NO BLOODSHED ON THE ISTHMUS

COLOMBIAN TROOPS HEED AN ULTIMATUM AND QUIETLY EVACUATE AT COLON.

REPUBLIC GAINS STRENGTH

INTERIOR PROVINCES JOIN IN THE SECESSION MOVEMENT.

Washington's Policy Is Not Yet Stated, but Recognition Is Probable and Affairs in the Connection Will Be Conducted With Firm Hand.

Colon, Nov. 5.—7 p. m.—The Royal Mail steamer Orinoco, with twenty-eight officers and 435 men of the Colombian army, has sailed for Cartagena. The United States auxiliary cruiser Dixie, with a considerable force of marines, has just arrived.

Ultimatum Sent Colombian Forces.

Panama, Nov. 5.—The government of the new republic of Panama is constantly receiving congratulations from Paris, London, the republics of Central America and from nearly all other parts of the world.

Up to the hour of filing this dispatch nothing had been decided in regard to Colon, where the government troops brought to that port by the cruiser Cartaginena from Savannah, are still encamped. The government of the republic of Panama is making all possible efforts to prevent bloodshed, but the correspondent of the Associated Press understands that an ultimatum has been sent to Colonel Torres, commander of the government forces at Colon, announcing that it is the intention of the government of the republic of Panama, should Torres refuse to consider the generous proposals made to him to permit the embarkation of his troops on board a steamer and their transportation back to Savannah, to send an army to attack Colon.

Rejoicing in the Interior.

Telegraphic advices from the interior provinces say there was great rejoicing there when news of the declaration of independence became known. The government troops at Panama, sixty-five miles southwest of Panama, have joined the revolutionary movement and almost every moment telegrams are received from the most important men in the interior announcing adherence to the new republic.

The revolution has been practically bloodless, as only 425 Chinamen were killed during the bombardment of the city by the government gunboat Bogota. The fire of the warship unroofed one house, a shell hit the tower of the cathedral and another fell on the house of Frederick Lopez, a member of the revolutionary junta. The foreign consuls promptly sent a communication to the commander of the Bogota, protesting against his action in opening fire on the city without giving prior notification of his intention to do so.

Terms of the Junta Accepted.

Later—General Tovar and staff, convinced of the uselessness of their resistance to the provisional government, have accepted the terms offered by the junta. They will embark this afternoon for Colon on an express train and will leave immediately the Royal Mail steamer Orinoco for Cartagena. The arrangement to this end was made through the efforts of Commander Hubbard, of the United States gunboat Nashville, and Superintendent Shaler and Assistant Superintendent Prescott, of the Panama railroad, who guarantee that both parties will fulfill the agreement.

There is great rejoicing all over the city because the stability of the republic now seems assured. The fact that troops were already moving toward the West Point, has been appointed commander of the Pacific flotilla by the provisional government. Carlos Arcemena has been made assistant secretary of foreign relations. The provisional government has organized the military division of Panama, commanded by General Diaz. The soldiers forming the division are accustomed to military service, having fought either with the government or liberal army during the last revolution.

Yankee Tars Again Landed.

Colon, Nov. 5.—It was arranged yesterday that the government troops should withdraw to the outskirts of the town, and they did so during the night. This morning, however, Colonel Torres marched the troops to the center of the town, where a landing of American blue jackets this morning.

The correspondent of the Associated Press here has just had an interview with Commander Hubbard, of the Nashville, who said that he had offered to re-embark the American force if the government troops would return to their camp on Monkey Hill, where they passed the night. Colonel Torres, however, refused to return to Monkey Hill, saying the place was too unhealthy for the soldiers and that it was necessary for them to come to town.

Commander Hubbard does not think the Colombian troops will venture to attack the blue jackets, who are barricaded behind bales of cotton in front of the bank and railroad building. The commander of the Nashville has distributed about fifty rifles to private citizens, with the blue jackets are guarding the barricades. Colonel Torres says he is determined to give battle to any troops coming to Colon from Panama.

Yields After a Conference.

Later—After a conference this afternoon, Colonel Torres, commander of the Colombian troops here, seeing that the situation was hopeless, agreed to embark his soldiers on the steamer Orinoco.

IMPORTANT PRECEDENT.

Man Who Lost $5,000 on Board of Trade Gets Judgment.

Bloomington, Ills., Nov. 5.—A jury in circuit court today gave Oscar E. Green of Saybrook a verdict for $5,000 damages. He sued to recover money lost on the Chicago Board of Trade and an important precedent is established which may enable all future losers in this form of transactions to recover. The defense claimed that there was a bona fide sale of grain, while the plaintiff argued that only options were purchased.

PACKERS GRANT INCREASE.

Strike of Cannery in the Chicago Stock Yards Is Settled.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The strike of the cannery employed by the large packing houses here was settled today and the men will return to work tomorrow. The skilled men will receive an advance of 7 per cent in wages and the unskilled an increase of 6 per cent.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Adolph Fein, former secretary of the Helms branch of the Jefferson club, a political organization, was today convicted of aiding and abetting naturalization frauds. He was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary and fined $1,000.

NIXON PROTESTS

BITTERLY ARRAYS THE ATTORNEY REPRESENTING SCHWAB.

Method of Cross-Examination at Shipbuilding Hearing Resented by Star Witness of the Complainants.

New York, Nov. 5.—In the hearing of the shipbuilding case today, the cross-examination of Lewis Nixon was finished and the re-direct examination was partly completed. The feature of today's session was an attack made by Nixon upon William D. Guthrie, counsel for the defendants and representative of the Schwab interests, for his methods of cross-examination.

Nixon presented a personal protest in which he declared that Guthrie, in consultation with Max Pam, had adopted a line of questioning designed to place him in a false and discreditable position regarding the sale of his plant to the shipbuilding consolidation. The protest was angry and bitter in tone and intimated that Guthrie had been unfair in asking him to answer from memory questions about the finances of his company without opportunity to look up the details, while Guthrie had the benefit of a full investigation of the figures.

By agreement of the counsel, the protest was stricken from the record. Guthrie merely attacked various portions of Nixon's testimony and his course in handling the affairs of the company.

BILL NOT YET DRAFTED.

Little Prospect of Financial Legislation by Congress This Winter.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Senators Allison, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt (Connecticut) arrived tonight and immediately went into a conference in Senator Allison's apartment at the Arlington. At the conclusion of the meeting Senator Allison said he believed the Cuban treaty would be made operative by a joint resolution. He cited the method adopted by congress in relation to the Mexican treaty as a precedent.

The special committee appointed by the senate at the last session to prepare a financial bill, has not yet reported. The consideration of congress has not prepared a draft of its ideas, and Senator Allison said tonight he does not look for much financial legislation. However, the senate finance committee will meet tomorrow and some definite program may be made.

KNOX URGES DELAY IN INQUIRY.

Advices President Against an Early Investigation by Congress.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Attorney General Knox, who was at the White House today, in conference with the president, has advised against any early Congressional investigation of the postoffice scandals.

Mr. Knox is of the opinion that an early investigation would result in disclosing the government's side in many cases in which indictments have been brought, and would do serious harm to the cause of the government. The same witnesses on whom the government is depending for conviction in numerous cases would have to be brought in here to testify and compelled to reveal all the facts in their possession, thus enabling the defense to profit in every way.

WILL CUT GRAIN RATE.

Deep Canal Across New York Means Much for Lake Traffic.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 5.—In a project to build 100 new boats for use in the 1,000 ton canal crossing New York state a coterie of Michigan capitalists foresees a reduction of nearly 50 per cent in the grain rate from Chicago to New York. Captain James Davidson, owner of the Davidson shippers at West Bay City, is organizing the company to build the ships. They are to be used in the enlarged Erie canal, for which New York state voted by a large majority in Tuesday's election to spend $100,000,000. The entire fleet of new boats is to be ready by the time the canal is completed. Captain Davidson computes a coming reduction in the grain rate from Duluth to Chicago to New York from 53 cents to 3 cents a bushel.

Ashland, Nov. 5.—Bibon, a village on the Omaha road, twenty miles south of here, was destroyed by fire tonight. Engines were sent from Ashland on a special train. The fire started in the mill of the Chicago Coal & Lumber company, which it completely destroyed, burning all the lumber piles and tramways, and then spread to the houses of the village, rapidly enveloping the entire town. Communication with Bibon was broken by the burning of both the telegraph and telephone wires.

STATE SOLONS NOW TO GET PAY.

Nebraska Supreme Court Upholds Amendment Affecting Legislature.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—The supreme court today dismissed a suit attacking the constitutionality of the amendment passed in 1887 providing for a session of the legislature of sixty instead of forty days and increasing the salaries of members. The court declares the amendment legally adopted and properly canvassed. Just before the close of last winter's legislative session the state auditor was enjoined from paying the members their salaries for the last twenty days of the session, and it was sought to declare all acts of the last twenty days illegal. The district court upheld the injunction, but the supreme court today overruled and dismissed it.

