THICK FOG OVERSPREADS THE THEATER OF WAR

Operations in the Country South of Mukden Are Almost Completely Suspended.

SOME FIGHTING, BUT NONE OF MOMENT

Wild Flight of Rumors Continues in St. Petersburg, Tales of Japanese Routs Alternating With Alarmist Stories of a Russian Retreat, but It Is Officially Declared There Have Been No Serious Developments Since Sunday, the Two Armies Still Facing Each Other, With the Shakhe River Between Them --Che Foo Reports Further Minor Positions Taken at Port Arthur and the Repulse of Numerous Attempts to Recapture.

Shakhe river. It is supposed that his success here was due to having kept three divisions of troops in reserve, and it is admitted that the attack on Lone Tree hill may have been an intentional counter stroke after drawing out the Japanese from strong positions. The balance of opinion, however, favors the idea that it was a desperate endeavor to cover the retreat of his forces from the Henshiu district and that the battle of Shakhe may be considered to have ended in a victory, but not a decisive one, for the Japanese, who were too exhausted to follow up their success.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—The Russian Baltic fleet, which anchored in the bay here this morning, sailed in the direction of the North sea at six this evening. Mukden, Oct. 20, via Pekin.—The big battle has practically worn itself out, leaving the two armies facing each other with the Shakhe river as the dividing line. St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—The suspension of operations below Mukden continues. It is hinted in military circles that the next developments should be looked for to the eastward, but whether on the part of the Japanese or the Russians is not revealed. No news has reached the war office of the reported annihilation of a Russian battalion while recrossing the Taitse river. On the other hand, a Mukden dispatch, dated yesterday, says that on the 18th detachment of the Russian vanguard on the west front surrounded a Japanese battalion and compelled it to lay down its arms.

Mukden, Oct. 20.—The hostile armies have today been concealed from the view of each other by a dense fog in which it has been impossible to make out objects at a distance of 100 paces. Under such conditions only unimportant operations are possible, such as surprises and ambushes. Possibly were the fog to clear, the Japanese might favor movements of troops and concentrations at unexpected points, but without question operations on a large scale would be too dangerous, and so everything has been quiet today. Neither ammunition nor musketry firing has been audible.

St. Petersburg, Friday, Oct. 21.—Apart from the skirmishes and exploits of scouting parties, there is almost a complete suspension of operations in Manchuria. The Japanese have interposed to stop the bloodshed. Rain, impassable roads and exhausted armies are factors sufficient in themselves to explain the cessation of hostilities, and these conditions are aggravated by a dense fog overspreading the whole theater of war. A wild flight of rumors continues in St. Petersburg, stories of the rout or capture of Japanese divisions or battalions and scores of guns alternating with alarmist tales of Kurapatkin's retreat on Mukden, all equally untrue. The war office declares there have been no serious developments since the capture of Lone Tree hill last Sunday and authorizes the Associated Press to deny the report that a Russian battalion has been annihilated in trying to recross the Taitse river. A prominent general said: "It is absurd to suppose that a battalion was still on the other side of the Taitse river when the whole eastern flank had withdrawn sixteen miles north of the river."

Muscovite Casualties Enormous. With Okta's (Left) Army, Oct. 16, via Tien Tsin, Oct. 20.—The seven days' battle north of Yentai was the heaviest blow yet struck the Russians by the Japanese, so far as loss of life is concerned. The Japanese army, during the week, buried 4,100 Russian dead left in front of its lines. A village in front of the left wing contains many Russian dead, but the shell fire of the retreating Russians prevents the Japanese from reaching them. Conservative estimates place the Russian casualties at not less than twenty-five thousand. Probably many dead are on the field in places not yet searched. The Japanese report their total casualties at a little over five thousand, killed or wounded.

