PRESIDENT ASKS JUSTICE FOR CUBA

OUTCOME IS PROBLEMATIC

OLD CONTROVERSY AT THE LAST SESSION IS REVIVED.

Conference Falls on Agreement and It Is Declared Contention of House Must Be Admitted or Proposed Legislation Will Fail.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The president's message to congress, read in both houses today, was as follows:

"I have convened the congress that it may consider the legislation necessary to put into operation the commercial treaty with Cuba which was ratified by the senate at its last session and subsequently by the Cuban government. I deem such legislation demanded not only by our interest but by our honor. We cannot with propriety abandon the course upon which we have so wisely embarked. When the acceptance of the Platt amendment was required from Cuba by the action of congress of the United States, this government thereby definitely committed itself to the policy of treating Cuba as occupying a unique position as regards this country. It was provided that when the island became a free and independent republic she should stand in such close relations with us as in certain respects to come within our system of international policy; and it necessarily followed that she must also to a certain degree become included within the lines of our economic policy. Situated as Cuba is it would not be possible for this country to permit the strategic abuse of the plan by any foreign military power. It is for this reason that certain limitations have been imposed upon her financial policy and that naval stations have been conceded by her to the United States. The negotiations as to the details of these naval stations are on the eve of completion. They are so situated as to prevent any idea that there is the intention ever to use them against Cuba or otherwise than for the protection of Cuba from the assaults of foreign foes, and for the better safeguarding of our own interests in the waters south of us.

"These interests have been largely increased, the consequence of the war with Spain, and will be still further increased by the building of the isthmian canal. They are both military and economic. The granting to us by Cuba of the naval stations above alluded to is of the utmost importance from a military standpoint, and is proof of the good faith with which she is entering into the compact. Cuba has made great progress since her independence was established. She has advanced steadily in every way. She already stands high among her sister republics in the work of civilization. She is loyally observing her obligations to us and she is entitled to like treatment by us.

"Large Market Secured.

"The treaty submitted to you for approval to the United States States economic advantages a great benefit given to Cuba. Not an American interest is sacrificed. By the treaty a large Cuban market is secured to our products. It is a market which lies at our door which is already largely supplied by our goods, and which is especially important to the development of our export trade. It would be indeed shortsighted for us to refuse to take advantage of such opportunity and to force Cuba into making arrangements with other countries to our disadvantage.

"This reciprocity treaty stands by itself. It is demanded on consideration of broad national policy as well as by our economic interest. It will do harm to no industry. It will benefit many industries. It is in the interest of our people as a whole both because of its importance from the broad standpoint of international policy and because economically it intimately concerns us to develop and secure the rich Cuban market for our farmers, artisans, merchants and manufacturers. Finally it is desirable as a guaranty of the good faith of our nation towards her young sister republic to the south, whose welfare must ever be closely bound with ours. We gave her liberty, we are knit to her by the memories of the blood and the courage of our soldiers who fought for her in war; by the memories of the wisdom and integrity of our administrators who saved her in peace and who started her well on the difficult path of self-government. We must help her onward and upward; and in helping her we shall help ourselves.

"The foregoing considerations caused the negotiation of the treaty with Cuba and its ratification by the senate. They now with equal force support the legislation by the congress which by the terms of the treaty is necessary to render it operative. A failure to enact such legislation would come perilously near a repudiation of the pledged faith of the nation.

"I transmit herewith the treaty, as amended by the senate and ratified by the Cuban government."

Two Houses Still at Odds.

The president tonight had a conference with a number of leaders of both houses of congress. They included Secretary Moody, Speaker Cannon, Senators Allison, Aldrich, Platt (Connecticut), Spooner, Hanna, Hale, Lodge and Wetmore, and Representatives Payne, Dalzell, Tawney and Hemenway. The Cuban reciprocity question was discussed. The old controversy between the house and the senate over the right of the former to initiate all revenue legislation was the principal topic of conversation.

The members of the house claimed that the present treaty provides that during the life of the convention the duty on sugar shall not be reduced either by treaty or convention. To concede the position of the senate, they asserted, would be a surrender of their constitutional powers. It was said that unless the contention of the house is admitted,

STEAMSHIPS CROWDED.

Many Foreigners Now Returning to Their Native Lands.

New York, Nov. 10.—Thousands upon thousands of immigrants who arrived at the port yesterday are now crowding the eastbound steamships in their efforts to return to their native lands. Never before have so large a number sought return passage. Business re-ventments and industrial strikes are the reasons advanced for the exodus. The nationalities represented are principally Italian, Polish, Slovak and Hungarian.

FREEDOM FOR HAMILTON.

Sentence of Man Who Killed Millionaire Day Is Commuted.

St. Paul, Nov. 10.—Frank H. Hamilton, who stabbed Leonard Day to death in the bar room of the West hotel at Minneapolis on Nov. 25, 1900, will be released this week, the board of pardons having commuted his sentence from seven to five years, thus making him eligible to parole by the board of prison control. Hamilton was a newspaper man and his stabbing of Day, a wealthy man of Minneapolis, during a quarrel was one of the sensational affairs of the Northwest.

MOB MARS NUPTIALS

DISORDER ATTENDS MISS GOELET'S MARRIAGE TO THE DUKE.

Crowd of 10,000, Mostly Women, Surges About Church, and 200 Police Are Powerless to Restrain It.

New York, Nov. 10.—The marriage of Miss May Goelet, only daughter of Mrs. Ogden Goelet and one of the richest of American heiresses, to Henry John Innes-Ker, eighth duke of Roxburgh, was solemnized today at St. Thomas' church in this city. A company of 250 guests witnessed the ceremony.

Fifth avenue on the vicinity of the church was a scene, both before and during the ceremony, of excitement and disorder unparalleled at any previous great wedding in New York. From the church to the Goelet residence, a distance of five blocks, the avenue was surging with a mob numbering fully ten thousand, mostly women, whom a force of 200 policemen was powerless to hold in check. Several hundred women who gained entrance to the church and seated themselves in the gallery were forcibly ejected by a squad of policemen.

Miss Goelet's carriage as it neared the church was surrounded by women, who stopped the horses and in their efforts to see the bride elug to the carriage, some getting on the steps and thrusting their heads into the open windows. A detail of police had hard work driving the wedding party away so that the ceremony could proceed. The same scene followed the arrival of the carriage of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt.

When the bride's carriage reached the church women lifted the canopy of the canopy and crowded part way under, maintaining their position until the minister had pronounced the nuptials. A patrolman caught one well-dressed woman by the ankle and dragged her along the walk, but when he loosened his hold she stood up smiling and satisfied—she had seen the bride.

