MARQUETTE, MICH., AUG. 8.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Under the circumstances it would appear that Charles F. Pfister should have an action against someone.

As yet nothing has happened to justify much confidence that the white-winged dove of peace is going to light.

Marquette county has gained two brokers' offices in as many weeks, best sign possible of the revival in copper stock trading interest.

It is altogether too bad that Linvitch isn't in communication with Portsmouth, N. H. If he were peace prospects might not be so dubious.

After all it was not wine, women or booty that led to the detection of the Meyer murderers, but only ordinary Cleveland policemen.

Doubtless the official removal of the embargo on liquor refreshments will again restore the popularity of the Sunday excursions to Marquette.

Because Governor Warner is reluctant to discuss the senatorial situation, it should by no means be taken for granted that he would prove unwilling to exchange his present office for a toga.

Now that Charles F. Pfister is acquitted by the officers of the Wisconsin Rendering company the bottom seems to be knocked out of the best sensation that Milwaukee has been able to produce in many a long day.

Warden Fuller, of the Ionia prison, barred the Optimist, the Jackson publication, and the Police Gazette from his institution. The implied reflection on the Optimist is one altogether likely to make Convict Higgins weep.

Not unreasonably the thought arises whether Postmaster Webster, of the Soo, is not the Times' dark horse for Senator Mills' office, in the event of the Menominee man seeking political glory and emoluments in new fields.

Beginning Thursday there will be some new chapters in the Jackson prison investigation. However, it is safe to say that the worst is out. The main question now to be decided is the one of veracity between Warden Vincent and ex-Governor Bliss.

The attention of the several reverend gentlemen of Marquette who manifest a spasmodic interest in local politics is respectfully called to the fact that the small part of the bid that was put on for a limited number of Sabbaths for their particular edification is now off.

Saghain was Russian fifty years, Russian without any dispute for thirty years and it never had a government worthy of the name. Now it is Japanese, after a few weeks' campaign, and government and conquest appear to have been almost simultaneous, for a Japanese civil administrative staff has already begun work.

Peter White is kept busy of late acknowledging honors. The new carrier Peter White has just been launched and under the title "The Honorable Peter White" Ralph D. Williams, editor of the Marine Review, has just published one of the most interesting and valuable histories of the development of the lake marine that has ever been put in print.

The Palmer House, Chicago, has raised its waiters' wages, but has provided that all tips must go to the hotel. A further step in popularizing the hotel would be a little greater raise in wages, and the absolute prohibition of all tips. The Palmer House management's action as it now stands seems to operate against the waiters without helping the public, which will be rather indifferent where the tips go as long as it continues to be compelled to pay them to get decent service.

Commenting on the political phases of the recent semi-centennial celebration at the Soo, the Times, Democratic, says: "Senator Mills will likely be renominated, if he doesn't succeed in landing the district attorneyship of western Michigan, for which he is a candidate to succeed Covell. Mills is not the most popular representative the district has had, and the rank and file of the Sooties have no love for him on account of his action on the charter amendments bill, which he would not favor. However, he had the support of the party leaders on this measure, as well as the solid support of the country districts, so that it is likely that he will get the Chippewa delegation if he wants it. On the other hand should things so come about that Mills is not a candidate this county will be in the field for the place. The Times has been informed in strictest confidence that one of the most popular and shrewdest politicians in this part of the country has wires pretty well laid and connected for the place, and as he has never failed of getting what he went after the chances are in his favor."

Mr. Jerome is to have the support of the New York World in his campaign for reelection as district attorney as an independent. That should help some. It will not be Mr. Jerome's only influential support. His denunciation of boss rule in municipal government for the exploitation of the people has met with an immediate and ringing response. His fight for a principle is going to call for much effort and thought from both of the partisan organizations, if either is to fill his office with a man of their choosing.

"The office of district attorney is a part of the judicial machinery of the state and should be free from political influences and control," says W. B. Hornblower, chairman of the last Democratic New York state convention. "I am entirely in sympathy with the movement to have District Attorney Jerome nominated as an independent candidate for reelection. His record has been a splendid one. He is fearless, honest and a fighter," writes Cornelius N. Bliss, former treasurer of the Republican national committee. These comments show that Mr. Jerome's independent candidacy has been launched under most excellent auspices.

District Attorney Jerome, addressing the New York Chautauqua, suggested that Andrew Carnegie will find his philanthropic endeavors much simplified if he will leave more of his money with his heirs, saying: "If, for one, believe it unwise to take millions from the pockets of the workers down in Homestead and build useless libraries. Better forget the name of Carnegie and leave the money with the men who earned it, and make their homes happy. I believe in law and order, but if I lived in one of those miserable hovels in the iron and steel district and needed money for a loved one, I would not view the founding of these libraries with complacency."

ORE BUSINESS IS BRISK.
Although heavy rains had flooded some of the mines in the early part of the month and delayed shipments, the total for July broke all records, the shipments being larger than for any one month since the first cargo of iron ore was sent down from Lake Superior. The shipments for the month aggregated 5,224,619 tons, a figure which is not only the largest for any month in the history of the trade, but exceeds the shipments for the entire season of 1888, only seventeen years ago. Up to Aug. 1 the shipments for the season had reached a total of 16,038,673 tons, which exceeds the total shipment for any full year before 1899.

Present indications are that, unless the season should close unusually early, the aggregate shipments for the present year will reach from 31,000,000 to 35,000,000 tons, the probabilities being in favor of the higher figure. This would nearly equal the entire shipments of iron ore from Lake Superior during the third of a century between the opening of the Sault canal and the year 1888, and be less than 3,000,000 tons short of the aggregate of the five years 1888-92. The maximum was believed to have been reached in the boom year, 1902, when the shipments were 27,571,121 tons, but this year's figures will leave those of three years ago far behind, and unless all signs fail next year will show still another increase.

The prediction of an enthusiast that before many years there will be 50,000,000 tons of iron ore pass the Soo canals in a single season does not seem now as wild as when it was uttered. Its realization will be practically only through further improvements in the great waterway which the Soo canals are the gates, with the consequent certain increase in carrying capacity and number of the great steamers traversing it.

NO PANAMA FOR THE JAPS.
That disease germs must be put to flight before the dirt begins to fly on the canal strip is the announcement that comes from the isthmus, where Chairman Shonts, Governor Magoon and Colonel Gorgas, the sanitary officer, are looking over the field. "The present half-hearted sanitation will be replaced by vigorous reforms," is the latest news, and until the commission is "better prepared for the work" efforts at actual construction will be suspended; all of which emphasizes the mistake of the people in supposing that the canal would be in sight once the money was put up, and the fundamental error of the government in neglecting the sanitary preliminaries the necessity of which, in the light of the French company's experience, should have been obvious.

