much excited over the disappearance of Orley Hall. Not a single day has thus far been obtained of his whereabouts, although diligent search has been made all over the country since his disappearance last Monday night. The Maceabees of Burlington turned out in a body Friday and searched streams, old wells and lakes for traces of him. He was not found. He is a man of medium height, weighs about 140 pounds, has dark complexion, with a mole on one side of his face. A reward of $50 is offered for information that will disclose his whereabouts, dead or alive.

There was a terrible fight in the Jewish settlement in Benton Harbor Monday night in which the aggressor, Dave Berliener, also a Jew, was set upon by the entire Jewish settlement and so severely pelted by stones and bricks that the man was taken home nearer dead than alive. Berliener lives five miles in the country and it was understood that his visit to the Jewish quarter was for nothing else than to even up an old grudge with a former associate. The trouble starting several weeks ago culminated in a second fight in Chicago last Sunday, but arrests were escaped as was the case in Benton Harbor.

The annual reunion of the Grand River Valley Encampment Association of Soldiers, held at the home of the Veterans and Women's Relief Corps, will be held at Grand Haven from July 1 to 6, inclusive. Notes of Marine News. The India was in port bound down yesterday. The Gould was in the lower harbor yesterday, bound down. She left a considerable consignment of freight.

A slight increase in the amount of freight received when she set about the organization of the billion-dollar steel trust, and one incident which has just come to light displays Charles M. Schwab, president of the combine, in an attitude which is unique in the world's history of finance.

Recently, during a casual discussion of business affairs with a friend, Mr. Morgan was called upon to express an opinion as to the sincerity of Mr. Carnegie's declaration that he believed it wrong for a man to die rich. "I believe," said Mr. Morgan, "that Mr. Carnegie is absolutely sincere in what he says on that point, and I think his actions prove it. Let me tell you about one thing he has done. When the organization of the United States Steel Corporation was about to be effected I met Schwab at my office to discuss the status of the Carnegie holdings."

It was then expected that Mr. Schwab might be elected president of the corporation, but there was no definite conclusion on that point. Mr. Schwab assumed me at a session of the board in the city of Marquette on Wednesday, the fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one. Present, Charles M. Schwab, president of the corporation, and other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the probate office in the city of Marquette in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed. And it is further ordered, that said administrator, do hereby give notice to said day of hearing.

There has been turned out of the Pere Marquette shops at Muskegon what is believed by its builders to be the handsomest car ever built in Michigan and one of the finest in service on an railroad. It is a private car for General Superintendent J. K. V. Agnew, and between two and three months have been consumed in its construction. The car was designed and built from the ground up at the Muskegon shops. The private car is of regulation size and is finished throughout in mahogany. The windows and the glass in the door of the observation room extend to within a foot of the floor of the car, permitting a view of the track and ground to within ten feet of the train. This room is suitably furnished in leather and may be used as a dining room. The exterior of the car is handsome. It is painted green in a deep tint and lettered in gold. Brass has been used for railings and knobs and the effect is rich. The car will be known as No. 3.

Michigan has a new town. Its name is Marlborough. It is located adjoining the plant of the Great Northern Portland cement Co., two and a half miles east of Baldwin, and is two miles from the city of Baldwin. The town will be built on a tract of land owned by the company which is estimated to be large enough for a population of 5,000 or 6,000 people. With their new industry, the manufacture of Portland cement, they figure that it would be better to be independent than to depend on other towns. They already have platted 3,000 large town lots, with wide streets. They originally expected to incorporate with the town of Baldwin, but later developments made it seem preferable to incorporate the town under an individual name of their own. The railroad company has signified a willingness to open a depot in the village. The management of the company will not allow liquor to be sold in the village. All deeds and contracts for lots have this clause forbidding the sale of liquor. The company has already secured the site for the new buildings for a church. It is expected that some society, with the assistance of the company, will put up a church before very long. There are at present about 200 people in the village and there will be 200 or 300 more in a very short time. Ten houses will be started the coming week.

