FLOODS IN IOWA

HEAVY RAINS CAUSE RIVERS TO OVERFLOW THEIR BANKS.

CROPS AND PROPERTY DAMAGED

FAMILIES IN LOWLANDS OF STATE FORCED TO LEAVE HOMES.

In Des Moines Bridges Are Washed Away and Business Sections of City Suffer Severely from Waters.

Marshalltown, Ia., July 8.—The high stage of the Iowa river which began to rise this afternoon because of the heavy rains in the north, threatens much property damage before morning. All the bottom lands are covered for a distance of fifteen miles north and east of here. Families in the lowlands are moving out tonight in boats. The fields of grain planted since the high water a month ago, are again threatened with destruction. Damage to the livestock will be heavy. The carcasses of hogs are coming down the river in large numbers. Railroad traffic is threatened on the Iowa Central and the Northwestern. Washouts on the latter road at Ralston this afternoon delayed the overland trains east bound, ten hours.

Des Moines Is Flooded.

Des Moines, Ia., July 8.—Rains were general throughout Iowa this afternoon and evening. Both the Des Moines and Raccoon rivers are higher than since 1895. The false work on the new Sixth avenue bridge over the Des Moines river went out tonight and the street railway company's bridge is threatened. The lower section of the city is flooded and the basements are beginning to fill in the business section. In this section during the past forty-eight hours the rains have greatly damaged the small grain and corn.

This evening the river broke over the levee and a score of families were driven from their homes. John Childs, a cripple, was rescued with difficulty, the boats being used to save others. The steamer Lehman, the biggest of the river excursion boats, has sunk. The Raccoon is two miles wide through Dalles and Green counties and is sweeping over the crops on the bottom lands.

Railroads Suffer Washouts.

Sioux City, Ia., July 8.—Much damage is being done by the high water south and east of Sioux City. All the small rivers are over their banks and large tracts of lowlands are under water. Traffic on the railroads is almost at a standstill owing to the numerous washouts. Rain is falling tonight and greater damage is feared.

Omaha, July 8.—In Western Iowa a downpour of rain has played havoc with the railroad traffic. The main line of the Northwestern road between the Missouri Valley and Denison is washed out in several places and the branch has also suffered had washouts. On the Fort Dodge and Omaha division of the Illinois Central a number of washouts are reported and trains are tied up and unable to move either way.

The Rock Island tracks are washed out at Underwood, Ia., and no trains have arrived at this city over that road since noon. The track is reported under water in a number of other places. Four inches of rain fell at Underwood during the afternoon and evening.

Council Bluffs, Ia., July 8.—Fully a thousand feet of the Rock Island road between Logan and the Missouri Valley are washed out. That road and the Illinois Central are under water in scores of places.

DISCUSSED RECIPROCITY.

Oyster Bay, Wis.—Montague White and William E. Curtis were guests of the president at dinner today. They discussed reciprocity and the president expressed the confidence that congress would eventually vindicate his advocacy of Cuban reciprocity. He also believes that some form of reciprocal relations with Cuba will be established at a night session of congress.

SENSATION IN ANDREWS' TRIAL

JUDGE MURPHY DISMISSES ENTIRE PANEL OF JURORS THAT WAS TO SIT IN CASE OF FAMOUS DETROIT BANK WRECKER.

Detroit, July 8.—Judge Murphy, of the recorder's court, created a sensation in the early proceedings of the trial of Frank C. Andrews, former vice president of the wrecked Savings bank, which began today by dismissing the entire panel of jurors drawn for the July term of court. Judge Murphy said in explanation that he had received certain information affecting members of the jury and considered it proper in the interests of justice to discharge all the jurors summoned for this term. It is rumored that several men on the jury were very friendly with some of Andrews' close political associates. These are the rumors the judge undoubtedly referred to.

KING STILL IMPROVES.

Edward's Progress to Recovery Continues Favorably.

London, July 8.—It was said at the palace tonight that the king's progress was in no way retarded.

Secretary Chamberlain's progress is so satisfactory this evening that he expects to leave the hospital tomorrow.

JESSIE MORRISON SENTENCED.

Murderer of Mrs. Olin Castle Given Twenty-Five Years.

El Dorado, Kas., July 8.—Jessie Morrison, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Olin Castle, was today sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary. Miss Morrison, who has gone through three trials, took the sentence with little show of demonstration. At the second trial she was sentenced for five years.

After being sentenced, Miss Morrison, accompanied by her father and brother, went to her cell. She said: "The judge has been against me from the first and was bound to convict me. I expected no mercy from him and did not get any. I don't consider that I had a fair trial and believe the supreme court will again reverse the case." The defendant's attorneys are given fifty days in which to file a bill of exceptions. Miss Morrison's trials have cost the county $12,000.

REPORT IS DENIED

PERE MARQUETTE AND HOCKING VALLEY NOT TO CONSOLIDATE.

STATEMENT MADE BY T. F. RYAN

MICHIGAN ROAD HAS SATISFACTORY CONNECTIONS.

If Necessary Line Can Be Extended East to Buffalo and West to Chicago Without Much Additional Cost.

New York, July 8.—Thomas F. Ryan, who is probably the largest stockholder in the Hocking Valley railroad and also of the Pere Marquette next to Nathaniel Thayer, of Boston today denied the reported consolidation of these roads.

The relations of the former with its competitor is very satisfactory, he said and will remain so unless the stock falls into the hands of people who have in mind the building of extensions and diverting the traffic of the road into new channels.

"The Pere Marquette" said Ryan is an east and west line with nearly two thousand miles, most of which lie in Michigan. The western terminus is with in forty miles of Chicago and if we decide to take advantage of traffic arrangements offered at Detroit and Port Huron there would remain only 155 miles to build to Buffalo. The responsible head and the controlling influence of the Pere Marquette is Nathaniel Thayer of Boston. Thayer has never looked upon a consolidation with favor and I agree with him."

TO SETTLE THE CHICAGO STRIKE

CONFERENCE ARRANGED BETWEEN GENERAL MANAGERS AND COMMITTEE FROM FREIGHT HANDLERS FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Chicago, July 8.—Through the efforts of Chairman Job of the state arbitration committee a series of meetings have been arranged for tomorrow morning between the general managers of each of the railroads and a committee of five of the striking freight handlers from the same lines. The committee is not empowered to settle the strike but will report an agreement to the meeting of the union in the afternoon. Job expresses the hope that this is the beginning of the end of the strike. President Curran of the union, tonight said he felt assured the differences will be amicably adjusted.

Green Bay, Wis., July 8.—Orders received here today from the railway headquarters at Chicago are that the station agents, section bosses and other employees who can be spared are to report to Chicago immediately to aid in handling freight during the strike.

Denver, July 8.—The traveling freight agents of the roads affected by the strike at Chicago have been notified to be prepared to proceed to Chicago at a moment's notice for duty there.

MONEY TO MOVE CROPS.

Washington, July 8.—The first money for the movement of crops was shipped from the treasury today—$100,000 to New Orleans and $500,000 to Chicago. The demand for money from the interior promises to be somewhat heavier than last year. Since Jan. 1, $5,000,000 has been transferred against $3,000,000 for the same period last year.

CHOATE HONORED

AMBASSADOR IS POSSIBLE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

SO DECLARES DON M. DICKINSON

FAMOUS DETROIT CITIZEN GUEST OF ENGLISH BENCH.

Makes Hit by Comparing President Roosevelt to Sir Sydney Smith as Without Fear and Without Reproach.

London, July 8.—Speaking at the annual dinner of the Hartwick society in London tonight Don M. Dickinson, of Detroit who was counsel for the United States before the international high commission on the Behring Sea claims in 1897, referred to Ambassador Choate, as a possible candidate for the presidency of the United States. The company consisted of several hundred members of the English bar.

Dickinson took Choate's place as a guest of honor. He prefaced his proposal of a toast to the English bench by a tribute to Choate, "Choate does not belong" said Dickinson, "to my party or to my government but it is very near the hearts of the American people that he shall go from the court of St. James to the presidential chair and I wish he may get there." Dickinson eloquently voiced the sympathetic joy of the American people at the certainty of the recovery of the king; Dickinson compared President Roosevelt, amid the enthusiastic cheers of those present to Sir Philip Sydney as "sans peur et sans reproche."

REVOLUTIONISTS LAY DOWN ARMS

COLOMBIAN REBELS ACCEPT CON-CESSIONS OF BOGOTA GOVERNMENT, WHICH PRACTICALLY ENDS THE TROUBLE.

Panama, July 8.—General Salazar, governor of Panama, has received a dispatch from Bogota, the capital of Colombia, announcing that Generals Pedroja, Benito, Ulloa Leal and Teopilo Garcia and their staffs, together with General Marin, the most important liberal leader in the department of Tolima, have laid down their arms on account of the guarantees offered by the Bogota government.