Fifteen well-dressed women crawled down a coal hole and the chance they could see nothing but could hear what was going on above. A squad of police drove them out.

After the ceremony a mob invaded the church and dispoiled it of many of the floral decorations.

VALUABLE GIFTS FROM KAISER.

Germanic Museum at Harvard University Is Dedicated.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 10.—The Germanic museum at Harvard University, proposed years ago by eminent German Americans and fostered by Emperor William and Prince Henry, was dedicated today. Within the museum are valuable gifts from Emperor William, Prince Henry and other distinguished Germans. The gifts were presented formally today to the university, and the Germanic Museum association by Baron Von Busche-Haddenhausen, first secretary of the German embassy at Washington.

The address of Baron Haddenhausen was of particular interest, for besides presenting the emperor's collection, he announced that a number of German scholars, officials and men of affairs had prepared a reproduction of German silver and gold work, which is to be given to the museum, and also that Professor Collidge, of the historic department at Harvard, had given the university a library of ten thousand volumes on German history.

JAPAN HOLDING FIRM.

Peace Declared Possible Only by Russia Yielding on All Points.

Tokio, Nov. 10.—There is a strong inclination in well-informed circles to doubt the pacific forecasts issued in Europe. It is believed that peace will only be made possible by Russia's complete acceptance of Japan's claims regarding Manchuria and Korea.

London, Nov. 11.—A dispatch to the Mail from Tien Tsin says the Russian soldiers in Korea have been withdrawn.

New Rebellion Fomented in China.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—Dispatches from Port Arthur say that secret societies are organizing a rebellion in the Yang Tse valley.

WOMAN GETS BIGGEST PRIZE.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 10.—There were many exciting incidents at the opening of the Red Lake lands to entry today. Many land-seekers were up all night and were in line when the land offices opened this morning. The total filings numbered 172, and as many more were disappointed. The biggest prize fell to the first filer, Miss Gustava B. Anderson, of Elk River, who got some choice timber land, with heavy pine, north of Shevelin, worth about $12,000.

MANY COLLIERIES IDLE.

Denver, Nov. 10.—The tie-up in the Colorado coal fields is more extensive than the operators anticipated or the union leaders expected. Out about 13,500 miners in the state, but between 2,500 and 3,000 are at work. Organizers are busy among the latter and it is believed they will induce most of them to come out.

The union leaders claim that 80 per cent of the New Mexico miners have struck, but in Wyoming and Utah the strike has not yet become effective.

No disorder has been reported. Governor Peabody announces that no troops will be sent to the coal fields for the time being.

Cruiser Baltimore on the Way.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The state department tonight received a cablegram from Minister Powell, at San Domingo, dated at 4 p. m. today, reporting the situation extremely serious. The dispatch, it was stated, was the first the department had received on the day it was filed since the disturbance began.

Late tonight Assistant Secretary Loomis, of the state department, called at the White House and spent some time in the telegraph room. He refused to admit he was calling fresh instructions to Minister Powell, although he said that late in the afternoon he had notified the minister that the cruiser Baltimore was on her way to that city and probably would reach there some time during the night.

The Associated Press dispatch reporting the capitulation of San Domingo to the revolutionists was shown to Mr. Loomis, and he expressed the opinion that such action might have taken place subsequent to Minister Powell's cablegram, which the situation was serious.

Bombardment Does Damage.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The state department today received a belated dispatch from Minister Powell, at San Domingo city, dated the 6th, which says: "Macoris has just been bombarded by San Dominican naval vessels and partly destroyed. The American interest in Macoris is very considerable."

San Domingo, Nov. 8.—[Delayed in transmission.]—The revolutionary forces, which now surround the city, attacked San Domingo last night, using artillery, but no damage was done. The revolutionary commander this afternoon sent a messenger with a flag of truce to demand the surrender of the capital, which was refused, and hostilities were resumed. San Domingo is strongly fortified and provisions are plentiful.

THIRTY YEARS IN PRISON.

Sentence of a Wisconsin Boy Accused of Killing Two Companions.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 10.—Fred Irie was sentenced to thirty years in prison for the murder of Henry Speth and Guy Shilliam of Platteville, Wis. The crime was committed on July 30, 1900. All were run-away boys, traveling together. The double murder occurred in a box car, the skulls of the victims being crushed and their bodies thrown from the car while the train was in motion. The murdered boys were probably asleep when the fast-floors were struck. Irie insists that the boys were struck and killed by a train while all three were walking along the track, but he readily agreed to plead guilty to murder in the second degree and take a sentence of thirty years.

TWO DEAD, TWO WOUNDED.

Desire to Smoke in Theater Has Fatal Results in Idaho.

Wallace, Idaho, Nov. 10.—Two men dead and two wounded was the result of a shooting affray at the entrance to the Wallace Opera House last night. The shooting took place just as the theatergoers were leaving the theater, following a performance by the James O'Neil company.

The dead were: Dr. W. F. Fims and William Cuff, a miner. The wounded were Chief of Police McGovern and Opera House Policeman Rose.

The trouble arose over Cuff insisting on smoking a cigar in the gallery. Dr. Fims was a well known surgeon and was an innocent spectator.

Colombian Troops Cannot Land.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Upon the receipt of a report by the state department that several British vessels were to be chartered by the Colombian government to take troops from Buena Ventura to the isthmus, the navy department today ordered the cruiser Boston to proceed off Buena Ventura, and in the event that troops start for the isthmus the commanders will be informed they cannot land. The naval department announces that no attempt will be made to interfere with British vessels on the high seas.

Peace Overtures Refused.

Colon, Nov. 10.—The provisional government at Panama has received a telegram from President Marroquin of Colombia, giving assurances that the Panama canal bill would most certainly pass congress next August and that General Reyes was on his way to the isthmus to make proposals looking toward peace and saving of national honor. The provisional government has sent a letter to General Reyes, which will reach him on his arrival at Savannah, advising that it is useless for him to come to Panama, as his mission is a hopeless one.

Germany to Keep Hands Off.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Foreign Secretary Von Richthofen has informed Ambassador Tower that there is no truth whatever in the report of the intention of Colombia to appeal to Germany or at least that nothing is known here of any intention to make such an appeal. The secretary assured that the Panama matter and that the question of interference in Panama upon the part of Germany does not exist. Secretary Von Richthofen wished the statements to be communicated to the United States government, which the ambassador accordingly has done.

Bound for Southern Waters.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—The United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie, which left the League Island navy yard today, passed out to sea tonight, bound for Hampton Roads, where she will coal. Before leaving here the Yankee took aboard a large supply of ammunition and will take on at Hampton Roads a battalion of marines. From Hampton Roads it is expected the Yankee will sail for Guantanamo, where she will be held in readiness to go to Panama in case she is needed.

