ESCAPED CONVICT AGAIN ELUDES PURSUERS.

HAS BIG START ON SHERIFF'S POSSE

FORCES FARMER TO GIVE HIM FOOD AND CLOTHING.

Desperado When Last Seen Was on Puget Sound With Farmhand He Had Impressed Into Helping Him.

Seattle, Wash., July 6.—Harry Tracy has again eluded pursuit after a display of great daring. His last act was to impress a farmhand into embarking on the same row boat as yesterday. At noon today Sheriff Ordisee chartered a tug and with a posse started in pursuit.

Saturday morning Tracy compelled a boy to row him twelve miles across the sound. Tracy went to the house of a rancher named Johnson where he compelled the family to get him breakfast and sit at the table with him. Then he read the Friday morning paper's story of how his presence at Van Horn's house had been betrayed and commented on his own carelessness. He compelled Johnson to give him clothing, and food for a week. He then put on Johnson's best suit of clothes, bound and gagged the family and forced the hired man Anderson to carry the bundles to the boat and row him down the sound. Mrs. Johnson released herself and the others two hours later and notified Deputy Sheriff McKay at Madison Point. McKay secured a boat and sent word to Seattle this morning. Tracy has such a start that there is little hope of overtaking him.

DIED WHILE CHILDREN DANCED.

Mystery Surrounding Death of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McCormick.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 6.—While their son and daughter and several friends were singing and dancing in the parlor last night, Charles J. McCormick, a Great Northern passenger conductor, and wife were dying in the bathroom on the same floor. Their bodies were found some hours later by the son. The parents had been out driving early in the evening. On their return they went to the bathroom to take a bath while the young people made merry. When the guests left the children searched for their parents. The bath room door was forced open and both were found dead in the tub. Nearby was an empty beer bottle and the fragments of a lunch. The evidence points to poison. No satisfactory explanation of the tragedy is given.

ROOSEVELT IN 1904 SAYS QUAY

PENNSYLVANIAN REGARDS ACTION OF STATE CONVENTIONS IN INDORSING HIM THUS EARLY SIGNIFICANT.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Senator Quay of Pennsylvania regards the action of Republican state conventions in endorsing President Roosevelt for re-nomination two years before the national convention as one of the most remarkable compliments ever paid to a president. The Pennsylvania senator says he does not remember like expressions from conventions in the past and other old politicians agree with him. He regards it as significant of the future, pointing to the nomination of President Roosevelt by acclamation in 1904.

These endorsements, Senator Quay says, are the more remarkable coming from states whose representatives in congress have opposed the president's policy of Cuban reciprocity. There are four states whose conventions have declared for the nomination of Roosevelt in 1904, and three of them are Kansas, Minnesota and Missouri whose Republican members in congress were opposed to Cuban reciprocity. So were the Republican representatives from Pennsylvania until Senator Quay telegraphed to them individually, advising them to stand with the president if they did not want to go contrary to the wishes of the people. But these four states have demanded President Roosevelt's nomination.

The leaders of the opposition to Cuban reciprocity came from Minnesota, Nebraska, Michigan and Kansas, and Nebraska endorsed his Cuban reciprocity policy, while Michigan tried to compliment both the president and the congressional delegation.

The fetes were brought to a close by the pope pronouncing the pontifical blessing.

HUSBAND'S MAD DEED.

Chicago, July 6.—Taking his revenge for a quarrel of long standing Theodore Oelfer, a laborer, shot and killed his wife Adelaide today as she lay asleep in bed. Oelfer then turned the revolver on his baby son, Walter, and step-daughter, Lizzie Stramm, sleeping with his wife, wounding the former, probably fatally, and putting a bullet in the latter's shoulder. He also fired shots at two stepsons but hit neither. Oelfer then hid in the attic of the house until the police arrested him.

WESTERN PART OF STATE INUNDATED BY FLOODS.

The bridges were washed away at a number of places and miles of road way are torn up. Every one living in the lower part of Portage were compelled to abandon their homes. Farms are laid waste and houses and barns swept down the river. Railroad traffic at Hornellsville is tied up on account of washouts and a portion of the city is under water. Pekin is under four feet of water and the bridges in that vicinity are washed away. The damage is estimated at $250,000. Batavia reports that Towanda creek is the highest ever known. The flood came over the banks of the creek, which are fifty feet high. Hundreds of acres of farm lands are under water and the damage great.

He replied in the negative. When he inquired what protection was to be given him he was told he would have the same as any one else. He wanted the courts prevented from requiring him to testify in civil suits, but was told that exemption could not be granted. Aguinaldo seems fearful of being attacked on the streets.

LORD SALISBURY SOON TO RESIGN

AGED BRITISH PREMIER CONTEMPLATES GIVING UP HELM OF EMPIRE IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE CORONATION.

London, July 6.—At the earliest possible moment Lord Salisbury contemplates retiring from public life. But that severance from the affairs of the empire, which he has so long administered is not likely to come until after the coronation, and it may possibly be still further delayed by now unseasonable reasons of state politics. During the last few months the premier has more and more detached himself from the cares of office. With increasing age his dislike of public and dread of details which high office holding involves, have been strengthened into an antipathy so strong as to render even the Conservative leaders less importunate in their demands that he remain premier.