At Carmen, General De Tacap defeated the liberal forces under Munoz, killing or wounding over two hundred. This general also won a victory over the forces of General Garcia Roviera, thus, it is claimed, rendering it useless to cause any more bloodshed.

KILLS WIFE AND SELF.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 8.—As a result of a family quarrel Jeremiah P. Fenton, a master machinist, tonight shot his wife, mortally wounding her and then blew out his own brains. The tragedy occurred at Fenton's home in the presence of their two young children.

TRACY FOOLS POSSE

DESPERADO ESCAPES AFTER BEING SURROUNDED IN HOUSE.

BLOODHOUNDS PUT ON THE TRAIL

ANDERSON, THE UNWILLING ACCOMPLICE, IS FOUND.

Was Tied to Tree by Convict While in View of Pursuers—Says Friends of Criminal Are Aiding in Flight.

Seattle, Wash., July 8.—Shortly after noon today, Harry Tracy, the escaped convict, was sighted a mile and a half east of Benton, in Lake Washington. A posse immediately started in pursuit and half a hundred deputies surrounded Tracy in the Gerald house at Benton but he gave them the slip and was gone ten minutes before the deputies knew it. The sheriff then closed in and found Anderson, the man he kidnapped, tied to a tree back of the house.

Bloodhounds on Trail.

Tracy had tied Anderson while the posse were in full view of the house before making his escape. Bloodhounds were let loose on his trail and are reported to be only a few minutes behind him. Fully a thousand armed men are now engaged in the pursuit, including a posse which has taken a train for Palmer to intercept Tracy in his flight toward Cedar Mountain. Tonight Anderson related his experiences since the night he left Port Madison in Johnson's white boat until his rescue this evening. From his story it is evident that Tracy has accomplices who are lending him material assistance in his flight through the country.

A GHASTLY FIND.

Bodies of Man, Woman and Two Children Picked Up Horribly Mutilated.

Enid, O. T., July 8.—Near Prudence, thirty miles southwest of the bodies of a man, a woman and two children, apparently members of one family, mutilated into almost unrecognizable shapes, were found today. The bodies were stripped of all clothing, leaving no means to identify. It is supposed the family were strangers traveling overland and that they were robbed and murdered by men who then made off with their team and belongings.

RAINS CAUSE TRAIN WRECK.

Support of Bridge Weakened by Floods and Structure Gives Way.

Peoria, Ill., July 9.—Early this morning as the result of the heavy rains last evening, the Lake Erie & Western east-bound freight train went through a bridge at Farmdale, six miles east of here. The engine went into the creek and half a dozen cars piled up on it. John Krieger and Engineer Rankin were badly injured and Samuel Marsh, the fireman, is missing and is supposed to be beneath the wreck.

The pontiff expressed pleasure at the clarity with which the business had been dispatched. The answer was translated into French and will be printed.

CONDEMNED MAN GIVEN RESPITE.

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—Governor Yates today granted a further respite until Aug. 11 to Louis G. Toombs, sentenced to be hanged in Chicago, on the charge of murder. Toombs was recently found guilty of murdering a woman on board a boat at Chicago and sentenced to death. The first stay was until July 11.

BELGIAN QUEEN GROWS WORSE

CONDITION OF MARIA HENRIETTA SUDDENLY BECOMES GRAVE AND FEARS ARISE—HAS BEEN ILL FOR SOME TIME.

Brussels, July 8.—La Chronique says that Maria Henriette, Queen of the Belgians, who has been ill for some time at Spa has suddenly grown worse and is in an alarming condition.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS MEET.

Springfield, Mo., July 8.—At the Democratic state convention today the committee on resolutions reported a platform ignoring the Kansas City platform and the silver question. After a discussion on the floor the convention amended the platform so as to endorse the Kansas City utterances. At midnight no nominations were made.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES

Tells How Hospital Physicians Use and Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Twelve years continuous service at the sick beds in some of our prominent hospitals, as well as at private homes, has given me varied experiences with the diseases of women. I have nursed some

President of Nurses' Association, Watervliet, N.Y. most distressing cases of inflammation and ulceration of the ovaries and womb. I have known that doctors used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when everything else failed with their patients. I have advised my patients and friends to use it and have yet to hear of its failure to cure. "Four years ago I had falling of the womb from straining in lifting a heavy patient, and knowing of the value of your Compound I began to use it at once, and in six weeks I was well once more, and have had no trouble since. I am most pleased to have had an opportunity to say a few words in praise of your Vegetable Compound, and shall take every occasion to recommend it."

Miss VIRGINIA GRANES—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED). Issued daily except on Sundays. Contains Associated Press dispatches and is especially devoted to the Upper Peninsula interests.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per month, by carrier, $1.00. Per year, by mail, $10.00. MARQUETTE, MICH., JULY 9.

The Evening Wisconsin has the following little "teaser" for Hon. John R. Gordon of Marquette: "By failing to practice what he preached, and having a hole torn in his hand as a result, a Michigan legislator who during the last session of the legislature tried to secure the enactment of a law against fireworks, has shown that nothing short of a rigid prohibition of some forms of pyrotechnics will save people from injury through carelessness."

Chicago has its share of labor troubles this year. Now the freight handlers, to the number of several thousand, are out. If the struggle should prove protracted, great damage and inconvenience would result, as the freight traffic would be seriously interrupted, if not absolutely tied up. Fortunately it appears that a speedy settlement will be reached by arbitration. Chicago is making an enviable record with arbitration. By its means several threatening labor troubles have been settled during the past few months and it is now recognized as a legitimate method of ending disputes between employers and the employed.

Political oracles who, looking two years into the future, insist that they see Michigan in the attitude of repudiating President Roosevelt will be convinced that their prognostications are all a mistake when they learn of the nature of the reception he will be greeted with in Detroit and other Michigan cities next fall. Michigan people like and admire Roosevelt. There may be newspapers which try to convey a contrary impression and there may be here and there, small fry politicians who look on him with disfavor, but the Rooseveltian qualities, grit, decision, and political morality, are always in favor with the rank and file of Michigan Republicans. The Detroit reception will be a good indication of the stage of Roosevelt's popularity in this state. Wait for it and watch it.

The Detroit Evening News, in its effort to defeat Bliss and secure the nomination of Judge Durand of Flint by the Democrats, on July 4 published a series of interviews with prominent men in different parts of the state, which were consistently derogatory to the governor. Developments have shown that the interviews were "faked." Most of them have since been repudiated. What has come over the News? Is it losing its journalistic sense? The "fake" interview gag was worked to death years ago and it was always highly disreputable and sadly ineffective. The News might have known that its underhand methods of attacking the governor would reflect and react on itself. Such methods will make Bliss voters faster than the work of all the spell binders that could possibly be turned loose in the state.

Representative Loud of California, chairman of the committee on post-offices and post roads, is said to believe himself to be in danger of defeat in his campaign for re-election because of his action in not allowing a bill for reclassifying the letter carriers of the country to be reported. The Democrats intend to harp on this action and they hope to make Loud the object of the letter carriers' hostility. Fortunately the letter carriers are not going to defeat their own purpose by moving against Mr. Loud. On the contrary J. C. Keller, president of their association, and other officers contemplate a trip to California with the purpose of preventing any interference by their men. They want their reclassification bill to pass on its merits and they understand full well that they would make a grievous mistake in joining issue with Mr. Loud because of his action as chairman of his committee.

Congress adjourned without taking any action on the bill giving veterans preference in the public service under the national government, and the G. A. R. men are thoroughly mad and disgusted. They claim they have been duped and deceived, fed upon false hopes and finally thrown down in a shameful manner. Now they clamor for vengeance, and say they will wage warfare on those who were responsible for the failure of the veteran bill to get through. The men marked for their displeasure are Speaker David B. Henderson, Charles Grosvenor, of the Eleventh Ohio district, and Congressman Gillett, the latter being chairman of the committee on reform in the civil service, to which was referred the measure that had the backing of the G. A. R. This bill was to amend the existing law relating to the preference in civil appointments of persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service, so that men honorably discharged from the military or naval service by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness, and officers and enlisted men who served in the Union forces during the civil war, shall be preferred for appointment to and retention in civil offices and employments. The bill is a reasonable one, involved no expense to the government and should have received attention. In all probability, however, the men who are now so disappointed and swearing vengeance will all be back in line again before they do any harm to the members they are so angry with.

