ALL THREE CLAIM NEW YORK CITY

FUSION, TAMMANY AND DEVERLY PARTIES ALL PREDICTING VICTORY IN TODAY'S ELECTION.

ESTIMATES AT WIDE VARIANCE IS EVERY INDICATION, HOWEVER, THE CONTEST WILL BE CLOSE.

Much Interest Attaches to the Vote to Be Collected by the Independent Candidate and It May Have Serious Influence on the Result.

New York, Nov. 2.—With every indication of a close struggle tomorrow, the eve of the battle finds the leaders of fusion and Tammany loud in their predictions of overwhelming triumph.

So confident is Charles F. Murphy in his estimate of 100,000 plurality for McCall, based on the returns of all his district leaders, that tonight he issued orders to go ahead with the preparations for the celebration of the prospective Tammany victory.

While abating nothing in confidence, the fusionist leaders claim no more than 30,000 plurality for Low, although it is said that their closest estimates point to a majority of about half that figure.

Victory Conceded by Iowa Democrats. Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 2.—Rain is indicated over Iowa tonight and tomorrow. Should it keep farmers out of the fields the aggregate vote will be increased, and with it the Republican plurality.

Ohio Republicans Expect Clean Sweep. Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—On the eve of the election, the estimates of the two parties to represent the state are extremes. The Democrats give no figures on the state ticket and claim only a bare majority of the legislature, while the Republicans claim a larger plurality, with a single exception, than ever before on the state ticket and almost twice as large a majority in the legislature as ever before.

Maryland Campaign Hard Fought. Baltimore, Nov. 2.—All sides agree that this has been one of the most stubbornly fought campaigns in the history of Maryland. The predominant feeling with the voters and leaders is that the struggle is not merely of state importance, but that it is to have bearing on the national contest next year.

Pennsylvania Democrats Not Figuring. Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—The general opinion expressed by Republican leaders is that Pennsylvania will tomorrow give its usual off-year majority for the Republican candidates. The Democratic leaders decline to give figures, contenting themselves with the prediction that a full Democratic vote will be cast.

Estimates in Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—The chairman of the Republican committee estimates that with an average vote the Republican ticket will win by 15,000. The fusion committee chairman offers no figures, but expresses jubilation over the prospects for the reelection of Chief Justice Sullivan.

Each Confident in Rhode Island. Providence, R. I., Nov. 2.—The Democratic leaders expect to win by about 2,000 plurality, which is a loss of 2,000 from last year's victory, while the Republicans express a belief Colonel Colt will win by from 5,000 to 7,000.

Rival Claims in Kentucky. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2.—The Democrats tonight claim 20,000 majority for Beckham for governor. The Republican state committee states its estimates indicate Beckham's election by 12,000.

Heavy Vote Expected in Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 2.—One of the liveliest campaigns in the history of Massachusetts closed today with indications of a heavy vote and both sides confident.

President Leaves for Oyster Bay. Washington, Nov. 2.—The president left tonight for Oyster Bay, where he will vote tomorrow.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PROPOSED. Convention of Building Contractors Is Called to Meet in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A call was issued tonight for a national convention of building contractors in Chicago on Dec. 1 to form a national association. The object of the new organization will be to make joint trade agreements between contractors' councils and labor unions to prevent strikes or lockouts and to settle all disputes by arbitration.

MANY KILLED IN EARTHQUAKE. London, Tuesday, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Mail from Simla, India, says that terrible earthquakes have occurred at Turshinz, near Turtat-I-Haidari, in Persia, in which 350 persons were killed and many injured.

BACK TO ZION CITY.

More Than 2,000 Members of Dowie's Host Leave New York.

Students Roughly Handled. Angry Canadian Citizens Expel Invaders from McGill University.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—Eighty students from McGill University, who undertook to celebrate Halloween in Longueuil, just across the river, in a manner not appreciated by the citizens, were driven into the river, a number being severely beaten. About fifty were more or less injured and several were taken to hospitals.

CONEY ISLAND MEN JAILED. Two Waiters Accused of Starting Sunday's Disastrous Conflagration.

New York, Nov. 2.—Frank Conolly, aged twenty-seven, and Peter Skelly, thirty-eight years, former waiters at the Albatross Hotel, at Coney Island, have been arrested, charged with starting yesterday's fire on Coney Island which destroyed fourteen blocks of buildings, resulting in the death of one man, injury to twenty persons, rendered five hundred people homeless and caused a financial loss of a million and half dollars.

INSPECTORS AT WORK. NEW INVESTIGATION ON IN THE POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Charges Against Third Assistant Maden, Involving Speculation in Valuable Stamps, Now Being Probed.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Postmaster General Payne today admitted that investigation is being made into charges involving the office of Third Assistant Postmaster General Maden in connection with the speculation of philatelists in certain valuable specimens of postage stamps. The charges were made in a philatelic organ in April, 1902, but were only brought to the attention of the president and the postmaster general last Friday, when an investigation of the matter was immediately ordered.

The cases of A. W. Machen, Diller B. and Samuel A. Groff and George E. and Martha Lorenz, indicted on charges of conspiracy in connection with the sale of letterbox fasteners to the postoffice department, were today set for trial on Nov. 23 in the criminal court of the District of Columbia.

Hard Fight Waged for Beavers. New York, Nov. 2.—George W. Beavers, the indicted former postal official, was formally committed by Commissioner Hitechock today to the custody of the United States marshal pending the action of the court on a writ of habeas corpus. He was admitted to the jurisdiction of the eastern circuit of New York for trial on the Brooklyn indictment. He was admitted by Judge Holt to $5,000 bail pending the court's decision.

Action was taken by Beavers' counsel to vacate the warrants for his removal to Washington for trial on the three Washington indictments, Beavers being surrendered and applications for writs of habeas corpus being made for his release on the ground that simultaneous proceedings for his removal to different districts are illegal. On these applications Beavers was admitted to $3,000 bail by Judge Holt, the total bail on which he is held being reduced from $22,000 to $8,000. The Brooklyn indictment is in connection with the Brandt-Dent contract for automatic cashiers.

FAIR DIVORCEE WEDS. Blanche Chesbrough, Formerly Mrs. Molineaux, Marries Sioux Falls Man.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A license to marry was taken out in Chicago today in the names of Wallace D. Scott and Blanche D. Chesbrough. The ages are given as twenty-eight and twenty-nine, respectively, and the residence of both at Sioux Falls, S. D.

Later—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Scott of Sioux Falls, are registered tonight at one of the leading hotels. No public announcement of their wedding was made.

Lawyer Who Procured Her Divorce. Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 2.—Wallace D. Scott, who today, in Chicago, took out a license to marry Blanche D. Chesbrough, former wife of Roland B. Molineaux of New York, is a member of the local law firm of Kittredge, Williams & Scott, the senior member of which is United States Senator Kittredge. Mr. Scott is serving his second term as state's attorney of this country. He left Sioux Falls last Saturday for Chicago, where he is supposed to have met the former Mrs. Molineaux, who departed from New York on the same day that Mr. Scott left this city. The law firm of which Mr. Scott is a member represented Mrs. Molineaux in her recent divorce litigation in this state.

LYNCHERS INDICTED. Grand Jury in Illinois Acts in Case of Mob Violence.

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 2.—The St. Clair county grand jury adjourned today after having returned eleven indictments against persons believed to have participated in the lynching of David Wyatt, a negro school teacher, last June. Wyatt had shot and seriously wounded County Superintendent of Schools Hordell shortly before because the latter refused to grant a renewal of Wyatt's certificate as teacher. The names of those indicted were not announced.

COAL MINES TAKEN OVER. Pittsburgh, Nov. 2.—The Pittsburgh Coal company today formally took over control of the Monongahela-River Consolidated Coal & Coke company. The Monongahela River company was capitalized at $30,000,000.

GAINED 220 CONVERTS.

Evangelist Sunday, ex-Ball Player, Given Large Praise in Illinois.

Carthage, Ill., Nov. 2.—Evangelist William Sunday, former well-known baseball player, who has just closed a series of revival meetings here, during which 530 converts joined the churches of Carthage, was today the recipient of a free-will offering of $2,100. The fund was raised yesterday in the churches. Sunday at one time was a member of the Chicago National league team under Captain Anson, and was considered one of the best outfielders in the country.

WOULD LICENSE "TICKERS." Mayor Harrison Declares War on the Handbook System of Betting.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—In an effort to stamp out the handbook evil, a system of betting on horse races which has existed in Chicago for several years, Mayor Harrison tonight submitted an ordinance to the council providing for the licensing of all telegraphic "tickers" in use in the city. The purpose sought to be obtained by the ordinance is the prevention of the use of "tickers" for the transmission of racing news, letting odds or other information for the making of bets or wagers on horse races, or any other intelligence for the purpose of gambling. The license fee is fixed at $1, but in addition there is a bond of $1,000 to guarantee observance of the city ordinances. The ordinance will cut off all information as to odds, riders, starters, etc., now given general currency through the medium of "tickers."

TRAGEDY ON FARM. PENNSYLVANIA MAN KILLS HIS TWO BROTHERS.

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 2.—As the result of a quarrel, Benjamin Weisinger today shot and killed his two brothers, Louis and Frederick, attempted to kill his sister and sister-in-law, and held a number of policemen at bay for nine hours. The tragedy occurred on his father's farm, near this city.

During the quarrel, Benjamin fired four shots from a revolver at Frederick, without effect. Frederick fled to the attic. His brother, securing a rifle, met Louis and, without a word, shot him, the wounded man dying in half an hour. Catching a glimpse of Frederick in the attic window, Benjamin raised his rifle and shot him dead. He then fired several shots at Frederick's wife and twice at his sister, but the women escaped unhurt. The murderer took refuge in the barn. Every attempt the authorities made to approach the barn was met with shots from Weisinger. He finally consented to allow two neighbors to bring him supper. Watching their opportunity, they seized him and a terrible struggle followed. The officers took him in and the murderer was tied hand and foot and brought to this city.

Four Murders Due to Quarrels. Cleveland, Nov. 2.—Albert Timm was shot and instantly killed tonight by Charles Butterworth, a saloon keeper. The tragedy is said to be the outcome of a quarrel earlier in the day.

Durand, Wis., Nov. 2.—Floyd Swarty shot and killed Albert Newheart at Arkansas late last night and then shot himself. The killing was the result of a slight quarrel between the men several weeks ago.

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 2.—Charles Easton, aged forty-five, shot and killed his father's housekeeper, Mrs. A. Leonard, aged fifty-one, tonight. The couple had trouble, which resulted in the man leaving the home. He went to the house today and shot the woman. Easton was arrested.

Omaha, Nov. 2.—Ole Hanson, aged seventeen, died this afternoon as a result of a gunshot wound, alleged to have been inflicted by Thomas Brockdorff, an eighteen-year-old companion, during a quarrel which occurred while the boys were hunting on Sunday. Brockdorff was arrested.

