MILITIA CALLED OUT

STRIKERS IN PAWTUCKET, R. I., GROW RIOTOUS.
SOLDIERS PATROLLING THE TOWN
Twelve year old boy killed in shooting affray.
Employees of Union Traction Co. Grow Lawless and Police Are Unable to Cope With Them—Riot Act Is Read.

Pawtucket, R. I., June 12.—For the first time in the history of the town thirty bayonets in the hands of soldiers ordered out by the governor to suppress the riotous disturbances glistened in the streets of Pawtucket today.
The astonishing increase in the number of lawless acts directed against the Union Traction company, whose union men have been on a strike since June 2, and the inability of the limited police force and deputy sheriffs to suppress the rioting induced the governor to call out the militia. A score of persons were hurt during the day, one fatally. Tonight the adjutant general read the riot act. The militia has taken possession of the city. In addition to a regiment of infantry and a battalion of cavalry, the naval reserves have also been ordered out. The cars are run under military escort and the street where the trouble occurred is picketed by soldiers. The one person killed was Verner Peterson, aged twelve years, who was in a crowd when those occupying a car fired a volley. The shooting was not done by the soldiers. The crowd cheered the troops and concentrated their anger upon the occupants of the cars they were escorting. Immediately after cheering the militia the crowd showered the car with stones. Then followed the shooting in which the boy was killed.

TREATED FILIPINOS HUMANELY.
Ex-Volunteer Sergeant Testifies So Before Philippine Committee.
Washington, June 12.—Mark H. Evans, of Des Moines, Ia., formerly sergeant in Company F, Thirty-second Volunteer Infantry today testified before the senate committee on the Philippines concerning the administration of the water cure to the Filipinos on four different occasions during the service. He related the details of the particulars of the burning of the several native villages. The witness said the orders were to treat the natives humanely and with the exceptions noted, the treatment was in accordance with these instructions. The natives had not, on the other hand, shown an appreciation of this consideration. They refused to divulge information in their possession and in many cases they subjected the American troops to indignities. In one case, he said, where two soldiers were killed, their cars were cut off.

Washington, June 12.—Soon after the president reached the White House from West Point this evening, Senator Platt of Connecticut, chairman of the committee on Cuban relations, was called by appointment. The announcement was made that no statement would be given out tonight regarding General Wood's action in giving Cuban funds for the circulation of literature favorable to reciprocity legislation, but that such a statement would probably be issued tomorrow.
Senator Spooner of Wisconsin, called also by appointment, soon after the arrival of Senator Platt and the senators were in conference with the president more than an hour. At its close neither of the senators would say anything as to the nature of the talk.

LA GUIRA BOMBARDED.

Reported That Town is Attacked by Government Troops.
Berlin, June 12.—The foreign office is without details of the reported bombardment of the seaport of La Guaira, in Venezuela, by the forts and Venezuelan warships in consequence of a revolutionary movement in the suburbs. The foreign office, however, takes occasion by this inquiry to say that the German cruisers Gazelle and Falke were ordered to La Guaira simply as a safeguard to German interests there, and their presence is in no way connected with Germany's long-pending claims against Venezuela. As soon as order is restored the cruisers will leave Venezuela.

BARE FIST FIGHT

SON OF EX-CONGRESSMAN CAMPBELL DRAGGED INTO BRAWL.
Butte, Mont., June 12.—All Montana is stirred up over the sensational bare knuckle fight between Roy Campbell, a son of ex-Congressman Campbell and William G. Mangan, an athlete of some local repute, said to be a protégé of W. A. Clark, Jr. The affair is said to be the outcome of a political fight made against Senator Clark in Washington years ago, in which Congressman Campbell was the leading figure and which resulted in Clark resigning. Yesterday Campbell and Mangan met at a ball game and Mangan is alleged to have insulted Campbell, who promptly knocked him down. Later in the day Campbell was waited upon by friends of Mangan and told that he must fight the latter. Campbell referred the matter to his father. The ex-congressman is said to have told his son that he must meet Mangan and beat him. A number of friends of the contestants drove some distance from Butte, where a ring was pitched. The men stripped and the battle began. It was a bloody affair and lasted but three rounds. Campbell landed frequently upon Mangan but his blows lacked steam and were ineffectual. Near the end of the third round the more experienced pugilist landed on the student's jaw and knocked him out. Young Clark is said to have been the referee.

PROPOSE TWO ALTERNATIVES

BEEF SUGAR MEN SAY THEY WILL GIVE UP ATTEMPTS FOR RECIPROcity LEGISLATION OR WILL ACCEPT REBATE PLAN.
Washington, June 12.—The Republican voters who are friendly to beef sugar and who oppose the proposed legislation for a reduction of the tariff on Cuban product held a conference of almost two hours duration today and decided to continue opposition to the reciprocity proposition. They will do this by announcing to the advocates of tariff reductions that they will cast their votes for the reciprocity bill as it passed the house including the Morris amendment for the abolition of the differential tariff on refined sugar, and that they will resist all amendments that may be offered to it. They will propose two alternatives—to drop the subject and make no further attempt to secure reciprocity legislation, or to accept the rebate plan. The reconciliation committee reported a failure to secure an adoption of any of its propositions by the committee and there was a general exchange of views the preponderance of which was favorable to the opinion that the prospect for the passage of the reciprocity bill was materially lessened by the testimony given yesterday before the Cuban committee by Mr. Thurber. It is claimed that there are at least nineteen Republican senators who can be depended on to stand together in any course agreed on.

RATE WILL NOT BE RAISED.

Councilmen of Laurium Will Leave Assessment Stand for Time Being.

