MORGAN TO KEEP HANDS OFF.

SAYS IN STATEMENT THERE CAN BE NO COMPROMISE.

At the Storm Center at Wellsville, O., the Men Are Determined but Restless, the Merchants Taking Sides Against Them.

New York, July 19.—J. P. Morgan gave positive denial to a rumor today that the steel strike had been settled.

Pittsburg, July 19.—The strike situation tonight cannot be termed materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect a settlement of the troubles is imminent.

Shaffer Much Encouraged. At the office of the Carnegie company and at the headquarters of the manufacturers the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

Present Shaffer of the Amalgamated association, however, expressed entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and said the workers have gained steadily while the manufacturers have lost continually since last Monday.

Threat to Move Wellsville Plant. From the storm center at Wellsville, O., tonight comes word that the striking mill men in that vicinity have spent an uneasy and restless day.

From the storm center at Wellsville, O., tonight comes word that the striking mill men in that vicinity have spent an uneasy and restless day.

Confronted with what seems the certainty that, if the present trouble goes along much further, the Wellsville plant will be brought across the line into Pennsylvania, the traders who for years have received the wages of the mill workers in exchange for goods are now trying to show the strikers they are wrong in keeping up the fight.

The proposition has been put to the strikers, in a semi-official way, that if the strike is settled within a reasonable time the Dennison mill will be brought there to increase the resources of the place, and if the contest is long drawn out the local plant will be removed bodily to Vandergrift, Pa.

Mayor Dennis O'Hendy condemns the merchants for their course and says they are going beyond their province in trying to influence the workmen. The plant there was running today about one-fourth full.

Reports tonight from Apollo and Vandergrift, where the Amalgamated association is making strenuous efforts to gain recruits, are that the situation is practically unchanged, but much uneasiness is felt.

1 in Plate Coming from Wales. The Leader prints the following in reference to the reported shortage in tin plate:

"Word was received here today that a considerable shipment of Welsh plate is now on the water en route to New York. It is probable a portion of this will come here if the shortage continues.

STRIKE'S EFFECT FAR-REACHING. Export Trade and Many Lines of Home Industry Will Suffer.

Pittsburg, July 19.—Conservative business men are already looking ahead to the effect of a prolonged strike in the steel mills.

The effect of the tying up of the hoop mills will be quickly felt in the export trade. An extended shutdown of the hoop mills would also effect the shipment of the Southern cotton crop.

Protest Unfounded Says Long. Washington, July 19.—The secretary of the navy has decided that the third volume of Maclay's history of the Spanish-American war shall not be used as a text book at the naval academy unless the obnoxious language it contains in characterizing the action of Rear Admiral Schley is eliminated.

Author Disagrees With Long. New York, July 19.—Edgar S. Maclay today replied to the criticism which has been made upon that portion of his dealing with Admiral Schley and the navy during the Spanish war. He said in part:

"I did not appreciate at the time I wrote the book that the terms were immoderate and intemperate. It is my intention to revise that portion of the work that deals with the battle of Santiago. But I shall not swallow the facts, for they are correct. I must first be assured they are in error.

ATTACK ON LONG

GEN. ANGUS FINDS CONSPIRACY IN NAVY DEPARTMENT.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY THE VICTIM.

SCORED IN AUTHORIZED HISTORY OF THE SPANISH WAR.

Secretary, However, Bars Book from the Naval Academy and Takes Issue With the Author That Proofs Were Approved by Him.

Baltimore, July 19.—General Felix Agnus, publisher of the Baltimore American, has written the following letter to President McKinley, which was sent by wire:

"William McKinley, President, Canton, Ohio: "Maclay's history of the navy is the standard in use at the naval academy.

"In an interview in The American, Maclay, the historian, who a navy department clerk classes as a laborer and attached to the Brooklyn navy yard, says the proofs of this third volume, which should have told the most glorious story in all our naval annals, were submitted to Secretary Long and Admiral Sampson and approved by them in advance of publication; also that Secretary Long put him in his present position after he had read and approved this scurrilous attack upon Schley. These proofs were also submitted to Admiral Dewey, who refused to read them.

Sampson Cliche at Work. "If I ought to be convinced any fair-minded man that a clique in the navy department has conspired to traduce the hero of Santiago and that the conspiracy was carried into execution while that brave and gallant officer was suffering expatriation on the fever-infested coasts of South America, this should furnish it.

"Will you, Mr. President, in view of all this, sit quietly by and permit these conspirators to continue their diabolical work? Every justice-loving American appeals to you to intervene in the name and for the sake of fair play. Next to being right all the time, which no man ever was, the best thing is to find out as soon as possible that you are wrong and right yourself immediately.

BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT. Two Fast Contests Scheduled to Take Place at Mass City.

A ten-round boxing contest between Larry Gleason of Chicago and "Paddy" Gorman of St. Louis will be pulled off at Mass City tonight. A six-round "go" will also take place between Jimmie Coleman and Jack Kelly. Suitable purses will be awarded the winner in each contest, which will be for points. A large crowd is expected in attendance.

BALL GAME CALLED OFF. Horse Racing Today's Card at the Hancock Driving Park.

The game of ball scheduled to take place at the Hancock Driving Park this afternoon between the Portage Lake and Calumet V. M. C. A. teams was called off yesterday. Secretary Wing not being able to get the grounds. The match will be arranged for another date.

Races will hold forth at the Hancock Park this afternoon. Little Dick and Are Light from Calumet being matched for seven heats. There will also be other races, including a free-for-all in which the best horses of the county will be entered. A large crowd is expected down from Calumet, the street car service between Laurium and Hancock being very handy for the races. Each race will be conducted strictly upon merits, and no "faking" will be done.

FOR SUBURBAN TRAFFIC. New Street Cars Heavier and Quite Different from the Old.

Yesterday morning the three new cars recently received at Hancock for the street railway company were switched to the traction line at the railroad crossing at West Hancock and taken on flat cars to the car barns. They will be put in shape for immediate use between Hancock and Laurium. The cars were made by Brill of Philadelphia and are the first to be secured from that firm. They are quite different from the cars now in use, which were manufactured at Lacombe, N. H., being heavier and differently arranged.

On to the Wolverine. The street railway company is now engaged in building an extension of its line from Calumet to the Centennial and the Wolverine locations, and the rails have been laid as far as the old burial ground near the Centennial. In Red Jacket, the trolley wires are strung as far as the corner of Pine and Sixth streets. The company is meeting with trouble in finishing up the work at Red Jacket because the village will not allow the men to do any further stringing of the trolley wire until the company agrees to lay its tracks so as to conform with the grades established by the village engineers. This it is understood the company will do.

The cars are now running regularly into Laurium and a half-hour service is in vogue between Houghton and that village. Soon after the Red Jacket work is finished, Red Jacket and Laurium and Hancock and Houghton will each have a local service of its own, with cars between the towns every fifteen minutes. Service on the extension will be given between Laurium and Hancock every half hour.

Clash at East Houghton. The East Houghtonites who want the street railway to extend its line through that part of the village will meet with opposition if they intend that the track be laid on Main street. About a dozen East Houghton property owners have petitioned the village board to not allow the company to use Main street, as they wish to keep that thoroughfare for a boulevard. On the other hand, those who want the street car line extended through East Houghton "any old way" greatly outnumber the petitioners.

BUILDING MENTION. The Houghton council has ordered J. H. Edwards to brick veneer the west side of his building, recently rebuilt, at the corner of Sheldon and Powable streets.

Ed. Krellwitz's new residence at East Houghton is nearing completion. It is now being plastered. The frame work of E. G. Emmon's house, East Houghton, is practically finished. The foundation for Fred Stoyles's new house at East Houghton is completed.

IS GOING TO FRANCE. R. Pratt Hayes, a student at the Michigan College of Mines, completed his work at the institution yesterday and will leave tomorrow for Normandy, France, to join his parents who are sojourning abroad. They will then continue the trip across the old continent. Mr. Hayes also intends to visit South Africa, where a brother, who is a physician, is located.

BALTIC LODE A PUZZLE. No Certainty It Will Be Cut by the Atlantic Very Soon.

[By Horace J. Stevens.] The exploring shaft Section 16 is unwatered, and crosscutting to the west will be resumed. This exploring shaft was sunk by the Atlantic company nearly three years ago, and a crosscut was first sent west for a short distance, but was afterwards driven east for about 850 feet, with the negative results. The eastern authorities who are announcing with certainty that the continuation of the western crosscut will strike the Baltic "within a few weeks" could easily secure a contract for this job at a figure that would make them independently wealthy provided a proper bond for the work were executed. The management of the Atlantic mine is conservative to the point of being old-fashioned, and no representative of the Atlantic can be quoted as authority for the statement that the Baltic lode will "certainly" be located "within a few weeks." The facts are that there is no absolute certainty that the crosscut to the west will ever locate the Baltic lode, and should the search be a success it may require many months to reach the goal. The northern extension of the Baltic lode is a mystery, as it has been for three years. It may lie far to the eastward, beyond the breast of the eastern crosscut, or it may traverse the center of Section 16, far to the west, while again there is a possibility that the lode will be cut at no great distance from the shaft. The evidence tends to convince the Atlantic management that the lode will be found on Section 16, to the westward of the shaft, but this is a resumption only, and not a certainty. The prize is well worth striving for, but it is not like a ripe plum, waiting a mere touch to fall from the tree into the lap of the passer-by.