What Doctors Say.

Unsolicited endorsement of a great physician has been given

Smith's Green Mountain Renovator.

The merit of SMITH'S GREEN MOUNTAIN RENOVATOR was searched investigated by physicians connected with the Journal of Health, New York City, in which the following article appeared, and so indisputably was its merit proved that this well known publication does not hesitate to endorse this great Body Builder. We will quote from Dr. S. J. Allen's article. He says:—

"The best way for a layman to insure his own protection in using proprietary medicines, is to depend upon the advertisements found in Hygienic Journals. Place faith only in such preparations as Smith's Green Mountain Renovator, as a sure cure for rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney and liver troubles, bladder and urinary affections, and all diseases arising from an impure or impoverished condition of the blood. The commendation here bestowed on this tried and true specific is given gratuitously and on account of the satisfactory showing when under an investigation."

Dr. S. J. ALLEN, New York City.

GRADUATE TONIGHT.

Supt. McCollins Will Confer Diplomas on Twenty-Eight Young People.

Twenty-eight high school pupils will receive their diplomas from Superintendent McCollins tonight. It is with feelings which are slightly mixed in their tone that these graduates leave their school life in this city and it is safe to say that a majority of them feel great regret in doing so.

Last night class-day exercises were held and an appropriate program was rendered. The decorations of the assembly room were something distinctly out of the ordinary. Principal Cranson, of the manual training school, had charge of the arrangement and was assisted by the members of the teaching corps and by many of the students. The class colors, royal blue and gold, were greatly in evidence, blending most harmoniously with the school colors, light blue and white. Sixteen arches were made from the beams of the ceiling to the side walls, on which were strung numerous electric lights. Gold cloth covered the incandescents and around each fixture was wound the royal blue.

Along the beams the school colors predominated and with the pink light used on the stage the effect was one of great beauty. The stage itself was a bower of loveliness. At the right were many palms and other potted plants, among which were placed statuary. On the left the class was ennobled, and on the main floor immediately to the left of the stage was the chorus. The rear windows were hung with lace curtains and the side walls were covered with bunting of white hung with ground pine.

With the natural beauties of the auditorium, it is doubtful if a more satisfactory effect in school decoration has been obtained anywhere in this section this season.

The program for tonight's graduating exercises is as follows: Chorus, "Rise, Sleep No More"; Chorus, "What Will You Do With It"; Solo, "Spring Song" with violin obbligato; Miss Tekla Farm, Conferring of diplomas by Superintendent J. Elmer McCollins. Benediction by the Rev. Mr. Marshall Allen.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

R. L. Cleminson and Miss Hattie L. Feigel married at Michigamme.

One of the most attractive home weddings, that has taken place in this section of the county in a long interval, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Michigamme House, Michigamme, when Robert M. Cleminson of Marquette and Miss Hattie L. Feigel, were made man and wife.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy of daisies and carnations. Rev. Richards of Champion, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Feigel, and Fred Constance of Marquette acted as best man. Mrs. Charles McLain played the wedding march. Both parlors were attractively decorated in white and green. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white muslin de soie. The bridesmaid wore yellow crepe de chine.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends present, after which all sat down to a sumptuous repast.

Among those present from outside were William H. Green, wife, and daughters, Clara and Loretta; R. J. Ellison, wife and daughter Agnes; John Hager and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lyons of Marquette; Mrs. William Gray of Ewen and W. A. Currier of Hancock. The bride and groom are numbered among the county's best known and most popular young people. The former is the daughter of Mrs. D. McMillan, proprietress of the Michigamme House and Mr. Cleminson is a South Shore passenger conductor. They were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleminson took their departure on the evening train for Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and other large cities, where they will spend some time. Upon their return they will start house-keeping in Marquette.

Deputy Mansfield of the M. W. A., who has been in the city for the past few days in the interest of his order, states that there is considerable interest being manifested in the Woodmen at present. Up to last evening he had taken the names of thirty applicants and most of them had passed the examination.

