NO NEGOTIATIONS IN PROGRESS.

He stated that the secretary had told him there are no negotiations in progress between the United States and Colombia concerning the Panama route, and the new minister from Colombia had not even presented his credentials; but that on the other hand, representatives of this country and those of Nicaragua and Costa Rica had been in consultation and had agreed upon practically all the points to be covered in the concession treaties, nothing really being left in that connection but to put the agreements in writing. He said the governments of those two countries had manifested a disposition to make all the concessions the United States could ask to add in the construction of a canal, and that among those concessions is one for a perpetual right of way.

AT THE TOP.

It is a laudable ambition to reach the top of the ladder of success. But many a man who reaches the topmost rung finds his position a torment instead of a triumph. He has sacrificed his health to success. A man can succeed and be strong if he heeds Nature's warnings. When there is indigestion, loss of appetite, ringing in the ears, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart; any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. By perfect and abundant nourishment distributed to each vital organ it enables the co-operation of all the organs to preserve the perfect health of the body.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes R. E. Secord, Esq., of 15 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could not bear any solid food in my stomach for a long time; felt melancholy and depressed. Could not sleep nor follow my occupation. Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Mayor Perry of Grand Rapids thinks Mayor Maybury of Detroit could defeat Bliss for the governorship in the coming election. There were some Democrats who held that opinion in 1900, but the election returns convinced them that they had counted too much on Billy Maybury's running capacity.

"Reciprocity is and has always been Democratic doctrine; in fact it is free trade in a restricted sense," says the Lansing Journal. So the Democratic party has always been in favor of partial protection. This will be news to the old-timers who have been shouting for free trade without any limitations. But the Lansing organ of Democracy is excusable for being somewhat mixed in its ideas as to what Democratic doctrine really is, there has been no doctrine "doctrin" of the creed of that party within recent years.

Arguing in favor of his ship subsidy bill the other day Senator Frye said that the shipping industry is the only great one in the country that has not been protected. It has managed to prosper fairly well without protection, so the proposition to tax the people for its benefit now is hardly defensible. Isn't it rather absurd to ask congress to bonus rich steamship lines at a time when even protectionists admit that the day has come when interests that have heretofore been protected should be permitted to get along without further coddling?

Prince Henry made a nice little speech before embarking for his return trip. He spoke feelingly of his reception by the American people and promised to tell his brother of how well we used him, closing with an expression of the hope that Germany and America will always be friends. The prince would get to be quite a talker if he remained in this land of free speech long enough. He would make a splendid American citizen, and if he ever loses his job under the emperor he can depend on getting a usufruct chance to earn a good living in this country. So his trip to see us was not made wholly in vain.

In a recent number of the Hastings Banner, edited and published by the Cook Brothers, who have won some fame of late by their virulent attacks on Governor Bliss, there appeared a two-column article scolding the governor for having signed the bill repealing the Michigan Central Railway company's special charter. His want of fidelity to the interests of the people in signing the bill was dwelt on with great force and vigor, the point being made that by repeal of the company's special charter a debt of several millions will be saddled on the people of the state. The Detroit News quite spoils the effect of the arraignment of Bliss on this charge by showing that the bill in question was passed by the last legislature under the Pingree administration, was signed by Governor Pingree, and that Bliss had nothing whatever to do with this "surrender of the rights of the people." It is now in order for the Cook brothers to go away back somewhere and sit down until their latest had break is forgotten.

Andrews, the Detroit bank wrecker, appears to have been absolutely devoid of conscience in his dealings with his associates in every venture in which he was engaged. It just has been discovered that he took $396,000 of an issue of first mortgage bonds of the Grand Rapids, Holland & Lake Michigan Rapid Railway, of which he was treasurer, and hypothecated them at banks or used them in lieu of money in deals that he made, treating the securities as if they were his own property. The total issue amounted to $1,500,000, and if his career had not been so suddenly cut short it is probable that he would have gotten away with the whole of it. The road has been put in an embarrassing position financially by his breach of trust, and has been compelled to ask its creditors to grant it an extension of time on its debts on account of the perversion of so large a share of its bonds to his own use by Andrews. Another concern that he has put in the hole lately is the Detroit Construction company, whose notes to the amount of $100,000 he obtained the cash on, applying the money to his own uses. Andrews must have been half crazed by desperation when he did these things, for he must have known that if discovery came nothing could save him from the penitentiary.

"WES" IS KEPT BUSY. The last interview given to the public by candidate-expected Stearns in the Detroit News to give expression to this whimsical opinion on the activity of Sylvanus Wessellus of Grand Rapids as producer of "canned" preparations of that kind. The ex-governor of western Michigan, Sylvanus Wessellus, is about as busy as a boy killing snakes these days. The Wessellus interview camera is working overtime, saying saucy, and, sometimes, really fierce, things about the Bliss combine. It undertakes to show that a railroad commissioner is not necessarily a Warwick, and that an ex-railroad commissioner is not necessarily relegated to silence and inactivity.

Those who have known both Mr. Pingree and Mr. Stearns can appreciate the difficulty of the task Mr. Wessellus has undertaken. They must also admire his audacity for supposing that he could make even a weak imitation of the Pingree type out of such unmagmatic material. Mr. Pingree was original in his way of thinking. He was fearless of opposition. He had no respect for the social amenities when he went after an opponent. His shrewdness was remarkable even for a Yankee, and his energy defied all dynameters. No one man could follow all his impetuous charges. It took a bureau of advisers. All that had to be done was to curb his impetuosity very deftly, and keep him on the track when he struck his characteristic curves. His advisers had little to do but to apply the brakes. There was always steam to spare.

In the case of Mr. Stearns, the task is quite different. He is not lacking in courage. He seems to lack steam. One can hear the lively scraping of the Wessellus shovel and the rattle of coal as the doughty ex-governor of western Michigan tries to make the Stearns pop valve blow off, but the best he has been able to do with his canned fuel up to date is to get up a feeble sizzling, which creates little alarm among the other train crew. Mr. Wessellus will be compelled to throw in considerable pitch and turpentine, and even then it is doubtful if he can make the people of Michigan believe he has another Pingree in training.

FREE WOOD PULP. The newspaper publishers of the United States, through their associations and by individual appeals, are bringing pressure to bear on congress to secure the removal of the duty on wood pulp and mechanically ground wood used in the manufacture of paper. Many of the publishers conduct papers which are advocates of the protective policy, and the point is made against these that they are inconsistent because they ask congress to put wood pulp on the free list. Answering this charge, the Grand Rapids Herald speaks for papers of its class as follows: Any manufacturer who appealed to congress to establish the tariff rates of the Dingley act was speaking in his own interest. Any manufacturer who has appealed to congress at any time for the removal of the tariff on the raw material used in his industry was speaking in his own interest. Why, then, should the publishers of newspapers be estopped, or restrained by modesty, from asking for the repeal of the duty on wood pulp or timber used in the manufacture of paper, or for the reduction of duty on news print paper itself?

There is a tariff of one-quarter of a cent a pound on bleached wood pulp, one-twelfth of a cent a pound on unbleached wood pulp if mechanically made, and one-sixth of a cent per pound if chemically made. The tariff on white paper upon which newspapers are printed is three-tenths of a cent per pound. If the price of foreign made paper is 2 cents per pound the duty amounts to 15 per cent ad valorem, or nearly $4,000 per annum on the quantity of paper The Grand Rapids Herald now uses. The material for the manufacture of wood pulp (spruce logs) has become scarce in this country, and paper manufacturers have been able to increase the price of paper very materially during the past three years. Canada and Norway have inexhaustible supplies of timber suitable for wood pulp, and this raw material should be admitted duty free.

The effect of the tariff on wood pulp has been to unnecessarily increase the price of white paper to consumers and the market value of spruce timber lands in this country. It is also, in fact, a premium upon the destruction of American spruce forests, already seriously encroached upon by the demands of the paper-making industry. In this way the public is interested in the people in general would be benefited by any saving in the price of raw material that would accrue to newspaper publishers. Competition is sufficiently strong to make it self-evident that the greater portion of any saving in cost of production is sure to be expended by newspaper publishers in making better newspapers.

