FILIPINOS SHOW BUT LITTLE INTEREST

Apathy Marks the Campaign for Congress, and the Vote Will Be Very Light.

Manila, July 26.—The approach of the first Philippine general election, July 30, which the congress will be chosen, is marked by considerable apathy, in spite of the strenuous efforts of the party leaders to bring out the vote. Reports from the provinces indicate that only 60,000 of less than 10 per cent of the voting population have registered. Partly because of the independent factions, which united under the name of Nationalists, appeared to control the situation, and the Progressives, Secretary Tait's old party, did not seem to have much of a following. The situation is changed, however, by today's proclamation would be futile. The "Nationalists" are split by fractional fights.

STATE OF THE NATION'S TRADE

New York, July 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Trade Review will tomorrow say:

It is still noteworthy that there is practically none of the customary complaining of mid-summer dullness in commercial channels. On the contrary, reports from many cities announce that all the early backwardness in light-weight fabrics has been made up, and the liberal distribution of merchandise is accompanied by steady improvement in mercantile collections. Preparations for fall and winter proceed with evident confidence.

In the leading industries, there is little machinery, and the only mercury to note new recovery in price is the interruption to the ore movement by a strike that has reduced shipments about two million tons in three weeks. The footwear factories have received fairly liberal orders for case goods, but the volume of new business has not equalled anticipations. Buyers are still in the Eastern market however.

Fresh from every crime he brought Orchard back "home to Denver," then leaned toward the jury to ask: "Why always back to Denver, unless to find there the protection and pay of his employers?"

DEATH IS ASKED FOR HAYWOOD

United States Senator Borah, Closing the Arguments at Boise, Is Heard in a Dramatic and Impassioned Plea.

Boise, July 26.—The evidence is in and the argument has been concluded, and tomorrow morning the jury will be left to decide what penalty, if any, William Haywood shall pay for his alleged participation in a criminal conspiracy resulting in the assassination of former Governor Frank Steunenberg.

WHOM HE DECLARES THE CRIMINAL FORCE BEHIND WESTERN FEDERATION, HE CONCLUDES HIS ANALYSIS OF THE EVIDENCE BY DEMANDING THE EXTREME PENALTY PRESCRIBED BY LAW—CASE GOES TO THE JURY THIS MORNING.

United States Senator Wm. F. Borah, engaged by Idaho as special counsel for the prosecution, spoke the last words tonight. Tomorrow morning Judge Fremont Wood will instruct the jury, which is expected to retire about 11 o'clock. The crowd seeking admission to the court room tonight broke all records in a murder trial in Idaho. Two hundred remained in the grounds when the doors closed after the morning session, and hours before the doors opened again all approaches were blocked. When finally every seat and inch of space within the court room were filled, several hundred persons stood on the lawn under the open windows that they might catch sentences from the impassioned pleading of the young senator.

CHARGES Foul CONSPIRACY

Mr. Borah laid the foundation for his argument last night. This morning he began an analysis of the evidence, but confined himself to the murder of Governor Steunenberg and that particular conspiracy. He linked Orchard to Haywood, Haywood to Simpson, Simpson to Moyer, and Moyer to Pettibone. Then, selecting only evidence for the defense, leaving Orchard's confession, he wove the lives and movements of the five men together. Without departing from several situations, he brought these members of the Western Federation of Miners together.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A convention of the Republicans of the 31st senatorial district of Michigan is hereby called to meet in the Ishpeming theater in the city of Ishpeming, on Tuesday, the 18th day of August, A. D. 1907, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination three candidates for delegates to the convention to be held in the city of Lansing for the purpose of making a general revision of the constitution of the state of Michigan, said delegates to be elected at a special election to be held on the 17th day of September, 1907.

The several counties comprising the district are entitled to one delegate in said convention for every five hundred votes, or an excess of a majority thereof, cast therein for governor at the last presidential election, no county being entitled to less than two delegates, making the following representation, to-wit:

By order of the Republican Committee for the 31st Senatorial District of Michigan.

Mr. Reid, the great American entertainer, has had another evening party, and "everybody was there." Incidentally Mr. Reid doubtless blew in at least a year's salary on the fete.

The prediction that we will see a 42,000,000 ton ore movement this season must be revised. We cannot send out 42,000,000 tons without the full and unimpeded operation of the Mesaba mines, and even if the strike difficulty is settled, as quickly as it is now hoped of will be the case, we will fall far short of that.

Mayor Jesmore, of Eveleth, couldn't see his way clear to appoint extra police to maintain order at the mines. However, Mayor Jesmore was the exception among the Mesaba range town officials. Most of them have done their utmost to secure the safety of property and the security of the men who wished to work.

It rests with the Mesaba range strikers whether they get the state troops. Governor Johnson does not believe that under the present conditions there is any necessity of turning them out. However, he leaves no doubt that he will do so if property is destroyed or murderous violence is resorted to. Let the strikers handle themselves discreetly, and there will be no invasion of the range towns by the soldiers.

A number of Duluth agitators are reported to have tried to get the Escanaba ore handlers out, but the latter could not see it that way. They are getting good wages and fair treatment. The Iron Mountain Press remarks that "It is to be hoped that the agitators will keep out of this district. Our miners are a sensible lot, however, and would give them little encouragement and no cash. We have no use for the red flag advocates down this way."

The decision of the Nesters not to rebuild the Baraga mill is a serious blow to the village, the people of which have been hoping that they would replace the plant recently destroyed by fire by one planned to cut their remaining timber. However, this timber will be cut by contract, and as manufacturers the Nesters will withdraw from the Baraga county field. Their mill at Baraga was the village's chief prop, and had a big payroll. Without it the village will suffer a decline in business and industrial activity that will be seriously felt by people having permanent interests there. It is only now, therefore, that the seriousness of the recent fire is fully realized.

