PRESCRIPTIONS..... NEVER ALTERED.

It does not make any difference what your physician prescribes, if you will bring the prescription to The People's Drug Store you get exactly what is specified. There is never a thought in our mind of substituting, or altering the prescription in any way whatsoever. We know that the doctor has a reason for prescribing just what he does, and we follow the prescription exactly.

In fact, we believe that the work of the physician is often defeated, and the patient made to suffer, because a mania for cheapness leads some druggists to substitute drugs of inferior quality for those prescribed. We invite you to bring prescriptions here. Our prices are always close.

PRINCE HENRY HERE

KRON PRINZ WILHELM ARRIVES WITH ROYAL VISITOR.

PASSAGE WAS A STORMY ONE

GUEST OF THE NATION RECEIVES A WARM WELCOME.

New York, Feb. 23.—The voyage of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm was stormy and tested Prince Henry's sea legs, but he stood the voyage well. The passengers say he was most democratic one aboard and that he was a most charming and unassuming gentleman. The story of the voyage was told in detail but aside from the rough weather was without special incident.

On his arrival at this port the guest of the nation was cordially welcomed, the land batteries at the outer harbor sounding the first greeting in a ponderous salute of twenty-one guns. The rules of the special naval squadron re-echoed the sentiment. There were verbal greetings from representatives of the president, army, navy and city of New York, and a great crowd lined the way into the city to see and cheer the sailor prince of Germany.

Evans Meets Kron Prinz.

At 9:40 Rear Admiral Evans and party left the Illinois in the tug Nina, met the Kron Prinz beyond Fort Wadsworth and, swinging around to the starboard side of the liner, steamed up the bay. Prince Henry, in the uniform of an admiral of the German navy, and surrounded by his staff, stood on the bridge. The tug drew nearer and Prince Henry, admiral Evans, caught sight of each other and exchanged informal salutes. The distance was too great for conversation, however.

As the vessels, with a flotilla of tugs and official craft, moved past Fort Wadsworth the first of the salutes of twenty-one guns was fired. As the first gun sounded, the prince advanced to the end of the bridge and stood at attention. As he passed the big American flag floating over the fortifications he touched his cap in salute and his salute did likewise. The flag at the jackstaff of the Kron Prinz was dipped and the German naval band accompanying the prince played "The Star Spangled Banner." The guns of the fort were silent before those at Fort Hamilton boomed. That ceremony over, the Kron Prinz stopped and Admiral Evans and staff boarded her.

Two Admirals Shake Hands.

There was a hearty cheer as the admiral came aboard and when the prince and admiral met they shook hands cordially. Admiral Evans spoke a few words of welcome to the United States, to which the prince responded. The members of both parties were introduced and the liner moved ahead. At 10:50 she was abreast the squadron opposite Tompkinsville. The German flag was run to the fore of the Kron Prinz and the American fleet saluted, the crews of each vessel manning sides, turrets and tops. They raised the German naval standard and opened a blank fire. The prince offered a warm congratulation to the American admiral on the splendid appearance of the squadron. As the Kron Prinz cleared Tompkinsville the fleet of small craft increased and kept their whistles blowing. Responding to the cheers from the crowded ferry the prince went to the end of the bridge and touched his cap in salute.

Salute at Governors Island.

At Governors island another salute was fired, the prince again standing at attention until the last gun was fired. The first of the large crowds was at the battery and nearly every pier to Recreation pier was full. The welcome was a noisy one. The big liners in port were dressed, and the German colors were displayed all along the shore. The prince frequently went to the side and either saluted or waved his hand in acknowledgement. To the Americans present he expressed his appreciation of the warm welcome extended. The last of the greetings on the run up the river was from the Hohenzollern. She wore a full dress of flags and her jacksies manned sides, while the officers, in full uniform, were drawn up on deck. The prince smiled at the sight and saluted. The Hohenzollern jacksies gave a lusty cheer and the prince smiled and saluted again.

German Vessel Reaches Pier.

The Kron Prinz was abreast the pier at noon. A squadron of cavalry and a heavy force of police kept the pier clear. The prince disembarked at 12:55. At the gang plank of the Hohenzollern he was met by Admiral Von Baudissin, commander of the vessel and her officers. The hand played the German national air. Immediately representatives of the army and navy called; also the German ambassador at Washington and his suite, representatives of the president, and the mayor and suite. Captain Sargent called and the representative of Admiral Dewey. Lunch followed the reception, several callers accepting the prince's invitation to join him.

The prince boarded the tug Nina at 3:30 to repay the calls, accompanied by one aide and Admiral Evans and Ensigns Evans and Chapin. He visited the navy yard first and called on Admiral Barker, and then Governors island, where he called on General Brooke. He proceeded then to the battleship Illinois, where he called on Admiral Evans and inspected the ship. He was received by the squadron with honors due his rank. From the Illinois the prince returned to the pier and boarded the Hohenzollern for dinner.

Ships of Squadron Illuminated.

The ships of Admiral Evans' squadron were prettily illuminated tonight. The Illinois had her name in electric lights across the bridge in letters two feet high. Along either side the ship, at the height of pilot houses were displayed the words "Welcome, Prince Henry." Strings of incandescent lamps decorated every part of the ship. The Cincinnati made the best showing. Lights were carried up her masts to truck and out on her signal arms. The effect was a giant cross of fire with an illuminated base, the whole standing out against the darkness, and made a most effective picture.

Dinner on Board Hohenzollern.

Prince Henry gave a dinner this evening on the Hohenzollern. The guests included prominent men of the nation, representing business and professional circles, the army, navy, diplomats and the press.

Tonight the prince attended the reception of the Deutscher Verein. He was escorted to the club by a squadron of cavalry and a body of mounted police. Nearly 200 members and their families were present. The prince was presented to each and shook hands with the ladies. From the reception he went to Jersey City to take the train for Washington.

President Sends Greeting.

Washington, Feb. 23.—President Roosevelt, responding to Prince Henry's telegram inquiring as to the health of Theodore, Jr., telegraphed:

"Accept my heartiest greeting on your arrival. I thank you for your message. In the name of the American people I will see and look forward to meeting you personally tomorrow."

London Papers Satirical.

London, Monday, Feb. 24.—The papers here this morning comment satirically on the enthusiasm of the reception of Prince Henry by a democratic nation. "They concede Prince Henry fills the role of 'velvet hand' equally as well as he fills the role of 'mailed fist.'"

Berlin Papers Announce Arrival.

Berlin, Feb. 23.—The Sunday quiet of Berlin was broken today, by the issuance of newspaper extras on the arrival of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm. This is a very unusual thing in German newspaperdom.

KILLS SWEETHEART'S FATHER.

Disappointed Lover Goes In for Wholesale Murder and Suicides.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Angered because his persistent demands for a dowry sufficient to give him a start in housekeeping were refused, and seeking revenge on the family of his sweetheart, George Childrose, a stenographer, today shot and killed Henry Meyer, the girl's father, and slightly wounded Emma Meyer, her sister. Her mother and another sister escaped other shots intended for them by rushing into the street. Believing he had killed the entire family, Childrose sent a bullet through his own brain and fell dead at the door of his sweetheart's room.

ONE MORE FIRE VICTIM.

Sophia Reach Dies from Injuries Received in New York Disaster.

New York, Feb. 23.—Sophia Reach, sixty-one years of age, a guest of the Park Avenue hotel, died in the hospital today as a result of injuries received in the fire. This makes the nineteenth victim. All the other first victims in the hospitals will probably recover.

Thousands visited the scene of the fire today and a strong force of police was necessary to keep them out of the hotel and the ruins of the armory. There are still 50,000 rounds of ammunition in the armory, and an engine is constantly throwing water that should prevent an explosion.

CLAIMS BIG DAMAGES.

C. A. Anderson Wants $50,000 for Death of Sister, a Missionary.

Whiting, Ia., Feb. 23.—Charles A. Anderson has filed a claim with the state department at Washington for $50,000 damages for the death of his sister, Hilda S. Anderson, who was killed by Boxers in Mongolia province, China, in 1900. Two of Anderson's sisters were killed in China during the late uprising but only one was a subject of the United States, the other being a citizen of Sweden. Hilda S. Anderson was naturalized at Rockford, Ill., in 1897, and went to China as a missionary for the Christiania Alliance.

INDIANS ARE HOSTILE.

Oklahoma Citizens Prepare for Attack of Crazy Snakes.

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 23.—Squads of minute men have been ordered at Wotunka to protect the town from the Crazy Snake Indians. Runners have been sent in all directions on the lookout for hostile Indians. The stores have supplied able-bodied men and citizens with rifles and shotguns.

FORMER RAILROAD MAN DIES.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Erskine C. Muepny, once superintendent of the Iowa division of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, died today. He was overcome by a burglary that occurred in his residence during his absence, which is said to have been responsible for his death.

HIGHWAYMEN ARRESTED.

Laramie, Wyo., Feb. 23.—The police today arrested E. L. King, John Campbell and Ed Raymond on a charge of holding up Arthur Neeland of Woodlawn, Ia.

MISS STONE IS FREE

LIBERATED MISSIONARY ARRIVES AT STRUMITZA, MACEDONIA.

MME. TSILKA ALSO RELEASED

BOTH WOMEN AND MADAM'S BABY IN GOOD HEALTH.