The Iron River-Stambaugh Reporter has the following comment on M. H. Moriarty's candidacy for senator from this district: County Treasurer M. H. Moriarty appears to have a cinch for the nomination for state senator from this district. John R. Gordon, his only opponent having withdrawn from the contest, Mr. Moriarty is well qualified for the place, and Iron county should feel honored in having one of her citizens selected for this high position. In return we should certainly show our appreciation for this honor in giving to Marquette our four delegates to the congressional convention. This would be no discourtesy to Congressman Sheldon, as he has had the honor six years, and besides in Mr. Young the district will find a representative in every way his equal—if not in some accomplishments his peer. The Reporter is willing to concede that Mr. Sheldon has made a worthy member in congress and it is through no failure to perform his duties that we urge our people to support Mr. Young. In honoring Mr. Young we are also honoring a worthy citizen of our own county. Is this not an honor we should appreciate and in turn reciprocate?

With the national convention two years of four states, Minnesota, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Kansas, have specifically endorsed President Roosevelt for renomination. These four states will have 146 out of approximately 952 delegates. As no presidential candidate has ever before had such a nucleus of votes so early, there is every reason for the gratification shown by the president's supporters at the friendliness evinced in the state conventions referred to. It presages an irresistible movement in Roosevelt's favor. The Hanna bugbear has about had its day. It is being worked less and less. No one denies that the senator could be a real factor in the situation, if he would but announce his candidacy, but he has reiterated, time and again, his determination not to enter the presidential race and all his acts have borne out his statements. Hanna would be a dangerous opponent for anyone, but he is very evidently not seeking the executive office, although it is likely that some delegations, notably that from West Virginia, may be instructed for him. It is expected that Roosevelt will greatly increase his strength during the few months previous to the congressional elections. He will get into personal contact with new people and will make gains that should assure him control of the Republican strongholds in 1904.

The Republicans in Iron, Houghton and Baraga counties will line up in hostile camps today and join in strenuous battle. When the smoke clears away, Messrs. Young and Sheldon should know where they are at. The Mining Journal, having in mind the general good of the Republican party in this district, sincerely trusts that there will be no raucous disputes and, above all, no contesting delegations. The fight, from all accounts, is pretty warm in Baraga and Iron between the adherents of Congressman Sheldon and Mr. Young and complications may arise that will threaten party harmony. Of course it is beyond the province of The Mining Journal, or of anyone, to say what should or should not be done, but the friends of the candidates should remember that they were Republicans before they were either Sheldon or Young men and they should approach their work today in a spirit of fairness and self-control that will assure representative conventions. Schoolcraft and Chippewa counties have already furnished the district with a sufficiency of dissension and discord. Iron and Baraga counties are expected to settle their preferences at their own conventions. They will have failed in their duty to their party if they bring any complications to the district convention. If, on the contrary, they settle their county politics harmoniously and honorably, they will deserve great credit as, particularly in Iron, the battle has waxed warm and, in instances, the feeling has run high. In Houghton Mr. Wright appears to be very much in the fight, but there is little danger of discord in the county convention, the control of which never seems to have been in more doubt than at the present moment.

THE THRUST OF A LANCE is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice-water. The immediate cause of cramps and colic is often the distention of the bowels by gas. Quick relief follows the use of Perry Davis' Painkiller. Careful housekeepers give it the place of honor in the family medicine chest.

Difficult Digestion. That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. It suffers not not because they want to, but simply because they must. But they cannot be irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise. They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffy indigestion, headache, heartburn and what not. The effectual remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. HOOD'S PILLS are the best cathartic.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS. City Controller's Office, Marquette, Mich., July 9, 1903. Pursuant to resolution of the common council of the city of Marquette, notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received at this office until 8 o'clock p. m. July 21, 1903, for furnishing all labor and material required to make the following street improvement in accordance with the profile and specifications therefor on file in my office, viz: To grade, curb and macadamize Crescent street from the west line of Third street to the east line of Fourth street. Proposals for said improvement must be in sealed envelopes marked "Crescent Street Improvement" and must be accompanied by a contractor's bond with two good sureties, in a sum at least twice the amount of bid; conditioned for performance of contract, payment for labor and materials, etc., in accordance with form on file in my office. The common council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. FRANKLIN E. BAY, City Controller.

THE OTHER FELLOWS.

Prosecuting Attorney Mills of Menominee county who assisted Patsy in his fight for recognition before the committee on credentials, attempted to prove that the Young forces had attempted to bribe a Sheldon delegate. It is proven to the satisfaction of all that the leaders of the Sheldon forces here—foreign and local—attempted to bribe Young workers and to purchase their influence. Governor Bliss if he does his whole duty will declare a vacancy in the office of prosecuting attorney of Menominee county. The proof will be forthcoming.—Manistique Pioneer Tribune.

Shelden is receiving the same treatment in Chippewa county as is Young in Schoolcraft county. The contesting delegation from Chippewa county to the congressional convention occupies as precarious a position as does the Sheldon contestants from Schoolcraft. However, Young has made a net gain of four votes by the deal.—Manistique Pioneer Tribune.

With the congressional convention distant only a few days matters have not yet shaped themselves so that the outcome can be predicted with certainty, although Sheldon seems to have the better chance. Young, in order to win, must get the Baraga and Iron county delegations yet to be held, while Sheldon (assuming, of course, that he will get his own county) can get either of them he will win out. The fact that there are contesting delegations in Schoolcraft and Chippewa counties is liable to cause complications that may result, some predict, in a convention similar to that held at Ishpeming some years ago, where two candidates for congressman were nominated by the opposing factions.

It is to be hoped, though, that this can be avoided and that the struggle between the Sheldon and Young forces will not lead to such an undesirable issue.—Escanaba Journal.

At the same time the contesting delegation in Chippewa county is not a Young delegation. Mr. Young had nothing to do with it whatever. The fight was one in which he took no part and is wholly confined to the people of Chippewa county, between whom there has been bad political blood for many years past. The contestants say they are going to run a complete county ticket and to break up ring rule in Chippewa. It is a fight in which Mr. Young has taken no part, nor has he been asked to join it.—Ishpeming Iron Ore.

Every newspaper in Schoolcraft county roundly denounces the tactics of the Sheldon workers in their primaries. They say the postmasters tried to run the county, they being there in great numbers and with plenty of money, but that corruption could not win. The Young primaries were legally held and fairly carried by rousing good majorities.—Ishpeming Iron Ore.

The following personal items appeared in the Gazette, Mr. Sheldon's paper, last week: "John D. Mangum arrived last evening from Marquette." "Postmaster John D. Mangum of Marquette was in town on Saturday evening." From the statements that have appeared in the various papers as to Mr. Mangum's presence in the various towns where county conventions have been held for sending delegates to the congressional convention, it is only fair to suppose that Mr. Mangum is not strictly adhering to the civil service rules prohibiting federal appointees making themselves too prominent in politics. If this is the case, he and others of that ilk should be called down. It is only to be expected that the postmasters will in their own neighborhood, give what little help they can, on the quiet, to the friend who appointed them, but this wholesale running all over the district in the interest of Mr. Sheldon, which it is claimed, Mr. Mangum and others have been doing, should not be winked at, even by Mr. Sheldon himself, but then that gentleman may perhaps believe that the end justifies the means.—Copper Country Evening News.

The Menominee Herald sends up a long, loud cry for local peace among the politicians. It should send to the Soo for a sample of the real thing. There are wings of doves and branches of olive there by the boat load.—Ishpeming Iron Ore.

The coteries of crooked politicians that were so decisively "cleaned up" at the recent caucuses are already planning to make a combination Republican-Democratic county ticket in the field of the coming autumn. When the time comes a straight Republican ticket will be placed in the field and it will be elected to. The Republican voters of Schoolcraft county sat down upon Patsy McNamara and his pals to the tune of 25 to 5 at the recent county convention and will turn the trick again later.—Manistique Pioneer Tribune.

"STRANGE PEOPLE."

We Meet Them Every Day and They Likewise Meet Us.