It is pretty well understood by this time that the digging and delving on the isthmus cannot be done by Americans, and the difficulty in obtaining a supply of common labor is only less serious than that of making the canal fit for workers of any nationality to live in. It was recently suggested that Japanese coolies be hired, but the Japs prove to be of one mind with Americans as to the danger and are no more disposed to risk their lives in Panama than are the people of this country. It does not appear just how or by whom the matter was submitted to the Japanese government which laid it before the emigration companies, but these agencies flatly refuse, according to a Tokio dispatch, to send laborers to work on the canal on the ground that conditions there are unsatisfactory. The dispatch shows that the Japs know as much about prevailing conditions as Americans do, and rate the lives even of their coolies more highly than Americans gave them credit for.

Of course this refusal cannot be considered final unless it shall prove impossible to work complete sanitary reforms on the isthmus, for there is no information that the Japs would refuse to furnish laborers if the canal strip should be made habitable. The rebuff from Tokio is simply fresh evidence that the canal project must halt until the indispensable prerequisite of perfect, or at least greatly improved, sanitation has been provided. The government can no longer continue to put the cart before the horse.

Miss Lillian Gonzales Robinson, the youngest woman linguist in the United States, who has just been appointed head of the department of romance of the University of Oklahoma, although only twenty-three years old, has already mastered twelve languages, speaking most of them fluently. Baroness Fosen, wife of the new Russian ambassador, and the wife of Japanese Minister Takahira are close personal friends necessarily kept apart until a treaty of peace shall have been ratified. The baroness met Mrs. Takahira when he languidly represented Russia in the mikado's capital. A warm friendship sprang up and was maintained at long distance by correspondence until the outbreak of trouble in Korea. When this cruel war is over, doubtless they will meet in the boudoir of one or the other for "a good long talk."

Camille Flammarion, the celebrated astronomer, proposes to introduce in the French chamber of deputies a bill to make compulsory a perpetual calendar of his own. According to his plan the year should start at the vernal equinox, March 21, and every quarter would contain two months of thirty days and one month of thirty-one. This would make 364 days, and a fete day, not to be counted in any month, would complete the year, while every leap year, there would be two such fete days. The same days would always occur on the same days and one calendar would last a lifetime.

Dwight E. Potter, one of the most progressive and aggressive clergymen of Oakland, Cal., is at present holding down a job in the yards of the Southern Pacific, where he "wipes down" engines. He is not for the money that the pastor is working, but for the experience and knowledge that will bring him into closer touch with the lives of the men among whom he has chosen to do his work. Potter, young, athletic and determined. For months he has been living among the railroad men, as well as working among them. He has contented himself with two small rooms, one of which he has used as study, in his church, and the other in a lodging house, where he has slept.

Horatio F. Brown, a London writer on Venetian subjects, has had a singular experience with fire. The original draft of Brown's first and best known work, "Life on the Lagoons," perished in the blaze which destroyed the offices of its publisher, Kegan Paul in 1883. The manuscript of his "Study in the Venetian Inquisition" was burned in a mail car in Switzerland two years later and a similar fate overtook both that of his "Calendar of Venetian State Papers" at the fire at Spottiswoode's in 1892 and that of his "Studies in Archeology." The latter was rescued in the burning of Cecil Rhodes' house, Rondebosch, Cape town, in 1895.

Mrs. Mary Hayes Chynoweth, founder of the True Life church and mother of Congressman Hayes of California, died at San Jose, Cal., last week. She had many followers, who believed she possessed the power to work miracles. Mrs. Chynoweth was born in Cuba in 1825. While she was still an infant her parents moved to Waterloo, Wis. At twenty-four she married Anson E. Hayes, cousin of ex-President Hayes. At this time she became interested in a form of religious belief which afterward developed into the True Life church, in which she was for years the head. While still living in Wisconsin she, as the result of alleged revelation, located rich iron mines, which established a family fortune and made the owners rich.

Father John of Cronstadt, whose extraordinary influence over the czar, no less than his propaganda against the revolutionaries, continually rouses the ire of the secret committee, is eighty-six years of age. In personality he answers to the description of the average Russian peasant, only in his case abominable has wrought a refining effect on his features. He is short and stout, with a somewhat ferocious complexion, and his small, twinkling gray eyes have their future appearance characteristic of the Russian working class. In spite of his great age he is remarkably active and his long broken hair is uncut and silver. Father John was once esteemed a miracle worker, but it is said he has lost his reputation since the ships he blessed were sunk and the men he blessed were killed in battle with the Japs.

A CROWN OF GLORY
As Well as a Mark of Beauty Is Luxuriant Hair.
It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxuriant head of hair.
It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings of God, and that it was bestowed capriciously, and it is only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles, where it destroys the life of the hair.
To restore this life and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide.
Herpicide surely kills the germs, and is the best hair dressing on the market. It contains no grease or oil, neither will it stain or dye.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich., Stafford Drug Co., special agents.

CONSUMPTION THREATENED.
"I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption," says C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill. "I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." A Panacea.
Last fall an Englishwoman of letters was staying, as the guest of an elderly lady, at a country house in western Massachusetts. While they were driving one afternoon they had the misfortune to meet the omnipresent automobile at a sharp turn of the road. The horses, being spirited, shied, dashing the carriage against a tree and throwing its occupants into the road.

The Englishwoman had herself unscathed, but was so terrified to see her aged hostess lying on the ground unconscious. Running to a nearby farmhouse, she knocked for some time before she finally succeeded in bringing a sun-bonneted woman to the door.
"A lady has been hurt—thrown from a carriage. She is lying down there in the road. Can you give me some whiskey for her?" cried the visitor in breathless anxiety.
"Well, no, we don't never keep no whiskey," said the native-born after some deliberation. "Would the lady like a piece of pie?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Bill Nye's Reply.
The late Bill Nye replied as follows to a correspondent who inquired about his habits of work and life:

"When the weather is such that I cannot exercise in the open air I have a heavy pair of dumbbells at my lodgings, which I use for holding the door open. I also belong to an athletic club and a pair of Indian clubs with red handles. I owe much of my robust health to this. I do most of my writing in a sitting posture or in an autograph album. When I am not engaged in thought I am employed in recovering from its effects. I am very genial and pleasant to be thrown among.

HE DOES SUMS FOR UNCLE SAM.

Government Has Human Computing Machine to Solve Its Problems.