Constantinople, Feb. 23.—Miss Stone has been released and arrived at Strumitza, Macedonia, at 3 o'clock this morning. There was nobody at Strumitza to meet Miss Stone as the brigands had given no indication where they proposed to release the prisoners. Mme. Tsilka and her baby were released at the same time. The first news of the release was contained in a telegram to Mr. Dickinson, the American consul general, from the American vice consul at Salonika. Miss Stone will proceed to Salonika at once.

Cablegram Considered Authentic.

Boston, Feb. 23.—Secretary Barton, of the American board, received the following cablegram confirmatory to the Associated Press dispatch announcing the release of Miss Stone, dated Salonika and unsigned:

"Both Miss Stone and Madame Tsilka and are in good physical condition and good spirits." Secretary Barton regards this as absolutely authentic.

Dr. Judson Smith, one of the secretaries of the American board, called at the residence of Mrs. Benjamin F. Stone, mother of Ellen M. Stone, in Chelsea, this afternoon, bringing a cablegram dated Salonika, Feb. 23, containing one word, "safe," and signed Haskell. Dr. Smith understands this indicates the prisoners have been delivered into the hands of the American representatives at Seres, Macedonia. Mr. Haskell is one of the missionaries of the American board at Salonika.

Macedonians Needed Money.

New York, Feb. 23.—Spencer Eddy, first secretary of the United States legation at Constantinople, who had charge of the negotiations for the release of Miss Stone, arrived today on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm.

In an interview he said that the brigands captured an American rather than any other missionary because they believed the Americans had the most money and would be likely to pay a ransom. He said the brigands did not want the money for themselves. The people of Macedonia believe it is a step toward freeing their country, and the money was needed for their cause. Macedonians are friendly toward missionaries, and they needed money to advance their national interests. Turkey will have a job on her hands, said Secretary Eddy, if she attempts to punish the brigands, for this kidnapping may be considered the first chapter in a Macedonian plan for liberty.

London Is Pleased.

London, Monday, Feb. 24.—The papers here this morning express pleasure and relief at the release of Miss Stone. These expressions are coupled with comments upon the danger of persons traveling in Eastern Europe are likely to run after such an unfortunate precedent, although it is admitted to be difficult to suggest an effective remedy.

Cabling from Constantinople, the correspondent of the Chronicle says he understands, owing to the necessity of protecting innocent persons who assisted them, the American delegates will never divulge where and how the ransom money was paid.

News Received at Washington.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The state department today received a dispatch from the United States legation at Constantinople regarding Miss Stone's case. It was encouraging, and while it did not report Miss Stone's release as an assured fact, yet the tenor was such as to lead the officials to confidently believe that such a happy consummation was a matter of a very few hours.

TELEGRAPH LINES HARD HIT.

Philadelphia in Touch With Country for First Time Since Friday.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Newspapers at Philadelphia at 7:35 tonight through the Associated Press, got in direct telegraphic touch with the country at large for the first time since 4:10 p. m. Friday. The various telegraph and telephone routes leading into Philadelphia, with the exception of the re-established route between Philadelphia and Baltimore, are yet in practically as bad condition as they were Saturday.

SENATOR CLARK SELLS MINES.

Report Says He Has Disposed of the Colusa-Parrot Group.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—A Record Herald special from Butte, Mont., says: Senator Clark has sold his Colusa-Parrot group of mines to the Anaconda, or Anaconda company. The price is understood to be in the millions.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 23.—Three members of a gang of counterfeiters operating in Iowa were captured at King City, Mo., today. They are James Keeley, Charles Armstrong and Jerry Sullivan.

MUST APOLOGIZE FURTHER.

South Carolina Senators Will Be Dealt With Severely.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The fight in the senate yesterday is still a topic of general conversation. There have been a number of conferences among the senators as to what should be done to preserve the dignity of the senate and manifest its sentiment with reference to the senators who violated its traditions.

While no plan of procedure has been agreed upon, it is learned there will be very deliberate action and it is said to be more than likely that it will be not less than thirty days before the South Carolina senators are restored to their full powers as senators, this deliberation on their case being in the nature of a punishment, since they will not be allowed to address the senate or vote until no longer in contempt of the senate.

Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, said tonight that in advance of any meeting of the committee he cannot say what will be done, but added that the matter is of such serious import that it must receive careful consideration.

It is understood the conferences among the senators have shown the existence of considerable sentiment that the apologies made by the South Carolina senators are not deemed sufficient, and that a committee will require other and more ample apologies.

TWO KILLED BY TRAIN.

Chicago Man and Wife Struck by Lake Shore Fast Mail.

Mishawaka, Ind., Feb. 23.—The Lake Shore fast mail, which a few weeks ago at this city killed Dr. Bowman and Liverman Judy, tonight killed Charles Ferkes, Jr., and wife of Chicago, at Chesterton station, west of here. The bodies were horribly mangled and fragments of flesh and bones were strewn over the station platform and depot walls.

Plunged Over Embankment.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Peter Mathias was killed and two others were injured today when a Grand Trunk wrecking train plunged over an embankment while on its way to the relief of a disabled freight train four miles beyond Evergreen Park.

Freights in Collision.

Antigo, Wis., Feb. 23.—A head-on collision between two freight trains occurred late Saturday night near Summit Lake on the Northwestern road. Fred Lyons, Roy Middaugh, a brakeman, and Bert Nightseer were badly hurt.

VOTE ON TARIFF BILL TODAY.

Prince Henry Will Witness Part of Ceremony in the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The senate will begin voting on the Philippine tariff bill at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Prince Henry will witness part of this ceremony but his presence will not be allowed to interfere with business. Thursday the senate will unite with the house in the ceremonies in honor of the memory of President McKinley.

The McKinley memorial exercises will overshadow the program in the house this week. Tomorrow when Prince Henry visits the capitol to look down on the two houses of congress he will witness probably an uninteresting spectacle so far as the popular branch is concerned, as the house will be working on District of Columbia business. The remainder of the week will be devoted to appropriation bills.

SLAP AT WATTERSON.

Bryan Gives Views Regarding Manhattan Club Meeting.

Toledo, Feb. 23.—William Jennings Bryan, speaking of the Manhattan club meeting in New York Saturday night, said the club would have to support the Democratic ticket at least once before taking an active part in the campaign of that party. Speaking of Watterson's views on the platform he said:

"It will be impossible to write a platform until the issues develop, but it ought not to be a matter of doubt that Democratic principles will be applied to all issues and the planks will be written by those whose loyalty to the party is not under suspicion."

STRIKE SITUATION IMPROVING.

Worst of the Troubles at Barcelona Thought to Be Over.

Madrid, Feb. 23.—The general situation is greatly improved. More troops have been drafted to Barcelona, but it is hoped the worst of the troubles are now over. The strikers at Barcelona demanded payment in full of their wages for the past week. Employers refused these demands except in a few cases where they were accorded to in the hope of conciliating the men. During the fight at Sarria one policeman and one workman were killed and two men were wounded.

INSURGENT LEADER TAKEN.

Cortes, Second in Command to Malvar, in Hands of Authorities.

Manila, Feb. 23.—A force of native constabulary at Santa Cruz has captured Cortes, second in command to the insurgent general, Malvar, and turned him over to the military authorities. Cortes was in fancied security in Alipit and was raising funds for the insurrection. A friendly native informed Inspector Sorenson of the fact and the capture followed.

KILLS SLEEPING HUSBAND.

Pooria, Ill., Feb. 23.—A report comes from Kickapoo that early this morning a woman named Jenkinson, becoming suddenly insane, brained her sleeping husband with an axe, then shot and killed herself. Their three children witnessed the tragedy.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL, A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).

Entered as mail matter at the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

A Chicago man proposes to train monkeys to pick cotton. If the colored labor of the south were thoroughly organized, what a howl this proposal would evoke from dusky labor unionists!

Here is a significant statement by the Washington Post on a subject that has been for some time receiving much attention in this country and abroad: It is not only true that the British Ambassador took the initiative on the 14th of April and proposed to the representatives of the great European powers a coalition against the United States, but also true that he displayed not a vicarious but a personal animosity toward this country.

Charley Towne, once among the most aggressive of the free silver leaders, says that Providence robbed the free silver people of their ammunition. "We demanded free silver, but Providence opened immense gold fields instead."

A Canton, O., dispatch states that a number of the heavy consumers of pig iron in that state are planning to establish a bunch of blast furnaces there, at a cost ranging between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, in order to free themselves from dependence on the United States Steel corporation.

AT THE PARTY'S SERVICE. Taking cognizance of The Mining Journal's suggestion, that it might be well to call a halt for the present on the rather acrimonious discussion of candidates for the governorship and their claims on the party now going on in certain Republican papers, and in the form of published interviews and expressions of opinion by persons assuming to be authorized to speak for elements among the voters, the Iron Herald of Negaunee makes comment as follows:

The position is probably well taken, especially where there is liability that present opposition to Bliss or any other candidate may turn up as an obstacle to effective support of the ticket in case of their nomination. A few papers have gone far in this direction, so far indeed as to weaken their support of the ticket with Bliss at its head.

