GLOUCESTER FISHING SCHOONER IS LOST IN NOVA SCOTIA.

RUNS INTO A CLIFF IN A FOG

OF THE CREW OF EIGHTEEN MEN BUT THREE SURVIVE.

These Clamber Up the Rocks Before the Vessel Is Carried Back While the Others, One by One, Are Swept from the Wreckage.

Ganso, N. S., May 6.—The American fishing schooner Gloriana, of Gloucester, Mass., ran ashore on the cliffs at Whale Cove during a fog last night, and fifteen of her crew, including the captain, were drowned out of a total of eighteen.

When the Gloriana struck the ledges she passed over the outer ones, but brought up on the inner reef, but against the cliff of rocks and fell into the sea. When the vessel struck the cliff three men—Richards, LeBlanc and Nickerson—who were on deck, ran forward, rushed out on the bowsprit, and climbed up the cliff to a place of safety before the receding wave carried the vessel off.

The others of the crew, who were below, rushed on deck, half clad, and lowered the dories. As soon as each boat touched the water it was smashed into pieces. The men resorted to every means of escape, but all failed and one by one they were swept away.

The three survivors spent a terrible night on the cliffs. When daylight dawned they saw one man still clinging to the rigging. They secured assistance and the man was taken from the rigging, but he was dead. The vessel was gradually dashed to pieces.

French Fishermen Rescued at Sea.

New York, May 6.—Twenty-three survivors of the crew of the French fishing brig Ile de Terre Neuve arrived here today on the steamer Phoenix from Hamburg. The Ile de Terre Neuve was swept by a hurricane on April 26. Seven of her men were washed overboard, and of these four were rescued and three were drowned.

GOTHAM TEAMSTERS LOCKED OUT.

No Brick or Lumber to Be Delivered Pending Strike Settlement.

New York, May 6.—All the brick yards of the city today began a lockout against the drivers, and the decision of the lumber yard owners to start a similar lockout was announced this evening. This means that no brick or lumber will be delivered after today until the building trades disturbances are settled.

Omaha Strikers Enjoyed.

Omaha, May 6.—Several delivery companies started their wagons this morning, owners and foremen acting in the capacity of drivers. Every saloon in the city is closed.

Judge Menger, of the federal court, tonight issued a sweeping injunction against the 3,000 strikers. The order restrains the men from interfering with freight between warehouses and depots or destined for other states, from congregating in large crowds on the street and making loud noises, or in any way interfering with the transaction of business.

STRIKE AT PACKING HOUSES.

Engineers in the Employ of Eight Concerns Out at Chicago.

Chicago, May 6.—The engineers of eight packing houses struck today on account of the alleged discrimination of one firm in discharging two engineers. The union has been dissatisfied with the award of the arbiters who settled the present strike, and it is alleged they have seized upon this incident to enforce the union scale.

Traction Men Out at Dubuque.

Dubuque, Ia., May 6.—The motormen and conductors tonight struck, tying up the street car system. They demand the reinstatement of five officers of the local union who were discharged.

Eastern Glove Factories Closed.

Gloversville, N. Y., May 6.—Thirty-two hundred operatives were made idle today owing to a lockout declared by the glove manufacturers' association at Gloversville and Johnstown.

STRIKE FOR ANOTHER INCREASE.

Employees of Eight Chicago Binderies Now Out for Higher Wages.

Chicago, May 6.—The employees of four more book binding firms joined the strike today, making the total number of firms afflicted eight. In March last the bookbinders asked for an increase in wages. Committees representing the local union and the employers agreed upon an advance of 20 per cent. to take effect on May 1. Today the binders asked a further advance, and as it was not granted the employees of four establishments walked out. The employers have made a contract with their men, and insist it shall be lived up to.

FAST LAKE STEAMER LAUNCHED.

Port Huron, Mich., May 6.—The steel twin screw passenger steamer Eastland, which it is believed will be one of the fastest boats on the great lakes, was launched this afternoon.

PRETENDER REPORTED DEAD.

Medina, Morocco, May 6.—It is rumored here that the pretender has been assassinated in the rebel camp at Zelanan.

GIRL KILLED BY ROBBER.

Massachusetts Young Woman Dies in Shielding Her Father.

Medford, Mass., Thursday, May 7.—Vellie Sturtevant, daughter of Treasurer Sturtevant, of the Medford County Operative bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. An Italian answering the description of the murderer has been arrested on suspicion.

As Sturtevant stepped upon the porch of his residence his wife and daughter opened the door to greet him. The same moment a man suddenly appeared, revolver in hand, and ordered Sturtevant to hold up his hands. The daughter stepped in front of her father to shield him just as the man fired, and she fell dead. Miss Sturtevant was shot through the right temple. As she fell the man grabbed the chateau bag she was carrying and escaped with it. The bag contained only a small amount.

HE VISITS GRAND CANON.

President Spends the Day in an Exploring Tour in Arizona.

Grand Canon, Ariz., May 6.—President Roosevelt spent the day in sight-seeing in Grand Canon, Ariz. His special train arrived at nine this morning. Horses were in waiting for the party and several expeditions were soon formed for the purpose of exploring the canon. The train left here at six this evening and will arrive at Barstow, Cal., at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

When the president returned from his twelve-mile ride he made a brief address to the people and presented diplomas to the graduates of the Flagstaff school. In his address he praised the bravery of the Arizona members of his Rough Riders regiment, and also spoke of the irrigation laws passed by congress.

U. S. WILL SUSTAIN HIM.

President of Colombia Can Ratify Treaty Without Assent of Congress.

Washington, May 6.—The reports from Colombia of opposition to the canal bill do not discourage the officials here. The United States has gone so far in the negotiations that confidence is felt that President Marroquin will feel bound to carry out the agreement. The Colombian constitution provides for enlarging the powers of the president in certain contingencies, and it is probable that on the slightest indication of forcible opposition, as has been hinted, President Marroquin may go to the lengths of ratifying the treaty without the assent of congress. If he does, the United States will sustain the titles thus acquired.

WOMAN SHOTS THREE.

Dance in Lower Michigan Ends in a Fight and a Tragedy.

Bay City, Mich., May 6.—During a free fight last night at a dance in Big Creek, Tuscola county, Dave Trombley of West Bay City was shot dead; Harry Schindler, aged thirty, of Bay City, was fatally stabbed, and Frank Defoe, aged twenty-eight, was seriously cut. All three were fishermen. Mrs. Alston Roworth of Wisner did the shooting, but claims it was accidental.

DENY POOL IN COAL ILLEGAL.

Fact of Agreement Admitted by Indiana and Illinois Operators.

Chicago, May 6.—In an answer filed in the federal court today, the Indiana and Illinois coal operators who were recently made the defendants in a case started by the government admitted that they had been acting for a time under an agreement, but denied there was any unlawful combination to fix the prices of their production.

MILL POND PROVES DEATH TRAP.

Man Who Flees to Water from Forest Fire Is Burned by Floating Oil.

Tionesta, Pa., May 6.—Standing in a mill pond with water up to his neck, where he had gone to escape a forest fire, Walter Boyd, owner of a shingle mill near Tionesta, was burned to death. A tank of oil exploded, and the burning fluid covered the man.

MOTHER GETS THE CHILDREN.

Guardianship Clause of Burdick's Will Declared Null and Void.

Buffalo, May 6.—The county surrogate today declared the provision in Burdick's will which directed that the children be under the guardianship of his executors, null and void. As a result Mrs. Burdick will get the custody of the children.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTEST.

Returns Show Democrat Elected Mayor at Baltimore by 500.

Baltimore, May 6.—The Republicans have decided to contest the apparent election of Robert M. McLane, Democrat, as mayor. The returns indicate a majority of about 500 for McLane.

FILIPINOS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Manila, May 6.—Colonel Abrardo Santos and Colonel Marcelo Delarosa, leaders of the recent insurrection in Rizal province, have been convicted of brigandage and conspiracy and sentenced to death. The date of the execution has not been fixed, as the supreme court must review the case.