The lightning calculator of the United States government, the man who finds a diet of arithmetic and its train of difficult problems as easy of digestion and assimilation as new flannel breakfast food to a weak stomach, is Joseph S. McCoy. His official title is government actuary, and he has an office on the fourth floor of the treasury, where, with one assistant and an imported arithmetic, he wrestles with masses of figures that would drive an ordinary man crazy. Yet he keeps fat and works, and his disposition is sunshine itself.

Actualities of the big insurance companies in New York are paid as high as $50,000 a year, and from the standpoint of arithmetic, encounter nothing worse in intricate, almost impenetrable, problems as to annuities and reversions than Mr. McCoy, who must do the anything any government official or clerk puts to him for $2,200 a year. He ought to have more, but he is a modest, unassuming sort of fellow, who never makes use of his acquaintance with money as a factor to ask that something be done for him. Congressmen unhesitatingly call upon him for the solution of problems in tariff and currency that are so thick to them they could never solve them unless with his aid. Members of the banking and currency committee and of the ways and means committee of the house, together with the corresponding committees of the senate, know him, and know him well, but he never presumes upon his valuable work for them to suggest that they might get through an additional appropriation for his salary.

Not only are his services in demand by congressmen who are almost of serious intent in their desire to reform the currency and financial laws of the country, but the various departments of the government call upon him whenever they strike some snag which they can't solve. While upon the treasury pay rolls, he is, by his title indicates, "government actuary," and any official in the government service may submit matters to him if they cannot solve them.

Just after the Boxer uprising in China and the small war which brought down upon China the armies of all the civilized countries of the world an indemnity was paid. China had to pay for her foolishness, and each nation which sent an army there obtained so much in the way of payment of expenses, or rather, a promise to pay. The payments began in 1902 and have been made every six months since that time. He interpreted the protocol as meaning payments by China in silver upon a gold basis.

All the other nations interpreted the protocol plainly as payments in gold and entirely upon a silver basis. As viewed by the other nations, there would be no trouble in making the payments, inasmuch as gold varies little in value the world over, but silver changes in value almost every day, depending upon the demand for it. He accepted the interpretation of silver payments, how much would China be compelled to pay the United States at the first payment?

A good many officials lost sleep over it and the Mr. McCoy worked for an untold time to gain and settle the question. He went over. He found the Chinese tael, the only basis for metallic money in China, as changeable in value as the price of silver. He really found that the tael was cured, and is now in perfect health. Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At the Stafford Drug Co.'s drug store; 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

would bring in $6,295.08 a year. The difference in favor of circulation is, therefore, $1,660.14 each year, or 1,009 per cent. If the banker had to pay $107,000 for his lands, the difference would be large, as can be seen.

Mr. McCoy's arithmetic has exploded many visionary, impossible schemes, from financial bills to theories of the universe, proposed by Smithsonian scientists and worked out in cold figures. The question of the pension of aged clerks of the government has been worked out in figures for members of congress who wanted data, and some funny ideas in this direction were exploded when they came in contact with cold figures made by the actuary. Mr. McCoy furnished the internal revenue bureau with brand new and complicated tables dealing with the legacy tax imposed during the Spanish war, and these tables are said to be as fine a piece of work as any insurance actuary has ever arranged.—Washington Star.

THEY DROP OUT OF SIGHT.

Five Thousand Annual Disappearances in the United States.

More than 5,000 persons annually disappear in the United States and are never heard from again. At first blush the assertion seems incredible, but police statistics furnish confirmation. The actual figures, based on a conservative calculation, are even more alarming than those given. In fact, the reports of the police departments of the larger cities show that in the twelve months just passed 16,008 of the persons who disappeared during the year were never reported as found, but the shrewd police officers, accustomed to the eccentricities of human nature, are of the opinion that the return of many thousands of these persons, through shame or indifference, was never reported at police headquarters. But even after making allowance for this feature of the case, it is reasonably certain that more than 5,000 people were swallowed up in oblivion.

The tragedies of real life hidden within these peculiar cases, if they could be brought to light, would rival many of the novels penned by the world's greatest writers. No subject that can be imagined has such weird fascination as that of the thousands who have gone down this grand canyon of oblivion.

It would be possible to fill many pages with the absorbing stories of these curious cases, but nearly every reader of the newspapers, whether he live in village, town, or city is probably acquainted with some instances of the kind concerning either friend or relative. Men and women who have lost all they treasured most in life in this manner go about vacantly, numbly, even waiting for the return of the missing one—a dream that never comes true.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A TOUCHING STORY

In the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of eleven months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At the Stafford Drug Co.'s drug store; 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

LITTLE ONE ONE SOLID SORE

Covered With Scabs and Scabs From Head to Foot—Doctors and All Other Remedies Fail—Skin Now Smooth and Clear.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

Writing under date of Sept. 7, 1904, Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland, Miss., says: "Some time ago I ordered and received your wonderful Cuticura Remedies, which I used on my little afflicted babe with wonderful results. I had tried many other remedies without any benefit whatever, and Cuticura came to the rescue when my doctors and all other remedies had failed. One doctor pronounced it scrofula, the others eczema. The little one was one solid sore, with scabs and scabs from head to foot, when I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The result was wonderful, and now my baby's face and body are smooth and clear."
(Signed) Mrs. Mattie Shaffer.

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS

At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura. Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humors of the Skin and Scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz.: the Cuticura Treatment, consisting of warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointments with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical.

PUTS END TO HIS CAREER.

Colored Barber, Despondent, Drowns Himself at the Redridge Dam.

Harry Francis, a colored barber living at Redridge, committed suicide by drowning at the Redridge dam sometime Sunday. He told friends that he considered the deed, and when he was missed a search resulted in the discovery of his clothing on the shores near where it is believed he plunged into the water. His body was recovered.

IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Gang of Seven from Sunny Italy Made Things Interesting Sunday.

Six Italians were arrested at Trimiton yesterday morning by Officers Burkman and Haas, charged with participating in a free-for-all fight and disturbance Sunday night. According to the testimony of the complainants a gang of seven men went on a drunk Sunday night and about 10 o'clock wound up at the boarding house of Anton Bellich at No. 4 location, Trimiton.

The visitors, all of whom were from Sunny Italy, as the Italian location at the Trimiton is called, at once broke into the house and one of them was held as he entered the sleeping apartments of the proprietor and his wife.

Bellich and his boarders ejected the invaders and at once a riot was started. Rocks, empty beer bottles and other things were used and even Lindon Bellich's boarding house broken. Valentine Maric was hit in the head by a rock and several others received minor injuries.

Finally several revolvers were put into play and the crowd quickly dispersed. Yesterday morning the officers arrested the following participants to the affair: Andrew Briski, Paul Taknar, Nick Washlich, George Vookitch, Andrew Kostakis and Stephen Kazdarich.