The members of the Laurium village council held a special meeting Tuesday evening for the purpose of considering what the rate of taxation on the dollar of property assessed for the present year should be. It will be remembered that on last Saturday evening the council held a special mass meeting to get the property owners views upon this subject but at this meeting the proposed raising of the rate of taxation was vetoed by the taxpayers. As far as the mass meeting went it showed the council that the property owners were not in favor of the raise but the law gives the council power to raise the rate of taxation up to one cent on the dollar whenever it may see fit. At the meeting last evening it was thought probable that the council would take advantage of this point of the law and raise the rate without the sanction of the taxpayers, but after they had thoroughly discussed the matter it was finally decided not to raise the rate for the present year. The present rate of taxation on the dollar is six and one half mills. The bonds of the newly elected Treasurer Louis Laby were presented and accepted.

The clerk informed the council when the subject of building walks came up for discussion that there was a deficiency of about $2,200 in the sidewalk fund, which people had promised to pay to the village. No definite action was taken in regard to collecting this deficiency, it being thought advisable to call a special meeting and then ask the advice of the village attorney on this matter.

PREPARATIONS FOR PAVING.
Much Work to Be Done Before Asphalt is Laid in Hancock.

President Scott expects that the paving of Quincy street will be completed by the middle of August. The actual paving will not take a quarter of the intervening time, however. The largest part of the work will consist of getting the street in condition for the pavement. On the arrival of the foreman of the Barber Asphalt company next week the street railway company will lower their tracks eight inches to the grade established by Engineer Austin. This will be something of a job from the fact that 2,000 loads of dirt will be taken from the thoroughfare. This will be filled in under the bridge over the ravine on Front street near the Baptist church. This, however, will be only a portion of the work to be accomplished. The electric light poles will be moved from the gutters, the catch basins moved under the walks and the hydrants located within the sidewalks.

FOR NEGAUNEE TOURNAMENT.
Hancock Firemen to Get Stunning New Blue Uniforms.

The contract for twenty-four new uniforms for members of the Hancock fire department has been awarded to Michael Doyle, the Quincy street tailor in the Finn block. The suits include blue coats and trousers, white vests, white neckties and light tan gloves. The Hancock fire laddies will look pretty neat when toggued out for the tournament at Negaunee. It is the intention of the company to enter a running team at the tournament. If the firemen receive any encouragement from business men and citizens generally of Hancock they will put forth their best efforts to secure the tournament in 1903 for Hancock. The prospects are good for securing the event from the fact that it has not been held in the town and it is practically Hancock's turn to hold the tournament. The firemen will not take hold of the matter single-handed, therefore the matter rests entirely with the business men.

TURNED OUT SWITCH LIGHTS.
Peter A. Nordquist was taken before Justice Finn Wednesday forenoon by Under Sheriff Beck on the charge of willfully and maliciously turning out the switch lights at Lake View station and other places on the Mineral Range road in Hancock on the night of May 14. The accused is a discharged employe of the Mineral Range road and it is alleged that he thought he had a reasonable grievance. Nordquist was fined $10 and costs. The complaint was made by Master Mechanic C. G. Mingay of the Mineral Range shops in Hancock.

A STRAWBERRY SOCIAL.
The Bible class of the Hancock First M. E. church has appointed a committee of arrangements for a strawberry and ice cream social in the church parlors Friday evening. The young men who wait on the guests to the delicacies of the season will be dressed in white throughout. They will wear stunning white military jackets, and immaculate shirt fronts will be emblazoned with diamonds. A fine program has been arranged. Solos will be rendered by Messrs. Johns, Andrews and others.

ONLY FOUR GRADUATES.
Invitations have been issued by the graduating class of Sacred Heart Convent, at Calumet, announcing that, on the evening of the 17th inst., the graduating exercises of the convent school will be held at the Calumet theatre. This year's class is small, only four names appearing on the invitations, but the pupils are working hard to give the exercises pass off with the success that usually accompanies their entertainments. Rev. Father O'Hagen, of Canada, has been engaged to deliver the evening's talk and all who have heard him on past occasions know what to expect, and those who have not heard him speak know him by reputation.

FLAG DAY EXERCISES.
The patriotic fires will be rekindled in the breasts of the children with Flag day exercises. Saturday evening at Quincy hall by pupils of the Pewabie school. Music for this appropriate event will be furnished by the Quincy band. There will be appropriate exercises for Flag day consisting of drills, recitations and musical numbers. This is an event which attracts the attention of many. The entertainment will begin at 7:30. Tickets are fifteen cents. All are welcome.

BIG COPPER WIRE DEMAND.
The steamer Peerless of the Chicago line arrived at Portage Lake at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She brought a carload of merchandise for Close & Bowden and miscellaneous freight, taking on twenty-five tons of copper at the Lake Superior smelting works, twenty-five tons at the Quincy smelters and fifty tons of copper wire at Dollar Bay. Every Chicago boat taking copper wire shows the great demand for the article. Three boats of the company have each taken 150 tons from Dollar Bay.

BETTEYS COMES BACK.

He came to Marquette on the Maccabee excursion and could not resist the temptation to visit the scene of his former labors. Nearly two years have elapsed since he left Portage Lake and he notices many changes in that time. Mr. Betteys is pastor of the Baptist church at Milan.

READ IT IN HIS NEWSPAPER.
George Schaul, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

WILSON ON THE MICHIGAN.

Editor of Torch Lake Times Writes Interestingly of the Mine.

The assessment of two dollars per share recently paid by the stockholders of the Michigan mine, puts $200,000 into the treasury of the company, says Editor Wilson in the Torch Lake Times. In view of the extensiveness of the openings underground and the advanced state of development work the amount just paid in will likely be found sufficient to put the property in first class physical condition and round out matters in general for the regular production of copper. Recent advices from the mine continue quite satisfactory.