Calumet & Hecla. Despite the flood of criticisms recently directed at the Calumet & Hecla, in which the management is censured for the opening of a mine on the Osceola amygdaloid, parallel with the original mine, the wisdom of the step is believed in by those best posted on the affairs of this great corporation. The amygdaloid mine of the Calumet & Hecla is among the largest in this district, rivaling the Quincy in magnitude, though with rock of lower grade. It has upwards of twenty miles of underground openings, and when it begins regular production, which should be early in 1902, will turn out 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 pounds of refined copper annually, a profit of approximately one million dollars. Rich as the Calumet & Hecla is in mineral resources, and great as are its earnings from the conglomerate lode, a "side issue" capable of netting a million a year is not to be sneezed at, and in years to come the policy of the management in opening the amygdaloid mine will be universally commended, even by those who now doubt its wisdom.

ADVENTURE WELL "HEELED." Will Start Production Next May With a Surplus of $100,000.

The recent buying of Adventure emanated largely from the Lake, which district now holds about one-third of the 100,000 shares, says the Boston News Bureau. There is declared to be less than 20,000 shares of floating stock. This Lake buying reflects the general feeling there that Adventure is destined to be a large producer of copper, and that the conservative management of the Quincy people will take rank with the leaders of the new copper properties. The Adventure mine now has three shafts down between 300 and 400 feet each and is starting on the fourth shaft. Most of the development work has been on the Knowlton lode, although there are four other lodes traversing the property, the Butler, North Butler, Merchaunt and the Evergreen. To date there are about two and a half miles of underground openings and it is the expectation of the management to have between four and five miles of underground openings when its new mill goes into commission next spring. The Adventure people continue the practice of leaving all mass and barrel copper in the mine, taking none out in the development, except when it interferes with sinking or drifting.

Great progress is being made in the surface work. The foundations for the compressors and boilers are all in as are the foundations for the three stamp mills, which is forty or fifty miles distant from the mine. The railroad is now completed to the mine and within a month will be completed to the mill. If the contracts are lived up to the Adventure mill should be stamping 1,500 tons of rock per day after Feb. 1, but there are always unlooked for delays and it is not expected that the stamps will be in operation much before May 1.

Financially the company is in excellent condition. With its recent assessment of 56 per share, the company will have in excess of $800,000 cash on hand with which to defray the cost of building its mill and all surface and development work, which cost is placed at $700,000, leaving a surplus of about $100,000 over the known prospective expenditure, or sufficient to allow for all contingencies.

Amalgamated Holding Up Prices. A Boston copper share broker with Standard Oil affiliations says regarding the interesting question as to whether or not the copper market is being artificially maintained at seventeen cents for Lake: "I do not question that the Amalgamated people are using every effort in the direction of maintaining the present prices for copper. It is very possible, and I think quite likely that the Amalgamated people are buying such surplus copper as would otherwise endanger the stability of the market, but who shall say that so far as all interests are concerned—the consumer as well as the producer—the situation is not a healthy one."

Recent developments at the Michigan are highly encouraging, and the stock has doubled in price in consequence. Regardless of what may be found in the way of copper values on the Calico, Knowlton and other cupriferous lodes on the Michigan lands, the old Minnesota mine will be made to return millions of dollars worth of copper. This is not a supposition, but a certainty, the only guess-work about the matter being as to the number of millions.

The Victoria mine is being opened at a cost of less than $500 per day, or at the rate of perhaps $7,000 per month, consequently the cash on hand is ample for eighteen months to come, within which time the main shaft will have reached the depth of 2,000 feet and a large amount of stopping ground will have been opened. The Victoria has been developed along highly economical lines, and is practically the only lode of the boom period of 1898-99 having any considerable portion of its original surplus fund intact.

JENKS GETS THE PLUM.

Tax Commission Membership Finally Comes to an Ishpeeming Man.

The Ishpeeming friends of Manville Jenks will be deeply pleased to hear that he has been appointed a member of the state tax commission, the position which George A. Newett's friends made such an effort to land for him a few months ago.

Governor Bliss announced the appointment yesterday morning. The announcement of Mr. Jenks' appointment to his important position will cause much surprise here, as only a very limited number of his most intimate friends knew that his name had been presented to the governor for the place. Although Mr. Jenks has been at Lansing for the past two days, his presence there was not known, nor did he intend that it should be known that he was off on a "still hunt" for the place until it was positively announced that he would get it.

