A LUCKY STROLL.

It Gave Joe Mahoney a Chance to Play Life-Saver.

It was a fortunate thing for a certain Minneapolis traveling man that Joseph Mahoney took a stroll out on the breakwater yesterday afternoon, else the chances are that the stranger would have met a watery grave.

The drummer, too, had been attracted to the breakwater, and was walking along the concrete structure, accompanied by a small pet dog, when the canine got too close to the edge and was swept into the water by an unusually large wave. The man tried for some time to get the animal out, and finally while so engaged he, too, tumbled into the lake.

The Minneapolis man was profuse in his expression of gratitude to his rescuer, who modestly answered in reply to information concerning his identity that "he was one of the life-savers."

BEAUTIFUL PASTORAL PLAY.

"Way Down East" Will Entertain at the Theater Tomorrow Night.

The opera house attraction for Tuesday evening is Wm. A. Brady's production of Lottie Blair Parker's beautiful pastoral play, "Way Down East." Theatre goers who have seen the play will undoubtedly gladly renew acquaintance with stern "Squire Bartlett," who believes in living according to the "scriptures"; motherly "Mrs. Bartlett," the squire's wife; "Anna Moore," who was more sinned against than sinning; "David Bartlett," the squire's sturdy son; "Kate Brewster," the squire's pretty niece; "Hi Holler," the chore boy with the infectious laugh; "Rube Whipple," the quaint town constable with his "All Bound Round with a Woolen String"; "Seth Holcomb," the village doctor. Such a gracious welcome may not await "Martha Perkins," the village gossip and mischief maker, nor "Lennox Sanderson," the villainous city chap.

DULL DAY AT THE HUB.

Copper Stock Market Was Inclined to Weakness Saturday.

Covering Saturday's Boston market, Paine, Webber & Co. said: "The market was quiet for the day, waiting for the bank statement, which was expected to be unfavorable. The statement came as expected, showing a loss of over $4,000,000, but had evidently been discounted, for it failed to develop any selling and the prices were practically unchanged."

Trend Upward in Wheat. W. H. Laidley & Co. said of the Chicago grain markets: "Wheat opened slightly higher, but showed a tendency to even up before the issuance of the government report. There is no question but the report will be bullish, but we believe wheat is high enough and it should be sold on bulges."

Weakness in Wall Street. Walker Bros. advised Paine, Webber & Co. as follows concerning the New York stocks: "The market was generally weak. The expected strike did not have as much effect as was expected, but all through the morning there was liquidation."