The property of the Michigan is very extensive and traversed by all the main mineral formations of the Ontonagon district, but the management is pushing the work of opening up the old Minnesota and results thus far are certainly gratifying. The outlook is about all that could be desired, as the ground continues to open up well in mass and barrel copper, and of grades that can be readily and economically handled. Then an immense mass all of thirty feet long has been uncovered, and its full size is not yet known. Developments in the other quarters continue to show up good copper values with general appearance quite encouraging and fully up to all predictions and expectations for the property. With $200 per share in the treasury the stock looks cheap as compared with its neighbors and many other properties. One share of Adventure or Mass looks like a good swap for two shares of Michigan.

I sincerely recommend it to all." People's Drug Store.

LADY BEES ELECT OFFICERS

All But One of the Great Hive Heads Handsomely Endorsed.

ARE GIVEN FLATTERING MAJORITIES.

Attempt to Oust Great Record Keeper Emma Bower As Editor of Lady Maccabee by Proposed Amendment to Laws Fails.

All the great hive officers of the L. O. T. M. who desired reelection were accommodated last night. It took considerable time to count the ballots and the results were not announced until nearly 1 o'clock this morning.

Large number of delegates, 520, it was necessary for Mrs. Burns to divide them into five sections of 104 each for voting, and the first started to cast their ballots shortly after 4 o'clock.

The salaries of the officers are: Great commander, $1,500; great record keeper, $1,500; great finance keeper, $1,000; editor official organ, $300.

It is in summing up of one or two long years of work that we are best able to estimate results and judge of the final outcome. As in former years I have aimed to give a concise and clear account of the work of my office, so at this time, I bring to you a faithful record of the important trust placed in my hands two years ago.

The convention session of the ladies yesterday forenoon was given up to the canvass of the situation in regard to the candidates running for the great hive offices. Several who had previously announced their presence in the field dropped out of the race and matters were thereby much simplified.

I find by referring to my records that during the two years ending Dec. 31, 1901, there were 190 applicants for disability benefits. Of these, twelve were rejected upon first application.

The ladies one by one were introduced to the delegates in the afternoon by Great Commander Mrs. Burns and each made a few remarks in her own behalf.

RUGS MADE OF OLD CARPET Address M. Iralson, Janzen hotel.

application for benefits. I would therefore urge all delegates to warn the hives against issuing applications for benefits, unless they believe the applicant is both totally and permanently disabled.

The death claims coming into my office have been reviewed with great care, both for statistical purposes and that I might better judge of the value of risks in future work.

There have been fifteen members expelled from the order or required to take social certificates during the past two years, on account of having suppressed facts relative to either family or personal history.

In several instances I have received information relative to candidates after approval and prior to initiation.

Appointment of Hive Physicians. There is no part of the work which comes under the supervision of my office which causes so much discord as the appointment of hive physicians.

The Queen City Tent, Knights of the Maccabees, exemplified the initiatory work of the order at a special meeting of Fraternity Hall last night.

The years have gone by very rapidly since I first received the gift of my office. The responsibility seemed very great to me then.

A STAMPEDE TO BOYNTON
Maccabee Convention the Scene of a Remarkable Spectacle.

EXPANSION PROPOSITION IS CLINCHED

Opposition Peters Out and Amendment Carries Unanimously—Slate of the Major Wins Except That Watson Is Relected—A Day of Ovations.

MAJOR BOYNTON.

Harmonious and united, with no longer or dissension among the rank and file, what has heretofore been the Michigan Maccabee organization will henceforth make a strong bid for members in all the healthier states of the Union.

The biennial review yesterday clinched the expansion proposition by formally incorporating the policy into the constitution of the order by a unanimous vote. The test ballot taken the day before, on a resolution to adopt the report of the committee on laws, had indicated it to be the desire of the great bulk of the membership that the society not confine itself to the limited field which Michigan offers. All opposition to a broader jurisdiction petered out, and when the delegates reassembled yesterday morning the convention took on the character of a love feast at which Major Boynton presided in the role of toastmaster.

Stampede to Boynton Side.

The morning session was remarkable in that, aside from the fraternal spirit manifested, there was a wholesale stampede to the Boynton banner. One after another of the leaders of the opposition to the policies of the daddy of the order ascended the platform or stood in the body of the hall and announced their intention of bowing to the will of the majority, until finally it appeared that there were none save Boynton men in the building.

Then the Boynton propositions, drafted to clinch the expansion idea, were presented and one after another were made laws of the order without the formality of roll calls, the action of all of them being taken with entire unanimity. It was a time of triumph for the genial major and his loyal supporters, and there were none in the great assemblage who attempted to detract from the thorough satisfaction and pleasure pictured on "the old man's" face. His was a victory well earned after a hard battle against a strong opposition ably led; and those who had been his opponents—not personally, for his leader is beloved by all in the order, but on his policies—were not disposed to rob him of honors or laurels.

Watson Too Popular to Down.

If the election of officers, which took place during the afternoon, the major and his lieutenants dominated throughout, except, possibly as far as one position is concerned. From commander down to picket every office except one was filled with a Boynton man, and throughout the balloting the scene was one of great enthusiasm. Time and again the rufflers would reach the cheers of the delegates, and several demonstrations occurred as a tribute to the popularity of the recipient that will live long in the memory of all present.

The exception to the success of the entire Boynton slate occurred in the election of Great Record Keeper "Tom" Watson, who all along has been combating the expansion issue advocated by the major. Mr. Watson, however, is some popular himself, he has made an exceedingly capable official, and although he has been on the "wrong side" of the all important question it was realized that it was through no personal dislike of the major but because he believed himself right. Mr. Watson's integrity is of the highest, and when in the morning he addressed the convention and declared that whatever his personal views on the policy of the order he would, if elected, act in harmony with the other officials in carrying out the mandates of the camp—an expression which was greeted by one of the greatest ovations of the day—there were none who did not believe that he fully meant every word he uttered. His manly stand had won for him many friends in the Boynton ranks, and when the time came for the vote the record keeper was again given his position by a large majority despite that he had an exceedingly strong man and hard worker against him.

