his life, and perhaps in that to come. The failure of every community esablished on the Socialistic plan eviences the soundness of the objections raised to Socialism by the venerable rehbishop. It is a pretty theory enough on paper, but it doesn't work in pracice for the reason that men are too selfsh and unreliable in the main to make it possible for such a system to give good results. If all men were just and well to have a navy that will tend to good they might get along all right uncase any kind of a system of government would give good results, for no man would seek to use the government, onstantly adding to the power of his or any position or influence he might navy. THRILLING SPEECH.

ALL ARE PROFOUNDLY

EVIDENCES OF EMOTION ARE DISPLAYED.

Two Big Tears' Roll Down His Cheeks-Crowd Presses Forward to Congratulate Him.

Washington, Nov. 6.-The climax of the Schley court of inquiry came this afternoon when Attorney Rayner, chief counsel for Admiral Schley concluded his brilliant argument of over three hours with a peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within sound of his voice were profoundly touched. This remarkable trial, he said, sought to condemn the man who had brought to a successful termination of as great a naval triumph as was ever won. In vivid colors he painted the picture of the struck a responsive chord at the fireside Brooklyn, with Commodore Schley on of every American home. And what is the bridge, fighting the entire Spanish more than all which has been revealed the smoke. The thunder of the Brook- age and as unsulfied as is his honor, the smoke. The thunder of the Bross age and as distinct a specific smoke. The beaten age and as distinct a specific spec al Schley's envious foes.

Suffered for Three Years.

He pictured the victorious sailor suffering as few have suffered for three long years, while the fires of persecution leaped around him, and now awaiting the hour of his vindication in the verdict of the court.

"And when it comes," he concluded, "he can, from the high exalted position he occupies, look down upon his traducers and malingers, and with pride exclaim: I care not for the venomous gossip of clubs, drawing rooms and cliques, and the poisoned shafts of envy and of divine province the verdict of posteri-

The scene in the court room, as he finished with these words, was thrilling. The attendance had been large all day and at the morning session a lady had fainted from excitement. As Mr. Rayner began his eulogy of Admiral Schley in the audience, many of whom were ladies, leaned forward in their seats. The spell of his oratory was over them, and when he described the admiral's gallant deeds and the long perse cution to which he had been subjected many broke down and wept. The members of the court displayed evidences of emotion and Admiral Schley himself was plainly moved. He sat, leaning back, with his hands behind his head. His chin twitched, and as his counsel said he could afford to await the verdict of posterity two big tears rolled down his cheeks. He moved uneasily to conceal his emotion, and under the pretense of adjusting his glasses brushed the tears aside. For a full thirty seconds after Mr. Rayner closed there was not a sound. Then the tension was broken in a loud burst of applause. Congratulated on All Sides.

Admiral Dewey, after half a minute arose to remind the spectators that such a demonstration was out of place. A moment afterward the court adjourned Judge Advocate Lemly pleading that he could not well go on today. Then an other remarkable thing happened. As soon as the gavel fell the entire audience surged forward to shake hands with Ad miral Schley and Mr. Rayner. But the on-coming spectators fell back a moment as they saw Admiral Dewey and his two associates move around the table, as if by common impulse, and congratulate Admiral Schley and his counsel. Ever Cantain Lemly, the judge advocate, came forward to join in the congratulation Then the public had its inning and for fifteen minutes after the court ad journed Admiral Schley and Mr. Rayne were kept busy shaking hands.

Mr. Rayner's argument today con sumed the whole time of the court ex cept, a half hour at the opening which Captain Parker, his associate counsel occupied in concluding. Mr. Rayner took up the specifications one by one, reserv ing those relating to the retrograde of the department's witnesses to prove hi contentions. With regard to the retro grade movement, which he discusse with greater seriousness than the other specifications, he adduced in justification not only all of Admiral Schley's reason for believing the Spanish fleet was no in Santiago, but argued that every offi- founder of the St. Louis Zeitung, foundcer charged with the responsibility of command necessarily must be clothed with discretion in carrying out their instructions. He displayed good tempe in adverting to the testimony of mos of the officers, especially the ranking officers, who seemed to contradict his client, giving them in each case credit for honesty of purpose. But, with a few, ury department, Washington; and fire he dealt unsparingly. Hood, Potts and Bristol he held up to ridicule. Mr. Rayner concluded by saying: "It

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - Health is the greatest boon bestowed on humanity and therefore anything that can restore lost health is a blessing. consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a blessing to State and Nation. It cures her mothers and daughters and makes them well and strong.

Practicing Physician and Lecturer. "For fifteen years I have noted the effect of your Vegetable Compound in curing special diseases of women. "I know of nothing superior for ovarian trouble, barrenness, and it has prevented hundreds of dangerous operations where physicians claimed it was the only chance to get well. Ulceration and inflammation of the womb has been cured in two or three weeks through its use, and as I find it purely an herbal remedy, I unhesitatingly give it my highest endorsement. -Fraternally yours, Dr. P.