These applications were passed upon last evening and the class will be installed on the 20th. The degree team is being reorganized with Steve Collick as captain and a bright future is in store for it.

The Harry Shannon company will present at "Dawson City" this evening. The old prices, ten, twenty and thirty cents, will be renewed. This is a strong drama with many humorous touches and should appeal to all classes of theatre goers.

The company has won a place in the hearts of local theatre patrons and good auditions gather nightly to witness its productions.

4TH OF JULY PLANS.

THEY WERE FORMULATED BY COMMITTEES LAST EVENING.

BIG FUND WILL BE RAISED.

A TWO DAY OBSERVANCE WILL ENTERTAIN THE PEOPLE.

Promoters Are Planning for a Big Celebration and They Expect to Attract a Big Outside Crowd Here.

Marquette is evidently to have a big Fourth of July celebration. Two days will be given up to observing the nation's birthday. This was decided last evening at a meeting of the committees which have charge of the affair. The entertainment will not be only on a local nature, but will receive advertising from the Soo to Duluth, so that when the Fourth arrives Marquette people may look for a large crowd of strangers from all parts of the upper peninsula. The Marquette show will be the most elaborate held in northern Michigan in years, as none of the other municipalities have planned a program that touch it in magnitude or quality. The entertainment committee has arranged a varied program, consisting of horse races, fire works, a naval display, a fire run and chemical display and many other attractions. It is expected to raise a couple of thousand dollars and all this will be expended in prizes, decorations and other things incidental to making the celebration as elaborate as possible.

A Large Parade.
In the morning a large parade of all the local societies will be held. This will be under the auspices of the Spanish-American War veterans. A prize of fifty dollars will be awarded to the best marching company or society and another fifty will be given to the one which turns out the largest number of men in proportion to its membership. A boys' brigade will take part in this parade as will also the society of St. Jean Baptiste and several others. The Light Guards of Ishpeming have been invited to participate in this procession and will undoubtedly accept the invitation. Another feature of the parade will be the bicycle section, composed of decorated wheels.

On the evening of the Fourth a grand display of fire works will be held on the lake front. The other events for the first day's celebration will be horse races in the afternoon, consisting of a free-for-all and a two-hundred trot. Purses amounting to $150 will be given for each race. The races will be continued on the afternoon of the 5th. Bicycle races will also be run for which substantial prizes will be offered. The fire run and chemical display will take place in the evening.

Program of the Fifth.
Some of the best features will be reserved for the second day's celebration, one the naval display in which all the launches and sail boats owned by Marquette people will participate. There will also be another fire works display, this time on the water. Foot races and other athletic events will be run off, and the committee will make arrangements to have a first-class ball game for all who enjoy the national sport.

Mayor Mangum reported that he had received much encouragement from the business men and that the funds needed to carry out the program will be forthcoming. The entire exercises will be under the direction of S. M. Wheeler, who has been appointed marshal of the day.

EXPECTED SOON.

Austin People Will Ship Crushing Plant This Week.

The crushing plant should now be received here in a few days. In answer to a telegraphic query from Mayor Mangum, the F. C. Austin company of Harvey, Ills., has written as follows: "Harvey, Ills., June 17, 1901. "To the Mayor and Common Council, Marquette, Mich.: "Dear Sirs—We desire to advise you that the strike is over and our men have returned today. We will get out your No. 4 crusher right away and we expect to be able to make the shipment the last of this week. We thank you for the indulgence you have manifested under the circumstances and hope you have not been seriously inconvenienced by this delay. We meant to have stated in our last letter that our machinists had no grievance, the whole thing being a mistake. We expect to at once begin running a night shift and we will keep it up until even with our orders. "Again thanking you for your patience in the matter, we remain, "Yours truly, "F. C. Austin Mfg. Co."

