

SCARE IS ENDED IN WALL STREET

Market Closes Strong and Buoyant, in Sharp Contrast to Thursday's Demoralization, and Values Show Wide Recoveries.

Tone Is Feverish at Times During the Session, and Reactions Occur, but Throughout There Is Heavy Buying, Much of It by Bargain Hunters Seeking Investment, and the Uplift of Prices Is Steady—A Jubilee on the Exchange an Unusual and Significant Climax.

New York, March 15.—An unusual scene was enacted on the floor of the stock exchange today, just after the market had closed strong and buoyant, in sharp contrast to the demoralization of yesterday.

Today's stock market opened strong and at much higher prices than yesterday's closing figures. Reading, leading with a rise of 11 points.

High Money of Little Effect. The trading continued active, with the general tone bullish throughout, even the 15 per cent money rate being of little effect.

Change in conditions from yesterday was outlined before the trading began here by the wide advances established in London.

Treasury Aid Appreciated. A good effect was produced by the orders of the secretary of the treasury after the closing of the market, although some doubt existed as to the practical result to the money market to follow.

Provision for a weak bank return tomorrow, a deficit below the legal requirements. The loss in cash is larger than the surplus as it existed last week, and it is believed by bankers that the loan contraction by the money market is a situation which has been fully offset by the special requirements for credits in connection with today's settlements.

This is the View of the Administration—Magnates Eager Now to "Ally" the Popular Agitation and to Bring About Co-Operation With the Executive—Change of Front in Striking Contrast to Efforts to Defeat the Rate Bill—Morgan's White House Conference Called Off.

Washington, March 15.—Great interest has been manifested in official circles at the announcement made by J. Pierpont Morgan after his visit to the White House that he had suggested to the president that it would be greatly to the public interest if he would see Mr. McCrea, Mr. Newman and Mr. Mellen, and confer with them as to what steps might be taken to "ally the public anxiety" now threatening to obstruct railroad investment and construction, and especially to ally public anxiety as to the relations between the railroads and the government.

FIENDISH MURDER. SHOCKING TRAGEDY AT RIPLEY, IN THE COPPER COUNTRY.

Joseph Hamell, Aged Twenty-Two, and Insane, Kills His Mother With a Stick of Fire Wood.

Young Hamell has been acting queerly since the death of his father three years ago. He was up before the other members of the family, his mother and sister, yesterday morning, and it was going that he prepared his own breakfast as he had been in the habit of doing for some time.

The young woman instinctively realized the trouble, and in desperate fear herself she ran down the stairs and back through the house to the kitchen door. She called her mother as she ran, but received no answer.

When the young woman ran out of the house into the snow, she was in her bare feet and was dressed only in a thin night robe. Miss Hamell ran down the hill leading from the house, screaming for help.

CAPTIVE RETURNING HOME. Neighbors telephoned to the sheriff, and Under Sheriff Vivian and Deputy Johnson came over from Houghton at once.

When Hamell was arrested, he was found in a state of extreme excitement, and he had been in the kitchen, the house of the victim, sister of the slayer, was seen by the Mining Journal shortly after the killing.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED.)

Entered as mail matter of the second class at the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Great fun, this stock market, for the innocent bystander.

Prospects for a peaceable election continue very fair. No one has yet threatened to make stump speeches.

What a kindly, chatty, companionable sort of a chap E. H. Harriman is getting to be, if you please.

The general public inclines to President Roosevelt's opinion—that the railroads themselves sowed the wind.

The Abbott voting machines has been used to record over 700 votes in one precinct in one day. It ought to be able to do all the work here April 1.

The Munising factions have also been "harmonized" for the township election.

However, Thaw's whole career antecedent to shooting Stanford White would indicate that his ideas of right and wrong were badly muddled even from birth.

Sentiment expressed in Houghton county leaves no doubt that if the matter was left to a popular vote the Calumet & Hecla company would be permitted to work out its plans in regard to Osceola in its own way and its own time.

Washington advises say that the railroads fear a federal reappraisal of their actual value. They are credited with apprehension that such an reappraisal would show up the water in their stocks.

Rejoicing to the criticisms of the Escanaba Journal, the Menominee Herald-Leader says that the editor of the Journal besought its publishers to hold up to the world Escanaba's civic shortcomings, so that the Journal might quote them with appropriate comment.

The Citizens' convention will be held Monday night. So far there are two candidates for mayor, two or more for recorder, numerous aspirants for nomination as aldermen and enough prospective supervisors to go around.

The upper peninsula cities can spare time enough from its own woes to feel sorry for Duluth. It seems to be generally accepted that Duluth was punished pretty hard in the slump in copper.

A good deal of this talk about the difficulty of using voting machines is fold-derol, offered by people who don't like the idea of using machines and who would like to have the whole subject tabled for all time.

SPLENDID FOR ALL OLD FOLKS

PRESCRIPTION TO RELIEVE BLADDER TROUBLE, WHICH ANYONE CAN MIX AT HOME.

Cut this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatever.

The prescription is simple, and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at every good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc.