Cleanse Your Blood. The cause of all spring humors, pimples and eruptions, as well as that of tired feeling and poor appetite, is found in impure, depleted blood. The perfect blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla, as multitudes know by experience.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla. It cures all blood diseases, from the smallest pimple to the stubborn scrofula sore—from morning tiredness to extreme nervous prostration. Begin taking it TODAY.

A JUST AND GENEROUS DEED.

Our readers are familiar with the facts in the case of Captain S. C. Bennett of Crystal Falls, whose trial for manslaughter, last week had issue in his acquittal. The man whom, according to the finding of the jury, he slew in self-defense left a widow and three young children, who are now living at Crystal Falls.

After he was acquitted on the charge against him, and thus relieved of the heavy trouble that had hung over him since the tragedy occurred, Captain Bennett sent for three of the leading citizens of Crystal Falls, Messrs. R. B. Webb, A. Lustfield and J. H. Parks, to whom he made this statement: Gentlemen—I feel, now that I am acquitted of the charge of manslaughter, I would like to do something for the widow and children.

A meeting of representative citizens of the place was called and held the same day, and its decision was that Captain Bennett should place with the widow the sum of $3,000—of which amount $600 was to be for her own use, and $1,000 for each of the children, to be expended under her direction for their care and education.

"Mrs. Finley, I feel for you as no tongue can tell, and am sorry the sum of money I am going to present to you is not larger." The poor woman was quite overcome by the generosity of the man through whose hand she was deprived of her husband, and assured him of her full and free forgiveness for the grief that had come to her and her children through him, and that she prayed God would forgive him as she did. It was an affecting scene, but a beautiful closing act in a deplorable affair that cost one man his life, left a home fatherless, and placed in jeopardy for a time the unwitting instrument of all the hardship and sorrow flowing from it.

A FIREMAN'S CLOSE CALL. "I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa.

MR. WHEELER GOT RID OF HIS RHEUMATISM. "During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. Wheeler, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

A WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Margaret L. Briggs, a Well-Known Newspaper Woman.

Recounts Her Experience While Visiting a Noted Woman.

Of Interest to All Women.

[From the Boston Herald.] It was my privilege recently to call upon the world famous Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. I must confess that among all newspaper women there has always been a great feeling that Mrs. Pinkham was a myth; we are so familiar with advertising methods we grow to be skeptical and always take such statements as are made in the Pinkham advertisements, as well as all other advertising, with the proverbial "grain of salt," but, as before stated, being near the city of Lynn, Mass., I thought I would investigate a little in order to satisfy my curiosity, and I must say I was surprised at what I found.

To begin with I had no idea that the Lydia E. Pinkham establishment was anything like the immense size that it is, and when the street car stopped in front of a great collection of buildings and the conductor told me that it was the Lydia E. Pinkham Laboratory, I should have been sure by had made a mistake had it not been for a small sign which is on one of the original buildings. Upon entering the office I was received by a very courteous lady and was very much impressed by the fact that all the occupants of the room were women and although my sojourn in the buildings covered something more than an hour visiting the entire place and private office, I saw nothing but women, and was also pleased to learn that no man ever had access to these rooms. I was satisfied that their claims that this is strictly a woman's institution were altogether true.

After stating the purpose of my visit I was introduced to Mrs. Pinkham who turned me over to her assistant with instructions that I was to be shown everything in and about the laboratory, and particularly asked me to visit the "private letter department," which I did. This is the department in which is received hundreds of thousands of letters from ailing women, and in which every letter is opened, carefully considered by competent persons under Mrs. Pinkham's supervision, and accurately answered by women only, so particular is Mrs. Pinkham about having even a suspicion of these letters going through a business office where men are allowed to frequent that she will not allow a typewriter to be used and every letter comes out of this office is written by hand by women. It was also shown positive evidence, which clearly satisfied me on the point, that no letters are published unless the writer's special permission is first obtained.

To say that all this was a revelation is putting it mildly, and when I was shown the great cabinet of files that contain thousands upon thousands of letters, then, and only then, did I begin to realize the magnitude of Mrs. Pinkham's work. Just think of it, every one of these letters had been answered carefully by the most competent knowledge could dictate, and not one cent has ever been charged for advice. I saw there more than one million such letters were filed, and I began to feel that this one woman was doing more good among the sick women of America than any other woman in the United States.

NOW CHAMPIONS OF THE WEST. Portage Lake Boys Win Two Great Hockey Games from Chicago.

By defeating the Kenwood Country Club hockey team of Chicago Saturday afternoon the Portage Lake seven won the hockey championship of the West—if not of the United States. The victory was a decisive one, the score, 8 to 0, being sufficient proof of that fact.

At times his work was satisfactory to both teams. "We were beaten fairly," said a Kenwood man after the game. "If the spectators were satisfied we are. We have had enough."

Hard Play in First Half. In the first half each team went into the game for all they were worth and for the first part of it the play was a see-saw up and down the ice. The great team work of the locals soon told, however, and for the remainder of the hour the two teams scuffled in Chicago territory.

Big Crowd at Friday's Game. The game Friday night was witnessed by the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of people that ever gathered at any athletic exhibition in the copper country.

People were virtually packed in the corners and on the benches. The game was watched with the most intense interest, applauding the good plays with deafening hurrahs. People were virtually packed in the corners and on the benches.

Portage Lake Appeared First. The Portage Lake team appeared first on the ice and were greeted with deafening cheers, pandemonium reigning for three or four minutes.

Chicago Took Defeat Well. At the conclusion of the game Captain Parkyn of Chicago stated that the match as a whole was satisfactory. "We were always on the defensive and did not have much chance to try playing on the offensive," he said.

FIGHT SHY OF PRESS

PRINCE HENRY DETERMINED NOT TO BE INTERVIEWED.

VAN MUELLER, HOWEVER, TALKS

KAISER'S AID-DE-CAMP TELLS OF HONG KONG INCIDENT.

Prince Apologized to Admiral Dewey for Not Putting United States at Head of Toasts at Dinner in Hong Kong.

New York, Feb. 23.—Prior to his departure from Germany it was officially announced that Prince Henry was not to be interviewed, and today he adhered strictly to this determination.

Captain Von Mueller, aid-de-camp to the German emperor, who is authorized to speak not only for Prince Henry but in a measure for the emperor, was interviewed by the Associated Press. After explaining the prince's desire to avoid the American press, he said, "I am not permitted to speak for the emperor, but I am permitted to be represented at the launching by a prince of his house, and selected Prince Henry.

Captain Mueller Explains. In response to a question regarding the much talked of Hong Kong dinner, Captain Mueller said:

"A good many versions of that incident, and all of which are wrong, have been printed. I happened to be at that time a personal guest of the prince. The truth of the matter is this, and I speak authoritatively:

"In the harbor of Hong Kong the prince had tendered a dinner to the commanders of vessels of various nations then in port. On that occasion the sovereigns drank to the health of the sovereigns and chiefs of the nations, the flags of which were represented by the guests. In the order of his toasts his first one, next to the German emperor, was Great Britain, the second Russia, and the next the United States. The reason Great Britain was named first was because the dinner happened in the harbor of British territory, the acting governor of which was one of the guests. A week or so afterwards the prince was informed by the German consul that a representative of the United States—Admiral Dewey—was named because the prince had put the United States at the head of his toasts, contrary to international usage which demands the order of toasts on such occasions. This usage is that toasts shall be given in the order of the seniority in the mission of the officers present. Admiral Dewey was in fact, in that respect, senior among the guests.

Had a Talk With Dewey.

"The prince did not hesitate to seek an open, frank talk on this question of etiquette with his American comrade, whom he highly esteemed. When visiting the flag ship Olympia he frankly told Admiral Dewey he had convinced himself that he was wrong and that Dewey was right. Admiral Dewey's answer was this:

"Well, sir, I thank you for your apology. I may say, I liked you better just now, I think I like you better, and this is saying a great deal."

"It is readily seen that this settlement of the question of etiquette could only serve to strengthen the friendly relations between them, and Prince Henry is keeping the words of his American friend in grateful remembrance."

COAL IMPORTS INCREASING.

Expert Says Yankee Fuel Will Oust English Product from France.

Paris, Feb. 23.—The only way to stop the importation of American coal is to increase the tariff, but this would hurt every French industry in order to protect the mine owners," declared Civil Engineer de Genneves in a lecture delivered before the French Society of Civil Engineers. This is the most important public pronouncement yet made on the subject.

Added by maps and charts M. de Genneves convinced a large audience that the technical causes hindering importation were fast disappearing and that freight rates are decreasing monthly. According to the lecturer the mistake of building too large vessels has been recognized, and an ingenious method invented of satisfying Yankee dealers who hindered orders by demanding payment in advance, the French consumers refuse to pay before verification of quality. Now American bankers pay the dealers and are immediately reimbursed by a corresponding French society representing the most powerful mine owners in the United States. This system is declared

CUBAN'S PLEAD FOR AID.

Document Signed by Prominent Generals Sent to President Roosevelt.

Havana, Feb. 23.—The following is the text of the dispatch sent to President Roosevelt by a number of revolutionary generals:

"We, the undersigned, being almost reduced to beggary, and having formerly been part of the Cuban army and allies of the American army, apply to you, in view of the economic situation which weighs so heavily upon Cuba, and beg you to point out to the federal congress the right which we have in demanding that we be allowed to live and to save our industries from ruin and loss, which will mean also the ruin of the producing classes of this country. As Cuban soldiers, we are not asking alms, but justice from those who formerly joined us and asked our assistance to make war on Spain. We Cubans are not responsible for the present situation. On the contrary, the responsible parties are those governing the country by the right of might and not by the will of the people."

