CZOLGOSZ IS GUILTY

JURY RENDERS VERDICT OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE.

OUT JUST FORTY-FOUR MINUTES.

JUSTICE WHITE WILL PRONOUNCE SENTENCE TOMORROW.

Trial of the Assassin Consumed Eight Hours and Twenty-Six Minutes and Covered Period of Only Two Days.

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—Leon F. Czolgosz, alias Fred Nieman, was found guilty today of murder in the first degree by the jury in having on the sixth of September shot President McKinley, the wounds inflicted afterwards having resulted in the death of the president. The wheels of justice moved swiftly. The trial of the assassin consumed just eight hours and twenty-six minutes and covered a period of only two days. Practically all the time was occupied by the prosecution in presenting the case which was so clear and conclusive that even had the prisoner entered a plea of insanity it is doubtful if the jury would have returned a verdict different from the one rendered.

Destroyed Only Defense. The announcement made this afternoon by the attorneys for Czolgosz that the eminent alienists who were summoned by the Erie County Bar association and the district attorney to examine Czolgosz and determine his exact mental condition, had declared him perfectly sane destroyed the only stage of the defense.

Before the adjournment Justice White announced that he would pronounce sentence next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The prisoner was taken at once back to jail and to all appearances he was in no way affected by the result of the trial.

The crowd today was the largest since the arraignment. People were lined up on both sides of the rotunda and fringed the stairs leading from the floor. There was no demonstration except curiosity. At 2:44 District Attorney Penney abruptly announced that the case of the prosecution was ended. Judge Lewis arose slowly and said that the sudden close of the case against Czolgosz was a surprise to him and his colleagues. They had no witnesses. He asked the court to be allowed to address the jury at once. The court assented and the venerable judge delivered an address that will long be remembered by those who heard it.

Judge Lewis Arraigned Anarchy. Judge Lewis explained at length why he and Judge Titus appeared for the defense and the law forbidding of a plea of guilty in a murder trial. He arraigned anarchy and with equal emphasis decried lynch law as a remedy, insisting that it was the duty of every good man to stand firmly by the law. In closing Judge Lewis paid an eloquent tribute to the dead president, saying: "I had the profoundest respect for President McKinley. I watched him in congress and during his long public career, and he was one of the noblest men God ever made. His death was the saddest blow to me that has occurred in many years."

Judge Lewis was crying when he finished and the eyes of many of those in the courtroom were filled with tears.

District Attorney Penney summed up the argument and Judge White charged the jury. They retired at 3:51.

Court Decorum Forgotten. While the jury was out court decorum was somewhat forgotten and the audience stood up, while many walked about the room. At no time during the absence of the jury did the prisoner raise his eyes or lift his head or seem to know he was the object of the most intense interest. Every time the door opened all eyes turned in that direction, the evident thought being that the jury would take only a few minutes to agree.

It was 4:35 when the jury filed into the room. After the clerk had read their names Foreman Wendt was asked the verdict. He answered: "We find that the defendant is guilty of murder in the first degree."

A moment's silence and a murmur arose from the crowd. There was no handclapping; no cheers. Justice White's voice could be clearly heard in every part of the room when he thanked the jury and allowed them to go until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The court then adjourned and the prisoner was handcuffed and taken through the tunnel to the jail.

SENTIMENT IN LONDON. Editorials in Morning Papers Express Satisfaction at Speedy Trial.

London, Sept. 25.—The conviction of Czolgosz is the subject of editorials in the morning papers, which express satisfaction at the speedy trial and hope that the sentence will be carried out without delay.

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE CONFESSES. Man's Story, However, Is Believed to Be Untrue.

St. Louis, Sept. 25.—The Post Dispatch today says: "Ed. Sattig, who was arrested this morning charged with petty larceny, is believed to be an accomplice of Czolgosz. When taken before Chief of Detectives Desmond he made a confession, in which he is said to have given all the details

YACHT MEASURED

COMPARISONS MADE BETWEEN COLUMBIA AND SHAMROCK.

WITH FIFTY-TWO MEN ON BOARD.

AMERICAN YACHT IS ALLOWED FORTY-THREE SECONDS.

When Told Results Lipton Could Scarcely Conceal His Joy, as He Thought He Would Have to Concede More Time.

New York, Sept. 24.—The official measurements of the Shamrock II and the Columbia were made public tonight. The result was in the nature of a surprise for it showed that the Shamrock, which is the larger boat as far as sail area and displacement are concerned, allows only forty-three seconds to the Columbia over the thirty-mile course on which the contest is to be sailed.

The Shamrock has a shorter water line length, a longer spinnaker boom, a longer gaff, a longer topmast and carries more canvas. The designer of the Shamrock, by keeping down the low water line length of the yacht, got the better of his rival, Herreshoff.

Shamrock Sail Area Larger. The sail area of the Shamrock is larger, and by judicious handling of the spars Watson is only penalized forty-three seconds. The measurements follow: Columbia—Length of load water line, 88.77 feet; from after end of main boom, to end of bowsprit where the jib stays halyard block is fastened, 182.87 feet; from fore side of mast to end of bowsprit, 68.12 feet, minus 1.51, 66.61 feet; topmast (68.12 feet, minus 1.51), 66.61 feet; upper side of main boom to top sail halyard block, 134.74 feet; square root of sail area, 114.94 square feet; sailing length as per rule, 102.355 feet.