As you or anyone of your family, especially the old folks, may be attacked at any time it would be wise to cut this out and save it.

A well-known local druggist is authority that this prescription is safe to use at any time.

much as the Abbott machines did effective work there they could do no less here. There is plenty of time to instruct the voters in their operation.

not a cent of extra expense is involved in the trial of the machines. If there is objection to using both the Abbott and U. S. Standard machines in one election, let the council abide by its original resolution to try the Abbott machines.

Negaunee's experience with them shows that they can do the work. If, as has been remarked, there is a good deal at stake in the coming election the experiences of last spring show that the advisable course is to secure fair results by using the voting machines.

Furthermore the great majority of the people appear to want to see them used.

The nomination of three supervisors-at-large, as provided for in the charter changes, is covered in the call for the Citizens' convention. It will be recalled that the present delegation to the county board recommended that Marquette elect only five supervisors, and that the council approve a resolution calling for the amendment of the amended charter to that end.

It should be possible to secure the approval of the necessary bill before election. Must use convention Monday night nominate supervisors-at-large? If it must, we suppose the men nominated could decline the nominations before election, if the proposed additional charter change is made.

The present supervisors say that five men can represent Marquette as effectively as eight, and they ought to know.

Senator La Follette has been at Ann Arbor, where he has delivered that Chautauque lecture which has so provoked the ire of his colleagues. He read his amendments to the rate control bill, and then the vote of the senators. Then he read other bills and other votes, and he called attention to the fact that the late Senator Alger and Senator Burrows were invariably lined up with the senators favorable, as a matter of principle, to the legislative ends of corporations.

In the eyes of the Michigan representation in the upper house the corporations have apparently had the right side of every contention. Governor La Follette's reception at Ann Arbor was a rousing one; he was not actually conservative, but his student audience appeared to like what he had to offer, nor did it take his implied reflections on Michigan's senatorial delegation amiss.

On the contrary, it seemed to act as if it believed there was something to them.

and now bids fair to direct the destinies of the new state to his own liking for some time to come. Incidentally he furnishes a fine lesson.

WHO'S TO BLAME?

One of the interesting questions discussed in connection with the very severe break in stocks this week has been "who's to blame?" Obviously it isn't the country that is to blame.

The declines are not due to a slackening in the activities of the mills and factories. The farmer is as prosperous as his recent average, and is looking forward to good crops.

Vast sections of the country have hardly known of the slump, so busy have they been with affairs absolutely divorced from stock trading.

It has been largely a Wall street and Boston affair, and while it has been going on orders have been received by the steel mills in the usual volume and large copper sales have been closed at twenty-five cents and better.

As the country is not to blame, and as its inherent good and prosperous condition has not in any way of looking at the matter justified the prices made this week, there has been a disposition to place the responsibility at the door of either the president or the railroads, or more properly speaking the financiers who have been controlling the railroads.

The latter in a general way assert that the president's policies and ideas have unsettled confidence; the president, on the other hand, holds that the unsettling influence has been wild financing, reckless management and disregard of public interest by the railroads themselves.

The public, The Mining Journal believes, and even much of the public that has been pinched in the recent declines, will be inclined to take the president's view of the case, and to hold that in his various messages and stands on matters of railroad legislation he has done nothing more than his duty.

When he began to cause the railroads to reckon with him they were quite beyond authority and the ordinary rules of doing business. They evaded, with scant pretense, federal statutes.

The public suffered direct abuses in discriminations and rates, and in the tribute it was forced to pay to monopolies fostered and abetted by the railroads.

It suffered indirect abuses in railroad interference with state legislatures and legislation.

When Mr. Roosevelt began his work it is hardly too much to say that the railroads were running riot. Even if his work was to cease today they have been largely curbed, by force of statute and public opinion.

Without a doubt the federal legislation incited much of the present injudicial state legislation, but it was none the less, in large measure, necessary, and if it has given rise to certain excesses beyond the president's control he nevertheless did a patriotic work in grappling with the situation vigorously, and embarking on it.

His was not the responsibility for the abuses calling for drastic action. This responsibility lay in the selfish financing of Mr. Harriman, the unscrupulous dishonesty of Mr. Rockefeller and associates in the Standard Oil, the constant participation of railroads in matters of state legislation, these and kindred abuses.

And now if confidence is unsettled, who is to blame? Mr. Roosevelt, who seeing wrong conditions determined to right them, if he could, or the men primarily responsible for the wrong conditions that had to be righted. The people's verdict favors Mr. Roosevelt.

And it may be said that the humbled attitude of the Harrimans and the Morgans is in itself a confession of fault. The once Sphinx-like Mr. Harriman becomes

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women.

Yes, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing.

Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments.

There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice.

Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y.

These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days trust on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them.

"Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps or money order, mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sent by letter, all such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorates and regulates stomach, liver and bowels.

MUNISING HURRY LABOR INVESTIGATION.

President Wants Report for Submission to Next Congress.

Washington, March 15.—The president has determined that the forthcoming investigation of the conditions under which women and children are employed in the industries shall be thorough.