The auxiliary cruiser Prairie, which left the navy yard here yesterday, will take a messenger, passed out to sea today. The Prairie will also coal at Hampton Roads and will probably sail from there direct to the isthmus.

Panama's Flag Is Hoisted.

Colon, Nov. 10.—The steam launch sent to Boacas Del Toro on Thursday last to capture that place in the name of the new republic of Panama, has returned here. The officials report that the place was captured and the flag hoisted without a shot being fired. No difficulties whatever were encountered. The majority of the officials of Boacas Del Toro are natives of Panama, and they expressed themselves as rejoiced at the course affairs had taken on the isthmus. The people of the town were jubilant and only a few persons were found to be dissatisfied with the situation. These latter were brought to Colon, but not as prisoners.

The United States cruiser Atlanta has arrived from her cruise along the coast.

Laid to American Plot.

Paris, Nov. 10.—Carlos Calderon writes the Paris edition of the New York Herald, defending the conduct of the Colombian government, which he denied is opposed to the construction of the canal. Colombia desired to see the canal built by the French company he says. He declares the Hay-Herran treaty was prejudicial to Colombia's fiscal interests and a wound to national dignity, and charges that the revolution in Panama was due chiefly to Americans in Colon and Panama.

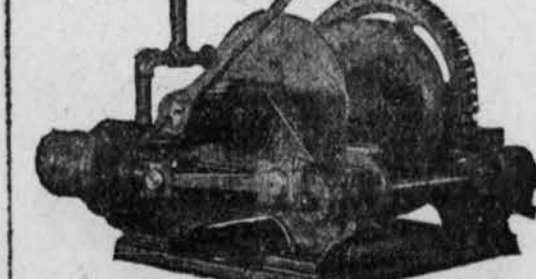

Denies Diplomatic Error.

New York, Nov. 10.—Phillippe Dunau-Varilla, representative of the republic of Panama, will leave here for Washington this evening. When his attention was called to the fact that he is alleged to have committed a diplomatic error in having written to Secretary Morgan, he said: "The letter was written when I was a private citizen, and before I had presented my credentials to the state department. I could see nothing improper in writing as I did."

ANOTHER FAILURE IN TOBACCO.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Crump Bros. dealers in leaf tobacco, were forced into bankruptcy today. The liabilities are $225,000; assets, $150,000, though the latter are said to be worth more than the debts. The firm was intimately connected with Sutter Bros., whose failure yesterday is said to have so injured the Crumps' credit that it was deemed advisable to go into bankruptcy.

LITTLE KNOWN LAW.
Demand Made That Weights and Measures Statute Be Enforced.

The county board of supervisors held an unusually short session for a regular monthly meeting yesterday forenoon. About the only thing of importance brought up was that of a communication from the Trades and Labor Council of Hancock and Houghton, signed by President Fred Suss, stating that the state law in regard to weights and measures has been ignored in Houghton county and requesting that the supervisors take immediate steps to carry out its provisions. The communication further stated that the statute is mandatory. Nicholas Miller, who was appointed a committee of one by the labor council to lay the matter before the board, explained the provisions of the statute and emphatically remarked that the council, comprising over 1,000 citizens, desired immediate action. The supervisors not having known the existence of such a law, referred the matter to Prosecuting Attorney O. J. Larson for an opinion at the next meeting. If he finds the statute mandatory, as the labor council claims, the supervisors will be obliged to act accordingly.

The statute in question has been in force since 1845 and in speaking of the matter yesterday Mr. Larson was inclined to believe that the labor council is right. The law names the state treasurer as the custodian or state sealer of accepted standard weights and measures and provides that the clerk of each county shall be provided with weights and measures identical with those in the state treasurer's office. These weights and measures in turn shall be standards for similar weights and measures in the offices of the township and village clerk. The statute provides that all weights, measures, scales and beams in use in the county for public buying and selling shall be examined once each year in April by the village and township clerks in their respective jurisdictions. All weights and measures in question must conform to the standard, it being the aim of the law to prevent short weight and short measure. The Trades and Labor Council appears to be determined that it shall be enforced.

MAN BLEED TO DEATH.
Fact of Peculiar Fatality Comes to Light at Supervisors' Meeting.

The fact of the rather peculiar accidental death of a poor unfortunate, who was first thought the victim of murder, was brought out during a discussion over the details subsequent bills of expense brought in for the county to pay at the regular meeting of the board of supervisors yesterday morning. The bills were in such form that the finance committee could make head nor tail of them and they were finally referred to the prosecuting attorney for investigation.

The death was that of Victor Peterson, a woodsman, in Laird township last September. Peterson and another man were engaged at the time in splitting cord wood. Peterson was using a wedge, and it appears that in striking the steel a piece of the wedge broke off and flew with great force against one of his legs, severing an artery. The wound bled very freely, greatly weakening the man. His partner went for assistance, and while he was away Peterson died. The case was reported to the Laird township authorities, who looked upon the man's death with suspicion. The physician who conducted the examination, however, found that the man's story was true. A piece of the wedge was found in the wound, affording sufficient evidence that Peterson came to his death accidentally.

Peterson was without relatives and friends and in reporting the details and bill of expense of the inquest to County Clerk Richardson, Justice Alston of Laird sent in a lot of Peterson's bills for tobacco and other incidentals for the county to pay. The prosecuting attorney will determine whether or not Peterson could be put down as a county charge and if so whether the personal bills may be paid.

A WEIGHTY QUESTION.
Ownership of a Bull Up Before Judge Brand for Decision.

Justice Brand of Houghton has a weighty question to settle. The case is one that has been up before him before, but it has now assumed an entirely different aspect. In brief, the ownership of a bull is in doubt, different people claiming to own the animal. Not long ago Stephen Peronski of Hurontown missed his bull, which had mysteriously disappeared from the field in which it was kept. He claimed that the animal was taken by Herman Savelo, an Otter Lake farmer. Savelo did not deny taking the bull, but he claims that the animal belonged to him, that it had strayed from his farm a short time before. At any rate the bull cannot be recovered by Peronski, if it was his property or not, for the animal was killed and eaten after it was taken. Peronski, however, is looking for damages. Savelo is equally as obstinate in claiming that the bull always belonged to him. The case is so puzzling that Judge Brand has put it over until Monday morning. In the meantime he will set his brain machinery in motion in the hopes of reaching a fair decision.

