PRISONERS MUTINY

FEDERAL CONVICTS MAKE BOLD DASH FOR LIBERTY.

ONE OF THE GUARDS IS KILLED

Chicago, Nov. 7.—With the discovery of a blood-spattered basement room at 192 North Union street and the arrest of its late occupant today, Felipe Rini, an Italian fruit peddler, the mystery surrounding the death of Antonio Natali, whose body was found hidden in a barrel on the prairie, is believed to have been cleared up.

That Natali was lured into the basement and murdered for his money by several men seems practically certain. In a pocket of Rini's clothing was found $300, mostly in bills, supposed to be a part of the proceeds of the robbery, some bills being covered with what appears to be blood stains. Two bloody hatchets were found in the house and a trail of red stains leads to the street where Natali's body is supposed to have been loaded into a wagon and hauled away.

A neekie, identified as belonging to Natali, was found in the basement, in the yard several feet from the building to that in which the murdered Italian's body was found. The wagon, in which the body is believed to have been hauled away, was discovered in Rini's yard. Stains in the bottom of the wagon are believed to be blood spots.

For other men are under arrest. They are Michael Leoni, Dominica Duch, Dominica Vermoni and Giovanni Scarfati. One other alleged participant in the crime is being hunted.

CHICAGO WOMAN CREMATED.

Husband Was Boiling Tar on Stove and Contents of Pot Ran Over.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Julius Yankeek was burned to death and her husband was seriously injured in a fire which badly damaged their home at 151 Larabee street here today.

Yankeek was boiling tar on the end and down upon the floor, igniting the woodwork and setting fire to Yankeek's clothing. In her efforts to aid her husband Mrs. Yankeek was enveloped in flames, and when found by the neighbors she was beyond aid. Yankeek was taken to a hospital.

Two Burned to Death.

South Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 7.—By an explosion of a coal oil lamp tonight Rose Pimbell, aged eight, and Louis, aged five, were burned to death. The mother, Mrs. Guy Pimbell, and another daughter, Catherine, were so terribly burned that both will die.

GERMANY IS INDIGNANT.

Berlin Newspapers Say France Shows Partiality to Powers.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—While Germany regards the action of France with comparative indifference, the fact is commented upon that the Paris government did not inform the triple alliance beforehand of the intended action toward Turkey.

"Assuming the correctness of the statement that the United States and Great Britain were so informed," the Vossische Zeitung says, "France appears to be dealing unequally with the powers."

Government circles in Berlin say that Germany has not yet been addressed by France on the subject.

RUMORS ARE UNTRUE.

Senor Yanez Makes Important Statement in Chilean Chamber of Deputies.

Santiago de Chile, Nov. 7.—In the Chilean chamber of deputies today Senor Yanez, minister of foreign affairs, made an important statement. He declared the alarmist rumors regarding the relations between Chile and Argentina were absolutely without foundation and that the relations between the two countries were marked by a spirit of justice, equity and cordiality. He was convalescing from a recent period of questions now in controversy with neighboring nations would be satisfactorily settled.

ABANDON HAY RAISING.

Farmers in West Driven to Action by Railroads.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—J. R. Guild of Medaryville, Ind., was the main witness today in the investigation by the interstate commerce commission. He asserted that the railroads had completely driven western hay out of the eastern markets and compelled it to seek markets in the South. As a result of the new classification, he asserted, thousands of acres of marsh lands had been unproductive and many farmers in the West had been driven to abandon raising hay as a commodity.

CONFERRER WITH PRESIDENT.

Members House Ways and Means Committee Talk to Roosevelt.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Four Republican members of the house ways and means committee—Paine of New York, Russell of Connecticut, Grosvenor of Ohio and Steele of Indiana—were this afternoon in conference with the president. Many Republican members of the committee have already expressed themselves opposed to any revision of the tariff at the coming session of congress.

JACKSON WARDEN DEAD.

William Chamberlain Stricken With Apoplexy in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—William Chamberlain, warden at the penitentiary in Jackson, Mich., died of apoplexy in this city tonight. MYSTERY CLEARING UP.

Italian Fruit Peddler Arrested for Murder of Antonio Natali.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—With the discovery of a blood-spattered basement room at 192 North Union street and the arrest of its late occupant today, Felipe Rini, an Italian fruit peddler, the mystery surrounding the death of Antonio Natali, whose body was found hidden in a barrel on the prairie, is believed to have been cleared up.

PEKIN IS EXCITED

DEATH OF LI HUNG CHANG AFFECTS THE POPULACE.

NO EVIDENCES OF MOURNING

PRESENCE OF YUAN SHI KAI IN CITY IS DESIRED.

Ministers of Powers Consider Him Strongest Man After Earl Li and Think He Would Have Good Influence on Court.

Pekin, Nov. 7.—The end of Li Hung Chang was quiet. His vitality slowly ebbed. For a time he lost consciousness, but he showed great tenacity. He rallied at midnight, became semi-conscious, partook of nourishment and appeared to recognize his relatives.

Famous Teakwood Coffin.

The flames of the procession of paper effigies, chairs and horses, burned in the courtyard of Yamen to carry his spirit to heaven, told the crowd of officials gathered outside that the end had come. Soon afterward a procession appeared bearing the costly coffin of teakwood, beautifully lacquered. This coffin Li Hung Chang took on his trip around the world, and he brought it from Canton when he came to Peking to settle the "Boxer" troubles. Since that time, it has been kept in the temple here.

The body will be placed in the coffin tomorrow morning with the customary rites. Sunday there will be a ceremonial corresponding to lying in state, and all Chinese officials will pay their respects. A separate day will be designated for the ministers of the powers.

Interment will be at the birthplace of the deceased, in the province of An Hui.

A memorial was telegraphed to the court announcing the death and a circular letter was sent to the ministers of the powers. It is expected, when the court received the news, an edict was issued bestowing posthumous honors upon the deceased and probably advancing him to the rank of marquis, which title will descend to his eldest son.

Messages of Sympathy.

The ministers of the powers are personally sending messages of sympathy. The first letter received at the Chinese foreign office came this morning from Congress, the United States minister, saying that Secretary Hay instructed him to tender the regrets of President Roosevelt and the United States government at the death of the great envoy.

There are no signs of mourning in the city, although the populace is considerably excited. The ministers of the powers consider Yuan Shi Kai the strongest man after Li Hung Chang, and his presence here would have a good influence on the court, but they fear the results of removing him from the province of Shan Tung, the most turbulent in the empire and the seat of the "Boxer" movement. Yuan Shi Kai has controlled the province with an iron hand. The situation there is particularly delicate on account of the friction with the Germans, and the substitution of a man of less tact would doubtless mean an uprising and conflict between the Chinese and the Germans.

Death Doubly Regretted.

The death of Li Hung Chang is doubly regretted because he was the only influential Chinese who could deal with foreign governments with an appreciation of the foreign point of view. Officials of Earl Li's household informed the Associated Press today that he had died in the morning and strenuously endeavored to have the seal of Li Hung Chang attached to the Manchurian convention before he died. It is impossible to verify this statement from other than Chinese sources.

Wu Pays High Tribute.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Minister Wu, commenting on the death of Li Hung Chang, paid a high tribute to the deceased statesman.

Minister Wu was a protégé of Li. His friends here fear that in the death of his protector and patron he has been exposed to the attacks of many enemies in the Chinese court, which his liberal policies created. He was Earl Li's legal adviser in foreign affairs, and superintended, while acting in that capacity, the construction of the first Chinese railway.

SCHRIEBER IS EXONERATED.

Charges Against Football Player Amount to Naught.

Madison, Nov. 7.—At a meeting of the athletic board of the University of Wisconsin tonight, Schriber, right guard on the football eleven, was completely exonerated on the charge of professionalism, and the board decided not to protest against Mueller or Dobby, of the Minnesota team, so it is presumed all will play in the Minnesota-Wisconsin game Nov. 16.

SHOT AGAINST ENGLAND.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt Criticizes Government's Policy.

London, Nov. 8.—In a three column letter to the Times, Sir William Vernon Harcourt indicts the government's policy and conduct in the South African war, especially in the latter stages. He declares the banishment of the Boers and the confiscation of their property to be both unconstitutional and mischievous, and can be defended neither by the laws of war nor by civil law.

TURKEY GIVES IN.

Report Says Porte Accepts All Demands of France.