IS MUCH TALK OF FIGHTING RUSSIA

ACTION OF CZAR'S COMMANDER IN MANCHURIA CAUSES GREAT ANGER AT PEKIN.

NATIVE PRESS IS BOMBASTIC

DOWAGER EMPRESS IS URGED TO PUT ARMY IN MOTION.

Imprisonment of Tartar General Is Bitterly Resented, but Helplessness of China Is Recognized by the Better Informed Officials.

Pekin, Nov. 5.—The Chinese are more enraged at the Russian proceedings at Mukden than they have been by any events since the capture of Peking. Some members of the council have advised the dowager empress to declare war on Russia and send troops to release the Tartar general, whose detention at Mukden grows out of the decapitation of a Chinese bandit who had enlisted in the Russian service, but who fell into the hands of the Chinese after the Russians evacuated Mukden. This action of Russia is considered not only an insult to high officials but insulting to the Chinese government itself. The better informed officials, however, realize the helplessness of China and the madness of an attempt to go to war with Russia. Their counsels have hitherto prevailed though their is much baseless war talk in the native press and among the younger Chinese officials.

PALE FACES

BY SOME THOUGHT TO DENOTE REFINEMENT.

"What a mistake!" said Mr. Stafford, of the Stafford Drug Co. "In place of refinement, pale faces denote disease."

"A bloodless face indicates impoverished blood, pure and simple."

"What is the result? A weakened condition of the entire system, the development of humors, disfiguring eruptions and finally a general collapse."

"We wish your paper would tell every pale man, woman and child, yes, and every feeble old person, that we are sure that our famous cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, (delicious to taste, and without oil), will make rich, red blood, create strength and restore them to a normal condition, that we will pay for all the Vinol they take if it does not succeed."

MARQUETTE, MICH., NOV. 6.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Joy! President Roosevelt promises a brief message. Just think of what a novelty it will be; worthy of comment, worthy of praise and above all worthy of emulation.

The governor has been approached in an endeavor to secure executive clemency for Lunt K. Salisbury, the Grand Rapids bootler. There seems to be no good grounds for asking the governor to interfere and it is altogether unlikely, judging from his attitude in the Andrews case, that he will interfere.

The upper peninsula's Indian summer has been hit by a killing frost and is now suffering from a severe attack of influenza. Cheer up; in all likelihood we will get another touch of fine weather before the winter sets in for good. At any rate when the snow comes we will now have something pleasant to remember from the open season of 1903.

Montpelier, Ind., people have improved on the kerosene route to everlasting bliss. They have experimented with gasoline in fire-starting and have found it much more rapid in its action and more generally efficacious than the illuminating oil. Out of three bystanders the first experiment succeeded in killing off three. Gasoline may be more exciting, but for the time being, until we know better how to handle it, perhaps we had better stick to coal oil.

Senator Hanna is not mercurial or flighty. When his mind is made up it is made up for some time. The majority of leaders would have to use a sloop to put on their hats after a victory similar to that which he has just achieved in Ohio, but his head is not a bit affected. Indeed he is prompt to kill at its birth another abortive attempt to make him the front end of a presidential boom. Senator Hanna is the right kind of a friend and the right kind of an enemy.

It is in order to ask Senator Gorman what he thinks of the nomination of the Hon. Zack Griffin, a colored man, to the responsible office of overseer of the poor by the Democrats of Buckingham county in the good old commonwealth of Virginia. We learn from the Appomattox and Buckingham Times that not only has the Hon. Zack received a Democratic nomination this year, but he has been nominated and elected year after year for the last two decades, first by the Republicans and latterly by the Democrats. To be sure, the poor of Buckingham are mainly negroes, but how does that excuse a white Virginia Democrat for voting for a black ex-Republican? There are kinks in the color line.

W. J. Bryan can find but little solace or consolation in the results of this week's elections. If there was any one fight he was interested in it was the struggle against Senator Hanna by Mr. Johnson. Johnson and Bryan are kindred spirits, and besides the latter entertains a sincere and refreshing dislike for Hanna, who, it will be remembered, took one opportunity during the campaign to unmercifully flay the silver leader. Yet what happened to Johnson? He was terribly spanked. His defeat was an annihilation. The Democratic successes, what there are of them, seem on analysis to be due to the activity and good work of what for convenience may be termed the Cleveland wing of the party. Bryanism appears to be receding.

Tuesday's elections marked the advent of a new Democratic leader, as powerful as any of the present wise men of the party. Murphy staked his all on the result in New York. He invaded Brooklyn, a thing Tammany has never before dared to do. He stole Grout and Fomes from the fusion ticket against the advice of many of his district leaders and other influential Democrats. He alienated McLaughlin's support in Brooklyn. In fact he did about everything that many Democrats thought he should not have done. Had Tammany failed he would have been executed as a blunderer and would have lost his leadership before he had an opportunity to enjoy its fruits. But he won. Now his various moves are praised to the heavens as masterstrokes. He is credited with more political acumen than the old men at Westage himself. He is receiving homage from all the faithful and is the objective point of thousands upon thousands of office seekers. He will have the offices to dispose of, too. He was McClellan's friend. To him is the mayor-elect indebted for the nomination, if not the election, and the mayor-elect knows it and is correspondingly grateful. The talk of McClellan as a presidential possibility is premature, to say the least, but there is no question of Murphy's supremacy. He is the Democratic dictator of New York, as he seems in a fair way to control the state organization. When this is accomplished, exit Dave Hill, it is said, for there is no friendship between the men, and Murphy is highly ambitious. Murphy will now be the cynosure of all eyes. The country will be greatly curious to know how he runs McClellan and New York and to see what kind of a figure he cuts as a big man in national Democratic pov-woes.

The unprecedented victory achieved in Ohio by Senator Hanna was as much a slap at Tom Johnson as anything else and unless all signs are at fault the redoubtable Tom is finally down and out. In the face of the returns the conclusion is irresistible that thousands of Democrats went to the polls to help slaughter off the Democratic candidates in the hope of putting Johnson out of business, as a boss and leader, for good and all. His personality and his methods are not in favor with many of his own party-men and as long as he is allowed to control the organization and name candidates just so long will anything resembling Democratic gains be impossible. Johnson did about the worst thing that he could possibly do. He made the issue to no small degree a personal one between himself and Senator Hanna. The result serves to show how popular and beloved is the senior senator among the people who know him best.

The board of control for Michigan interscholastic athletics has, it appears, finally decided that the game between Ishpeming and Escanaba shall be played at the latter city. This decision will be satisfactory if the board takes it upon itself to see that absolutely fair and impartial officers are provided. As commented in The Mining Journal yesterday, the utterances of the Escanaba press are not such as to encourage a belief that Escanaba is going to make much of an effort to conduct the game in a sportsmanlike manner. The game should not be allowed to be interfered with and the officers should see it from an unprejudiced viewpoint. There is not little feeling over this final struggle, it being a natural outgrowth of its importance and the strenuous aspirations of the Escanaba men. The people of the upper peninsula want to see it settled without trouble, and if anything goes wrong they will hold the state board responsible.

A novel naval test is proposed. It is announced that it is planned to have a fleet of five torpedo boat destroyers sail from Hampton Roads for the Philippines, under the convoy of the cruiser Baltimore. They will run down to the West Indies, thence across to the Brazilian coast and to their destination by way of the South Atlantic, the Mediterranean and the Suez canal, a trip that will try the craft severely and afford, if it is successful, a wonderful triumph for American pluck and naval construction. These torpedo boat destroyers were designed for service within a limited radius, and one of the notable things of the Spanish-American war was the action of the Spaniards in sending two of these craft across the Atlantic, though to be sure they arrived only in time to be shot to pieces at Santiago. The American fleet of destroyers will have a trip of 16,000 miles, during which the recoaling will have to be constant with the crews and vessels under great strain. If the fleet finally reaches the Philippines ship-shape and safe the credit of the performance will be very great.

THE MORAL IS PLAIN.

The report of the receiver of the ship-building trust properties shows that the company was in effect what the receiver terms it, an "artistic swindle," and that the men who organized it must have intended it as such. Charles M. Schwab, whose action in first selling the Bethlehem plant to the trust and then withholding its earnings precipitated the disaster, seems to be as deeply involved as any one. He not only joined in the attempt to fleece the public, but broke faith with his associates in the attempt. The promoters went far beyond anything attempted by other industrial trusts, and based their appeals to the public on statements of earnings and appraisals of value which are now alleged to have been utterly false.

These revelations undoubtedly affect the securities of all the industrial companies. The public begins to fear, not merely that the trusts are overcapitalized, for everybody, including investors in the stocks, realized from the beginning that such was the case, but that promoters have not been satisfied with overcapitalization and with the enormous underwriting profits which are matters of public knowledge. Matters have reached such a point in Wall street and in New York as a financial center that people feel it is not safe to rely on the word or the honesty of anybody. The Rockefeller crowd has inflicted tremendous losses on the public by means of its blind pool operations in copper. Gates was long since discredited.