The Marquette harbor record is being given some hard knocks by the big ore freighters that have been sent to this port because of the tie-up at head of the lakes docks. These big fellows ordinarily trade with Duluth and Two Harbors because the docks are larger and dispatch is better; and also because the Mesaba ore movement is by the largest share of the total lake movement. Thus they are, in the ordinary course of events, but occasional visitors to Marquette. But if the strike continues very long Marquette people will become thorously familiar with them, and mean-while they are taking out some tremendous cargoes of Marquette range ore. The J. Pierpont Morgan's record of 11,450 tons is the best performance, but has been closely approached by other carriers. It far outruns the record cargo previous to the past week. The new South Shore dock furnishes admirable facilities for handling these big boats.

Senator Moriarty is well content that legislators have been pronounced ineligible for the constitutional convention. Over his own signature he contributes the following: "The decision of the supreme court that legislators are ineligible as delegates to the constitutional convention is particularly fortunate, as it will eliminate from the convention factional fights that have been prominent in the last legislature. During the last session lines were so tightly drawn in favor of, or opposed to, the present administration, that it would certainly have its weight with such of the legislators as might be elected to the convention. Thus, it is well that the senators and representatives are barred from becoming delegates, by the recent decision of the supreme court, as that body will now be composed of individuals entirely free from prejudice or favor to the present administration, and the constitution, as revised by the convention will undoubtedly be ratified by the people, if they understand the revision is made for their benefit and not for the purpose of advancing the political ambition of factional party leaders."

The Escanaba Journal has an ally in its work to make Escanaba a cleaner and better town. In the case of a woman arrested and sent to jail for frequenting saloons, the Mirror asks, in no uncertain terms, what of the saloonkeepers who have been selling her liquor, frequently during hours when the law says the saloons should be closed. The Mirror holds that the saloon men, as well as the woman, should be prosecuted, and calls on the officers to do their full duty in future cases of the kind. The Journal has been hammering away on this line for the past several months, and the strength arising from unity on the part of the newspapers will help the good work along, so that the worst class of the saloonmen at Escanaba—the men who misrepresent the better class of men in the business—may presently be brought up with a round turn. Both the Mirror and the Journal are on the right track, and their attitude in regard to the question involved does them credit. What they have from time to time said in regard to conditions at Escanaba indicates that there is too large a measure of license in their community, and that the men who have been taking all the ground they could get without regard to public decency need to be curbed in a not uncertain manner.

BINDER TWINE LAW DEFECTIVE.

One more important measure passed by the last legislature must be added to the list of bills to be revised at the Tinker session to be held this fall. This one is the bill providing funds for the establishment of the binder twine plant at the Jackson prison. In the opinion of Attorney General Bird it contains defects which cause grave doubts as to its validity that he feels it is his duty to advise Auditor General Bradley to issue no warrants against the fund appropriated for the installation of the plant.

It seems strange that one of Governor Warner's pet measures should meet with such a fate. It would appear a natural that every effort would have been put forth by the administration and its friends to make sure that the bill was in proper form, yet somehow or other the defects escaped attention. In consequence there is one more job for the "tinkers," and it is by no means certain that there will not be others to be added to an already long list.

A LEGISLATOR'S FLIGHT.

The decision of Prosecutor Robison of Wayne to issue a warrant for Representative Ward, charging him with manslaughter in connection with the death of Edith Presley, a former proof reader for the state senate, was not entirely unexpected by those who have been following the developments at the coroner's inquest at Detroit.

Representative Ward's name was connected with the death of the Presley girl from the time it was known that she had passed away, after undergoing a criminal operation, in a Detroit hospital. It was recalled that they were very intimate, and it was not long before ugly charges that he was responsible for the girl's condition were in circulation. He left the house of representatives as soon as the stories became general, being taken sick and later being operated on for appendicitis. At no time up to the present date has he raised his voice in effective denial of the charge against him, and it is noticeable that no other name but his has been mentioned as designating a possibly guilty man.

The inquest at Detroit has laid a heavy inference of guilt on Ward. Dozens of letters, couched in the most endorsing terms, written by Ward to the Presley girl were read. The indirect evidence was all of a nature to fasten guilt on him. How the arrangements for the girl's fatal trip to Detroit were made was not brought out clearly, but the inference is that they could have been made by no other man than Ward.

The accused appeared before the coroner's jury this week, but on the advice of his attorney declined to answer questions, on the ground that they might incriminate him—a course that has strengthened the belief that he is the guilty man. He left Detroit to attend his father's funeral, for he has been dogged by misfortune the past several months, since he became involved in this unfortunate affair. Prosecutor Robison's decision to issue a warrant for his arrest is reached after observing that all the evidence adduced at the inquest, and all the probabilities in the case, point to Ward as the man who connived at the violation of the state laws by arranging the criminal operation. His office of legislator does not screen him, nor, under the circumstances, does the vote of the legislature of its confidence in him. A crime has been committed, and as the man whom suspicion points to strongly as the criminal, Mr. Ward must stand trial, if he does not avoid arrest. This is only justice. If he is not guilty he can prepare to prove it.

THE RISE IN MARKET VALUES.

Reports issued by the Pennsylvania railroad show that it is paying, as compared with last year, 31 per cent more for steel angles, 25 per cent more for bronze journal bearings, 20 per cent more for bronze bearings, 20 per cent more for copper, 21 per cent more for freight wheels and 20 per cent more for malleable iron castings. Various other materials are cited whose present cost is 7 to 10 per cent over that of a year ago. The fact is well known that prices of all kinds of commodities have gone up, but the percentages cited are of interest, and the repeated increases which have been made during the present period of prospectivity, and they made a sharp rise in the operating expenses of railroads. There is a similar story to be told of all other branches of business.

There are now, however, some indications that the rise has reached its highest point. This is especially true of the metals which lie at the foundation of many branches of industry. In fact some recession is necessary if we are not to kill the goose that is laying our golden eggs. Naturally the first commodity to feel an approaching recession are those which are classed as raw materials. Orders for finished materials are reported so far ahead of production that manufacturers are able to run for some time after orders begin to slacken, so that there are few surface signs of a diminishing demand. The manufacturers, however, seem to be protecting themselves against the future by exacting some concessions in the price of their raw material. The consumers of metal have been holding off for concessions and after something like a deadlock for a couple of months seem to have won. Copper, which seemed to be in the strongest possible condition, has been cut three cents a pound. In London the price of tin, which has been sustained by a speculative pool for some time, has also dropped. Some of the metal alloys used in steel making have declined, and pig iron is dull, indicating a difference of opinion between buyers and sellers.