Paris, Friday, Nov. 8.—The Greek minister at Constantinople, according to a dispatch to a Paris news agency from Athens, has telegraphed the Greek government that the porte has accepted all the demands of France.

Paris, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Admiral Caillaud has just been received announcing that he landed marines on the island of Mitylene this morning and occupied the customs at Midilli without resistance. The French government has received satisfactory replies from all the powers, without exception, to its note, explaining the measures taken against Turkey. An excellent impression was created in official circles by the tone of the response from the United States, which was couched in the most friendly terms.

Constantinople, Nov. 7.—The porte has yielded still further to the French demands, and has notified the councillor of the French embassy of authority granted to France to rebuild or repair sixteen churches, convents and other institutions situated in different villages.

FOUGHT OVER CARDS.

Two Illinois Men Have Street Duel With Revolvers.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 7.—Mann Holman and Junior Meredith fought with revolvers on a street in this city this morning. Holman is dying with a bullet over the heart and Meredith is not expected to live. The men fought over a game of cards.

Vicksburg, Miss., Nov. 7.—Ed Yerger was killed and Matt Bedford probably fatally wounded in a pistol duel at Madison parish, La., tonight. As Yerger fell, after being shot, he shot Bedford through the body. Both are members of the wealthiest and most prominent families in North Louisiana.

Carbondale, Ill., Nov. 7.—During a street duel following a quarrel at Marion today, Mam Holman of Marion and Junior Meredith of Cold Springs were fatally wounded.

AMOUNT OF RANSOM.

Sum to Be Paid for Miss Stone's Release Agreed Upon.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 7.—Yesterday United States Consul Dickinson dispatched a messenger with a reply to the brigands' proposals as formulated in Miss Stone's letter. It is understood an agreement as to the amount of ransom has been virtually established. The settlement as to the manner and place of payment and the surrender of the captives presents the most difficulty, but an entente is expected soon. The brigands are not willing to cross into Turkey to obtain the money, while the Bulgarian government would oppose releasing Miss Stone on Bulgarian soil.

THOMPSON ADMITS SHORTAGE.

Treasurer of Supreme Tent, K. O. T. M., Appropriated Funds.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 7.—Charles B. Thompson, treasurer and supreme finance keeper of the supreme tent of the Knights of the Maccabees, has confessed that his accounts are short $57,000. He has written a letter to Supreme Commander Markey, acknowledging the shortage. The order is protected from loss by Thompson's surety bond. Thompson says he used the money in a business venture to save himself from bankruptcy.

INSURGENTS MORE ACTIVE.

Matalon, Island of Leyte, Is Attacked by Rebels.

Cathagan, Samar, Nov. 7.—The insurgents are becoming more active in the Island of Leyte. Yesterday the town of Matalon was attacked. At Inopacan the insurgents established a protection line. While detachments of American troops were repairing it they were fired upon. After a brief skirmish the rebels were dispersed.

First Lieutenant Robert T. Crawford, of the First infantry, a sergeant and five men, while attempting to cross the Baboyan river, Samar, were drowned.

RUSSIA IS DETERMINED.

Reported She Will Insist on Retaining Possession of Manchuria.

London, Nov. 7.—"A secret dispatch passed through this city today," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Standard, "reported to be from the Chinese minister at St. Petersburg, warning the empress dowager that Russia is determined to retain possession of Manchuria; and if the Manchurian convention is denounced, other terms will be exacted which will gravely menace China's independence."

BOILER BLEW UP.

Three Men Killed in Explosion of Mississippi Cotton Gin.

Natchez, Miss., Nov. 8.—Alexander Ford, white, and two colored men, whose names are unknown, were killed by a boiler explosion at Clayton's cotton gin, Clayton, La. Clayton, owner of the gin, was seriously wounded and two negroes were seriously scalded.

GRAIN DEALERS BANKRUPT.

James J. and Thomas A. Jordan File Petition in Springfield, Ill.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 7.—James J. Jordan and Thomas A. Jordan, the surviving partners of the firm of Jordan Bros., filed a petition in bankruptcy today. They are grain dealers of Clinton and Heyworth. Their scheduled liabilities are $90,000 and their assets $323.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system. Salives, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. T. A. Williams, a leading dry-goods merchant of Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I had a severe case of Catarrh, with all the disagreeable effects which belong to that disease, and which make life painful and unendurable. I used medicines prescribed by leading physicians and suggested by numbers of friends, but without getting any better. Then began to take S. S. S. It had the desired effect, and I cured me after taking eighteen bottles. In my opinion S. S. S. is the only medicine now in use that will effect a permanent cure of Catarrh."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics. If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases, and write our physicians about your case. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

When there is virtue enough in New York to enable that municipality to redeem itself it would be flying in the face of providence to abandon hope of good government in Chicago.

Although the Metropolitan Traction company of New York subscribed $100,000 to the Tammany campaign fund it is feeling quite comfortable, thank you, over the outcome of the election. It gave an equal amount to the fund that was used to elect the fusion ticket. That corporation, like all others, has no soul. Neither has it any politics. All it wants is the privilege of making the public pay its price under any and all municipal administrations.

Asked if he would support another candidate against Governor Bliss if one should take the field against the governor next year, Senator McMillan replied: "There will be no other candidate—on our side." The disgruntled members of the party who are counting on letting Governor Bliss out with but a single term in the executive chair to his credit might do well to put this terse declaration of the senator in their pipes and test the flavor of its smoke.

A Canadian regiment in garrison at Halifax, N. S., has been ordered to South Africa. The Colonials may get all the opportunity they can desire to gather laurels in the Boer war. A correspondent at Pretoria states that the war cannot possibly be brought to a close inside of a year, and in that time only in case the British force now operating there is considerably augmented. A few regiments of Canadians and Australians would count for more than several times their number of British yeomen in forcing the Boers to the wall. Those colonials know how to fight on the Boer plan, and would not be so frequently caught napping.

It is said that the German emperor will endeavor to stem the tide of immigration from his domains to this country and divert it to German colonies. As most of the Germans who come here select this country as the place where they will make their homes because of its institutions, and as these are not to be found in the empire's colonies, the kaiser will have his labor for his pains. When a German decides to leave the "Vaterland" it is with a very distinct idea of his purpose in doing it, and the wishes of the autocrat from whose rule he seeks to escape will count for very little with him.

Now that Governor La Follette of Wisconsin has fully recovered from his recent illness and is attending to his work as chief executive with all his old-time vigor, the stalwarts have ceased wondering who is governor. But they are bothered as much as ever over the problem of the succession, for figure as they will they cannot make out a sure thing of beating him out of a re-nomination. The honesty of the great body of the voters of the party, and their evident disinclination to aid the old machine gang in its endeavor to turn down a governor who is honestly trying to do his duty, is what makes the task the stalwarts have cut out for themselves one of exceeding difficulty.

If William Travers Jerome makes a war a prosecuting officer as he did a campaigner the evil-doers of Gotham will dance to lively music when the administration chosen Tuesday is installed in power. Jerome's speeches were a feature of the great battle which gave as one of its best results his election to the district attorneyship. He told more truth in his speeches than some of his supporters relished, but they seem to have condoned his offending in that respect on account of the novelty of being talked to plainly and bluntly, for most of the very good people whom he scored for their indifference to their duty as citizens must have voted for him. The country would be the better for it had it a whole lot of Jeromes interesting themselves in its public affairs. It could stand a great deal of the kind of stirring up that he gave the New Yorkers during the campaign which had its culmination Tuesday in a Waterloo for the Tammany people.

Pennsylvania's fusionists failed to show much strength in the election of Tuesday. The ringsters carried the state by a smashing majority and will continue to manage its affairs as they see fit. One thing that helped them was the grip Quay has on a portion of the Democratic party in the state. In every county he has adherents among the Democrats on whose fealty he can rely whenever he needs their assistance to help him out of a tight place. In return he aids those hirelings of his to opportunities, both in business and politics, that they know how to make shrewd use of. It is through the strength those Democratic tools of his gives him that Quay retains the power he has so long held in Pennsylvania politics, in the face of the opposition of so large an element in his own party, and the aid they gave him in the election this week doubtless

Russia is endeavoring to prevent a serious collapse of its iron industry by placing large government orders with the more important concerns, which are suffering keenly from the depression that has overtaken that interest. In Germany a similar trouble exists in the iron and steel trades. From England comes the same complaint, while in the United States every iron and steel plant is running to its full capacity, with business booked well ahead. That this country is the greatest market in the world, in proportion to its population, for iron and steel products, hence consumes so large a share of its own production that it is not much affected by the depressed state of the iron and steel industry abroad, explains this. The home market is, and will long continue to be, the best American manufacturers can reach, and our statesmen should not lose sight of that fact when considering tariff legislation.

