WORN OUT EXPRESSION

Every druggist ever known advertises "Pure Drugs." Of course, druggists themselves know that there is a whole lot of substitution and adulteration being done all the time, not to speak of downright buying of cheap, stale stuff and known to be so—but labeled "Pure Drugs." But the general public also knows that there's "lying" somewhere; for no class of men is perfect. When every last druggist says that he sells "Pure Drugs," there's certainly a screw loose in the honesty valve.

The question is, "Who can you believe?" Come in and let us show you our back room and down stairs, and behind our prescription counter and everywhere through the store—then judge of the quality and freshness and purity of our drugs.

BRITAIN AND VENEZUELA AT THE PARTING OF THE WAYS.

AFFAIRS HAVE REACHED A CRISIS

RELATIONS LIKELY TO BE SEVERED AT ANY MOMENT.

Many Points of Difference, but Trouble
Is Chiefly Over Ownership of Island
Off South American Coast—Little Likelihood of War.

London, Sept. 22.—The Associated Press is in position to announce that the diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Venezuela are on the verge of being severed. Almost any hour may bring the announcement that the British minister at Caracas has given his passport, with corresponding action toward the Venezuelan representative in London.

The cause of the crisis does not seem to be confined to any particular incident, but consists of various differences which have culminated in Venezuela assuming such an angry attitude as to leave Downing street fully impressed with the belief that the Venezuelan government intends to force matters to a crucial issue.

Hostilities Improbable. That a diplomatic rupture would result in hostilities, is a contingency thus far scarcely contemplated. The view of the foreign office is that affairs have reached a stage where it is impossible to deal satisfactorily with Venezuela in any matter which may come up. In proof of this contention, the foreign office instances the report of the United States minister at Caracas, announcing that the Venezuelan government had protested against the British flag being raised over Patos (or Goose) Island, over which the Venezuelan government claimed sovereignty.

According to the British government's understanding, Patos island belongs to Great Britain as much as Trinidad, and so far as known no question as to its ownership has ever arisen. Inhabitants of the island recently have been shot or otherwise endangered through the action of Venezuelans, whether government or revolutionary partisans is not known. For purposes of protection, the local West Indian authorities ordered that British flags be prominently displayed on the island, hence the protest which the foreign office says is only one of many.

Annexation a Solution. An exceptionally prominent official said to The Associated Press this evening: "The affairs of Venezuela are so hopelessly muddled that we can get nothing done. There is no concealing the fact that the Venezuelan government has made heated protests to our minister. The chief grievance appears to be the allegation that the British government is aiding the revolutionary army. It is useless to say that this is perfectly baseless. We only wish the United States would take over the whole country and then, perhaps, we could get some peace. Of all the disturbances of the last decade, the present seems to be the worst. Till the combined attitude of the nominal government, makes us somewhat indifferent to any action which may take place."

The Venezuelans appear inclined to be rather reckless, thanks chiefly to what I presume is the mistaken notion that the British will resist them. The results of their own folly, however, imminent that might be to the lives and property of British subjects and those of other Europeans. As we understand Monroism, Venezuela is quite mistaken in this matter, though, apparently, her impression has much to do with her present action."

Washington Aware of Trouble. Washington, Sept. 22.—No notice of the strain of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Venezuela has reached the department of state. If such is the case, however, the department officials would have no hesitation in ascribing the cause to the dispute which has been revived, over the ownership of Patos (or Goose) island, lying in the "Dragon's Mouth," between Trinidad and the Venezuelan coast.

Minister Bowen last week informed the department of the fact that the puts had taken an acute phase through the assertion of British sovereignty over the island, and as he at the same time said that Venezuela had protested against the hoisting of the British flag it is not doubted that to this incident must be traced another more serious difficulty between the two countries.

DANGER AT ISTHMUS PASSES.

Colombian Rebels Abandon Their Camp
and Are in Full Retreat.

Panama, Sept. 22.—Government soldiers who were captured by General Herrera at Agua Dulce and who were compelled to join his army and who succeeded in escaping, arrived here today. They confirm the report that the whole revolutionary army has abandoned its camp near Chorrera and is retreating toward Agua Dulce.

It is reported that General Herrera has incorporated in his army all the guerrilla bands he can induce to join him. The abandonment of the Chorrera camp, it is claimed, dispels all fear of an interruption of traffic on the railroad, and renders it impossible for a battle to occur at Panama or Colon.

Reinforcements of Colombian troops continue to arrive on the isthmus, which, it is alleged, undoubtedly caused General Herrera's retreat.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 22.—The United States auxiliary cruiser Panther, from the League Island navy yard, with a battalion of marines, arrived here today.

Means Collapse of Revolution.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The Colombian legation tonight received a dispatch from Governor Salazar, at Panama, stating that the rebels have retreated to Agua Dulce, that the interior is completely pacified and that the rebels admit the hopelessness of their cause. The legation officials assert that the retreat of the rebels marks the practical collapse of the rebellion.

The navy department tonight received a dispatch from Commander McLean to the effect that traffic across the isthmus was perfectly free.

Trains Still Guarded.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The navy department today received the following cablegram from Commander McLean, of the cruiser Cincinnati, dated Colon, 20th: "The United States guards and guarantees traffic and the line of transit. Today I permitted an exchange of Colombian troops from Panama to Colon, about a thousand men each way. The troops, without arms, were carried in trains, guarded by an American naval force, in the same manner as other freight."

SEVEN MORO POSTS TAKEN.

American Expedition So Far Meeting
With Little Opposition.

Manila, Sept. 22.—Up to Sunday the force commanded by Captain Pershing, of the Fifteenth infantry, operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao, had met with slight resistance in the Maoin country and had captured seven forts and killed twenty-five and wounded twenty Moros. There were no American casualties.

Charges to Be Investigated.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The letters of Charles Francis Adams, addressed to the president, dealing with affairs in the Philippines, were today referred to Judge Advocate General Davis with instructions to thoroughly investigate and, if the offenses alleged can be placed upon the officers or men, to have such persons brought to trial.

SHAW UPHOLDS THE TARIFF.

Policy of Protection Has Built Up
Industries in All Lines.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Secretary Shaw tonight spoke at the North Side Turner club, in "Commerce." He considered especially the Democratic demand for free raw material and defined what, from his point of view, is raw material. He presented statistics to prove that the cancelling of the tariff would not benefit the American workingman, and said that the policy of protection had built up industries in all lines. He also quoted figures to show out that commerce is largely due to the workings of the protective policy, and that the balance of trade is in our favor.

ASHORE IN GREEN BAY.

Steamers City of Marquette and Sheboygan Strand During a Fog.

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Sept. 22.—Two passenger steamers, the City of Marquette and the Sheboygan, of the Goodrich line, went ashore in a fog today, the former in Green bay and the latter four miles north of Algoma. The passengers on both boats are reported safe. Tugs were sent from here to the assistance of both boats.

A DAY OF OVATIONS

PRESIDENT CHEERED AT EVERY TURN AT DETROIT.

STREETS JAMMED WITH PEOPLE

TIME OF THE NATION'S CHIEF IS WELL OCCUPIED.

He Is Given a Boat Ride on the River,
Reviews a Long Military Parade and Delivers Two Addresses, Advocating
Reciprocity with Cuba.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The blue and gray uniform of the Spanish war veterans, whose third annual reunion is being made memorable and historical by the presence of President Roosevelt, is seen at every turn in Detroit today. The opportunity to see the president has brought to the city thousands of people from nearby cities.

Talks to Old Comrades.

The president was given a tremendous ovation when he entered his carriage to begin the drive to the army this morning. The streets were jammed with people. Upon his entering the army, where were assembled a multitude of Spanish war veterans and spectators, the president was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, lasting several minutes, the president repeatedly bowing his thanks.

When quiet was restored, General Urell, commander-in-chief, introduced Mayor Maybury, who generally welcomed the Spanish war veterans to the city. When he concluded, the president arose to speak. Cheer after cheer rent the air while the president smilingly bowed his thanks.

The president expressed his pleasure at having the chance of being greeted by his comrades and greeting them in return, and spoke of the late war, saying that the only complaint heard was that there was not enough war to go around.

Presented With Service Medal.

At the conclusion of his speech the president was presented with a service medal by Mrs. Lewis, of the Ladies' auxiliary, and amidst great enthusiasm the convention took a recess.

Later the presidential party took a river ride on the steamer Tashmoo, returning in time to review the big parade of the veterans and militia. The review of the parade began just before 6 o'clock and it was long after dark before it concluded. It was the greatest demonstration, except the parade at the Grand Army national encampment, ever seen here. The president was given a great popular demonstration.

Among the organizations in line was a regiment of Essex fusiliers, from Windsor, Ont. It was the first time a president of the United States reviewed a regiment of British soldiers.

Brilliant Banquet in Evening.

The president was entertained at a brilliant banquet this evening, which nearly eight hundred prominent men attended, while the galleries were thronged to their utmost capacity. When the president rose to speak he was given an ovation.

Opening his speech, the president paid a high compliment to the veterans of the Grand Army in comparing their deeds with those of the Spanish-American veterans. Incidentally he mentioned that at Santiago he fought side by side with the soldiers of Michigan. He also called attention to the fact that Michigan enjoyed the distinction, though an inland state, of manning a war vessel during the late war. He spoke in warm praise of the valor of the Michigan naval militia.

The president discussed at length the issues and duties resulting from the war with Spain, saying that in Porto Rico the duty was merely administrative and that while in the Philippines it was more serious we had now, at the expiration of three years, established peace in the archipelago and in two years, more would give the people there the largest measure of self-government accorded any Oriental country in the possession of an alien power.

Reciprocity With Cuba.

The president gave special attention to Cuba. After reciting the pledge to give Cuba independence and its fulfillment, and summarizing what was done under the American control of the island, he touched on the subject of reciprocity, saying:

"We urge reciprocity because it is for our interests to control the Cuban market; because we are bound to place the Cubans on a peculiar standing economically when the consent in our interests as well as their own, to assume a peculiar status internationally, and because it is fitting for a great and generous republic to stretch out a helping hand toward her feeble sister just starting to tread the path of independence.

"Cuba, though independent, stands in a peculiar position toward us and should receive in similar fashion a measure of benefit from and partial inclusion within our system. Questions that ordinarily concern us as of prime weight in tariff matters do not come in here as of primary importance. We cannot choose what the articles are which Cuba shall export. We must accept them as they are and we must remember that in dealing with this island, especially now that we are about to build an isthmian canal and our interests in West Indian waters have become so great, we must shape our policy with far-sighted regard for the future and for the interest and honor of the nation as a whole.

Cannot Harm American Interests.

"I do not believe a particle of harm will come to any American interest from the adoption of a reasonable measure of reciprocity with Cuba. I am certain the adoption of such measure will be in the interest of our people as a whole. Above all, while fully acknowledging the high-mindedness and moral sincerity of those of my associates with whom on this point I differ, I yet feel most strongly that by every consideration of a generous and far-sighted public policy we are bound to prove to Cuba that our friendship with her is of a continuing character and that we intend to aid her in her struggle for material well-being, which must underlie healthy, national development."

The president concluded with a glowing tribute to the bravery of the sons of Michigan and of the Middle West, and declared: "Stout of heart, we see across the dangers of the great future that lies beyond; we rejoice as a giant refreshed, as a strong man gird for a race; and we go down into the arena where nations strip for the mastery, our hearts lifted with faith that to us and to our children and our children's children shall be given to make this republic the greatest of all the peoples of mankind."

The president's reference to Cuba was received with marked enthusiasm, and when he declared his intention to continue his efforts to secure reciprocity with Cuba the applause continued for several minutes. After the banquet the president was driven directly to his train.

Leaves for Indianapolis.

Detroit, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt's train left at 2:10 a. m. for Indianapolis.

MEATS HIGH IN GERMANY.

People Clamoring Now That Imports of Livestock Be Permitted.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The alarming increase in the price of meat in Germany has brought forth numerous appeals from municipal and other bodies for the suspension of the stringent rules prohibiting the importation of live cattle into the empire from abroad. The state department today made public a communication received from Mr. Jackson, secretary of the embassy at Berlin, dated Sept. 5, saying that up to that time the answers to the various appeals had been refusals "on sanitary grounds."