He has impressed the bureau of labor that he would like to have the investigation completed within a year, so that the reports may be available for the use of congress at the next session, provided the legislative body shows a disposition to apply the remedy for the evils which are known to exist.

While the investigators will take them to the bureau of labor will not attempt to make a grant of women and children employed, they will in a general way attempt to ascertain about how many women and children are bread-winners.

While conditions are known to be bad enough the prevailing opinion among persons who have made some study of the situation is that there has been a deal of exaggeration as the result of the attempt to force federal regulation.

Statistics show that the total number of children between the ages of ten and fifteen years for whom an occupation was reported by the census in 1900 was 1,752,187.

In picturing the size of the army of child workers some persons have already used this total as an argument in favor of federal regulation.

This total represented the territory included in Alaska, Hawaii and the United States, military and naval stations outside the territory of the United States as well as all the United States proper.

The president's investigators will not include the country districts to ascertain total population of the territory, if the actual conditions under which these children, between the ages of ten and fifteen, and none of whom enjoy the fresh air and freedom of the country districts are employed.

The assignment of the president's investigators will take them to the manufacturing cities and to the anthracite coal country.

SET FIRE TO LOCKUP.

Wilburn Crothers performed some rather peculiar antics election night. The night watchman supposed he was intoxicated, and placed him in the lockup.

No sooner had the keys been turned on him than he began to break things up in an endeavor to smash his way out.

A little later great excitement was caused when he started a fire. The department was at once called out and responded promptly, checking the flames before any serious damage was done.

It was then that the officers identified Crothers as the insane youth who attacked the men in the Yalmar camp with an ax and stove poker, and he was put into the padded cell at the county jail.

Dr. G. A. Trueman gave Crothers a medical examination and pronounced him violently insane. During this examination he seized an opportune moment to spring at the deputy and but for the intervention of Dr. Trueman would have effected his escape.

The grandfather of the young man has been summoned from Yalmar camp, and is expected to make some definite arrangements in regard to caring for him.

SAVED HER SON'S LIFE.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." A Busted Illusion.

One of our customers writing from Lima, Ohio says: "I am now frank to confess after having the opportunity to visit some of the factories in Chicago and elsewhere, where they make the Rugs from old carpets, that conducting a 'Sanitary Factory' as you advertise is a point well taken after seeing how careful you were in preserving clean surroundings for your workmen and work during the summer. I have spent at Petoskey. In Chicago especially filth and dirt reign supreme and half paid weavers work on in an atmosphere laden with germs of Scarlet Fever, Diphtheria, Small Pox, and Consumption, which in turn are woven into the Rugs, often wonder if mothers give this a thought when sending Rug orders away through agents that possibly they are bringing into the home terrible germs to take away loved ones. You certainly deserve the patronage of thinking people and all I can do shall be very gladly done."

IS YOUR BLOOD ALL RIGHT?

In a little while people will begin to have "Spring Fever." You may have it. Why not take something now and purify your blood and tone up your system. When the spring fever strikes you you will feel drowsy, lose your appetite, have no ambition and just drag yourself around. That is a bad way to start in the Spring work. We make a Compound Blood Purifier and Tonic which we have been selling for a number of years and recommend highly as a spring remedy for people who are not in good condition, it cleanses the whole canal, tones up the digestive organs so that the blood nourishes it right. It stirs up the liver and kidneys so that they take the impurities out of the blood. If you are moping around now, you may be surprised at the different feeling which will come over you before you finish one bottle of this remedy. We don't want you to buy it unless you need it, but we do want you to buy it in place of patent medicines of the "Blood Elixir" type.

Howe's Moving Pictures—The Lyman H. Howe moving picture entertainment will be given this afternoon and evening at the Marquette Opera House. On former visits to the city the pictures have drawn good crowds and have been highly pleasing. They will doubtless be well received on this occasion. A number of new features have been added, and the standard of the entertainment is said to be higher than at any previous time.

Ice Moves Out—Some people believe that spring really has come. And conditions in Marquette bear out the supposition, for the weather this week has not been spring-like spring has certainly changed its form. Under the warm rays of the sun the snow has melted away rapidly and wagons have been the rule with many business houses this week, on account of the favorable condition of the streets. Street Commissioner French has been kept busy caring for the surplus water, and pedestrians have had trouble picking their way through the slush and mud on the walks. Yesterday the sheet of ice which had covered the open lake for some time broke off just outside of the breakwater and the detached portion moved out. Despite these all convincing signs of spring, the wise ones maintain that more cold weather is to come, and if Lake Superior weather conditions in former years are any basis for opinions there is some col- or to the belief that winter has not yet taken its final departure.

Last week, Mrs. Frances Kelsey, entertained the training school faculty and a few other guests at supper at which Miss Barnes was the guest of honor.

Mrs. Hadley who, for the past three months, has been visiting her daughter, Miss Theodora Hadley, of the training school faculty, returns today to her home in Indianapolis, Ind.

School closes next Friday for the spring vacation. All of the students from out of town are planning to go home, and several members of the faculty will spend the week out of the city.

