NO MOVE IN STRIKE

SITUATION THROUGHOUT FIELD
UNDERGOES NO CHANGE.

IS AGAIN A DAY OF PEACE.

QUIET EVERYWHERE, THOUGH
FEELING AT POINTS IS HIGH.

Rumors of Plot to Destroy Tin Plate
Plant and of Removal of Mills to England Are Circulated and Denied at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Aug. 21.—The steel strike
situation underwent no change today.
There were no extensions of the strike and the steel managers did not attempt to start any more mills.

This evening the fires were lighted in the Denmore tin plate works at 215 Keesport, but the machinery was not started and no attempt was made to operate it. It is believed, however, the move is preliminary to start with non-union men.

On streets it was a day of exciting
rumors, beginning with a circumstantial story of a plot to destroy the Monongahela tin plant and ending with a tale of the removal of the largest plants of the United States Steel corporation to England. Between the two, rumor again settled the strike in several ways.
However, official denial was given to all of these stories.

It was another day of peace in all the strike districts, although the general probability of trouble still holds good at the places where the feeling runs high.

Rumors Joliet Men Will Return.
Joliet, Ills., Aug. 21.—The striking steel workers held another conference this afternoon. They were addressed by Vice President Davis. Nothing official could be learned of the proceedings, but there were persistent rumors the men are preparing to go back to work.

Bay View Men Paid Off.
Milwaukee, Aug. 21.—The Illinois
Steel company at its Bay View plant today paid off the strikers and those affected by the strike in full and notified
them that they will be considered no longer employees. Everything is quiet.

STRIKE HURTS PLO WMAKERS.
Shortage of Finished Steel Likely to Close Many Plants.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 21.—Albert Hirschmer, who has just returned from the national conference of plow manufacturers in Chicago, says the steel strike has already crippled the factories
all over the country and if it continues for three months there will not be one in operation because of the impossibility of getting finished steel. His own supply is shut off by the closing of the Bay View mills at Milwaukee.

CAN TRUST REDUCES FORCE.
Failure of Fruit and Vegetables Costs
300 Ohio Men Their Jobs.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 21.—The local branch of the American Can company
today discharged three hundred men, half of its force, because the failure of the fruit and vegetable crop has greatly reduced the demand for cans.

FRANCE TO BUY WHEAT HERE.
London Times Finds the Grain Importers
Making Preparations.

London, Thursday, Aug. 22.—The Times in the course of its financial article this morning says it discerns indications in the money market that French grain importers are already preparing to supply the deficiency in the French harvest from the United States.

BULLION THIEF SENTENCED.
Term of Fifteen Years in Prison Is Given to Jack Winters.

Martinez, Cal., Aug. 21.—Jack Winters, the man who got away with $320, 000 in gold bullion from the Selby Smelting works and afterwards confessed, was today sentenced to fifteen years at Folsom.

LOUBET HONORS HARPER.
Legion of Honor Decoration Bestowed
on the Chicago Educator.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—President Loubet
of France has conferred upon President Harper, of the University of Chicago, the decoration of the French order of the Legion of Honor. The presentation of the decoration was performed today by M. Merou, the French consul.
The decoration was given to Dr. Harper in acknowledgment of his services in connection with the Alliance Francaise,
the French institution which was recently affiliated with the university.

STEAMER SINKS A FERRY.
Port Huron (Mich.) Passengers Have Close Call from Drowning.

Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 21.—The steam yacht George Stauber, used as a ferry boat on the St. Clair river, was run down and sunk opposite Fort Gra-tiant late tonight by the steamer George McDougall. The steam yacht was crowded with passengers bound for this city.

By desperate efforts the passengers clung to the wreckage until rescued by the fleet of rowboats that put out from shore. It is believed all were saved.

OIL TANKS STILL BURNING.

Fighting of the Flames at Point Breeze
a Fruitless Task.

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—The big oil fire at the Atlantic Refining company's works at Point Breeze is burning more fiercely today than at any time since the first explosion occurred.

By the collapse of a burning oil tank
this afternoon, about a hundred persons —firemen, employes and spectators—
were more or less severely burned.
The firemen are exerting every effort to prevent the blazing fluid from reaching the river, as much destruction of property would undoubtedly result if this should occur.