The Russians opposed to the left army were three corps and thirty companies of artillery. All but a very small part were newly arrived troops. The Japanese soldiers were practically the same that fought before Liao Yang. Russians Take a Gun. With the Russian position at the Village of Huanan, South of Mukden, via Mukden, Oct. 20, 4:45 p. m.—There was a sudden attack by a force of Japanese at 3:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon upon a Russian advanced position southwest of Mukden. The Russians made a counter-attack and the Japanese quickly fell back, having sustained severe losses. The Russian casualties were three men killed and seven wounded. The Japanese were pressed so hard they were obliged to abandon a gun, but before abandoning the gun the breech block was removed. The lumber con-

With the country enveloped in a thick fog and the roads in wretched condition, activity is for the time being impossible for either the Japanese or the Russian army south of Mukden. There have been several brisk skirmishes and some surprises of minor character, but the lifting of the fog must precede any notable conflict of the hostile forces. No official report from the commander at Port Arthur later than Oct. 10 has reached St. Petersburg.

NEWS PLEASES THE RUSSIANS. St. Petersburg Assured Washington Is Not Contemplating a Move for Peace. St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—The Russian authorities have been unofficially assured that the report that the United States contemplated tendering its good offices in the interest of the restoration of peace, is untrue. The assurance has been received with satisfaction. American Ambassador Home. New York, Oct. 20.—Robert S. McCormick, American ambassador to Russia, arrived here today on the steamer Deutschland.

GUESTS OF KING EDWARD. American Naval Officers Entertained at Buckingham Palace. London, Oct. 20.—King Edward today entertained at an informal luncheon at Buckingham palace the officers of the American warships now at Gravesend. Formidable Squadron to Assemble. Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—With the arrival of the battleship Massachusetts at the League Island navy yard today, preparations began for the repair of a formidable squadron of war vessels at the navy yard so they can be mobilized next December. An officer of the navy yard said that by Christmas all the vessels must be at the Hampton roads for the winter maneuvers.

HIS ACCOUNTS REPORTED SHORT. Illinois Official Kills Himself as Bonding Company Accountant Arrives. Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 20.—Matthew Cunningham, county recorder, committed suicide today by shooting himself. A representative of a bonding company arrived today to investigate an alleged shortage in the recorder's accounts with the county. Bank President a Suicide. Davenport, Ia., Oct. 20.—William Seward, president of the Farmers' bank at Walnut, committed suicide by hanging today. He is said to have been dependent over a loss of money in connection with the failure of a bank at New Liberty. As a consequence of the failure of the New Liberty bank, charges have been preferred against the Bentleys, father and son.

Jumped to His Death. Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—Suffering from acute nervous disorder, Dr. George H. Purviance of Washington, D. C., assistant surgeon general of the marine hospital service, jumped from the fourth story of a hospital here this evening and was instantly killed. CHICAGO FEARS EPIDEMIC. Smallpox Condition Declared the Worst in Many Years. Chicago, Oct. 20.—Chicago is threatened with a smallpox epidemic more serious than any outbreak in the last ten years.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Chicago is threatened with a smallpox epidemic more serious than any outbreak in the last ten years. The disease has spread to the rich and poor districts alike and its beginning can not be traced by the city health officials. Wholesale vaccinations will be resorted to if the threatened epidemic continues to increase. One of the victims was taken from the Mecca building at Thirty-fourth and State streets, a structure having about 100 apartments, nearly all of which are occupied. Chief Medical Inspector Herman Spalding ordered the apartment fumigated and will compel all residents of the flats to be vaccinated.

PLAYED WITH MATCHES. Two Milwaukee Children Suffocated to Death in a Clothes Closet. Milwaukee, Oct. 20.—Clarence and Ward Schinner, aged four and two and a half years, respectively, were suffocated by smoke in a clothes closet in their home this evening. The mother was severely burned while attempting to rescue them. It is presumed that the children, while playing with matches, started the fire and when the flames began to spread went into the closet and were suffocated.