Those who have recently been brought into contact with the aged statesman privately comment on his absent-mindedness which is only overcome by great effort when it is absolutely necessary for him to deliver a public utterance on a question of importance. Peace in South Africa having been procured, Lord Salisbury is said to consider the crowning of the king as the moment when his services to the nation may most fitly be ended.

The Michigan Soo is jubilant at F. H. Clerge's announcement of his project to build a two million and a half dollar paper mill there. The erection of the plant will be started within the next two months. It will employ a small army of men and will prove a great addition to the Soo's industries.

Indications are that there will be a large attendance at the annual outing of the newspaper men to be held next month at Marquette and Munising. The boys have found out that their association has the means of furnishing them with great profit and pleasure and they may be depended upon to turn out on every occasion in full force. The outing this year promises to be unusually pleasant.—Escanaba Journal.

Marquette and Munising hope to see a general attendance of the members of the association. The newspaper "push" of the two cities feel confident that it can give the visitors a pleasing entertainment, as Marquette and Munising are both blessed with picturesque environments and many "good people." The cities will feel disappointed if the forthcoming meeting is not one of the largest that the association has held to date.

Now that the gubernatorial contest is coming La Follette's way, Spooner is the center of excitement in Wisconsin. County and district conventions are both endorsing and failing to endorse his candidacy for re-election. His known and active opposition to the governor is responsible for all the fight against him. If Spooner was an indifferent senator, his fate would be sealed. He would have no chance of election. But he is a national figure. His re-election is demanded by the Republican party in the country at large, on account of his ability and proved usefulness. The La Follette wing is hesitating, and may well hesitate, to turn down such a man. It is a responsibility it will probably decide to shirk. The chances favor Senator Spooner's re-election, although he would be passed over if the La Follette majority dared to ignore his claims.

The Boston Herald has the following comment on the senatorial situation in Wisconsin:

It is surprising to find doubts expressed of the re-election to the United States senate of Mr. Spooner, of Wisconsin. The Republicans have hardly had a senator in this generation of whom so much has been made by his party associates in the upper branch of congress as of this addition to their number. Yet Mr. Spooner is said to be doubtful about becoming a candidate for re-election next winter, when the succession to his seat is to be filled. It was thought at first that he was inclined to take himself out of the way because there was a factional opposition to him in the Republican party of his state, but later intelligence is to the effect that this has been overcome. It is remembered that Mr. Spooner served once before his present term in the senate, and lost his re-election through the Democrats carrying the Wisconsin legislature when his successor came to be chosen. There are those who think there is presidential timber in this western lawyer, and he has certainly proved to be a brilliant senator.

Ishpeming is to be congratulated on the enterprise of its municipal officers and business men, who are about to invite President Roosevelt to become their guest one day this fall. The Mining Journal only regrets that Ishpeming did not formulate its plans a little earlier. It fears that the committee will find that the president has filled out his itinerary to such an extent that he will be unable to visit the upper peninsula, a contingency that would be greatly regretted in this county. A presidential visit would be a novelty that would set northern Michigan fairly on fire. This section of the state has never been favored in this way, despite its valiant work for the party. The nearest it ever came to entertaining a president was its reception of a presidential candidate, in the person of W. J. Bryan. It had a lot of fun and excitement out of the Nebraska, but his reception would pale into insignificance beside that which would be given President Roosevelt. Ishpeming could do itself credit in entertaining his excellency, who could not fail to enjoy the novel experience of a visit to this city of iron ore.

Friday was a fairly successful Fourth. There was a satisfactory number of namings, burnings and bruising and yet the casualties were not so serious or so general as to put a damper on the occasion. President Roosevelt's address at Pittsburg was the feature of national import. In it the president again enunciated his policies particularly that of Cuban reciprocity, of which he said:

We said Cuba should become a free republic and we have kept our word. But there is one thing in our policy toward Cuba that has not yet met its entire fruition. It will meet with it. Cuba must occupy a peculiar relation to us in the field of international politics. She must in a larger sense be a part of the general political system in international affairs, in which the republic stands as the head. She has succeeded to that view and in return this nation is bound to give her special economic privileges not given to other nations. I regret that a measure of reciprocity with Cuba is not already in effect, but it will be as sure as fate.

He spoke confidently, but The Mining Journal believes that his confidence is justifiable. Cuban reciprocity is delayed, but it is not lost. It will shortly be demanded by the rank and file of Republicans. Its opponents may be powerful, but they are comparatively few in number.

The Newberry News has the following to say in explanation of Mr. Dutcher's withdrawal from the fight for the nomination as lieutenant governor in the state convention:

Considerable surprise and disappointment has been expressed among Lake County Republicans at the action of Mr. Dutcher in withdrawing from the race for lieutenant governor and not allowing his name to be presented to the state convention. The reason is not far to seek. In plain English Mr. Dutcher was up against the "machine" and rather than be lumped off the track he chose to stand aside and let it go by. Had he remained in the field he would have had the support of a majority of the upper peninsula delegates and would have made a creditable showing in the lower part of the state. When it became evident, however, that under no possible combination of circumstances could he hope to secure the nomination he decided to withdraw and by so doing assured the nomination of Mr. Maitland. It was a generous action and one that won for him many friends in this peninsula.