PEDDLER SLAIN BY WOMEN.
Killed While Making an Attack in a Pittsburg Home.

Pittsburg, Aug. 21.—Robert Nogler, a Hebrew peddler, was killed today while attacking two women in the home of Osborne Woods, No. 12 Camp street.
Mrs. Arried Lees and Mrs. Grace Woods, who were defending themselves against the man's assault, are under arrest, the former on the charge of murder and the latter as a witness.

pionship at the tournament here today,

of 6-2; 6-8; 6-4, and 6-4.

DIE IN DEATH TRAP

FIVE MEN LOSE THEIR LIVES
IN CLEVELAND BAY.

SECOND WATER WORKS DISASTER.

VICTIMS WORKERS IN A TUNNEL
UNDER THE LAKE.

Explosion of Gas Bursts the Casing of the Drift and the Diggers Are Entangled in the Rush of the Incoming Waters.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—Five men were drowned last night as the result of an explosion of gas in the tunnel leading from waterworks crib No. 3, two miles from where the fatal accident of last Wednesday occurred.

The men were digging in the tunnel leading toward crib two. The explosion crushed in the casing of the tunnel
and the men were engulfed in the rush
of water, perishing before assistance could reach them. The dead were:
RAY TREADWAY,
JAMES WILLIAMS,
DANIEL HIGGINS,
JAMES DALLINCOURT,
JOHN BERT.

It is supposed the men while digging struck a vein of gas which was ignited by a spark from a pick, causing the explosion. The crib was wrecked and it will be weeks before the damage can be repaired and the bodies of the unfortunates recovered.

INDIGNATION IN JAPAN.
Discrimination by Hawaiian Medical Inspectors Riots the Orientals.

London, Thursday, Aug. 22.—"There is growing indignation in Japan," says a dispatch to The Times from Tokyo, "at the discrimination of the Hawaiian medical inspectors against Japanese ladies traveling by steamship.
These outrageous measures, supplementing the previous vexatious acts of discrimination in Hawaii and at San Francisco, create the conviction that Japan's relations with the United States will be impaired unless a corrective measure is speedily adopted."

EXCHANGE FIVE HUNDRED SHOTS.
Union Coal Miners and Deputies Battle
in Kentucky Town.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 21.—Several persons were wounded and five hundred shots exchanged in an encounter yesterday between deputy sheriffs and union coal miners. Some of the latter had been creating a disturbance during the morning, and warrants for their arrest were given to deputy sheriffs. In attempting to serve the papers a fight ensued with the above result.

SNOW SHEDS IN FLAMES.
Over Half a Mile of Them Destroyed in California.

Truckee, Cal., Aug. 21.—A terrible fire is raging in the snow sheds this side of Summit. Lake View station has been burned and at last accounts 2,500 feet of snow sheds were destroyed and the fire was as yet uncontrolled.

Later—The fire was gotten under control after three thousand feet of snowsheds had been burned.

STALLION SELLS FOR $20,000.
Pittsburg Phil Disposes of Isidor on Condition He Is Not Raced Again.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 21.—G. E. Smith
(Pittsburg Phil) tonight sold to Stephen Sanford and Son, of the Hurricane stud, his stallion Isidor, by Amphion out of Imp Isis, for a price said to be $20,000.
The condition was made that the horse
never be raced again.

FRANCO-TURKISH RUPTURE.

Paris Government Severs Diplomatic Relations With the Porte.

Constantinople, Aug. 21.—The French ambassador, M. Constans, has notified the sultan's first secretary that all diplomatic relations between France and Turkey are broken off and that the ambassador has informed his government to this effect. The ambassador justifies his action on the ground that the sultan broke his direct, personal promise given M. Constans, at an audience in the Yildiz palace last Thursday, regarding the purchase of the quays and the settlement of the disputed French claims. The foreign minister also gave formal assurances that the agreement would be carried out; so, in view of this double breach of faith, M. Constans holds it impossible for France to continue diplomatic relations with Turkey.

London Looks for Backdown.
London, Thursday, Aug. 22.—The morning papers of today, commenting upon the Franco-Turkish situation, consider the action of M. Constans fully justified. They do not anticipate any serious results, believing the sultan will ultimately yield.

CHICAGO SHORT OF POTATOES.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Potatoes advanced in two days.

