

THAW FAMILY AGAINST WIFE

New York Hears of Serious Estrangement and Plan to Bring About a Separation in the Event of Acquittal.

Marriage May Be Attacked on Ground Groom Was Insane at the Time of the Ceremony—Trial Is Adjourned Until Monday, When Jerome Will Begin the Rebuttal—Just What He Intends to Prove Is as Deep a Mystery as Ever.

New York, March 8.—When court convened for the Thaw trial today, Attorney Delmas announced that the defense had no more evidence to introduce. District Attorney Jerome stated that he had no witnesses ready to proceed with the rebuttal, and at his request court adjourned until Monday.

The court proceedings occupied less than five minutes, and Mr. Jerome returned at once to his office and began preparing his campaign of rebuttal testimony. Almost his first move was to have a subpoena served upon Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, requiring her to produce in court any letters she may have in her possession written by Stanford White.

Just what Mr. Jerome intends to prove, or will be allowed to prove on rebuttal, remains as deep a mystery as ever. The prosecutor's plan of campaign may be entirely changed at any time by an adverse decision from Justice Fitzgerald.

Family Against the Wife? There were many rumors current today of a serious estrangement between the defendant's family and his wife, and of the reported desire of the former to bring a separation of the young couple in the event of a verdict acquitting Thaw of the charge of murder.

It also has been a matter of comment that, as two experts have declared Thaw to have been insane at the time of his marriage, the ceremony might be declared void and be annulled.

Before leaving for his home in Pittsburg today Dr. C. C. Wiley, the first alienist put on the stand by the defense, gave out for publication a letter sent to him by Mr. Delmas, Thaw's chief counsel.

ASK FOR $11,000,000. Requests for Appropriations by Legislature Heavier Than Ever Before.

The legislature two years ago made appropriations aggregating $7,300,000 and it is already apparent that these figures will be greatly exceeded. Nearly all the state institutions are asking for 25 per cent more money than two years ago.

On every hand is heard the contention that the state institutions are growing and that the state must provide for them, if they are to be kept up. On the other hand the tax budget is mounting up to immense proportions and the committee wants to use the pruning knife.

MARQUETTE, MICH., MARCH 9.

Entered as mail matter of the second class at the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Now for the police commission.

The winter is wearing away. So is the Thaw case.

Munising harmony only lasts long enough to give opportunity to call another caucus.

Of course in these days of organization the master plumbers could not afford to fall behind the procession.

"Don't forget to register," the annual spring warning, will be more than ordinarily significant in Marquette this year.

Mr. Perkins having settled with the policyholders of the New York Life, the next question is who is going to settle with Mr. Perkins.

The public is respectfully requested to note that Mr. Harriman says he hasn't bought a share of stock since he has been in Washington.

Recent legislative developments are commented on as considerably reducing Congressman Young's danger from the copper country quarter.

Governor Warner makes it clear that he does not share the apprehensions of the railroad men in regard to the possible effect of lower fare legislation.

The pending dispute between the Calumet & Hecla company and the Bigelow interests is remarked by the knowing to be one and the same thing with the cutting of the first big legislative melon.

Representative Gordon says he lost $2,000 the day the news was known about Centennial—Detroit Journal. What news? Whose $2,000? Was he short or long? More particulars, Johnny, please.

The new Marquette council will, on the basis of the charter amendments, have thirteen members. Time only will tell whether or not it will be a hoodoo council.

As it appears that Governor Warner has taken the case for lower passenger fare legislation, it goes without saying that it will receive a very thorough presentation.

In Marinette the politicians are reported to be satisfied that Senator La Follette will favor Mr. Stephenson's election to succeed Senator Spooner. Unless the Wisconsin dope sheet is all wrong this ought to settle the matter.

The appearance of a second ticket in Munising, after so many promises and pledges to stand by the result of the first caucus, is taken by the practical politicians of that town to indicate that the quest for the illusive harmony is a veritable will o' the wisp pursuit.

A Negaunee alderman says that the council is in favor of purchasing voting machines, but wants to delay action because of heavy prospective demands on the city treasury. The sooner the city buys machines the sooner the savings they will permit will begin to help pay for them.

Ann Arbor advises show that the University of Michigan will remain in the western conference, if it can remain in on its own terms. It will observe all the regulations governing colleges in that organization except that it will not agree to play only five games of football. It will play only five games with other members of the Big Nine, but wants to be free to arrange eastern games as it sees fit. It also turns its back on the proposed "Big Four," Michigan, Minnesota, Chicago and Wisconsin. In the unlikely event that the western conference will not take Michigan on these terms we have no intimation what will happen, but Michigan would probably break with the western conference.