A Tragedy at Denver. Denver, Colo., Nov. 2.—While resisting the efforts of Officer Oliver Tufts of the Colorado Humane society to compel him to stop working a sick and abused horse, Charles Heinze, a teamster, was shot and killed this afternoon. The officer claims Heinze drew a revolver first and wounded him in the right arm. Tufts was arrested.

Murderer at Bay, Kills Himself. Centerville, Mich., Nov. 2.—Brought to bay in a swamp, Floyd Lamb, who on Saturday murdered his wife and wounded his mother-in-law at the latter's home in Florence township, surrendered at noon today and immediately shot himself dead.

SECRETS ARE AMERICANS. Secretary Moody Denies Marksmen on Ships Are British Deserter.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 2.—Secretary Moody delivered an address this evening before the Harvard Political club, speaking on "The Administration of a Navy." In the course of his remarks Secretary Moody referred to a published statement that marksmen of the American navy were deserters from the British navy, tempted to the American service by high pay. He declared this allegation entirely without foundation.

Speaking of the high scores made by gunners in the recent practice tests, Mr. Moody said: "These results have been accomplished by American citizens. All of our officers are, of course, Americans and of the 29,800 enlisted men, 79.8 per cent are native born, 10.9 per cent are naturalized citizens and 9.3 per cent are aliens. We may have deserters from other navies in our ranks. I know of none, however, and if I learned of one I would instantly discharge him."

GEN. CHASE FOUND GUILTY. Denver, Nov. 2.—The court-martial tonight by a vote of six to four found Brigadier General Chase guilty of "technical disobedience of orders."

FIGHT BATTLES WITH INDIANS

POSSES OF WYOMING RANCHMEN PARTICIPATE IN TWO BLOODY ENCOUNTERS.

REDSKINS SUFFER SEVERELY. SURVIVORS HEAD FOR BAD LANDS WITH WHITES IN PURSUIT.

Redskins Have for Some Time Been Slaughtering Game and Killing and Stealing Cattle, Claiming Their Rations Have Been Cut.

Denver, Nov. 2.—As a result of two battles between Indians and a sheriff's posse, 500 men gathered from surrounding ranches are now scouring the vicinity of Lightning Creek, Wyo., in search of seventy-five Indians, under Chief Charlie Elk, supposed to be from the Pine Ridge and Rosebud agencies of South Dakota. The Indians have been slaughtering game for some time contrary to the laws of Wyoming. Settlers also complain that the Indians have been killing and stealing their cattle.

Sheriff Miller and a posse went in pursuit of the Indians, intending to arrest them. They came upon them on Saturday. The Indians had received warning and prepared to ambush the posse. The posse would have been entirely wiped out but for the fact the men were proceeding cautiously and were in a measure prepared for some trick on the part of the Indians. When within rifle shot the Indians opened fire.

At the first volley the sheriff and his deputies ran to cover and then ensued a genuine Indian fight. The whites found refuge behind trees and boulders, but the sheriff and Deputy Fessenburg were killed. It is thought that at least six Indians were killed and several others wounded, among the latter Eagle Feather, a sub-chief.

The battle lasted almost an hour, when the Indians succeeded in escaping. They carried their dead and wounded with them and, presumably, headed for the Bad Lands in Nebraska. The officers did not then attempt to follow, but sent a courier to Lusk, the nearest telegraph office, with a message to Governor Chatterton.

News of the battle spread rapidly, and every ranchman for miles around armed himself and joined one of the numerous posses hastily organized to punish the Indians. In a second battle with Indians which is said to have occurred Sunday afternoon near the scene of the first fight, ten Indians were killed and eleven were captured. None of the posse were killed in the second fight.

The Indians claim that the government has reduced their rations so that they are forced to kill game.

NOT A SCHOOL IS OPENED. Teachers in an Ohio Township Go on Strike for Higher Pay.

Toledo, O., Nov. 2.—All the teachers in Loudon township, Seneca county, are on a strike. The school term commenced today, but not a school was opened. The teachers demand higher salaries.

Express Strike Is Lost. Kansas City, Nov. 2.—W. C. Fleming, national organizer of the Brotherhood of Railway Expressmen, tonight notified the striking employes of the Pacific Express company that they had lost the fight and he advised them, if possible, to make peace with the company. The strike began in St. Louis two weeks ago and was started for the purpose of enforcing a demand for an increase of 10 per cent in wages and uniform hours of work.

Metal Workers Resume Work. Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—After an illness of six weeks, 2,000 metal workers resumed regular work in the McKeesport district today.

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—The national associations of marble workers and dealers announced tonight a settlement of their differences. The men will return to work Wednesday.

Railroad Increases Wages. Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Vandalia Railroad company today announced an increase of ten to twenty cents a day in pay to employes of the Western division, including the Illinois line.

NATIVES IN REBELLION. German Garrison in Southwest Africa Reported Annihilated.

Beaufort, West Cape Colony, Nov. 2.—It is reported here that the German garrison at Warmbad, German Southwest Africa, has been annihilated by Hottentots.

Warmbad is a mission station in Great Namaqualand, South Africa, about 135 miles east of the mouth and twenty-three miles north of Orange river.

Cape Town, Nov. 2.—German consular reports confirm the rumors of a native rebellion in Damaraland, southwest Africa, which forms a part of the German possessions there. The German non-commissioned officer commanding at Warmbad has been killed and the chief of the rebels there shot down. Other rumors to the effect that the commanding officer and another body of troops have been killed indicate a greater disaster.

CHEMICALS BLEW UP. Explosion at Laboratory Demonstrates Injures Instructor and Students.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 2.—During a demonstration in the laboratory of the St. Cloud Normal school this afternoon, an explosion of chemicals took place, blowing out the windows and causing a panic among the students. Professor Koppel, in charge of the class, was seriously injured about the head and face and Nat Garding, a student, may lose his sight as a result of burns. Mr. Hood, another student, was also injured. It is not known what caused the explosion.

It is understood that the street railway companies of Chicago will hereafter employ no motorman or conductors under twenty-five of age who are unmarried.

Justice Brewer points out that the claim of right of appeal is in fact the claim of a right to two trials, which is neither a right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States, nor a natural right.

It is simply a statutory privilege which the state gave and the state may take away. Of the mischievous results of the unrestricted right of appeal in criminal cases, he says:

The cheapest postal service in the world is that of Japan, where for two sent-about seven tenths of a penny—letters are conveyed all over the empire.

This is remarkable when you consider the mountainous country and their poor facilities for travel, railroads being very few.

The progress made by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters during the past fifty years is also very remarkable, especially when you remember the fact that in spite of all opposition it now occupies the first position as a family remedy.

There is a good reason for it, too. It has never failed in the most severe cases of sick headache, belching, heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles. Therefore, we urge you to try a bottle at once for your stomach's sake. It will do you good.

Such result is a tacit admission that there is something radically wrong in our present modes of criminal procedure.

It is strange that a community inebriated by some atrocious offense, aware of the common experience of criminal proceedings, takes the law into its own hands and summarily justifies the offender?

One thing, Justice Brewer maintains, is clear and should be borne in mind, that whatever the sifting process of successive appeals may accomplish in ascertaining the exact truth, "justice delayed is justice denied," and the early end of every litigation should be one of the great objects of all judicial proceedings.

Terminated with an ugly end on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grov, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer yielding to doctors and remedies for four years.

Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It is just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c, at The Stafford Drug Co.

Rev. G. W. Hagan, of Clyde, Ohio, says: "I have used Dr. Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, for sore throat, weak lungs, coughs, colds and all diseases of the kind it cures all other remedies. Many thanks to the doctor for his valuable remedy."

Senator Gorman is making a hard play for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, and this probably accounts for the manner in which he is forcing the race issue to the front in the Maryland state campaign.

That he is thinking about something other than the situation in Maryland is evident from the condition existing in that state. The whites in Maryland very largely outnumber the blacks, and there is not the slightest danger of negro domination under any political conditions it is possible to conceive.

Not only are the blacks much less numerous than the whites, but their number is constantly decreasing, while the white population is slowly growing.

In a recent address Mr. Gorman indulged great anxiety over the alleged influx of negroes into West Virginia.

"In West Virginia," he said, "they have captured the state almost beyond redemption." The facts are, however, that the negro voters in West Virginia numbered 14,841, compared with a voting strength on the part of the whites of 206,657.

The vote for McKinley in that year was 119,842 against 98,705 for Bryan, a plurality for McKinley of 21,137, or much more than the entire negro vote. This does not look very much like negro domination.

It is not to be supposed that Mr. Gorman imagines that he could carry a national election on the race issue. While there is no doubt but that the negro personally in the North, and there is a disposition here to let the South solve its own problems without interference.

any proposal to deprive the colored people of their legal rights, including that of voting, would be overwhelmingly defeated.

Mr. Gorman no doubt realizes this. He is now playing for the nomination, and thinks that he can secure the convention vote of the South by playing on Southern prejudices and fears.

He may succeed so far as the convention is concerned, but he is weakening his position at the polls by a course which is clearly damagocic.

An expression of opinion by Associate Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court that the right of appeal should be taken away, as one method of checking the lynching evil, has caused so much adverse criticism that Justice Brewer has thought it advisable to defend his position in an elaborate paper in the current number of the New York Independent.

It appears from his explanation that he does not urge the entire abrogation of the right of appeal, but such restrictions as will tend to prevent its misuse.

He would give appellate courts full power to review the judgments of trial courts, but objects to the party defeated in one court having the right to compel review in another.

The judgment of the trial court, he contends, should remain final, unless on application to an appellate court, or to one of its judges, it or he shall certify that there is a probable reason to believe that injustice has been done.

He would have the whole control of appellate proceedings placed with the appellate court.

Justice Brewer points out that the claim of right of appeal is in fact the claim of a right to two trials, which is neither a right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States, nor a natural right.

It is simply a statutory privilege which the state gave and the state may take away. Of the mischievous results of the unrestricted right of appeal in criminal cases, he says:

Mr. Gorman no doubt realizes this. He is now playing for the nomination, and thinks that he can secure the convention vote of the South by playing on Southern prejudices and fears.

He may succeed so far as the convention is concerned, but he is weakening his position at the polls by a course which is clearly damagocic.

An expression of opinion by Associate Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court that the right of appeal should be taken away, as one method of checking the lynching evil, has caused so much adverse criticism that Justice Brewer has thought it advisable to defend his position in an elaborate paper in the current number of the New York Independent.

It appears from his explanation that he does not urge the entire abrogation of the right of appeal, but such restrictions as will tend to prevent its misuse.

He would give appellate courts full power to review the judgments of trial courts, but objects to the party defeated in one court having the right to compel review in another.

The judgment of the trial court, he contends, should remain final, unless on application to an appellate court, or to one of its judges, it or he shall certify that there is a probable reason to believe that injustice has been done.