Shamrock—Length of load water line, 89.25 feet; from after end of main boom to end of bowsprit where jib topsail halyard block is fastened, 184.03 feet; fore side of mast to end of bowsprit as above, 78.28 feet; length of spinnaker boom, 73.30 feet; main gaff, 64.94 feet; topmast (64.94 feet, minus 1.5), 63.44 feet; upper side of main boom to top sail halyard block, 134.74 feet; square root of sail area, 118.33 square feet; sailing length as per rule, 103.79 feet.

Difference in Sailing Length. The difference in the sailing length of the two boats is 1.435 feet. This, computed on the time allowance of the New York yacht club, gives the Columbia an allowance of forty-three seconds in a thirty mile race.

When the results of the measurement of the Columbia and Shamrock were told to Sir Thomas Lipton he could scarcely conceal his joy.

"We thought," he said "the Shamrock would have to concede far more time. All hands now believe our chances are getting better for lifting the cup. All of the crew of the Shamrock believe our victory is certain. Of course, I hope we shall win, but I am not so foolhardy as to ignore the magnificent capabilities of our next door neighbor."

At 1:15 the Columbia was warped in to the same drydock that harbored her rival. The comparison between the two yachts led to much argument. She was taken to Sandy Hook. The Shamrock was also measured but the work was finished too late for her to get away before morning.

Crosswell, the instructor in the school of Mines and Metallurgy who shot and killed Miss Mollie Powell because she refused to marry him, was surrounded by a posse near here at 11:15 tonight. Before he could be taken Crosswell shot himself, dying almost instantly. He was found in a barn near the scene of the murder where he had been in hiding since Monday night.

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS

(Additional) TWENTY-NINE IN JAIL.

County Bastle Well Filled With Prisoners.

Twenty-nine prisoners are now confined in the county jail and some of the number are being held for comparative long terms.

A list giving the prisoners' names and the charges against them has been furnished by Sheriff Wills as follows:

Dan Rosenthal, attempt to do great bodily harm; Larry Kolmen, larceny; Will Neima, larceny; Joe Liodau, larceny; Mike Breen; Sackris Virenen, murder; Lou F. Burns, forgery; Abraham Strolberg, disorderly; Henry Carlson, disorderly; Sam Nancarrow, disorderly; Charles Kirdesho, disorderly; Sam Anderson, disorderly; George R. Ozika, disorderly; Ed Fitzmorris, disorderly; Tebian Goulette, disorderly; Pat Regan, disorderly; Albert Takku, larceny; Mary Johnson, larceny; El Lemey, insanity; Ed Dingman, larceny; Helma Keutemane, Henry Welch, burglary; Barney McEnarz, assault and battery; Peter Rasmussen, larceny; George Pazlarce, breach of promise; John Harrington, disorderly; Guy Burson, assault and battery; Gertie Foraster, disorderly; J. E. McFadden, resisting an officer; Ed Beandery, assault and battery.

The last two named, McFadden and Beandery, were the latest arrivals at the jail up to Monday noon. In the afternoon Beandery was released on bail, appeared before Judge Brand and pleaded guilty. Beandery is a bar keeper in the Michigan house at Houghton. Sunday night it is claimed he assaulted John E. Thomas, a laborer, who boarded at the place. Monday morning a warrant was sworn out for Beandery's arrest and given to Officer Armstrong to serve. Beandery was willing to go with the officer but McFadden interfered and he, too, was placed under arrest. He refused to accompany the officer but a tussle that followed the latter won out. McFadden's trial will probably be held today.

Prisoners in the jail are well fed. It is true they do not get as good meals as they would, perhaps, were they at liberty, still good, substantial and wholesome food is provided. Plenty of meat and potatoes and bread and coffee are the principal articles on the bill of fare. The inmates pass away the time in various ways, such as playing cards, smoking and telling stories, and as a whole seem to be a contented lot even though some of them are up against it.

BROKERS' OFFICES THROGGED. Coppers are tumbling and there is gloom among many in copperdom, especially holders in Amalgamated at high prices.

TANKS ARE STILL FULL. Houghton's water supply still keeps up well and the tanks are overflowing as the result of the meter system which was established this year.

FUNERAL OF MRS. OIGRAN. The funeral of Mrs. Olgran of West Hancock, who died Monday evening of pneumonia, will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Finnish Lutheran Evangelical church and Rev. Mr. Bek will officiate.

RAISING STREET CAR TRACKS. The street car tracks at the west end of Sheldon street from the county bridge, Houghton, are being raised to correspond with the required grade preparatory to the repairing of the thoroughfare. The track is also being ballasted with fine rock.

A BIG STEAMER. The steam barge Queen City, the largest boat that ever visited Hancock and Houghton, passed through Portage Lake Monday. She is 435 feet long and her tonnage is 3,380. The Amazonian, a similar craft, also passed through.

WATER CURE FOR CHRONIC CONSTIPATION. Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also drink water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of outdoor exercise; walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES. The copper country branch office of The Mining Journal is located in Room 3, second floor of the Dea Postoffice building, Houghton. All having business with the paper are cordially invited to call. Telephone No. 376.

Marshal Conroy of Mass City was a Houghton visitor Monday.

The steamer F. R. Buell discharged a cargo of brick at the Copper Range docks yesterday.

Congressman Sheldon has returned to Houghton from Washington where he attended the funeral services of the late president.

Mrs. Matt. McConnell and son, Warren, and daughter, Miss Grace, of Houghton, left yesterday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the winter. Warren will enter the Harvard military school and Miss Grace will resume her studies at the Mulbarrow seminary.

Mrs. A. Roy, wife of Captain Roy of the tug Carpenter, who has been summing at the canal has left for Duluth to spend the winter.

