PITCHED BATTLE FOUGHT AT 'FRISCO

Attempt to Operate Cars Results in a Bloody Conflict in the Business District of the Pacific Coast Metropolis.

Mob Attacks With Bricks and Paving Stones, and Strike Breakers and Railway Guards Reply With Bullets, Shooting Into the Crowds Indiscriminate- ly Until the Police Put a Stop to the Affray—Fifteen Men Are Wounded, Some Mortally.

San Francisco, May 7.—A pitched battle between strike breakers in the uniforms of car inspectors, and strikers and their sympathizers, was fought this afternoon on Turk street for more than an hour. Fifteen men were shot, among them Policeman Harry Sauer and Detective Sergeant Bell. One man—James Walsh—died tonight, and several others are in critical condition.

The shooting was done by strike breakers from car windows in response to a "shower of paving stones and bricks hurled at them that headed the strike. The cars block after block, picking up their wounded as they ran.

The deadly affray was the outcome of the first attempt of the United Railroads to run passenger cars out of their Turk and Fillmore street yards at 2:30 o'clock p. m. An Associated Press man who rode on horseback behind a string of cars saw four men shot from car windows. The first shot was fired at the intersection of Turk and Buchanan streets by a guard from the rear platform of the car that headed the strike of seven. The bullet struck a young man standing on the curb and inflicted a flesh wound in his arm. The shot was not fired until most of the windows of the car had been smashed with stones, several of which had struck and severely bruised some of the guards on board.

Mob Aroused to Frenzy.

The shooting of this man aroused the mob to a pitch of frenzy. Paving stones and other obstructions were cast on the track, and in that way the car was brought to a standstill a block further on. Hurling any missiles that came easiest to hand, and cursing and screaming for the lives of the strike breakers, hundreds of men and boys surrounded the car. In a moment a fusillade of shots rang out, and the crowd fell back in fear. The obstructions were cleared away and the car proceeded, followed by two others.

The sound of the shots apprised the main crowd in the neighborhood of Fillmore and Webster streets that a battle was on, and more than 1,000 men and boys came running down Turk street in pursuit of the strike breakers, and again into the crowd indiscriminately as showers of stones struck and injured them.

At Van Ness avenue a youth was shot through the lungs. He pitched forward into the street, where he was lifted and thrown onto a mattress in a furniture van and hurried to the Emergency hospital. The mob, checked but not dismayed by the rain of bullets, kept up running in pursuit of the cars, stoning them and cursing the guards.

Police Restore Order.

Just beyond Van Ness avenue the first squad of police arrived in a patrol wagon. The mob stopped them, too, but presently desisted on being implored not to do so by union pickets. The policemen tried to persuade the maddened crowd to disperse, but without effect. Three blocks further on the curbs again turned loose their weapons on the crowd. In the fusillade a policeman was shot in the back, presumably by accident. None of the strikers or their sympathizers exhibited pistols or used weapons other than stones and bricks.

The first two cars succeeded in getting as far as Market street, where the officers arrested the guards and took them to headquarters. Police reinforcements were rushed to the scene of the fighting. They clubbed the mob right and left, and the crowd broke and ran. All the wounded men were removed to the Emergency hospital.

The following is a list of the injured: Thomas White; Police Officer Harry Sauer; F. Joy; J. Krolmer; William Sittary; J. Arona; C. Johns; E. Leisch; N. Granville; G. M. McNaughton; Tom Buchanan, shot in the abdomen; Tom Buchanan, shot in the neck; C. W. Forrester; Detective Sergeant Bell; Alta Palm, shot in the back; may die. James Welsh, another injured man, died this evening.

More Bloodshed Feared Today.

The military officials tonight announced the intention to attempt to resume the operation of the cars tomorrow morning. It is feared that the bloody events of today may be repeated with even more tragic results.

General Manager Mullaly said tonight that when the attorneys for the railroads visited the Central police station to request admittance to bail of the strike breakers under arrest, for shooting strikers and their sympathizers, Chief of Police Dinan said: "Tomorrow I shall arm the police with rifles. If any strike breakers start any shooting from the cars, they will be shot in turn by the police." Thirteen strike breakers were arrested. Three were released on bail and the remainder held awaiting developments.

Mayor Schmitz said tonight that there is no need of troops, that the police are able to handle the situation. The police have been ordered to arrest anybody carrying arms, concealed or otherwise.

wise. The men who go out on the cars will not be permitted to carry weapons.

Governor Watching the Situation.

Los Angeles, May 7.—"I will not call out the militia to quell the riots in San Francisco until the civil authorities have asked me to do so, or until I am satisfied from my own investigations that there is no other way to handle the situation," said Governor Gillette tonight. "I am watching the situation closely and will act the moment I believe it is necessary. If the riots go on, and the police are unable to stop it, I will call out the militia. There will be no child's play about it either, if I take action. I will see that the riots are stopped and stopped at once."

BRYAN'S TOWN DEMOCRATIC.

Mayor Brown Re-elected by a Majority of Thirty-One Votes.

Lincoln, Neb., May 7.—In a total of 5,241 votes cast in Lincoln's municipal election, today, Mayor Brown, Democrat, received a majority of thirty-one over Alderman Hutton, Republican.

TOGA NOT FOR LENROOT.

Superior Candidate Withdraws from the Wisconsin Senatorial Race.

Madison, Wis., May 7.—Irvine L. Lenroot, of Superior, withdrew from the senatorial race tonight. He made no request as to the future course of his followers.

The last ballot for senator this evening resulted: Stephenson, 18; Esch, 15; Lenroot, 14; Cooper, 13; Hatten, 12; Scattering, 7.

CHICAGO STRIKE GROWS.

Chicago, May 7.—Two thousand hod carriers and building laborers today joined the strike of bricklayers who yesterday walked out, demanding a Saturday payday. The total number of men out is five thousand.

SHOOTS AND KILLS A FAMILY OF SIX

WALTER DAVIS' BLOODY DEED IN A FIT OF INSANITY AT SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, May 7.—Walter Charles Davis, a carpenter, in a fit of insanity today shot and killed a family of six persons with whom he lived. The dead were: One R. Bush, aged fifty-seven. The wife and son of Bush. W. S. Bard, a carpenter. M. E. Simon, a surveyor. Mrs. Lillian D. Carrother, an elderly woman boarder.

Davis and the victims all resided with the Bush family, who conducted a boarding house. Davis' home was in Farmerville, this state, where he had a wife and six children. The man thought the people had formed a plot to kill him and take his money. He was arrested.

Ends His Life on a Train.

Falls City, Neb., May 7.—A man about thirty years old, unknown and with nothing on his person to identify him, cut his throat on a Burlington train this afternoon shortly after it left Napier, Mo. He died as he was taken from the train here.

STABBED WOMAN TO DEATH.

Springfield, Mo., May 7.—The jury in the case of Garland Moore, who stabbed a woman to death because she jilted him, returned a verdict this afternoon, finding him guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing the punishment at twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

CHICAGO FIRE COSTS $300,000.

Chicago, May 7.—A seven-story brick building at the corner of Washington and Canal streets, occupied by Morley Bros., wholesale saddlery and hardware, burned tonight. The loss is $300,000.

$25,000,000 LEFT BY SILENT SMITH

TERMS OF THE WILL ARE MADE PUBLIC—A NEPHEW THE PRIN- CIPAL BENEFICIARY.

New York, May 7.—Funeral services for the late James H. Smith, the millionaire who died in Japan while on his wedding trip, were held in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church today. The body was taken in a special train to Woodlawn cemetery for burial. The church was only partially filled, but a crowd of curious people gathered in the street about the church.

New York, May 7.—The will of the late James Henry Smith was made public tonight. The value of the estate is not more than $25,000,000. It gives his wife $3,000,000; her daughter, Anita Stewart, a life interest in 500 St. Paul railway 4 per cent bonds of $1,000 each; his sister May, Lady Cooper, wife of Sir George Cooper, a life interest in 1,000 St. Paul 4 per cent bonds of $1,000 each; his sisters, Mrs. Victor Rossbach and Mrs. John Mills, $250,000 each.

In trust for the son of his brother, George Alexander Smith of Evanston, Ill., $500,000 is left. To George Simpson Eddy and Thomas Eddy, of Chicago, $100,000 each; to his niece, Mrs. Lucy Mason Vose, $250,000; to Mrs. Wm. Farr, of Kenosha, $50,000; to St. Luke's hospital, $100,000; to the Orthopedic hospital, New York, $100,000.

The nephews, George Grant Mason and William Smith Mason, receive two-thirds and one-third, respectively, of the residuary carrying arms, concealed or otherwise.

HOME RULE BILL IS DISAPPOINTING

British Government's Measure, Long in Course of Considera- tion, Is Finally Presented to Commons and the Country.

Designed to Meet Demands of the Nationalists, and Regarded by the Unionists as a Step to Self- Rule, It Falls Far Short of the Expectations of Redmond and His Associates and Is Criticised and Ridiculed by Balfour in Behalf of the Opposition.

London, May 7.—The government today presented its long awaited Irish bill to the commons and the country. The measure is designed to meet the demands for Irish home rule. It was presented by the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Birrell. Compared with the home rule bills of 1886 and 1893, the measure is a step to self-government upon Ireland, merely giving to the council control of the eight departments now managed by government boards.

The council is to be appointed by the crown, and while the lord lieutenant of Ireland is given power to nullify its measures, the crown retains control of five of the eight departments, including the constabulary. The control of this branch has always been a thorn in the flesh of the Irish people.

The Unionists regard the measure as a step to home rule. They object to giving to Ireland the management of many departments of local affairs while the Irish members of commons retain the right to legislate in similar affairs for England and Scotland. They criticize the plan of government by a council through eight committees as complicated and cumbersome.

The radicals are disappointed that the measure falls so short of actual home rule, and the Irish members are even more disappointed with it. The Irish leaders, however, are maintaining a diplomatic attitude until they have had time to study the provisions of the bill and learn the sentiment of the people.

After the bill had been presented and explained by Mr. Birrell, it was criticized and ridiculed by A. J. Balfour on behalf of the opposition. John E. Redmond delivered a brilliant speech, noteworthy principally for its dignified and forceful exposition of Ireland's claim for complete home rule.

Notable Assemblage Present.

The audience of the speakers was worthy the historical and parliamentary occasion. The entire ministry occupied seats in the front benches. The floor of the house was packed, and the galleries held a notable assemblage, including a number of peers, several of the visiting colonial premiers, notably Alfred Deakin, premier of Australia, and several bishops. W. Bourke Cochran, of New York, was an interested spectator. Members of the Irish clergy were conspicuous in the galleries.

Most of Mr. Birrell's speech was an explanation of the details of the plan, although in the beginning he eloquently contrasted his position with that of Mr. Gladstone in presenting home rule, calling his task a more humble one and more commensurate with his position and powers.

Secretary Birrell rose to oratorical height when he described the present system of Irish administration. He called Dublin castle a failure, saying: "There it stands, remote, melancholy, without a friend, while the current of Irish life sweeps past. No governor had entered, he continued, the gloomy portals of Dublin castle without a sinking heart almost equivalent to abandoning hope."

Parnell had said that one way to govern Ireland was to send a man there to hold the balance between the two sides and administer the country in a spirit of courage and independence, but the government had no such man in its eye. "I would rather write the biography of a deceased autocrat," Mr. Birrell said, "than live under his rule. Such men do not make good history."

The chief secretary for Ireland continued with a long explanation, going minutely into the details. In conclusion, he said:

Paves Way to Self-Rule.

"The government has been told that the bill paved the way for home rule, if the bill is passed and the new councils are a success, then I dare say it might have the way. On the other hand, its failure might present considerable obstacles; but surely the Unionists will not refuse Ireland an opportunity for training her people to acquire any right they ought to have, because, if the measure proves successful one of the difficulties in the way of home rule will have been removed."

After Mr. Balfour had spoken for the opposition, John Redmond, the Irish leader, while expressing a desire to extend the bill through the commons before announcing the Nationalists' position, said that as home rulers they were justified in regarding the scheme as consistent with the maintenance of their aspirations, and he proceeded to criticize certain sections. He said, however, that as the measure showed itself workable, even with moderate success, his party would gladly accept it.

Chicago Irishmen Criticize.