This was signed by Generals Cisneros, Laeet, Figueras, Collazo and Maso.

IRISH TO MAKE STRUGGLE.

Will Take Up in Parliament the Eviction of Forty Farm Tenants.

London, Feb. 23.—An Irish party attaches great significance to the evictions of tenants of forty farms on Lord De Freyne's estate in Roscommon county, Ireland, for refusal to pay rent, and intends to make a fierce parliamentary struggle over the matter. John Redmond, chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, said: "No. 40 are forty tenants turned out, but many hundreds are being proceeded against. The country thereabouts is alive with police, who patrol the roads day and night, force themselves into people's homes and in every way create a reign of terror. Fifteen representative public men of the district have been imprisoned, merely for taking part in meetings of a political nature, and many others are being prosecuted. Everything has been peaceful so far, but the proceedings of the government are so extraordinary that we cannot help feeling anxious lest violence occur.

The cause of all the trouble is the government's refusal to face the unanimous demand of the Irish people that it pass legislation giving compulsory power to any rent landlords and thus restore the land to the Irish people. Lord Dillon's estate, which is next to Lord De Freyne's, was bought out by the government, and the tenants who bought the land are paying 50 per cent. less rent than formerly. The De Freynes refused to sell at any terms. The government, instead of endeavoring to effect a settlement, poured in an army of police."

John Dillon, the former chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, said: "I agree with every word by Mr. Redmond. The trouble, although for the moment confined to Roscommon, involves a principle of vital interest to Ireland."

MAY EMBARRASS UNITED STATES.

Possibility That Cuban Congress Will Refuse to Surrender Isle of Pines.

Washington, Feb. 23.—That the government of Cuba when organized may embarrass the United States by refusing to surrender the Isle of Pines and the coal mining territory desired by this government is not improbable if the opposition to reciprocity should be successful. The president and cabinet undoubtedly foresaw that contingency when they took their stand for fair dealing with Cuba against the high protectionists of the house. The first duty of the new Cuban congress will be the ratification of a treaty with the United States embodying the stipulations of the Platt amendment.

Seven distinct points are authorized in the Platt amendment, which will be embodied in treaty form, to be ratified by the senate of the United States, and the senate of Cuba, viz:

First—Cuba shall not make treaties with foreign nations that might impair her independence.

Second—That no debt or obligation shall be assumed by the young republic which cannot be met by the revenues of the island.

Third—Cuba shall consent to a proposition from the United States to intervene to maintain her independence.

Fourth—The acts of the military governor shall be ratified.

Fifth—That so far as possible, present sanitary plans of the island shall be executed.

Sixth—The title of the Isle of Pines shall be determined by a future agreement between the United States and Cuba.

Seventh—That the government of Cuba shall sell or lease to the United States land necessary to coal and naval stations.

If the United States congress should decline to touch the question of Cuban concessions it would be argued in Cuba that it would not be reasonable to expect the Cuban senate to ratify the concessions sought by the Platt amendment. Chairman Payne and his associates on the ways and means committee have awakened to a realization of the seriousness of the situation in Cuba.

MEXICAN RESTAURANTS.

They Now Furnish Few Typical Mexican Dishes to Travelers.

The fear of encountering nothing but "Mexican chili cooking" south of the Rio Grande is doubtless one thing that has contributed to delay the visits of a good many who desire to see this interesting old country. It need not. The average traveler will see a few typical Mexican dishes unless he goes into the interior away from main traveled roads. Many of the best restaurants in Mexico are French, but the cooking of the country generally does not differ from American methods of preparing food nearly as much as is popularly supposed abroad.

Fruits and vegetables are found here that are not known on the northern tables, and a few highly seasoned dishes are served that are greatly relished by both natives and acclimated foreigners, but the staple articles, such as roasts, soups, stews, fish and the well-known vegetables, are all cooked in much the same way that they are in the United States.

Allowance must necessarily be made for quality in many places, but in all the larger cities of Mexico very fair restaurants are to be found. Many of them serve excellent meals at very reasonable prices. Most of the popular restaurants in the capital serve dinners or suppers, which are very much alike, for 75 cents in Mexican silver, and regular board, with three meals a day, for $30 a month. The meals are, as a rule, abundant and very good, considering the prices charged. For a little more than $1 in American money table d'hote meals can always be found at the best French restaurants that are very good and that will satisfy all but the most fastidious. —Modern Mexico.

A SHARP PROVOST.

Waited Until He Was Asked to Enter the Office.

The University of Pennsylvania has not a large endowment, and that it needs the means to pay its current expenses and put up new buildings is due in great measure to its provost, Charles C. Harrison. His little black subscription book is well known in many a downtown office—too well known, a prominent broker told him long ago. Mr. Harrison was breaking persistently with him for a broker, but in vain. Finally the broker said:

"See here, Mr. Harrison, I will give you something on one condition."

"Very well, Mr. T.—" said the provost, "name it."

"The condition is that you promise never to come into my office again until I ask you to do so."

"Certainly, Mr. T.—" I agree to that," said the provost promptly, and walked out smiling with a check for $3,000.

A month or so later the broker heard a knock at his door. "Come in," he called, and in walked Mr. Harrison. He had the black book under his arm.

"Good morning, Mr. T.—" he said; "I want you to help me with a little university matter I am—"

"Look here, Mr. Harrison," the broker continued, "when I gave you that last thousand dollars wasn't it on the express condition that you wouldn't come into my office again unless I invited you?"

"Why, yes," returned the provost. "I believe that was the understanding. But didn't you say 'Come in' just now when I knocked?"

"They say the check this time was for five thousand.—Philadelphia Times.

THE COWBOY'S JOYOUS LIFE.

Happiest Moment When a Trainload of Tenderfeet is in Town.

There is joy in the hearts of the cowboys who are gathered for the winter in the little cow towns along the line of the Great Northern railway in northern Montana. The railway company has announced its indignation at the actions of the boys and they are gleeful in consequence. To stir up the wrath of a great railway corporation is a luxury not often given to the boys who punch cows.

The management of the railway takes exception to the habit the boys have formed of letting off revolvers with apparent recklessness during the passage of passenger trains through the town. It is an amusement dear to the soul of the cowboy. Just now he has more money than he has at any other time of the year, and also has more ammunition. The presence of a passenger train at the station, with its load of outlanders, moves him to show off his badness. He whoops and yells and fires his revolver until the train has pulled away, then he relaxes into his everyday self, satisfied that he has scared the passengers to a frazzle. But Mr. Hill says this is reprehensible, and must stop. Will it stop? Well.

After all, the boys do no very great amount of damage. They enjoy their innocent little amusement of shooting holes in the sky and trying to impress the tenderfeet with their more or less very human juvenile desire to show off, and when they let out a fusillade of shots and a series of yells calculated to straighten out the kinks in a sleeping car porter's hair they are only trying to put some color and romance into their very unromantic and practical lives. The only harm is to the nerves of the passengers, but just think what a lot the experience gives the passengers to write about! What lurid letters can they send home of adventures in the wild and woolly! What delicious thrills of excitement and terror can be felt in those few moments at the cow town depot! Why, it's a slice of real life drama, better than a bushel of Hamlet Garland's stories. It is an open question whether the passengers secretly do not like the thing, for all the protests they may make to the railway people. But it will be interesting to observe the attempts to stop the cowboys—Amazons Standard.

MANUAL TRAINING.

Dr. Fall Discusses the Question in Its Relation to Rural Schools.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fall has issued an interesting bulletin in which he discusses the question of manual training in the rural schools of Michigan, first laying down the proposition that the education of the child cannot properly be begun, much less successfully completed, without the development of the hand, eye and training—the use of the hand, eye and other sense organs. He admits that the general feeling now is that only large cities can give these benefits, but expresses the belief that it is not beyond the boundary line of the possible to think of every boy and girl as enjoying these advantages. He says that the commonly accepted idea of manual training, which is tool work for boys and cooking and sewing for girls, needs a further enlargement. It means more than handwork, having to do with every form of sense manipulation. It is careful hearing and exact seeing. It develops the sensitive touch and the critical hand.

In furtherance of his idea that manual training in its broadest sense can be successfully given in the rural schools, Professor Fall suggests that there should be placed in the hands of each pupil studying measurements a foot rule and yardstick, and he should be requested to make careful measurements with these. His attention should be called to the fact that the ordinary 16-foot board makes a good rod stick with which he should measure the school yard and adjoining fields. He will walk a mile that he may have a distinct physical sense of that distance, etc. For the study of liquid and dry measure every school should possess the following measures: Gill, pint, quart and gallon, half-peck, half-bushel and bushel. There should also be a large box containing at least a wagonload of clean sand or gravel for the purpose of practical examples in the use of these measures.

For the study of avoidance weight, and no other should be taught in the lower grades, there should be a set of scales for the purpose of weighing the sand, etc.

With this work should be correlated such exercises as measuring and estimating the capacity of the dinner pail. How much food does a healthy boy eat in a day? How many bushels of wheat does the woodbox hold? The weight of various articles. Measure the circumference of an apple. Take the chest measurement of each pupil after expiration and after forced inspiration, noting the expansion.