ARMED COLOMBIANS ALSO REPORTED CONCENTRATING. Much Is Hoped from Mission of Secretary Taft and in Meantime the Marines Will Stay, Prepared to Meet any Emergency. Washington, Oct. 20.—Marines are retained on the isthmus of Panama for the present, prepared to meet any emergency which may arise as a result of the agitation of the disgruntled elements in the new republic. That the situation on the isthmus is still not all that could be desired is the news which comes to Washington today in a personal letter from an official now in Panama. While the Panama government is entirely loyal, it seems there are certain disgruntled elements in the isthmus, and in view of the central and South America it is official opinion here that the marines should remain there for the present.

COMPROMISE DIVORCE LAW WINS. Episcopal Deputies Adopt It by an Overwhelming Majority. Boston, Oct. 20.—By an overwhelming majority, a compromise canon on the marriage of divorced persons was adopted by the house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention today, and if it is concurred in by the bishops, the most important issue that has come before the present convention will be disposed of for at least three years. The compromise measure, like the old law, permits the re-marriage of the innocent person in a divorce for infidelity, but further provides that no remarriage shall be allowed within one year after the decree has been issued by a civil court. Satisfactory proof of the innocence of the applicant for remarriage must be furnished in the form of a certificate from the bishop of the diocese of the bishop, if endorsed by the bishops, it will practically put the church, as expressed it, "out of the divorce business." Others, however, claimed they saw "loopholes" in it.

The Cuban courts are doing their best to discourage election frauds in their very beginning.

After all, it need not surprise people that Democrats are just crazy to have the direct voting system of making party nominations adopted in Michigan.

Democratic workers no longer try to make any effort to conceal that they are working for the nomination of Geo. P. Codd for mayor on the Republican ticket and for Truman H. Newberry for congress.

Naturally the Democrats are favorable to a method of making nominations which opens up to them the opportunities which they have made such glorious use of in the nominating election just held in Detroit.

At the opening of the campaign there was much speculation as to the attitude Mr. Bryan would assume.

When the Jungfrau railway is completed it will unquestionably be the steepest railway in the world.

The starting point of the railway is at Scheidegg, on top of the Wengernalp, which way is conveniently reached by rail from Interlaken.

In a campaign distinguished chiefly by apathy Mr. Bryan draws great crowds wherever he speaks.

Effective or not, his canvass shows that he is supporting the party in good faith, and that whatever the result of the election he will be entitled to a seat in its future councils.

President Roosevelt, as so generally reported, has dropped a hint that he is willing to mediate between Russia and Japan, late dispatches make it reasonably clear that he will have his labor for his pains.

No word comes from Tokio, but the Japanese minister in London, who before and during the war has spoken freely and truthfully, laments the appalling sacrifice of life, but says there is nothing to do but go on.

Perhaps the Russian attitude was reflected in a recent dispatch from Mukden, which said: "The Russian are now fighting as a matter of pride."

It has been intimated that Kuropatkin will fall back to Harbin, without making a stand at Mukden or Tieling, and go into winter quarters.

Miss Rose Hennessy, well known as a poetess and elocutionist, of Lexington, Ky., tells how she was cured of uterine inflammation and ovaritis by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been so blessedly helped through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it but just to acknowledge it, hoping that it may help some other woman suffering as I did. For years I enjoyed the best of health and thought that I would suddenly do so. I attended parties and receptions thinny clad, and would be suddenly chilled, but I did not think of the results. I caught a bad cold eighteen months ago while menstruating, and this caused inflammation of the womb and congested ovaries. I suffered excruciating pains and kept getting worse. My attention was called to your Vegetable Compound and the wonderful cures it had performed, and I made up my mind to try it for two months and see what it would do for me. Within one month I felt much better, and at the close of the second I was entirely well. I have advised a number of my late friends to use it, and all express themselves as well satisfied with the results as I was.—Miss Rose Nora Hennessy, 410 S. Broadway, Lexington, Ky.

MONSTER REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Senator Burrows Greeted by a Packed House Wednesday Evening. During the many years Senator Burrows has visited the upper peninsula making speeches for the Republican party, he has always been greeted by large assemblages in Ishpeming, but his reception last Wednesday evening at the Ishpeming theater eclipsed all previous meetings in point of attendance. The theater was packed, every seat and much of the standing room being occupied. In the audience were voters from every city and town in the county, a delegation of Marquette men having come up by special train on the Lake Superior & Ishpeming line. The theater was filled long before the time set for the opening of the meeting. The Ishpeming City band played a few selections and the Roosevelt Glee club sang two campaign melodies.