The headline "Fleischnot" (scarcity of meat), says Mr. Jackson, is one now seen in almost every issue of almost every newspaper, and the demand for more freedom in the importation of live hogs is increasing daily. The newspapers call attention to the fact that Russia is at present the only country from which hogs can be imported in Germany, and from that country only in restricted numbers.

Pork at Berlin 56 1-2 Cents.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—The reichstag's customs tariff committee began the second reading of the tariff bill today. The Centerists, German Conservatives and Free Conservatives have decided to abide by the agrarian increases adopted at the first reading, which the government has pronounced unacceptable. The butchers have added 25 cents per pound to the price of pork, making it 26 1/2 cents.

CALLS COL. HARRISON A LIAR.

Adj. Gen. Miller Stirs Up a Row at Spanish War Veterans' Convention.

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—At the convention of the Spanish-American war veterans this afternoon, during a statement concerning the validity of the records of the last encampment Adjutant General Miller, who was removed from office Sunday night, gave Colonel Russell B. Harrison the lie direct. The latter made a dash for the door, but was caught and held by Colonel E. R. Hutchins of Iowa and Dan S. Sauer of Louisville. Great excitement ensued. The outcome of the affair was that Miller was ordered to appear before the council of administration to answer the charges against him.

PLOT TO KILL THE CZAR.

His Train Is Wrecked but He Reaches
Destination in Safety.

London, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—In a dispatch from St. Petersburg, a correspondent of The Express reports an attempt to derail the train upon which the czar traveled from Kursk. The rails were removed on two routes which the czar might travel. In one instance the plot was discovered, and in the other train was wrecked. The czar reached St. Petersburg safely.

ROUMANIA IS DEFIANT.

Said It Will Continue to Persecute the Jews Despite the Powers.

London, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—In a dispatch from Vienna, a correspondent of The Times says he fears there is little doubt that the Roumanians have resolved to accept the consequence of setting at defiance the signatory powers and the public opinion of the civilized world, and to continue the persecution of the Jews in order to compel them to seek an asylum abroad.

EXPLOSION IN COAL MINE.

Four Men Killed in West Virginia Colliery—
Seven Others Missing.

Fairmont, W. Va., Sept. 22.—Four men were dead, three of them so badly burned and blackened that identification is almost impossible, seven are missing, and five seriously injured as the result of an explosion of gas in a mine at Stafford today. The disaster was caused by gas from a leaking pipe being ignited from a lamp carried by a miner now lying dead.

IS HELD FOR FISH'S DEATH.

New York, Sept. 22.—The coroner's jury today found that the death of Nicolas Fish, the banker, on the 15th inst. was due to a fall caused by a blow struck by Thomas J. Sharkey. Sharkey was held in $10,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

RUN OVER BY STREET CAR. John Sullivan, a Machinist, So Badly Hurt That He Dies.

John Sullivan, a machinist employed by the Tri-Mountain Mining company, was run over by a street car on the main line between Laurium and Hancock hospital, where he died at 11:30 o'clock.

The accident occurred near the Opie farm, not far from the Boston location. Sullivan came in from Tri-Mountain to attend the funeral of a friend, and following the obsequies took a street car at Hancock for the Franklin location to visit friends.

When the car took him beyond his destination, and it was while walking back on the track that he was struck by car No. 28, bound from Calumet to Hancock. The warning signal was given, it is said, but for some reason or other Sullivan was not quick enough.

The moment he felt the jerk and stopped the car, Sullivan was picked up by the front of his arms were crushed to the shoulders and his head and back were badly injured. He was taken aboard the car and with all possible speed the run to the hospital was made.

The accident was the second fatality on the street car line, although there have been numerous mishaps of a more or less serious character.

Sullivan has three sisters and a brother in Ironwood, also a brother in Duluth. For a long time he was employed in the machine shop at the Franklin Junior mine, but later removed to Tri-Mountain. He was born and raised at the Franklin location. Both parents are dead. His father, Jerry Sullivan, who was one of the old-time miners of the Franklin, removed to Ironwood fifteen years ago and was later killed in the Ashland mine at that place.

MAIL BOXES SHIPPED. Free Delivery System to Be Established at Hancock Dec. 1.

Twenty-nine mail boxes and posts, also a consignment of catches, straps and other paraphernalia for use in the free mail delivery system, to be established at Hancock Dec. 1, have been shipped and will arrive in a few days.

The mail boxes will not be put up until the latter part of November. In the meantime necessary preparations for the inauguration of the system will be made. It will be necessary for applicants for positions as carriers to take a civil service examination, and an examining board will soon be appointed for that purpose.

The postoffice department at Washington will make its selections from among those who stand the highest. Four carriers will be employed to start with. One of these will be a substitute, as it is believed three regular men will be sufficient for the time being. The mail routes have already been outlined. One carrier will cover the Quincy addition, it is said; another the business portion of the village, and the third will work in West Hancock. Mail will be delivered and collected only where there are sidewalks. Hancock is well prepared for the system. It has all its streets named and houses numbered, and many new walks have been built.

ELECTRIC LIGHT CO. OFFICERS. James R. Dee, the founder of the Peninsula Electric Light & Power company, of Houghton, which was recently succeeded by the Houghton County Electric Light company, is vice president of the new company.

The other officers are as follows: James Hallowell, of Boston, president; Stone & Webster, Boston, general managers; J. H. Oakley, Houghton, manager, and A. W. Leonard, Houghton, superintendent. The new company is considering the advisability of furnishing its customers with a new kind of incandescent lamp globes when those in use have burned out.

HAVE BIG CONTRACT AT ESCANABA. Whitney Bros., the West Superior and Houghton contractors, will remove their outfit to Escanaba as soon as the work of building the foundation for the approach to the county bridge for the extension of the Copper Range road is completed.

The firm has a big contract, amounting to $50,000, it is said, at Escanaba, where it will put in the foundation for the new ore dock to be built by the Northwestern road. Whitney Bros. will not commence work at Escanaba for several weeks.

RIGHT-OF-WAY SECURED. The Copper Range road now possesses a clear title to a right-of-way for its extension from Houghton to Lake Linden and Calumet, and the work can proceed without further hindrance. The condemnation proceedings against the Tamaraek and Osceola mining company have been brought to a close. Work on the grading between Hancock and Dollar Bay will be commenced this week. An effort will be made to complete the extension before winter sets in earnest.

SOFT, GLOSSY HAIR. It Can Only Be Had Where There Is No Dandruff.

Any man or woman who wants soft glossy hair must be free of dandruff, which causes falling hair. Since it has become known that dandruff is a germ disease, the old hair preparations that were mostly scalp irritants, have been abandoned, and the public, barbers and doctors included, have taken to using Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ.

E. Dodd, Dickinson, N. D., says: "Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair's falling out, but promotes a new growth. Herpicide keeps my hair very glossy."

TELLS OF LOSS OF THE STEVENS.

Capt. Tirney, Her Master, Passes Up in Command of the Portage.

The steamer Portage of the Union line, which arrived at Houghton Sunday and left later in the day for Duluth, via Ashland, was in charge of Captain Tirney, who was master of the steamer Stevens, burned in Lake Erie two weeks ago. The first and second mates, a lookout and two wheelmen of the Stevens, are also aboard the Portage acting in their respective positions.

With reference to the loss of the Stevens, Captain Tirney stated that it was a thrilling experience he hopes he never has to again undergo. In less than half an hour after the craft caught fire the crew of the Stevens had taken to the small boats. The flames were so fierce and spread so rapidly that they could not be opposed with the crew managed to throw a small stream of water on the fire, but it failed to check the progress of the blaze. The boiler and engine rooms were a mass of flames soon after the fire broke out, and the engineer was unable to keep the pumps operating. He made a heroic endeavor to stick to his post while the members of the crew were fighting the fire but was compelled to vacate. In passing by the fire all the hair on his head was singed off.

Captain Tirney said that only the lights on the shore were instrumental in saving them from a watery grave. The boats were headed in that direction. Three attempts were made to land, the rocks near the shore being the main difficulty. The crew finally succeeded in getting ashore and made their way to Fort Bowen, where a message to the headquarters of the boat line at Buffalo was sent, informing the company of the fire. So quickly did the flames envelop the boat, the captain said, that not a thing aboard was saved. The men had no time to get any of their belongings. There was great confusion on board, a few cool heads keeping down excitement. It was on that account, perhaps, that not a life was lost.

Subscriptions for the building fund for the proposed new Houghton theatre are being collected as fast as expected. The committee in charge has hopes of starting building operations this fall.

The Rochester of the Union line is due, bound up, this morning. The boat has a consignment of cement for the M. Van Orden company, of Houghton. A ton of copper will be taken on at Lake Linden.

The condition of Superintendent W. J. Ufen, of the Tri-Mountain mill, who is ill, is encouraging. During his sickness Master Mechanic Edward Koepel is in charge of the construction work at the mill. The mill is nearing completion and machinery is daily expected.

COPPER MINING.

PROSPECTS OF THE BALTIC. Production of 12,000,000 Pounds, With Four Stamps, Indicated.

Baltic rock has been running twenty-two pounds of ingot copper to the ton of rock stamped (1.1 per cent), with two heads of stamps as against twenty-three pounds of copper shown by the last annual report when it was using only one stamp, says the Boston News Bureau. This would seem to indicate that the larger the tonnage the less the refined copper contents in a ton of rock stamped—a very frequent occurrence. To make a large tonnage for the mill less attention is given to the assortment of rock and the larger percentage of poorer grade rock of course reduces the amount of refined copper in a given quantity of rock.

Baltic has just started stamping with three heads, 1,300 tons of rock daily, which at twenty-two pounds of copper to the ton is at the annual rate of $580,000 pounds of copper. By the first of the year the fourth head of stamps should be placed in commission when the amount of rock sent to the mill may be brought up to 1,800 tons per day. If Baltic maintains its twenty-two pounds average, this tonnage would indicate a maximum production of 11,800,000 pounds.

In 1900 and 1899 when the mine was being opened and developed, and rock from the drifts, shafts and levels was sent to the mill, the rock contained 19.58 pounds and seventeen pounds respectively.

A Statement from Heinze. F. Augustus Heinze has issued a signed statement in Butte in reply to the statement of Senator Wm. A. Clark classing the Montana Ore Purchasing company in the same category with the Amalgamated company. He claims that Senator Clark, Senator Carter, Governor Toole and other leading politicians in Montana are all working in the interest of the Standard Oil company. To the investor one of the most striking things in his statement is: "When I was in New York, ever since the session of the legislature two years ago, H. H. Rogers for the Standard Oil company called upon me at my rooms in the Waldorf-Astoria and then there in effect stated to me that he had made a combination with Senator Clark."

Mr. Heinze further says: "I have no desire and never did have any to use the Democracy of the state of Montana for my personal ends or advantage. I have no candidate of any kind for any office during the coming election. All I desire is that the Democracy of Montana shall put up free and untrammelled men for office who will safeguard the interests of the state as the nominees of that party in the past have done. I believe the popular vote of this community is where it was two years ago—against corporation domination and particularly against that of the Standard Oil company; I have never yet broken a pledge or promise knowingly to any human being; but when I see W. A. Clark shaping his whole political conduct under the guidance of John R. Toole, A. J. Campbell and other Standard Oil agents I believe the time has come for the people of Montana to beware. I will not call W. A. Clark's desertion of me and his alliance with the Standard Oil by harsh names. I am advised it was the result of threats that his seat in the senate would be again contested as it had been two years before."

"The Standard Oil company desires to reduce Montana to a condition of slavery, owned, governed and operated by directors living in New York city. This fight seeks for its first sacrifice my own political and financial ruin and places mine thus in the forefront of the fray; but I consider it no more my fight than that of each individual household and property owner in the state of Montana. The issue is between Standard Oil despotism and liberty. This is my position. I conceal nothing, evade nothing; and I believe when the issues are submitted to the people their decision will justify my conduct and my hopes."