CURLING CLUB MEETS TONIGHT.
The Houghton Curling club will meet this evening to decide on certain plans for the approaching season. One matter of importance that will come up for consideration is relative to the place where the game shall be played. There are two propositions before the club, one that of building an addition to the Amphidrome at Houghton for the purpose of curling and the other of taking the old Palace rink, across Portage lake. Using the old Palace rink probably would be the cheaper of the two. The only thing against that proposition appears to be that it is too far out of the way. The rink has not been in use since the Amphidrome was built. It could be secured, it is said, at a reasonable rental. Building an addition to the Amphidrome would cost more, but at the same time some of the members argue that that would be the best thing to do, as it would be more convenient. The club is steadily adding to its membership and there is much interest taken in the game. It is something new here, most of the members are novices but all are eager to learn from some of the old, experienced players. The club has been organized merely for the pleasure of its members, as curling is a poor game to watch, the exhibitions being interesting to the players only.

DEMANDED A JURY TRIAL.
Joseph S. Dobbs of the Tamarack location has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by Etiee Pengilly, also of that place, charging him with indecent and profane language. Dobbs did not deny the allegation when brought into Justice Jackson's court at Calumet, but he pleaded that his conduct was justified under the circumstances. He stated that the Pengilly family had been abusing to his wife and that the language he used was said in a fit of anger and because there was provocation for it. He demanded a jury trial and the case was postponed until Nov. 20. It is now up to a jury to decide whether or not Dobbs was right in using strenuous language as a means to put an end to the alleged ill-treatment of his wife.

ELABORATE DINNER PARTY.
Mrs. William A. Paine of Boston, who accompanied her husband to the copper country, gave a dinner party to a number of ladies at the Douglass House at Houghton, yesterday at 1:30 o'clock. The table, set in one of the private dining rooms, was tastefully decorated with a mound of yellow chrysanthemums in the center, from which wreathings of smilax radiated to the places. The ladies present were Mesdames R. B. Lang, George W. Bartram and Miss Alice Johnson, who play the star parts, are supported by a capable company. The comedy is said to be better than "Charlie's Aunt." W. E. Gorman's furiously funny farce.

HE COULD HARDLY GET UP.
P. H. Duffy of Ashley, Ill., writes, "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down." Sold at Desjardins' Pharmacy.

HOD STUART COMES.
Hod Stuart, one of the new crack players secured for the Portage Lake hockey team, arrived at Houghton yesterday noon. In speaking of the hockey situation in Pittsburgh, he says that there will be no teams as usual, the Bankers, Victorias, Keystone and the Pittsburgh Athletic club team. The report to the effect that the Keystone would go out of business is erroneous, he says. Pittsburgh will have a number of new players this year, a number of them will be from elsewhere. He was unable to give the line-ups of any of the teams, stating that there is nothing definite in that respect as yet.

MEN SCARCE IN THAT SECTION.
The B. Green of Sault Ste. Marie, who is in charge of the contract for the construction of the Sheldon street sewer in Houghton, is in Houghton on business. He desires to hire fifty men for his logging camps near Trout Creek. He already has about 150 men in the woods, but wants for the woods in the eastern part of the peninsula as scarce.

SUCCESSFUL TO INJURIES.
Sakris Bisalo, the Trimountain mine surface head who was run over by a rock train while at work last Saturday, succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning. One of his legs was severed by the accident. Although it was thought he would recover the shock was greater than his constitution could survive and he commenced to sink rapidly on Monday.

LAST YEAR'S TOTAL SURPASSED.
County Clerk L. H. Richardson is still busy issuing deer hunting licenses. About 1,000 were issued last season and the number so far this season is already over 1,100.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.
The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often pained in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over fifty years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. MINING GOSSIP.
The Phoenix Mining company has pure-aced six more rock cars from the Mineral Range railroad. They will be used when the mill is worked double shift.

The Atlantic output for October of 327 tons was exceeded by twice in the company's history covering a period of thirty-one years. The company is believed to be accumulating a cash surplus, though there is no prospect of an early dividend, as its treasury was rather depleted a year ago.

A Phoenix (Ariz.) correspondent says: "James Camp, in charge of development work for the Tri-Bullion Smelting and Development company, operating at San Carlos, has made a very satisfactory report to the main office of that company at Chicago. A splendid body of ore has been opened upon the Ryan cross-cut tunnel. Work on the main tunnel has progressed very satisfactorily, and some 400 feet has been driven up to date. Both the miners and visitors are jubilant over the showings of ore bodies thus far uncovered, and all are of the opinion that this property will prove a most profitable mining venture." Numerous people in Northern Michigan, particularly in Marquette and Ishpeming, hold stock in the Tri-Bullion company, which also is developing the old Michigan gold mine near Ishpeming.

MINING NEWS.
NO CHANGE IN STRIKE.
Both Trammers and Management at the Old Osceola Hold Firm.

There was no change in the Osceola strike situation yesterday. The company still refuses to reinstate the three discharged trammers, whose dismissal was the cause of the walkout, and the men are equally as obstinate. The company officially ordered the old mine closed yesterday, a meeting of the men's committee and the local officials the evening before having failed to bring about a settlement of the trouble. Both men and management seem to have taken a decided stand in the matter. It is not believed the strike will spread to the Kearsarge branches. Only the old portion of the mine is affected, about 250 miners and trammers being out.

An official of the company is reported as saying yesterday that the company is not worrying about filling the men's places if the strikers refuse to return to work within a few days. There are a large number of idle miners in Montana and Arizona, many of whom have worked in this district, and he remarked that these men could be brought in if wanted. The outlook for a speedy settlement of the strike is not now bright.

SKIPS VERSUS CAGES.
A well known Canadian mining engineer writes as follows his views on skips versus cages: "For vertical shafts where the vein is perpendicular, or nearly so, it is only fair to admit that the well known mining cage has done good work; but wherever it is possible to use a skip or skip-car I always prefer it to the cage. Within the last few years the skip system has gained much favor and has been introduced, pretty well throughout all the large mines in Butte, Mont., as well as South Africa, both for vertical and incline shafts.

"It stands to reason that where a large amount of material has to be hauled from several levels and from a considerable depth, single-deck cages with room for one one-ton car only is quite insufficient, and two, three or even four-deck cages will have to be employed to do the work. In such cases the combined dead weight of cages and cars becomes both enormous and impracticable. I remember two well known mines in Butte where four-deck cages were used until a five-ton vertical skip was introduced. Each deck was carrying a one-ton ore car, and the combined weight of the four cages and four empty ore cars aggregated 6,000 pounds, or 2,400 pounds of steel per ton of material hauled, while a five-ton vertical skip that was put in later on only weighed 5,000 pounds, being equal to 1,000 pounds of steel to one ton of material hoisted.