Rev. Thomas McClary of Minneapolis delivered a lecture on "The Mission of the Church" at the Hancock Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening.

The steamer H. A. Root, with a cargo of square timbers for the railroad construction at Redridge, arrived at the Copper Range docks yesterday.

Frank W. Fellenz, of Milwaukee traveling freight agent of the Pere Marquette Railroad company, is in the copper country on a vacation trip.

William Zerps of Hurontown was arrested Monday for wife beating and landed in the county jail. Yesterday morning he was bound over to keep the peace.

Judge Brand of Houghton impaneled a jury yesterday afternoon and started the inquest in the case of Louis Tedozzi, who was killed by a blast at Redridge Monday morning.

The Hancock fire department has purchased some hose leak stops to fasten to the hose in case of a leak at a fire. They were bought of "Wid" Thomson, the Houghton rubber man.

One of Pryor's scows, Houghton, which was being towed recently by the tug Carpenter to the entry, went down. It had about outlived its usefulness and therefore will not be raised.

J. C. Thomson, the agent of the Anchor and Western Transit lines, Houghton, who was so badly injured in a runaway recently, is able to be at his office for a short time daily and is getting along as well as could be expected.

OREGON ARRIVES

OVERDUE STEAMSHIP PUTS IN AT PORT TOWNSEND.

ENCOUNTERED HEAVY GALE.

RUDDER WAS LOST AND CRAFT DRIFTED HELPLESSLY.

Provisions Ran Low and Passengers Were Put on Short Rations

—Were on Verge of Starvation.

Port Townsend, Wash., Sept. 24.—The overdue steamship Oregon arrived here today from Nome bringing 474 passengers and $750,000 in gold.

The Oregon sailed Sept. 6 and the third day out encountered heavy weather, losing her rudder and breaking the rudder post.

The gale lasted ten days and the craft drifted, floundered at the mercy of the elements.

Finally a jury rudder was rigged and the Oregon steamed 1,700 miles. Provisions ran low and the passengers were placed on short rations.

When they arrived here they were reduced to the verge of starvation.

BIG LAKE LINDEN FIRE.

Flames Destroy Hotel and Other Property—Loss $50,000.

Lake Linden, Mich., Sept. 24.—Fire today destroyed the old Butterfield House at Lake Linden and also an adjoining building occupied as a jewelry store by John Herman and by the tailoring establishment of Thomas Curran.

The aggregate loss is roughly estimated at $50,000.

The fire was first seen at 3 o'clock this morning and at that time there was a high wind blowing.

For several hours the firemen fought the flames and succeeded in keeping them from spreading.

The fire started in a barn in the rear of the hotel and the origin is unknown, although it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The office of Sam Eddy, the village clerk, was located over the Herman store and all of the village papers and records were burned.

The hotel destroyed, which has been unoccupied for some time, was owned by J. M. Braun, of Appleton, Wis., and was formerly known as the Jewel House. The property was insured for $8,000.

NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.

John W. Gates Signals Return from Europe by Launching One.

Chicago, Wednesday, Sept. 25.—The Chronicle this morning says:

John W. Gates has signaled his return from Europe by launching a new railroad system. The announcement has brought surprise and consternation to the big trunk lines that run from Chicago to Kansas City.

The scheme is for a continuous line from West Quincy, on the Mississippi, to Kansas City and Council Bluffs. The roads in the project are the Quincy & Kansas City, the Omaha, Kansas City & Eastern, the Kansas City & Northern, the Omaha & St. Louis. Strategically, the system is as well located to the Middle Western section as the Chicago Great Western is to the upper territory and is capable of as much rate disturbance as is the Stickney property.

The building took fire, and Mrs. Hensel was burned to death, only three weeks before her death she took out $4,000 of life insurance. Witnesses before the grand jury claimed Hensel had predicted her death before the fire took place.

Several Cases Develop Among Crew of British Steamer.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 24.—Eight new cases of yellow fever have developed among the crew of the British steamer Ethelbrytha, which arrived here Sept. 19, from Jacksonville, with three cases of the pest on board. The eleven sufferers are being treated at the yellow fever hospital and are all doing well. The remainder of the crew, twenty-six men, are held in quarantine, on the fumigating ship Rough Rider. The cargo of the Ethelbrytha, consisting of railroad ties for the Cuba company, has been fumigated twice and has been released.

General Weyler Discovers Spanish Forts Are in Bad Shape.

Gibraltar, Sept. 24.—General Weyler, minister of war, recently examined the military condition of Ceuta and Algeciras, the fortresses on the African and Spanish coasts respectively, which are of so much importance strategically with regard to the British fortress of Gibraltar. He discovered that even the most ordinary precautions had been neglected, and that the equipment was scandalously deficient. The minister dismissed the two governors from office, and ordered their immediate retirement.

ANTIDOTE FOR POISONS.

Starting Result of Experiments Now in Progress in Berlin.

Berlin, Sept. 24.—The discovery that pure oxygen is an antidote for many poisons is the starting result of experiments now in progress in the Berlin Institute of Physical Diagnosis, under the direction of Dr. Rogovin, a Russian medical scientist, in conjunction with Dr. William Cowl of New York. Numerous experiments in cases of morphine, strychnine and arsenic poisoning were made with cats, rats, mice and guinea pigs. In each case where oxygen was given an unqualified cure was effected.

The experiments were conducted in the utmost privacy, with the intention of making their result known for the first time at the German medical congress in 1902.

The health authorities of Berlin are keenly interested in the experiments on account of the possibility of saving the lives of suicides by this means. It is pointed out that 90 per cent of suicides by poison are the result of morphine dyspepsia, against which medical antidotes are powerless.