A good story is told in the Boston Transcript that illustrates the ease with which some men make money in speculative deals, just because they are so lucky that they hit it right where more careful operators often go wrong: A speculative clubman of wealth who had been making money on bull tips on everything and from everybody remarked to some friends one day that he had been told to "buy oats," but that he had almost forgotten it. They asked who gave him the "tipster," but he replied that in the multitude of suggestions that had come to him to buy things he had forgotten his name. But he proceeded to telephone his broker to buy him 100,000 bushels. Later oats went up, he sold out at a profit of $2,000, told his friends of the fact and they asked again if he could not remember the name of the tipster, as he was a good man to know. He could not recall the name. That night as he was about to enter his carriage his coachman said: "I beg your pardon, sir, but did you buy those oats. They have not yet come, sir." "Then you are a fool who told me to buy oats, are you?" he exclaimed. And he was. But the misinterpreted order for oats for his stable put $2,000 into the lucky plunger's pocket.

Slowly but surely the speculative situation improves, though the pessimistic element still persists in the endeavor to drive down values by lugubrious forecasts of the future. It is amusing to note the adroitness they display in turning to advantage everything that can be used as an argument to disturb confidence. A great handle is being made of a possible shortage of money at the great centers on account of the foreign demand for gold and the requirements of the west for currency to move the crops, working in conjunction with the continued absorption of money by the government in revenues beyond its needs. All these things but incidentally affect business. The main essential to prosperous times throughout the country is met by the activity in all our industries, good crops and good prices for them. There is money enough for the requirements of trade, and if it is going out from the financial centers now it will flow back to them in time. If we are letting gold go to Europe the fact establishes that we have money to spare, instead of being short of it. We are selling more abroad than we are buying, so there is a balance in our favor on our foreign trade. It follows that the foreigners who are borrowing our gold and buying our food stuffs are getting more and more in debt to us. Of late they have been selling us American securities, which they bought when they were richer and we were poorer, in order to hold down the balance against them, but it will do us no harm in the long run to have interest and dividends heretofore sent abroad paid out at home. It is plain, we insist, that we are to have a continuance of prosperity in the United States, no matter what is happening in Europe, and those who build on that that will not be disappointed.

Charles W. Felker of Oshkosh, Wis., one of the leading lawyers of that city, has passed away. For a time some years ago he was interested in a newspaper venture, in addition to taking care of a very considerable law practice, becoming one of the owners and editor of the Oshkosh Times. He sought to make the Times a daily paper of no mean pretensions and sank a nice fortune in the effort, owing to his unfamiliarity with the publishing business. But where he reaped others sowed, for he gave the paper a name and prestige which has stood it in good stead ever since, and it is now one of the best papers of its class in the Badger state. Mr. Felker was a man of great natural ability and thoroughly learned in the law. He served in the army during the civil war, enlisting as a private and coming out with the rank of captain. His death is a loss to the bar of Wisconsin, and will be keenly felt in his home city, which numbered him among the most public-spirited and deserving of its citizens. The writer of this knew him well and admired him greatly, and notes his passing from the stage of life, on which he bore his part manfully and well, with a deep sense of regret that his bright and useful career is ended.

WATER IS PLentiful.

Good Supply Encountered in Well for Auxiliary Pumping Plant.

A good supply of water is being encountered in the new well which is being sunk near the Carroll foundry on the Portage Lake front for the auxiliary pumping plant to the Houghton system, and the station will be located there. Several men are employed in the work. They are sinking the well with difficulty on account of the huge rocks that lie in the way. It is being sunk about fifteen feet and as the water is coming in freely it will not be sunk much deeper. The water is being pumped out about as fast as it comes in to allow the men to work on virtually a dry bottom. The well will supply a long needed want in Houghton, for in case of a bad fire, when plenty of water is needed, much will depend on the auxiliary pumping plant.

CIRCUIT COURT GRIND.

Edward Stein Pleads Guilty to Assault and Is Fined $50.

The case of the People vs. Edward Stein, charged with assault with intent to murder, which was put on trial Wednesday afternoon, was continued yesterday morning but before 11 o'clock a settlement was reached. The defense was willing to enter a plea of guilty to the plea of assault and the jury and prosecution were satisfied Stein was adjudged guilty on those grounds. Judge Streeter fined him $50 and passed on to the next case which was that of Louis E. Burns, charged with forgery. Mr. Burns was a prominent young business man of Hancock before his arrest the case is attracting considerable interest and the court room yesterday was visited by many. Much sympathy is expressed for the young man as he is generally thought to be an unfortunate victim of circumstances. The case will continue today.

PLAY IS POSTPONED.

It is not likely that the members of The Players Dramatic club, of Houghton Hancock, will give the play, "The Magistrate," as they intended yesterday part of this month. Preparations for the production were commenced a short time ago but since then several of the members of the cast have been either out of town or busy occupied with other matters, so that rehearsals had to be abandoned early. The play will be postponed to a later date.

DIFFERENCES SETTLED.

A. R. Porter, of Duluth, a member of the firm of Porter Bros., contractors, built the government breakwaters at the canal, was in Houghton yesterday settling the differences which have arisen between the firm and Joseph Croze & Son, of Houghton, who recently attached the balance of Porter Bros.' outfit in Houghton on alleged indebtedness for fuel.

The steamer J. H. Outhwaite, which was aground at Portage Entry Tuesday night, was released Wednesday morning and soon after arrived at the Quinny docks, at Hancock. The boat has a cargo of coal for the mining company, which is now being discharged.

The proceeds of the dancing party to be given tonight at the Hancock village hall by the Hancock fire department will be used to purchase new uniforms for the department to replace the old ones. The latter were bought fifteen years ago and are now quite shabby. The uniforms are used only for parade and dress purposes.

TO THE PUBLIC.
Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. UNPRECEDENTED FAME.

Vinol, the New Form of Cod Liver Oil. Causes a Sensation in Medical Circles. Not Only in America, But in Europe.

"Good news goes fast," said Mr. Stafford yesterday, talking to a reporter about that wonderful Vinol, concerning which so much is heard nowadays. "Why, you know that besides being talked about in New England, many of the prominent papers in America are devoting more or less space to this wonderful discovery. See here, what do you think of this?" Whereupon Mr. Stafford produced an article from the Lancet of London, England.

The Lancet is the greatest medical publication in the world, and anything appearing in its columns is considered as indisputable evidence. "Let me read this to you," said Mr. Stafford. "I won't bother you with much of it, but here is enough to show you what the great men of the old world think of Vinol." Whereupon he read the following: "Recent investigation has led to the isolation of several distinct bodies in cod liver oil, notably amongst which are the alkaloids. These principles have been tested faithfully and the results form the subject of an exclusive report by Gantner and Mouton in the Journal de Pharmacie, who concluded that the combined active principles of cod liver oil act as powerful stimulants of nutrition and assimilation, and show definitely the nature of the principles to which the oil owes its valuable medicinal properties."

"And the best part of all this is," continued Mr. Stafford, "it is not only the physicians that are enthusiastic, but the people who are taking the remedy. After all, I do not blame them much, either. It does not take but a minute for any one who is obliged to take cod liver oil to find out that Vinol is tasteless. Then the patient soon realizes its advantage. It does good so much more quickly, and accomplishes the desired end in a much more marked manner than cod liver oil in its crude form was ever able to do. Oh yes, of course I consider the success of Vinol as assured. How can it be otherwise—a discovery that has revolutionized the form and made it practical to prescribe the greatest known medicine for all wasting diseases."

"Just think what it means; getting all the benefits in a concentrated form, and no more nauseating, vile-smelling grease. Yes, come any time you would like to see me. I am always glad to see you about Vinol, and I find out more to say in its praise every day."

(Additional Copper County on Page 2.) BALONGIA WILL LIVE.

Murderer of Wife and Daughter Placed in Hancock Hospital.

Sheriff Willis and Undertaker Otto Krellwitz returned from the Winona mine location yesterday morning, the former with Felix Balongia, the man who murdered his wife and daughter early Wednesday morning, in charge, and the latter with the bodies of the mother and child. Balongia was taken to the Hancock hospital, where it is thought with proper care he will recover. The slash in his throat has made a bad wound and attending physicians believe it will heal rapidly.