Mr. Burrows was introduced by Congressman H. O. Young, who spoke briefly, referring to the strong sentiment existing everywhere he has been since the last rally here in favor of the Republican candidates for national and state offices. He said in part: Democrats Losing Ground. "Last week a magnificent audience greeted that distinguished gentleman, William Alden Smith, in this theater. Since that time I have been through most of the counties of the upper peninsula. Everywhere I have been greeted with enthusiasm. I have talked with many speakers. They all told but one story, that they have been greeted by large and enthusiastic crowds. I was with Senator Burrows early this week, and we have been given splendid receptions. They tell me that the Democratic organization in Michigan is broken down. The Democratic speakers are telling their audiences that they are satisfied with Roosevelt. They hope that they can gain some votes for the candidates on the state ticket, but the tide has turned, and I feel certain the upper peninsula will roll up a majority of at least 20,000 for Warren.

Mr. Burrows prefaced his remarks by stating that the people of the Twelfth district will elect Mr. Young for congress by a magnificent majority. Referring to Mr. Young he said: "He has made for himself an enviable reputation in his congressional career. They ought to return him by a unanimous vote. He deserves it." The senator reviewed briefly the important changes that have taken place in national affairs during the past few years, particularly since Abraham Lincoln's time. The most important change during that period has been the abolition of slavery. At this time the voters of the country have in their power to either maintain or destroy the machinery of government. The election of a Democratic president means an injury to the country; it means a change in policy; and a change in policy always disturbs the country's industries.

PHILIPPINES PROSPEROUS.

Mr. Burrows belittled Parker's stand on the Cuban and Philippine questions. He said that the freeing of the Cubans from Spanish tyranny was a good thing for this country if for no other reason than to check the spreading of disease germs that were brought from that country to the United States. America has cleaned the islands so that people can live there in safety and the United States government has done in the Philippines Mr. Burrows presented statistics showing the number of public schools, and other institutions the have now established, and called attention to the fact that most of the officials of government are natives of the country, and not Americans placed in office by the Republican party. The Philippines are very large, a controlling interest in them is worth a great deal of money, but a short time when they will have absolute control of all branches of their governmental affairs. In referring to how the natives feel about the good that America has done for their country Mr. Burrows read an extract from a speech delivered a short time ago by a prominent Filipino, who declared that his people shall never cease bestowing blessings upon America for what she has done for them.

CAPTAIN DOWNING DEAD.

Former Ishpeming Mining Man Passed Away Yesterday at Hibbing. Charles Haves of the Ishpeming Co-operative society received a telegram yesterday advising him of the death of Captain W. H. Downing at Hibbing.

Mr. Downing leaves his family in very comfortable circumstances. He owned considerable real estate here and he has had other interests. It was his intention to soon retire from active work and return to Ishpeming to reside. Mr. Haves was not certain yesterday whether the remains will be brought to this city for burial. The captain was a member of the local Odd Fellows and Temple of Honor lodges.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW.

First of Scheduled Games Will Be Played at the Union Park.