Yes, it was a generous action, and one that Mr. Dutcher will never regret. At Detroit he showed that he considered the interests of the upper peninsula secondary to his own, an attitude which should properly characterize all our citizens who seek public preferment. Mr. Dutcher is now a strong man in the twelfth district. He has made many new friends by his course in the late contest. He will be heard from later.

We now have what might be termed the new Philippines, as the islands are completely under civil control and a general amnesty has been extended to the natives who have been belligerents. This has been accomplished by two orders that became operative July 3. One was from the president, formally declaring the restoration of peace; the other, by the president's order, was from Secretary Root and it relieved General Chaffee from his duties as military governor. A third important document, given publicity on the 3rd, was a general order to the army in which Secretary Root expressed the president's appreciation of the work it has accomplished both in Cuba and the Philippines. Its significance lies in the fact that it goes out of the way to place the president and his administration fairly behind the army. It is another expression of Rooseveltian fearlessness. July 3 was a history making day for the Philippines, as the two orders to which reference has been made mark a turn of the tide in these possessions. The sword is no longer all powerful and the civil administration has a greatly increased burden. On its success during the next few months, much depends. If it is capable of ruling the Filipinos and keeping them in order, a great deal will have been done to vindicate the Republican policy.

SHAVING DEAD MEN. Young Barber Not Fully Initiated Until He Does It.

It would seem that the shaving of a dead man would be the most gruesome task for the barber, but the barber is a disengaged kind of work, practice and familiarity in time make it an everyday matter for the knight of the razor. Until a young barber has been called upon to shave a dead man he is not considered fully initiated in his trade, but some barbers never make the attempt.

The prices received by barbers for this work vary and run from $2 to $10. Many undertakers have barbers selected for this work and pay them a stipulated price. When the barber is summoned by the relatives of the deceased, however, he generally receives what he asks without discussion, the general opinion being that it would show much respect for the dead to haggle about the price of any of the necessary work of preparation for burial.

Were it not for the natural feeling against handling a dead body, the barber's task would be a comparatively easy one. In speaking on the subject an experienced Newark barber said: "I do not object to shaving a dead man. When one becomes accustomed to it, it is a simple task and pays well for the trouble. I use it as a rule to keep a set of razors ready for that sort of work and never use them on patrons of the shop. I use an old brush for the latter and throw it away after having shaved a dead man. Many barbers are not as particular in this respect, but when I have shaved a dead man I was impressed on my mind that if a customer imagined for an instant that he was being shaved with the same tools used on a corpse he would never patronize the shop again.

"I will never forget the first dead man I shaved. I was young in the business and at first declined the job, but the man I worked for told me I would never be a barber until I had shaved a dead man, so I started out. On the way to the house, however, I about made up my mind to hire another man to do the work. But after taking a good stiff drink I braced up, and finally got through the job. I didn't get much sleep that night.

"There are a good many live men that are far worse to shave than dead ones. One of my customers is a well-known actor, who plays in Newark two or three times a season. Whenever he is here I see him in his dressing room at the theatre just before the show. He gives me $5 a week for the work, and I think I earn the money, for he is never satisfied, and often tells me never to come to the theatre again, but he always sends for me the next day, and generally the messenger brings tickets for my wife. This actor always insists on having his own razors used. They are always dull, and so I generally substitute one of my own without his knowing anything about it. I would rather shave three dead men than this one live one.

She said she wanted to redden it for me, but I refused. I fixed him up for the show, and the picture had been taken the man had grown a beard, and wore his hair differently, but I fixed him up as near like his photograph as I could, and the widow was so pleased that she gave me a $10 bill."—Newark News.

TO OPEN THE MINES

OPERATORS PREPARING TO RESUME AT COLLIERIES.

STRIKERS TAKING STEPS TO RESIST

MINERS SAY SUSPENSION WILL BE UNTIL SEPTEMBER.

More Men Want to Return and Companies Have Enough to Start Work at Any Time—Price of Coal Will Advance.

Tomorrow will begin the third month of the strike. There has been many rumors and opinions published that certain coal companies would within a few days attempt to start up one or more of the collieries.

The movement of empty coal cars along the railroads and the unusual activity about several of the collieries in the region indicate to the strikers that an effort is to be made in a few days to start work at some of the collieries.

Mines Selected to Resume.

While they will not admit that work may be resumed next week, there is a general belief that the effort will be made. In the Hazleton region the Parsons are expected to mass men at the Harwood colliery which, being on the outskirts of the region, is in less danger of attack than a mine in the heart of the district and the coal can be shipped from it without being sent past any mining village.

The officials of the union, cognizant of what is being done by the collieries in the Hazleton region, and all moves are reported to headquarters, and if any effort is made to gather men the strikers will endeavor by large picket committees to see them before they go to work and dissuade them.

New York, July 6.—President Mitchell arrived tonight. He denies that he came to see any one on strike matters and expressed confidence in a victory for the miners.

NEW INDUSTRIES.

They Are Now Replacing Lumbering on the Upper Peninsula.

With the passing of the timber it was supposed at one time that northern Wisconsin and the Michigan peninsula would lapse into wilderness. But there is a new field opening up and farming and ranching seems to bid fair to take the place of the saw mill and the lumberman.