The ore trimmers are disgruntled lot this spring. Their grievances is not with wages, although like the rest of the human race, they could stand a little more money, but with the scarcity of the ore carriers. These crafts are too few and far between to suit them. Without ore carriers they have no opportunity of making money at their summer's labor and they have not been doing very well this far this spring. However, they hope for better things from now on, as they believe that the ore movement will shortly become more active.

A Pittsburg tourist, who was in the city for a few hours yesterday, congratulated Mayor Mangum on the natty uniforms of the officers of the police force, saying that the appearance of the patrolmen was far superior to that of any body of officers which he had encountered on his visit to the numerous lake ports. The new uniforms are generally approved here. The helmets added the finishing touch and now there can be no criticism of the personal appearance of the police. It is only to be hoped that the present standard will be rigidly maintained. The police committee, which has done mighty well to date, can probably be relied upon to see that this is the case.

NORMAL CLASS DAY.

GRADUATES HELD INTERESTING EXERCISES YESTERDAY.

ATTENDED BY LARGE GATHERING.

TWENTY-FIVE YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE SENT OUT TODAY.

Commencement Exercises This Morning at 10, While the High School Young People Get Their Diplomas This Evening.

The graduating class of the Northern Normal appeared before a large and admiring assemblage of relatives and friends in its class day exercises yesterday afternoon. They were held in the assembly hall and every available bit of room was taken. The Class of '01 comprises twenty-five members, twenty-four young ladies and one young man, who, by the way, looked lamentably lonely in the bevy of femininity yesterday afternoon. The building was decorated for the exercises, the visitors facing an artistically draped American flag, with pictures of Lincoln and Gladstone on either hand, on entering the structure. Particular attention was paid to an appropriate decking of the assembly room, in which the program was held. The class colors, palms and ferns played an important part in the scheme of decorations. The young people of the Class of '01 were grouped on the stage. The exercises began shortly after 3 o'clock and they continued somewhat over an hour. Speaking of them as a whole, it may be said that they were entirely creditable to the young graduates and the Normal. They were attentively and carefully followed and it was a well pleased audience which left the building on the conclusion of the program.

The Normal commencement will be concluded this morning, when, beginning at 10 o'clock, the commencement exercises proper will be held. The address will be delivered by Professor John M. Coulter, the head of the department of Botany at the University of Chicago. Professor Coulter's theme will be "Elements of Power." He has a considerable reputation as a happy and effective speaker and the Normal faculty was particularly pleased when it learned that he would deliver the principal address at the commencement. Again this morning the seating room of the assembly hall will be taxed with relatives and friends of the young people, as the interest in this final exercise will transcend that manifested yesterday.

Class Members.

Yesterday afternoon's program was entirely in the hands of members of the Class of '01. They gave the various musical numbers, as well as the various papers pertaining to the class.

The first number was a piano solo, Chamindale's Scarf dance, from Miss Lillian Irving. Professor Irving, Trudgeon, the class president, Miss Anna M. Richardson, was heard. She took as her theme "Character Building." Introducing her address, she gave a brief and concise sketch of the history of the Northern Normal to the present date. Then she made the point that character building begins with the development of the child, setting forth that the character of the government depends on the character of the individual and that the character of general civilization, in turn on the character of government. She emphasized the fact that character building is a process of years and cited many great names as examples of men whose characters had a slow, but steady growth. Early environment, she admitted, was a tremendous influence in the shaping of character, but she laid stress on the point that character growth is susceptible of control and that a well built character is likely to be an enviable one.

Miss Edith Barry rendered a violin solo. Like the other musical numbers from the class members, it showed the possession of talent and was creditably done. Miss Lillian Penglass's class history was an outline of the story of the Class of '01 from the time its members first received Normal instruction in the city hall building until the present date. Her paper was well given and it possessed a peculiar interest for the graduates. She introduced a clever little parody on Whittier's well known poem, calling her effusion "Blessings on thee, Senior man." It was directed at the sole male member of the graduating class and was greatly enjoyed.