The latter confession comes in the form of statements relative to the operations of the underwriting syndicate which attempted to convert $200,000,000 of preferred stock into bonds, and to furnish the company with fifty millions of working capital in exchange for an equal amount of bonds. The syndicate has not performed its agreement. It was to give par for the bonds and sell them at par or better, but with steel bonds selling in the market at about 71, it could not do this without great loss. Instead of living up to its contract, therefore, it legged off, and the officers of the company appear to have consented.

The uninitiated never could see the necessity or the good business policy of the plan for converting stock on which the payment of dividends was optional with the company into bonds, the interest on which must be paid whether earned or not. Nor was it ever manifest why, if the reports of the company's earnings and surplus funds were truthful, it was necessary to supply fifty millions of additional working capital. The whole transaction looks like a scheme to benefit the members of the underwriting syndicate. The abandonment of the plan to add this amount of working capital shows that it was not needed.

These revelations seem also to discredit Mr. Morgan. The shipping trust which he formed might have been an evidence only of bad judgment, but this steel bond operation has a worse aspect. The moral seems to be plain.

IRON NOTES.

At Troy mine of Pickands, Mather & Co., they have commenced stockpiling and will be active all winter. It is intended to make this mine quite a shipper another year.

Mr. Hodge, who has been with E. J. Longyear, at Hibbing, Minn., for more than two years, has, with Mr. Longyear, taken a contract for drilling for the Flawell Development Co. at North Freedom, Baraboo district, and they have put one drill at work. Several other developments in that section, that has not been explored by drill, are to receive attention at once.

Clairton Steel Co. proposes to curtail operations at its Mesabi properties, and the cessation of Arcturus experiments is along that line. Shenango mine will not be closed, but may be reduced in force. This has been a very costly mine to open and has met numerous unlooked for difficulties. Operations the company have in mind for the near future west of Hibbing may not be undertaken for some little time.

The Duluth Furnace Company has taken another mine on the Mesabi range and is getting into a position where it will be independent so far as ore supplies are concerned. This company has so far been unable to take advantage of the State law under which a rebate of twenty-five cents a ton is offered on all ore mined from State land and smelted in the State. This is equivalent to a bonus of from forty to fifty cents a ton on pig iron.

Experiments with the washing plant of the Standard Mining Co. at the Arcturus mine have ceased and the mine is idle. It was an experimental operation, washing ore that had been in stockpiles in order to test the possibility of freeing it from sand, and is understood to have been successful. The property was examined by several mining engineers of the Oliver Iron Mining Co., and then shut down. The Standard Mining Co., is a W. P. Snyder interest.

A reduction of force is to take place at all mines of Ely excepting the Chandler. The night crews will be withdrawn from the Pioneer, Zenith, Savoy and Shibley and some construction work that has been in progress for a considerable period will be suspended for the winter. These mines will not clean up their stockpiles during this season of navigation, which accounts for the curtailment, but it is expected that operations will resume in full soon after the new year.

The Minnesota Iron Co. (U. S. Steel) has closed an option taken some time ago for a state lease in the northwest part of section 26 T 59 R 15. This is three miles northwest from the Mountain Iron mine and is the first ore found so far north as R 59 until east of the range line between ranges 15 and 16. The find contains about 3,000,000 tons of 50 per cent ore and carries a 25-cent lease. The ore is of good structure and the mine will be an underground property. It probably will not be opened for some time. L. Rouchleau, of Duluth, was the original holder and optioned the property to the Minnesota Iron Co. for $40,000 after several explorations had resulted unsuccessfully.

Since the commencement of curtailment among the mining companies about 5,000 men have been laid off, including those to be taken off at Ely and Mesabi range points. This is about eighteen per cent of the full force employed. In spite of this wholesale discharge men are not anxious to go to work elsewhere at the prices offered by lumbermen. There has been for two weeks a strife between employing lumbermen at Duluth and their workmen as to wages for the winter. The scale paid last winter was from $30 to $35 and board a month. Two weeks ago men refused to go into the woods for less, but they were met by a united front on the part of the lumber companies, who refused to pay more than the scale of two years ago. The men have finally come to it and are going into the woods by hundreds every day.

Already schooners of the United States Steel Corporation are being stripped and put into winter quarters. This is a month earlier than last year. The fleet has carried so far this year in its own ships about 9,000,000 gross tons of cargo and in chartered ships between 4,500,000 and 5,000,000 tons more. All this ore goes to furnaces and mills of the various constituent companies of the Steel Corporation. It is about 2,000,000 tons less than was carried down the lakes for their account the previous season, but is more than was actually used or calculated to be used by them, in the year ended last May; for the Steel Corporation in 1902 carried down lake enough ore, at the low prices then prevailing, to supply its furnaces well past midsummer, 1903. During the present year much of this excess of shipment has been consumed, and it is now figured that the supply on hand at lower lake docks and in furnace yards this fall is not sufficient to maintain furnace operation any further into 1904 than the excessive stocks did into 1903. Nearly the entire fleet of the United States Steel Corporation will winter this year at Duluth. A few years ago it was considered that all lake vessels must winter on Lake Erie, but now more vessels winter and make their spring outfitting at Duluth than anywhere else. This is by reason of the great change in traffic conditions and the vast gain of Duluth men in the ownership and management of shipping.

BODY BLOWN INTO BITS. John Link, Atlantic Farmer, Resorts to a Terrible Means of Suicide.
LIGHTS NOW SHUT OFF. Old Bills Still Unpaid Embarrass Company G of Houghton.

John Link, a well-to-do farmer at the Atlantic mine location, resorted to a terrible means of ending his earthly existence some time between Wednesday afternoon and yesterday morning. He literally blew himself to pieces with dynamite. What was left of his body was found in a field not far from his home yesterday morning by a party of Atlantic mine employees who were sent to look for him. The lower portion of his body and limbs only were found. The rest of his remains were blown to mere bits, only traces of which were to be seen. The head was not found. News of the terrible discovery was telephoned to Coroner Casper Brand at Houghton by A. D. Edwards, clerk of the Atlantic mine, shortly afterwards. According to Mrs. Link, who reported her husband's absence to Mr. Edwards, she and her husband had a few angry words Wednesday afternoon, after which he left the house. He did not return, and yesterday morning she went to Mr. Edwards and told him of it. She suspected that something had happened to her husband, and when she returned home she found that two sticks of dynamite that had been in the shed were missing. Then she became thoroughly frightened and again called on Mr. Edwards, telling him of her discovery. His suspicions also were aroused and to satisfy Mrs. Link and himself he instructed a number of men to search for the man. It was not long before they came across his mangled remains.

Mrs. Link was nearly prostrated with the news. The spat with her husband the afternoon before was nothing more than a little family quarrel over some trivial difference, yet Link apparently took it to heart and decided to kill himself. It is presumed that he attached the two sticks of dynamite to a fuse and, lighting it, deliberately laid down on the dynamite and waited for it to go off. It was thought yesterday that an inquest would not be held as the facts of the suicide were plain enough. It was decided, however, that the affair should be investigated somewhat and that if an inquest was necessary one could be held today. Undertaker Krellwitz of Houghton went to the Atlantic yesterday afternoon to pick up the remains.

MUCH INTEREST HERE. Escanaba Held Entitled to the Championship Game of Football.
FEWER BOATS IN COMMISSION. Traffic Through the Portage Lake Waterways Shows a Falling Off.

According to the monthly report of Major Marr, government engineer, October witnessed a considerable falling off in shipping through the Portage Lake waterways as compared to the traffic during September. The near approach of the close of navigation and the 10 per cent raise in the wages of the men employed on the boats were probably the causes of the decreased traffic, many of the smaller boats being put into quarters. Last month 428 boats used the canal, as compared with 579 in September, which was one of the heaviest months of the season. The total tonnage for October was 371,043, and that of September 450,155. Last month's total cargo of the boats up bound was 216,004 tons, against 262,919 in September. The cargo of boats down bound was 196,586, compared with 191,770 the previous month. There was a big falling off in the number of passengers carried, the number on the upbound boats totalling only 160, compared with 1,490 for September. Down bound, the number of passengers was 159, against 1,815 in September. Fear of fall storms and cold weather caused the decrease, which of course was expected.

BABES LOST IN THE WOODS. Two Little Children at Herman Have Thrilling Experience.
WAS A COPPERDOM PIONEER. Thomas George of Calumet, returned from LeRoy, Ind., where he attended the funeral of his father, Captain Thomas George.