This is a good argument for free wood pulp, but is it not an equally good one for free lumber? Also some other things that should be mentioned. The fact is, the tariff as it stands is full of qualities which should be eliminated, and could be without in any manner interfering with the application of the protective policy for the benefit of industries that stand in need of fostering. It is possible that it would be unwise to take up the question of revision of the schedules at this time, but the next congress should address itself to the task, and the people should bear this in mind when selecting the men who will represent them in that body.

"THE CORNER STORE." Four-Act Comedy Drama Will be Produced Here by Degree of Honor.

"The Corner Store," a very interesting four-act comedy drama which members of the local lodge of the Degree of Honor have been rehearsing some time past, will be produced next Monday evening at the town hall. The play is said to be one that will please Republic people as well as any amateur production ever put on here, and all who can possibly attend should be present, as it will not be presented a second time.

The admission prices will be so reasonable that the hall should, and doubtless will, be packed to the doors. The general admission will be twenty-five cents and the reserved seat tickets, which can now be had at Munson & Peterson's drug store, are thirty cents. Wise folk will get their seats early, as the desirable ones will all be taken long before the doors open Monday evening. Following is the cast of characters: Eli Wheeler, who keeps the corner store—Patrick White; Bud—his son, home from the city—George Donaldson; Harry Barton—Bud's cousin, a "drummer"—Thomas Tucker; Jimmy Flanagan, recently landed and remarkably green—D. J. White; Otto Guckenheimer, Joyville's chief of police—John Chard; Jasper White, always under suspicion—W. M. Farrell; Dora, Eli's niece and heiress to $60,000—Elizabeth Foley; Jerusha Jane Alvirah Ann Boggs, an orphan—Kate Zetler; Aunt Hannah, Eli's wife—Annie Parr.

THE PASTY WASN'T HIS.

The men at the mine are having no end of fun with one of their number, whose initials are J. D. W. One day recently the men congregated at the dry to eat their dinners. The man in question received a pail from a girl at the dry door. He supposed that the dinner was his. On opening the pail he discovered a steaming hot pasty. He was quite hungry and the pasty looked most inviting. He was so rejoiced that he held the pasty up to the view of the other men and then began throwing "hot air" about what a great cook his wife was. The boys all envied the old man, but their turn came when the fellow had about half finished the pasty. The girl who usually brings his dinner came in and handed him the pail. He then discovered that the pasty he had boasted so much about belonged to another man and that he got hold of it by mistake.

LOGGERS KNOCKED OUT.

The jobbers who are operating in this section did their best to continue their work in the woods during the soft spell. At some of the camps operations were continued last night and day just before the men came in. Louis Laforia, hustled the work at his camp, but he finally had to give up. For nearly a week before the roads became impassable his men and teams labored from fifteen to eighteen hours out of every twenty-four. Most of the hauling was done by night and a number of men were kept constantly on the road putting snow on the surface. Mr. Laforia did not expect to be forced to quit so soon. He wanted to work his men at least a month longer, as he had hauled very little of the timber cut during the season. He has arrived at the conclusion that remain on the ground for a few weeks more of his cut will remain in the woods until next winter.

A part of the machinery has already been installed and work on the plant will be started soon. The owners expect to get the mill in operation within a couple of months or so.

THIRD GAME NOT POSSIBLE.

Pittsburg Team Leaves for Home and Championship Is Undecided.

The Pittsburg hockey team left Houghton over the Northwestern road at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. All efforts to arrange a third game for last evening to decide the championship of the United States were unavailing, and the hockey supremacy for the present year will be divided equally between the East and the West, each team having won a game by the close margin of one score.

TO DIVIDE PORTAGE TOWNSHIP.

County Board Proposes to Add Territory to Adams Township.

It is now proposed to divide the township of Portage in order to add the territory cut off to Adams township. A petition to that effect will be presented to the county board at its next regular meeting on April 8 and in the meantime the fact is being advertised. The area to be taken from Portage township is that containing the Isle Royale mining property is located. Should the township lose the mine, which is the only one it now has, its assessed valuation will be considerably lessened, about one-half, and that source of revenue in taxes will be gained by Adams township.

No Property to Be Disposed of by Supervisors at Present.

The county board has decided not to set a price on any of the mineral lands owned by this county until it is known positively just what value may be fixed. At present it would be a hard matter to place a price on these lands as they are mostly in an undeveloped state and the county does not know exactly what its mineral lands are worth.

NEW YORK SENATOR DELIVERS AN ELABORATE SPEECH.

ARGUMENTS ARE ANALYZED.

Senator McCumber Favors Measure on Ground of Its Protective Features—House Continues Debate on Postoffice Appropriation Bill.

Washington, March 12.—Again today the ship subsidy bill occupied practically the entire time of the senate.

Senator Depew of New York, one of the members of the committee on commerce, delivered an elaborate speech in which he carefully analyzed the bill and against the position to pay subsidies to the shipping industry.

Opposition Arguments Analyzed.

He analyzed the arguments of the opposition and in closing said:

"Within five years, if the expectations of this bill are realized then for this comparatively small expenditure of $7,500,000, this reproach that American ships are scarcely seen in foreign ports will be removed.

The general debate on the postoffice appropriation bill continued in the house today, a number of topics being discussed.

Proceedings of the House.

The general debate on the postoffice appropriation bill continued in the house today, a number of topics being discussed.

Representative Sims of Tennessee devoted some time to showing how the house had been "buncoed," as he considered it, in connection with the permanent census bill.

Representative Dougherty of Missouri discussed rural free delivery; Representative Jackson of Kansas government ownership of telegraphs, and Representative Greene of Pennsylvania the Philippine situation.

The latter argued that if we would proclaim our purpose to grant independence to the Philippine the insurrection would cease instantly.

The house adjourned at 4:30 out of respect to the memory of Doorkeeper Eileen, who died today.

German Stoves Are Made for Softest Fuel.

Berlin, March 11.—August Schulze, who imported several thousand tons of Pennsylvania anthracite coal, and who placed orders for this product contingent upon the likings of the consumers, says the result has been unsatisfactory, not owing to the quality of the coal, but because the German householders do not know how to burn it, their stoves not having sufficient draft for such hard coal.

HOUSE DOORKEEPER DEAD.

W. J. Glenn Succumbs to an Attack of Pneumonia and Grip.

Washington, March 12.—W. J. Glenn, doorkeeper of the house, died here this afternoon from pneumonia and an attack of the grip.

Glenn had been chairman of the New York delegation sent from Allegheny county to the New York state Republican conventions during the past seven years.

He was a printer on a local newspaper at an early age and at twenty-one started "The Cuban Patriot," published in Allegheny county, and has owned it ever since.

ANOTHER MERGER SUIT.

Minnesota Attorney General to Begin Proceedings against Iron Range.

St. Paul, March 12.—Governor Van Sant has instructed Attorney General Douglas to begin proceedings in the state courts against the alleged merger of the Iron Range railroads.

The bill will be filed very soon and the United States Steel Corporation, which is reported to own the stock of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern and Duluth & Iron Range roads, will be made a party defendant.

The steel corporation maintains offices at Duluth, and it is thought there will be no difficulty in reaching it through the state courts.

The railroads have not actually consolidated and maintain separate organizations, but they are alleged to be under common control.

The same question involved in the state's complaint against the Northern Securities company is at issue in the present action, namely, "Is it a consolidation for one person or corporation to hold a controlling interest in two parallel and competing roads?"

GREAT RUSH TO NOME.

Many Gold Seekers Have Already Engaged Passage.

Tacoma, Wash., March 12.—The present winter rush to southwestern Alaska and Klondike districts bids fair to be outdone by the great movement to the gold camps at Cape Nome during the spring and early summer.

Twenty steamships and sailing vessels have been announced for service in Nome trade during the season. These vessels have an aggregate freight carrying capacity of 40,000 tons.

They furnish accommodations on the first trips alone for over 7,000 passengers. So many passengers are already booked that shipping men are confident that every available passage will be taken long before the steamers commence to sail.

This is due to the fact that Nome and tributary districts have now become permanent gold producers, and that permanent facilities in the way of railroads, electric lights, telephones and other conveniences are being provided.

These necessitate the travel northward of many men besides those engaged primarily in mining and the shipment of great quantities of freight.

The steamship company is to the effect that a committee of prominent men of that place is already on its way out from the interior and will present the people's case before the authorities at Ottawa.