The girls of each class, juniors and seniors, have now well organized teams for playing basketball. There are also some "scrub" teams and one day last week one of the regular teams experienced the shock of being beaten by one of the so-called "scrub" teams.

Mrs. James H. Kaye entertains about twenty ladies today at luncheon, in honor of Miss Henrietta J. Barnes, one of the members of the Normal faculty, who severs her connection with the institution at the close of this quarter, next week. Miss Barnes recently announced her engagement to Mr. E. L. Fields, of Duluth, Minn., and this social function is in the nature of a linen shower.

Miss Grace Allen Spalding left last evening at 6 o'clock for her home in Evanston, enroute for New York, from which place she will sail on March 23 for Italy. She will land in Naples and proceed from thence to Florence, where she will spend about two months. She goes partly for study, but chiefly on account of her health. We sincerely hope that the ocean voyage and the entire change of scene will do all for her that is hoped and that she will return to us in July in perfect health, and with mind and spirit refreshed and quickened from contact with the treasures of that center of the world's best art. As a means of hiding Miss Spalding God speed, Miss Turner, assistant in the art department, gave a small party last Wednesday evening in her honor.

FORESIGHT

There probably is no greater satisfaction to the honest working man than that of watching his interest bearing savings account gradually grow until it becomes a real bulwark between his family and sudden misfortune. You can do this without being a miser. In fact a man who is unnecessarily "close" is soon spotted by his neighbors and treated accordingly. If you are earning fair wages you can easily save money by being careful to cut off unnecessary and foolish expenses without interfering with your reasonable enjoyment. Every man should save by putting a part of his earnings into a good bank—there are three of them in this town—and adding to it as fast as he can. It is a duty he owes to those who are dependent upon him.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENTS

EXCELLENT PROGRAM FOR GATHERING THIS EVENING AT BARAGA AUDITORIUM IN MEMORY OF IRELAND'S SAINT.

Tomorrow is the feast day of Ireland's patron, Saint Patrick, and Marquette sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle will do full honor to his memory. On account of the fact that March 17 falls this year on Sunday, Irishmen the world over will today observe the day which is sacred among those who claim Erin as their birthplace, or that of their forefathers.

Tonight at the auditorium of the Baraga school, Marquette's Irish population will do its part toward observing St. Patrick's day. An entertainment will be given under the auspices of division No. 4, A. O. H., and the ladies auxiliary to the order, and an excellent musical and literary program has been arranged for the occasion. The committee has secured a wealth of talent, and every number selected is in good taste and appropriate.

The address of the evening will be given by Rev. Hugh Floyd of Eveleth, Minn., an orator with a wide reputation for eloquence and mentality. Father Floyd is a broad-minded scholar and a deep thinker, and his address this evening promises to be an interesting discussion of his theme.

ROSEATE PROSPECTS AT THE KIMBERLY

NEW PRESIDENT OF COMPANY, JAMES RUSSELL, ADDRESSED LOCAL STOCKHOLDERS LAST NIGHT.

James Russell, who was elected president of the Kimberly Mines company at the annual meeting held in Milwaukee the early part of this week, last night addressed a meeting of about 100 people, mostly stockholders, at the city hall on his recent visit to the mine, the conditions at the property, the plans of the new management and other matters of interest to the present and prospective stockholders.

All through his talk, Mr. Russell exhibited a marked optimism in regard to the prospects. With the utmost conservatism he was able to muster, making all due allowances, he asserted that in his mind there was no doubt that within two years the Kimberly will be paying its stockholders dividends of $2 a year. He minutely described the location of the mine and that of the Wilfley, which was recently purchased by the Kimberly company, and other mines in the vicinity. He went into figures on the production of the Wilfley, which is starting fifty tons of ore a day with what Mr. Russell termed "the most inadequate mill I ever saw at a mining property" and also went into figures to show where the Kimberly with its modern 250-ton mill must give its stockholders good returns, as its tunnel cuts the same vein on which the Wilfley has been working for years.

Mr. Russell described the Kimberly tunnel, which enters the side of the mountain between the two Wilfley tunnels on one side and that of the Breen property owned by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company on the other. After entering the tunnel to a depth of 1,800 feet, he said, his party encountered the body of ore, the vein being of the blanket, or flat, variety about 15 feet thick, 4,000 feet long and from 35 to 150 feet in width. It is on this contact that the Wilfley is working. He described another contact vein, some 300 feet lower down, which has been encountered and tested with a diamond drill. He also minutely described a fissure vein, which Mr. Scadden pronounces the richest feature of the property.

He pronounced the Kimberly mill, which will be completed in from four to six months, as one of the finest pieces of mill construction which he has seen, and went into the process of separation, which is perfect, and which is expected to accomplish much when the mill is put in operation.

Although the Wilfley mine has been in operation for about twenty-five years, Mr. Russell said that it is far from worked out and, although the values being taken from it are rich, they are not what they might be with good mining methods employed. He said that lax methods and obstacles in the shape of difficulties in the physical conditions, have retarded mining operations there, and with more modern methods employed mining in Kokomo will be revolutionized. He drew parallels to show that other camps have suffered in the same way, only to be brought into prominence by the application of modern methods by men of enterprise.