He would have the whole control of appellate proceedings placed with the appellate court.

Justice Brewer points out that the claim of right of appeal is in fact the claim of a right to two trials, which is neither a right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States, nor a natural right.

It is simply a statutory privilege which the state gave and the state may take away. Of the mischievous results of the unrestricted right of appeal in criminal cases, he says:

The cheapest postal service in the world is that of Japan, where for two sent-about seven tenths of a penny—letters are conveyed all over the empire.

This is remarkable when you consider the mountainous country and their poor facilities for travel, railroads being very few.

The progress made by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters during the past fifty years is also very remarkable, especially when you remember the fact that in spite of all opposition it now occupies the first position as a family remedy.

There is a good reason for it, too. It has never failed in the most severe cases of sick headache, belching, heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles. Therefore, we urge you to try a bottle at once for your stomach's sake. It will do you good.

Such result is a tacit admission that there is something radically wrong in our present modes of criminal procedure.

It is strange that a community inebriated by some atrocious offense, aware of the common experience of criminal proceedings, takes the law into its own hands and summarily justifies the offender?

One thing, Justice Brewer maintains, is clear and should be borne in mind, that whatever the sifting process of successive appeals may accomplish in ascertaining the exact truth, "justice delayed is justice denied," and the early end of every litigation should be one of the great objects of all judicial proceedings.

Senator Gorman is making a hard play for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, and this probably accounts for the manner in which he is forcing the race issue to the front in the Maryland state campaign.

That he is thinking about something other than the situation in Maryland is evident from the condition existing in that state. The whites in Maryland very largely outnumber the blacks, and there is not the slightest danger of negro domination under any political conditions it is possible to conceive.

Not only are the blacks much less numerous than the whites, but their number is constantly decreasing, while the white population is slowly growing.

In a recent address Mr. Gorman indulged great anxiety over the alleged influx of negroes into West Virginia.

"In West Virginia," he said, "they have captured the state almost beyond redemption." The facts are, however, that the negro voters in West Virginia numbered 14,841, compared with a voting strength on the part of the whites of 206,657.

The vote for McKinley in that year was 119,842 against 98,705 for Bryan, a plurality for McKinley of 21,137, or much more than the entire negro vote. This does not look very much like negro domination.

It is not to be supposed that Mr. Gorman imagines that he could carry a national election on the race issue. While

Mrs. Anderson, Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine. Different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable."

"I have seen many cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."

proportion. Four or five rinks will be organized and matches with Marquette and other rinks in the peninsula will be arranged.

The members of the Houghton and Calumet militia companies who attended the Kentucky encampment last month will each receive $14.17 from the state for their services during that time.

The wage was fixed for the entire national guard of Michigan at a recent meeting of the state military board at Lansing. The expense of the encampment to the state was practically $42,000, considerably less than the cost of a state encampment. The pay of the enlisted men is the largest item of expense. In addition to the money to be paid them by the state, the men will each receive $5.20 from the government. The commissioned officers were paid nothing by the state, but were paid regular army salaries by the general government.

HOUGHTON IS GRATEFUL.
Formal Vote of Thanks for New D. S. S. & A. Station Tendered Mr. Fitch.

Houghton's appreciation of its handsome and commodious new passenger station was given formal expression yesterday in a vote of thanks tendered to President W. F. Fitch, of the South Shore road. A delegation of business men and other patrons of the railroad gathered at the Douglas House about 2 o'clock, and there greeted Mr. Fitch. He was considerably taken back, but the surprise was most pleasant. Several informal talks were given, in which Mr. Fitch and his company were cordially thanked for their generosity in providing such a model station, and then, on behalf of Houghton business men and the public in general, a vote of thanks was unanimously adopted. Mr. Fitch replied with a brief address.

Depot Opened Yesterday.
The new station was opened to the public for the first time yesterday and was visited by a large number of citizens. President Fitch arrived at noon to formally open the structure and to see that the removal from the old depot was accomplished without delay. The old station will now be removed across the lake, where it will be repaired and converted into a hotel by William Wallace, the Calumet house mover, who purchased the building. The grounds in front of the new depot probably will be much improved next spring. The new structure is a model railroad station. Its appearance and the interior fixtures and furnishings have been much commented upon. It appears to be the unanimous opinion that a more handsome station, considered from every point of view, with the exception of size, is not to be found anywhere in the country. The depot and its arrangement were practically planned by President Fitch, and the building stands as a monument to his skill in designing. The structure is of red sandstone, one story high, the roof projects ten feet on every side, while the platform is sixteen feet in width on all sides of the building. The station is 110 feet in length and twenty-five feet wide. The waiting room for ladies and gentlemen is seventy-five long. It is not divided by means of a partition, but by grill work from the ceiling, giving a more modern and pleasing effect. Off this room is the ticket office. Octagonal in shape and facing the front platform, it measures sixteen by twelve feet. The interior of the station is finished throughout with birch done in natural colors. The walls are finished in rough plaster, tinted light green. The ceiling tint is light pink. The depot is provided with two sets of double doors on either side, furnishing a convenient means of ingress and egress. The windows on all sides are double, with large glass, and provide a flood of light. Four electric lights illuminate the interior of the structure, while on the outside twenty-five incandescents will furnish ample light for the platforms and approach. A ladies' retiring room conveniently fitted up is a feature of the station. The ladies' waiting room is provided with large cane rocking chairs. There are toilet rooms for both ladies and gentlemen. A hot water plant will furnish the heat. The cost of the structure was, it is said, in the neighborhood of $21,000.

GRUESOME FIND.
Peter Fish, a farmer residing opposite Lily pond, at the canal, made a ghastly find Sunday afternoon. While going over some newly cleared land where he was to begin plowing the next morning, he came across a skeleton which later proved to be that of a man. The bones were bleached white and dry and from all appearances had been there for a long time. A few pieces of clothing remained, but the man's apparel for the most part had rotted and crumbled away. Fish notified Dan Washburn, supervisor of Hancock township, who lives at the canal, and he in turn telephoned to Acting Coroner Finn and Undertaker J. D. Crawford of Hancock. Judge Finn ordered the bones brought to Hancock and Mr. Crawford left for the canal yesterday morning for that purpose, returning about noon. A jury was impaneled and an inquest was set for Thursday afternoon. As a solution of the mystery surrounding the identity of the skeleton, it is said that the bones are those of a stowaway who was put off a boat at the canal about two years ago. A severe storm was blowing on the lake at the time and it was while the boat in question was sheltered in Lily pond that the unwelcome passenger was found and put ashore. As the story goes he wandered about the canal for several days and was fed and housed by the farmers in that vicinity. A farmer named Peppin, a neighbor of Fish, saw the stowaway in the woods up a tree one day. The man was wearing the top of his lungs and Peppin declared he was insane. He went back for aid, but when the party reached the spot the stowaway was not to be found. A search was instituted but it availed nothing. From that time on he was not seen. Messrs. Peppin, Fish and Washburn, who saw the man at the time, feel quite sure that the bones are those of the stowaway and have even managed to identify some of the pieces of clothing that are left.

FAST HOCKEY TEAM AT THE SOO.
Five of Last Year's Portage Lake Men to Play at the Lock City.
Portage Lake will not be the only place in the upper peninsula that will have a first-class hockey team during the coming season. From all accounts the Soo will have a seven that will make the local aggregation go some. The Lock City has already signed Rowe, Stevens, Meinke, Baker and Haller, all of last year's team. Portage Lake men will constitute the forward line, Stevens playing rover. Meinke probably will play his usual position at center, and Rowe and Haller will take the wing positions. They will resort to the same tactics that the locals last season, namely team and combination playing. Baker probably will play point, the position he held last year. The balance of the Soo seven will be made up of equally good material. Interest in the game at the Lock City is on a par with local enthusiasm. The team has the backing of the best business men, as is the case here.

TRAIN FOR THEATER-GOERS.
On evenings of popular attractions at the Kerredge theatre at Hancock the South Shore road will run a special train from L'Anse for the accommodation of L'Anse, Baraga, Keweenaw Bay and Chassell people. The service, which has already been started, will no doubt be appreciated, as it will give the people an opportunity to see the first-class performance. On evenings of big attractions the train will leave L'Anse in time to reach Hancock shortly before the curtain goes up at the Kerredge, and will depart about twenty minutes after the close of the entertainment.

COURT-MARTIAL HELD.
Non-Commissioned Officer of Company G Is Tried at Houghton.

A regimental court-martial for the purpose of investigating the alleged insubordination of a non-commissioned officer of Company G, Michigan National Guard, of Houghton, was held at the Army at Houghton last evening. It was the first trial of the kind ever conducted in the copper country. The court comprised Major Charles Hendrickson, Captain W. H. Tedman of Company E, Calumet, and Lieutenants T. E. Arrow and Pascoe of the Calumet company. The defendant was charged with deserting his company at Milwaukee while enroute to Camp Young at West Point, Ky., recently and with disgracing his rank by tearing off his stripes in a fit of angry passion. The case was thoroughly gone over by the court and although the findings will not be made public, it is said that a severe reprimand is in store for the accused.

HE WANTS DAMAGES.
Italian Miner Injured While Attempting to Board a Street Car.
Grassese Pasquale, an Italian miner employed at the Quincy mine and residing at Ripley, was injured while attempting to board a street car last Saturday evening. He thinks the company liable and has placed a claim for damages in the hands of Attorney J. E. Hantizer of Houghton. Unless a satisfactory settlement can be reached, it is said that Pasquale will enter suit against the street railway company.

The man alleges that while he was getting aboard a street car at the Quincy station on Quincy hill, the conductor rang the bell, starting the car. He was hurled violently to the ground, sustaining injury to his back and side and badly cutting his forehead and on the rocks which he fell. He says that two companions got on the car ahead of him, that the conductor did not wait for him to get aboard and that the accident was due to gross carelessness. Pasquale's injury is being attended by Dr. McDonald of the Quincy mine.

COUNCIL LOOKED TO FOR AID.
Library Association of Houghton May Change Its Headquarters.

The large front room on the second floor of the Leopold business block at Houghton may be utilized by the Women's Library association, providing the village will agree to stand part of the expense. The ladies now have the use of a small room in the city hall, where books are kept for distribution, but a change has been contemplated for some time. The association would not mind getting into better quarters and the village could make good use of the present library room.

The proposed new location would mean the payment of rent and possibly would be necessary the purchase of new books. The association is not sufficient, it is said, to pay the expense the new location would incur, but the suggestion has been advanced that the association would grow in membership through the change. A larger income would be the result but a large part of it, as now, would be needed for the purchase of new books. In the association's present location there is no rent nor salary to pay. The prospect of a change of quarters will be more bright providing the township library, which will have to vacate the Central school building, joins hands with it. The township library in that event would pay its share of the expense.