Amalgamated Grip on Greene. A Standard Oil copper man says: "I don't believe that the Amalgamated people are buying Greene Consolidated shares in the open market for they believe that the control of the property can be purchased for less than the current market quotations if such purchase is ever considered advisable. Control of the Greene is held by half a dozen people and the Amalgamated people are fully aware just how the ownership stands. I believe the great 'out' with the Greene proposition is that the mine is of comparatively short life. The Greene is only opened up three or four years ahead and notwithstanding the alleged millions expended upon the propery there has never been an attempt made to discover the life of the mine through developments at depth. The Greene is one of the richest surface copper mines that has ever been opened but notwithstanding that the present management has been developing the property for three or four years it has never gone to a depth much below 200 feet. The Amalgamated people are not asleep. They have already loaned the Greene company $500,000 and they are in a position to get control of the property when and if it is wanted."

Copper Gossip. An assessment of $2 per share has been levied on the stock of the Adventure company.

Subscriptions for Kitty Burton gold stock will be closed Friday. Any one desiring to secure any of the stock may do so by calling on or writing W. E. Miller at Houghton.

It is said at Boston that as the result of tenders asked for by the navy department recently for 50,000 pounds of casting, delivered at Brooklyn, the order was awarded to a local smelter at 11.74 cents delivered in the Brooklyn navy yard.

The end of the week will witness the completion of the Victoria's water power dam. The structure, of concrete, braced by steel beams, is 900 feet long. During the winter work of excavating for the water power canal will be proceeded with.

A dispatch from Butte, Mont., says that Senator Clark has announced his intention of abandoning his smelter at Butte, which was recently destroyed by fire. He is now negotiating for a site at Great Falls, where he has obtained an option on a thousand acres of land on the river.

A Boston report says that besides the questions of repair and reduced freight charges, the Old Dominion managers are working upon the wage question. The company has been employing some 350 men, and was forced to advance wages to $3.50 per day when like copper was commanding 17 cents.

President Fay of the Centennial, Tri-Mountain and other copper properties, who is now at the lake making an inspection of the several mines in which he is interested, is reported as planning for an early radical curtailment of operations at several points pending a readjustment of the copper situation.

People who are close to the management of the Mass Consolidated Mining company say that the drop in the price of the stock last week signifies nothing more than that somebody had some stock to sell and forced it onto the market. When it had been disposed of an easy recovery followed. There was no attempt to shake out weak holdings, nor did the selling mean that the insiders were seeking to accumulate cheap stock prior to a resumption of negotiations for a union with the Adventure mine.

Such an alliance, if it comes at all in the future, will come only after the Adventure has clearly demonstrated what it can do in the way of mineral production.

MUCH ORE ON VERMILION.

MUCH ORE ON VERMILION.

Chicago Man Says That Large Deposits Will Yet Be Found.

"Much ore may yet be found on the Vermilion range," said Lazarus Silverman, of Chicago, last week, who owns 3,800 acres in that territory and 2,300 acres on the east Mesabi range, to a representative of the Duluth Tribune. It is evident that the present mines on the Vermilion are not mere pockets, but that an extensive area is occupied. It will be found in the course of time that the ore extends all the way from the Chandler to section 30, a distance of over three miles. There is, in my judgment, a huge basin of iron ore between the Chandler and section 30. This is proved to a large extent by the mines between the Chandler and section 30. It will be found that the ore is much deeper in some places than others in the same locality, but I believe that much ore underlies the territory described. "There are evidences of ore also in sections 11, 14, 28, 17, 20, 19 and 22 in 63-11. It is a fact of interest and perhaps importance that most of the iron is found south of the lakes in the Vermilion region. At Tower the ore is found south of Lake Vermilion. At Ely the ore is found south of Long lake, and east of Ely there is a Jasper outcrop on the south side of Fall lake." Mr. Silverman is one of the most extensive individual owners of land on the Minnesota ranges. He says that deeper drilling on the Vermilion will be pretty sure to disclose further iron ore deposits.

There are two drills at work in section 22, one in 19, one in 25, and two more will be placed on the last mentioned property in about thirty days. Mr. Silverman says that his policy in future will be to deal direct with the people who represent the consumers of ore in giving options for explorations.

FOR THE MEDITERRANEAN.

Fine Steamship Service Arranged by the Dominion Line.

The Dominion Line announces that the large modern twin screw passenger ships, Commonwealth and New England, will go into service between Boston and Gibraltar, Naples, Genoa and Alexandria, Egypt, this winter, and with the steamers Camboman and Vancouver, will make regular trips. The Commonwealth and New England are the largest passenger ships in the Mediterranean service, and have become very popular with the northwestern people. T. H. Larke, general northwestern agent of the Dominion Line, has just received official notice that the company will maintain a regular weekly passenger service between Montreal and Liverpool, commencing with the opening of navigation on the St. Lawrence river next season. The steamers selected for this service are as follows: Canada, 9,000 tons; Kensington, 8,669 tons; Southwark, 8,607 tons, and Dominion, 6,618 tons. All are twin screw and will carry saloon, second saloon and third class passengers.

ISHPEMING'S CELERY INDUSTRY.

This Valuable Plant Thrives in Western End of the County.

The current issue of the Peninsula Record has the following discussion of the celery industry in the western part of Marquette county:
Newberry is now claiming to have taken from Kalamazoo the right to be designated as the "Celery City" and the capital of Luce county may be justified in making this claim, but the city of Ishpeming need not go to Newberry, Kalamazoo or anywhere else for its supply of celery if the industry is fostered in this vicinity. This year George Voelker and James Kenney will raise close to 13,000 bunches of the plant on less than three acres of ground. Their product has been in the market since the last of August, and by a system of underground protection, the supply can be delivered to the market, as required, from now up to Christmas.
Celery is a plant that will grow best in rich black earth. On the Voelker farm near Cooper lake two acres are devoted to the crop. The plants were received from Tecumseh, north of Adrian, in Lenawee county. They were planted five feet apart, this distance being necessary because the tops and roots spread. Constant hoeing is required to prevent toughness, and if the plants were closer together this work could not be done. Too much rain is a great detriment, because this hill must be done when the ground around the roots is dry. The celery is edible when taken directly from the ground, but the best quality is obtained by the method used on the Voelker farm. A trench, fifty feet long and several feet wide, is dug in the black soil, in which the plants are buried, with the top above the earth, over which is placed a roof of boards and straw. The plants are packed upright in this trench and taken out as required. They are slightly frosted and thus made more palatable. When prepared for the market in this storage house it is necessary to trim the tops with a knife, as they become black and decayed.
The great amount of care and personal supervision required are the principal items that go to make up the cost of the expense of celery to the retailer. Dealers in this vicinity pay from ten to twenty cents per dozen for Newberry celery, in addition to the express. All of the celery raised near Ishpeming is quickly sold and it is generally pronounced as being equal, and by some superior, to any received from outside points.
Marquette county has acres upon acres of land adapted to raising celery, but there is not enough of it used to supply even a fair part of the demand. Some fine specimens were exhibited at the fair last week.
Messrs. Voelker and Kenney have raised celery during the past six years, and always with good results. Mr. Voelker will raise about 1,000 dozen bunches before the holidays. Both of these gentlemen are highly pleased with their success and will continue to raise the plants. Mr. Kenney's plot is in West Ishpeming, near the Barnum House.
Ishpeming has hundreds of acres of land within its corporate limits adapted to raising celery. The vicinity of Mud lake, between the space north of Empire and west of Third street running north to the cemetery, and near west Ishpeming there is plenty rich black soil similar to the land on which Messrs. Voelker and Kenney are farming.

Frisk, who was allowed to drift away from Detroit, will return to fast company next season via the Chicago National League team, and in another season may be one of the stars for which the Detroit club, or some other American club, will be bidding. Frisk went to the Denver Western League team as a pitcher. PRIMEAU ENDORSED.

French-Americans of Ishpeming Favor Renomination of Present Official.

A large number of the French-American voters of Ishpeming assembled at the Anderson Hall Sunday afternoon. Political talks were given by J. H. Primeau, register of deeds, who is a candidate for renomination at the Republican county convention to be held at Marquette today, and others. The sentiment of all present was strongly in favor of Mr. Primeau, and so much interest was aroused among the Frenchmen that many of them were in evidence at the ward caucuses held last evening. The meeting was presided over by John Charbonneau. A committee on resolutions, consisting of Henry Routhier, August Jacob and Luke Demaree, was named. After a brief recess the committee presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: "Whereas, We are aware of the necessary qualifications for the discharge of the duties of the office of register of deeds for the county of Marquette for which there are two candidates for nomination; therefore be it Resolved, That J. H. Primeau be the unanimous choice of the French-American voters of the city of Ishpeming for the nomination and election to the important office of register of deeds for the county of Marquette."

AMATEUR MINSTRELS.

Athletic Club's Bar Team and the Hogans of Marquette Will Participate.

The amateurs, who will give minstrel performances at the Ishpeming opera house Saturday and Monday evenings, Sept. 27 and 29, are having some splendid rehearsals. The talent is among the best in the county, and includes the leading male vocalists of Ishpeming.

There will be about fifty persons participating. Included among the performers will be the Hogans of Marquette, and the bar team and tumbler of the Catholic Athletic club of this city, who made a big hit at a minstrel performance given here last winter. A gentleman from the copper country, who does some excellent specialty work, will also assist.

Full orchestra rehearsals will be held nearly every evening next week. All the chorus music is new and the ballads, end songs and "gags" are the latest. Tickets, good for reserved seats, will be sold at fifty cents. The net receipts go to the Ishpeming high school football team.

STRONG COMEDY BILL TONIGHT.

Miss Bertha Gray, one of the talented members of Wm. Gray's "Hunting for Hawkins" company, which plays this city tonight, introduces one of the cleverest Swedish characterizations that is now before the public. Her impersonation of "Maja," a Swedish maid, in "Hunting for Hawkins," has been one of the hits of this season. Besides that of Miss Gray there is other clever character work by several members of the company. Specialties of a high order are introduced, making this attraction an exceptionally strong comedy bill.

WATER FAMINE.

As a result of the bursting of a main yesterday, the entire city was without water from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. The trouble occurred between the pump house and Salisbury. The water was shut off at the lake at 10 o'clock. For a time it looked as though the mines would have to shut down, but, fortunately, the leak was discovered about noon. Repairs were made, so that the water could be turned on at 4 o'clock. This is the first time in the history of the plant that the entire water supply has been shut off.

Loss of Appetite is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla—the best of all tonics.

Immediately upon the adjournment of the county convention the delegates from the eastern and western representative districts will nominate candidates from each district.

The cities and townships of the county will be entitled to the following representation at the convention: Marquette city, 19 delegates; Negaunee, 11; Ishpeming, 23; Champion and Tilden townships, 3 each; Republic, 4; Michiganme, 2; Chocoma, Ely, Forsyth, Humboldt, Ishpeming, Marquette, Negaunee, Richmond, Sands, Scandia, Turin and West Branch townships, one each.

It is understood that a complete county ticket will be placed in nomination. Candidates for representative to the legislature from the two districts will also be named.

WILL OPEN GOLD MINE.
Former Negaunee Man Interested in the Rainy Lake Property.

The Protegens Gold Mine company, of which J. C. Foley, formerly of Negaunee is general manager, has decided to resume operations, and will begin unwatering the mine at once. At a meeting of the stockholders held several weeks ago, it was decided to issue bonds for $1,000 to defray the expense of unwatering the mine, and $2,500 additional for other expenses preliminary to starting the mill. General Manager J. C. Foley has turned to the property to superintend the unwatering. Fred J. Bowden, president of the company, and Horace J. Stevens, one of the heaviest stockholders, both of Houghton, made a trip to the property during the latter part of August to ascertain the exact conditions. They were met by Superintendent O. B. Robinson, and Manager Foley, and the three made an examination of the property, submitting their report at the stockholders' meeting held several weeks ago. It showed that three-quarters of the openings were filled with water, and a thorough search in the vicinity was out of the question at that time. The surface equipment is in first class condition. There is a twelve drill compressor, a twenty stamp mill, two drum hoists and engines, and considerable other equipment, all of which could go into commission within forty-eight hours. There are between 1,200 and 1,400 teachers in the upper peninsula, and upwards of 400 will probably be present. The program for the institute and the association meeting are now being arranged and will be announced in due season.

