We Are Modest

It's unfortunate for us, for there are very many nice things we could tell you about our laundry plant, and the high grade work that comes out of it. If it were not for our modesty we could tell you how much brighter, and lighter and better every way our laundry is; we could tell you our superintendents and workers are a little more artistic and skillful than most others, and our system of urged inspection by an expert prevents you from getting anything but perfect laundry work from our shop. But it might be better anyhow to ask us for proofs and judge for yourself.

The Daily Northwestern of Oshkosh said of a recent presentation of 'Witch of the Woods:"

"It was greeted by a full house and a arger attendance' is expected for the cond production as the excellence of he initial one was sufficient to insure a rowded theater. Not only was the auence delighted by the meritorious per ormance on the whole, but many surrises in the form of individual talent of exceptional ability were forthcoming luring the progress of the piece. "The artistic setting of the Witch of the Woods' extravaganza was a rare treat from a spectacular view as the cos umes were brilliant and beautiful and what was especially noteworthy, the east of characters and choruses were omposed of young ladies who were all retty and many of whom were strik ngly handsome. It was a remarkable ece of work on the part of the director. Mrs. Purdy-Smith, to train the young cople. There were scores of them in he production, yet the extravaganza went through without a hitch or falter Considering the short space of time durng which rehearsals for the production vere held, it stands out as one of the prettiest and least amateurish of any ver given in the city.

CURES FOR ALL ILLS.

"Fakir" Doctors Give Demonstrations Much Business Transacted at the Recent

of Their "Wonderful Remedies." "The blind, the lame and the halt, all suffering from any or all the ills known to mankind, those who are sufferers the 'wonderful' skill of the Quaker doeors," Thus, with a few minutes' intro- borhood of $1,000. ictory remarks "Brother Paul" of the ciety of Friends (?) commenced his arangue Wednesday evening to an auin their possession the secret of perpetors" no one need die. Take their remeies and you will live forever.

Accompanying the doctors is a chear vaudeville troupe, which makes almost as great a failure at entertainment as the "fakirs" do at alleviating suffering. Eliminating the so-called entertainers the performance was rich. "Brother Paul" and his assistants were a whole circus in themselves, and whenever they ccupied the platform the audience gave the strictest attention. Besides excounding the great science of medicine. the doctors delivered addresses on the evils of the church and the newspaper "Brother Paul" declared that the press s the greatest enemy of the human race and a drawback to civilization—the enemy of all things good and noble, consequently the enemy of God's greatest nstitution, the "Quaker doctors."

Continuing with his harangue, he stated that the doctors were not driven out of Houghton, that they departed of their own sweet will, after completing their philanthropic work in that section He also denied that Mayor Johnston of Ishpeming refused the doctors a license saying that the "Quakers" would show er their benefits on the Hematite City when they completed their labors in Ne

When "Brother Paul" completed his address he proceeded with the sale of his "wonderful medicine." So convineing was his lecture, that he sold over two hundred bottles at the fabulous price of $1 a throw. One man who witnessed the performance said that he would never again do an honest day's work, for the American people would rather support a fake than atronize honest industry. Another who was thunderstruck at the tremend ous sales made by the "Quakers," renarked that he always knew that there vere a great many suckers in the vorld, but that he is now convinced hat nine out of every ten can be duped by a slick tongued street orator.

The doctors gave their free show again last evening. The crowd was ally as large as the night before and he proceeds from the sales as great. It is estimated that the "doctors" get at least $1,000 of Negaunee's hard earned cash before leaving the city.