OVATION TO LIPTON

OWNER OF SHAMROCK WARMLY
GREETED AT GOTHAM.

HOPES TO LIFT THE CUP.

SAYS NEW BOAT IS MUCH FASTER THAN OLD ONE.

Will Make a Good Race Whether Victorious or Not—Not Likely the Challenger Will Meet Law-
son's Independence.

New York, Aug. 21.—Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of Shamrock II, the challenger for America's cup, arrived in this city this evening. He was met with a most cordial reception. Indeed, the steamship Tonic, on which he was a passenger,
received one continuous ovation from Sandy Hook to her dock. Sir Thomas and party upon landing were driven to the Waldorf Astoria for dinner. Tomorrow he will take up quarters on the steam yacht Erin, now anchored off Stapleton.

Included in the party were George
Lennox Watson, designer of Shamrock;
Hon. Charles Russell, who will represent the Royal Ulster Yacht club on the American cup defender; J. B. Hildbrand, a prominent Clyde yachtsman who, next to Jameson, Sir Thomas considers the best amateur yachtsman of the United Kingdom; C. O'Malley; John Westwood,
and W. M. Duncan.

Promises a Close Race.
Sir Thomas said: "I am thoroughly pleased with the reception given me. I think I can do better this time, for I have in Shamrock II a boat at least nine minutes faster over a thirty-mile course than Shamrock I. At any rate, we expect to make a good race against the American defender, whether she be Constitution or Columbia."

Judging from the conversation of Sir Thomas and the members of his party,
it is not likely Shamrock II will engage Independence.

VERDICT EXCITES GERMANY.
New Trial Demanded for Sergeant Convicted of Killing Captain.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—A storm of protest throughout Germany has followed the verdict in the second trial of Sergeant Hichel and Sergeant Marten on the charge of murdering Captain Von Kro-gik, of the Prussian cavalry, last January. The papers are unanimous in their condemnation of the methods of the German military tribunals.
The second trial, which resulted in the acquittal of Sergeant Hichel and the conviction and sentence to death of Sergeant Marten, produced no new evidence, in the opinion of the press generally, beyond that upon which the accused were acquitted at the first trial
although the military authorities offered a large sum for fresh evidence. The public prosecutor asked for a verdict of manslaughter only, but the military judges returned a death sentence.
Revision probably will be granted in deference to public sentiment.

Manila, Aug. 21.—The United States

get ashore tomorrow.

gresant capsized at Treguer today, fifteen persons being drowned, including

REBUKE TO SCHLEY

NAVY DEPARTMENT RESENTS
CRITICISM OF HOWISON.

IS A FAIR-MINDED OFFICER.

DEFENDANT HIMSELF SUGGESTED
APPOINTMENT TO COURT.

Secretary Repudiates Alleged Leaning
Toward Sampson, but Says Matter
Is a Point for the Tribunal Itself to Determine.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The navy department this afternoon gave out a reply to Admiral Schley's request that the attention of Admiral Howison, a member of the court, be called to the alleged interview in which he said that the credit for the Santiago victory belonged to Admiral Sampson. The reply, which is made by Acting Secretary Hackett, is as follows:

"In reply to yours of the 19th inst.,
enclosing a clipping and requesting that the department send it to Rear Admiral Howison, together with a copy of your letter, you are informed that the appointment of Admiral Howison as the third member of the court of inquiry was accomplished only after taking great pains to insure absolute impartiality in the officer selected.

Interview Already Denied.
"To a question unofficially put as to his availability in case the department should require his services, Admiral Howison replied: 'I know of no reason why I should not be available for such duty should the department so decide.
I have made no public utterance relating to the subject and I have seen none of the official reports bearing upon the questions to be decided by the court.'

"Your counsel, Captain Parker, before the appointment was announced, mentioned to the acting secretary the names of certain rear admirals, any one of whom, he said, would be perfectly satisfactory to Admiral Schley. One of the names mentioned was Admiral Howison. This much is detailed in order to remind you of the fact that a fair-minded officer of excellent reputation and unblemished character has been found in the person of Admiral Howison, who at the date of his appointment appears to have enjoyed the confidence of both the department and yourself.
"Your request is based upon a newspaper clipping that purports to contain statements in regard to the truth of which you do not yourself express an opinion. You ask the department to lay before Admiral Howison a statement, wholly unsubstantiated, that appears to have been made by some person unknown at the time and at a place likewise unknown.