The announcement that Senator Spooner was to become the general counsel for James J. Hill's interests, with a salary of $50,000 a year and headquarters in New York, belonged to the "important if true" class, and is shown by the senator's denials to be absolutely untrue. According to the Milwaukee Sentinel, Senator Spooner says: "In 1884 Mr. Hill offered me the position of chief counsel of his roads. I have never talked with him or heard from him since about it. There is no truth in the story. I go out of office without a single client. I left the senate for the reasons that I plainly stated, and not to become counsel for any single corporation."

Indiana has made a two-cent passenger fare bill a law. The Indiana railroads say that if the legislature and governor have made a two-cent fare a maximum they will make it a minimum. In other words, there will be no concessions from it in the way of special, or excursion, rates. The railroads are in possession of the means of retaliating for lower fare legislation. For instance, if three cents is made the legal fare in the upper peninsula and the South Shore adopted the policy of the Indiana railroads the minimum fare to Ishpeming and return would be three cents a mile, or some ninety cents. As it is now a fifty-cent rate is granted for all special occasions and for parties of ten or more. The public shouldn't carry off the idea that lower fares mean cheaper fares all the time. Sometimes they will, in actual operation, mean higher fares. But it does not necessarily follow that in the long run the general public would not be the gainer from lower fare legislation.

THE CHARTER BILLS. The charter bills have been signed. It was to be expected they would be. They had a clean record, having been approved by unanimous vote in a public meeting of citizens and having been sent to Lansing with the unanimous approval of the council. There were a few protests against the bills, and some people are dissatisfied with certain provisions they contain. The error these people made was in not interesting themselves in the matter before the bills were framed. The Mining Journal gave columns of space to urging citizens to attend the public sessions of the special committee appointed to report on charter revision. As far as The Mining Journal knows not one of the men who have found fault with the bills accepted the committee's invitation. The final meeting in the series was, however, attended by a gathering of some twenty taxpayers and voters, and the committee's report religiously followed the suggestions approved by that meeting.

Perhaps some of the faultfinding is due to the fact that the bills take immediate effect. But no question was raised on this point in the council, or in the public prints, despite the fact that there was a general understanding among people in touch with municipal affairs that the bills were framed in this way. Some apprehension exists that Mayor Culver will not name a good police commission. The Mining Journal hopes he will. But even if he does not, the fact remains that the step of organizing a police commission and getting the department out of spring politics is a good one, and any faults that may exist in the original commission, should there be any, can in time be rectified, leaving the city a distinct gainer by the legislation. Meanwhile it appears that nobody should lose any sleep over the protests of people who were too neglectful of their duties as citizens to take a hand in formulating the legislation, when the general public was both invited and urged to do so.

ANOTHER FARCE. It has been alleged that the benefits to be derived from denatured alcohol are delusive, but the desperate manner in which it has been fought shows that somebody is very much afraid that it will interfere with the plans and profits of the whisky and oil trusts. The original bill was loaded with provisions which barred the farmers from making denatured alcohol profitably, and when it was sought at the present session to remedy the defects of the law the same element got busy. The bill in this instance, as was the case with the original bill, passed the house in workable form, but was amended in the senate. The house bill provided that the farmer could distill alcohol at any time, running the product into a sealed receptacle which could be opened only by the revenue officials. Mr. Aldrich, however, offered an amendment, which the senate adopted, making it necessary for the revenue officer to be present every time that a farmer operates his distillery. The handicap which this places on the farmer is obvious. His still will be small and he will make only a small product at a time. In pleasant weather he will want to attend to other work on his farm, but when a storm comes and he is kept indoors for a day or two he will want to operate his still. He cannot do this, however, without obtaining the presence of a revenue officer, and the delay will often prevent his operating the still at all. Then, too, it seems impossible to have revenue officers enough to go around if the farmers generally put in stills. Altogether the situation under this amendment is such as to defeat the purpose of the bill—that of making it practicable for farmers to install individual stills.

FRENZIED LEGISLATION.

Frenzied legislation is not a thing with which the people are as thoroughly familiarized as they are with frenzied finance, but still there is a great deal of it. And there was never a better sample than the passage at Lansing this week of the bill framed to prevent the Calumet & Hecla company from voting its stock in the Osceola at the meeting to be held the 14th inst.

In the nature of things the bill could receive no decent consideration. It was jammed through under gag rule at a time when the men best able to explain the motives of its sponsors were absent from the capital. It was jammed through without any hearing of the Calumet & Hecla side of the case, and judging from the Detroit papers, dated the 7th, it was put through by a liberal use of misrepresentation.

These papers speak of Judge Haire suddenly discovering the "nefarious" plans of the Calumet & Hecla and hastening to Lansing to defeat them. This is arrant poppycock, and everybody in the Lake Superior region knows it. Two weeks or more ago The Mining Journal published the news that the Calumet & Hecla had acquired a big ownership in Osceola stock and was looking for proxies to be voted at the annual meeting. There was no sudden "discovery" of its plans; they have been known in a general way for some week, and the copper country approved of them.