There is in all this no promise of any serious break in market values, but there is some promise of at least a halt in the upward trend of prices and on the whole it is a good sign. We cannot go on forever raising values, and it is better to prolong our prosperity by maintaining a level price than to bring it to a stop by overstepping the limit.

G. B. BURHAMS TESTIFIES AFTER FOUR YEARS.

G. B. Burhams, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment and pain and relieved of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by The Stafford Drug Co.

"What shall we have for breakfast?"

"Why Cudahy's Peacock Ham and Eggs of course; they are always acceptable, especially at this season of the year."

Northern Normal Notes.

Next Friday, August the second, at noon will see the close of the summer school.

Miss Hattie, wife of Turner, Miss Lottie Turner, supervisor of drawing in the training school. They will remain until the close of the term.

Superintendent W. F. Lewis, of Port Huron, official inspector of the Normal schools, spent Thursday and Friday visiting the Northern Normal. He divided his time between the training school and the academic departments.

Wednesday morning, four of the sisters from St. Joseph's academy in this city visited the various departments of the Normal. They were accompanied by two visiting sisters from the large parochial school at St. Louis, Missouri.

This morning Mr. Parmenter, institute instructor for the summer in the Normal, will conduct a party to the state prison. They will leave the dormitory on the car which passes at five minutes after nine o'clock, and anyone is welcome to join the excursion.

H. B. Patrick, of the weather bureau, talked yesterday morning before the Mr. Estrick's class in geography on the subject of the weather, and the means by which predictions are made. He also explained very carefully the process by which the weather map is constructed.

We have felt ourselves particularly unfortunate the last week in the failure of the spring term to open as planned, which Col. French was to deliver. While on his way here, he received a telegram from his sister, who had been ill some time, was dying. This sister is the only relative that Col. French has left, so of course he was obliged to turn back and go to her.

E. W. Arnold of Battle Creek, the architect for the normal schools, has been here this week, and the plans for completing the third story of south hall have been accepted. It is expected that the work will be done during the vacation so that the rooms will be in readiness for the opening of the school in October. In the building there is a music room and another class room. This will probably be the permanent home for the music department. The finishing and equipment of this floor will be up to the standards of the building.

Monday morning Dr. Downing addressed the assembly on the subject of humor. He analyzed into its constituent parts, as for instance, the unexpected, ridiculous associations, etc., and illustrated each element by one or more appropriate stories. Wednesday Dr. Taylor discussed the modern ideas as to the ends to be reached in the education of the child. He mentioned three of the most important, namely: Sensitivity or ability to receive sense-impressions, through the development of the powers of observation; docility, or the ability to receive the benefits of instruction; and, third, the power of initiative. By the last he meant the power to use impressions, ideas, knowledge in an individual manner, and to direct them toward some end. On Friday morning, we had the pleasure of listening to a short speech by Superintendent W. F. Lewis. After this the exercise was a departure from the ordinary line of action. Miss Chase, who is supervisor of music in the training school, together with the pupils of the grades, gave a musical program, "The Boat Song," "Slumber Boat," and "The Big Red Drum." Next came the third and fourth grades, who sang the "Postilion" and a Lullaby. Lastly came the seventh and eighth grades, the fifth and sixth not being in session this morning. They rendered with great sweetness, "The Brood," "Lucia," and "Anchored." Altogether it was a most pleasing exercise. The pronunciation of the children from first grade to the eighth was so clear that every word could be understood. The announcement of the pupils to the enjoyment of their leaders was such that the attack was perfect. Moreover, every voice was balanced with the rest, no one, two or three dominating the others. It was as if one voice, instead of twenty voices, were singing. One of the delightful features of the service was that the children seemed to feel the joy of singing, which is one of the tests of the value of the art. This is so true of the music exercise from day to day that in the first grades the little ones begin to show a tendency to sing, which unusual circumstances furnish considerable amusement for visitors. Probably few people have a just conception of the training given by Miss Chase in this department of the school.

BINDER TWINE BILL PRONOUNCED FAULTY

ATTORNEY GENERAL BELIEVES IT INVALID AND HOLDS IT UNWISE TO PAY OUT ANY MONEY UNDER ITS TERMS.

No money for the state binder twine plant.

This is the decision of the auditor general, based upon an opinion furnished by Attorney General Bird. It means delay in the plans of Governor Warner, who exerted his influence in the last legislature to pass the bill appropriating $175,000 for establishing and equipping the plant.

Attention was called by the attorney general two weeks ago to the omission of the word "thousand" from the bill after it had been passed by the legislature and before it was signed by the governor. The omission makes a portion of the bill read several thousand dollars are appropriated out of $175, which, of course, is an impossible thing. The omission was clearly a clerical error, but the authorities seem to hold that bills must be signed exactly as they are passed, and there is a grave question as to whether the binding twine act would be sustained by the supreme court. On this account, Attorney General Bird says he thinks it discretion on the part of the auditor general to hold up the appropriation until the legislature shall correct the error or the supreme court shall hold that the law is valid.

"While I am inclined to the view that the law is constitutional," says the attorney general in his opinion "the omission being an unessential word, that does not change the substance or legal effect of the law, and the supreme court might disagree with me. If it shall be held that the bill passed was not the bill as it was signed by the governor, it would be unconstitutional. If the auditor general should pay out this $175,000 and it is afterward held that the law is invalid he would be called upon to restore the money to the treasury. Ordinary prudence and care would seem to suggest until the error is corrected."

Auditor General Bradley, in the face of this opinion, is not likely to draw his warrant for the funds, and the establishment of the plant which has already been commenced will be greatly delayed.

A beautiful summer home situated on the shore of Lake Superior near Middle Island Point. This camp is furnished throughout, ready for house keeping. Beside the regular furniture there is a piano, refrigerator, an improved oil stove, large fire place in main room; size of building 36 by 40.