Chicago, May 7.—Speaking of the home rule bill introduced into the British parliament today, William Dillon of this city said today: "The main objection to the scheme is that it does not vest in the council any power of appointing the judges of the supreme court of the jurisdiction at Dublin, and not any power over the Dublin police or the Irish constabulary. This defect is so great in

Capetown, May 7.—Finding it useless further to resist the German troops, 15,000 Herero tribesmen, according to information received here today from German Southwest Africa, decided to attempt to move northward with the object of establishing a settlement in the Lake Ngami region, but only 4,000 of the natives reached their destination after terrible sufferings, the remaining 11,000 having perished from starvation.

Agreement Reached With Britain.

Berlin, May 7.—Germany and Great Britain have reached an agreement concerning their various South African controversies which gives reason for hope that any differences of opinion arising in the future will be settled in friendly manner. The negotiations that resulted in this understanding took place in London between Kerr Ven Lindquist, governor of German Southwest Africa, and Dr. Jameson, premier of Cape Colony.

CABINET CRISIS AVERTED.

Government of France Temporarily Patches Up Its Dissensions.

Paris, May 7.—The dissensions in the Clemenceau cabinet evidently have at least been temporarily patched up. When parliament reassembled today the attitude of the Moderate Republicans was more friendly, and the prevailing impression was that the ministry would successfully defeat the assault planned by the members of the Extreme Left, supported by that section of the Radicals in the leadership of M. Polletan.

Incendiary Placards Posted.

Paris, May 7.—A manifesto signed by 100 members of the Anti-Military League, appealing to the soldiers to join the proletariat and fight against capital, was placarded on the walls of Paris during the night. The authors will be arrested and prosecuted.

MEXICO MAKES ULTIMATUM STRONGER

NEW DEMAND IS SENT TO GUATE- MALA, INSISTING UPON THE SURRENDER OF GEN. LIMA.

Mexico City, May 7.—According to the state department today the Guatemalan question remains unchanged. The minister of foreign affairs said that the diplomatic relations between the two countries had been broken off. Mexico has sent another and stronger note to Guatemala, insisting upon the delivery of General Lima. What will happen in the case of a second refusal on the part of Guatemala is a matter not discussed in official circles. Those well informed consider that the situation is growing graver hourly.

Guatemala Suggests Arbitration.

Washington, May 7.—The Guatemalan minister, Senor Herrero, has suggested to his government by cable that it would be wise to offer to arbitrate the differences between Mexico and Guatemala that threaten a complete rupture of diplomatic relations upon the delivery of General Lima. The minister was at the state department this afternoon and had a long conference with the officials in regard to this issue between the two countries. It is pointed out that both Mexico and Guatemala are already parties to the treaty framed at the Pan-American conference in the city of Mexico, by the terms of which they agreed to submit to arbitration every issue that should arise between them with the exception of questions of national honor and those relating to hostile invasion.

Local Option in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., May 7.—The house today passed the local option bill, which now goes to the governor for action. It repeals the Chicago charter bill and pure food bill.

HARBOR TUG IS BADLY NEEDED

SINKING OF BUFFALO WHILE ENROUTE TO THIS CITY CAUSES GREAT INCONVENIENCE.

MAY POSSIBLY BE RAISED

Deck of Shenandoah Collapses Under Weight of Towing Outfit—Whitefish Bay Is Clear but Portage Still Choked With Ice.

The presence of a harbor tug is of vital importance to the welfare of Marquette shipping interests. This season, for the first time in years, steamers have been compelled to bring their transports to the docks unless they could secure the services of one of the fishing tugs, which, owing to the other demands on them, are little to be depended upon. Prior to the opening of the season it was announced that the tug Buffalo, of the Great Lakes Towing company's fleet, which had wintered at Duluth, would be placed in commission at this port. She went down, however, in Portage lake, while enroute here. The Buffalo is an old boat whose valuation is given as $8,000. It is said that she will be raised and brought to this harbor, but that will take some time and meanwhile boats are occasioned no little inconvenience. Only a few nights ago the steamer Warner, towing the schooner Thompson, whistled for a tug to take in her transport, as she wished to make Cleveland as soon as possible. The Warner was finally compelled to tie up at the breakwater and bring her transport in in the morning. There is some talk of Marquette parties purchasing a tug for harbor service, but the plan has not as yet taken definite form. Nearly all the tugs on the lakes are now owned and operated by the Great Lakes Towing company, a corporation powerful enough to easily subdue individual competition in any locality where it wants to control the business.

The little steamer Friant, which made trips between this city and the Huron Mountain club for some seasons up to and inclusive of '95, has been greatly missed, and it is suggested that a tug, if owned by local parties, could give a daily service of this character and look after the harbor nights.

Steamer Met With Accident.

The steamer Shenandoah, which was reported to have cleared from this port Sunday night, returned with her transport, the Granada, shortly after. The Shenandoah had hardly cleared the harbor when her entire towing outfit went through the deck. The Shenandoah is an old boat and her upper deck timbers proved, subsequent to the accident, to be in a very rotten condition. The Shenandoah will go to some port where repairs can be made in a few days, and the Granada will remain here until another boat can be secured to tow her to her destination on the lower lakes. Accidents of this character are much more frequent nowadays than years ago. They can only occur on wooden boats, and steel has almost entirely supplanted wood in ship construction.

Ship captains making this port say that Whitefish bay is now entirely clear of ice and no obstructions whatever are encountered in the trip from the Soo. The portage, however, near Houghton is still choked with ice.

WEDDED YESTERDAY MORNING.

Medos Desotelle and Miss Cecilia Rundel Married at St. John's Church.

Medos Desotelle and Miss Cecilia Rundel were married at St. John's church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. High mass was sung and all the rites and ceremonies of the Catholic marriage service were observed. The groom was attended by Clifford LaFaver as best man and the bride by Miss Evangeline Ricord as bridesmaid. Father Jolley officiated. There was a large attendance. The groom is a pressman in the employ of the Mining Journal company, and occupies a high place in the esteem of the management and his fellow employees. The bride is prominent and popular in French social circles.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Desotelle received the felicitations of friends at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. T. Page, No. 508 South Seventh street. Relatives and intimate friends were entertained at a bridal supper in the evening. A number of useful and valuable wedding gifts evidenced the esteem in which the young couple are held. They have gone to housekeeping at No. 508 South Seventh street.

WILL CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

Mayor Appoints Committee to Take Matter Up With Citizens.

The regular monthly meeting for May was held at the council rooms last evening. Mayor Robertson presided and all the aldermen were present. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved without reading. A bill for $106 from Johnson & Peterson, alleged to be due in the construction of a sewer between Third and Fourth streets on Bluff, was tabled.

A petition from citizens asking that the mayor appoint a committee to confer with business men for a Fourth of July celebration was accepted, and the mayor appointed as such committee Aldermen Downey, Siegel and Schamer.

On motion of Alderman Asire, $1,000 was transferred from the general fund to the park and street fund.

A petition from teamsters asking that the wages for team work be placed at $5 per day was referred to the commission on parks, cemeteries and streets.

Alderman Downey, chairman of the special committee appointed to consider the matter of the organization of an advancement association, asked for more time. He said that his committee had met with a great deal of encouragement from business men. All that had been approached appeared to be enthusiastically in favor of the project. He had no doubt, the alderman said, that at the next meeting he would be able to report that the organization of the association has been perfected.

A PRONOUNCED HAY SHORTAGE.

Cornstooks Being Fed to Cows and Straw to Horses—Shipments Held Up.

Marquette is suffering from a hay famine. For several days past there has been absolutely no hay on the market. In two weeks the price rose from $17 to $19 a ton. Large consignments are on their way here, but have been tied up somewhere on the road. Owners of cows have secured cornstooks wherever possible and are also feeding mixtures of bran and cornmeal. The horses, however, are suffering the most, as many owners are entirely out of hay and are feeding nothing save straw and oats. Straw has also to late become a commodity hard to secure. With the pastures clear of snow and the weather reasonably mild the grass should help out the dairies in a few days. Speaking of the shortage of hay yesterday morning, a large dealer said:

"Conditions have changed greatly in this locality of late. Last season the hay crop was probably as large, if not larger, than ever before. Many of the farmers raised two crops and it was also of a good quality. The weather was just dry enough for ideal haymaking and the loss through rain must have been comparatively small. Since the Southwestern was put through, however, three years ago, a great deal of the hay that used to come to this city has gone to Negawnee and Ishpeming. Farmers were attracted by the good price prevailing, as the crop to the south was in a measure a failure, and they threw so much of their stock on the market, that many of them are now feeling the shortage."

QUINCY.

Dividends of $18 This Year Warranted by Earnings of Over $25.

It is said by a director of the Quincy Mining company that the quarterly dividend rate of $4.50 will be maintained through the present year and not less than this amount will be paid as long as the copper metal remains at twenty-five cents or above. The Quincy is producing at the present time at the rate of 20,000,000 pounds per annum and at a cost of not over eleven cents per pound making a profit of fourteen cents per pound on an average price received of twenty-five cents per share. This means total earnings of $2,800,000 a year on 110,000 shares, or $25.55 per share against dividends of $18. This margin of $7 per share over dividend requirements will be ample to meet any unforeseen difficulties which may bring about temporary shutdowns or interfere in any way with a production of 20,000,000 pounds of copper this year.

A director says: "There has not come to my attention any substantial evidence of any prospective drop in the price of copper, and I believe it will sell between twenty-five and twenty-six cents a pound for the remainder of the year. Our output for the month of April was 100 tons of mineral, compared with 1275 tons for March, thus establishing a new high record, and our present production, which is now at the rate of 21,000,000 pounds a year, should be continued indefinitely. At the prevailing price for copper, Quincy should be able to close the year with a surplus of from $400,000 to $500,000 over and above the $18 which it promised to pay in dividends. The directors will make liberal appropriations this year for re-

ONTONAGON MINES.

The Adventure produced 9 1/2 tons of mineral during April, an increase of three and one-half tons over the preceding month and the best record which has been made this year. Operations are moving along quite satisfactorily at the mine and still better results are anticipated. Work has been temporarily suspended at the new No. 4 shaft and all energy is centered on extending the openings from No. 3. The lodes are found more encouraging than has been experienced for some time.

Michigan turned out 150 tons of mineral last month. During the early part of the month for two or three days no shipments were made to the mill on account of the railroad being blocked by snow and consequently this resulted in a decreased output. The mine is looking good, although operations have been slightly retarded by a scarcity of help, and a good increase in the product will undoubtedly be made during future months.

According to a Boston report the Mass produced 172 tons of mineral during April. This makes the Mass the banner producer of the county during the past month and shows that the company is beginning to reap some benefit from the extra development work which was done last year.

Quincy costs over the last quarter of 1906, were 10 1/2 cents per pound excluding construction and the figure of eleven cents estimated for the current year is a fair one including construction, leaving unforeseen accidents such as the air blasts of last year, Quincy's costs in years gone by have been as low as six cents per pound but this was at a time when labor and fuel were very much cheaper and when richer rock was being mined. During the period from organization up to Dec. 31, 1906, Quincy had produced 372,477,987 pounds of copper at an average cost of 9.33 cents per pound and sold at an average price of 14.92 cents per pound, cost not including construction. Its profits from all sources during that period were $15,540,532 which together with the amount received for capital stock paid in made a total balance of receipts over expenses of $17,690,532. Out of this were paid in dividends $16,470,000, leaving a balance from operations of $1,220,532. The amount paid in for capital stock was $2,150,000, of which $700,000 was paid in last year for 10,000 new shares. Dividends have been paid in every year since 1848 with the exception of two years during the Civil war.

PITCHED BATTLE FOUGHT AT 'FRISCO

Mob Attacks With Bricks and Paving Stones, and Strike Breakers and Railway Guards Reply With Bullets, Shooting Into the Crowds Indiscriminately Until the Police Put a Stop to the Affray—Fifteen Men Are Wounded, Some Mortally.

San Francisco, May 7.—A pitched battle between strike breakers in the uniforms of car inspectors, and strikers and their sympathizers, was fought this afternoon on Turk street for more than an hour. Fifteen men were shot, among them Policeman Harry Sauer and Detective Sergeant Bell. One man—James Walsh—died tonight, and several others are in critical condition.

The shooting was done by strike breakers from car windows in response to a "shower" of paving stones and bricks hurled at them by a mob that chased the cars back after block, picking up their wounded as they ran.

The deadly affray was the outcome of the first attempt of the United Railroads to run passenger cars out of their Turk and Fillmore street barns at 2:30 o'clock p. m. An Associated Press man who rode on horseback behind a string of cars saw four men shot from car windows. The first shot was fired at the intersection of Turk and Buchanan streets by a man from the rear of the car that headed the string of seven. The bullet struck a young man standing on the curb and inflicted a flesh wound in his arm. The shot was not fired until most of the windows of the car had been smashed with stones, several of which had struck and severely bruised some of the guards on board.