The excuse for the precipitate haste in the legislature this week was the imminence of the Osceola meeting, which is to be held the 14th. But the Bigelow interests have known for two or three weeks past, at least, what the Calumet & Hecla interests had in mind. Why, then, in the spirit of fairness and square dealing, did they not go to the legislature in better season, enabling that body to give sane consideration to the proposed new law, instead of holding the question up until the eleventh hour, and then ramming their bill through with no opportunity for debate or the presentation of the case of one of the big parties in interest?

We imagine that the answer to this is found in the fact that copper country sentiment runs strongly in favor of the Calumet & Hecla plans. This big corporation has dealt fairly with its stockholders, with its employees, and with the people in the communities where its mines are located. It is much respected by all copper country interests. Its proposed taking over of Osceola and the other mines in which it has been buying stock was decidedly popular. If the legislature had taken up in the usual orderly and deliberative way the bill prohibiting it from voting the stock it has bought in Osceola there would have been an instant rallying to the Calumet & Hecla side of the contention by copper country and Lake Superior people. The situation would have been so thoroughly explained that the legislature would, in all likelihood, have refused to pass the law which the Bigelow interests are seeking. To avoid such a result these interests resorted to the sharp practice we have seen this week.

The governor has promised the Calumet & Hecla people a hearing. He should be slow to put the seal of his approval on such frenzied legislation as we have had this week. The Calumet & Hecla people can tell him many things, and they will be true things. They can tell him that they were virtually driven into their movement in Osceola and the other stocks by knowledge that Standard Oil interests last fall had in contemplation a holding company to get them in their control. They can tell him that they acted in good faith under a state law, and that their every move has been above the board. They can tell him that their plans have the sympathy and support of the copper country people, who have every faith in their good intentions and integrity of purpose. They can give him information that will put the main question at issue before him in a very different light to the one in which it has been put up to the legislature.

The Detroit papers credit several upper peninsula members with aiding in the frenzied legislation whom upper peninsula people will be surprised to find playing that part. Senator Fuller introduced the bill in the senate, and Senator Moriarty spoke eloquently for it. He is either misquoted, or he said some very astounding things for a man who has lived in the upper peninsula so many years. Representative Gordon's course will create no particular surprise. People up north have gotten over being surprised at Representative Gordon. Moreover they have their theories about him. The bill will not stand inspection on its merits; if it could its sponsors would have gotten it to Lansing in sufficient season to allow it to be considered on that basis, and would not have rushed it through the legislature with a pointless anti-trust hurrah.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

The Contest will Close on March 30th, 1907. Answers received after that date cannot be entered.

Each list will be carefully examined and the successful contestants notified as soon as possible, which will be about one week after the close of the contest.

See how many words you can make out of the eleven different letters in "GRINNELL BROTHERS"—that is, not using the same letter more than once in any one word. Therefore, the letters you can use are G-R-I-N-E-L-B-O-T-H-S.

A word cannot be used more than once, even though it has different meanings.

Any word now in use in the English language (Webster is our authority) will be counted, BUT NOT NAMES OF PERSONS AND PLACES.

Do not use plurals.

Add your list and state the number of words.

State the class you desire to enter—"A" or "B".

If you own a Square Piano, or an Organ, so state, and give maker's name.

From the eleven letters contained in these two words you will not be able to make as many words as you may think; hence do not be discouraged if your list is small.

All answers must be marked on the outside "WORD CONTEST" and mailed or delivered to either address below.

VILLAGE ELECTIONS MONDAY.

Registration Today—No Important Changes Are Expected.

The officers of the various villages of Houghton county will be elected Monday. With the exception of those at Hubbell, it looks as though all the important votes will be retained by their holders. The exception is in the case of Dr. A. F. Fisher, president of Hubbell, who has declined to run again. John B. Hodges will succeed him.

SOME HOCKEY GOSSIP.

Portage Lakes Have Pennant—Hod Stuart Going Home.

By defeating the Pittsburgh team in the second game of the present series, Thursday night, the Portage Lakes team has made good its claim to the championship and will retain the pennant which has been suspended from the trussed ceiling of the Amphidrome for the past year. The victory Thursday night was a decisive one, Pittsburgh being shot out and the Portage Lakes scoring two goals. It is evident that the fears entertained by the team regarding Referee Schoedel were groundless, because the returns from the two games showed nothing to indicate any offensive partiality on the part of that official.

BIG FARM LAND DEAL.

Frank Eliola Purchases Oscar Eliasson's Property at Oscar.

J. H. Jasberg of Hancock has made known the fact of the transfer of the Oscar Eliasson farm at Oscar to Frank Eliola of Hancock. The deal is one of the biggest of its kind ever made in the copper country. The farm is a large one, and has been very productive. There are 600 acres, mostly cleared land, included in the sale.

WANDERERS MAY LOSE STUART.