"Where good fuel is expensive and several thousand tons of material are hoisted every day, as in above case, the amount saved in coal represents a very handsome yearly dividend. The same rule applies to a smaller hoisting plant. The average weight of a standard mining cage is about 1,200 pounds, and a 16 cubic foot standard ore car weighs about 800 pounds, making a total of 2,000 pounds, while a one-ton skip car with safety clutches will not exceed 1,500 pounds. If 200 trips are made during the twenty-four hours, the extra weight would amount to 50 tons, or 25 per cent of the hoisting capacity.

"To make the skip system a success it is necessary to have bins or ore pockets cut out at each station in the mine, so as to receive the ore or waste made during one shift. When the car man has emptied his car into the ore pocket he returns to the chute to refill it. In time during the shift the pockets are emptied, and it will then require a man at the bin gate to fill the skip and prevent the spilling of material down the shaft. This last feature was solved in the pneumatic ore bin gate, which was introduced in Butte, as it enables the operator to shut off the ore stream within a second, or in other words, when the skip is loaded. In addition to the pockets at each level, a storage bin will be required at the top landing. Depending upon the incline of the shaft, the operator will readily be seen from above that by the skip system economy in labor is possible and the proverbial 'waiting for the cage' is done away with. The skip is equally as convenient for handling men and material down to the mine and is safer than a cage."

THIS AN EQUINE JOKER.
Rang the Dinner Bell and Got Even With a Pet Cat.
A Staten Island physician is the owner of a horse which has a fondness for practical jokes. Recently the doctor drove into the country to answer a sick call. Arriving at the farm house he tied his horse to a post, near which hung a dinner signal for a large bell used as a ringer attached for employees, and went in to see the patient. Pretty soon the bell rang violently. The doctor and the man of the house looked out, but could see nothing except the horse. They had hardly turned away, however, before the bell rang again, and again they looked, but could see nothing.

This was repeated, and the doctor determined to solve the mystery, so at the third ring, instead of going into the house he stepped behind a tree in the yard. He kept his eye on the bell, and in about a minute he was surprised to see his horse lift up his head and give the rope a hard tug. When the physician sprang out and confronted the horse the animal put on a look of innocence.

The same horse the next day was turned loose in the doctor's barnyard, and while there the beast saw a basket hanging on a pole about seven feet from the ground. In the basket was a pet cat. The horse put his nose up to investigate and the cat gave the intruder a scratch. The horse turned around, looked back over his shoulder as though to take aim and measure the distance, and kicked the cat and basket into the air. The equine joker then gave a low whinny of delight and walked away.—New York Mail and Express.

CARNEGIE'S REBUFF.
A Parson Scorns the Millionaire's Offer of a Library.

Andrew Carnegie has been having a tiff with an English parson lately, and has come out ahead. The trouble was over an offer of $50,000 which he made recently to the town of Hford for the establishment of a library. The rector of the parish church, who seems to be a sort of local Savonarola, told his congregation that what they wanted was not trashy novels, but bibles in which to burn them. Carnegie angered the millionaire so much that he wired immediately, withdrawing the offer. His decision caused such a storm in the little Essex town that the vicar's church was practically boycotted, and his life was made miserable. Parishioners who had hitherto respected him would pass him by without recognition. Members of the town council who favored the acceptance of the offer appealed to Mr. Carnegie to reconsider his decision, but he insisted on an apology from the vicar, and this the vicar steadfastly refused to do.

At last it was decided that a delegation be sent to Skibo to appeal to the great man personally. The strained relations of the vicar and his congregation were put vividly before him and, finally, after consulting his secretary, Carnegie yielded.

"After all," said he "this vicar of Hford is but one man with, I suppose, an ordinary man's intelligence, and as it appears now that he has not much following in regard to his opinions about the education of the working classes you can have the $50,000 and it is to be hoped that the vicar will never condescend to borrow a book out of the library."

"A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY."

Farce from the German at the Opera House Friday Night. "A Friend of the Family," a German comedy success, comes to the opera house Friday evening with a record of 215 nights in the Court theater, Berlin, and a series of American triumphs which, it is expected, will be culminated in New York on the conclusion of its western tour. The leading parts are in the hands of Miss Alice Johnson and George W. Barnum. Both have Broadway reputations. Miss Alice Johnson is conceded by many critics to be one of the most versatile actresses at present on the American stage. She has achieved equally as much fame for her portrayal of the intensely emotional and sombre character of "Saphira" as in the part of the buoyant light-hearted girl Cigaret in "Under Two Flags." Miss Johnson's theatrical career has not been confined to comedy and drama alone, as she has assumed leading roles in grand opera. She has ample opportunity to display her vocal ability in "A Friend of the Family." The author of the play is said to have forsaken the beaten paths of farce comedy. He does not depend on mistaken identity for the plot, but on a mixture of merriment, but on a unique mix-up of family relations. The play contains a clearly defined plot, another innovation in farce comedy.

RALLY IN COPPERS.

It Appeared Yesterday and Looked Like Demonstration Against Shorters. Paine, Webber & Co. said of the Boston market: "The rally in the market this afternoon had every appearance of being a move against the shorts. There had been too free selling of a good many stocks, and the bank advance of the situation. The rally will unquestionably eliminate a good deal of the short interest and will present a good opportunity to sell stocks. Copper was stronger today, on a report that there was a strike at the 'Tinto mines.' It does not look as though there is likely to be any over-production of copper. The Boston copper look cheap. Amalgamated was advanced against the short interest.

Hayden, Stone & Co. wired W. H. Laidley & Co.: "There was a very dull but strong market today, with Amalgamated the feature. Outside of the trading in Amalgamated and Copper Range there was little doing. We see little to change our opinion and still think the market will work higher, but trading at the minute is about at a standstill."

BEING IN SOCIETY.

If a Man Likes to Be Exclusive, Just Let Him Alone. A woman is so irritated because she cannot enter that corporation known as the smart set that she has cut up rusty and got her family name into the papers, like the disappointed heir in "The Black Sheep." This might be a preliminary to getting a job on the stage, in quarters or classes, but to her it is serious. What is there about the little company of four hundred people, more or less, that stirs the jealousy of so many women? One can understand why people like money; but it doesn't needfully make the people interesting who are celebrated only for having money. It is found that they do not know how to be celebrated for anything else.

ARE YOU SATISFIED?

If Not, What Better Proof Can Marquette residents ask for? This is the statement of a Marquette citizen. The testimony of a neighbor. You can readily investigate it. The proof should convince you. Mr. Thomas Price, of 141 W. Ridge street, employed on the L. S. & I. R. R. as locomotive fireman, says: "For a year I was bothered off and on with a good deal with pains through the small of my back and in the kidneys. At times when I stooped I could hardly straighten again and any cold or sudden change in the weather aggravated my condition. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and went to the Stafford Drug Co. and procured a box. I soon felt they were benefiting me. I have no hesitation in saying that they did me a lot of good." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold at Desjardins' Pharmacy.