The seventh man could not be located. The sixth man taken before the local justice yesterday afternoon and each was fined $5 and costs.

BLACK BEARS KILLED.

Two Ontonagon County Men Each Bag a Bruin.

Two large bears were killed in Ontonagon—one on the Norwich road near Crocker Bros' sawmill and the other on W. A. Jamison's farm on the Greenland road. Both were fine specimens of the ursus family, weighing from 225 to 250 pounds each.

F. W. Smithing, accompanied by his wife, drove to his "farm" on the Norwich road, says the Herald. About 5 o'clock in the afternoon while they were looking berries in the edge of brush Mr. Smithing discovered that there had company. A few rods from where he was standing he saw a bear feeding away on the berries.

The acquaintance between the man and the bear was made almost immediately. Mr. Smithing had his rifle aimed and, taking deliberate aim, fired. The bullet entered the back, killing the bear almost instantly.

With the assistance of three men Mr. Smithing carried his prize to the road and the following day brought it to Ontonagon. The skin he will have mounted with the head and claws on it.

John Wilson, who has charge of W. A. Jamison's farm on the Greenland road, killed the other bear near the farm barn. It was a female and had cubs with it but they got away before Mr. Wilson could get a shot at them.

TO BRING ANOTHER BOAT.

The management of the Booth line contemplates making changes in its service on Lake Superior and Portage Lake next season. It has been practically decided to bring the Soo City, now operating between Chicago and South Haven, to Lake Superior, putting her on the Duluth-Superior-Sault Ste. Marie-Portage Lake. The Booth company realizes the possibility of working up a fine excursion traffic for Sundays and feel that with a boat like the Soo City they will be able to cater to the wishes of the public with marked success.

WAS OLD TIME ENGINEER.

Henry Smith, aged fifty-two years, for many years a resident of Houghton died Sunday night at his home on South street after a lengthy suffering from cancer. The deceased had been employed as an engineer in this vicinity for a number of years, for the past four or five years on the tug Daniel L. Hebard of Pequaming. He is survived by wife and three children. The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock, with services at St. Ignatius church and interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

The party is in charge of L. C. Whitney, secretary and manager of the Milwaukee association, and all details have been attended to. The commissary department is well stocked and the trip to Houghton was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Pearl of Marquette Saturday, and yesterday John Edwards of Houghton was selected to act as temporary receiver under a trustee car to be appointed. The store was closed for several hours yesterday morning, but by noon Mr. Edwards had taken charge and the business was being conducted as before.

The heaviest creditors are the Peninsula Wholesale Grocery, the Lake Superior Produce company, E. M. Lieblein, E. R. Godfrey & Sons, and Roach & Seebler. Mr. Siller has been in straitened circumstances for the past few weeks. He has endeavored to arrange matters with his creditors, but failure to arrive at any definite conclusion finally resulted in his going into voluntary bankruptcy.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or ringing in the ears. If not treated at once, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by the Catarrh Cure. A straw ballot taken at the Soo during the recent semi-annual celebration resulted in State Senator Charles Smith of Hurlbut being elected to the seat in the United States senate. He has been a practitioner at Centerville for forty-seven years.

The detailed results following the drill investigation of a mineral tract are usually well guarded, at least among those locally in charge of the operations, and in this respect the Tecumseh has been no exception. The fact is now pretty well established, however, that the drill cores extracted contained a surprisingly good showing of copper, while in well informed circles it is stated that the extent of the mineralization was such as to frequently impede the progress of operations. Without going into further details it can be stated positively that the results have met the fullest expectations, and that for the first time in its career the Tecumseh has an outlook deserving of serious attention.

Some wrong impressions have been created regarding the Tecumseh, which created great interest in the property, which created great interest in the property, which created great interest in the property. The Tecumseh has been no exception. The fact is now pretty well established, however, that the drill cores extracted contained a surprisingly good showing of copper, while in well informed circles it is stated that the extent of the mineralization was such as to frequently impede the progress of operations.

Annual Report for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1905. The annual report of the Wolverine Copper Mining company for the year ended June 30, 1905, compares as follows: Receipts $1,251,880 $1,192,425 $1,033,259 Expenses 605,435 600,688 548,922 Profits $746,445 $591,736 $484,337 Construction 5,111 34,496 38,014

The total surplus now is $821,365. The average price received for copper last year was 13.83 cents per pound against 12.75 cents in the preceding year. The production was 11,982,245 pounds against 9,900,000 pounds in 1904. Excluding construction the cost per pound was 6.222 cents against 6.408 cents in the previous year. On the basis of 6 1/2 cents per pound cost and copper at 15 1/2 cents, the 9 cents per pound profit on 12,000,000 pounds per annum figures $1,080,000, or 8 1/2 per share. The Wolverine earned $12.50 per share on 13.83 cents copper in the year just ended. AUTO TRIP TO ONTONAGON. R. P. Dunstan, Lorenzo Brie, Dr. W. A. Courtney and William Dittler of Hancock arrived in Ontonagon Thursday evening in Mr. Dunstan's White touring car. The run from Hancock to Ontonagon was made in good time. The road is in fairly good condition except a piece below the Belt, which has been washed out by the recent heavy rains. Mr. Dunstan's car is a fine one; it is equipped with a steam engine, is fed by gasoline and makes a very little noise while in operation. A few weeks ago it had a similar machine burned up in Calumet through some defect in the gasoline feed. Friday the party went to Greenland returned here last evening. They left for home this morning. Mr. Dunstan is a son of the late Thomas B. Dunstan and is interested in the Adventure and Victoria mines. Dr. Courtney is a brother of Dr. Courtney of this place and is likewise a dentist. Mr. Dittler is one of Hancock's progressive business men and Mr. Brie for a number of years was manager of the Atlantic store—Ontonagon Herald.

MOHAWK. Concerning this Stanton property, it is pointed out that in order to handle a larger output, it has been necessary to remodel the stamping facilities of the mine, and this work is still under way. When the last stamp head is completed, the present stamping capacity will be doubled and the underground developments will enable this capacity to be met by the large stoping area which has been provided. In order to secure this area it has been necessary to sacrifice production somewhat and this has been freely done where it has been possible to improve the conditions at the mine. The money earned has been spent wisely in adding to the equipment and the completion of the development work underground. The showing made on the Kearsarge lode has been improving as depth has been gained; so that when the Mohawk does turn its attention to production it will make a vastly better showing than now is the case. Under these conditions the day of dividends seems not to be so remote as is generally imagined. Doubtless there will be a cash surplus accumulated before payments begin, but those in a position to know say that just as soon as the added stamping capacity is available, a marked betterment in the conditions at the mine will be noticed. With a strike along the Kearsarge lode almost two miles in length and with the bulk of development work on that formation accomplished, the Mohawk seems to be passing through the last stage of its development work before entering the first class of lake properties.