The Montreal Star is credited with the following interesting gossip of Hod Stuart: "Hod Stuart's father has announced that his son was coming to Ottawa to live, and would probably play with the local team next winter. Hod's father is William Stuart, who is a well-known contractor, and whose name is familiar to the sporting world as having been field captain of the Capital lacrosse team in their palmist days, and also one of the premier skips of the old-time curling club in Ottawa. Hod, before he went to Pittsburgh to play professional hockey, worked for his father, and the assumption is that he will resume his former relations with Mr. Stuart."

RED JACKET TO BE CLEAN.

Model Village of the U. S. Will Be a Spotless Town.

The Red Jacket council has instructed President Schumaker and Clerk Kaiser to purchase another street sweeper. The village already owns one, but there is so much pavement the single machine cannot do the work. The purpose of the council is to keep Red Jacket clean this summer. This will be easy, with all the co-operations of the public. All of the streets are paved, and Red Jacket does not know of any flies. There are garbage boxes at convenient corners so that pedestrians need not throw anything in the street—no banana peels, old newspaper or other rubbish. Red Jacket is truly a model village.

VILLAGE COUNCIL MATTERS.

The Houghton council met Thursday night for a short time. The meeting was very brief and little was done beyond hearing the report of Professor O. P. Hood, who was appointed to inspect the water works. He reported that the pumps are working well and handling the amount of water which is expected of them. The clerk of the water board was instructed to keep the board informed at each meeting of the names of delinquent water users.

STANLEY CUP CHALLENGES.

Another Stanley cup challenge was hurled at the Kenora Thistles today, when the Winnipeg, champions of the Western Canada Amateur Hockey association sent a request for dates to William Moran of Ottawa, who is acting as trustee for the cup at present, says a Winnipeg dispatch. Though supposed to be purely an amateur club and devoted to amateurism the Winnipeg decided at a full meeting of the club, held last night, to make the jump to professionalism, and play the Thistles, if they are given dates.

"The Royal Chef" Coming Back—"The Old Clothes Man."

After Allan Doone, Thursday night, there is little going on in theatrical circles in the copper country. It is true that James Kyrie MacCurdy in "The Old Clothes Man" may be seen next Monday night, but at popular prices and therefore he fails to pitch expectations very high. MacCurdy, at that, is an actor with a very good reputation.

The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. CALUMET & HECLA.

The acquisitions of Centennial, Allouez and Osceola by the Calumet & Hecla obviate one problem for Centennial and Allouez—the question of a smelter. Their need of a smelter had already received serious consideration. Now the Calumet & Hecla plant at Hubbell can easily handle this additional product. In fact, the Hubbell plant can handle Osceola's as well and still have spare furnaces to care for any material increase in the product at the Calumet & Hecla. Evidently the big corporation has been quietly making its plans with these objects in view. Last summer extensive repair work was done at the Hubbell plant, and additional furnaces were built to care for more than the Calumet & Hecla itself can possibly need.

ARIZONA COMMERCIAL.

Stockholders of the Arizona Commercial Copper company will be given an opportunity to subscribe to 10,000 shares of the company's treasury stock at $25 per share. The stock will be issued on April 1 one share of the new nine shares of the old. It was anticipated that the company would be able to go upon a substantial producing basis without any further stock issue, but by reason of the delay in the building of its railroad, arrival of its cars, etc., the company has been delayed over three months in getting upon a substantial producing basis, and has lost over $100,000 in earnings. The railroad has been completed to within 1,500 feet of the Black Hawk mine and it could be extended no further because of the lack of rails, which, however, are now on the way to Globe. The company is now

An analysis of the annual report of the St. Mary's Mineral Land company shows that in the nine years' existence of that company it has reduced its fee and mineral acreage from 118,053 acres (111,392 fee and 6,661 mineral) Dec. 31, 1897, to 109,421 acres (92,378 fee and 14,043 mineral) Dec. 31, 1906. From these 8,632 acres which was dead land nine years ago there has been realized a value of $17,500,000, represented as follows: Cash paid to stockholders... $1,970,000 Present market value of stocks distributed... 5,080,000 Present value of stocks in the treasury, calling Champion worth as much as the recent price of $18,000,000 for Osceola... 10,450,000 Total... 17,500,000 Applied to the number of St. Mary's shares now outstanding, viz., 100,000, the above valuation of $17,500,000 represents $109 a share. OF WILCOX, ARIZONA.

This company owns ten claims, or about 200 acres of mineral lands in Cochise County, Arizona, and within one-half mile of the new acquisition to the Calumet & Arizona, the Casey property, for which absolutely undeveloped property the said company paid $100,000.

The Sunset Mining & Milling Company's property is being rapidly developed under the able and conscientious management of Mine Superintendent George H. Wilson. The ore which is taken out is being shipped to the nearby smelters for treatment and everything indicates that in the near future this will be one of the richest mines in Arizona. Samples of ore from this mine which have been assayed at the Michigan College of Mines by Professor L. S. Austin have shown an ore value of $134.14 per ton of copper and silver.