London, May 6.—The house of commons today passed a formal resolution guaranteeing the Transvaal loan of $175,000,000.

BATTLE IS FEARED

BLOODSHED THREATENS IN BREATHITT COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

FUD FACTIONS PREPARE FOR WAR

RELATIVES OF ATTORNEY MARCUM CLAMOR FOR VENGEANCE.

Governor Offers a Reward for Arrest of the Assassin and Will Be Asked by Non-Combatants to Take Steps to Bring About Peace.

Jackson, Ky., May 6.—People not involved in the feud contemplate calling on Governor Beckham to bring peace to Breathitt county. It is expected that the contingent with which Marcum was allied, which includes the influential family of Postmaster Hurst, Marcum's father-in-law, are uniting against the Cockrell family with a view of precipitating a fight. Conservative citizens who are acquainted with either family are not surprised at the report.

Warning Came Too Late.

Lexington, Ky., May 6.—A messenger who left the interior of Breathitt county at dawn on Monday to bear a warning to Attorney Marcum that a plot to kill him had been formed the night before reached Jackson a few minutes after Marcum's death. Sunday night Edward Strong, a friend of Marcum, was informed a conspiracy had been entered into at a meeting of several desperate men at a blind tiger three miles from Jackson to assassinate Marcum on Monday. At daylight he sent a messenger to warn Marcum.

War Declared Inevitable.

Lexington, Ky., Thursday, May 7.—A newspaper man who has arrived from Jackson says the situation there "can only be compared to a man sitting on a barrel of powder in a shower of sparks. When the explosion will come no one knows, but I believe it is inevitable. At least three men know who assassinated James Marcum, and though they are silent it is believed their doom is sealed. Such knowledge in Breathitt county means death or exile. There are also others left who know who assassinated Jim Cockrell. They will not be overlooked. If these people remain or there is the possibility of a rigid investigation by law, I believe they will be put out of the way at an early day.

Several families are preparing to follow the example of over fifty people who during the last six months have fled from the county. The male members will leave immediately, and when they have found a home the women and children will follow.

Reward Offered for Assassin.

Frankfort, Ky., May 6.—Governor Beckham this afternoon, on the request of the judge of Breathitt county, offered $500 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the assassin of Hon. J. B. Marcum. This is the highest reward permitted by the law.

KAISER LEAVES FOR HOME.

Popular Ovation Marks His Departure from the Italian Capital.

Rome, May 6.—Emperor William left Rome this afternoon amidst the cheers of a great crowd assembled at the railroad station. The people gave the emperor a touching farewell. They seemed to want to show their appreciation of all his manifestations of friendship, which have had the effect of making him extremely popular. The streets from the quai to the station were lined with thousands of people, cheering, waving handkerchiefs and shouting "Long live William."

The emperor bade farewell to Queen Helena at the palace, expressing his thanks for the kind reception given him. At the station he found the authorities assembled and to them he expressed cordially his appreciation of the efforts they had made in his behalf. To Prince Colonna, he said that Rome was the city he most enjoyed, that it was the place more than any other that appealed to his heart and mind.

ALL NATIONS TO PARTICIPATE.

President Names Delegates to the International Red Cross Conference.

Washington, May 6.—The delegates to represent the United States at the international conference at Geneva, Switzerland, next September for the purpose of revising and extending the Geneva treaty of 1864 under which the various Red Cross societies are recognized have been designated by the president. They are Frank B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state; General George B. Davis, judge advocate general of the army, and Commander Nathan Sargent of the United States navy.

The chief topics to be considered look to the amelioration of the suffering and horrors of war. All the principal nations will take part in the conference. It is proposed to provide for a careful examination of the bodies of the dead on the field so as to prevent consigning living men to the grave, also to provide that each soldier shall bear on his person a mark to establish his identity. The suggestion will be made that field hospitals and other temporary establishments

ONCE WORTH MILLIONS.

Col. Asa Stanford Dies in Poverty at New York.

New York, May 6.—Colonel Asa Philip Stanford, brother of the late Senator Leland Stanford of California, died today, aged sixty-one. At one time the deceased was a millionaire, but according to his wife, who survives him, he died in almost absolute poverty.

POWERS WARNED BY BRITAIN.

A "Monroe Doctrine" in the Persian Gulf Proclaimed at London.

London, May 6.—Foreign Secretary Lansdowne has proclaimed a British Monroe doctrine in the Persian gulf and has practically notified the competing powers that any attempt on their part to establish a naval fortified post in those waters means war with Great Britain.

BLOODY RIOT IN RUSSIA.

Striking Seamen and Soldiers Engage in Battle at Kronstadt.

London, Thursday, May 7.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says a riot occurred Monday in connection with the strike of seamen at Kronstadt. Infantry was called out and clashed with the strikers. Two hundred and sixty-two persons were injured, and three infantry officers were killed.

ESCORT DIED BY HER HAND.

Mrs. A. L. Schissler of Milwaukee Now Exonerates Her Convicted Husband.

Milwaukee, May 6.—Mrs. A. L. Schissler now declares that F. William Reul of Watertown, Wis., died by her hand on the night of Nov. 25 last. In a letter to her husband's attorney, Mrs. Schissler today gives her version of the shooting of her escort. While the revolver was held in her husband's hand, it was her hand which pulled the trigger, accidentally, and caused Reul's death. Schissler was convicted of murder in the second degree on April 25, and pending the argument for a new trial sentence was stayed.

DEATH WINS RACE.

Australian Brewer Dies in Chicago as Son Lands at San Francisco.

Chicago, May 6.—J. T. Tooley, an Australian brewer, died here today. A year ago he went to England to consult specialists for the treatment of consumption. Receiving no encouragement he decided to return to Australia to see his son before dying. He called his son to meet him in San Francisco. Both started for the meeting place. The father reached Chicago Saturday in such condition the physicians would not allow him to proceed. Early this morning Tooley died and a few minutes later a message came from his son announcing his arrival at San Francisco. Tonight the body was shipped to Australia.

BULGARIA ANGERS TURKEY.

Sharp Note Is Dispatched by the Porte to the Principality.

Constantinople, May 6.—The irritation in Turkish official circles against Bulgaria is constantly growing more acute. The government of that principality has been formally notified in rigorous language that the Porte holds it responsible for the outrages arising from the freedom of action which Macedonian agitators living in Bulgaria have been allowed.

Reported Massacre a Hoax.

Vienna, May 6.—The statement that 900 Christian inhabitants of Novi Bazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems, published by a news agency in the United States, is regarded as a pure invention. A large force of Austrian troops is stationed on the borders of the Sanjak, near Novi Bazar, and no reports of any disturbances in that region have been received.

POSTAL INQUIRY IS EXTENDED.

All First-Class Offices to Be Included in the Investigation.

Washington, May 6.—It has been decided that the postoffice investigation shall cover all first-class postoffices whose annual receipts aggregate half a million dollars. The postmaster general said today that the present administrative methods of the postal service were put in operation fourteen years ago, and since then the business of the department has troubled. He said that it might be that some of the methods were faulty and the practices irregular, and that the investigation would be made in the hope of initiating new and better methods as well as correcting abuses.

ARMED FORCE EXPELS MONKS.

Paris, May 6.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says that the Capuchins who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days were expelled today by police and soldiers.

WHITE LINE BUYS NEW BOAT. Steamer Easton to Replace the Troquois on Duluth-Copperdom Route.

The Mining Journal is informed that Captain W. H. Singer, of the White Line, Duluth, has purchased the steamer Easton from the Dunkley-Williams Transportation company of South Haven for the Duluth, Portage Lake, Isle Royale and Port Arthur route. The price paid for the boat was $50,000. It will replace the steamer Troquois, which was sold late last summer at a handsome figure to Eastern parties. The new craft will not be put on until the first of June, when the passenger and tourist business on Lake Superior will begin to assume good proportions.