Ira E. Randall of Houghton, who returned from a business trip to Marquette, brought back a story of lost babes in the woods. It appears that two children, aged four and six, a Finnish family residing at Herman, a small Finnish settlement on the South Shore road, two miles from Summit, wandered away from home during the absence of their mother and while their father was sleeping late last Sunday afternoon and were not found until the next day. When the children's absence was discovered a searching party of a hundred men was organized and, supplied with lanterns, they scoured the woods all night. The search continued until late in the afternoon of Monday. The younger child of the two, a little girl, was found about 10 o'clock that morning about four miles from her home. When she saw her rescuers she became more frightened and started to run. The older youngster, a boy, was not found until about noon. He had wandered a mile further into the woods. He, too, was considerably frightened and was crying when the searchers came upon him. From the boy it was learned that he and his sister had lost their way and had walked a greater part of the night in an effort to reach home. The little girl became tired finally and she stopped to rest while her brother left her and walked on. The parents of the children were much wrought up over their absence and feared for their safety.

GOES TO ARRANGE FOR EXHIBIT. Irving Shields of Hancock, superintendent in charge of Michigan's mineral exhibit for the St. Louis World's Fair, left Wednesday for St. Louis to make further arrangements for the display. He will remain ten days or two weeks. This is his second visit to the World's Fair city. His first trip was taken at the conclusion of the Kentucky military encampment and was made for the purpose of selecting a suitable location for the exhibit. Colburn Standish of Detroit, who is Mr. Shields's assistant, has arrived in the copper country. The mining men of the district have shown a willingness to do all in their power to make the mineral display a great success, and Mr. Standish should meet with success in his work during the absence of Mr. Shields. He is well known in the copper country, where he made many friends during his attendance at the College of Mines, from which institution he was graduated last June.

MINING NEWS

STABBING AFFRAY IN SALOON. Two Mohawk Miners Held for Hearing on a Serious Charge.
Charles and Henry Karinen, of the Mohawk mine location, are the latest arrivals at the county jail. They are charged with stabbing John Kingston of the Alouze location during an altercation in John Ny's saloon at Remond near Calumet, last Saturday. The men have pleaded not guilty and as soon as Prosecuting Attorney Larson is relieved of the most arduous of his circuit court duties the prisoners will be brought before Justice Jackola at Calumet for hearing.

The men are accused by Albert Kingston, a brother of the man stabbed. According to his story, John Kingston was in Ny's saloon drinking a glass of beer when the Karinen brothers and several others came in and started a row. The whole house was soon in an uproar and during the melee Kingston was attacked. He was stabbed in several places about the shoulders and face. None of the cuts are serious. The Karinen brothers deny they did the stabbing. They say Kingston came at them and that they fought back in self defense but that they did not use knives. They also say they did not see any one else with a knife.

VILLAGE WANTS TO BUY. Offer to Purchase Bubble Springs Property is Made by Houghton.

Councilmen J. E. Jackson and Fred Steele of Houghton, representing the village water board, and Village Attorney F. A. Rees went to the Centennial mine Wednesday afternoon to see H. F. Fay of Boston in regard to the purchase of thirty-six and a half acres of land west of Houghton which is desired by the village. The two so-called bubble springs, which are to be developed to increase the water supply, are located on the tract in question and it is because of the desire of the village officials to keep the public away from the land that they want to purchase it for municipal purposes. The property is owned by the South Side Mining company, an old corporation still in existence although it has never figured to any extent in the copper mining business.

Mr. Fay is one of the directors of the company. He assured his visitors that he would bring the matter to the attention of the rest of the directors upon his return to Boston and that he believed there would be no trouble in transferring the property at a reasonable figure. He will leave for the east this afternoon. If the village owns the land it can prevent a possible pollution of the spring water by keeping the public away from it.

ALL DUE TO TOO MUCH DRINK. After sentencing convicted prisoners Wednesday afternoon, Judge Street of the circuit court delivered a few temperance remarks. He stated that with two exceptions all of the crimes for which the defendants were tried were caused by indulgence in drink. He called the attention of the jurors to the fact that some of the cases were those of crimes committed by minors while under the influence of liquor.

JOHN POWER RETAINED. John Power, the well-known criminal lawyer of Escanaba, also has been retained to defend Peter Feletti, the Italian who shot and killed Thomas Cox, a bartender, in Bat Quello's saloon in Laurium during an altercation on the evening of Oct. 18. He and Louis N. Levis of Houghton will handle the case. Feletti will be tried during the January term of circuit court.

BAR BANQUET. The Houghton County Bar association, comprising all the lawyers and court officials in the county, held its annual banquet at the Hotel Hamilton at Houghton last evening. A large number of the members were present and the occasion was most pleasant. The banquet was spread at 6:30 o'clock.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES. The enrollment of the Hancock public schools during October was 1,018. Miss Mabel Fisher of Hancock has left for Ypsilanti to enter the Normal school.

"A Friend of the Family" will be the attraction at the Kerredge theater at Hancock next Wednesday evening. The first real snow storm of the season visited the copper country yesterday morning. More than an inch of the beautiful fell.

The Portage Lake branch of the Y. M. C. A. at Hancock has organized an orchestra of sixteen members and rehearsals are now under way. For assaulting Alex Sepulala, a cripple, John Peterson, a Calumet bartender, was fined $13 and costs Wednesday by Justice Jackola.

L. G. Griffin, agent for the Northwest road at Rochelle, Ill., is in Houghton visiting his brother, E. C. Griffin, general agent for the Northwest.

The big freighter Milwaukee, of the Western Transit company, is at Portage with 1,000 barrels of apples and 2,000 barrels of sugar for local dealers. A northwest gale raged on Lake Superior yesterday. A number of vessels sought refuge in Lily pond at the upper camp, among them the passenger steamer Japan, of the Anchor line, which is on her way up.

Frank Uren, employed as a timberman at the Alouze, was painfully hurt by a fall of rock, Wednesday morning. His injuries were found to consist of a broken leg and a badly injured back. He was removed to the Tamarack hospital.

At a meeting of the St. Joseph's German Aid society of Hancock last Tuesday evening, a statement of the financial condition of the organization up to Nov. 1 was read. The amount of cash on hand is $2,302, which is divided among the thirty-two members would give each $75.18. The society is in first-class condition and flourishing as it never has before.

Instead of offering cash prizes for the highest scores on his bowling alleys this month, J. N. Mitchell of Hancock will give away turkeys. The birds will be awarded to the winners of the following: Turkey for the highest score for each week in the month; five turkeys for the five highest scores in the month; a large turkey for the highest score on Thanksgiving Day; and a turkey to the lady making the highest score during the month.

TARGET PRACTICE THAT PAYS.
At Pensacola the Alabama made a record of twelve hits in as many shots from the biggest guns in the navy (thirteen inch), at a target 17x21 in size, 1,600 yards distant, while the ship was steaming at the rate of ten knots an hour. Taking the record of hits by the weight of metal fired, the Alabama scored 64.8 per cent of hits out of 49,888 pounds of metal fired; the Indiana 60 per cent of 42,900 pounds fired, and Illinois, 53.5 per cent out of 47,720 pounds fired. There is no waste of money in target practice which gives such results as those at Pensacola. And such practice must be kept up. The best navy in the world is the one which has the best gunners in its service, and to attain this efficiency much money must necessarily be fired away at targets.—Minneapolis Journal.

P. H. Duffy of Ashley, Ill., writes, "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down." Sold at Desjardins' Pharmacy.

'A LADIES' MAN'

Out of old newspapers, as well as "out of old books," come fragments of recorded experience and ripe wisdom oftentimes appropos to present-day conditions. The characteristics of "a ladies' man" are pitifully set forth in a copy of the Nantucket Inquirer for 1828, in a style probably framed on the famous Addison, and the conclusion of the whole matter is reached through a series of sometimes apt, always quaintly flavored comparisons.

"There have been characters in all ages of the world to whom this motto has been applicable. It would not be difficult to find, in sacred history, to point out a few, at least, who were similar to such as are at the present time denominated ladies' men; and profane history abounds with instances almost innumerable. But to go back to remote ages of the world, even to the time that Jacob kissed Rachel? for a character to exhibit in this speculation would be quite unnecessary, for the present age furnishes a great variety of specimens.

"First—A ladies' man is not like a gentleman's man. The former addresses himself to the passions, the latter to the understanding; the former attempts to be witty, while the latter is contented with being regarded as a man of sense; the former compliments the ladies, in hopes of being complimented in turn; the latter speaks in terms of commendation from a consciousness of the inferiority of the former; the former complaisance that he feels, the latter feels more than he expresses; the former is always adulatory, the latter is always candid; the former is always fawning, the latter is always respectful; the former expresses friendship from motives of delicacy, the latter, often from motives of delicacy, conceals that which he feels; the former is always gay, the latter is always polite; the former is always unreserved, the latter is discreet; the former is ambitious of distinguished attentions, the latter contented himself with a reasonable share; the former would fain make the ladies believe they are a race of superbiae beings and too divine for a terrestrial residence, the latter confers on them a just tribute of honor by regarding them as rational creatures, and like the other sex, designed to be at least a while on earth before being translated to the empyrean abodes of bliss; the former is admired only by ladies of weak mind, the latter receives the homage and respect from women of the brightest understanding; the former, like a meteor, may dazzle for a moment, the latter shines with a steady and serene light; the former makes a better gallant than husband; the latter a better husband than gallant; the former is despised by the most valuable part of both sexes, the latter is esteemed by both sexes as worth having.