It also has a boat and boat house, also a good barn. Now here is a chance for some one that has a little money to spend to get some real comfort. I am going to put this on the market for ten days. I have had so many applications for renting my cottage, which is something I have never done nor do not intend to. From all the applicants I have had, it seems to me there must be some one in this group that could afford a good comfortable place on the beach. Now this is an opportunity for some one that wants to loosen up a few dollars.

"I should think ill of any man who did not wish to leave his children a little better off materially than himself."—Theodore Roosevelt.

Study the lives of our successful men and in almost every case will be revealed the history of a poor boy whose father could only afford to give him an ordinary education. He starts out on his career knowing that no one will leave him a fortune—he must make his own way. He sees that MONEY IS POWER—WEALTH the factor of the age. MILITARY TOUR TO TRY HIM.

Sutender of Private Gillette to Chippewa County Sheriff Is Released.

Washington, July 26.—General Ainsworth, acting secretary of war, today received a telegram from General Carter, commanding the Department of the Lakes, relative to the accidental killing Monday at Fort Brady of Elizabeth Cadenhead by Private Gillette, who had shot at an escaping deserter. General Carter states that the civil authorities of Sault Ste. Marie had made application for the delivery of Gillette. But the man had already been arrested, and upon being assured that he would be dealt with under military law, the sheriff did not press the demand.

Upper Peninsula

Reported Railroad Sale Doubtful.

The Wisconsin & Michigan railway has entered into a contract of some kind with the St. Paul company regarding their northern terminals. It has been suggested that the St. Paul has bought the Wisconsin & Michigan. However, Superintendent Harrison of Peshigo, interviewed in regard to the report, said: "We have no information here in regard to the matter but I do not believe that the Wisconsin & Michigan has been sold to the St. Paul. It is more likely that the two roads have entered into an arrangement whereby the St. Paul gets in Norway and the Wisconsin & Michigan into Iron Mountain."

Will Head Agriculture School.

Professor J. F. Wojta, the present head of the Gustavus Adolphus Agricultural college at St. Peter, Minn., has been chosen superintendent of Menominee's agricultural school. Coming highly recommended by Professor Moore of the University of Wisconsin, where Mr. Wojta was graduated and taught at summer school, his name was placed before the board, which unanimously decided upon him as the man who it is believed will be able to successfully direct the destinies of the new undertaking.

Masonic Temple Planned.

The Masonic lodge of Menominee has decided to have a temple. The contract for the erection of the structure probably will be awarded Monday. The building will be on Main street between the Ridgely and Oakhill blocks. It will be of brick and stone, with an eighty-foot frontage. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $23,000. It is expected that work will be commenced at once, the building to be ready about the first of January.

No Evidence Against Them.

Five inmates of an alleged disorderly house conducted by Mamie Lawrence were arraigned at Escanaba before Judge O. V. Linden and were released on application of the city attorney because of the lack of evidence to convict. At the time of the raid the inmates and keeper were found in the place alone and no definite evidence could be produced showing the character of the resort. The testimony in the case brought against the keeper was heard by Court Commissioner G. R. Emson last week but the final disposition of the action has not yet been made.

Liquor Law Violation Charged.

Another of the periodical epidemics of law enforcement has seized the village of Lathrop, Delta county. Several times within the past few months members of the Law and Order league of the town have given temporary proof of their vigilance by causing the arrest of saloon keepers for keeping their places of business open on Sunday and holidays. The activity of the league has never been continued through a long period although a correction of many evils in the village are declared necessary. During the week John Norman, who conducts a saloon at Lathrop, was arraigned before Judge O. V. Linden at Escanaba, charged with keeping his place of business open on Sunday, July 7. The complaint was made by Mrs. Grace Colquhoun, who furnished necessary data to the prosecuting attorney to warrant the arrest of Norman. The preliminary hearing was waived by the defendant and he was bound over to the circuit court for trial. Osborn Invited to Talk.

Chase S. Osborn of the Soo has been invited to respond to the toast, "The Iron Industry," at a banquet tendered the American Institute of Mining Engineers by the city of Sudbury, Ont., July 29. The gathering of mining experts at the nickel town is the most important of its kind in mining circles of the year. The membership of the institute includes the best engineering talent in the mining world. This is the second time Mr. Osborn, who is a member of the profession, has been honored by the institute. Several years ago the institute met at the Soo at Mr. Osborn's invitation and at the meeting he was called upon for an address on the iron deposits of northern Europe, which he had just returned from visiting. While nothing definite is known it is entirely likely the institute will visit, while at Sudbury, the Mesozoic Mountain iron range discovered by Mr. Osborn and lying about twenty-three miles from town. The work of developing the latter property since McKean & Mann became interested has been pushed and it is understood that ore will soon be coming out of what is to date the largest deposit of iron ore yet discovered in the dominion.

In the Jaws of Death.

Two sailors, Robert Carlette and Thomas Jones, had a hair-raising experience the other evening in St. Mary's river at the Soo. They went over the rapids in a yawl boat. The men were enjoying a ride on the river when breakers were sighted suddenly ahead. The stern was quickly turned and in that manner the breakers were struck. The impact was frightful. The boat was half filled with water and one of the sailors thrown from his seat slightly stunned. He was himself again in a moment and then, both realizing their peril, began to yell for help. Their shouts of distress were plainly heard at the locks on the American side and men ran down to the water's edge in hope of giving help if possible. It was found that they were near the Canadian shore in the roughest portion of the Canadian rapids. Their shouting continued until all danger was passed and they floated out into smooth water below the rapids. They realized then what a narrow escape from death they had had. Going over the rapids safely as these men did, is a very rare occurrence. It has been done, however, by a few. About three years ago a man made the passage safely in a row boat and many years before that it is claimed another passed over on a bale of hay, Carlette's friend Chaboygan, Mich., and Thomas James from Duluth, Minn.

Menominee Convict Pardoned.