The Ishpeming Highs will play their first scheduled game of football tomorrow afternoon with the Menominee team. An effort was made to make a change in the schedule on account of Marquette dropping out, but it was finally decided that Ishpeming is fairly entitled to tomorrow's contest and the board concluded to have the game pulled off as originally intended. The game will start at 2:30 and the admission will be twenty-five cents. The lineups of the teams will be as follows: Ishpeming—Frank Bargh, center; Lester Cliffon, left guard; Wm. Telfer, right guard; Phil Hogdell, left tackle; Austin Goodman, right tackle; Sam Steier, left end; Ed Johnson, right end; Grover Gourdeau, quarterback; Will Walters, right half; Geo. Hayden, left half; John Kjesbo, full back; Wm. Cadz, full back; Angus Campbell, Wm. Mudge and Chas. Burns, substitutes. Menominee—Erditz, left end; Solway, left tackle; Miller, left guard; Muth, center; Garbell, right guard; Tilsman, right tackle; Caneby, right half; Hie person, quarterback; Livingston, left half; Kamb, right half; Birkhoff, full back.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Mrs. G. R. Miner will leave Monday for the lower peninsula on a visit to relatives. Mrs. J. L. Johnson and daughter, Miss Elsie, attended the marriage of Miss Johnson's son, Ed, to Miss Parmelee, at Virginia, Minn., Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Schlaik of Houghton were in the city yesterday. A. W. Myers is here from Milwaukee to spend ten days or two weeks looking after his mercantile interests.

BEN HENDRICKS

The sale of reserved seat tickets for the production of Ole Olson at Ishpeming theater tomorrow evening will start this morning. Ben Hendricks, who plays the title role, will be heard in a number of songs specially written for him.

GIRLS' ORDEAL IN THE ALPS.

Saves Her Brother from Falling Into a Deep Crevasse. The heroic records of ancient Greece contain no tale of bravery or endurance more worthy of remembrance than the act of a modern Greek maiden—the Hadjilazarou. On Saturday M. Hadjilazarou, a member of the Geneva section of the Alpine club, set out with his two sisters from Zinal for the mountains. Relying upon his expertness as a climber and great knowledge of that part of the range, he did not take a guide. For five or six hours all went well with the intrepid three. Roped together they successfully scaled the "Grand Corneier." The most difficult part of climbing did not deter them. They felt sure of themselves. The girls were innocent of thought of danger, so completely did they rely upon their brother, who was first on the rope.

They looked forward to the descent of the Glacier De Moiry. It is not regarded as difficult, but all glaciers have one spite of danger—a concealed crevasse. At the height of 15,000 feet, or less, they had some hours of mounting before them before they were down again at Zinal. M. Hadjilazarou, anxious for his sisters' safety and feeling the heavy responsibility upon him, took extra care but he lacked that instinct which guides him. He could not be quite sure. Suddenly he called a halt and bade the girls look out. He feared a concealed crevasse. He bent forward to test the foothold. Scarcely was he on his hands and knees before the treacherous snow gave way beneath him. His sister next on the rope had but a few seconds to think and act. Her nerve never left her. Seizing a sharp point of rock by his fall, over the crevasse, she braced herself with one leg on each side and bore her brother's weight upon her hips. "What could be done?" he could not climb up. He did not even try, lest his sister's strength should give out as he tugged at her in the effort.

Rapidly the sisters made up their minds. The one at the top and the one at the bottom went off to Zinal alone for help. Would she get there safely? The brother in danger, the sister supporting him upon her hips as she stood astride the crevasse in attitude only a woman could have kept for long, did not know.

As the minutes one by one made way for the other and lengthened into hours the noble girl felt as if the strain would send her mad. The rope cut into her hips and the pain was excruciating. Her brother tried to ease her by entering steps in the side of the crevasse and holding on to them, but he dare not attempt to climb. A sly wind meant death for both in the depths. As he looked and called encouraging words to her the icy cold water fell drop by drop upon his forehead, in imitation of the greatest tortures known to the Spanish Inquisition. To add to the horror darkness came down on the mountain. For twelve awful hours they held out. Then, when they felt that human nature could withstand the awful strain no longer, a wondrous cry rang out. Lights shone over the glacier. Their sister had brought help.

So as not to alarm the rest of the family she had descended by the Col de Taibue and arrived at the village in two hours and a half at 8:20 in the evening. Her brother and sister were waiting. Her brother, she thought, was dead. But things are slow at Zinal. It was hours before she could collect the five men she needed, with lanterns and Alpine climbing apparatus.

Not till 7 in the morning and she started for success at 6 the night before—did the rescue party reach the courageous girl and release her from her trying ordeal.—London Mirror.