Some Important Amendments.
Aside from the election and the adopinstead of "for" Michigan. This however, on motion of Devere Hall, a little later, was changed to "The Knights of Modern Maccabees." This was done, it is understood, to avoid any possible litigation with the supreme tent, K. O. T. M., which has no connection whatever with the Great Camp.

It was also decided to amend the laws so as to change the executive committee to consist of four members instead of three; the lieutenant commander, and the great commander, who is chairman of the body but only has a vote in case of a tie.

The question of the removal of the headquarters to Saginaw came up and a committee was elected to investigate and report at the next biennial review. This practically sidetracked the hope of Saginaw and it is doubtful now that the headquarters will ever be changed from Port Huron, which is the home of Major Boynton and closely allied with the order and its interests.

Ladies Pay a Visit.

At this time it was announced that the ladies of the Great Hive were on their way to the hall to pay the Sir Knight a visit. The delegates crowded to the side and the ladies played the ladies headed by Mrs. Frances E. Burns, marched down the aisle while the men cheered lustily. Mrs. Burns addressed the convention and expressed the hope that the Great Camp and Great Hive would go hand in hand in carrying out the duties of the order.

On the subject of the laws, the delegates from the upper peninsula submitted their report. This provided that the delegates be paid at the rate of $3 per diem, five days' time being allowed for the Michigan men and four for the delegates from the upper peninsula. For mileage, it was recommended that eight cents per mile, one way, be allowed, and also that each of the committee men be paid $10. The report was adopted.

Election Begins.

Nominations being declared in order, Great Commander Boynton, as a candidate for officer, relinquished the gavel to Past Commander Beaver and Devere Hall stepped to the front of the platform in a short but eloquent address representing the name of the major. He had never known a general to be selected for a limited term; he was always kept in command until the campaign came to a close. The order was now about to enter upon a campaign that was but a campaign to the front, and he was in a short but eloquent address representing the name of the major. He had never known a general to be selected for a limited term; he was always kept in command until the campaign came to a close.

Watson vs. Slay.

Following occurred the only exciting contest of the day—the struggle for the office of record keeper. A. M. Slay, city treasurer of Battle Creek, was nominated by S. D. Williams. The name of Thomas Watson was eloquently presented by Geo. L. Lusk, and the manner in which it was received showed that the present official had hosts of supporters in the audience despite that up to a day ago he had been fighting expansion. Amid a great demonstration and shouts for both candidates, the vote was taken.

Ovation to the Record Keeper.

Shortly after the result of the ballot on the recordership was announced and was followed by one of the greatest and most remarkable demonstrations of the review. Twenty-four hundred and two votes were cast, and of these 1,475 had been deposited for Watson and 928 for Slay. Cheers that fairly shook the big building followed and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. It had all along been said that "Tom" Watson was popular personally with the "boys," no matter what his views on the various issues, and it was only necessary to see and hear the cheering delegates, who waved hats and handkerchiefs in the air, that the claim was well founded. The ovation continued for several minutes, and then, when Commander Boynton and Mr. Watson stepped to the front and clasped hands in the fraternal spirit characteristic of the order, pandemonium fairly reigned. Mr. Slay stepped forward and proposed three cheers for successful rival and that his election be made unanimous. His wishes were enthusiastically granted, and then Mr. Watson, in response to calls, made a brief address. He was gratified to know that he possessed the good will and confidence of the convention, he said, and assured his auditors that he would use his best endeavors in furtherance of the interests of the order. All the unpleasantness, he declared, was at an end and he was sure that harmony would prevail at the head offices. In turn, he proposed three cheers for Mr. Slay. They were given with a will, and Mr. Slay addressed a few remarks that were well received.

Deings of the Convention.

When the great camp delegates convened in Casino rink at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and Great Commander Boynton mounted the platform, the major was received with an ovation that would have made the heart of a president swell with pride.

It was all Boynton from the time the vote was cast for the expansion resolution the night before and the manner in which the antics climbed and clamored into the Boynton expansion band wagon was a caution. They just fell over each other in the frantic desire to get a grip on "Daddy" Boynton's coat tail and it was apparent that they were very much afraid of the cars. O'Connor, a Watson deputy, started the ball rolling and it didn't stop until every leader of the anti-punch and huddled up close to the papa of Maccabeesism.

Boynton Ideas Ratified.

Then followed the presentation of the amendments by J. B. McIlwain, chairman of the committee on laws. They were drawn up in accordance with the idea of expansion. This brought the convention to a fever of excitement and Major Boynton had his watch in hand so to speak, and his finger on the pulse of the convention and the amendments went through like a shot. Then the convention went into another fit of excitement and for several minutes the pandemonium reigned.

Boynton Board Goes In.

Following the result of the vote for first member of the executive board was announced. The total vote cast was 2,355, of which 1,876 were for Mr. Jeffries and for John H. Long, with six votes blank. Mr. Jeffries' great popularity was again amply illustrated by the applause which followed, and the convention only ceased its demonstration when Mr. Jeffries, in response to calls for an address, stepped to the platform. Expansion, Mr. Jeffries declared amid loud laughter, had been bottled, but the convention had now pulled the cork. He predicted that in a few years, great as was the order now, the society would become the greatest fraternal insurance organization on earth.

For the second member of the executive committee, Perry F. Powers was nominated by Chas. H. Thomas, J. E. Williams, who all along had been a candidate, withdrew and seconded the nomination. The convention was very enthusiastic and there were calls that the nomination be made unanimous. This was done with a whoop; all the delegates apparently being "Powers" men, and in the midst of loud cheering the genial and brilliant Perry ascended the platform. His remarks were brief, but he took time to tell a little story that highly pleased the gathering. The incident concerned the experience of two ladies riding in the same train. One, it developed, was returning to her old home in the lower peninsula with a small urn containing the ashes of her husband; the other was a lady who, although fifty-five years of age, had never been united in wedlock. When told of the mission of the first lady, the old maid exclaimed: "And to think that although I am over fifty, I have never had a husband, while she has husbands to burn." There were orators here to burn, concluded Mr. Powers, and he would take no further time except to heartily thank the convention for the honor accorded him. He retired amid loud cheering.