Mr. Jenks had no thought of seeking the position until a telegram from Mr. Graham Pope of Houghton had declined to accept it, when he received letters from two intimate friends asking him if he would accept the appointment if it were tendered him. Mr. Jenks replied that he would, and since then his supporters have been active in his interest. On Monday a telegram was received here advising Mr. Jenks to go to Lansing at once. He was then in the copper country on business. The message was forwarded to him and he replied that he would be at Lansing Thursday. In less than twenty-four hours after he had reached the state capital his appointment was officially announced.

Mr. Jenks is well qualified for the position. He has had experience in mining as well as mercantile business. During the first three or four years that he was here, back in the seventies, he conducted a furniture business in the block at the corner of Main street and Cleveland avenue, the present location of the Peninsula bank. He disposed of the business to take a responsible position at the Beaufort mine, west of Michigamme. He remained there two years or so, when the mine was closed down. Soon after he associated himself with John R. Wood, both taking charge of the Antoine mine, located between Iron Mountain and Quinnessee on the Menominee range. After operations ceased there he returned to Ishpeeming, engaging in the real estate business. His first important move in that line was the erection of the handsome business block which he now owns and which bears his name. Later he and two other local men platted West Ishpeeming, where a number of houses have since been built.

Mr. Jenks is a public-spirited citizen, who is always in for anything that is calculated to benefit his city or its people. He has held minor offices, such as supervisor, etc., and is now a member of the board of public works. He has never been an office seeker and every time he has accepted anything his friends have had to prevail upon him to do so. He is a staunch Republican and has rendered his party valuable service here in years past.

There is perhaps no man in Ishpeeming more pleased over Mr. Jenks' appointment than George A. Newett. He and Jenks have been intimate friends for many years; in fact almost since boyhood. They both came to Ishpeeming about the same time. The position is one which Mr. Jenks will be able to give almost his entire attention to, as his affairs here are in such shape that very little of his time is required to keep them moving smoothly.

BY SPECIAL TRAIN.

The Elks of Marquette county will travel to and from the Milwaukee carnival by special train. Three Pullman cars, and four if needed, will be at their disposal. No outside excursionists will be taken on this train. It is understood here that the copper country herd will also go by special, occupying four or more sleepers.

The Marquette members of the order will come to Ishpeeming Monday evening, leaving the Queen city at 10 o'clock. They will be met at the depot by members of the local lodge and escorted to the club rooms in the Toutloff block, where they will be entertained for half an hour or so. All will then return to the special, which will pull out shortly before 10 o'clock.

J. W. Joachim and W. J. Curtis, the upper peninsula's largest and smallest Elks, will occupy a back in the parade instead of walking. Mr. Joachim thinks the contrast between himself and Mr. Curtis will seem greater to the spectators than if they were on foot. They will be at the head of the Marquette county delegation.

THE FUNDS ARE IN.

The soliciting committee for the Sons of St. George celebration next Saturday has collected nearly all the money promised by the business men and others. John T. Bennetts and Hadley White are looking after the finances. These gentlemen desire The Mining Journal to extend to all contributors the hearty thanks of the entire membership of their lodges. They state that the contributions have been most liberal.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Bids will be received by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company up to twelve o'clock noon on August 1st, 1901, for the erection of twenty houses in the city of Ishpeeming. Plans and specifications are on file at their office and may be examined there.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for the sum of $500.00, made payable to the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, to secure the signing of contract and the furnishing of good and sufficient bond for its performance.

Bids should be addressed to the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company and marked "Bid for Houses." The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

The Ishpeeming office of The Mining Journal is at 120 Main street, where payments of subscription and other accounts can be made. All having business with the paper are invited to call.

John G. Hall of Milwaukee was here yesterday.

The office force of the Lake Superior mine had a group picture taken yesterday.

Miss Jennie Broad has gone to Escanaba to visit with her sister, Mrs. Richard D. Ewing.

Mrs. J. Francis, son and daughter, have left the city to be absent for two months or more on an extended vacation.

Charles Erickson is lying in a dangerous condition at his home at the Nebraska location. It is feared he may not recover.

Mrs. G. H. Kummer and Miss M. Wendel of Chicago are in the city visiting at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. N. Voelker.

The South Shore road is painting its crossing gates. The color is the same as heretofore, a light gray with black trimmings.

Peter Tenette, an Italian, was sentenced to spend thirty days at the county jail, being convicted of committing an assault and battery.

Mrs. John Peters and family will leave Ishpeeming Sunday for the copper country where Mr. Peters is employed at the Trimonium mine.

A. J. Yungblut returned Thursday from the Ashland mine, where he spent the early part of the week in the interest of the Cleveland-Cliffs company.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the Elk's trip to Milwaukee was held last evening at the society's club rooms in the Toutloff block.

No plans have yet been made for the Labor Day celebration, but one will undoubtedly be held. It will probably be under the auspices of the Allied Trades union.