George Hubbard of Crivitz, Wis., has leased 600 acres of the H. Zech farm at Crivitz and is turning it into a cattle ranch. S. M. Stephenson of Menominee and Isaac Stephenson of Marinette, Wis., have both gone into the cattle-raising industry.

The progress made in farming in this section during the last decade has been striking, but only recently has stock raising been given much attention, and already the advance has been wonderful.

In the country tributary to Menominee, cattle, fine horses and sheep are raised; at Sidaun, in the southern part of Houghton county, a large sheep and cattle ranch is yielding handsome returns; and in Marquette, Delta and Chippewa counties, large sums of money are represented by farms near Iron Mountain, at Metropolitan, the Sagola Lumber company has established a ranch, on a tract of cutover, which has been stocked with Hereford steers.

The lumberman of Sagola, has decided to raise stock for market. He owns, among other tracts, 2,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Channing, and has stocked it with 500 head of blooded cattle.

Louis Van Winkle has one of the best conducted farms in the upper peninsula, in Garden township of Delta county. He has stocked it with high-priced cattle, for some of which he paid as high as $1,400.

At the state fair last year this farmer captured a number of blue ribbons, and his success represents the possibilities of the upper peninsula of Michigan and northern Wisconsin.

The trips are becoming increasingly popular every Sunday, and at times yesterday the boat was almost taxed to her capacity by persons anxious to get out of the heated city and enjoy the cool breezes of the lake. A charge of but fifteen cents for the round trip is made.

The Marquette Juniors ball team achieved more fame on the Fourth by winning second prize in the tournament at Michiganamie. They defeated the Ishpeming Shamrocks and the Negaunee Independents, but lost to the Michiganamie aggregation. The battery for the Marquette club was Story and Barbeau, pitchers, and Bennett, catcher. The boys would like to learn from other junior teams in the peninsula.

The great Macceabee convention did not bring Marquette the expected profits and the investors, it is said, lost money on it. There was certainly no lack of a crowd and just why Marquette did not realize as expected is an economic problem. Perhaps the Macceabees were more economical than was expected, or were so busy hurrahing for "Pop" Roynton they forgot to trade. The Gladstone Delta with a tinge of satisfaction remarks that "Marquette's doll was stuffed with sawdust, as the usual result of such investments."—Detroit Tribune.

Last week's issue of the Stephenson Journal contains an excellent likeness of Rev. Father Francis Barth, formerly of this city and wellknown throughout the peninsula, together with an extended sketch of the life of the young priest and of the good work he is doing at Stephenson. The clergyman is very popular with his parishioners and with the people generally and was recently highly complimented by Bishop Eis for the great success attendant upon his labors. The same issue of the Journal contains a sketch, together with a half-tone picture, of Dr. Edward Sawbridge, who was born in Marquette in 1861 and spent most of his boyhood here.

SWINDLER CASHES CHECK. Signature of William T. Cole, the Boiler Maker, Is Forged.

Late yesterday afternoon the body of John Randall of this city, who was drowned in Kidney lake, nine miles from Sidnaw, on the Fourth of July, was recovered. It was brought to Ishpeming last evening by a special train.

Ishpeming men who accompanied the father of the young man and Robert Crabb from this city Friday night were Dr. G. J. Sweetland, Dr. C. M. Leonard and Professor Schock of the manual training school. Some Sidnaw men joined the party Saturday and yesterday several more went out from that place to relieve the men who labored Saturday and Sunday night.

Soon after the news of the fatality was received here Friday evening, Professor Schock set some of the school boys at work and with them made a box with a glass bottom to be used in the search. Grappling hooks, ropes and other paraphernalia were obtained from the life saving station at Marquette, and Saturday more grappling hooks were sent up from Michigamme. The lake is about nine miles from Sidnaw and two miles from Mr. Randall's cottage. The road leading to it is not the best and it takes some time to make the trip between there and Sidnaw.

The mother and sister of the dead boy are taking his death very hard. Mrs. Randall has been confined to her bed most of the time since receiving the sad news. A number of friends are with the mother and sister constantly. John Randall was a great favorite. No young man in the city had more friends, so that the news of his untimely taking off caused widespread grief in the community. John had a very bright future before him and had he lived he would have completed his course at the university next June. He was a member of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity, an organization with which nearly all the leading dentists and other university men are identified.

Ira Randall of Houghton, uncle of John, and Ernest Ludlow of Hancock, and Miss Erickson of Escanaba, friends of the family, arrived in the city Saturday and have since been at the Randall residence.

ONE OF THE LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS was victimized to the extent of $10 by a swindler the night before the Fourth. It was the old game of forging a local business man's name to a check and passing it.

In view of the fact that the game was worked successfully in Calumet two evenings before, and in each case for $10, it is considered certain the forgeries were committed by the same party.

The name of William T. Cole, the boiler maker, was used and the check was cashed at a meat market. The stranger purchased thirty cents' worth of meat and presented the check to the cashier for payment. The latter was very busy at the time and hurriedly passed out the change, paying no particular attention to the man who presented the check.

