

What Doctors Say.

Unsolicited endorsement of a great physician has been given

Smith's Green Mountain Renovator.

The merit of SMITH'S GREEN MOUNTAIN RENOVATOR was searched and investigated by physicians connected with the Journal of Health, New York City, in which the following article appeared, and so indisputably was its merit proved that this well known publication does not hesitate to endorse this great BODY BUILDER. We will quote from Dr. S. J. Allen's article. He says:—

"The best way for a layman to insure his own protection in using proprietary medicines, is to depend upon the advertisements found in Hygienic Journals. Place faith only in such preparations as Smith's Green Mountain Renovator, as a sure cure for rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney and liver troubles, bladder and urinary affections, and all diseases arising from an impure or impoverished condition of the blood. The commendation here bestowed on this tried and true specific is given gratuitously and on account of the satisfactory showing when under an investigation."

DAILY MINING JOURNAL.

A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Things seem to be shaping for an unusually warm and interesting fight over the Republican congressional nomination in this district next year.

The forthcoming report of the industrial commission is awaited with eager interest throughout the country, as it is expected to deal at great length with trust combinations, their effect on the public weal, and the measures that should be taken to curb their rapacity.

We find this in the Grand Rapids Herald: Cecil Rhodes, the diamond king, will soon sail for England, and behind him in South Africa he will leave that pride with which he was once so bountifully supplied and that health which once made his joy.

Official at Boston Denies Statements in a Houghton Dispatch. An official of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company, in referring to the Houghton dispatch below, concerning the mine and its management, says in an interview at Boston:

MARKET GROWING STRONGER. This week's number of the Iron Trade Review gives this summary of iron and steel market conditions: The week's developments are unmistakably favorable to a broadening market.

Disfigured Skin. Wasted muscles and decaying bones. What havoc! Scrofula, let alone, is capable of all that, and more.

vacated. Bridge works are specifying heavily on contracts, and steel buildings, notably for iron and steel works, have contributed a good tonnage in the past week to Pittsburgh mills.

"MISARRANGE OF JUSTICE."

So the Iron Herald of Negaunee stigmatizes the verdict obtained against The Mining Journal in the Couch libel suit, tried at Sault Ste. Marie last week, concerning which it says:

That a Chippewa county circuit court jury should render a verdict of $2,500 against the Marquette Mining Journal as the result of a dispute over seventy-five cents between a traveling man named Rickett and a Soo chemist seems the very height of absurdity.

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS. (Additional) CALUMET & HECLA. Official at Boston Denies Statements in a Houghton Dispatch.

The financial writer of the Boston Herald, in Wednesday's issue, comments as follows on the Houghton dispatch: "It is not over kind to hint that the Calumet property has not always been managed in the interest of the stockholders."

The dispatch in question was the following, to the Boston News Bureau: "It is understood that the Calumet & Hecla company is introducing a policy of rigid economy, and that during the remainder of the life of the mine the interests of the stockholders will be held as of first importance."

Disfigured Skin. Wasted muscles and decaying bones. What havoc! Scrofula, let alone, is capable of all that, and more.

statement that many improvements are under way or in contemplation in connection with this shaft and its equipment. In other words, one of the most extensive and expensive hoisting plants ever constructed was introduced at this shaft, and it failed to work.

"A larger surplus than was thought necessary to keep on hand had accumulated and that dividend was declared as wholly or partially from surplus. Eighty dollars in dividends per annum is probably in excess of the normal Calumet payment, but $100 per annum is believed to be well within the company's earning power on a 17-cent copper market."

"Those in a position to know claim that the Calumet & Hecla did not earn $8,000,000 a year when the amount was paid in dividends. It seems that the company carried over from the year previous a large amount of mineral which was stored on its docks at Lake Linden. In the spring of 1899 this mineral was shipped to Buffalo, smelted and sold at an advance of four or five cent per pound.

"If the report that the mine on the Osceola lode will return a strong fraction less than 1 per cent copper is true it will amount to more than a disappointment. This mine has been dependent upon the lode of the Calumet & Hecla. Practically all the shafts on the conglomerate lode are at or near the limit of the company's territory."

"The Kearsarge lode is supposed to out-crop near the eastern boundary and underlie the entire Calumet property. No attempt has been made to ascertain the extent of the lode, but it is believed to be a failure, however, nothing remains to be done but to explore the Kearsarge lode. If it is as rich at this point as in the Wolverine and Mohawk it will make a great mine and insure the Calumet & Hecla at least a century more life."