Having completed his lengthy description of the conditions at the property, Mr. Russell told of the management. He scored the former directorate, which, he said, counted for returns not so much on the development of the property as upon the sale of stock. He paid an eloquent tribute to Dr. Gregory of Marinette, the former treasurer and present secretary of the company, who alone, worked for the development of the property, while the Milwaukee directors were juggling the stock. Mr. Gregory succeeded in having the construction of the mill started, despite the obstacles placed in his way. He told of the Milwaukee meeting, at which the Milwaukee crowd were ousted from control and compelled to return 60,000 shares of misappropriated stock to the treasury.

Mr. Russell said that the 100,000 shares of stock of the additional issue which was voted, will not be issued. Instead, the 60,000 shares now in the treasury will be allotted to present stockholders, one share of additional stock for every four now held. The stock will be sold at $5, of which $2 is payable April 1 and the remainder thirty days later.

The company now has a contract with the Wilfley management to purchase the Wilfley mine, as soon as the payments are made. Under the original plan, the payments would be completed about August 1, but with the present prospects and the new stock issue, Mr. Russell believes it will be possible to secure the Wilfley about May 1. The treasury at present holds sufficient funds to complete the rebuilding of the mill and take care of the payroll and, in short, the financial affairs are in the best of condition.

After Mr. Russell's talk, Dr. Gregory of Marinette answered a number of questions asked by stockholders present, in regard to the Wilfley and other mines in the vicinity and different details of the Kimberly property. Dr. Sawbridge of Stephenson, a director and the new treasurer of the company, gave a short talk, which was well received. John Carlson, who recently visited the property, also gave a short talk in which he said there was little to add to what had already been said. In answer to a question, he said nothing had been misrepresented and he would corroborate every statement.

KRUSE FOR MAYOR.

Lake Angeline Mining Man Will Head Citizens' Party Ticket.

Charles T. Kruse, who has been repeatedly solicited to accept the nomination for mayor during the past ten years or more, is a candidate, and it is altogether likely that he will receive the nomination on the Citizens' ticket. Mr. Kruse advised The Mining Journal yesterday that he had been urged by so many of his friends to enter the race that he had decided to do so. It is generally conceded that Mr. Kruse will make a strong candidate. He is personally known to a great many of the voters. His business ability is well known, and it is certain that he will make an able executive officer in the event of his election.

John S. Olson, whose name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination, yesterday said that he is not a candidate. Many of Mr. Olson's friends have called to see him, assuring him that they would give him their most hearty support, if he consented to enter the race. But Mr. Olson is very busy looking after his end of the business of the A. W. Myers Mercantile company, and said he could not think of entering the race.

With Mr. Kruse in the field, and practically assured the nomination, the principal contest at the Citizens' party convention will be for the nomination for municipal judge, for which there are a number of candidates. There may also be several candidates for the nomination for city treasurer, though none have yet been announced.

Neither party has yet called its caucuses or convention, nor have any public meetings been arranged for. The demoralization of the stock market the past few days has attracted such widespread attention that many have no time for politics.

WILL CAMP AT LUDINGTON.

Michigan National Guard Will This Year Assemble at Old Place.

Some of the members of Co. I, Michigan National Guard, learned through an official source, that Ludington has been decided upon as the place of the state encampment in August. Grand Haven, Saginaw and Lansing made an effort to induce the state military board to decide in favor of giving them the meeting, but it is assumed that the board considers Ludington the most desirable place. So far as the members of Company I are concerned they had no choice in the matter as none of them have an opportunity to attend one of the annual outings. When the company was organized last spring the members expected that they would be allowed to attend the encampment at Indianapolis, but the organization was not far enough advanced in its work.

It also reported that the department will send two regiments of the United States regulars to take part in the maneuvers during the state encampment at Ludington. The granting of the request of the military board for the regulars is considered a big favor by the state officials, as it has been known that the number of troops now stationed in this country, hesitated to let any of them leave their regular stations.

The plan to have the several bodies of Michigan troops camp with the regulars at Fort Royal, or some other point, has been abandoned, as sufficient numbers have not been available for the purpose. The regulars are either doing duty in Cuba, the Philippines or at home stations, and it is said that the war department does not wish to disturb the present arrangement.

"THE LION AND THE MOUSE."

It is not often that theater-goers of this city are given so great a treat in a theatrical way as the presentation here March 26, by Henry B. Harris, of one of the greatest plays ever produced in America, "The Lion and the Mouse."

The play is by Charles Klein, author of "The Music Master." It deals with the money interests and politics of the country adverse to social welfare. John Burckett Ryder, in order to better serve his ends in the amassing of the greatest fortune ever controlled by a single man, resorts to foul means to unseat a judge of the supreme court, who has rendered decisions unfavorable to his schemes. While Ryder is the leader of men and rules the financial situation, treading every man's opinion under his golden heels, he is thwarted in his plans by a girl, the daughter of this judge. The play is one of vital interest, picturing realistically and truthfully the political and financial situation of the present day.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a cutter created some excitement on Cleveland avenue yesterday afternoon. It got away from the driver and traveled along the sidewalk for some distance, passing in front of the Branstad block, where a part of the cutter struck a plate glass window, breaking a small hole in it. The front of the cutter came in contact with the corner stone between the Branstad and theater blocks, the horse breaking away and continuing its flight as far as North Fifth street, making a circuit from there around several blocks before it was captured. A woman walking in front of the Branstad block narrowly escaped being run down by the horse.