This association will be a grand nucleus to start the work in Illinois now that expansion has been adopted.

of a unanimous reelection as great find-keeper. No other name was mentioned and there was lusty applause and cheering when Major Boynton declared that Mr. Whaley stayed in office. "There'll never be danger of a defalcation while Whaley handles the funds," the commander declared. There were calls for the financier to show himself, and he was finally located in the rear of the hall, where he was modestly keeping in the back row, as the commander escorted to the stage and in a few words thanked the delegates for the honor done him.

See Man by Acclamation.

Jerry Fleming of the Soo, who was nominated by Lester Clark of this city for the position of first master of the guards, was honored with a unanimous election. Past master of guards, Charles Bird of Oakland county, James Hinchy of Manistee and A. J. Ostydky of Detroit contested. On a rising vote, the honor went to Bird.

Julius Sinaberg was the unanimous choice for sentinel to succeed himself, bringing the election to a close. There were some calls for an adjournment at that time 5:35, but as the commander and the great bulk of the delegates were anxious to wind up the business of the convention as early as possible, the next order was proceeded with.

Disposal of the Report.

This was the report of the committee on appeals. Several claims were discussed in the recommendations, and in every case the convention sustained the committee. One appeal—from Ontonagon tent—was of a peculiar nature. A man had been drowned soon after making application for a $2,000 certificate. The case was purely accidental and the man left a widow with four small children. The delegates voted unanimously to give the widow and four children $2,000.

Short Evening Session.

The evening session was given over to the consideration of a report from the committee on laws. This had to do with various amendments to the by-laws, the majority of them required because of the action taken in extending the jurisdiction. Among the more important changes proposed were the election of delegates to biennial reviews will hereafter be held not later than two months prior to the time of the conventions. To the outside tents—those beyond the borders of the state—will be allowed one delegate for every tent and one vote for every 500 of membership or minority thereof.

DOING THEIR DUTY.
Scores of Marquette Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick; Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Marquette people endorse our claim. Mr. C. C. Young, of 127 E. Michigan street, painter and decorator, says: "I had such pains through my back and limbs at times that I could scarcely keep at my work. The kidney secretions became affected, were highly colored, unnatural, irregular and deposited a heavy dark sediment. I could not rest comfortably at night, lay awake for hours at a time and was rarely able to secure more than three or four hours sleep during a night. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, procured them at the Stafford Drug Co.'s store and began to use them. I felt relief almost at once. They relieved the irritated condition of my nerves. I was able to enjoy a good night's rest and arose in the morning feeling strengthened and refreshed."

THE AUGUSTANA SYNOD.

Ministers and Laymen Labor Intently in Interest of the Great Organization.

The Augustana synod was formally opened last evening at the Swedish Lutheran church. Delegates have been congregating for the past week and nearly one hundred arrived yesterday and last night. About one hundred ministers are in attendance and about as many laymen are also present as delegates. Among the strangers are some of the most prominent Swedish gentlemen of the United States.

The committee members who have been here for a week or so past have labored almost constantly on matters of importance that will come before the synod at the sessions to be held during the remainder of this week and for a couple of days of next week. There is much work to be disposed of and were it not for the fact that the committees have labored on nifty questions the sessions might easily last ten days or two weeks instead of one week.

The opening business session of the synod will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. When the president calls the meeting to order about two hundred delegates will answer the roll call. There will also be a large number of visitors from outside, as many of the delegates are accompanied by relatives and friends.

Applicants for Ordination.

At the ministerium session Wednesday morning applications for ordination were received as follows:

- Gustaf Anderson, called to Wilkesbarre and Sugar Notch, Pa.
- Alexis Andreen, called to Clinton, Ia.
- A. F. Bugstrom, called to the Tabor church, Chicago.
- G. A. Elliott, called to Maywood, Ill.
- A. W. Edwins, called to Stillwater, Minn.
- John H. Ford, called to Beaver Valley, S. D.
- Peter Troberg, called to Orange, Mass.
- John Gillans, called to the Swedish Finnish Lutheran church at Worcester, Mass.
- Albert S. Hamilton, called to Manistique, Mich.
- N. A. Lindwall, called to Marshalltown, Ia.
- J. E. Larimer, called to the Ebenezer church, Jersey City, N. J.
- A. T. Lundholm, called to Aledo, Ill.
- August A. Nelson, called to Milbank, S. D.
- O. J. Nelson, called to Sacred Heart, Minn.
- Gottfrid Nelson, called to the Bethesda church, Chicago.
- G. S. Oshlund, called to Akron, O.
- Peter E. Ordling, called to Cripple Creek and Victor, Colo.
- J. M. Persimins, called to New Sweden, Ia.
- J. P. Requer, called to Williamsport, Pa.
- Olof Wallin, called to Union Creek, S. D.

The above applications were acted upon and all were granted. In addition to the above list two other students, Joseph Kuanibu and David Magnuson, have also applied for ordination. The former is a native of Persia. He has been educated at the college and seminary of the synod and now proposes to return to Persia as a missionary. Mr. Magnuson is a graduate of the Chicago Theological seminary and is called to Moreland, Chicago. These applications have not yet been definitely acted upon.

Revs. J. A. Carlstrom of Ansonia, Conn.; Konrad K. Broders of Centerville, R. I.; Augustus G. Olson of Milville, Mass., formerly members of this synod, but for some time members of the State church of Sweden, applied for admission into the ministerium and the petitions were granted.

GRAND ARMY REUNION.