Balongia recovered sufficiently yesterday morning to answer some of the questions put to him by the sheriff. When asked who cut his throat he pointed to himself but upon being questioned as to his wife and daughter he was silent and shrugged his shoulders. Mr. Willis intended to renew the interview last evening when he expected to get a confession from the man. All evidences, however, are against Balongia and it will be useless for him to deny the murder. The physicians are sure he will recover.

Coroner Brand impelled a jury yesterday morning to hold an inquest over the two bodies but the trial was adjourned until Wednesday morning Nov. 20 at 10 o'clock pending the recovery of Balongia. His evidence in the case is wanted. The jurors are William McGinn, Matt McConnell, W. Frank James, James Benwick, Howard Small and Frank Voght.

THREATENED TO KILL.

Dan Harrington of Quincy Location Terrifies His Family.

A notorious character in Hancock, commonly known as "Big" Dan Harrington, whose abode is at the Quincy mine location, was arrested Wednesday afternoon on the complaint of his wife for threatening to kill both her and their nineteen-year-old son. Harrington was found guilty the same evening in Judge Olivier's court and sentenced to ninety days in jail.

The man has been in the habit for several years of going off on periodical sprees, at which times he is considered dangerous. He has also deserted his family on several occasions and the mother and her younger son were supported by the older boy.

Harrington returned Wednesday after one of his desertions and threatened to kill both his wife and son, the latter if he continued to support the family. The arrest soon followed.

GETS PENSION MONEY.

Ben Strassen Reuter of Hancock Will Receive $3,000 for Injuries.

Ben Strassen Reuter of Hancock, employed by Ed Lee & Co. as a canny maker, left for Lansing Wednesday to receive pension money to the amount of $3,000, which has been voted him by the state legislature. Mr. Reuter expects to return Monday. Several years ago he was a prominent member of a Grand Rapids militia company, holding the office of second lieutenant. During the war he got practice one day a rifle in his hands exploded and he was severely injured, never fully recovering from the effects of the accident. Mr. Reuter afterwards applied for a pension. A bill was introduced in the legislature for his benefit, the house and senate sanctioned it and Governor Bliss attached his signature to the document. Mr. Reuter is about thirty-five years of age.

STREET WORK STOPPED.

Recent Snow Fall Causes Repairing to Be Abandoned.

On account of the snow, which covers the ground to a depth of four inches, Street Commissioner Richards of Houghton has abandoned all street work for the time being at least, and is now devoting his time to sewer work. Several sewers about the village have become blocked and the commissioner is having these located. During the fall considerable work was done on Sheldon street, and the thoroughfare is much improved, although it still requires a great deal more attention. At the east end of the street, which was in very poor shape before it was repaired, crushed stone has been laid so that it is now in passable condition. Other parts of the thoroughfares were repaired in spots, a shovel full of rock being put here and there. Some of the mud was also scraped off. An attempt was made to fill up the holes and to do away with the Venetian effect, when it rained; and if Mr. Richards hasn't been successful it isn't his fault.

CALLED HIS BLUFF.

Fresh Street Car Conductor Taught a Lesson by Houghton Doctor.

A fresh street car conductor was taught a severe lesson Wednesday night that he will not soon forget. A well known Houghton physician was the teacher and the punishment administered to him, although not injuring the conductor's person will meet with the approval of all patrons of the road, who at various times have had trouble with conductors collecting fare.

The doctor in question was called to Hancock Wednesday night and returning home boarded a street car. Besides himself there were but two other passengers in the fare first, the doctor giving him a quarter. The fare was rung up and the conductor went to the other two men, got their nickels, rung them up, and then went to the rear platform window returning the twenty cents in change to the doctor. The latter, who at first thought that the conductor was waiting until he had all the fares before he gave any change back, stepped to the rear of the car and asked for his twenty cents. He was answered in a surly tone to the effect that he was not given a quarter but only a five cent piece and then continued to upbraid the doctor for accusing him of not returning the change.

The street railway employe in a loud voice offered to get one dollar and fifty cents for the conductor. The doctor raised him four dollars and said, "better make it five." The bet was accepted and the money was placed in the hands of one of the other passengers. The conductor was still very angry and so was the physician. In one pocket the former said the doctor if there is a quarter in that pocket the money is mine, if not the money is yours.

Then the fellow commenced to try to squirm out of it but it wouldn't work for the doctor insisted that all of the money be taken out of the pocket and dumped into a hat to see if the quarter was there. This was done. Two nickles at a time were taken out and when the pocket was about emptied up came the quarter. The doctor took the money and then gave the conductor a tongue lashing such as he never had before, finally winding up by saying that he "guessed it would be worth five dollars in experience to the fresh youth."

It is safe to say that in the future when the conductor is given a quarter for a nickle he will not get so huffy when told of the fact by the person who gave it to him.

POUNDMASTER APPOINTED.

Nathias Bell of Hancock Will Attend to Wandering Bovines.

Nathias Bell of Hancock has been appointed poundmaster of the village by the council. He will attend to all wandering bovines, which have bothered the good people of Hancock for some time, and will receive $60 a month for his work.

The council has decided to expend a sum not exceeding $300 for the sinking of the new well on an auxiliary to the present one on the lake shore near the pumping station. The two boilers in the pumping station have been insured for $10,000 for three years, the premium being $100. Each boiler will hereafter be inspected three times every year.

Engineer W. Stockley has been instructed to draw plans of those parts of Hancock not now provided with sewers. This will include West Hancock and the Osceola addition for the most part. It is the purpose of the council to have a uniform sewerage system installed as soon as possible.

LADIES WILL HOLD FAIR.

On the evening of Nov. 26 the ladies of Trinity Episcopal church will give a fair in the basement of the church in Houghton. At a meeting held Wednesday afternoon the affair was decided on and committees appointed to look after the necessary arrangements. The ladies are now engaged in making fancy articles for the booth which will be one of the most interesting to the members of the fair sex. The ladies promise many pleasant features and anticipate a most successful evening both in a financial and social way.

NEARING AN END

SCHLEY COURT ADJOURNS ITS LAST PUBLIC SESSION.

SITTINGS COVERED FORTY DAYS

JUDGE ADVOCATE LEMLY MAKES CLOSING ARGUMENT.

Admiral Receives Greetings of Many Admirers and More Than a Hundred People Wait to Bid Him Adieu.

Washington, Nov. 7.—After sittings covering forty days, the report of which, when completed, will cover about two thousand pages, the Schley court of inquiry today at 3:45 p. m. adjourned its last public session. To Captain S. C. Lemly, the judge advocate, had been assigned the duty of making the closing argument in the case, and soon after he had completed his speech Admiral Dewey brought his gavel down upon the table and said: "There being no further business, court is adjourned."

Attendance Was Large. As was the case yesterday, when Mr. Bayner spoke, the attendance was large. There was only one session. It began at 2 o'clock and the entire time was devoted to Captain Lemly's address. He read his speech in clear and distinct tones, and it was given careful attention. The speech in the main was an analysis of the testimony, but occasionally a conclusion was drawn and frequently there was a criticism of the course pursued by Admiral (then commodore) Schley. Speaking of Commodore Schley's conduct, Captain Lemly said: "From my knowledge of the man, having served under his command on two cruises, I have never believed, nor do I claim from the evidence, that personal misconduct—or to call a spade a spade, cowardice—was exhibited by Commodore Schley in any part of his career as commander-in-chief of the flying squadron. But I submit with regret, that in the passage from Key West to Cienfuegos, while at the latter port en route to southwest, Santiago, without a settled destination in the retrograde movement, in his return to the vicinity of Santiago and in the affair of May 31, the commodore exhibited unsteadiness in purpose and in push, and failure to obey orders."

Affectionate Farewell Words. This statement was made toward the close of Captain Lemly's remarks. After the adjournment the members of the court, Admiral Schley and counsel lingered for a time about the hall in which they recently had spent so much time, and there were many affectionate words of farewell spoken. Admiral Schley, as usual, was called upon to receive the greetings of a number of admirers and a hundred or more people waited at the door of the building to bid him adieu.

OLD ACTOR INSANE. Henry William Montgomery to Go to the Poor House. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Henry William Montgomery, an actor of the old school, who, in his time, appeared with Sir Henry Irving and other noted players, was sent to the Cook county poor house today by Judge Gower, sitting in a court for the insane. Montgomery fifteen years ago was known in both England and America as one of the best of character actors.