A full and complete pardon has been received for Charles Dasher of Menominee, who has been out of prison since Feb. 14, 1905, on a parole secured for him from the state board of pardons by A. B. Bell of Menominee. Dasher was sentenced to life imprisonment at the Jackson state prison in 1886. Two men by the name of Fay and Lemay were sentenced at the same time as they were said to have been members of the trio who committed the murder. The murder was committed in a saloon on Grand avenue in Menominee and took place while the men were taking part in a drunken row. Fay and Lemay have been out of prison for a long time and friends of Dasher worked hard to secure the parole necessary for his release pending the granting of the pardon. In order to secure the parole, A. B. Bell had to give a bond of $5,000 and also had to promise to look after the man, be responsible for his actions and to hand in a report every month. The state board acted upon the pardon and after granting it Dasher was released, arriving at his home in Menominee Feb. 15. While in prison Dasher's health became very poor and it was at first feared that he had contracted tuberculosis. He secured work as soon as he arrived in Menominee and has been working steadily since that time. While in Prison Dasher educated himself as best he could and since his return to Menominee he has made a large number of friends by his gentlemanly conduct. His parole was to have been allowed Jan. 1, 1908, but the good behavior was taken into consideration and it was granted six months earlier than expected.

OLD TIN CANS.

Variety of Uses to Which They are Put in Alaska.

While there is but one camp in Alaska's 600,000 square miles designated on the map "Tin City" because of its location in the tin-producing district—there is scarcely a settlement that has not more obvious claim to the name, so tangible a part does tin play in the warp and woof of the Northland, says a writer in Leslie's Weekly. But it is not of the tin that goes to waste on the surface of America's most motherly possession, nor the tin that mining experts tell us lies in untold quantities in the regions of York and Cape Prince of Wales. I would sing, but, rather, of the humblest, this most useful, prosaic of metals is wont to assume in the Arctic—the tin can! Far more tin in the form of receptacles for preserved foods, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils has been brought into Alaska than has yet been taken out of its mines. Wherever in Alaska the intrepid white man ventures the tin can keeps pace.

Mining News

LEADING COPPER STATES.

Michigan, Montana and Arizona Producing 85 Per Cent of Country's Output.

If the estimated decrease of 22,285,000 pounds in the copper production of this country for the first six months of the current year, as compared to the first six months of last year, should be duplicated the last half of the year, a shortage of 45,000,000 pounds would confront consumers of this metal, says the Boston News Bureau. Such a shrinkage should induce some figure in regulating the price of refined copper. The Lake Superior district has kept up its reputation for an increase the first half of this year in an increase of 5 1/2 per cent over the showing for the first half of last year, but the falling off in other sections rolls up the total given above.

STINGLESS BEES ARE DEAD.

No Prospect of Having Honey Bees Without Their Weapon of Defense.

One of the most fascinating experiments ever attempted in apiculture was begun last summer at the American Museum of Natural History, New York city, and has ended, as was expected, in failure through the death of the insects. The subject of the experiment were a colony of brown stingless bees—probably the first ever seen in this city, if not in these latitudes. They were brought from the interior of Venezuela by W. K. Morrison. In the insect gallery visitors could see them busily at work in a glass-covered box, in which they had built the queerest nest imaginable. Rising to a peak, it resembled nothing so much as an irregular, jagged mountain, of a very dark chocolate color. The box was placed at a sunny window, in the lower frame of which small apertures connecting with the box afforded egress and ingress to and from the outside world. The little foreigners when installed immediately set about making themselves familiar with the city and its parks and the surrounding country. Hardly by another window was a colony of our familiar American honey bees, stingers these. The visitors were brought to the United States with the idea that they might be crossed with the honey bees and a new stingless species thus produced combining the advantages thus produced combining this advantage with the superior qualities of the native insect. The species were so remotely related and the habits of the stingless variety so highly specialized, however, that the scientists at the museum considered hybridization to be an impossibility. The honey of the stingless bee, although much appreciated in Cuba and South America, where it is supposed to possess valuable medicinal properties and is an article of food, is very inferior both in quality and quantity to that of the honey bee. As pollen gatherers, however, they are vastly superior to the latter, being able to carry much heavier loads and to work longer and in weather when the heavy honey bee would not venture out. In this capacity they would have been important allies of the agriculturists in the cross-pollination of flowers and in increasing the fruit supply. Through the long warm days of summer and while the woods took on their autumn tints the stingless bees, which when they arrived numbered about three hundred, thrived and multiplied amazingly, but the chill, drying winds of the late fall brought disaster to the busy inhabitants of the hive. They did not seem to mind the cold so much. Indeed, their resistance to it was a matter of astonishment to the experts. What they could not bear up under was the dryness which comes with the approach of winter. The live box was taken from the window into the warmth of the steam-heated museum and honey in abundance was given to the workers, who at once began storing it in their pots. But in the air, if comfortable from the point of view of temperature, possessed, like that outside the fatal quality of being too dry, and though fighting bravely against this unseasonable and impossible condition the bees one by one died off, until now none remains.—Discovery.

PIONEER SETTLER HAS PASSED AWAY

MICHAEL COLLINS, ONE OF OLIVER IRON MINING COMPANY'S OLD EMPLOYEES, SUCCEDED AFTER THREE MONTHS' ILLNESS.

After an illness of three months' duration, Michael Collins passed away at the Ishpeeming hospital yesterday morning at 3:45 o'clock. The end was not unexpected, as Mr. Collins had been in a weak and exhausted condition for some weeks. All the members of the family except his son Henry, who is in Great Falls, Mont., were with him when the end came.

The deceased was born at Palmer Hill, New York, in 1851. He came to this country with his parents in 1865, when he was fourteen years of age. The family settled at Marquette, near Chicago. Mr. Collins did his first work in this country at the Baldwin kilns, which were then operated by the old Chiles Iron company. After spending the winter there he went to the copper country, where he entered the employ of the Painesville Mining company, working under H. H. Milden of this city. He was given charge of the company's horses, which entailed considerable responsibility, for in those days horses were almost the only means of transportation in this region.

In 1870 Mr. Collins entered the employ of the Lake Superior Iron company in this city. Captain Gilbert D. Johnston was in charge of the company's properties at that time. Mr. Collins was assistant to Dr. David Hall, who looked after the company's horses until 1875, when Mr. Collins was made barn boss, a position he filled up to the time of his death.