Old Soldiers Change Date of Reunion to Wednesday and Thursday, July 9-10.

The annual reunion of the Upper Peninsula Veterans' association will be held in Ishpeming on Wednesday and Thursday, July 9 and 10, instead of the 15th and 16th as originally intended. The change in the dates was made on account of the Buffalo Bill show being here July 17. It was thought that the big show would detract from the old soldiers' reunion in case they came so close together.

The arrangement of the program is in the hands of officers of the local post, who will be prepared to announce it in detail within the next few days. The veterans intend to give their old comrades a hearty welcome. No pains will be spared to give them a good time during their two days they are in the city. Mayor Felch has volunteered to take a hand in the entertainment of the visitors. Other officials of the city will also assist, so that a pleasant time is assured the Grand Army men.

REMEMBERS THE "SWAMP."

A Pioneer Resident of Escanaba Looks Over the City With Interest.

Jacob Buchholtz, one of Escanaba's oldest settlers, visited his sons in this city yesterday. This is his first visit to Ishpeming in twenty-seven years. In the early days he came up here occasionally and it is needless to say that he did not recognize the city as the same place when he took in the sights yesterday.

He arrived at Escanaba in 1864, before the Chicago & Northwestern railway line was completed to this city. The road was extended as far as Little Lake, but it was some months later when the first train came through to Negaunee. There were but a few shanties at Escanaba at that time, but the town grew rapidly after the work on the docks was fairly started. When he landed the approach to the boat was a few planks.

Mr. Buchholtz has retired from active work and intends to spend the balance of his life in ease. He was very successful in business in the Sandy City and has sufficient cash and property to keep himself and family in comfort. He owns one of the finest business blocks in the city. It is five years since he retired.

PAYMENT WAS PROMPT.

Mrs. Rose Demerse, widow of the late Fred Demerse, who held membership in the Modern Woodmen of America, submits the following, which has reference to the payment of the insurance held by her late husband: "I wish to acknowledge the receipt of a check for $2,090, being the amount of the certificate of my late husband, Fred Demerse, of Hemmitt Camp, No. 1128. I wish to express my hearty appreciation of and best wishes for the order and at the same time extend my thanks to the society and its members for all they have done for me."

SALE RESUMES THIS MORNING.

The slaughter sale of S. Johnson & Co.'s stock of dry goods, clothing, etc., will be resumed today under the management of F. Braastad & Co. The doors of the store have been closed all this week and the stock has been rearranged and lower prices have been marked on all the goods. The partition which separated the two main departments has been removed and the office at the rear has been taken out. This gives much more room than formerly for the display of the goods. The sale will start with a rush this morning, though there will be may clerks present to wait on patrons promptly.

S. Johnson has established an office in the department formerly used for groceries, where he will be pleased to see all who call. He announces elsewhere in this issue that he would like to have all who are indebted to S. Johnson & Co. come around and settle their accounts.

BASEBALL NEXT SUNDAY.

The Menominee baseball team will cross bats with the Ishpeming nine next Sunday afternoon at the Union park grounds. This should be a stiff contest as it is said that the Menominee team is one of the strongest north of Milwaukee. It is expected that the team will bring along a professional battery, knowing that the Ishpeming nine is playing fast ball. This will not displease the local players as they like to go up against a battery that has a reputation. The game will start at 3 o'clock and the usual price of twenty-five cents will prevail. Ladies will be admitted free.

"ABNER."

Funny Story of a Funny Yankee from Maine.

Many Maine people who live in a certain part of Cumberland county will well remember one "Abner" - so he was always called in his town.

Abner was commonly selected to take charge of funerals, because he was about the only man in town who had time hanging on his hands. A citizen died, a man who never amounted to much, who was never positively wicked because that would have required more of an effort than he was willing to make. He was, however, far enough from being a good citizen, and Abner knew it as well as anybody else.

Abner was requested to ask a certain minister to conduct the service, and he hitched up his old horse and drove to his house. The minister said he would attend and then tried to get a little information concerning the late lamented. "What sort of a man was he?" he asked.

"Well, about the same as no sort of a man at all," responded Abner frankly. "I suppose his loss will be deeply felt in the community," said the minister. "They're all bearing up well under it," said Abner slowly.

"Was he a Christian?" asked the minister. "If he'd been accused of it, the verdict would have been guilty, and the jury wouldn't have left their seats," replied Abner cheerfully. "Did he attend church?" asked the minister a bit anxiously. "I never heard of his doing it," said Abner.

"How did he die?" continued the minister. "Just the same as he lived, sort of naturally," said Abner. "I don't see how I'm to preach much of a sermon under such circumstances," said the minister.

"The neighbors all said they didn't think they wanted much of a sermon, and so they sent me over to see you," said Abner.

The minister pocketed his wrath, and a $5 bill, and after the funeral the satisfied Abner said, "Well, we got just what we wanted, b'gosh." - Lewiston Journal.

FISH WERE EXPENSIVE.
 Couple of Swanzy Men Fined Heavily for Blasting Trout.

John Paehie and Peter Trewella, two Swanzy men, will doubtless give up blasting the streams in that vicinity for trout. They were arrested Tuesday of this week by Deputy Game Warden Case Downing of Ishpeming and were found guilty of taking fish illegally at a hearing before Justice Con. Kennedy.

It is said that the guilty parties have been using dynamite in the streams, rather than spend a term in the county jail. The game warden stated yesterday that he has pretty strong evidence against other Swanzy men and he will have some of them before a justice before long. He intends to get after the dynamite chaps in earnest.

Mr. Downing frequently receives complaints from people who know that trout are being killed with dynamite, but arrests cannot be made without positive proof against the guilty parties. The warden is careful not to make arrests until he knows that he is assured of conviction of the offenders.

NEGAUNEES WERE IN IT.
 Two Former Residents Figured Prominently in a Joke on Newspaper Men.