The other afternoon while the landlord of the Hancock House, at Gladstone, was absent, two men entered the place and asked for a quick supper. The men, who proved to be John Giguere and Jess Wanden, were later arrested and have been bound over to the circuit court for trial.
According to the Iron Mountain Gazette, the poundmaster of that city the other night rounded up thirty-one head of cattle which he found roaming the streets. At 4:30 a. m. he went home for lunch, and when he returned the cows had all disappeared—some one had broken into the pound and rescued the whole lot. The paper adds that the official apparently performed a miracle—that of getting thirty-one head of cattle into a pen that will not hold four horses.

Thos. Bickerson, of Trout Lake, died at the Soo general hospital late last week as a result of the amputation of his right leg. He was a man about sixty years of age and had been for years watchman in the round house at Trout Lake. Two weeks ago he was struck by an engine and suffered a fracture of his leg. He was brought to the Soo hospital and a few days ago blood poisoning set in in the injured limb, and the amputation was declared necessary. The amputation was made and he died within two hours from the shock. Bickerson's wife survives him.

PLEASANT TO THE TASTE.
One of the most important requirements in a medicine is that it should be pleasant to the taste. Bad tasting medicines disturb the stomach, destroy the appetite and it is extremely difficult to get children to take them. The pleasant flavor of Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup, the certain cure for dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness, pleases the most sensitive persons and is the ideal laxative for young children. Rev. Father Manderfield has returned to Nadeau, Menominee county, after a tour of inspection of a number of the best sugar refining plants and extensive farms throughout the lower peninsula. The pastor was highly pleased with the results of his trip and he intends to give a number of illustrated talks on the cultivation of the sugar beet for the benefit of the agriculturalists in this section of the county. In addition to being an eloquent pulpit orator, the Rev. Father Manderfield is also a practical farmer, and since witnessing the evidences of the remarkable prosperity which prevails in the sugar beet sections of the lower peninsula he intends to go into the cultivation as extensively as his land resources will permit.
The new superintendent of Bessemer's schools, Miss Root, is making it uncomfortable for children that stay out of school, and the city marshal has been kept going lately in apprehending delinquents. A batch of some twenty-five were up before the court and two were sent to reform school for two years, while the others got off on severe reprimand and promise to be good hereafter. Last week William Larson & Co.'s fruit car was broken open and half its contents were stolen. Twenty-seven boys, ranging in age from nine to sixteen, and the same who had been skipping school regularly, were run down by the authorities and placed in the city jail. The car was broken open and placed in a tree on McLeod street in such a manner that it had the appearance of a live bear and then went to the brewery office and asked that someone might be sent to capture it. John Reindl, William Bishop and several others ran to the scene and after considerable trouble they managed to knock the cub out of the tree. As it fell to the ground someone slammed a board upon it and sat down on the board while Mr. Reindl went for a muzzle to place over the bear's mouth. When the men were about to put the muzzle on and took off the board they found the bear dead; in fact, it had been dead for several days.

RACE TRACK HUNCHES.
Aze All Hoodoo and Crooked, Says This Old Gambler.
"This business of putting faith in what the betting men call a 'hunch' may be all right," said a member of the green cloth fraternity, "but as far as I am concerned I'll not put any more confidence in the 'hunch.' I'll not bet again on these mysterious whisperings that so and so is a good thing to do; that this card will win, and that horse is a cinch, and that sort of tomfoolery. I had a good strong 'hunch'—one that brought my purse up above the normal, and my hope simply ran riot for a while. In the middle of the night I was suddenly awakened by a violent, distinct voice which said 'keno!' I opened my eyes and listened again for the voice, and really began to wonder where it was. I thought probably I was sleeping near some place where the game was going on. But then I remembered where I was, and recalled the fact that I was several miles from any such place. I thought it was just a dream, a fitful play of the brain, and so I went to sleep again. I had not been asleep long when suddenly the same sound fell on my ear—'keno.' It was more violent than before. It caused me to straighten up. It was so distinct that I felt that some man with strong lungs had pressed his mouth against my ear and had shrieked with all the wind at his command, 'keno!' It was a hunch. There was nothing to it. When I arose the next morning every sound I heard seemed to blend into the word 'keno.' The rattle of the breakfast dishes spelled 'keno,' the ding-dong of the bells rang out 'keno,' and the motormen clanged it as they rushed the cars up and down the streets of the city. There was nothing for me to do but to play the 'hunch,' and to play it with all the cash I had. In due time I met a friend of mine and told him about it, and suggested that he meet me next day, after my winnings, and I would buy him a fine dinner. I was worked up over it. I went forth and backed the 'hunch' according to my resolve. The balance of the story is unimportant. Tales of loss are dull and unromantic. I met my friend, 'keno!' he said laughingly. He took dinner with me on condition that he would not say my latest experience with the 'hunch.' Other men may believe in 'hunches,' but hereafter when I want to get I will do it without paying any sort of attention to whispers and mysterious premonitions. The 'hunch' is a hoo-doo, and of the evil spirit."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

PRIMEAU WINS OUT

CARRIED THE CITY LAST EVENING BY A BIG MARGIN.

GETS SIX OF THE EIGHT WARDS

HE HAS THIRTEEN OF THE NINETEEN LOCAL DELEGATES.

This Result Effectually Flattens Out J. E. Reau's Aspirations to Be Register-Convention Meets Today.

The voters of Marquette effectually flattened out J. E. Reau's aspirations to succeed J. H. Primeau as register of deeds by electing, last evening, Primeau delegations in six of the eight wards of the city. Reau delegations were elected in the first and second, but in the remaining wards Primeau had things pretty much his own way.

The auditor-general is inclined to attribute the increase in the payment of delinquent taxes to the confidence in the validity of the tax levies as well as to the increased demand for Michigan lands.

An effort is being made to secure E. Burton Holmes as one of the season's attractions at the opera house about Nov. 1. Mr. Holmes is the successor of John L. Stoddard on the travel lecture platform, and although he has only been before the public ten years, last season over four hundred thousand people paid to hear him.

The method of launching vessels in vogue on the great lakes is attracting attention in every ship building point in the United States.

The principal reason for the side launching method is the lack of room. At most lake yards, with the slip attached the way they are at present, an end launching is an impossibility.

The market today opened decidedly weak, but the offerings by commission houses were soon taken, and in spite of a continued high rate for money all day, stocks advanced.

ARE PAYING DELINQUENT TAXES.

Demand for Northern Michigan Lands Responsible for the Settlements.

A Lansing dispatch says: On account of the demand for lands in northern Michigan, partly due to the organization of land purchasing companies, and partly to the discovery that the pine barrens are worth something after all, delinquent taxes are being paid to the auditor-general on lands that have been returned by the tax gatherer for many years.

The auditor-general is inclined to attribute the increase in the payment of delinquent taxes to the confidence in the validity of the tax levies as well as to the increased demand for Michigan lands.

Inquiries looking to the purchase of lands in Northern Michigan are received every day, and the payment of delinquent taxes will probably put to sleep all efforts in the future to provide for a clearing sale of delinquent taxes for what they will bring.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

L. E. Granger Gives Data on the Beet Sugar Industry.

L. E. Granger, of the State Agricultural college at Lansing, was in Menominee the other day and made some pertinent remarks relative to beet sugar culture. Among other things Mr. Granger said:

A BOY'S WILD RIDE FOR LIFE.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him.

YAKIMA IS FREED

SCHENCK AND FOUR STEAMERS PULLED HER OFF THE ROCKS.

WORK WAS ACCOMPLISHED SUNDAY

CRAFT WAS IN VERY PERILOUS POSITION FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

If the Weather Had Been Rough She Would, in All Probability, Have Been Broken to Pieces by the Waves.

The steamer Yakima, owned by J. C. Gilchrist of Cleveland, which ran on the rocks at Bay Bete de Gris, Keweenaw Point, last Wednesday, was released about 4 p. m. Sunday by the united effort of the steamers Volunteer, Massachusetts, Maytham and Cumberland, aided by the tug Schenck of this harbor.

The harbor tug Schenck, Captain W. H. Bowen commanding, had not a little to do with the successful release of the Yakima. Captain Bowen was informed Thursday of the steamer's plight, and at once sailed for Bete de Gris. There, with two steamers, the Schenck tugged and pulled at the stranded craft Friday, without appreciable result.

When this was done, the steamers Volunteer, Massachusetts, Maytham and Cumberland began pulling on the stranded Yakima, the Schenck running to Houghton for a tow line for her own use.

It was a fortunate circumstance that the Yakima was on the rocks during a spell of fair weather. It had been rough, she would have been, in all probability, broken to pieces by the waves.

NEW YORK MARKET WEAK.

Walker said of the New York market: "The market today opened decidedly weak, but the offerings by commission houses were soon taken, and in spite of a continued high rate for money all day, stocks advanced."

"Just think of it!" he continued; "during the season every man, woman, boy and girl that works earns from $1.50 to $2.50 a day, and even at these wages there is a decided dearth of help. Boys and girls between the ages of eight years and ten years receive from $1.50 to $1.75 a day, while the average woman gets from $2 to $2.50. During the time for 'pulling' the wages run from $1.50 to $2.00."

"Time was, and it is not so long ago at that, when Lansing was practically a dead town, but today the wonderful change that has been wrought would surprise those who knew the city in the past. Two years ago nearly every other store was adorned with a 'For Rent' sign, and there was a general exodus of the population seeking richer localities. Today there is not a single available foot of store space that is not occupied, and it is absolutely impossible to rent a dwelling house. In the last year at least 370 new and handsome houses have been built and others are now in course of construction."

"Boys and girls, who formerly were more or less shiftless and poorly dressed, are now wearing tailor-made clothing for which they do not hesitate to pay first-class prices. Of course, they can afford it, as they receive more wages than their fathers did two years ago. All the old houses around town that were formerly neglected and allowed to go to rack and ruin for want of repairs, are now resplendent in new coats of paint, and in many cases spacious and commodious as additions have been made. Mortgages are now a thing of the past, and the grocers are all wearing happy smiles because of the absence of any uncertainty in 'credit trade.'"

"And, in a word, the cause of this state of wonderful prosperity is simply the sugar beet. Next season will eclipse all others, as every farmer who signed one of the first contracts has either doubled or greatly increased his acreage for the next crop. As an illustration of the value of a crop of this vegetable, I may mention that tracts of land in the county that were practically abandoned and never touched by a plow in the last five years are now being readily rented at $7 an acre. And, while I think of it, I must tell you of an experiment we made last year. We received twenty-four average western steers and fed them on the beet pulp, after the sugar had been extracted, for a season. These we entered at the Chicago livestock exhibition, and the animal we selected for the prize class was judged fifth on the hoof and first when dressed, which was a wonderful showing.

"It is without doubt the greatest blessing that has ever been showered upon the farmer," said Mr. Granger, "with enthusiasm, 'and the beauty of the thing is that each year the profits will grow greater and greater, as the demand for sugar is continually on the increase. Mark my words, that when the refining plant gets running in Menominee there will be no vacant steers, and one cent's price, such as the refinery we have in Lansing, is far better than a half dozen saw mills.'"

COPPERS OFF.

Decline in the Metal in London Caused Them to Sag.

Paine, Webber & Co. said: "A decline of nearly one pound in London copper quotations, and the firmer tone of the money market caused a slight sagging tendency in copper stocks today. There was no pressure to sell, however. Holders of coppers apparently are content to wait until the improving metal situation has an opportunity to show itself in the stock market quotations. We believe good coppers should be bought on any further reaction."

Hayden, Stone & Co. said: "Coppers were weak today on account of the weakness in the metal market, which was lower in London. The only thing of interest was an assessment of $2, called on Adventure, payable Oct. 15. From Oct. 25 interest will be charged at the rate of 6 per cent."

WHEAT SCORES ADVANCE.

W. H. Laidley said of the Chicago market: "The wheat market opened strong, at about Saturday's close, and the September option had a sensational advance of 4 1/2c, closing at the top. The more distant options advanced 3/4 of a cent. The covering by shorts and a good demand for cash wheat at a premium over the September were responsible for the sharp advance. The cables were strong, but the market reflected our advance of Saturday. The world's shipments were large, America contributing very liberally. The passage statement showed a decrease of 1,200,000 bushels. The visible supply statement showed an increase of 470,000. We have consistently advised the purchase of wheat for higher prices, and we believe that the December option will sell much higher, and that every reaction should be taken advantage of to purchase wheat."