Matter for Court to Decide.
"The department is unable to view your request in any other light than that of a preliminary challenge of the fitness of Admiral Howison to serve as a member of the court. It will be treated as is usual in cases of courts of inquiry. The established practice in the military as well as in the naval service has fixed the method in which the right of challenge before courts-martial and courts of inquiry shall be exercised.

"The department, having constituted the court, should not, at this stage of the proceedings, undertake to hear and determine questions that may arise respecting the competency of its members.
Such proceedings would be irregular, all questions of this nature being left to the determination of the court itself.
This correspondence will be transmitted to the president of the court for its information."

SHERIFF DEFENDS RACE TRACK.
Posse of Constables Holding Warrants
Repulsed at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Aug. 21.—An attempt to close the Delmar race track this afternoon by a posse of constables, who attempted to serve warrants on the track officials and bookmakers were frustrated by Sheriff Hencken, of St. Louis county, who stood off the posse with guns. The move to close the track was not altogether unexpected by the management,
who summoned the sheriff with deputies to prevent any interference with the races. The warrants held by the constables were issued in St. Ferdinand township and charged the defendants with keeping a common gambling house.
When the constables were seen approaching, the sheriff placed the track
officials and bookmakers under arrest
on the charge of violating the breeders'
law. As the posse attempted to enter,
they were met by the sheriff and deputies, with guns. The constables, seeing an attempt to force entrance might be met with loss of life, withdrew.

MARQUETTE, MICH., AUG. 22

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

An expert who has examined Sir Thomas Lipton's new boat, Shamrock No. 2, finds that she is so like the Columbia that he is mortally afraid she will defeat the latter craft.

It has been discovered that Rear Admiral Howison expressed the opinion, in an interview published a couple of months ago, that Sampson was entitled to all the credit for the victory of our squadron at Santiago, and Commodore Schley's counsel are preparing to object to him as a member of the court of inquiry in the Schley case on that account.

A New York news letter gives this incident illustrating how grievously our customs regulations annoy some illustrious persons who are not above doing a little smuggling when they have the opportunity.

The hostility of some of the labor unions to having prison labor employed under contract in the production of marketable articles seems to us unwise, cruel and inimical to the public welfare.

CLARK AS AN "EASY MARK."

An associated dispatch from Kieff, Siberia, gives this interesting information:

It is believed here that Senator W. A. Clark has been led into a bad deal by his Russian advisers as to the investment in the Vaskresenski copper mines.

Local financiers declare that the mines are comparatively unimportant, in spite of the glowing reports of Mr. Clark's own experts, and advise the American senator to come himself to investigate the property before paying the alleged price of $12,000,000.

MINERS BLOWN UP

THREE VICTIMS OF AN EXPLOSION AT THE CHAMPION. ONLY MEAGER DETAILS OBTAINABLE.

TRIO WERE ENGAGED IN SINKING THE NO. 5 SHAFT.

Victims Were Descending in a Bucket Which Contained Sixty Sticks of Giant Powder and Were Literally Blown Into Shreds.

The Champion mine was the scene of a shocking tragedy, in which three lives were wiped out, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

But meager details were obtainable last evening, Champion being in a turmoil of excitement because of the unusual severity of the accident.

From the best information that could be secured, it appears that Gustafson, Makki and Frank Coberg.

But meager details were obtainable last evening, Champion being in a turmoil of excitement because of the unusual severity of the accident.

From the best information that could be secured, it appears that Gustafson, Makki and Coberg composed a gang which was engaged in sinking No. 5 shaft to a point where a new level is to be put in.

For some reasons the trio had mounted to one of the higher levels. On returning to the scene of their work, they placed in the bucket, which they were using for the descent, the sixty sticks of giant powder and a quantity of caps, explosives to be employed in deepening the shaft.

It is supposed that they were on the edge of the bucket. They had not reached the bottom of the shaft when the explosion occurred.

Being on the descent when the powder went off they must have received the full force of the detonation, with the probable result that they were literally torn to shreds.

Positive information on this latter point could not be secured last evening, owing to the fact that the mine had not been entered.