In the fifth and sixth grades should come measurements of fields, finding the area in acres and values at prices as near the actual value as can be determined. Such pupils should become very familiar with 40-rod, 80-rod and mile measures, and when the district road is drawn to the school yard and piled, no teacher should miss that opportunity of making his teaching partake of real life by having each pupil measure the wood, handling in sealed results, after which there should be comparisons, corrections and explanations for those who have made mistakes.

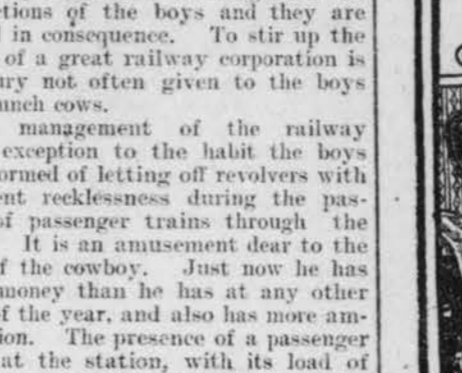

Professor Fall does not advise the purchase of high-priced school apparatus, which is often unusable, but most earnestly advises and urges that school officers provide such material as is mentioned here, and having provided it, insist that teachers shall use it and care for it.

"Our teaching of arithmetic is too bookish," says Superintendent Fall; "too impractical and too far removed from real life. As a result much that is taught is not understood and our young people leave school with their eyes but half open."

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by People's Drug Store.

A LITTLE BIG WASTE.

DISTINGUISH between economy and wisdom. Sitting at home to save shoe-leather is economy, but it is scarcely wisdom. In the same way, doing without Ivory Soap is economy but it isn't wise; your risks are greater than all possible saving. Every cheap soap contains free alkali. Now, free alkali will eat its way through the new oil cloth on the kitchen floor. Imagine, then, what it will do in a single Monday's washing! Is such economy wise?

NOVEL USE FOR A PAWNSHOP. Made a Cloak Room by a Man Who Wanted to Check His Coat. "Human ingenuity has no metes and bounds," said T. P. Morris of Pittsburg, "and to say there is nothing new under the sun is to challenge criticism. For there always is if only it be that particular day upon which the sun is shining. I recently struck a brand new thing. I came in town with a friend who was wearing a magnificent fur coat. In the country the morning had been cold, but in town it was warmer, and the coat became uncomfortable. A short distance from the station he went into a pawnshop and taking off his coat, asked 'Isaac' if he would lend him $1 on it. The proprietor examined it suspiciously and then gave an eager affirmative. He gave the coat and my friend received the ticket, and they parted with seemingly mutual satisfaction. I did not like to ask questions, and as he made no explanation I remained in the dark until afternoon, when I ran into my friend on my way to the train. He was without his coat, but when we reached the pawnshop he went in and the shop-keeper then produced his ticket and laid it down together with $1.03, the 2 cents being for one month's interest on the $1 borrowed in the morning. Once on the street, I insisted on an explanation of this extraordinary maneuver. "'Oh, it's very simple,' he made reply. 'If I'd checked it anywhere else I'd have had to pay 10 cents or a quarter, and besides I wouldn't have been sure of its being properly cared for, or that some one in the coat room would not take a chance and 'hit' it because of its value. Now, the pawnbroker is a perfectly reputable person, and therefore, I would get it back safe and sound. I also knew he would take proper care of it. Just see how beautifully he has brushed it, and finally, it only cost me three cents.' "I said nothing, for I was lost in wonder at his ingenuity, and I now understood the reason why he was more successful than his fellow men in business." —New York Tribune.

BRAND NEW BOATS.

Enable Dominion Line to Announce Improved Service.

The Dominion line announces a regular weekly passenger service between Boston and Liverpool via Queenstown this season—Saturdays, maintained by their famous steamers, Commowealth and New England, and two new twin screw steamers, the Haverford and Merion. The Dominion line will also have weekly sailings between Montreal and Portland and Liverpool, in addition to their Boston-Mediterranean service.

The Haverford was built last year, and made her first sailing from Southampton to New York in September. The Merion was launched last month and is now receiving her boilers and engines.

Both were constructed by J. Brown & Co., Limited, at Clydebank. They are sister ships, 11,133 tons gross, length 530 feet, beam 59 feet, and depth of hold 35.9 feet. Their speed is about 32 knots.

They have spacious accommodations for first-class cabin passengers in a deck, lower amidships. They carry 125 sailors and 500 storage passengers. These ships also have large cargo capacity and refrigerators for fresh beef. The Merion will make her first sailing from Boston March 22, and the Haverford May 3. The sailing day from Boston and Liverpool will be changed in March from Wednesday to Saturday.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Marquette Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, Diabetes, Dean's Kidney Pills cure them all. Marquette people endorse our claim. Mr. C. C. Young, of 127 E. Michigan street, painter and decorator, says: "I had such pains through my back and loins at times that I could scarcely keep at my work. The kidney secretions became affected, were highly colored, unnatural, irregular and deposited a heavy dark sediment. I could not rest comfortably at night, lay awake for hours at a time and was rarely able to secure more than three or four hours sleep during a night. I saw Dean's Kidney Pills advertised, procured them at the Stafford Drug Co.'s store and began to use them. I felt relief almost at once. They relieved the irritated condition of my nerves. I was able to enjoy a good night's rest and arose in the morning feeling strengthened and refreshed." Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. yearful owners that they have caused considerable damage in "barking" shrubbery and shrubbery, the depredations being committed during the night time. During the night rabbits can be seen scooting here and there in many sections of the city.

The game of indoor ball at the Casino rink Saturday evening resulted in a victory for the A. O. U. W. team, which defeated the Queen City Hotel nine by the score of 26 to 16. The match was a batting contest, characterized by errors which showed lack of practice work. The game was witnessed by a good-sized crowd and was interesting despite the number of tallies rolled up.

Manager Louis Grabower has just completed his annual inventory after conducting a very successful year's business, and is now at work putting in his new spring stock. He will soon announce his new lines of fashionable spring dry goods. His store will make the best showing of the coming spring that it has ever made, and that is saying a great deal, Grabower's stock always being attractive.

It is reported to The Mining Journal that agents representing a Milwaukee concern are making a house-to-house canvass, selling goods from sample. It is suggested to the ladies who are disposed to deal with the "fly-by-nights" that before making purchases they look over the local houses and compare the quality and price of the goods on display there with those shown by the itinerants. The comparison will result in the Marquette merchants getting the business, or The Mining Journal will miss its guess.

George Mitchell made a good showing at the skating races at Milwaukee, but with the noted skaters of the country participating it was hardly to be expected he would carry off the honors. He participated at Marquette recently, and was likewise successful at the Cream City tournament, with John S. Johnson, Thorvald Thomson and Mitchell closely trailing after. All the races were very closely contested, though Mitchell was greatly hampered by the seven-lap circular track, which was quite in contrast to the rink here. In the one-mile contest, Mitchell won third place, defeating Johnson for the place, with the other two skaters but a few feet in the lead. The Marquette man was fourth both in the two-mile and three-mile races, with all the contestants closely bunched. The Milwaukee people expressed the opinion that Mitchell was a "comer" and within a year or two will cause the present champions to take a back seat.

BE LOYAL TO MARQUETTE.

Comparisons are odious. But did it ever impress you how unreasonable it is for you to place your orders for dry goods with agents representing outside firms when you can buy the same class of goods from your home merchants and at as little or less price?

Did you know that we are showing a remarkably choice line of goods this spring, and that we buy them from the same importers that Marshall Field & Co., Mandel Bros., Chapman and all the other good houses buy from, and that it is at a price that is less than you are paying these firms, besides saving the express charges?

Many loyal ladies who believe in supporting home industries, and especially an establishment like ours, have been kind enough to express their appreciation of the large and varied assortment of new spring goods we are showing and frankly admit that our prices are much less than samples they have received from these large city stores and also those shown by agents, and we acknowledge our obligations to all such customers.

It has been a subject for much discussion among business men throughout this upper country how to keep out this class of agents. Let the ladies stand by their home merchants who pay taxes and help build up your city, your churches, your schools and indirectly if not directly contribute to the well-being of every home in Marquette; we say let the ladies refuse to patronize these people and the question of keeping them out will be solved. We appeal to the ladies of Marquette to stamp out this injustice.

DOLPH IS PAROLED.

Prisoner at the Penitentiary Here is to Go Free.

Some time ago the state board of pardons acted favorably on the application for pardon of Charles Dolph, sent from Owasco in 1885 to Marquette for twenty years for criminal assault. This has now been amended so that a parole will be issued. It has developed that Dolph was the victim of a conspiracy on the part of a woman, with whom he was living, and a man whom she learned to love more than Dolph. Being anxious to get rid of the latter, it is alleged that the pair accused him of assaulting the woman's daughter. Feeling against Dolph ran very high at the time, and he claims to have pleaded guilty in order to escape lynching, which was threatened. Developments appear to bear out this theory.

Ralph Bingham AT M. E. CHURCH Monday Evening, Feb. 24th.