"I had said now"—the writer has laid his foundation—"attempt briefly to show what a ladies' man is like. He is like a baboon, decked in gay attire, that attracts attention by fantastic and ridiculous tricks; he is like a lunatic, for he makes sonnets to the moon and for a moment, the latter shines with a like a butterfly, fond of living among flowers, but makes no honey; he is like a serpent, that fascinates to destroy; he is like a jackdaw, because he thinks he is no equal; he is like a weathercock, turned in any direction by a sigh; he is like a mole, for he knows not where to find him; he is like a moon-sun, which shines only in an impure atmosphere; he is like the dew, for he passeth off in vapors; he is like a mermaid, never what he appears to be; he is like froth, for he dwells only on the surface of things; and, indeed, he is like anything excepting a true gentleman and a profitable companion."

GET DOWN TO FACTS.

Read What Marquette Citizens Say.

Get down to the facts of the matter. Don't take a stranger's word. It is easier to prove the truthfulness of statements made by citizens of Marquette than endorsement coming from some far-away place. Read the following:

Mr. C. C. Young, of 227 E. Michigan street, painter and decorator, says: "I had such pains through my back and loins at times that I could scarcely keep at my work. The kidney secretions became affected, were highly colored, unnatural, irregular, and deposited a heavy dark sediment. I could not rest comfortably at night, lay awake for hours at a time and was rarely able to secure more than three or four hours' sleep during the night. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, procured them at the Stafford Drug Co.'s store and began to use them. I felt relief almost at once. They relieved the irritated condition of my nerves. I was able to enjoy a good night's rest and arose in the morning feeling strengthened and refreshed."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

Mr. Rockefeller's Offer Should Be a Warning To Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to John D. Rockefeller's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Everyone who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

There are twenty million men and women suffering with dyspepsia—twenty million men and women whose stomachs are wearing out.

We offer these sufferers the next best thing. We guarantee to make their old stomachs almost as good as new.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the missing element—to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to make the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will positively and permanently cure. We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Price 25 cents. Only at our store, or by mail.

CITY DADS IN SESSION.

Financial Aid by City to New Opera House Refused by Aldermen.

The city fathers were not burdened with a very large volume of business Wednesday night, and adjourned after being in session about half an hour.

Two modest requests for damages from people who had suffered injuries on the sidewalks were among the principal items considered. The aldermen were first confronted with a petition from Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, who asked for $800 as compensation for the pain and anguish suffered by her thirteen year old son. The woman set forth the details of the case in her communication, explaining that the lad hurt one of his knees by falling on a defective walk in front of J. H. Malloy's residence on North Fifth street Sept. 13 last. He had suffered much from the injury, it was claimed, and might never be the same boy again. The communication was referred to the committee on claims and accounts.

Richard Tenby was the other applicant. His petition follows: "To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Ishpeming: 'Gentlemen: On September 23, 1903, while passing down Main street and opposite the opera house, I was knocked down by some sign that had been placed near said opera house. I received a double fracture of my left arm, and a very painful injury to my right leg, for which I herewith claim from said city of Ishpeming, $1,500 damages. Dr. J. H. Andrews is the attending physician. You may refer to him if necessary. Signed, this 15th day of October, 1903, RICHARD TENBY.'"

His claim was also referred to the committee on claims and accounts.

No Money for Theater. The council had evidently taken alarm from such a concerted assault on the city's funds, and it sat down hard on the proposition to help out the new opera house.

Alderman Swanson presented the following resolution:

"In view of the enterprise manifested by certain of our citizens in providing the city with a modern theater, and the great benefit to the business interests and the citizens generally will derive from its existence, the council of this city most heartily commends said citizens for their kindness and generosity; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this council that the city shall contribute to the promoters of this much needed acquisition, said new theater, the sum of $10,000, and that the recorder be and is hereby instructed to draw an order upon the city treasurer for said sum, payable to the treasurer of the theater association."

Alderman Swanson moved the adoption of the resolution. Alderman Collick entered an objection, protesting against devoting public funds to private enterprises. His remarks were reinforced by Alderman McCutcheon, who declared that it was contrary to the charter to appropriate money for a private enterprise like the theater.

Mr. McCutcheon said that the city had already shown its liberality to the theater association in donating a strip of the alley in the rear of the site, fourteen feet wide and seventy feet long. The alderman concluded by moving an amendment to the effect that the resolution be laid on the table. After hearing the opinion of the city attorney, who said that the resolution could not be effective if any taxpayer protested or entered an injunction, the amendment was carried.

The boards of public works recommended the purchase of a new boiler for the city hall. The purchasing committee and board of public works will attend to the matter.

Seventeen residents and taxpayers petitioned to have an arc lamp placed at the intersection of Oak and Empire streets. The request was referred to the committee on lighting. Alderman Sterling for the committee on claims and accounts reported favorably on bills against the city amounting to $4,206.49, also on the several payrolls as follows: Official, $1,238.16; highway, $1,513.02; water, $1,190.71; sewer, $600.50; city building, $1,996.79; total bills and payroll for the month of October, 1903, $10,215.67.

DITCHED THE LADDER CART.

The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock to fight a blaze in Mrs. McGreavy's dwelling between Pearl street and Cleveland avenue. On the way to the fire the hook and ladder truck was overturned, while rounding the corner at Pearl and First streets. The horses were going at top speed. The chemical extinguishers were thrown off and the firemen were dumped into the street. William Trembath sustained a dislocated shoulder and the others were badly shaken up. The tongue of the ladder truck was broken, but it escaped other injury.

The fire originated in a shed adjoining the dwelling from a candle carried by one of the children. The youngsters were looking for a pair of rubbers, and in the course of his search overturned a mattress on the candle. The mattress caught fire, and the child narrowly escaped severe injury from burns. He was minus his eye brows and some of his hair when rescued. The damage wrought by the fire was slight. The adjoining building was a little scorched. Only a short time was required to extinguish the flames.

MARRIED TUESDAY.

Gust Sundlie and Miss Hildor Warnberg were united in marriage Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Warnberg on Bancroft street. Rev. Carlson, of the Swedish Methodist church, officiated. About fifty invited guests were present and after the ceremony all partook of a wedding supper. The couple received a large number of handsome presents. Mr. Sundlie is one of the proprietors of the Star bakery.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.

Mr. Walter Richardson, of Troutville, Va., had an attack of diarrhoea that came near ending his life. His physician had failed to relieve him, and the disease had become chronic when he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It soon cured him and he now recommends that preparation whenever an opportunity offers. For sale by The Stafford Drug Co., J. M. Perkins, Neagunee, and Henry Harwood, Ishpeming.

THE LATE MRS. KESKEYS.

The funeral of the late Jane Keskeys, wife of William Keskeys, one of Ishpeming's best known residents, whose death was announced in yesterday's issue, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Division street Methodist church.

The deceased had been in an invalid for twenty years, having been taken ill about one year after her arrival in Ishpeming from her native place in England. During the past two years her condition gradually grew worse, until a few weeks ago her relatives knew that her suffering would soon end in death. Though she suffered greatly at times, Mrs. Keskeys was always cheerful and never complained.

During her last hours she realized that death was near. She called her relatives to her bedside and asked them to sing some of her favorite hymns. While listening to their familiar strains she closed her eyes in eternal sleep, her last utterances being words of consolation to her husband, to whom she was wedded fifty-one years ago. During the past two years Mrs. Keskeys and her husband had lived in a comfortable home on Taylor street, near their old home, Mrs. Peter Carlyon, North street.

Mrs. Keskeys was born in Perrin Church, a small town in Cornwall, England. She was seventy-eight years and two months old. She had but one brother, Henry Simons, living. He is a well-to-do resident of Placer county, California. Mr. Simons was a resident of Copper Harbor fifty years ago. He was west from there and has never been back.

A PECULIAR FATALITY.

The following account of the death of Ludlow Taylor, of Milwaukee, who spent part of the summer here with his grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Taylor, appeared in yesterday's Milwaukee Sentinel:

"As a result of a playful Halloween prank Ludlow Taylor, eight years old, died at his father's home in West Allis Monday afternoon from inflammation of the brain. The boy was playing with several companions on Saturday night, when a pea lodged in his ear. He tried to take it out, but instead pushed it further in. Several of his companions attempted to remove it with their hands, but their efforts, too, were without avail. The boy was chloroformed and the pea removed by Dr. J. W. Rasmussen, who thinks that the pea tore the ear drum causing inflammation. The boy's mother was on a visit in Michigan when the accident occurred and arrived home just in time to be with her son when he died. Edward Taylor, the boy's father, is a foreman on an evening paper."