Mob Aroused to Frenzy. The shooting of this man aroused the mob to a pitch of frenzy. Paving stones and other obstructions were cast on the track, and in that way the car was brought to a standstill a block further on. Hurting any missiles that came across to hand, and cursing and screaming for the lives of the strike breakers, hundreds of men and boys surrounded the car. In a moment a fusillade of shots rang out, and the crowd fell back in fear. The obstructions were cleared away and the car proceeded, followed by two others.

The sound of the shots apprised the main crowd in the neighborhood of Fillmore and Webster streets that a battle was on, and more than 1,000 men and boys came running down Turk street in pursuit of the cars. The crowd, standing in their posts, shot again and again into the crowd indiscriminately as showers of stones struck and injured them.

At Van Ness avenue a youth was shot through the lungs. He pitched forward into the street, where he was lifted and thrown onto a mattress in a furniture van and hurried to the Emergency hospital. The mob, checked but not dismayed by the rain of bullets, kept up running in pursuit of the cars, stoning them and cursing the guards.

Police Restore Order. Just beyond Van Ness avenue the first squad of police arrived in a patrol wagon. The mob stopped them, too, but presently desisted on being implored not to do so by union pickets. The policemen tried to persuade the maddened crowd to disperse, but without effect. Three blocks further on the guards again turned loose their weapons on the crowd. In the fusillade a policeman was shot in the back, presumably by accident. None of the strikers or their sympathizers exhibited pistols or used weapons other than stones and bricks.

The first two cars succeeded in getting as far as Market street, where the officers arrested the guards and took them to headquarters. Police reinforcements were rushed to the scene of the fighting. They clubbed the mob right and left, and the crowd broke and ran. All the wounded men were removed to the Emergency hospital.

The following is a list of the injured: Thomas White; Police Officer Harry Sauer; E. Joy; J. Krolner; William Slatery; J. Averis; A. C. Linn; E. Leisch; N. Granville; G. M. McNaughton; Tom Buchanan, shot in the abdomen, will die; C. W. Forrester; Detective Sergeant Bell; Alta Palm, shot in the back, may die; James Welsh, another injured man, died this evening.

More Bloodshed Feared Today. The railway officials tonight announced the intention to resume the operation of the cars tomorrow morning. It is feared that the bloody events of today may be repeated with even more tragic results.

General Manager Mullaly said tonight that when the strikers for the railroad visited the Central police station to request admittance to bail of the strike breakers under arrest for shooting strikers and their sympathizers, Chief of Police Dinan said: "Tomorrow I shall arm the police with rifles. If any strike breakers start any shooting from the cars, they will be shot in turn by the police." Thirteen strike breakers were arrested. Three were released on bail and the remainder held awaiting developments.

Mayor Schmitz said tonight that there is no need of troops, that the police are able to handle the situation. The police have been ordered to arrest anybody carrying arms, concealed or otherwise.

wise. The men who go out on the cars will not be permitted to carry weapons.

GOVERNOR WATCHING THE SITUATION.

Los Angeles, May 7.—"I will not call out the militia to quell the riots in San Francisco until the civil authorities have asked me to do so, or until I am satisfied from my own investigations that there is no other way to handle the situation," said Governor Gillette tonight. "I am watching the situation closely and will act the moment I believe it is necessary. If the riots go on, and they continue to kill men there, and the police are unable to stop it, I will call out the militia. There will be no child's play about it either, if I take action. I will see that the riots are stopped and stopped at once."

SHOOTS AND KILLS A FAMILY OF SIX

WALTER DAVIS' BLOODY DEED IN A FIT OF INSANITY AT SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, May 7.—Walter Charles Davis, a carpenter, in a fit of insanity today shot and killed a family of six persons with whom he lived. The dead were: Orson R. Bush, aged fifty-seven. The wife and son of Bush. W. S. Bard, a carpenter. M. E. Simon, a surveyor.

Mrs. Lillian D. Carrother, an elderly woman, was shot in the head. Davis and the victims all resided with the Bush family, who conducted a boarding house. Davis' home was in Farnersville, this state, where he had a wife and six children. The man thought the people had formed a plot to kill him and take his money. He was arrested.

ENDS HIS LIFE ON A TRAIN.

TERMS OF THE WILL ARE MADE PUBLIC—A NEPHEW THE PRINCIPAL BENEFICIARY.

New York, May 7.—Funeral services for the late James H. Smith, the millionaire who died in Japan while on his wedding trip, were held in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church today. The body was taken in a special train to Woodlawn cemetery for burial. The church was only partially filled, but a crowd of curious people gathered in the street about the church.

New York, May 7.—The will of the late James Henry Smith was made public tonight. The value of the estate is not more than $25,000,000. It gives his wife $3,000,000; her daughter, Anita Stewart, a life interest in 500 St. Paul railway 4 per cent bonds of $1,000 each; his sister May, Lady Cooper, wife of Sir George Cooper, a life interest in 1,000 St. Paul 4 per cent bonds of $1,000 each; his sisters, Mrs. Victor Rosbach and Mrs. John Mills, $250,000 each.

In trust for the son of his brother, George Alexander Smith of Evanston, Ill., $500,000 is left. To George Simpson Eddy and Thomas Eddy, of Chicago, $100,000 each; to Mrs. Wm. Farr, of Kenosha, $50,000; to St. Luke's hospital, $100,000; to the Orthopaedic hospital, New York, $100,000.

The nephews, George Grant Mason and William Smith Mason, receive two-thirds and one-third, respectively, of the residuary. This defect is so great in

HOME RULE BILL IS DISAPPOINTING

British Government's Measure, Long in Course of Consideration, Is Finally Presented to Commons and the Country.

Designed to Meet Demands of the Nationalists, and Regarded by the Unionists as a Step to Self-Rule, It Falls Far Short of the Expectations of Redmond and His Associates and Is Criticized and Ridiculed by Balfour in Behalf of the Opposition.

London, May 7.—The government today presented its long awaited Irish bill to the commons and the country. The measure is designed to meet the demands for Irish home rule. It was presented by the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Birrell. Compared with the home rule bills of 1886 and 1893, the measure today confers little self-government upon Ireland, merely giving to the council control of the eight departments now managed by government boards.

The council is to be appointed by the crown, and while the lord lieutenant of Ireland is given power to nullify its measures, the crown retains control of five of the eight departments, including the constabulary. The control of this branch has always been a thorn in the flesh of the Irish people.

The Unionists regard the measure as a step to home rule. They object to giving to Ireland the management of many departments of local affairs while the Irish members of commons retain the right to legislate in similar affairs for England and Scotland. They criticize also the plan of government by a council through eight committees as complicated and cumbersome.

The radicals are disappointed that the measure falls so short of actual rule, and the Irish members are even more disappointed with it. The Irish leaders, however, are maintaining a diplomatic attitude until they have had time to study the provisions of the bill and learn the sentiment of the people.

Secretary Birrell rose to oratorical heights when he described the present system of Irish administration. He called Dublin castle a failure, saying: "There it stands, remote, melancholy, without a friend, while the current of Irish life sweeps past." No governor had entered, he continued, the gloomy portals of Dublin castle without a sinking heart almost equivalent to abandoning hope.

Parnell had said that one way to govern Ireland was to send a man there to hold the balance of all parties and administer the country in a spirit of courage and independence, but the government had no such man in its eye. "I would rather write the biography of a deceased autocrat," Mr. Birrell said, "than live under his rule. Such men do not make good history."

The chief secretary for Ireland continued with a long explanation, going minutely into the details. In conclusion, he said: "Paves Way to Self-Rule."

"The government has been told that the bill paved the way for home rule, if it is a success, then I dare say it might pave the way. On the other hand, its failure might present considerable obstacles; but surely the Unionists will not refuse Ireland an opportunity for training her people to acquire any right they ought to possess, because if the measure succeeds, it will remove all difficulties in the way of home rule which have been removed."

After Mr. Balfour had spoken for the opposition, John Redmond, the Irish leader, while expressing a desire to examine the bill thoroughly before announcing the Nationalists' position, said that as home rulers they were justified in regarding the scheme as consistent with the maintenance of their aspirations, and he proceeded to criticize certain sections. He said, however, that if the measure proved itself workable, even with moderate success, his party would gladly accept it.

Chicago Irishmen Criticize. Chicago, May 7.—Speaking of the home rule bill introduced into the British parliament today, William Dillon of this city said today: "The main objection to the scheme is that it does not vest in the council any power of appointing the judges of the supreme court, or the judges of the supreme court, and not any power over the Dublin police or the Irish constabulary. This defect is so great in

HOUSE PASSES THE DAVIS BILL

Proposition to Repeal the Law Taxing Mortgages Gets a Majority of Twenty-Seven Votes Out of Eighty-Seven Cast.

U. P. Men Line Up in Favor, and the Representatives of the Rich Agricultural Counties Against It—Ultimate Fate of the Measure Is Very Uncertain—It Will Have Hard Sledding in the Senate, and Doubtless the Governor's Veto if It Reaches Him.

Lansing, Mich., May 7.—[Special.] The Davis bill, repealing the law taxing mortgages, was passed by the house today by the vote of 56 to 29. There was a three hours discussion over the measure, but its friends knew it would pass all the while, for there had been a good count of noses. It will have hard sledding in the senate, and there is likelihood that the governor will veto it if it comes to him. Representative Galbraith of Calumet spoke several times in defense of the bill. The representatives from the rich agricultural counties of the lower peninsula were generally against the measure, while those from the northern counties favored it. Of the upper peninsula men, Messrs. Abrams, Byrns, Edwards, Erickson, Galbraith, Gordon, Harris, Monroe, Stannard voted for the bill. No upper country men voted against it, but J. T. Bennett of Chippewa and Mr. McCullum of Schoolcraft were absent.

A bill to annex territory in Calumet township to the village of Red Jacket was introduced today by Mr. Galbraith. Mr. Stannard introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a probate register for Keweenaw county, the board of supervisors to fix his salary at not to exceed one thousand dollars.

THAW'S MOTHER MORTGAGES HOME

BORROWS $100,000 FOR THREE YEARS, WITH PITTSBURG MANSION AS THE SECURITY.

Pittsburg, May 7.—"Lynchburg," the pretentious home of Mrs. Wm. Thaw in the east end section of this city, has been mortgaged for $100,000, according to the Pittsburg Leader. The mortgage was secured some time ago. The book containing the record has been hidden, according to this newspaper, and information concerning the document did not become public until today. The mortgage runs for three years.

CHANGES DEvised AT CONFERENCE ATTENDED BY SECRETARY WILSON. Chicago, May 7.—A conference between Secretary Wilson and the superintendents and meat inspectors of packing companies throughout the country, held here for the purpose of discussing regulations concerning the packing industry, was completed tonight, and Mr. Wilson left for his home in Iowa. He will remain in his home state for several days before returning to Washington.

RAILROADS INDICTED. Four Lines Accused of Granting Rebates to the Sugar Trust. New York, May 7.—The federal grand jury which has been investigating the rebate cases today indicted the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Ontario & Western and the Western Transportation company on charges of granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining company.

TEXAS STORM DISASTROUS. Mount Pleasant, Tex., May 7.—Heavy damage and loss of life were wrought by the tornado which swept north Texas late yesterday. The towns of Ridgeway and Birtwright, forty miles west of here, were practically destroyed. All telegraphic and telephonic communication is suspended, and the details are lacking. Nine persons are reported killed in the two villages and vicinity.

REICHSTAG'S ACTION FAVORABLE. Berlin, May 7.—The Reichstag today passed the first reading of the commercial modus vivendi between the United States and Germany, and referred the agreement to committee.

DRIVEN BY KAISER'S TROOPS. Thousands of Blacks Die in Trek to a New Location.

Capetown, May 7.—Finding it useless further to resist the German troops, 15,000 Herero tribesmen, according to information received here today from German Southwest Africa, decided sometime ago to move northeastward with the object of establishing a settlement in the Lake Ngami region, but only 4,000 of the natives reached their destination after terrible sufferings, the remaining 11,000 having perished from starvation.

AGREEMENT REACHED WITH BRITAIN.

Berlin, May 7.—Germany and Great Britain have reached an agreement concerning their various South African controversies which gives reason for hope that any differences of opinion arising in the future will be settled in friendly manner. The negotiations that resulted in this understanding took place in London between Kerr von Lindquist, governor of German Southwest Africa, and Dr. Jameson, premier of Cape Colony.

CABINET CRISIS AVERTED.