GOOD SCARCITY OF COPPER. Conditions in copper metal market were never nearer the famine stage than at the present time, declares the Boston News Bureau. To talk about a famine in the production of native lake copper, with an annual production of about 850,000 pounds in this country, appears somewhat ridiculous but the facts are that between the heavy consumption in Europe, China and this country, the entire output of the mines has been sold for four months, and copper for immediate delivery is a scarce article, so much so that a premium of one-fourth cent per pound is being paid for August or September delivery.

The United Metals Selling company has been a free seller in an endeavor to prevent any rapid advance in prices, for it is realized that the higher the selling price, the greater will be the ultimate reaction. The United Metals Selling company, however, has been unable to stem the tide with its controlled production of over 400,000 pounds per annum and leading stockpiles of doctors and druggists everywhere recommend Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Over fifty years' record is back of every bottle, which is a strong reason for giving it a trial. It always cures indigestion, heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, poor appetite, cramps, diarrhoea, or malaria, fever and ague. Try a bottle today.

TO RESTORE OUR FLAG. The foreign commerce of the United States has grown to over two and one-half billion of dollars annually, yet most of it is carried over the seas under foreign flags. In order to restore our flag to the high seas many prominent business men are advocating the building of several ships for this trade and immediate action is recommended. In order to restore the stomach to its normal condition, to make the liver and kidneys active or to promote copious sleep, doctors and druggists everywhere recommend Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Over fifty years' record is back of every bottle, which is a strong reason for giving it a trial. Cure For The Blues ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture.

She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached and back aches; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainting on her feet; then dizzy, and heart-beats very fast; then bearing-down feeling, and during her menstrual period she is exceedingly despondent.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, U.S.A. She writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham—"

"I cannot tell you with pen and ink how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, the nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I am now cheerier for any longer with despondency, as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

"A dealer imports considerably more than 100 large wild animals each year," said an agent recently. "For instance, our records for one year which I happened to have at hand shows that we imported in that period twenty elephants, thirty-five camels, twenty-five lions, forty-five leopards, twenty pumas, eighteen panthers and hundreds of birds and monkeys and small things. Cubs—lion and tiger and bear cubs—in specific demand by wealthy families in New York, and in fact throughout the country. Sometimes we receive an order for a large number of elephants. We telegraph this order to our catcher in the elephant country, who after organizing the natives into a hunting band, proceed to collect the desired number. A huge inclosure is built in one of the main elephant paths, and at night when the big animals come to feed they are driven into the inclosure, or koshli, by means of fires and shouts and the firing of guns. Beaters on tame elephants then ride into the inclosure and rope the beasts and in a short time they become accustomed to being led about. Elephants are naturally tame, and in this note the case they never could be captured, because of their great

DISTURBANCE ON TRAIN.

South Shore Conductor Attacked by Intoxicated Man With a Knife.

When the Duluth passenger train on the South Shore line pulled into the Ishpeming station Sunday night, the conductor called upon Officer Honkala, who was standing on the platform, to remove a drunken passenger with whom he had trouble all the way up from Marquette. The fellow was making himself very offensive to everyone in the coach, and when the conductor tried to quiet him, he drew a big dagger and attempted to use it. He was an Ishpeming man, but when the train arrived here he seemed in no hurry to leave his seat.

As soon as Honkala entered the coach the disturber caught a glimpse of him. He started for the rear door, and was soon running north from the depot. He darted into a narrow passage between two buildings near the Jones property on First street. Here Honkala cornered him, but when he attempted to take hold of the fellow the latter fiercely attacked with the dagger. He acted much like a maniac, and the officer was finally compelled to shoot, putting a bullet through the fellow's leg. This took all the fight out of him and he once gave up his knife. Honkala took him to the hospital, where his wound was dressed, and then escorted him to a boarding place on Second street. If the conductor does not prefer a charge against the man, he will probably be let off without a hearing.

GOOD, CLEAN COMEDY BILL.

The Robinson Stock company opened its week's engagement to a big house at the Ishpeming theater last evening, and it gave entire satisfaction. The troupe has been materially strengthened lately by the acquisition of new comedians. Last night presented a good clean comedy bill. "Tim" and "Kit" Leavens, the comedian and soubrette, in particular made a hit. The performance is continuous, specialties, moving pictures and illustrated songs, which prizes will be given the actor, "The Queen of Hearts" will be the bill this evening, and as an extra inducement ladies will be admitted to the lower floor of the house at fifteen cents each, as was the case last night.

COURSE WAS A SUCCESS.

Miss Winifred Lacey of this city has been elected by the officials of the Northern Normal, at Marquette, where she introduced a new course during the summer session, that her work was even more satisfactory than they anticipated. This had to do with primary methods of teaching children of foreign parentage. Miss Lacey had over ninety students in her class. Her methods were entirely practical, and aroused no little enthusiasm among the teachers who took the course. Since completing her work at the Normal, Miss Lacey has had opportunity to give the course at another institution, but she felt the need of a vacation and declined the offer.

JUNIOR RECHABITES' PICNIC.

The members of the Junior Rechabites society of this city will hold their first annual picnic next Saturday at the Teal Lake grove, on grounds near F. Braastad's cottage. Busses will be taken at the Mine Workers hall, Cleveland avenue, at 10 o'clock. Refreshments will be sold at the grounds, and there will be games and athletic sports of various kinds for which prizes will be given the winners. The members of the order will be pleased to have their friends attend. Arrangements for the picnic are in the hands of a committee composed of Thomas Warrick, John Dobbs and William Waters.

TIME ALMOST UP.

Several of the members of the Ishpeming fire department purchased a miniature locomotive, used as an advertisement by a watchmaker at Ironwood, during the tournament recently held in that city. Chief Foley, of the Ironwood police force, was in the city last week, trying to locate the engine. He finally obtained a clew and has the names of the firemen concerned. He gave them ten days to return the engine or to pay for it, and the time has almost expired.

RECEIVED DIVIDENDS.

Able Tallon, Robert Wiox and Charles Walters, members of the local branch of the National Protective Legion, received checks for the full amount of their dividends yesterday. Tallon and Wiox were paid $250 and Walters received $125. During the past year the society has disbursed dividend money to a large number of the Ishpeming members, all of whom are completing their fifth year's membership.

WILL TAKE NEW POSITION.

Victor Munson, who has had charge of Foster's store since its opening, will take a position as bookkeeper and salesman with the Superior Lumber company. He resigned his position at Foster's yesterday, and after a brief vacation will assume his new duties Saturday. Mr. Munson has had considerable experience in the lumber business, having had charge of F. Braastad's wood yard some years ago.