The signature did not in any way resemble that of Mr. Cole, but the check looked genuine. It was drawn on The Miners' National bank and the amount for which the check was made out was $10. Mr. Cole's name was also stamped on one end of the check. The type used for the name was smaller than is printed on Mr. Cole's regular checks and was placed on a stamp.

The check was drawn in favor of Sam Campbell. The cashier did not know anyone by that name, but naturally supposed that he was one of Mr. Cole's workmen. The check was not drawn by the same person who signed it, unless the fellow was clever at disguising his writing. The writing of the name where it was endorsed on the back was quite different from that on the face of the check.

The forgery was not discovered until Saturday, when the check was presented to the Miners' National bank for payment. The check was turned over to Marshal Fandren, but he was unable to get a clue to work on. The cashier at the market could not give an accurate description of the man who presented it.

The marshal called at nearly all the other business places in the city, but did not learn of another place where the forger operated. He also notified the marshals of Negaunee and Marquette, thinking the crook might have gone to either place.

SEARCHING PARTIES ORGANIZED SATURDAY TO LOCATE TWO BOYS.

Not a few Ishpeming people were excited Saturday evening by a report that Clarence Gill, only son of Thomas F. Gill, the furniture dealer, and a chum named John Davis were lost in the woods south of the Winthrop location.

The boys, who were fishing Thursday, advised their people they would be home Friday evening. They went out several miles further than they intended, however, and not having the best of luck, concluded to remain a day longer.

The drowning of John Randall, together with the severe storm expected on the Fourth, caused the relatives of the boys to become very apprehensive. Captain John Trebilcock, of the Section 21 mine, was asked to have the mine whistle blown, and he did so. A searching party was organized at the Winthrop and another was got together in town. Both were about to start out when the boys struck the Winthrop. The news was immediately telephoned to the city.

The boys heard the whistle blowing for some time before they arrived at the Winthrop. They did not know, however, that the "whooting" was done for their benefit.

KENNEDY PLAYERS TONIGHT.

A Big Company, in Fine Productions, All Week at Cheap Prices.

Theatre-goers who patronize Kennedy Players at the opera house this week, commencing tonight with Roland Reed's great success, "Check", will get more than their money's worth. The company comes heralded as being the strongest repertoire organization that has visited this part of the state in years. There are in the neighborhood of twenty people in the company and all are said to be capable performers. A male quartet is one of the specialty features. The performances are continuous from the time the curtain rises until it falls after the last act.

John J. Kennedy is a very capable comedian and he becomes a favorite in every city he plays after the first night. He is a versatile actor and he plays different roles well. Miss Nellie Kennedy is also credited with doing splendid work. All the plays produced are mounted with special scenery carried by the company. The scenery is made so that it fits the smaller stages.

At tonight's performance one lady will be admitted free with the holder of a paid thirty-cent ticket. The price all week will be ten, twenty and thirty cents.

MARRIED SATURDAY EVENING.

Miss Bettie Molander of this city and Edward Anderson of Marquette were married in this city Saturday evening. A reception was tendered at the Swedish Baptist church and later a feast was served. A number of the groom's friends from Marquette were in attendance. The bride held a position in the office of the Ishpeming hospital for the past two years or more.

SHATTERED BY LIGHTNING.

The home of Oliver Jereau at the Deer Lake location was damaged by lightning on the Fourth. A portion of the roof was torn off. Steve Amel, who resides at the location, was in the house with the Jereau family at the time. The bolt came so close to him that he felt a severe shock in one of his legs.

THE MUNISING PAPER COMPANY'S articles of association form a very lengthy document. Register of Deeds Baldwin says they will fill eighty pages in the county record.

A convention of the Republicans of Dickinson county will be held at the court house at Iron Mountain on Saturday, July 12, for the purpose of electing seven delegates to the congressional convention at Marquette.

Walter Stromberg, a seventeen-year old boy employed at the Escanaba Woodenware factory, got his right hand caught in a planer last week and it was so badly cut that amputation was necessary just above the wrist. Stromberg's father was killed at the factory five years ago.

The C. & N. W. R'y. car repairers, of Escanaba who made a demand upon the company for an increase in pay, have been granted an increase of 15 cents a day. A committee from the union met with C. A. Schroyer, who represented the company, and an agreement was reached. The company showed a disposition to treat the men fairly and the result is very gratifying to them.

One of the largest land transfers ever made in Delta county was made last week when the Pittsburg & Lake Superior Iron company transferred to the I. Stephenson Lumber company about 10,000 acres of land. The consideration being $24,500. Another transfer of 3,000 acres was made by James T. Upjohn and wife of Kalamazoo to the Cleveland Cliffs company for the consideration of $13,000.

P. E. Stone of Munising was treating Bank Cashier F. S. Case to a ride on his railroad motor, and while the motor was going at a rate of twenty-five miles an hour a connecting rod became loosened and fell down. The car was thrown from the track and was quite badly broken, while the gentlemen took "headers" up the track. They were considerably bruised, but fortunately escaped serious injury.

Joel Lucia's sawmill at Ogoniz, Delta county, was destroyed by fire last week, entailing a loss of $15,000. The watchman discovered the fire, which started in the boiler room, and gave the alarm, but the flames had gained such headway that efforts to check them were futile and the mill and a quantity of lumber were consumed. The loss is a heavy one to Mr. Lucia, as he carried an insurance of but $4,000. It is his intention to rebuild at once.