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires who they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower relieves the torpid liver, stimulates the appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It makes and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. Stafford Drug Co.

LEAVE THIS MORNING.

The football team will start for Ironwood this morning at 8:45 on the St. Paul train, leaving at a special car. About fifteen players and a number of rooters will be in the party. It has been considered a better plan to make the long ride to Ironwood in the day time, rather than to travel all night. The party will return on the early morning train Sunday.

CANCEROUS ULCERS ROOTED IN THE BLOOD.

After the age of 45 or 50, when the vital powers are naturally weaker, it is noticed that a hurt of any kind heals slowly and often a very insignificant scratch or bruise

A small pimple came on my jaw, but gave me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it life warty growths, heal. This continued for some time when the Cancer medicine that I began to use, and it was a large one, had been on the body almost from birth being a wonderful effect it had from the beginning the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. This was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer, and my general health continues good. Mrs. E. SHIER, Wyconda, Mo.

Whenever a sore or ulcer is slow in healing then you may be sure something is radically wrong with your blood. Some old taint or poison that has been slumbering there for years, is beginning to assert itself, and breaks out and becomes a bad ulcer and perhaps the beginning of Cancer. These old sores are rooted in the blood, and while washes, soaps, salves, etc., keep the surface clean, they are not healing. A blood medicine to purify and strengthen the polluted blood and a tonic to build up the general system is what is needed, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. No poison is so powerful and no germ so deadly that this great vegetable blood remedy cannot reach it, and ulcers of every kind quickly yield to its wonderful curative properties. If you have an old sore or ulcer, write us all about it, and medical advice or any information you may desire will be given by our physicians without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Michigamme.

CHILDREN WERE LOST.

Two Little Herman Tots Spent Night and Day in the Woods.

There was considerable excitement at Michigamme Sunday and Monday, caused by the disappearance of the two little daughters of Isaac Kulgo. One was six and the other five years of age.

Early Sunday afternoon Mrs. Kulgo went out to visit a neighbor, leaving the children in charge of her husband. The latter was drowsy and fell asleep. When the mother returned the girls were not in sight. After visiting all the houses in the neighborhood, and finding no one who could give any information as to their whereabouts there was a general alarm.

The woods reach within a short distance of the location and in places the timber is thick. As soon as it became known that the children had disappeared, searching parties were organized. The little tots made no outcry, nor did they answer their names. As soon as it became dark all the lanterns in the place were brought into commission. The woods were tramped all night.

Monday morning the search was renewed. About 10 o'clock the young girl was found sleeping upon a rock about two miles from the settlement. When the men came upon her she was startled, and began to cry. She did not seem to recognize the searchers. After some minutes she recovered herself. When questioned about her sister she said she did not know where she was; that she had gone on ahead of her.

Late in the afternoon a couple of men from L'Anse, who were out hunting, found the other child. She was then about six miles from Herman.

MICHIGAMME PICK-UPS.

The hop given Tuesday evening by the Trombly orchestra was well attended.

Mrs. N. D. Kean left a few days ago for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the marriage of her sister.

Mrs. Fred Jensen is in Canada, having been called there last week by the serious illness of her mother.

Joseph Labeau, who was injured some months ago, was reported sick early in the week. The injury is causing him trouble.

Up to Wednesday last over fifty Michigamme men had applied for hunters' licenses. The deer hunting season opens Sunday.

Dr. F. A. Jones, who has been here for some months past, first at Dr. Loveland's assistance and later with Dr. Kean, left Tuesday for Landrum in lumber town west of here. He will be the only physician in the place.

Arthur Frechette had a narrow escape from death at the mill one day last week. A hand saw broke, a piece of it striking him in the breast. The young man was unconscious for some time, but his injuries are not serious.

Adaloro Reamo has returned from the Mesaba range, where he has spent some months. The mine at which he worked was shut down for the winter. He reports that there are a number of unemployed men on the range, but most of them will go to the woods.

The new school building at Herman is about completed. It will be opened within the next few days, possibly next Monday. The building speaks well for the enterprise of the little place. It was paid for largely by popular subscription, all the residents contributing their share.

Mrs. Albert Lamo was given a bad scare one day last week. She was sitting near the stove doing some work, when a bullet came through the wall and struck the stove, smashing a cover in several places. Fred Schweinman was notified of the shooting and went out in the direction from which the shot was fired, but could see no one with a gun.

A number of good-sized boys who got to 22 1/2 Hall's spent the early hours of Sunday morning in the coop. The officer was commended by those who knew how the boys were acting for locking them up. Others criticised him because he did not call a couple of older boys, as they are frequent offenders. Speaking of the matter a citizen said: "I think Mr. Oie should pay more attention to the larger boys, as they take liberties that should not be tolerated."

LOCAL LACONICS.

R. G. Quinn was here from Milwaukee Wednesday. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Pattrowitz Tuesday afternoon.

J. M. Edgerton arrived home yesterday from a brief visit to Duluth. Al Bohrer's family have taken up their residence in P. B. Kirkwood's house, on Main street.

Louis Greenier has made satisfactory arrangements with his creditors. He reopened his store Wednesday. Louis Sporley and Mike Manning expect to leave for Arizona the first of next week, to locate permanently.

Captain Gustaf Anderson and family have moved into John Stuart's house on Peck street, lately vacated by John Wasmuth's family. The new boiler for the city pumping station arrived Wednesday. It is high pressure, and of the same pattern as the one at the Lucy mine.

The next dance in the series being given at Cyr's hall will take place this evening, the date having been changed from Saturday evening. Chief Jackson is desirous of having the council enact an ordinance fixing a heavy penalty for tampering with fire alarm boxes or turning in false alarms.

Axel Rasmussen is quite busy making up fall and winter suits for both ladies and gentlemen. He has an exceptionally attractive stock of suitings and overcoatings. Prospective deer hunters were delighted to see the snow yesterday morning when they found it will lay up this season open. Reliable weather prophets predict, however, that another period of pleasant weather is due.

The fire department responded to an alarm from box 41 Wednesday afternoon, at about 5 o'clock. The blaze was extinguished, however, being a chimney fire at a residence on the corner of Healey avenue and Peck street. George A. Rockwell and wife of Oshkosh arrived here yesterday morning. Mr. Rockwell coming to lay his plans for a new gas plant before the council today in connection with the extension of the franchise. He brought with him a collection of blue prints and diagrams of the proposed new plant.

Henry Heisel advertises in this issue for the return of a pocketbook lost by his mother recently. It contained over $20 and some small change. He offers a substantial reward. Mr. Heisel is particularly desirous of recovering the pocketbook, as his mother is in delicate health and has been much worried by the loss. Dr. Weaver's Syrup Purifies the blood; Cerate (ointment) for the skin.

The new Marquette county map, with a special feature of roads and camps for hunters' use, is on sale at Perkins' drug store. (10-29-1w) prosecution was decided on. The father acknowledges he gave his son no order and says he will let the law take its course.

Now a Prosperous Merchant—Herman Salinsky, one of Escanaba's merchants, is prominent in the present position in business circles from a poor boy employed at the cigar store in New York. From New York Mr. Salinsky went to Escanaba to work for his brother, who was conducting a small store, in 1888. The first year Salinsky earned $180 and saved $150. He remained ten years working for his brother and then went into business for himself. Shortly afterward he and his brother, who had a partnership, calling their store the "Fair Savings Bank Department Store." About five years ago Mr. Salinsky bought out his brother and has since been conducting the business alone. Mr. Salinsky now owns and conducts one of the largest mercantile establishments in this part of the country.

Alleged Kidnaper Released—Judge Stone has made an important interstate decision by liberating on habeas corpus proceedings Samuel Cooper, charged with kidnaping a seven-year-old child. Cooper drove with the child's mother, Mrs. Jack Atkinson, to Menominee and there the child was placed in a carriage and the two drove into Wisconsin pursued by the Menominee officers. Mrs. Atkinson fled with her child to the wilds of Marquette county, while Cooper was arrested. Requisition papers were issued and he was taken back to Michigan. Judge Stone now holds that the ruling of the probate court in Michigan, giving the father custody of the child, was valid, because the mother had already commenced divorce proceedings in Wisconsin by which she was awarded custody of the child. Judge Stone by this ruling acknowledges the jurisdiction of the Wisconsin courts.