A GOOD TIME TO GET A PIANO.

The prices are being slaughtered and terms of payment arranged to suit everybody. A large mahogany upright piano that cost three hundred dollars is offered for $165. Good used parlor organs for $15 to $25. It will pay anyone that expects to buy within two years to get in at this sale. Store open evenings. (3-16-07) ment by Howe's company. The pictures, all of which were new here, were received with enthusiasm.

A number of men were employed yesterday making openings at the outer edge of the sidewalks on Main street and Cleveland avenue so that the water can pass to the catch basins of the sewer system. There is over two feet of snow in places on both thoroughfares.

A large attendance is expected at the concert to be given this evening at the Ishpeming theater, under direction of some of the Finnish people of this city. The program to be rendered is an exceptionally fine one.

DIED AT ROCKLAND.

The remains of Stephen Tuman, a former resident, who died Wednesday at Rockland, Mich., will be received here this morning on the early train. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock under auspices of Court Pride Ancient Order of Foresters.

ANNUAL SCHOOL EXHIBIT. Display Will Be Held and Exercises Conducted Friday of Next Week.

Friday, March 22, the regular classroom work of all the grades of the schools will be omitted and the entire day will be given up to the annual exhibit and special exercises. Three years ago Superintendent Schurtz, as an experiment, with the hope of inducing the public to visit the schools and thus becoming acquainted with their methods and the results obtained, introduced the innovation of devoting two entire days to an exhibit of school work, together with programs of music and class work as actually carried on daily in the schools. These annual school fairs, as they might be called, have proved to be very popular, and interesting to the public. At the same time they have become great incentives to teachers and pupils. Both compare their work as it appears in the exhibit with that of the corresponding grades in other buildings, with the result that all are inspired to do their best.

This year but one entire day will be given to the exhibit. Friday forenoon there will be a program of music from 10 to 10. In the afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock the program will consist of three exercises to show the methods and devices used in teaching reading through the first, second and third grades; interspersed with plenty of music. The musical program will be given entirely by the lower grades; that of the afternoon, with one exception by the higher grades. Both programs will be given in the high school assembly room.

The exhibit will be in the office, third grade room and first floor hall of the Cass street school. The building will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and it is hoped that everybody will find time during the day to inspect the display of work, dropping in for a few minutes at least.

MIGHT BUILD SPUR LINES.

J. W. Barber, secretary of the Lake Superior Railway Construction company, which contemplates the building of an interurban railway between this city and Marquette, was here yesterday. When asked what he thought of the suggestion relative to the building of a line over the old state road from Eagle Mills to the Rolling mill and Mary Charlotte mining locations, and then into the city proper, instead of following the course outlined, entering the city from the east, he said that this matter had been considered to some extent, but the cost of constructing would be greater over that route than over the one for which right of way privileges are now being obtained.

Several additional miles of track would have to be laid, and besides it might be necessary to build some expensive trestles to cross over the railroad lines. "If the present plans of the promoters of our company are carried out it is possible that we will construct spur lines to the mining locations mentioned, also to South Marquette," said Mr. Barber. "We have been asked to consider the extension of the main line around by South Marquette, but in doing this we would also be obliged to construct several miles of track which would add not only to the first cost of the property but would be a continuous source of additional expense. My idea is to use small cars, say about thirty-four feet in length, on these spurs, while on the main system our cars will not be less than fifty-four feet long and perhaps we may procure the sixty-four feet cars. Our schedule on the spurs would be so arranged as to make close connection with the cars on the main system."

"I am not prepared to say at what point we can secure a desirable crossing over the railway in opposition to extend a spur line to the mining locations. I think, however, that we can find a place where we can cross beneath the railway instead of erecting trestles over them. This matter will not be given attention until after all the other details in connection with the main system are worked out."

Will Wagner, president of the Construction company, who is well known in this section, is expected here next Thursday on one of his regular business trips.

WANT GLEASON FOR MAYOR.

Michael Gleason, a former merchant of Republic, who left there some years ago, locating at Gladstone, will most likely be a nominee for mayor in opposition to the present official. Mr. Gleason retired from the mercantile business some time ago and he has since been taking life easy. He is not seeking the nomination but a number of prominent Gladstone men are trying him to make the run, and it is said that he has practically consented to do so.