Some years ago, when I was in Egypt, spending most of my time in temples and in tombs, writes Robert Hichens in London Queen, I perpetually heard Cook's tourists exclaiming, among the lads, "What strange people these Egyptian hosts have been." And, as I looked at the Cook's tourists, I mentally exclaimed, "What strange people these Cookies are!" Strange people are seldom, or never, aware that they are strange. I once conversed with a black gentleman in a decayed nightdress, who wore a volume of jet black hair in the midst of an otherwise bald head, and numbed living scorpions for breakfast. Well, he thought me, in my decent tweed suit and Homburg hat, a strange, savage sort of creature. I go about the world in a perpetual condition of wonder at other people; at their noses, their pleasures, their loves, their illnesses, their lacks and their surfeits, their stupidities and their talents. And I believe my idiosyncrasy is widely shared. When my friend marries I wonder why he chose the particular woman he did choose. When my acquaintance, at the age of 36, catches German measles in France, I marvel how he had time to do it, and proclaim him "a very odd sort of fellow." When I hear my partner at dinner raving about the charms of Werthing, I cannot conceive in what the attraction lies. When my female cousin, on the only fine day of the English summer, draws down all the blinds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and begins to play bridge, I consider her "a most extraordinary woman." And so on, and so on. Now, all these worthy people return my astonishment. They think me, probably, a well-meaning sort of man, but quite an eccentric. Of course I differ from me are not eccentric. Those who differ from me are not eccentric. And, as I look on individuals with astonishment, so I often look on masses of individuals. Every morning of my life when I read my daily paper—by the way, I think it most strange that any living person should take in any paper but the one that I read in amazement at the drift of public opinion and of public pleasure, at the things "our girls" are doing, at the tendencies shown by "our boys," at the last new fashion, at the last new religion. My eyeballs are always near the top of my head from 8 till 9 a. m.

THE ROMANCE OF A SQUALL.

A Tugboat Captain Who Rescued a Girl Becomes Her Husband.

The rescue of a young woman from a capsized sailboat last summer in the bay by the captain and mate of a Providence tugboat has resulted in a romantic wedding. Captain Warren H. Brown, now of the tugboat Gaspee, was married recently to Miss Clara L. Pickering of Edgewood, who owes her life to the captain's aid. It was on the 2nd of last July. It was rather stormy, late in the day, with thunder, lightning and squalls, and among the craft that were on the bay was a sloop yacht, in which a party consisting of J. Walter Pickering, Mrs. Pickering and their two daughters and Agda Johnson and Ethel Tucker, were out on a pleasure trip. When they were off Potter's Cove at Prudence Island the boat was struck by a squall and was capsized. There was a small rowboat with the sailboat, but no oars, and when the accident came the occupants had to take to the bottom of the yacht, as the smaller boat would not hold three.

The women were in the cabin when the squall struck them, and it was necessary to break the windows in order to get them out. As the boat would not hold all, and there was a chance of bringing assistance by reaching shore, Mr. Pickering, with the two smallest girls, Miss Tucker and his youngest daughter, Miss Essie, started for the shore, paddling the boat with a broom. They disappeared in the darkness, leaving Mrs. Pickering and one daughter and Miss Johnson lying upon the boat's side, which was about eighteen inches above the surface of the water for about six feet of her length. For four hours they lay clinging to the boat as best they could, with hands that had been badly cut by the jagged edges of the cabin windows.

About 10 o'clock the tug Gertrude, with two barges in tow, which had left Providence early in the evening, reached the vicinity, and captain T. C. Brown thought it best to take a fair cry for help. He steered toward the sound and found the women clinging to the boat. They were nearly exhausted and probably could not have held on more than fifteen minutes longer. Captain Brown called to his mate, and bringing his boat alongside, jumped from the pilot-house to the deck. A rope was thrown to the women, but they were unable to grasp it, and so William Lawson, a deckhand on the Gertrude, jumped overboard and brought one of the women to the tug while the others were reached from the deck. They were taken into the hot kitchen of the tug and given restoratives and exchanged their wet garments for overcoats and blankets.

When captain Brown found their houses were in Providence he cut loose from the barges, leaving them anchored, and steamed back to this city, reaching here about midnight. The women were taken to Mr. Pickering's home at 353 Smith street, in Edgewood, and left in charge of their friends. Captain T. C. Brown, of the Gertrude, is the father of the bridegroom. The latter was at that time mate of the Gertrude, was the first who saw the shipwrecked party and took an active part in the rescue. The acquaintance formed at that time was continued through the cordial invitation the captain and mate received to call at the Pickering residence whenever they chanced to be in town, and the engagement and wedding finally resulted.—Providence Journal.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Camille Romain Accused of Stealing $18 from John Bolland. Sheriff Wills and Under Sheriff Beck arrested Camille Romain, who hails from no place in particular, on a charge of larceny Monday night. Romain was taken in a farmer's shanty near Chassell after the officers had searched for him several days. The complaint against Romain was made by John Bolland of Hancock who claimed he was robbed of $18 on the night of June 25, the money being taken from his pocket while he was asleep by Romain. Judge Brand gave the prisoner a hearing yesterday afternoon.

BRING THEM TO TIME.

Houghton Council to Make Street Car Company Keep Franchise Terms. For some time past it has been alleged that the Houghton County Street Railway company has been running its cars from Calumet and the Franklin location only as far as the bank corner in Hancock instead of running to Houghton. The complaint has been general and it finally reached a point where the Houghton council felt obliged to take a hand. Consequently the company was notified to be represented either by its superintendent or otherwise at the meeting of the council last evening, but the street railway people were not told for what they were wanted. The franchise given the street railway company by the village of Houghton states explicitly that all Calumet and Franklin cars must be run through to Houghton, and the council is determined that the agreement shall be kept or there will be trouble. Considerable complaint of a general character has been lodged against the company of late by the public, not only for operating some of its cars only as far as Hancock, but for fast running as well. The cars travel at a very fast rate of speed through the streets and it is believed this is much danger in it. The Houghton council intends to make the company live up to the franchise.

NEW SITE FOR POOR FARM.

Houghton County Supervisors Will Advise for One. The county board of supervisors held a regular monthly meeting yesterday morning at the office of the county clerk, John Duncan, chairman, who has been in ill health for an extended period, was present and presided for the first time since last February. Mr. Duncan's co-workers were very pleased to see him back in his old familiar place. The session was a short one, but nevertheless important. Besides from the allowing of the usual number of bills the standing committees for the ensuing year were appointed. The street railway company was notified that it must keep the county bridge clean. Complaint against the condition of the roadway across the bridge had been registered with the supervisors from different sources and the solons had also noticed it themselves. According to the agreement made by the company and county the bridge must be kept free from dirt. The county board was compelled on a previous occasion to caution the company about keeping the roadway clean. The supervisors decided yesterday to advertise for a new site for the county poor farm. A new location is badly needed and a desirable eighty acres can be found in the county the purchase will be made at once. The board has had the matter of additional territory for the poor farm in mind for some time but nothing in regard to it was done until yesterday. One or two good pieces of land have already been recommended.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

Papers of Houghton Opera House Company Filed With Clerk. The articles of incorporation of the Houghton Armory Opera House company were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The papers were drawn up by Allan F. Rees, the well known Houghton attorney. The company is formed for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, gift, lease or otherwise, such real estate as may be necessary for the purpose of its business, and to erect such building or buildings upon its real estate as may be necessary, and to erect, maintain, conduct or lease a public hall or opera house in Houghton. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation is $50,000, and the number of shares, 1,000, of the par value of $50 each. The names of the stockholders, and the number of shares held by each, are as follows: Graham Pope, thirty; James R. Dee, thirty; William D. Calverly, twenty-five; R. R. Goodell, twenty; R. M. Edwards, five; J. F. Jackson, two; Allen F. Rees, two; Allen F. Rees, trustee, $86. The company's term of existence is thirty years. The directors, seven in number, for the first year, are: Graham Pope, J. F. Jackson, Allen F. Rees, James R. Dee, W. D. Calverly, R. F. Goodell and R. M. Edwards. Mr. Pope, a member of the building committee, stated yesterday that the theatre plans would be received in a week or ten days and that the company would then be ready to receive bids for the work.

Will Not Meet With Hancock Council on Paving Matter. The members of the Hancock council were vexed at the Houghton County Street Railway company Monday afternoon for the latter's apparent indifference in regard to the paving of Quincy street. The council held an adjourned meeting in the afternoon and expected to meet the superintendent of the street railway company but he for the third successive time failed to appear. The council was anxious to have the statements to the effect that the company would share the expense of the paving put down in black and white, so the work could be commenced. The company previously promised that its share in the expense would be met. The council passed resolutions determining to start the work at once according to the terms of the contract made with the Barber Asphalt company and the promise of the street railway people.

It is said that Superintendent Oakley met one of the board members afterwards and told him to have an agreement drawn up and that it would be signed. The village attorney was instructed at once to draw up the proper papers so it would not seem that the long winded controversy is at an end. The preliminary work was started Monday, many teams and men being put to work. For some time the street will be torn up but it will present a scene of activity.

CONTRACTOR WHO KNEW.

Another Collector Who Was Patient and Won by It. The trouble with you fellows is, you want things, but you know nothing about 'em. You come over here, and carry home a lot of truck that a European collector wouldn't give a house room; and when you see a really good thing, you don't know it, or you won't pay a price for it, unless some dealer makes you. You see, you don't know, that's what's the matter; how can you? Nobody in America wanted antiques before the continental. If you'd lived here twenty years, like me, you'd learn something; you'd find out that collecting isn't a thing of money, but knowing."