Prior to the appointment of the committee telegrams were sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, and Earl Minto, governor general of Canada, asking for a delay in the confirmation of the grant.

The steamer Nome City has arrived from Valdes and Bianna with three sacks of Yukon mail, but none from Nome. She left Bianna Feb. 28, at which time no signs had been seen of the long expected mail carriers from Nome.

Although they were looked for almost daily, the steamer reports a stampede from Valdes to the Bremner placer diggings, 200 miners having left already. The city election at Valdes resulted in a victory for the prospectors and miners.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Washington, March 12.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Fair in west, rain or snow in east on portion Thursday; fresh to brisk north winds; Friday, fair, probably warmer.

ROBBED AND KILLED

DEN OF CRIMINALS UNEARTHED AT BEAUMONT, TEX.

MISSING MEN ACCOUNTED FOR FEAR IS FELT THAT TWELVE HAVE BEEN MURDERED.

Negro Woman Arrested Makes Confession That May Throw Light on Disappearance of as Many as Fifty Persons.

Beaumont, Tex., March 12.—Mattie Bennett confessed today to Sheriff Lindley that she was the head of a gang of negro women and white men who had for months been luring men into her house, drugging them, beating them and robbing them.

Five bodies were dragged to the river and thrown in. If only stoned they were taken out to a remote part of some street and left for pedestrians or policemen to find.

FEAR MANY HAVE DIED.

Fear is felt that more than twelve men, among them those who have come to Beaumont and were afterward reported as "missing," have been murdered and that their bodies are now at the bottom of the river.

In the last three months at least fifty inquiries for missing men have been received, and while no one supposes that the gang has murdered so many as fifty, there is fear that some of the disappearances are due to their work.

Five bodies have been found in the river since the first of the year. The Bennett woman was arrested Sunday on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Benjamin Pearson, one of five known victims.

Denies Being Guilty.

She denies being guilty of this crime but admits that one of the gang of which she is a member discussed the commission of the deed.

"Punch" Prim was a negro woman "Mary Jane" have been arrested. All of them have been "sweated" and Sheriff Lindley states that he expects a full confession, not only of the murder of Pearson, but of others, within a short while.

MAY SHOOT METHUEN.

Fear in London That Boers May Retaliate for Killing of Schoepers.

London, March 12.—A painful war situation and an exasperating censorship have set London on edge. Nothing has been heard from Lord Methuen, since his capture, regarding his condition and little is known of the movement of troops that formed part of his command, who took no part in last Friday's combat.

The city is full of rumors, one of which is that Methuen's life is in danger. It is said that a measure of retaliation for the shooting and hanging of Boer prisoners, Dewet and Steyn may be tempted to do away with their distinguished prisoner.

Pro-Boers, however, scout this idea, declaring that it might lead to reprisals that would shake the world; that even Cromie and other burghers might suffer at the hands of an enraged British soldiery.

Methuen Was in Error.

It is rather a singular coincidence that only a few days ago Lord Methuen wrote that he believed the war would be over in a few months. He based this belief on the alleged willingness of sections of the Boer combatants to surrender, and, as he declared, upon a change in the attitude of the British commander, who from being remorseless to hatred of the British, were now, he alleged, inducing their husbands and brothers to yield.

The general said in his letter that in many cases the women were acting as peace emissaries. The occurrences of the last few days, however, would indicate that General Methuen was mistaken in his beliefs.

An incident at this particular time, that repeats a distressing affair, adds greatly to the peril in which Methuen is placed. It is the publication of a private letter, detailing the execution of Commandant Schoepers by the British. The heartlessness in which it is alleged that execution was carried out gives a touch of barbarity to the grim affair.

Denied a Soldier's Death.

Here is the story of a soldier who formed one of the hollow square, enclosed in which Schoepers met his doom. "Commandant Schoepers was shot at 3 o'clock. They brought him from town in an ambulance van with a hand playing and the firing party following behind. When they got him to his grave he begged to be allowed to stand up and face death, but they tied him down in a chair and blindfolded him.

Ten of the Goldstream Guards stood ten paces from him and fired. The volley almost blew one side of him away, and it was a sickening sight. He must have been a brave man; he did not flinch or turn pale. They buried him as he was and broke up the chair upon which he had sat, throwing the pieces on top of him."

When it is further added that the tune played by the band that conveyed Schoepers to death was a rollicking one and that the victim at the time was suffering from severe wounds the rage and horror excited among the Boers by the execution may be imagined.

May Be Revenged.

It is in the hands of men imbued with these feelings that Methuen is now a prisoner, and in the circumstances it is easy to discern his perilous position.

The latest disaster at Two-Bowch and the various conflicts last week have materially swelled the British casualty lists in South Africa. The war mortality now approaches 25,000 lives. This is nearly 5,000 in excess of the mortality of the Crimean war, during which the total deaths were 17,880, while the wounded numbered 11,061.

TWO DRAW FIGHTS.

Michigan Men Go Against Brooklyn and Ohio Pugs at Detroit.

DETROIT, March 12.—Eddie Burns of this city and Kid McPartland of Brooklyn fought ten rounds to a draw here tonight.

Joe Cherry of Saginaw and "Big" Mackey of Findlay, O., fought ten rounds to a draw.

IN MENELIK'S REALM.

Abyssinians Are Punctilious in Their Form of Salutation.

"Indet adru!" This is not a curse, but Abyssinians' form of "good morning." The words mean literally, "How have you spent the night?"

The people of King Menelik are very punctilious in their salutations, and have a carefully graded scale of greetings according to the person addressed and the time of day.

Thus to an inferior or to intimate friend, instead of "Indet adru," they would say, "Indet adruh" (pronounced "ad-reh")—ch as in loch.

"Good afternoon" would be "Indet watu!" and "watch," meaning "How have you spent your evening?" "Good evening!" "Indet masnu," or "masnuh," i. e., "How have you spent the day?"

There is a similarly complete series of goodbyes for people separating at different times. Two friends parting in the evening say, one going home and the other staying in Abyssinia (only they haven't discovered it yet).

On one, perhaps, would say to each other, "Badelma adaru!" ("May you spend the night well," which we might translate, "Good night, be good.")

The whole population consists of two-fifths soldiers, two-fifths priests and one-fifth merchants, at least as far as the Abyssinians—the dominant race—are concerned. All the other necessary work of the community is performed by subject races, like the Gallas or Somalis, or domestic slaves—mostly prisoners of war captured in the western negro provinces.

They are slaves, except the very poorest, employed boys or girls, the former they are well cared for and regarded after a time as members of the family.

There is no trade in slaves in Abyssinia, as they can only be procured by the king's order, which has to be shown to the governor of the province, who generally gives his sanction. The slaves, generally boys or girls, the former they are purchased from their parents at an average price of $10 a head, but the purchaser may never sell them, though he may, if he likes, give them away.

The soldiers lead an easy life and have no regular pay, but are called out to serve on an expedition. When they are paid is only $5 a year—cash is scarce in Abyssinia—but during peace time they are billeted on the Gallas, a subject race, who are bound to give them all they need. In addition to this munificent rate of pay, a paternal government provides the new recruit at the outset of his military career with a donkey free. But his ride the soldier must provide himself, as he must also maintain his donkey.

HER HEALTH PROGRAM.

One of the busiest women in New York has a health recipe which she says would be of great value to a gold mine. With a thousand dollars' worth of things crying for her attention, she looks as serene and unruffled as if she had not a care in the world.

When one of her friends suggested that she was born with nerves and could not judge for her high-strung sisters, she smiled a wise and serene smile.

"My dear," she said, with emphasis, "what I am in the way of a health exhibit a sensible doctor and my own perseverance have made me. I without nerves! I wish I were. But when I tell you that I served a two years' term in nervous prostration you may believe I would do anything to get well."

I went to work after the siege was over at the same breakfast speed as before. Within two months I was a candidate for a doctor's attention again.

"You don't need a drop of medicine," he assured me again. "But you do need physical and spiritual relation. The first is comparatively easy to get, but the second you will have to work out for yourself. I can only point the way."

"His prescription was simply this: An hour's rest every night before dinner, with my wrapper on, in a dark room. It has been my salvation ever since. Before that I had worked at fever heat for the last nine months before dinner, to sit down to the table worn out and exhausted."