OUTLINES POLICY

SEÑOR PALMA WINS POPULAR APPROVAL.

URGES STRICT ECONOMY IN CUBA.

CLOSE RELATIONS WITH UNITED STATES A GREAT NEED.

Been Decided to Issue Manifesto Recommending Señor Palma as a Candidate for the Presidency.

Havana, Sept. 24.—A letter has been received from Estrada Palma in reply to the minutes of the meeting of the notables held here on Aug. 2, in which the notables on the question of whether candidates for the presidency should declare in favor of a revision of the Platt amendment.

The letter was read and was adopted by a vote of twenty-three to two after due consideration, and it was decided to issue a manifesto recommending Señor Palma as a candidate. This means that he will have the support of the principal revolutionists.

Divided Into Four Heads.

In his letter Señor Palma divides his program into four heads: First, a commercial treaty with the United States, which, he says, should be made as soon as possible, so as to favor Cuban products, especially sugar, but he adds that Cuba for some years will need the income from customs, and care must therefore be exercised in making a treaty with the United States.

The second part of his program is devoted to finances. The government of the island, he says, must carefully examine into all the available assets and reliable sources of income and adjust its expenditure accordingly.

Third, Señor Palma advocates revision of the army lists. Then a reduction should be made by the congress of the rate of pay of officers and soldiers which was allowed by the revolutionary government, after which the debt should gradually be wiped out, payments being made to the interests of Cuba and to her sovereignty and independence.

The Cuban government should try to obtain in the treaty a clear definition of the circumstances under which the United States would intervene in order that the Cubans may know exactly where they stand.

Señor Palma makes no direct reference to the Platt amendment, but says there are certain ill-judged indiscretions which would have been better left uncommitted. This is taken to refer to the question of repeal of the Platt amendment.

RECOMMENDS A TREATY.

In the fourth part of his program Señor Palma recommends a treaty of relations with the United States. In making this the Cuban government should take care that the Platt amendment is interpreted in the sense most favorable to the interests of Cuba and to her sovereignty and independence.

The Cuban government should try to obtain in the treaty a clear definition of the circumstances under which the United States would intervene in order that the Cubans may know exactly where they stand.

Señor Palma makes no direct reference to the Platt amendment, but says there are certain ill-judged indiscretions which would have been better left uncommitted. This is taken to refer to the question of repeal of the Platt amendment.

STOCK MARKET A PUZZLE.

Fears Again Entertained of a Clash Between Financial Powers.

New York, Sept. 24.—There was little actual news to account for the day's movement in prices, as they were governed almost exclusively by technical causes growing out of the collapse of Amalgamated Copper. That stock sold at 90 during the first few minutes of trading, which proved to be the low point of the day. It was after the stock steadied that the severest pressure developed against the general list.

The feature of the day was the selling of stocks controlled by leading capitalists, by brokers usually employed by other leading capitalists, which served to emphasize the dread felt yesterday of a renewed outbreak of hostility between the financial powers.

The selling of Amalgamated Copper was of this character and seemed to be designated to force inside support of this stock. In the late buying movement practically all the large sellers of the last few days were represented.

Closing prices of stocks are reported by Paine, Webber & Co. as follows:

READY FOR PUPILS
NORMAL SCHOOL OPENS FOR FALL TERM NEXT TUESDAY.
SUCCESSFUL YEAR PROMISED.
ATTENDANCE IS EXPECTED TO SHOW A BIG INCREASE.

Offer of Life Certificates on Graduation from Two-Years Course Proving Attractive—Faculty, Living Expenses, Other Details.

The Northern Normal school will open for the fall term next Tuesday, Oct. 1, and judging from all indications the enrollment will show a large increase over that of last year.

The school has been materially strengthened by the liberal appropriations made at the last session of the legislature, when a total of $195,000 was given for the equipment and support of the institution. In addition to the rural school course and the graded school course, a life certificate course is offered, under the supervision of the state board of education, to grant the life certificate and diploma.

Fourteen on the Faculty.
The faculty, which at first consisted of six instructors, has increased to fourteen in number, as follows: D. B. Waldo, A. M., principal, history and civics. L. F. Anderson, A. B., psychology and pedagogy. Wm. McCracken, A. B., physics and chemistry. Flora E. Hill, B. L., English language and literature. Martha B. Ackerman, drawing. Sophia Linton, music. John B. Faught, Ph. D., mathematics. Richard C. Ford, Ph. D., French and German. E. R. Downing, Ph. D., biology. P. L. Haworth, A. M., assistant, history and civics.

Training school department—Flora L. Mowbray, Chicago Kindergarten college, kindergarten. Henrietta Barnes, first and second grades; graduate of St. Cloud Normal, and Teachers' college, New York. Esther Woodruff, third and fourth grades; graduate of Saginaw Training school and University of Michigan. Lucella Melinich, fifth and sixth grades; graduate Potsdam Normal school.

It is the firm purpose of the administration to maintain the strongest possible corps of teachers, as the example of efficient teaching is one of the best things that can be offered the student of a normal. The fundamental purpose of the school is the training of students who expect to teach in the public school system, and the further training of those who prefer their professional duties. As far as practical, the personal needs of each student are taken into consideration.