The Easton, which was formerly on the run between South Haven and Duluth, is not as large as the Troquois, but it is said it will nicely answer every purpose. Its net tonnage is 313. Its length is 154 feet and beam thirty feet. It was built in 1896. The boat is handsomely finished and is well provided with conveniences for the benefit of passengers. The net tonnage of the Troquois is 795; length, 214 feet; and beam, 34 feet. The Troquois was generally considered too large a craft for the Lake Superior trade and last season, it is said, it just about paid expenses. The Easton, it is believed, will have no trouble taking care of the business which comes its way. The speed of the steamer is sixteen miles an hour. Before purchasing the boat Captain Singer looked at several others and finally decided that the Easton was the best adapted to the route.

Since it was first announced that Captain Singer was looking for another boat to replace the Troquois on the Lake Superior run, many people have been curious to know what sort of a craft would finally be selected. Upon the captain's last visit to Houghton he stated that a boat had recently been decided upon, but that he was not then in a position to give out its name. The deal for the Easton was closed on Monday. Captain Singer never thought of giving up the route between Houghton, Isle Royale and Port Arthur after the sale of the Troquois. The price offered for the boat was simply too good an inducement to refuse and it was accepted. Since the disposal of the craft he has been anxious to continue the semi-weekly service between Duluth and Houghton, and Houghton, Isle Royale and Port Arthur. Although the tourist business to Isle Royale is not large it is almost sure to expand. Special inducements to copper country people and others to visit the delightful resort will be made this summer.

MACCABEE COUNTY REUNION. Change of Date to Next Saturday in June Is Favored.

The reunion of the Maccabee lodges of the county will probably be held on Saturday, June 13, at Hancock, instead of on Thursday, June 11, the date originally set for the occasion. June 13 was virtually decided upon at a meeting of the executive committee of Kilpi tent, Finnish Knights, under whose auspices the gathering will be held, at a meeting Tuesday evening, Thursday, June 11, was not favored by many members of the order. Saturday is thought a better day in more ways than one and if June 13 is not finally selected, Saturday, June 20, will be. Nothing in the way of a program has yet been decided upon but plans will be made for a big celebration. An effort will be made to induce Major Boynton, the founder of the order, to visit Hancock. Another meeting of the tent will be held next Sunday.

BALL GAME SATURDAY. The Calumet baseball team will play the Young Men's Catholic club team of Laurium at Athletic Park Saturday afternoon. The latter aggregation does not pretend to be in the same class as the former, but both teams expect to get some good practice in the match. Some of the players on Calumet's team have not yet been assigned regular positions. Providing the weather is favorable Saturday a large crowd will undoubtedly see the game.

WHEN YOUR COSTLY WATCH is out of order you have it regulated; you don't at once throw it aside. Why, then, when your bowels are out of order, do you treat them as useless? That is precisely what it means to take violent cathartics. They do not regulate the bowels, but take their work away from them, debilitate them, and make you more constipated than ever. You had far better throw away your rough watch than treat your bowels roughly. You can get another watch, but you cannot renew your intestines. The only cure for Constipation is a gentle laxative with tonic action.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT. Libel Suit of Rev. John Back vs. Herman Aho Is Dropped.

The libel suit instituted by Rev. John Back, pastor of the Finnish church of Hancock against Herman Aho, also of Hancock, for $10,000 damages, was dismissed in the circuit court and the jurors were discharged yesterday morning. The principals in the litigation got together and settled the matter out of court. The case was dropped on the request of the Rev. Mr. Back, who paid the costs. It is said that the defendant had several witnesses to swear that the reverend gentleman did drink wine at weddings, as alleged. To offset this the latter, it is reported, admitted that he had partaken of wine on such occasions, but that he did not know it was of the intoxicating kind.

On the dismissal of this case, that of William Hodge versus the Tamarack Mining company was taken up. Hodge sued the mining company for wages he claimed were due him and a jury in justice court at Calumet gave a judgment. McDonald, Power & McCormick of Calumet are Hodge's attorneys, while Gray & Stone of Houghton are handling the case for the mining company.

BLAMES WOMAN FOR TROUBLES. Mrs. Anna Navarre Contemplating a Suit for Heavy Damages.

Mrs. Anna Navarre of Hancock, who has been presumably deserted by her husband, Nelson Navarre, mention of which was made in these columns in Tuesday's issue, intends to institute proceedings against the woman whom she claims, broke up her home. The woman in question is a resident of Hancock and is prominent in church and society circles. Mrs. Navarre stated yesterday that she would probably sue for $10,000 damages and that she had already consulted attorneys in regard to the matter. She has decided not to go to Sault Ste. Marie, as was stated, to open dermatology parlors for the support of herself and daughter, but will remain in Hancock to like to prosecute the action against the woman whom she alleges has been the cause of her domestic troubles. The present whereabouts of her husband are unknown to her and it is not believed that Navarre will return to this region. Before her marriage Mrs. Navarre was employed as a saleslady in Marshall Field & Co.'s store at Chicago.

MEETING WILL BE IMPORTANT. Hancock Y. M. C. A. Directors to Give Finance Serious Consideration.

The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Hancock Y. M. C. A. was set for Tuesday evening, but owing to the absence of General Secretary W. H. Wing no business of importance was transacted. An adjournment was taken until Friday afternoon. Mr. Wing left on Tuesday afternoon for Chicago to secure speakers for the annual association banquet, the date of which has not been determined upon. It is the intention to make the banquet this year an occasion long to be remembered in local Y. M. C. A. circles. An effort will be made to awaken a greater interest in the work of the association by the Hancock boys to take place about May 23. It is thought a preliminary event of the kind would result beneficially to both teams.

The state tax commission will not visit the copper country this year, it is said, as there will be nothing here for it to do. A. H. Ralph, one of the tax experts in the employ of the commission, was recently in Calumet conferring with A. W. Kerr, the local member of the commission, in regard to the hearings the commission will give tax assessing officials in the eastern part of the peninsula in respect to township assessments.

TEXT OF NEW FISH LAW. The important portion of the Bolton law, relating to fishing, which was recently enacted by the state legislature, much to the surprise of fishermen who did expect the measure to go through for some time without further alterations, reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to kill or capture, in any manner whatever, in any of the waters of the state, or to have in possession any brook trout, speckled trout, Loch Leven trout, steel-head trout, or grayling of a size less than seven inches in length. Hereafter it shall not be lawful for any person to catch, by any means whatever, any brook trout, Loch Leven trout, steel-head trout, or grayling, or California trout, from any stream, in which brook trout, Loch Leven trout, or grayling or California trout are not native, and which may have been stocked with such fish by the state board of fish commissioners for the period of four years after the first planting of any such fish therein.

It shall be unlawful for any person under the penalties provided in Section 14 of this act to kill or capture in any of the lakes, rivers or streams in this state or any of their tributaries more than fifty fish of any of the kinds herebefore mentioned in any one day, or to take away with him therefrom or to have in his possession at any point therefrom more than 100 fish of said kinds at any one time. This act is ordered to take immediate effect."

QUICK ARREST. J. A. Gullidge of Verdena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. DULUTH TROUPE MAY COME.

Upper Peninsula Opera House Managers Asked for Dates for "Carmen."

C. A. Marshall, manager of the Lyceum theater at Duluth, is negotiating with the managers of the Hancock, Calumet and Marquette theaters for dates for a proposed tour of George L. Tyler's production of "Carmen" in the upper peninsula. The troupe is a local one and providing satisfactory arrangements can be made all scenery and properties used in the big production at Duluth will be brought along. A number of upper peninsula people attended the performance at Duluth and were greatly impressed with it.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES. President Agassiz, of the Calumet & Hecla company, and E. D. Leavitt, consulting engineer, are Calumet visitors.