"The Mission of the Poet."
Miss Ellen Erickson delivered a staid, well spoken oration, taking as her subject "The Mission of the Poet." Her central thought was the necessity for a full development of the spiritual side of life, she calling attention to the comparatively advanced development of the mental and physical sides. Miss Erickson would put the stress of the burden on the development of the spiritual on the poet. Miss Erickson's effort was one of the most entertaining numbers of the program. It was able and most creditable to the young lady. Misses McCarthy and Robertson sang a duet, "The Land of the Swallows."

The class prophecy was delivered by Miss Mary Wallace and she created much genuine fun and merriment for her auditors. She distributed the members all over the wide world, making them lawyers, doctors, journalists and what not. She was kind in her distribution of worldly things and if Fate treats the members of the Class of '01 half as well as did their historian they will be a happy and thoroughly contented lot.

Miss Lydia Olson, the valedictorian, took as her subject "The Striving Soul." As her theme would indicate Miss Olson urged the necessity of persistent effort to the end of the attainment of that work which, in the nature of things, each individual should and is expected to do. She showed how all accomplishment in all departments of life is simply the legitimate result of conscientious striving. Miss Olson's valedictory was well thought out and pleasingly delivered.

A rendition of the class song, "The Purple and Gold", composed by Miss Elizabeth McKnight, concluded the program.

Tonight will mark the climax of the high school career of an even dozen young people, most of whom have received all their education to date in this city. There has been no class day this spring and the commencement of the Class of '01 is the only exercise of the class of the high school for the year 1900-'01. The class members have no prominent part in the exercises, as only their president and valedictorian will be heard, the commencement address being in Superintendent Thompson's hands. The sweet girl and sturdy young man graduate will be in evidence, but to be seen not heard.

Commencement retains all its old time interest and the opera house will be crowded to the doors this evening with relatives and friends of the young people of the Class of '01.

The following class song, written by Miss Hazel L. Bowron, will be sung to music also of her composition:

I. Naughtiness, you know, we're called; of course, the naughtiest twelve of all. But, let me ask you, is that fair? If it were, we would not care. Eleven good years we may claim; Shall this misfortune spoil our fame? Our school days' end in this year comes, So we're the class of "Naughtiness Ones".

II. Side by side, we've worked for years, Some of smiles and some of tears; Some were gloomy, full of sadness; Some were bright and full of gladness. But we always did our best. Then let endurance do the rest. Surely it has helped us through— We are the gold and loyal blue.

III. Now 'tis done, our ways must part. Is it strange, were we sad at heart? Though we seem so bright and cheerful Parting always makes one tearful. Whatever comes, with courage steady, 'Neath this word, to fight we're ready. Endurance yet shall help us thro'— Remember our gold and loyal blue.

MARKET IMPROVES.
Consolidation Decried Believed to Be About Completed.

Coppers had a good market yesterday, the improved tone being attributed to the feeling that the big consolidation deal will shortly be concluded. Falmes, Webber & Co. said: "It is now probable that the Amalgamated-Montana-Butte consolidation will be completed within a day or two. This takes two leading speculative stocks out of the Boston market and turns loose a lot of money which will undoubtedly go into other copper stocks. The effect of this ought to be a broader market and advancing prices in the good medium priced copper stocks. There has been a better market for Copper Range and Arctic today and both stocks are in good demand at the closing. We think the coppers will continue to improve."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission Co.: "The announcement that the exchange of Butte and Montana for Amalgamated was to be made within a few days gave strength to the whole market. We would not buy stocks except on a decline, but feel that, with money remaining cheap, there is no reason why stocks will not sell higher."

A. R. Jones & Co. said of wheat: "Wheat still has a small market, but buying yesterday's prices and again finishing practically unchanged. Strength in the coarse grains offered its influence today but it was offset by predicted good weather through the Southwest. The trade was mostly local. The sentiment was bearish but the traders were afraid to get short. No support was afforded by the attitude of its foreign markets. With this outlook, we would say that short sales on the bulges would yield better profits than purchases on the weak spots. Certainly there is something lacking on the bull side."