"A regular exercise as well as included in the doctor's advice. I couldn't possibly promise to give up a walking hour to it, so I compromised by walking a mile of the way down town every morning for the last nine months before dinner. It isn't always easy to follow out the program, but my readiness for work, the good spirits, the zest for everything that comes along, which you get as a reward are worth something ten times as hard."

"The spiritual relaxation has certainly been harder to get, and haven't half learned my lesson yet. But I truly worry occasionally now, instead of chronically. That comes of living by a motto the doctor gave me, which I would advise every nervous woman to adopt as her own: 'Don't cross the bridge till you come to it, and burn it behind you.' It's worth hanging above your bureau and repeating daily, that motto, and if our sex would only obey it I don't believe there'd be enough cases of nervous prostration to keep the doctors in practice."

CHILD WORTH MILLIONS.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa. "I would have lost her by crop had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cure which acts immediately.

The youngest child can take it with safety. They all like the taste and repeat it as I ate my breakfast. The latest disaster at Two-Bowch and the various conflicts last week have materially swelled the British casualty

J. P. ALTGELD DEAD

FORMER ILLINOIS GOVERNOR PASSES AWAY AT JOLIET.

DRMISE WAS VERY SUDDEN

REMAINS ARE TAKEN TO HOME IN CHICAGO.

Body Is Accompanied by Delegation of Joliet Citizens and Is Met at Windy City by Friends of the Deceased.

Joliet, March 12.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld died at the Hotel Munroe at 7:09 this morning.

The remains were taken from Joliet this afternoon on a special train, leaving at 4:56 o'clock for Chicago. A delegation of Joliet citizens accompanied the remains. The funeral cortege which passed through the streets this afternoon was headed by the police department. Scores of Joliet citizens, representing all parties and professions, walked behind the hearse. Flags were at half mast.

Arrival of Body at Chicago.

Chicago, March 12.—The remains of former Governor Altgeld arrived at Chicago tonight and now lie at his late home, 3225 Malden avenue. The body was accompanied on a special train by a few of his old friends, by his business partners and a delegation of business men.

The plain black casket, covered with roses and carnations, was met by a score of men with whom he had been associated in life, and with bare heads they followed it out through the station to where the hearse was waiting to carry it to the house he left apparently a week twenty-four hours before.

Sorrow at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—A portrait of former Governor Altgeld in the executive office of the state house was draped with crepe this afternoon. Great regret is expressed over his death.

An order issued from the adjutant general's office that on the day of the funeral flags be displayed on all the armories at half mast.

At dawn a section of Battery B at Galesburg will fire a salute of thirteen guns, and afterwards at intervals of thirty minutes during the day one gun, and in the evening thirteen guns. The usual badge of mourning will be worn by all the officers when on duty for thirty days, and the colors of the regiments will be placed in mourning for the same period.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS.

Features of the Day in the Wheat, Corn and Oats Pits.

Chicago, March 12.—Wheat today was weak and lower early. May selling off 2 1/2¢, followed by a recovery to 75¢. The close showed a trifle loss. The trade was moderate in volume.

The principal bear influence was the breaking of the drought over the winter wheat belt. The buying was scattered, the complete recovery being due to the shorts. The cable was lower. Spot and Liverpool were off 1/4¢ to 1/2¢, with the futures down a like amount. The exports were moderate at 283,000 bushels. The local receipts were 255,000 bushels.

In corn the trade was about the same as of late. Toward the close there was a sharp upturn caused by good buying by prominent local operators. The fluctuations were confined within 3/4¢ to 1/2¢ range. The close showed 3/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher. The market was influenced more or less by the action of wheat, though the weather and prospective movement were looked upon as bullish factors.

The receipts were unchanged, with the futures off 1/4¢. Oats ruled nervous and averaged higher. May advanced 1/2¢ on covering by shorts. Local selling depressed the prices, but they rallied with the other grains toward the close, which was 1/2¢ higher. The selling of May and buying of July were the features of the late trading.

The leading futures ranged as follows: May wheat opened at 76 3/4¢, highest, 76 1/2¢; lowest, 75 1/2¢; closed, 76 1/2¢. May corn opened at 61 1/2¢; highest, 62 1/2¢; lowest, 61 1/2¢; closed, 62 1/2¢. May oats opened at 44 1/2¢; highest, 45 1/2¢; lowest, 44 1/2¢; closed, 45 1/2¢.

Receipts and shipments were as follows: Receipts, Shipments, Flour, barrels, 46,000 32,000 Wheat, bushels, 81,000 34,000 Corn, bushels, 153,000 42,000 Oats, bushels, 173,000 102,000

WALL STREET STOCKS.

Market Shows Animation on Upward Range of Prices.

New York, March 12.—There was some show of animation in today's stock market on an upward range of prices. The strength did not permeate the whole market but there were more of the usually prominent stocks concerned in the movement than has been the rule recently.

The most conspicuous of these was Amalgamated Copper, in which there was evidence of speculation with only occasional intermissions, during which the fall received a momentary check. The extreme decline reached 4 1/2 points. The selling of the stock was accompanied by rumors that the next dividend would be reduced or passed. No authoritative information was to be had on the subject, nor on many of the reports that the marketing of the company's surplus stock had involved heavy losses.

The weakness in this stock gave an occasional check to the advance at other points, but did not materially affect the stronger tendency of the market.

A case where speculative sentiment was reversed from that of yesterday was on the outlook for the winter wheat crop and on reports of copious rains in Texas and the Southwest.

The calmness of the money market was the final factor of a general character on the strength in stocks. The rate for money was firm and nobody is found to predict an early relaxation of rates, but the feeling was reassured today that there is no immediate danger of forcing the condition of the stringency. It is supposed the trust companies are putting out loans at higher rates, thus relieving some pressure upon the banks.

Special strength was shown today by General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, North American, Virginia-Carolina Chemical stocks, cotton oil stocks, the Readings, and Peoria & Eastern. There were gains of a point or over for a large number of stocks which were modified by the late realizing movement.

Closing prices of stocks are reported by Paine, Webber & Co. as follows: Wabash Pfd., 42; Union Pac., 90 1/2; N. Y. Central, 102 1/2; Pfd., 90 1/2; Southern Ry., 85; Mo. Mrs. P. W. Phelps and daughter Emily left last evening with Mrs. Phelps' father, General Manager Wm. F. Fitch, for San Antonio, Texas. The party will be absent from the city for about three weeks. They left in Mr. Fitch's private car.

A joint meeting of Busy Queen and Superior hives of the Ladies of the Macabees will be held next Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, at Fraternity Hall. Mrs. Francis Burns, great commander of the state hive, will be in attendance from St. Louis, Mich.

All the various public treasurers of the county have made their returns of tax collections to the county treasurer with the exception of the treasurer of Scandia Township, who is expected today. The amount of taxes returned delinquent this year is much smaller than in the many years past.

The McKinnon brickyard, near Munising, now the property of George Shaw of this city, will go into commission in about a week. An expert brick-maker from Minnesota will be in charge. Mr. Shaw has made improvements in the plant and expects to do a big business in the brick line this year.

According to a new state law—Act No. 32 of 1901 (Session Laws, pp. 52, 53), amending Section 3540 of the Compiled Laws of 1897—registration boards in cities this year must sit March 18 or 19; but whether this is in substitution for, or in addition to, the session that pursuant to the old law would be held on April 5—whether the old date is abrogated or not—is something not clear.

LANDS WITHOUT COLONIES.

Only One Latin-American State Has Acquired a Colony.

One of the most interesting facts that will occur to any one who examines a map of the colonial possessions of the world, is that, of all the Latin-American countries occupying about one-half of the Western world, none has acquired any lands outside of its continental domain except the little republic of Ecuador. The Galapagos Islands, which form a little world apart far from the coast of South America, belong politically to Ecuador. These fifteen islands are really worth developing, though Ecuador has done scarcely anything for them except to occupy them in 1832. Their settled population, concentrated on Chatham Island, is now less than 500.

All the other Latin-American countries have had so much trouble at home that they apparently have not cared to acquire possible trouble abroad. At all events, their territorial ambitions have been confined to the mainland, where most of them are still striving more and more to let their neighbors concede to them.