CHAMPION OF THE MAT.

Tom Jenkins Defeats Dan McLeod in Chicago.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—Tom Jenkins tonight won the catch-as-catch-can championship of the world in the Central Armory in the presence of 8,000 spectators when he defeated Dan McLeod, who gave him the severest struggle of his wrestling career.

McLeod won the first fall in thirty-nine minutes with a half Nelson. There was an interval of fifteen minutes between the first and second falls, which Jenkins secured easily with a half Nelson. The third fall was also won by Jenkins with a half Nelson and lasted nearly thirty minutes.

A preliminary between Butch Sarr of Buffalo and Gouldin, the "Cuban," of Cleveland, was won by Sarr, throwing Gouldin twice in ten minutes.

The main event was for a purse of $2,500 and the championship. DESCRIPTIONS ARE ALIKE.

Body Found in Kentucky May Be That of Chicago Man.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Relatives of Henry C. Hastings, a milk dealer, believed that the body found in a vacant lot at Covington, Ky., today, under circumstances to indicate suicide or murder, is his.

The basis of belief is on the fact that he has been missing since Wednesday, the name of the man found is the same as his, and the descriptions are practically alike, and Hastings was despondent and talked suicide.

Hastings some years ago tried to murder Attorney Hilliard and was acquitted on an insanity plea. Hilliard was attorney for Hastings and the latter was not satisfied with an accounting, claiming that $8,000 had disappeared. The milk dealer waited for the lawyer in the Rookery building and when the attorney appeared his client shot and killed him.

FEAST ENDS IN FIGHT. Husband Hurls Plate at Wife at Anniversary Celebration.

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 7.—A silver wedding anniversary celebration had an unusual ending here when the aged wife brought charges of assault and battery against her husband as a result of the festivities.

William Fehrmann and his wife, Marie, had barely seated themselves with their guests at a dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth marriage anniversary when a quarrel over domestic matters began. The argument waxed warm, and as the guests scattered it is said the husband hurled a plate at his wife's head. There was an immediate end to the anniversary celebration, and Mrs. Fehrmann swore out a warrant for her husband's arrest, charging him with assault and battery.

It is intimated that divorce will prevent any subsequent anniversaries of the couple's marriage.

MILES MAKES DENIAL. Says He Is Not a Convert to the Anti-Canteen Ranks.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—Lieutenant General Miles was in Boston yesterday and later he went to Washington. To a reporter he denied that he was a convert to the anti-canteen ranks.

"Some newspapers would make it out," he said, "that there has been a change in my attitude toward the canteen; they call it a sudden conversion to the anti-canteen side. It is nothing of the kind. I am as much in favor of the canteen or exchange or amusement place as it is variously called, as I ever was, as a place of amusement. The liquor feature of the canteen is all that I would have done away with. The sale of liquor was forbidden in the canteen and I think should not be allowed again for the present at least; perhaps never again."

LABOR AND CAPITAL

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND ADDRESSES LARGE ASSEMBLAGE.

AT THE CARNEGIE INSTITUTE

EXERCISES IN CELEBRATION OF FOUNDER'S DAY.

Vast Audience Receives Former Chief Executive With Hearty Applause—Joseph Jefferson Also Speaks—Prizes Awarded.

Pittsburg, Nov. 7.—Exercises celebrating Founder's day at the Carnegie institute were held in Music hall this afternoon. The crowd was so great that long before the hour of exercises began the doors were closed and at least 2,000 failed to gain admission.

The presence of former President Cleveland, as orator of the day, and Mrs. Cleveland, as a guest of honor, served to augment the desire of the people to participate in the exercises. The entrance of Mrs. Cleveland into one of the boxes was the occasion of hearty and prolonged applause. Her husband's substantial and another outburst greeted the appearance of the former president. The vast audience received the distinguished guest by rising and giving expression to their pleasure by hand clapping and waving of handkerchiefs.

Ex-President Cleveland's address was first on the program. The delivery marked by applause, and the appreciation of the audience was expressed in its close attention throughout, and a hearty applause when the address was closed. He spoke of "The Obligations of National Co-partnership."

Contentions and Quarrels. "The most serious and persisting evil that disturbs co-operation among our people," he said, "is found in the contentions and quarrels between employers and employees."

"Instead of antagonism between labor and capital, they should be in one close alliance and friendship. Labor and capital touch and mingle so constantly and naturally among us that the laborer today is frequently the employer tomorrow. It is beyond the reach of dispute that the bulk of happiness among the American people is as far below the plane occupied by the rich. The cares and anxieties of money getting, money keeping, and the strangling of genuine pleasure, which is so often the result, certainly ought not to excite the envy of a man who contentedly works with his hands, and who, by an irrespectable fiat, may find in his work a way to real, simple, unperverted happiness. While healthful and normal conditions of national partnership forbid envy and unfriendliness on the part of the employed toward employing capital, so also do such conditions most emphatically forbid the grinding selfishness, greedy rapacity and supercilious haughtiness which too often characterizes the treatment of those employed by capital."

Remedy Must Be Found. The speaker disclaimed any intention to suggest the causes of the differences between labor and capital, but asserted the only remedy must be found in a return to the observance of the law of American co-operation, and that this return cannot be accomplished by any real or imaginary injuries on the part of labor, nor lordly, selfish arrogance on the part of capital. There should be conservative and tolerant counsels and a mutual recognition of duty and obligations.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS. Features of the Day in the Wheat, Corn and Oats Pits.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—There was a very good trade in wheat today both on local and outside account, the fluctuations covering 1 1/2% range. A rather firm undertone was manifested and the close showed December up 1/2% and May 1/4% better. The action of corn was again a bull factor, as was also the Argentine news. Liverpool spot was steady at 3 1/2¢ lower, with the futures unchanged to 1/2¢ higher. The exports were liberal—454,000 bushels—and thirty-two boatloads were reported taken for shipment. Restricted offerings was a factor at times. The local receipts were 111 cars.

Another active day in corn was witnessed, the market ruling weak and strong by turns, the close showing 1/2¢ 1/2¢ lower. The start was easier influenced by the action of Liverpool, but the offerings were readily taken and early sellers were soon anxious buyers. Part of the buying was credited to the sales of yesterday, the principal offering coming from a prominent packing concern. At Liverpool, spot was steady to 1/2¢ lower, with the futures 1/2¢ lower. The receipts were only sixty-five cars.

Oats ruled active, with a decided increase in the local and outside buying. The country offerings were small and there was a large and scattered cash demand. Prices advanced 1/2¢ and May sold at the highest on the crop and closed at the best figures. The feature was smaller offerings and an active demand for December, which advanced from 2 1/2¢ to 2 3/4¢; May, gaining 1/4¢ for the day.

The leading futures ranged as follows: December wheat opened at 71 1/2¢; highest, 72 1/2¢; lowest, 71 1/2¢; closed, 72 1/2¢. December corn opened at 59 1/2¢; highest, 59 1/2¢; lowest, 59 1/2¢; closed, 59 1/2¢. December oats opened at 37 1/2¢; highest, 38 1/2¢; lowest, 37 1/2¢; closed, 38 1/2¢.

Receipts and shipments were as follows: Flour, barrels, 29,000 18,000; Wheat, bushels, 271,000 139,000; Corn, bushels, 61,000 152,000; Oats, bushels, 207,000 118,000.

WALL STREET STOCKS.

Market Closes Easier Under Influence of Realizing.

New York, Nov. 7.—Today's stock market was much broader and more diversified than yesterday and the aggregate of the dealings rose well above yesterday, to nearly a million and a quarter shares. There was enormous realizing in the stocks which led the advance yesterday, especially in Union Pacific and St. Paul, which ruled below yesterday's closing level practically all day. The payments of the sub-treasury in the redemption of bonds and for the deposit of Australian and Klondike gold on Pacific coast points are so far offsetting, the drain on other accounts that the money question is kept in abeyance. The very substantial recuperation for the week disclosed by the Bank of France also served to relieve the apprehension over money affairs, as Paris had been the real center of attraction working toward the depletion of the gold supplies at other points. The small increase of the banks' gold supply for the week has been supplemented by a decrease of over $49,000,000 in the bills discounted and the contraction of nearly $36,000,000 in its outstanding circulation. The market closed easy under the influences of realizing.