The Gardner estate property near the corner of Fifth and Oak streets, Calumet, was bid in by E. L. Ulseth for $7,225 at Tuesday's sale.

The steamer Bon Ami, of the White Line, is in dry dock at Duluth undergoing repairs. She will soon be ready to resume her regular trips to Portage Lake.

Avery T. Hanson, the Laurium attorney, who is largely interested in the Copper Glance property in the Warren district, has left for Arizona to visit the property.

For catching brook trout less than seven inches in length Adolph Schulte, of Calumet, was fined $5 and costs in Justice Fisher's court. Game warden Vivian made the complaint against him.

The Lake Superior water consumed in domestic use by the residents of the village of Red Jacket during the month of April amounted to 1,600,228 gallons. Of pond water, 8,271,234 gallons were used.

Chase S. Osborn and family, who have been touring Europe during the past few months, are now visiting cities and points of interest in Finland. They will also spend some time in Norway and Sweden.

Today is the tenth anniversary of the organization of St. Joseph's court, Catholic Order of Foresters, Lake Linden. The occasion will be observed by a social party at the opera house this evening. The City orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

Dr. W. H. Dodge, of Hancock, and Dr. M. M. Kerr, of Calumet, are in New Orleans to attend the annual meeting of the American Medical association. Dr. Dodge expects to return in a fortnight. On his way back he will stop at Elizabethtown, Ky., to pay a short visit to his parents.

The Calumet Elks will hold their annual charity ball at the Red Jacket town hall Friday evening. The members of the lodge are selling tickets for the event. One of the Calumet & Hecla orchestras will furnish the music and an enjoyable time is anticipated. It is expected that a considerable sum will be cleared for the benefit of the needy poor.

A dual athletic meet between the Hancock and Houghton high school teams, which will participate in the annual meet of the Upper Peninsula Inter-scholastic association at Ishpeming on May 30, is favored by the Hancock boys to take place about May 23. It is thought a preliminary event of the kind would result beneficially to both teams.

The passenger department of the Chicago & Northwestern railway announces that a special train has been arranged for account the general Presbyterian assembly at Los Angeles, to leave Chicago 10:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 13th, with through Pullman standard and Pullman tourist sleeping cars from Chicago to Los Angeles without change.

The route is over the only double track railway between Chicago and the Missouri river, and via Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City and Sacramento to Los Angeles. The special will stop a few hours for sight-seeing at Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City and Sacramento, spending the Sabbath at Salt Lake.

Only $50 for the round trip from Chicago, with correspondingly low rates from other points. Apply to E. C. Griffin, general agent, Chicago & Northwestern railway, Houghton, Mich. (5-7-54)

MINING NEWS

Copper closed 1 1/2 higher at London yesterday for spot and 1 1/2 for futures, both positions being quoted at $61.75, 6d. There was no change in the New York metal exchange figures, which were 14.50@14.75 for Lake, electrolytic and casting.

The repairs to the Adventure stamp mill having been completed by the Allis-Chalmers company of Chicago, all three heads are now in commission. The mill will operate during the day shift only, as the mine openings are not large enough to supply the plant its full quota of rock. Under this arrangement the Adventure should make about 180 tons of copper per month.

Rock from the Wolverine mine averaged thirty-one and one-half pounds of refined copper to the ton last month. Its record for a mine that was considered next to worthless ten years ago is a wonderful one. This year the Wolverine will make about 10,000,000 pounds of ingot copper. Assured a permanent fifteen-cent copper market and its earnings should reach $10 per share.

Some faint idea of what a wonderful mine the Copper Queen mine at Bisbee is, can be had when it is stated that it has 140 miles of drifts and tunnels alone. It used underground 11,000,000 feet of lumber in 1901. Its production of copper for that year was 20,000 tons. It employs 1,800 men. Its new smelter now being built at Douglas, which will have a capacity of treating 1,800 tons of ore every twenty-four hours, is almost completed.

Opening work in the territory tributary to No. 5 shaft of the Tamarack mine is progressing steadily. About twenty-five drills are in commission and drifts are opening at the rate of 500 feet a month. While the present output of No. 5 shaft is comparatively small, averaging only 500 tons of rock daily, it will be increased gradually. An enormous amount of ground is tributary to this shaft and within a few years the production will be very large.

A REPLY FROM MR. HANSON. Laurium, Mich., May 5, 1903.

To the Public-A newspaper controversy, and especially one with the penitile but bumptious editor of a cheap weekly, is neither pleasant to the public nor profitable to the participant, and thus far I have not replied to Newett's attacks, relying on the fact that every one to whom I sold Copper Glance knew full well that I never for one moment advertised, nor once stated, that the Glance had ore bodies or that its shaft was bottomed in ore of any character, and I challenge Newett to produce a single man or woman who will stand before me and say that I told them otherwise, or to show a single advertisement of mine to prove the truth of his assertions. I have always stated that the Glance shaft was bottomed in soft limestone but that the officers expected a strike or ore soon after sinking was resumed.

As to my not replying, about which he twitted me, I must inform the gentleman that it has never been my practice to kick at every cur that snarls at me and I therefore left it to the people to whom I had sold stock to check the man's malicious lies, and his glorious consumption of our hopes in the Glance to vindicate my every claim for it. He does not even know my residence as he locates me at Hancock. When his first misstatement was published I thought of replying, but before doing so called on two friends who had resided in the Glance for years, to learn something of him. Both advised me not to answer, as it is a common practice of his to attack anything that will serve to give him a little notoriety. Knowing the wide distribution of the Glance, Newett jumped onto it, hoping by his mouth-pieces to secure cheap notoriety and perchance revive his sheet's scant and disbanding circulation.

While at Marquette last March, just prior to my stop at Ishpeming, a dark heavy set man called on me at the Hotel Clinton and when asked my name whispered to me "See Newett," who he said had just returned from Bisbee. I neither knew nor cared who Newett was and would never have thought of the incident again had not this controversy arisen. Possibly had I seen Newett he would have taken a more golden view of the prospects of the Glance. I no more desire to see him now than I did then, in fact, the only way to get along with Newett is to keep to windward of him.

A CLEANLY AGE. Twentieth century ideas incline toward Sanitation and Preventatives.

Nowadays scientists believe that in cleanliness lies the secret of prevention of diseases. To prevent a disease, remove the cause. Just as unclean habits breed many diseases, so careless habits will breed dandruff. Improper use of another's brushes, combs, etc. will surely cause dandruff, and, in time, will just as surely cause baldness. It's microbial infection, nothing more nor less. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and causes hair to grow luxuriantly. Herpicide is absolutely free from grease or other injurious substances, sold by leading druggists. QUESTION ANSWERED. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at the Stafford Drug Store. Land is Cheap Now.

Splendid farming land can be bought in any of the counties above the straits for from five to eight dollars an acre at the present time, but in a very few years the price will be materially increased. This year, therefore, is the most advantageous time to purchase a farm or ranch. The man who has a little money and a fair amount of pluck who desires to become well-to-do, independent, if you will, in a few years, can nowhere find such exceptional opportunities as await him in the agricultural sections of the upper peninsula. The country in general is well wooded and most inviting in every other respect, the climate being tempered by the waters of the great lakes. The weather bureau records show that in winter there is a temperature of 100 miles west in Wisconsin and Minnesota by reason of lake influences. On the other hand, it is cooler in summer. The rain fall is abundant and crop failures are absolutely unknown.

The Soil and Crops.

I had occasion to travel over a considerable portion of the upper peninsula last summer, for the most part away from the railroads, which as a rule pass through the most uninviting sections, and was really struck by the way in which being made by farmers everywhere. I saw all kinds of root crops, equal to any I had ever seen in southern Michigan, and not a pioneer did I come in contact with who had the least cause for regret at having taken up land there. Most of them had cleared their farms with comparative ease, and from the way in which crops had found a market at home at good prices. Indeed, it is stated upon good authority that every town in the upper peninsula depends upon the outside world for at least 75 per cent of its fruits, cereals, garden truck, meats and other farm products. Under such conditions the intelligent and industrious farmer can hardly fail to prosper.