"Corn opened strong and followed about the same course as wheat, the September option closing 3/4c above Saturday. The world's shipments were small, America contributing very lightly. The receipts were fair and the estimates a little larger. The visible supply statement showed a decrease of 167,000 bushels. The September option is doubtless more or less manipulated, but the scarcity of corn and the good cash demand warrant higher prices. However, we believe we would wait for some little reaction before buying."

"Oats, in direct contrast to the rest of the market, were inclined to weakness, and closed only 1/2c over Saturday. The receipts and estimates were rather heavy, and are grading a little better. In this market for the last few days we can hardly advise purchases right here, as any reaction in wheat and corn would doubtless cause a break in oats, so that they could be bought somewhat cheaper than at present prices."

"Provisions opened strong, and at about Saturday's close and scored a fair advance, in sympathy with the grain markets. The receipts were a little heavier than expected. Outsiders bought very freely. Packers also bought. The offerings were light, with estimates much better. Exporters also bought considerably. As we stated Saturday, we expect to see much higher prices for provisions, but we believe we would take profits upon any further advance."

Walker said of the New York market: "The market today opened decidedly weak, but the offerings by commission houses were soon taken, and in spite of a continued high rate for money all day, stocks advanced. There was no setback until shortly before the close, when a 20 per cent rate for money caused a material decline. The aggressive buying in St. Paul and Missouri Pacific gave confidence to the general list. The coalers were neglected and were decidedly weak. The immediate future of prices would seem to depend on the money situation, and on this there is a marked difference of opinion. The market certainly stood well today, considering high money rates, but it cannot continue to keep up under the present conditions. The close was at decided recessions from prices, and the general list showed declines for the day of from 1/2 to 1 per cent."

COUNTRIES AT ODDS

BRITAIN AND VENEZUELA AT THE PARTING OF THE WAYS.

AFFAIRS HAVE REACHED A CRISIS

RELATIONS LIKELY TO BE SEVERED AT ANY MOMENT.

Many Points of Difference, but Trouble Is Chiefly Over Ownership of Island Off South American Coast—Little Likelihood of War.

London, Sept. 22.—The Associated Press is in position to announce that the diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Venezuela are on the verge of being severed. Almost any hour may bring the announcement that the British minister at Caracas has been given his passport, with corresponding action toward the Venezuelan representative in London.

The cause of the crisis does not seem to be confined to any particular incident, but consists of various differences which have culminated in Venezuela assuming such an angry attitude as to leave Downing street fully impressed with the belief that the Venezuelan government intends to force matters to a crucial issue.

Hostilities Improbable. That a diplomatic rupture would result in hostilities, is a contingency thus far scarcely contemplated. The view of the foreign office is that affairs have reached a stage where it is impossible to deal satisfactorily with Venezuela in any matter which may come up. In proof of this contention, the foreign office instances the report of the United States minister at Caracas announcing that the Venezuelan government had protested against the British flag being raised over Patos (or Goose) island, over which the Venezuelan government claimed sovereignty.

According to the British government's understanding, the island belongs to Great Britain as much as Trinidad, and so far as known no question as to its ownership has ever arisen. Inhabitants of the island recently have been shot or otherwise endangered through the action of Venezuelans, whether government or revolutionary partisans is not known. For purposes of protection, the local West Indian authorities ordered that the British flag be prominently displayed on the island, hence the protest which the foreign office says is only one of many.

Annexation a Solution. An exceptionally prominent official said to The Associated Press this evening: "The affairs of Venezuela are so hopelessly muddled that we can get nothing done. There is no concealing the fact that the Venezuelan government has made heated protests to our minister, and the chief grievance appears to be the allegation that the British government is aiding the revolutionary army. It is needless to say that this is perfectly baseless. We only wish the United States would take over the whole country and then, perhaps, we should get some peace. Of late the disturbance of the last decade, the present seems to be the worst. This, combined with the attitude of the nominal government, makes us somewhat indifferent to any action which may take place.

The Venezuelans appear inclined to be rather reckless, thanks chiefly to what I presume is the mistaken notion that Washington will protect them from the results of their own folly, however, in that that might be to the lives and property of British subjects and those of other Europeans. As we understand Montrosino, Venezuela is quite mistaken in this matter, though, apparently, her impression has much to do with her present action."

Washington Aware of Trouble. Washington, Sept. 22.—No notice of the strain of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Venezuela has reached the department of state. It is, however, the department officials would have no hesitation in ascribing the cause to the dispute, which has been revived, over the ownership of Patos (or Goose) island, lying in the "Dragon's Mouth" between Trinidad and the Venezuelan coast.

Minister Bowen last week informed the department of the fact that the dispute had taken an acute phase through the assertion of British sovereignty over the island, and as he at the same time said that Venezuela had protested against the hoisting of the British flag it is not doubted that to this incident must be traced any more serious difficulty between the two countries.

DANGER AT ISTHMUS PASSES.

Colombian Rebels Abandon Their Camp and Are in Full Retreat.

Panama, Sept. 22.—Government soldiers who were captured by General Herrera at Agua Dulce and who were compelled to join his army and who were rescued in escaping, arrived here today. They confirm the report that the whole revolutionary army has abandoned its camp near Chorrera and is retreating toward Agua Dulce.

It is reported that General Herrera has incorporated in his army all the guerrilla bands he can induce to join him. The abandonment of the Chorrera camp, it is claimed, dispels all fear of an interruption of traffic on the railroad, and renders it impossible for a battle to occur at Panama or Colon.

A DAY OF OVATIONS

PRESIDENT CHEERED AT EVERY TURN AT DETROIT.

STREETS JAMMED WITH PEOPLE

TIME OF THE NATION'S CHIEF IS WELL OCCUPIED.

He Is Given a Boat Ride on the River, Reviews a Long Military Parade and Delivers Two Addresses, Advocating Reciprocity with Cuba.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The blue and gray uniform of the Spanish war veterans who their third annual reunion is being made memorable and historical by the presence of President Roosevelt, is seen at every turn in Detroit today. The opportunity to see the president has brought to the city thousands of people from nearby cities.

Talks to Old Comrades.

The president was given a tremendous ovation when he entered his carriage to begin the drive to the armory this morning. The streets were jammed with people. Upon his entering the armory, where were assembled a multitude of Spanish war veterans and spectators, the president was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, lasting several minutes, the president repeatedly bowing his thanks.

When quiet was restored, General Urell, commander-in-chief, introduced Mayor Maybury, who generally welcomed the Spanish war veterans to the city. When he concluded, the president arose to speak. Cheer after cheer rent the air while the president sincerely loved his thanks.

The president expressed his pleasure at having the chance of being greeted by his comrades and greeting them in return, and spoke of the late war, saying that the only complaint heard was that there was not enough war to go around.

Presented With Service Medal.

At the conclusion of his speech the president was presented with a service medal by Mrs. Lewis, of the Ladies' auxiliary, and amidst great enthusiasm the convention looked to the president. Later the presidential party took a river ride on the steamer Tashmoo, returning in time to review the big parade of the veterans and militia. The review of the parade began just before 6 o'clock and it was long after dark before it concluded. It was the greatest demonstration, except the parade at the Grand Army national encampment, ever seen here. The president was given a great popular demonstration.

Among the organizations in line was a regiment of Essex fusiliers, from Windsor, Ont. It was the first time a president of the United States reviewed a regiment of British soldiers.

Brilliant Banquet in Evening.

The president was entertained at a brilliant banquet this evening, which nearly eight hundred prominent men attended, while the galleries were thronged to their utmost capacity. When the president rose to speak he was given an ovation.

Opening his speech, the president paid a high compliment to the veterans of the Grand Army in comparing their deeds with those of the Spanish-American veterans. Incidentally he mentioned that at Santiago he fought side by side with the soldiers of Michigan. He also called attention to the fact that Michigan enjoyed the distinction, though an inland state, of having a war vessel during the late war. He spoke in warm praise of the valor of the Michigan naval militia.

The president discussed at length the issues and duties resulting from the war with Spain, saying that in Porto Rico the duty was merely administrative and that while in the Philippines it was more serious we had now, at the expiration of three years, established peace in the archipelago and in two years more would give the people there the largest measure of self-government accorded any Oriental country in the possession of an alien power.

Reciprocity With Cuba.

The president gave special attention to Cuba. After reciting the pledges to give Cuba independence and its fulfillment, and summarizing what was done under the American control of the island, he touched on the subject of reciprocity, saying: "We urge reciprocity because it is for our interests to control the Cuban market; because we are bound to place the Cubans on a peculiar standing economically when they consent, in our interests as well as their own, to assume a peculiar status internationally, and because it is fitting for a great and generous republic to stretch out a helping hand toward her feebler sister just starting to tread the path of independence."

"Cuba, though independent, stands in a peculiar position toward us and should receive in similar fashion a measure of benefit from and partial inclusion within our system. Questions that ordinarily concern us as a prime right in tariff matters do not come in here as of primary importance. We cannot choose what the articles are which Cuba shall export. We must accept them as they are and we must remember that in dealing with this island, especially now that we are about to build an isthmian canal and our interests in West Indian waters have become so great, we must shape our policy with far-sighted regard for the future and for the interest and honor of the nation as a whole.

Cannot Harm American Interests.

"I do not believe a particle of harm will come to any American interest from

SEVEN MORO POSTS TAKEN

American Expedition So Far Meeting With Little Opposition.

Manila, Sept. 22.—Up to Sunday the force commanded by Captain Pershing of the Fifteenth infantry, operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao, had met with slight resistance in the Maon country and had captured seven forts and killed twenty-five and wounded twenty Moros. Charges to Be Investigated.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The letters of Charles Francis Adams, addressed to the president, dealing with affairs in the Philippines, were today referred to Judge Advocate General Davis with instructions to thoroughly investigate and, if the offenses alleged can be placed upon others or men, to have such persons brought to trial.

SHAW UPHOLDS THE TARIFF.

Policy of Protection Has Built Up Industries in All Lines.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Secretary Shaw tonight spoke at the North Side Turner hall on "Commerce." He considered especially the Democratic demand for free raw material and defined what, from his point of view, is raw material. He presented statistics to prove that the cancelling of the tariff would not benefit the American workingman, and said that the policy of protection had built up industries in all lines. He also quoted figures to show out that commerce is largely due to the workings of the protective policy, and that the balance of trade is in our favor.

ASHORE IN GREEN BAY.

Steamers City of Marquette and Sheboygan Stranded During a Fog.

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Sept. 22.—Two passenger steamers, the City of Marquette and the Sheboygan, of the Goodrich line, went ashore in a fog today, the former in Green bay and the latter four miles north of Algoma. The passengers on both boats are reported safe. Tugs were sent from here to the assistance of both boats.

LIKELY TO REMOVE THE TROOPS.

Request of Cuba That Forts Be Evacuated Is Referred to Root.

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Palma's request for the removal of the remaining United States troops has been referred to Secretary Root, who will pass upon the competency of the Cubans to care for the coast defenses. It is probable the troops will be removed.

ROOS IS FINED $2,000.

Sentenced at Lansing for Complicity in Clothing Frauds.

MEATS HIGH IN GERMANY.

People Clamoring Now That Imports of Livestock Be Permitted.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The alarming increase in the price of meat in Germany has brought forth numerous appeals from municipal and other bodies for the suspension of the stringent rules prohibiting the importation of live cattle into the empire from abroad. The state department today made public a communication received from Mr. Jackson, secretary of the embassy at Berlin, dated Sept. 5, saying that he had this time answered the various appeals had been refusals "on sanitary grounds."

The headline "Fleischnot" (scarcity of meat), says Mr. Jackson, is one now seen in almost every issue of almost every newspaper, and the demand for more freedom in the importation of live hogs is increasing daily. The newspapers call attention to the fact that Russia is at present the only country from which hogs can be imported into Germany, and from that country only in restricted numbers.

Pork at Berlin 26 1/2 Cents.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—The reitstag's customs tariff committee began the second reading of the tariff bill today. The Centerists, German Conservatives and Free Conservatives have decided to abide by the agrarian increases adopted at the first reading, which the government has pronounced unacceptable. The butchers have added 24 cents per pound to the price of pork, making it 20 1/2 cents.