There are only four men on the payroll of the Oliver Iron Mining company who antedated Mr. Collins in length of service, these being John McInerney, Michael Hickey, Thomas Wall, and Peter Redmond. Only three of these are in active service at the company's properties in this city today. Mr. Collins was the best informed man in the city on horses. Not only was he an expert horseman, but he was also a veterinary of thirty-six years experience, and no one knew his ability in this field as well as his men and immediate associates, William Urquhart and Michael Gleason, who had been associated with him for the past thirty-six years.

Mr. Collins was esteemed by the many men who worked with him during all the years he was at the Lake Superior. He grew old in the service of the company and gave his best days to its interests.

Mr. Collins was a member of the Ishpeeming lodge of Elks and the members will attend the funeral in a body. He is survived by his widow, a sister, Mrs. Margaret McCormick, of South Pine street, a brother, James, residing in Waterloo, Iowa, and seven children—Mrs. Thomas Hughes, Mrs. George Wank, John, Henry, Nellie, Michael J., and Edward Collins. All are now in the city except James Collins, of Waterloo, Iowa, and Henry, who is expected home from Great Falls, Mont., Tuesday morning. The funeral arrangements are not yet completed, but the funeral will probably be held Tuesday morning from St. John's church.

GOOD CROWD TO CALUMET.
Nearly 200 Ishpeeming Finns Will Attend Reunion.

The special train which the Finnish societies of the county expected to secure for the excursion to Calumet, on account of the annual reunion of the National Finnish Brothers Temperance association today, did not materialize, but the South Shore offers the same rate of fare on the regular trains as would have been given on the special. In all it is said 200 Ishpeeming Finns will attend the reunion. Delegations have also gone daily from Negaunee. The tickets will be good for return Monday, but most of the Ishpeeming and Negaunee people will be back tomorrow night.

At the convention at Calumet, Thursday it was decided to consolidate the four national Finnish organizations into one body. Jacob Kaminen, secretary of the national organization, and Mike Sytkka, president, both of this city, are members of the committee chosen to effect the consolidation. The combined membership will be in the neighborhood of 10,000.

Hotel Williams, Grand Island, Munising, Michigan, has increased its capacity by adding three two-room cottages with fire places. A large number of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois people have already booked reservations. (7-8-21)

WOMAN RESIDING ON FIFTH STREET HAD NARROW ESCAPE YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Emma Wallenstine, a widow living on Fifth street, walked in front of a moving ore train on the Chicago & Northwestern line as it was passing over the Second street crossing yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock. The first car knocked her some feet to the side of the track. As she approached the track bystanders, who were waiting for the train to pass, called at her to stop, but she apparently did not hear them. At any rate she paid no attention to the warning.

Mrs. Wallenstine was taken to her home and a physician called. It was found that her injuries are not serious, and it is expected that she will be around again within a few days. One of the Chicago & Northwestern company's claim agents, called from Escanaba, arrived here on the evening train, and he and James H. Malloy, the company's agent, accompanied by her physician, called at her home to ascertain the extent of her injuries. The gates were down at the time of the accident.

PROMINENT G. A. R. VETERANS IN NEGAUNEE

NINTH ANNUAL MEETING OF PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDERS' ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN IS HELD HERE—A FINE TIME IS HAD.

Edward C. Anthony had the honor Thursday evening and yesterday of entertaining nine prominent veterans of the Civil war from lower peninsula cities. All are past commanders of the Michigan branch of the Grand Army, and belong to the Post Department Commanders' Association of Michigan, organized nine years ago, and which has now sixteen members. Mr. Anthony is the only upper peninsula member.

Several of the visiting veterans were accompanied by their wives. The party was composed of Colonel O. A. James of Detroit; Henry S. Dean, for twelve years, until recently, regent of the Michigan University, Ann Arbor; General B. R. Pierce of Grand Rapids; Dr. James B. Griswold and Louis Michael Brown of Grand Rapids; Judge Kanitz of Muskegon; ex-State Senator E. C. Cannon and wife; Ewart; John Northwood, wife and granddaughter, Miss Alice M. Bullock, New Northport, and C. V. R. Pond and wife of Lansing. Mr. Pond and one or two others in the party are old newspaper men. Mr. Pierce is the only living brigadier general in Michigan, and was made a full brigadier while in the service. He is seventy-seven years of age, was the oldest veteran in the party, and is enjoying excellent health.

Anthony Elected President.
At the business meeting of the association Thursday evening Mr. Anthony was unanimously chosen president for the ensuing year. John Northwood was elected vice president and C. V. R. Pond secretary and treasurer. Following the election the veterans discussed plans for the advancement of the Michigan Grand Army.

The membership of the Michigan branch of the Grand Army now numbers about 12,000. Mr. Pond said yesterday. There are over 25,000 men who fought in the Civil war in the state, but only a little over half of that number hold membership in the Michigan G. A. R. Mr. Pond said that fifteen of the sixteen past commanders of the department planned to attend the Negaunee meeting, but several had found at the last moment that it would be impossible for them to be here. Among those who had arranged to come here were Henry Duffield of Detroit and General Kidd of Iowa. The latter is a member of the committee appointed, following the railway wreck last week, to complete arrangements for the funerals. Mr. Kidd is the present adjutant general of the Michigan Grand Army. Colonel James the retiring president of the past department Commanders' association, is the Michigan pension agent, with headquarters in Detroit.

Banquet at the Breitung.

The business session here, terminating after 9 o'clock, was followed by a banquet at the Breitung house. From what the veterans had to say of the banquet Lamdrolf Seass apparently did himself proud. The menu was as follows:
Cocktails, Soup, Consomme.
Wafers, Sherry Wine
Planked Whitefish
Potato chips, White bread
Sliced Cucumbers
Fried Spring Chicken
Chopped Cabbage with dressing
Currant Jelly
Cream Potato Balls
Hot Rolls, Champagne
Roast Beef, brown potatoes
Creamed Cauliflower
Buttered Beets, Roman Punch
Tomato Salad, Wafers
Olives, Salted Almonds, Pickles
Cheese, Fruit
Assorted Cakes, Coffee
The veterans later responded to toasts, and some excellent talks were given. War stories, with the personal experience of the men who told them, were related, and old war songs were sung. The banquet did not terminate until the small hours of the morning.
Mr. Pond said: "I have heard a great many nice things said as to the manner in which we have been entertained in the past, but I want to say that in all my years of membership in the Grand Army we have never been entertained as handsomely, as in Negaunee by Mr. Anthony."