Argentina, to be sure, still asserts that the Falkland Islands belong to her by right, but Great Britain has never conceded the claim and is in full possession of the islands. The misunderstanding is still unsettled and seems to have been long-looked with any prospect. It is years since Argentina filed her last protest.

Chile maintains the most southern postoffice in the world at Punta Arenas. There are settlements further south where mails have irregular distribution, and Punta Arenas is included in the postal system of the country of which it is a part. But this settlement on the Straits of Magellan is as much a part of Chile proper as Valparaiso. The time was when Chile, if she had been so disposed, might have acquired some of the Pacific groups, for they were open to the first comer and Chile, being nearest to them, had considerable influence among them. Even today the Chilean silver dollar is current two-thirds of the way across the ocean between Chile and Australia. It is found in Samoa and Tonga group and barely misses the Fiji Islands. But Chile lost her chance. She has been absorbed in her own boundary disputes to the exclusion of all the early opportunities to acquire Pacific islands.

France, in fact, is now the only Latin country that may be called a colonial power of large importance. The Canary Islands are today the most valuable remnant remaining to Spain of her former vast colonial empire. Portugal's African possessions are large, but she is depending upon foreign capital and enterprise for most of their development, which is as yet very small in proportion to their great population and extent. Italy's territory on the east coast of Africa has been an expensive luxury and has involved her in the humiliating, bigging the first white power in Africa to be decisively defeated by a native foe.

The European powers that have no colonies are the kingdom of Sweden and Norway, which has long seascoasts but small population; Austria-Hungary, which has a very short seascoast but large population; Switzerland and Serbia, which have no seascoasts, and all the other Balkan states except Turkey, some of the outlying parts of whose empire enable it to take rank among the colonial powers. All the Asiatic possessions of Russia bear the relation of colonies to the central government. Portugal, to all intents and purposes, is responsible for the Congo state and may declare it a colony when she chooses to do so.

Japan entered the colonial arena with the acquisition of Formosa, and China would have stepped out of it by the loss of the same island if it had not been for possessions in central Asia which she still holds. The Chinese are great colonizers along the coasts of Asia and in the Malay archipelago; but when they leave their native shores they have to go to foreign countries. Siam, Persia, Afghanistan and Korea, which are counted among the independent countries of Asia, have no colonies.

The regions of the world that rank as colonies, are far greater in extent than all the states that have no colonies; and the colonies, such as Canada, Australia and India, are of far more importance than most of the independent states that do not hold foreign possessions.—New York Sun.

ROBBED A PRISON.

Daring and Remarkable Deed of an Ex-Convict in Minnesota.

Andrew Anderson, released from state's prison on Feb. 5, after serving a five-year term for grand larceny, committed in Minneapolis, was charged in the municipal court at Stillwater, Minn., the other day, charged with burglarizing W. D. & W. G. Jordan's shoe warehouse in the prison yards.

Anderson's latest crime, which he freely and fully admits, reads like a chapter from the "Carm of Monte Cristo." Warden Wolfers and men who have had long experience with all phases of crime, are amazed at the reckless daring displayed by the former convict.

Anderson says that after his release from prison he formed the plan of burglarizing the shoe warehouse in the prison yards and avoided the night guard on his rounds by hiding. He entered the warehouse and took three cases of shoes, or thirty-six pairs in all. These he carried to the wall, fastened two of the cases to the rope, again sealed the wall and hauled up his plunder. Descending again by the rope, he hid in the case of the Harvard bridge. He then went over the outer wall and conveyed the stolen goods to an old paint shop belonging to the car company and standing on the banks of Lake St. Croix.

Anderson was caught the following Sunday morning placed sixteen pairs of the shoes in an old sack, took an interurban car to St. Paul and pawned the footwear. He returned to Stillwater the same afternoon, put the remainder of the shoes in a new telescope, which he purchased with part of the proceeds of the first sale, and carried them to Minneapolis and pawned them for $9.50 with a broker on Washington avenue.

His discovery was more or less the result of chance. Some boys found, under the old paint shop, and told their parents. The boys ran to the warden's scene in the afternoon just in time to see Anderson going away with the remainder of the stolen goods. The matter was reported to Warden Wolfers and he detailed an officer to visit the pawnshop. The pawnbroker in St. Paul was unable to identify the goods and the officer in Minneapolis was the man who brought Anderson in. A prison photograph was then circulated among the police of the twin cities and he was found in jail in Minneapolis waiting trial for stealing a rope. The pawnbroker in St. Paul identified him and the stuff was off. He told the officers the goods he bought in Minneapolis and the man who brought them was arrested for receiving stolen property.

Anderson is a criminal of the professional class. He has served two terms in the Minnesota penitentiary and three in the state prison. He is a man of prison life and says he hopes he will get a long sentence for his last escapade.

NEW BOSTON BRIDGE.

Suggested That It Be Named "Longfellow Bridge."

Although it will probably be two years before the handsome new West Boston bridge is ready for travel, immense interest is constantly expressed by the public even now. Massachusetts Institute of Technology men are particularly interested, since more than 100 have been employed on the designing and building than on any similar structure heretofore, and they have likewise been able through fortuitous circumstances to put their ideas more fully into practice than on any other bridge in this part of the country. Mr. Jackson, the city engineer, has always desired to see Boston equipped with as beautiful and substantial bridges as Paris, London or New York, but has been hampered by many limitations in his appropriations. That for the new West Boston bridge, however, has been liberal enough to provide a structure that will be at once pleasing to the eye and splendidly adapted to all practical purposes.

The 1,800-foot bridge is to be supported by eleven granite and steel arches and will cost something like two and a half millions of dollars. It will be a drawless structure, and twenty-six feet high at high water. A substantial pavement will be used in constructing the roadway, instead of planks, such as those which have so bothered the city in the case of the Harvard bridge. The new bridge will be twenty feet wider than the new Charlestown bridge, and the approaches on both sides are to be improved and beautified. There are many who see in the rising of handsome and substantial piers from the river and a prospect of the beginning of a new era of bridge building in and about Boston.

Most people will know this bridge best by its unofficial title, and it has already been suggested that it be named "Longfellow Bridge." This would be in memory of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, who made famous the bridge which is replaced by the new structure. It was on the old bridge, crossing the Charles river at this point, that he stood "while the clocks were striking the hour," and saw "the moon rise over the city." In short, the old West Boston Bridge was the bridge of the poem, "The Bridge." It was the view from this point that inspired Longfellow, and the same inspiring view will be of marked interest in years to come when from the beautiful new bridge one may discern the same scene that made world-famous the old bridge.—Boston Budget.

SOBRIETY ON THE ROAD.

Stringent Rules Against Boozing Among Trimmers.

The adoption by the Burlington road of more stringent rules against the use of liquor by employees is a movement in the interest of public safety and good railroading that will have the unqualified endorsement of the traveling public.

The Burlington, in common with most railroad corporations, had already put in force a rigid ban on the use of intoxicants by employees who had anything to do with the operation of trains, not only on duty, but also while off duty.

This has now been extended so as to apply to employees in all departments, including track, bridge and building departments. The new book of rules just issued by the company contains this paragraph:

"The use of intoxicants by employees while on duty is prohibited. Their habit of use or the frequenting of places where they are sold is sufficient cause for dismissal."

The reasons for the promulgation of this sweeping rule are obvious. No service in the whole range of industrial activity sustains such vital relation to the public as the operation of passenger trains, and no service presents so many elements of danger. The fatalities on the seas and the great lakes are small in number compared with those on the railways of this country. With all the modern safety appliances railroading still depends for its safety upon men with clear heads and alert minds.

The trainman whose brain is muddled with whiskey becomes a menace to hundreds of lives and to the property of a transportation system. The rigors of railroading present unusual temptations to alcoholic stimulation, particularly in winter, but the safety of the public demands the employment of men who have the power to resist this temptation.

HOW TO CURE THE GRIPPE.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip, not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by Stafford Drug Co.

Sore Muscles

Omega Oil

The correct treatment of sore muscles or tendons is very simple. First take a good warm bath before going to bed, and then wipe yourself dry. This opens up the pores. Then rub Omega Oil into the pores, keeping up a brisk rubbing for several minutes. If you have time when you get up in the morning, rub in some more of the Oil. This cures sore muscles caused by hard work or by severe exercise of any kind. Omega Oil is the favorite rub-down of nearly all prominent athletes in America. It keeps the muscles in fine shape.