Misses Doyle and Anderson are again in the city and have opened a display of art needlework at Mrs. I. Lallerstedt's. The newest things in the eyelet and Mount Melleck embroidery, also in Cluny laces, are shown. The ladies are invited to visit the display. Lessons free. Stamping done. (8-2-1w)

NEW FRENCH SOCIETY.

Branch des Artisans Canadiens-Francais Organized Here Sunday.

A new French society was organized here Sunday night. It is a branch of the "Societe des Artisans Canadiens Francais," of which several of the prominent French Canadians of this city have been members for a number of years, having joined the order in Canada. The organization is strong in the Dominion and in Massachusetts.

The objects of the society are to solidify the French-Canadian people and to provide a cheap insurance. Policies amounting to $500 and $1,000 can be secured. A sick benefit is paid members in good standing. The society was launched in 1876 and altogether it has disbursed $2,936,807. The total membership is 25,421.

At the meeting held at Anderson Hall Sunday evening for the purpose of instituting the local branch J. V. Desautels of Montreal, first vice president general of the society; E. L. Patenaude of Montreal, a director, and A. O. Bourke, organizer, delivered addresses. All three are fluent talkers and they made a good impression. They left yesterday for Schaffer, near Escanaba, to organize a similar branch.

The organization of the Societe des Artisans Canadiens-Francais makes the third French society in Ishpeming. The other two are L'Union Canadien Francais, with a membership of over 400, and the Union of the Catholic Societies, better known as the Alpena. Since the new branch was started a number of applications for membership in it have been received. The officers elected Sunday night are as follows:

CAPTIVE GIRAFFES BADLY FED.

One Reason Why They Don't Thrive in Captivity.

A Sun reporter was talking the other day with a man who earned his living years ago by leading hunters into inner Africa to capture animals for the menageries of Europe and America. The man was asked if he could tell of any great contrast between these captive animals and the same species in their free and natural state.

"I can think of one right away," he said. "I never see a captive giraffe munching his bunch of hay, the mainstay of his life wherever he is a prisoner, without wondering how he can eat such strange food.

"No one in Africa ever saw a giraffe eat grass, either dried or in its green condition. They do not bend their necks to the earth to get food, as they are often compelled to do in captivity.

"The food of the giraffe in his native home consists almost entirely of the leaves and tender twigs of various kinds of acacia. There are some 400 varieties of this plant. Many of them exude gums resembling caoutchouc, and no animal could eat their foliage; but the leaves and twigs of other kinds make good provender for several species of animals.

"The giraffe is among them, and though I have seen him eat the leaves of other shrubs and trees, he seems to prefer these kinds of acacia. The natives say that he will wander out into the parched wilderness and remain there for more than a week without a drop of water, the juices of the acacia being a very good substitute.

"So the softest and most pulpy and juicy vegetation, without any of the fibrous quality found in most grasses, is what the giraffe craves for and needs. I don't think that his anatomical conditions adapt him for the fodder he is compelled to eat in captivity.

"I have said this to the managers of menageries and zoological parks and have told them also, as other men have done, that their giraffes are not thriving and the principal reason is that their food is not suitable.

"They are poor in flesh, and the vertebrae in their necks are actually revealed through the hides of some specimens in this country. The giraffe in captivity lacks the plumpness, the sleek fine coat and the general air of well being that make him in Africa the most beautiful creature among all the mammals.

"The elephant is another animal whom man necessarily compels to eat hay, though it is not a natural food of his kind. In this country he stows under his thick coat many tons of hay in a year, but in Africa not a blade of any kind of grass figures in his bill of fare. I am aware that a German professor has recently said that he found grass in the stomach of an elephant killed on the slope of Kilimanjaro, but in all my experience I never saw or heard of a wild elephant eating grass.

"His food in east Africa, at any rate is confined to small branches of trees, bark and the fruits of trees. In fact, the trees that he prefers seem to be about his only food resource.

"When you are in the elephant country you may always tell it by the quantities of mimosa and other trees he has torn down and ruined in order to get more conveniently within reach of the tenderer bark and branches at the top. Elephants have remarkable strength, and by getting a good purchase with their trunks they can break off some of the soft woods that are nearly a foot in thickness."—New York Sun.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN JOHN HILL.

Wellknown Mining Man Passed Away Yesterday Morning.

Captain John Hill, a sufferer from miner's complaint, died yesterday morning. The news was a shock to his friends, as it was not generally known that his condition was critical. Captain Hill was well known to most of the older mining men of the Lake Superior district. He spent several years on the Gogebic range before coming to Negaunee a few years ago. He accompanied Captain Hill had been employed at the Hartford mine, and worked up to a few weeks ago. The deceased was about forty years of age. He is survived by his widow and four children. He held membership in the Ironwood and Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and was insured for $2,000 in the order. The funeral will be held here under direction of the local Workmen society.

SINKING SAND SHAFT.

Negaunee Miners Will Work on Big Sewerage Job at St. Paul.

Captain Alfred Newcombe, who is directing operations on a sewer job at St. Paul, Minn., departed Saturday night after spending a few days with his family. He engaged a few experienced miners, whom he will work sinking a shaft connecting the upper and lower sewerage systems of the city. The contractor who first undertook the job failed, and the city authorities have now given Captain Newcombe full swing. The shaft is going through quicksand, which boils occasionally, and the men the captain had on the job would not work when there were indications of a movement of the sand. They were afraid that they would be buried alive, and in spite of the captain's assurance that there was no particular danger they could not be induced to remain at work. Among the men who left with Captain Newcombe are Michael Doyle and Simon Bishop, both miners of many years' experience. Captain Newcombe is satisfied that he will complete the shaft within a short time, provided his miners stay with him. The men will be paid well, and it is not expected that they will return to Negaunee until the job is finished.

TRAVELING IN STYLE.

The Milwaukee merchants and manufacturers arrived in Negaunee by special train yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. The train consisted of three sleepers, three diners, one private Pullman, one baggage car and one Pullman. The party left Milwaukee Sunday at midnight. The train stopped in Negaunee only long enough for the transfer from the Northwestern to the South Shore lines. The visitors will spend an hour and a half in Negaunee tomorrow enroute from the copper country to Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie.

NEW TENEMENT HOUSES.