Government of France Temporarily Patches Up Its Dissensions. Paris, May 7.—The dissensions in the Clemenceau cabinet evidently have at least been temporarily patched up. When parliament reassembled today the attitude of the Moderate Republicans was more friendly, and the prevailing impression was that the ministry would successfully defeat the assault planned by the members of the Extreme Left, supported by that section of the Radicals in the leadership of M. Pelletan.

INCENDIARY PLACARDS POSTED.

Paris, May 7.—A manifesto signed by 100 members of the Anti-Military league, appealing to the soldiers to join the proletariat and fight against capital, was placarded on the walls of Paris during the night. The authors will be arrested and prosecuted.

MEXICO MAKES ULTIMATUM STRONGER.

NEW DEMAND IS SENT TO GUATEMALA, INSISTING UPON THE SURRENDER OF GEN. LIMA. Mexico City, May 7.—According to the state department today the Guatemalan question remains unchanged. The minister of foreign affairs said that the diplomatic relations between the two countries had been broken off. Mexico has sent another and stronger note to Guatemala, insisting upon the delivery of General Lima, who will happen in the case of a second refusal on the part of Guatemala is a matter not discussed in official circles. Those well informed consider that the situation is growing graver hourly.

GUATEMALA SUGGESTS ARBITRATION.

Washington, May 7.—The Guatemalan minister, Senor Herrero, has suggested to his government by cable that it would be wise to offer to arbitrate the differences between Mexico and Guatemala that threaten a complete rupture of diplomatic relations. The minister was at the state department this afternoon and had a long conference with the officials in regard to this issue between the two countries. It is pointed out that both Mexico and Guatemala are already parties to the treaty framed at the Pan-American congress in the City of Mexico, by the terms of which they agreed to submit to arbitration every issue that should arise between them with the exception of questions of national honor and those relating to hostile invasion.

ECUADOR HAS A GRIEVANCE.

Santiago, Chile, May 7.—According to a dispatch from Quito, Ecuador, the government of that republic has protested against the boundary agreement between Brazil and Colombia as being prejudicial to Ecuador.

PIERCE WARFARE WAGED ON STEAMER.

San Diego, Cal., May 7.—With 921 Chinese steamer passengers at war with 212 Russian steerage passengers, all on their way from Vladivostok and Shanghai to Mazatlan and Guaymas, the British steamer Maori King put in here today in distress. A virtual state of mutiny exists on board the vessel, and the ship is now lying at quarantine, guarded by the immigration and custom officials, while awaiting a settlement of the matter. Friday last one of the Russians struck a Chinaman and laid his head open. The 900 Chinese then attacked the 200 Russians, and before they could be separated fourteen persons were badly and many others less seriously wounded.

BREWERY ACCEPTS OUSTER.

Topeka, Kas., May 7.—The Anheuser-Busch Brewing association this afternoon filed its answer in the supreme court, confessing judgment in ouster and offering to withdraw from state and pay all costs in the action.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Washington, May 7.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Partly cloudy, Wednesday, rain or snow in the west; Thursday, probably showers and warmer; light to fresh north to east winds.

HOLDUP IMPERILS SCORES OF LIVES

Last Heroic Act of Locomotive Engineer Averts a Horrible Disaster on the Northern Pacific Line Near Butte, Mont.

Mortally Shot by Bandits, and With Fireman Wounded, He Succeeds in Applying the Air Brakes Just in Time to Prevent the North Coast Limited Train from Plunging Into a Canyon—Desperadoes, Foiled, Flee With Big Posse in Pursuit.

Butte, Mont., Wednesday, May 8.—A dispatch to Sheriff Sweeney says that the train robbers have been arrested at Basin, a few miles from Woodville, where they caught the train. They are mere youths.

Butte, Mont., May 7.—The North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific road was held up fifteen miles from this city early today. The engineer was killed and the fireman wounded. The object of the bandits, it is presumed, was to secure the contents of the through safe carrying consignments of currency to Eastern points. The desperadoes secured no money. Poses with bloodhounds are on the trail of the bandits.

SUSPECT TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

Butte, Mont., May 7.—William Powers, aged thirty-four, who says he came here last week from Sand Point, Idaho, was arrested near Woodville by the sheriff's posse this afternoon, suspected of being one of the men who held up the North Coast Limited near Welch. He said he meant to board the train at Woodville and head his way out of the country. He denied all knowledge of the matter and holdup, but he was sent to Butte by the sheriff.

The last heroic act of Engineer Clow, who was killed by the bandits—his act in turning on the air brakes—probably saved scores of lives. The grade at Welch is on top of the divide, and there is a very steep curve. Had both men in the cab fallen before the brakes were put on the express train undoubtedly would have attained a rate of speed sufficient to jump the track and plunge into the canyon.

TRAINMEN ARE THE VICTIMS.

Passengers Escape Casualty in Three Wrecks in as Many States. Wheeling, Va., May 7.—A passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio, west-bound, collided with a fast freight at Roby's Rock, eighteen miles east of here, this morning. The express messenger and baggage master were killed, and the engineer of the passenger train was fatally injured. The passengers escaped with a severe shaking. A misunderstanding of orders was the cause of the wreck.

Holly, Colo., May 7.—The second section of the California Limited on the Santa Fe railroad was derailed twelve miles east of here last night. All nine coaches, except one Pullman, were turned over. Two trainmen were hurt.

Peoria, Ill., May 7.—A fast passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio, bound for Florida, collided with a freight train here last night. A number of persons were injured, none seriously.

MINE MANAGERS ACCUSED.

Plot Against Union Leaders Alleged in the Moyer-Haywood Case. Webb City, Mo., May 7.—Robert Hulser, a miner, made a deposition here in the Moyer-Haywood case today, swearing before Justice Crosswell that while in the office of Mine Manager Cornish at Victor, Colo., in September, 1905, he heard Cornish say to the present adjutant general of Colorado: "We have Moyer where we want him, and we will put him under the ground." Hulser says that Cornish said then: "We have the money, we must get Moyer out of the way and break up this miners' union." Hulser swears that the military officer said: "All right, gentlemen, I'll do all I can for you."

Boise, Idaho, May 7.—Attorney John M. Murphy of Denver, counsel for the Western Federation of Miners, arrived today and joined the other attorneys for Haywood and his fellow prisoners. Murphy had a consultation with the miners' attorneys and later conferred with the prisoners.

"FESTIVAL OF FLOWERS."

Shriners at Los Angeles Participate in Big Electrical Parade. Los Angeles, May 7.—Routine business engaged the attention of the Shriners today. The mayor presented Imperial Potentate Alvah P. Clayton a massive gold key to the city. Mr. Clayton responded briefly. The election of officers and the selection of the next place of meeting will take place tomorrow.

GENERAL KUROKI IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 7.—General Kuroki and staff, accompanied by General McArthur, arrived in Chicago tonight, and left for Washington over the Pennsylvania road. In a short speech to 100 of his countrymen who gathered at the station, General Kuroki told them how pleased he was at the reception he had received in America.

MARQUETTE, MICH., MAY 8.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Seginaw is after the encampment of state troops. Perhaps it wants it as a sop for that lost senatorship.

The Keweenaw prison and the binder twine plant are out of sight and out of mind, but doubtless they will be heard from later.

Perhaps Escanaba's mistake was in not municipalizing the water plant and leaving the lighting business for private enterprise.

No emergency consequent on the herculean task of rebuilding the city is allowed to interfere with Frisco's strike industry.

The Jamestown exposition wants a loan of $300,000 or $400,000, to tide over a temporary embarrassment. Why doesn't it touch the Norfolk imkeepers?

We are paying fancy prices for hay, and can't get it at that. Yet Superintendent Geismar of the Chatham experiment station loses no opportunity to scourge the "hay" farmer.

Governor Deneen of Illinois is building fences for a renomination and it is reported that his gubernatorial fences and the presidential fences of Secretary Taft will run pretty close together.

An eastern Democratic paper suggests Grover Cleveland as a third-term Democratic nominee in 1908. Can't you picture to yourself the Bryan Democrats falling over themselves to get into the Cleveland procession?

Governor Hughes, at least, has done his all in fulfilling party pledges. If the Republican voters of New York want to search out the men apparently willing to nullify them they will have to turn to the state senate.

Secretary Wilson and the gentlemen engaged in an attempt to bull the wheat market are far from being in agreement. Planting, the secretary says, is a little delayed, but his comments show that he by no means regards the situation as serious, whereas he maintains that the reports of damage to crops by unseasonable weather and the green bug have been largely exaggerated. It is to be hoped the secretary's roseate views will be borne out by developments. Crop damage and a consequent decreased yield would be a nice thing for the wheat speculators on the bull side of the market, but they would cost the farmers and general business far more than the speculators would gain.

New York town doesn't want Roosevelt, is suspicious of Taft because he is so close to Roosevelt, is persuaded that Fairbanks can't be nominated, likes the idea of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, but is not persuaded that he is a practicable candidate—in short, if the Republican convention was to be held tomorrow New York town wouldn't know what to do with its delegates.

The council Monday night passed the voting machines by. The matter wasn't brought up in any form. A little academic discussion of the general question involved would have done no harm, but it would have been a mistake to have purchased machines at this early date. The Mining Journal believes that the necessity for mechanical voting has been fully shown here, and that voting machines are a good thing. However, they may be even a better thing two years hence, and they will hardly be more expensive then than at this time.

Senator Spooner is keeping away from Wisconsin while the senatorial deadlock is on. He arrived in Chicago from French Lick Springs, but left posthaste for New York. "I will not go to Milwaukee," he said, "nor to any other part of Wisconsin, for fear that my doing so may be construed that I am trying to influence the election of my successor in the senate." Senator Spooner knows by experience how suspicious stirs the breast of the average Wisconsin politician on slight excuse, and doubtless is wise in keeping safely away from the state. He could not enter within its borders without running the risk of being charged with machinations to terminate the deadlock in favor of this or that candidate.

Marquette is to celebrate the Fourth. The council has ordained it, and has appointed a committee of its members to co-operate with the business men who are desirous of making the eagle scream. The definite action is doubtless taken thus early to give the other end of the county due notice of Marquette's intentions, that it may govern itself accordingly. If Negaunee or Ishpeming should want to celebrate the Fourth it should be their turn, but doubtless they will be entirely willing to have Marquette take all the gunpowder, fire hazards and strenuous celebrators, while they enjoy the nation's natal day in peace and comparative quiet. We might visit about on the Fourth, those who like the smell of powder and the roar of crackers coming to Marquette and the Marquette people who prefer a somnolent celebration moving for the day to either Ishpeming or Negaunee. Thus all tastes might be satisfied.

The water furnished the city by the Escanaba Water company is not only bad, such as it is, but there is not enough of it, bad as it is. The pressure was lamentably insufficient on the occasion of the recent fire at the wood-ware plant. Superintendent Hatton, of the Water company, alleges that the hose was leaky and that much of the pressure was lost, but Fire Chief Tolan vigorously denies this, charging that the pressure was weak. "I do not know how much pressure they had on at the pumping station," says the chief, "but I do know that with five separate lines of hose working we could not throw a stream thirty feet high, and the franchise of the company demands that the pressure permit of throwing six streams 100 feet high in any part of the city." It having been conclusively demonstrated that Escanaba's Water company cannot furnish water fit to drink, if it cannot furnish enough water to fight fires with what is it tolerated for, anyway?

The University of Michigan will not participate in the field day of the "Big Nine" this year, for the first time since the conference of western colleges and universities was organized. Its failure to submit entries is the most serious sign appearing to date of the break between it and the other conference institutions, resulting from its refusal to abide wholly by the conference regulations. The meet will lose importance and prestige by Michigan's absence. It will still be a big meet, as eight institutions, including Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota, will be represented, but in the past the Michigan performers have been in the highest class of any in the meet, and Michigan men have been prominent among the record breakers. Furthermore the rivalry between Chicago and Michigan always added an element of great interest. Athletics in the west are bound to suffer through the disaffection of Michigan, while it is doubtful whether, in the long run, Michigan will find its eastern affiliations as satisfactory as those it formerly had in the west.

TAKING THINGS EASY.

Governor Hughes of New York is a lawyer, and a lawyer of an unusually judicial frame of mind. In his Elmhurst speech, delivered subsequent to the action of the senate in refusing to acquiesce in the removal of Insurance Commissioner Kelsey, he might have been expected to denounce the senate in good set terms, jugged along at an easy gait, eschewed all the theatricals with which many men would have hastened to bedeck the occasion and was content with a plain statement of the case, devoid of personalities or any hint of bitterness. It was a velvet paw that the governor showed, but it does not follow that it doesn't conceal sharp claws which the governor will use in his own time and own way.