"The financial writer of the Boston Herald, in Wednesday's issue, comments as follows on the Houghton dispatch: "It is not over kind to hint that the Calumet property has not always been managed in the interest of the stockholders."

"The Osceola lode was opened by four shafts, begun some time since, and carried as far as it was advised wise to carry them until a stamp mill was provided. A stamp mill of seven heads has been, and its completion, due now, has been delayed some six months by inability of the manufacturers to supply the materials, because of strikes, etc."

ROUSING CELEBRATION. Atlantic to Observe the Fourth in Grand Style—Program Outlined. Atlantic is to celebrate the Fourth in rousing style. Frank McEl Stanton and Drs. Evans and Moore constitute the committee in charge and they are now arranging a splendid program. Among other features, a calithumpian parade will be given during the morning. In the afternoon, sports of various kinds will be pulled off and a balloon ascension will also take place. Over $100 worth of fireworks will be exploded at nightfall. In addition to these events, negotiations are on with a "midway" company and the show program will be secured. The Atlantic band will furnish music throughout the day.

POUL PLAY SUSPECTED. Theory of Suicide in the Bodeau Case Is Disputed. It probably never will be known whether the late John Bodeau of Calumet met death through suicide or was murdered. Members of the lodge of A. O. U. W. to which the deceased belonged cling to the foul play theory. In no other way can they account for the disappearance of the $300 which Bodeau had in his pockets when he left home. It is asserted that this sum would last a prudent man like Bodeau for a year. Yet only a few dollars were found on his person when he was taken out of the lake near the boiler works below Hancock recently. The theory has been evolved that Bodeau was about the docks last fall before the close of navigation and tough characters became aware that there was money on him and he was put out of the way. It is supposed the body was sunk in Portage Lake by means of a weight attached to a white cotton clothes line, which was tied to the leg of the victim. The remains had become so badly decomposed that no marks of violence could be discovered. Because of the fearful condition of the body after being in the water possibly for a period of six months, it was a matter of necessity to bury the remains as quickly as possible. As far as known there is no clue to the crime, if one was committed, and the death of the old Calumet & Hecla employe will always be clothed with mystery. When he left Calumet on Nov. 19 last his intentions were to join his son, who was working in the woods on the South range. This brought the unfortunate man to Hancock, where six months later his body was fished out of Portage Lake. The family will receive $2,000 from the benefit fund of the A. O. U. W. and $1,000 from the Northwestern Insurance company.

OPERATING OVER TWENTY MILES. Good Record Made by the Car Line, Started Just a Year Ago. A year ago Wednesday the first shovel of dirt was thrown on the Houghton county street railway. Now over twenty miles of the line are in active operation. Before the season ends cars will be running from Portage Lake to the Wolverine mine, at the extreme north end of the county. The machinery for the sub-station on the range at Laurium has all arrived and is being installed. Power will be furnished from the Hancock power station and will be distributed from the sub-station over the northern end of the line. It is announced that rails will be spiked down on Lake Linden avenue, Laurium, to the south end of Hecla street in time for the cars to run July Fourth.

LONGEST HOT SPELL KNOWN. In the forty years' experience of James Allen, the Hancock loaman, in the copper country, he has never seen the weather continuously so warm during the past few days. Sometimes the temperature has been as high for three or four hours, but when it comes to 88 and 90 in the shade at 7 o'clock in the morning Jim declares the present heated term takes the whole bakery. Mr. Allen is authority on ice and weather conditions. He has no kick coming, of course—he stocked up heavily when things were different last winter. Samuel Winters of South Lake Linden was overcome by the heat Wednesday. He was working on the roof of a building.

IS BADLY HURT. Will Funkey Meets With Accident While Driving at Hancock. Will Funkey was seriously injured by falling in behind the Funkey hardware delivery team while driving at West Hancock yesterday afternoon. His head and arm were hurt and he is critical condition. The horses were frightened by the occurrence and ran away through Quincy street, but were stopped without further damage.

CHARGE AGAINST A WATCHMAN. A warrant was issued by Justice Ovi-vier yesterday for the arrest of Night watchman Thomas Sullivan of Hancock. The complaint was made by John Skihill, who alleges that at 4 o'clock on the morning of June 26 he was on the street and an attack was made on him by Patrick Downey. While the assault was going on Sullivan took the complainant to the lockup and locked him in a cell. After Sullivan had been absent for a while he returned, it is claimed, and unlocking the door of the cell came in and struck Skihill several times with a club on the arms and head. This assault is the cause of the action. The case will be heard July 3.