S. A. ACKLEY'S SUCCESSOR.
J. H. Westermann of Adrian the New Secretary of Calumet's Y. M. C. A.

James H. Westermann of Adrian has been selected by the board of trustees of the Calumet branch of the Y. M. C. A. to succeed S. A. Ackley, who resigned as general secretary to accept a position of greater responsibility as secretary of the branch at Jackson. Mr. Westermann is highly recommended as an association worker. He is due to arrive in a day or two, when Mr. Ackley will depart for his new field of work. The project to do away with the position of physical director and to combine the duties with that of the secretaryship for the purpose of cutting down expenses does not meet with the sanction of the board of directors. Although the plan would result in saving the salary of the physical director it is believed the result of the work, both in a spiritual and physical way, would fall short, as the combined duties of the two positions are too much for one man to look after. The directors would like to do away with the position, but not to the detriment of the work.

BRAND TO PLAY AT CALUMET.
Will Brand of Houghton, second baseman of the Calumet baseball team, champion of the upper peninsula for the season of 1903, has several offers to play with Northern league teams next summer. He has already signed with Calumet for next year and it is not likely that he will consider any of the propositions, although they are quite tempting. Mr. Brand could have broken into the major league some years ago if he had wished, as this is not the first time that he has had the opportunity of playing with league teams. He is not only a clever fielder but is a heavy batter. His playing during the season recently closed was gilt edged and naturally attracted attention.

for the best interests of the stockholders. A report from Dr. McElveen was read last evening. It referred to the present work and condition of the mine and contained much of encouragement. A report from L. E. Young, of the School of Mines at Golden, Colo., also was read. He stated that the mine is in good condition and that under good management it should be made to pay dividends. The regularity of the ore body, good walls, and little water, he says, will make mining costs low. According to Mr. Young it will pay to send part of the ore direct to the smelter. The remainder of the ore can be forwarded to the custom mill until the company solves the mill problem in a better way. The average of assay values of samples taken by Mr. Young was $61.20.

The failure of Judge Clancy of Butte to appoint a receiver for the Boston & Montana is believed to have been a great surprise to the Amalgamated officials, says the Boston News Bureau. They had every reason to believe that a receiver would be appointed. The instructions to the Butte officials of the company were to close down the properties in case of an adverse decision. After taking such action the only report received at the Amalgamated offices the next morning was a telegram from President Scallon announcing that in obedience to orders the properties had been ordered closed.

It is not believed that the shutdown was ordered with any idea of a settlement between the opposing factions. The offer to purchase the Boston & Montana and Parrot stock from Heinze through the Miners' union came from Senator Clark and his Butte associates, not from the Amalgamated company, and there is reason to believe that the offer was made without taking the Amalgamated officials into their confidence.

A prominent New York lawyer and business man in a position to have accurate information regarding Amalgamated said: "I have reason to believe that the failure of the Clancy to appoint a receiver for the Boston & Montana was a great disappointment to the Amalgamated people. The appointment of a receiver for the Montana company would have permitted an easy settlement of litigation affecting the Montana company. Under such court action a board that can be depended upon to act

Re-Occupation of Mukden Has Created Consternation at Tokio—Muskovite Opposition to the American Treaty Develops.

Yokohama, Nov. 2.—The re-occupation of Mukden by Russians is officially confirmed at Tokio, where it has created great consternation. It is officially reported at Tokio from Wiju, via Seoul, that the Russians are withdrawing from Yungampho, on the Yalu river, and dismantling their fortress there, leaving only small garrads.

Serious Conflict in Corea. London, Tuesday, Nov. 3.—The Tokio correspondent of the Mail reports a serious affray at Chemulpo, Corea, between Russian bluejackets belonging to the gunboat Bohr and Japanese bluejackets from the cruiser Chiyoada and a number of Japanese residents of Chemulpo. Ten Japanese and several Russians were injured.

Chinese General Held Prisoner. Peking, Nov. 2.—A conference of high officials with the dowager empress concerning the re-occupation of Mukden, capital of Manchuria, by Russian troops was held at the summer palace today. Yuan Shi Kai, governor of Chi Li province, was hastily summoned from Tsin Tien and proceeded directly to the palace. The Russians have the Tartar general of Mukden in custody in his yamen.

American Treaty Opposed. London, Tuesday, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Che Foo to the Post says that Russians in Manchuria oppose the opening of Mukden. The Novikrai (a newspaper), the correspondent continues, declares that the treaty between China and the United States should not be ratified because it would ruin the Russian railroad traffic in Manchuria.

China Appeals to America. Washington, Nov. 2.—Sir Liang, the Chinese minister, today had an interview with Secretary Hay on China's appeal for assistance in checking Russian troops in Manchuria. It was pointed out to him that until the treaty with China is signed the United States would not be in position to insist on strict regard for treaty rights. This treaty is expected this week, and will be ratified at the extra session of congress.

The Peking government has been told that infringement by Russia of American treaty rights in Manchuria will furnish the Washington government an opportunity for at least a reiteration of its desire for the preservation of the integrity of China.

NEEDS $170,000,000. Postmaster General Payne Completes His Estimates of Appropriations.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Postmaster General Payne, in his estimates of the appropriations needed during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, calls for an aggregate of $168,086,000 for the postal service and $1,511,000 for the postoffice department proper at Washington, including the salaries of clerks, rent of buildings, etc. The deficit for the year ending June 30, 1905, is estimated at $8,614,000. The appropriation for the year ending June 30, 1904, was $153,512,000; estimated revenues for that year, $146,507,000. The estimated revenue for 1905 is $159,456,000. The total increase on account of the city delivery service is $1,872,000; the rural free delivery increase is $3,164,000.

OUTPOINTS JOE GANS. Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Joe Blackburn, a local man, outpointed Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, in a fast six round bout tonight.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2.—John Daner of Covington knocked out Young Walcott of Baltimore here tonight in the eighth round of what was scheduled to be a twenty-round bout.

EXPENDITURES EXCEED RECEIPTS. Washington, Nov. 2.—For the month of October the total receipts were $49,943,213 and expenditures $51,991,478, leaving a deficit for the month of $1,947,265. The monthly statement of the public debt shows that the total debt, less the cash in the treasury, is $920,402,561, an increase for the month of $2,049,656.

FIRST CABLE SECTION DOWN. Cologne, Nov. 2.—The new cable of the German-Atlantic Cable company between Emden and Fayal, Azores, has just been completed. This is the first section of the company's second cable between Germany and New York city. The section between Fayal and New York city will be laid early in 1904.

TODAY'S WEATHER. Washington, Nov. 2.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Fair Tuesday and Wednesday; cooler in west portion Wednesday; light to fresh winds mostly south.

Today—Ayer's Sarsaparilla day. Take other kinds tomorrow.

BLOOD FLOWS AT WARSAW. Many Persons Wounded in Battle Between Jews and Police.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Tageblatt from Posen says that a bloody conflict between five hundred Jews and a force of Russian gendarmie took place at Warsaw on Saturday during the counting of recruits. The wounded—on both sides numbered over forty, several sustaining fatal injuries.

AS SIGN OF DISAPPROVAL. U. S. Minister to Colombia to Have a Long Vacation.

Washington, Nov. 2.—It was intimated at the state department today that it might be a long time before United States Minister Bourne returned to Colombia, once he departs on his leave of absence. The inference is that the minister will stay away as a sign of disapproval by our government of the manner in which the canal treaty was disposed. A. G. Snyder, secretary of the legation, will remain in charge at Bogota.

POPE PIUS GRATEFUL. Sends a Contribution to the Rome Firemen's Aid Fund.

Rome, Nov. 2.—The loss by fire in the Vatican last Sunday will not exceed $50,000. The Vatican authorities have expressed satisfaction with the help and sympathy given by the Italian officials. The papal secretary of state, acting under the personal instruction of the pope, has written the commander of the Italian firemen, thanking him for the work done in extinguishing the fire and enclosing a contribution to the Firemen's Mutual Assistance league.

SITES BOUGHT FOR MILLERS. Great Western Aims to Make Omaha a Grain and Flouring Center.

Omaha, Nov. 2.—President Stickney, of the Chicago Great Western, today bought a party of thirty-five grain and mill sites from Minneapolis and St. Paul with the avowed purpose of starting a grain market in Omaha. In the course of a statement Mr. Stickney said it was his ultimate purpose of himself and associates to establish one of the largest markets in the country here, and that he had preface his intentions by purchasing thirty-five acres of ground on which to establish elevators and flouring mills, situated as to be in connection with all the grain-carrying lines that enter the city.

NAVAL YARDS CRAMPED. Rear Admiral Endicott Says More Room Is Imperatively Needed.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Rear Admiral Endicott, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, in his annual report to the secretary of the navy says that the naval yards, especially those at New York and Norfolk, are becoming congested owing to the limited area and that unless some action is taken looking to relief their efficiency will become restricted.

$1,000,000 for Gun Factory Asked. Rear Admiral O'Neill's report recommends an appropriation of a million dollars for general increase in the capacity of the navy gun factory at Washington. He advises the manufacture by the gun factory of fifty-five ten and twelve-inch guns and of as many of the guns of smaller calibre as possible. The remainder, he thinks, should be contracted for with private parties. The establishment of an ordnance corps in the navy is also recommended.

ROCKEFELLER, JR., SHOCKED. Son of Oil Magnate Advises Young Men to Shun Dishonest Business Ways.

New York, Nov. 2.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in his lecture to the young men of the Bible class of the Fifth avenue Baptist church yesterday assailed corporations which are manipulated to the detriment of the public good and incidentally gave some good advice to young men who came to New York seeking a successful business career.

OFFICIALS SEEK TO FIX BLAME. Persons Responsible for the Purdue Wreck to Be Prosecuted.

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—State, city, county and railway officials are determined to fix the blame for the Big Four wreck, as a result of which sixteen students and friends have died and fifty others were injured. Governor Durbin is especially interested and may call for an official investigation to supplement that of the coroner and police.

That a 700-ton train should have been backed off a switch right in front of a swiftly moving college special supposed to have a clear track on the main line, thereby causing the disaster, presents a situation in which each side of the officials say, so far as can be learned the crew of each train was ignorant of the proximity of the other, and both had "clear track" orders. This fact may place responsibility for the disaster in the railway officials. The train will be brought out at the impact and an effort made to push the carless.

General Superintendent Van Winkle of the Big Four company said tonight he was unable yet to say who was responsible for the disaster, but he was of the opinion that the cause was not as simple as it appeared. "My time has been devoted to looking after the injured and the shipment of the dead," he said. "The official of the Big Four later tonight declared that the crew in charge of the football special were responsible because they failed to exercise the required precaution. The engineer of the special is blamed for not having his train under control. The coroner has not completed his inquiry."

ROOSEVELT STATES HIS VIEWS. Criticism by Gorman Is Replied to by the President.