Soo Locks in Miniature—The model of the locks at the Soo is nearly ready to be shipped to the world's fair at St. Louis. But a few finishing touches are yet to be made, when the miniatures will be ready to pack. The work has been done with great care and not the smallest detail has been left unnoticed by the workmen. It is probable that many people of the Soo could learn much concerning the locks by an inspection of this piece of work. Everything is there, even to the glass in the windows. Not a wheel has been left out, not a cable forgotten. Valves, piping, grass and even cobble stones are to be seen in the model. At a rough estimate the model is about ten feet in length. It shows the works from the spot where the canal divides above the locks to a point below the office building and the lower gates. The canal office building has been reproduced with a skill that is admirable. The proportions are exact. All the engines are represented, showing the cog wheels and connections. Big Mill Winds Up Career—The Fuller & Friant Lumber company, which for the past four years has operated the big sawmill at Thompson, Schoolcraft county, previous to which time the Delta Lumber company owned the plant, has this day at that place last week. The mill has cut during the twenty-one years it has been operated, an average of eighteen million feet annually. The owners have cleared up their entire possessions. This year the cut was 14,000,000 feet, the output being sold to the Hines Lumber company. About 9,000,000 feet of this has been shipped. This industry has been the main support of the village and many of the people that have been employed by the company will leave there, many of them going to Manistique. Thompson will be crippled, but it will always be a "good" town. It has one of the best harbors on the lake and is tributary to a fine farming district as there is in the upper country. TRAVELING IN COLOMBIA. Drummer's Story of a Stolen Fleet and a Naval Battle.

Charles H. Mullet, a Chicago drummer, who is now in New York on his way back to Chicago from a tour of South America, tells some exciting stories of his adventures in Colombia during the recent insurrection of the Liberals.

"I started," he said, "to go up the River Magdalena in a small river steamer. There was only one other passenger—a quiet, amiable young man, who afterward turned out to be a Liberal leader in disguise."

"When we had gone two days up stream we found that trouble was brewing. Every one of the other passengers had taken up arms on one side or the other, and was stealing his neighbors' cattle and horses for the good of the cause. We heard that in a town just ahead the Liberals had risen in obedience to a pronouncement and seized six steamers and gone up stream."

"Our skipper was an American and wanted peace, but that commodity seemed just as unlikely to be found down stream as up, so we kept on our course. The result was that at noon next day we fell into the hands of three revolutionary steamers which were ambushed round a bend of the river."

"Their crews swarmed aboard and invited us with rifles to join them. We joined, and had three days' naval maneuvers, which consisted of pillage. I am sorry I had no camera, the scenes were so interesting."

"After three days we, having the fastest steamer, dodged round another branch of the river and escaped; and when we tied up for the night we thought we were safe. Our delight did not last long, for my amiable young fellow passenger, who had assumed command of our captors, came after us with thirty truculent bandits in canoes and retook our ship during the night."

"As my own request he kindly put me ashore at a woodpile in the lonely forest; at least it was lonely except for two elderly colored ladies, who owned the woodpile."

"The ship, with lights out, dropped down the river to join the rest of the fleet, having left me rations for a couple of days—two tins of sardines, a pound of bread and half a pound of chocolate."

"After they had gone an Indian sneaked out of the bush, and I managed to bribe him to put me across the river to a village where many canoes were kept. There I hired two, loaded my traps into them, and with five men, led all that night in pouring rain, and all the next day under a blazing sky to Puerto Benio, the nearest place where food was obtainable."

"The officer in command of the government troops there, when he heard my piteous tale, fitted out an expedition, converting some river steamers into armed cruisers by the use of railway metals for armor plates. With these he went down the river to meet the enemy, who by that time had gathered eleven steamers."

"Those eleven were not enough. There was a regular Trafalgar, and the revolutionists had the worst of it. "All the boats were sunk or captured and they lost over 250 men. My amiable fellow passenger got a bullet through his brain, and our skipper, who took no part in the affair, but went down as a passenger, got two through his arms as he was quietly reading "Under Two Flags" which I had lent him, in his cabin."—New York Sun.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA. New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Stafford Drug Co., J. M. Perkins, Negaunee, and Henry Harwood, Ishpeming.

AVOID ALL DRYING INHALANTS and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures Catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm drooping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Att'y at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY. J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Natchua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold at Desjardins' Pharmacy.

MARQUETTE MAN IS NOW SUSPECTED

JOHN PENGLASE, JR., MAY HAVE BEEN ACCOMPLICE IN ESCANABA POSTOFFICE ROBBERY.

TO BE EXAMINED MONDAY

IF GUILTY HE PLAYED BUT A MINOR PART IN THE AFFAIR.

Is a Son of Sheriff Penglase, Who Is Deeply Grieved at the Young Man's Predicament—May Clear Up Mystery.

John Penglase, a Marquette man, son of Sheriff John Penglase, is the latest suspect on account of the Escanaba postoffice robbery. He was taken into custody at that city this week and is now released, pending an examination set for Monday. No bond was asked, he being let go on Prosecuting Attorney Cummins' assurance that he would be on hand when wanted.

The report of this development in connection with the postoffice robbery was received with much interest here, and also with much sorrow that a son of Sheriff Penglase should have come to have any truck with such men as Anderson and Reynolds. Sheriff Penglase regrets the unfortunate affair very deeply, but knows nothing of it. John, Jr., has not been in Marquette for many weeks, and indeed of late has spent but little time here. His friends and relatives in this city know little of his recent course of conduct, and while both believe that he was mixed up in the Escanaba affair have to admit that the authorities probably know what they are about.

Interviewed by Prosecutor, Prosecuting Attorney Cummins swore out a warrant for Penglase's arrest Tuesday. He was interviewed by the prosecutor in the afternoon and was given a hearing in the evening. He was docketed on a charge of being an accomplice of Anderson and Reynolds and will be given an examination, along with them, next Monday. As has been noted he was let go with the understanding that he would be on hand when wanted.

It is said that there is no direct evidence against Penglase and that the officers do not look upon him in the same light as they do Anderson and Reynolds. It has been the opinion right along that the latter had the assistance of some amateur in their postoffice job, and Penglase is believed to have been this amateur.

The officers had their eyes on Penglase a number of days previous to his arrest and indeed it was rumored here last week that he was in some way implicated in the robbery. It is alleged that he was seen going to the woods frequented by Reynolds and Anderson and where it is thought that they hid the safe taken from the postoffice. It is also alleged that Penglase had been hobnobbing with Anderson and Reynolds before their arrest, although he did not appear to recognize them on the street the morning that they were taken into custody. However, witnesses state that Penglase exchanged signs with the two prisoners on the street Saturday morning. These things together promoted suspicion and led to the arrest.

It is generally believed at Escanaba that if Penglase was mixed up in the affair at all he took a minor part, and has agreed to assist the officers in making a case out against Anderson and Reynolds. This is the only hypothesis, apparently, on which his immediate release from custody can be explained.

May Be Able to Clear Himself. Of course it is possible that the young man will be able to clear himself of any connection with the crime, a thing which his acquaintances and friends of the family hope may be the case. He has never been connected with any affair of the kind before, though he has occasioned his people much care and worry.

The greatest regret is that his latest adventure is calculated to depress Sheriff John Penglase. Mr. Penglase of course feels keenly the trouble into which the young man has seemingly plunged. As stated above he has heard nothing definite about the case and has no means of judging how serious it is. However, he says that if his son has run counter to the law he will have to take whatever punishment is justly meted out to him.

The incident is the one thing that has marred Sheriff Penglase's pleasure in the administration of his office. He has made an admirable record in every way, and has made many friends in Marquette. They, together with his acquaintances up the road, will sincerely regret that his son has caused him this trouble and will hope that things may not be as bad as they seem. Young Penglase is about twenty-eight years of age.

HERE MONDAY EVENING.

Miss Roselle Knott Will Be Seen in "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

Miss Roselle Knott will be seen at the opera house Monday evening in Paul Reister's dramatization of Charles Major's novel "When Knighthood Was in Flower." Miss Knott, who is rapidly coming to the front as an actress of dignified and serious roles, has been secured by Manager Frank Perley for the principal part in this production with the intention of starring her each season in one of the latest New York successes.

Miss Knott's rise has been rapid, and she has played some very important parts in the last few years. Last season she essayed the stellar role in Amelia Bingham's production of "A Modern Magdalen." Before that, she took Julia Arthur's place in "More Than Queen" and was also seen as "Lydia," the leading female character in F. C. Whitney's production of "Quo Vadis." In the part of Mary Tudor in "Knighthood" she has, it is said, a most congenial role, one to which she is well suited by personality and temperament. Mr. Perley has provided a most admirable company to support Miss Knott. It is headed by Frank Sylvester.

MORE FINE WEATHER

OBSERVER PATRICK EXPECTS FAIR DAYS IN NOVEMBER.

In October the Severe Storms All Passed to the North, Through Canada, South of Hudson Bay.