CALLS COL. HARRISON A LIAR.

Adj. Gen. Miller Stirs Up a Row at Spanish War Veterans' Convention.

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—At the convention of the Spanish-American war veterans this afternoon, during a statement concerning the validity of the records of the last encampment, Adjutant General Miller, who was removed from office Sunday night, gave Colonel Russell B. Harrison the lie direct. The latter made a dash for the deposed official, but was caught and held by Colonel E. R. Hutchins of Iowa and Dan S. Sauer of Louisville. Great excitement ensued. The outcome of the affair was that Miller was ordered to appear before the council of administration to answer the charges against him.

PLOT TO KILL THE CZAR.

His Train Is Wrecked but He Reaches Destination in Safety.

London, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—In a dispatch from St. Petersburg, a correspondent of The Express reports an attempt to derail the train upon which the czar traveled from Kursk. The rails were removed on two routes which the czar might travel. In one instance the plot was discovered, and in the other the train was wrecked. The czar reached St. Petersburg safely.

ROUMANIA IS DEFIANT.

Said It Will Continue to Persecute the Jews Despite the Powers.

London, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—In a dispatch from Vienna, a correspondent of The Times says he fears there is little doubt that the Roumanians have resolved to accept the consequences of settling at defiance the signatory powers, and the public opinion of the civilized world, and to continue the persecution of the Jews in order to compel them to seek an asylum abroad.

EXPLOSION IN COAL MINE.

Four Men Killed in West Virginia Colliery—Seven Others Missing.

Fairmont, W. Va., Sept. 22.—Four men are dead, three of them so badly burned and blackened that identification is almost impossible; seven are missing, and five seriously injured as the result of an explosion of gas in a mine at Stafford today. The disaster was caused by gas from a leaking pipe being ignited from a lamp carried by a miner now lying dead.

New York, Sept. 22.—The coroner's jury today found that the death of Nicolas Fish, the banker, on the 15th inst. was due to a fall caused by a blow struck by Thomas J. Sharkey. Sharkey was held in $10,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

The great difficulty in China, according to a recent report of the United States commissioner for that country, is that the collection of the revenues is in the hands of a set of thieving officials who absorb about 90 per cent of all moneys received.

If the government of the United States had displayed the nerve and courage in protecting our own seal rookeries up in Behring sea that is now credited to Russia, in her threat to sink all poachers or "pirates" who undertake to prey on the seals along the Siberian coast, we might have saved our herds from destruction.

There is considerable merit in the Peninsular Record's editorial comment, in its current issue, concerning the Marquette county fair.

THE DAY OF PRIVATE CARS.

They are Now a Necessary Adjunct to Many Kinds of Business.

This is the day of the private car, says the Chicago Tribune. Not necessarily the private car of state, but the private car of business necessity, of convenience and of company comforts.

The evolution of the private car seems to have been wholly legitimate, however. The need of the first one, used by the president of some great railway system, came about when officials of the company found it necessary to go from place to place, taking with them the clerical help and paraphernalia of office.

Many quarters the lay public is not ready to recognize the necessity of the private car to great corporations. It is forgotten that the fact that many of these corporations have so branched out in volume of business that their heads must travel in its interest.

From the private car for business reasons the demand has gone on for the private car for pleasure, and just now there are more of these cars in course of construction in the Pullman shops than ever before at one time.

RUN OVER BY STREET CAR.

John Sullivan, a Machinist, So Badly Hurt That He Dies.

John Sullivan, a machinist employed by the Trimountain Mining company, was run over by a street car on the main line between Laurium and Hancock at 8 o'clock Sunday evening and fatally injured. He was taken to the Hancock hospital, where he died at 11:30 o'clock. Sullivan was a single man, twenty-eight years of age. He was well known in and about Hancock and was popular. The accident occurred near the Opie farm, not far from the Boston location. Sullivan came in from Trimountain to attend the funeral of a friend, and following the obsequies took a street car at Hancock for the Franklin location to visit friends. The car took him beyond his destination, and it was while walking back on the track that he was struck by car No. 28, bound from Calumet to Hancock. The warning signal was given, it is said, but for some reason or other Sullivan was not quick enough. The motor-man felt the jerk and stopped the car. When Sullivan was picked up he was in a horrible condition. Both of his arms were crushed to the shoulders and his head and back were badly injured. He was taken aboard the car and with all possible speed the run to the hospital was made. The accident was the second fatality on the street car line, although there have been numerous mishaps of a more or less serious character. Sullivan has three sisters and a brother in Ironwood, also a brother in Duluth. For a long time he was employed in the machine shop at the Franklin Junior mine, but later removed to the Hancock location. Both parents are dead. His father, Jerry Sullivan, who was one of the old-time miners of the Franklin, removed to Ironwood fifteen years ago and was later killed in the Ashland mine at that place.

MAIL BOXES SHIPPED.

Free Delivery System to Be Established at Hancock Dec. 1.

Twenty-nine mail boxes and posts, also a consignment of catches, straps and paraphernalia for use in the free mail delivery system, to be established at Hancock Dec. 1, have been shipped and will arrive in a few days. The mail boxes will not be put up until the latter part of November. In the meantime necessary preparations for the inauguration of the system will be made. It will be necessary for applicants for positions as carriers to take a civil service examination, and an examining board will soon be appointed for that purpose. The postoffice department at Washington will make its selections from among those who stand the highest test. Four carriers will be employed to start with. One of these will be a substitute, as it is believed three regular men will be sufficient for the time being. The mail routes have already been outlined. One carrier will cover the Quincy addition, it is said; another the business portion of the village, and the third will work in West Hancock. Mail will be delivered and collected only where there are sidewalks. Hancock is well prepared for the system. It has all its streets named and houses numbered, and many new walks have been built.

FIRE-BUG GOES FREE.

Although the companies in which the McLaughlin store at Standwood, near Redridge, which burned last week, was insured, have evidence that the building was set afire, they will not prosecute. The man who applied the torch confessed to that effect to a representative of the companies who was sent here to investigate the origin of the blaze. The insurance adjuster, who has the loss of the store, of course, to the full amount of the policies, which was $4,000. The case is now closed.

RIGHT-OF-WAY SECURED.

The Copper Range road now possesses a clear title to a right-of-way for its extension from Houghton to Lake Linden and Calumet, and the work can proceed without further hindrance. The condemnation proceedings against the Tamarack and Osceola mining company have been brought to a close. Work on the grading between Hancock and Dollar Bay will be commenced this week. An effort will be made to complete the extension before winter sets in earnest.

SOFT, GLOSSY HAIR.

It Can Only Be Had Where There Is No Dandruff. Any man or woman who wants soft glossy hair must be free of dandruff, which causes falling hair. Since it has become known that dandruff is a germ disease, the old hair preparations that were mostly scalp irritants, have been abandoned, and the public barbers and doctors included, have taken to using Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. E. Dodd, Dickinson, N. D., says: "Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair's falling out, but promotes a new growth. Herpicide keeps my hair very glossy."

TELLS OF LOSS OF THE STEVENS.

Capt. Tirney, Her Master, Passes Up in Command of the Portage.

The steamer Portage, of the Union line, which arrived at Houghton Sunday and left later in the day for Duluth, via Ashland, was in charge of Captain Tirney, who was master of the steamer Stevens when it was wrecked in Lake Erie two weeks ago. The first and second mates, a lookout and two wheelmen of the Stevens, are also aboard the Portage acting in their respective positions.

With reference to the loss of the Stevens, Captain Tirney stated that it was a thrilling experience to be stuck to his post while the members of the crew were fighting the fire but was compelled to vacate. In passing by the fire all the hair on his head was singed off.

Captain Tirney said that only the lights on the shore were instrumental in saving them from a watery grave. The boats were headed in that direction. Three attempts were made to land, the rocks near the shore being the main difficulty. The crew finally succeeded in getting ashore and made their way to Van Orden, where they were met by the headquarters of the boat line at Buffalo was sent, informing the company of the fire. So quickly did the flames envelop the boat, the captain said, that not a thing aboard was saved. The men had no time to get any of their belongings. There was no very great confusion aboard, a few cool heads keeping down undue excitement. It was on that account, perhaps, that not a life was lost.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or getting indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stings your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

COPPER MINING.

PROSPECTS OF THE BALTIC.

Production of 12,000,000 Pounds, With Four Stamps, Indicated.

Baltic rock has been running twenty-two pounds of ingot copper to the ton of rock stamped (1.1 per cent), with two heads of stamps as against twenty-three pounds of copper shown by the last annual report when it was using only one stamp, says the Boston News Bureau. This would seem to indicate that the larger the tonnage the less the refined copper contents in a ton of rock stamped—a very frequent occurrence. To make a large tonnage for the mill less attention is given to the assortment of rock and the larger percentage of poorer grade rock, of course, reduces the amount of refined copper in a given quantity of rock.

Baltic has just started stamping with three heads, 1,300 tons of rock daily, which at twenty-two pounds of copper to the ton is at the annual rate of $8,800,000 pounds of copper. By the first of the year the fourth head of stamps should be placed in commission when the amount of rock sent to the mill may be brought up to 1,800 tons per day. If Baltic maintains its twenty-two pounds average, this tonnage would indicate a maximum production of 11,880,000 pounds.

In 1900 and 1899 when the mine was being opened and developed, and rock from the drifts, shafts and levels was sent to the mill, the rock contained 1.58 pounds and seventeen pounds respectively.

A Statement from Heinze. F. Augustus Heinze has issued a signed statement in Butte in reply to the statement of Senator Wm. A. Clark classifying the Montana Ore Purchasing company in the same category with the Amalgamated company. He claims that Senator Clark, Senator Carter, Governor Toole and other leading politicians in Montana are all working in the interest of the Standard Oil company.

To the investor one of the most striking things in his statement is: "When I was in New York, ever since the session of the legislature two years ago, H. H. Rogers for the Standard Oil company called upon me at my rooms in the Waldorf-Astoria and then there in effect stated to me that he had made a combination with Senator Clark."

Mr. Heinze further says: "I have no desire and never did have any to use the Democracy of the state of Montana for my personal ends or advantage. I have no candidate of any kind for any office during the coming election. All I desire is that the Democracy of Montana shall put up free and untrammelled men for office who will safeguard the interests of the state as the nominees of that party in the past have done. I believe the popular vote of this community is where it was two years ago—against corporation domination and particularly against that of the Standard Oil company; I have never yet broken a pledge or promise knowingly to any human being; but when I see W. A. Clark shaping his whole political conduct under the guidance of John R. Toole, A. J. Campbell and other Standard Oil agents I believe the time has come for the people of Montana to beware. I will not call W. A. Clark's desertion of me and his alliance with the Standard Oil by harsh names. I am advised it was the result of threats that his seat in the senate would be again contested as it had been two years before."

"The Standard Oil company desires to reduce Montana to a condition of slavery, owned, governed and operated by directors living in New York city. This fight seeks for its first sacrifice my own political and financial ruin and places me thus in the forefront of the fray; but I consider it no more my fight than that of each individual householder and property owner in the state of Montana. The issue is between Standard Oil despotism and liberty. This is my position. I conceal nothing, evade nothing; and I believe when the issues are submitted to the people their decision will justify my conduct and my hopes."

Amalgamated Grip on Greene. A Standard Oil copper man says: "I don't believe that the Amalgamated people are buying Greene Consolidated shares in the open market for they believe that the control of the property can be purchased for less than the current market quotations. If such purchase is ever considered advisable, control of the Greene is held by half a dozen people and the Amalgamated people are fully aware just how the ownership stands. I believe the great 'out' with the Greene proposition is that the mine is of comparatively short life. The Greene is only opened up three or four years ahead and notwithstanding the alleged millions expended upon the property there has never been an attempt made to discover the life of the mine through developments at depth. The Greene is one of the richest surface copper mines that has ever been opened but notwithstanding that the present management has been developing the property for three or four years it has never gone to a depth much below 200 feet. The Amalgamated people are not asleep. They have already loaned the Greene company $300,000 and they are in a position to get control of the property when and if it is wanted."

Copper Gossip.

An assessment of $2 per share has been levied on the stock of the Adventure company. Subscriptions for Kitty Burton gold stock will be closed Friday. Any one desiring to secure any of the stock may do so by calling on or writing W. F. Miller at Houghton.

