The Cleveland-Cliffs company, noting the inadequate facilities for out door with robbing John Hill's saloon, was time. recreation with which the children of called in Justice Peters' court yesterday, this community are supplied, have but on motion of his attorney the case turned over to the city school board the was postponed until this morning at 9 tract of land located on Division and o'clock. Gadonas expects to be cleared Fourth street for a play ground. The of the charge at the examination, as the claims that he can produce at least to the city, but has granted permission twenty witnesses, by whom he can esfor the board to utilize and maintain it tablish an alibi. The accused claims friends who have been at the resort for free of charge. The tract contains sev. to have been in Billings' saloon at the the past week.

> alarm was given. The story he tells is corroborated by several companions, who claim to have been in his company from o'clock until he started for home hortly after 11. Gadouas admits havng visited Hill's place early in the vening, but is positive that he was not here later than 9 o'clock.

In an interview with a Mining Jour nal reporter the defendant's attorney Besides supplying amusement for the think for a moment that Gadouas commaller children, the company will re-erve part of the ground for a base ball charged. The work was that of a prolessional and not of a man slightly unhe larger boys can play base ball and der the influence of liquor. The robbery was as well planned and as cleverly executed as if the work of a Chicago thug. It is Indicrous to think that this man, who has always borne a good repuation, would be guilty of an audacious oldup. I think there will be no doubt that my client will be cleared at the examination tomorrow morning, I have at least twenty voluntary witnesses, who vere with Gadouas at the time the robcase of mistaken identity, and Mr. Hill has fastened on the wrong person as the man who relieved him of his cash."