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Trading Assumes Greater Volume Than Has Been Seen in Some Time.

New York, July 8.—Something very like a scramble to take profits at the end of the day served to throw some discredit upon the character of the day's movement in stocks, which had reached considerable proportions and with a semblance of much more substantial character than anything in the recent course of the market.

Closing prices of stocks are reported by Paine, Webber & Co. as follows: Washb Pfd. 49 1/2, Union Pac. 90, N. Y. Central 157 1/2, etc.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system.

When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh.

S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects.

LITTLE DOING IN COPPERS.

Some Scattered Selling by Traders Leaving Boston for the Summer.

Hayden, Stone & Co. yesterday wired the Laidley Commission company:

"Swift was the only feature of the Boston market today, opening at 139 and selling up to 148. There was nothing doing in the coppers."

Paine, Webber & Co. said: "Amalgamated acted a little heavy today and there was some scattered selling of other coppers by traders who are getting away on their vacations. The return of the usual summer dullness of the metal market has been construed by the bears to mean that the consumptive demand is exhausted. We do not look for any appreciable decline. It looks to us as though the metal would sell two cents higher before it does half a cent lower. A bull market in railroad stocks invariably spreads to the industrials and mining stocks."

What Sagging Down.

W. H. Laidley & Co. wired the Laidley Commission company:

"Fine weather throughout the wheat belt was responsible for a lower opening, although the foreign markets seemed to follow us in the advance. At the lower prices the market seemed to stand steady and firm throughout most of the session, but predictions of fine weather throughout broke it sharply. The receipts are heavier and there is a growing disposition shown by farmers to sell their crop at present figures. It looks as if it is going to be hard work to hold up the present price of wheat. The southwest was a fair seller today. There was not quite such an excited opening in July corn this morning, but the prediction that it would reach 90 cents was fulfilled. The fine weather and glowing accounts of the growing crop broke the other option. Nevertheless, new corn is just as far away from the market as before and it should be bought upon decided breaks."

Strength in Wall Street.

Dick Bros. said of the New York stocks: "The stocks market has broadened somewhat today with some good buying, particularly in U. S. & Pennsylvania, New York Central and St. Paul were more buoyant, with talk of closer relations between the latter road and Union Pacific. Missouri Pacific reacted 1/4 on realizing, while Colorado Fuel broke over 4 per cent. The reaction was natural and at the close the rumors of gold shipments were denied."

GIVING OUT.

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen Around all day with an aching back. Can't rest at night. Enough to make anyone "give out" Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life. They will cure the backache; Cure every kidney ill. Here is Marquette proof that this is so: Mr. Charles Parr of 118 East Jackson street, foreman of Pickland's coal dock, says: "I was bothered a good deal for a long time with backache often very severe. I let it go for a time thinking it would wear off but instead it became more persistent. I then began to look for some remedy to give me relief and seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended, I procured a box at the Stafford Drug Co. and began using them. I had taken but a few doses when I felt the pains were leaving me. Since I finished the treatment I have had no indications of a return of the trouble." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. WAS A PRETTY WEDDING.

Nuptials of Dr. Downing and Miss Manning at Anderson, Ind.

The many friends of Dr. Downing, of the Normal school faculty, will be interested in the following account of his marriage recently at Anderson, Ind. The article is from the Anderson Morning Herald:

"A beautiful June wedding was that of Miss Grace Emma Manning and Mr. Elbert R. Downing, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Manning on West Twelfth street. The reception hall and the parlor were decorated with daisies, a screen of these dainty flowers forming a beautiful background for the bridal couple during the ceremony. The library and dining room were fragrant with masses of sweet peas. Promptly at 10 o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Lewis struck the opening chords of 'Call Me Thine Own,' which was sung by Miss Grace Miller, of Decatur. At the close of the song, the first strains of Lohengrin's Bridal chorus, sung by ten of Miss Manning's college friends, floated down from the rooms above and the bridal party began slowly to descend the long daisy-sprayed stairway. The young ladies, still singing, marched down into the parlor, forming an aisle through which the bridesmaids, Miss Lucia and Miss Edith Manning, preceded the bride and groom. Upon reaching the daisies, the bride and groom paused, and by the beautiful ring ceremony, the minister, Dr. Hewitt of Chicago University, married them. During the ceremony Miss Lewis played softly 'Call Me Thine Own.' The bride was gowned in a dress of white Paris muslin and she carried lilies of the valley. After the congratulations, a wedding breakfast was served in a vase bearing sweet peas, and a small bunch of these were given to the guests as favors. Mr. and Mrs. Downing left at 12 o'clock for the east where they will spend the summer. In the fall they will go to Marquette, Mich., where Mr. Downing holds a chair in the Northern Michigan Normal school."

E. BURTON HOLMES.

Mr. Burton Holmes, the famous travel lecturer and author, has spent several months out of every year for the past 12 years in foreign lands and has covered in his travels over 200,000 miles. "There are few interesting places in the world which he has not visited and explored."

As a lecturer he has achieved greater popularity than ever greeted any man on the American platform. He draws overcrowded houses in all the large cities where he appears and this last season his audiences aggregated over four hundred thousand paid admissions. At the earnest solicitation of hundreds of his patrons, and because of his inability to lecture in scores of cities where he is asked to appear, Mr. Holmes has finally consented to put his life work into permanent form and his famous travel lectures are now being published in volumes illustrated with about four thousand half tone engravings from photographs taken by his expert photographer who travels with him continually.

He will never lecture in Marquette, but everyone can travel with him through his books and from him learn the fascinating story of the wonderful world in which we live.

Rev. Wm. P. Thorne, rector St. Paul's Episcopal church in Marinette, Wis., writes: "Having been frequently urged by parties in whom I have been interested to recommend books of questionable merit, I made it a rule to refuse to say a word, even for works of whose value I had no doubt, in fact, I have never written a testimonial for books in my life. But I feel that I am justified in departing from my custom in regard to the Burton Holmes Lectures. I have glanced over the prospectus and volume read with profit and delight one volume and have no hesitation in saying that the entire thirty lectures must be of entrancing interest and of unsurpassed value in the household. I have purchased because I am sure they will be of great help to myself and family."

Rev. Thorne is one of 54 representative citizens who purchased the Burton Holmes lectures in Marinette.

JOHN RANDALL'S FUNERAL.

Obsequies Were Attended by Sorrowing Friends from Many Places.

The funeral of the late John Randall, who met such a tragic death on the Fourth, was held yesterday morning from the family home in Ishpeming. The obsequies were very largely attended, and many persons present were from out of town. The floral offerings were among the finest ever seen in the county. The parlor in which the remains lay was so completely filled that it was quite impossible to find room for more. The beautiful display, together with the expressions of regret heard on every hand, gave ample evidence of the young man's popularity in the community.

John was one of Ishpeming's most exemplary young men. His disposition and character won for him friends among all classes. During the years of his boyhood while attending the public schools of this city he was a great favorite with pupils and teachers. His almost heart-broken parents had reason to look forward to his future with satisfaction and pride.

To the father, mother and sister, the loss of John has been a terrible blow. The sister is in very feeble health and she has required constant attention since receiving the news of her brother's drowning. The same might also be said of the afflicted parents, but they are standing up under the blow much better than they did before the body was recovered.

Family Under Obligations.

The members of the family desire. The Mining Journal to say a few words in their behalf. They feel that anything they might do would never repay their friends for the many kindnesses extended. They wish particularly to thank the many friends who sent floral offerings; the people of Sidway who put forth such a heroic effort in the search for the body, and as well as those who went up from this city; the friends at Escanaba and Wells, Mich., the officials of the South Shore line, who placed a special train at their disposal to convey the body to the home and who rendered assistance in many other ways, also for their presence at the obsequies; the members of the college fraternity and those of the local high school organization to which John belonged. Members of the latter officiated as pall bearers. Last but not least, thanks are extended to many kind neighbors and others of the city who did everything in their power to temper the grief of the family.

Ira E. Randall, cousin of D. D. Randall, who had been in the city since Saturday, returned to his home in Houghton yesterday. Ernest Ludlow, who came down from Hancock as soon as the tidings of John's death reached him, will return home today.

The South Shore officials present at the obsequies were General Passenger Agent Hibbard; Superintendent Lytle and Assistant Superintendent Smith. Ed. Delf, the company's agent at Calumet, was also in attendance.

At 10:30 the opening session of the association will take place at the Anderson hall. Mayor Felch will welcome the visitors and there will be responses by several veterans. At 11:30 all will be given a trolley ride from this end of the street car line to Negaunee and return.