The masons who were employed at the ore crusher finished their work a few days ago and took their departure from the village. Most of them were Negaunee men. Fred Isaacson spent the week at Ishpeming attending the meetings of the upper peninsula embalmers. He will return this evening, at the close of the examination by the state board of health.

A new boiler has been installed at the Republic hospital. The old one was not giving the best of satisfaction. It is now assumed that the heating plant will work much better than before the change was made.

George McDonald, who operated in the woods out from here last winter, has purchased an interest in Perrault's shingle mill. Some new machinery is about to be added and lumber as well as shingles will be cut.

J. R. Peables and family spent the week with relatives at Shullsburg, Wis., their old home. Mr. Peables has taken a two weeks' vacation. As soon as he returns he will go into the woods deer hunting for a few days.

Miss Gertrude Gibson has been visiting in the village the past few days. She is teaching school at Amasa, but the schools there have been closed for a short time on account of the prevalence of diphtheria among the children.

Frank Peterson and Herman Suneson came down from the copper country early in the week with the intention of remaining ten days or two weeks hunting deer with friends here. The boys are engaged in diamond drill work at the Wyandotte mine.

A Detroit paper wired a Republican this week, asking for a writup and also a photograph of Moy A. Lon, the local Celestial. Moy is receiving considerable notoriety since he took out a deer license. It is said that he is the first Chinaman in the United States to take out a license to hunt deer.

T. B. Barry, who has been here many times during the past ten years or more, giving entertainments of one kind or another, was billed to present stereoscopic views and lecture at the town hall on Saturday evening of last week. He was on hand but the audience was so small that he called the entertainment off.

Republic will be next to deserted during the early part of the deer hunting season. Everyone is talking deer and a majority of the men of the town will at some time during the season go out in quest of them. Many licenses have been issued to Republic hunters and applications for more are going in every day.

CHICAGO GRAINS STRONGER.
A. R. Jones & Co. said of the Chicago grain market:
"The wheat market today was stronger than ever, and without any help from the other side. The trade was surprised this morning at the quiet opening and the evident strength, but did not begin buying vigorously till corn spurred. The best feature of the present bull movement is the character of the trade itself.
All classes of speculators are in it and practically every condition is favorable for a bull movement. Buy wheat on the weak spots, and if they do not appear, buy it anyway.
"The trade expected a good break in corn at the start this morning, and the market sold themselves into a hole early with a resulting quick bounce on their buying. A good deal of the demand came from provision people, with Patten and commission houses buying. The shorts were well secured over the small receipts. Buy corn for a long pull."

Grace Holland arrived yesterday with cargoes of coal for Pickands & Co. There are thirty-three hundred tons of the fuel on board, and the 2,000 tons car-goy by the Continental are now being

The train from the east was again late yesterday afternoon, pulling into

The delay, as usual, was because of the great rush of lower Michigan hunters, with the accompanying increase in the amount of the baggage to be handled.
The Escanaba Mirror in an extended some time ago have arrived from the manufacturer at Brooklyn and will be put into service. The council has referred the matter to the street committee with power to act. There are several hundred of the signs, which letters. The work of installing them will be performed by carpenters, it being necessary to securely brace them to the posts or poles which they will adorn.

Among the deer hunting licenses issued by County Clerk Ross were two-Nos.
687 and 688-that had been made out to George W. and Albin Levin, two of the young Michigan men who were drowned last Sunday night. The applications came down in a batch sent by the deputy at Michigan and were received by the clerk Monday morning.
The licenses were filled out and mailed, and about an hour later the news of the accident was telephoned to the court house.
Apostle's candy kitchen was opened for business yesterday and a rushing trade was done all afternoon and evening. The place presents a very attractive appearance and, indeed, was a revelation to those who visited it. Everything is bright, fresh and clean and the kitchen has a metropolitan air generally to be looked for here. Another feature particularly noticeable, are the low prices at which the home-made candy is quoted. Mr. Apostle is deserving of the big business yesterday's trade seems to indicate will be given him.
Officer Denny Hogan and an Indian, Fred Kabogwan, were the principals in an amusing incident yesterday afternoon. The redskin had been secured to act as crier at a hunting party, but unfortunately he "hoozed" up during the morning and landed in the city cooler.
His whereabouts were only discovered at about train time, and a dray was impressed in service to bring the Indian to the depot. It made a quick journey to the lock-up, the guide was hurried on to it and, struggling all the way with the veteran cop, he was finally brought to the station. The train was held a few minutes for the Indian's arrival.
An enjoyable evening is promised at which country she expects soon to return. She will have with her many interesting curios. Music and refreshments are also on the program. No admission will be charged, but all who feel inclined to do so will be given an opportunity to contribute toward Mrs.

Porter's expenses in coming to Marquette. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

COPPERS MOVE UP SOME.
Amalgamated Rules Strong and the General List Sympathizes.
According to advices from Boston,
copper stocks have turned the corner and are on the upward swing again. At least there was a much better tone to the market yesterday and some advances were scored. The buying was mainly to cover short sales in Amalgamated, and the general list moved in sympathy, some demand for the Lake coppers being noted. Buying was again advised by the brokers, the metal situation continued strong and on the whole the local speculators were much encouraged as a result of the day's trading.
As Noted by the Brokers.
Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laid-ley Commission company:
"The strength in the Standard Oil stocks today led to short covering in Amalgamated and some new commission house buying. The advance in Amalgamated caused a little buying of other coppers, still there was no general animation in them. The Utah's Highland Boy declared a dividend of $1.25 and this will be paid to stockholders of Utah on Dec. 6 as a dividend of five shillings.
There were considerable transactions in United States Mining on a report of good developments at Centennial Euroka. There was no news regarding any change in the price of the metal.
Green's Consolidated produced 2,500,000 pounds of copper last month."
Paine, Webber & Co. said:
"The copper list showed better tone all through the list today, and we think the corner has turned in them. Amalgamated, on very good buying, advanced 2 points and this was reflected in the whole list. We believe the New York market is bound for much higher prices and that it will not be confined entirely to railroads. On all recessions, the whole list will do to buy.
"There was some selling of Copper Range and Baltic today by people who want to buy railroad shares. The stock was well taken and the demand continues. The New York Commercial says of the South Range stocks: "The very good support given Baltic, Copper Range and Trumountain lately is encouraging the belief that announcement of the plan of the South Range consolidation will be forthcoming before the end of the present year. Dissatisfaction is expressed at the reported intention of the people behind it to list the stock of the new company on the New York exchange. Boston brokers and traders, as a rule, feel that just such a speculative stock as this South Range consolidation will make is needed for a leader of their own market."

MOY BECOMES FAMOUS.
Moy A. Lon, the Republic Chinaman to whom County Clerk Ross recently issued a deer hunting license, has "got his picture in the paper." At least, what purports to be a photo of the Marquette Celestial was published in Monday's issue of the Detroit Journal. The picture showed a Chinaman, rifle in hand and cartridge belt around the waist, standing in the woods waiting for game
-or the camera to be snapped. The article accompany the picture stated that Moy was a crack shot.

THAT CHAMPIONSHIP GAME.

Escanaba Wants More Time to Prepare for the Battle Against Local Team.

It is not yet certain that the Escanaba High school football team will line up against the Ishpeeming Highs here tomorrow afternoon. If the Sandy City aggregation is not here they forfeit the championship to Ishpeeming.

Superintendent Ewing and his supporters put up a warm fight in their effort to induce Ishpeeming to pull out of the game at some other point, but it was no go. Escanaba would not dictate to them in this instance and it is now up to them to say whether they want to battle for the honor or let it pass to Ishpeeming without an effort on the latter team's part to win it.

Some weeks ago Superintendent Ewing of the Escanaba schools writing Ishpeeming's manager, suggesting that the championship game be played not later than Nov. 2 or 9. Now he would like to extend the time one week for some reason or other, but Manager S. E. Mason of the Michigan Inter-Scholastic Athletic association yesterday wired Mr. Ewing that the game will be played tomorrow and not one week or one day later.

Ewing understands his business and it is likely he will be here with his team rather than let the champion-ship go by default. He believes his aggregation will stand a good chance of winning from Ishpeeming and no one who considers that there are tricks even in this "honest game" of high school football will blame him very much for fighting for points in his favor.