The Board of Directors consists of some of the most prominent and substantial business and professional men in the state of Michigan whose very names are a guaranty as to the reliability of the company, and whose standing may easily be ascertained in any bank through the reports of Dunn or Bradstreet.

The developing work has now progressed to such an extent that the Board of Directors has decided to erect their own smelter and for the purpose of building this smelter and making some other necessary improvements a limited amount of stock will be sold. The first allotment of this stock is now offered to the public at 75 cents per share. No less than 50 shares sold. At least one-half of the amount must accompany all orders, the balance may be paid in two equal monthly installments. Five per cent discount will be allowed for cash within 30 days. RAILROAD MEN WORSTED. Traveling Men, With Expert Assistance, Had Best of Lansing Argument.

Some twenty railroad employees representing different branches of the service were pitted against as many traveling men in a discussion of the proposed two-cent fare bill before the senate railroad committee, says a Lansing dispatch. The traveling men had the assistance of Governor Warner and Railroad Commissioner Glasgow, while the railroad employees were not prepared to meet the points raised in a general argument and made a very poor showing.

The burden of the talk made by the representatives of the different railroad organizations was summed up in the objection that if the passenger fare in the lower peninsula is reduced to two cents it would react upon the employes, not in dollars and cents to the individual, but would come from a general reduction of the train service, which would reduce the number of employes both on trains and in the workshops.

J. F. Mooney of Grand Rapids, a conductor on the G. R. & L., took the view that the mileage book is at the bottom of the present agitation. The traveling men present hopped on to the question in great shape. Edwin O. Wood of Flint, representing a branch of the United Commercial Travelers, held up the cover of a 500-mile Pere Marquette mileage book, which he had purchased in 1897 for $10. "For years," he said, "that company sold those books. Talk of railroad employes losing their jobs! As a matter of fact, the railroads cannot get enough men. If you doubt my statement look into any railroad magazine and see the want ads inserted by the railroads of the country."

Other speakers talked along the same lines and Railroad Commissioner Glasgow devoted half an hour to outlining the results of the operation of two-cent fares in Ohio where they have been in effect for something more than a year.

Governor Warner made a very brief talk, making the point that railroad passenger fares have been going down in Michigan for ten years and that he had yet to learn of any trains being taken off on that account.

The general passenger agents of Michigan roads were asked for a hearing and the committee fixed March 14 as the date.

LIKE MESSAGE FROM DEAD.

Post Card Sent by Harry Ferris Four Days Before Death Is Received.

Singularly like a message from the dead is a post card received in Escanaba by Supt. F. D. Davis from Harry N. Ferris, a teacher formerly engaged in the public schools of this city and who was drowned near Manapla, P. I., on Jan. 18, where he was as a teacher for the United States government, says the Escanaba Mirror.

The message, which is the second that has been received by Supt. Davis since the announcement of Mr. Ferris' death, was written on Jan. 14, but four days before the writer was accidentally drowned. The post card, which shows a Yokohama scene, was mailed at Manapla on Jan. 15, and nearly seven weeks were consumed in its transmission to Escanaba.

The post card bears a simple New Year greeting to Mr. Davis together with the expression of a hope that the writer would be able to visit Escanaba on his return to the states next year.

The message closed with a promise to forward several Philippine views "next week," but the death of Mr. Ferris intervened and it is not likely that he was able to carry out his promise in the four days which followed between the writing of the message and his death. Although no authoritative information has been received in Escanaba it is understood that the parents of Mr. Ferris at Marquette have received word from the government officials that the body of their son will be shipped from the Philippines to Marquette for interment.

MARRIED IN GRAND RAPIDS.

Elmer H. Beckell Takes Bride in Lower Michigan City.

Friends of Elmer H. Beckell, clerk in the office of the board of inspectors of hulls and boilers, have been informed of his marriage Tuesday in Grand Rapids, when he took as a bride, Miss Caryll E. Moore of Saginaw, Pa. Of the event, the Grand Rapids Daily News says: "A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blossom, 22 Danison street, when Miss Caryll E. Moore of Saginaw, Pa. was united in marriage to Mr. Elmer Beckell of Marquette, Mich.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ruben H. Hartle, D.D., of Westminster Presbyterian church in the presence of only a few intimate friends. Mrs. George Fox played the Mendelssohn wedding march for the entrance of the bride couple. The bride, who was unattended, wore a pretty wedding gown of white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The ceremony closed with a promise to the bride and groom to follow the ceremony a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Charles M. Mickam and her daughter, Miss Ina Mickam, assisted in serving the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckell left at 4:14 o'clock on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Marquette.

The indoor ball game between the South Marquette and City clubs, played at Fraternity Hall last evening, resulted in a victory for the former team. The score was 14 to 3.