MOUND BUILDERS' WORK.

Interesting Discoveries Are Being Made in Sheboygan County, Wis. State Senator George W. Wallif, of Elkhart Lake, Wis., who has been occupied the past season in surveying the Indian antiquities of the town of Rhine, Sheboygan county, for the Wisconsin Archaeological society, of which he is a member, recently visited a hitherto unsurveyed group of mounds near the Gerber ponds, town of Rhine. The region is intensely interesting to the archaeologist on account of the multiplied evidences of Indian occupancy in prehistoric, as well as comparatively recent times. It is traversed by a great terminal moraine known as the "kettle range," and is dotted with lakes, kettle holes, and drumlins, amid which are village sites, antique hearts, shell heaps, effigy mounds, burial places, and look-outs, where, in days gone by, watch fires by night telegraphed intelligence from clan to clan. The mounds at Gerber ponds are, archaeologists say, all that is left of a large Indian settlement. In modern times Pottawatomies, Sacs and Foxes, and Winnebagoes hunted promiscuously over the territory and camped on the shores of the ponds. The site consists of eight to ten acres and is one of the highest points in Sheboygan county, being over 150 feet above the pond and over 1,000 feet above the sea. "A large part of the site has been under cultivation," says Senator Wallif, "for 15 years, and there is little left for the archaeologist. The mounds, as I recollect them, were ten or twelve in number, long round, or serpentine shaped, and the highest probably being under cultivation. Mr. Gerber tells me that he had never opened any one of them, believing them to be graves.

"Two of the outlying mounds are still in a good state of preservation and lie outside of the cultivated land. One is heart-shaped, with legs toward the pond. It is about 25 feet in length and some three feet high. The other is 80 feet long, 15 to 18 feet wide, and about two feet high, running to a point at the surface. It was a perfect picture in the autumn woods and could be readily seen from the road. Both mounds lie in a direction toward by northwest. The pond has been greatly reduced in size in recent years, and the old pond bed was a short distance away. The creek which drains the pond runs a short distance to the east."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

JIMMY BRITT WINS.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Jimmy Britt was given the decision over Sieger at the end of the twentieth round tonight. There was no stage of the contest in which the issue was in doubt. In all but the fourteenth round Britt had a clear lead. He outpointed, outboxed and outgeneralized Sieger at every stage of the game. Boston, Nov. 10.—Sandy Ferguson was given the decision over Joe Walcott tonight after fifteen rounds of fighting.

SUSPECT RELEASED.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 10.—Detective McLaughlin, of the Rock Island road, has ordered the release of James Murphy, the suspect captured near Earlham and supposed to have been implicated in the dynamiting plot to hold up the road for $1,000. The stranger shot near the same place is recovering, but refuses to talk and increasing suspicion is directed toward him. The road has issued danger orders to its trainmen, indicating that danger is still anticipated.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Trombly's orchestra will give a hop tonight at Anderson's hall, Ishpeming.

A party of ten Negaunee people went to Marquette Monday night to witness "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

Joseph Suesz N. Market, F. A. Bell and D. T. Morgan of Republic are spending a few days at Mud Lake, on a hunting excursion.

V. A. Goddard has been here from Saginaw for the past few days, on business connected with his land in the neighborhood of Swanzy.

The infant child of Aeil Ethier died yesterday morning at the age of eighteen months. The funeral will be held this afternoon from St. Paul's church.

William Garbett has leased H. Lucas' blacksmith shop for a term of three years and will take immediate possession. Mr. Story will remove to his farm.

A carload of fir timber has been shipped to L. E. Chaussee at Princeton, where it will be used in the construction of the new shafthouse at the Princeton mine.

L. E. Chaussee is engaged on the construction of five houses for the Pioneer Iron company at Marquette. Work is well advanced, the buildings being enclosed.

A turkey supper will be given in the dining room of the Sundberg block Thanksgiving night under the auspices of the Swedish Lutheran church. The charge will be fifty cents.

Several carloads of fir timber have been received at the Negaunee mine from Washington. It will be used in the repairs on the old shaft, which is being gradually rebuilt.

The death of Louis Legault, a former resident of Negaunee, occurred Monday at Sparta, Minn., where he had resided for the past fourteen or fifteen years. His sister, Miss Rose, and two brothers, Victor and George Legault, left for Sparta Monday night.

The different hunting parties are beginning to send back deer in considerable numbers. Frank Trombly came home Monday night with two, and two were received from George Crummett yesterday. Tom Hughes and Lou Toulouff returned with a fine deer yesterday afternoon.

Seven or eight deer were shipped here Monday from hunting camps up the road. A good deal of venison will be transferred at Negaunee from the American to the Western Express company. Game shipped to the lower peninsula by the former route would have to pass outside the state, contrary to the law.

Nels Anderson, who was severely wounded by a rifle bullet Sunday morning, was said to be in a very serious condition yesterday. The ball entered near the knee and took a course upward along the thigh, lacerating the flesh badly. If the danger of blood poisoning can be staved off, the limb may be saved, but it is thought amputation will be necessary.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. Itching, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure you, in 6 to 14 days. 5c.

C. A. Hornegren has gone to Wells, Mich., where he has secured a good position.

The windows and doors of the Beacon House, which was closed on the first of this month, have been boarded up.

Taking effect Nov. 3rd, Dr. C. M. Owen will be at the Champion office Mondays and Tuesdays and the remaining days at the Republic office.

About twenty-five Champion men left last week for Mass City to work on an extension of the South Shore is building on the Ontonagon range.

Shipments of ore continue from the Champion mine stockpile. About twenty-five men are working, loading ten or a dozen large cars a day.

J. Delochamp is preparing to begin cutting spruce and other timber near Granite, between here and Republic. He will employ about fifteen men.

A party of fifteen lower peninsula men, nearly all from Detroit, are hunting about twenty miles up on Champion, on the line of the old Huron Bay road.

Will Villeneuve has given up his position with the Champion Co-operative society. He left to take a place with a Munising merchant. After working there two days he resigned and returned home.

The Oliver Iron company is removing the machinery and pumps from the Bessemer mine, which was closed about ten days ago. It will take but a few days to dismantle the property. The buildings will be nailed up.

Thomas Lark's family left Monday for Palmsdale, where Mr. Lark recently secured work. This is the first family to leave Champion as a result of the closing of the mines, but it is expected that more will soon depart.

George Belhumer and Albert Longlois were the first Champion men to bring in deer. They went out Sunday morning, returning in the evening, each with one carcase. Several others came in later with venison. There are many hunters in the woods out from here, and deer are said to be plentiful.