Washington, Nov. 2.—President Roosevelt has indulged in another wide departure from the traditions that have surrounded presidents from the inception of the government. He has submitted a newspaper interview which was put out with the expectation that it would run through the press of the country. Heretofore when presidents have felt inspired or compelled to indulge in un- official utterance bulletins were issued from the White House in the form of impersonal statements and spread broadcast by the press associations. On at least one occasion President McKinley permitted an interview with himself that was attributed to the "highest authority." President Roosevelt, however, seemingly was too deeply interested in having his views presented to the public to admit of subterfuge of any sort.

The moving cause of the president's radical departure from White House traditions was his desire to reply to Senator Gorman's exhortation with reference to dining with Booker T. Washington at the White House. Gorman has been making that incident and others in which questions of negro privilege are involved a leading feature of the Maryland campaign.

"If I could be absolutely assured of my reelection as president," he is quoted as saying, "by turning my back on the principles of human liberty as

NEGROES ASSIST IN A LYNCHING

WHITES AND BLACKS IN LOUISIANA JOIN IN AVENGING A TRIPLE MURDER.

COLORED MAN THEIR VICTIM

IS STRUNG UP AND HIS BODY BURNED TO ASHES.

Crime for Which He Reaped the Penalty a Fiendish Assault With an Axe on Three Inoffensive Men of His Own Race.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 2.—Joseph Craddock, a negro, was lynched at Taylortown, about seventeen miles from Shreveport, last night. Craddock went to the home of Wesley Chambers, a negro, and delft his head to two with an axe. When Chambers fell on the ground, Craddock frigidly mutilated the body. He then struck this he crept on Dana Washington, a negro, and struck him on the head with the axe. Not satisfied with this crime, Craddock went to Chambers' cabin and called for Mercer, a brother of Wesley Chambers came to the door and was immediately beaten down with the axe and frightfully injured. Wesley Chambers died almost instantly. Mercer died this afternoon and Dana Washington cannot possibly live.

Craddock was captured by a posse of white men, but a crowd of 250 or 300, composed largely of negroes, took possession of the murderer. He was at once hanged and his body then burned to ashes. The men killed were inoffensive negroes.

BALLINGTON BOOTH REFUSES. Declines to View Sister's Remains at Salvation Army Headquarters.

New York, Nov. 2.—General Ballington Booth, head of the Volunteers of America, who refused to remain at the service in memory of his sister, Consul Emma Booth-Tucker, at Carnegie Hall on Sunday because the Salvation Army officials refused to permit a family gathering prior to the public services, later received a letter from Colonel L. M. Higgins, chief of the Salvation Army, in explanation thereof, together with an invitation to view the remains privately at the Salvation Army national headquarters today. He declined to accept the invitation.

Memorial Service at London. London, Nov. 2.—There was an immense gathering of Salvationists at Congress Hall, Clapton, tonight at the memorial service for the late Mrs. Booth-Tucker, General Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvationists throughout the world and father of Mrs. Booth-Tucker, made a touching address. General Booth read a message from Commander Booth-Tucker, chief of the Salvation Army in the United States, and also messages of condolence from all parts of the world, including a large number from prominent persons in the United States.

ACCUSED OF HAZING. Trials of Three Midshipmen Begin at the Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 2.—The proceedings of the naval court-martial called for the trial of three midshipmen of the first class charged with hazing members of the fourth class, began today. The first to be arraigned was John H. Lofland of Okaloosa, Ia., and his plea was not guilty. All of today's session was occupied with the hearing of witnesses and the presentation of evidence. As soon as the trial of Lofland is completed, the court will take up the cases of Joseph D. Little of Springfield, O., and Earle W. Chaffe, of Rhineland, Wis. The men are charged with having subjected Midshipmen W. W. Lawrence of Colorado and Greghill Humphreys of Kentucky, of the fourth class, to physical indignities. The former, it is alleged, was compelled to stand on his head and the latter was forced to undergo prostrated physical exercises. Lawrence and Humphreys and a number of other midshipmen were witnesses today.

STOCK MARKET VERY DULL. Movement of Prices Is Narrow and Without Significance.

New York, Nov. 2.—The sluggish drift of the market today took market prices little significance. A number of factors conduced to the extreme dullness. It was a holiday here, and tomorrow will be a holiday here. The advancing tendency of the stocks of the New York corporations reflected the views of operators. The market was dull and the outcome of tomorrow's election of the values of those securities. American Car, in the face of a reported decrease of $226,049 in net earnings for the quarter ended Aug. 31, rose sharply and carried other railroad equipment stocks with it.

The market continued to go to the interior, the sub-treasury transferring $650,000 to New Orleans and $200,000 to Chicago. The movement to St. Louis was discontinued with beneficial effect upon sentiment. The rates for time money hardened decidedly and not only under 6 per cent, but under 6 per cent. Call loans, on the contrary, eased notably and fell to 2 per cent at the last.

A report which was circulated, to the effect that $1,000,000 in gold had been engaged in London for shipment to New York, although not officially confirmed, has been the subject of much comment on the basis of expectation that further gold would come in. This was the dominant influence on the market and resulted in advances reaching about a point in a number of Pacific. Anamalgamated Copper was neglected and fell, presenting a contrast of the failure of the mediation committee to effect a settlement of the Montana trouble. Paine, Webber & Co. report closing prices as follows:

Table of stock prices including Wabash, No. Pacific, Manhattan, N.Y. Central, Southern Pac., etc.

Range of Money Rates. Money on call, easier, at 2 1/2% per cent; closing bid at 2, offered at 2 1/2%. Time loans, firmer; sixty and ninety days, 5 1/2% per cent; six months, 5 1/2% @ 6%. Prime paper, 5 1/2% @ 6%. Exchange, steady, demand at 484.30 @ 484.45 and sixty days at 481. Bar silver, 59 1/2.

BOSTON COPPER QUOTATIONS. The copper stocks dealt in on the Boston exchange closed as follows yesterday, the quotations being reported by Paine, Webber & Co.:

BOSTON STOCK SALES. The following were the transactions in copper stocks on the Boston exchange Saturday, as furnished to The Mining Journal by Paine, Webber & Co.:

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS. Chicago, Nov. 2.—Both cash and speculative business was of an extremely dragging nature in wheat today and the prices showed little inclination to move one way or the other. Continued selling of December by Armour was the only feature to enliven an otherwise dead market, and this selling had a depressing influence throughout the day and finally succeeded in forcing prices a trifle lower. At the outset the market was inclined to firmness on smaller Russian wheat, but steady cables, and after starting unchanged to 3/4 higher, CUBA REAPS BENEFITS. President Palma in Message Talks of Relations With United States.

Havana, Nov. 2.—The regular session of congress opened this afternoon. President Palma in his message says that "the political relations with the United States have been definitely settled by treaties founded on terms of constitutional appendix"; that within the terms of that appendix Cuba has obtained many advantages, and that of the two forms of session of naval coaling stations by sale or by lease, the one less harmful to Cuban sentiment was adopted and the smallest limit as to the number of stations granted was made.

Continuing the message says: "The Honorable President Roosevelt, for whom the people of Cuba feel such profound gratitude, has been faithful to his word and has convened the American congress in special session for the purpose of taking action on the pending reciprocity treaty, from which we hope to receive such great benefits. Trustworthy information has been received by the executive which warrants the belief that this treaty will be ratified."

The balance in the treasury on Nov. 1 was $3,843,000, and the surplus accumulated during the past seven months was $1,025,000.

RATION OR ITS MONEY VALUE. Washington, Nov. 2.—The comptroller of the treasury has decided that the secretary of war is authorized to turn over to the proper state officials, for the use of the different states, organized militia while engaged in actual field or camp service for instruction, the money value of the regular army ration instead of the ration in kind.

PROPELLERS AT THE BOW. Greater Speed Thus Obtainable, Says a Southern Inventor.

Will the steamships of the future be pulled, instead of pushed, along as at present? This question has been answered in the affirmative by A. H. Gilmore, the former business manager of the first morning paper ever published in Newport News. Mr. Gilmore has just made application to the patent office at Washington for patents on a remarkable invention which he believes will revolutionize navigation by steam power. The invention is regarded as a freak by the mechanics and shipbuilders before whom he has exhibited it. The inventor proposes to place the propeller, wheels or screws, at the bow instead of the stern end of the vessel. He claims the device will produce double the present speed at about one-half the cost.

CURIOUS JACK-IN-ARMOR. His Duty Is to Announce the Commencement of Church Service.

Several of the old towns on the Suffolk, England, coast boast of a jack-of-armor. One of the best is at Southwold that quaint, old-fashioned seaside resort, now trying to burst from its straitened stage into a fashionable but-terfly seaside resort. Some years ago the jack used to stand outside the church on a bracket over the western arch, and as each hour came round on the clock he struck his hatchet against the bell to announce the time. The poor old jack of carved oak weathered many a storm outside the building until some wise person, seeing that he was being gradually worn away, suggested his being preserved inside the edifice. The Southwold jack-in-armor is a curious looking personage. He stands about five feet high, and at the present moment holds an excited position near the beautifully carved and painted old screen. He is perched well on high, so he can be seen by most of the congregation, to whom he now announces the commencement of the service.

When the clergy are ready to leave the vestry the string which goes down Jack's right arm is gently pulled, and his arm begins to move up and down, striking the bell as it does so with Jack's hatchet, placed for the purpose beside the figure. He makes a considerable noise, and strangers in the congregation are somewhat startled at so unusual a disturbance, if not prepared beforehand.

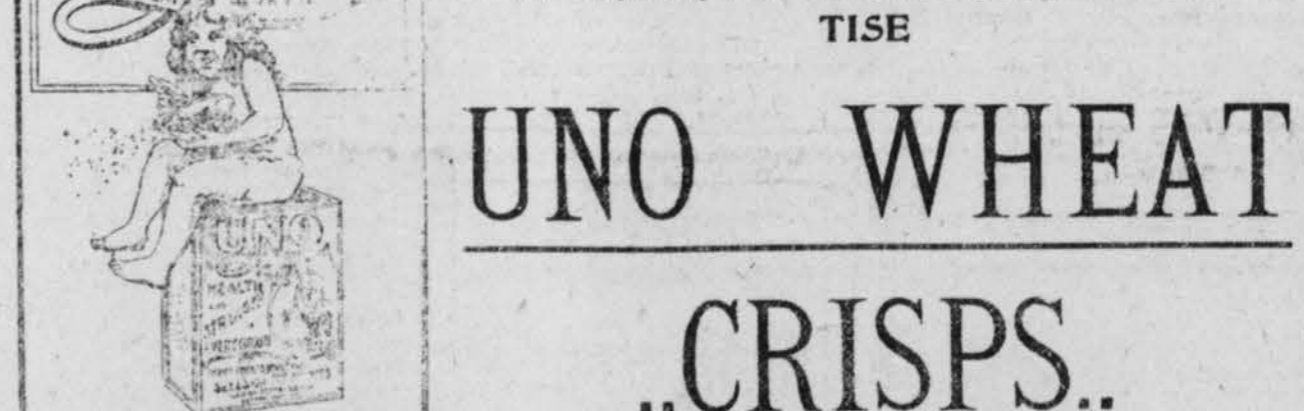

The interesting little figure is painted dark green, relieved here and there with gold. His dress is of armor, and he wears big gauntlet gloves. In the left hand he holds a sword. His helmet comes well down over his brows, and his ears are protected by the projecting side pieces. He does not aspire to a visor, but his helmet is studded with big nails. He has a nice, kind face, a little flattened at the nose and mouth through long ages, for even wooden jacks will rust forever. At one time many of the Suffolk churches boasted a jack, but today these queer little gentlemen are rare.—London Queen.