WORKING THE DETROIT OFFICIALS. Regarding the man—Stephen Smith—found in desultory conditions at the Anchor line dock in Detroit who claimed to have been shipped to that city by the Houghton county authorities after being an inmate of the poor house for the past year, the authorities of Hancock, which village the fellow alleges is his home, say they never heard of him. Supervisor Scott declares that Smith is probably a dead-beat who is working the Detroit poor commission with a pitiful tale of woe. If sent to Houghton county by Detroit authorities, as was threatened, Smith will be returned to Detroit post haste.

FOR THE PINGREE STAJJE. President Archie Scott of Hancock has been authorized to receive subscriptions for the Pingree memorial fund and yesterday received the requested blanks. It is proposed to erect a suitable memorial in honor of the great commoner. The Pingree memorial fund is being subscribed to in Calumet. Publisher Fred Mackenzie has started the ball rolling.

JEWISH CHARITY BALL. Guests were present from Hancock, Houghton, Lake Linden, Dollar Bay and Republic at the Hebrew charity ball at Red Jacket given Thursday night under auspices of Calumet lodge, No. 602, B'Nai B'rith. Seventy-five couples participated and the Calumet & Hecla orchestra played thirty numbers. Supper was served by the Ladies' A. L. A goodly sum was cleared.

ELECTION FOUND ILLEGAL. The recent Lake Linden election at which the issuance of bonds for public improvements was authorized has been found to be illegal. The notice was not sufficient, hence another election will be called. This will delay the starting of work on the new sewer system somewhat.

CAUGHT A 10-POUND CARP. Three Lake Linden fishermen recently captured a German carp in Mud Lake. The fish measured three and a half feet and weighed nearly ten pounds, the largest ever captured in these parts. The trio had a great struggle to land the monster.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES. The Hoeking block in Hancock is being repaired. George Nichols has purchased the Ellsworth drug stock at Hancock. Broker J. A. Mrs. Anna Rompf of Houghton is seriously ill and her recovery is doubtful. E. W. Casterlin of Houghton is visiting his brother, A. B. Casterlin, at Laurium. Miss Mamie Finn of Hancock is visiting her cousin, Miss Blanche Warner, at Milwaukee. Edward Farnham of Marquette was registered at the New Northwestern, Hancock, yesterday. Sam Byrne and bride, formerly Miss Sullivan, returned to Houghton last evening from Marquette. The Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul train, due in Hancock at noon, was over four hours late yesterday. Merchant Peter Stroberg has laid a substantial walk in front of his store on Quincy street, Hancock. The "Social Twelve" entertained their friends at a dancing party at the Hancock city hall Thursday evening. John P. Johnson, a well known resident of Wolverine location, died Wednesday from pneumonia at the age of fifty-eight. Mrs. A. A. Tillman of Hancock returned last evening from a two-months visit to Owasco and other lower Michigan points. Harry Chittenden of the Hancock First National bank, left yesterday for a fortnight's vacation at his old home in Adrian, Mich. Messrs. Brock, Hanchette, Mayworm, Fuller and Matthews, Hancock disciples of the gentle Isak Walton are fishing on the Otter river today. The tall, towering form of Marshal Michael McCarron of Laurium was visible in Hancock yesterday. He was billing the Laurium celebration. Albert Lieblin, a well-known Portage Lake man, submitted to an operation for appendicitis Thursday. Drs. Dodge and Abrams had charge of the case. Last evening the Calumet & Hecla orchestra gave a fine program at a promenade concert in Light Guard Armory. There are five dance numbers. Lee Bros., the Hancock caterers, have

SCHOOL WAS CLOSED

THE TEACHER REPORTED TO HAVE GONE INSANE.

She Was Injured in a Runaway Accident And School Work Became Physically And Mentally Impossible.

In October, 1896, one Monday morning, the Rushford school did not open and it was reported that the teacher had gone insane. The physician in attendance pronounced the trouble nervous prostration and said that school work was mentally and physically impossible.

"To begin at the beginning," she said, "when I was about seven years of age a sudden fright brought on a dread condition of nervousness. When, in 1896, I was injured in a runaway accident, this, combined with my former trouble, made me so ill that I was unable to open school the following Monday."

"What health?" he asked. "To the good doctor," he replied, "was the prompt reply. When the doctor had treated me for nearly six weeks without helping me, Mrs. J. Webster, a nearby friend, recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

THE WOODMEN'S PICNIC. The Program Was Marred by Unfavorable Weather.

The Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of Republic were disappointed last Monday, when their picnic was all but knocked out by rain, which came down at intervals all day.