Major E. P. McKissick, of Asheville, N. C. says: "Speaker Thomas B. Reed told me that he never in his whole life enjoyed anything in the shape of a story as he did Ralph Bingham's 'Tiresome Story Teller' at the Grillon dinner, Washington, D. C. I thought DeWitt Talnage, Dr. DeFew, Tom Reed and a lot of those big wigs would laugh themselves to death."
Rev. Fred Winslow Adams, of New Haven, Conn., writes as follows: "I reiterate my convictions that Ralph Bingham is certainly a wizard with the violin, and the most original, unique and altogether most successful entertainer on the platform today."
The Daily (Chillicothe, O.) Advertiser says: "No criticism can convey an idea of how Mr. Bingham entertains his audiences. They laugh when he laughs and weep when he weeps. His powers are a heaven-born gift."
"Ralph Bingham is a star entertainer, with his unctuous dialect, his brilliant violin solos and his songs."—Boston Traveler.
"Simply marvelous! He must be seen and heard to be appreciated. Words fail to express his novel and remarkable powers."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.
"Mr. Bingham is a humorist, impersonator, violinist and a pianist of great ability. From the beginning of the performance to the end his audience is 'with him.' A natural actor, his spontaneous expressions are brimming with wit."—Easton (Mich.) Gazette.
Rev. H. N. Barbee, Pastor of Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of Athens, Ala., writes as follows: "Ralph Bingham was with us last night and as at all preceding engagements gave us a splendid performance—refined, clean and chaste. All endorsed him as the jolliest artist in every line we have ever had on our platform."
J. R. Thompson, Principal Greensburg High School, Greensburg, Ky., says: "While as a violinist and vocalist Ralph Bingham possesses skill that is charming, yet his great power as an impersonator and delineator of character stamps his work as marvelous. In short he is nothing less than phenomenal."

SKI CONTESTS EXCITING.

Jumpers Made a Creditable Showing in Saturday's Tournament.

Over 800 people witnessed the ski jumping contests Saturday afternoon, and despite that the conditions were not favorable to good work, the jumpers gave a splendid exhibition. Olaf Holemaoe made the best record among the local jumpers, but it was made in the long jumping match, not in the regular contests. Con Thompson was the victor in the latter, the scores of the various jumpers being:

Con Thompson	56	62½	58
Leonard Olsen	46	59	67½
Christ Peterson	55	58½	79
Thomas Lokken	57½	55	73½
Peter Handberg	62	55½	67
Olaf Holemaoe	52½	55	54½
Thomas Walters	43	49½	50½
Victor Nelson	58	55½	56½
Albert Quall	35	51½	49
Matt Johnson	44	51	49
Martin Quall	46½	45	42
Alvid Braastad	41	44½	45

The asterisk indicates that the jumps thus marked were characterized by falls. Gustav Bye, as was expected, made the best "standing" jump of the day. He was suffering from his strained shoulder, but he made two leaps to satisfy the people who had come to the slide to see the famous expert. That he made 71 feet and stood, with the track as soft and unfavorable as it was, is remarkable in itself.

Olaf Holemaoe came the closest to Bye's record, making sixty-nine feet. Seventy-five feet was the best jump of the day; it was made by Oscar Nelson, who, however, fell. Had Holemaoe stood on his three distance jumps, he would have won the contest. Unfortunately, he showed up comparatively poor in the regular race, and only when the long distance contest was started did he round into form.

Some of the contestants seemed to find the slide strange. The bump had been raised six inches and the depression which made the slide uneven had been filled in. Before another big contest is pulled off, the bump will be raised another foot and the slide will be coated with more snow.

The following is the standing of the jumpers in the ordinary race, taking into consideration their form and appearance in the jump and after they landed after a jump:

Con Thompson	250
Len Olsen	223
Christ Peterson	216
Thomas Lokken	215½
Peter Handberg	213
Olaf Holemaoe	194
Thomas Walters	189
Victor Nelson	179
Albert Quall	177
Matt Johnson	175
Martin Quall	153½
Arvid Braastad	132½

There is no question that many were disappointed in the showing made by the "mascot," Charlie Cornish. However, Charlie was not in good form, and fell every time he jumped. He made some good attempts, however, clearing 62½ feet twice and 67 once. There were a number of bad falls, and three of the boys broke their skis. No one was seriously hurt, however, and all the falls resulted in nothing more than a shaking up for the jumper, except in the case of those who broke their skis. Walter Day was probably the most unfortunate of the jumpers, as he fell twice before he left the bump. Heretofore he has exhibited good form, and his bad showing is only explainable on the ground that for the first time he was trying the shorter skis, and that he was therefore unable to handle himself right. If Day can acustom himself to the short skis he should make some record-breaking jumps before the season ends.

LITTLE JOE MAKING SKIS.

Football Mascot Is Making Himself Solid With the Girls.

Master Joe Rashleigh, the mascot of the Ishpeming high school football team, is now a particular favorite with the girls of the school. During the past week or more the little chap has been putting in his spare time making skis for the little girls of his class. Joe's ability in the manufacture of the ski is limited, but he has been quite successful in getting all the barrel staves he needed to turn out a pair for every one of the tots. And the skis have been accepted with thanks by Joe's girl friends.

The barrel stave ski is quite the proper thing for youngsters who are unable to possess the other kind. Merchants of the city report that it is quite impossible to keep many barrels on hand. The "kids" are after them continually. The boys and girls who ride the stave skis are not particular as to how they are made, so long as the straps hold them to their feet. Some of the boys go over some steep slides with this style of ski, though they frequently take bad tumbles.

Our assortment of spring goods, in dry goods, furnishings, etc., is most complete. Our prices will always be found right. Drop in and see us. Finnish Mercantile association.

Major and Mrs. Birkhauser were accompanied to Ishpeming by Dr. and Mrs. Wanko, who have also been in the Philippines for the past two years. All enjoyed the ski contests greatly.

KORHONEN WON SKI RACE.

Beat Maatta in Long Distance Contest by Twenty-Seven Seconds.

Robert Korhonen won the ski race around Iron Cliffs, Saturday morning, in one hour, twenty minutes and twenty-three seconds. He bested Charles Maatta, the local crack, by twenty-seven seconds.

Korhonen and Maatta have been rivals for the championship in this section for some time. The former is a resident of Humboldt. The result was so close, however, that Maatta has no cause to feel discouraged, and it is possible that a special race will be arranged between the two men before the season closes. The time Saturday was somewhat slow, but the weather conditions were responsible for that.

There were fully 1,000 people at the starting point. Before the riders were sent away they lined up and had their pictures taken. Following are the names and the times of the four winners:

Robert Korhonen	1:20:23.
Charles Maatta	1:29:50.
Jacob Peltola	1:23:50.
Jacob Petajama	1:28:59.

The prizes were $20, $15, $10 and $5. The race was the best contest this season, but the conditions were so unfavorable that the local enthusiasts hope to arrange another race this winter.

NEW MILLINERY PARLORS.

Miss Hannah Kennedy, one of the best known and most popular milliners in the upper peninsula, will engage in business in Ishpeming this spring. Her parlors will be in Rooms 1 and 3, Dundon block, second floor, immediately above T. H. Dawson's store. Miss Kennedy could not have procured a more desirable place, as the rooms are large and are neat and clean. Miss Kennedy will doubtless control a good trade here, as her reputation as a milliner has always been of the best. She is at present in Chicago, though she will be home soon with a view to opening her parlors not later than Holy week.

NO DOG RACE IN SIGHT.

D. D. Mayne, until recently superintendent of the Ishpeming schools, was in the city late last week. A few weeks ago, before Mr. Mayne tendered his resignation, he announced that he would take steps for the arrangement of a dog race here on Washington's birthday. His removal from the city rather upset his plans and the race will not be held. Mr. Mayne stated to The Mining Journal representative that he is very anxious to see a good dog race, and that if he can spare a few days later in the winter he will come up and endeavor to have a contest pulled off.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

The Frank E. Long company left last night for Escanaba.

F. M. Sackrider of Houghton visited his family here yesterday.

Gus Varebrook and wife of Marquette spent Saturday with Ishpeming friends.

Charlie Farm came up from Sault Ste. Marie Saturday on a few days' visit with his family.

Miss Mary Ames came down from Calumet Saturday to spend a couple of days with her parents.

Miss Delia Bright, who is teaching school at Hancock, spent Saturday and Sunday with her people in this city.

Mrs. Joseph Thoney, who had spent the past two months or so with relatives here, returned to her home at the Beaufort mine Friday.

John Hoyseth, who has been at Gladston for some time past, came up Saturday to visit relatives and incidentally to take in the ski race.

There was a large attendance Saturday evening at the Washington's Birthday entertainment given by the Bethany Young People's society.

A regular meeting of the Retail Clerks' union will be held in the Miners' union hall this evening. A large number of new candidates will be initiated.

Thomas P. Kelly's Lady minstrels will hold the boards at the local theatre tonight. Judging from the large advance sale of seats, the house will be well filled.

A few days more of such weather as has prevailed for nearly a week past and the sleighing will be knocked out in and about Ishpeming. All the crossings were bare yesterday.

Harry and Howard Dunn, sons of Conductor Dunn of the Milwaukee road, were here Saturday from Milwaukee to see the ski jumping contests. They secured some excellent snap-shots of the ski jumpers.

J. C. W. Chipman and D. J. Slaney, cashier and assistant cashier, respectively, of the Lake Superior Iron company, left Friday evening for Duluth to attend a meeting of the chief clerks of the United States Steel corporation.