Charles Woodcock arrived here Monday evening on business for the Silverthorn Lumber company. He came up to look over some timber which the company may purchase. The Silverthorn people are not doing any logging in this region this season, but they have crews working out from Rhineland, where Mr. Woodcock makes his headquarters.

Give this liniment a trial and become acquainted with its remarkable qualities and you will never wish to be without it. For sale by The Stafford Drug Co., J. M. Perkins, Negaunee, and Henry Harwood, Ishpeming.

W. A. Herren of Pineh, Ark., writes, "I wish to report that Foley's Kidney Cure has cured a terrible case of kidney and bladder trouble that two doctors had given up." Sold at Dastard's Pharmacy.

HUNTER MADE FATAL ERROR

FIRST FATALITY OF SEASON

UNFORTUNATE MAN WAS MISTAKEN FOR A DEER.

Death Was All But Instantaneous—News Caused a Great Sensation in the City—New Law Applies.

Fred Murray shot and killed David P. Pickett yesterday morning at a point about two miles northwest of Forestville, and about eight miles northwest of the city. This, in brief, is the story of the first hunting fatality of the present deer season, a fatal error which caused a genuine sensation and the greatest of regret in Marquette shortly after noon yesterday, when the sad news was brought to town. It was the old story of a man mistaken for a deer and unfortunately Murray's aim was fatally true. The bullet entered the left side of Pickett's neck, just about at the collar band. It tore the shoulder blade to pieces, severed the jugular vein and pierced the body, opening a wound in the back as it sped onwards. Death was all but instantaneous. The stricken man uttered two agonized cries and the ejaculation "My God, I'm shot," expiring before his friends, or Murray, could reach his side, though they were all but a few paces distant.

The sad tidings were borne to the city by James L. Cuddahy, Washington street, who was one of the party of which Pickett was a member. The fatality occurred but a few minutes after eleven. Cuddahy left for town immediately and arrived here about 1 o'clock, informing Coroner L. P. Cray of the affair. Mr. Cray at once empaneled a jury, which proceeded to the scene of the shooting, to view the remains. The jury returned to the city shortly after six last evening, and has adjourned until tomorrow. Its verdict will be a formal one, as the case was clearly one of accidental shooting.

Story of the Fatality. Pickett, A. C. Parker and Cuddahy have been building a camp about two miles northwest of Forestville, in a general line with and some distance east of Camp Rustic, of which Murray is a member and where he was making his headquarters. The trio had been in camp since Saturday. Mr. Cuddahy came into the city Monday night and went out again yesterday morning. At the time the fatality occurred, he, Parker and Pickett had just started out for a hunt.

Murray only went to the woods yesterday morning, driving out with George Hodgkins. He had been hunting but a short time when he fired the fatal shot. He and Hodgkins had started out together. When they were about three-quarters of a mile from camp a dog came following along. Hodgkins turned back with him for camp, Murray proceeding on ahead.

The two parties, Murray, on the one hand, and Cuddahy, Parker and Pickett, on the other, gradually worked towards one another without either realizing that there was anyone else in the immediate neighborhood.

Cuddahy had not been feeling well, so Pickett planned to leave him and Parker located on promising runways, while he beat through a neighboring swamp, with the purpose of scaring up any game that might chance to be in the neighborhood. With this idea he started out, leaving Cuddahy and Parker, for the time being, together.

Pickett plunged into the thick swamp. He had been gone but a few minutes and was not much, if any, over fifty paces away, when a shot rang out. At first his friends thought he had killed a deer, but his cries of anguish at once dissipated them. Then they realized that he had either shot himself or had been taken for a deer. They dashed in the direction of the shot, and encountered Murray, who, they say, appeared dazed with the awfulness of the occurrence and was for the moment unable to give them any intelligent information. They were at Pickett's side with little loss of time, however, but he was quite dead. Cuddahy at once left for town, as outlined above, leaving Murray and Parker with the corpse.

Murray Stricken With Grief. Murray's grief, when he realized what had happened, was overpowering. As he had not eaten anything since early in the morning and as he soon felt faint and sick he shortly left for Camp Rustic. He arrived there in bad condition, wet with perspiration and quite distracted. It was some time before he could give his friends an intelligible account of what had happened, and he was quite prostrated with the weight of his regret.

As nearly as can be ascertained, Murray caught no sight of Pickett. He did not fire in haste or as a result of nervousness, but confident in the belief that he was aiming at a deer. He had heard cautious steps in the swamp, just as if a deer were slowly advancing to where he stood. He saw something moving in the brush, a faint patch of color. Suddenly it seemed to disappear; then it appeared to leap, as if over a log. Then Murray saw a flash of what he conceived to be a deer's hide and let fly. Pickett's terrible error and threw him into a paroxysm of grief.

According to the statement of members of the coroner's jury last evening the growth of bush and timber in the swamp in which Pickett was walking was very dense, and they gave it as their opinion that Murray could not have seen anything to speak of Pickett, certainly not enough to give him any inkling that he had drawn lead on a man.

As hunters will do, he put different things together and acted, coolly enough, on the assumption that the approaching object was a deer.

Examination of the body and the place where it fell seemed to indicate that Pickett did leap forward just before being shot. He wore a sweater of black and red stripes, which at a distance might well have had the appearance of a deer's hide.

Sensation in the City. The sad news caused a genuine sensation in the city. It spread like wild fire and throughout the afternoon was the sole topic of conversation. On first report Murray's friends refused to credit the story, saying that he was one of the most cautious hunters that ever entered the woods. It seems that he has a good deal of a reputation for carefulness among those of his acquaintances who have hunted with him. However, Mr. Cuddahy was able to give the assurance that the sad report was only too true, and so it soon was generally accepted as a fact. There was great regret on the part of those who discussed the fatality for all concerned, for the unfortunate victim, his family and friends and for Murray, on whom his connection with the affair is a weight of sorrow that will not soon be lightened. There was no bitterness expressed by anyone; it was the general comment that the accident was one of those happenings that will be inevitable as long as thousands of hunters flock into the northern woods in quest of venison.

The fatality is the first that has saddened the hunting season in the immediate vicinity of Marquette for some years, and it will serve to dampen to great degree the enthusiasm with which the chase is followed. It will accent the sentiment of fear, and will doubtless keep many people from the woods. It will have one other effect and it will be unqualifiedly good. It will impress the necessity of greater caution, and will lessen the likelihood of additional tragedies of the same nature.

Its Lesson Plain. Its lesson is plain, and every hunter should take it to heart, ponder on it and impress it indelibly on his mind, so that it will guide him in even the most exciting moments of the chase. It is, in brief, this: Don't shoot until you see enough of the deer to eliminate all possible doubt as to its identity.