Remember! THAT UNO WHEAT CRISPS IS SUPERIOR to any other breakfast food on the market today, being made from No. 1, softest, white Michigan wheat and best medicinal malt, rich in starch-digesting principles, which gives it a delicate nutty flavor. No human hand touches the food from the time the wheat enters the bins until the package is opened by the consumer, thereby making it free from germs and absolutely clean and wholesome. Being a partially predigested food, a child two months old can digest it and thrive upon it; for invalids it is unsurpassed, as it is easily maintained on the most delicate stomach; it does not tax the digestive organs, but will stimulate their healthy development. We recommend it for the entire family. Do not confound it with the other so-called malted foods.

GOOD BILL TONIGHT.

Jefferson De Angelis Coming to the Marquette Opera House.

There has been a good sale of tickets for "The Toreador," to be presented at the opera house this evening by Jefferson De Angelis and his strong company. Mr. De Angelis is supported by a number of well-known singers and comedians and his company includes a large and powerful chorus. "The Toreador" is one of the acknowledged musical successes of the past few years and already Mr. De Angelis has been acclaimed in it in the leading theaters in dramatic centers. There is much interest in his appearance in Marquette and the indications are that it will be one of the best events of the theatrical season.

The story of "The Toreador" is carried consistently through two acts, the songs and bits of dialogue not appearing to be interpolated. The lyrics are admirably done and the music is exceptionally melodious and shows a considerable amount of invention. The scenes are laid at Biarritz, France, and Villaya, a Spanish town, which gives splendid opportunity for an elaborate and beautiful scenic production. Mr. De Angelis creates unlimited merriment as Sammy Gigg, who manages to become involved in a number of ludicrous situations through becoming mistaken for the Toreador.

The old Quinnec mine, at Quinnec, Menominee range, has been closed down for an indefinite period. About seventy men are affected.

Seven and a Half Tons of Fish.
A big catch of whitefish was made last week by Captain Goudreau of Seal Choix, near Manistique. It weighed 14,000 pounds and was sold for a little over $1,300.

Daniel Wilson, a Thompson township (Schoolcraft county) farmer, raised, among others, a thirty-pound pumpkin this year. It was the largest brought to Manistique this season.

Gored by a Bull.
S. E. McNeil, employed on the Hood farm, east of Manistique, was severely gored by a bull last week, sustaining three fractured ribs and other injuries. He was thrown about twelve feet and then trampled upon.

Fire Engine Won.
A test was made at Manistique last week to ascertain the respective merits of the city's fire engine and the pump on the tug Gifford. Each forced water through 200 feet of hose and the fire engine won the honors easily.

Acquitted of Murder.
It only took the jury about five minutes to determine that Alexander Bigelow is not guilty of causing the death of Edward Kaiser of Rockland on Sunday, May 3, during a street fight at Rockland in which Bigelow and Kaiser were the participants. The trial was held in the circuit court at Ontonagon last week.

Municipal 'Phone Line Dropped.
The idea of establishing a municipal telephone system at Newberry evidently has been dropped. A special meeting of the village fathers was held last week to consider the situation. District Superintendent Wilde, of the Michigan Telephone company, appeared before the council and stated the position of his company. After mature deliberation the council decided to let the Michigan people go ahead and install their system, and appointed a committee to decide where the poles should be located.

Lav Suit Worried Him.
With a rifle lying at his side, Samuel Knowles, residing six miles from the Soo, in Mackinac county, was found lying dead in his barn. He had shut himself in a small room and from appearances the trigger was pulled by one of his feet. The bullet from the gun had passed through the heart. Knowles was a married man and leaves a wife and two small children. He was thirty-one years of age. It is thought his mind was affected by worry over a lawsuit in which he had been concerned since last September.

Had a Close Call.
John Cumminsky of Escanaba, prosecuting attorney of Delta county, had a narrow escape from death or injury at Marquette last week. He was a passenger on a southbound train and as it was slowing up he attempted to alight. His foot slipped, however, and he fell at almost across the rails. By a great effort he rolled himself back toward the platform just as he struck and escaped, as there is two feet of space between the rail and the track. The people on the platform rushed forward in horror, expecting that Mr. Cumminsky had been killed.

Means Much for Munising.
M. A. Doty, one of the men interested in the new factories, is in Munising, and preliminary arrangements are being made to get work under way for repairs at the mills purchased from the Northwestern Cooperage & Lumber company and also to put camps into commission so that a supply of timber with which to stock the factories next summer may be secured. The factories which are to be added to Munising's list of industries are now located at Mancelona and the people of that lower Michigan town are greatly disheartened by the knowledge that they are to lose them. Their coming to Munising will mean an added population of about 1,000.

Diary May Furnish Clue.
A diary, used as a note and account book by the late Gust Adams, recently killed at Nathan, Menominee county, where he was in the saloon business, has been found and it may furnish some clue to the murderer, for although there have been no remarkable developments of late the disclosures in the diary point a finger of suspicion and reveal the fact that the murdered man had loaned large sums of money, no account of which was kept other than in this small book. What casts a suspicion which gives the officers some clue is the fact that it is believed this diary has been tampered with since the death of Adams. Leaves have been torn out, erasures have been made, and there is writing in the book evidently not that of Adams. Detective McMillan has left Nathan and the offi-

Grave Robberies Suspected.
The Menominee officers are inclined to believe that grave robbers have been operating in the vicinity of Spalding and Powers, and it is like that an inspection of the cemeteries of the county will soon be made. The finding of a woman's foot, as mentioned a few days ago, has led to the suspicion of operations by ghoulies. The officers know that no one is missing in that part of the county and physicians report that there have been no amputations of a limb, so how the foot could have been picked up other than from a grave yard the officers are unable to understand. The foot was found by a dog, which carried it to the yard of a residence at Spalding.

Will Move to Tennessee.
After having spent more than a quarter of a century as general manager of the New York farm, near Iron Mountain, owned by the Menominee River Lumber Co., Frank Juno has resigned his position and accompanied by his wife will leave this week for Chattanooga, Tennessee, where he will make his future home and engage in the lumber business. During the year 1877, after the close of the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Juno arrived in the upper peninsula and entering the employ of the Menominee River Lumber company began the development of a wide expanse of wilderness, now the fruitful and fertile New York farm. This area aggregates one thousand acres of which eight hundred are now under cultivation.

School Board Starts Crusade.
The school board of Menominee has taken the initiative in enforcing the law which makes it a felony for merchants to sell cigarettes or tobacco to minors. Joseph Parent, a grocer, has been arrested upon complaint of Superintendent B. S. Hopkins on a charge of violating the law. The trial of the case has been set for Wednesday in the municipal court. The superintendent of schools, supported by the school board, has instructed Truant Officer Ruprecht to prosecute any such cases that come to his attention, and this is the first case. The trial of the case has been set for Wednesday in the municipal court. The members of the school board were present in court when the case was first called last week. President Eisman says the school board hopes to put a stop to this violation of the state law.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.
The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower cures the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. WERE OLD FRIENDS.
Dominick Papa and His Victim Had Been Intimate for Past Two Years.

Dominick Papa, the slayer of Mike Savant, had been on intimate terms with his victim for the past two years. Previous to Papa's marriage the men had lived together, keeping bachelor quarters upstairs in the Leffler building. To all appearances they were the best of friends, but after the younger man's marriage they parted company. "The woman in the case" was the first cause of disagreement between them and she led to an increasing bitterness of feeling, which terminated in the tragedy. Papa was married about seven months ago. His courtship lasted only six days, the match having been arranged while the girl was in the old country through the medium of her aunt here. Papa had never seen his future wife, but was virtually betrothed to her before she sailed for America. Papa and his bride began housekeeping by themselves. Savant wished to enter their home, as a boarder. He was insistent, so Papa claims, never failing to bring up the subject whenever the two met. Papa steadily refused to take Savant in, at which he claims his former comrade seemed to take offense. Papa and his friends talked freely of the affair, relating the whole story of his relationship with Savant. Shortly after his marriage he says that he met Savant in a shoe shop. The older man renewed his importunities regarding the matter and Papa, to his regret, that he was still friendly and "a good fellow," Papa invited Savant and the whole crowd about the shop to his house, where he treated them all with beer. Papa says he tried to keep Savant's good will, but was determined to have neither him nor any other else as a boarder. He felt, no doubt, a good deal of jealousy toward Savant, but he refused to admit that this was what prompted him to commit the murder.

Story of the Crime.
A week ago Sunday Savant came to Papa's home while the latter was away and inquired for him. He seemed angered at not finding Papa, but did not return nor did the two men meet that day. They met early Sunday afternoon in the rooms over Nardi's place and exchanged some hot words. Hostilities between the two men were renewed and the women implored the angry men not to fight here. Papa left shortly after this incident, but soon returned, armed with his revolver. He found no one in the saloon, but ran into Savant in the entry near the foot of the interior stairway leading to the second story. Papa says that Savant jolted him with his elbow. Before either spoke a word he pulled out his gun and fired twice. One bullet went into Savant's heart and the other flew wild. Papa said when questioned that he saw no one else and no witnesses of the deed. Savant was clad in trousers and undershirt and was unarmed.

The crowd upstairs seemed to know instinctively what was the matter the instant the shots were heard. Some went down to the room where the murder took place, but the police, who were called, found no witnesses of the deed. Savant was clad in trousers and undershirt and was unarmed.

CLIMATIC CURES.
The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweats. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that the thousands of consumptives there, the thousands who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. Stafford Drug Co.

EXAMINATION ADJOURNED.
The examination of Dominick Papa, murderer of Mike Savant, was begun yesterday before Judge Kennedy. The proceedings occupied several hours and the examination was finally adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock. Attorney Potter appeared for the defendant and Prosecutor Bell conducted the cause of the people. A large crowd gathered about the street in the neighborhood of the court room, many Italians being in evidence.

DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.
It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's new Life Pills. They cut off maladies that matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c, at The Stafford Drug Co.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.
T. Y. Bambridge of Menominee was here yesterday.
Miss Odie Murray of Houghton is here visiting friends.
Captain W. J. Allen of Humboldt was among the Ishpeming visitors yesterday.
Mrs. J. Ruez left yesterday morning for a visit at Fond du Lac and Milwaukee.
Twin boys were born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Humboldt.
Walter Stephens of Appleton was here Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin, William Nichols.
A chicken pie supper will be served by the Ladies' guild of Grace church at two until five.
Miss Amelia Olcott, superintendent of the schools at Bessemer, and former principal of the Ishpeming high school, was in town over Sunday.
Masons are engaged in repairs on the foundation of the Sellwood block. Portions of the brick work are being removed and replaced with sandstone.
Dave Devine suffered a compound fracture of the arm in the game between the Peleeless eleven and the Bronco-Busters Sunday afternoon. He was a member of the Bronco-Busters.
The lover story of the addition to the Mortley block has been transferred, and part of the front was put in yesterday. The lathing is nearly completed in the upper story and some of the walls have been plastered.
Large congregations have assembled every night to attend the mission meetings at the Swedish Mission church. The services have been in progress since Friday and will close tomorrow evening. Ministers of the denomination from all parts of the peninsula are in attendance.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.
There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, hoarse failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the various vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.
Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effects of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root in this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both Home of Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

MUD VOLCANOES.
Nature of Those That Spout in Italy, Asia and Central America.

Mud volcanoes are found in northern Italy near Modena, in Sicily near Girgenti, on the shores of the Sea of Azov and the Caspian, in Central America and in other parts of the globe. The gas frequently escapes from them with such violence that mud is thrown into the air to the height of several hundred feet. Sometimes this gas is inflammable, consisting of sulphuretted hydrogen, hydrogen, or some hydrocarbons, and these gases occasionally take fire, so that true flames issue from these mud volcanoes. In other cases the mud volcanoes appear to be formed by either hot or cold springs, containing large quantities of suspended materials, and the liquid mud issues from the vent without any violent eruptive action.

Pros. Bunsen, in his account of the pseudo-volcanic phenomena of Iceland, describes many valleys where sulphurous and aqueous vapors burst forth with a hissing sound from the hot soil formed of volcanic tuff. In such spots a pool of boiling water is seen, in which a bluish-black argillaceous paste issues in huge bubbles. These bubbles, on bursting, throw the boiling mud to a height of fifteen feet or more, so that it accumulates in ledges around the crater and best of the spring.

The formation of a new mud volcano was witnessed, according to Lyell, on November 27, 1827, at Toknaki, on the peninsula of Abcheron, east of Buka, on the Caspian. Flashed blazed up on an extraordinary height for three hours and continued for twenty hours more to rise about three feet from a crater from which mud was ejected. At another point in the same district where flames issued fragments of rock of large size were hurled up into the air and scattered around.

Near Girgenti, in Sicily, are several conical mounds ten to thirty feet high, with small craters at their summits, from which cold water mixed with mud and bitumen is cast off. Bubbles of carbonic acid and carburetted hydrogen gas are also discharged from these springs, and at certain periods with such violence as to throw the mud two hundred feet high. These mud or "air volcanoes" are known to have been in activity for the last fifteen centuries. An area of not less than one thousand square miles, 120 miles northwest of Cutch and the mouths of the Indus, is covered over by numerous mud volcanoes. One of the cones is four hundred feet, composed of light-colored earth and having at its summit a crater thirty yards in diameter. The liquid mud which fills the crater is continually disturbed by air bubbles, and here and there is cast up in small jets.

Who shall say but what Rosita, Silver Cliff and Cripple Creek in Colorado witnessed many such phenomena?—Mines and Minerals.

A GOOD NAME.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by The Stafford Drug Co., Marquette, and H. N. Meloche, Ishpeming.

Energy all gone? Headache? Stomach out of order? Simply a case of torpid liver. Burdock Blood Bitters will make a new man or woman of you.

A REMARKABLE CASE.
One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs, and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by The Stafford Drug Co., Marquette, and H. N. Meloche, Ishpeming.

THE THIRD ROBBER.
There seems to be no doubt that the crook arrested a few days ago at St. Paul was the third member of the gang with whom the police had their battle on the train here some time ago. A dispatch from Waukesha, Wis., refers as follows of the capture of the man:
If the jail officers here could be persuaded to give way to their feelings, nothing short of a bonfire, fireworks and a public execution would be a suitable vent to their hilarious feelings over the capture of James Packard, alias Frank Latimer, at St. Paul by Sheriff Scholl yesterday.

The sheriff has had track of both Davidson and Packard, who broke jail here in July, for some time, but the capture of Davidson at Ishpeming, Mich., and the escape of Packard rather threw his plans out for a time. Tuesday Sheriff Scholl left for St. Paul and yesterday the following telegram was hailed with joy at the jail office: Arrested Packard at St. Paul, Mich. Packard and another alleged crook, Jimmy Lonngan, were caught by the sheriff, a detective and two St. Paul deputies as they alighted from a street car.

The picture of Packard is exactly similar to one the Ishpeming marshal has in his collection. The crook, who was the counterpart of the older robber. The marshal says that there is no resemblance between the picture and the man on the train whom both he and the deputy searched.

NOT TO COACH ESCANABA.
Charles Juttner of Powers, formerly a member of the University of Michigan team, denies he will coach the Escanaba eleven, as reported. He writes as follows in regard to that matter and the football outlook in the upper peninsula:
"I notice a statement to the effect that I am to coach the Escanaba team. There is no truth in the report. Mr. Jolliffe, now coach of the Escanaba team, has been untiring in his efforts to develop the Escanaba team, and from the candid showing the team has made last year, as well as up to the present time, his labors have not been unrewarded. Word reaches us from the Hematite camp, that Mr. Sweetland will have a team again this fall that promises championship possibilities. In view of the great record of the team, we are well established this season, we are safe in saying that when they meet to decide who is to be champion, it will be one of the best contests of high school football ever seen in the state."

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.
William N. Lynch, of Empire street, expired very suddenly about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He had arisen early and performed his usual tasks, but later complained of feeling unwell. A doctor was summoned, but before he arrived the patient had expired. Mr. Lynch seemed to be feeling as well as usual. He went to his room, and there death followed in a few minutes.

The deceased had lived in Ishpeming for thirty-nine years. He had a wide acquaintance and is remembered as a kindly, well respected man. Mr. Lynch knew him. He won much local renown by his forecasts of the weather, his predictions seldom failing to prove accurate. Mr. Lynch conducted a market garden for many years. He was seventy years old last month. Besides his wife, a son and a daughter survive. Mr. Lynch and Mrs. J. C. Paull, both of this city.

The time of the funeral will be announced tomorrow.

CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY.
The case of the D. S. S. & A. Railroad company against the Upper Peninsula Iron & Metal company, which was on the docket in Judge Andrews' court yesterday morning, was adjourned, the defendant furnishing bonds to the amount of $500. Robert Buckman, the representative of the defendant concern, is charged with grand larceny, being accused of engaging parties to steal rails from the South Shore company at Humboldt. It is alleged that he secured about $300 worth of rails in this manner. The Upper Peninsula Iron & Metal company, with which he is connected, deals primarily in scrap metal and the rails that he procured were sold, it is said, for junk. Mr. Buckman denies the charge of robbery, claiming that he purchased the rails in good faith.

Tillson has received a new supply of the Cadrette and Johnson county map. The road and camp feature on this map makes it especially valuable to hunters. (10-29-1w)

COFFEE DEMONSTRATION.
A representative of Sprague, Warner & Co. will demonstrate the firm's coffee at our store during the week of Nov. 2, beginning Monday morning. The ladies are invited to call. Boys and girls submitting the best work will get a football, and the girl winning in the competition will get a $3 doll. A. W. Myers Mercantile Co. (10-30-1w)

CLIMATIC CURES.
The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweats. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that the thousands of consumptives there, the thousands who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. Stafford Drug Co.

EXAMINATION ADJOURNED.
The examination of Dominick Papa, murderer of Mike Savant, was begun yesterday before Judge Kennedy. The proceedings occupied several hours and the examination was finally adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock. Attorney Potter appeared for the defendant and Prosecutor Bell conducted the cause of the people. A large crowd gathered about the street in the neighborhood of the court room, many Italians being in evidence.

DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.
It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's new Life Pills. They cut off maladies that matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c, at The Stafford Drug Co.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.
T. Y. Bambridge of Menominee was here yesterday.
Miss Odie Murray of Houghton is here visiting friends.
Captain W. J. Allen of Humboldt was among the Ishpeming visitors yesterday.
Mrs. J. Ruez left yesterday morning for a visit at Fond du Lac and Milwaukee.
Twin boys were born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Humboldt.
Walter Stephens of Appleton was here Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin, William Nichols.
A chicken pie supper will be served by the Ladies' guild of Grace church at two until five.
Miss Amelia Olcott, superintendent of the schools at Bessemer, and former principal of the Ishpeming high school, was in town over Sunday.
Masons are engaged in repairs on the foundation of the Sellwood block. Portions of the brick work are being removed and replaced with sandstone.
Dave Devine suffered a compound fracture of the arm in the game between the Peleeless eleven and the Bronco-Busters Sunday afternoon. He was a member of the Bronco-Busters.
The lover story of the addition to the Mortley block has been transferred, and part of the front was put in yesterday. The lathing is nearly completed in the upper story and some of the walls have been plastered.
Large congregations have assembled every night to attend the mission meetings at the Swedish Mission church. The services have been in progress since Friday and will close tomorrow evening. Ministers of the denomination from all parts of the peninsula are in attendance.

THE CAUSE OF MANY Sudden Deaths.
There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, hoarse failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the various vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.
Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. Does your invested capital yield? Would it be worth your while to sit down and estimate the return you have received on your money since you first began saving?

Is the return as large as it would have been on 5 Per Cent. 20-Year Gold Bonds bought on the instalment plan, becoming your property if you live, your family's if you die?

Attention Farmers.

Why remain in the North and winter in doors six months in the year consuming what you raise during the other six months?

Go South where you can work out doors every month in the year, and where you are producing something the year round.

EXCEPTION IN LABONTE'S FAVOR

NORTH THIRD ST. SALOON MAN TO BE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE ON AT HIS PRESENT STAND.

NEW ORDINANCE WAS AMENDED

MATTER TOOK UP THE COUNCIL'S ATTENTION LAST NIGHT.

There Were Some Votes Against the Action, but LaBonte's Friends Were in a Considerable Majority.

The one important question which the aldermen concerned themselves at the meeting of the council last evening was a proposed amendment of the ordinance, passed at the October session, fixing saloon limits in the city of Marquette. The ordinance provided that the seventh ward should be included in a district in which saloons were prohibited and further provided that any saloons doing business in any such district should be closed May 1 next year. In the seventh ward the place conducted by Frank LaBonte was affected by this provision. He didn't like the idea of being frozen out, and immediately circulated a petition requesting that the ordinance be amended in his favor. A counter petition was also circulated, both being freely signed. They were presented to the council last evening. After a deal of sparring and many votes action was finally taken in favor of the proposed amendment, and Mr. LaBonte will continue in business indefinitely.