Inducements to Settlers.

In conversation with F. J. Merriam, general manager of the Upper Peninsula Land Co., Ltd., the principal offices of which are located at 514 Washington Arcade, Detroit, that gentleman said his company was holding out unusual inducements to settlers to locate in the upper peninsula. "We have a million or more acres scattered about up there," said he, "most of which is as good soil as lays out doors anywhere on earth, and we are offering every inducement to the right sort of men to take up farms. Much of our land is in the form of cut-over cedar, and is very easily cleared, and as the soil is splendid, no man with any sort of determination about him can go up there and fail. We are offering our lands at from $3 to $5 an acre, according to soil and location, and extend buyers who intend farming every possible consideration they could ask or expect in the matter of making their payments. If twenty-five, or fifty, or even 100 of the right sort of men, say young farmers or renters in southern Michigan, were to form a colony and come to me to locate them I would guarantee to locate them within five years from today they would be comparatively rich men. The farm-

A BRIGHT OUTLOOK

HAS AGRICULTURE ON THE UPPER PENINSULA OF MICHIGAN.

THIS IS HARDWICKE'S CONCLUSION

HAS JUST REACHED HOME FROM TOUR OF THIS BUSY REGION.

Expresses Himself as Highly Gratified With What He Has Seen—Mr. Merriam of the U. P. Land Company Talks.

L. W. Hardwicke, who has just returned to Detroit after a visit to the upper peninsula in which he paid particular attention to agriculture, present and prospective, in this region, says in the Detroit Tribune:

Having returned from another trip through the agricultural sections of the upper peninsula, I am more firmly convinced than ever that that portion of Michigan affords the possibilities and the future prospects, than does any other part of the country with which I am familiar, and I marvel that the splendid land for farming purposes up there is not being taken up faster. And yet the wonder is not so great after all, when it is known that until very recently little or no attention has been given to acquainting the people of other sections with the agricultural possibilities thereof. True, the coming of settlers is perceptible in every county each year, still the number is not near what it would be were the country better known. I predict, however, that within the next very few years there will be a marked invasion of agriculturalists from the overcrowded districts of the older farming sections of this and other states, for there is a sufficient number of farmers there now to demonstrate that the soil, climate, water, crops, market facilities and future prospects of the upper peninsula are all that could be desired.

Land is Cheap Now.

Splendid farming land can be bought in any of the counties above the straits for from five to eight dollars an acre at the present time, but in a very few years the price will be materially increased. This year, therefore, is the most advantageous time to purchase a farm or ranch. The Soil and Crops.

I had occasion to travel over a considerable portion of the upper peninsula last summer, for the most part away from the railroads, which as a rule pass through the most uninviting sections, and was really struck by the way in which being made by farmers everywhere. I saw all kinds of root crops, equal to any I had ever seen in southern Michigan, and not a pioneer did I come in contact with who had the least cause for regret at having taken up land there. Most of them had cleared their farms with comparative ease, and from the way in which crops had found a market at home at good prices. Indeed, it is stated upon good authority that every town in the upper peninsula depends upon the outside world for at least 75 per cent of its fruits, cereals, garden truck, meats and other farm products. Under such conditions the intelligent and industrious farmer can hardly fail to prosper.

Inducements to Settlers.

In conversation with F. J. Merriam, general manager of the Upper Peninsula Land Co., Ltd., the principal offices of which are located at 514 Washington Arcade, Detroit, that gentleman said his company was holding out unusual inducements to settlers to locate in the upper peninsula. "We have a million or more acres scattered about up there," said he, "most of which is as good soil as lays out doors anywhere on earth, and we are offering every inducement to the right sort of men to take up farms. Much of our land is in the form of cut-over cedar, and is very easily cleared, and as the soil is splendid, no man with any sort of determination about him can go up there and fail. We are offering our lands at from $3 to $5 an acre, according to soil and location, and extend buyers who intend farming every possible consideration they could ask or expect in the matter of making their payments. If twenty-five, or fifty, or even 100 of the right sort of men, say young farmers or renters in southern Michigan, were to form a colony and come to me to locate them I would guarantee to locate them within five years from today they would be comparatively rich men. The farm-possibilities of the upper peninsula afford better returns for the farmer's time and money than any other country now open to settlers. No other "new" section in this continent produces more abundant crops, and certainly none has a market so near at hand. We have only recently begun placing our lands upon the market, and therefore comparatively few intending settlers are aware of just what we have to offer, yet the number of applications for land constantly in our power to these communications because we are anxious to dispose of a goodly proportion of our possessions. We do not desire to sell it all. We are frank with the public in this matter. Our plan for making a profit is this: Sell off as much land as we can to actual settlers at about what it cost us in large tracts. The going in of these settlers will not only raise the value of their cleared lands, but as well such uncleared property as we withhold from the market. The proposition is plain. It is clear also that the men who now take up these lands can buy much cheaper at present than in the future. "One of the things that has always struck me as being peculiar," concluded Mr. Merriam, "is that more men, mechanics, business men and others, do not invest in such propositions as we have on hand. Such men, with $100, $200 or $300 cash, could easily, nine times out of ten, obtain immeasurably larger returns on their investment by buying upper peninsula farming lands now and holding the same a few years than they could in most any other legitimate investment."

NEW ROYAL TRAIN.

Magnificent "Special" Provided for England's King and Queen.

The new royal train which was used by the king and queen for their journey to Gonsall Park, is stated to have been built by the London and Northwestern Railroad company at a cost of £500,000. It may be certainly said to be the most luxurious and the most beautifully appointed in the world, and one which even the greatest railway magnate in America might envy. There are two saloons, each measuring 69 feet in length; three saloons for the suite, and two lavatories, each 50 feet long. The whole train weighs 210 tons, and is 385 feet long.

The furnishing of the various apartments is artistic in the extreme and the delicately shaded electric lamps suggest a luxurious drawing room rather than a railway coach. In the king's smoking room, which is furnished in mahogany, inlaid with rosewood and satin wood, the comfortable lounge chairs are of green leather, and the bins and carpets harmonize in tone with the chairs. The gilding of the finely wrought metal work, which is a feature throughout the train, is subdued so that there is no aggressive glitter to spoil the effect.

In a much lighter tone of green, with white enamel and satin wood furniture, inlaid with ivory, is the king's day compartment, which has exceptionally large windows. Even the handles of the ventilators in this and the other saloons are work of art in silverplate. Here, too, as elsewhere, electricity plays an important part in the fittings. Electric fans and electric heaters are provided; in the king's saloon there are electric cigar lighters in silver, and there are several clever electric contrivances in the queen's saloon. Many of the lamps, shaded with pale pink or green silk, are portable. In the queen's bedroom the predominating color is rose pink, against which the bed with its silver plate fittings makes a beautiful effect. Electric lamps peep out from unexpected corners and folds of silk, and the brocades used in the queen's boudoir combine a pale blue with another shade of pink. All her majesty's rooms, including a dressing room on each side of the bed room, are in white enamel. The king's bed and dressing rooms are also in white enamel, with finely silver-plated fittings, but the upholstery generally is of a soft green shade. At the end of each saloon is the attendant's compartment, which is fitted with a seat that can be turned into a bed, and is provided with electric cooking appliances. There are balconies to each saloon, which are heated by steam and can be used as observation cars, and the two central saloons are gangwayed together, so as to permit of a passage from one end of the train to the other. On the outside of each saloon are emblazoned the royal arms and various orders.—London Express.

seemed limitless but possibilities would not make steam.

The Final Shutdown.