It is expected that at least two hundred members of the Epworth League will attend the basket picnic at Presque Isle, Sunday. The excursion will be run over the L. S. & L. railroad.

George Voyer and son of Republic were in the city yesterday visiting at the home of the boy's grandparents, Judge and Mrs. C. Kennedy. They returned to their home last evening.

Thomas Flannigan, who formerly worked as bookkeeper at John W. Joachim's hardware store, has accepted a similar position with the Hall & Moss bank. He will assume his new duties Monday.

John Quayle is building two dwelling houses in the western part of town, almost directly opposite the New York mine on the high ground. The location is desirable. One of the houses will be quite large.

Nels Clifton, who travels for Cohen Bros. Clothing Co. of Milwaukee, will visit the home office next week. He will depart for the Cream City Monday. Mr. Clifton will remain in Milwaukee during the Elk's carnival.

Mrs. Joseph Sellwood, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Matthews, returned to Duluth yesterday. She was accompanied by Roy Matthews, who will spend the balance of the summer vacation in the Zenth city.

"Daniel in the Lion's Den" will be produced this evening at the Winthrop by members of the Christian dramatic club of Negaunee. The play was staged in Negaunee a short time ago with great success. A number from the city contemplate attending.

The passenger business out of Ishpeeming for the past week has been very light as compared with the traffic at this time last year. The summer is considered, in railroad circles, the busy season, as people are traveling back and forth on vacations.

Four prominent officials of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company were visitors in Ishpeeming Wednesday, coming in their private car. The quartet was composed of General Superintendent Gardner; Assistant General Superintendent Linsley; and his assistant, Mr. Andrews.

Charles Burt of Negaunee, who traveled for a wholesale whisky business in this section the past few years, is preparing to open a saloon in the Hobbs block, the stand formerly occupied by Sam Blumenthal. He intends to put in fine furniture and fixtures and will conduct a first-class place. The room is now being fitted up for him.

For the benefit of miners in this section who are contemplating going to British Columbia to work, the members of the Ishpeeming Mine Workers' union, wish it announced that there is a strike on in the British Columbia region, especially in and around Rossland, and that miners or other laborers cannot secure employment in that section.

Miss J. Marie Fredlund of Aur Arbor, formerly of Ishpeeming, will be at Mrs. Lallersted's store during the next few days with an attractive line of art needle supplies. She is representing Lena G. Markham, who has provided her with a fine line of goods. While here Miss Fredlund will give instruction free in her line. The ladies of the city are invited to call and examine the supplies, etc.

A. A. Lind, publisher of the Superior Posten, has received a letter from his brother, Charles Lind, who is at Cape Nome exploring for gold. The letter was dated June 30, and it said that the season would not open up for at least two weeks and probably not for a month. Mr. Lind described the spring as being cold, late and disagreeable. He said that, when the snow began to melt, the frozen bodies of several men were found in and around the city. According to Mr. Lind's letter supplies in the Cape

Nome region are plentiful and there is no danger of a scarcity. Mr. Lind writes that the food shipped into the Klondike region is coarse, but nourishing. He expects to strike it rich this season as he has staked off what he considers a desirable claim.

The Ishpeeming and Owen baseball teams will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Union Park grounds. The Owen team will be accompanied by a large delegation of rooters. A special train will be run from there, arriving here about 10 o'clock. The game will be called at 2 o'clock. The usual admission of twenty-five cents for gentlemen will be charged. Ladies will be admitted free.

M. H. Crocker was in Negaunee yesterday adjusting claims for the American Mining company. Mrs. Rose Lureh, whose husband was killed in the Negaunee mine about three months ago, was allowed $500 by the company, and Mrs. Stevens, whose husband was also killed, was given a like amount. Mrs. Stevens received her check yesterday and Mrs. Lureh will get her money the first of next month.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Bieglar and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Theoford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicines, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

RECEIVES A FORTUNE.

Thos. Watts, a Miner, Made Independently Wealthy by Death of Sister.

After spending the best part of his life as a common laborer around the mines in this section, performing the most difficult kind of work, Thomas Watts, for twenty years a resident of this city, has been made independently wealthy by the death of a sister in Cornwall, England, who has bequeathed to him her entire fortune, amounting to over $100,000. This snug amount will soon be in the possession of Mr. Watts, as he will leave in a few days for the land of his birth to establish his claim to the estate.

The news of his sister's death came the early part of this week in the form of an announcement that an estate of several thousand pounds was held in trust for him by the probate authorities in Cornwall, his sister having willed the entire fortune to him. As far as Mr. Watts can learn from the brief letter, the estate consists of about $60,000 in cash and the balance in valuable real estate. Mr. Watts has for years been aware that his sister possessed great wealth, but had no idea that the amount was as large as stated in the letter. The estate which was bequeathed to him is a Cornwall mine for $175 a day.