The detonation of such a large quantity of giant powder filled the shaft with smoke and made it impracticable for any of the miners to enter the workings until a considerable time, in which the noxious fumes could thin and pass away, had elapsed.

However, there is little likelihood that any recognizable semblance of the remains of the three unfortunates was discovered.

Gustafson was a Swede. He was aged about thirty years and was married. He was an old timer at Champion and possessed a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

He was likewise a married man, whose family resides at Champion. He was a Finn, as was Coberg, a young unmarried lad of eighteen years.

Champion was in deep gloom last evening. The streets were thronged with people and a tremendous crowd was assembled at the mine, awaiting the latest news from the workings.

Another Good Day. Coppers Were Strong and Held Their Advance. Yesterday was another good day for the coppers. The list was strong and the stocks which have been gaining held their advances well, although there were fractional declines on the close.

UPPER VS. LOWER.

Peninsulas at Odds Before the State Board of Equalization.

The following Lansing special to the Detroit Free Press will be read with interest on the upper peninsula, pertaining as it does to the meeting of the state board of equalization, which is now in session.

One of the biggest fights before the state board of equalization which opened its sessions, at Lansing, Monday, is to be one between the counties of the upper peninsula and those of the lower part of the state.

The big mining corporations have sent their lobbyists to Lansing with the purpose of seeing to it that their taxes are held down for the next five years, and when the representatives from the lower peninsula got there the yfound that their first task would be to combat the influence of the men from the north, especially as the upper peninsula has one man on the board of equalization in the person of Lieutenant Governor Robinson.

The nomination of the latter in the last Republican convention was to make sure that the mining interests would be protected in the matter of taxation.

During the talk to date some of the lower peninsula lobbyists have realized that at all the talk they might suffer from the equalizers would make little difference, unless they did something to fight the mining interests, and a meeting of representatives of lower peninsula counties was called.

The gathering was held with closed doors. It resulted in forming a permanent organization called "The State Equalization League," and the purpose stated in the formal resolutions adopted is "to see that every county in the state is equalized according to its cash value."

The organization is considered only temporary and the representatives of the lower peninsula counties at Lansing will be asked to join with the purpose of presenting a united demand that for once the upper peninsula shall be taxed according to the value of its property.

At this meeting figures were presented showing that in the last equalization Houghton county, where the big copper mines are located, was assessed at only $40,000,000. The assessed valuation of the county, as raised by the tax commission, is up to $102,000,000, but the market value of the mines in Houghton county, as listed on the stock market is about $100,000,000, and this does not include smaller mines not listed, and the value of much city property in the county, which it is reckoned would bring the total value up to over $200,000,000.

The representatives of Houghton county are working to hold their equalization down to about $80,000,000, but the lower peninsula men are determined that the equalization shall come up closer to the real value of the property.

It will be noticed that the counties having the largest number of votes in conventions are represented in the newly formed league, and the members of the board of equalization are determined to understand that they are serving their first term in office, and the intimidation is plain that if they do not act fairly the fact will be kept before the voters of the lower peninsula.

"Since the representatives of the various counties have come to Lansing they have found that the tax commission will not give out any of the figures which they recently sent men all over the state to obtain as to the assessments in the various localities. The lobbyists complain that they cannot do their work properly unless they get this information, and one of the tax commission men does well to try and obtain these figures. President Freeman of the commission said that the commission experts had found that in the city of Detroit the assessments were almost up to cash value.

"A representative of one of the big agricultural counties who was in the meeting, said: 'We farmers think about time that the big mines paid their share of the state taxes. They tax the eggs not yet laid and they might assess the copper still in the ground, which is now bringing the Boston stockholders seventeen cents a pound.'

BRAVE LITTLE CORPORAL.

An Interesting Story Illustrative of Japanese Valor.

During the active troubles of the allied powers with China, the Japanese troops excited the admiration of the world by their bravery and almost perfect discipline.

Thomas Millard, a war correspondent, tells a thrilling story illustrative of Japanese valor and contempt for peril. It is for the individual reader to decide for himself whether the act of the "little corporal," as described, was heroism in the highest sense; that it was unqualified bravery no one will dispute.

The force sent to relieve the Christians who were besieged in Pekin had arrived, and it devolved on the Japanese contingent to blow in a certain gate. The artillery did some damage, but the breach was not sufficient to admit of a charge upon the enemy.