The fight over the office of insurance commissioner has been hailed by many people as epoch making. In it Governor Hughes was endeavoring to do the people's work, paving the way for a vigorous administration of the insurance laws by securing the removal of an affable nonentity who had proved his incompetency for the post. Against the governor were arrayed all the vicious machinists of the old regime, both Republicans and Democrats. Still the governor might have won had he made a personal fight of the matter and used his resources of patronage. However, following a well defined theory of the part the governor should play in administration, he, after a calm, dispassionate presentation of the case, allowed the senate to take the whole responsibility of the decision. It elected to sustain Kelsey.

The issue is not one of personalities. In it Kelsey counts for nothing, and the governor as Mr. Hughes for little more. The principles at stake are the over-weening considerations. Is not an executive entitled to heads of departments in whom he can repose confidence, and are not the people to have their expressed wishes in matters of government respected? Governor Hughes was elected to secure an adequate administration of the new insurance laws and to do

CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.

Ornine Treatment is to be Used at Home Without Publicity, or Loss of Time from Business.

Thousands of persons who really want to quit the use of whiskey or beer, realize that they cannot do so without medical help, yet they can not afford the time or perhaps the money to go to a sanatorium. Happily a new cure for drunkenness has been discovered which is to be taken at home and costs less than the average drinker will spend in a day for drink. In using Ornine there is absolutely no publicity, as the remedy is sold by the leading druggists in nearly every city and town, or it can be sent by mail. Sure relief is positive when Ornine is used. So uniformly successful is this treatment that in every case a registered guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Ornine fails to effect a cure.

Ornine is in two forms, No. 1 a secret remedy, absolutely tasteless and odorless which can be given in food or drink without the patient's knowledge; No. 2 in pill form for those who wish to be cured. The price of either form is $1 a box. Send to the Ornine Co., Washington, D. C., for free booklet and consultation blank. The desire for liquor is soon destroyed after Ornine treatment is commenced, and before long the patient is freed from the terrible drink craving, and the drink will not be missed. Ornine is for sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

HANCOCK MUNICIPAL PLANT.

Mayor Scott Favors—Alderman Lewis Does Not—Company Bids.

The question of a municipal lighting plant came up again in the Hancock council Monday night. It made no progress toward a solution.

Mayor Scott is strongly in favor of the construction of the plant. Alderman Lewis appears to be again it. At least he argued that it would be a long time before the city could get it running, and in the meantime it is paying too much for its street lighting. He had a communication from the Houghton County Electric Light company as a basis for his contention and used it in arguing for hasty action in making a contract with the company.

The communication sets up that the city, which is not now working on a contract basis, is paying too much for its light, 800 per cent per street lamp, forty-five in number. The company expressed a desire to enter upon a contract presumably advantageous to the city. The contract could run for three, five or ten years with a sliding scale, $84 per year per lamp for three years, $81 per lamp for five years, $70 per lamp for ten years, with a further concession that the price per lamp per year will drop $1 for each ten lamps added.

Alderman Lewis thought the proposal of the company a good one. Mayor Scott still held for the municipal plant, or at least for an estimate of its cost by a competent electrical engineer. He said that two weeks ago a Chicago engineer had been here, but could not work in such bad weather and went away. He will be here in a few days, and the council decided to await his report before taking action.

Six bids were received at the meeting for the construction of the Front street retaining wall. They were referred to the city engineer for compilation.

HANCOCK OFFICIAL CHANGES.

Mayor Scott Surprises With Appointments Monday Night.

Mayor Scott's appointment of Trevanion Andrew as chief of the Hancock police department caused some surprise in that city when announced at the council meeting Monday night. There was less of a shock in the appointment of S. L. Lawton as city attorney, as he had succeeded J. T. Finnegan, and the other officers did not hold much public interest.

Edward Lee, who is superseded, has been chief of police for a number of years and has been a good officer. Last night Mayor Scott refused to reappoint him, but the council would not endorse his new appointee and Lee was permitted to remain in office on sufferance, because his successor had not been appointed.

It is believed that Andrew's appointment was a compromise, a majority of the council standing up for Lee and the mayor and one or two members opposing. The appointment of Lee as street commissioner shows the compromise. Chief Andrew is a former groceryman with no police experience. His friends say he will make a good officer.

Jeremiah T. Finnegan had been city attorney of Hancock for twenty years. His deposition was expected as a political measure. Hancock now being conducted on strict party lines. Mr. Finnegan has served the village and city of Hancock as an attorney faithfully and well. He is the father of the city's charter and all of its existing ordinances, and it should be said that Hancock is one of the best governed cities in Michigan.

The alderman suggested Monday night that the council should give Mr. Finnegan, but that veteran officer, given he was willing to let his record bring in such thanks as are due him. Mr. Lawton, his successor, is a member of the firm of Hanchette & Lawton, and is very able attorney. His appointment is applauded even by those who regret that Mr. Finnegan had to go.

John N. Mitchell was again recommended by the fire department for the appointment as chief, and he received it, though the firemen's meeting he received the nomination by one vote margin. C. B. M. Craig is again appointed city engineer and Dr. W. H. Dodge succeeds himself as health officer.

The other appointments were: Members of board of public works, Fred Francis and Eric Anderson, chief engineer of water works, W. J. Rentebach; electrician, Edward Cuff; treasurer, Ira Priest and William Anderson; postmaster, Isaac Wendell. There were four applicants for the last named position, and Mr. Wendell, who had not applied, wanted the plum.

The mayor also appointed as a board of special assessors Thomas Goughlin, C. B. M. Craig and J. E. O'Neill.

JAMES S. DUNSTAN Formerly of Hancock, Michigan, at New York Office.

Imposing Events in Odd Fellows' Grand Encampment Yesterday.

The streets of almost every copper country town yesterday were filled for a time with hundreds of uniformed and regulated men and bands of music, all headed for Calumet to participate in the parades of the grand encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which is being held in the copper country metropolis this week. One train of eight coaches brought the south range contingent, and these were augmented in Houghton and Hancock by the lodges from those towns, as was also the case in Lake Linden. Shortly after noon yesterday it was estimated that there were 4,000 strangers in the streets of Red Jacket, in which portion of Calumet the encampment is being held.

The interest taken in the encampment in Calumet is shown by the fact that nearly every shaft in that district had almost to shut down because of the number of miners and other employees who had taken a day off to participate in the parades or to witness them. It is the biggest affair which Calumet has seen in years. It was quite impossible yesterday to gather a complete statement of the number of delegates, or lodges or cantons present. They had not all arrived in the morning nor had they all located themselves. There are 200 prominent encampment members in the town, as well as the officers of the grand encampment and all the prominent Odd Fellows of the state, to say nothing of the prominent Rebekahs.

Some of the prominent officers present are: John Gerhart of Saginaw, grand high priest; John B. Penfield of Vicksburg, grand scribe; Andrew Harshaw of Delray, grand treasurer; John J. Foster of Three Rivers, grand senior warden; J. L. Miller of Charlotte, grand marshal.

There are present at least three delegates from every Odd Fellow lodge, encampment and canton and Rebekah lodge in the state, and in a number of cases practically the entire membership of the canton of the town was present to participate in the prize drill held on Seventh street yesterday afternoon.

The festivities opened yesterday morning with a public reception at the Calumet theater, with Albert E. Peterman as chairman. The C. & H. orchestra furnished music and Rev. Harry Appleton of the Red Jacket Congregational church offered an invocation for the success of the encampment. President Schumaker of Red Jacket offered the visitors the freedom of the city, and Oscar J. Larson delivered a stirring welcoming address which was responded to by Grand Patriarch Bogart. Mrs. Louisa V. Grigg of Calumet delivered to her visiting sisters of the Daughters of Rebekah an address of welcome which was admittedly the brilliant effort of the day. Hardly less eloquent was the response of Mrs. Nora Conlin of Crystal Falls.

Captain Thomas Conlin of Crystal Falls, for the upper peninsula, welcomed the lower peninsula Odd Fellows, and General Robinson of Detroit, commanding the drills of the cantons, responded. The opening reception showed such a splendid spirit of welcome on the part of the people of Calumet and such a feeling of being perfectly entertained on the part of the visitors that it was an arguery of the success of the entire encampment.

In the afternoon there was the grand street parade, taking part in which were all branches of the I. O. F. in the copper country, all visiting lodges and cantons, half a dozen bands, the grand officers, village and county officers and others interested. Bands were broken at the Calumet theater, where William R. Oates of the Calumet bar delivered an address, an oratorical effort which greatly stirred his hearers. A. E. Peterman sang a solo as a concluding number. The parade drills of the cantons followed. The judges of the drills were: Colonel W. H. Thielman of Calumet, assistant inspector general, M. N. G.; Captain John Trevarrow, Calumet, commanding Company A, Engineers; Captain E. G. Heckel, commanding Houghton Light Infantry; Lieutenant J. C. Gannon, commanding Hancock Naval Reserve; Colonel J. P. Peterman, commander Thirty-fourth Michigan, U. S. V.; Major P. D. MacNaughton, medical staff, U. S. V.

The dance last night was one of the big social gatherings in the copper country. The music was provided by the full Calumet & Hecla band under the direction of Frederick Scott, and a big hall was crowded with dancers. A public exemplification of the decoration of obituary, an entertainment, degree, was given. This is one of the most beautiful ritualistic spectacles known.

The following is the program for today: Morning and afternoon devoted to the business of grand encampment at Hecla I. O. F. hall. 7 p. m.—Exemplification of Patriarchs

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

HEALTH ECONOMY

Calumet is made of the finest materials possible to select, and makes light, easily-digested bread, biscuits, wafers, etc. It is recommended by leading physicians and chemists.

In using Calumet you are always assured of a good baking, therefore, no waste of material or time. Calumet is put up in nickel cans; it will keep longer than any other baking powder on the market and has more raising power.

It is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect. Therefore, Calumet contains neither Salts or Alum in the food. It is chemically correct.

$1,000.00 given for any substance injurious to health found in Calumet

BIG DAY IN CALUMET.

Rev. Fisher of Chicago, who on Sunday filled the pulpit of the Red Jacket Congregational church by invitation of the congregation, made such a good impression that he was immediately asked to come to Calumet as pastor to succeed Rev. Harry Appleton, resigned. He had not given his decision yesterday. Mr. Fisher is a recent graduate of the Chicago Theological seminary and is a young minister of promise, particularly as a pulpit orator. It is seldom that a minister receives a call to an important post after such a short period of probation.

DELINQUENT TAX SALE.

County Treasurer Foley held yesterday morning at his office the annual tax sale for the delinquent tax lands of 1904 and previous years. There were a number of bidders present, and the sale was a pretty close one. The treasurer completed the first offer of the delinquent lands yesterday morning, but he re-offered them in the afternoon and could not tell yesterday how many descriptions had been sold, as he had yet not found time to make a compilation.

NAVIGATION IS OPENED HERE.

The steamers Flagg, Gilchrist and Walker, which were icebound for a week in Big Portage, succeeded in getting through to Lake Linden at a late hour Monday night. An unknown steamer went down through the Portage during the night, opening the channel for the open water at Houghton and Hancock and effecting the complete opening of navigation through the Portage lake waterways. It marked the latest opening in many years.

COPPERDOME BREVITIES.

Representative W. J. Gallbraith has returned to Lansing after a brief visit in Calumet on personal business.

Robert H. Shields of Houghton, president of the state tax commission, has gone to Lansing on official business.

Mrs. Catherine Betzler of Calumet, for nearly fifty years a resident of the copper country, died Monday. She is survived by a number of children. The funeral will take place today.

F. R. Viganet & Bros. of the Soo expect to open Saturday in their new store in Houghton. The stand will be known as the Yellow Front, and will carry a large line of curio and souvenir goods.

The members of Calumet lodge, Knights of Pythias, will entertain with a May ball tonight in Germania Hall. It is an enterprise intended to raise funds for the forthcoming upper peninsula reunion.

J. H. Lawton of Milwaukee, proprietor of the Grand theater in Calumet, is visiting here. He says that he has contracted for $2,400 in improvements to a store in Houghton for the purpose of transforming it into a moving picture house.

Alex. Colombe, recently brought back from Duluth to answer to a charge of desertion, secured bail on Monday. He was to have been given a hearing before Justice Brand in Houghton yesterday afternoon.

The "Tenderfoot" will put a baseball team against the Hancock amateurs next Sunday at Saek's park. The actors' nine will be the third of the profession seen here recently. "The Umpire" and the "Gingerbread Man" companies having carried baseball teams.