About twenty years ago he came to Negaunee and secured a position in one of the mines. He has always been a hard worker and is a general favorite with his fellow laborers. Perhaps there is no Cornishman in the city better known than he. For the past decade he has worked incessantly to provide a home for his family. During that long interval he has missed but a few days at the mines, and is considered by the captains here as one of the most reliable workmen in this section. As soon as he received word of his good fortune he quit his job and began making preparations for going abroad.

He will be accompanied on his journey across the water by his son Henry, who arrived here from Rockland Tuesday. Young Mr. Watts was working in a pop factory, when he received word from his father to return home at once and make preparation for the journey to Cornwall.

While in England, Watts will make arrangements to have the estate looked after, and as soon as possible will return to Negaunee where he will probably erect a new residence. Mr. Watts says he wishes to remain in the town that supported him while he was obliged to work with his hands for a livelihood.

NOT MUCH BOATING.

Teal lake has lost its reputation as an evening resort. In former years it was the most popular place for the people of Negaunee to spend Sundays and evenings. Boating was the favorite sport, but this year very few people engaged in that recreation. There seems to be no tangible reason for abandonment of the lake by pleasure seekers, but it is a fact that few now visit this once popular resort.

Superintendent Hansen of the water works is pleased to have the water in the lake, for as the city water is received from this source it is thought that it will be some cleaner now that boating has fallen off. The water in the lake is about six inches higher this year than it was during the month of July, the reason for this being the heavy rains during the past few months. The water is not any better than heretofore and much of the refuse water from the mines is still being dumped into the lake, and the cows still have free access to the water and wade along the shore at will.

OFF TO MILWAUKEE

MARQUETTE COUNTY ELKS LEAVE MONDAY EVENING.

NOBBY DISTINCTIVE UNIFORM.

WILL TRAVEL ON SPECIAL VIA THE ST. PAUL ROAD.

Delegation Will Consist of About Sixty People and There Will Be Some Half Hundred Marchers.

Marquette County Elks are now in a bustle of preparation for their departure to Milwaukee where, next week, they will attend the annual meeting of the grand lodge of the order and where they will enjoy the multitudinous sports and pastimes always arranged for this notable gathering.

The iron county herd will number in the neighborhood of sixty persons and, of course, as they are all fit and proper Elks, every man in the contingent will count for a couple of ordinary mortals. It is impossible to say exactly how many members will make the trip, but fifty-one of the distinctive uniforms which will be worn in the grand parade of the visiting lodges have been ordered. At the time the measurements were taken, all of this number expected to visit Milwaukee. It is likely that in the intervening weeks some Elks have ascertained that they cannot conveniently make the trip, but nevertheless the uniformed marchers will number well up to half a hundred.

In the place of members who have dropped out, some who, at an earlier date, thought they could not make the trip will go down, though they will not have uniforms for the big parade. Then there will be a number of friends of Elks who will be accommodated on the special train. The Elks will be drawn mainly from Ishpeming, Negaunee and Marquette, with a couple of the little towns in the western end of the county represented.

The special train leaves Marquette, via the South Shore and St. Paul roads, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. It will consist of two Pullmans and a baggage car. At Ishpeming a third Pullman will be added for the accommodation of the Elks in the Twin cities. Here there will be a considerable stop while the Marquette herd marches to the Ishpeming club rooms for the purpose of escorting their Hematite brethren of Ishpeming and Negaunee to the special, which is scheduled to leave Ishpeming at 9:30 o'clock. The party will have a fast ride to Milwaukee, arriving there at an early hour Tuesday morning, fresh and eager for the week's festivities.

Lunch En Route.

One of the features of the trip to Milwaukee will be a lunch en route to be served on the special about 11 o'clock Monday evening. The Elks will supply their larger with all the delicacies to insure themselves against the pains of going to bed hungry.

It is expected that there will be a fair bevy of ladies with the party. Many of the men are figuring on taking their wives or other members of their families.

The roster of the Marquette Elks who will attend the Grand lodge, as given The Mining Journal by Secretary M. J. McKenna, follows: C. J. Hancock, J. H. Primeau, William A. Ross, W. H. Hathaway, James Dwyer, D. S. Donovan, M. J. Sherwood, A. S. Heineman, Dr. E. H. Flynn, Dr. O. D. Jones, James Russell, F. H. Board, M. N. Egan, J. P. Werner, A. H. Montgomery, Thomas Dwyer, C. M. York, E. H. Bush, L. M. Van Buren, E. H. W. Bailey, C. F. Sundstrom and W. J. Gill of Michiganama, members of the Marquette lodge.