Life Certificates Granted.
The faculty is particularly pleased to be able to offer a life certificate on graduation from a two years' course. This course is open to all graduates of approved schools, and includes the following: The normal group, 144 (school) weeks; elementary drawing, 24 weeks; two elected teachers' courses, 24 weeks; elective from departments, 96 weeks. The electives consist of: Kindergarten theory; kindergarten music; primary methods; nature study; elementary drawing; blackboard sketching; teachers' history; American literature; mythology. A four years' course, with life certificate, is also provided for non-accredited students, while a five years' certificate may be secured by completing three years, or 432 weeks, of the general four years' course.

WHAT DOES THIS LACK?
Surely Marquette Readers Cannot Ask for Better Proof.

The Marquette reader may ask for more convincing proof than testimony published from representative residents of neighboring cities but as the proof we offer has been decidedly convincing in Escanaba it should carry considerable weight in Marquette.

Mr. Theo. Farrell, of 411 Wells avenue, Escanaba, engineer on the Northwestern, says: "The majority of men who follow my calling suffer from backache. In some cases like myself they are a long time on the road before the symptoms develop; in others the jarring and swing of the cab brings on attacks much sooner. I watched the action of my kidneys carefully and had a specially constructed seat on the engine to counteract its effects. As soon as I found that my kidneys were not just right I took some kidney pills to correct them. I found Doan's Kidney Pills answer my purpose admirably. Reading about them I decided to leave off the remedy I always depended upon, and procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at a drug store, with the intention of giving them a chance to prove that there was something of merit in their composition. The results obtained were all that could be desired. Since I stopped the treatment I have had no indication of a return."

Just such emphatic endorsement can be had here in Marquette. Drop into the Stafford Drug Co. and ask what their customers have to say.

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

proved high school or college, who have passed the entrance examination or have completed the preparatory work, may enter the four years' course. Teachers who hold a first grade license will also be admitted to this course without examination. Graduates of approved high schools may enter the two years' course within three years after the date of graduation, without examination. Credits for work accomplished in other institutions of higher learning will also apply.

Living Expenses Very Reasonable.
The dormitory of the Northern Normal was carefully designed as an ideal home for students of the school. The rooms are large, well lighted—every room has a double window—and heated. The building is provided throughout with electric lights and steam heat. The rooms are splendidly and most completely furnished, the equipment of each room costing over $60. Toilet and bath rooms are provided on every floor. There is a well-furnished students' parlor, while the dining room is large and cheerful and excellent table board is provided. Though many of the rooms are conveniently located adjacent to the school buildings, students preferring homes with private families have no difficulty in securing reasonable rates.

At the dormitory, board and room, with heat and lights, costs $3.75 per week, the estimated total expense per year being: Board, $30; room, $9; laundry and incidentals, $4; registration fee, $3; total, $58.

School Buildings Well Equipped.
For the benefit of prospective students from outside points, it may be stated that the Normal buildings are three in number, including the dormitory. The south wing consisting of two stories and a basement. It is constructed of Marquette sandstone, is equipped throughout with electric lights, is heated by steam and ventilated by the thermostat system. The rooms are all well lighted. In this building are located the class rooms of the training school, the library, the assembly hall, the class rooms of several of the departments and the office of the principal.

The north wing, now in process of erection, will contain the laboratories of various departments. The building has been carefully planned as a science hall, and will afford ideal laboratory operations for the study of the various branches requiring them. In addition to the laboratories, several recitation rooms will be provided.

The dormitory, as above described, contains the greatest buildings. It was erected at a cost of $25,000 by Messrs. Longyear and Ayer.

Library Growing Rapidly.
The library, which now contains four thousand volumes, is growing rapidly; it will be increased to six thousand volumes during the present year. Seventy-five standard periodicals are regularly taken, while the library is already equipped with complete sets of twelve standard periodicals.

The library is conveniently located on the first floor of the south wing, the room is large and, like all other rooms in the building, well lighted and ventilated. Particular care has been taken to make the equipment thoroughly modern and convenient. Careful attention has been given to the selection of books, which are quite evenly distributed among the following departments: English, American, French and German literature, biography, essays, travel, history, physics, chemistry, geography, botany, zoology, philosophy, psychology, pedagogy, and juvenile literature. A good beginning has also been made in the direction of dictionaries, encyclopedias, atlases and miscellaneous books of reference.

Splendid Art Equipment.
The school has been particularly fortunate in the thorough equipment of the art department. A patron of the school is contributing $1,000 annually, and by means of this fund the Normal has already come into possession of more than one hundred framed portraits and reproductions of pictorial classics. A number of pieces of fine statuary have recently been secured, and the school owns a valuable collection of art portfolios. The drawing room is well equipped with casts, models and still life.

Graduates in Demand.
Graduates of the school are given all possible assistance in securing positions. The graduates of 1901 have been very successful in obtaining desirable places, with remunerative wages, and have been engaged in various upper peninsula schools as follows: Marquette, 6; Escanaba, 2; Republic, 3; Menominee, 2; Escanaba, 2; and Iron Mountain, Iron River, Ishpeming, Michigan, Hancock and Grand Marais, 1 each.

MUST GO TO SCHOOL.
State Law Provides for Attendance of all Children Aged 7 and 17.

It is generally known, perhaps, that there is a compulsory school law on the statute books. But to quote a member of the board of education, it "would not be amiss to call the attention of parents to the principal features of the act." ### OBJECT TO "PEDDLERS."

Ishpeming Business Men Will Seek Protection from Itinerant Competition.

The merchants of Ishpeming have decided to declare war on "peddlers," and will petition the council to enact some ordinance that will protect them against that class of vendors. It is not the peddler who makes a house to house canvass that is troubling the business men, but the astrocratic hawk, who is agent for some metropolitan retail house. These solicit the patronage of the well-to-do people and secure the cream of the trade. It is this class that is now troubling the merchants and if an ordinance that can be enforced against them can be framed and passed the business men here will be greatly pleased to have it put in operation.