One of the two coaches of the Escanaba team this week told The Mining Journal representative that Escanaba refuses to play here because they are afraid they will not receive fair treatment at the hands of the local players and the people generally. With Escanaba having a big advantage in weight it certainly does look babyish on their part to refuse to play here. The local team will abuse them. Ishpeeming's average is 137 pounds and three of the men are under 125 pounds. Giants, those chaps. It would be cruel to have them bump up real hard against that 150-pound average team of the Sandy City.

There is no use denying the fact that the game will be spirited. Escanaba must not expect to be handled as though its men were made of glass. Nor does Ishpeeming expect their men to receive a great deal of consideration at the hands of their opponents when it comes to real football playing. It will be a real game from start to finish and the best team will win.

Mr. Ewing was in Ishpeeming Wednesday evening endeavoring to induce Ishpeeming to postpone the game a week or have it played at some other town. Ishpeeming did not play down. It will be Escanaba must be here tomorrow or play the baby act and take the consequences of such pusillanimity.

The visitors will have the choice of one official, Ishpeeming taking the other. As far as the side lines are concerned it is unreasonable of the Escanaba people to expect them to stand around with their mouths muffled. They go down to cheer their favorites and no matter what anyone might desire they will give vent to their feelings when good plays are made.

Escanaba Will Play.

Later-Superintendent Mayne last evening received a telegram from Mr. Ewing stating that he will be here with his team Saturday morning to play in the afternoon as scheduled. Mr. Ewing heard from Mr. Mason at Ann Arbor late in the afternoon and he was advised that the game must be played not later than Saturday of this week or not at all.

It is certain that the largest crowd that has assembled on the local grounds this season will be on hand tomorrow. It will not matter much about the weather, as nothing short of a cyclone will keep the local team's supporters away from the game under the circumstances. The fight for the upper peninsula championship was never as warm as it is this season.

THE DEER HUNTERS.

A Number of Ishpeeming Men Already in the Woods, More Going Out Today.

Ishpeeming will be well represented in the woods of this vicinity during the next week. A number of hunters have already gone out to their resorts and others are preparing to leave today or later. A party consisting of Mayor W. H. Johnston and George G. Johnston of this city and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones of Menominee left yesterday afternoon for Island Lake camp.

Dr. J. H. Andrus and George B. Seligwick also went out yesterday afternoon. They have gone to Camp Nine. E. C. Cooley will join them today and one or two other friends will likely go out tomorrow.

There is a delegation at Camp Clark, including Captains Rough, Collick and Stevens, John Lehman, John F. Anderson, John Venner, Dennis Malloney, William Burder and J. C. Downing of this city and Fred Smith of Marquette. John Lacey and Fred Ogie will join the party Sunday morning, leaving the city during the night.

George A. Newett, C. T. Kruse, Dr. Leonard and Paul Swift have gone to Camp Dewey. Others will join them before they return to the city. Antoine Dobbs, Oliver Ayotte and others, are at Fish lake, where they recently established a resort. Fish lake is about four miles southeast of Camp Nine.

R. W. Smith, Joe Gannon and two friends of the latter from the copper country, will leave today for a point some miles north of Ishpeeming. They will be away three or four days.

SHORT COUNCIL SESSION.

City Dads Disposed of Business in Quick Order Wednesday Evening.

The members of the city council are not being overrun with work in connection with the management of municipal affairs these days. The last few meetings of the dads have been rather tame and of little or no interest. Had it not been for the lengthy report of the committee on claims and accounts presented at Wednesday night's meeting the city fathers would have disposed of the business that came up in less than twenty minutes.

The mayor and sixteen of the aldermen were present. After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved a communication from the Co-operative Co-operative society was read. The council was asked to grant the society permission to use a portion of the dead end of the alley running west from Lake street for the erection of a coal trestle in the old foundry site, which the Co-operative people purchased a few months ago. It is designed to have the proposed trestle connect with the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company's trestle. The position was referred to the committee on streets and alleys together with the city attorney.

Adrian Siney, from the committee on finance and taxation, reported that the books of the recorder and city treasurer corresponded and that the cash balance on hand is $3,374.75. The same alderman also submitted a report from the committee on claims and accounts. The total amount of bills allowed is $5,810.94. The pay rolls allowed are as follows: Water, $107,515; highway, $486,41; sewer, $141,28; official, $1,168.49.

The total bills and pay roll for the month footed $6,680.27. The report of the committee was adopted as read. A bill of $86.90 on account of mail-boxes was read by Alderman Siney. On motion it was ordered sent to the county clerk.

At a previous meeting a bill from George Rock for the expenses of Stephen Lester's burial was referred to the committee on claims and accounts. The committee recommended, through its chairman, that the bill be denied on the ground that George Rock had no claim against the city. The recommendation was concurred in.

The reports of the chief of police, poundmaster and the police magistrate were presented and on motion accepted. Representative C. J. Byrns was present at the meeting and, on motion of Alderman Kennedy, was granted permission to address the council. He asked that a committee be named to receive the members of the state board of health who will arrive in the city this morning to conduct an examination of the embalmers of the upper peninsula. The request was complied with and a committee consisting of Mayor Johnston, Aldermen Parsons, Martin, Feick and West was named.

CAVED NEAR THE STREET.

A small patch of ground west of the city on Wednesday night immediately east of the road on the Lake Superior hill. The workings of the old "A" shaft mine extend under there and the bottom does not appear to be solid. A slight sinking was noticed about the same place some time ago, but the hole was filled by the caving of Wednesday was much larger than the one caused by the previous settling.

The Lake Superior Iron company put men and teams to work yesterday filling the opening. The hole was only about four feet in depth by about twenty long and eight or ten wide.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

John Goeta, a miner in the employ of the Pittsburg & Lake Angeline company, met with a very painful accident Tuesday. He was climbing a ladder and slipped, falling to the bottom, a distance of some eight or ten feet. Standing in the ground near the foot of the ladder was a crowbar. One arm struck the point of the bar and it penetrated the flesh from the pit cleid through to the shoulder. The man comered himself in great luck as he would have been more seriously hurt if the bar had come in contact with some other part of his body.

M. C. Scally left yesterday for points up the line, to be absent a few days on a business mission.

Mrs. H. B. Sturdevant, who arrived in the city Sunday, left last evening for her home in St. Louis.

Deputy Marshal William Prin left Wednesday noon for Saginaw to bring back a man who is wanted here.

New radiators are being put in position at St. Joseph's church. Ole Olson and Sam Robinson are doing the work.

Michael Cashen and bride got home yesterday morning from their wedding tour. They will keep house on North street.

The South Shore company's steel gang has been working within the limits of Ishpeeming the past few days. They are moving eastward.

The hop to be given this evening by the Trombly orchestra promises to be well attended. The lesson will begin promptly at 8 and the hop starts at 9 sharp.

For the benefit of the Ishpeeming and Negaunee people who desire to attend the performance of "Old Jed Froudy" at Marquette Saturday evening, the South Shore has made special railroad rates. It is also announced that the late train leaving Marquette will be held.

C. H. Moss came down from Houghton yesterday. He is preparing to move his family to copperdon. The household goods are already packed and Mrs. Moss and the children will take their departure from the city soon. H. S. Thompson and family will occupy the Moss residence.

John Martin, who has been employed in the office of the Copper Journal at Houghton for some time past, has given up his position and is again working at the Iron Ore. Frank Isaacson, who announced his intention of taking a position with the Gazette at Houghton a week or so ago, has concluded to remain here.

Quite a number of sleighs and cutters were in use here yesterday for the first time this season. With the ground frozen and a couple of inches more snow the sleighing will be very fair. The first sleighing last season was a year ago today. There was a little more snow on the ground then than there is now. The sleighing continued from Nov. 8 until the break-up in the spring.

The concert given Wednesday evening at the Swedish Lutheran church under the direction of the Young People's society was one of unusual merit and all present were delighted with the program rendered. The male choir taking part numbered twenty voices; there were forty voices in the mixed choir and the orchestra consisted of ten musicians. The supper served at the conclusion of the entertainment was all that could be desired.

The Carpenter-Cook wholesale grocery house is being wired from cellar to roof for electric lights. Six carloads of goods have been placed in the building but there is room for many more. Two or three more carloads are expected today. Manager Boaz reports a splendid business. He is pleased with the encouragement received from the business men of the county. Not a few from the surrounding towns have called at the house where in they placed orders with the new concern.

THROUGH THE WOODS

OPENING OF SEASON FINDS MANY HUNTERS OUT.

SLAUGHTER WILL BE GREAT

DEER EVERYWHERE REPORTED VERY NUMEROUS.