The delegation from Ishpeming and Negaunee combined will be somewhat larger than that from the city. There are no arrangements by which the iron county herd will return in a body. The tickets are good for an extended period and the visitors may spend a short or long time at Milwaukee, according to their desire. They will come straggling home in small groups and singly during the latter part of next week and the early part of that following.

Marquette Elks are greatly interested in the success which the county's largest and smallest Elks will meet with in their quest for prizes. They are respectively John W. Joachim of Ishpeming and W. J. Curtis of the same city. In girth and general dimensions they are as different as day and night and they are believed to stand an excellent chance of winning the awards in their respective classes.

Nobby Uniforms.

The Johnsonson Clothing company was busy all yesterday boxing and sorting the distinctive uniforms which Elks of the Marquette county herd will wear in the big parade. They are nobby and the delegation will present a drossy appearance all similarly attired. The uniform consists of a blue serge coat, white duck trousers, white shoes, negligé shirt with appropriate tie, a white cap with purple band, and all marchers will carry purple umbrellas. There will be many Milwaukee eyes on the iron county Elks. It is likely that the contingent will be as drossy and creditable as any in the grand lodge city.

AN EXPERT HERE.

Light and Power Commission Employs C. G. Atkins of Chicago.

The electric light and power commission has employed C. G. Atkins of Chicago, an engineer, to give it some professional advice relative matters in connection with the proposed enlargement of the plant. He is now in Marquette looking over the system. As The Mining Journal has mentioned, the volume of the incandescent business renders it essential that the generating capacity at Dead River be largely increased the coming fall. While this much is self evident, the members of the commission are undecided just how or to what extent to increase the plant. The expert's advice will likely enlighten them on these points. With the additional generator in operation it will be necessary either to double the weight of copper or to largely increase the voltage. A choice of these expedients must be made.

ANENT THE HELEN MINE.

How Julius George Came to "Jump" the Property.

Much interest was excited here yesterday morning by the report, which appeared in The Mining Journal's telegraph news, that the Helen mine in the Michipicoten district, the Clergue property at which Powell and Mitchell of Marquette have a big contract, had been "jumped" by Julius George. A Marquette man, who has reason to be particularly interested in the affair, called up a Soo acquaintance by the long distance 'phone in order to obtain further information. He was informed that the story current at the Lock city was to the effect that the trouble was the result of the Clergue people's procedure in "jumping" a gold claim owned by George in the Michipicoten district. George having neglected one essential in perfecting his title. As the story goes he at once looked up the Clergue title to the Helen property and ascertained that the same oversight, of which he was the victim, had been made in proceeding to secure the permanent possession of this property. When he found this out he immediately stepped in and "jumped" on the reciprocity principal. If this story is true, it records a very interesting episode in connection with the mining industry of this section. Full information relative the trouble will be awaited here with interest.

APROPOS THE PROPOSED MILL.

D. H. Ball Believes the Authorities Will Enforce All Statutes.

To The Mining Journal.—An item in a recent number of The Mining Journal indicates that a prize fight is looked to come off soon in this city. It is also intimated that the public authorities will interfere to prevent it or not, depending upon a considerable number of citizens unite in a protest against it. I cannot believe that the officers whose duty it is to preserve the peace and good order of the community will deliberately neglect that duty for want of such protest.

The statutes of this state (Compiled Laws, Sections 11,752 to 11,755) prohibit prize fighting, and prescribe heavy penalties for their violation. The sheriff is the chief conservator of the peace of the county. As such he may arrest, on view, all persons breaking, or attempting to break the peace, and it is his duty to do so. Violations of the public order and tranquility are breaches of the peace. The term breach of the peace includes unlawful assemblies, riots, affrays, the sending of challenges, provoking to fight, and, of course, includes fighting.

The mayor is required by law to see that all officers of the city perform their duty, and that all laws pertaining to the municipal government of the city are faithfully observed.

It is made the duty of the city marshal "to see that all the ordinances and regulations of the council and laws of this state made for the preservation of quiet and good order and for the safety and protection of the inhabitants of the city are properly enforced. * * * He shall arrest upon view, with or without process, any person found in the act of committing any offense against the laws of this state, or ordinances of the city amounting to a breach of the peace." (Charter, Chapter 9, Sec. 8).

These several officers have been chosen to perform these duties, and they have taken an oath that they will faithfully do so. I cannot think that any supposed indifference on the part of the citizens will for a moment be considered by them as a reason or excuse for a failure on their part to perform those duties.

SAINTE ANNE DE BEAUPRE.

Many People Will Visit the Famous Shrine This Year.