January came and the long winter was not half over, February opened clear and cold. Work progressed but slowly. One day there came an ominous clearing of the engines. The last car of ore came slowly crawling up the incline that ran down below the icy lake. The mammoth pumps worked hesitatingly and then stopped. The miners hurriedly left their levels and turned their faces toward the sky. The water, steadfast from the beginning, fought its way inch by inch and then foot by foot up the shaft. The last ton of coal burned to ashes beneath the faithful giant boilers. The engines throbbed and were still—the end had come to one of the most famous mines of the world.

It was a triumph.

It was a triumph, for the water, told of the wonderful finds of this mine. Two blasts brought forth silver valued at $45,000. Many nuggets of almost fabulous size were taken out, some of them so pure as hardly to need smelting. So widely known was the mine and so perfect its achievement that stock at one time sold readily at $1,500 above par value. Critics of the management maintained that had greater economy been observed, and had not the marvelous finds dazzled the eyes of the managers and warped their judgment, the mine, worked on a plan of scientific economy, would not only have kept on paying good dividends but would now have been one of the richest mines on the continent. There are rumors from time to time of adjoining properties. Whether it will ever again be a paying property depends upon many things, but some of those who have been most intimately connected with its history believe it still holds untold riches.

It was old and gray when Captain John Cross, care taker of the place and as genial a man as one could wish to meet, roused us from the deserted reef. Over an island near the shore the blue smoke was curling lazily up from a fire in the birches where an old Cornish miner who had spent the prime of his life in the service of the company, was seeking with all the enthusiasm of a boy for the missing vein which many believe runs out from the reef to the mainland. The prow of the tug Georgina which was to take us back to civilization, Captain Maloney, chief officer in command, was turned out into deeper waters, and soon there was behind us only a string of waves, beaten, painted, time-worn scurvy houses, strung along the great curve of the bay like the beads of some huge rosary.—W. S. Harwood, in the Iron Mountain Press.

CAN STILL ACT.

Justices of Peace Have Jurisdiction in Certain Criminal Cases.

The question of the limits of the authority of the municipal court and the amount of authority still retained by the justices of the peace is not clearly understood by a good many people. The new court is such a recent institution that the range of its jurisdiction has not yet been fully defined by the test of actual experience, though there is no lack of clearness in the specification of its powers as contained in the recent additions to the charter. In civil cases the justices of the peace retain all their former authority, as well as in criminal cases when arrests are made on a warrant by deputy sheriffs or any officer qualified to serve a warrant, except in cases of violations of the city ordinances.

The said justice in addition to his general powers as justice of the peace shall have exclusive jurisdiction except as herein provided, to hear, try and determine all actions and prosecutions for the recovery or enforcing of fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the ordinances of the city and to punish offenders for violations of such ordinances as in the ordinances prescribed and directed, subject only to the limitations prescribed in this act.

FINNS TO REVOLT.

Movement Is Said to Be on Foot to Sever Finland from Russia.

Information from reliable sources is said to have been secured showing that a widespread movement has been started for the purpose of freeing Finland from Russia. Local Finns of prominence profess to be entirely ignorant of the proposed revolt, but the word abroad is that an attempt should be made to throw off the tyrannical yoke of Russian rule they would gladly return to Finland and enlist in the struggle.

READY TO PLAY.

Arrangements for Organizing a Baseball Team Have Been Perfected.

It appears that Ishpeming is to have a baseball team after all. Tuesday night a number of enthusiasts, including about all of the old-time players and those who have been on the diamond during the past few seasons, got together and took the preliminary steps toward organizing a team for the present season. Tom Cooney was elected manager, John Goodman captain and Simon Olson treasurer. The line-up has not yet been arranged. Practice will be started at once and the men will try to get in condition to meet the Negaunee team with which a game has been arranged for Sunday, May 17, at Union Park. Negotiations have been opened for a game with Marquette on the following Sunday. Duluth and Superior will be on the schedule. There are plenty of men ready to compete for almost all the positions, each a capable player. When fully organized and in practice the aggregation will be able to keep up with the pace that Ishpeming's teams have set in former years. The delay in getting started will no doubt prove a slight handicap, but most of the other teams in this region will be on about the same footing, as outdoor practice has been impossible.

It is expected that Union Park will be put in good condition. It is the intention to lease the high bluff overlooking the park and station an other there when games are in progress to drive out those who want to see the game without paying the price of admission. Whenever it costs money to get inside the fence at the park the bluff forms the grand stand for as large a crowd as passes through the gates. The custom has been so long established that it will be a hard matter to break it up and the men who are assigned the duty of keeping the place clear of the swarms of small boys and men who congregate there will certainly have a big job.

Some time ago the traveling men who performed some big stunts at indoor baseball last winter announced a brilliant scheme for playing the indoor game on a small diamond out of doors. The plan has evidently failed to materialize for nothing has been heard of it and it appears to be the general impression that it has been abandoned.

THRILLING WAR DRAMA.

The Ishpeming Light Guard Dramatic club will present the war drama, "61 to 65" at the opera house tonight. The piece is clever, and the members of the cast give it a pleasing presentation. The play is not lacking in comic elements, for "Wash," the contraband, and the "sauer kraut brigade" appear at opportune times and cause much merriment.

- Julian Farnsworth, captain U. S. army; George Roberts, major C. S. army; Judge Thorne, colonel C. S. army; Lieutenant Forbes, U. S. army; Charles J. Johnson, lieutenant; August Norell, "Wash," a runaway contraband; William Anderson, Mrs. McGee; Edward Sorlie, Clara, daughter of Judge Thorne; Miss Rose Morell; Kate Spencer, Miss Thorne's companion; Elvira Olson, privates and the "sauer kraut brigade."

Act I.—Charleston, S. C. The firing on Fort Sumpter. A lovely rebel. The quarrel. The escape. Act II.—The camp. Farnsworth as Corporal Bunglestein. As Dutch J. P. Inside the rebel lines. The forced marriage. Act III.—Farnsworth a prisoner at Biddy McGee's hut. "Wash," the negro, hastens through the lines for relief. Act IV.—Biddy McGee and the "Thay-in Sojers." Farnsworth in disguise. Starting surprise. The tables turned and Major Forbes a prisoner. Enter Kate Thorne and friends. Glad tidings of peace. The price of admission is fifty cents. Seats are on sale at Tillson's.

TO FENCE LAKE SALLY.

The board of public works has decided to build a substantial wire fence around Lake Sally, from which the city draws its water supply. The lake is partially inclosed now, but animals have unhindered access to it from several sides. The new fence will be made proof against all cattle. They are numerous in the vicinity of the lake, and the fence has been needed for some time. It will require about 25,000 feet of wire fencing to completely surround the lake. The task of putting it up will not be a light one and will require some length of time for its completion. Lake Sally is full to the brim of water, so that there will be a sufficient supply to last through the summer and to be used for thoroughly flushing the sewers.

everything there was and only to be tortured. I had been cheated and deceived, boiled, barked, blistered, disappointed, etc., etc., with so many so-called sure cures that as you well remember I wrote you, I would bite no more. But I was fascinated by the Electrus and its description and finally concluded to purchase one.

This is the most marvelous discovery and invention made in recent years in the whole science of the medical profession. It was discovered by a Syracuse genius. It is so simple that the medical world is wondering that it was not discovered years ago. It makes a perfect home treatment. Absolutely no inconvenience nor loss of time from regular employment. Be sure and get the very best. The cure is absolute, positive and sure. It is revolutionizing the entire treatment of the most dangerous and troublesome condition. Operations are no longer necessary. There is no quackery, repetition or "snake" about this. It is a simple, positive and proven home cure. In which examinations do not have to be made through the most delicate tissues on how the treatment. It is meeting with universal success all over the country because it cures so thoroughly that there is no danger of its ever being asked out again.

The furniture that has been ordered for the municipal court has not yet arrived. The equipment is not very elaborate at present, consisting of a desk and a few chairs. The judge has a collection of statute books piled up on his desk and there are a number of ponderous dockets in which the records of the court will be kept. The dockets of the justices of the peace will be given into the custody of the municipal court as soon as the terms of the various justices expire. The hours of the sessions or other minor rules have not yet been fixed.