Mary Spiesens, the twelve-year-old daughter of Frank Spiesens, of Norway, was scalded by escaping steam from a locomotive, the result of the engine wiper opening the blow pipe to frighten her home, is in a precarious condition. The wiper, John Cronin, has been arrested. The hearing was postponed until the girl's fate is determined. He furnished bail in the amount of $600. The doctors claim that the girl's chances for recovery are doubtful, and if she does she will be disfigured.

Ercule Refranchini, a resident of Au Train and one of Alger county's most highly respected citizens, was instantly killed late last week. He was loading bark from a scaffolding to a car near the depot when the scaffold broke and he was crushed to death. Mr. Refranchini was born in Italy about sixty-five years ago. He came to this country when a young man and fought for the preservation of the Union throughout the Civil war. He had been a resident of Au Train for many years.

Sheriff Stiles left Menominee last week for Allegheny, Pa., with a warrant for Joseph Sheby, who is supposed to be the man who stole $800 from a boarding house at Hermonville a short time ago. Mike Karabogdan, one of the men who were robbed, accompanied the sheriff to identify the man. Sheby was in Hermonville claiming to look for work, and at night entered the room of Karabogdan, and partner and took the money. He disappeared immediately and no trace could be found of him until Karabogdan received a letter from a friend in Allegheny informing him that Sheby was there.

The Cleveland-Cliffs baseball team did not go to Sault Ste. Marie on the Fourth. A number of the players were unable to get away and the engagement was cancelled.

John N. Outhwaite spent Saturday with his people here. He came up from Escanaba in the morning and returned in the evening. John is employed on a steamer which spent the Fourth at Escanaba.

MUNISING IN THE FIELD.

Would Like to Land Firemen's Tournament for 1903.

The Munising Republican, in its last issue, has the following:

"The members of Munising Hose Co. No. 1 have talked the matter over with a number of the leading citizens of the city and have decided to make a formal application for the honor of entertaining the upper peninsula firemen at the 1903 annual tournament. The tournament this year will be held at Negaunee next month, when the meeting place for 1903 will be decided. The Munising laddies will commence laying wires at once so as to succeed in landing the event for next year.

"Munising has many attractions which make this a desirable point for the holding of the tournament and if the matter is properly presented before the firemen at Negaunee there is no doubt that they will decide to come to our city.

"The upper peninsula editors will be here in full force on the 22nd, and the people of the city will use them so handsomely that they will be unanimous in supporting us for the tournament next year. If any of them are disposed not to favor us they can be dropped in Lake Superior when the party is making the excursion to Pictured Rocks. Let everybody get to work now."

HAD A "HOT TIME."

Well-Known Negaunee Saloon Keeper "Celebrated" on the Fourth.

Negaunee was a deserted city on the Fourth. Hundreds left town during the forenoon. Many felt lost for an opportunity to make the eagle scream in the good old way. There is no city or town in the upper peninsula that has had more Fourth of July celebrations than Negaunee. The saloon keepers have always contributed the greater part of the money. This year they knew that trouble would follow in case they kept their places open, so there was no celebration.

Nevertheless, an Iron street saloon man "celebrated" in a peculiar way. The day was the warmest of the season, but in spite of the fact that nearly everyone was seeking a cool spot, the liquor dealer dressed up in a heavy fur coat, German socks, felt shoes and a winter cap. He walked leisurely about the principal streets. Men, women and children looked to get a look at him. Some thought he was a fit subject for the asylum, while others concluded he was "jaggy." Several asked him what he meant by coming on the street in an outfit. He replied that he was "celebrating" and having a "hot time." From all appearances he was, as his face was as red as a beet and he was perspiring freely.

Joslin officiated. After the congratulations of the many friends present, all enjoyed a bountiful repast. The young couple left on the 9:50 p. m. train for a few days' visit at Negaunee after which Mr. Williams will resume his duties as time-keeper for the Corrigan, McKinney Co. at Crystal Falls."

TRAIN WAS CROWDED.

Excursionists to Munising Offered a Premium for Seats on Return Trip.

Negaunee people who went to Munising on the Fourth returned home pretty well tired out. The train was so crowded that many who planned on going from this city remained at home. They were at the depot and had their tickets bought when the train pulled in, but there were very few seats vacant. The Ishpeming excursionists occupied the seats, so that they got along fairly well.

The coaches were pretty warm on the trip down and there was no little suffering. On the return trip men accompanied by ladies paid as high as a dollar for a seat. A number refused to accept money as they felt too tired to stand up all the way home. Most of those who got seats were in the coaches an hour before the train left Munising.

Negauneeites Drenched.

Few of the Negaunee people who went to Munising got wet during the heavy rains. They managed to get under shelter. But hundreds of Negauneeites who spent the day in the woods and at the smaller towns in the western end of the county, got drenched. The rain came down in such torrents that the trees did not offer protection to the picnickers. There was quite a crowd at the Cleveland park. The pavilion did not protect them from the rain as the sides are open.

HOSE COMPANY OFFICERS.