MET A SHOCKING DEATH.

Mary Bankson Was So Badly Burned That She Died a Few Hours Later.

Miss Mary Bankson, only daughter of Mrs. Annie Bankson, a widow residing at 713 Cleveland avenue, east, met death as a result of a fire at the family residence Tuesday night between 11 and 12 o'clock.

It is not known just how the fire which caused her death was started, but a lamp she was carrying either exploded or fell from her grasp. The mother and daughter were down stairs asleep up stairs. Mary's sons were in the kitchen and the mother in an adjoining room. Mary had occasion to go to the pantry and while there the lamp did its work.

It is known that she carried the lamp, though it cannot be determined that it exploded. It is thought that in carrying out of the pantry she may have turned suddenly, striking the lamp against the door of casing. At any rate it went to the floor and in an instant the oil ignited, the blaze shooting up around her.

She attempted to extinguish the blaze and her clothing caught fire. The first intimation the mother had of anything being wrong was when she heard Mary scream. She immediately went to her assistance and was horrified to find her enveloped in flames. The screaming of the mother and daughter aroused the three boys. They came down promptly and with their combined efforts the boys and mother succeeded in extinguishing the blaze, but not until the girl had been burned almost to a crisp.

The hands of the mother and the three boys were more or less burned. The sons are Charles, Oscar and August. The latter was burned more severely than either of the others, but it will not be long before all of them will again have use of their hands.

Mary lived until 7 o'clock yesterday morning, suffering terribly. She was unable to tell just how the accident happened, so the exact facts will never be known.

One deceased was thirty-six years of age. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church.

MELOCHE WAS WARM.

Candidate for Mayor Says He Got the "Icy Mit" at Labor Party Meeting.

If the leaders of the Labor party of Ishpeming want the assistance and good will of Dr. N. N. Meloche, whose greatest ambition is to be mayor of Ishpeming, they will have to treat him more cordially than they did at the preliminary meeting held Tuesday evening at Andrews' hall.

According to the doctor the Labor party is pretty well divided. He went over to the meeting Tuesday evening upon the invitation of a man who has always been a staunch supporter of the party, but according to his own statement he was not received with open arms.

The meeting was organized with Frank Vivian as chairman and Ed C. Thomas secretary.

The laborers will occupy the positions named for the ensuing year. A committee of five was named to select candidates for the different ward offices and to report the same at another meeting, to be held next Tuesday evening at the Andrews' hall.

The committee is composed of Ed C. Thomas, Herman Magnuson and Andrew Talo.

Different persons present were asked to address the meeting. The most prominent speaker was ex-Mayor William Andrews. His remarks did not suit Meloche a little bit. Mr. Andrews maintained that the Labor party is not antagonistic to the mining corporations or their interests. He indirectly scolded Meloche because he stated in an interview some time ago that the Labor party was not on friendly terms with the corporations. Mr. Andrews denounced that statement as a Tuesday evening quite safe to predict that the hall will not be large enough to accommodate all who will want to hear him.

The doctor yesterday informed The Mining Journal to state that he will be at the meeting next Tuesday evening and will deliver an address that will lift the roof of the building. He says he believes that it will not do for him to wait until convention time to present his views to the voters; he thinks next Tuesday evening it will be the opportune time. In view of Meloche's appearance on the platform it is quite safe to predict that the hall will not be large enough to accommodate all who will want to hear him.

Mr. Meloche was invited to talk, but he begged to be excused, saying that he would make a speech on the night of the convention.

AND THE ROOSTER CROWED.

A Chicken Thief and His Prey Caught Cells in the Jail Early Yesterday.

George McGeary will spend the next three months at the county jail for stealing chickens from Patrick Sullivan's coop on West Division street. The theft occurred at an early hour yesterday morning.

Officer Patrick Collins is very largely responsible for the young man's imprisonment. Collins saw the fellow quietly passing through some of the back streets and watched his movements. Finally discovering that he had a hen and a rooster concealed under his coat.

The officer went after McGeary and accused him of stealing the birds, but he denied it. He said that he had picked them up on the street. The officer knew the fellow was not telling the truth, so he invited him to go to the city lock-up. McGeary resisted and the officer downed him. He had him in this position when Officer Trevorrow came along and lent a hand to corral the thief. A few moments later Officer Tupon showed up, and he carried the birds to the cooler while the other officers escorted McGeary.

The theft was committed about 2 o'clock. The lock on the coop door was broken with a hammer and with this obstacle removed the thief had no difficulty getting his chicks. The owner of the birds identified them yesterday morning at the jail.

McGeary was given a hearing before Justice C. Kennedy. He pleaded guilty to the charge preferred against him and the justice imposed a fine of $40, including the costs of court, or ninety days in the county jail. Being without funds, McGeary will spend three months at the Penitentiary hotel.

YOUNG CITIZENS' TICKET.

The question whether the Young Citizens' Political club shall nominate a ticket will be decided at a meeting to be called within the next few days. Those who will be called together for that purpose are the three delegates recently chosen from each of the ten wards of the city. It is thought that if these thirty voters decide to put up a ticket a majority of those in sympathy with the movement will be satisfied.

AN OLD SETTLER DIES.

INDIGESTION.

What It Is, What It Leads To, and How It May Be Cured.

Indigestion is nothing more than failure of the alimentary canal to digest. Under normal conditions, the salivary and gastric glands convert food into what is called chyme in the stomach. The intestines, the pancreas, and the liver carry on the process of dissolution, by chemical as well as physical changes, until the food is assimilated by the blood, and thus furnish nutriment to the body.

Now, when these various fluid-secreting glands fail to work, trouble begins, and things must be fixed up. Take Kaskola. Kaskola Tablets contain concentrated form of the elements which your stomach lacks, and will enable you to get all the nourishment out of your food, like a strong man. In fact, they will make a strong man out of you.

Gentlemen—Your valuable remedy for indigestion was highly recommended to me. I tried several boxes of the Tablets with the result that I have found them so beneficial that I have discontinued their use and would, therefore, strongly recommend them to all who suffer with stomach trouble.

"The Ozark mine lying north of the Banner is also drifting on a twenty-four foot ledge on the 100 foot level, and there is no question but that it will develop into a great mine, as it has the richest ore in the camp and has a greater showing as far as developed than the Banner. They expect to get the mill now on the property started by the first of March and add stamps enough as soon as the roads will permit in the spring to make their capacity 100 tons per day, and with these two big mines with others that are getting ready to start, the people of Florence are looking for a great boom in the spring. The town of Florence is full of mining men looking for bonds on property where the owners are not able to do the necessary development work to put the property on a paying basis but as usual the prospectors' idea since the development of the Banner and Ozark is such that they are hard to deal with in the way of price, but the people who are looking for the property have made liberal offers since the Banner and Ozark started, and I am satisfied will pick up most of the best properties between now and spring."

BODIES BEING TAKEN OUT.

It is Now Certain That All Will Soon be Recovered.

The people of Negaunee were yesterday sadly reminded of the day when that most distressing disaster occurred at the Negaunee mine which snuffed out the lives of ten of the workmen.

Four of the bodies were recovered yesterday morning. One of these was that which was in view of the workmen Monday night and Tuesday. The other three were found within a few feet of where the first body was found.

The only information relative to the position the workmen were placed in when they were taken out of the mine was received a few hours after the cave-in.

The removal of the bodies from the mine dry of the undertaking rooms of Eli Dawe and Josiah Collins attracted no little attention yesterday morning.

General Manager Thomas F. Cole of the Oliver Iron company was at the mine yesterday when some of the bodies were brought to surface.

Humors come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. They don't run themselves all off the way, however, but mostly remain in the system.

The trio departed from Marquette one day this week. It is their intention to take in a number of the larger cities of this country before sailing for England.

"But Mr. Mulvey is one of the ducky type of men who laugh at personal misfortune and is disposed to accept in good humor the ills he cannot avoid.

Bernard J. Goodman was a Negaunee visitor yesterday. He stated to the reporter that his father is among the lucky logging operators of the upper peninsula who finished work before the break-up.