Basketball Teams Leave—Yesterday morning the Normal basketball team left for Crystal Falls, where it was to meet the high school team. In the afternoon the high school squad went to Champion. Both teams are in good form and their friends look for them to return flushed with victory.

Small Blaze Last Night—A blaze in the house occupied by Patrick McCarthy, Champion street, was responsible for a fire alarm which called out the hose company about 10:30 last evening. The overturning of a lamp had ignited a couch in the dining room. The loss was confined to the destruction of the couch.

Weekly Story Hour Today—The weekly story hour will be held at the Peter White Public Library at 11 o'clock this morning and will be for children of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Miss Ellen Erickson will be in charge, and she will talk on nature study subjects, dealing particularly with animals.

Much Snow in Maine—The snow chart of the United States, received here from Washington, shows that the country is not yet free of snow, by any means. The greatest amount is in Maine. At Lewiston in that state there are 36 inches. Grand Marais in the upper peninsula is second with 48 inches and in some Maine towns there are 40 inches.

Another Analysis Received—Superintendent John Kern of the city water works yesterday received the analysis of the latest sample of the city water sent to Ann Arbor. Professor V. C. Vaughan reports that no disease producing or poisonous bacteria were found in the water and concludes, "This water in its present state is safe for drinking and the number of bacteria found in it is unusually small."

New Registration Not Necessary—It may be that no general registration will be necessary this year, despite the legislation reducing the number of wards in the city to five. It is asserted that the registration books can be rewritten, each elector being placed in the ward in which he resides. By this course, much time and trouble would be saved. The books would be put in good condition if a good penman were secured to do the work.

Decree Is Granted—Annie Doane was yesterday afternoon granted a divorce from her husband, Michael Doane, by Judge Stone in circuit court. The hearing of the case began Thursday morning and it was warmly contested. In issuing the decree, the judge lectured both parties to the suit, declaring that neither was blameless. The cross bill filed in the case was dismissed, and Mrs. Doane was granted alimony of $225 and solicitor's fees, she to have a lien upon the defendant's property until the money is paid. On payment of the amount named the woman is to relinquish all claim to a dower interest. George P. Brown appeared for the complainant and C. F. Patton for Doane.

Marquette Club's Annual Meeting—The annual meeting of the Marquette club, held last evening, was largely attended, fifty or more members being present. The election resulted in the selection of the following board of directors: Peter White, A. B. Eldredge, E. J. Palmer, A. E. Bassett, John G. G. Wm. McCracken, Frank G. Jones, J. W. Phelps and Austin Farrell. The report for the year ending Dec. 31, last, was read, also a report covering the building operations, or more properly the remodeling of the home of the club. There was an extended discussion of the privileges ladies should have in the club, the matter finally being referred to the board of directors. A tasty luncheon was served by Frank Bergerson, the club's new steward, following the business session.

DR. BARNETT NOT IN RACE.

Alderman in Third Ward Will Not Accept Nomination for Mayor.

Alderman George G. Barnett of the Third ward, who has been prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination for mayor on the Citizens' ticket at the forthcoming election, has advised The Mining Journal that he is not an aspirant for the office and that he will under no consideration accept the nomination. The doctor has been very generally urged to allow his name to go before the convention, but he says he cannot spare the time necessary to properly look after the duties of the office. The doctor is very grateful to his friends for their good wishes.

Dr. Barnett's term as alderman expires this spring, and he is not certain that he will be a candidate for reelection. He said that he is well satisfied with the honors he has received during the past six years, and he is prepared to give some other resident of his ward a chance.

With Dr. Barnett out of the race for the nomination of mayor it would be difficult to predict at this time to whom the honor will fall. The names of a number of prominent men have been mentioned, but it is well known that most of them are disinclined to accept the nomination. In fact some of those spoken of have already advised their friends that they will not enter the race. John L. Bradford, manager of L. W. Atkins & Co.'s business, is now being prominently mentioned. Mr. Bradford always stood in local politics for the man he considered best suited for the office. If he can be induced to enter the contest and is nominated for mayor he will doubtless add strength to the ticket.

The several candidates for municipal judge are working quietly among their friends to ascertain what chance they stand of securing the nomination. There are no less than a half dozen who would like to run on the Citizens' ticket. Richard T. Olds, who was a candidate for city recorder last year, and whom many have since claimed should really have been the Citizens' party nominee, is being urged by friends to seek the nomination for judge.

MAIL CARRIERS' SALARIES.

Uncle Sam's Employees Here Anxious to Know What Advance Is to Be.

Although the bill providing for an advance in the salaries of certain employees of the mail department, including the letter carriers, passed both houses several days ago, the Ishpeming employees of the government have not yet been officially advised, nor have they been able to ascertain from any source, about what they may expect in the way of an increase. As the bill was originally drafted letter carriers in cities where the postoffice receipts in the sale of stamps is under $50,000 per year, were to receive $900 per year, instead of $850, as now; the carriers in cities where the business in the stamps sales exceed $50,000 and less than $200,000, were slated for $1,000 per year and in cities where the receipts exceed $200,000 the carriers were to be paid $1,100.