The members of the party were shown Ishpeming and Negaunee in automobiles. Some of the principal mines were visited, and some of the veterans expressed regret that they could not stay long enough to go underground. At the banquet Thursday evening a flash light picture of the gathering was taken in the dining room by T. J. Bennett of Childs' Art gallery, Ishpeming, and yesterday morning a group picture of the ten members of the association present was taken on the porch at Mr. Anthony's home.
Last year the veterans met at Grand Rapids, where they were royally entertained by Dr. Griswold, Judge Brown, and other prominent Grand Army men, and the previous year they were entertained at the home of the late General R. A. Alger in Detroit.

LONG TRIP IN AUTO.

Former Negaunee Man Journeys from Philadelphia to Escanaba.
Howard Houston and family of Chester, Pa., arrived in Negaunee yesterday, and will remain some days visiting relatives. They made the trip from Philadelphia to Escanaba in their automobile, taking nine days to cover the 1,300 miles. Mr. Houston drove the machine himself. He did not attempt to make record time anywhere on the trip and they traveled only during the day. In bad weather they rested and at night they usually found quarters in some town. They spent a day or more in Chicago and several hours were spent in some of the other large cities they passed through.

When the party reached Escanaba they concluded that they would not attempt to make the run to Negaunee with the machine, and it was sent up by freight. Mr. Houston is familiar with the country between here and Escanaba, as he has been over it many times. There are three or four miles of very bad road, and he realized that he would have a difficult time getting over it in the machine. He said yesterday that if the road was repaired it would be no trouble to run from here to Milwaukee or Chicago, as the road below Escanaba is in very fair condition.

There is no reason to believe at this time that the road between here and Escanaba will be generally overhauled for some years, as the matter has not yet been given serious consideration by the officials of the counties through which it passes, nor are the township people inclined to do the work. Good road work is now being done out of Iron Mountain, in the direction of Republic, and it is expected that within a few years there will be a thoroughfare connecting the Menominee range towns with the towns of this county which will be in excellent condition. The worst piece of road west of here at this time is between Humboldt and Republic. It is expected that within a few years it will be repaired in next season. The present road between Republic and Iron Mountain is passable for teams, but not for automobiles. It is said that the road south from Iron Mountain is in very fair condition, and that the outlet from there to Escanaba is much better than that road between Negaunee and that city.

FROM HOPKINS' CURB LETTER.

"A further reduction of a pound in metal this morning started coppers off with a rather weak undertone. It is stated that yesterday was one of the dulllest days on the Boston stock exchange that has been witnessed in the past two years. Sentiment seems to be pretty evenly divided just at present, but buyers are more inclined to hold off until the monetary situation has cleared up somewhat. We are informed by our copper country correspondents that Keweenaw is opening up some of the richest rock ever taken out of the ground in the Lake Superior district, and that prospects are that the stock will have a big advance during this coming fall. Superior & Pittsburg and Green-Canaan were firm today with very little change in prices from yesterday's figures."

FIVE TEAMS ENTERED.

Firemen's Contests Promise to Be Better Than Those of a Year Ago.
Secretary T. J. Flynn, of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association, said yesterday that five running teams have already entered for the tournament at Ontonagon, August 20 to 23, inclusive. Mr. Flynn feels certain the contest will be far more entertaining than those of the last tournament, when there were only four teams competing. Reports from Ontonagon are to the effect that the hotels and private homes will be able to give all good accommodations, and he does not anticipate that there will be any one disappointed on that score.

There will be a big turnout from all of the copper country towns and Marquette and Gogebic counties will be well represented. The departments from Munising and Gladstone will also attend.

CHARGES WOMAN HE WED WITH BIGAMY

AUGUSTUS PARKER DESCRIBES STARTLING DISCOVERY HE SAYS HE MADE RECENTLY.

LIVED TOGETHER NINE YEARS

Marquette Man Wants Wedding Contracted Nine Years Ago Annulled and Also Asks Property Settlement.

In a suit for the annulment of his marriage, filed yesterday in the circuit court, Augustus C. Parker charges the woman he married, and with whom he has lived in Marquette for nearly nine years, has another husband living. He asks that his marriage to her be annulled and that a settlement of their common property be arranged.

Lived Together Long Time. In his petition Parker, who is a carpenter and who until recently lived on Park street, says that on May 12, 1898, his wedding to Hattie Turner, who, he says, is also known as Hattie Walker, took place in Marquette. He lived with her, he says, until last June, and he states that his separation from her was brought about by startling information which was given to him by Peter Chanteny.

The date upon which this information was given he fixes as the day after last Decemation day, May 30 last. He says that upon that day he was informed and that later he verified the information that the woman, whom he regarded as his wife, was married to John Hogan, who is now, according to the petition in the suit, sixty-two years old.

Names Witnesses. According to his verification of Chanteny's information, he charges that Hogan and the woman, who he says was then known as Hattie Walker, were married May 12, 1898, by Justice of the Peace Thomas Mead, and he says further that the ceremony at which Hogan was the groom was witnessed by Henry Siegel and Christina Siegel. The record of this marriage, he says, gives the woman's age as thirty-seven, which, he asserts, would make her fifty-one years old now.

Parker asserts that all through the course of his supposed married life he demeaned himself as a good husband should. He relates that when he received the information from Chanteny he questioned the woman he thought his wife about her alleged other wedding, and he says she asked him "What is that to you?" giving him no other explanation than he relates.

Asks Accounting. He says that during the period they lived together she obtained possession of a sum of money none of which has been returned to him since the separation. Also he asserts that he built a house on Park street, upon property owned by her and that she now has possession of this house. He asks for an accounting of both the money and the property.

The suit was filed by Attorney J. L. Heffernan, who represents Parker.

HELD UP BY WINDS. Party of Ships' Officers "Marooned" on Little Presque Isle.

