FOR ERECTION OF UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTION FOR DEVELOPMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

Idea Proposes a Gift After Manner of Smithsonian Institution and Will Be Greatest in the

Washington, Dec. 9.- The Post tomor ow will say:

President Roosevelt has received a let er from Andrew Carnegie in which the atter offers to make a donation of $10. 000,000 to the United States. The let ter will be referred to congress by the president in a special message.

Mr. Carnegie's gift is for the purpose gave $1,000,000 for the establishment and maintainance of what is known as the Smithsonian Institution. Mr. Smith- 10½ to 8½ cents. son desired the institution founded by him to be a factor in the "diffusion of cientific knowledge."

Consulted College Presidents.

Mr. Carnegie proposes that the university which he is to endow shall be the greatest institution in the world for the development of higher education. He has consulted President Gilman of Johns OF RUSSIAN MINISTER

GERMANY MUST WAIT Hopkins University; President Hadley of Yale; President Eliot of Harvard; Former President White of Cornell, and all the leading educators of the country. They heartily endorse his plans. The proposed university will not interfere in the least with the educational institutions already established, but will supplement them, for, according to the pres ent plan, its doors will be opened only to those who desire to take up a post graduate course.

Mr. Carnegie also wants the new university to take the lead in original reeventually stand side by side with Germany, if not in excess of that nation in scientific development.

Mr. Carnegie's plan does not propose a national university in the sense that appropriations will be asked or needed. The government is simply to be trustees of the magnificent end wment just as it Kept Endowment Secret.

Mr. Carnegie has kept his proposed endowment a secret until he could detinitely arrange the plans and scope of the new university, and even yet all of these details have not been arranged, so that little more than an outline of his gift can be published. It is known, however, that he does not propose to ask from congress a single foot of land upon which the university buildings are to be constructed. The entire expense is to be borne out of his endowment. No site has yet been selected. It will, however, necessarily be very large, as it is proposed to erect series of magnificent structures.

The amount of money to be given by Mr. Carnegie equals the sum of the present endowment fund of Harvard, and it considerably more than the invested fund of Yale.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The senate chamber was the scene of a highly dramatic episode today when Senator Tillman of South Carolina challenged his colleague, language, that they might be able "to wash their dirty linen at home." Senator McLaurin did not take up the guage. The incident today was the direct se crose between the senators in South Carolina last spring. Senator McLaurin discredit him in his own state for acts and views which did not meet the aproval of certain Democratic leaders. Believer in Old Democracy.

He declared he was being humiliated and, according to public prints, was to be excluded from Democratic caucuses because he had acted upon certain public issues in a way which he considered was for the best interests of the country and the people of his state. He announced himself a believer in the Old Democracy, and after denouncing the New Democracy leaders who, he said, WAR had brought destruction upon the party, he declared he could not be driven from his old allegiance into a party with which he did not care to affiliate.

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, denied he had any "ulterior motives" in not inviting Senator McLaurin to enter the cau-

It's Green

Omega Oil One-peculiar thing about Omega Oil is its green color. Some people think it is colored green to make it look nice, but that is not so. Omega Oil is green because Nature makes it green. It contains a powerful green herb that gives it its color, and it is this same herb that stops pain in people's bodies. There are plenty of white, brown and yellow liniments, but there is only one Omega Oil, and it is green. There is nothing like Omega Oil for curing pain, just as there is nothing like the sun for making real daylight.

UNDER TWO FLAGS.

That truly inspiring and very inter-esting play "Under Two Flags" will be presented tonight at the opera house, with Miss Mayo in the role of the French vivandier, Cigarette. The dramatization is by Edward Elsner. As Ouida's celebrated novel was the most widely read book of its day, so the play s the most widely advertised and suc cessful of the season. It is a military spectacle full of stirring situations and as it deals with the affections of the heart it holds the attention of the audience from the rise to the final fall of the curtain. It also presents a series of stage pictures and effects that new, startling and realistic, among which may be mentioned the sand

As far as the last statement is con erned, it is not likely regular service will be installed until some time next Ballasting would be a work exceedingly hard to perform during the winter, with the cold and snow, and it is understood to be the intention of the ompany to postpone this part of the onstruction work until the warmer months put in an appearance. In the track-laying, a force of about sixty men is employed.

LAST BOATS OF SEASON.

Two Ore Carriers Now Being Loaded at the Dock at Presque Isle.

The last boats to take out ore from Marquette this season are now being oaded at the L. S. & I. dock. They are he steamer Clyde and her consort, the schooner Amboy. It had been expected the Fleetwood and Arabia would be in for cargoes, but their sailing to thiport apparently has been cancelled. With the departure of the two vessels the stockpile built, at Presque Isle by the Cleveland Cliffs company will go it is likely that the first trainload will arrive within a few days. The machinery at the engine house has been tested and found to be in good working order. This consists principally of a Corliss hoisting engine, utilized to oper ate the continuous cable system