TOOK LITTLE INTEREST.

Just 123 People Voted on $75,000 in Bonding Propositions.

The special elections held Monday in Houghton and South Range demonstrated just how little interest there is in elections which are not political. The total vote east in two towns was just 132, though the questions involved were the expenditure of $75,000 of the money of the taxpayers.

In Houghton 82 persons voted on the question of bonding the village in the sum of $50,000 for the construction of sewers, sixty-six favorably and sixteen unfavorably. In South Range, 50 persons voted, 27 favorably and 23 unfavorably. Not even the people of West Houghton, who are regarded as the most sanitary measure to say nothing of the improvement to their property, took interest in the matter. In South Range the issue was to give the council authority to bond in the sum of $25,000 to build water works.

W. H. Miller, who presided over the meeting of the electors, says he knows little whether they received water or not. Only fifty voted, two of them against the proposal. In either one of these towns an election for highway overseer, an office which might expend $200 a year, would bring out many times as large a vote. It merely goes to show that politics and elections are the same thing to most people.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

Meeting Called for Sunday Morning at the Hancock Armory.

A meeting of the naval and military orders of Hancock and Houghton is called for Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Naval Reserve armory, Germania Hall, for the purpose of planning the program for the observance of Memorial Day. All members of military and naval orders are requested to be present.

It is proposed that this year the Portage Lake celebration of the day of memory be the most general in years. There are now the G. A. R., the Houghton Light Infantry, the Spanish-American War Veterans and the Naval Reserve to participate, and the observance should include a very splendid program at least the best parade in years. Calumet has already planned its observance.

HANCOCK FIREMEN MEET.

At the annual meeting of the Hancock fire department Monday night the following officers were elected: Chief, John N. Mitchell; first assistant, Paul H. Exley; second, John Schneider; secretary and treasurer, W. Frank James.

Alleged Elopement Couple Jailed.

A strapping good looking fellow of twenty-three and a rather attractive woman of about the same age are confined to the Alger county jail. The man is George Kelly, a woodsman. The woman is Mrs. Lilly May Drake, wife of Howard F. Drake. The couple are held on a serious charge. They are alleged to have eloped from Superior, Wis., a year ago last March, taking with them the woman's three-year-old child, a half-brother to which has been born, it is said, within the past three months. Kelly was arrested at a cedar camp near McMillan, later Mrs. Drake at Smith's Creek, St. Clair county, whether she had gone recently to visit relatives. The police had been searching for the couple the past year on a warrant procured at Superior by the alleged wronged husband. Drake has been employed as a time-keeper for a lumber company in Northern Wisconsin.

M. C. M. Students at the Candy—

A large number of young men, members of the class which will graduate from the Michigan College of Mines a year from now, have arrived at Quinnesec in charge of Professor Spurr and for the next few weeks will be engaged in making a geological survey of the Steel Corporation's Candy mine. The Candy property is not in operation at present, and thus there is furnished excellent opportunity for the work in hand. A complete map of the mine will be made. Later Mrs. Drake at Smith's Creek, St. Clair county, whether she had gone recently to visit relatives. The police had been searching for the couple the past year on a warrant procured at Superior by the alleged wronged husband. Drake has been employed as a time-keeper for a lumber company in Northern Wisconsin.

OLD DOMINION.

With reference to the proposed issue of 12,000 shares of new stock at $50 per share (par $25), President C. S. Smith of the Old Dominion company says: "The owners of a large majority of stock have already announced their intention of availing themselves of the privilege to subscribe for the new stock. The sale of the whole issue of new stock has been underwritten without any commission. The proceeds of the new stock will enable the Old Dominion to provide for the improvements now contemplated, and will furnish it a reasonable amount of working capital. With the provision thus made, the Old Dominion will be in a position to soon commence the payment of dividends. And with this new source of income, it is expected that the dividends of your company will be increased. The mines controlled by your company are rapidly reaching a condition where a large production at a small cost will be reasonably expected.

Within the last few months two important ore bodies have been developed, one in the westerly end of the mine which, so far as opened, is superior to any body of ore ever uncovered in the Globe camp, and one recently developed on the fourth level, near the old Interloper shaft. This latter body is a sulphide rich in copper, and gives evidence of being extensive and permanent. On account of the excessive flow of water, a shaft has been sunk in the westerly portion of the mine by means of which in connection with improved pumping machinery, the cost of pumping will be greatly reduced. When this is done, the mining of these rich ores will be undertaken.

The development of the Continental mine as well as of the United Mine and Iron Mountain mines have uncovered more sulphide ore, so that at the present time more than 50 per cent of the sulphide ore required is being obtained from mines controlled by your company. It is expected that soon the necessity of importing sulphide ore will have been wholly overcome, and that the mines controlled by your company will furnish not only the sulphur, but also the iron, lime, and other ores required for the most economical smelting mixture. Lack of sufficient sulphides, hitherto a serious handicap to the mines controlled by your company, will thus have been overcome.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the First National bank of Iron Mountain the usual semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent was declared. It was payable to stockholders of record a few days ago. The directors have also provisions necessary to secure a new charter. The present charter will expire next October.

S.S.S. CHRONIC ULCERS

Chronic Ulcers are the result of a deeply polluted and foul blood supply. The blood is filled with impurities and germs which are being constantly fed into the place through the circulation, until all the surrounding flesh becomes diseased and the sore an obstinate and permanent trouble. Every symptom of an old ulcer suggests pollution; the discharge, the red, angry looking flesh, the inflammation and discoloration of surrounding parts, all show that the ulcer is prevented from healing by the constant drainage through it of impurities from the blood. This impure condition of the blood may be hereditary, or it may be the remains of some constitutional disease, or the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption of the refuse of the body which has not been properly expelled through the natural channels. But whatever the cause, the blood is so weakened and polluted that it does not properly nourish and stimulate the place, and the sore cannot heal. Salves, plasters, lotions, etc., keep the sore or ulcer clean, relieve pain, and perhaps reduce inflammation, but can never permanently heal them because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. and germs, builds up the weak, sluggish blood, gives energy and strength to the system, and by sending a fresh, healthy stream of blood to the diseased parts, allows the ulcer to heal naturally and permanently. Nothing reaches inherited taints like S. S. S. It cleanses the circulation of every trace of hereditary disease or impurity, and those who have nursed and treated an old sore for years will experience good results as soon as the system becomes influenced by S. S. S. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free to all who write.

William Henderson, of Indianapolis, Ind., has taken the position of clerk at the Brunswick hotel.

Returns from the O'Brien-Burns boat at Los Angeles tonight will be received at George Knapp's sample rooms.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Anderson, No. 325 East Arch street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The steamer W. P. Rend delivered a consignment of 3,000 tons of anthracite coal to Pickands & Co. yesterday, and the firm is now prepared to fill orders.

The Marquette office of the weather bureau will begin issuing its daily weather bulletin Friday morning. The bulletin will be published until Dec. 10.

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. H. Maxson have left for a month's visit at Hornellsville, N. Y., and other Eastern points. They will visit the Jamestown exposition before returning home.

House night, or rather "stein night," will be observed at the Marquette club Friday evening. Each member is asked to donate a stein. Lunch will be served, and there will be musical attractions.

Dr. Wilson, of the board of pardons, arrived in the city yesterday. The other members were expected on the afternoon train from the east, but were held up by a freight wreck below the straits and lost the connection.

The Marquette city team and the Rivals will furnish the baseball menu for Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds. The Rivals are comprised of several railroad men and employes of the prison, and are said to be an unusually fast aggregation.

Services at St. Peter's—Thursday—The Feast of the Ascension—will be a holy day of obligation for members of the Roman Catholic faith. Services at St. Peter's will be held as follows: Masses at 5:30, 7 and 9 o'clock a. m., the latter a high mass; vespers and benediction at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Concert Tonight Again—The success of the little folks' concert at the Methodist church last evening surpassed all expectations. So many people wished to attend that all could not find room in the auditorium. For this reason the entertainment will be repeated tonight. The children acquitted themselves admirably last evening. Every number on the program was enthusiastically received.

New Gold Flotation—Fred H. Bogale has launched a new gold proposition in the Wonder camp of Nevada. The claims embraced are the Bald Eagle group, which are said to carry the best lodes in the district. An allotment of stock has been set aside for Marquette people, and subscriptions for this will be received the next few days by Frank Stickney, broker, in the Harlow block.

Books Dixie Minstrels—Manager A. F. Koepke has booked the Dixie Minstrels for the opera house, Thursday, May 15. The troupe is composed entirely of colored people and is said to be the best of its kind on the road. Many of its members have made hits in vaudeville, and the singing specialties are said to compare favorably with those of the best white minstrel attractions.

Three Hours to Lock Through Soo—Captains of steamers making this port yesterday say that in some instances it takes more than three hours to lock through the Soo, owing to ice jamming the gates. Whitelid point, which was reported comparatively free from ice a few days ago, was again in a dangerous condition Monday, owing to a strong northwest wind which piled the ice up in quantities. There is a great deal of floating ice in the lake and boats have to exercise greater care than in many years at this season.

Judge to Appoint Prosecutor—Judge Stone has announced that he will appoint a prosecutor to conduct the case of the state vs. Willis X. Mills to be tried at the August term of the Menominee county circuit court. Mills, who was formerly a prominent attorney of Menominee, is charged with having assaulted and seriously beaten Under Sheriff Ruprecht when the officer attempted to serve a summons on him in a civil action. On account of the personal animosity existing between Prosecuting Attorney Doyle and the defendant Judge Stone decided to relieve Mr. Doyle from the necessity of appearing in the case.

Many Patients Sent to Hospital—In spite of the fact that the state asylum at Newberry has been in an overcrowded condition for some time, and probate judges have been requested to commit as few patients as possible, an unusually large number of parietic ataxia cases have been sent there within the past few days. The South Shore train leaving this city Monday afternoon at 2:30 carried six, four from Houghton and one each from Marquette and Iron Mountain. In order to provide accommodations for the new arrivals patients are being paroled as rapidly as is deemed safe.

Thought Salmon Were Trout—"This is the season of the year when fishermen are catching enormous trout, to hear 'em tell it," said Captain John Parker yesterday. "The worst of it is that some of these fellows are perfectly conscientious in their yarns. A case in point occurred a season or so ago. 'A friend of mine told me that he had caught two enormous trout. There was no question as to their being trout, he said, because he had been catching trout all his life and knew what they looked like. He had kept the fish alive as curiosities and he showed them to me. 'Did you ever see such big trout?' he asked. 'No,' I replied, 'nor anybody else. Those are landlocked salmon.' Well, he wouldn't believe me until he had sent the fish into Chicago and had my statement verified. Now, if that man hadn't found out that those fish were salmon he would have told the story of the big trout he once caught to his dying day, and got the reputation of being an awful liar, though telling something that he really believed to be the truth."

To Begin Development—It has been decided to begin active development at the property of the Saux Head Copper Mining company. A meeting of stockholders was held here Monday night. It was addressed by C. A. Stringer and J. G. Kreig of Detroit, who had just returned from a trip to the property, after which the following officers and directors were elected: P. C. Moloney, Marquette, chairman; F. E. Kreig, Birch, vice-chairman; C. H. Kreig, Marquette, secretary and treasurer; directors, the officers and Martin Sweder and C. A. Stringer. At the property it is planned to shortly begin further sinking at No. 2 shaft and to open up the vein. The showing at this shaft is said to be very good, copper glance being encountered in connection with the gold and silver. The shaft is only a mile from the railroad, and a new wagon road extends to it from Birch.

Illustrates Jiu Jitsu—Three boxing bouts and a wrestling match formed the card at the athletic show conducted by Duncan C. Ross at Legion Hall last evening. Two of the boxing bouts were pretty lame. The men exhibited all the affection toward each other that might be expected in Alphonse and Gaston after a long separation. As they had been informed by Chief Manning, however, that fighting would not be allowed, they should be excused for not putting up much of an exhibition. Two boys of about ten years of age were given the laugh as they stripped for action, but the kids tore into each other like a couple of monkeys fighting for a banana and the bout was full of action. Captain Ross gave an exhibition of swordsmanship by severing a potato wrapped in a hamkerchief without cutting the cloth, and then cut in half a potato placed on a man's neck. Subsequently he illustrated the different holds used in jiu jitsu. A wrestling match between two local boys closed the show. Each won a fall and the third bout was called off after they had mangled each other for some minutes without an advantage to either.

LAGER IN DEMAND.