The break-up this year is the earliest known in the history of the industry in Michigan. When the snow set in they did not suppose that the snow would disappear, as there was a great deal of it in the woods at that time.

BOATS SOON DUE

EXTREMELY EARLY OPENING OF NAVIGATION INDICATED.

NOW PREDICTED FOR MARCH 25

ICE LESS THAN IN YEARS AND BADLY HONEYCOMBED.

Immense Volume of Business in Store for Vesselmen, but New Craft and Longer Season May Cut the Rates.

The opening of navigation seems to be but a short time away. It is predicted for March 25, and preparations to get the ships out a fortnight earlier than was anticipated are being rushed.

From all south shore points between the Sec and Marquette, including White Fish, Grand Marais, the life saving stations and Munising, the report is from no ice at all comparatively little. One report asserts that a boat could easily make the run between Duluth and Wausika bay.

In the Soo river the ice is badly honeycombed and fast floating. Should the present weather continue for ten days there would be no difficulty in forcing a passage. Owing to these indications work on canal gates is progressing with all possible speed, and there is little doubt they will be ready to swing by the time they are needed.

Big Traffic Ahead.

The traffic ahead of vesselmen for the season lessens the fear they otherwise would entertain for a longer period of business than the shores generally afford. Outside of the one item of grain there was never anything seen like the volume of business the great lakes will carry before the close of next December. In iron ore alone shipments of probably 25,000,000 tons are expected. It will be a time of vast expansion in Lake Superior iron mining. The only limit will be the capacity of receiving docks and the railroads leading from them to the furnaces.

In coal, it is anticipated that all previous records will be eclipsed. The season will begin with the docks practically bare of coal in the west and northwest. The first coal shipped will be welcomed at all Lake Superior ports as the Mississippi river steamers used to be welcomed at river towns in the early days of spring.

As for lumber, the outlook is better than any year since the panic of 1893. Good prices are being obtained and the shipments, particularly from Lake Superior, will excel all previous records. There is a good deal of wheat to come down from the Northwest, particularly from Manitoba, but the hot, dry spell of last summer will paralyze the corn trade from Lake Michigan until the new crop comes.

Many New Ships.

The increase in the capacity of lake ships is fully equal to the increase of traffic. Ever since the close of navigation, particularly from 8,000 to 8,000 men in lake shipyards have been employed in building new boats, and the fleet which will go into commission for the first time this spring will be equal in carrying capacity to the entire lake fleet thirty years ago. It has been the history of the lakes that but for a few months at a time has the volume of traffic ever exceeded the capacity of the boats to carry it.

The early opening of navigation is already having a distinctly "bear" influence on carrying charges. Last season practically nothing was done in April owing to the ice blockade in the river of St. Clair. With the prospect of a full month's business this year in April shippers are not inclined to accede to the demands of vessel owners and are holding out for their own terms. Even at these terms good business boats will make substantial profits and the outlook on the whole is distinctly favorable to the vessel interests.

ITS OWN SLEEPERS.

The familiar Pullman sleeper was a minus quantity on the St. Paul train arriving here at 10:40 yesterday morning. Instead, however, one of the road's own cars—the "Numidia"—came in, and this morning another of similar style is due, the contract with the Pullman company having expired. The cars, which are painted in the regulation color of the St. Paul, are being run by the very favorably with the Pullman coaches, there being practically no difference as far as the appointments are concerned. They are comparatively new, and will be found satisfactorily by the traveling public.

NOT A HIBERNIAN DANCE.

The members of the A. O. H. wish it distinctly understood that they have absolutely no connection with the dance advertised to take place at Fraternity Hall on the night of St. Patrick's Day, and that considering the Lenten season it is not given with their approval. The day's observance by the Hibernian society is being arranged and will be announced probably in tomorrow's paper.

BREAKING UP CAMPS.

Charles Heland & Sons, who have been some in the Pine river district about fifty miles up the lake shore, have suspended operations there and are breaking up their two camps. The men are expected down today. The thaw caught the Helands with considerable cut timber still in the woods, something over a week's hauling remaining unaccomplished.

EVERY SEAT TAKEN.

Sousa Concert Tickets Meet With Unprecedented Sale—More Today.

It is declared that never in the history of the opera house has a seat sale exceeded that which took place yesterday morning when the tickets for the Sousa band concert were offered for sale at Bigelow's. As early as five o'clock found people standing in line, waiting for the doors of the store to be opened, and at 8:30, when the sale began, the assembling throng attained large proportions. Shortly after nine the last ticket had been disposed of, and when other persons anxious to hear the famous music organization called later and ascertained the fact much disappointment was felt. Many seats were taken for up-the-road people, but many other persons from those towns, as well as of this city, could not be accommodated and it is said that had there been several hundred more of the tickets they would have been disposed of in short order. Some criticism was heard during the day that a limit had not been placed on the number of tickets allowed to be taken by one person, but apparently there is little ground for the charge that "speculators" were permitted to have sway. In order to accommodate some of the disappointed, fifty chairs will be reserved for the concert, which will be held at 8:30 o'clock this morning at Bigelow's, and will probably be taken with a rush.

EXCURSION TO DULUTH.

Circular of Instructions Details the South Shore's New Plan.

Circulars of instructions regarding the merchants' excursion rates to Duluth have been issued by the South Shore road to its agents, and the Duluth jobbers, though the medium of the newly-formed Commercial club, have sent out circulars to the merchants of the peninsula inviting them to take advantage of the rates. The tickets for the excursion will be on sale March 12 to 17, and the tickets will be good to return from Duluth between the 15th and 24th of March. The rates apply to all stations. The merchants take advantage of the rate buys a one-fare ticket to Duluth and pays for the same as usual tariff. He receives a certificate from his local agent. On preparing to leave Duluth on his return home, the merchant takes his certificate to the secretary of the Commercial club, gets it properly endorsed and then goes to the Duluth agent of the road, who sells him a return ticket for one-fifth the amount of the regular fare.

Duluth jobbers are also sending out circulars to their customers calling attention to the advantageous chance offered for coming to Duluth and making purchases.

ALL BUT HAD HIM.

Alleged Embezzler Wanted Here Escapes from Escanaba Police.

A few days ago a warrant was issued at the instance of Frank E. Withey, manager of the Northern Michigan Benefit association of Marquette, for the arrest and detention of Harry E. George, who is charged with embezzling funds belonging to the association. The man was supposed to be in Escanaba at the time and the warrant was placed in the hands of Sheriff Roberts, who proposed to catch him at the postoffice when he called for his mail. The officer lay in waiting for his intended victim for some time, when, being called out of town on urgent business, a policeman relieved him, with instructions to stick to his post until the close of postoffice hours. There were letters waiting for George and it was a clutch that he would be after them. But with the approach of the supper hour the inner man got the best of the policeman, according to the Iron Port, and he temporarily abandoned his watch. Returning a half hour later the officer found that George had called, received his mail and departed. Search went after him, but upon his arrival gave no clue. Spalding, and a policeman there had again down.

WITHEY A BUSY MAN.

A representative of The Mining Journal yesterday called on F. E. Withey at his office in the savings bank building, in quest of news, and found the gentleman literally head over heels in business pertaining to the affairs of the Northern Michigan Benefit association, of which he is general manager. Mr. Withey had just signed several indemnity checks, members of the association who had been ill or had met with accident being the beneficiaries, and stated that within the past few days he had paid out over $300 on that account. One thing on which Mr. Withey particularly prides himself, in addition to the excellent financial standing of the association, is the promptness with which every claim is investigated and paid. Matters of this kind, whatever the pressure of routine business, are not allowed to accumulate, every claim being given immediate attention as soon as it is received. The association is in exceedingly prosperous condition and from the start has had a steady and gratifying growth. It is becoming very popular in all sections of the peninsula and has a glowing future before it. The fact that Marquette is the headquarters of the concern should do the city proud.

MARQUETTE AUTHORESS.

There are stories in Munsey's for March and in the current number of the Youth's Companion that were written by Mrs. Ernest Rankin of this city. The lady is a very clever writer and her articles are always in demand by magazine editors. In Marquette they are read with especial interest by Mrs. Rankin's legion of friends.

NOT SO BAD.

Marquette Stands Well as a Manufacturing Community.