C. E. Emerson, of Edgewood, N. H., had two attacks of pneumonia in one winter. He writes that two physicians said he could not recover from the last attack. After they had given up hope he began taking Foley's Honey and Tar, which brought him out all right. He writes that he surely thinks Foley's Honey and Tar is the grandest remedy for throat and lung troubles. The Stafford Drug Co.

of Negaunee people to Iron street, this afternoon, but the usual work will be continued at the mines. Iron street is in good condition for the events and it is expected that the races will be the biggest kind of a success. Many favorable comments were heard yesterday on the device to be used in the team pulling contest and, it is expected that there will be a large number of entries.

ISHPEMING

FROM HOPKINS' CURB LETTER.

"The shrinkage in paper values of Amalgamated, Calumet & Hecla, Calumet & Arizona, Superior & Pittsburg, Greene-Canaan and North Butte from March 1st to and including March 14th, amounted to $96,850,000. This is carrying the readjustment of values on with a vengeance. There is nothing of a statistical nature to justify such a shake out, but the panicky condition of all markets started liquidation at a time when the trade was not prepared to take advantage of the real bargains, and at the low price of yesterday the shrinkage totaled as above. There was a sharp recovery all along the line today; apparently this resulted from short covering about as much as from any other cause. Any aid that has been extended to the market is only temporary, but will tide the market over until the panicky sentiment has disappeared. We do not believe it will be profitable to become too enthusiastic at this time, as we are not out of the woods yet."

LEAGUE CONTEST ENDED.

C. C. I. Co. Team Won Final Game in League Series Thursday Evening.

The ten team bowling tournament, conducted the past three months at Orr & Tompkins' alleys, was completed Thursday evening, the C. C. I. Co. team and the Cubs playing the final game. The former was by 100 pins. The league contest was the most successful ever conducted here, interest having been maintained from start to finish. In former years many postponements of matches were necessary on account of non-attendance, but on only a few occasions during the series just closed have substitutes been used. The Wolves, who carried off the honors, are composed of the youngest bowlers in the city and their work all the way through the series was remarkably good, considering their age and experience. The team lost but one match. The standing of the teams, and percentages was as follows:

Team	W	L	P.C.
Wolves	9	8	1.889
Ravens	9	7	2.778
Green Sox	9	6	3.667
C. C. I. Co.	9	5	4.556
Cubs	9	4	5.445
Indians	9	4	5.445
Stars	9	4	5.445
White Sox	9	4	5.445
Eagles	9	2	7.222
Owls	9	2	7.222

GIRLS DOING WELL.

That Negaunee has an attractive lot of young Finnish girls is evident from the many who have been married during the past few months and from the number who now contemplate matrimony. During the past few days two of the Finnish sales women at the Savings Bank Store, also at Rosen Bros. & Kline's store, have resigned, giving their reason that they are soon to be married. It is also said that a number of the servant girls, some of them not over from the old country more than a few months, contemplate marriage.

LOCAL LAONICS.

C. H. Kimball of Marinette was a visitor here yesterday.

A regular meeting of the Catholic Order of Foresters will be held tomorrow afternoon.

A number of social functions are on the tapis for the first two weeks following Easter.

The employees of the Negaunee, Mass and Michigan mines, operated by the Cleveland-Tracy Iron company, were paid yesterday for last month's work.

The flow of water into the sewers has been so great the past few days that water has entered the basements in several places, doing some damage.

Linnea Lodge of the S. H. N. E. F. will meet hereafter in Boulson's hall instead of Shea's hall. The meetings are held every Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

The Frank Tucker company was greeted by a fairly large audience last evening at McDonald's opera house. The company will finish its engagement here this evening.

MORE FUNDS FOR SALVATION ARMY

COMMITTEE OF BUSINESSMEN TAKES UP SOLICITING OF FUNDS FOR ARMY CORPS.

ARMY DOING GOOD WORK

Danger of Captain Corliss Being Removed from Local Field Prompts Citizens to Come to the Aid of the Organization.

A self-constituted committee of three prominent businessmen and citizens of Marquette will today begin calling on people in the interests of the Salvation Army. Those whom they interview will be asked to sign a pledge to pay a certain amount each month for the support of the local corps and its relief work. The committee will call on every man in the city whom they would expect to be able and willing to help in the support of this good cause.

The movement is brought about by the fact that the Marquette corps of the Salvation Army is in anything but a satisfactory financial condition. It has fallen considerably behind in its current expenses, and the head divisional officers had about decided to remove Captain Frank Corliss to some larger city, since Marquette was not willing to do its part in assisting him in his work. The situation was reported to a Front street businessman, and he immediately took the matter up.

He enlisted two others in the cause. They called on Captain Corliss, who showed them his books and explained the situation thoroughly. He showed that in carrying on the work which he has done in the city he has been seriously handicapped by lack of funds. His monthly revenue from all sources is now barely $85, the current expenses of the corps and the relief is over twice that amount. Captain Corliss, his wife and son, are actively engaged in the work at all times, but since he has been in Marquette the captain has drawn only about half of his regular salary, and the regular expenses of the relief have not been as they should have been, although several hundred dollars have been spent in improvements. Captain Corliss said that, though he would like to remain in Marquette and continue his work, he cannot do so under present conditions, but will be removed to another city.

Captain Corliss' Good Work.