It is said at Boston that as the result of tenders asked for by the navy department recently for 50,000 pounds of casting, delivered at Brooklyn, the order was awarded to a local smelter at 11.74 cents delivered in the Brooklyn navy yard.

The end of the week will witness the completion of the Victoria's water power dam. The structure, of concrete, braced by steel beams, is 600 feet long. During the winter the work of excavating for the water power canal will be proceeded with.

A dispatch from Butte, Mont., says that Senator Clark has announced his intention of abandoning his smelter at Butte, which was recently destroyed by fire. He is now negotiating for a site at Great Falls, where he has obtained an option on a thousand acres of land on the river.

A Boston report says that besides the questions of repair and reduced freight charges, the Old Dominion managers are working upon the wage question. The company has been employing some 350 men, and was forced to advance wages to $3.50 per day when lake copper was commanding 17 cents.

President Fay of the Centennial, Trimountain and other copper properties, who is now at the lake making an inspection of the several mines in which he is interested, is reported as planning for an early radical curtailment of operations at several points pending a readjustment of the copper situation.

People who are close to the management of the Mass Consolidated Mining company say that the drop in the price of the stock last week signifies nothing more than that somebody had some stock to sell and forced it onto the market. When it had been disposed of an easy recovery followed. There was no attempt to shake out weak holdings, nor did the selling mean that the insiders were seeking to accumulate cheap stock prior to a resumption of negotiations for a union with the Adventure mine. Such an alliance, if it comes at all in the future, will come only after the Adventure has clearly demonstrated what it can do in the way of mineral production.

PRIMEAU ENDORSED.

French-Americans of Ishpeming Favor Renomination of Present Official.

A large number of the French-American voters of Ishpeming assembled at the Anderson Hall Sunday afternoon. Political talks were given by J. H. Primeau, register of deeds, who is a candidate for renomination at the Republican county convention to be held at Marquette today, and others. The sentiment of all present was strongly in favor of Mr. Primeau, and so much interest was aroused among the Frenchmen that many of them voted in evidence at the ward caucuses held last evening.

The meeting was presided over by John Charbonneau. A committee on resolutions, consisting of Henry Routhier, August Jacob and Lake Demaree, was named. After a brief recess the committee presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, We are aware of the necessary qualifications for the discharge of the duties of the office of register of deeds for the county of Marquette for which there are two candidates for nomination; therefore be it

"Resolved, That J. H. Primeau is the unanimous choice of the French Canadian voters of the city of Ishpeming for the nomination and election to the important office of register of deeds for the county of Marquette."

There will be about fifty persons participating, included among the performers will be the Hogs of Marquette, and the bar team and tumbler of the Catholic Athletic club of this city, who made a big hit at a minstrel performance given here last winter. A gentleman from the copper country, who does some excellent specialty work, will also assist.

Full orchestra rehearsals will be held nearly every evening next week. All the chorus music is new and the ballads, end songs and "gags" are the latest.

Tickets, good for reserved seats, will be sold at fifty cents. The net proceeds will go to the Ishpeming high school football team.

STRONG COMEDY BILL TONIGHT.

Miss Bertha Gray, one of the talented members of Wm. Gray's "Hunting for Hawkins" company, which plays this city tonight, introduces one of the cleverest Swedish characterizations of the now before the public. Her impersonation of "Maja," a Swedish mail, in "Hunting for Hawkins," has been one of the hits of this season's tour. Besides that of Miss Gray there is other clever character work by several members of the company. Specialties of a high order are introduced, making this attraction an exceptionally strong comedy bill.

WATER FAMINE.

As a result of the bursting of a main yesterday, the entire city was without water from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. The trouble occurred between the pump house and Salisbury. The water was shut off at the lake at 10 o'clock. For a time it looked as though the mines would have to shut down, but, fortunately, the leak was discovered about noon. Repairs were made, so that the water could be turned on at 4 o'clock. This is the first time in the history of the plant that the entire water supply has been shut off.

Loss of Appetite is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla—the best of all tonics.

The cities and townships of the county will be entitled to the following representation at the convention: Marquette city, 19 delegates; Negaunee, 11; Ishpeming, 23; Champion and Tilden townships, 3 each; Republic, 4; Michigamme, 2; Chocoma, Ely, Forsyth, Humboldt, Ishpeming, Marquette, Negaunee, Richmond, Sanda, Scandia, Turin and West Branch townships, one each.

It is understood that a complete county ticket will be placed in nomination, and the legislature from the two districts will also be named.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fiske, 518 North Main street, for the purpose of choosing a delegate to the twelfth district convention, to be held at St. Ignace in the early part of October.

Miss Lydia D. Holmgren, daughter of Street Commissioner Holmgren, and John J. Johnson, will be united in marriage tomorrow evening at the home of the bride's parents. A large number of the young couple's friends have been invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. August Landahl left for Bessemer Sunday night, in response to a telegram announcing the death of Mr. Landahl's sister, Mrs. Conrad Carlson. Mrs. Carlson was well known here, having lived in this city before moving to Crystal Falls.

Miss Rose Rock and J. Robert were married at Schaffer Sunday. Father Corran performed the ceremony. The young couple will spend a week in this city with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rock, after which they will make their home in Schaffer.

Mrs. John Murphy and her four children, Mrs. Michael Sullivan, Mrs. A. J. Lyons and Miss Ada Maher left Sunday night for Butte, Mont. The party will stop a few days in West Superior, Wis. Miss Maher will spend a month in Butte visiting relatives. Mrs. Sullivan will dispose of her property there and return to Ishpeming to live.

The commercial traveling men also, lately refuse to play football, and decline to accept the challenge of the "Old Spavs" to meet them on the gridiron. The "Old Spavs" have, therefore, decided not to organize an eleven. The traveling men will hold a meeting at the Nelson House this week and arrange a program of winter sports. They will probably have an indoor baseball team. The "Old Spavs" will also have an indoor baseball team, and will challenge their old antagonists, the "Drummers."

It is expected that the funeral of the late Mrs. Clucas, who was shot near Mud lake Sunday, will be held tomorrow. The arrangements for the burial are indefinite, pending the arrival of a brother, John Kenna, who is expected

WILL OPEN GOLD MINE.
Former Negaunee Man Interested in the Rainy Lake Property.

The Protege Gold Mine company, of which J. C. Foley, formerly of Negaunee is general manager, has decided to resume operations, and will begin unwatering the mine at once. At a meeting of the stockholders held several weeks ago, it was decided to issue bonds for $1,000,000 to defray the expense of unwatering the mine, and $2,500,000 additional for other expenses preliminary to starting the mill.

General Manager J. C. Foley has returned to the property to superintend the unwatering. Fred J. Hawden, president of the company, and Horace J. Stevens, one of the heaviest stockholders, both of Houghton, made a trip to the property during the latter part of August to ascertain the exact conditions. They were met by Superintendent O. B. Robinson and Manager Foley, and the three made an examination of the property, submitting their report at the stockholders' meeting held several weeks ago. It showed that three-quarters of the openings were filled with water, and a thorough examination of the surface equipment is in first class condition. There is a twelve drill compressor, a twenty stamp mill, two drum hoists and engines, and considerable other equipment, all of which could go into commission within forty-eight hours. The Houghton visitors found much more of a mine than they expected. It was decided that the north shaft would be unwatered at once. This is the big part of the mine, and it has a sufficient amount of stopping ground opened to keep the mill going to its full capacity.

The stockholders of the company evidently have faith in the property. They have authorized the issue of 100,000 shares of treasury stock, to be offered for sale at twenty-five cents a share. The capitalization is 1,500,000 shares at $1 par. Of this 1,000,000 shares are treasury stock, and 400,000 shares were paid as the purchase price of the property. The $25,000 from the sale of treasury stock will be used as a development fund, and it is considered more than adequate to place the mine on a paying basis. All the work is now ready for operation at the property, and another will be procured at once, so that unwatering will commence within a few days.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.
The Teachers' Institute for Marquette county will be held at the Northern Normal, Marquette, Wednesday and Thursday, October 29 and 30. President W. H. Cheever of the Milwaukee Normal will have charge of the sessions. He will be assisted by Professor C. T. Grawn, principal of Michigan Central Normal, Mount Pleasant, Mich. At the close of the institute the Upper Peninsula Educational association will meet, to continue its sessions for the balance of the week. All the schools in Marquette county will be closed, in order that the teachers may attend these meetings. It is expected that the attendance will be large. There are between 1,200 and 1,400 teachers in the upper peninsula, and upwards of 400 will probably be present. The program for the institute and the association meeting are now being arranged and will be announced in due season.

UPPER PENINSULA.
A partridge flew out of the woods back of the court house at Crystal Falls the other afternoon and alighted on the window sill of one of the windows of the sheriff's office. The bird was frightened away by janitor Binder, who allowed no trespassers on the premises.
The other afternoon while the landlord of the Hancock House at Gladstone was absent, two men entered the place and asked for a quick supper. During the absence of the boy in charge on this errand they forced the lock of the show case and stole a few cigars and $35 in money. The men, who proved to be John Giguere and Jess Wanden, were later arrested and have been bound over to the circuit court for trial.
According to the Iron Mountain Gazette, the poundmaster of that city the other night rounded up thirty-one head of cattle which he found roaming the streets. At 4:30 a. m. he went home for lunch, and when he returned the cows had all disappeared—some one had broken into the pound and rescued the whole lot. The paper adds that the official apparently performed a miracle—that of getting thirty-one head of cattle into a pen that will not hold four horses.

RESIGNS HIS POSITION.

He has lived here two years. The vacancy left by his resignation has not yet been filled.

More help will be employed for fall so as to turn work out at the shortest possible notice. (9-23-21)

PLEASANT TO THE TASTE.
One of the most important requirements in a medicine to be given to small children should be that it is pleasant to take. Bad tasting medicines disturb the stomach, destroy the appetite and it is extremely difficult to get children to take them. The pleasant flavor of Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup, the certain cure for dyspepsia, constipation, and biliousness, pleases the most sensitive persons and is the ideal laxative for young children. RACE TRACK HUNCHES.
Are All Hoodlums and Crooked, Says This Old Gambler.

"This business of putting faith in what the betting men call a 'hunch' may be all right," said a member of the green cloth fraternity, "but as far as I am concerned I'll not put any more confidence in the 'hunch.' I'll not bet again on these mysterious wisperings that so and so is a good thing to do; that this card will win, and that horse is a cinch, and that sort of tomfoolery. I had a good 'strong 'hunch'—one that brought my pulse up above the normal, and my hope simply ran riot for a while. In the middle of the night I was suddenly awakened by a violent, distinct voice which said 'Keno!' I opened my eyes and listened again for the voice, and really began to wonder where it was. I thought probably I was sleeping near some place where the game was going on. But then remembered where I was, and recalled the fact that I was several miles from any such place. I thought it was just a dream, a fitful play of the brain, and so I went to sleep again. I had not been asleep long when suddenly the same sound fell on my ear—'Keno!' It was more violent than before. It caused me to straighten up, it was so distinct that I felt that some man with strong lungs had pressed his mouth against my ear and had shrieked with all the wind at his command, 'Keno!' It was a hunch. There was nothing to it. When I arose the next morning every sound I heard seemed to blend into the word 'Keno.' The rattle of the breakfast dishes spelled 'Keno,' the ding-dong of the bells rang out 'Keno,' and the motormen clanged it as they rushed the cars up and down the streets of the city. There was nothing for me to do but to play the 'hunch,' and to play it with all the cash I had. In due time I met a friend of mine and told him about it, and suggested that he meet me next day, after my winnings, and I would buy him a fine dinner. I was worked up over it. I went forth and backed the 'hunch' according to my resolve. The balance of the story is unimportant. Tales of loss are dull and unromantic. I met my friend, 'Keno!' he said laughingly. He took dinner with me on condition that he would not say keno again in my presence. This is my latest experience with the 'hunch.' Other men may believe in 'hunches,' but hereafter when I want to bet I will do it without paying any sort of attention to wisperings and mysterious premonitions. The 'hunch' is a hoo-doo, and of the evil spirit."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

PRIMEAU WINS OUT

CARRIED THE CITY LAST EVENING BY A BIG MARGIN.