The young man from Marquette who lost a job chain at the Trainmen's ball can get it by calling on the Ishpeming representative of The Mining Journal.

The chain was picked up in the hall and has been handed to the reporter.

The boarders of the Johnston House enjoyed a colonial supper Saturday. All the ladies of the house, as well as some of the gentlemen, appeared in costumes of the Revolutionary war period. The spread, prepared by Mrs. Johnston and her assistants, was heartily enjoyed.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Wall was held yesterday afternoon from St. John's church. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a long string of cutters, bearing friends of the deceased and her family. A number of relatives from outside attended the obsequies.

The reserved seat tickets for the entertainment to be given at the opera house tomorrow evening by Ralph Birmingham, under auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church, will be placed on sale today at Tillson's. The entertainment will be the last of the winter course.

Upper Peninsula.

The ice road between St. Ignace and Mackinaw Island has gone into commission.

Plans have been accepted for the new Catholic church to be erected at St. Ignace. It will cost $14,000.

Thomas Powers has started a stone quarry at Bagley, in which he has found, besides the fine quality of building stone, considerable copper.

During the last quarter thirty-five prisoners have been confined in the Delta county jail. There are now four prisoners in the jail, three males and one female.

There are between four and five hundred carloads of Cundy mine ore sidetracked between Iron Mountain and Chicago on the North Western road. The congestion is caused by the inability of the furnace company to handle the ore.

Clerk Corp of Mackinaw county has a copy of the Mackinaw Herald—No. 13, Vol. 1—published on the Island by James L. Gantt and dated July 13, 1859. The paper has been preserved all these years by Mr. Corp's mother. It is just a single half sheet, printed, however, on both sides. A unique item is an expression of thanks to captains of passing boats for the favor of late papers from outside.

Fred Smith, employed in a lumber camp near Foster City, recently succeeded in getting a "raised" check cashed in Escanaba at a saloon. The check was originally for $8.46 and Smith had added a cipher to the $ making it $80.46. The check passed a local bank and was also honored by a Milwaukee bank, but the forgery was detected when it reached the Oshkosh Union bank. Smith's whereabouts are unknown.

Rev. James A. Kennedy of Grand Haven has notified Jay W. Sutton of his acceptance of the call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of the Soo, which was extended to him some weeks ago. Mr. Kennedy was in the Soo during the winter on the invitation of the Presbyterian congregation and he proved to be a man eminently qualified to take up the work. His prompt acceptance of the call is gratifying to his future parishioners. Mr. Kennedy will arrive to assume his new duties about April 1.

Earl Winn met with quite a serious accident in the Girard Lumber company's mill at Dunbar the other day in which his face was considerably disfigured. He was at the mill with a number of other boys, who were playing pranks on each other, and was standing at the foot of the lathe slide at the time. One of his companions showed a large slab down the slide "just to see Winn jump." The latter looked up just as the slab shot from the spout and it struck him squarely in the face, breaking his nose and cutting him badly.

The dry goods and clothing store conducted by Louis Schram at Escanaba has been closed as a result of a meeting of his creditors. The liabilities amount to about $2,000 with assets at about $2,000. The creditors are the J. V. Farrell company of Chicago and Ed. Erickson of Escanaba. Solomon Greenhook has been appointed trustee and has taken charge of the stock. Mr. Schram became financially embarrassed about a year ago, but matters were adjusted so that he was enabled to continue in business. Since that time the business has been conducted under his wife's name. Mr. Schram has left the city.

Sheriff Cudlip of Dickinson county has a prisoner for thirty days. The offense of which he has been guilty is breaking quarantine. He was employed at a logging camp between Metropolitan and Braden. After small pox developed there quarantine was declared by Dr. Dockery. The men were allowed to work, but watch was kept on them and they were carefully rounded up each evening. Some evenings ago when the men were counted one was found missing and it proved to be Campbell. Enquiry developed the fact that he had been into town and slept at a boarding house. He shared the bed with another man, who later contracted smallpox.

The Menominee Street Railway company purchased eight new motor cars in St. Louis, of the latest improved pattern, which will add greatly to the accommodations of the system. Three of the cars will be at Menominee within thirty days, but it will take longer before the others can be secured as the car companies are filled with orders and cannot finish more than three motors within that time. The consolidated companies have now a total of forty-three cars, trailers and motors, and five of the latter will be replaced by new ones as soon as possible. Rails for the double tracks have been ordered from the Carnegie Steel company of Pittsburgh. This is about the only company that could furnish them within the time desired, as all the rest are rushed to their full capacity and could not fill orders for many months. Some of them could not deliver until next November or December and some would take no more orders at all.

The laying of the rails will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground and about five hundred tons will be required to complete the double track belt line. Superintendent Daniels says that a great amount of time will be saved by the double track system.

NEW PLAN TO FIGHT FIRE.

Negaunee Department Takes the Blaze to the Water, a Unique Idea.

People of the upper peninsula have often demonstrated their claim to being among the most progressive and modern in the United States, but at fire which took place here last Thursday evening they certainly established a new record in regard to fire fighting.

Much thought has been given to devising better methods of combatting the devouring element, and apparatus has been invented without end. Means have been provided for getting to fires with the least possible delay, and to get water upon the flames without stint. But it remained for Negaunee to discover an improvement in plans for extinguishing fires which is as unique as anything which has been noted.

Briefly the new plan is to take the fire to the water, instead of carrying the water to the fire. Simple and effective as this idea would appear to be, it would seem that no one has heretofore utilized it.

The occasion which gave rise to the using of this novel plan was a fire in the yards of the South Shore road. A fishing boat which was being transported from Marquette to Bayfield, loaded upon a flat car, had been sidetracked in the Negaunee yards. Anderson Bros. of Marquette had disposed of the boat to Bayfield fishermen. It contained a gasoline auxiliary engine, and was covered with canvas to protect it from the weather. In some manner the gasoline in the tank became ignited about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, while the boat was standing on the car in the yard.

The inflammable nature of the fuel made quick and brilliant blaze, and soon the clangor of the fire bell told the people of the city and the members of the fire department that there was a fire in progress.

Prompt response was given, and it was but a few minutes when the brave fire "laddies" were on the scene to do their duty. But it was found that it would be a big task to stretch hose from the nearest fire plug and get water upon the blaze. Then some brilliant genius had an inspiration. Quickly uncoupling the flat car with its burning freight from the cars, willing hands were soon engaged in pushing it down the yards to where there is a water plug used to fill the tanks of the South Shore engines. A short hose connects this plug with the reservoirs of the tenders.

The hose was brought in use and the interior of the fish boat was soon flooded and the fire extinguished with neatness and dispatch.

The damage was not serious, although the interior of the boat was badly scorched. Speculation as to the cause of the fire was overshadowed by the entirely new and original manner in which the fire "laddies" were on the scene to do their duty. The Negaunee fire department admitted themselves most creditably, and the man who discovered the new way to fight fire has earned a right to deathless fame.

MARKETTO LONESOME.

Receives Small Sympathy from People of His Own Nationality.

Dominic Marketto is meeting with little sympathy from among his own people, and the assaults which was made upon Manuel Cavallo is being condoned by the Italian residents of Negaunee without exception.

Marketto had few callers during his incarceration in the city jail, and his isolation from the world is wearing on him. He has been very lonely some of the time, but that has not changed his policy of reticence regarding the charge which rests against him. He has maintained silence on that point from the time of his arrest by Chief Gribble, and shows no disposition to make any statement regarding his troubles.

Cavallo is doing well, and there is now practically no question as to his recovery. Dr. Hudson has been constant in his attendance upon the injured man. Though grave fears that complications might ensue, Cavallo is recovering from the effects of the knife thrust with remarkable rapidity. No date can yet be set, however, for Marketto's preliminary hearing.

Marketto has shown little interest in Cavallo's condition, and despite the fact that his former friend's death would place him in a very serious plight, with chances of losing his liberty for life, he has exhibited no desire to know whether he is dead or alive.

WILL RETURN TO AFRICA.

Charles Chapman will leave about the first of the coming month for South Africa. He spent several years there prior to the outbreak of the war. He returned to this city about two years ago, though he has been anxious since then to go back as he made big money out there. Mr. Chapman held a position as engineer at one of the mines at Johannesburg. His father has been there for a number of years past. At the time Charles left Africa the old gentleman thought of coming with him, but finally made up his mind to stay there until the end of war.

Alexander Maitland went to Chicago Friday, where he joined his family and proceeded with them to French Lick Springs for a short stay.

The supper which was to have been given Saturday evening by the ladies of the Presbyterian church has been postponed until Thursday evening.

George A. McDonald, cashier at the Regent mines, has gone to Duluth to attend a meeting of the chief clerks of the United States Steel corporation.

There were a number of Negaunee people in the crowd of Mystic Shrine, who attended the semi-annual ceremonial session of the order in Negaunee Friday evening.

Octav Le Beauf of Palmec reached home Friday morning. He broke a leg in the woods of Northern Wisconsin about three weeks ago and had been unable to be moved until now.

F. B. Taylor, operator at the South Shore depot for some time past, has resigned his position, and left for the copper country Saturday. He will be succeeded by a Mr. Best of London, Ontario.