These massive wooden gates, which are sunk deep in the thick, twelve-foot walls, are approached by means of a little bridge across the moat that encircles the city. The Japanese general decided that a breach would have to be effected by means of dynamite. For this dangerous mission he called for volunteers.

A little corporal about 4 feet 6 inches in height was picked out. As with utter concern he marched briskly over the bridge, the enemy peeped at him from the top of the wall until he was within a few feet of the gate.

Having lighted the fuse, he quickly made his way back to his own lines without sustaining a wound. No sooner had he got out of the way than a small door was cautiously opened and an almond-eyed face peered out. With his hand on the trigger the Chinaman stamped out the lighted fuse. Then he went back and closed the door.

Defying almost certain death, the little corporal started out again and once more lighted the fuse. On his way back he was hit in the shoulder and stumbled to the ground. Then he picked himself up and managed to reach safety. Once more, however, the foxy Chinaman was too quick for the slow fuse.

Then the little corporal went pattering back to the half-demolished gate, lighted the fuse, drew his short bayonet-sword and waited. There was a moment of suspense; then with a frightful roar the old gate was blown to the heavens, and with it went the poor little corporal.

It is one thing to risk one's life in the heat of battle, but quite another to face the certain and horrible death from which this subject of the mikado never flinched.

SOME WHITTLING STUNTS. From the Ball in Prison to the Anchor, Chain and Buoy. "I suppose," said Uncle Hiram, "that every small boy when he gets his first sharp knife does just what our young friend here has been doing. He gets a nice stick of soft white pine and cuts a ball imprisoned within four corner bars; I know I did that and I have made lots of them.

"You take a squared stick of soft white pine of any dimensions, but say an inch square and four inches long, and mark off a block an inch long in the middle of its length. Then you mark off on either side of that another space of an inch, and then you proceed to dig out the wood from these spaces, through from side to side and from all sides, but carefully leaving the corners of the block untouched, for these will each become a part of the bar of that corner extending from end to end, when the middle block, of which the ball is to be made, is cut free.

"You take a square block of wood, cut all clear, leaving the square block in the middle, you cut the block down rounding at the corners, cutting it into the shape of a ball as much as possible before cutting it away at the corners because it is so much easier to shape when it is thus held, than it will be after it is loose. Only you want to be careful not to slice down through the corner pieces and so spoil the whole thing; and you want to look out, too, not to do what our young friend here has done, and what I have often done myself, for that matter, and that is to slice down through one of the blocks, cutting one of the corner pieces clear there, before you come to the rounding to the block at all.

"The rounded block cut free, you smooth it off nicely, and smooth the side pieces and ends, and there you are, a ball that couldn't have been got into this frame from the outside at all, but that is in it, all right, and that rolls freely within it from end to end.

"Sometimes a boy would make one of those with two balls in it; and I have occasionally known a boy to make a ball in a holder like this out of hard wood, which is a triumph, for to make a good imprisoned ball of any wood is a task requiring the exercise of some skill and of very great patience. But it is really nothing to some of the whittling stunts that, occasionally, men do aboard ship on long voyages, or on long waits in port.

"A man who was fond of whittling might, in such circumstances, take for a blank a stick as long as a broomstick and of suitable dimensions, and carve out of one end of this an anchor on a swivel. It is pretty difficult work, and it calls for the greatest patience, too, to cut a swivel out of a solid block.

"Having cut the anchor and the swivel, the whittler proceeds to cut that long stick, step by step, into the links of a wooden chain. A link at a time he adds to the wooden cable, this growing and the solid remaining part of the stick steadily decreasing till he comes to the other end and there he cuts another swivel, and for the very end, a buoy. "Now there is something in the whittling line that does take patience. I am afraid our young friend here has not yet acquired a sufficient stock of patience to enable him to do that—I am not certain that I could do that myself."—New York Sun.

VETERANS GATHER

UPPER PENINSULA ASSOCIATION IN SESSION HERE.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE TODAY.

VISITORS WERE RECEIVED INFORMALLY YESTERDAY.

Exercises at Opera House, With Address of Welcome and Responses—Parade and Picnic This Afternoon—Campfire Tonight.