FORMER ISHPEMINGITE DEAD.

Wife of Rev. M. J. Lonner Expired Monday Evening at Porter, Ind.

George Skogberg received a telegram Monday night advising him that his sister, wife of Rev. M. J. Lonner, had passed away at 7 o'clock that evening at her home at Porter, Ind. Her death was expected, as she had been very low for the past two or three weeks. Consumption was the cause of the demise. The deceased was born in Ishpeming twenty-seven years ago and was married about five years ago. Within the past two years she submitted to two difficult surgical operations, and these did much to wreck her physically. About five months ago she was taken with a very severe cold, and this developed into tuberculosis.

Rev. Mr. Lonner is the pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church at Porter, where he has been for three years. During his pastorate at Ishpeming, his marriage he was pastor of the Lutheran church at Bessemer. One child, a daughter, was born to the couple. She is now three and a half years old. Mrs. J. F. Skogberg, mother of the deceased, was with her daughter when she first took to her bed about four months ago, and had been her constant attendant ever since.

The remains will be interred in the cemetery at Porter. George left for there yesterday and will be present at the funeral. His other sister, Miss Hulda N. Skogberg, who is studying to be a trained nurse, at a Chicago hospital, will also attend the obsequies.

STRONG REPERTOIRE COMPANY.

Kennedy Players Giving Splendid Satisfaction at the Opera House.

Play-goers who attended the performances of the Kennedy Players at the opera house here the past two evenings were given a most interesting and enjoyable performance both evenings were so far superior to the average entertainment of repertoire companies which visit this section that many expressed surprise that so large and capable an organization could afford to play at such cheap prices—twenty and thirty cents. It is only fair to state in this connection that the company is not only the largest repertoire organization that has ever held the boards of the local house, but it is absolutely the strongest seen here in many seasons.

Last night's performance of "Faust" was equal in every way to any production of this play ever put on here. The scenic, mechanical and electrical effects were complete and the acting was in full keeping.

The specialties given are a strong feature of the company. The songs of John J. Kennedy are especially clever and he made such a big hit Monday night that the audience did not allow him to retire until he had responded to several encores. The illustrated songs are first-class.

Tonight "The Midnight Express", a sensational comedy drama of intense interest, will be the bill. A Port Huron, Mich., paper of recent date, gave the company and this play the following mention:

"At the opera house last evening the Kennedy Players presented the sensational comedy drama, 'The Midnight Express', to standing room only. John C. Kennedy gave a faithful portraiture of an unsophisticated country swain, 'too young to leave mother,' and again proved his title to versatility by his rendition of 'The Merry Widow,' as 'Bess Brandon,' was sympathetic and charming and her naturalness captivated her audience. The support is excellent. The Kennedy Players is the best repertoire company that has visited this city and many of the high-priced, one-night stand attractions have not given such satisfaction to the play-goers of Port Huron. The specialties are refined and pleasing. The Coast Guard quartet was a winning novelty. Fred Signorini has danced his way into popularity on his merits."

He was operating a planer and the board flew up, letting his hand go against the tool. All but the index finger were taken off close to the knuckle. The stub on the index is about half an inch in length. The hand was dressed at the Ishpeming hospital.

The poundmaster would feel under lasting obligations to cow owners if they will make some attempt to keep their animals from the lawns and more prominent streets of the city. He has had many opportunities to look up the cows, but he has not as yet done so.

However, he intends to corral the animals in the future if the owners do not manifest sufficient interest in them to keep them penned up. Mr. Hirvas says a great many cows are running at large during the night, and that that is the time when they do the most damage.

PRESERVATION OF LARGE GAME.

The Importance of the Question Has Been Underestimated.

During the last few years many public-spirited men have realized the necessity for the preservation of big game, and numerous state and federal laws have consequently been passed with this object. In general this purpose may be accomplished by two methods: (1) the protection of winter and summer ranges of game; and (2) the regulation of the slaughter and sale of game. The importance of the preservation of natural game ranges has usually been underestimated; but several attempts have been made to restrict the sale of game by hunters and to limit the number of animals which may be killed by one hunter during a given season. The large prices which are to be obtained for the meat of big game, as well as for the skins, head, antlers and tusks, have made hunting very profitable to men who are thoroughly acquainted with the natural habitat of these animals, says E. V. Wilcox in the Forum.

Statistics cannot be obtained for exactly determining the number of game killed by hunters as compared with the number dying of starvation on account of range. Death by starvation, however, is apparently a more serious problem than slaughter by hunters, whether legal or illegal. The evidence which can be obtained regarding the starvation of big game during winter is extensive and convincing. It is only necessary to travel for a few days through any region in the western states where such animals are plentiful to find carcasses in considerable numbers. Some of the animals have evidently been killed for their tusks, but it is practically certain that a much larger number have died of starvation.

All hunters know how frequently elk and deer are found in a half-starved condition in the midst of winter, especially when the snow is deep. It is easy for unscrupulous persons to slaughter them in such circumstances. They may then take from the slaughtered animals such portions as they wish, leaving the rest upon the ground. It is impossible, however, for any large proportion of the game suffering in winter to be observed by hunters or settlers. Travel is not possible during that season except by means of snowshoes; and sportsmen from the eastern states are not, as a rule, desirous of undergoing the expense and hardship incidental to life in the woods at such times.

In order to call attention to the extent of the loss of large game by starvation, it may be well to cite a few instances which occurred at Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The number of starved elk which are actually found by settlers in that neighborhood may be from 500 to 1,000 in a single season.

Large numbers of elk come down into the valley in Jackson Hole during the winter; but that district is only a small portion of the winter range for game. Hundreds of men have testified that they have seen elk during the winter in the last stages of starvation; and these men know from personal observation that a large number of elk die every winter, especially where the summer range of game has been too closely grazed by domesticated animals, and where, in consequence, the game has been driven down to lower altitudes early in the fall. Whenever as is frequently the case, carcasses are found huddled together in a sheltered spot where the available food material—such as bark, twigs of trees and tall dead weeds—has been completely devoured, the evidence is overwhelming that the animals died of starvation. MAAS MINE SHAFT.

Progress With the Sinking Is Slow, But Satisfactory Work Is Being Done.

It may be some weeks before the bed of clay which lies between the quicksand and the ledge is reached at the Maas mine shaft. The progress is now much slower than it was a few weeks ago. This is largely due to the fact that the hoist to surface becomes longer every day.

The shaft has attained a depth of 132 feet. The work has moved along satisfactorily for some time past and the timbers drop a few inches each day. The sand and water are under perfect control and, barring accidents to the pumps or machinery, the shaft should be bottomed to the ledge without a serious setback.

The sand does not boil as strongly as a couple of months ago, when the shaft was in the neighborhood of 115 feet deep, but the miners are still working cautiously. The men are becoming so accustomed to the work that they understand the movements of the sands and water pretty well. They can tell just when an extra heavy boil is liable to come.

The work continues uninterruptedly Sundays as well as every day and night during the week. The Sunday work will be continued until the shaft is down to the ledge.

There is not as much water now as there was a few weeks ago, although it was thought that the volume of water would become greater until the quicksand had been passed. The pumps are still raising considerable sand.

"BREEZY TIME" TONIGHT.

Tonight Fitz & Webster will present to the theatre-going public of Negaunee their newest version of the big farce comedy success, "A Breezy Time"—a surfeit of merry ideas and hilarious situations, incorporated into a plot of ingenious originality and intense interest. An entertainment of absolute superiority, well to the front in the race for popularity. The name Fitz & Webster in past seasons, has been a "trade mark" for good, clean comedy and those who attend a performance of "A Breezy Time" can assure themselves of an evening's enjoyment served up in the very latest style. The specialty artists are a decided feature, having been chosen from among the leading vaudeville performers of the day, and with their long experience the management could not do otherwise than choose pleasing and catchy acts. In all a production of vast amusing possibilities and recognized upon its merits as the best farce comedy on the road.

INSPECTED THE CRUSHER.

The mayor and members of the city council spent the greater part of Monday examining the new rock crusher. Three teams and eight men were kept busy hauling the rock and feeding it to the crusher. The plant worked well, but the city dais intend to inspect it more thoroughly before accepting it. A special meeting of the council will be held for that purpose at a date to be named within the next few days.

The man who is operating the plant says that from fifteen to eighteen tons of rock are being crushed each hour. The capacity of the plant is about twenty tons, but the rock is so hard that the operator does not think it advisable to treat that amount. Two men are kept busy throwing in the rock. The operator claims that the rock is the hardest he has ever treated.

Negaunee's Dog Poisoner Is Putting an End to Canines, Good and Bad.