FINN LOST HIS CASE

HIS SUIT AGAINST ADAMS AND SHAW HAS BEEN DISMISSED.

WANTED TO RECOVER PROPERTY

BUT IT WAS USED UP IN CARING FOR HIS TWO YOUNG SONS.

Trouble All Arose from Fact That Larry Was Considered Legally Dead, on Account of His Sentence to Life Imprisonment.

Larry Finn will not come into "his own." Judge Stone having just dismissed his bill of complaint in the case of Larry Finn vs. Sidney Adams and George W. Shaw, in which Larry sought to recover sundry damages and the possession of a South Marquette property of which he was the possessor before his incarceration in state prison for the murder of his wife. By Judge Stone's decision Sidney Adams' connection with Finn's affairs is shown to have been just and honorable throughout, and George W. Shaw is put in legal possession of the former Finn property in South Marquette.

The case is one that has attracted no little attention on account of some of its peculiar aspects and one which had its root in developments now years gone by. A peculiar feature is the fact that it was originally caused by a misconception of the law. An attorney practicing in Marquette at the time gave it as his opinion that a man sentenced to life imprisonment, as was Larry, was civilly dead, and that his estate was subject to administration by his heirs. Such a provision was, mayhap, in the New York law, on which the Michigan law is largely based, hence the origin of the mistake.

Larry fell from grace in the outbreak that landed him behind the bars in December, '88. When he was imprisoned he left behind him, to the care of relatives and the unfeeling world, two minors, boys of sixteen and thirteen years, and an estate consisting of a lot and hovel in South Marquette and $190 in cash in F. W. Read's hands. Sidney Adams was besought by Larry's sister to assume the guardianship of the boys and to proceed with the administration of the estate for their benefit, the fiction that Larry was legally dead being accepted as a legal fact.

Adams as Guardian. Adams having consented to take the guardianship, probate court was petitioned for his appointment in that capacity, which was shortly made, whereupon he entered on his duties forthwith. He became manager and rent collector for Larry's lot and hovel and holder in trust of his $190, which was turned over by Mr. Read, using the money from time to time for the support of the younger lad, the elder of the boys looking after himself.

In the early nineties Adams sold Larry's lot for $300, at the same time lending the purchaser money with which to build on it, in order to secure the sale. Of this $300, $150 was given to the oldest boy when he became of age. The other $150 and the cash which Larry left were expended on the younger son.

The party to whom Adams sold the lot and to whom he lent money with which to build, a certain Blackbird, in the meat business at the time, failed in '93, and proposed to turn the property over to his creditors. The deed was then submitted to scrutiny, and its defect was ascertained. Finn was not dead, legally or otherwise, but was alive and had been all along in full possession of his rights of property.

Adams then went to Jackson to see Larry. He outlined the situation and asked him to deed over the property. Finn stood pat, refusing to do anything of the kind, but threatening to put the property where it couldn't be touched. On his return Adams obtained a writ of attachment, sued, was given a judgment, had it carried out, sold and purchased the property himself, his action being taken on account of the expenditure he had made as guardian of Larry's children. Then for a long time nothing was heard in the way of litigation in connection with the case, and two years or so ago the property was sold to George W. Shaw.

Larry, on being pardoned by Governor Pingree, began casting about for ways and means of recovering possession of his property, and he finally commenced the suit which he has just lost. The attorneys in the case were W. S. Hill for Mr. Adams and Button & Heffernan for Larry Finn.

MANNA CEREAL COMPANY. M. H. Sloman, of Detroit, is in the city doing business for the Manna Cereal company, the manufacturers of the new food "Uno Wheat Crisps." Besides introducing this new popular food, he is selling some stock in the company, which is a "comer" in the industrial world. One feature alone of the "Uno Wheat Crisps" besides its superlative quality as a food, the fact that it is the only wheat food made that will withstand warm climatic conditions, assures the most pronounced success for the company. For a safe and profitable investment there are few stocks to equal Manna Cereal, as there are no foods to equal the company's product.

WM. ORR IS DEAD.

South Shore's Former General Freight Agent Expires in London.

A cablegram to President W. F. Pritch, of the South Shore, from W. A. Parker, of London, has brought the sad news of the death, on Tuesday, the 5th inst., of William Orr, formerly general freight agent of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic and who retired from service in 1901 to take up his residence abroad. Mr. Orr, who came to America from Scotland when a young man, was engaged in railway business, on both sides of the water, for an extended period of time. His long prominence in railway work had secured for him a very wide business and social acquaintance in both Canada and the United States. He resided here with his family from 1887 to 1901, when he left for Europe. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. William A. Parker, who are living at 83 Anerly Road, Anerly, London S. E., England. Another daughter, Miss Joan, died and was interred here about five years ago.

CHALLENGE FOR SHEA.

He Can, If He Wants to, Race Texas Jessie Against Ella Ola.

Tuesday a rumor reached the ears of Sam O'Connell and Louis Saam, owners of Ella Ola, the fast Houghton pacer, that Mike Shea, the Marquette sport, was anxious to match his mare, Texas Jessie, against the Houghton mare for $1,000 a side. Sam O'Connell hailed a reporter of The Mining Gazette Tuesday afternoon and told him of the rumor, remarking, "You can say that Ella Ola's owners will race Texas Jessie for $1,000 a side at any time that Shea chooses to name, provided he names it quick enough." Mr. O'Connell went on to say that he would agree to pull off the race on any track in Michigan. Ella Ola is ready for a campaign now and the race could come off today for all her owners care. Texas Jessie is marked as high as Ella Ola, both animals having negotiated a mile officially in 2:13 1/4. They should make a beautiful race. O'Connell and Saam want the race to come off and they only desire that Mr. Shea produce his $1,000 as fast as he can dig it up.—Houghton Mining Gazette.

A HANDSOME TRIBUTE.

Oshkosh Times Pays It to Father Barth, a Former Marquette Boy.

In a recent writup of Stephenson, Menominee county, the Oshkosh Times pays the following handsome tribute to Father Barth, wellknown in Marquette, who spent his boyhood, in large part, in this city:

"If the lion's share of the credit for the era of prosperity which Stephenson has experienced during the last six years can be accorded to any one man, that man is Father Francis Xavier Barth, pastor of Stephenson parish. Young, able and devout, Father Barth has devoted his efforts for over seven years to the upbuilding of the people of the parish, and the work he has accomplished is not only the wonder of the parish, but also of the people at large. Father Barth is the most noted citizen of Stephenson. His portrait is seen in the pages of metropolitan newspapers; his name, coupled with that of Stephenson, has been heralded from one end of the United States to the other. Father Barth came to Stephenson in 1895. He found there a small dilapidated church attended by a few parishioners and struggling under a burden of debt. It was his first parish and it did not discourage him in the least. He went to work to improve it and the results of his labor are seen in the handsome parish house, which cost in the neighborhood of $4,000, a large membership roll, and a community imbued with the spirit of tolerance and progress. The people of Stephenson dread the day when duty will call him to a larger parish."

Marine Notes.

The clearances from this port yesterday were the Mack and Niagara, for Ashabula. They were loaded at the L. S. & I dock.

On its last trip down the lakes, the propeller C. A. Flagg, which tows the Warmer, the latter taking out ore from this port, carried about 3,000 tons of mineral from Lake Linden to the Calumet & Hecla smelting works at Buffalo. The cargo was valued at $1,080,000.

DEATH OF MRS. YUNGBLUTH.

The death of Anna Mary Yungbluth, wife of Conrad Yungbluth, 428 North Fifth street, occurred yesterday. The deceased is survived by Mr. Yungbluth and nine children, six sons and three daughters, Mrs. Bittner, Mrs. Kalmer, and Miss Rose Yungbluth, the latter a teacher in the public schools. Mrs. Yungbluth was born in Neubron, Pannberg, Germany, Sept. 22, 1843, and she married Mr. Yungbluth at Rockland, Mich., October 3, 1869, both she and her husband being pioneer settlers in the upper peninsula. The deceased came to Marquette from Madison, Wis., in 1872, having resided here ever since.