If all hunters follow this rule many shots will be missed and fewer deer will be killed. On the other hand the number of fatalities will show a marked decrease. Fewer people will be unceremoniously sent to meet their Maker, leaving trains of relatives and friends to mourn them and the unfortunate hunters who fire the fatal shots will be spared great burdens of pain and woe.

Pickett was a man of about forty-seven years of age, a carpenter by trade and well-known among his fellow workmen. He recently built himself a new home off Crescent street in the new Lakeside addition, where he had been living lately. He was a member of the Carpenters' union, the Odd Fellows and the Macabees. He is survived by a wife.

Murray is one of the best known and most popular young men about the city. He has a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who are a unit in a general regret that he was the unwittingly cause of Pickett's death.

New Law Applies. One interesting phase of the fatality is that it brings up the question of a new law making it a crime to accidentally slay a hunter. This is said to be the first case in the state where it has applied. This law is as follows:

An act, to punish the negligent or careless shooting of human beings by persons in pursuit of game. The people of the state of Michigan enact: Section 1. Whoever, while hunting or in the pursuit of game, negligently or carelessly shoots and wounds or kills any human being shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding ten years or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney and sheriff in the county in which a violation of the foregoing occurs to forthwith investigate and prosecute every person who therein violates the provisions of this act. Approved May 14, 1903.

CARPENTERS' NOTICE. A meeting of the Carpenters & Joiners' local union is called for 7 o'clock sharp this (Wednesday) evening at Siegel's Hall, to make arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, D. P. Pickett, A. C. PARKER, President.

ENGLASE EXONERATED.

The examination of Anderson and Reynolds, the former Marquette branch of state prison convicts suspected of the robbery of the Escanaba postoffice, was held at that city before Judge Glaser Monday morning. The men are held on a charge of grand larceny. Prosecuting Attorney Cumminskey was out of the city and an adjournment was sought on that account. Accordingly the hearing was postponed until next Monday morning. Anderson and Reynolds have secured the services of Attorney Ryall and will submit a defense, pleading not guilty.

After the suspects were returned to the county jail John Englese, Jr., appeared voluntarily to stand examination on the charge of complicity in the postoffice robbery. He was immediately discharged and was exonerated from any connection with the crime by Judge Glaser, it having been ascertained that he knew nothing of the postoffice robbery beyond what he voluntarily told the officers to assist in fixing the crime on the guilty parties.

There is no little feeling in this county over Englese's arrest and the consequent dragging of his name into the case. It appears that there was no good and sufficient reason for taking him into custody. His story, and it is corroborated from Escanaba, shows that he freely gave the officers all the information in his command and assisted them as far as he could to obtain the arrest of Anderson and Reynolds and to bring the responsibility for the postoffice robbery home to them. His arrest came after he had done no little to solve the mystery surrounding the case and to help out the officers. He had no intention of leaving Escanaba and was at hand had the prosecutor desired to question him further. Nevertheless it was apparently judged necessary to arrest him and take him into court under a serious charge. His acquaintances in this county feel that Judge Glaser's formal exoneration is very small recompense for the worry, annoyance and pain that the officers' actions caused Englese and his relatives.

As yet the postoffice robbery has not been definitely fixed on Anderson and Reynolds, but while they are being held on the charge of grand larceny the officers continue to work on the more important case and may, in the course of a few days, have sufficient evidence to warrant changing the charge.

NEW GENERAL MANAGER.

H. H. Williams, of Brooklyn, where he has been connected with the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system, has been named to the city to assume the duties of general manager of the Marquette City & Presque Isle Street Railway company, on which he has already entered. Mr. Williams will have full charge of the operation of the Marquette road. Mr. Koepcke will, as heretofore, continue to look after the business of the line, keep the books, etc., in his capacity of assistant to the treasurer, L. G. Kaufman.

Mr. Williams, though a young man, has had no little experience in street railway transit, and he is well qualified to assume charge of the Marquette line, which under his close supervision should show a gain in efficiency. His addition to the corps of officers is in line with the progressiveness that has marked the conduct of the line since the company was reorganized, with new capital and new officers.

The iron poles for the road and the electric light and power commission have been received and were being distributed yesterday to the points on Washington and Front street where they will be erected. The removal of the cedar poles and the task of replacing them with the iron poles will begin immediately, working a notable improvement in the appearance of both thoroughfares. The new poles are to be erected in the park, just at the edge, leaving the gutters as they are proposed to put in cement, free of obstruction.

FROM THE MARQUETTE & ARIZONA.

A paragraph in the Bisbee Miner last week conveys the information that a rich strike is reported on a claim of this company near the Copper Glance shaft. Letters since received from the superintendent bring the information that good rock was encountered on the Humboldt claim, assaying 2 1/2 per cent copper and $28.00 per ton in gold. A copper of men has been put at work there to test the extent of the gold-bearing rock, and if it is found in sufficient quantity to give the promise of becoming a mine, a mill test of the deposit will soon be made. Meanwhile the work in the shaft is progressing satisfactorily. A depth of more than 500 feet has been attained and sinking is in progress steadily, with every indication that ore will be found when the average depth of the ore-bearing strata is reached. The recent striking of the ore at the Lake Superior & Pittsburg at a depth of 1,000 feet, brings the proved ground in the Warren district four miles nearer than before to the Marquette & Arizona line. Development work is going on steadily in this region and good results are obtained wherever intelligent and persistent work is done.

The cement gutters which it is proposed to lay on Front and Washington streets will not be put in this fall, but will go over until spring. For one thing it is rather late in the season and frost would be likely to interfere with the work. Then, secondly, the street committee has no money, with which to do the work, having expended all its available funds.

A large party of hunters has its headquarters at the Country club. It includes William Nash, Al Booth, Owen Booth of Chicago, Will Schweitzer, F. M. Begole, J. E. Ball, George Ball, Mrs. J. E. Ball, Mr. Cummings of Flint, and W. H. Laidley. The latter came in to the city yesterday for a brief visit. He reported that the party had seven deer in camp when he left and that he expected to average at least two carcasses to each member.

Word has reached Marquette that the fight over the position of probate judge in the county of Schoolcraft has been settled, at last, by Governor Bliss' appointment of Supervisor Rockwell to the position. There were two other candidates, ex-Mayor Crane and ex-County Clerk Ashford, and the fight between the trio waxed very warm, all the prominent Republicans in the county, and some out of it, as well as the Manistiquet newspapers, being drawn into the fray. The dispute between the candidates has been in progress for some weeks.

NOTICE TO ODD FELLOWS. For the purpose of arranging to attend the funeral of our late brother, David Pickett, a special meeting of the Odd Fellows lodge will be held at the hall this evening.