MILLIONAIRES POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attending on the possession of the only one which is not withered by stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among those people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect indigestion. It tones and vivifies the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your status. Try it. Bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. Tallor's Drug Co.

COPPER QUOTATIONS.

Copper was unchanged at London yesterday, at £60 18/3d for spot and £59 5s for futures. At New York Lake is quoted at 13.12 1/2 @ 13.37 1/2, electrolytic at 13.00 @ 13.25 and casting at 12.87 1/2 @ 13.

MINING GOSSIP.

The Adventure will shortly double its rock shipments through Lehigh. Working one head working on a double shift. The copper contents of the rock are increasing. It is worthy of note that notwithstanding America's enormous exports of copper the foreign visible supply on Oct. 15 was only 12,723 tons, a decrease of 1,125 tons within two weeks. Gossip has it that the Ambrose and Seneca properties will eventually be consolidated. Both are included in the Bigelow group, and would share in the advantages of a merger. It is stated that the Wolverine monthly return of refined copper has been increased 100,000 pounds since the refining of its mineral product at the Calumet & Hecla smelter. A result of the change made in this direction is reflected in the decreased operating cost.

There exists a belief that the proceeds of a fourth stamp at the Mohawk mill will receive attention at an early date. The property is quite extensively opened, while the close of the year will witness the completion of its large requirements for some little time. The development of No. 5 shaft promises to be rapid and once it is in shape for production additional stamping capacity will become a necessity.

The erection of the two-stamp addition to the Champion mill is under way. The last shipment of structural iron having arrived a week ago. Contracts have been closed for the necessary milling equipment, the installation of which will receive attention during the coming winter. The Champion should be in position to operate six stamps commencing July 1, by which time it is estimated that the extent of ground reserves will be ample to supply 4,000 tons of rock every twenty-four hours, striking in about to be resumed at two shafts, and now that ample drill power is available drill openings will be pushed with renewed vigor.

President Evans, of the United States Mining company, said in an interview this week: "The 1,000-ton smelter has not been giving complete satisfaction, but we are gradually eliminating many of the difficulties and the output is steadily increasing. At the present time we are operating four out of the six furnaces, and are treating about 200 tons a day. We are handling some custom ores and expect to increase this business very materially. Within a comparatively short time we expect to bring the output up to the capacity of the plant. The lead smelter is progressing favorably and we are satisfied that it will be a money maker from the start."

PHASE OF THE TIME.

Of all sad words that you hear day by day, And there is an enormous collection, The saddest of all is when people say, "Oh, just wait until after election!"

You're out of a job, have nothing to do, And can't make any connections, Each one whom you go to will take you in, "Oh, just wait until after election!"

You've lent, perhaps, a friend an X or a Y, When things had a different complexion, You ask for it back, as you're up a tree, "Well, just wait until after election!"

They'll tell you the trusts will do that and this, And confess they're in doubt about protection, They vow that everything will be amiss, "So, please, wait until after election!"

DISCUSSED LEADING ISSUES

Paid Fred M. Warner a Handsome Tribute and Recommended Him to the Voters as a Clean, Honest and Upright Candidate.

W. W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor made an excellent impression at the opera house last evening with his address on the issues of the present campaign and was heartily received by an enthusiastic house, which was, however, not as large as it would have been had the weather been more favorable.

Mr. Wedemeyer is a very easy speaker, of excellent voice and expression. He held his audience perfectly last evening and brought forth many rounds of hearty applause.

FROM UPPER MICHIGAN

University Museum Contains Many New Specimens.

The private rooms of the university museum at Ann Arbor at present are filled with all sorts of specimens from the largest deer to the smallest bird or field mouse.

What makes these investigations particularly interesting is the fact that no work has been done in this part of Michigan since Prof. Louis Agassiz and party visited the Lake Superior region in 1848.

The aim of the expedition was to study and collect samples of the animal and plant life in this region, as little is known of the natural history of northern Michigan and collections from there are almost completely lacking in the university museum.

The results of this expedition are that extensive collections of animals and birds were made and many notes taken on the plants and animals.