The senate committee's revision of the salary list raised the limit in each class, the first mentioned to $950; the offices having receipts above $50,000 to $1,050 and the carriers at offices where the receipts exceed $200,000 to $1,200. After the bill went to the senate committee the postoffice employees here lost all trace of it. It has been announced through the press that the bill passed both houses, but the Ishpeming men have been unable to ascertain if it went through as amended by the senate committee. The secretary of the carriers' board has written to Washington for a copy of the bill as it was adopted.

The Ishpeming carriers will come under the lowest class on the salary list. The new wage scale becomes effective July 1.

HOWE'S MOVING PICTURES.

Popular Attraction Will Be Offering at Ishpeming Theater Friday Evening.

The following relative to this season's program of moving pictures presented by the Lyman H. Howe company, which will be at the Ishpeming theater next Friday evening, is from the Wheeling (Pa.) Register of Feb. 9:

"The collection is fine, notably 'Scaling the Alps,' 'Trips Through Dublin and other cities in south Ireland, typical old Irish people and the abodes,' 'Whaling on the North Atlantic Coast' was another interesting series. Interspersed with the collection were a number of screamingly funny pictures, showing the 'Amateur Automoblist,' 'The Chaffeur's Dream,' and several others.

"Another interesting series was the trip through the Highlands in Scotland on the front of a train. The pictures are instructive and hold the attention of the audience for over two hours. The assistant produced the various sounds required appropos to the picture exhibited through skillful manipulation of mechanical devices which added materially to the realism of the whole show."

FROM HOPKINS' CURB LETTER.

"A sharp recovery in New York failed to start much in the copper list although a few fractional recoveries are noted. Superior & Pittsburg came out quite freely today, but was well taken on the decline. Unconfirmed rumors that the Hoatson shaft on the Calumet & Pittsburg property had been closed down on account of inability to handle the water seems to be taken seriously in some quarters. Even though this shaft has been closed down it is not a factor in production, and the shut-down will only prove temporary. This is one stock that may safely be bought on the decline and held for investment."

SECRET REVEALED.

SOMETHING OF INESTIMABLE VALUE FOR EVERYONE.

FREE TO OUR READERS.

A Prominent Physician's Prescription That Costs Little—Yet Does Wonders.

You can save all the expense of doctors' visit and have a prescription of a valuable remedy heretofore a secret filled by your own druggist at a small expense, or you can make it at home yourself. Being composed of vegetable extracts only it is harmless and pure.

It works wonders in all cases of kidney trouble, backaches, rheumatism, weak bladder or difficulties arising from the presence of Uric Acid in the blood. It acts gently and decidedly, relieving all these troubles very rapidly—pain and discomforts diminish with each dose.

It promotes the flow of Gastric and Pancreatic juices, thereby aiding digestion, builds up the tissues, removes all impurities from the blood, regulates the appetite. It also will relieve even the worst cases of Catarrh.

This is the prescription: One ounce essence of pepsin, one ounce fluid Buxara, three ounces Syrup of Burdock. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful before each meal and at bedtime.

Try it and see how much good it will do—it is an act of humanity to tell your friends and save them from unnecessary suffering and ill health.

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of "Medicines of Known Composition." It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

The publishing of a prescription of this kind is rather a new idea and is to be commended. It is one that appeals to those who appreciate straightforward, honest methods, as it gives without charge a valuable scientific secret.

NEW BATH SYSTEM AT ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL

RUSSIAN AND STEAM BATH CABINETS HAVE BEEN INSTALLED AT INSTITUTION—ELECTRIC MASSAGE RECEIVED.

There have been installed recently in St. Mary's hospital bath appliances which add greatly to the facilities of the institution. They consist of a Russian bath cabinet and a steam bath cabinet. These are in addition to the needle, shower and tub baths previously installed.

The Russian bath cabinet is the most elaborate, perhaps, in this part of the country. It consists of a cylindrical drum of metal, with a sliding table on which the patient lies to take the treatment. The bath is given by something of a hot air process. Gas jets under the drum furnish the heat and the air is moistened by the evaporation of a vinegar solution, which is contained in small quantities within the drum, but under the table on which the patient lies. The bath does not resemble a steam bath; the moisture being present in small quantities and the vinegar acting as a stimulant on the pores.

The subject of Russian bath treatment dons a bath robe, with a hood to go over the head, hose and mittens made of Turkish bath toweling, so that no portion of the body is exposed to the heated air. Lying on the table, the patient is ready for the bath and the table is pushed into the cabinet, so that only the head remains in the outer air. A hood is brought down over the shoulders, leaving the body in a practically airtight space.