The funeral will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning from St. Peter's cathedral. The interment will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

TEACHERS RE-ENGAGED.

Members of Present Corps Can Have Their Positions Again.

At a recent meeting the school board decided to re-engage all the members of the present teaching corps, and they can have their positions again if they want them. Superintendent Thompson was engaged for another year some time ago. At the meeting in question the matter of salaries was considered, and advances of twenty-five dollars each were allowed in the lower grades, the figures totaling about $600. The question of salaries for the high school teachers is yet to be considered. The teaching corps for the school year '03-'04 will be practically unchanged.

ANOTHER BIG CLASS.

Will Be Received by Grafton Lodge, A. O. U. W., This Evening.

A class of initiates of some thirty members will be received by Grafton lodge, A. O. U. W., this evening, and it will make in all some sixty-five new members that have been added since the first of the year. The lodge is competing for the prizes offered by the grand lodge of the state for increase in membership, and it hopes to be in on the awards, if not to get first honors, as it did in the last competition. The officers and workers are confident that by the first of July, at least when the competition ends, the date 100 new members will have been secured, an achievement which, it is expected, will land the first prize for greatest gain in proportion to membership in Marquette.

BOWLING ALLEYS OPENED.

Two Teams of Marquette Men Had a Contest Last Evening.

The Bowsher bowling alleys in the Bacon building were opened yesterday, and in the evening, before a good crowd, two teams of Marquette bowlers had a contest, with the following result:

	1st	2nd	3rd	Totals

STILL THE SAME.

Market Conditions in Coppers Exhibit Very Little Change.

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired W. H. Laidley & Co. concerning the Boston market: "Our market continued in the same dull rut. While copper was up in London and Amalgamated was much stronger they had no effect on our local coppers. Winona and Alouez were rather active and a good deal of bull talk is being passed around on them."

Situation in Chicago.

W. H. Laidley & Co. said of the Chicago market: "The wheat market opened firm, at about last night's close, and during the early part of the session prices were a little better. Towards the close, however, some liquidation brought a little easier feeling and the last figures were 1/2 under yesterday's close for July and unchanged for May. The receipts and estimates are very small. The north-west receipts are also small, considerably under last year. The clearances are only fair. Crop damage reports continue to come in, although they are not quite so unquestionably bullish as heretofore. The foreign crop reports continue bullish. We believe what is a safe purchase on the break."

"Corn opened firm, at a little better price than yesterday, upon strong foreign markets and weather conditions which were unfavorable. Toward the close, however, corn sympathized with wheat and the last prices were 1/4 @ 1/2 under yesterday. The receipts are a little more liberal, the estimates comparatively small, clearance fair with a good cash demand reported. Although the receipts may be a little heavier, we continue very bullish and we believe in much higher prices for corn later in the season."

"Oats were the strong feature of the market. Opening at slightly improved prices, the May option was strong throughout the session, closing 1/2 above yesterday, and the July was practically the same. The receipts and estimates were smaller, with the cash demand continuing good. The crop reports continue bullish and the weather very bad. Prices should continue to do better. Provisions opened firm, at about last night's close. They turned strong upon fairly good buying by the packers and closed at a good advance over yesterday. The receipts are 27,000, with 24,000 estimated for tomorrow. The receipts at the eight principal western points are 71,000 as compared with 68,700 a year ago. The hog market closed 10 cents higher. The cash demand is reported a good short interest in the market, some rally from the present prices should be seen, but we would take advantage of any decided bulge to sell provisions on for the present."

Outlook Promising. Dick said of the New York market: "The market sold off on some profit taking and some short selling. That gold will be exported will be inevitable, but that should make no difference. Money conditions are easy. Railroad earnings are phenomenal and business is good. The crop prospects are bright, and prices are down. The public, generally, has few stocks. If we cannot buy stocks under these conditions, we can never buy them."

Give the children Rocky Mountain Tea, this month, makes them strong, makes them eat, sleep and grow. Good for the whole family. A spring tonic that makes sick people well. 35 cents. Stafford Drug Co.

A remarkable "Proof Positive Test" service will be given at Fraternity Hall Sunday night. See advertisement, headed Spiritualism. (5-9-11)

CITY BREVITIES.

Weather forecast: Partly cloudy, stationary temperature; light to fresh variable winds with possibly fog. Yesterday's temperature: 7 a. m., 42 degrees; noon, 43 degrees; 7 p. m., 42 degrees; maximum, 43 degrees; minimum, 41 degrees.

A. T. Van Alstyn is in Chicago on a business mission. D. J. Siney of Ishpeming attended the tax sale yesterday.

Tuesdays will henceforth be regular bargain days at the Bee Hive. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braxton, Tuesday morning, a daughter.

Born yesterday, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindberg, East Prospect street, a son.

A meeting of Busy Queen hive will be held at the A. O. U. W. hall this afternoon.

Louis Liemux of Cheboygan, Mich., is here, the guest of his sister, Mrs. George Drolet.

Mrs. A. Bernier MacDonald has purchased a property on Ohio street from James Jamerson.

A "May party" will be given at Fraternity Hall on the 25th by the Retail Clerks' union. Dancing will be the feature.

Morse hose company will hold a meeting at the fire hall at 8 o'clock this evening. Tournament matters are to be given an airing.

County Clerk Ross was yesterday informed of the death of P. R. McKernan, prosecuting attorney of Baraga county. It occurred yesterday morning.

The attention of contractors is called to the notice elsewhere in this issue, asking for bids for material and labor required for the construction of the new Catholic church at St. Ignace.

James J. Hollings of Detroit, deputy master workman, is here to assist Grafton lodge in its canvass for new members. He will also assist with the ceremonies attending the reception of the big class to come in this evening.

Lou Pendill has received some handsome glass show cases which he has installed at his pharmacy at the corner of Front and Washington streets. They greatly improve the appearance of the store. They were put in place yesterday.

A. H. Wilson, the wellknown singer-actor, will be the next attraction at the opera house, filling the principal role in "A Prince of Tatters." Mr. Wilson has been here in the course of both of the past two seasons and on the occasion of each visit he has been greeted by a large house.

The tax sale continued all through yesterday. The first reading was completed about noon, and the second was immediately taken up, good progress having been made with it by nightfall. It will be finished today, some time this afternoon. Considerable acreages of land were bid in yesterday, the total amount of the sales aggregating high figures.

Word has been received from Corporal Louis Page, one of the Marquette boys who has been serving in the army in the Philippines, that he arrived safe at San Francisco on the 28th of April. Corporal Page has been transferred to the post at Buffalo, N. Y., but he is expected here the latter part of this week on a visit to his people. His father, residing at 307 South Seventh street, has been ill for some time past.

This evening at Fraternity Hall the ladies' auxiliary to the B. of T. lodge will give a "poverty social." The ladies will don poverty garments, and there will not be the least semblance of party style by those in attendance. Old clothes are being hauled from cobwebbed corners and garret nooks, and it is said that some of the costumes to be worn will lack any "Weary Willie" or "Happy Hooligan" clear of the boards. Professor Kluge will furnish music.

Henry Hallam this week received orders to start work on the two story building which the Keweenaw Brewing company of Chicago will build on Presque Isle avenue, just north of John Siegel's store. Material is being assembled, and work will soon be in full swing, with a good force of men. The new building will cost over $2,000 and will be the most pretentious structure in North Marquette. It will have a plate glass front. The lower floor will be a store room, and the upper floor will be fitted up for living rooms.

MADE YOUNG AGAIN. "One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner of Dumfriesport, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never give up. Only 25c at The Stafford Drug Co.'s drug store.