The great feast of Saint Anne de Beaupre falls this year on Friday, July 26, and the annual pilgrimage to the shrine will begin from the upper peninsula on Sunday, July 21. This annual pilgrimage to the shrine of Saint Anne is an event long looked forward to by the French Catholics of the Northwest, and in previous years there has been a large attendance from this district. It is expected that the numbers that will journey eastward to the shrine this year will be even larger than formerly, on account of the low excursion rate being offered by the South Shore road.

The shrine is located in a little hamlet in the north country, where the St. Lawrence river sweeps toward the sea. The town takes its name from the patron saint, and is known as Ste. Anne de Beaupre. The fame of the little village is widespread. Located sixteen miles down the St. Lawrence river from Quebec, Can., it nestles cozily in the shadow of the high protecting walls, so ancient in appearance that there is little to suggest the progress of the day. The very atmosphere is hallowed of the French past. This delightful retreat owes its existence to the presence of the famous shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. In the center of the village stands a magnificent church, with its gilded cross-pointing the way to salvation and beckoning the weary and heavy laden of the world with a promise of heavenly rest. It is a place of miracles, a haven of comfort to thousands of sick and sore oppressed, who go on pilgrimage to the wonderful shrine to beseech the favor of the good Saint Anne.

This shrine is known as the oldest votive shrine on the continent. The legend has it that long years ago some pious fisher-folk undertook to build for themselves a little hamlet, on the banks of the St. Lawrence river. This devoted band of people built a church, which was built too near the shifting sands of the river, and was destroyed. One of two other efforts were made, and finally an edifice was erected on high, dry land.

While the temple was being built the first miracle is said to have occurred, one of the laborers being suddenly cured of a pain-racking rheumatism. From that time the place became a shrine of devotion, growing and waxing strong in good works. The pyramids of crutches and quantities of spectacles, canes and other paraphernalia, testifies to the efficacy of the prayers that ascend to the great white throne through the intercession of the beloved patronesses of the shrine.

Pilgrimages to the shrine from the Northwest are taken over the South Shore road and the company has made special preparations this year to handle the traffic. The excursion rate from most points on the upper peninsula is $25, it being $25.50 from Calumet and Lake Linden and $25.10 from Hancock. Tickets being sold on the 22nd and 23rd. Of course, there are a great many people that do not attend the ceremonies at the shrine who take advantage of the low rates to visit points in the East, and the excursion tickets allow stop-over privileges at any point in Canada and at any point on the South Shore road on the return trip.

Arrangements have been made for those who wish to visit the Pan-American exposition to have their tickets read via the Canadian Pacific steamer via Owen Sound and Toronto, either going or returning, at a rate of $30. This rate includes meals and berths on the steamer.

COPPERS STILL QUIET.

Advances in Range and Baltic Liveden Things Up Some.

Slight advances in Range and Baltic were the features of the coppers yesterday. The market was dull, although the list was generally strong. Paine, Webber & Co. said:

"The advance in Copper Range and Baltic today came on very small transactions and served to further demonstrate the fact that the coppers are closely and firmly held. The coppers are slowly pulling away from the New York market and, when they can move independently, it looks as if they would have a good advance. At present the market in the coppers is not broad enough to warrant purchases on the top of the sharp rallies, but we believe that those who buy the good ones on every slight reaction will make substantial profits."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission Co.: "American Telephone advanced to 164 1/2 on buying from New York and we look to see it sell higher before September. Coppers are dull with exception of Copper Range, which showed a good advance. Some of the people connected with the South Range deal are out of town and they may remain away for some time. We would not rush into the low priced stocks right away. Oseola, Wolverine and Mohawk are all in a position to improve and a market can always be found for them."

A. R. Jones & Co. said of wheat: "Until a very late hour in the day the market showed no strength. The local crowd were pretty generally against an advance. The advance in corn and oats was the principal cause of the late movement. The crop news, as a rule, was favorable today and there is a free movement of winter wheat from the southwest. We believe that under 70 cents purchases of wheat can be made with almost a certainty of showing good profits."

Clarence L. Burgdler, impersonator and humorist, was heard by an appreciative assembly that packed the Methodist church last evening. He is probably the best entertainer in his line who has ever appeared in the city and will meet with a hearty reception whenever he sees fit to return.

Honorable Burton Parker, special agent of the treasury department, inspected the Marquette customs office yesterday, finding everything in the best condition. Mr. Parker says that the district of Superior is doing nicely throughout its length and breadth. It is showing up a large volume of trade.

It warmed up appreciably yesterday, after a couple of days of mild, pleasant weather. The mercury experienced no difficulty in mounting above the ninety mark and records of ninety-five degrees were obtained down town. It endeavored desperately to rain in the morning, but in vain and in place of the northerly winds promised by the weather bureau came scorching zephyrs straight out of the south.