The merchants are not going to wage war on the agents of wholesale houses who come here and display their goods at the local stores. They have no grievance against that class of representatives of outside houses. It is the man who displays his samples at the hotels and covertly seeks the trade of the best class of customers they are after.

The Marquette council passed an ordinance last winter by which every merchant was obliged to pay a license fee of $25 a year, which is refunded when the regular taxes are paid. Before the "peddlers" can sell their goods they are also obliged to secure a license. If such an ordinance were passed by the Ishpeming council the merchants think it would go a long way toward keeping peddlers out of here. The business men are in favor of making the tax so heavy that it will make the place unprofitable one for hawkers to do business in. In case such a measure should be adopted some Chicago and Milwaukee houses will be heavy sufferers, especially the dry goods and shoe concerns. It is estimated that several thousand dollars worth of goods are bought annually by Ishpeming people from outside concerns. The T. A. Chapman company, R. P. Hannifin & Co. and the Hanan-DeMuth Shoe company of Milwaukee, and a score of Chicago houses, would be obliged to quit doing business here if such an ordinance were in force.

In speaking of the proposed plan of eliminating the peddlers a prominent merchant remarked that it is not the laboring class that supports the outside concerns but the well-to-do people. It is the people who are making the most money in Ishpeming, who go to Milwaukee and Chicago to buy their goods, he says, "if they secured better goods than they can buy here in Ishpeming for the same money there would be an object of going outside," he went on to say, "but they don't. We have the same articles here in stock for the same money, but they are rarely called dealers. Many of the wealthy people of Ishpeming buy from agents representing Chicago and Milwaukee houses. We pay taxes and get the trade of the laboring class. The 'peddlers' come into the city, stay for a few days, sell several hundred dollars worth of goods and then leave without paying one cent towards the support of the city. It is not right, nor is it justice, to the local business men to be obliged to contend with competition of this kind. I am in favor of adopting an ordinance similar to the one now in force in Marquette."

MINSTRELS SATURDAY NIGHT.

One of the big novelties in minstrelsy this season, and a leading feature with Mahara's minstrels, is the appearance in the first part of eight handsomely costumed lady vocalists. This double quartet of ladies are graduates of the famous Dunavin Musical college, where all the high-grade colored musicians are educated. It is an acknowledged fact that the singing features of this organization compare favorably with the finest operatic companies in existence and surpass in excellence of harmony all so-called minstrel vocalists. It has always been the endeavor of Mahara Brothers to excel in singing features, and these ladies, aided by twenty male voices in grand chorus, certainly prove that the management has struck the keynote to success, and also invigorates the life of minstrelsy. The company will hold the boards at the local theater Saturday evening of this week. The prices will be twenty-five, thirty-five and fifty cents.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.

John Hamby, aged twenty-one years, died at the Ishpeming hospital yesterday afternoon from typhoid fever after an illness of ten days. The deceased was a cousin to Thomas Jenkins, who succumbed to the same disease less than a week ago. Both men were taken ill on the same day.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Richard T. Jenkins, Angeline street. The Rev. Casler of the Salisbury Methodist church will officiate.

Hamby came to this country from Cornwall, England, a little over a year ago, and has since been employed in the mine in the vicinity. He is survived by his parents and several brothers, all of whom reside in the old country.

STILL AT WORK.

It is now over two weeks since work was begun to recover the body of Edward Rebarly, who was buried in a surface cave-in at the Lake Superior mine three weeks ago. When the work was commenced it was thought that the remains would be reached in two or three days, but up to the present time no trace of the body has been discovered.

The mine officials have now come to the conclusion that the man was buried much deeper than was at first supposed. Before the search is abandoned every inch of ground that went down in the cave-in will be examined. Captain John McEnroe, who is in charge of the work, feels certain that the body will be recovered within the next few days.

IS PRO'ING A SUCCESS. Michigan's Registration Law Has Now Been In Force For Four Years.

In the last issue of the Michigan Monthly Bulletin of Vital Statistics the following interesting article is published:

"The registration law has now been in force for four complete years. The present issue of the Bulletin contains the first authoritative recognition of Michigan as a registration state by the census authorities."

"Michigan was the only registration state west of New York at the date of the last census. The standard set by the census authorities (90 per cent of accuracy) was only slightly exceeded by the Michigan returns (92.9 per cent). The ratio of complete returns would be somewhat higher for the state if non-registration townships were excluded, as they existed before their abrogation by the last legislature."

"The record is gratifying and has never been surpassed by any other state in as short a time as this. The difficulties attendant upon such work in a sparsely settled state as Michigan. Great credit is due to the local registrars for the promptness and accuracy of their reports; to the undertakers and funeral directors, who have intelligently appreciated the advantages of accurate registration and have frequently gone to considerable personal trouble to comply with the law; to the health officers and physicians who have aided with professional knowledge; and to the prosecuting attorneys of the various counties, who have promptly aided this department when called upon for assistance in the enforcement of the law."

"The Bulletin, which has now appeared regularly for forty-eight consecutive months, has been a very important element of success."

"How great an improvement the present law is upon the old system may be shown from a single comparison. The United States census enumerators succeeded in collecting only 23,613 deaths in Michigan for the census year, 1899-1900. The registrars returned 32,381, or 8,768 more, for the same time. And the census enumeration of deaths, grossly incomplete as it is thus proved to be, has always heretofore exceeded the supervisors' enumeration under the old Michigan law."