At the meeting of No. 2 hose company of the Negaunee fire department held Wednesday evening last the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Foreman, William Newcombe; assistant foreman, Louis Moll; hose captain, Louis Goodrich; assistant hose captain, John Murray; hook and ladder captain, Napoleon Gauthier; assistant hose captain, Joe Lacombe; secretary, Ural J. Lacombe; treasurer, John Washburn.

WILL INSPECT THE CRUSHER.

The mayor and aldermen will inspect the city's new rock crusher today. The plant has been in operation almost a week and it has worked fairly well. The plant broke down Thursday, but repairs were made within a short time. The city council has thirty days in which to accept the plant.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

LOCAL LAONICS.

J. A. Kirkwood spent the Fourth and Saturday in Negaunee.

A regular monthly meeting of No. 1 hose company will be held this evening. Mark Elliott came over from Crystal Falls and spent the Fourth with his family at Palmers.

The news of John Randall's death was received with much regret by the young men's many Negaunee friends.

While on his way home from town the night of the Fourth, John Stanaway fell into a test pit near the Jackson mine. One arm was slightly injured.

F. D. Davis left Saturday for Minneapolis, where he will attend the annual meeting of the National Educational association. He will be absent about a week.

Lightning struck the rods on Samuel S. Mitchell's dwelling on the Fourth. The bolt followed the wire to the ground and no particular damage was done.

L. E. Chaussee came up from Munising Thursday on a few days' visit to his family. He is making good headway with the mill he is erecting for a Munising firm.

The sewer was taxed to its capacity for a time on the Fourth. A number of the catch basins were plugged with chips, etc., and several streets were flooded for an hour or so.

Dan Finnegan and Miss Louise Kerney, two well known young people of this city, were married one day last week. A reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents.

The city is pretty well hampered and lithographed for the Buffalo Bill show, which will be at the Union Park a week from next Thursday. A gang of bill posters worked here on the Fourth.

Clarence Mason is down from the Mesaba range, where he has been employed for a few months past by the Oliver Iron company. He will do some work for the company in this city, though he does not know when he will receive instructions to leave here again.

FORGER IS NIPPED

TOBACCO STORE IS SWINDLED

FIVE-DOLLAR ORDER ACCEPTED BY YOUNG BOY CLERK.

Marshal Gathers in the Crook, Who It Develops Has Just Been Released from the Pen—Now Is Booked for Another Term.

During the absence of the proprietor, a fellow named Jesse Listen passed a forged check at the tobacco store of M. Hinz on South Front street on the evening of the Fourth of July. The nature of the bogus paper was not discovered until Saturday morning, when the police were notified and after an hour or two Marshal Maney picked up the culprit in one of the Washington street saloons. Listen was taken to the lock-up, and this morning will be brought before Justice Byrne for examination. The forged check, which was passed on the young boy clerk at the store, was a very bungling piece of work that Mr. Hinz himself would have been quick to detect. It was drawn for five dollars, payable to "J. R. Day" and signed by "K. Jesse Day." First National bank paper was used. On the man being searched several blank checks were found in his pocket, as well as one purporting to have been issued to E. C. Bracher for twenty cents. The latter the fellow tried to pass at the shooting gallery on Washington street. Listen was released from the penitentiary only a few days ago, having served a term there for a forgery committed in lower Michigan. Saturday evening the police were notified from Ishpeming to be on the lookout for a forger who had succeeded in passing a bogus check at a butcher shop there, the game being the same as that worked here a few months ago. The business men were notified of the possibility of the fellow putting in an appearance in Marquette and were asked to at once give warning in case he appeared in their stores. The forger, however, steered clear of the city.

SMALL BLAZE YESTERDAY.
An alarm of fire yesterday morning at 7 o'clock called the department to the corner of Ridge and Third streets, where a blaze on the roof of a shed at the residence of Robert Todd had been discovered. The flames were quenched by the use of the chemicals and the damage was trifling. A spark from the chimney is believed to have been responsible for the fire.

MAAS MINE SPUR.

Condemnation Proceedings Are Adjourned Until Tuesday, the 15th.
In the probate court Saturday, the matter of the condemnation of the right-of-way into the Maas mine site at Negaunee came up before Judge Kelsey on the petition of the L. S. & I. road. Several attorneys, representing the company and the defendants, were present and argued the question whether the probate court had jurisdiction to deal with the case. Judge Kelsey decided that the court had jurisdiction, and on the application of the defendants it was ordered that the case be tried before a jury, and not be submitted to commissioners, as was petitioned for. The names of twenty-four freeholders, residing in various portions of the county, were drawn and of the list each side selected six. The sheriff was instructed to notify the jurors of their selection and to summon them to be present in court at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 15th inst., to which date the proceedings were adjourned. It will be for the jury to decide as to the necessity of condemning the right-of-way, and if found necessary to fix the damages.

MORE VICTIMS OF THE FOURTH.

Arthur Desjardins, formerly of this city and now South Shore baggageman at Calumet, accidentally shot himself through the fleshy part of the thigh on the Fourth. The revolver he was to use for celebrating purposes was loaded with a ball cartridge without his knowledge. His injury is painful but not serious. George Hager also was a victim of the Fourth of July celebration and is nursing a badly burned hand as a result. The injury was caused by a giant firecracker which went off sooner than expected and came within an ace of blowing off a couple of Mr. Hager's fingers. Conductor E. S. Gillette, who now makes his headquarters at Calumet, met with a similar accident.