Louis Corbett is filling six of the nine lots he owns in the swamp near the water works engine house with a view to erecting tenement houses there. The filling is being done by a contractor on Lincoln street, which has been completed during the past few months. Mr. Corbett has not yet decided to erect the dwellings this fall, but he expects to be able to put up at least some of them before winter sets in. There is considerable work to be done before the ground is ready for building operations.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Mrs. T. Buzo has returned from Sault Ste. Marie, where she spent a week. Miss Celia Wood has returned from a visit with friends at Sault Ste. Marie. The steam roller is operating on Iron street, William Bellstrom being the engineer. T. C. Yates returned from his camp yesterday, having spent Sunday there with his family. The Negaunee City band will give a concert next Sunday afternoon at the Marquette prison. Thomas Pellow, wife and daughter left Saturday for Camp Nine, where they will spend the next week or more. Maurice Kelly was taken ill suddenly Saturday night, and Sunday and yesterday his condition was precarious. Bid Jandrea has taken charge of the Maynard drug store at Ishpeming, having entered upon his duties yesterday. Mrs. J. B. Buzo and children and Miss Maud Burge will go to Princeton today to spend two or three weeks visiting Mrs. Jory. P. B. Kirkwood and wife arrived home yesterday morning from a two weeks' outing at the Kirkwood summer resort near Little Lake. John Kuivinen and Miss Sandea Karvilita, both of Princeton, were married at Ishpeming Saturday, returning to their home that evening. Miss Maria Kirby of Hurley, Wis., is in the city visiting Harry Tyler and family, Cherry street. She recently returned from a visit with friends in Canada. Kenneth Pellow, Howard Nightingale and the DeLarimer boys, who are visiting their uncle, George J. Maas, will spend the next week or ten days camping on the Escanaba river. Frank Moffatt, a Marquette painter, is painting the Marquette County Fuel & Supply company's office here. The side walls will be lettered. The concern's name has been painted on the roof of the coal shed. The last issue of the Wisconsin Jobber and Retailer, published in the interest of the dealers of that state, contained a lengthy write-up of the upper peninsula, including pictures of a dozen or more prominent copper country men. Henry Anderson, Pat Scanlon and Hugo Zine, owners of adjoining properties on Clark street, are completing cement walks which they built themselves. Mr. Zine, who is a mason and plasterer, doing the finishing. The work is done so well that a number who contemplate putting in new walks have asked Mr. Zine to lay them.

Ancient witcher was believed in by only a few but the true merit of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is known by every one who has used it for boils, sores, tetter, eczema and piles.

BARABE COPPER FIND.

Prospect Near Mellen, Wis., Continues to Show Up Well.

Joseph Barabe has received a letter from his uncle, Nelson Barabe, on whose farm near Mellen, Wis., was recently discovered a prospect for copper. He says 35 per cent in copper and also carries good values in gold and silver, reporting that the prospect is showing up well and that so far as can now be judged a mine will be developed. Ten men and two teams are now working the prospect. The vein continues to widen as depth is attained. When Joe Barabe was there the deposit was stripped on surface about fifty feet and the vein in the pit at a depth of eighteen feet was eight and a half feet wide. The letter contained a small piece of the ore, which resembles the samples Joe brought back with him, but, if anything, it looks richer. Mr. Barabe has not yet received the result of the assay of the samples he sent to the Michigan College of Mines a few days after his return from Mellen, but he expects it before the end of this week.

While at Mellen his uncle told Joe that he felt sure he could trace the vein at least a mile and a half. He is so convinced that he has a genuine bonanza that he has refused all offers made to date for the tract or even for an interest in it. He intends to continue exploring for some time longer before he will entertain an offer to buy or lease. The ore being mined will more than pay for the labor expended, even if the deposit does not prove up well enough to open a mine.

While at Mellen Mr. Barabe looked at a farm which was offered for sale. The price asked for it before the copper discovery was $1,000, and Joe thought seriously of buying it. He asked his uncle to see the owner and ascertain what he would sell for. He expected that the price would be increased, but he was surprised when the owner advised that the owner is now asking $4,000 for the tract of 120 acres.

INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON.

Cornet William Prin was over from Ishpeming yesterday morning and empaneled a jury in the case of John Thomas, the miner killed Saturday afternoon at the Hartford mine. The jury is composed of T. A. Thoren, William Veran, Robert Kronberg, Michael Curley, Joseph Barabe and T. J. Flynn. After viewing the remains at Undertaker Dawe's morgue an adjournment was taken until this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

NEW HEATING PLANT.

Frank Zoberline, who is installing the heating plant at the Neeley block, and also has the contract to do the plumbing in the building, will remove the steam plant from Ralph Wilcox's dwelling on East Second street, which is now occupied by Dr. H. W. Sheldon and family, and install in its place a modern hot water plant. He will start on the job about the first of next month, as soon as he completes the work at the Neeley block.

Upper Peninsula

Killed by a Fall.
Albin Linder of Norway fell thirty-five feet to his death at Superior, Wis., late last week from a straggler on a iron worker and bridge builder and at the time of the fatality was employed at the new Hanna coal dock being erected at the head of the lake. He was aged twenty-five.

Traveling Man's Death Sudden.
Samuel Clark, a traveling man from Detroit, died suddenly at the Park Hotel at Superior, Wis., Saturday night. He was sick but a few hours. Clark represented A. Harvey & Sons, dealers in plumbers' supplies. He was past sixty years of age and was one of the most popular men on the road. He is survived by a wife and family.

Log Drive a Record-Breaker.
The annual drive of logs on the Menominee river has been finished. It took four days to take the forest timber on board, to bring 100,000,000 feet of logs down from the mouth of the Paint and Brule rivers. It was the most successful main river drive ever brought through. There are now over 60,000,000 feet of logs in the marking yard to be sorted this season.

"Mine Dry" Destroyed.
The changing house at the Ashland mine at Ironwood was partially destroyed by fire at an early hour in the afternoon. The blaze started in the ventilating cupola, burning off the roof and doing damage to the extent of about fifteen hundred dollars to building and contents. Most of the clothing of the day-shift employees of the mine was saved, the greatest loss to the men being the burning of much of the wearing apparel in the gallery lockers.

Boys Charged With Burglary.
Willie Patana, age seventeen; Dick Banfield, sixteen, and W. Neuman, fifteen, were placed under arrest last week at Ironwood on a charge of burglary. After being locked up, the boys admitted breaking into Hummel's store in the opera house block and carrying off firearms and other articles. Entrance was gained through a window in the rear of the store, the glass being removed by Patana, who entered the place, so the other boys say, and passed out the goods. The police recovered two revolvers, one rifle, nine boxes of shells, two gold-plated watches and a number of jackknives.