Ida Amelia Solemn died Friday from typhoid fever. She was aged twenty years. The death occurred at the home of Jacob Sale. Miss Solemn was a popular young lady and her demise is deeply regretted.

The John Griffith company will present "The King's Rival" at the McDonald Opera house next Friday evening. John Griffith is well known in the upper peninsula as a dramatic artist second to none of those who make this territory, and the fact that an open date has enabled Negaunee to secure the attraction will be learned with satisfaction by Negaunee theater patrons.

The Sawaing Blade says that two bachelor farmers near a village have been taken in recently on advertisements in Chicago papers of women who were looking for husbands. One was touched for $300 and the other for $75, but the prospective wives have not yet put in an appearance, nor are they likely to.

Three 14-year-old boys were arrested at West Branch last week for burglarizing a local grocery store Sunday night and stealing tobacco and other articles. They were confined and have been sent to the industrial school at Lansing, to remain until they are 17 years old, by which time it is hoped they will have acquired more sense than to try any more such work.

An inventory of the estate of the late Governor Pingree has been filed in the probate court of Wayne county, the appraisal having been made by Carl E. Schmidt and Horace H. Rackham. The total value of the estate, without the life insurance, is given as $324,254.14. The interest of the estate in the firm of Pingree & Smith is fixed at $272,824.14, and the value of the residence on Woodward avenue at $45,000.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland is comfortably located at the Colonial hotel at Mt. Clemens. He has there the advice of his physicians for a rest and the baths, and evidently does not want to be bothered by a lot of visitors. The report of his arrival spread around town but frequent inquiries at the hotel always received the same denial, that Mr. Cleveland was not there, and they did not know when he would come. Some of the prominent Democrats of Mt. Clemens, however, have been invited down to the hotel, and have said they had seen Mr. Cleveland. The city would be glad to give him a loyal welcome, but in evident regard to his desire will not intrude on his privacy.

Charles Frisbie, Henry Thomas and George Oliver, Jr. of Allegan, by their attorneys, have filed a bill of complaint in the Allegan county circuit court asking for an injunction restraining the Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo & South Haven Traction Co. from building a dam across the Kalamazoo river, near Allegan. The traction company proposes to dam the river and have a power plant at Allegan to generate electricity for its various street car lines. Frisbie and Thomas are two of the owners of what is known as "The Big Dam," located four miles from Allegan, constructed two years ago by the Kalamazoo Valley Electric Co., which supplies light and power to Kalamazoo, Battle Creek and other towns in that part of the state.

Mrs. J. C. Swank, wife of a farmer living about two miles southwest of Dowagiac, while driving across the Michigan Central railroad one day last week, had a narrow escape from death. She was driving a fine team of horses to a sleigh, taking her children to school. She did not hear an approaching train on account of a bunch of shrubs and claims the engineer did not sound the whistle for the crossing. Just as the team got on the track the engine struck them, tearing the horses from the sleigh and throwing them about one hundred feet, killing them both almost instantly. The sleigh tongue was broken off, leaving Mrs. Swank sitting upright, not over an arm's length from the moving train. Mrs. Swank was prostrated by the nervous shock she sustained. The team was valued at $250.

The youthful robbers who broke through the brick floor of the Muskegon Savings bank on the 9th instant and secured $300 in nickels, paper money and old coins, have been arrested and confessed have been obtained from two of the lads. The arrested boys are Bert Nicholson, Daniel Williams, Jr., and Joseph Nault, the latter being a Spanish-American war veteran. The chief of police, based on suspicion of Williams and subjected him to a rigid examination. The boy, who is twenty years old, confessed and implicated Nicholson and Nault. He accompanied the authorities to the old Davies foundry, where the stolen swag was found buried in the boiler room in a sack. Nault and Nicholson were immediately placed under arrest, and the former also made a confession. Jack Boomsletter and Harry Westcomb, who have been under arrest since the afternoon the burglary was discovered, are not implicated. Nicholson is married and has one child.

TEN OF THEM ARE ON THE CRIMINAL DOCKET.

Much interest in the Mapes Manure Case and the Manslaughter Case in which Miller, the Boy Hunter, is the Defendant.

The term of the circuit court which opens this morning gives promise of being unusually interesting. There are ten criminal cases, the majority being due to the alleged violation of the liquor laws, and twenty-five civil cases on the docket. It is at this term that the "odorous case" arising from the removal of the Mapes manure pile and in which Marshall Maney is the defendant, comes up for trial. Great interest is being taken in the proceedings and that the court room will be the Mecca of many interested spectators is assured in advance. TWO SPECIAL CARS. Necessary to Carry the Scenery of James O'Neill's Company. Liebler & Co.'s big scenic production of "Monte Cristo," with James O'Neill in his famous role of Edmond Dantes, which will be the attraction at the opera house Thursday evening, necessitates two special baggage cars to carry the scenery. The production is said to be one of the most elaborate affairs of the kind ever staged in this country. There are several scenes that deserve more than passing mention. The first act shows the harbor of Marseilles, with the townspeople waiting on the quay for the return of Dantes from the sea. As the scene progresses, a ship in full sail, enters the port, tacks about, and comes to anchor, swinging easily at her moorings, in full view of the audience. The storm scene is said to be the most realistic affairs of the kind ever seen on the stage. Forked lightning is shown, and the sea is seen in all its fury. At the close of the act, a thunderbolt flies from the heavens into the sea. The ball room scene, showing the conservatory and ball room of the Hotel De Morelet, is made in vari-colored marbles and is most elaborate. The closing scene shows the Forest of Fontainebleau, where the Count of Monte Cristo fights the famous duel at day-break. The trees and shrubbery are covered with a mantle of snow and few crystals, which glisten and glitter in the sunlight. The cast is the strongest that has ever been seen in Monte Cristo. The sale of seats for this important engagement will open tomorrow morning. BUYS MORE TIMBER. South Arm Lumber Company Secures Another Dead River Tract. The South Arm Lumber company, owner of the Dead River mill plant, has just made another purchase which adds a few more million feet to its holdings of standing timber. It has secured the timber on the south half of Section 24, Town 49, Range 27, in Ishpeming township and tributary to the Dead river, for a consideration of $6,500. The stumpage, which was sold by E. J. Anderson of Wausau, Wis., consists of pine, cedar and spruce which will be saved here. BEST OF THE COURSE. Ralph Bingham Will Tonight Again Delight an Audience. The appearance of Ralph Bingham at the Methodist church this evening will mark the conclusion of the pleasing series of entertainments given this winter under auspices of the Ladies Aid society. The attractions in the past have been first-class and have greatly pleased, but it is declared that much more enjoyment will be had from tonight's entertainment than from any of the others. Mr. Bingham is no stranger to Marquette, having delighted an audience here last winter, and will be remembered as having been "a whole show" in himself. He is a humorist, violinist, vocalist and raconteur, and bears the distinction of being the greatest single-hand artist in his particular field the world has ever known. Professor J. R. Thompson, principal of the Greensburg (Ky.) high school, says of Mr. Bingham: "He appeared at the college here last evening, and I have never in the great cities witnessed such a complete success. While as a violinist and vocalist he possesses skill that is charming, yet his great power as an impersonator and delineator of character stamps his work marvelous. In short, he is nothing less than phenomenal. Every man, woman and child in America should hear this intellectual prince—Ralph Bingham."

MAKES TRAVEL SAFER. Explanation of the New Route Selected for Lake Street.

The project under consideration by the common council for the changing and widening of Lake street appears to be misunderstood in some quarters. In brief, it contemplates the re-location of Lake street, in line with Mill street and just next to the bluff, from Hampton street southerly for a quarter of a mile. From that point forty feet is to be added to the width of the present Lake street for a distance of another quarter of a mile, this taking all the ground there is between the present line of the street and the bluff and necessitating the removal of the several houses now located there, as would be the case were any other project for widening the thoroughfare contemplated. From this latter point to the Carp River furnace, which also is a quarter of a mile stretch, it is proposed that Lake street be widened on the eastern side to a width that will give, with the railroad tracks moved over nearer the lake, fifty-three feet of room for public travel, which can be done without filling out on the water side. The advantages of the proposed change are that the railroad and public travel would be more widely separated than they are now and that the railroad companies, if they so desire, can fence off their rights-of-way from the public thoroughfare entirely. It will also permit of greater speed by trains and will reduce the danger to team traffic to a minimum. In connection with the plan, it is proposed by the owners of the Rolling Mill property to give to the South Shore road for yard purposes a part of the property next to the line of the present Lake street, the strip being about 1,700 feet long and including the old furnace site, in lieu of what is known as the "school house" yard. This exchange would make it practicable to reopen Marble street between Hampton and Garden and extend it from Mesnard to the foot of Champion street, giving a more direct entry into the business section of the city and a safe one as well, as only one railroad track would have to be crossed on the new route. The exchange would also make it practicable to reopen and extend Mill street to Mesnard, by which there would be a still greater saving in distance. Something like two hundred teams traverse Lake street daily, and as there are several railroad crossings to be crossed the travel is rather dangerous at any time. By the adoption of the new route—the re-location of Lake street as above related and the abandonment of the present thoroughfare southerly from the gas works for a quarter of a mile—not only a direct entry into the business section of the city is given but the danger is much curtailed. Sentiment is in favor of the adoption of the plan and it is likely that it will go through.