The sixth annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Veterans' association opened here yesterday with a fair attendance of the members, many northern Michigan cities being represented. The day was given up to the informal reception and entertainment of the visitors, the major portion of the business and amusement of the reunion being reserved for today.

In the neighborhood of fifty veterans of the Civil war registered at the headquarters yesterday. This number is swelled by the boys who saw service in the Spanish-American war, or who have served in the regular army. Today there should be between one and two hundred strangers in the city. The visitors found the headquarters in the Bertha block tastefully decorated with bunting and varieties of evergreen. Here they congregated in groups throughout the day and discussed their reminiscences of the great struggle in which they bore active parts.

Marquette is generally decorated in recognition of the visit of the veterans. The display is more pronounced and effective than is usually the case on that peer of all national holidays, July 4. It is much better and attractive than it was last Independence day. But few business houses down town are showing flags and bunting and some of the decorations are elaborate. A few of the merchants have prepared "reunion" windows. On the streets of the resident section, which will be traversed by the parade today, there is likewise a liberal and general display of the national colors.

Welcomed Yesterday.

The only formal exercise yesterday was a meeting at the opera house at 2:30 o'clock at which the visitors were formally welcomed to Marquette by Mayor John D. Mangum. There was a limited attendance, it being confined mainly to the Grand Army men and their families.

Mayor Mangum spoke appropriately and his words were well received. He expressed his pleasure that the Upper Peninsula association has assembled in Marquette and his desire that all the visiting members have a thoroughly enjoyable stay in the city.

In the course of his brief address, he decried what he considers the tendency of the later generations to undervalue the great service of the men who composed the loyal army in '61-'65 and to make of Memorial day a burrah of sport and pastime, instead of a holiday for the contemplation of the deeds and glory of the country's defenders, both those who have passed to their great reward and those who remain behind to give personal testimony to the "times that tried men's souls."

Nor did the mayor forbear to touch the pension question. Were the management of this department in his hands, every old soldier in the country would be sure of a friend on whom he might rely to do the utmost in his power to secure his annual stipend. The mayor frankly said that he believed that every old soldier, who had seen actual service, should, in this manner, be rewarded by the government. Mayor Mangum censured severely those who are attacking and criticising the freedom of the government's pension expenditures.

In response were heard H. O. Fifield of Menominee, Mrs. C. V. R. Pond, president of the Women's Relief corps, Judge Buck of Ironwood and Colonel James of Detroit. The two former spoke briefly. Judge Buck was heard for several minutes and his address included numerous good things. Colonel James spoke on a thoroughly interesting and impressive subject. He is in charge of the administration of the Michigan pension department and he gave his auditors some interesting information in connection with his work and the observations he has made in connection with it.

Today's Program.

This will be a busy day for the veterans. They will assemble in the opera house this morning for their regular annual business session. Officers will be elected and the next meeting place designated.

At 2 p. m. the parade will form on Superior street, traversing the principal business and residence streets. It will be headed by the Neguance band which will come down in the morning to furnish music throughout the day. The parade will disband on Front street at the headquarters. Under the head of "Business Partners but Not Twins" The Detroit Journal, in Tuesday's issue, prints likenesses of Charles Schaffer and Noah W. Gray, with the following comment: "The above pictures represent two prominent and enterprising business men of Marquette. Noah W. Gray is general manager of the Pioneer Iron company, and Charles Schaffer is general manager of the large Marquette Charcoal Kilns. They employ a large number of men and are as well known and liked as any men about Marquette." The resemblance of the two likenesses presented by the Journal is notable and striking.

Consumers are requested to be as economical as possible in their use of electric light for the next several hours. The water at Dead River is very low. A couple of men were sent out from Ishpeming yesterday to open the dam at Silver Lake, thirty miles from here, where there is a reserve supply of water which should be down to the power house dam sometime today or tonight. Meanwhile, if only the necessary lamps are burned, all will go well. One of the arc circuits was out last night to ease the load on the water wheel. Later—the lighting service will be shut off today until this evening, in order to stop up water for the night run.

AT U. P. STATE FARM

DIFFERENT CROPS HAVE REACHED WONDERFUL DEVELOPMENT.

EXHIBITS FOR STATE FAIR.