The dog poisoner, who has been operating in Negaunee for some weeks past, is doing effective work. One or more dogs fall victims daily and the good ones are not being spared.

Ralph Mackenzie's fine cocker spaniel was poisoned Sunday night. The dog was one of the best in this section and the owner thought a great deal of it. He paid a fancy price for the spaniel. It came from the Michand kennel in Chicago. It is only a few days ago that Ralph refused $100 for it. The spaniel was perfectly harmless and it is not believed that anyone gave it poison. It is assumed that it picked up stuff intended for some other dog.

Dr. A. W. Haidle and E. F. Richards, who occupy the Mackenzie double house on Main street, found a dead dog under their porch Monday. The stench became so strong that a search was instituted by the occupants of the house, resulting in the discovery. The dog had been poisoned.

EVENING DANCING PARTIES.

The members of the Negaunee Orchestra band are considering the advisability of giving dancing parties at the park one evening a week. Friday will likely be the night selected in case the band decides to go ahead. The picnic on the fifth was a winner and the musicians think that large crowds would turn out to the evening dances.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Thomas Laport is putting a tar walk in front of F. D. Davis' residence on Main street.

Large posters have been hung in Negaunee advertising the annual reunion of the Sons of St. George society of Michigan to take place at Hancock Saturday, July 19. A special train will be run from here.

The Chicago American of last Sunday stated that Rev. James Rowe of the Central Park Methodist Episcopal church will spend the remainder of this month in Negaunee visiting Captain John Deacon and family.

A number of Negaunee people attended the funeral of the late John Randall in Ishpeming yesterday morning. Among the delegation were A. W. Haidle, Ben Miller and Ed Barabee, all members of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity, to which deceased belonged.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

IRON FOR YOUNG

ISHPEMING MAN WILL GET ITS FOUR VOTES HANDILY.

HOUGHTON COUNTY FOR WRIGHT

SHULDEN MEN OUTNUMBERED IN CALUMET CAUCUS.

In Baraga, Young Has Majority of Uncontested Votes but Prospects Are for Two Sets of Delegates to Congressional Convention.

Houghton county—For Wright. Iron county—For Young. Baraga county—Doubtful.

The congressional situation in the three counties above mentioned was practically determined by the result of the various township caucuses held last evening. In each of the counties, conventions will be held today to select delegates to the congressional convention which assembles here on the 15th. In Houghton and Iron counties, the Wright and Young men, respectively, will control, and in Baraga there is a prospect that Young will be lunched out of the delegation. However, the result of yesterday's caucuses apparently indicates that Shelden is serving his last term in congress.

A Surprise in Houghton.

In Houghton county, the chief interest centered in the result of the caucus in Calumet township, which has a representation of forty-one delegates in the county convention. There was a warm fight for the delegation, but Wright won out handily, securing thirty-one of the forty-one. The other ten delegates are classed as doubtful for the reason that their names appeared on both the Wright and the Shelden ballots. It is certain, however, that some of these, at least, are for the Hancock man. Aside from these ten delegates, the representation in today's convention will stand as follows: Wright, 60; Shelden, 46, giving Wright control independent of whether or not he secures any of the ten delegates now classed as doubtful. The Wright vote by townships is as follows: Calumet, 31; Hancock, 13; Cassell, 2; Onessy, 1; Quincy, 3, with a prospect of securing others from Calumet. This assures that the Hancock candidate will be in the saddle today and will without doubt be given Houghton county's twenty-two votes in the congressional convention. Houghton county has been absolutely necessary for Shelden, but Young can be nominated without it.

In Iron county, where some lively campaigning has been done by both sides, today's convention will be dominated by the Young men to the tune of 16 to 4, assuring the Ishpeming candidate of the county's four votes. In the townships, Young was victorious at Iron River, with four delegates, the vote standing 285 to 61 against Shelden; in Bates township, one delegate, vote 47 to 0; in Stambaugh, three delegates, vote 313 to 40; in Mansfield, one delegate, vote 5 0 to 1, and in Hematite, two delegates. Shelden won out in Crystal Falls township, one delegate, and in Atkinson Falls, Shelden secured the first ward's lone delegate without a contest, and in the Second and Third wards, with a total of five delegates, Young was triumphant. The vote in the Second ward was: Young, 216; Shelden, 85. In the Third, it stood: Young, 121; Shelden, 86.

Hot Time at Baraga.

In Baraga county there was a warm time last night in the caucuses at Baraga and L'Anse, particularly in the former. At L'Anse, the Shelden men endeavored to hold a snap caucus. They took possession of the hall early and locked the doors, which were later opened or forced before the balloting for the delegates began. The Young men proved to be in the majority, despite the attempt to exclude them from the deliberations, and the Shelden supporters were outvoted and beaten badly. Young getting the five delegates by the vote of 96 to 49. For the Baraga township caucus, the Shelden men ran a special train down from Houghton which brought in about a hundred men from Arnheim and Keweenaw Bay, the obvious object being to pack a caucus which they had reason to believe would go against them. The organization was perfected by the Young men, and the balloting for delegates to the county convention was proceeded with. While the vote was being taken a protest was made that Democrats were participating in the proceedings. The result of the ballot was announced as 101 to 79 in favor of Shelden. As the vote, however, was larger than the poll list, a second ballot was ordered by the chair. On this announcement a Democrat from Houghton moved an adjournment, and the Shelden men bolted the caucus. When they fled out the Republicans remaining proceeded to choose delegates in a legal manner, eight strong Young men being named. In the remaining townships, Young has Covington, Skance and Spurr, with a total of four delegates, and Shelden has Pequaming, with two delegates. Last evening the Shelden workers, including a couple of outside postmasters, were hustling around at Baraga, securing affidavits and preparing in general to seat their delegation, despite the packing of the caucus. In L'Anse, too, where the resident Shelden supporters had accepted and acknowledged their defeat, the same tactics were being pursued, so that it is likely there will be two conventions at Baraga today and that each will send contesting delegates to the Marquette meeting. According to all accounts, however, Young seems well entitled to Baraga county's two votes, and will now without much doubt finally land them.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Not Enough Tracts in the Bay de Noquette Grant to Go Around.

There were a number of disappointed seekers for lands in the Bay de Noquette & Marquette grant yesterday. Of the tract restored to the public domain there were a little over 1,200 acres available for entry, or thirteen or fourteen separate parcels, a number of entries made years ago having been allowed by the authorities at Washington to stand.

When the office was opened at 9 o'clock in the morning, there were about thirty-five men in a line which was preserved until each man being accommodated as long as the parcels held out. The filings were made as follows:

Peter J. Donovan, Marquette—West half of the southwest quarter of Section 9, 20-27; eighty acres.
F. F. Mullaly, Marquette—South half of the northeast quarter of Section 11, 20-27; eighty acres.
Martin Delaney, Marquette—Southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 5, 50-27; forty acres.

E. E. Homier, Marquette—Southeast quarter of the northwest quarter, southwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the west half of the southeast quarter of Section 25, 51-27; 160 acres.

Arthur E. Powell, Marquette—Fractional part of Section 5, 50-26; forty and a half acres.
Timothy F. Donohue, Ishpeming—Southwest quarter of Section 35, 51-28; 160 acres.

Fred Batley—East half of the southeast quarter and south half of the northeast quarter of Section 19; 51-26; 100 acres.

Dennis G. Donohue, Ishpeming—East half of the northeast quarter and northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 9, 50-28; 120 acres.

William J. Mead, Ishpeming—West half of the northeast quarter and northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 9, 50-28; 120 acres.

Henry A. Waechter, Bagley—West half of the northwest quarter of Section 31, 51-29; eighty acres.
Alfred Anderson, Marquette—North half of the southwest quarter of Section 19, 51-26; eighty acres.

George Henegun, Marquette—Lot No. 2 of Section 23, 50-27; twenty acres.
Some of the men had stood in line all night, and a number of those at the head had taken their places in the afternoon. A rather peculiar feature is that each of the lucky thirteen secured just what they wanted, not more than one of them making application for the same tract. The remainder of the men in line, about a score of them, had parcels picked out but on coming to the desk found them already taken. During the day a number of other prospective entrants called at the office, but of course were disappointed. The lands are located up the lake shore, and it is said that none of the parcels are particularly valuable.

PROPERTY OWNERS KICKED.

Trunk Sewer Extension Is Held Up Pending an Investigation.

Pending an investigation by the city engineer, the matter of extending the Spring street trunk sewer from Third and Maple streets, along the South Shore tracks to Fifth street, has been postponed. The delay in taking the final steps for the construction of the sewer is the result of a protest on the part of a number of owners of property in the district proposed to be assessed to pay for the improvement. It is contended by the residents joining in the protest that it would be unjust to compel them to help to pay for the building of a sewer four blocks distant from their property when they already have sewers at their doors and are connected with them. The outcome of the objection is that the city engineer will make a survey of the entire territory with the object of determining the natural drainage before any further attempt is made to give the district a trunk sewer system.