Ban on Slingshots.
Boys using slingshots in Escanaba are to receive attention from the officers unless the use of the weapons is abandoned at once. Several complaints have been filed by residents of damage done by the boys using the slingshots, and in one instance a serious accident was narrowly averted. While H. A. Barry was in the yard of his home on Michigan avenue with his infant grandson a stone, fired from a slingshot, passed within a few inches of the babe's head and startled Mr. Barry. The police are determined that the use of slingshots shall cease, and Special Officer George McCarthy has been detailed to make arrests wherever the weapons are found.

Downing His Fate.
Patrick Ward of Newberry lost his life by drowning at Milkokkia lake, about eighteen miles south of Newberry, in Mackinac county. Ward and three other men were fishing on the lake and in attempting to change seats in their boat the craft was capsized. Only one of the party was able to swim and he succeeded in getting all three of his companions to the untimely boat. Ward, however, exhausted by his struggles, was unable to retain his hold, and bidding the others goodby, let go and sank before their eyes, they being unable to render him the slightest assistance. Ward was a painter by trade. Where his home is or whether he had any relatives living is not known. Up to the last accounts the body had not been recovered.

Found Dead by Fellow Workers.

Charles H. Crane, an employe of the Union Carbide company, at the Soo, died suddenly while at work at the carbide plant. Crane was found dead upon the floor of his work room, none of whom saw him fall. In keeping over he had come in contact with an electric motor and was more or less burned. The autopsy developed the fact that the dead man's heart and lungs were in a bad condition and the most reasonable explanation of his death seems to be that he was seized with some kind of a fit and in falling was brought into contact with the electric current propelling the motor, where he was found by his fellow employe. Crane was a single man and had been in the employ of the company for but a short length of time. Previous to his employment at the carbide plant he taught school. A sister, Mrs. W. A. Cuffman, lives at the Soo.

Had Narrow Escape.

Through the breaking of a platform support, two men engaged in painting the building shop at 1013 Ludington street, had a narrow escape from serious injury at Escanaba. The heavy plank platform, supported by two iron brackets, was being hoisted to the top of the face of the building preparatory to the painters resuming their work. When the plank had been hoisted nearly to the top one of the heavy iron brackets snapped off suddenly, allowing the platform to fall with a crash to the sidewalk twenty-five feet below. Had the painters been on the platform when the support gave way both would have been thrown to the ground. Luckily no one was in front of the building, with the exception of the painters, when the platform fell, and they were able to move out of the way of danger.

Embezzlement Charged.

Charles M. Rapin has been arrested on a warrant charging embezzlement, says the Soo News. It is alleged by Grinnell Bros. that he sold a pinola to William M. Everett, for which he received pay, but turned in a fictitious contract purporting to be signed by his father-in-law, Lewis Tomlinson. Rapin denies the charge. The case has been adjourned a week and he has been released under $500 bonds. It is alleged that when Rapin sold the instrument to Everett he received $125 in cash and the same amount in stock in the Superior Fuel company. The sale, it is alleged, was made in March, 1903. It is further claimed that instead of turning over the proceeds to the company he gave the money to a contract with Townsend calling for the payment of $5 a month. Rapin is a well known business man in the Soo and has always borne a good reputation. In legal circles it is said that the case will develop into a case of fact, as there is some doubt that if the charges were substantial it would constitute embezzlement.

Repairs About Completed.

According to advices received by Captain Alexander Cuning from Chicago the tug G. A. Tomlinson, which has been undergoing extensive repairs at that port, will be fully completed and ready to be returned to Escanaba by Aug. 10. The Tomlinson has been placed in drydock, the hull recoiled throughout and the boiler and engine completely overhauled, making the tug practically as good as when first placed in commission. The Tomlinson is recognized as one of the strongest tugs in commission at any of the upper lake ports and has established enviable records not only for speed and pulling ability, but also as an ice crusher, since being placed in commission at the port of Escanaba. Late in last December the Tomlinson broke through fourteen inches of solid ice into the port at Gladstone and released two ice bound carriers at the dock there. That performance of the Tomlinson attracted the attention of marine men at all of the port along the string of lakes. Since the Tomlinson was sent to Chicago for repairs two months ago the tug Rita McDonald has been in commission at Escanaba and will remain until the Tomlinson is returned.

Windpipe Cut but Lives.

A man named Johnson was brought from Ironwood township to the Union hospital at Ironwood, presenting a ghastly appearance. His throat had been cut with a razor, severing the windpipe. The man was nearly dead when discovered in a barn. He declares that he was assaulted by some unknown person, the latter inflicting the wound and cutting a great gash in Johnson's abdomen. The authorities do not attach much credence to Johnson's story, contending that the wounds were self-inflicted while Johnson was temporarily insane. That the man managed to live nearly four days in the condition in which he was found is a matter of surprise to the physicians who attended him. It is believed that the man, who is a Finn, will recover, despite that his wound was in a state of mortification. The windpipe was almost completely severed and the man breathed through the wound. As soon as the opening in the windpipe had been closed, however, the patient was able to speak. He said that he had been shot, but the wound was so evidently cut with a knife that it is surmised that the man cut his own throat in a fit of temporary insanity.

POMPEIAN Massage Cream

CLEANSES WHERE SOAP AND WATER FAIL

Washing with soap and water makes the face look clean, but it cleans the surface only. It does not clean out the impurities in the skin that make it muddy and sallow. Pompeian Massage Cream goes through the surface. It sinks into every pore—reaches and loosens all foreign dirt and impurities that lodge in the pores. It is the only facial cream free from grease and that keeps the face free from it. Does not—cannot—promote the growth of hair on the face. Price 50c and $1.00 per jar.

Robert Blumberg, who spoke in favor of the improvement, conjured the aldermen to take no heed of the protests.

The matter was thrashed over thoroughly by both aldermen and protesters, and the city attorney was called upon to enlighten the council on points raised by Alderman Shea regarding the legality of the vote taken.

MOORE GOES TO UTAH

Mining College Graduate and Former Resident of This City.

Carlton F. Moore, son of C. E. Moore of this city, a graduate of the Michigan College of Mines in 1894, is now located in Utah.

Of his departure from Arizona the Silver Belt says: "The management and employees of the company were loth to have him leave, as they have the highest regard for his ability and entertain for him a warm personal feeling."

WANTS TO HUNT WOLVES.

Old Letter Received by County Clerk from New York Man.

County Clerk Elliott recently received a letter from a New York state man asking for information regarding the bounty paid by the state for wolf pelts.

"I recently read in the Brooklyn Eagle how Dr. and Mrs. Woodward made a great success of hunting wolves in Michigan. I am very fond of hunting and money, and if the state will pay me enough bounty I will come out there and go to work.

The county clerk's supply of information on the subject is depleted at the present time, and the New York state man will probably be compelled to learn the business of wolf hunting as a means of livelihood.