GETS SIX OF THE EIGHT WARDS

HE HAS THIRTEEN OF THE NINETEEN LOCAL DELEGATES.

This Result Effectually Flattens Out J. E. Reau's Aspirations to Be Registered—Convention Meets Today.

The voters of Marquette effectually flattened out J. E. Reau's aspirations to succeed J. H. Primeau as register of deeds by electing, last evening, Primeau delegations in six of the eight wards of the city. Reau delegations were elected in the first and second, but in the remaining wards Primeau had things pretty much his own way.

The delegations are: First ward—Ed McCarthy, William Rivers and Mike Shea.

Second ward—James Donovan, J. D. Mangum.

Third ward—B. O. Pearl, M. J. Sherwood, E. W. MacPherson.

Fourth ward—C. E. L'Hullier, W. A. Jellison.

Fifth—Names of delegates not obtainable last evening.

Sixth—Olaf Flodin, Eusebe Bertrand.

Seventh—A. Archambeau, John A. Williams.

Eighth—C. A. Laurier.

Mr. Primeau will go into the convention today with thirteen of the nineteen delegates from this city favorable to his candidacy. This should clinch his nomination.

As a whole, there was considerable interest taken in last night's caucuses. In every instance the supporters of Reau and Primeau were in evidence, although, in a number of cases, the Reau men did not see fit to place their names before the voters, being assured in advance that they would be turned down.

The Reau people had things pretty much their way in the First. There was more or less of a fight in the Second, but here, too, it is asserted, the Reau men controlled the proceedings by a good margin.

The Third ward endorsed Primeau with a rush. There was a big turnout at the caucus, and the ratio of support was about four to one in Mr. Primeau's favor. The Reau slate was not put before the caucus. There was a pretty even fight in the Fourth, the vote checking up thirty-five to twenty-eight against Reau. In the Fifth the Primeau forces had things their own way. The same was true of the Sixth. There was a considerable Reau bunch out in the Seventh, and the vote in the Eighth was sixteen to nine.

On the showing at the caucuses last night there seems to be no doubt that Mr. Primeau is the choice of the majority of the voters of this city for the nomination for register of deeds, and it is highly probable that the convention will ratify Marquette's choice today.

The Reau men last night attributed their lack of success largely to the disinclination of the electorate to break in to the county ticket, which, with the exception of the nomination for register of deeds, has been slated to go through without a fight this year.

The results in Marquette last evening make the convention today more a cut and dried affair than ever. It would not be surprising if the only fights were over one or two of the minor offices.

The Mining Journal was informed last evening that the Reau-Primeau contest was not the prominent factor up the road that it was in Marquette. If Reau had developed more strength here he might have had to be reckoned with in the race today, but Primeau's majority of the delegates will, his friends claim, practically make him the unanimous choice of the convention.

The convention will assemble this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the city hall.

NEW ANCHOR LINE STEAMER.

Freighter Muncie Was Launched Friday at Wyandotte.

The new package freight steamer Muncie, built for the Anchor Line, was launched Friday afternoon at the Wyandotte yards of the Detroit Shipbuilding company.

There were a few anxious moments for the builders just before the big freighter took to the water. The dog shores, placed at the end of the launching ways, to hold the boat until ready for launching, broke at the upper end of the slip and the Muncie's stern began to swing down the ways before the shores were all out.

ARE PAYING DELINQUENT TAXES.

Demand for Northern Michigan Lands Responsible for the Settlements.

A Lansing dispatch says: On account of the demand for lands in northern Michigan, partly due to the organization of land purchasing companies, and partly to the discovery that the pine barrens are worth something after all, delinquent taxes are being paid to the auditor-general on lands that have been returned by the tax gatherer for many years.

Auditor-General Powers was asked last week to give something of an idea of the extent to which delinquent taxes are being paid. He found upon investigation that during the past six months $398,000 had been received in payment of delinquent taxes, while ten years ago the total receipts for an entire year only aggregated $173,000. Taxes have been paid this year at the rate of $31,000 per month, or nearly $2,000 per day for every business day of the period.

The auditor general is inclined to attribute the increase in the payment of delinquent taxes to the confidence in the validity of the tax levies as well as to the increased demand for Michigan lands.

Inquiries looking to the purchase of lands in Northern Michigan are received every day, and the payment of delinquent taxes will probably put to sleep all efforts in the future to provide for a clearing sale of delinquent taxes for what they will bring.

BURTON HOLMES MAY COME.

The Famous Lecturer May Make a Visit to Marquette.

An effort is being made to secure E. Burton Holmes as one of the season's attractions at the opera house about Nov. 1. Mr. Holmes is the successor of John L. Stoddard on the travel lecture platform, and although he has only been before the public ten years, last season over four hundred thousand people paid to hear him. His subjects were: Poland, Finland, Russia, Siberia, Korea, the "Hermit Nation," and Pekin, the "Forbidden City."

In Chicago he appeared at the Studebaker theatre for three consecutive weeks to packed houses, and he was even more popular in New York, where he lectured at Daly's theatre for four weeks to "standing room only" houses. His versatile entertainer illustrates his lectures with both motion and stereopticon pictures, taken in the countries which he has studied and explored. It is to be hoped that Marquette can hear him, for John L. Stoddard his predecessor, never came nearer than Chicago, and Mr. Holmes can only be gotten here on a date before his regular season for the big cities opens on Nov. 3rd. He will not be brought here unless considerable interest is manifested as his price is $500 for each appearance, and Oshkosh and Marinette both want the same date.

YAKIMA IS FREED

SCHENCK AND FOUR STEAMERS PULLED HER OFF THE ROCKS.

WORK WAS ACCOMPLISHED SUNDAY

CRAFT WAS IN VERY PERILOUS POSITION FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

If the Weather Had Been Rough She Would, in All Probability, Have Been Broken to Pieces by the Waves.

The steamer Yakima, owned by J. C. Gilchrist of Cleveland, which ran on the rocks at Bay Bete de Gris, Keweenaw Point, last Wednesday, was released about 4 p. m. Sunday by the united effort of four steamers—Yankee, Massachusetts, Maytham and Cumberland, aided by the tug Schenck of this harbor.

The Yakima ran on the rocks in broad daylight, about 6 p. m., while going to the assistance of the steamer City of Rome, another Gilchrist craft which had also gotten into trouble at Bay Bete de Gris. There is a reasonable explanation of the Yakima's mishap, except the carelessness of the men handling her.

The City of Rome is on her way to the lower lakes, having touched here the latter part of last week. The Yakima went on to Duluth.

The harbor tug Schenck, Captain W. H. Bowen commanding, had not a little to do with the successful release of the Yakima. Captain Bowen was informed Thursday of the steamer's plight, and at once sailed for Bete de Gris. There, with two steamers, the Schenck tugged and pulled at the stranded craft Friday, with the appreciable result.

Saturday the Schenck returned to this port for further orders. Instructions were received to hire a gang of men to shift the Yakima's coal. Captain Bowen picked up twenty-one hands and returned to Bete de Gris. This force began on the coal at midnight Saturday and in nine hours, by 9 a. m. Sunday, had it moved forward. The steamer was lifted when she went ashore, and the shifting of her coal forward had the effect of making her rest easier on the rocks.

When this was done, the steamers Volunteer, Massachusetts, Maytham and Cumberland began pulling on the stranded Yakima, the Schenck running to Houghton for a tow line for her own use. When she returned, Captain Bowen found that the quartet of steamers had not succeeded in accomplishing anything, but the Schenck supplied just the additional power necessary to obtain results, and when she joined in the work, the Yakima slipped from her dangerous position, about 4 p. m.

Examination showed that she had lost her rudder shoe and that her rudder was dislocated. She proceeded to the head-of-the-lakes, where she will be dry docked.

It was a fortunate circumstance that the Yakima was on the rocks during a spell of fair weather. It had been rough she would have been, in all probability, broken to pieces by the waves.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

L. E. Granger Gives Data on the Beet Sugar Industry.

L. E. Granger, of the State Agricultural college at Lansing, in a Menominee the other day and made some pertinent remarks relative to beet sugar culture. Among other things Mr. Granger said:

"The introduction of the culture of the sugar beet with the establishment of the refining plant in Lansing is the best thing that ever happened in the history of the capital city," said Mr. Granger.

"Just think of it!" he continued; "during the season every man, woman, boy and girl that work earns from $1.50 to $2.50 a day, and even at these wages there is a decided dearth of help. Boys and girls between the ages of eight years and ten years receive from $1.50 to $1.75 a day, while the average woman gets from $2 to $2.50. During the time for pulling the wages paid from $1.50 to $3. Time was, and it is not so long ago at that, when Lansing was practically a dead town, but today the wonderful change that has been wrought would surprise those who knew the city in the past. Two years ago nearly every other store was adorned with a 'For Rent' sign, and there was a general exodus of the population seeking richer localities. Today there is not a single available foot of store space that is not occupied, and it is absolutely impossible to rent a dwelling house. In the last year at least 370 new and handsome houses have been built and others are now in course of construction.

"Boys and girls, who formerly were more or less shiftless and poorly dressed, are now wearing tailor-made clothing for which they do not hesitate to pay first-class prices. Of course, they can afford it, as they receive more wages than their fathers did two years ago. All the old houses around town that were formerly neglected and allowed to go to rack and ruin for want of repairs, are now resplendent in new coats of paint, and in many cases spacious and commodious additions have been built. Mortgages are now a thing of the past, and the grocers are all wearing happy smiles because of the absence of any uncertainty in credit trade.

"And, in a word, the cause of this state of wonderful prosperity is simply the sugar beet. Next season will eclipse all others, as every farmer who signed one of the first contracts has either doubled or greatly increased his acreage for the next crop. As an illustration of the value of a crop of this vegetable, I may mention that tracts of land in the county that were practically abandoned and never touched by a plow in the last five years are now being readily rented at $7 an acre. And, while I think of it, I must tell you of an experiment we made last year. We received twenty-four average western steers and fed them on the beet pulp, after the sugar had been extracted, for a season. These we entered at the Chicago livestock exhibition, and the animal we selected for the prize class was judged fifth on the hoof and first when dressed, which was a wonderful showing.

"It is without doubt the greatest blessing that has ever been showered upon the farmer," asserted Mr. Granger with enthusiasm, "and the beauty of the thing is that each year the profits will grow greater and greater, as the demand for sugar is continually on the increase. My words, that when the refining plant gets running in Menominee there will be no vacant stores, and one enterprise, such as the refinery we have in Lansing, is far better than a half dozen saw mills."

COPPERS OFF.

Decline in the Metal in London Caused Them to Sag.

Paine, Webber & Co. said: "A decline of nearly one pound in London copper quotations, and the firmer tone of the money market caused a slight sagging tendency in copper stocks today. There was no pressure to sell, however. Holders of coppers apparently are content to wait until the improving market shows an opportunity to sell for themselves in the stock market quotations. We believe good coppers should be bought on any further reaction."

Hayden, Stone & Co. said: "Coppers were weak today on account of the weakness in the metal market, which was lower in London. The only thing of importance was an assessment of $2, called on Adventure, payable Oct. 15. From Oct. 25 interest will be charged at the rate of 6 per cent."

Wheat Scores Advance.

W. H. Laidley said of the Chicago markets: "The wheat market opened strong, at about Saturday's close, and the September option had a sensational advance of 4 1/2¢ closing at the top. The more distant options advanced 3/4 of a cent. The covering by shorts was a good deal for cash wheat at a premium over the September were responsible for the sharp advance. The cables were strong, but the market reflected our advance of Saturday. The world's shipments were large, America contributing very liberally. The passage statement showed a decrease of 1,200,000 bushels. The visible supply statement showed an increase of 470,000. We have consistently advised the purchase of wheat for higher prices, and we believe that the December option will sell much higher, and that every reaction should be taken advantage of to purchase wheat.

"Corn opened strong and followed about the same course as wheat, the September option closing 3/4¢ above Saturday. The world's shipments were small, America contributing very lightly. The receipts were fair and the estimates a little larger. The visible supply statement showed a decrease of 167,000 bushels. The September option is doubtless more or less manipulated, but the scarcity of corn and the good cash demand warrant higher prices. However, we believe we would wait for some little reaction before buying.