Observer Patrick, of the Marquette weather bureau, has a message of cheer for the people of the city. He expects that before the winter sets in there will be ten or fifteen fair days, something resembling the succession of fine days and nights enjoyed all through August and up to Wednesday noon this month, when the storm which blew itself out yesterday set in and held sway for somewhat over twenty-four hours. Further, the indications to date point to a mild winter, although as yet it is somewhat early to make any definite predictions on this score.

Conditions may change so as to make the winter season tolerably severe. The explanation of the fine weather enjoyed in this region during the month of October and in fact up to Wednesday is found in the unusual course of the wind, or equinoctial, as they are popularly known, storms. They run from east to west and usually take in much of the Lake Superior country, extending south to the neighborhood of Chicago.

During the past several weeks the storms have found a new stamping ground. They have prevailed to the north of us, in Canada, and have traveled through the stretch of the Dominion north of our northern boundary and south of Hudson bay. The storms have prevailed as usual, but they have made a visitation in new territory this year.

It is impossible to foretell with any accuracy just how long Canada will be the storm center. At any time the path of the winds may change and they may come back to the Lake Superior country, which has been getting along so well without them during the past month or more. It is on this contingency that the nature of the coming winter depends. If the storms continue to prevail more to the northward than usual the season in the Lake Superior country is liable to be comparatively mild and open; if on the other hand the storms veer to the south the winter in northern Michigan and in the northern part of the country generally will be of the usual intensity. Just now the conditions and general indications favor a mild and comparatively pleasant winter and unless there is some notable change that is what we will get.

The storm that has prevailed here the past twenty-four hours or more did not pass fairly over this region. Rather we were touched with the southern part of its fury. The main storm passed to the north over the lake and in Canada, and at its greatest point it was much more intense and destructive than was the case here, although even in this locality it was heavy enough to kick up a brisk storm on the lake, to send the mercury scaling off and to bring the first furries of snow.

Mr. Patrick now looks for warmer temperatures, and it is rather expected that another mild spell will set in to endure for some little time. November should prove at least a moderately fair month, although it can hardly be expected to be as fine as October. October, as a matter of fact, made a record for itself. It was unusually fair and pleasant, just as July and August were unusually cold, wet and disagreeable.

ARE SWARMING TO U. P. FORESTS

ANNUAL INFLUX OF LOWER PENINSULA HUNTERS IS NOW PROCEEDING IN FULL SWING.

HUNDREDS COMING IN DAILY

BEFORE END OF WEEK 1,000 WILL HAVE ARRIVED.

Trains Are Crowded With the Visiting Sportsmen and Are Delayed by Their Great Numbers.

The annual influx of outside hunters to the upper peninsula is now in full swing, and before the end of the week fully 1,000 of them will have been hauled by the South Shore road, via Mackinac, from lower Michigan, and will have been safely placed at the various hunting grounds east of Marquette and west of St. Ignace and the Soo. The influx began the first of the present month and has been proceeding steadily during the past five days. It reached its height Wednesday and yesterday, although today and tomorrow the crowds will come in by way of Mackinac, will be equal to any received to date. The influx is making itself felt in the usual way, in delayed trains. Yesterday and the day before the train due here from the east at 2:05 o'clock was no less than two hours late and the time was lost solely in handling the lower Michigan hunters and their stacks of baggage. On both days extra coaches were put on the train for their accommodation and these and the regular coaches as well have been packed to their capacity.

The special traffic that can be attributed to the opening of the deer hunting season will, if it equals that of last year, number at least 1,500 passengers, and indeed it is likely that there will exceed this figure. These 1,500 will not all be carried before the opening of the season Sunday, but will come straggling along until well toward the 25th, though, to be sure, the majority of the lower Michigan delegation, probably 1,000 hunters at least, will have been brought into the upper peninsula and will have gotten located by Sunday.

Big Party for Dorsey. Most of these visitors come directly through on the South Shore. Some, however, get to the hunting grounds by other routes. For instance, yesterday the Manistique, Marquette and Northern turned a party of no less than forty-three over to the South Shore, they having arrived at Manistique by ferry. These hunters were bound for Dorsey, on the Munising line. It was likewise reported here yesterday that the St. Paul line had put a party of over a hundred hunters into the peninsula, there to separate for the various hunting grounds.

The lower Michigan delegation in quest of upper peninsula venison has all the characteristics of the parties that have come north in other years. An extreme frugality and economy is one of the most distinctive traits of the excursionists. Far the majority of them plan to leave very little money in the north country. They come provided with most of the necessities for their outing, as well as with the luxuries, and it is claimed that many of them remain in the peninsula throughout the season without spending anything to speak of. Extraordinary tales are told of the precautions that the visitors take to guard against paying any toll to upper peninsula tradesmen, or stores. Some even bring hay for their stock and straw for their bunk, most of them come thoroughly provisioned, and their ammunition is, as a rule, bought in the lower part of the state. As a general thing there is nothing swaggar about the incoming sportsmen. They are ordinary men, out for a cheap good time and some nice meat for the folks at home.

Few Visitors in This County. Few of the visitors get as far west as this county, and most of the hunting here is done by the people resident in this region. The sportsmen from the southern peninsula are more partial to the eastern part of the peninsula. In the first place it is nearer. Secondly the comparative remoteness of large towns and the absence of cities make it easier to find the game nearer the railroad stations and sidings. This condition allows the hunters to get settled in a game country without much waste of time.

Seney is one of the favorite stopping places. Tributary to it is an excellent game country. The parties work in toward Grand Marais and usually meet with excellent success. Probably more of the visitors operate with Seney as a headquarters than choose any other single place on the line of the South Shore. However, any one who is travelling west these days will tell, if questioned, that the visitors do not overlook any point on the whole line. From St. Ignace on the train and baggage men are tumbling them off at every stop and they lose no time in scurrying into the woods.

Most of the hunters are well informed as to what they want and where they want to go. Their visit to the upper peninsula is in the nature of an annual pilgrimage, begun back several years ago. They frequent the same localities season after season, and never change as long as the hunting holds out. They have the fall excursion down to a science. They know just what to buy, just where to get off and just where to pitch camp.

Outsiders Get Much Game. As a rule they are good hunters and they levy a heavy tribute on upper peninsula game, getting about as much of it as do upper peninsula people themselves. After Monday there will be a large and continual shipment of carcasses to lower peninsula points, the homes of the army of hunters. The shipment annually amounts into hundreds of carcasses, and at times embarrasses the railroad men almost as much as the annual influx of the hunters, requiring continual stops at all the little way stations to pick up venison.

The number of hunters from outside the state who come to Michigan in quest of deer is as yet comparatively limited. The license fee of $25 operates to keep them at home. It is likely that many outside hunters evade the fee; it is certain that few pay it.

The season should prove a good one for the hunters and a bad one for the deer, if conditions are at all favorable. According to reports from different hunting grounds, the game is very plentiful. Last season, it will be remembered, they had their misings. Conditions in the woods were of a nature to greatly embarrass the hunters. Fewer deer were killed than for a number of years, and only the best of the hunters met with any success to speak of. An absence of snow was the greatest handicap. Deer were probably present in north country woods in greater numbers than ever before this fall. If there should be snow on the ground during the open season and if the other conditions should prove favorable the slaughter will doubtless be very heavy.

MARKET OFF AGAIN.

Boston Coppers Unfavorably Affected by the Declines in Steels.

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired W. H. Laidley & Co.: "The market is very dull today. Prices were off fractionally, but there was not enough trading to determine the drift of the market. Almost two-thirds of Old Dominion stock has been deposited. The temporary receipts have been listed and will be traded in from noon. There is nothing new in the metal market. There is very little doing." Paine, Webber & Co. said of the Boston market: "The drop in Steel stocks to new low records took all the courage out of the investment and bull traders today and caused fear selling all around. There was no apparent support in the Steel stocks and all indications at present are that they will be lower before the selling stops. Amalgamated was weak with the rest of the market. Home coppers were dull and only slightly changed. There are very few coppers for sale. We can see nothing to build a bull market on as long as these steel stocks continue to decline. For the present sell on rallies."

Anent the Steel Shares.

The Hadden-Rodee New York letter was as follows:

"During the past four months we have frequently referred to the united States corporation and its securities in terms that could not have been misunderstood. This wonderfully wrought out scheme is not only the speculative disappointment of the decade, but amounts to some of its features to the practice on colossal scale of methods that certainly would not escape prosecution if others than our foremost financiers were responsible. The conversion scheme which we have criticized so often is the basis for a flood of violent protests coming from every direction. Nowhere is the feeling more intense than in Pittsburg, the greatest steel center and the place where more U. S. Steel securities were placed than any other one point of the leading stock exchange houses. The opposition to the United States Steel corporation grows daily. Be careful of these stocks. Their large capitalization is just beginning to be realized by the public and as they are through their own and coke property it is absurd. Pittsburg long ago sold the majority of its Steel shares dominated the entire market today. London houses were heavy sellers."