A thermometer, inserted through a hole in the drum, records the temperature and enables the attendant to regulate it by holes in the top of the drum, or by the valves of the gas jets. The patient perspires freely in the cabinet, and after a few minutes he is taken out and laid in a bed, which stands in a room off the bath room. After twenty minutes or so the body is rubbed thoroughly with alcohol, and the treatment is complete.

The steam bath cabinet is the ordinary cabinet of that kind, in which the patient sits with the head protruding. Both cabinets are of the most modern workmanship, and the appointments are ideal. Since they were placed in operation this week the new baths have been used frequently and they will very likely be popular.

The hospital has also recently installed an electro-vibrator, which will supersede the hand massages formerly given. With the baths and the electro-massage appliances the Sisters are in a much better position to treat rheumatism and other chronic treatments:

NOTES OF POLITICS.

J. F. Neidhart Will Run if Nominated, It Is Said.

J. F. Neidhart, for three years mayor of the city, has been urged by many of his friends to become a candidate again this spring. His name has been mentioned in the connection for some weeks past, but he has not been a candidate. He has, on the contrary, explicitly said that he was not a candidate. The pressure on him has not ceased, however, and is as pronounced now as at any previous time. While Mr. Neidhart is not a candidate in the accepted sense of the word, it is understood that he will run if nominated. This is taken by many of his friends to mean that he will be a factor in the race.

There is much talk concerning ward contests. In the First George Knapp's name has been mentioned in connection with the nomination as alderman; also that of John Downey, a South Shore engineer. Alderman Shea has said that he would not be in the field this year, but some people expect that he will change his mind before election. There will be other candidates, and a contest is certain. In the Fourth ward it is said that Herman Bittner will be a candidate. Mr. Bittner is an old resident, a business man and a taxpayer, and would make an admirable alderman. Three aldermen whose terms expire this year are residents of the new Fourth, namely, Gray, Bush and Reichel. Alderman Bush is out of the field by his own choice. The Mining Journal is not at this time acquainted with the purposes of the other four men. In the new Second ward Alderman Donovan will be a candidate, his term as a member from the old Second expiring this year. In the new Fifth former Mayor Ward is an avowed candidate. He got into the field without consulting Alderman Gustafson, the outgoing member in the old Seventh, and there will be a contest against him, Alderman Gustafson or some other man being the opposing candidate.

There was some talk about the city yesterday in connection with the charter amendments. It was so generally expected that the bills would be passed and approved by the governor that the news they had been made laws occasioned no surprise. There is some fault-finding in regard to them, but the volume is not very considerable.

CONSUMERS LUMBER CO. NEWLY INCORPORATED

CONCERN WILL TAKE OVER THE HOLDINGS OF THE MARQUETTE WOODENWARE COMPANY NORTH OF THE CITY.

The Consumers' Lumber company, with a capitalization of $55,000, has filed articles of association at the county clerk's office. The articles give the purposes of incorporation as the manufacture and sale of forest products and the buying and selling of building materials. The incorporators are James Penhill, Frank Penhill and Louis Penhill. The capital stock is divided into 3,500 shares of a par value of $10 each, the first named holding 3,498 shares and each of the others one share. The capital is all subscribed and paid in in property, it being the factory and machinery contained in it on Lot 288 of the Presque Isle addition to the city of Marquette, together with equipment and a quantity of lumber and building materials. James Penhill, the prime mover in the enterprise, was seen yesterday and he said that the activities of the Consumers' Lumber company are not expected to begin for some time yet, the incorporation being merely a formal preliminary to what is to follow. It is now a skeleton company which will at some future date take over the property mentioned, which is located in the northern part of the city.

The mill and machinery is now owned by the Marquette Woodenware company, which is made up of practically the same personnel. Mr. Penhill said that although the Marquette Woodenware company continues to operate under that title it discontinued the manufacture of woodenware articles some two years ago and sold the machinery for the manufacture of the finished products. Since that time it has devoted itself exclusively to the manufacture of lumber.

The name being considered unsuitable for the enterprise in prospect, the incorporation of the new company was effected, and it will embark on its active career this spring. The actual transfer of the holdings of the Marquette Woodenware company to the Consumers' Lumber company has not yet been made. As the makeup of both companies is practically the same the transfer will be a formality.

James Penhill will continue in charge of the plant and business of the Consumers' Lumber company. It is understood that it will conduct far more extensive operations than the old concern, and will make itself a factor in the local field.

per country a few weeks ago. It is capitalized at $250,000, with $100,000 paid in. It will make such investments as are recommended by Mr. Van Evera, who will be its field manager. He has two or three promising things in sight, and will look them over closely on getting established in Nevada, but of course the plans of the syndicate are not very definitely outlined at this early date.

Mr. Van Evera originally went west over a year ago, to represent the Begole Syndicate, which is still operating in the Nevada gold fields. He terminated his connection with that company just before his departure for home. His thorough knowledge of the field and his excellent judgment in regard to mining propositions makes him a valuable man for the American Mines Syndicate.