Captain Menhennett and Tom Broad, former residents of Negaunee, who are now located at Crystal Falls, were two of a quartet who perpetrated a pretty good joke on the editors of the Detroit Tribune. The following from a recent issue of the Tribune tells what happened:

"A couple of months ago we told our readers of the curious find in the Mansfield mine. The article was copied in all of the papers of the state and the Detroit Tribune made some humorous comments on it throwing out the insinuation that the "find" was a hoax.

"Tom Broad, Harry Morrison, Captain Menhennett and B. F. Brown, after reading the article, which was copied in the Diamond Drill, resolved to give the Tribune fellows tangible evidence that such a find was actually made so they boxed up about 250 pounds of the stuff and sent it down by express, shipping it collect of course.

"The package arrived with its exorbitant charges there was a roar in the Tribune office and under the caption 'Don't send any more' the Tribune man penned the following:

"Some weeks ago the Tribune noted the discovery by workmen in the Mansfield mine, at Mansfield, upper peninsula, of a curious, egg-shaped formation weighing nearly a ton, which was released from an encasement of hard, blue steel ore. The Tribune, which is always deeply interested in subjects of scientific moment, suggested that the singular globe-shaped object was the petrified egg of one of the monstrous lizards that in the earlier part of the reptilian age hibernated and fought in the marshes of the upper peninsula. A hint was thrown out that the 'egg' might prove to have been the product of a 'mare's nest' and it was suggested that the public take no more stock in it than it was able to lose.

"We have just received by express a generous fragment from the fossil 'egg' that dispels all doubt of the discovery, captain, chemist, master mechanic, surface boss and timekeeper uniting in an attestation of its genuineness, not as an egg, but as a peculiar composition in a formation of ore running about 61.50 per cent manganese, while an analysis of this singular globe disclosed manganese running from 47.50 to 62.20, with iron 2 to 5.27. The sample is accompanied by a note in which the above officials' express not only fragments of the formation, but the desire to offer in evidence 'a few pieces from the notorious manganese, find which you so sarcastically refer to.' No, don't. The inquiry is added: 'What do you think of it? If you are able to take any more stock, will gladly ship you a few hundred pounds.' The boxed samples presented all the mysterious surroundings of an informal machine and we order what another such sample in the establishment. With our knowledge of the oviparous output of the great antediluvian lizard, we see at once that it never laid this egg, which must have been the deposit of some other animal. But, joking aside, the specimens received present one of the most peculiar mineral formations that has ever come under our experienced observation."

A THIRD OPERATION.
 Dan Taylor Wires His People That He Must Undergo Another.

About ten days ago the surgeons at Providence Hospital, Chicago, advised C. W. Taylor of this city, that his son Dan would not have to undergo another surgical operation until fall. Mr. Taylor for then felt that there was still a good chance for Dan's complete recovery. Yesterday he received a telegram advising him to come to Chicago at once, as another operation is to be performed today.

It seems that the opening to the diseased intestine has grown larger since Mr. Taylor left Chicago and it has been determined that the sooner the operation is performed the better chance there will be for the patient's recovery.

The members of the family realize that this operation will be a hard one for Dan. The last time he was on the table the chances were nine to one against him. He is now much weaker than he was then and it will be a miracle if he pulls through.

Mr. Taylor and two of his daughters, Miss Lillian of this city and Miss Rose, who is teaching school at Florence, left last night for Chicago, and will be with Dan today. Rose joined her father and sister at Powers, having been granted permission to leave her school work.

DAMAGING THE BOATS.
 If certain boys who spend the greater part of their time in the vicinity of Teal Lake are not more careful, they will get into serious trouble. The youngsters are doing no little damage to boats. It is said that they get into the houses and if they are able to take out the boat, they damage them.

John P. Miller's boat was almost completely ruined Wednesday. Some boys took it from the house and after riding about the lake for a time, lost one of the oars. The wind was blowing hard at the time and the youngsters could not manage the craft. They finally drifted ashore, leaving it to beat against the rocks. Several holes were driven in the side of the boat and it is a question if it can be repaired. Mr. Miller intends to demand payment for the damages as he knows the boys who are responsible for the mischief.

RECEPTION TONIGHT.
 The members of the Negaunee Alumni association will be pleased to have all their friends attend the reception and hop to be given this evening at the opera house. No printed invitations were issued this year, so that all who have been invited by any member of the association or the graduates will be made welcome. A number of guests are expected from Ishpeming. If a considerable number attend from there a special street car will run for their accommodation after the party.

The reception will be from 8:30 until 9:30, after which there will be dancing. Refreshments will be served from 11 to 12:30. Music will be furnished by the Trombly orchestra.

GRAND SECRETARY HERE TONIGHT
 The officers of the local council of the Royal Arcanum desire every member of the society to attend the meeting to be held this evening. Grand Secretary C. B. Derthick will be present and will give the members a talk on matters pertaining to the society. A class of four or five candidates will be initiated and a good time is promised. Refreshments will be served. Members of the Ishpeming council are expected over as it is possible that some will be up from Marquette.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY IN JAPAN.
 The marriage ceremony in Japan is rather a novel affair. When two persons agree to join in wedlock it is the custom of the country that each one of the contracting parties shall choose some person or sponsor, or rather as guarantor, whose duty it is to determine whether or not such a union is proper and satisfactory to all concerned. It is especially expected that the bride will be agreeable to the parents of the groom, with whom they are generally expected to reside. There is an unwritten law in that country that the children shall be obedient to their parents and conduct their business affairs to a great extent to their satisfaction, and, if necessary, provide for their wants in old age. No license is required to authorize the marriage, but after being pronounced man and wife by the guarantors that fact must be made known to a judicial tribunal, where the occurrence is recorded. Should a disagreement arise between the parties thereafter and a separation be desired, they then proceed to have a meeting with their guarantors, to whom they state their grievances. After a hearing the guarantors decide the matter and arrange the terms for the separation. Such procedure is then reported to the court and is declared final. Previous to such action, should one or both of the guarantors die or be unable to act, then their nearest of kin will become arbiters in their stead.