"The results are gratifying but they are not perfect. Nearly all registrars report promptly, but some do not. Nearly all undertakers comply with the law, but some obstinately refuse to do so, or evade it at every possible opportunity. According to the United States census, over 2,000 deaths were not properly registered in the state in a single year. In common justice to the accurate, prompt, law-abiding registrars who have done so much for the success of the operation of the law is due, it is demanded that the tardy, negligent registrars and careless or wilfully disobedient undertakers be compelled to obey the law. This the state department, with the aid of the local prosecuting attorneys as it is thus proved to be, has always heretofore exceeded the supervisors' enumeration under the old Michigan law."

Nearly all undertakers comply with the law, but some obstinately refuse to do so, or evade it at every possible opportunity. Additional Ishpeming RUSHING THE WORK.

Contractor Van Iderstine, who is building twenty new houses for the Cleveland-Cliffs company on the north shore of Lake Hancock, is hustling the work along in fine shape. Six of the houses will soon be ready for occupancy. That is, if the weather does not interfere with the work of the painters and plasterers. The exterior carpenter work on the half dozen is finished and the frames of some of the others are going up.

Including John T. Burke's crew, employed excavating for the foundations, there are over thirty men working out there. It is the contractor's wish to have all the outside work finished before the winter weather sets in.

MORTLEY WILL BUILD. H. H. Milden has sold to J. H. Mortley twenty-four feet of the west end of Lots 4, 5 and 6, opposite the Nelson House. Mr. Mortley intends to build a two-story brick block on the land this fall, if possible. The location is one of the best in the city.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA. "Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says E. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, all before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by The Stafford Drug Co.

ASTHMA INSTANTLY RELIEVED. Dr. R. Schiffmann Astounds the Public with the Success of His Treatment.

Residents of this place were astonished by notifications in these columns that the celebrated physician, Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann, would make public test of his remedy in this city on Sept. 19th. He invited every man, woman and child suffering with Asthma to call at The People's Drug Store and obtain, absolutely free, a trial box of his medicine. Dr. Schiffmann adopted this novel way of introducing his treatment, believing that a free personal test would be the best and only way to overcome the prejudices and skepticism of thousands of asthmatics who had given up in despair after going through the whole range of so-called cures. He has in this manner proved the efficacy of his remedy, and without asking the public to spend a penny. Dr. Schiffmann hopes that every sufferer in this town obtained one of his free samples. He fears, however, that there were some few who did not, before they were all given out. In order to give a fair opportunity to those who have not yet used the remedy, and also as a guarantee of good faith, he has now requested this paper to announce that he has arranged with the above Druggists to refund the money to any person who purchases of them either a 50c or $1.00 package of Schiffmann's Asthma Cure between now and Oct. 24th, and hopes that it does not go to get as is claimed for it; the only condition being that they return not less than three-fourths of the package to them. Dr. Schiffmann claims that in every case of true asthma his remedy will give immediate relief—usually within fifteen seconds; always within an hour; and, in many cases, positively permanently cured thousands of cases which were considered incurable.

NEAR TO SHIPWRECK

STEAMER SMITH HAS CLOSE CALL IN MAKING PORT.

RUDDER COLLAPSES IN GALE.

MISHAP OCCURS WHILE CRAFT IS ROUNDING BREAKWATER.

Tug Schenck, Fortunately in the Harbor, Goes to Rescue and Brings the Helpless Vessel and Her Two Tows to Safety.

The steamer Edward Smith of Buffalo came within an ace of meeting with serious disaster, or possibly shipwreck, early yesterday afternoon while making the harbor with two consorts in tow.

On rounding the breakwater the rudder of the Smith suddenly gave way under the heavy strain, leaving the steamer helpless at the mercy of the wind and waves. As soon as it was noted that the craft would not answer to the helm, a tug was whistled for, and the Schenck, which fortunately happened to be in the harbor, put out to the rescue.

Temporary Repairs Here.

It was probably a lucky thing for the Smith that the gale had kept the Schenck in port. The tug was to have made a trip to the Huron Mountain club yesterday, but the journey was postponed because of the rough weather.

The seas were rolling too high for the fishing fleet, and yesterday none of the craft put out for the fishing grounds up and down the lake. The John Eddy, towing the Pennington, both lumber laden, put in port for shelter, and during the day there were no arrivals or clearances at either the South Shore or L. S. & I. docks, the boats due here having presumably laid up at points down the lake until the gale quieted down.

BOSTON MARKET RALLIES.

Part of the Decline is Wiped Out and Things Look Better.

The Boston market ruled much stronger yesterday, and as a result the atmosphere in the brokers' offices brightened considerably and the faces of speculators took on a less extended appearance. It must be confessed that on Monday, when things did look blue to the average speculator, a pessimistic feeling predominated, but it was notable that the decline did not lead to any panicky sacrificing of stocks and confidence was expressed by the "wise ones" that the slump was purely due to manipulation, in which short selling played prominent part, intrinsically being the mines worth just as much as when their stocks were selling at much higher prices a week ago.

The result of the day's trading seemed to bear out the theory that manipulation by the professional bear crowd had been responsible for the decline, it apparently being a case of finding the market rather bare of stocks when the covering short contracts were attempted. During the day word came from the copper country to "get in for a good, long pull," and some local speculators acted on the tip, although a few of them found stocks scarce and were unable to get them though setting a price a little higher than the quotations posted at the time of their orders went in.