The petition came up the first thing, at the opening of the meeting. That in favor of LaBonte's request had upwards of a hundred signers; that asking that no change be made in the ordinance about half as many. There was no little debate as to the disposition that should properly be made of them, and the aldermen took no little time to settle this question. Finally it was decided to receive the first petition and place it on file and to lay the second on the table. After this momentous disposition was made of the communications neither of them was heard of again. The matter was next broached after all the routine business was disposed of and after a motion to adjourn, made by one of the aldermen who opposed a change in the ordinance, was defeated. Alderman Donovan then offered the amendment to the first section of the ordinance, which excepts the east hundred feet of lot 42 Adams' addition, LaBonte's location, from the prescribed district. Alderman Ball offered an amendment that the amendment be laid on the table. At this interval a five minutes recess was taken to revise the amendment to overcome some of the faults in its form. On reconvening Alderman Ball moved an adjournment, but his motion was lost only himself, Extrom, Holley, Jones and Ward voting in its favor. Alderman Donovan moved that the ordinance be placed on its immediate passage. Alderman Ball again moved that it be laid on the table, but there was no second. The vote on the resolution to put the ordinance on its immediate passage was as follows: Ayes—Anderson, Asire, Ball, Bush, Donovan, Extrom, Gorman, Gray, Mack, O'Neil, Reau, Shea and Ward. Nays—Holley and Jones. Alderman Donovan then moved the adoption of the ordinance. This time only Alderman Holley voted in the negative. There was no little suppressed feeling among the aldermen in connection with the matter and if the members opposed to modifying the ordinance had mustered strength enough there would have been some lively "doings." As it was there was no little sputtering, and at times three or four members were trying to talk at the same time, giving President Asire a busy evening. Outside the matter of the ordinance change the meeting was chiefly notable for its lack of business of any importance.

COMMENTS ARE FAVORABLE.

Teachers Express Themselves as Pleased With Educational Meeting.

The comments of the visitors to the Educational meeting held at Marquette last week on their return to their homes are very favorable. They all assert that it was one of the best and most inspiring in the association's history and that they thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Marquette. Most of those who have spoken on the subject express themselves as particularly pleased with Dr. Vincent's address, but they comment that many of the talks and papers were unusually excellent. There seems to be little doubt that the meeting was generally considered an unqualified success.

HOMIEIER IS TALLER.

He Overtops an Omaha Mail Carrier Who Is Boasting His Height.

Sunday's edition of the Chicago Record-Herald contained a reproduction of a photograph of two Omaha mail carriers who are said to be the shortest and tallest men in the service. The carrier who makes the government's uniforms is credited with the discovery. The small man is H. L. Lingefeldt, and his height is given as four feet eleven and a half inches. The tall carrier is H. W. Leeman, and his height is given as six feet four and three-quarters inches. In the picture they are shaking hands while in attendance at a mail carrier's picnic, and their heights appear in great contrast. However, if Leeman's height is correctly given, he will be unable to make good his claim to being the tallest man in the service, as he is beaten on right here in Marquette, and that by no less a person than E. E. Homeier. The men at the postoffice observed the item in the Record-Herald with a good deal of interest and at once expressed the opinion that Homeier had Leeman beaten. The Marquette man has generally been held to be six feet five inches tall. However, in order to make sure of the measurement Mr. Homeier sought out Lieutenant McCauley, at the federal recruiting station here, and had him measure his height exactly. The lieutenant reported that Homeier was six feet five and an eighth inches tall in his shoes and six feet four and a half in his stocking feet, giving him a comfortable margin over the Omaha man. If the latter really is the biggest man in the service outside Marquette it will be seen that Homeier has the best claim to this distinction in the country at large. Homeier weighs between 216 and 220 pounds, and is one of the largest men in the county.

UNEXPECTED STRENGTH.

It Was Shown in the Copper Market Yesterday.

Paine, Webber & Co. said of the Boston market: "The market showed unexpected strength today. Apparently some of the shorts lost confidence or the engagement of gold for import was considered a ball factor. What the market will do during the remainder of the week depends very largely on the election returns. Unless there are pronounced Democratic gains prices ought to work higher. Copper is acting as well as they have for a week past. There has been no progress made in the effort to bring about an Amalgamated-Heinz settlement. The Boston copper look cheap to us as compared with the other stocks."

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired W. H. Laidley & Co.: "The market continues to be extremely dull, with little change in prices. Amalgamated is about the only stock that is traded in and it continues to be strong. Buyers seem to be waiting for lower prices. We still look for higher prices, but expect a dull market."

New York Market Dull.
The Haddam-Rodee New York letter was as follows: "We have had a very uninteresting stock market. It was uniformly strong, but without any other feature. Traders found it easier to bid prices up than to put them down and in the absence of any selling pressure they bid up the active list anywhere from 1/4 to 1 cent. No secret is made of the fact that a Tammany victory would be favorable to all the franchise corporations. The most important development of the day was the engagement of gold, said to be two millions, to be imported. This is the beginning of this season's movement of yellow metal from Europe. We are in better shape to draw on Europe than we were a year ago, owing to the wholesale manner in which our foreign obligations have been sealed down the past twelve months."

MICHIGAN HARD PRESSED.

All Things Considered Team Came Out Very Well at Minneapolis.

Marquette fans who have returned from the great Michigan-Minnesota game at Minneapolis Saturday have interesting reports of the mighty struggle, which, they freely admit, exceeded in intensity of interest anything they had ever seen before. They generally comment that Michigan was fortunate to get away as well as she did. In the first half Minnesota was constantly on the aggressive, as comparison of the amount of ground gained by either team readily shows. The play in this interval was nearly all in Michigan territory, and it was a mighty anxious time for the Michigan sympathizers. Michigan's brace in the second half, resulting in the team's lone touchdown, is described as nothing less than magnificent. The Wolverines came back in fine style and worked like Trojans, finally earning their six points by carrying the Gophers off their feet. After this touchdown the Michigan delegation considered the victory safe. However, the fine return of a punt just before the close of the second half put new life into the Minnesotans and the tired Wolverines strove in vain to resist their impetuous attacks. The score was tied. Then the crowd of thirty thousand people tore over the field in a frenzy of excitement. One well-posted football man who saw the game says that in his opinion Michigan got all that was coming to it Saturday. However, he advances the opinion that were the teams to meet again two weeks hence Michigan would have a sure victory. Anyway, he says, the team made a record to be proud of. Largely composed of new men, on a hostile gridiron, with a crowd of thirty thousand rooting for the other side and after a long, tiresome journey it was wonderful that they were able to withstand the strenuous veteran Gophers as they did. They didn't win, but they missed doing so by the narrowest of margins.

It is reported that it is possible that the championship football game between Escanaba and Ishpeming may be played in Marquette. Just now it has not been settled where it will be pulled off. Both Ishpeming and Escanaba want it. Last year the regular game was played at Escanaba, resulting in a tie. This tie was subsequently played off at Union Park. Now Escanaba claims that under the rule that alternate towns should get alternate games this year's contest should take place in that city. Ishpeming, on the other hand, says that the game at Union Park last year was but a continuation of the first game and that the 1903 contest should come to Union Park. This matter has yet to be adjusted. It is possible that a proposition will be made to hold the game on a neutral gridiron, under the direction of absolutely disinterested officials. Marquette would be just the place. The gridiron here is a good one, and the city people could be depended on to turn out a delegation that would pay all the expenses and that would be impartial in its rooting.

are taken they must have the written consent of their parents or guardian. These special enlistments will be only for the hospital corps.

Mrs. Anna Schmetzer died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anderson, 446 Baraga avenue, aged seven; thirteen years. She is survived by two sons and one daughter. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Charles G. Truscott, formerly of Munising, who has lately been employed in Marquette, has accepted a position on the road for Jenness & McCurdy of Detroit, crockery, china and glassware importers. He will cover this territory.

Work on the Lakeshore boulevard has been concluded for the season. It is not finished, as it was not possible to give the contractors fine rock to complete the top dressing at this end, but it will be completed the first thing in the spring.

The regular monthly meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock sharp, at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Stevens, 343 East Ridge street. Members of the society not enrolled in the local organization are invited to attend.

There is a big demand for deer licenses in advance of the opening of the season. Already County Clerk Ross has issued 500. Hunters are preparing to take to the woods. Many of them are repairing and provisioning their shacks and picking out likely territory in which to go after venison.

Lou Pendill is having a house built at the corner of Hewitt avenue and Pine street. Work on the foundations is just commencing. In the same neighborhood, on Pine street south of Hewitt avenue, Fred Thoney is to have a new home. The foundations for this house are already finished. The homes will each cost in the neighborhood of $4,000 and will be thoroughly modern.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase S. Osborn, of the Soo, left yesterday afternoon for their home, after spending a few days in the city. Mr. Osborn says that affairs at the American Soo are in good condition and that there is no great depression there on account of the troubles of the Consolidated Lake Superior company. The American Soo has not discounted to any dangerous degree the development that was expected to follow the completion of the power canal.

Reynolds and Anderson, the men arrested at Escanaba under suspicion that they are the crackmen who raided the postoffice there several days ago, were sent to the Marquette branch of state prison for larceny from a dwelling in the daytime Sept. 26, 1901, being convicted in this county. The records at the Marquette prison do not show that they have ever served time in any other institution, but nevertheless they are believed here to be old criminals.

Three islands in Long Lake, Grand Traverse county, were sold at the Marquette land office Saturday. George Rodgers, of Chicago, bought Lot No. 5, Round island, for $15, and Lot No. 2, Long island, for $5. Lot No. 3 was sold to George H. Cross of Traverse City, for $165, it consisting of Fox island. In each case the purchasers have to pay additional fees. The islands will, it is understood, be used for cottage purposes, being said to be well adapted for such use.

All the mischief Hallow'een was not of the harmless variety. A number of boys or young men developed vandalistic instincts. Some of these offenders smeared tar on the white walls of the new library, but fortunately not to such an extent that any permanent damage is done. It will be possible to remove the tar and make the walls look all right again. Another offense was the breaking off of the sandstone balls that ornament the steps at the Ridge street group of school buildings.

Friends of the high school football team expect to see it make a good showing in the remainder of the season's games. They point to the fact that the boys played pluckily Saturday and that the persistent direction of the team, the persistent hammering away at a heavier line, was in no small degree responsible for the lack of success against Escanaba. Indeed there was no doubt that the players worked hard and conscientiously and fought the uphill fight out to the bitter end. They are willing enough and nifty enough and with a development of more versatility in offensive play and the correction of bad tackling and a few minor faults they should be able to give an excellent account of themselves.

Into each life some ruins must fall. Wise people don't sit down and bawl; Only fools suicide or take to flight. Smart people take Rocky Mountain Tea at night.