"Yes, and the members of my family thought that I was becoming so. Words do not express the agony I endured with my head and eyes. The least noise would cut through my nerves like a knife. I was hot and cold by flashes, had piercing pains in my temples at the back of my head and a red mist was constantly before my eyes."

"I was dizzy and faint with fearful nausea, which nothing relieved. I could take no solid food for ten days, but lived on milk and lime-water. The doctor who examined me pronounced the disease nervous prostration, with a rupture of small blood vessels in my stomach. After passing a quantity of clotted blood the nausea subsided, but I was still in bed with neither strength nor appetite."

"I was not continued long, however, as another shower came and all had to return to town again. During the remainder of the afternoon and night dancing continued at the Woodmen's hall, which was packed the greater part of the time."

Start Girls Right! Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions, or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow-tracks" on their cheeks, and dark hal-moons under their eyes. A dose of WINE OF CARDUI taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into attractive womanhood and equip her for the duties of wife and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Florence Curran Concert Was a Pleasing Success in Every Way.

The testimonial concert to Florence Curran, and under his management, which was held in the opera house Thursday evening, gave entire satisfaction to all who attended it. Considering the weather, the audience that gathered was gratifyingly large, and it was thoroughly appreciative. Time and again the performers were given encores, but except in one case they refused to appear a second time. This was in the case of Frank Trombly, who caught the audience with his adeptness with the violin in his first number and was forced to respond. Owing to the inability of Art Schoenberg to be present, the concert solo which he was to have rendered was omitted, but Mr. Trombly very effectively filled in the gap thus made. The program was made up of old favorites for the most part, and both in its arrangement and rendition it was very acceptable. Not the least pleasing part of the program was the hop which followed the last number. Trombly's orchestra furnished the music for the dancers, and it was much enjoyed. The floor was cleared and for two hours those who cared to do so, made merry. The Mining Journal is pleased to announce that Mr. Curran gained enough from the proceeds of this affair to allow him to continue his musical studies in New York for some time to come. He expects to leave for the Empire state very soon.

DON'T KNOW WHAT THEY'LL DO.

With the death of "Parson" Pope, the local committee on the celebration for the Fourth is in a quandary as far as the wrestling portion of the sporting program goes. The committee states that the other parts will go on as advertised, but as yet no one has been found who will take charge of wrestling. Probably no one in this section knew so many noted wrestlers as "Parson" Pope did, and it was his wide acquaintance with these which led the committee to look with so much confidence on the success of the matches. Now it is looking for another man, but the chances for getting a competent one on such short notice are exceedingly slim. As has been before mentioned, the rest of the program will be carried out with little trouble, as there are on the sports committee several young men who have been through the mill in times gone by and who know exactly what is needed to make the events successful.

There are seven teams of drillers already practicing for the miners' drilling contest and all are very enthusiastic over the prospect for an exciting event. These boys get together at noon and after work and if they do not win the match it will not be their fault. The streets are populated during the early evening with runners and jumpers and if the outside lads expect to carry away all the prize money they will have to get up pretty early in the morning.

A LECTURE ON TRAVEL.

O. W. Blain will deliver a lecture on his travels through portions of the new and old world in the Mitchell M. E. church Monday evening. For an admission for ten cents for adults and five for children will be charged. Rev. Blain is a much traveled man, so much so that he is little known in his home city, Grand Rapids, except as a lecturer of great repute. Those who have heard him previously state that for a most entertaining talker and that he knows whereof he speaks. He uses a stereopticon with good effect, some of the views being particularly beautiful. The lecture will commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

Kenton residents are planning largely to visit "out of town" points on the Fourth. The crowds will be divided between Marquette, Hancock and Eben, the latter place getting the greater number no doubt from its nearness and the South Shore running a special train for the occasion.

This community was in a state of alarm Wednesday and Thursday when the report gained currency that Sam Fontin, an old woodsman employed at Larouches' camp, was reported missing. He started to his work apparently in good health, but not appearing at dinner a search for him was begun. He was found at Bear river camp, about three miles away, Thursday afternoon, whether he had wandered, in an evident state of delirium. It is expected he will recover. He was probably overcome by the heat.

Wednesday and Thursday of this week, old Sol poured down his scorching rays on Kenton with a vengeance. Thermometers registered over a hundred in the shade. This was followed Thursday afternoon by a severe wind and electrical storm. The large awning on the Sparrow-Kroll Lumber Co. store was twisted out of shape and threatened to break in the entire glass front before it could be secured. A large pine tree on the river bank was snapped off about