A census bulletin of Michigan manufacturers, just issued at Washington, shows that in the census year (1900) Marquette stood well as a manufacturing city, considering that it has made no great pretense in that branch of industry. It ranked as the twenty-second city in the state, being exceeded in the upper peninsula only by Menominee in the value of manufactured products and exelling, among other cities, Coldwater, Cheboygan, Dowagiac, Hillsdale, Traverse City, Ypsilanti, St. Joseph, Benton Harbor and Three Rivers. With the new furnace in commission, Marquette's record will be better still.

CALUMET TEAM LOSES.

Lall Game a Victory for Beavers, 15 to 6—Contest Tonight.

By the score of 15 to 6, the Beavers defeated the Light Guards in the game met last evening at the Casino in a good, clean game of ball that was greatly enjoyed by the large-sized crowd it attracted. The visitors showed up very strong and created an excellent impression, yet the work of the Marquette aggregation was revelation to the fans. Never before had the locals appeared to better advantage and though play was so fast and snappy from the start that the result was never in doubt. Not an error was made in the field or on the diamond, and Graham, in the box, did his share in landing the victory, pitching one of the best games seen this season. The Light Guards were somewhat weak in the box, or else the Beavers were garbed in their hitting clothes, and to a great extent the outcome of the contest was due to that fact.

Macabees vs. Calumet.

This evening the Macabees will endeavor to duplicate the feat of the Beavers. They will cross bats with the Calumet nine, and that the fans will be well repaid for their attendance is indicated in advance. The game will be started at 8:30 o'clock and, as last evening, the seats will be reserved for the ladies and the small boys will be excluded. Lovers of baseball should not miss the game.

BOOST IN INSURANCE RATES.

5 Per Cent Advance Set to Take Effect Next Monday.

The resolution submitted two weeks ago for a 25 per cent advance in rates of fire insurance in the territory under the jurisdiction of the Union has received the requisite number of votes. The Marquette agents are advised, and will take effect next Monday, March 17. Eighteen western states, including Michigan, come under the jurisdiction of the Union. During the first days following the submitting of the proposition it was believed that the advance had failed, but gradually votes were changed from unfavorable to favorable, and the revised schedule, except the passage of the resolution by the vote of eighty-three to six. According to the rules of the Union, 90 per cent of the voting membership must favor any proposition. Nine negative votes would have defeated the advance. The resolution adopted reads as follows:

That the present condition of the fire insurance business throughout the country demands action by this committee in advancing the rates of premium, and it is therefore ruled that in the territory under the jurisdiction of the Union the rates shall be advanced 25 per cent on mercantile stocks in all buildings, except such as are occupied as dwellings above the grade floor, and on frame store buildings, and on all manufacturing risks and other special hazards, to include cold storage risks, mill lumber-yards and grain elevators which have not been rated under Union schedules within one year; and such advanced rates to maintain until risks shall be rerated under Union schedules. This ruling not to apply to risks equipped with approved standard sprinkler system."

Although a majority of the governing committee favored the resolution, and that body had the authority to impose the advance without referring it to members, the latter course was decided upon as being the most politic in a question of such importance. Several managers have consistently opposed the 25 per cent horizontal advance in rates, believing that the increase should be brought about by the application of schedules pertinent to the classes of risks that have been suffering from heavy losses.

Those favoring the movement for an emergency rate took the position that a horizontal advance would expedite the work under the schedules, and would in the interim furnish the companies with a fund to meet the exceptionally heavy losses. The managers who have been favoring the flat advance do not believe in making the 25 per cent permanent, and in fact the resolution expressly provides that it shall only prevail until the schedules are made effective. Most of the votes changed have been due to pressure from the East, largely brought to bear by the committee of fifteen in New York.

With a single exception the advance in rates was favored by the western companies. The Traders of Chicago, St. Paul Fire and Marine, American Central of St. Louis, Michigan Fire and Marine, Detroit Fire and Marine, Franklin of Columbus, Indianapolis Fire and Shawnee of Topeka all voting in the affirmative.

The boost in the rates was decided necessary for protection, not only for the companies but for the public as well.

BOSTON MARKET WEAK AGAIN.

Is Adversely Affected by Heavy Selling of Amalgamated.

Concerning the Boston market, Paine, Webber & Co. yesterday said: "Copper received a set-back today on the decline in Amalgamated and continued heavy selling of it all day. The rumors are that the dividend will be passed. We cannot confirm it. The traders offered all the coppers down. It looks as though the market might work a little lower for a day or so and should then be bought."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired the Laidley Commission Company: "Lawson's pets are off color, and 19% on Centennial and 14 on Trinity make quite a change in feeling. The Standard Oil begs for work—81% for Osceola and 88% for Tamarrack. The Old Dominion report will be out the last of the week and is to be made a poor one. As we said before, the Standard Oil people must get some good properties cheap to sweeten the high priced lot they have now, so we do not look for any boom. The primary receipts were heavy and the market opened lower and weak and continued dull and lower during the early part of the session. Later the market turned strong upon reports of good export business and closed at only a slight decline from last night. The receipts here and in the Northwest were light, the primary receipts were heavy and the shipments light. New York reported fifty boatloads taken for export. The market was undoubtedly influenced by the strength in the coarse grains but showed considerable strength. The Northwest was reported a fair buyer. We would buy wheat on any further decline."

Upon reports of rain throughout the winter wheat market, the wheat market opened lower and weak and continued dull and lower during the early part of the session. Later the market turned strong upon reports of good export business and closed at only a slight decline from last night. The receipts here and in the Northwest were light, the primary receipts were heavy and the shipments light. New York reported fifty boatloads taken for export. Grain Markets Firmer.

W. H. Laidley & Co. said of the Chicago markets: "Upon reports of rain throughout the winter wheat market, the wheat market opened lower and weak and continued dull and lower during the early part of the session. Later the market turned strong upon reports of good export business and closed at only a slight decline from last night. The receipts here and in the Northwest were light, the primary receipts were heavy and the shipments light. New York reported fifty boatloads taken for export. The market was undoubtedly influenced by the strength in the coarse grains but showed considerable strength. The Northwest was reported a fair buyer. We would buy wheat on any further decline."

Corn opened lower, in sympathy with wheat, but although dull was comparatively stronger all day, closing near the top. A better cash demand and some export business was reported, but we still look for lower prices. "Oats were strong upon buying by big bull interests and 150,000 bushels of oats shipped out of Chicago. We do not see trade in the May option, but prefer the long side."

New York Stocks Generally Strong. Dick Bros. said of the Wall Street stock market: "The market was generally strong today. The weak feature was Amalgamated Copper, which was sold heavily by Boston and local interests. There were rumors of a new company to be formed by the Heinz interests to compete with Amalgamated. After several days of heavy selling, the market was bought on reports that the danger of a coal strike is passed. Pennsylvania announced a proposition to issue $50,000,000 of 3 1/2 per cent bonds. The traction stocks were strong in the afternoon, while specialties like North American Glass & Twine and Wisconsin returned up sharply. St. Paul, Baltimore & Ohio and Union Pacific were well supported. There was very little news. Money was quoted 3 1/2 and 3 3/4 per cent."

FOR ILLEGAL VOTING.

Advises reached here from Munising yesterday that a couple of arrests had been made on charges of illegal voting, and that others were in contemplation. One of the men for whom warrant were sworn out was stated to be a brother of Dr. Trueman, a leading member of the "Straight Republican" faction. It appears that young Trueman, who had but recently arrived at the legal voting age, has been a resident of Munising for five years, but that about a month or so ago he went to Manistique to take charge of a bowling alley. He returned to Munising last Monday to vote, and did so whether legally or not, the courts will now determine. The name of the other gentleman reported arrested could not be ascertained.

SECURES A LEADING EXPERT.

Louis Grabower yesterday engaged Miss M. L. Enderlin, at present of Islipening, to assume charge of his dress-making department soon to be established. The young lady bears an enviable reputation as an expert in her chosen line and was recommended to Mr. Grabower by some of the leading ladies of Ishpening whose work Miss Enderlin has supervised. Miss Enderlin will leave Friday for Chicago to familiarize herself with the new styles, and will arrive here in time to take the management of the new department on the first of April, which is the date set for the opening. Mr. Grabower's millinery opening will also take place at the same time.