Marquette people do not want to have Captain Corliss leave, and those who have taken up the work believe that they can secure pledges enough to put the Army on a good financial basis here, and to ensure the continuance of Captain Corliss in charge. When the captain came to Marquette, the Salvation Army was not in favor in the city. The corps formerly located here devoted itself purely to the spiritual work of the Army, and attempted no relief whatever. The corps was run down and Captain Corliss was sent here either to put it on a firm basis again, or to close up its affairs entirely in Marquette. He determined on an attempt at the former. There are two classes of Salvation Army officers. Those who engage solely in spiritual work and those who combine spiritual and social endeavor. Captain Corliss was of the latter class, and he hoped to put the army in good standing in Marquette.

He arrived in the city about three and one-half years ago and found himself in a peculiarly unpleasant situation. Sentiment was more against the army than for it. Captain Corliss, by his straight forward manner and evident earnestness and sincerity, succeeded in gaining the good will of some of the citizens, and he began his difficult task. Previous to his arrival charitable work here was carried on by an organization known as the Associated Charities. The first Christmas Captain Corliss spent in Marquette, he took in charge the distribution of the Christmas offerings of the Associated Charities, and his methods were so greatly superior to those of the layman that it was but shortly after that the Associated Charities turned over its entire list to him, and promised him the aid in his work.

Since that time Captain Corliss has had charge of practically all the relief work in the city, and he has succeeded well. The ladies of the Associated Charities aided him splendidly and continue to do so, and the application of systematized methods in distributing charity has proved beneficial to the community at large. When the Associated Charities turned over their list of regular recipients of bounty at their hands, there were ninety. Captain Corliss began a weeding out process and it was not long before the imposters were dropped from the list. Now it has been reduced to about thirty-seven, and none who were deserving have been dropped.

Nearly three years ago Captain Corliss opened the relief mission on Front street. A reading room was established, lodging rooms for unfortunates, who need a night's rest and have not the money with which to secure it, and regular relief quarters were opened. One would be surprised to look over Captain Corliss' lodging roster and find how many take advantage of the opportunities afforded them by the lodging rooms of the army. Night after night unfortunates call for relief and when they are deserving it is cheerfully given.

Work Is Appreciated.

"We do not want to see Captain Corliss leave Marquette and we feel certain that we can secure pledges enough to show his superior officers that the people of Marquette appreciate the army and want him to remain in charge of its branch here," said one of the members of the committee yesterday. "The relief work carried on by the army is a benefit to the community at large and the businessmen of the city know it. The Associated Charities carried on the work formerly, but thorough investigation of every case was impossible, and there were consequently many imposters and much misplaced charity."

"Since Captain Corliss took charge of the relief work, it has been carried on most efficiently and everybody who has the least interest in such work fully appreciates the fact. System is as necessary in the distribution of charity as in any business, and the Salvation Army, with its excellent methods, has done so much good in this city that it deserves the support of every citizen. "We will begin right away and ask everyone we can reach to contribute to the good cause. We will not ask much from each man, but if everyone will contribute a small amount each month the work can be amply financed. We have not done our duty in this matter heretofore, and if we do not do it now I know we will regret the fact. So I look for ready responses and for a continuance of Captain Corliss' residence and good work in our midst."

CHAMPION HIGHS WIN.

Marquette Boys Defeated at Basketball Last Night, 27 to 24.

A large crowd saw the Champion High school basketball team defeat the Marquette Highs at Fraternity Hall last night by a score of 27 to 24. Though considerably lighter than the local boys, the Champion players just a little more than held their own almost entirely through the game and the lead they secured in the last few minutes could not be overcome. They had a system of team play, which non-plussed the local boys time and again and resulted in baskets. The Marquette team led at the end of the first half by a score of 13 to 12, but in the second period, the Champions took the lead and held it to the end.

The teams lined up as follows: Marquette—Center, Penhill; forwards, Bracegirdle, Higbee and Drake; guards, Vandersberg, Higbee and Fraser. Champion—Center, Mitchell; forwards, Simmons and Nord; guards, Chartrand and Dube; substitutes, Johnson and Villeneuve.

Umpires—Mr. Brink of Marquette and Mr. Caldwell of Champion. Timekeeper, George Barnes. This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Normal gymnasium, the Champion team will meet the Normal aggregation. The Champion team will use the same line-up as that of last evening, while the Normals will line up as follows: Center, Catlin; right forward, Barnes; left forward, Primeau; right guard, Yager; left guard, LeVeque.

SPRING FASHIONS.

We are exclusive agents in Marquette for Hart, Schaffner & Marx, makers of high quality Clothes for Men.

This make of Clothing is designed to meet the requirements of the critical who will wear the ready-made article, not wholly for the reason that the price is lower than the tailor charges, but because Hart, Schaffner & Marx label on a garment insures the material to be absolutely all wool, the interlinings to be the best that money can buy, the style all that skilled expert designers can produce. Besides all this, it's most satisfactory to try the ready-made garments on. We have them in plain colors, stripes, checks and mixtures, Grays, Blacks, Blues, Browns, etc. You can see how the different cuts and different colors appear on your form.