After the market closed, and the letters of favorable tenor from the brokers' headquarters in Boston had been noted, it was the general feeling that coppers were again on the way to still higher prices than attained last week, although in some quarters, it was with conservatism that this sentiment was expressed. The market today, and for several days to come, will attract unusual attention locally.

Opinions of the Brokers.

Paine, Webber & Co. reviewed the market as follows: "The market opened lower this morning, under the lead of Amalgamated, but soon steadied under good buying. The copper situation is much improved today and there has been a good demand for the better Lake stocks. Baltic and Copper Range were strong and advanced easily. Osecola and Mohawk showed good strength, and we think the lowest prices were touched this morning. Amalgamated may see a little lower level, but we would not advise short selling of it or any of the other coppers."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission company: "This rally was looked for. It has come and will go a little further. We are not bulls, however, and on much further advance would start selling again. We believe the dividend rate on both Anaconda and Parrott will be reduced. This action will, so to speak, substantiate the action in reducing the Amalgamated dividend. We believe that Parrott and Anaconda are intrinsically about the cheapest of coppers."

Market Gossip.

Other copper gossip sent over the wire by Hayden, Stone & Co. was the following: "Osecola and Copper Range should jump up sharply if the market turns."

SALT LAKE PEOPLE BOUGHT UTAH, AND BUTTE PEOPLE WERE HEAVY BUYERS OF ANACONDA.

It is believed that on a 12-cent copper market these stocks can make a fair amount of money. The Anaconda board meeting adjourned on account of no quorum without action on dividend."

Another New York report said: "Rumors are current that Amalgamated Copper is to be taken off the list."

John R. Stanton's Views.

In a dispatch from New York to Paine, Webber & Co. John Stanton, one of the highest authorities in the copper trade, is quoted as follows: "The present situation in the copper trade is no different than has occurred many times before. If the present speculation in copper stocks were not so prominent, I doubt if any attention would have been paid to current conditions. It is quite impossible to carry on business in the copper trade with less than a three months production on hand, and it is not unusual to have a five or six months stock on hand. There is certainly nothing to indicate any greater supplies than this. As to the consumption, it is certainly healthier and it is safe to assume from actual information that the consumer is buying from hand to mouth. In fact, all requests are for small lots."

Chicago Grains.

A. R. Jones & Co. said of the Chicago grain markets: "Wheat was stagnant again today. The market opened where it left off last night, and the total range was less than half a cent. There were no features; it was the usual local trade, and even that was unusually slow. Wheat has a firm look but does not advance much when corn does and it slides back easily. At present it is only a scalping deal—good for small profits and a chance to work on both sides."

Corn started unchanged, and when Liverpool came, higher things looked bright for another bull day, but professionals sold and broke the market. The sales looked like an attempt to get some cheap corn. Prime declares immense damage to late corn by the frosts. Corn looks still better than yesterday, though the prices finish lower. There is still time for something interesting in the September deal."

HIS BODY FOUND

LANDLOOKER MAKES GREVSOME DISCOVERY UP THE LAKE.

REMAINS OF HARRY PRIOR.

MISSING KEEPER OF THE LIGHT AT BIG BAY.

Mystery of Fate of Man Who Disappeared Last June Is Cleared by the Find—Supposed to Have Been Case of Suicide.

The remains of Harry Prior, the keeper of the lighthouse at Big Bay, who disappeared late last June, were found by a landlooker Monday in the woods near the point where the missing man was last seen alive. The find was a grewsome one, and identity was only determined by the clothes which still clung to the skeleton.

Prior is supposed to have died by his own hand. He was in Marquette on a sad mission one Saturday, attending the obsequies of his son, who had been acting as assistant keeper of the light. The next day he left on his return to his station in company with a party on their way to the Huron Mountain club. After reaching the light he displayed signs of an unbalanced mind, and on Monday disappeared. He had taken a gun and some strychnine with him, and fears of suicide were entertained. A long search, however, failed to bring to light the body, and from that time until yesterday, when the news of the finding of the remains was received, the fate of the missing man was enveloped in mystery. The Old Fellows, of which order Mr. Prior belonged, offered a reward of $50 for the recovery of the man, dead or alive, but after several weeks with no developments the reward was withdrawn.

The details of the discovery of the body could not be ascertained last evening, but it was said the landlooker was rather puzzled as to his own whereabouts when he stumbled onto the remains of the long missing light keeper. The news of the find was brought to the city by a man living in the Big Bay district.

SEVENTH SEMI-ANNUAL OPENING!

Week Beginning Wednesday, October 2nd.

Owing to unavoidable delays in the New York market since the death of our beloved president it will be impossible to have our opening this week as intended, but we will be well prepared for the event next Wednesday.

Three weeks of diligent search in the mills and factories, and a careful investigation of the fashionable retail centers combined with a determination on our part to make the Opera Block Dry Goods House the most popular trading store in Northern Michigan this season will result in showing next week the best values in Suits, Cloaks, Dry Goods and Carpets we have ever been able to offer.

It is not enough that we should have the best values obtainable for correctness of style is all important. It will not be necessary to select your Dress Goods, Silks, Trimmings, etc., from Milwaukee or Chicago agents from samples. You have an up-to-date dry goods house at home (patronize it). We buy our goods from the same mills, factories and agents as do the Chicago and Milwaukee houses. We sell them to you for less money; you pay no express charges and see the goods in the piece, besides you are helping to build up a house in your own city that you can be proud of. We are not forgetful of the loyal support of so many of Marquette city and county patrons.

Our new Dress-Making Parlors will be formally opened on Oct. 2nd. Miss Haster may be found in our suit department this week. Read our announcements this week.