A party of ships' officers attached to the boats lying at Presque Isle, waiting to be loaded, returned to their boats about 6 o'clock yesterday morning after a night's enforced absence. The members of the party hired a gasoline launch Thursday for a run on a short distance up the lake. Some of the more cautious members of the fleet, observing the low barometer, declined the invitation to join in the outing, but the more courageous spirits set out for a several hours' run. The wind that blew up late yesterday afternoon kicked up such a lively sea that they deemed discretion the better part of valor, and lay in behind Little Presque Isle, waiting for it to go down. It didn't go down very soon, however, and the result was the party's camp fire burned on Little Presque Isle the greater part of Thursday night. The members of the party were freely joked yesterday by their friends and shipmates on account of their unusual experience.

COUNCIL TO CHANGE DATE OF ELECTION

RECORDER IS TO BE VOTED FOR UPON SEPT. 17 WHEN CONSTITUTIONAL DELEGATES WILL BE ELECTED.

From a canvass of the members of the common council, it has been ascertained that it is the present intention of the body to change the date of the special election for the vacancy in the recorder's office from August 13, the date fixed at the last meeting by a resolution, to September 17 next.

To Save Expense. The reason the change of date is to be made is on account of the election of delegates to the constitutional convention at Lansing, to be held September 17. By making the change the city saved the expense of two elections, and while the vote is being cast for the three delegates from this district to the constitutional convention, the election of a recorder will also take place. Nomination of Republican delegates to the constitutional convention will be made at a convention at Ishpeming, August 13.

The choosing of nominees for the office of recorder is not affected by the primary law. The feature of the law which permits direct nomination applies only in those districts in which some party adopted the direct nomination system at the election in 1906.

The Candidates. The candidates for the vacancy in the office who have announced their candidacy are H. L. Siegel, who was appointed by the council to fill the vacancy in the recorder's office until a new recorder is elected, and Shields McCarthy, who has been in charge of the controller's office during the recent illness of Frank Bay. Others whose names have been mentioned as probable candidates are Ed J. McCarthy, who was Donovan's opponent when the latter was elected; J. Gillett, M. Spencer and D. S. Donovan, who resigned from the office several weeks ago.

Sealed proposals will be received up to and including August 15th, 1907, for the delivery of 300 cords (128-feet) of hard wood, in blocks 16-inches in length, either green or dry, same to be delivered on board cars at Marquette, and in such quantities per month as may be agreed upon. Proposals for slab wood will be entertained, provided they are hard wood slabs. Right reserved to reject any and all proposals; envelopes containing proposals should be so marked.

NEW FIRE TUG TO GIVE EXHIBITION

MARQUETTE PORT NOW HAS PROTECTION FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ITS HISTORY.

Pump Which Supplies Three Streams Was Especially Installed For Service Here by the Charles Halladay.

For the first time in its history the port of Marquette has protection against fire, and at 8 o'clock this morning the recently arrived fire tug, Charles Halladay, which will be stationed at the port, will give an exhibition of its fire fighting qualities at the James Pickands & Co.'s docks.

The Crew. The tug, which is owned by the Great Lakes Towing company, was brought here by the Pickands company and will be under the direction of W. B. Castle, general manager of the company. It is commanded by Captain Albert Bourassa, who, like the members of the crew, formerly lived in Marquette. Last season Captain Bourassa was in charge of the tug J. W. Ward, owned by Powell & Mitchell, and lived in the city, where he has many friends.

Harvey Ripley, chief engineer of the Halladay, also lived here last year. His wedding to Miss Marie Bahrendt, of Marquette, took place about the close of the shipping season. Joseph Ouellette, cook on the tug, is a brother-in-law of Captain Cleary of the life-saving station, and James Shea, the fireman, also lived in Marquette.

Especially Fitted. The tug was especially fitted up for fire service before she left Chicago. The pump, which is installed in the hull, is capable of sending three streams from as many nozzles. The most important of the three streams is from a stationary stand pipe which can be revolved so as to send the water in any direction. At a preliminary test yesterday, this stand pipe sent its stream of water, 1 1/2 inches in diameter, entirely over the Pickands' docks, which are a little more than seventy feet in height, the highest in the harbor. The other two streams, each of which are 1 1/2 inch in diameter, are from movable hoses. All three can be operated at the same time.

Dimensions. The tug, which has seen about ten years' service in and about Chicago, is seventy feet in length by eighteen in beam. She arrived in Marquette Thursday night. Captain S. E. Leonard, assistant general manager of the Great Lakes Towing company, accompanied her from Chicago and will remain here until she is established in service. The chief use of the tug will be for harbor towing purposes, and due to her presence here, it is believed that more sailing vessels will be seen in port than formerly. Marquette has always had a harbor tug, and the reason one has not been brought here earlier this season is that the Buffalo, which was ordered here early in the spring, sank in Portage lake while forcing a passage through the ice and has never been raised.

HAVE YOU PILES? Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid is an internal remedy that entirely removes the cause of Piles, and cures Lo stay cured any case, no matter how long standing. If you have Piles and Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid will not cure you, you get your money back. A thousand dollar guarantee goes with every bottle of Hem-Roid sold. ACQUAINTANCES MEET AT THE COUNTY JAIL

ONE WAS ON THE OUTSIDE LOOKING IN AND THE OTHER WAS ON THE INSIDE LOOKING OUT.

After a separation of twelve years two old acquaintances met and greeted each other yesterday afternoon at the county jail. One was on the outside looking in, and the other was on the inside looking out. One was pleased, and the other was apprehensive.

It was Sheriff Rongu who was looking in, and Matt Siellampa, recently bound over to the circuit court on a charge of grand larceny, was the one behind the bars. The sheriff did the recognizing, but Siellampa, though reluctant, admitted his acquaintance with the officer.

Sheriff Rongu made Siellampa's acquaintance in a professional capacity. It was while he was chief of police at Ne-gaunee twelve years ago, and the occasion of the meeting was the arrest of Siellampa for stealing money. The prisoner yesterday admitted that he was the man the sheriff had arrested, and he also said he had served four years in the prison at Jackson as a result of the arrest twelve years ago.

Siellampa was jailed several days ago by Patrolman Dennis Hogan and was convicted of having stolen $30 and a gold watch and chain from Alfred Davis. The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Byrne.