Far-Off Manchuria Becoming a Beer-Drinking Country. Washington, May 7.—Manchuria is rapidly becoming a beer-drinking country. Japan supplies the beverage in large quantities, although the establishment of foreign breweries at Shanghai and in northern China has interfered somewhat with the sale of Japanese beers in the immediate vicinity. Japan, however, continues to monopolize the sale of this product in Korea and Manchuria, where her merchants have not been slow to grasp the commercial opportunities offered in those markets. The state department by the last mail from Japan received an interesting account from its consul general at Yokohama, H. B. Miller, of the development of beer brewing in Japan. Twenty years ago the first brewery was opened, and like so many other enterprises which owe their later development to the Japanese, the brewing industry was launched by foreigners whose first aim was to cater to the requirements of the foreign residents. It was not until some years later that the Japanese awoke to the extent of the demand for the commodity among their own people. Consul General Miller writes that the master brewers in Japan were at the outset Germans. Following the lead of the foreigners and to secure a share of the growing trade, Japanese breweries were established in half a dozen leading cities in Japan. How rapidly the industry has grown may be seen from the development of the brewery at Sapporo, which increased its production from 235,302 gallons in 1897 to 5,570,906 gallons in 1904. The growth of the industry was at the rate of 30 to 40 per cent per annum from 1894 to 1901, when its rapid development received a check as the result of the imposition of a tax which is still levied and was supplemented later by a war tax of 50 cents per koku. Last year Japan's breweries turned out 6,000,000 gallons of beer and exported nearly $800,000 worth. The bulk of the exports went to China.

NO MONEY FOR GOOD ROADS.

Because of the failure of the board of supervisors to appropriate funds as expected, the plans of the Delta county road commission have been sadly damaged. It was the intention to have macadamized twelve miles of highway this season under conditions that would have earned a share in the state bounty. None of this work will now be done. There is a net balance of only $3,342.52 available for use this season, and with this amount the commission will be required to build a number of culverts and make necessary repairs on the forty-six miles of highway included in the county road system.

COMPANY A STRONG ONE.

CAUGHT IN MOVING CAGE.
Workman at Section 16 Mine Had Spine Fractured Monday Night.

Jacob Valimaki, a miner employed at the Oliver Iron Mining company's Section 16 mine, came very nearly being instantly killed Monday night. He attempted to jump into a cage, as it was passing one of the lower levels in the mine, and missed his footing. He was crushed between the cage and shaft timbers, sustaining a fracture of the spine, also severe internal injuries. While he was alive and reported doing very nicely last evening, it is not thought that the unfortunate man will survive his injuries. Valimaki is thirty-seven years of age. He has not been in the country very long. He has a wife and five children in Finland. His boarding place is 331 Carp street, but he is being cared for at the Ishpeming hospital.

GOOD SEASON IN PROSPECT.
Concrete Contractors Expect to Start Building Walks Within Few Days.

The concrete walk work will be started in this city within a few days, provided the weather warms up. Both Anderson & Kilbride and Mitchell & Sherman, who have employed crews here the past few seasons, have a number of contracts on hand and they expected to begin work long before this.

Mr. Kilbride said yesterday that he has a large number of contracts and that he can begin work on a day's notice, as soon as the weather warrants making a start. His first job will be at St. Joseph's church, where a new walk will be laid along the front and in the yard. Concrete steps are also to be put in at the church. Anderson & Kilbride expect to employ two crews for at least part of the season. Mr. Kilbride may not remain here all season, as he has been asked to take some contracts at Ironwood, where he had a crew last season. He may spend most of the summer there, leaving his business here in charge of his son John, who looked after the greater part of the Ishpeming work last season.

Mitchell & Sherman expect to have a busy season at their concrete block factory. Most of the foundations to be built in both this city and Negaunee this year will be of concrete. A number of orders have already been booked. The firm also has a number of concrete walk contracts to be started as soon as the weather will permit.

SNOW COVERS FIELDS.

"The farmers of this district certainly have reason to feel discouraged," one of their number said yesterday. "No planting of any kind has been done, and nothing much can be done until the weather warms up. There are places in my fields where the snow drifts are still from one to three feet deep. I don't believe all of the snow will be gone for at least two weeks. A year ago this time I had potatoes in the ground. I planted my first potatoes April 28 and put in my last May 5. It was not too early, as the frosts after the latter date were not severe enough to injure the seed. My entire crop of hay and oats was in May 1, but this spring I have not yet planted a single seed of any kind.

"I fear the season will be a bad one. Our crops will surely be later than usual, under the most favorable weather conditions. It will be late when our potatoes will be in fit condition to dig. In spite of the fact that potatoes went in unusually early last season I know of many who suffered losses in the fall. The weather was so unfavorable for several weeks in October and November that many left their crop in the ground until a short time before winter set in.

POOL TOURNAMENT.

C. M. Webber won the pool tournament just terminated at George Wane's pool and billiard hall, having won ten out of the thirteen games played. Webber and H. Vivian were a tie for first place, the former winning in the extra game. The prize is a fine cue, worth $8. The standings of the several participants were as follows:

JACOBS TO SELL OUT.

August Jacobs, who conducted a blacksmith and wagon business at the corner of Division and Lake streets for a number of years, was among the farmers in the city yesterday. He took the Rock farm at the Rock's kilns two years ago. He has worked as hard as any man ever did to make his venture pay, but has found that there is no money in it. He said yesterday that he has made a living and no more. He now proposes to sell his livestock, implements, etc., at public auction, letting the outfit go to the highest bidder. He has eleven head of cattle, seven horses and a number of first-class implements. After disposing of the property Mr. Jacobs will return to the blacksmith business, going in the business with his son, who has had his ship since his retirement. The sale will take place at the farm May 20, at 1:30 p. m.

GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barefield, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

Isabel Irving Will Be Seen Here Tonight in Delightful Comedy.

The Minneapolis News last week said, in part, of Miss Isabel Irving and her company in "Susan in Search of a Husband," tonight's offering at the Ishpeming theatre:

"The company which has been sent here by Liebler & Co. is a very strong one, being capable in every instance. Miss Irving is Susan, married at fifteen, immediately losing her husband, only to meet him again six years later as a chambermaid at a Welsh inn. Here the scene of the play is laid.

"The quaint customs of the people and the local color that is thrown in becomes fascinating. Susan meets her school chum, Robina Pennicque, a part taken by Jessie Izett, and together they plot matrimonial success.

"Most of the comedy arises from the fact that they change places, Susan becoming the American heiress.

"Hassard Short is Lord Rathbone, the sailor husband, whose love is rather fickle but whose heart is at least in the right place. Mr. Short is an Englishman, so he knows how to act the part, and he is a very good one, too.

"A. G. Andrews makes an admirable village constable, while Herbert Standing is not far behind as 'The Doctor.' Then there is Ernest Mainwaring doing good work as Horace Greenleaf, a county solicitor, and Marie Wainwright as Elizabeth Hatfield, who has hard work looking after her brother, the 'Lord.' "The staging of the piece should be much admired."

WILL BE MARRIED TOMORROW.

Rev. Frank Walters, son of John Walters of this city, and Miss Alice Muller, daughter of James H. Molloy, local agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, will be married tomorrow at the home of the bride's parents on North Fifth street. Rev. Walters is pastor of the Methodist church at Buchanan, Mich.

FROM HOPKINS' CURB LETTER.

"Copper shares were reactionary again today. The further decline in London metal of 1 point 10 shillings 6 pence for spot and 2 pounds for futures, stimulated bear activity. In most of the standard copper sellers were more numerous than buyers, and the market drifted in a listless manner, with the tendency downward. Since noon the market has again drifted into a dull affair, but is holding steady at a fractional advance from the lowest. The strength that developed in the New York market had a good effect on the coppers and should the first named hold, we would not be surprised to see a further advance in Boston. The weakness displayed in New York was caused by rumors that Secretary Carleton would withdraw $15,000,000 from the banks, but this turned out to be untrue. North Butte has shown that it is in a strong position and not easily hammered. Copper Range is also showing that it is capable of resisting attacks by the bears and is in about the same position market-wise as North Butte."

WILL REPEAT DRAMA.

At the request of the Mine Workers' union, as well as others, the Ishpeming Dramatic club, composed of members of the Junior Reclimable society, will repeat the comedy drama, "Out in the Streets," the proceeds going to Samuel Hosking, who was severely injured at the Cleveland Lake mine nearly two years ago, and who is still unable to work. The entertainment will be given Monday evening, May 27, at the Ishpeming theatre. The prices of tickets will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen for children. There will be no seats reserved in advance, the tickets being good for any part of the theater. Members of the union and dramatic club will sell tickets in advance, so that a full house is assured.

HAVE TAKEN ANOTHER ROUTE.

Charles Johnson has had a troublesome task moving the Joachim dwelling from its former site to its new location on West Ridge street. After getting the house as far as the intersection of Main and Ridge streets he found that it would not pass under the telephone cables. Several attempts were made to raise the cables sufficiently to permit the building to pass, but without success. Yesterday the building was started back over some of the territory previously covered, and it will now be taken around the block between Main and Pine streets.

TO DOUBLE THE FORCE.

Rolling Mill Mine Will Have 200 Men on Pay Roll Within Thirty Days.

The Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company has completed the spur to the Rolling Mill mine, but it will be several days before all of the tracks in the mine yard are finished. One is now being shipped, the first trainload having been sent out the latter part of last week.

There are about 100 men on the Rolling Mill pay roll, but Superintendent Walters said yesterday that this force will be doubled within thirty days. He also said that men are to be added underground as fast as places are available, so it is possible that the working force will be from 300 to 400 before the close of the year. Several drifts have already been opened from the shaft, all leading to the main ore body.

No work will be done this summer in the open pit, from which a considerable tonnage was shipped some years ago. The Rolling Mill is well equipped for a large output, as its machinery is large enough for a mine from four to five times the present size of the property.

MARY CHARLOTTE DWELLINGS.

L. E. Chaussee Will Begin Work on Structures in About Two Weeks.

L. E. Chaussee, who has been awarded the contract for the erection of ten double houses at the Mary Charlotte mine, ordered the greater part of the material yesterday, and said that he expected to break ground for the foundations within two weeks. Each house will contain ten rooms, with basements ten by thirteen feet in size. The houses are similar to those Mr. Chaussee erected a few years ago at the Pioneer furnace, Marquette, and also like the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's houses at Princeton.

It is not expected that the building operations at this property during the present year will be confined to the ten dwellings, as a double boarding house and other buildings are to be erected before long. The location selected for the houses is a desirable one and each of the occupants will be given ground for gardens. With this contract and the parochial school job on his hands, Mr. Chaussee will have work for a large force of carpenters.

MRS. MAAS' FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Angelina Maas, held yesterday morning from St. Paul's church, was one of the largest seen here in many months. Nearly every available carriage in both cities was in use. A number of friends of the family at Ishpeming and Marquette were present. The services, conducted by Rev. Joseph Langner, the pastor, consisted of a low mass, said at the request of the deceased. The attendance at the service was unusually large, every seat having been occupied. The pall bearers were John P. Miller, John E. O'Donoghue, Thomas J. Flynn, Joseph E. Suess, William M. Quinn and John Manning.

SKETCHES ACCEPTED.

The building committee for the Odd Fellows new block, to be erected at the corner of Iron and Tobin streets, accepted pencil sketches submitted by J. D. Chubb of Chicago, at a meeting Monday evening. Slight alterations were made. The sketches were returned yesterday and Mr. Chubb was instructed to get out the plans and specifications as soon as possible. As soon as the plans and specifications are received the committee will advertise for bids, and it is expected that it will be possible to award the contract not later than June 1.

PASSION PLAY TONIGHT.

The members of the Mitchell Methodist church are showing much interest in the reproduction of the Passion Play in moving pictures at the church this evening. The attraction comes highly recommended. About 4,000 feet of film will be used, showing life size pictures and giving not only a true idea of the Passion Play itself but also of the life of Jesus, the Messiah. The price of admission will be twenty-five cents.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Mrs. George McKinney of Bessemer is in the city, visiting friends.

Charles Arston, a well-known jobber of Little Lake, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Isaac Rosen and her daughter, Rena, and baby, will leave today for Syracuse, N. Y., on a month's visit to relatives.

Mrs. George Wagner and Mrs. W. C. Board of Marquette attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Angelina Maas in this city yesterday.

Edward Maas of California, who was called to the city on account of the death of his mother, the late Mrs. Angelina Maas, arrived on the early Northwestern train yesterday morning.

A large number of Negaunee people will witness the production of the comedy, "Susan in Search of a Husband," by Isabel Irving and her company this evening at Ishpeming theater.