TRUCK NATIVE TO THE SOUTH IS COMING ALONG VERY WELL.

Corn, Although Year Is Unfavorable, Is Doing Nicely—Speltz, a New Grain from Northern Europe, Flourishes.

A visit to the State Experimental Station farm at Chatham during this month is well calculated to make one forget about the backward season and to give a fair idea of the future farming possibilities of this peninsula, says the Mining News. Four varieties of winter wheat are cut and in the barn. A few bunches were saved for exhibition at the state fair and at the Pan-American. Some of this grain stands five and a half feet high, the heads filled to bursting, and four or five inches long. The superintendent of the station feels confident that no state in the union will exhibit anything better at Buffalo, and he is sure that these samples at Pontiac next month will make many lower peninsula farmers' mouths water.

Ten varieties of oats are planted and are nearly ripe. Most of these stand five feet high and quite a percentage is lodged on account of the heavy grain. From present appearances several varieties will yield considerably over fifty bushels per acre.

Twelve varieties of barley and three of spring wheat are also rapidly ripening and for perfection will not be far behind the winter sorts.

Five varieties of field peas are growing and at least three of these will be record breakers, the vines being already eight feet long and covered with pods and blossoms from top to bottom. Speltz, a new variety of grain recently introduced from Northern Europe into Michigan, is well headed out and gives promise of a very large yield. This grain will unquestionably become very popular in northern Michigan, as it yields heavier than rye, makes better flour and can be sown either in the spring or fall.

Ten varieties of corn are all tasseled out and several in silk. Unusually late spring everywhere and the cool summer nights thus far, make this a decidedly unfavorable corn year. Still the tall size of the corn and its rich dark green color leave no room for improvement. Emerson said that all things in nature counterbalance themselves, and as at this rate a late fall may be expected to make up for a late spring, the corn crop at the station will no doubt keep pace with the rest of the grain crop.

Sorghum, something seldom seen in the lower peninsula, is another crop at the station which promises a phenomenal yield. It stands seven to eight feet high at present and is liable to grow four feet taller before it ripens.

Alfalfa is not a great success east of the Rocky Mountains, and even here it does fairly well in southern Michigan, not much more than a fair stand is expected by fall when first planted in the spring. Four varieties were planted at this station this spring; all are ready to cut this week and will give a second crop by fall, while next year three crops may safely be expected from each variety.

Crimson clover is just beginning to show a few blossoms and nothing prettier can be imagined than a field of this clover in full bloom.

Both summer and winter vetches are growing at the station and are ready to cut. Both will yield very heavy, the vines being over three feet long and their pretty blossoms attracting dozens of humming birds from morning to night.

Fifteen varieties of potatoes may be seen in blossom and the healthy vines give promise of an unusually large yield.

Such southern plants as cowpeas and soja beans are growing fine enough at the station to lead one to imagine he is visiting a Virginia or Maryland farm, and as the soja beans have been in blossom over a week, it is quite certain that they will ripen and thereby cause one of the greatest surprises at the state fair. All the crops, besides several varieties of millet, broome grass, cucumbers, tomatoes, sunflowers and squashes and a number of other crops, grow around and among 600 fruit trees and grape vines set out this spring, which are doing finely.

We promised not to mention anything about a lot of muskmelons growing on this field, as the superintendent has neither dog nor shotgun. Otherwise we should be glad to describe a few of the varieties, especially those having melons already nearly ten inches long, and for fear we should have to use up two more columns, we shall be unable to describe the several varieties of cabbage, cauliflower, brussels sprouts, asparagus, celery, the countless varieties of turnips, beets, radishes, beans, lettuce, spinach, onions, or the many strawberries, currants, gooseberries, raspberries and the Lord only knows what not.

Just now the building grounds are being finely graded for a lawn; a veranda and other additions to the house will be built shortly, and as the clearing of more land continues, a fine fence will be put up along the road and shade trees planted on the outside, thus making the station as ornamental as it will prove to be useful.

For this fall and next year, a novel and interesting experiment in potato culture will be undertaken, the results of which will be the greatest importance to the upper peninsula. Mr. Gesmar is at present engaged in working out the details of it, every county in the upper peninsula being expected to cooperate in this experiment, which will consist in planting, spraying and cultivating tests, one of the features being fall as well as spring plantings.