Oscar says he does not know what has become of Simon.

HIS LIMITED AUTHORITY.
 Duties of the General in Command of the Army.

"The statement in the Star the other day that the president meant to further discipline Lieutenant General Miles by reducing his power," remarked an old war veteran to a Star reporter last night, "would be amusing if it were not actually pathetic. Nominally and ostensibly in command of the army of the United States, General Miles has no voice whatever in the control or conduct of military affairs.

"Although it is true that all general orders to troops and all special orders to officers and men are issued by command of Lieutenant General Miles," it is also true that they are so issued in conformity with the army regulations and entirely without regard to his wishes in the matter. His power in military matters is practically confined to the direction of the routine work performed by the members of his staff and the few clerks and messengers attached to headquarters of the army. He has independent control of his movements and duties to a certain extent, but over no one else in the military establishment, and is powerless to order a single soldier from one station to another without the approval of the war department as represented by the secretary of war or the assistant secretary.

"Probably his most important function at this time is in connection with the board of ordnance and fortifications, of which he is president ex officio. The independent powers of that board are exceedingly limited. All its actions involving changes of policy or large expenditures of money are subject to the approval of the war department.

"Looking at the case from a purely military standpoint, the powers of General Miles can hardly be reduced without eliminating the few inconsequential powers he now possesses. All the same, I think most of the older officers of the service are gratified that the president has concluded to allow him to round out his service on the active list."—Washington Star.

PATTON PAINT CO.

Gentlemen:

I have always been insured
 By the Man who's in the Sun
 He has always been most forward
 Since our cycle was begun
 And the latest of his doings
 That has made me grow quite faint,
 Is the shine of his Corona
 Since he used your Sun-Proof Paint.

Now, the Sun attracts attention
 (From the planets) more than I
 So I asked what caused his brightness
 And he made this curt reply:
 "I use 'Patton's Paints' to paint with
 For they do not quickly fade
 You should know they wear the longest
 Of many hundreds that are made."

I am writing you this letter
 To obtain the agency
 So, when'er the Sun needs painting
 He will have to come to me
 There is one more thing I'm wanting
 To help hold him in restraint—
 Forty gallons (silver color)
 Of your Patton's Sun-Proof Paint.

Yours truly,
 The Man in the Moon.

FRENCH STYLE IN POSTERS.
 Everybody knows, or should know, that in France white paper is specially reserved for official bills and posters. Consequently election addresses must be printed on colored paper, and this is the reason for the wonderful variegated exhibition with which we have been favored, says the Paris Messenger. In addition a law was passed last year prohibiting the use of tri-colored posters, much to the dismay of those candidates who wish to show their patriotism by an abundant display of red, white and blue. The new law fixes the penalty for the use of such placards at a fine of fifty francs per annum. This being so, it would be interesting to know what the election expenses of at least two Parisian candidates will amount to. These gentlemen, ignoring the law, caused tri-colored bills to be posted on the walls, and although at the first request on the part of the authorities they gave instructions for the removal of the bills, a summons has been taken out for each placard.

PREMIUM FOR SNAKES.
 In the year 1897 the poisonous snakes of India and the beasts of prey in her jungles killed 25,236 human beings and 84,147 cattle. For many years India has paid premiums for the destruction of snakes and other animals that destroy human life. In the year mentioned premiums amounting to 119,483 rupees were paid for the destruction of 19,945 beasts and 105,227 snakes. In spite of the large destruction of these animals the number of persons killed by them does not decrease. The victims of snakes and wild beasts in 1880 were 21,990. The number of victims in 1897 exceeded the number of 1880 by over 3,000. The Indian government prints the statistics every year of the number of men and cattle killed and the number of snakes and other animals for whose destruction premiums have been paid.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. HORSE RACES AT END.

Poorly Attended but the Best Ever Given Here.

Ella Ola was easily the star performer in yesterday's races at the fair grounds, the Houghton horse capturing hands down the free-for-all, the most important event of the meet.

The presentation came quite as a surprise to Mr. Giles, but he thanked the boys in a few words, assuring them that their kindness and regard was thoroughly appreciated.

Since coming to Marquette he has acted as their coach in football and field events and the excellent showing that the team made at Ishpeming a few weeks ago was largely due to his persistent efforts and encouragement of the athletes.

They sought Mr. Giles and through the kindness of Louis Slickney, presented him with a handsome gold locket, designed to be used as a charm on a watch fob.

The presentation was an expression of the esteem in which the boys hold Mr. Giles and of their thanks for the constant interest he has displayed in track team affairs.

ACTIVE BUYING AND SELLING.

KEEPING in touch with the requirements of the trade has necessitated our buying heavily in many departments during the past week, noticeably so in our Black Silks and Black Wool Dress Goods.

ONLY the increasing demand for Van Alstyn values in black Dress Goods forced us to place large additional orders during the past week, and yesterday we received almost a new stock of all-wool Cheviots, wonderful values for the price.

THE shipment of Wilton Rugs which we bought in March, last, and which have been lost for nearly three months, arrived here yesterday. They are handsome patterns and are in all sizes.

MACCABEES from all over Michigan visiting our store this week are surprised at the magnitude of our establishment. It naturally reminds one of the large city stores, and many of the visitors have availed themselves of the offerings we are making throughout the house.

Visitors wishing to take home some memento of their visit to Marquette will find an unlimited assortment of the season's latest fashions, and at less money than elsewhere.

NOTE.---Ladies are invited to use our Ladies' Waiting and Writing Room to write their letters. You will find Paper and envelopes free.