Rev. W. B. Coombe, pastor of the Mitchell Methodist church, is slated for an address at the Houghton district convention at Laurium on 4 and 5. His subject will be "The Church's Obligations to the Heathen World."

Alexander Maitland, wife and daughter, Miss Kate, arrived home yesterday. Mrs. Maitland and her daughter spent the winter in California. Mr. Maitland leaving here a week or so ago to meet them.

WOLVES IN THE LEAD.

League Bowling Contests Will Probably Be Ended Next Week.

The Wolves now lead in the tournament league series being bowled at Orr & Tompkins' alleys, having won six games and lost two, with one to play. If the Cubs, who are in second place, win their next four contests, and the Wolves win the remaining one, they will be a tie for first place.

The standings of the teams are now as follows:

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in Marquette.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of Marquette:

Joseph Labissomiere, of 500 South Seventh street, Marquette, Mich., says: "I have used Deane's Kidney Pills and one box of them did me more good than all the other remedies I had taken. I suffered severely with my kidneys and back for years and had to lay off work a number of times on account of the intense pain all through my back. There was a constant dull aching misery accompanied by acute knife-like thrusts when I least expected it and the pains would be so intense as to bring tears to my eyes. The secretions from my kidneys were very much disordered, very dark and of a strong odor, also containing brick dust sediment. I declared and tried many remedies without success until finally I saw Deane's Kidney Pills advertised and highly spoken of, so I went to the Stafford Drug Co.'s store, obtained a box and began using them. I noticed a change for the better in twenty-four hours. I continued taking them using three boxes, when the trouble all disappeared and has never returned. My wife was similarly affected. She also used Deane's Kidney Pills and the results were the same in her case. We are both more than glad to give our names as endorsers of this valuable remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Deane's—and take no other.

It is an interesting fact that people who are compelled to give up the use of ordinary coffee can drink Barrington Hall without ill effects.

Barrington Hall - The Steel-Cut Coffee

is just pure coffee of high quality, prepared by our patented process, which cuts the coffee berry into fine, uniform particles and removes from it all chaff, dust and foreign matter. Barrington Hall, therefore, consists of only the best parts of the coffee berry; shown by the fact that the tannin-bearing skin (or chaff), dust, etc., which are removed by this process, when steeped alone, make an undrinkable decoction.

From the small, even, refined particles of Barrington Hall it is possible to produce a cup free from the objection which eminent medical authorities agree comes from over-steeping the small particles in unevenly ground coffee, to say nothing of the tannin-bearing skin and dust left in coffee which has been ground in a coffee mill.

Another unanswerable reason why It Excels All Other Coffees in Flavor is because by the Steel-Cut process the little oil cells in the roasted coffee bean are not crushed, as in grinding; thus the rich aromatic oil (food product) which makes coffee flavorful is conserved to a remarkable degree. This is one reason why 1 pound of Barrington Hall will make 15 to 20 cups more of pure, full-strength coffee than would the same coffee ground in a coffee mill.

The best test is in the using. We want everybody to try it. Sold nearly everywhere, price 25c. Caution—Baker's Barrington Hall is the only genuine Steel-Cut coffee. If your grocer will not supply you, let us tell you where and how to get it. Address nearest office, giving your grocer's name.

WOULD ADVERTISE THE CITY

Mayor Robertson Favors Celebration and Hopes to See It Made One of the Best Ever Arranged Here.

A mass meeting of citizens will be held in the council chamber at the city hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock to take up the matter of a Fourth of July celebration with Aldermen Downey, Siegel and Senauer, the committee appointed by Mayor Robertson at Monday evening's session of the council. In speaking of the matter yesterday, Mayor Robertson said: "I would like to have the celebration this year a memorable one. I am a sincere believer in the efficacy of making good citizens through instilling the spirit of patriotism in the youth of the land by a proper observance of the Fourth of July. A boy that doesn't have a deep love and reverence for the land of his birth is not so likely to entertain as much respect for its laws as one who does. I believe that on the Fourth inspiring music should be played, the old war songs sung, the Declaration of Independence read and a stirring address delivered. For several years prior to last we did not have much of a celebration, but last Fourth we had an excellent observance. I should like to have an even more memorable one this year. I do not know yet whom we could secure to deliver the address, but we should have an able orator, even if we have to import him.

"Aside from the tribute due the day, I believe a big celebration is a good thing for the city. As the county seat, Marquette should be the rallying point on an occasion of that character. Unless plans for the celebration are formulated well in advance and properly advertised other towns will probably arrange to observe the day and the attendance here will be greatly reduced. I do not think that we should economize in the matter of advertising. I believe that we should perfect our arrangements as soon as possible and then let every man, woman and child in the county know what to expect. I favor the outlining of the entire program well in advance. There should be a ball game, horse racing if feasible, and a number of competitive contests of strength and skill.

Fee Want to Serve.
"The great trouble in arranging for public celebrations is the difficulty experienced in getting the proper organization perfected. There is not a business man in Marquette but who will unhesitatingly pronounce a Fourth of July celebration a good thing, but a great many of them look to their neighbors to do the work. I would like to see every business man in this city, who can possibly attend, at the meeting tomorrow, and I should further like to see every one of them express a willingness to do committee work."

HOLD LONG SESSION.
Definite Action Postponed by Park, Cemetery and Street Commission.

After a session lasting over three hours at its quarters in the city hall last evening, the park, cemetery and street commission took an adjournment until this evening at 8 o'clock. The rules governing the work of the commission and the system of bookkeeping to be adopted were the main subjects of discussion, and definite action was postponed until the meeting tonight. It was expected that the resolution passed the previous meeting ordering the custodian of Presque Isle to dispense with all livestock, save a horse, would be brought up for discussion and possibly repealed, but the matter was not reached. The commission, with the mayor and street commissioner, will visit the parks and cemeteries and make a tour of the streets today with the view of informing themselves of their condition and to secure an idea from personal observation of the work to be done.

AN ALL STAR COMPANY.
Will Appear Here in Support of Isabel Irving Saturday Night.

It is a curious set of circumstances that brings that charming American comedienne, Miss Isabel Irving, and her select company of players to the opera house Saturday night to appear in the new play, "Susan in Search of a Husband." It is an old saying that it is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and in this case local theatergoers will have to thank that ill wind, for had it not been for the said malicious zephyr the present opportunity might never have come this way. At the beginning of the present dramatic season George C. Tyler, the executive head of the wellknown firm of Litcher & Co., put in force the plan of presenting Miss Eleanor Robson in a series of new plays to run through the entire season at the Liberty theater in New York. Wishing to give her every opportunity for success, he engaged the best company for her that money could procure, and signed each player for the entire season.

Four plays were given up to a few weeks ago but when the fifth vehicle was being made ready, it was discovered that this new effort made no provision for seven members of Miss Robson's company. As these players were under contract for this season, it became necessary to pay them their full salaries—which by the way would frighten the ordinary layman into a spasm—whether they played or not. In this dilemma Mr. Tyler bestowed him of a way out. He had engaged Miss Irving for a series of special performances with Miss Robson's company, and he conceived the idea of placing her at the head of an organization composed wholly of Miss Robson's unavailable company and sending the new organization forth in the third play in which Miss Robson had made such a success. Miss Irving had played in this particular vehicle, and so had the remaining seven members of the company so it was the simplest matter in the world to take the complete production, rehearse the players in it in their old parts, and secure a route of cities in which they should play. Hence the appearance of Miss Irving and a company the like of which has seldom been seen in this territory.

Carefully enough five members of the present company have been stars in their own right prior to this engagement, and this may give some idea of the quality of the coming performance. These members are of course Miss Irving herself, Herbert Standing, Miss Marie Wainwright, Howard Smart and Miss Jessie Izett. The remainder of the company, including Mr. Andrews and Mr. Mainwaring have won laurels for themselves in the best companies of the American stage. Mr. Andrews has been for fifteen continuous seasons in the company of Richard Mansfield, and Mr. Mainwaring, prior to his appearance in this country last season, was for some time a member of the famous Haymarket Theater company in London, and associated at an earlier period with John Drew, George Alexander, Sir Henry Irving, Bootham Tree, Cyril Maude and Sir Charles Wyndham.

DESIGNS ARE COMPLIMENTED.

Miss Cecil Grylls Meets With Success in Her Work in Mexico.

Miss Cecil Grylls, the former well known Marquette artist, is winning fame as designer in Mexico. Miss Grylls recently designed covers for a series of folders issued by the National Lines of Mexico, as part of an advertising campaign waged by that road in an effort to increase passenger traffic, which have attracted wide attention and have been referred to by the Mexican press as "most artistic creations." Miss Grylls is now in England, but expects to return to the City of Mexico and resume her work in the fall.

The series of folders which has occupied her attention consists of one folder for each of the four roads in the National lines system. One treats of the National line proper, from Laredo to the City of Mexico, and was issued some time ago, under the title "Mexico." It told in a general way of the things to be seen, the cities to be visited and the best routes from the border to the capital. The second folder, just issued, concerns the Interoceanic road, under the title "From Capital to Coast and Tropics," and is even handsomer than the first folder in design. Both are illustrated with many pictures taken from actual photographs. Every town on the road is mentioned and the history, products and interesting points near each written up. The two other folders for which Miss Grylls did the designing are entitled the "International" and the "Uraupain."

TELLS OF ISLE OF PINES.
Visitor to the Island Enthusiastic Regarding Its Prospects.

C. M. Schultz, of Grand Rapids, who recently returned from the Isle of Pines, where he owns considerable property, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Schultz says that one of the evidences of Spanish inertia and lack of enterprise is found in the fact that though this island was until the conclusion of the Cuban rebellion ten years ago under the domination of Spain for centuries, it continued almost a wilderness. "The only thing that Spain ever used the island for," said Mr. Schultz, was a hospital. Though but a few miles separate it from the coast of Cuba it is never scourged by yellow fever or any of the epidemics that ravage the mainland. This is probably due to the fact that it is swept by the sea breezes and has no swamps that breed miasma. Yellow fever patients brought there from the mainland in the old days almost invariably recovered, if they retained enough vitality to successfully withstand the strain of the trip. Americans now form the greater part of its population and have made it a veritable paradise. Almost everything in the line of fruit is grown there, though the crops in the main are oranges, pineapples and grape fruit, which stand shipping well and command a good price at all seasons of the year.

"The manner in which the grape fruit has attained popularity with the past few years is truly astonishing. A decade ago you couldn't give them away. Hundreds of trees were chopped down in order to make way for orange orchards. Now grape fruit is a part of the menu of every good hotel and restaurant and commands a far higher market price than oranges. There are two things that popularize the grape fruit. In the first place it contains a large amount of quinine in a vegetable form and during the spring of the year is a much better tonic for the system than most of the high priced nostrums. That is the reason it is utilized so largely as the first breakfast course. Again, in some indefinable way, the grape fruit obtains a hold on the user something after the manner of tobacco. Let any man use grape fruit for a few weeks steadily and he would experience difficulty in giving them up. It undoubtedly exerts a narcotic effect, though it is of type that is certainly not injurious. Olives exert the same effect though in a lesser degree. It is by no means an uncommon sight to see a man purchase a small bottle of olives in a grocery and eat them on the spot."

PREDICTS GREAT BUSINESS.
Traffic on Lakes Will Run Ahead of Traffic in 1906.

President Livingstone, of the Lake Carriers' association, when asked as to the shipping prospects for the coming year, said: "I think the outlook was never better than it is on the opening of the season of 1907. The magnitude of the business on the lakes during the past five years, in the distribution of products between the east and the west, is difficult to realize.

"Four years ago the first 10,000-ton freighter was brought out. It was then an experiment. But it was so successful that it has revolutionized lake-carrying, and practically all of the contracts which are now crowding the shippers are for boats of this size or larger. "I am confident of a great increase in east and west bound freight this year in all the great staples—iron ore, coal, copper, grain and general merchandise. Last year the total traffic by way of the Soo was over fifty million tons, an increase of over twenty million tons in two years. "The opening of this year indicates a similar ratio of increase in this traffic. In addition to that through the Soo, there was approximately 18,000,000 tons of freight moved to and from Chicago and other Lake Michigan ports by way of the Straits of Mackinac and there will be a corresponding increase in this branch this year. "This makes the total traffic from the upper lakes about 70,000,000 tons last year, with prospects of further increase this year. "With new ships coming from the yards as fast as they can be turned out and freight abundant for all of them, I foresee for the great lakes, as an artery of traffic between the east and west, the most successful year in their history."