Independent of the question as to just who of the property owners will be assessed, there is a difference of opinion as to the size of the pipe to be used. As now provided for, the sewer is to be of twenty-inch pipe, but in the opinion of the street committee an eighteen-inch pipe will suffice between Third and Fifth streets, with a twelve-inch pipe from the corner of Fifth, up Fifth to Superior. On the other hand, it is contended that there is a great volume of surface water which must also be taken into consideration. The South Shore, in order to prevent the washout of its tracks, some years ago built an eighteen-inch sewer which it is said has often times proven inadequate to carry off the water running down into the ravine. However, the engineer who investigates will look into every phase of the matter and will report at the next meeting of the council, to be held on the 21st.

CONTRACTS GO TO JOHNSON.

Erick J. Johnson has been awarded the contract for the improvement of Crescent street, between Third and Fourth streets. The work will include the grading, curbing and macadamizing of the thoroughfare, and the furnishing of all labor and material. The contract price is $125 per lineal foot, five cents under the estimate. Mr. Johnson has also been given the contract for the improvement of Superior street from Seventh street to a point 300 feet west. His bid was $1.20 per foot, or about a dollar under the estimated cost per foot. Mr. Johnson's proposal was the only one submitted, but as it was considered extremely reasonable it was accepted unanimously by the aldermen.

Summer complaints are unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is always kept on hand at the home of a physician. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer-time.—Lansing, Mich. Journal. For sale by the Stafford Drug Co.

MARQUETTE LUCKY

JUST MISSED BEING HIT BY A "TWISTER."

FIERCE STORM UP LAKE SHORE

WIDE AREA DEVASTATED BY THE BLOW.

Hundreds of Trees Uprooted and Earth Bombed by Hail Stones as Large as Hen's Eggs—A Thrilling Experience.

Captain Daniels, who came down from the mine at Sauk's Head yesterday, reports that the country in the vicinity of the Head was struck Monday afternoon by one of the severest hail and wind storms that has ever been experienced on the upper peninsula. He says that if the "tornado," as he terms it, which blew down on the mine at 4:30 o'clock had struck Marquette, there would not have been a dozen buildings left standing, as it left ruin in its wake, uprooting hundreds of trees, denuding others of limbs and foliage and converting a wide tract of land into a "howling wilderness."

The tornado was a part of the wind storm that burst here about the same time Monday afternoon. The blow in Marquette, the tail end of the storm, was very severe, although it was not hard enough to do any damage.

Captain Daniels' Story.
"About 4:30 in the afternoon," said the captain, "I noticed a bank of black clouds in the northwest. I saw wind and kept getting blacker and blacker and as I was afraid there was mischief brewing I told the man who was working with me repairing the road into camp that we had better seek shelter. We were only a few rods away from the shaft, but we had just fairly got started when the clouds burst, sending down sheets of hail, some of the stones weighing upwards of a pound and being as large as a hen's egg. I have never seen such hail before, and I hope I never see it again.

"The wind increased in velocity and began to tear off limbs of trees, hurling them to the ground, much to the dismay of our lives. We found that it would be practically impossible for us to reach camp and we threw ourselves on the ground under a big hemlock, to wait for the blow to pass. When we had thus sheltered ourselves it was as black as night. I could not distinguish objects that were more than a few feet off. We didn't know what to expect and we were in momentary danger of being 'pinned' by one of the big hailstones that were flying around us, or by a flying branch.

A Desolate Sight.

"After some minutes, when the storm began to decline and it became bright enough to see about us, we were met with a desolate sight. Trees were down on every side and the ground carpeted with green leaves and branches that had been ripped off by the wind. A few feet our way to camp, which was but a few steps from the spot where we were obliged to seek shelter. There we found our cook disconsolate regarding the spot where his potato patch had been. Before the storm the plants had stood a foot or more high, but the wind leveled them to the ground, and even scattered the hills of soil. We will get no potatoes from that patch this year.

"I was interested in discovering whether the storm had burst with all its fury near the camp alone, but I found that it extended over a wide area, probably several miles square. All through the tract trees are down and leaves and boughs cover the ground.

"Three of our men weathered the storm to a point about a mile from camp. They were driving a horse when the gale broke. They immediately led the animal off the road, but just as they got him to one side he was struck with chunks of ice that were driven by the wind with sufficient force to knock him over. He was unharnessed and led under a large tree where he was kept in shelter until the wind calmed down. The three men in this party underwent an experience similar to mine.

Worst He Ever Experienced.

"I tell you," Captain Daniels continued, "I have been in the Lake Superior country and sailing on the lake for the past thirty-one years, but I never experienced anything as bad as that tornado. I have seen heavy weather from a ship's deck but I never went through a blow to equal that, and I hope I will never be called on to do so again. It would be questionable whether anything but a big craft could weather it.

"I consider that we were lucky in getting out of it alive. At times I doubted whether we would. Come up and see our roads. They are carpeted a foot deep with green leaves."

naw is splendidly situated, as a location for industrial plants. "All roads," as Mr. Prickett says, "lead to Sidnaw," there are large timber resources available and markets for many different lines are close at hand. A good start in the direction of making Sidnaw an important industrial center has been made and big things are predicted for the bustling little town.

TO ABANDON LAKE STREET.

Hiram Burt Will Submit a Proposition to the Council.

At the session of the common council Monday evening, Hiram Burt was allowed to address the aldermen on the matter of a safer and better means of communication between the southern portion of the city and the business district, Lake street now, since the construction of the Marquette & South-eastern road, being practically closed. Mr. Burt mapped out a new route which provides for the abandonment of Lake street altogether and which would require no large expenditure of money. He will be heard further on the subject at the next meeting, when a definite proposition will be submitted to the aldermen.

ABOUT TO BEGIN DRILLING.

Eastern Kentucky Company Secures the Services of a Noted Expert.

The following extract is from a letter, dated July 3rd, from the president of the Eastern Kentucky Oil company of Lexington, Kentucky, to Gen. W. Hibbard of this city, vice president of the company:

"We have succeeded in securing the services of L. J. Craig, who did all the pioneer work in the Bath field for the Mt. Sterling Oil & Gas company, and later for Guffey & Galey. Mr. Craig is pre-eminently the most experienced and most successful driller that has entered the Kentucky field, and we are disposed to felicitate ourselves on being able to secure his services, at this time, on terms that are altogether satisfactory. Mr. Craig, in company with Professor Miller, is now in the Morgan county field, making a selection for the first location and getting out the necessary timbers for a derrick.

"The machinery has been ordered and, barring all accidents, will be on the ground by the time the derrick is up, so that we confidently hope to have the drill going by not later than the 15th or 20th of this month. Our information is that a heavy flow of gas has been struck by the Caney company in their well and that they are very much pleased over their prospects.

"Whatever delay may have occurred in our work, we feel amply compensated in securing Mr. Craig and we hope the work of development may now progress without further delay."

HANDSOME FOUNTAIN.

Stafford Drug Company Has the Finest North of Milwaukee.

The Stafford Drug company is now comfortably established in its new quarters at the corner of Front and Main streets. The store is well adapted to the firm's needs, and being wider than the old store it has better facilities for handling the ever growing refreshment business. Since the soda fountain was started two days ago, two clerks have been kept constantly busy there.

The new fountain is one of the finest north of Milwaukee. It occupies twenty-two feet of the space on the north side of the store. The table is constructed of white tiling and marble, making it absolutely clean. The fountain itself is placed beneath the counter and only the marble draw appears above. The syrups are packed in ice in large boxes beneath the counter. In order to insure greater cleanliness and purity the syrups will be served direct from the bottles, and will not, as usual, be placed in compartments of the fountain.

The back ground of the fountain is composed of large plate mirrors. The wood work is natural finished hardwood, four Corinthian columns being prominent. A shelf in front of the mirrors provides room for crushed fruits and the silver. There are also small restaurant tables, so that patrons will not be compelled to sit at the counter.

In speaking of the firm's business, E. O. Stafford, manager, said: "In the past ten years we have increased our soda business to about six times what it was on the start. Last summer we made over 1,000 gallons of cream, and, judging from the outlook, we will increase that amount this year. We have placed a movie in the basement and will continue to make our own cream, the Stafford brand, as heretofore. Our ice cream has become very popular. We have to send down into Wisconsin for our cream and have shipments of it daily.

"It is our intention, if the trade demands, to open the balcony at the rear of the store to our patrons. It will make an excellent serving place on hot days and can be fitted up conveniently."