CRUEL TEAMSTER ARRESTED.

A teamster was arrested Saturday and brought before Justice Byrne on the charge of cruelty to animals. He was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. The man had brutally beaten the team he had been driving and complaint was made by a gentleman who was passing down Ridge street and witnessed the fellow's act.

TREAT YOUR KIDNEYS FOR RHEUMATISM.

When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy for this purpose. R. T. Hopkins, of Plover, Wis., says: "After unsuccessfully doctoring three years for rheumatism with the best doctors, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine." People's Drug Store.

NO RELIEF FROM HEAT.

The weather for the past couple of days has been decidedly and uncomfortably warm but the highest mark reached by the mercury falls several degrees short of the maximum record for this year. On Saturday the temperature got up as high as 89. The air was unusually full of moisture and the citizen who was obliged to stay in town sweated much. Yesterday the maximum was 87, and although the air was drier than on Saturday the heat caused much discomfort. Last evening there was no prospect of relief from the hot spell, the weather map showing that continued warm temperature and southerly winds could be expected today, with possible showers.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE.

D. Siedenfeld Will Open It in Stand Now Occupied by the Bee Hive.

D. Siedenfeld, who, ever since he has been located in the stand on South Front street formerly occupied by Oshinsky, has been enjoying a good patronage, has decided to branch out in business. With this end in view, he has closed a deal for the lease of the quarters in the Mather block soon to be vacated by L. Getz and within a short time will open an up-to-date dry goods store there. This will be conducted entirely separate from the business Mr. Siedenfeld will continue to do in his present stand, where the clothing trade and other similar lines will be catered to exclusively. Each store, although under the same management, will be conducted as separate institutions. For the new stand, handsome oak shelving and fixtures and the new style combination glass counters and show cases have been ordered and extensive alterations will be made in the interior arrangement, it being the intention to make the new department rank, both as to stock and facilities, with the best in this section. The store will be up-to-date in all particulars and a good class of trade will be especially catered to. Mr. Siedenfeld has made a great success in business here and is laying his plans to secure a still larger share of the patronage.

"A BREEZY TIME."

The next attraction at the opera house will be Fitz & Webster's newest, "A Breezy Time." The adjective that is included in the title of the farce comedy, "A Breezy Time," fitly indicates the nature of the production. It has the purpose of the author to make the performance breezy; simply refreshing enough to revive jaded minds, and not cause the mind to sit in a draft, so to speak. The company includes twenty of the cleverest farceurs in the profession, each having been selected to exactly fit the role he or she may be cast for.

KENTUCKY OIL.

Extracts from a Letter That Will Interest Marquette Stockholders.

The following extracts from a letter written under date of June 20th by the Rev. F. C. Pillsbury of Mt. Clemens, Mich., to Geo. W. Hibbard, vice president of the Eastern Kentucky Oil company, will be of interest to Marquette stockholders:
"Since writing you I have made a trip to Kentucky, and find conditions there very encouraging. There is enormously increased activity, and the production is very gratifying. New strikes are being made every few days, and the value of the field is every day becoming more fully established."
"The strike made by the Caney Creek company, which has been drilling on the anticline where the Eastern company has such large holdings, establishes, beyond any peradventure, the great value of your property. They drilled through two different pay streaks and went down to what they believe would prove the best sand. At either of the two points mentioned they could have had a good pumping well, and a very profitable one, so I am told, but at the greater depth they got such phenomenal results that all their stock was immediately withdrawn from the market."
"When one considers that your company has 15,000 acres of land thus carefully selected, I do not believe that any company now operating in Kentucky offers to its shareholders so much value for their money as your company offers at the present time, while shares are selling for 40 cents each, the par value being one dollar."

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

'TIS TRUE. AN OLD SAYING.

"ALL WORK AND NO PLAY," ETC.

WE HAVE just given our employes an outing of three days. Our store has been closed since Thursday night last. Incidentally we might add that Thursday night closed the most prosperous season since we came to Marquette. It was well that we tendered a little rest at this time, and we feel confident that the public will commend us in this little diversion. July, 1901, was one of the best summer months we had experienced up to that time. It will be no small undertaking to make it fifty per cent. better this year—which increase we have made for the past three months—besides we are a week late in starting. However, the buying public seems to have decided that it pays to do their trading at our establishment. Certainly we have a much larger and better assortment of goods to select from, as well as much better facilities for showing goods, and now that our salespeople are rested and ready to push their work, which, with the management's determination to offer the greatest inducements in values, we feel confident that this will be the greatest July selling in the history of our store.

MID-SUMMER MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE

We will show in our Millinery Room hundreds of pieces of Muslin Underwear at reduced prices this morning. It will be an opportunity to buy Underwear at less than it is worth.

HOSIERY AND KNIT UNDERWEAR

Did it ever occur to you that we are selling a superior quality of goods in these departments, that we are exclusive agents for the ONYX HOSIERY and MERODE UNDERWEAR and that you cannot buy it in any other store in Marquette? LORD & TAYLOR of New York are the selling agents and confine it to us for this market. Try it. Its special merit is that it wears longer and does not draw and irritate the feet.