Thousand Licenses So Far Issued and the Rush Is by No Means Over—Marquette Man Victim of a Hunting Accident.

The deer season opened this morning, and until the first of December the woods promise to fairly swarm with hunters. Many parties have already gone out to be on hand at the haunts of the animals who are protected by law for 342 days of the year, and as deer are reported to be unusually plentiful the slaughter gives indications of being of large dimensions. The rain which fell Wednesday night, however, raised hob with the snow, and for that reason the prospective game will have a better chance than seemed likely a few days ago.

The opening of the season finds a few over a thousand licenses issued by County Clerk Ross, a number considerably in excess of the permits made out at this time last year. The rush is by no means over, and even up to the last day it is probable that licenses will be issued. This was the case last season, when a total of a few over thirteen hundred permits were taken out. This year Mr. Ross received 1,400, and as he has been literally swamped with applications the past few days he is thinking seriously of putting in a requisition for more. So far but three licenses have been issued to non-residents of the state, and as only a few straggling hunters from lower Michigan have put in an appearance, the hunting in Marquette county will be practically confined to county residents.

Favorite Grounds Up the Lake.
Among the hunters to take to the woods yesterday were Peter White and a party of three. The gentlemen left on the afternoon train for Mr. White's camp at Onota, and were accompanied by three or four Indian guides.

K. L. Kellan, William Pohlmann and two other gentlemen will hunt deer in the vicinity of the Huron Mountain club. They left for the scene yesterday morning.

The region up the lake shore will also be the hunting grounds of two other parties who took their departure yesterday morning. These parties are those of Dr. E. L. Drake and Dr. Chas. C. Van Iderstine. Frank Pendill and two other Marquette gentlemen were passengers on yesterday afternoon's train for the east. They were bound for Land's End, on the shore of Lake Michigan.

Elmer Wentz and party and Gust Anderson and party are after venison in the Sauk's Head district. They left for that vicinity yesterday.

A party composed of Thomas Price, John Rivers, J. L. ("Sonny") Butcher, Charles Fenstermaker, F. Beland and Harry Siegel also left yesterday to hunt deer near Sauk's Head. The boys will be gone a week. Thomas Price enjoys the distinction of bagging the largest deer brought in here last season.

So far the up-the-lake country seems to be the favorite hunting grounds for local nimrods, but judging from all accounts hunters do not really need to go so far from town. For the past few weeks, deer have been reported as being very numerous a few miles to the north of the city. It was only Wednesday evening that a gentleman returning from the powder mill saw two deer a few feet in front of the buggy; in fact, the animals were in the way of the horse and after looking curiously at the outfit calmly walked away. Deer have also been seen recently near the brewery and just back of the Normal school. Hunters should bear in mind that the law prohibits the killing of any fawn in the spotted coat or any deer in the red coat, while the use of dogs or artificial lights also, of course, come under the ban. This year, also, venison cannot be sold, nor can any deer or portion of deer be shipped without a license tag accompanying the same.

W. W. Osband Shot.
Yesterday afternoon an unfortunate affair, marking the first accident in this immediate vicinity since the hunting season began a little over a month ago with the opening of the partridge season, occurred near "Hog-Back" mountain, to the northwest of Presque Isle. As a result, W. W. Osband, the well-known insurance agent and real estate dealer, lies at St. Luke's hospital, suffering from a painful though not serious wound, while Dr. R. W. Boyer is almost heart-broken over the sad occurrence.

The two gentlemen were hunting in the vicinity of the "Hog-Back," being in quest of the bear seen in that locality several times recently and which a hunting party tracked the other day. They separated to beat the woods, and after some little time Dr. Boyer saw and fired at what he took to be a bear. The bear, however, unfortunately proved to be Mr. Osband.

The bullet went through the left side of the body just over the hip, making a jagged hole through which two fingers could be passed. When shot the wounded man at once shouted, and Dr. Boyer, running to the scene, was horrified to discover the result of his aim. Mr. Osband, however, retained consciousness and, with his companion's help, was even able to walk to the trolley line station at Presque Isle and also to the hospital after leaving the car at Front and Ridge streets.

The wound was dressed by Dr. Youngquist, and although it is exceedingly painful and will be for some time, it is not at all dangerous and a month will likely see Mr. Osband back to work again. It was a lucky thing, however, that the bullet struck where it did. Had it hit a little more to the center of the body, it would have perforated the abdominal cavity and might have been followed by serious results. Deep sympathy is not only extended to the wounded man, but to Dr. Boyer as well, for the accident being a deep blow, in particular, to the last named gentleman.

STEEL BRIDGE ACROSS CARP.
$400 Offered by County Board Accepted and Securing of Plans Ordered.

A steel bridge is to be constructed across the Carp river on the road leading to Sands. The county board recently offered to appropriate $400 to help pay for the cost of the span, providing stone abutments and steel girders were used in its construction, and this proposition has been accepted by the county. At this week's meeting, it was set forth that in order to make the road serviceable for winter travel the construction of the bridge was necessary, and as a result of the explanation the street committee was authorized to have the necessary plans and specifications drawn.

It was also reported to the council that Contractor Laroche had finished the work of building the Sands road, and that with some few slight alterations it would be satisfactory to the street committee. The payment of the contract price—$1,950—was authorized, settlement to be made when Mr. Laroche attains to the minor changes recommended, which in brief is to make the bank along the road at a couple of places less steep than now.

ENGINEER NEFF RESIGNS.

S. S. Neff, the engineer who built the Lake Superior & Ishpeming road, going from here to the Metropolitan Elevated at Chicago, has just resigned his position as superintendent of the Boston Elevated railway. As to why he resigned, there has been much conjecture at the Hub, and in referring editorially to the matter the Transcript says: "The men liked him." So said an employee of the Boston Elevated railway in regard to Superintendent Neff who has just resigned. What finer endorsement could any man have! With that verdict Mr. Neff can go his way with much sweetness and serenity. In these days when one hears so much complaint of the severity of one's task masters, the tribute, "The men liked him" is most wholesome and gratifying.

W. J. Shively, Batesville, O., speaking of Banner Salve, says: "I used it for piles, and it has done me more good than any salve I have ever used, and I have tried a great many kinds." The People's Drug Store.

"A CAPITOL COMEDY."

Tim Murphy Appears at the Opera House Next Monday Evening.

Tim Murphy, in his new play—"A Capitol Comedy"—will be the attraction at the opera house next Monday evening. The play teems with wholesome sentiment and interesting side-lights on Washington life, and throughout the four acts, comedy and pathos, love and intrigue, smiles and tears are blended. It tells the story of Joel Gay, who is trying to establish his rights to valuable property in Minneapolis. Help comes to him through the hands of Louise Dinsmore, daughter of a senator. Having persuaded her father to stand sponsor for the bill, she wins enough votes to carry it through. One vote, however, that of Senator Bert, is given in exchange for her father's to carry Bert's bill for the sale of government land. Victory is assured when Gay discovers the land bill is a swindle and although it means loss of fortune and through poverty the women he loves still he does not hesitate and persuades her father to draw back from support of the Bert bill. In the meanwhile an unseen force has been moving for him in the person of Senator Dinsmore's son, and all ends well. But the interest of the play does not center entirely around Joel and Louise. There are many characters in the play and all are so skillfully drawn and interwoven that it makes a play of absorbing interest.

NEW METHODIST CHURCHES.

Presiding Elder Thompson, of the Methodist conference, with headquarters at Marquette, will dedicate three Methodist church buildings in this district during the month of December. One is at Piskford, in Chippewa county, to be dedicated Dec. 12; the second is at Algonquin, at Sault Ste. Marie, the date being Dec. 8, and the third is the church at Trimountain, in Houghton county, which will be dedicated Dec. 22. New houses of worship are also being erected at Ingalls, in Menominee county, and at Mass City, in Ontonagon county, while steps are being taken to erect churches at Greenland and Laurium.

"DENNY" HOGAN'S PAY RAISED.

A well-merited raise in salary has been given to the veteran policeman, "Denny" Hogan. From the first of this month he will receive $65 per, which at that is none too large considering the long hours the "cop" is on duty. It was explained to the council that Officer Hogan is on regular duty twelve hours a day, week in and week out, and that frequently he is called out for service at night. There was no objection to the increase in pay.

There's a lot of girls who have reputations as beauties. Their loveliness is caused by good health, brought about by taking Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Stafford Drug Co.
